NUMBER OF TRUSTEES FAVOR WAR VETERAN AS SECRETARY FOR BOARD OF EDUCATION

Providing Returned Man With Necessary Qualifications Can Be Secured—Nothing Will Be Done Regarding the Appointment Until No. 3 Committee Meets Friday.

"Nothing at all will be done, nor has anything been done as yet, in regard to applications for the position of secretary of the board of education until after the special meeting appointed to advertise the vacancy meets at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon," declared an official of the board this morning.

"The publication of any names as being those of applicants for the position at the present time it is to my mind a distinct breach of faith and very much like playing politics with a degree to get ahead of the other fellow. Especially is this the case when at least one of alleged applicants for the post has not entered an application and according to his own statement will not do so until the position has been duly advertised and the qualifications desired by the board stated," added the speaker.

This statement followed a question put by an Advertiser reporter as to the authenticity of the report carried yesterday by a local paper and copied into outside papers that Trustee Edwin Smith, chairman of No. 1 committee and the present acting-secretary W. A. Tanner, have already made application for the post.

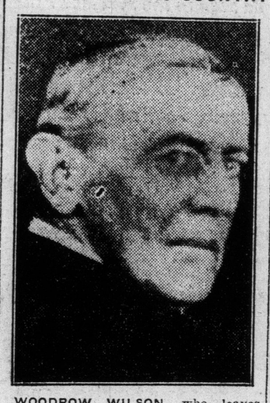

At the meeting of the board of education on Tuesday last when Mr. Tanner announced that four applications for the post had been received it was distinctly stated by Chairman Coleridge that these could not be considered until the special committee appointed by the board to advertise the vacancy had met and properly carried out its duty The committee he declared would decide what qualifications would be necessary in applicants for the position and would then proceed to call for applicants.

In accordance with the chairman's ruling the board ordered that the letters be held and that the contents be not divulged until they could be dealt with by the committee in connection with any other applications that may be received.

That Trustee Smith was among the applicants was known to The Advertiser before the board met, Mr. Smith having made a definite statement to this effect to a reporter, but, having regard to the expressed wish of the board no use was made of the information. With regard to the alleged application of acting-secretary W. A. Tanner the information in possession of The Advertiser, given by himself, was to the effect that he has not made formal application and will not till the position has been advertised in due form, though it is his purpose to do so.

While realizing that special qualifications are necessary for the post a number of trustees are strongly in favor of the vacancy being filled by a returned man providing one having the absolutely necessary qualifications can be secured.

REAL NAME OF VINCENT STRONG IS ROBERT HOOD

U. S. Will Grab the Youthful Criminal When He Leaves Kingston in 1928.

LONG CRIMINAL RECORD

Left States On Fishing Tug at Erie and Landed in Port Stanley.

When Vincent G. Strong, the first hold-up man to be captured in London for a series of robberies, was sentenced to seven years, it was thought that he would be free when he walked out of the doors of Kingston Penitentiary in 1928, but it has since been discovered that he is wanted in the United States. His record there is a rather long one.

When D. H. Reynolds, traveling chief inspector of immigration, Ottawa, visited Kingston Penitentiary, he learned that Strong's real name was Robert G. Hood, and that he was a native of Mayville, N. Y. The inspector proceeded to investigate his record there, and found that Hood was a hardened criminal.

In 1915 he was sentenced to fourteen months in the Rochester, N. Y., industrial school for truancy. He escaped, and for this jail-breaking act was sentenced to three years in the Elmwood Home in Penneylvania.

On December 26, 1918, he was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary at Elmira, N. Y., for burglary, and was paroled in January, 1920.

On October 4, while he was awaiting trial at Erie, Pa., on charges of burglary in the third degree and grand larceny in the first degree, he and a man named Rowers escaped from the Chautauqua County jail. Powers was recaptured and sent to Auburn State prison. Hood boarded a fishing tug at Erie, which was bound for Port Stanley, where it had come for repairs.

After arriving on the Canadian shore he continued to rob houses, and was captured in December by the local detectives, with the result that he was convicted on seven counts and sent to Kingston Penitentiary.

James S. McCallum, sheriff of Mayville County, New York, sent out a circular at the time of Hood's escape, offering $50 reward for his apprehension.

BURGLARIES IN SOUTH AND EAST LONDON CAUSE ALARM CASH AND SHOES ARE STOLEN

W. Newman, Hamilton Road, Robbed of $70—Thieves Take Shoes Valued at $80 From Modern Shoe Store—Police Have Renewed Their Activities.

Two daring burglaries, one in east and the other in South London, Wednesday night have alarmed residents of both those districts, and have called forth renewed activities on the part of the police. Seventy dollars in cash was taken from the store of W. Newman, grocer, 482 Hamilton road, some time between 7 and 10 o'clock in the evening. Shoes valued at more than $80 were taken from the South London branch of the Modern Shoe Repair, Wortley road and Bruce street, either in the afternoon or evening. The store was closed for the usual half-holiday at 1 o'clock.

The burglary at Newman's store was a particularly bold one. The house was entered by a rear window. A leisurely search was evidently made for the hiding place of some bills. When these were found the till was rifled of all the cash. Usually Mr. Newman is in the store in the evening, but it is closed each Wednesday night. This fact makes him think that the robbery must have been the work of someone familiar with the store, as they apparently knew there was money in the place, and that there was no one at home.

A similar occurrence was reported recently when the laundry of Lee Hop Hing, 450 Hamilton road, was broken into. The burglars obtained a watch and a small amount of cash.

Entrance to the Modern Shoe store was made through a cellar window.

WESTERN MEMBERS OF GOVERNMENT ARE DESIROUS OF PROBE

Grain Trade Inquiry Considered at the Government Caucus This Morning.

DOUBLE RESPONSIBILITY

Sir George Foster's Department Administered Regulations.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, March 3.—In Government caucus this morning it is understood that the question of appointing a commission to investigate the grain trade came up for consideration. Western Government members are strong for the investigation, and it has been proposed that the commission be appointed at once, and before the vote comes on the King "No Confidence" amendment, so that the vote of the Progressives might be construed as indicating fear of the consequences of such an inquiry into their commercial organizations. It has been suggested that the board consist of three men, one to be chosen from the Grain Exchange, one from the grain commission, and the third from the bench.

Mr. Magill, of the Grain Exchange, is here today, and is no doubt looking into the matter. The doctor was formerly head of the grain board, and is probably the greatest authority on grain matters in the Dominion. The investigation is aimed not only at the farmers' grain companies, but at the exchange also.

One of the chief difficulties in the way of the investigation is the fact that since 1919 the grain trade has been under the supervision of the grain board.

Sir George Foster is the creator of the board and under his department its regulations have been administered. If abuses have occurred there is a double responsibility.

BAN ON DIVORCE IS REQUIRED MORE THAN PROHIBITION

Boston, March 3.—Prohibition of divorce is far more needed in the United States than the Volstead act, in the opinion of Rev. J. I. Corrigan, a professor at Boston College.

"If divorces multiply at the same rate in the future as in the past," he said, in an address here last night, "and there is every indication that they were increasing faster, by 1946 we shall have annually in the United States one divorce for every five marriages."

POLITICAL POT WARD FOUR NOT YET BOILING

J. M. Donahue Only Candidate to Enter Lists to Date.

SEVERAL "ON THE FENCE"

G. A. Burdick, J. H. Saunders and Dr. Holmes Considering Possibilities.

While a contest in the Ward 4 by-election is practically assured the situation is likely to remain very indefinite until nominations next Wednesday night. J. M. Donahue is still the only candidate actually in the field. Several others admit that there will not be too large a field.

They feel that none of the candidates would receive a fair measure of support if too many of them are in the running.

George A. Burdick, who was an alderman during 1916, is considering accepting a nomination. He has been approached by a large number of citizens residing in the East London section of the ward. It is believed that he would be strongly supported there and would receive many votes from the other subdivisions as well.

J. H. Saunders of the board of health is another probability. He is a resident of the ward and has had considerable municipal experience as an alderman, controller and member of the board of health.

Dr. L. S. Holmes may be nominated. He represented Ward 1 on the council for several years. He has been residing in Ward 4 for some time now and likely would make a good run in the event of his deciding to allow his name to stand.

Says Dominion's Contributions To Naval Defence Inadequate

London, March 3. — Canadian Associated Press. — Urging that the Imperial Government make an immediate statement of its naval intentions, Admiral Adair, speaking in the Commons last evening, declared that, with the exception of Australia and New Zealand, no dominion was making an adequate contribution to the naval defence of the Emipre. The dominions, he said, ought to contribute two-fifths of the cost of the Empire's navies, but India contributed mighty little, Canada's navy was a lamentable failure and South Africa's contribution was ridiculous in view of her trade. The under secretary to the admiralty said no statement on the naval plans of the Government could be made until the estimates were presented.

MEMBERS OF C. M. A. SHOW GREAT INTEREST IN LONDON FACTORIES

Manufacturing Plants Visited This Morning by Tourists — Acquired Much Valuable Information, Says One Individual—Trip to St. Thomas This Afternoon—Banquet Tonight in London.

The party of Ontario manufacturers at present on tour in order to study industrial conditions in the various cities and towns spent an interesting day in London.

On Thursday morning at 10 o'clock they went on a visit to several of the manufacturing plants of the city, the party being accommodated in automobiles placed at its disposal by the London Motor Club.

The party is headed by John R. Shaw of the Canada Furniture Manufacturers, Woodstock, who is second vice-president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and it includes a number of men prominent in the business life of the province, among whom might be mentioned: Messrs. B. J. McCormick, Canada Foundry and Forgings Company, Welland; James Innes, Sutherland, Innes & Co, Limited, cooperage stock manufacturers, Chatham; C. S. Moneypenny, Imperial Varnish and Color Company, Toronto; J. S. McKay, John Morrow Screw Company, Ingersoll; J. E. Walsh, general manager Canadian Manufacturers' Association; H. McDonald, legal secretary, Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and eight or ten others.

Amongst the plants inspected were those of the McCormick Manufacturing Company, the Ruggles Motor Truck Company, and the McClary Manufacturing Company.

The tourists expressed themselves as delighted with the courtesy and consideration shown them by the managers of the various plants, and were extremely interested in all they saw in the various works.

"In the limited time at our disposal, we acquired much valuable information," declared one of the party. "Views were exchanged at the different places visited, and doubtless there will be some tangible outcome of the 'get-together' idea."

At 12:20 the manufacturers left for St. Thomas via the London and Port Stanley Railway, where a similar program was carried out in the course of the afternoon.

This evening the visitors will be the guests of the London Chamber of Commerce at dinner in the Tecumseh House, and as there are included in the party a number of fluent speakers, well posted in present-day industrial problems, the proceedings promise to be exceedingly interesting.

The suggested turnover tax will form one of the subjects of discussion, and other proposed new legislation will also be refrred to.

The manufacturers, in their tour of Western Ontario, are divided into four parties, and the itinerary of No. 2 party, which has visited this city, also includes Windsor, Chatham and Woodstock.

When interviewed by The Advertiser before the party started on a tour of the city, John R. Shaw, vice-president of the C. M. A., expressed much optimism as the result of the trip through the counties west of this city. He was agreeably surprised to learn that the unemployment situation in Western Ontario was not as bad as it had been pictured generally.

This was especially true in Chatham he said. From conditions in that city as he saw them on Wednesday, he did not believe that there would be an unemployed man there in two weeks' time. He was greatly pleased by the community spirit of Chatham.

Speaking on the purpose of the tour Mr. Shaw said that it made a four-fold purpose. It was the desire of the association to bring the Ontario manufacturers together, to study the industrial conditions in each of the cities and towns to exchange views and information in regard to manufacturing and to give manufacturers an opportunity to meet customers. The members of the association, he said, were also endeavoring to counteract much of the propaganda which he claimed had been widely spread, belittling the organization.

Mr. Shaw believed that industrial conditions were daily showing improvement and he thought that conditions would right themselves in the near future.

The party was accompaanied on its tour of the city by officials of the local Chamber of Commerce and several large manufacturers including, John Bridge, president of the Chamber of Commerce, A. W. White, Frank McCormick, J. A. Lamond, Arthur Ford, J. M. Hunt, F. Forristal, and T. W. McFarland.

LIVES OF FIREMEN ENDANGERED BY OVERHEAD WIRES

Fire Chief Aitken Makes Vigorous Protest to City Council.

Negotiations with the utilities commission to have overhead wires in the downtown district placed in conduits will be opened immediately. Fire Chief Aitken has made a vigorous protest against present conditions, claiming they endanger the lives of firemen and hamper the work of the department.

The overhead wires are particularly dangerous when it is necessary to use the extension ladders at a fire, he states. Firemen raising the ladders have received shocks on several occasions, and it is possible that a fatality may occur unless the situation is remedied. He claimed that conduits for the wires have already been laid.

The advice of the city solicitor will be sought by No. 1 committee of the city council before taking up the matter with the utilities commission.

Ald. Harley remarked regarding the situation that the hydro wires had been put overhead temporarily several years ago, but had remained there ever since.

EX-CHIEF OF POLICE OF DUNNVILLE SAYS MAGISTRATE TOO EASY

Stephen Ackerman Declares David Hastings "an Upright Man."

FLAYS GOSSIPERS

Interest in Probe Lags, Now That Dunnville's "Best Cellars" Revealed.

