Pope's Blessing To Congress

"For this blessing we pray with all our soul, and bestow on all the Apostolic Blessing. "Festus of Corpus Christi: (Signed) PIUS PP. XI."

PAPAL BRIEF READ AT SERVICE OF CONSECRATION

Cardinals Make Admonition Theme of Sermons

POPE'S REPROOF

Calls Careless, Neglectful Catholics "Spineless Sort of Christians"

CHICAGO, June 21.—Catholics of the world, gathered here to give public profession of their faith in Jesus Christ, and in the Eucharist, or Real Presence of the Saviour in the bread and wine of the Sacrament, have heard a message from Pope Pius XI to urge upon the charity of all pilgrims the "return to the Roman Church of our separated brethren."

The mandate of Eucharist instruction from the reigning Pontiff was read Sunday to the 28th International Eucharistic Congress at a service of ecclesiastical splendor in the Cathedral of the Holy Name.

The purpose of the gathering to be "the consecration and invigoration of Christian life through devotion to and reception of the eucharist."

PLEA FOR UNITY His Eminence John Cardinal Bonzano, who was formally installed as Legate of the pontiff, urged the congress to strive for a union of all Christians in compliance with the suggestion in the papal brief, and the same theme was touched upon by Cardinal Mundella, host of the congress, in a dozen sermons.

"These matters, beloved son, we desire you dwell upon and emphasize when, in your official capacity as Legate, you address the whole assembly. Other things also, we would have you in your words, urge upon the congress, in Chicago. We mean the re-union of the Roman Church and our separated brethren, which must be sought and furthered that all may be one."

Cardinal Bonzano quoted the words of Christ from the gospel of John: "Other shepherds I have that are not in this fold; them also must I bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd."

The Cardinal Archbishop of Chicago, in turn made the note the keynote of the solicitude of the Holy Father, in that he is not in this fold; them also must I bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd."

ONE STERN REPROOF The papal brief contained but one stern utterance and that was flung by the Holy Father to those who are not in this fold; them also must I bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd."

SAINT JOHN, N. B., JUNE 21, 1926.

LOYAL CONGRATULATIONS.

Tomorrow, June 22, will be the anniversary of the accession of Their Most Excellent Majesties King George V. and Queen Mary.

The British people have always been characterized by intense devotion to their ruling House and the House of Windsor is perhaps the best beloved of Royal Families of this or any other age.

The Prince of Wales has carried a charming personality into every corner of the globe. Not only the devoted subjects of His Royal Father, but people of all nations have acclaimed him a Prince and a gentleman.

Britons are not demonstrative, yet the appearance of any member of the Royal Family is sufficient to arouse a storm of cheering, echoing and rolling beyond the horizon.

SPRING CLEANING.

The man who, after the first few days, consigned the daily accounts of the Customs Committee to the waste paper basket and came fresh to his final report probably missed little.

A former Minister is censured, officials are to be dismissed and retired, drastic changes are to be made in existing preventive methods.

With all that brought to light and unanimously reported on by a committee of all groups one naturally wonders what has happened to discover.

It is merely blinding oneself to attempt to whitewash those responsible for this disgraceful state of affairs.

Indifferent Citizens. A striking evidence of the almost criminal indifference that exists in most Canadian centres in regard to municipal affairs is furnished by the details of the voting in Kingston on two very important bylaws submitted to the ratepayers.

UNGAVA'S WATER POWER. What is described as the largest and most important expedition ever sent out by the Province of Quebec will penetrate Ungava in order to investigate the power possibilities of what is known as Grand Falls.

Dr. William F. Grenfell, the celebrated Labrador missionary, who is one of the few white men to visit Ungava's Grand Falls, says that the main falls would develop energy equal to 1,700,000 horsepower.

A FLY TALE

Ten little flies! That's a very bad sign!

One sees the fly-paper! Now there are three!

Eight little flies who should all go to Heaven.

One smells the soup, ah! Now there are seven!

Seven little flies in a very bad fix. One's drinking home brew!

Six little flies all very much alive. One ate molasses! Now there are five!

Five little flies a-crawling on the floor.

I'll stop this one—Now there are four!

Four little flies just as jolly as can be.

I'll spoil the party! Now there are three!

Three little flies—oh, that won't do! Three, you know, is company!

Now there are two!

Two little flies having lots of fun. Break up the party! Now there is one!

One little fly—Didn't catch him then.

(You know, I chased that fly all over the place, the pesky thing. I swatted him, tried to entice him to walk onto the fly-paper, traced him to his lair and tried to catch him asleep, but he was too smart—he dropped an egg.....)

Now there are ten million, ten hundred, ten!

ABSENCE makes the heart grow colder.

Everything was ready at last and the operation was completed.

When the group was dispersed it occurred to the photographer to ask the boy whether he had pressed the bulb exactly as instructed.

"Oh, yes," said the boy, "I practiced it half a dozen times before I took the group."

AN ENGLISH curate taught an old man in his parish to read. After his lessons were finished he was unable to call upon him for some time, and when at last he called he found only the man's wife at home.

"How is John?" said he. "And how does he progress with his reading?"

"Oh, nicely, sir."

"I suppose he can read his Bible quite comfortably now?"

