Sir Sam Hughes Replies to Criticism of His Personal Attitude.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, Jan. 24.—The report from Toronto that General Lessard had been given permission to visit the battle front at his own expense was confirmed by minister of militia, said tonight.

When asked regarding the criticism made that General Lessard had not been allowed to go to the front in a military capacity, also he was anxious to do so.

Sir Sam added that General Lessard had been working very hard, and he required a complete rest and change. That was why the three months' holiday had been granted.

ASQUITH'S BILL READILY GIVEN THIRD READING

Conscription Measure Then Passed Initial Reading in Upper Chamber.

NO PENALTY OF DEATH

Only Thirty-Six Dissident Votes in House of Commons.

LONDON, Jan. 24, 11.33 p.m.—The military service bill passed the third reading in the house of commons tonight by a vote of 383 to 38.

The bill was immediately sent to the house of lords and given its first reading. The second reading will be taken in the house of lords on Wednesday and parliament will probably be prorogued Friday.

The fact that the minority against the bill was virtually only a third of that on its first reading is considered a great triumph for Premier Asquith, and for Andrew Bonar Law, who directed its course...

Mr. Bonar Law, in his speech winding up the debate, remarked on the wonderful change since the first reading of the bill, which he said, was a compromise between those who thought that it went not far enough and those who believed it went too far.

No Capital Punishment. The bill passed thru the report stage in the house of commons tonight without serious modification.

The government accepted an amendment that capital punishment should not be inflicted for refusal to obey a call to the colors.

The principal discussion turned on safeguards against employing the measure for industrial compulsion, many of the members expressing suspicion regarding the attitude of David Lloyd George, minister of munitions, in this connection.

Andrew Bonar Law, on behalf of the government, gave further assurance on this point, which he declared, were binding on the whole government.

Simon Has Doubts. Sir John Simon, the former home secretary, asserted that although the government had done much to meet the objections to the bill, it had failed to allay the fears of those who believed the bill was a mere pretense to industrial compulsion...

BIG CAMPAIGN STARTS TO RAISE BIGGER FUND

Two Million Dollars is Needed From Toronto and York County This Week.

MASSEY HALL MEETING

Speakers Dwell Upon Necessity of Increased Givings to Meet Expenses.

"We are now asked to raise two million dollars instead of one," he said. "Toronto and the Province of Ontario gave as much for the British Red Cross, during the recent whirlwind campaign, as all the other Dominion provinces and the overseas dominions put together; the overseas dominions put together; now I am sure that Toronto can do four times more than that for their own boys' dependents."

"When our boys were leaving for Valcartier, 15 months ago, you made a promise that their dependents should be looked after and now that promise is to be tested, and I am sure you will keep it."

"If anyone was in doubt as to the proper distribution of the funds placed in the hands of the Toronto York and the Province of Ontario since the war broke out, they were fully divested of that doubt this afternoon when thousands of dependents thronged the city hall at this afternoon when a reception was held for them there."

"Toronto has been most liberal in giving to every fund since the war started and has set the pace for every city in the Dominion."

"How many in Toronto have really felt the strain of giving? I venture to say that the percentage is very small indeed. I am very confident that this $2,000,000 will be raised during the next three days, judging from the way the British Red Cross amount was subscribed."

"I think this movement and the result is the greatest recruiting incentive that the city could have."

Freedom and Liberty.

Mr. George Foster, in a lengthy speech, outlined the movement of the war from the beginning, and the duty of those left at home in respect to giving. He said, "Our peril rests in the very freedom we enjoy. We are so free that we can boost or knock, fight or shrink, give or withhold. No law compels us to any of these things. Are we worthy of this generous freedom? Now that we have that choice, let us show ourselves and boost, not knock, fight not shrink, give and not withhold. Let us rise equal to that freedom and liberty which we now enjoy."

"It is not necessary to keep on doing what we have done, but we must do more, more, more."

"Five hundred thousand more men are needed, and more money is needed, and I say that the war book plays a great part in this war."

"At the present time Belgium appears as a people without a country, and their country is under the grasp of the Hun. The Serbians are nothing but a people of wanderers, and the Poles now are the poorest in the category of all people who have suffered from the ravages of war."