Cayuga, March 3.—There was a falling off in the attendance at the judicial inquiry into the administration of justice in Dunnville, general interest lagging since the "best cellars" in the town were revealed. At the opening of the inquiry John Counsell, counsel for David Hastings, arose to ask if the crown officer had received from the attorney-general the original petition sent for the reinstatement of the magistrate, but was interrupted by Attorney McPherson, who objected to "the regular morning harangue" about the attorney-general, and the commissioner ruled against any further discussion on alleged charges, or charges not before him. Mr. Counsell said the court and crown officer were in error in anticipating his remarks. He wanted to know of the petition which the crown had sent for had arrived. Mr. McPherson said he would put the petition in at the time he considered proper, and declined to answer Mr. Counsell's further questions on the petition.

Captain J. E. Hurt asked permission to correct his testimony of yesterday by stating that he was in error when he intimated that there had been a breach of confidence on the part of the officer of the crown by calling on him to testify. After sleeping the matter over he came to the conclusion that there

REFUSES TO COMMUTE SENTENCE OF DEATH

Albany, March 3.—The fact that the young man previously bore a good reputation and was led astray by evil associates is no ground for the exercise of executive clemency, Governor Miller said today in refusing to interfere with the death sentence of Guy Nichols, who is to be executed tonight.

Nichols was convicted of slaying a Brooklyn shopkeeper in 1919. Jesse Walker, a companion, who with Nichols entered the shop with the intention of robbing, already has paid the death penalty.

ALLIED ARMIES READY TO TAKE OVER GERMAN AREAS UNLESS BERLIN GOVERNMENT ACCEPTS TERMS BY NOON ON MONDAY

Cities of Duisburg, Dusseldorf and Ruhrdorf Will Be Occupied First by Allied Troops—Important Mines and Iron Plants Are in This Area—Tax on German Merchandise Will Be Levied by Each Allied Nation—Customs Boundary Along Rhine Under Allied Control Will Be Established—Plans Completed to Enforce Payment of Reparations.

London, March 3.—Germany was today given until Monday noon to accept the fundamental conditions laid down by the supreme council at Paris. The German delegates were informed by the Allied representatives today that if Germany does not accept those terms the Allies will take immediate steps.

The first will be the occupation by Allied troops of the cities of Duisburg, Duesseldorf and Ruhrdorf, the region in Germany which contains important mines and iron plants.

Second, each Allied country will place such a tax on German merchandise as it may deem proper.

Third, a customs boundary along the Rhine, under Allied control, will be established.

The German delegation was informed the Allies would not reduce the period of 42 years allotted for the payment of the total amount of reparations by Germany.

Germany's counter-proposals, [illegible] were submitted to the Allies on [illegible] day, were not susceptible of [illegible] tion, Mr. Lloyd George told [illegible] Simons, head of the German [illegible] in substance, after today's [illegible] the conference had assembled [illegible] James Palace at noon.

Mr. Lloyd George said the attitude taken by the German Empire regarding reparations was, in addition, a grave violation of the obligations of Germany toward the Allies. He reminded the German representatives that their government had not fulfilled the Treaty of Versailles relative to coal deliveries, disarmament, the payment of 20,000,000,000 marks in gold and the punishment of German officers and soldiers accused of crimes during the war.

Turkish and Greek representatives will be heard by the Allies on Friday. At that time Premier Kalogeropoulos, head of the Greed delegation to the Near East conference, will, it is said, inform the Allies that his government has been unable to accept the plan for an investigation of conditions in Thrace and Smyrna by an inter-allied commission.

Djavid Bey, foreign minister of the Turkish Government in Constantinople, arrived here yesterday.

Germany, added the British prime minister, in refusing to accept the concessions proposed by the Allies with regard to reparations, had by the same act renounced the advantages granted her at the previous conference with the Allies.

Mr. Lloyd George then, on behalf of the Allies, announced the ultimatum.

After Mr. Lloyd George had finished, Dr. Simons, for the Germans, said the intentions of the German government had been quite misunderstood. The German delegation, he said, would reply at noon on Monday.

"In our opinion," added the German foreign minister, "no occasion will arise for the sanctions set forth by the Allied powers."

Dr. Simons said the Germans would examine the British prime minister's speech and the Allied documents most carefully.

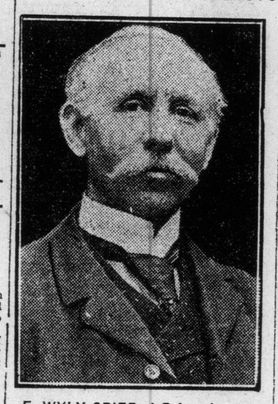

MILLIONS STILL DUE.

Paris, March 3.—Germany's deliveries applicable to the reparations account, including war material, are estimated at 8,000,000,000 gold marks, it was announced by the allied reparations committee here today. This would leave 12,000,000,000 marks due on the first 20,000,000,000 marks Germany would pay under the Versailles treaty.

TUITION FEES INCREASED.

Cambridge, Mass., March 3.—An increase in tuition fees at Harvard University, made necessary by an advance in expenses and an estimated deficit for this year of more than $300,000, was announced by the corporation and the board of overseers today. The increase ranges from $50 to $75 per year.

HAS POOR OPINION OF CUBISTS

E. WYLY GRIER, A.R.A., who states that there is a menace in the art of today. The cubist and futurist pictures are, to his mind, not yet established as real art. He hopes, however, that the time will come when they will carry more appeal to mankind.

HUNDREDS PAY TRIBUTE TO MRS. HARRIET BOOMER

Impressive Services Were Conducted This Afternoon at Cronyn Memorial Church.

Hundreds of citizens this afternoon wended their way to Cronyn Memorial Church to pay a last tribute to Mrs. Harriet Ann Boomer, perhaps London's most philanthropic and patriotic worker, who died on Tuesday at her home, 393 William street.

A short private service was held at her residence, and then the cortege proceeded to the Cronyn Memorial Church, the casket being borne by six students of Huron College. The service was fully choral, and the choir, following the sentences read by Rev. David Williams, Bishop of Huron, sang, "Just as I am Without One Plea." Rev. Archdeacon Richardson read the lesson, and in a brief address Bishop Williams paid tribute to Mrs. Boomer and her priceless worth to the community. Rev. G. Q. Warner, rector of Cronyn Memorial Church, also assisted at the altar. A communion service, with special prayers for Mrs. Boomer, was held in the church this morning.

The choir rendered beautifully. "When on My Day of Life the Night Is Falling," and as a recessional, the Nunc Dimittis. The casket was covered with numerous bouquets of violets and other flowers. That the floral tributes should be of one or two flowers was the special request of Mrs. Boomer, and her many friends and admirers carried this out, with the exception of large organizations when the tribute was a wreath or cross.

The remains were interred in Woodland Cemetery. The pallbearers were Judge T. Macbeth, T. G. Meredith, F. P. Betts, H. F. Skey, E. B. Smith and Hon. C. S. Hyman.

All the organizations affiliated with the Local Council of Women were represented at the funeral, as well as the Red Cross Society, the Canadian Club, the board of education, the Mothers' Union, I.O.D.E., and Victorian Order of Nurses, and No. 4 Nursing Division, St. John Ambulance Association.

The following women represented the National Council of Women: Mrs. O.C. Edwards, McLeod, Alta.; Dr. Augusta Stowe-Cullen, Mrs. Willoughby Cummings and Mrs. Horace Parsons of Toronto; Lady Gibson of Hamilton; Ald. (Mrs.) Twidale of Niagara Falls; Mrs. Sutherland of Brantford; Mrs. Gilbert of St. Thomas, and presidents of local councils in Strathroy, Stratford, Woodstock, St. Catharines and other Ontario cities.

Mrs. Boomer was Harriet Ann Mills, daughter of Thomas Milliken Mills of Taunton, Somersetshire, England, solicitor, and his wife, Ann Benton. She was born in 1835. In 1851 Mrs. Mills and her two daughters, May Louisa and Harriet Ann sailed for York Factory on James Bay. Mrs. Mills having at the request of Bishop Anderson, then Bishop of Rupertsland, undertaken the charge of a school for children of Hudson Bay Company officials. From York Factory they journeyed chiefly by canoe to Red River Settlement, now Winnipeg. In 1854, Mrs. Boomer's sister was married in Red River Settlement to Mr. Francis G. Johnson, then governor, under the Hudson Bay Company, of Assiniboia, and afterwards Sir Francis Johnson, chief justice of the superior court in the Province of Quebec.

Mrs. Boomer was later married to Alfred R. Roche, then connected with the Canada Company. In the middle 80's Mrs. Boomer sailed for South Africa, where Mr. Roche had an interest in some mines. On their return he died and was buried at sea. Mrs. Boomer has written an account of the whole voyage in a book entitled "On Trek in the Transvaal."

Some years later she was married to the late Very Reverend Michael Boomer, dean of the Diocese of Huron, and since that time has spent most of her life and energies in London. Mrs. Boomer's sister, Lady Johnson, left two sons, Frederick W. G. and Charles R. G., both of Montreal. The former died two years ago in Montreal, and the latter is now in London to act as chief mourner at the funeral.

COMMISSION TO REPORT.

Vancouver, March 3.—Harold G. Young, Canadian Red Cross commissioner in Russia is on his way to Ottawa to report on conditions in Siberia, says conditions there are simply appalling.

SOVIET TROOPS QUELL REVOLT IN PETROGRAD

Under-Secretary Makes an Announcement in Commons.

London, March 3.—Latest reports received by the British Government tend to show that the Russian Soviet Government troops have suppressed the revolt in Petrograd and Moscow, Cecil B. Harmsworth, under secretary for foreign affairs, stated in the House of Commons today.

Reports similar to those published in the press concerning the disorders had reached the British representatives in the Balkan states, he said.

Decided Slump in Shipbuilding in England

London, March 3.—Almost 20 per cent of the shipbuilding berths in England are vacant, writes a correspondent of the Morning Post, and shipbuilders have no contracts on hand for ships to be laid down. Shortly, as the ships under construction are completed, he declares, the number of vacant berths will be increased. Within the last twelve months twice as many orders have been cancelled as have been placed.

"While costs remain at the existing high level there is no chance of British shipbuilders getting new orders in any quantity," the writer continues. "More particularly is this the case when there is so much German tonnage being offered for sale on behalf of the government. The depression in shipping can best be measured by the length of time it is taking the ministry of shipping to get rid of this tonnage, especially when it is borne in mind that these vessels are obtained at half or one-third of what it costs to build new ships. Shipping and shipbuilding have outstripped the needs of commerce."

Are Canadian Chickens Laying Eggs For Ex-Kaiser's Breakfast?

John S. Martin, Port Dover Breeder, Sold Pen of Famous White Wyandottes To Baroness Von Bentinck, Wife of Wilhelm's Entertainer.

That the White Wyandotte Breeders' Association of Western Ontario is a very wide awake organization was demonstrated last night when a gathering of upwards of a hundred enthusiastic fanciers of the breed assembled in Ulster Hall to participate in an interesting program. Members were present from Windsor, St. Catharines, North Bay and other distant points and the feature of the evening was an address by John S. Martin, Port Dover, who bears an international reputation as a White Wyandotte specialist.

King of Poultrymen.

Mr. Adams, London, president of the association, occupied the chair, and in introducing Mr. Martin said that he was known as the king of the poultrymen of Canada.

Mr. Martin said that the White Wyandotte breed was in a strong position, not only in Canada, but in other countries, particularly in England. The breed was more than holding its own all over the world. They might be surprised to know that he had sent several pens to Germany, one of which was to Van Mackensen, a nephew of the general of that name, and another to the Baroness von Bentinck, whose husband has been entertaining the kaiser since his flight into Holland.

It was therefore quite probable that eggs laid by Canadian White Wyandottes had been served up for the kaiser's breakfast. The great market for the breed, however, was in the United States, where fowls and settings of eggs were distributed by the Government to school children and young [illegible].

Traced History of Breed.

Martin then gave an interesting [illegible] of how he had gone in for the [illegible] twenty years ago, and had [illegible] ever since. He traced the history of the White Wyandotte and described its desirable points, maintaining that the breed today has a shape that is conducive to the highest utility qualities, and that as an egg-producer it could hold its own with any other bird.

There was at present a big movement on foot to combine utility qualities with those qualities which appealed to the fancier, but he warned his hearers against being led away by faddists. To quote the words of Professor Rice of Cornell University, what was aimed at was "to make the useful more beautiful, and the beautiful more useful." He considered that the only way to accurately estimate the egg-producing qualities of the breed was by trap-nesting.

Gave Judging Demonstration.

Mr. Martin then gave a judging demonstration on a number of fine birds belonging to members of the association, the prize winners being as follows: 1 Smith Brothers, 2 J. M. Adams, 3 F. Loughrey, 4 P. T. Allen.

A demonstration in the killing and dressing of poultry was given by Robt. Beamish and attracted much attention, the skill with which Mr. Beamish performed his work being much admired.

The show birds as well as the dressed fowl and a setting of eggs, all of which had been donated by members of the association, were then drawn for, the whole of Western Ontario being well represented by the lucky winners.

London Breeders Speak.

Supplementary addresses were delivered by President Watts and G. T. E. Martin of the London Poultry and Pet Stock Association.

In acknowledging a cordial vote of thanks, awarded to Mr. Beamish and himself, Mr. Martin, Port Dover, warmly commended the project for paying honor to "Billy" McNeil, who, he said, had for half a century been a great power in making known Canadian chickens far and wide.