"Bible, sir?" exclaimed the woman. "Lad! bless your soul! Why, John was out of the Bible and into the sporting pages long ago!"

AN IRISHMAN was riding a restive pony along a country road. The animal slipped into a ditch and in attempting to scramble out again caught one of its hind feet in the stirrup.

"Arrah!" said the man, "if you're thinking of getting up here 'tise time for me to be getting down."

Why Lush Was Worried.

(Toronto Mail and Empire.) Lush came home late one night and began to make a horrible racket in the hall downstairs.

"What's the matter, dear?" his wife called from her room upstairs. "Doggone it!" growled Lush, "there's two intruders here and I don't know which to hang my hat on."

"Well, you've got two hats, haven't you?" called Mrs. Lush; "hang one on each rack and come up to bed. You are tired, dear."

Not one citizen in three of those eligible to vote exercised his franchise, and the only excuse given by some of the delinquents was that they had forgotten the vote was to be taken, although the Kingston newspapers gave plenty of space to a discussion of the measure.

It is indifference of this kind that makes the administration of municipal affairs a difficult matter, and that tends to inefficiency and mismanagement of the public service.

POEMS I LOVE

"Doors," by Hermann Hagedorn.

MR. HAGEDORN writes very little verse these days. He seems to be too busy with prose and with politics.

He is one of our foremost poets, yet his work is none too widely known. His "Boy's Life of Roosevelt" has been read a thousand times where his poems have been read once.

Get acquainted with this true singer. I especially like this sonnet.

Like a young child who to his mother's door, Runk eager for the welcoming embrace, And finds the door shut, and with troubled face, Calls and through sobbing calls, and "er and er" and "er and er" before Calling, storms at the panel—so before

A door that will not open, sick and numb, I listen for a word that will not come, And know, at last, I may not enter more.

Silence! And through the silence and the dark By that closed door, the distant sob of tears Beats on my spirit, as on fairy shores The spectral sea; and through the sobbing—hark!— Down the fair-chambered corridor The quiet shutting, one by one, of doors.

Queer Quirks of Nature

MANY are the names of this bright visitor to our fields and doorways.

Wild canary he is to many who see in his yellow coat, with its darker trimming, a resemblance to our domesticated songster of the old world.

Another common name is "chiff-chaff," from its lilting for the seeds of this plant.

All through the year seeds of some kind form its principal food.

Perhaps that is why our goldfinch builds such a warm and cosy nest, as they fly from place to place with their peculiar bounding flight, seem to "chiff-chaff" as if fearful that some individual of the little company may be left behind.

In winter, now in a brownish dress that gives little hint that it is still a goldfinch, it eats the seeds of such grasses and weeds as remain above the snow, and especially those of others that are caten berries.

We do not know that the food of the young of this inveterate seed-lover differs from that of its parents, but the products of the late summer must be necessary, for the goldfinch puts off its nesting longer than most other birds.

Seldom are eggs found earlier than July and we have found them so late in August that the young could not have come into the world before September, which in our northern states is getting pretty cool for young birds.

Perhaps that is why our goldfinch builds such a warm and cosy nest, as they fly from place to place with their peculiar bounding flight, seem to "chiff-chaff" as if fearful that some individual of the little company may be left behind.

The tightest guy in the world is one who borrows three cents for nickels so that he won't have to break a stick.

If hens would only keep down the weeds half so successfully as they keep down the planted crops.

THE HUM OF THE MOWER

THE hum of the mower is filling the air. There's grass to be cut o'er the land. The wheels of the mower are off on a tear. The man of the house is on hand.

A whizzing along on the wide spread of green till light of the mower time is dim. The sharpened blades quickly cheer up the scene, and put all the landscape in trim.

First this way, and that way; then back to the start, a lay-in' the taller growth bare. The click of the mower cuts grass blades apart and whisks them haphazard in air.

AN HEREDITARY CASTE.

(Manchester Guardian.) Miners are a class apart, an hereditary caste, as they were once described.

The circumstances of their work take them to districts where they constitute the whole, or almost the whole, working population. The proximity of a colliery does not attract residents who live elsewhere; pits are sunk in rural areas, for geological reasons, but also sometimes to save the rates and other expenses of operation in an urban area and the miners must live near the pits.

Work underground, the shifts system, the methods of organization, even housing conditions, all help to segregate English as effectively as native miners are segregated in compounds on the Witwatersrand. With this physical separation of ideas, miners are not responsive to the public opinion of the rest of the community, because they have a public opinion of their own distinct communities.

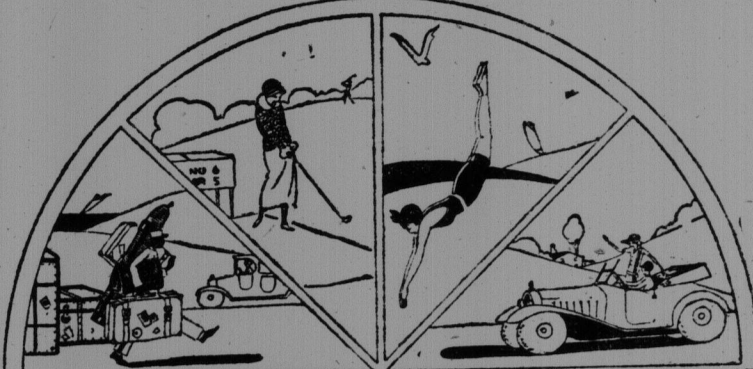

WHAT ABOUT HAPPINESS?