"Do you think that it was in the act of bravado that the cabinet met and decided to call for 500,000 men? Far from it. It was serious business, and it meant that one-sixteenth of the population of Canada will be under arms."

"To get these men it will need the hearty co-operation of the newspapers, the ministers, colleges and schools, and every woman and man in the Dominion."

"Common sense discrimination is needed in getting these men. The industries must not be destroyed. There are men in civic positions who can be spared, but there are many others who cannot."

Without Missing It.

"The people in Toronto are just beginning to see how much they can give without missing it," said Hon. W. J. Hanna. "I am sure that there was not a cent out of the last generous sum raised for this fund that was a sacrifice, and I care not where it came from. In most cases the money raised was only a small portion of the personal banking account, and when this $2,000,000 is raised the monthly bank balance will not be touched."

Gen. Logie said that some could easily give up next summer's trip to some sunny place, and give the expense amount to the Toronto and York patriotic fund, and he would say, let him substitute this fund for a trip to Germany. Make the trip in khaki yourself if you can, or secure some other man that his dependents will be taken care of at the front."

IT'S YOUR DUTY

MISDIRECTED ENERGY

Eight Million Dollars Must be Collected to Carry on Relief Work—Yet 35,000 Canvassers Working on Prohibition Petition

At this particular moment a sum of $8,000,000 must be collected to carry on patriotic relief work, of which sum the Toronto and York County Patriotic Fund Association is to raise at once $2,000,000. With the object of this movement no one can possibly disagree; and the good that has already been accomplished thereby cannot be exaggerated.

And yet, at this of all times, the Citizens' Committee of One Hundred has inaugurated its campaign, has declared that there is "a new war on against King Alcohol," and announces "a big drive of nearly 35,000 men." This "drive," which will last a week, is but the opening of the campaign: it is to be followed by electioneering and haranguing and dislocation of business, and everything else that characterizes an election.

We put it, then, to the patriotic, justice-loving people of Ontario, whether the Citizens' Committee of One Hundred would not be much better employed with their "army" of 35,000 in helping on the common cause, fighting the common foe—and canvassing for the Patriotic Fund.

No Disunion No Divided Counsels

Remember that Canada, as part of the British Empire, is engaged in a war compared with which all previous wars in history have been as nothing: a war not only for its very national life, but for civilization and liberty the world over. To win this every available man, dollar, and ounce of energy are necessary. There must be no disunion, no divided counsels. Everything must be directed to the one object of Victory.

100,000 Soldier Voters Away

But there may be a "method in their madness." Have you considered this? One hundred thousand Ontario voters have enlisted, of whom thousands are on the fighting line or sleeping their last sleep beneath alien skies. Of these, it is well known, the vast majority voted against what they honestly believed to be compulsion and tyranny.

THE PERSONAL LIBERTY LEAGUE OF ONTARIO.

Prohibition Issue-- Decided June, 1914

And, remember, only a year-and-a-half ago this whole question was thoroughly threshed out, and the electors of Ontario gave no uncertain answer. It is incorrect to say that this was not the issue: it was, clearly and definitely, and the majority against those whose slogan was "Abolish the Bar" was 55,000.

And yet, in the face of this, and of the tacit agreement that there shall be no election or party strife during the war, the Citizens' Committee has launched its campaign.

Baby Afflicted With Eczema Dr. Chase's Ointment Cured

The Family Doctor Tried in Vain to Heal the Sores—Another Tribute to This Great Healing Ointment.

It may be interesting to note that Dr. Chase's Ointment was originally compounded to cure a case of eczema on a child. The disease had spread almost over the entire body and defied all the regular treatments for such troubles. The doctor was perplexed, but finally hit on the formula of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and, as many say, "it worked like a charm," healing up the nasty sores and leaving the skin soft and smooth.

That was a good many years ago, and since then many thousands of cases of eczema, both in children and adults, have been cured, until today Dr. Chase's Ointment is recognized as the standard cure for itching skin diseases. Mrs. Geo. McNair, River Charles, N. B., writes as follows: "We use Dr. Chase's Ointment in our home, and would not wish for anything better for cuts, burns and bruises. A few years ago a friend of mine, whose condition for our beloved Canada needs them for future prosperity."