"BUD" LUCAS TO BE INSPECTOR

Promotion Made Permanent At Meeting of the Police Commissioners.

Promotion of officers and passing of estimates comprised the business of the police commission at a meeting held on Wednesday afternoon.

Twelve extra police constables are provided for in the estimates of Chief Robert Birrell, which passed unanimously. Three motorcycle officers and motorcycles will be provided, thus giving the outlying district better protection.

The question of the erection of a sub-station in East London was laid over until the next meeting, as also was the question of providing a new police car.

Sergt. Thomas (Bud) Lucas, who has been acting as inspector temporarily, has been appointed to that post permanently. Police Constables William Middaugh and Thomas Fish were promoted to the position of patrol sergeant. All three of these appointments are regarded by the members of the force as being popular ones.

150 EMPLOYEES AT BELL TELEPHONE ANNUAL BANQUET

Officials and Superintendents From Montreal and Toronto Present.

Speeches of much interest to telephone men marked the annual banquet of the London Plant Council of the Bell Telephone Company, which was held at the Tecumseh House last night and attended by nearly 150 local employees of the company, a number from St. Thomas and several head officials of the company, including W. H. Winter, general plant superintendent and L. N. Lash, chief engineer, of Montreal; J. H. Martin, divisional plant superintendent; R. A. Choquette, superintendent of construction, and R. D. Hunt, divisional cable and conduit superintendent of Toronto, as well as St. Thomas and local officials.

Following an excellent meal, W. J. Costello, local plant chief, who presided, introduced Chief Engineer Lash, who gave a most interesting and instructive address, but one too intensely technical for a mere reporter to hope to be able to reconstruct it in such form as to be intelligible to the average reader.

Long-Distance Telephony.

Mr. Lash dealt especially with the matter of long-distance telephony and with the aid of a number of diagrams thrown by a lantern screen explained in detail the greatest difficulties that had had to be overcome: the high cost of such installations. He told at length how by teh use of respeaters, electric filters, equalizers, etc., it had been found possible to talk from New York to San Francisco, a distance of 3,600 miles, with the same clearness as from Montreal to Toronto.

He explained how, despite the fact that it is now possible to send three telephone messages and eight telegrams at the same time over two pairs of wires, and the use of the plant to the utmost limit of its capacity, costs of operation, construction and maintenance had risen to such a height as to be quite out of hand.

Complicated System.

"Our subscribers know nothing of the greatly complicated system that gives them service, and if we do not tell them how can we expect them to understand our troubles?" asked Mr. Lash. "I am certain of this, that if they understood and knew with what honesty of purpose the company seeks to serve them the general public would not be unfair to the company."

In closing the speaker expressed his faith in the fairness of the royal commission which is dealing with the rates question of the telephone company and opined that a satisfactory result for both parties to the matter would be reached.

W. H. Winter, general plant superintendant, indorsed what Mr. Lash had said relative to the growth of costs despite the constant discovery of methods for the improvement of telephony. "The public," he said, "do not realize that the company has to be constantly purchasing material for the supply of new services and the maintenance of the plant it already has, and it is for us to tell them these things in a manner which they can understand."

Industrial Councils.

The speaker dealt at some length with the subject of plant and industrial councils, telling how successful this system of bringing the employers and the employees together had been found. He also told of the success which the company's fund, a fund to which the employees do not contribute, had been. The annual report, he said, which will be published in a few days, showed that the payment of pensions, death benefits, disability and accident benefits during the year 1920 had reached a total of $235,280.

"This action of the company I am sure has been appreciated by the employees, and despite what the newspapers may say in criticism of the company, shows that it is not as soulless a thing as some of the items they publish would lead people to believe," said Mr. Winter.

Increase in Accidents.

He expressed regret that the number of accidents amongst the employees of the company showed an increase during the past year of 125 over the year, 1919. This, he claimed, was a serious condition despite the fact that the number of employees had largely increased during the same period. The accident benefits paid amounted to $29,700, an average per case of $71, as compared with $52 in 1919, while the days lost had been 5,705, as compared with 4,307.

He attributed many, if not most of these accidents, to thoughtlessness, and urged that the various plant councils take steps to try through the educational methods to reduce this heavy accident percentage.

Divisional Plant Superintendent J. H. Martin, referring to Mr. Winter's figures, expressed great regret at finding that of the 425 accidents recorded, 211 of them had been in Ontario, and also urged greater care by employees, not only in the interests of the company, but also in their own.

Music by Wireless.

During the evening solos were sung by A. W. Robinson, W. H. Whitehead and others. Efforts by J. A. McIntosh, president of the London Radio Club, to give a wireless telephone concert from Pittsburg were unsuccessful, owing to the large number of power wires in and around the Tecumseh House and high static conditions. Connection was successfully made with Pittsburg, but owing to these conditions the music could not be heard. However, in order that the gathering should not be altogether disappointed, Mr. McIntosh connected up his receiver with another room in the hotel where a phonograph was playing, and the selections were heard with clearness in the banquet-room.

RED CROSS PLANS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Canadian Council Meeting Favors Help For Disabled Nurses.

Toronto, March 2.—His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire is in this city attending the annual meeting of the Canadian Red Cross council, which opened today, with representatives from every province in Canada present. It was decided to extend the patronage of the Canadian Red Cross to the Canadian Nursing Mission to Rumania, this having been approved by the League of Red Cross Societies.

The Siberian Mission is being discontinued.

During the year the province have given $200,000 in response to an appeal on behalf of the British Empire war relief fund.

A campaign for membership will be launched shortly and enthusiasm in the campaign was urged.

The question of disabled nurses was taken up, but action was deferred until it could be ascertained what the Government was doing in the matter. The sympathy of the meeting was in favor of giving help, if needed.

During a session at which the Duke of Devonshire presided, the question of regulating contributions was taken up. His excellency stated that the people of Canada had responded generously. Not all appeals, however, were justified, he said. The question of regulation was referred to the executive.

Dr. J. W. Robertson, C. M. G., gave an address on the peace-time policy of the Red Cross Society, which was that of an auxiliary to the Government in the matter of public health.

EMPRESS HAS CHILD.

Geneva, Switzerland, March 2.—Former Empress Zita of Austria gave birth to a girl baby yesterday. Mother and child are reported to be doing well. This was the second child born to Former Empress Zita during her exile. The former regal pair now have eight children.

NO POSSIBILITY OF ELECTRIFYING ROAD AT PRESENT TIME

Minister of Railways Reminds Council, Bruce Not Yet Purchased.

That there is no possibility of the electrification of the Huron and Bruce line of the G. T. R. being considered for some time was clearly indicated by Hon. Dr. J. D. Reid, minister of railways, in a letter to No. 1 committee of the council Wednesday. He pointed out that arbitration proceedings for the sale of the system to the Government are still under way. No such schemes as the proposed electrification can be considered until the purchase of the road is effected, he said.

Revival of interest in town planning was indicated by the appointment of a commission to take charge of this work for 1921. Mayor Little and Ald. Harley, Wenige and Cameron Wilson were named as the council members of the commission, and George Belton, T. G. Murphy and Ibbotson Leonard will be asked to act as citizen members.

Civic Depreciation Fund.

A special committee was appointed to consider Ald. Cameron Wilson's suggestion that a civic depreciation fund be established. F. G. Jewell and H. F. Skey will be asked to co-operate with Ald. Cameron Wilson, Watkinson and Wenige and City Treasurer Bell on the matter.

The Public Utilities Commission and No. 2 committee of the council will be asked to rush improvements for dwellings built by the London Housing Commission. Ald. Wilson said there had been a great deal of criticism of the commission which was not justified. It had been doing the best it could under conditions, and its houses were better than those of other commissions from the viewpoints of quality and price. Every city had lost money in its housing work, he pointed out. Ald. Harley said that water and light should be supplied immediately for the houses.

Sidewalks, pavements and other public improvements should be laid immediately in their vicinity as well, he contended.

Negotiate Gas Issue.

Mayor Little reported that the City Gas Company's bill had been laid over two weeks by the Legislature. The special committee on gas was empowered to discuss the matter with the City Gas Company's representatives if they should broach the subject. If the company can bring in an amended bill to which the city agrees it is probable the Legislature will pass it, Ald. Harley said.

Chairman Watkinson was empowered to interview the city solicitor, regarding paving on streets on which there are car lines. Stanley street in particular will be considered. Ald. Harley said the city should take a chance and do the paving out of general funds. It would be collected from the company sooner or later, he argued.

Will Support Amendment.

Mayor Little was empowered to support an amendment before the Ontario Legislature which will exempt cities of less than 100,000 population from giving firemen one day off in seven days with pay.

The provincial treasurer denied a report that part of the Ontario Asylum grounds is for sale. The institution is considering acquiring land rather than disposing of any.

The Ontario Railway Board's report on street railway operation for January showed a surplus of only 34 cents.

MEETING TONIGHT TO SOLVE PROBLEM OF UNEMPLOYMENT

T. and L. Council Appoints Delegates to Meet Other Representatives.

Acting upon a request of the Labor Representation Committee, the local trades and labor council appointed on Wednesday night a committee of three to meet representatives from the local social service council, the three soldier organizations and other labor bodies, in an effort to find a solution to the unemployment problem. This meeting will be held in the local Labor Temple tonight.

The committee will consist of Delegates J. Medland, A. Mould and W. Tite. According to information received at the meeting of the council, other organizations had also complied with the request.

H. C. of L. Committee.

Delegate J. Thompson brought in an exhaustive report of the work of the high cost of living committee in its fight against the City Gas Company's attempt to secure a private bill empowering it to raise its rates. He claimed that the committee, working through its solicitor, J. Donohue, and H. Ashplant, who also addressed the private bills committee, won a distinct victory for the citizens of London.

As the result of this victory the private bills committee had referred the gas company bill back to the company, with the recommendation that it come to some agreement with the city of London within the next two weeks. It was contended by the solicitor for the H. C. of L. committee that the Legislature had no right to interfere with an arrangement which was purely between the city and the company.

Saved Citizens $12,000.

Mr. Donohue contended that even if it had done nothing else, the committee had saved the citizens of London a total of $12,000 in readiness to serve charge. He said that the committee had still to watch the situation.

He said that the committee had not opposed any of the money bylaws contained in the city of London bill, for it was felt that if the city was enabled to proceed with the construction of the proposed storm sewers the unemployment situation would be greatly relieved.

So that no speaker will talk too long in the future, the council instructed the secretary to secure a wall clock to be hung in view of everyone.

Band Uniform Labels.

As an outcome of a controversy between organized labor of the city and the band committee of the G. W. V. A. over the purchase of uniforms for the band of that association, the council passed an unanimous resolution calling upon the committee to purchase garments bearing no other label but that of the International Garment Workers, which is affiliated with the A. F. of L.

Tenders for the Labor Day souvenir of the trades and labor council will be accepted from any delegate to the council, it was announced.

PILES

Are Generally Caused by CONSTIPATION

There are few, if any, complaints more common than hemorrhoids, or piles, as they are commonly called, and scarcely any which cause more trouble, annoyance and misery.

Ninety per cent are troubled with them at some time or other, owing to allowing the bowels to become in a constipated condition.

Piles are classed under three headings, i.e., itching, bleeding and protruding, and the excruciating pains which accompany them cause misery which is beyond description.

Ointments and suppositories may help and relieve for a while, but to get rid of them, it is necessary to have a free, easy and natural motion of the bowels, at least once or twice a day, and by doing this the cause will be quickly removed.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills regulate the flow of bile to act properly on the liver and bowels, thus removing the constipation and all its allied troubles.

They contain no calomel or drastic mineral ingredients, being purely vegetable. They are small and easy to take, and do not gripe, weaken or sicken.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all druggists or dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BROMPTON DIRECTORS DISCUSS FINANCING

Montreal, March 2.—Directors of the Brompton Pulp and Paper Company, Limited, met here this afternoon to discuss the new financing required by the enterprise and at the conclusion of the meeting the information was given out that a special meeting of Brompton shareholders would be called immediately to approve of the proposal of the directors to issue $3,000,000 par value bonds of the company.

No date was fixed for the meeting, and the details of the proposed issue concerning the interest rate, term and general character of the bonds were withheld for the present.

The total funded debt of the enterprise, including its two United States subsidiaries and exclusive of this new issue is at the present time $3,843,000.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE.

Montreal, March 2.—A London cable to the Montreal Star says:

"A vote of confidence, forced today by the Opposition concerning the Government's policy regarding Gen. Crozier, who recently resigned as commander-in-chief of the 'Black and Tan' troops in Ireland, resulted in victory for the Government by 258 to 60."

PRACTICAL USE OF PUBLIC LIBRARY

Interesting Address Is Given Before Journalists by Fred Landon.

"Libraries are the accumulated wisdom of the past," declared Fred Landon, head of the public library, yesterday afternoon in the first of the special lectures arranged by Dean Sherwood Fox of the Western University, in connection with the course on journalism which is being conducted at the Y. M. C. A. for three days a week for the next ten weeks.

Mr. Landon's lecture was of intense interest and delivered in such manner as to give to his hearers a most valuable store of information on the practical use of a public library and of the great advance in the organization of modern libraries, so that they may render the greatest possible service to the busy man or woman who has on occasion to seek information on obscure subjects in a brief space of time.