(Woodstock Sentinel Review.) The death is reported at Simcoe of Mrs. Nathan Fitch at the age of 111 years.

She retained the use of her faculties until the end. She saw many mighty changes in the world. She could remember when all grain was cut by reaping hooks and all threshing was done by flails. She saw the modern binder take the place of the scythe, which in turn had taken the place of the reaping hook, and she saw the automobile take the place of the ox-cart. One is tempted to wonder if she saw the happiness of the people increase with the multiplication of mechanical conveniences. None of us would probably want to go back to the days of the reaping hook, the flail and the ox-cart; yet it is possible to argue that if we had never learned the use of modern conveniences we might be as happy without them as we are with them.

While the youth of our race continue to love sport, to love it and play at it for its own sake there will be no peril from decadence. Rather will there grow a finer womanhood and manhood, a keener homage for that spirit of fairness and chivalry

SPECIAL TIME IS PLANNED FOR CATHOLIC YOUTH

Anniversary of St. Aloysius Observed Here Likely in November

ANNOUNCEMENTS MADE IN CATHEDRAL

Will Be Asked to Adopt Rule of Life—Silver Falls Work

Today is the Feast of St. Aloysius, patron of youth, and this year is the 200th anniversary of his canonization. The Catholic Church is making special observance of the centenary event, and announcements in this connection were made yesterday by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc.

His Lordship said that all the bishops had received from Pope Pius instructions in this regard leading to the participation of the Catholic youth all over the world in the centenary. There will be special exercises for them some time during the year, and in this diocese it is likely that November 13 will be selected as the special day. That is the Feast of St. Stanislaus, who, also, is a patron of youth.

There will probably be a mission or a retreat for the young people in connection with the observance. This will include all between the ages of 12 and 24, and at the same time opportunity will be given the youth to make their jubilee visits in connection with the holy year.

FOR RULE OF LIFE Bishop LeBlanc told of the life of St. Aloysius, his abandonment of worldly pleasures at the age of seven years and of his death at the age of 23. He also spoke of St. Stanislaus, whose life ended at the age of 18. He made reference to conditions of the present day, to the lack of obedience and of self-denial in the youth of these times and to the excessive giving over of themselves to lives of pleasure.

In connection with the observance of the centenary of the canonization of St. Aloysius those between the ages of 12 and 24 would be asked to sign a promise to live up to a certain rule of life. These promises would be made up into a bound volume and would be placed on the tomb of St. Aloysius in the Church of St. Ignatius in Rome on the anniversary of his consecration, Dec. 31. It was not a vow they would take, but a promise on honor.

Work that must be done on the Boys' Industrial School, Silver Falls, has made necessary a request to the Catholic people of Saint John to give financial assistance. It was announced in the churches yesterday that included in the work to be done is the installation of heating apparatus. If there is given a sum to cover this and something more, there will be electric lighting installed. The building is still lighted by the antiquated system of lamps. Bishop LeBlanc said that this was the first time a bound volume would be placed on the tomb of St. Aloysius in the Church of St. Ignatius in Rome on the anniversary of his consecration, Dec. 31. It was not a vow they would take, but a promise on honor.

FIRE RAZES CHURCH NEAR CAMPBELLTON

$100,000 Loss as Edifice at Ste Anne de Restigouche Destroyed

CAMPBELLTON, June 20—The Roman Catholic church and monastery at Ste. Anne de Restigouche, P. Q., across the river from Campbellton, were totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The fire broke out about 3 o'clock and the fire protection equipment of the Chateau Bay mill was put into action at once. The fire department here was also asked for help and a detachment of firemen with fire engine and other equipment were rushed to the ferry and taken to the scene of the blaze.

A high wind, similar to that of the day previous during the conflagration at Matapedia, swept the flames and had it not been for the effective work of the local brigade and the mill crew many nearby residences would have been destroyed. The fire also caught

$5,000 Cash To U. N. B. From Bank of N. S.

FREDERICTON, June 20—The trustees of the University of New Brunswick $500,000 endowment fund initiated by Rt. Hon. Sir George E. Foster, of Ottawa, have received a cash donation of $5,000 to the fund from the Bank of Nova Scotia.

This is the second cash contribution of $5,000 which has been made to the fund by Canadian banking institutions, the other being made by the Royal Bank of Canada. To date cash donations to the endowment fund amount to some $26,000, while an equal amount has been pledged through subscriptions.

In one corner of the mill yards but was extinguished before it had made much progress. The loss of the fine church at Ste. Anne de Restigouche is a severe setback to that community. The building was a splendid stone structure which was only completed last summer.

Set Out From Breakfast with Energy for the Entire Day!

A Single Serving of this Delightful Food Gives You More Varied Nourishment than many a Hearty Meal.