Ovation For Logie.

General Logie received a tremendous ovation but the applause was twice as loud when he declared:

"If I go to the front I will not send the men under me where I would not go myself. Neither will I send them to do anything that I would not do myself." He asked anybody who experienced trouble in getting their separation allowances or assign pay to write to him and their requests would receive his personal attention.

"There is no trouble too great for me to put myself on behalf of the dependents of those under my command," he said. In paying tribute to the work of the fund officials, he said that only one complaint had reached him concerning the administration of the fund and that was unfounded.

Mayor Church was optimistic regarding recruiting. He did not anticipate much trouble in securing the increased number of troops being raised. Referring to the $250,000 contributed yesterday afternoon by the city council, he said that if it was not enough he could do the "come back stunt." He maintained that nothing done could be too much for the soldiers and their dependents.

In conclusion, he spoke of the great and important work being done by the women.

How Could They Be?

"No! certainly we are not down-hearted," remarked Archbishop McNeeld. "As long as we are united around the world from one Dominion to another, how could we be downhearted? He maintained that there was no reason why people should not be serious, however."

He then referred to the speech made by Earl Kitchener at the commencement of the war, in which he stated that it would last three years, and that the Empire was fighting for its existence.

"The call for 500,000 men from Canada is a repetition of these words in another form," he declared.

The Archbishop deplored the fact that a great many people were willing to let the government look after the dependents by levying taxes. He pointed out that by voluntary contributions the people were awakened more fully to a realization of their duty. The paying of taxes he averred was taken as a matter of course usually.

No Stringency Now.

An enthusiastic response to the appeal of the Patriotic Fund Association was propounded by N. W. Rowell, K.C.

"The last time we were called upon a magnificent sum was realized," he said. "And that was at a time of financial stringency. There is no financial stringency now, and the two million called for should be rapidly forthcoming."

Another reason given by the leader of the opposition in the provincial house was that last year's campaign was conducted without many of the women who will assist this time.

"The money is more needed now than at that time," he declared in commenting on the fact that comparatively a small number of soldiers had been called on them. He pointed out that the majority of those who have enlisted were working men, men who had given up everything to fight. In conclusion he urged those who stay at home to donate lavishly for the comfort of the dependents left behind.

Musical numbers were given between the speeches by Duncan Cowan, Albert Downing and Arthur Blight. Charles Musgrave acted as accompanist. Before the commencement of the meeting a number of selections were given by the 48th Highlanders' Band under Lieut. J. Statter.

JUDGE WAS OF OPINION DOCUMENTS FORGERIES

Mr. Justice Clute Dismissed Action of Arthur Laurin Against Montreal Dealer.

AT OSGOODE YESTERDAY

Scandalous That Parents Should Fight Over Custody of Child, Declared Chief Justice.

At Osgoode Hall yesterday, Mr. Justice Clute, dismissed the action brought by Arthur Laurin, a local decorator, against Louis Geoffrion St. Jean, a wealthy furniture dealer of Montreal. Laurin sued for $15,000 on an alleged agreement with the defendant for that amount of money. Mr. Justice Clute was of the opinion that the agreement and a receipt were forgeries, as part of a scheme to defraud the defendant.

In his judgment Justice Clute says: "It seems to me, to be improbable that St. Jean would sign the document in question unless he were quite beside himself with fear, and there was nothing, so far as I can see to create such a condition of mind. I think it is so improbable as to be incredible."

Laurin claimed that he bought some furniture from St. Jean in 1911, giving a promissory note in part payment.

Defendant sued on this note to recover $484.93. Laurin alleged that he had paid $300, which had been accepted in full, and that he received a receipt which he subsequently lost. At the trial the action went against him, and he appealed. While the appeal was pending he alleged he found the receipt.

Laurin also stated that he went to Montreal with the receipt and producing it to St. Jean, threatened him with a $25,000 action for damages for defamation of character. He further stated that he and St. Jean went to Bonaventure Station, where they discussed the matter, after which he claimed the wealthy man offered him $500 to $15,000 to buy him off.

Denied by Defendant.