Libraries, said the speaker, were of two general kinds, the privately-owned library and the public library; in the former the classification of the books followed the fad of the owner being either by size, association, author or color. In the public library the classification was done according to the subject matter of the book, all books dealing with a similar subject being classified under one head, such as "history" or "evolution," irrespective of the author or anything else.

Following the trial of various methods of classification, the leading public libraries have found the Dewey-decimal system the best and most satisfactory, said Mr. Landon before proceeding to explain the system. The numbering of the system devised by Melville Dewey is divided as follows: 001 to 099, general works, encyclopaedias, dictionaries and such books.

100 to 199, philosophy, logic, psychology, etc.

200 to 299, religion, of all kinds, the Bible, church history, sermons, etc.

300 to 399, sociology, economics, internal relationships, education.

400 to 499, languages, grammars, readers, dictionaries in foreign languages, etc.

500 to 599, natural sciences.

600 to 699, applied sciences.

700 to 799, fine arts, games, etc.

800 to 899, literature, general class.

900 to 999, history. This subject is subdivided as follows:

910 to 919, travels; 920 to 929, biography.

In each of the separate classes, the first ten numbers were again divided by the addition of decimal figures.

Fiction, which stands by itself as a separate department of the modern library is classified alphabetically.

Mr. Landon explained at considerable length, but in a very clear and instructive manner, the use of the card index catalogue system, whereby a three-fold opportunity to find a needed book is provided for the seeker, all books being classified, under the name of the author, its title and its subject.

A very interesting part of the lecture was Mr. Landon's description of how to decide whether this or that book is the one that will quickest give the information desired by the reader. In this regard he explained the varying value of the title, the date of publication, the table of contents, the appendix, the illustrations, maps and index.

He also explained the use and value of the Book Review Digest, the Cumulative Book Index and the Readers' Guide. The three big encyclopaedias, the Encyclopaedia Britannica, the Americana, and the Nelson Loose-Leaf, were reviewed by the speaker, and their special features briefly dealt with. The importance of periodicals as a method for keeping in close touch with the everyday developments of science, medicine, etc., and of Government reports were also reviewed by Mr. Landon.

BETTER FOR FARMERS TO REMAIN ON FARMS

President Reynolds of O. A. C. Addresses St. John's Community Association.

President J. B. Reynolds of the Ontario Agricultural College, addressed the members of St. Johns Community Association at a largely attended meeting held on Wednesday night.

Rural depopulation was Professor Reynolds' main topic. He said that if the rush to the cities was to be checked, the amenities of rural life must be strengthened. Country communities must provide something more attractive in the way of recreations and amusements if the lure of the large towns was to be guarded against.

So far as their own community was concerned, Professor Reynolds expressed the opinion that the close proximity of London had a pernicious influence, as many of the residents of St. Johns and neighborhood were accustomed to go to the city for their evening's entertainment. "It is not wholesome for you to do this," he said. "Not that the entertainments are bad, but because it is drawing your young men and women away from home influences."

In conclusion, Professor Reynolds said that Canadians ought to realize that they would be much better and happier if they were content to remain on the farms all their lives.

Rev. Leonard Bartlett occupied the chair, and briefly outlined the association's activities, and it was resolved to assist in raising funds for the London Children's Hospital.

EX-CHIEF

had been no breach of confidence on the part of Egerton Lovering.

Former Chief Testifies.

Stephen A. Ackerman, Toronto, who was chief of police of Dunnville for 12 months about five years ago, said while he was chief Magistrate Hastings frequently allowed drunks to go without punishment. What he considered the most glaring case of inadequate punishment in his opinion, while he was there, was in connection with two Port Colborne men who had doped and ill-treated a woman of the town, after which they took to the country in an automobile.

One was fined $50 and the other was given no punishment so far as he could learn. Hastings disposed of the case forthwith, although the chief asked for a postponement so that he could secure the crown attorney to prosecute. He said the woman, who had been dumped on the roadway, after being abused, required the services of a doctor. The woman's name was Eliza Walker.

Another case, that of two men were brought in from fighting on the street and beating up the night constable. They were fined $20 each, but only one paid the fine. The other never did to the best of his knowledge, and was never imprisoned.

Mrs. Walker figured in another case which the ex-chief cited as poor judgment. After he left, Mrs. Walker was arrested on a vagrancy charge, and the magistrate gave her the choice of going to the county poorhouse or Kingston Penitentiary.

An Upright Man.

Witness said he did not think a "more upright man walked in shoe leather," but he did not agree with some of his decisions.

Ackerman said he had heard Mr. Hastings speak on behalf of Frank Lalor at a public political meeting, but this was before he was appointed magistrate. He said he saw Richard Killens, who was a worker for Mr. Lalor in Mr. Hastings' oice very frequently.

Cross-examined, Ackerman said he didn't imply that there was an improper influence over Mr. Hastings, but he considered the $50 fine for abusing the woman was "rank justice." He never saw or heard of any influence being brought to bear on the magistrate by Mr. Lalor or any of the alleged ruling ring.

Asked if he heard any complaints about law or order while he was there, Ackerman said: "Oh, there was always lots of talk and gossip in that town. Gossiping, like baseball, is one of the outdoor sports in Dunnville. Never pay attention to anything they tell you in that burg." (Laughter.)

He wound up his examination by saying he could not suggest anybody in Dunnville who would make a better magistrate, but opined "that the community might get a better one and it might do worse."

Michael Kauffman, employed in Hastings' printery, was called by the crown to show the nature of the business of the publisher. He could not say how the receipts from the job department compared with the revenue from the weekly newspaper issued. At this point Mr. Hastings said he would produce his books showing all his receipts. Witness said he had no knowledge of Mr. Hastings' work, and never saw records of proceedings in the magistrate's office. He had, however, seen copies of search warrants on Mrs. Hastings' desk, but never knew the contents of them. As an explanation of going to the desk he said he went there to get scissors. "There was only one pair of scissors in the office, but after this I have a pair of my own," said Kauffman.

Mr. Hastings' court papers were kept in a stamp drawer, which was not locked.

The drawer was in Hastings' desk in the corner of the job room. He had seen Killens at Hastings' desk writing in the absence of the magistrate. This happened about half a dozen times. He had also seen Killens open the stamp drawer and examine papers in it on two or three occasions when Hastings was not present.

Kauffman had seen Officers Sylvester and Eadie in the magistrate's office frequently and on a few occasions he had seen Killens in the office shortly afterward. He would not say, however, that these were the times he had seen Killens examine the papers. He did not know why Killens examined the papers. On one occasion a friend dropped in when Hastings and Killens had their heads together, and remarked: "That is what has caused much of the talk here. Killens will go from here to the Victoria Hotel." He repeated this remark to Mr. Hastings, who said: "Perhaps this is the case unfortunately." Kauffman had no knowledge of a ring in town politics, and did not believe Mr. Hastings could be improperly influenced by anyone.

WAITRESS OBJECTS TO BEING CALLED "FAT LITTLE HOG"

Magistrate, After Hearing the Evidence of Both Sides, Dismisses Case.

For Calling her a "little fat hog," Ruby Morris charged Peter Downey in police court this morning with using grossly insulting language toward her. The case was dismissed.

Ruby said that she was a waitress in the employ of Downey and was to be paid at the rate of $5.50 per week, but that she only drew $1.75 for three days' work. One day she left a small butter plate in a cup and it stuck there so that it had to be broken and at that time Downey had said that he couldn't get "d—— waitresses" to do anything right.

Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon said that this did not apply to the plaintiff particularly, but to waitresses in general and that if every man who swore was brought to police court it would be crowded.

Complainant told of being called a "little fat hog."

Downey said he did not call her that name, but admitted that he said that if she worked at his place much longer she would be as fat as a little pig.

Plaintiff's husband said that on the day his wife stopped working for Downey, he went to the place with her to get her pay. At that time, he said, the expression which his wife alleged was used, was repeated by Mr. Downey. He also said that he had an agreement with Downey whereby he could get meals at the defendant's place when he, Morris, was out of work. He said that this was "thrown up" to him. However, he did not wish to start a fight so he and his wife departed.

Downey said plaintiff came to him and asked for a loan of $5 to redeem a picture of herself which was taken when she was 14 years old. He thought that she quit his employ over this matter.

WRIT ENTERED TO RECOVER GOODS WRONGFULLY SEIZED

Lawful Owners Sue Dennis Hill for Goods Valued at $496.

Dougal McMurphy of Preeceville, Sask., and William J. Wilson of this city, through their solicitors, Judd & Henderson, have issued a writ in the county court against Edward Dennis Hill, "to recover possession of goods and chattels of which the plaintiffs are the lawful owners, wrongfully seized and detained by the defendant, and for damages, and for an order of replevin." The order has been granted.

According to the affidavit of W. J. Wilson, the defendant took the goods from 155 Wharncliffe road on February 25. The house from which they were taken was owned by McMurphy. Some of the chattels were said to be the property of McMurphy and some the property of Wilson. They were valued at $496.

Hill was arrested recently for being disorderly, in connection with the same case as Jack Prokos, who was fined $10 for being disorderly, was apprehended. Hill was dismissed on the charge laid against him at that time.

OPINION OF CITIZENS' RESEARCH LEAGUE ON PROPOSED PAY-AS-YOU-GO POLICY OF CIVIC FINANCE

Some timely and interesting comments on the proposed pay-as-you-go policy of civic finance, which in the belief of several of the aldermen and others in civic circles, would be a good plan to be adopted in London, are contained in a report received by the local advisory committee of the Citizens' Research Institute from the institute headquarters in Toronto.

The institute, being affiliated with fifty or more similar institutes in the United States, as well as several cities in Canada, is in a position to know how such a policy has worked out in other cities where it has been tried. The report, therefore, is of more than usual interest to London at the present time. Some of the points contained in it are as follows:

"Just what constitutes such a policy is a matter of opinion. The extreme view is that all expenditures, whether for capital or current purposes, should come out of revenue. In a community not growing at all, or growing at a regular rate, and not too rapidly this might be feasible. For example, we know of a city of this slow and steadily growing type which used to build one schoolhouse a year out of the tax rate. This saved interest charges and was like issuing serial fund bonds without interest. The right to do this was abolished by the State Legislatures and now the annual charges are much greater than they were. This method would be absolutely impossible for a new town or a rapidly growing town. Necessities of communication, health, education, etc., are too great. The growth of the town might easily be strangled by such an inelastic policy, and, moreover, there would be a substantial injustice in that newcomers and the oncoming generation would get many services toward which they would make no contribution. The same business judgment has to be used in determining a city's policy as in determining the policy of a private corporation. Usually such a question as this will suggest the correct answer:

"Would a private corporation borrow this money, appropriate it out of gross revenue, or do without the improvement entirely or postpone it?"

"Of course, the decision cannot always be put on this basis as governmental bodies must be more conservative than private bodies, and as private corporations making capital expenditures expect a return in dividends, which may not enter into proposed city investments at all.

"We should say that a sane pay-as-you-go policy for a growing, progressive community would involve strict adherence to the following principles:

"1. Money should not be borrowed for any purpose which will not produce a tangible asset;

"2. Debentures should not be issued for a term longer than the estimated life of the improvement. It would be better to lean backward and make the term less. If a municipality lives up to this it may justly claim to be paying as it goes because it pays for the improvement as it uses the improvement up. Otherwise if bonds with long terms are issued the city is not paying-as-it-goes, but after-it-has-gone. Probably no bond should be issued for a term longer than 30 years;

"3. The city should not operate at a deficit. This usually happens by pretending that the city is going to spend less than really must be spent (underestimating expenditures) or is going to get more special revenue than it is likely to get (overestimated revenue). Any deficit which occurs in spite of the best management must be made up for in the next year's estimates. Any other policy is not paying-as-you-go, but paying-a-little-after-you-have-gone. It is slovenly and establishes a bad habit, besides increasing interest charges.

"4. The revenue year should be made to correspond very closely with the expenditure year. The first payment of taxes should not be later than March 31. Otherwise the interest burden caused by borrowing in anticipation of taxation will be heavy and will constitute an unnecessary addition to the tax rate. In any event, cities should be authorized to build up a working capital fund by levying a small amount each year for a short term of years. Interest on temporary floating debts would thus be obviated. A city's tentative estimates should be prepared at the end of each year for the next year's program. This would enable the incoming council to revise and pass the estimates in January. Running without a plan for several months is disastrous to economy of operation and militates against the pay-as-you-go policy.

"There is a well-established belief that small improvements, costing under an established minimum should be financed out of current revenue at the time of making the improvements."

ANOTHER EFFORT TO PLACE ALL ELECTRIC WIRES UNDERGROUND

P. U. C. Will Thresh Out the Matter at Meeting This Afternoon.

Following the discussion which took place at No. 1 committee of the city council yesterday of the complaint made by Fire Chief Aitken about the great danger to the firemen and the interference to their work in fighting fires in the business sections of the city, caused by the large numbers of electric wires strung along the streets, the matter of the placing of the wires of the public utilities' electrical department underground will probably be taken up at the regular monthly meeting of the commission this afternoon.

No. 1 committee of the council, as a result of the chief's complaint, will recommend to the city council that another effort be made to get the various bodies having wires upon the city streets to place them in the conduits laid by the city for this purpose about eleven years ago.

In connection with this matter General Manager E. V. Buchanan stated this morning that the conduits were constructed by the city on a frontage basis. They are shown on the books of the city council; they were never part of the equipment or on the books of the public utilities commission.

The understanding when the conduits were constructed was that the various companies concerned should use the conduits on a rental basis, the city bearing the expense of placing the cables and wires, while the companies would bear the cost of the overhead work necessary.