GRAPE-NUTS is a wonderful food—deliberately designed by an expert in food values to supply to the body vital food elements which are essential to proper, balanced nourishment. Whether you eat a light breakfast or a heavy breakfast, eat Grape-Nuts for these essential food elements to carry you through the whole day: Dextrins, maltose and other carbohydrates for energy; iron for rich blood; phosphorus for strong, healthy teeth; protein for muscle and body-building; and the vitally necessary vitamin-B.

And you'll like having Grape-Nuts for breakfast. Its nut-like flavor, which is a combination of whole wheat and malted barley, is the favorite of millions. The special baking process by which Grape-Nuts is made prepares it for quick, easy digestion. You won't know that bug-bear of modern living—indigestion; you won't be handicapped by that "heavy feeling," after eating this food!

Even the form of Grape-Nuts is a health advantage. You like to chew its crisp granules, and by so doing you give your teeth and gums the exercise which every dentist so strongly recommends. All grocers have Grape-Nuts—in wax-wrapped packages. Four teaspoonfuls is sufficient for each person, and such a helping costs less than one cent. Pour Grape-Nuts right from the package into one side of bowl—milk or cream into the space beside it. Dip the Grape-Nuts into the milk or cream as you eat. In this way you will enjoy the delightful crispness to the full. Get a package of Grape-Nuts to-day at your grocer's—or you may wish to accept the following offer.

Ever Thought of Endowing your Home?

SUPPOSE that — having purchased a home and effected a mortgage on it — you should die suddenly! Wouldn't your wife and family have a hard time meeting the interest on the mortgage and discharging the principal sum when due? Not so, however if you were insured under an Imperial Endowment policy for the amount of the mortgage.

A small amount invested each year in such a policy will enable your heirs to pay the mortgage immediately after your death, even if it should occur next week.

On the other hand, if you should live until the policy matures you can then pay off the indebtedness yourself out of the proceeds of the Endowment.

Have you a mortgage on your home? Why carry this responsibility yourself? Why bequeath an unpaid mortgage to your loved ones? Let us show you how easily you can make sure of its repayment whether you live or die.

Send the coupon to-day—to-morrow you may be uninsurable.

ONE MORE APPEAL!

This is the last of a series of seven advertisements, in which the directors of the New Brunswick Protestant Orphans' Home, have attempted to place before New Brunswick Protestants the alarming financial condition of the poor orphans' only home.

WHAT IS YOUR ANSWER? THE RESPONSIBILITY IS YOURS!

Does the life and future of the helpless orphan mean anything to you? Do you care whether the children live or starve?

Do you care whether your neglect creates crooks and criminals? Are you your brothers' keeper? The New Brunswick Protestant Orphans' Home cannot exist without your support. A very modest gift from all Protestants will finance the Home. Send a contribution Now to P. O. Box 796 or Room 15, 71 Dock Street, Saint John, N. B.

NEEDED--- A FRIEND

The future of this little fellow is in the hands of the Protestant people of New Brunswick. He has no home—no loved one to care for him. Poverty, starvation, destitution, faces him.

Will you be his friend?

NO FRIENDS--- BUT "WANTED"

He was an orphan—no one cared for him—he roamed the streets—never attended school—never saw the inside of a church. Nobody wanted him but the police. May the little innocent child on the left be saved from such a fate!

FED, CLOTHED--- PROTECTED

These little tots, motherless and fatherless, are happily cared for in the New Brunswick Protestant Orphans' Home. They do not realize that their future welfare is endangered on account of needed financial support. Please help them.

TRAINED INTO GOOD CITIZENS

This smiling group were once like the little fellow on the left—they found a friend in the Orphans' Home.

"Thanks!"

The French Franc Is Going To Par

The French franc recently touched the lowest value in its history. On Tuesday, May 18th, the French monetary unit, normally worth 19.3 cents, or $19,300.00 per 100,000 francs, was quoted at 2.72% cents, or $2,725.75 per 100,000 francs. An upward movement set in immediately afterward and carried the franc considerably higher. Its future major movements can hardly be otherwise than upward in nature. Parity of exchange for the franc (19.3 cents or $19,300.00 per 100,000 francs) is now in sight. It is a question of time only.

This situation offers investors of shrewdness and foresight one of the most attractive opportunities of the present generation. It is now possible to purchase French Government 6% Bonds, direct obligations of the Republic of France, at 17 per cent of their normal exchange value, with assured confidence that France's economic and financial position approaches its pre-war status, they will show a continuous appreciation in value.

We very strongly recommend French Government 6% Bonds of 1920. Incidentally, we advise the purchase of the Bonds in preference to the currency because the franc is now at a low level. A 100,000-franc French Government 6% Bond can today be bought for $3,300.00. With the franc at parity of exchange its value will be $19,300.00. Its purchase now, therefore, possesses a potential net profit of $16,000.00. This is without considering the income from interest coupons which, yielding around 7 per cent per annum will return nearly 40 per cent on the present investment when the franc is quoted at parity. These interest-coupons are tax-exempt and can be cashed, at the prevailing rate of exchange, at any bank in Canada and throughout the world.

While the number of investors who perceive that this opportunity prevails only because France is passing through a transient period of recuperation, and who are, in consequence, taking advantage of the current low price to accumulate these governmental securities; others, however, who are better judges of the situation, see a fraction of those before whom the facts have been presented. It has always been that the man or woman who exercises his or her better judgment, whose records attest, has been the investor who earned the most liberal profits.