Laurin says that an agreement was drafted, and that after it had been typed it was signed at the station. It set forth that the defendant acknowledged his mistake in initiating action against Laurin on the promissory note, and that he had given informers orders to follow Laurin unjustly and without cause. The document also declared that St. Jean had prejudiced and damaged the character of the plaintiff to the extent of $25,000, and purported to give the right to Laurin to seize all his goods.

The defendant denied that he had ever seen the plaintiff at the station, or that he had signed the receipt or document on which the plaintiff sued.

When G. E. Watson, K.C., moved before the appellate court yesterday for leave to appeal to the supreme court from the decision of the appellate division court, which sustained the decision of Mr. Justice Lennox at the trial giving J. F. Scarth, banker, formerly of Toronto, custody of his ten-year-old daughter, Chief Justice Sir William Meredith said: "It should not go to the supreme court, it is scandalous that these two people should be fighting about the custody of the child."

TURK TROOPS OCCUPY KENGAVAR IN PERSIA

Belated Report Probably Refers to Events Prior to Defeat by Russians.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 24.—Turk troops and Persian irregulars occupied the Persian Town of Kengavar, 53 miles southwest of Hamadan, on Jan. 16, the war office announced today. Chakpaskan is also reported to have been taken. The Turks continue to advance on Assadabad.

The Russian war office one week ago announced the capture of Kengavar by Russian troops. That was the day the Turks were driven out. The report evidently refers to events that took place prior to the Russian advance.

This Child isn't pretty

The Patriotic Fund Has Been Sending

her to school, helping to buy her clothes, and to keep her—and the home she lives in—while her father is away at the Front. To look after her and the fifteen thousand other soldiers' dependents in this district has cost the Fund over $90,000 a month! There is just one month's supply of cash left. At the end of that time—what?

There is no written "Law" to say who shall continue buying this little girl's few simple needs till her father gets home to work again.

She MUST NOT take charity.

Whether she continues to go to school and grow up toward sound, well-nourished Canadian womanhood depends on nothing but the tacit understanding between us people at home—and her father.

When we cheered Bill Smith as he marched off to war from this city, we were practically telling Bill Smith that "It'll be all right!"—his folks would be looked after.

It depends on us. It is up to us.

Last year you gave—what was it?—a dollar? or ten dollars?

Double It This Year, For the Need is Double

For every dollar you gave last year, give two this time.

This is a debt of honor to the women and children left behind by the soldiers.

This child doesn't KNOW we owe her and her mother anything. All she knows is that her father is away, and apparently in a very dangerous place.

We could hold back our money for our own uses if we liked, and no one would even know—

That's why we must give and give generously. That will enable the Patriotic Fund to keep on sending the modest cheques so necessary to that child—and all similar soldier-dependents.

This little girl is waiting! We have assured her mother Toronto will not fail in its unwritten—but imperative—duty.

If it costs sacrifices in order to give—so much the better. There must be sacrifice here at home as well as abroad.

Do your bit—and double it. Two Million Dollars in Three Days.

FIFTY THOUSAND CLUB COVERS EVERYBODY

Employees First—Now It's the Housewives and Kiddies.

No one will be missed. Yesterday's appeal of the 50,000 Club was to the employe. Today the housewife gets her appeal.

Every woman in Toronto is being appealed to in a big campaign to get 50,000 members by Thursday night. Save it from your table luxuries. Cut out that extra theatre matinee. Do that extra theatre matinee by our help for their loved ones.

John A. Tory, in a stirring speech at Massey Hall last night, said: "I do not ask for charity. I remind you of a duty. The man or woman who is in a position to give and is not giving is not worthy of citizenship in the British Empire."

THE DAWN OF YOUNG WOMANHOOD

Girls upon the threshold of womanhood often drift into a decline in spite of all their care and attention. Even the most lively girls become weak, depressed, irritable and listless. It is the dawn of womanhood—crisis in the life of every girl—and prompt measures should be taken to keep the blood pure and rich with the red tint of health. If the body is not in a healthy condition at this critical stage, grave disorders may result and future life become a burden. Deadly conditions often follow this crisis in the lives of young women. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have saved thousands of young girls from what might have been life-long invalidism or early death. They are a blood-builder of unequalled merit, strengthening the weak nerves and producing a liberal supply of rich red blood, which every girl needs to sustain her strength.