Another point to be considered at the present time is the high cost of the material and labor which will be entailed in doing the work.

Still another feature which will enter largely into any action to compel the placing of the wires of the P. U. C. underground will be the fact that it will cost every property owner along the route from $50 to $100 to have his power and light boxes moved from their present position to the basements of their premises.

Mr. Buchanan stated that so far as the P. U. C. electrical department was concerned, it had done everything in its power to bring about an agreement an the matter, letters showing that such effort had been made as late as November 20, 1919.

NEW STORE FRONTS GIVE A NEW ASPECT TO DUNDAS STREET

Nearly Every Merchant in the Downtown Section Has Installed Modern Front.

Practically the whole front of London's down-town district has been changed within the last twelve months, Building Inspector Piper asserted today. Never in his experience with London building had he seen so many new store fronts installed within such a short time.

Almost every Dundas street merchant has had large plate glass windows installed, and other changes of that nature made, chiefly with the purpose of giving more room for window display, but also for general improvement. The effect is noticeable even to the most casual observer. A person who has been away for even a year would hardly recognize Dundas street, at least so far as the entrance to stores and business places are concerned.

Two more permits for this purpose were issued today. The London Cafe, 174 Dundas street, will install a new store front at a cost of $1,500, and George Hiscox will build a new front at 202 Dundas street to cost $890. These two permits bring building figures for the month to $2,590. Mr. Piper is confident that they will surpass the 1920 March record of $99,360.

MILLION FOR HOUSING SCHEME.

Ottawa, March 3.—(Canadian Press).—A total of almost 11¾ millions was advanced by the Federal Government to provincial housing schemes during the fiscal year ending March 31, 1920. Of this amount, Ontario received $8,750,000. Manitoba, $1,580,000; British Columbia, $750,000; New Brunswick, $600,000, and Quebec, $60,000.

SIGNOR AGNELLI DIES.

Rome, March 3.—The death of Signor Agnelli, under-secretary of the treasury, was announced yesterday.

GUIDE SHIPS DURING FOGS BY WIRELESS

Liverpool, March 3.—Discovery of a new wireless invention by which ships may be guided during dense fogs, was announced here last night by William Marconi at the annual British Shipmasters' dinner. This invention, he said, has not as yet been in operation anywhere, and is based on a principle by which electric waves may be directed in any definite direction like flashes from a lighthouse. He declared these waves would take the place of leading lights in thick weather, and would prevent collisions of vessels during fogs.

Rescued After 33 Days Adrift in the Atlantic

New York, March 3—Thirty-three days at sea in a storm-tossed, leaking and partially dismasted 25-ton yawl, ending with the rescue by an ocean liner 180 miles from the nearest port, was the experience of 83-year-old Captain Gashield and his crew of six, brought here today by the steamer Dunstan.

COSTA RICA RUSHING FORCES TO ENGAGE PANAMANS IN COTO

Panama, March 3.—Costa Rican forces are being rushed to the Coto district, between this country and Costa Rica, where Panaman and Costa Rican troops have been engaged in hostilities, it is said in dispatches to the government here. A steamer, it is declared, has been at Punta Arenas taking on troops and munitions, and it is believed the Costa Ricans plan to land these forces on the eastern shore of Burica Point, a projection of land which marks the Pacific end of the boundary between Panama and Costa Rica. Travelers arriving here from Costa Rica report anti-American demonstrations in San Jose, Puerto Limon, Cartago and Heredia on February 27 and 28. A strict censorship has been established here, and little is known of the movements of Panaman volunteer forces, but it is learned a shipment of rifles is expected from Peru in a few days, and that they will be used for arming newly recruited forces. The capture of another Costa Rican vessel, with 100 men on board, was officially announced here yesterday.

RESTAURANT PARTLY WRECKED WHEN 50 ENGAGE IN COMBAT

New York, March 3.—Fifty men engaged in combat in a restaurant early today, and when exhausted, they ceased, seven of their number lay prostrate on the floor, covered with thousands of china bits, broken tables, and a layer of tomato catsup.

Police came, and those with only minor injuries fled. The others, one of whom had received a fractured skull, were taken into custody, charged with felonious assault and restaurant-wrecking.

During a dance in a Brooklyn hall earlier someone is alleged to have made an "ugly remark" in regard to a young woman. This caused a fight, which by common consent was renewed in the restaurant.

ASKS SHIPBUILDING FACTS.

Ottawa, March 3.—(Canadian Press).—William Duff (Lunenburg) is asking the Government for a copy of all the correspondence, agreements and contracts, and all other documents which have passed between the prime minister and the ministers of labor and marine, and the president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, secretary of the Toronto Trades and Labor Council and the labor organizations connected with the shipbuilding industry. He is especially asking with regard to the wages and conditions affecting the men employed by the Dominion Shipbuilding Company. Mr. Duff also wants copies of the contracts and agreements respecting the ships now under construction in the yards of the company at Toronto.

ATTEMPT TO LOWER RECORD.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 3.—Lieut. William Devoe Coney, United States army, who recently established a new aeroplane flight record of 27 hours and 22 minutes from the Pacific to the Atlantic, will hop off for Pablo Beach here at 12:01 a.m. March 8, in an attempt to lower his own record in a flight to San Diego, Cal., it was announced today. Lieut. Coney plans to make only one stop, at Dallas, Texas, in his westward flight.

SEWER CASES WILL OCCUPY ATTENTION OF REVISION COURT

Knollwood Residents Object to Paying Extra Cost of Winter Work.

Several appeals of more than usual interest will come before the court of revision at its first meeting of the year this afternoon. One of the most important of these deals with the Knollwood sewer system. Residents of that section claimed that the charges for the sewer are excessive, because it was laid during the winter, the extra cost running up as high as $12,000. On the other hand, it is claimed by the city engineering department that the people asked that the work be done immediately and were willing to pay the extra cost.

Another case deals with the Quebec street sewer. Residents of part of the street claim they are being made to pay for the relaying of a sewer. The city engineering department contends there never was a sewer on the street before, but only a drain.

There are numerous smaller cases which likely will give the court a long session.

VETERAN WINS BY-ELECTION.

London, March 3.—Canadian Associated Press.—Capt. R. Gee, V.C., M.C., Communist, won the by-election in Woolwich, defeating Ramsay Macdonald, the Socialist-Labor leader, by 13,765 ot 13,041. The by-election was made necessary by the retirement of Will Crooks, Labor leader, on account of failing health. Capt. Gee, like Crooks, is a workhouse boy, and began life in the mining pits. He served 29 years in the army, beginning as a private. He won the V. C. at Cambral in November, 1917.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

New York, March 3—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Prices of leading issues were irregular at the sluggish opening of today's stock market, but soon became reactionary. The short interest put out new lines as a result of cables which indicated that the situation between the Allies and Germany had reached a more acute stage. Crucible Steel, Chandler Motor and Atlantic-Gulf were the weakest issues, losing 1 to 2 points in the initial dealings. Baldwin Locomotive, General Asphalt and Utah Copper forfeited fractions, with several of the high-grade rails, including Pennsylvania. Mexican Petroleum made an early gain of 1 point, but this was cancelled when the general list fell back. Exchange on London was firm.

CHAMP CLARK'S REMAINS TO LIE IN STATE IN U. S. CAPITOL ROTUNDA

Washington, March 3.—The House of Representatives has completed arrangements for funeral services in the House chamber on Saturday morning for its late minority leader and former Speaker, Champ Clark, who died here yesterday. The services, which will be held at 10 30 o'clock, will be a tribute of respect such as has been paid only a few times in the history of the United States Congress. The body of the former Speaker will lie in state in the Capitol rotunda before the services.

WILL SEEK REVISION COPYRIGHT LAWS

Toronto, March 3.—Application to the Parliament of Canada for drastic and immediate revision of the copyright laws, is one of the objectives of the Authors' and Composers' Association of Canada, whose newly-elected president, George H. K. Mitford of this city, declares that the present copyright laws and regulations give no protection to authors and composers, in regard to motion picture scenarios and reproduction of songs in phonographic records.

DO YOU CATCH COLD EASILY?

HOW TO AVOID IT

Colds are due to germs. No one can prevent the germs from getting into your nose and throat. But you can help keep plenty of strong, vigorous, "anti-bodies" in your blood to fight and kill off the nasty "cold germs" before they do you any harm.

To develop these germ destroying "antibodies" properly, you must have plenty of pure, rich, red blood and a strong, vigorous constitution—in fact, this is the best preventative against almost any disease.

If you are weak, nervous or rundown, or subject to colds, take no chances. One day you may develop serious throat, bronchial or lung trouble or perhaps pneumonia, and you may go off like a shot. Therefore commence to enrich your blood and fortify yourself against "disease germs" today. To build more and better blood and make stronger nerves, there is nothing superior to NUXATED IRON as it contains organic iron like the iron in your blood combined with a product representing the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force for feeding the nerves. Nuxated Iron may, therefore, be said to be both a blood and a nerve food. It often increases the bodily and mental vigor, strength and endurance in two weeks' time.

Over 4,000,000 people are using it annually. It has been highly indorsed by former United States senators, U. S. army generals, many physicians and prominent men. Even the Pope at Rome mentioned it favorably in a communication to the proprietor of the Pharmacy Normale of Paris.

Satisfaction guaranteed or the manufacturers will refund your money. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "NUXATED" on every package, and the letter N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble, Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloat right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation, and there is no sourness or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk)—is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Advt.

DENIES GOVERNMENT MANDATE TO SPEAK IN CANADA'S BEHALF

Lapointe Declares That Those Who Pretend To Rule Canada At Present Have No Right To Represent This Nation At Imperial Conference — Warns Meighen That Canadians Will Not Be Bound by Any Decision Premier May Reach There.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, March 2.—"I emphatically state that the gentlemen who pretend to rule Canada at the present time have no right to represent the country at the imperial conference of June next. They are not entitled to speak the national voice, and I state here, Mr. Speaker, that we will not consider ourselves bound either legally or morally by any decision they may reach there. It may be said that such decisions in any case must be confirmed by parliament before they are binding, but Canada has the right to discuss such questions with the statesmen of the Empire through representatives who enjoy the confidence of the people."

Denies Mandate.

In the above terms Ernest Lapointe of East Quebec denied the mandate of the government to speak for the Dominion at the conference of premiers, which Mr. Lloyd George has declared will be one of the most momentous gatherings in the history of the Empire.

Sparkling Epigram.

The speech of the East Quebec member, and first lieutenant of Mackenzie King in that province, rivaled in eloquence, dignified force, sparkling epigram and well-chosen diction many of those made by the veteran statesman whom he has succeeded as representative of that riding. Lapointe is undoubtedly among the half dozen foremost orators of the House, and though his accent is not so perfect as that of Sir Wilfrid, his style and choice of authority are remarkably similar to those of the Old Chief.

Right Is Repudiated.

Mr. Lapointe went further in his repudiation of the right of the Government to speak for Canada at the pending conference. It had been suggested that the Opposition should be represented at the gathering. "I do not hesitate to say," declared the member for East Quebec, "and I know that I represent the views of my leader, that no such proposal can be entertained. It would be a mere subterfuge to lend authority to the Government representation. The people have the right to be represented by a government with a clear mandate, elected in a regular and excellent manner. Let us set our own house in order before attempting to rebuild the British Empire. Let us first clear up our own political atmosphere, and wipe away this parliament which does not and cannot represent the views of the country. I call upon honorable gentlemen opposite to yield to the clamor of the people and restore to Canadian democracy full control over its political institutions."

The member for East Quebec was particularly hard upon Liberal Unionist ministers still in the cabinet of Premier Meighen. Referring openly to Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of militia, he declared: "As between an insincere Liberal and a candid Tory, give me the Tory every time. He at least does not degrade political morality. We have been told that Fouchet, one of Napoleon's ministers, in his day, took several different and conflicting oaths of allegiance. Some Canadian public men would find little difficulty in emulating him."

Much Laughter.

Amid much laughter he quoted from a speech made by Mr. Calder in Saskatoon, in which the minister had admitted that on the matter of the tariff he had been a "parrot" in his early public life. Yet the prime minister had paid Mr. Calder the compliment of saying that he was consistent. "Consistently what?" asked Mr. Lapointe. "Consistently a parrot. He still repeats and registers his master's voice, but he has a different master."

Turning more seriously in the direction of the minister, Mr. Lapointe referred to a further statement of Mr. Calder to the effect that last session Liberals were not sincere in their demands for dissolution, and that several of them had informed him that if the Government were in danger, they would absent themselves from the vote. "I ask my honorable friend," said Mr. Lapointe, "I ask him on his honor as a gentleman to substantiate that slanderous statement. Let my honorable friend give the name of one member who so approached him."

Calder Is Silent.

Mr. Calder sat silent amid the thunder of Opposition desks.

Reference by the East Quebec member to the unrepresented condition of Leeds and Brockville, and of the St. Antoine division of Montreal, brought from Mr. Speaker an interesting explanation at the close of Mr. Lapointe's speech. The latter holds, and he has many strong legal backers, that Sir Thomas White's seat became vacant on the day that he accepted the position of arbitrator of the Grand Trunk, as Government representative. He quoted the law, and without doubt his contention was highly convincing. The Speaker, however, declared that until he had been officially notified that there was a vacancy in Leeds, honorable members must speak of Sir Thomas as the member for that county, and not by name.

