

AUSTRALIA THE REBELS LOOKS FOR EARLY CAPTURE OF

Measures Taken By Commonwealth to Protect Overseas Customers.

Strict System of Inspection Prevents Overtaking of Inferior Goods - Canadian Describes Methods.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Aug. 2.—The Department of Trade and Commerce is publishing in its weekly report a series of articles dealing with the systems of packing, marking and supervising agricultural products exported from other portions of the British Empire.

The first thing to observe is that the Australian system is exceedingly drastic. The second thing is that it is working well. At the outset, Mr. Ross says, there was friction, but improvements were made and examinations officers became proficient in their work.

Any modifications in the regulations governing exports, Mr. Ross says, "have been in the way of a more strict interpretation and greater efficiency. The value of this legislation is now appreciated alike by producers, exporters and oversea buyers."

1. To maintain and increase the reputation of the primary industries of the country by preventing inferior goods from bearing trade descriptions applicable only to the best qualities.

2. To protect overseas buyers; manufacturers must indicate on the goods the nature of the ingredients or materials employed.

3. To protect traders from competition with inferior articles; a man who makes leather adulterated with glue or borium cannot expect it under a description indicating that it is the best produce of the commonwealth.

4. The label or brand shall specify the net weight or quantity of the goods, except in the case of carcass meat.

How the Plan Works. The working out of these rules is interesting. A box of butter marked as containing 56 pounds must contain at least half a pound in excess of the weight marked, to provide against shrinkage on the voyage.

Meat Carefully Inspected. In the case of meat for export, the regulations are very strict. The abattoir premises are inspected; the animals are inspected; the carcasses before and after slaughter; limits are set as to the number of animals to be inspected by one official in a day.

Will End Strike. HATRO, Aug. 2.—The seamen's union tonight formally voted to end the strike of its members which has been in progress off and on for the past two months.

LOOK FOR EARLY CAPTURE OF TWO GUNNEERS STILL AT LARGE

Police Hot on Trail Of Remaining Gangsters

PLANS A THOROUGH PROBE

Assistant District Attorney Moss States Apprehension of Men at Head of System is First Consideration Now—Becker Still Refuses to Talk.

New York, August 2.—With Whitey Lewis and Dago Frank locked in the Tombs, as two of the four gunners who murdered Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, on July 16, police headquarters professed tonight to expect the capture of any number of the quartette "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie," the two of the quartette who are still at large.

That the two gun men missing are in hiding in the same region where Lewis was picked up was the belief expressed by headquarters tonight. It was reported that a squad of detectives still scouring the neighborhood are hot on their trail.

Mr. Moss took charge of the case today in the absence of District Attorney Whitman, who left for Boston early in the day, expecting later to travel to Manchester, N. H., on Sunday with his family.

Directing his attention to the police graft phase of the case, brought into prominence by the allegations of "Jack" Rose and "Bridgie" Webber that the annual levy of blackmail on the police on illegal resorts amounted to $2,400,000, Mr. Moss had brought before him a number of gamblers and other characters of the underworld, whom he closely questioned.

No Exaggeration. "I do not think that the $2,400,000 figure named by Jack Rose is an exaggeration," said Mr. Moss tonight. "But the only absolute knowledge of how much it really amounts to is in the possession of the officers and not the grafted. Just as the grafted are, where the money is going, is the question, or the great determinant, who is responsible for it."

Police Lieutenant Becker, locked in the Tombs on the charge of instigating the murder, still maintained his attitude of silence today when efforts were made to elicit a story from him.

CANADA GETS DELEGATES SET OUT FOR CONVENTION

Unique Historical Rarities Presented to Dominion by English Lady.

Impressed with Loyalty of the Canadian People as Evidenced in Rejection of the Reciprocity Agreement.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Aug. 2.—Canada's historical collection under the direction of Dr. A. G. Doughty, Dominion Archivist, is to be greatly enriched by a gift received by the Canadian government under curious circumstances.