Too many, it seems, point to France's floating debt professed to see in it the nucleus of national bankruptcy and completely ignoring the fact that that debt is the result of the COMPLETE RESTORATION OF THE DEVASTATED REGIONS TO BETTER THAN PRE-WAR CONDITIONS. No financial situation has been so persistent a view of this important situation as with Andrew Mellon, Secretary of the United States Treasury. Mr. Mellon said: "The situation in which she now finds herself. In our opinion we are likely to forget the factors which contributed to that situation. The French people gave so fully of their man power and their industry during the four years of war, following mainly on their own soil, that French taxation could not be so heavy as in those countries which were never occupied by the enemy. The richest industrial section of France lay directly in the course of the German armies and when recovered was in a destroyed condition."

France was faced with the problem of deciding whether it would leave the country in this condition, with its industry permanently crippled, or would recondition the soil and rebuild its plants at whatever cost, and thus increase the wealth producing power of the nation. The former course might have permitted more immediate taxation. The latter course was in substance the recreation of industries able in future to bear a proper burden of taxation. France chose the latter course.

Returns from new taxes are fully justifying the course taken and before long its influence is certain to effect an even greater improvement in the public finances. In discussing economic and financial questions that are purely temporary in nature, the investor is apt to lose sight of the forest for the trees.

Certainly France is not in the same financial position as before the great conflict. It is equally as obvious that if she had her money and her Government Bonds would be WORTH THEIR NORMAL VALUE ON THE WORLD'S MARKETS TO-DAY. And a 100,000-franc French Government 6% Bond would cost more than $19,300.00, NOT $3,300.00, its present price.

It is those who recognize that FRANCE IS FUNDAMENTALLY SOUND; that her recuperative powers were well established following the Franco-Prussian war when French Government Bonds atypically sold down to 7 per cent of their normal value, completely recovered and scored above par; that ultimately FRANCE WILL TRIUMPH OVER HER PRESENT DIFFICULTIES AS COMPLETELY AS SHE TRIUMPHED OVER THE HORDES WHO SWEEP HER PEACEFUL VILLAGES AND TOWNS IN THE DAYS OF THE GREAT WAR; it is such investors who are to-day accumulating French Government 6% Bonds.

It was the same class of investors who reaped fortunes through their investments in selected issues of depreciated government bonds of other countries during the past five or six years.

In March, 1919, the pound sterling reached the lowest point in its history, falling to $1.19 in the markets of the world, against its par value of $4.86.65. At that time many said the pound would never return to its pre-war value, that it would have to be "stabilized" permanently around $3.25. But everyone knows that sterling has since CROSSED PAR. To be sure, there were many critical periods during its recovery but the important point is that the pound is again worth its normal exchange value.

The astute investor is not greatly concerned over the minor fluctuations in French exchange, when he invests in French Government 6% Bonds. He not only knows that he owns Government Bonds, the principal and interest of which are fully guaranteed by one of the world's greatest powers, but he is well aware of the fact that FRANCE HAS NEVER DEFAULTED ON INTEREST PAYMENTS NOR FAILED TO PAY THE PRINCIPAL of her Bonds at maturity and furthermore, that no unit of currency has ever risen to its par value without reaction.

Not only the course of the pound sterling taught the lesson that despite periods of exchange depression, a nation's money is bound to recover when the nation is fundamentally sound and it is making every effort to restore financial equilibrium.

The Swiss franc a few years ago was worth only 15.14 cents or $15,140.00 per 100,000 francs—yet to-day it is quoted above par or at more than $19,300 per 100,000 francs. The value of 100,000 Swiss francs has increased by more than $4,160.00 within a comparatively short space of time.

The Dutch Guilder, Holland's monetary unit, following the war depreciated from its par value of 40.20 cents or $40,200.00 per 100,000 guilders, to 29.3 cents or $29,300.00 per 100,000. TO-DAY 100,000 guilders are again worth $40,200.00, showing a NET RISE of $10,900.00.

The Swedish krona, normally worth 26.8 cents or $26,800.00 per 100,000 kronor, dropped to 17.65 cents or $17,650.00 per 100,000. In a few years the unit has completely recovered all its losses and at present the value of 100,000 Swedish kronor is $26,770.00. During the period, the value of 100,000 kronor increased by $9,120.00.

In less than two years the Japanese yen has RISEN from 37.875 cents or $37,875.00 per 100,000 yen, to 44.95 cents or $44,950.00 per 100,000. Despite the great havoc wrought by the earthquake on the country's economic life, the value of 100,000 yen has increased by $9,075.00 in LESS THAN TWENTY-FOUR MONTHS.

Everyone knows how rapid has been the rise in Danish and Norwegian exchange. These countries have been faced with critical economic conditions but the Danish krona is now worth 26.43 cents or $26,430.00 per 100,000 kroner whereas in 1921 it had fallen to 13 cents or $13,000.00 per 100,000. The value of 100,000 Danish kroner has increased by $13,430.00 in less than five years' time. The Norwegian krona has RISEN from 11.7 cents or $11,700.00 per 100,000 kroner, to 22.84 cents or $22,840.00 per 100,000, showing a NET RISE OF $11,140.00 PER 100,000 DURING THE SAME PERIOD.