With respect to St. Antoine, Mr. Lapointe read from a speech of Sir Herbert Ames, made last July, in which the latter had declared that, owing to his duties on the secretariat of the League of Nations, he had tendered his resignation to the Speaker. Had it been intercepted? he asked. Mr. Speaker declared that nothing resembling a resignation had ever been received by him. "I knew it could not have done so," said Mr. Lapointe.

Two voices were heard from the region of No Man's Land. Major Andrews of Centre Winnipeg declared that as an avowed protectionist, he would vote with the Government on the address. W. A. Buchanan of Lethbridge announced his intention of voting for the Campbell sub-amendment, but made no statement as to his intentions thereafter. If, however, there is no indication on the part of the Government of holding an election within a reasonable time, he will likely also vote for the King non-confidence motion.

SAYS ELECTION DEMAND UNIVERSAL

OTTAWA, March 2.—Canadian Press.—At the opening of the House this afternoon; Dr. Clark (Red Deer), rose to correct the Canadian Press report of his speech yesterday. He had, he said, been reported as claiming that John the Baptist was a free trader. "I wish to say," he added amid laughter, "that I did not make any remark which was capable of that interpretation. I did say that Solomon was a free trader." At this there was more laughter. Otherwise, Dr. Clark said, the report was a very accurate and far too generous account of his observations.

A. B. Copp, (Westmoreland) then continued the debate on the address. The people of Canada, he said, were not satisfied with the present administration and should have an opportunity of pronouncing upon it. If you travelled from east to west and north to south of Canada, everywhere was heard this demand for an election.

Certain members of the administration supported the Government because of its protectionist policy, while others supported it because they said it stood for a lower tariff, yet others because they thought they were going to remain in power for another year or two. In the case of the ex-minister of finance, that gentleman knew that he did not have the confidence of the people of his constituency. This was also true of the others. In effect, Mr. Copp declared, the Government said it had the power to remain in office and would hold on in spite of the fact that the whole country was crying out to them to let go.

Calder Refused Hearing.

Members of the ministry should be very sure that they had the confidence of their constituents. Mr. Copp asserted that the minister of immigration and colonization did not have a mandate from the people of Saskatchewan, and not only that, but on a recent visit to that province could not secure a hearing. It was Mr. Calder's moral and bounden duty to appeal to the people.

Referring to the member for Yarmouth, (E. K. Spinney) Mr. Copp said that any person knowing that Liberal constituency would also know the fate which awaited Mr. Spinney in an election. Mr. Copp particularly criticized Hon. P. E. Blondin, postmaster-general. That appointment was absolutely opposed to the principles of democracy and parliamentary right. Referring to Hon. R. W. Wigmore, minister of customs and internal revenue, Mr. Copp said that he had promised to do everything for the port of St. John, had later gone to Halifax, and in a day or two built a large dry-dock. From there, Mr. Wigmore had journeyed to Sydney and nationalized that port. He was glad to see someone trying to make up for the neglect which the present administration had always shown the maritime provinces. On the other hand, he could not congratulate Mr. Wigmore.

It was astonishing that within three days after Mr. Wigmore took his seat in this House that he had been violently attacked by a Conservative newspaper in St. John.

The attitude of the St. John Standard and other Conservative newspapers proved, Mr. Copp said, that the present administration had lost not only the confidence of the people of New Brunswick generally, but also of the Conservative party. Mr. Copp quoted R. B. Maxwell as saying that he found it his duty to urge on all branches of the Great War Veterans' Association the necessity for a general election as soon as possible. The returned soldiers, said Mr. Copp, were not satisfied with the present Government.

H. B. Morphy (North Perth) asked Mr. Copp to state how many public meetings had been held as a result of Mr. Maxwell's manifesto. Mr. Copp could not give any number.

Dealing with Mr. Guthrie's statement that the leader of the Liberal Opposition had behind him only a remnant of a historic party, Mr. Copp declared that the remnant would be doing business at the old stand when an election was held and after an election would be doing business at the stand now occupied by the Government. If the Government would only give the people an opportunity of voting, it would soon see just what the people wanted and there would be a vote of want of confidence with the greatest majority that had ever been known.

Ernest Lapointe (Quebec East) said he would continue the debate since the fighting legions on the other side of the House seemed to have faded away. He congratulated the prime minister. The latter, he said, had shown courage in taking the part of sacrificial lamb after it had been refused by the member for Leeds (Sir Thomas White).

Canada, he said, had a government that pretended to govern—a government which was in the most humiliating and disgraceful position which any government had held since the days of "the nest of traitors." The Government was resorting to quibbling and also to contrivances for the purpose of clinging to office until 1922.

The position taken by the Opposition in its amendment to the address was justified on three grounds: —

(1) The election of 1917 was held under the special conditions of the war.

(2) Since the election a new reign had been inaugurated, a new administration formed, a new prime minister chosen and a new party created. The program of the party included subjects specifically excluded in the election.

(3) The Government did not possess the confidence of the country and there was a deeply rooted distrust of the ministerial leader.

The Government was now proposing to legislate on subjects which were excluded from the issues of the general election. Continuance of the Government in office was not a question of right. It was a question of public morality and of common honesty. It was as gross a breach of faith as was ever known in the history of Canada.

Turning to his second point, Mr. Lapointe said that the prime minister claimed that the new party was the legitimate descendant of the old. Mr. Lapointe admitted that it was a descendant, but he questioned its legitimacy. In the present case, it was not only the prime minister but the Government which had changed. There were many changes in the ministry since 1917. "At that time," said Mr. Lapointe, "it was claimed that the Government was an aggregation of the best brains in the country. Surely that claim cannot be made today." He compared the cabinet to a crazy patchwork quilt, the craziness of which would merely be enhanced by the addition of other members.

Refers to Guthrie.

Addressing a few remarks directly to the former Liberal members supporting the Government, and more specifically to the Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Mr. Lapointe said, that as between an insincere Liberal and a candid Tory he preferred the Tory every time. "Liberalism," he declared, "cannot be represented by men who have been on every side of every public question and loyal to none."

The member for Quebec East caused some amusement by defining a Meighen Liberal as "species unknown to zoology and to common sense."

While in the West, Mr. Calder was reported as having gone to a luncheon or dinner at Regina and to have told his hearers that the Liberals in the House did not desire an election last year and that if there had been any likelihood of the Government being defeated, several Liberal members had stated that they would have absented themselves from the chamber when the vote was being taken.

"On behalf of the members of this side of the House," declared Mr. Lapointe, "I ask the minister of immigration and colonization to substantiate his slanderous statement. Let him or anyone else give the name of any member who said he would absent himself."

The member for Quebec East declared that the Government had not only lost the confidence of the country but had gained its contempt. Of fifteen by-elections held since 1917, the Government had lost ten. Four of the five which it won were for the election of cabinet ministers. Mr. Lapointe charged the prime minister with running his by-elections on the installment plan. In the case of East Elgin, the seat was allowed to remain vacant for nine months. St. James riding of Montreal, was filled almost immediately. West Peterboro, which became vacant in July, was filled on February 7 of this year. Yale, B. C., St. John and Colchester, which also became vacant at the same time, were filled on November 22, 1920. York-Sunbury, it was understood, would have a by-election soon, while Yamaska, which became vacant earlier, would be allowed to wait.

In these by-elections, the Government transferred its costly election machinery from one constituency to another and honest people were asking themselves where all the money came from.

Different ministers stated different conclusions regarding the West Peterboro verdict. Hon. C. J. Doherty said the result there constituted a mandate to the Government to carry on. Mr. Lapointe hoped that Mr. Doherty had shown better sense in representing Canada at the league of nations. The prime minister had declared that the issue in West Peterboro was the tariff and the verdict was against the tariff. Mr. Lapointe declared the issue was the usurpation of power by the Government and on this Mr. Gordon was elected. The premier told the people of West Peterboro that the eyes of all Canada were upon them. Now Mr. Meighen wished to take Canada's eyes away from that spot.

One Party Extinct.

The prime minister had declared that the Liberal party was extinct outside of Quebec. There was one party extinct in Canada, Mr. Lapointe declared. The Conservative party had disappeared from practially all the provinces, and in the federal arena it was concealed under a new name.

The Government ought to take note of the fact that the Salvation Army's famous motto could not be applied to governments. A man might be down but never out. A government was necessarily out when it was down. By ignoring that fact the administration was turning this parliament into a mock parliament, said Mr. Lapointe. The Government still commanded a meagre majority in the House, only because its supporters continued to vote for it in an effort to hang on a little longer to the seats which were slipping away from them. "The minister of militia (the Hon. Hugh Guthrie), said Mr. Lapointe, "will appreciate that especially."

The minister of militia, he went on, had had "the gall" to refer to the Opposition "as a remnant." What was the minister of militia, pray? And what was the Government? From a majority in the House of 70 the Government support had dwindled down to 20 or 15, he said. Unable to augment this by electoral means, the administration had tried to make recruits in the ranks of the Liberals, by means which Mr. Lapointe declined to discuss. "I hurl back into the minister of militia's face, the mean appellation he bestowed on us," said Mr. Lapointe.

Hon. E. N. Rhodes, from the chair, said that Mr. Lapointe was hardly parliamentary in accusing a fellow member of "mean" assertions. Mr. Lapointe said that he would withdraw the adjective. He caused laughter on both sides by pleading that he was still a tyro in the use of English.

GOVT. MEMBERS CEASE TO DEBATE

OTTAWA, March 2.—(By Canadian Press).—Government members, it was learned today, will take no further part in the present debate until the Campbell sub-amendment to the address is disposed of. The word had gone out to th members to hold their seats and let the Opposition "talk themselves out" if they wish to do so. After a vote on the Campbell amendment to the amendment, which is expected to receive little support on the Opposition side, Government speakers may again figure in the debate, and should there be any further amendments, which is not thought likely, the debate would then be open to every member in the House, whether or not he had spoken before they were moved.

PLOT TO COMMIT OPPOSITION ON TARIFF

OTTAWA, March 2.—Despairing of drawing from Opposition members during the debate on the address a clear cut declaration with regard to their policy on the tariff, Government strategists have had under consideration tactics whereby this end may be accomplished. The inclusion in the speech from the throne of a paragraph explicitly setting forth the protectionist policy of the Government was designed primarily for this purpose, but the Liberal members have held that the only issue before the House was as to whether the Government had any warrant for carrying on. In fact Mr. King declared that the administration had no mandate to touch the tariff at all.

Last night the Government endeavored to secure a snap vote on the Cambell sub-amendment. If a division had occurred that amendment would have been swamped. In that case it was the Government's purpose then to put up a private member who would move another sub-amendment embodying the tariff platforms of both the Liberal and Progressive parties in the hope of nailing them down to these or who opposed the principles embodied therein.

The snap vote was not secured, and the carrying out of the tactics described has at least been postponed. In Opposition circles the proposal is looked upon as "childish." Over a short article describing the tactics, the Ottawa Journal this morning has the heading, "Is the Government Going to Play Low Down and Dirty?" It remains to be seen.

DIVORCE MILL GRINDS.

OTTAWA, March 2.—(By the Canadian Press.)—The divorce bill of the Senate is busily grinding out divorces, and so far has disposed of twelve out of the 150 on the agenda. Several cases are now ready for hearing.

PLANS READY FOR APPROVAL.

GALT, March 2.—Architect F. C. Bodley of Brantford today submitted to the public utilities commission a sketch of the proposed new building, which includes suggestions recently offered by Sir Adam Beck, and provides for a handsome three-story building, faced with stone, costing in the neighborhood of $150,000. The Ontario Commission will be asked to approve of this design.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GREY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn grey, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While grey, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all grey hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

AFTER THE "FLU"

Four Children Had WHOOPING COUGH

Whooping Cough, although specially a disease of childhood, is by no means confined to that period, but may occur at any time of life. It is one of the most dangerous diseases of infancy, and yearly causes more deaths than scarlet fever, typhoid or diphtheria, and is more common in female than male children.

Whooping Cough starts with sneezing, watering of the eyes, irritation of the throat, feverishness and cough.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is highly recommended by mothers everywhere for the relief of this trouble as it helps to clear the clogged-up air passages of the mucous and phlegm that has collected, and in this way bring on the "whoop" which brings the so-much-sought-for relief and heals and soothes the lungs.

Mrs. J. M. Rouse, Imperial, Sask., writes: "After the 'flu,' last fall, my four children took whooping cough and one of them developed bronchitis. After using two or three bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup they were greatly relieved of their nasty coughs. It is an especially good remedy for children, and is so nice they take it readily, and ask for more."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is 35c and 60c a bottle at all dealers. Put up only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back, or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make to keep the kidneys clean and active, a mistake by taking a little occasionally

A POPULAR TONIC

One That Enriches the Blood and Strengthens the Nerves.

Proper food, fresh air and a good tonic will keep most people in good health. Hurried meals, indoor confinement in badly ventilated rooms, and lack of exercise causes anaemia. In this condition, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a popular tonic. They contain no habit-forming drugs, and always have a beneficial effect through enriching the blood and strengthening the nerves. For growing girls, who become thin and pale, for pale, tired women, and for old people who fail in strength, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic. Their benefit in anaemic conditions is shown by the case of Miss Lucy A. Steeves, Hillsboro, N. B., who says: "Last spring I was in very poor health, and completely run down. I had severe headaches, the least exertion would cause my heart to palpitate violently, my appetite was poor, and at times I had fainting spells. This went on for some months, and although I was taking medicine, I seemed to be growing weaker, and the least exertion would leave me worn out. Then on the advice of a friend, I changed the treatment to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I have great cause to be thankful that I did so, as they have made a wonderful improvement in my condition, I can now work without fatigue, go upstairs without becoming breathless, and have gained in weight. I think these pills are an ideal medicine in cases like mine."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

PAY WELL AND GET THE BEST.