The donor is Mrs. E. M. Mastin of 2 Chestnut Walk, Stratford-on-Avon, whose father-in-law Stephen Mastin was for sixty years a page in the royal household of the Duchess of Kent, and of the late Queen Victoria, a godson of the former and afterwards one of the Queen's private almoners.

The collection includes a life of the Prince Consort, in five volumes, with an inscription in the hand written by Queen Victoria; an album with photographs of the Queen and family, including one of the late Duchess of Cambridge; the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge and the present Queen as a child; an album with the last photograph of Victoria and Queen Victoria at the age of 10; royal playbills of a performance given by the Duchess of Albany; a blue Worcester dessert service of eleven pieces, given by the Duchess of Kent; three pieces of gold and royal blue china, the gift of the Duke of Edinburgh; a ring, once the property of the Duchess of Kent; and one of her services marked; a footstool worked in galleon and shell, the gift of a friend from Queen Victoria; a pair of blue and gold sleeve links the gift of the queen of Prussia (the German Empress) to Mrs. Mastin's mother-in-law, the Princess Christian and her husband; and two portraits of King Edward and his consort, taken soon after their marriage and framed in uncolored English oak.

Redemptorist Order in Canada Now a Vice-Provincial College to be Established for Canadian Students.

Quebec, Aug. 2.—The Redemptorist Order as far as Canada is concerned is no longer subject to control from the American mother house in Baltimore, Md. This change which has been under consideration for some time past at Rome, was finally decided on the feast day of St. Alphonsus, founder of the order, which occurred on Thursday last, and was celebrated in this city.

Heretofore the Redemptorist Order in the United States had control of the Canadian churches, but also appointed the fathers to perform the functions of their priestly office in the Canadian churches.

Cy Young swapped some baseball stories which he had collected in his travels. He was a real talker and one of the best ever owned by anybody.

HOW CADETS SLAUGHTER ENGLISH AT WEST POINT

(New York Herald.) The vernacular of the West Point is unique. Nowhere, other than the United States military academy, can be found a dialogue so florid and so purely local. Cadet slang, as it is commonly called by those familiar with West Point, has for many years played a prominent role in the mutual conversation of our embryonic generals.

Ation of an excuse is called a "ba-che." Read: "Did you ever hear of 'Beat Barracks'?" Pibbe—new men—beats by the upper classmen. At other times does the term Beat seem so appealingly applicable to a plebe as during his first three weeks at the Point.

How many outsiders have any idea of what an upper classman means? A plebe, in the vernacular of the West Point, is a "plebe" or "pleb." The word "plebe" is a term of contempt.

KING WIELDS PICK LIKE REAL MINER ON VISIT TO YORKSHIRE

Model Village of Woodlands Attracts Their Majesties—Queen Enters and Inspects Mrs. Brown's Cottage.

London, August 2.—The keen interest which their majesties habitually take in all that concerns their subjects in every rank of life was never more clearly shown than on their recent visit to the West Riding of Yorkshire.

Their Majesties left Westworth Woodhouse, the seat of Earl Fitzwilliam, at 10 o'clock and motored to Rotherham, where they were formally received by the mayor and other officials.

The journey was then resumed, the royal party motoring slowly through many little villages, where the brave, though humble, attempts at decoration as well as the fervent cheers of the waiting crowds showed that there was no lack of loyalty among this class of their majesties' subjects.

ANOTHER MINISTER TO VISIT ST. JOHN

Hon. Martin Burrell Leaves for Maritime Provinces Monday—Tenders for Section of Hudson Bay Road.

Ottawa, Aug. 2.—Hon. Martin Burrell, Minister of Agriculture, will leave the capital on Monday next for the maritime provinces.

Tenders for the second section of the Hudson Bay Railway from Spirit Lake to Thicket Portage were closed today.

Having devoted their energies almost exclusively to the mining districts on the first day of their York-shire visit, their majesties turned their attention to another and no less important branch of the activity of that very active country.