The Spanish peseta from 11.75 cents or $11,750.00 per 100,000 pesetas a few years ago, has now recovered to 15.12 cents or $15,120.00 per 100,000 and the unit is expected to touch par this year.

Leading South American exchanges show similar improvements. Within three years the Brazilian milreis has advanced from 8.55 cents or $8,550.00 per 100,000 milreis, to 15.31 cents or $15,310.00 per 100,000, recording a NET GAIN OF $6,760.00 PER 100,000 MILREIS. The Argentine peso was not long ago worth only 28.37 cents or $28,370.00 per 100,000 pesos but TO-DAY it is quoted at 40.25 cents or $40,250.00 per 100,000. The value of 100,000 Argentine pesos has INCREASED BY $11,880.00.

In the light of these accomplishments it is easy to see that France with a balanced budget, debt funding agreements, in short, definitely ADVANCED UPON THE ROAD TO FINANCIAL RECOVERY, can put the franc back to par (19.3 cents or $19,300.00 per 100,000 francs) within the comparatively near future.

We are averse to referring to our success in the field of foreign exchange but we may, with pardonable pride, boast of one of the most outstanding records on the continent. We had the courage to advise investors to buy British, Swiss, Dutch, Swedish, Japanese, Norwegian, Spanish, Brazilian and Argentine Government and Municipal Bonds when such securities, because of the depreciation in the value of the money in which they were payable, could be bought for fractions of their former values.

YOU BELIEVE IN FRANCE. You have confidence in the ability and skill of her forty odd millions of people. You are familiar with the spirit that makes France, individually, the richest country in Europe to-day. You respect the national talent that attacked the problems of the Suez and Panama. You recognize the courage and bravery that, with the assistance of allies, defeated the world-conquest scheme of the Kaiser and his military machine. You perceive in the restoration in the devastated regions A VICTORIOUS ECONOMIC BATTLE THAT GOES UNCLAIMED. You see the honesty and INTEGRITY of the French nation upheld in the agreements for the funding of debts to allies.

Make your investment in French Government 6% Bonds TO-DAY not to-morrow when the franc may be higher. We have only to remind you that with the franc at PAR every 100,000-franc French Government 6% Bond which you can buy to-day for $3,300.00 (three thousand, three hundred dollars), will be worth $19,300.00 (nineteen thousand, three hundred dollars).

Many Fans Favor Another Title Bout For Walker

By BERT M. DEMBY. CHICAGO, June 21.—(United Press)—The middleweight wants Mickey Walker to have another chance at Pete Latzo. Since the former champion was defeated by the comparatively unknown Latzo when he pleased and then had Mickey held Latzo in too tight consideration and lost the fight for this reason. Mickey has always been a favorite out here and the populace would like to see a fight between Latzo and the Irishman in Chicago.

LONDON, June 21.—About 50,000 persons, including many of prominence, gathered at Runnymede yesterday for the annual celebration of the signing of the Magna Charta. Chief Justice Hewart, in an address, warned his auditors that while the charter was the climax of a revolt against the King's tyranny, other individuals and classes might exercise tyranny, which sometimes appeared from unexpected quarters.

REAPING THE GOLDEN HARVEST

Agriculture is the backbone of Canadian development. The money received by the Western farmer for his grain crop is newly-created wealth, which circulates throughout the Dominion and influences the activity of all trades and industries.

To enable the farmer to receive the maximum return, his grain must reach the world's markets at the appropriate time, in sound condition. This essential service is performed by the elevator companies, of which The Alberta Pacific Grain Company, Limited, is one of the most important and most successful in Western Canada.

Alberta Pacific Grain Company owns 319 grain elevators strategically located on railways serving the rich farming centres of Alberta and Saskatchewan. It also controls substantial interests in large terminal elevators at the head of the Great Lakes, and is acquiring one of the largest and most active terminal elevators at the port of Vancouver. The business of the company has grown steadily, with the development of Western Canada, since 1902.

An opportunity to invest in this very essential public utility enterprise is afforded by our offering of Alberta Pacific Grain 6% First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds, due 1946, at 98 and accrued interest, to yield over 6.15%.

STRIKE CRIPPLING BRITISH INDUSTRY

Every Day Sees More Factories Close For Lack of Fuel

By HERBERT BAILEY

British United Press.

LONDON, June 21.—Alarm is spreading all over Britain on account of the slow paralysis that is overtaking several important British industries. This is a direct outcome of the coal mining stoppage. Every day factories are closing down and the industries most seriously affected so far are so widely different as cotton, iron, motor cars, steel, tinplate, metal working, hosiery, engineering, shipbuilding, pottery and general building. The unemployment figures are steadily rising and thousands of workers are now on short time. Railroad men are only working four days a week, owing to the disappearance of coal traffic, and the latter part of this week from Norfolk with a full cargo of coal.

The Elmer E. is due tomorrow from Norfolk with a full cargo of coal. The Rockcliffe will not arrive until the latter part of this week from Norfolk with a full cargo of coal.