With the announcement that the Board of Education will advertise for a man to fill the position of its late secretary, much discussion has arisen as to the adequacy of the salary paid to this officer of the board in the past. Had the late occupant of the office lived he was to have received $2,200 this year; for two years previous, 1919 and 1920, he received $2,000 a year. Prior to that his salary in 1914 and through the war years was only $1,300. That this was not increased during that period was due to Mr. McElheran's refusal on patriotic grounds to accept increases offered him by the board. His patriotic act was, however, recognized in 1919 when he was given an honorarium of $200.

That Mr. McElheran's salary never, at its highest figure, attained a figure much above that of skilled workmen, despite the great responsibilities attached to his post, was probably due mainly to the fact that he had grown up with the job and realized latterly that in some respects his methods were not quite in line with modern business requirements.

In addition to the purely secretarial duties of the position Mr. McElheran was purchasing agent for the board; was responsible for the obtaining and distribution of school supplies. He was practically the administrative head. These were the purely official phases of his work, but beyond and above all this was the great fund of experience in educational administrative matters which he had gathered during his more than a quarter of a century of service, experience which was always unstintedly at the service of the board or any individual trustee.

That to secure a man capable of filling the position adequately the board must pay a much higher salary than heretofore is recognized by most of the trustees. Some, however, are of the opinion that a matter of $100 or $200 more will secure the man they want, but the majority favor placing the salary at near $1,000 more on the principle that if you want value you must pay for it.

Should the suggestion of some of the trustees that the secretary be also treasurer, a position at present held by City Treasurer Bell, be carried out, the responsibilities of the position, already very heavy, would be greatly increased, and the salary which would attract a man capable of filling the post would have to be correspondingly large. Altogether, the situation would appear to be one which the board must, in the interests of efficiency of service and the safeguarding of public interests, face in no parsimonious spirit.

HOW LONG WILL MEAT STOCKS LAST?

If everybody in Canada eats the accustomed amount of meat each day the present supply in cold storage, without replenishment, will last just three and a half weeks. The Internal Trade Division of the Bureau of Statistics, Ottawa, reports stocks in February totalling 128,000 pounds. As the whole nation is estimated to consume 22,000,000 pounds a week, it will be seen that the stocks in storage and in process of cure, if all available, would last less than a month.

There is a somewhat narrow margin between supply and daily requirements, though, of course, it is increasing. It brings to the mind of even the city dweller the necessity for a steady, all-the-year-round stream of meat animals from Canadian farms to the packing plants for their proper preparation for market. This steadiness insures the foods being carried forward to the consumer without interruption, for there are two compelling reasons why unduly large stores of meats may not be held long. The first is that storage space for bulky carcasses of meat is strictly limited, and the second is that, even under the best known refrigeration, perishable fresh meats, when held, quickly deteriorate and lose sale value to the holder.

An examination of the official cold storage returns in the Dominion for the last seven months shows that meat holdings over this period have only averaged two and a quarter weeks' supply for the whole population. The figures include all meats being prepared and held for the export trade. They follow in an easily understandable table:

	Pork Lbs.	Beef Lbs.	Mutton, Lamb Lbs.
August	36,133	6,956	826
September	27,332	6,626	1,306
October	20,815	9,169	1,869
November	23,890	17,866	4,367
December	28,748	30,878	7,633
January	23,603	36,246	8,044

THE HOUSE CAT.

Many an innocent hawk, skunk, owl and weasel has been shot for the deeds of that sleek highwayman, the house cat. It is safe to say that this marauder, which enjoys all the comforts and protection of a home, in the more thickly populated districts destroys in the aggregate more wild birds and young poultry than all the native natural enemies combined. A cat has been known to kill a whole brood of chickens in a day, a feat unequalled by any predacious animals with the possible exception of the mink. Others in the course of a season have practically destroyed whole coveys of quail or grouse, or nests full of young songsters. A well-known naturalist estimates that in the New England States alone one and one-half millions of birds are destroyed annually by cats.

The offender is not so often the well-fed household pet as it is the abandoned and neglected outcast known as the wood cat or "wild cat." In 1905 the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in New York City killed monthly an average of six thousand sick, injured or homeless cats—a total for the year of over seventy thousand.

The principal reasons for keeping cats are their attractiveness as house pets, their usefulness as companions for children, and their alleged value as rat and mouse killers. It is impossible at present to obtain correct figures on the subject, but it is safe to say that few persons during a normal lifetime run across more than half a dozen cats which habitually attack rats. Occasionally a hunter cat is found which seems to delight in catching rats. It is a common experience, however, to find premises well supplied with cats overrun with rats and mice.

Lovers of the cat should be content with one, or at the most two, of these pets, and should see to it that outcasts do not run at large on their premises. Now that cats are known to carry in their fur the germs of not only ringworm, but also of such dreaded diseases as tuberculosis, diphtheria, scarlet fever and smallpox, and fleas and ticks which transmit bubonic plague and spotted fever, the presence in the household of tabby is not without its dangers.

LIGHTS OF HOME.

"I like to walk at eventide,
When dusk shuts out the din,
I like to watch the friendly lights
Of lamps that shine within."

After sunset, as twilight deepens, they begin to blossom one by one until everywhere are the golden flowers of the lights of home. The steady, glowing wonder of them grows, as the darkness sings of their beauty and color and meaning, until "the night is alive with a thousand thoughts," and the heart with the world-old gift of love, and the blessings of home.

Following the winter paths through the park, studying the lovely contours of leafless trees against the last rose flush of sunset, there are to be seen here and there the dark, silent little bird homes among the trees, and a sense of loneliness awakens a longing for the return of birds and leaves and flowers. Then like so many friendly stars, the home lights softly bloom and the sleeping joys of spring and summer are forgotten as their brilliance deepens in the growing darkness.

Everywhere they beckon, those bits of glory, and tired toilers answer their summons without question, with a content and heart-warming that is beyond naming. All the wonder and peace of a place set apart for love and happiness and deep content, a nook entirely one's own, builded by the master architect, love, have concentrated the gold of beauty and meaning into the pure radiance of these flowers of welcome. It is then comes the realization—

"Though the way may be long,
In the lilt of a song,
They forget they were weary before,"

as quick, eager feet follow the home paths to "corners of heaven itself," guided by small bits of heaven's own brightness.

To each and every one of the lights of home take their distinct and beautiful meanings, whether their loveliness has been dimmed by years that have carried away golden dreams and left but memories, or made more meaningful and sacred with the coming of every twilight or lit with all the wonder and brilliance of dreams of the yet-to-be.

FISHING THE THAMES.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Dear Sir,—Having been informed that the fishermen have applied for net seine licenses for use on the River Thames between Chatham and Lake St. Clair for the season of 1921, I thought it advisable to refer to a few matters in connection with same. Now, I might state that when they were granted to these men last year, 1920, the department notified them there would be none granted for the year 1921. The licenses asked for are for operating in the River Thames a few miles below Chatham, west to the mouth of St. Clair. Now, I might state that the River Thames extends east from Lake St. Clair through an inland section of Ontario, connecting with London, Chatham, Woodstock, Ingersoll, St. Marys and a large number of smaller towns too numerous to mention, which represent a very large population of the western part of Ontario, and they should be entitled to the benefits of the said river for pleasure and recreation. Some fifteen years ago the Government of that time took up this matter and gave it due consideration and refused to grant any more licenses for all time for seine net fishing on the River Thames, and for ten years the people enjoyed the pleasure derived from same. Then when war was declared these same fishermen took a mean advantage by applying to the present Government for seine net licenses, and obtained same under the plea of furnishing food for our people for the western part of Ontario. In fact, all the fish that they caught were shipped through London to Buffalo and New York City for the last five years.

Our people could not purchase any. And also during the past five years they used the same mean, contemptible plans to block the river with their unlawful contrivances, which prevented any fish from getting any farther from the lake into the river. In fact, I have talked with a large number of farmers and other people along the river on the main branch from Chatham to London and on the south branch from London to Woodstock and on the north branch from London to St. Marys, and they all informed me that it has been impossible to catch or get any fish since the licenses have been granted for the use of the seines, and all the farmers that used to apply for dip-net licenses told me that the river was totally depleted of fish by the said fishermen on the river below Chatham. Now, I hope and trust that the Government will keep faith with the people and do what they stated one year ago, grant no licenses for the year 1921, as I consider it is a crime to issue licenses to ten or a dozen men that have become wealthy in the past on the fish that they have caught in the River Thames and shipped across the lines for the benefit of our American friends. In conclusion I might state that there are thousands of men, women and children praying that there be no licenses granted this year. Let the people have the pleasure of what God granted and nature provided them in the River Thames for 1921. Yours truly,

WILLIAM SMITH.

BRANCH LIBRARY SERVICE AND PARK SPACE.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

With your permission, I would add a few words in support of the proposal urged by Rev. Dr. McCrae to extend public library facilities to Southeast London. From the days of the old Mechanics' Institute Library on Talbot street, appreciation of the intrinsic worth of such a service has steadily grown, more especially in recent years, and at present its improved aids to adults and youths are more than ever realized. From Adelaide street east to Egerton street and south of the Grand Trunk Railway tracks to Chelsea Green is a section already well populated; and from present industrial and business prospects the large and desirable territory, including Ealing, from Egerton street eastward to Highbury street, between the G. T. R. and the south branch of the Thames, will be thickly occupied. The people in these large areas will greatly prize and be advantaged by a well-administrated library branch. They are now out of reasonable access to the main library on Queen's avenue or the Dundas street east branch. The educational reasons for libraries in the other districts are equally or more urgent in this section of the city. Now as it is building up is the time to lay the foundations by helpfully directed reading advantages, which promotes good citizenship. As in the case of schools, libraries should be convenient to the people whose taxes maintain them for their own benefit. Mentioning schools another point is suggested. In the area referred to, the homes are generally modest in size, and the lots limited in extent, which emphasizes the wisdom of the board of education in providing ample playground space. Recreation grounds and fresh air are about the cheapest good products available. The further suggestion is offered that the board of aldermen also acquire at least one spacious plot of land for a south-eastern park, with plenty of room for shade trees and grass. Other sections are more highly favored in that respect already, and the roomy, residential quarters will never feel the need of park spaces as keenly as the youth in South-east London. Suitable land can be secured more readily now than later on, and it is sincerely hoped that these two simple boons of good—library privileges and healthful park space—will be provided by the progressive public spirit of those directing the affairs of the city. By so doing they will at once earn the gratitude of the present generation and of those who follow them.

LET'S.

Let's work and play,
Let's live our day,
Nor brood o'er cares or frets,
Let's sing our song,
And push along,
Nor mind the weather:
Let's!

Let's kindly smile,
Nor yield to guile,
Nor dally with regrets.
Let's friendly be,
And hold the key
To strength and courage:
Let's!

Let's greet the morn
With hope new born;
And when the kind sun sets,
Let's meet the night
With hearts still light,
And turn to slumber:

A LIBRARIAN'S LAMENT.

[New York Tribune.]

She was young, she was pretty. She wore the traditional tortoise-shell campus windshields. And she had the American co-ed's blithesome assurance as she stepped up to the library window. "Oh, look," she said, "I've got to read some books. It's for my English VI. semi-finals. Look, have you got 'The Four Horsemen With the Erysipelas,' by that Spanish caveman? And I want a book of poetry, too. Something kind of jazzy. See?"

BEAUTY—THE VANISHER.

[Edith M. Thomas.]

She laid on me a certain homesickness
Not theirs who up and down the world may roam.
But, in unguarded moment, falls the stress
That makes of one a wanderer at home.
Then in my ear a voice would whisper me:
"Would thou and I in mine own home might be!"

A fleeting glance she gave from some lone flower
(Where loneliness and loveliness made one);
And she was in that hushed adoring hour
That sees descend the cloudless, great orb'd sun;
She beckoned, when two beaded dew-drops clear
Obeyed, and slipped into one perfect sphere!

A golden lance of gossamer she cast
Down Autumn's drowsy air—withdrawn as soon;
She rode the faintly irised cloud that passed
Dissolving in the pathway of the moon.
My ear had trace of her in wind and wave—
In clues to all lost music that they gave.

With things most fleeting she herself allied,
Where subtlest substance was she had her share;
She willed that I should not be satisfied!
"Thou shalt not find it here—the fairest fair!"
She I loved most herself most homesick was—
I could not but be homesick from such cause!

Yet still I thought to gain completer sight
And ear more keen, till came the day I learned
I could but know her in the homing flight,
As, with adieu, she for a moment turned,
Looked back—and bound me but the more to her!
Wherefore this song I call The Vanisher.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

[Western U. Gazette.]

'21—Did you see Bliss Carmen when he was in town last week?

'25—No, but I saw him pitch a bird of a game against Hamilton at Tecumseh Park last summer.

L'IMMORTELLE.

[Karamanch.]

It's for spring you know I'm longing,
And her skies of dusky blue,
For the heart of earth is stirring
With the old, old joy that's new.