Their majesties who were received by Frank Wood, the managing director passed under a triumphal archway.

MAY ROBSON NEXT WEEK IN VERY FUNNY COMEDY

May Robson, who has won a definite position in her profession and earned a recognition from the public and the press by her excellent portrayal of eccentric characters, has in collaboration with O. T. Dacey, written her new starring vehicle, "Night Out."

The story and action of the piece is entirely different from "The Rejection of Anne May," but offers a greater and more fitting opportunity for the brilliant actress to illustrate in part the phases of hereditary influence, not seriously, but in full measure for Miss Robson's genius for characterization and humor.

Her majesties who were received by Frank Wood, the managing director passed under a triumphal archway.

DOCTORS COULD NOT HELP MY KIDNEYS

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Me

Mr. Geo. W. Barkley, Chesham, Ont., Jan. 27th, 1911. "For over twenty years I have been troubled with Kidney Disease and the doctors told me they could do me no good. They said my case was incurable and I would suffer all my life. I doctored with different medical men and tried many different remedies, but there was none that suited my case. Nearly a year ago, I tried 'Fruit-a-tives'. I have been using them nearly all the time since, and am glad to say that I am cured. I have no trouble now with my kidneys and I give 'Fruit-a-tives' the credit of doing what the doctors said was impossible. I am seventy-six years old and am in first class health."

WINNER OF OLYMPIC MARATHON

South Africa was prepared for its fleet-footed policeman, K. K. Arthur, when he won the Olympic marathon. As soon as he finished Arthur was picked up bodily and a laurel wreath placed upon his brow. McArthur has never been defeated in a marathon and his friends were confident he would do the same this time.

HOULTON DEFEATED GREEKS F'TON DOWNED WOODSTOCK

HOULTON, 7; MARATHONS, 2

A large crowd of people saw the Marathons play a loose game of ball on the Marathons grounds yesterday afternoon, and lose to Houlton by a score of 7 to 2.

Winkler pitched a good steady game of ball for the Greeks, only eight hits being made off him, but no pitcher could win with such wretched support. Winkler made off Martini, the Houlton pitcher, and one of his hits made in the second inning drove in one of the runs made by the Greeks.

Martini pitched good ball, but was not as steady as the Greek pitcher. He managed to strike out eight Marathons, however. The only runs made by the Greeks came in the second inning, when two errors and three singles were responsible. After this the Marathons made no bases in every inning but could not score.

Three hits, two stolen bases and two errors gave the Houlton team three runs in the sixth inning.

In the seventh inning Houlton gained two more runs without a hit, giving five bases on balls.

The following is an account of the game by innings.

FIRST INNING. Connors hit out pitcher to first. Johnson singled to right and went to second on loft's out. Pinkerton hit to Watt hit to Fryer who fumbled and Johnson went to third. Fryer struck out. Fryer hit through Neptune's legs and went to second when Martini threw bad to first. Dutton singled to left and Fryer scored. Do White singled to centre while Dutton went to third. The ball was thrown home and then returned to second where White was singled to right. Dutton scored and Riley went to third. O'Brien struck out.

Watt pitched to centre and Hughes sacrificed out to first. Martini flied out to Dutton at first. Martini hit to centre for two bases and Watt scored. Hammond hit out. Pinkerton to Dutton.

"OLD MAIDS" WOULD EXILE PASTOR FOE

Quaker City Spinsters Think the Rev. Elmer V. Huffner an Inhuman Individual—Argue They're Useful.

Philadelphia, August 2.—Quaker City "old maids," if such a term may be applied to spinsters, think the Rev. Elmer V. Huffner, of Grand Junction, Col., is an entirely inhuman individual and should himself be sent to a barren island for his criticism of bachelor maids as detrimental to society.

They say that it indeed would be a cold and cruel world without their presence, as there are those who would be lonely enough without them, and then again there are those whose greatest source of livelihood would be materially curtailed—to wit, the cartoonists.