The Kalamo is due tonight at a dock from New York to load general cargo. The schooner Jean sailed on Saturday for Wilmington, Del., with a cargo of pulpwood.

MARINE NOTES

S. S. Dago will sail tonight for Cheverie to load plaster for New York. The Bessemer will sail tonight for Havana with potatoes and general cargo. The Belhaven is expected tomorrow from Norfolk with a full cargo of coal.

The Elmer E. is due tomorrow from Norfolk with a full cargo of coal. The Rockcliffe will not arrive until the latter part of this week from Norfolk with a full cargo of coal.

The Kalamo is due tonight at a dock from New York to load general cargo. The schooner Jean sailed on Saturday for Wilmington, Del., with a cargo of pulpwood.

Morning Stock Letter

NEW YORK, June 21.—The markets' recovery of Saturday indicated that Friday's last hour reaction was nothing more than a shake-out. However, the setback served the purpose of instilling more caution into the market. There may, consequently, be more profit taking on advance. The general trend of prices seems still distinctly upward and we look for higher prices, steady and higher prices before this move is over. Mack Truck and Overland are probably purchases at present prices. WAC made a new high just before the close Friday afternoon, then its advance was stopped by the reaction. If the advance started on Saturday, $5.40 cannot hold both the rails and coal stocks, and it is logical to expect $5.40 holdings of JRC. to be taken over by strong interests.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT 6% BONDS

Shrewd Investors Perceive in the Temporary Low Value of French Money an Unusual Opportunity for Exceptional Profits on Both Principal and Income on an Investment in "France's Premier Rente"

WE BELIEVE that an investment made today in French Government 6% Bonds (Loan authorized Dec. 16th, 1920; redeemable at par at the option of the Government on or after Jan. 1st, 1931), presents an exceptional opportunity for profit on any material advance in the value of French money.

Due to the depreciation of French Francs a French Government 6% Bond of 1000 Francs denomination can now be bought for $33.00; with French exchange at normal (19.3c per Franc) the same Bond would have a value of $193.00.

International bankers believe French Francs will sell at 10 cents per Franc before very long. Just what this means to French Government Bonds; with the Franc worth 10 cents, each Bond of 1,000 Francs will have a value of $100.00—a rise of over 300%, or a profit of $67.00 on every $33.00 invested today. With the Franc selling at 15 cents, each Bond of 1,000 Francs will have a value of $150.00, a rise of more than 450%, or a net profit of $117.00 for each Bond of 1,000 Francs, or for every $33.00 invested today.

We made a lengthy and thorough investigation to determine the best way to buy French Francs for maximum profits. We are of the opinion that these French Government 6% Bonds afford the best medium, for they represent to French investors precisely what British Government and our Canadian Government Victory Bonds represent to us, being legal investments for every Institution, Trust Fund and Savings Bank in France, and constituting a strictly high-grade Government investment. They may be sold again instantly for spot cash, as they are listed on the Paris Stock Exchange and traded in throughout the financial centres of the world. The interest coupons (payable June and December 16th) have always been paid promptly on the dot, and can be cashed in Montreal, New York, London, and other financial centres through our House, banks or other institutions.

French Government Bonds will, we believe, unquestionably come back to normal ($193.00 per 1000-Franc Bond). The United States were financially bankrupt after the Civil War.

Table Showing Present Price and Profit Possibilities

Denominations or Amount	Present Price		Profit Possibilities
	15 Cents	18 1/2 Cents	15 Cents	18 1/2 Cents
1,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	$ 33.00	$ 78.00	$ 150.00	$ 193.00
2,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	66.00	156.00	300.00	386.00
5,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	165.00	390.00	750.00	965.00
10,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	330.00	780.00	1,500.00	1,930.00
20,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	660.00	1,560.00	3,000.00	3,860.00
50,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	1,650.00	3,900.00	7,500.00	9,650.00
100,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds	3,300.00	7,800.00	15,000.00	19,300.00

WE ARE selling a large number of these Bonds at the above prices, which covers every expense. Upon receipt of accepted cheque or money-order we will at once confirm sale. Bonds are forwarded by registered and insured mail. Order with remittance to cover purchase, must be received by early mail to insure these prices as quotations change frequently.

For many years this Investment House has been Canada's foremost exclusive foreign bond house. It is vitally important to us to have our clients select those bonds which will make the most money for them and make it most quickly. Our interest does not cease after a sale, for it is our constant aim to keep in touch with our clients, scattered throughout the length and breadth of Canada, the United States and beyond, to render it gratuitous service, informing clients when bonds rise in market value, and informing them whether or not we deem it advisable to sell. This service is expensive to ourselves, but its value to our clients is incalculable.

2—Cakes, unless baked in a regulated oven, should be put in a COLD oven. For a loaf or sheet cake, requiring approximately a one-hour baking period, the rack should be placed in the CENTRE of the oven.

Layer cakes, requiring approximately a thirty-minute baking period, should be placed in a cold oven and the burner turned on half-way for the first half of the baking period, at which time it should be lowered to one-quarter way.

This gives the gases in the leavening property (the eggs, soda or baking power) an opportunity to work gradually as the heat increases gradually. The heat reaches the maximum desired at the end of the first quarter of the baking period and the gases have, for the most part expended themselves before the batter actually starts to cook.