Over and over again Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved their value to women. Miss Jennie Gereau, St. Jerome, Que., says: "At the age of 17, my health was completely shattered; my head aching, my nerves in a state of tension, I was suffering from anaemia with all its attendant evils. The trouble forced me to leave school. I suffered from headaches, was tired and breathless at the least exertion. I had no appetite and my face and lips were literally bloodless. A good friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I think to this great medicine. I am again enjoying good health, with a good appetite, good color and a spirit of energy."

Every anaemic girl can be made well and strong through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sold by all medicine dealers, or by mail, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

IN MEMORIAM. MARGRETT—In loving memory of Mrs. Archibald Macgregor, who departed this life Jan. 25, 1914.

Just two years ago you left me, How I miss your loving face, How you left me to remember, None on earth can fill your place. —Daughter, Elizabeth E. E.

LACK OF TONNAGE NOT FAULT OF GOVERNMENT

Hazen Points to Great Movement of Wheat Across Atlantic. MACDONALD'S ATTACK. Blondin and Patenaude Accused of Pursuing Career of Disloyalty.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 24.—Two speeches were delivered in the House of Commons today on the subject of the shortage of ocean space on the North Atlantic.

Mr. Macdonald, the Liberal member for Pictou, N.S., replied on behalf of the opposition. Mr. Hazen defended the shells committee, the purchase of the submarine, and the course of the government in endeavoring to procure more ocean tonnage on the North Atlantic.

Mr. Macdonald made a vigorous attack upon Hon. Mr. Blondin, secretary of state, and Hon. Mr. Patenaude, the newly appointed minister of inland revenue. He said they were unrepentant Nationalists and disloyal on their part in former years. He said they should not retain their places in the government unless they were prepared to publicly disavow their former utterances.

Shortage of Tonnage. Hon. J. D. Hazen, in resuming the debate, discussed a question of ocean tonnage and what the government had done to relieve the situation.

Mr. Hazen said the Dominion Government had done to relieve the situation. He said the government had done to relieve the situation.

notice of requisition had been received. The British Government had also assigned three prize ships, the Kawaka, the Barendse and the Merin, to be used in the North Atlantic trade.

Mr. Hazen was of the opinion that the circumstances had not fared badly. Ocean freight rates had been high but not higher than from American ports, and much lower than from New Zealand and Australian ports.

Mr. Hazen next defended the shell committee from the attack which Mr. Macdonald had made to Liberal than to Conservative manufacturers. He also vigorously defended Mr. Charles testimony taken before Sir Charles to show that the submarines purchased for the Dominion Government by Sir Charles had proved efficient, and that the transaction was free from graft.

Replying to the suggestion already heard in this debate that higher pensions should be paid, Mr. Hazen said our pensions were a little higher than Australia's, and much higher than those of the United States.

STUDENTS WANTED, ARTILLERY BRIGADE

Varsity students are not heartily in favor of the overseas training battalion which was proposed by President Falconer last Friday, according to the editorial in The Weekly Star. The editorial in The Weekly Star maintained that what the students wanted was an artillery brigade.

The argument was advanced that those who did not care to take commissions could use their training to advantage in the guides, signallers or artillery.

L'ENTENTE CORDIALE

When you look through this great list of merchandise at $1.95, you will see that most of it is Canadian—but there are included many things from the Mother Country and her allies that Canadians never want to be without.

Lloyd George has told us how vitally important it is that Britain should keep up her exports in order to finance this great war—and the same is measurably true of France, Japan, Italy, Russia.

That is why Canada, with a huge trade balance in her favor, will still buy English Worsteds, Irish Linens, Scotch Linoleums, French Gloves, Silks, Perfumers, Russia Leathers, Italian Camoes—and you'll find them all here today at $1.95.

During this week in which we are helping the dependents of our fighting men by contributing to the Patriotic Fund, let there be an Entente Cordiale in our buying as in our thinking. At this time it is the function of a great store to put before its customers the merchandise of Canada and the Allies.