Miss Vida Hunt Francis, suffragist, educator, and social worker; Miss Caroline Katzenstein and Miss Sara Tomkins, noted social workers, today took up the cudgils for their sex.

"Do you ever think of the different ways in which unmarried men and women are considered?" asked Miss Katzenstein. "Why there is always something pleasant said about a bachelor, and persons wonder why he was so fortunate to have some romance in his life spoiled by an untimely turn of fate."

"Do you ever hear anybody say the same nice things about an old maid?" No, indeed. You always see the familiar stereotyped picture, and some one is unfeeling enough to remark that she must have been the unfortunate member of the family that no one ever thought of loving. It does not make any difference how many men have trifled with her heart, the world always looks upon her as the one who has never really known what love means.

Miss Francis was decidedly against the minister's suggestion for she is afraid that as barren islands are unproductive there are no restaurants for the bachelor maids to eat.

Miss Tomkins who is the sister of Philadelphia's most noted Episcopalian divine, said the idea was most absurd. She declared that "single women are doing more for the world today than all of the married ones. There are more avenues available for them to express their feelings, and because of this they are accomplishing so much good. Simply because some of us have never met the man in whom we felt we could be happy is no reason we should as a class be isolated and made to end the work that we are doing."

RESENTS CHICAGO'S SLUR AGAINST PIE

Baltimore Increases Demand by 80,000,000 a Year, Assert the Bakers—Everybody There Eats It.

Baltimore, Md., August 2.—Baltimore and Boston still are loyal to pie. No matter what stand crude and unpolished Chicago may take these two cities of the "effete East" will remain loyal to the last. As if in a spirit of resentment of the slur cast upon an ancient and honorable institution, bakers here asserted today by a number of leading bakers, is paying greater homage to pie than ever before.

"Pie's" said one baker, in an inquisitive tone. "Why our plant is sending out twenty-five more pies a day now than we were selling last year. The question of the alleged decline in pie was discussed at a meeting of our local association just a few nights ago, and the consensus of opinion was that pie never was more popular than it is now in Baltimore."

You may depend upon it, Baltimore will never turn its back on that delectable food. Really, Baltimore instead of Boston should be called the home of the pie. Nobody ever saw a man wind up a dinner in the Municipal City without devouring a quarter section of mince, apple, peach, strawberry, coconut or cherry pie.

Statistics apparently support the statements of the bakers interviewed. From figures obtained from more than a score of the largest bakeries it is shown that Baltimore's 750,000 inhabitants are consuming 200,000 pies a day. There are 400 bakeries in the city, and one firm increased its output in the last twelve months by 4,000,000 to 4,200,000 pies. Other pie plants report corresponding increases. It is estimated that the 1912 output will be 500,000,000 pies more than were made in this city last year. Most of these pies were those big ones that cut out slices in the restaurants and lunchrooms and four in the home.

Everybody in Baltimore eats pie, and still the city stands high in the health reports. Pie is the common leveler here. It is upon the tables of the fashionable Charles street homes and in the humblest cottages and tenements.

Pie for breakfast? Not yet in Baltimore, say the pie-makers.

THE COST OF TIPPING GOING UP A BIT TOO

Middle Westerner Figures Up Gifts for Day and Night in New York—Paid $5.10 in 24 Hours.

New York, N. Y., Aug. 2.—"Tipping is going up all the time," growled a middle westerner yesterday. "I travel a great deal and my statement is true, not only of New York, but of the whole country. When you tipped a waiter a quarter for a meal that cost anything up to $2 you used to get thanked. Nowadays you either do not get a thank acknowledgment or the thanks are granted in a fashion that indicates that the waiter has your measure for the next time."

"It is getting more and more expensive all the time to stop at a hotel. Not long ago I was here for a night and a day, and when I took the train for home I happened to get to thinking on the money I had paid out in that twenty-four hours for tips, and it appalled me."