The oven door SHOULD NOT BE OPENED during the SECOND and THIRD QUARTERS of the baking period, for the cells at that time are not firm and a slight jar may cause them to settle. The warm expended air which makes the cake light has already been evolved, and there is nothing present to lighten it again.

3—Angel-food cakes may be put into a cold oven and the heat allowed to come on very gradually, or should be put into a very slow oven that has not been pre-heated more than three or four minutes.

4—Quick breads should go to the top-most part of the oven, and a hot oven should be ready for them. Muffins, which require from twenty to thirty minutes for baking, should be placed in the top of the oven. Biscuits should not be in the oven more than twelve to fifteen minutes at the most, and should be baked with a very hot oven, at the top-most part.

5—Broiled meats must be handled very carefully. The oven should be pre-heated at least ten minutes before the meat is put in, but the broiling pan should be removed from the oven before the heat is turned on.

A hot porcelain broiling pan draws the juices from the under side of the meat, and prevents it from browning nicely when turned.

In a suicidal attempt he deliberately discharged a 22 gauge shot gun into his face three times with the result that the entire right side of his face was blown away and half of the lower jaw gone. Despite the awfulness of that injury Sprague's condition, after the wounds received attention, was most encouraging and he made very favorable progress until yesterday when complications developed which caused his death. The remains will be sent to Weymouth Mills to his home.

FORMER MAYOR WRITES ABOUT BUILDING LAW

Point Re No. 1 Fire District Goes to Committee

A suggestion that some provision be made in the new building code to protect the owners of wooden buildings in Fire District No. 1 was sent to the city council by G. Fred Fisher, a former Mayor, and by the committee of the whole passed on to the by-law committee this morning. Mr. Fisher stated that under the present law owners of wooden buildings in this district were prohibited from repairing them in case of fire doing more than 50 per cent. damage and therefore the owners could not insure for more than half valuation. This he asserted was a hardship and should be remedied.

Commissioner Harding said he had already written to Mr. Fisher that this matter was cared for in the new by-law, and he moved the letter be filed.

Commissioner Bullock suggested that it be sent to the by-law committee for their consideration.

Commissioner Frink said this seemed to him to be an important matter and should be given thought by the by-law committee.

Commissioner Harding then changed his motion to read that the letter be referred to the by-law committee and this passed.

CHILDREN'S AID AGENT HOME AGAIN

Rev. George Scott Speaks of Conditions He Found in Old Country

Rugged and tanned and much improved in health, Rev. George Scott, agent for the Children's Aid Society, arrived in Saint John this morning via Montreal, after a two months' holiday in England and Scotland. While away he visited his old home in Arbroath, Scotland, and also visited his brothers, James V. Scott, of London. Rev. Mr. Scott arrived in London just at the outbreak of the recent strike that had all had been good natured during the time of trouble. There had never, in his opinion, been any question as to the outcome.

LIQUOR QUESTION

While in London, Rev. Mr. Scott said he had seen only one person under the influence of liquor. There were several reasons why there was less drinking, he said. Restricted hours for public houses was one cause. The public houses there opened about 11 or 11:30 o'clock in the morning, closed at 2 p. m. and were open again from 6 until 9 in the evening. Another reason for less drinking was the allotment plan, under which working men were rented gardens in various parts of the city, on which they could raise market produce, thus occupying their idle time and also getting some revenue from the sale of vegetables and some for their own table. The third reason was that the liquor was of a poorer quality than in former days, according to reports Mr. Scott received.

While trade was not good over there at the present time, Rev. Mr. Scott said that should the coal strike be ended soon, trade would quickly pick up. Following his visit to London, he visited the Highlands, making motor trips to many places of interest.

AUTO OFFICIAL HAS NORTH SHORE TRIP

Inspector G. L. Ingraham Finds Roads of Province Good

George L. Ingram, Provincial Inspector of Taxation, returned to the city on Saturday evening, following an 80-mile trip to the North Shore. He left Saint John on last Monday and traveled, via Moncton, through Kent county to Campbellton. He also visited the Carquet Shore. He came home from Campbellton, via Fredericton, leaving Chatham on Saturday morning and arriving in Saint John on the same evening.

He said that the roads were in good condition, with the exception of a few frost holes. His trip was in connection with the regulation and supervision of automobile traffic and it was said that he would have certain recommendations to make to the Minister of Public Works, Hon. D. W. Stewart, in regard to speeding.

MOTORIST DISPLEASED

An automobile tourist here from New Hampshire, on Saturday, following a trip through Nova Scotia, was somewhat indignant regarding the treatment he said he had received while in Digby. He was held by the chief of police there on a charge of speeding.

The motorist said that he was going about 18 miles an hour while the officer said the rate was at least 20 miles. As the hour was late and no magistrate available at the moment, the visitor was told that he would either have to spend the night in jail or put up a deposit of $25 for his appearance in the morning. He put up a deposit of $25 for his appearance in the morning. He put up the deposit and then decided to wait and see what the outcome would be. When he appeared in court in the morning he was told that the action of the chief would have to be upheld and he was fined $25. It was said that he was taking the matter up with the automobile association here.