"I had a heavy bag with me, and when the bellboy brought it up to my room I felt compelled to hand him a quarter. Then I ordered ice water and another bellboy brought it, to whom I gave the customary dime. The first thing in the morning a night letter was brought to my room and I coughed up 10 cents for it."

"When I went in to breakfast I paid 100 per cent. over the price printed on it for my morning newspaper. For the tip at my breakfast I paid 25 cents and when I came out of the dining room I had to hand the cloak room attendant a dime for my hat."

"When I returned to my room there was no stationery there and I had to order some. I paid the bellboy 10 cents when he brought it. At lunch I had to shell out another quarter for a tip to the waiter and another dime for my hat. I had to send for the valet to have a pair of trousers pressed. Besides the charge for this, which appeared later in my bill, I tipped him 25 cents. He expected it, as did the others."

"I had to send out my laundry in the morning, and to the boy who attended to it I gave a dime. When it came back in the afternoon I paid the boy who brought it another dime. During the day I used the telephone ten times and had to overpay the rightful charge 100 per cent. each time."

"While sitting in the lobby late in the afternoon I was three times passed and I had to give the boy 10 cents each time for finding me. I gave the porter a quarter for getting my railroad ticket for me."

"At dinner in the evening I entertained two friends and I had to give the waiter a dollar to be allowed to depart with my self-respect. On the table was a novel ornament in which I expressed interest. The captain, who was hovering near, said he would have it thoroughly explained to me, and the first thing I knew an electrician and his helper were at my elbow taking the thing apart and putting it upside down, when I could have made all the investigation I needed myself."

"It took them thirty minutes to explain the thing to my satisfaction. Then they stood awkwardly about and I was much embarrassed. I didn't know whether the electrician was a $2 man or a 25 cent one. Finally I drew 75 cents from my pocket and handed it over, so the three in the deal could split it up evenly."

"I got ready to take the train

TELLS OF WIDOW KILLED AS WITCH

The Principal Reason for Her Condemnation was that She Was French and Couldn't Speak English.

Esperance, meaning hope, is one of the oldest villages in these parts, says the Albany Knickerbocker Press. It was known as State Bridge in the Revolution, a name which occurs often in the multi-volumes issued at that time. General William North, an aid on the staff of Washington, lived there for a time, for the scene of the creek and the village nestles by the creek at the very bottom of a great basin spreading out to the north, south and west. The atmosphere is always clear, and the verdure usually is tinged with the rich blackness which it gets from thunderstorms.

General North bought the land where the village now stands and established a system of ground rents which every one buying a lot and owning a house had to pay, a practice which continued for more than a hundred years. His daughter, Henrietta, described as a gifted woman, changed the name of this pretty spot to Esperance.

On the hill above Esperance is an old stone church, whose exact date is not known. But there is a tradition connected with it which goes back until it was a vivid memory in the minds of men. During the Napoleonic wars a soldier of France, wandering westward with his wife and babies to find a home, came to the pretty hamlet on the Boholiarie and decided to stay. The man did not look at any of the houses, but before long some misfortune was laid to her, so that the townfolk came to look upon her as a witch.

This sealed her fate. In a solemn concave in the church her death was voted and she was shot with silver bullets moulded from teaspoons some one had brought from down East. The men chosen for the task peered in at her cabin window and saw her cooking in front of the open fire. Two floor beside her when they raised their clammy weapons and fired.

She was buried with a stake through her head and an evergreen tree was planted to mark the spot.

after the theatre for which, by the way I had to pay 25 per cent. increase to get tickets that were worth having. I presented 25 cents to the chambermaid who looked after my room and a quarter to the porter who brought down my grip. Then I remembered I had left an umbrella at the check room and it cost me 10 cents to get this. Then the taxicab driver expected a tip and I fished out a quarter and when I reached the station there was another quarter to give to the porter who took my bag to the train.

"Just in tips alone my twenty-four hours in New York cost me exactly $5.10, not counting overcharges for telephoning and the premium on theatre tickets."

"You may say I did not have to give any tips. I leave none that was not expected, and if I hadn't tipped it would have been remembered against me on my next visit."

Just Hold the GILLETTE Naturally

Shaving with the GILLETTE is not a fine art, nor does it require skilled labor. You may be "no good with tools," yet you can shave yourself easily and well with the Gillette Safety Razor.

Hold it lightly, as illustrated, and it falls naturally into the right shaving position, blade edge just touching the skin. Then draw it across the face, not too fashion, but with the Angle Stroke shown, and the keen GILLETTE blade will cut smoothly in any direction—with the grain, across it, or against it.

If you want a light shave, or if your skin is tender, screw the handle tight.

If you want a close shave, loosen the handle about a quarter turn. This allows the blade to spring away from the guard a fittle and take more hold. Buy a GILLETTE and forget your shaving troubles.

Standard Sets, $5.00. Pocket Editions, $5.00 to $6.00. Combination Sets, $6.50 up.

New Uniforms for Police. The members of the police force received their new uniforms last night, they having been delivered at police headquarters by the makers, D. Pidgeon.

Cabby and Chauffeur Clash. There was considerable excitement on Charlotte street last evening when an automobile and a cab entered the narrow space where the improvements are being carried out.

Children Strayed Away. Two children, a girl named Callaghan, and a boy named Merrick, strayed away from their homes on Hamilton street yesterday afternoon.

Injured by Fall. Michael McKeown, aged about 70, tripped over the car tracks on Main street near Harrison street, about 8 o'clock last evening and was rendered unconscious by the fall.

Slaughter House Commissioners. Dr. Berryman presided at the monthly meeting of the Slaughter House Commissioners yesterday afternoon when after the routine business was transacted the monthly reports from the different slaughter houses, showing the number of animals killed were presented as follows:

Brisk Market Today. Today will see a brisk trade going on in the country market, as the dealers expect a considerable quantity of produce from the farmers near the city. The retail prices are as follows: Lamb, 14 to 20 cents a pound; veal, 14 to 20 cents a pound; beef, 10 to 15 cents a pound; ham and bacon, 25 cents a pound; chickens, $1.25 to $1.75 a pair; lettuce, carrots, radishes and beets, 5 cents a bunch; new potatoes, 50 cents a peck; new turnips, 50 cents a peck; peas and string beans, 50 cents a peck; celery, 10 cents a bunch.

Ottawa Geologist Here. G. A. Young, of the geological department at Ottawa, arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. Young has been visiting different parts of the province in connection with the visit of the party of eminent geologists who from different parts of the world are to visit here next year.

Children as Entertainers. The entertainment given by the children of the Aberdeen playground last evening was attended by a large number of people, all of whom enjoyed the open air concert to the full. The programme which consisted of choruses, solos, reading and dances, went off with a swing which marked it for success from the start.

Wash Materials. Unseasonable weather accounts for the big stock of wash materials that F. A. Dykeman and Co. have on hand at the present time. They are going to clear out these large stocks at such attractive prices that one will be induced to have a new summer garment whether they want it or not.

Your Tailor's Bill is too High. Have your old garments dry cleaned and you will reduce your dress bill at least 35 per cent. Try Unzer's, 25 Waterloo street.

DEALINGS IN REAL ESTATE STILL BRISK

Activity in Propositions Here Very General at Present. WHOLE CITY BOOMING. Montreal Capitalists Convinced that St. John Real Estate Offers the Best Buy in Canada.

Although the noise which accompanied the real estate boom in its early stages has subsided, there is no reason to be taken as an indication that the boom is dead. On the contrary each day sees a number of property transfers in the city. While the exchanges are not confined to any particular section of the city, a number of the transfers affect the vicinity of Brussels street and during the past week several properties have changed hands some of them at high figures. In view of the development in progress at Courtenay Bay, this section of the city has recently been enhanced in value.

Montreal Interested. Speaking of St. John real estate, a Montreal dealer said the other evening that the interest in the boom still continues in Montreal, and despite the large amount of building in progress here, the possibilities which St. John offers are realized by Montreal people. That outside parties are appreciative of the opportunities here is evidenced by the fact that a number of transfers being made are to parties to pass into the possession of outside parties is the freehold property at 300 Union street, formerly owned by P. C. Starkey. The property includes two houses, with barns in the rear and its dimensions are 40x100 feet. This sale takes the present real estate activities to another section of the city inasmuch as this is the first property to be turned over on this part of Union street. To what purpose the new owners will turn the property is not known. The deal was put through by Allison and Thomas.

Big Propositions Needed. Regarding local real estate generally, a prominent real estate broker told The Standard that one of the weak features as far as outside capitalists are concerned, is that St. John offers but few really big propositions to interest the big dealers. For this reason the work of reclaiming the 90 acres at the ballast wharf would prove a great scheme, and would catch the interest of outsiders looking for big propositions in which to invest who deal only in numbers of six figures.

VICE REGAL PARTY TO TRAVEL BY RAIL TO FREDERICTON

Have Changed Plans Regarding River Trip and will go to Capital from St. Andrews. Lieut. Gov. Josiah Wood arrived in the city yesterday and is at the Royal. The lieutenant governor came to the city to meet Premier Fleming. To The Standard last evening, Gov. Wood said that as yet he could not say if their Highnesses will be given an official reception by the provincial government as a body, the matter, however, will probably be taken up at the meeting of the government to be held next week at Fredericton. One matter in connection with the vice-regal party's visit to Fredericton, however, has been definitely announced, namely, their arrival by train instead of by boat as before announced. The party will arrive in the capital on the morning of the 24th inst., by train about 10 o'clock, going from St. Andrews to Fredericton. At 11 o'clock the re-dedication of Christ church cathedral will be held and in the ceremonies they will take part. For the entertainment of the party afterwards, the Fitz-Randolph residence has been at the disposal of the lieutenant governor, and it is Gov. Wood's intention to entertain them at a luncheon. Gov. Wood said that he will be present at the reception of the party to be held here.

PERSONAL. Mrs. Fred K. Smith and daughter, Dorothy, accompanied by Mrs. Smith's sister, Miss Laura Gleason, are here today after an automobile trip through Eastport, Calais and St. Stephen. Mrs. F. I. Smith and Miss E. McLean, of M. R. A.'s retail millinery department, left on the Boston train last night to attend the New York millinery openings. Father F. Mulliney, of Roxbury, Mass., and Father Martin Maloney, of St. Peter's rectory, left yesterday on a mission to Prince Edward Island. The Misses Jessie and Matilda Chariton returned from Halifax yesterday evening. Hon. J. K. Flemming and Mrs. Fleming were in the city yesterday. John Gorman, of the audit department, Ottawa, is at the Royal.

THE RECTORY OF FAIRVILLE WILL RETIRE

Synod Grants Retiring Allowance to Rev. W. B. McKel. ROTHESAY COLLEGE. Reports to Synod Executive Show that Diocesan School Has Completed Most Successful Year.

The executive committee of the diocesan synod met yesterday afternoon with Bishop Richardson in the chair. The meeting was highly satisfactory, about 40 ministers being present and about the same number of laymen. During the meeting the reports of the board of missions, the board of education, and the board of finance were presented and highly satisfactory conditions existed in all departments. Partial arrangements for the re-opening of the cathedral at Fredericton were also announced.

The board of missions reported that nine parishes were without the services of a minister at the present time but that five men are in prospect while the others will be filled with students. The report also showed that at present there are nine young men studying for the ministry at Kings College, Nova Scotia. The report of the board of education dealt chiefly with the Rotheray Collegiate School showing the school to have passed a successful year, the financial surplus being $60. The standing of the students was shown to be satisfactory, three out of the five candidates who tried the McGill matriculation examinations having passed in the former city, the possibility of 70 per cent. It was also announced that the prospects for a large attendance at the school year of 1912-1913 were good, 12 applications being already received.

COURTENAY BAY ROCK NOT LIKE ANY IN CANADA. Dynamite Expert Says Formation is Such as to Make Work of Blasting Extremely Difficult. George Riley, dynamite expert and manager of the firm of Curtis and Harvey, of Montreal, who has been in the city for the past few days, engaged by the Norton Griffiths company to determine the power necessary in the explosives used in blasting at Courtenay Bay, Mr. Riley said yesterday afternoon that the character of the rock is unlike that of any in Canada. He says the rock, while not volcanic, must at some period have been subjected to an enormous pressure which heaved and twisted it in such a manner that it does not lay in any strata, thus making the work of blasting it away extremely difficult. Mr. Riley will spend some time at Courtenay Bay, after which he will turn in his report to W. Norton-Stewart, vice-president and general manager of the Norton Griffiths Company, and P. R. Warren, chief engineer, left last evening for Montreal.

YACHT STRUCK REEF IN REVERSING FALLS; IS STILL ON ROCKS

A serious accident occurred in the Reversible Falls yesterday when a large yacht which was being towed through the rapids, struck on the reef between Murray and Gregory's mill and the island nearest the shore. At the time of the accident the tide was running strongly up river and those in charge of the large motor boat which was towing the yacht started through the falls on the last run of the tide. As was to be expected a great help they made good speed until the reef was reached when the yacht grounded with such a crash that her bow, according to an eye witness, rose four feet out of the water. Although the vessel was apparently made to pull the boat off, none were successful, but it is hoped to tow the yacht from her precarious position on the reef by means of the heavy cable. The yacht is being held in place by the force of the current, and every turn will throw her off the reef and break her to pieces on the rocks below.

NEW LIGHTING PLAN FOR THE EXHIBITION

At a meeting of the buildings and grounds committee of the exhibition association yesterday afternoon, the matter of installing a new lighting system in the buildings and grounds was taken up, and tenders are to be called for in connection with the work of doing away with the present system and substituting Tungsol lights. The main building will be re-wired, and with the new system both building and grounds will show wonderful improvement. In addition to the improvements in lighting effects to be provided by the new system, all danger in the aeroplane flights, which are to be a big feature of the free amusement list will be eliminated. In the main building, which is the property of the city, necessary minor repairs are being effected, and everything is being put in readiness for the opening day. The sale of the five for a dollar tickets went into effect yesterday. A change has been made in the make up of the tickets this year, which will meet with the approval of purchasers. Instead of being in booklet form, this season's five for $1.00 ticket is in one piece, consisting of a ticket good for one admission, and four detachable coupons good each for one admission. The tickets were placed on sale yesterday, and will be found at central stores throughout the city. Arrangements are also being made whereby merchants who wish these tickets to supply their customers can secure them.

POHOLKO WAS ROBBED BY HIS AUSTRIAN CHIMP

Policeman Smith Lands Thief in a Pond Street House. VICTIM GAVE ALARM. Excitement When Joseph Goodkosky was Arrested for Theft of $30—Some Money Found on Him.

Joseph Goodkosky, aged 32, a native of Austria, was arrested in a pond street house kept by Louis Faber, on Pond street, by Policeman John J. Smith last evening and was charged with stealing $30 from another Austrian named Wilko Poholko of the same street. The theft was discovered by Poholko when he went to his room for the money which he kept in a pocket of one of his suits. Poholko at once raised a great outcry and after much argument was engaged by the officer. Police Officer Smith then Goodkosky had stolen the money. The complaint resulted in Goodkosky being placed behind the bars in the North End police station.

Poholko, who speaks broken English had a hard time explaining to the officer the nature of his charge, and it was not until another Austrian arrived on the scene that the matter was cleared up. When the prisoner was searched at the police station $23 were found. For some time past both these men have been employed on the King street improvement, working steadily up till last Saturday night when they demanded their money and were accordingly paid off. During the past week it is understood that Poholko has been loafing around Pond street.