Every little seed is thrilling
Underneath the snow and cold,
Feeling life and strength and yearning
For the new joy that's so old.

And I long to see the snowdrops,
While our robin's welcome rings
With the hyacinths and crocus,
Dipped in purple blood of kings.

Life has struck our silent heartstrings,
Life has swelled each crimson vein,
At her golden touch they quiver
With sweet music, yearning pain.

Life, oh life, your Resurrection
Brings us back each treasure dear,
Love, and hope, and youth immortal
In the springtime of the year.

COULDN'T BE HAD.

[New York Tribune.]

A meek looking darky was brought into a suburban police station just outside of Philadelphia and a petty charge was put upon the blotter. He pleaded innocence.

"Well," asked the examining officer, "is there anyone here who can vouch for your respectability?"

Whereupon the darky singled out the head of the small police force.

"He can," said the colored man, pointing to that officer.

"I can't" gasped the policeman. "Why, I don't know you!"

"Dat's it exactly," said the accused. "I's lived in this place fo' mo' dan five yeahs an' de police don't even know me. So, yo' see, gents, I can't be such a hard lot."

COWARDICE.

[Lurana Sheldon.]

The woods are calling me persistently!
Great, barren woods that show but ills of life!
I see afar gaunt tree tops pointing mystery—
Grim branches torn with wrath of wintry strife.

Yet are my footsteps hesitant. I fear
The deep wood's sufferings. Could I but hear
One murmur of a brooklet speeding by,
Or from the trees one hopeful, tender sigh,

Then would I hasten unreluctantly
To where the shadows crouch so darkly drear,
For oh, the woods have offered peace to me,
And I have found their solace ever dear!

Alas! How human hearts shrink from all sacrifice!
I cannot go to this, my bygone Paradise,
To weep with whosts of love, or blend my sighs,
Though of my cowardice the sad wood cries.

PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McLarnen have returned to London after spending the past two months with their relatives in New York.

Mrs. J. J. Tearney of Toronto is in the city visiting her mother, Mrs. W. L. Underwood, 298 Wolfe street.

Miss Minnie Hodgins of Port Huron has been a guest with Mrs. George Logan for a few days.

Mrs. Walter Thomson, Richmond street north, is entertaining a few of her friends at the tea hour on Friday.

The Lady Maccabees of the Forest City Hive entertained at an enjoyable dance and progresive euchre at Hyman Hall on Tuesday evening, about four hundred being present.

Mrs. Charlie Ivey is entertaining at her home on St. James street tonight after the Music Club concert in honor of the artist of the evening, Miss Eva Claire of Winnipeg, who is her guest.

Mr. Archie D Cameron of Algoma District and Mr. Coles of Fort William spent a few days with Mrs. Dawson at Parkhill, after attending the meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge in London.

Last night was the occasion of a delightful litle supper party held in honor of the Girls' Athletic Club of the second year Collegiate Institute class, the hostesses being the women members of the collegiate staff.

Mrs. Fred Phelps was a charming tea hostess yesterday afternoon, when she entertained a few of her friends at her home on Wellington street. From a table centered with a lovely old-fashioned cluster of violets and freesias, and lit with candles. Mrs. McClary Moore poured tea.

Mr. Bliss Carman, the well-known Canadian poet, who gave a reading in the city a short time ago, spent a few hours in London yesterday in company with Mr. Peter McArthur of Appin. Mr. Carman was on his way to Sarnia, where he will give another of his delightful readings.

Mrs. Selma Mason of Windsor, provincial worthy grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, was the guest of honor at a delightful little dinner party given at Wong's last night. Those present included the officers of the Ruth Chapter, O. E. S., the past patrons and the wives, and the past matrons and their husbands. During the evening the guest of honor was presented with a handsome clock. Mrs. Mason, who is in the city inspecting the chapter officially is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rowe.

It was an exceedingly delightful little tea at which Mrs. A. A. Campbell was the hostess, immediately following the regular meeting of the 7th Regiment Chapter, I. O. D. E., held on Tuesday, in the officers' quarters at the armories. The guests included the chapter members, the Municipal Chapter officers, members of the nominating committee for the Municipal Chapter, and representatives from the nine different chapters organized in the city during Mrs. Campbell's term of office as organizing secretary for the Municipal Chapter.

Tea was served from a table prettily centred with a silver basket of daffodils, silver candlesticks at each corner, and green and yellow tulle upon the damask cloth. Mrs. Eric Reid, honorary regent of the 7th Regiment Chapter, and Mrs. W. A. McCrimmon officiated over the tea cups, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Millar, Mrs. Campbell Fraser and others.

The 7th Regiment Chapter has already paid over its first $1,000 installment to the Children's Hospital fund.

The home of Mrs. Charles E. Percy, Tecumseh avenue, was the scene of a pretty reception yesterday afternoon. In the living-room, where golden tulips were used effectively as decorations, Mrs. Percy received her guests, wearing a lovely gown of black charmeuse, with bodice of silver lace.

Golden tulips were used again on the tea table, combined with pale pink hyacinths, the whole being lit with yellow candles, above crisp tulle of the same shade. Presiding over the tea table was Mrs. A. Talbot, in black charmeuse and pretty blue hat, and Mrs. Morley Aylsworth in navy blue with leaf-green hat. They were assisted by Miss Marjorie Talbot, Mrs. P. R. Bradden, Miss Ulah Kennedy, and Miss Mary Rowson, Mrs. C. M. Taylor, in a handsome black gown with sequin trimming, and Mrs. Wendell Holmes, in black, beaded crepe and black lace hat, ushered to the tea room, while little Miss Mary Rowson, in a pretty French frock of French embroidery, acted as door attendant.

CHILD WELFARE ASSOCIATION.

The local Child Welfare Association has just sent out interesting pamphlets to all the members of the medical profession in London and the vicinity, asking them to co-operate with the Child Welfare Association along the lines of proposed pre-natal work in the city. This circular is accompanied by another giving advice to prospective mothers, which will be distributed widespread throughout the city.

CRADLE ROLL SOCK TEA.

The women in charge of the Cradle Roll Department of New St. James' Sunday School have conceived of a unique way of raising money for that department. On Friday afternoon, they are entertaining at what they call a "Sock Tea," each guest having to bring twice as many pennies as the size of her sock. If she should be fortunate enough to take size 8, then her portion will be but 16 cents, but should she take size 10, she must pay 20 cents. It is expected that by this means a goodly sum of money will be raised for the Cradle Roll Department.

W. C. T. U. CLUB CONCERT.

One of the clubs in connection with the local W. C. T. U. gave a very fine concert recently. Two excellent dramatic skits were presented in addition to several vocal numbers and readings. Among those taking part were Mrs. Crockford, Mrs. Woodfine, Miss Alice Young, and Mrs. Strangeman.

E., has arranged to hold a sale of aprons, children's clothing and home-cooking some time early in April, this having been decided upon at the regular meeting of the chapter, held at the home of Mrs. Oram on Tuesday afternoon. At this meeting the chapter officially made Mrs. Drainey an honorary regent.

Cottam spoke of the present needs in the Canadian West, and when a subscription list was opened for the home at Wahstao, there was a generous response. Miss Mabel Gidley sang very sweetly, and Miss McLeod contributed a piano selection. Miss May Thomas gave a brief talk on "Christian Stewardship." The meeting was presided over by Miss Winnifred Dunn, who welcomed Miss Howson as a new life member of the society. Plans were completed for the special evening, which the two circles are preparing to give on March 22. Then a social hour was spent over the tea cups.

Mrs. Jas. Brown will be the speaker for the Easter meeting of the circle to be held on April 5.

Final arrangements for the production of a play this spring, under the auspices of the Drama League, were made at a meeting of the executive, held on Tuesday night at the home of Miss Grace Blackburn. The selection of the play and its production have been left in the hands of a committee, which includes S. F. Sims, convener; Miss Jean Walker, Mrs. Arthur Brickenden and J. S. Meredith.

Plans were also made at this meeting for the March and April meetings of the club, which promise to be very fine. At the March meeting Miss Ann Beckton, Cecil Carrothers and other students of Western University will present Bernard Shaw's "Dark Lady of the Sonnets," while for the April meeting J. S. Meredith is arranging a one-act play by Sutro, and Miss Grace Blackburn and Miss Madeline Simson will present one of Browning's dramatic poems.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

To secure a contented spirit, measure your desires by your fortunes, not your fortunes by your desires.—Jeremy Taylor.

Admires Thistle.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have been deeply interested in your corner for some time, but have been rather timid about writing. Do you think Chestnut would mind letting me have the creeper pattern she sent in for Mrs. Reilley, and also the other one she mentioned in her letter? I am inclosing a shinplaster for S. C. H., and would like a sachet bag. How lovely this world would be if there were only more like Thistle! Next time I write I will try to be some help. Wishing you and the Boxites all kinds of good Luck. SPRING.

Ans.—If patterns are sent in I shall forward them. Have placed your name on list for a sachet, in case Thistle sends in reinforcements. Thank you for "plaster."

For Plants.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am coming again. Someone asked how to kill little bugs on the plants. I use tobacco water, putting about a half a plug of tobacco into about two quarts of boiling water. When it becomes cold, I dip the plant into the water about three times daily. Pour boiling water over some manure; after it is cold water the plants several times with it, and this will give your plants blooms in a short time. I am sending pieces of cotton for Thistle, and please, Miss Grey, may I have one of the sachets, if they are not all gone? But please send me one when they come in. I am inclosing a shinplaster for S. C. H. fund. JONQUILL.

Ans.—Thank you for information re plants, also for "plaster" for our hospital fund.

Attention, Clematis.

Dear Miss Grey,]—I am an interested reader of the Mail-Box and enjoy the book discussion, also the recipes. Would you send me a sachet bag if there are any? Some reader offered a pattern for little boys' pants. My boy is six years old. I believe it was Clematis who offered this pattern, but am not quite sure. Would be very grateful if she would be kind enough to send it to me. Am sending dime for H. F. M. M. B.

Ans.—Am mailing sachet. Thanks for dime. Possibly Clematis will see your request and send pattern.

Seven Years' Sadness.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have just been reading Seven Years' Sadness' letter, and as she asked readers to criticize, I am doing so, as a big sister. Realizing yours is not an easy lot, and that you need someone to cheer you, I would say try and make the best of everything (husband and all). You know there is a lot of good about even the worst of us—and you are both so young—and the children, bring them up to respect their father, even if he does not measure up. He will want to after a time. Try, with God's help, to keep a loving heart and an attractive home, and some day, when life is easier, you will be glad you did not give up. Through these trying years you have needed a mother's advice and love, but try again and again, and hope there are seven years' of gladness coming. BIG SISTER JEAN.

Around the Grate Fire.

Dear Miss Grey and Boxites,—May I enter your cosy corner? I have been to the Mail-Box once before, but I believe it must be a year or more since I called. First of all, Miss Grey, please tell me what you think of my writing? Aren't we having a mild winter? Well, I haven't much to say, but as I am a real bookworm, I will tell you some of the books I have read this winter. I have read "Uncle Tom's Cabin," by Stowe; "Freckles," by Gene Stratton-Porter; "The Hoosier School Boy," by Edward Eggleston; "Chester Rand" and "Sam's Chance," by Alger, Jun.; also "Martha' by the Day,,' and "What Katy Did at School," and the "Red Seal," by Lincoln, and "The Clansmen" and "Nancy, the Joyous." I like every one of those books, and I have read some other ones, too. Well I'd better go now. May I come again? GLADYS CANBEE.

Ans.—Certainly you may come again, Gladys. You write a very good hand.

Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first letter to your helpful Mail-Box, and as many others, I am coming to you for help. My daughter recites some and we find it difficult to find good pieces so thought perhaps we could get a few good ones through your columns, would like them suitable for a girl between the age of 12 and 16; would like to get them as soon as possible. If any are sent, will try and copy them and return them if wished. My daughter has copied a few recitations which I will inclose. I also see where some ask for crochet patterns. I will send in a few, and hope they will be of use to someone. They need not be returned. With best wishes to Miss Grey and all the Mail-Box. PANDORA.

Ans.—If any recitations are sent in I shall forward them to you. Thank you for inclosures.

Dear Miss Grey,—I notice in our last London Advertiser that Morning Glory is sending in some of her beautiful morning glory seeds. I am inclosing a mite for the S. C. H. and may I have a few of these morning glory seeds, and if you have any Canterbury bells seeds left may I have a few of them, please? I am very fond of all kinds of flowers, but last spring I sowed at least ten different kinds that never grew at all. I bought them from the seedsmen. If you have any of the little sachets left I would like to have one, and I will inclose some white cotton for the lady who so kindly makes them. I enjoy so much reading the Mail-Box letters. Here is one of my favorite recipes—just the thing for warm weather. Put 1 pint boiling water and 1 cup white sugar on stove. When sugar is dissolved, add 5 tablespoons of cornstarch which has been made creamy with a little cold water. As soon as the cornstarch is cooked, add the grated rind and juice of 1 lemon, then the well-beaten whites of 3 eggs. Use more than one lemon if you like it strongly flavored. The custard to pour over this is made of 1½ cups milk, yolks of 3 eggs beaten, with 3 tablespoons sugar and one teaspoon of cornstarch. I will close this time, signing myself, MIGNONETTE.

Ans.—Am mailing seeds. There are no sachets left. Thank you for recipe and hospital mite.

Dear Miss Grey,—I receive lots of helpful hints from your Page, so I thought I would write again, although I know I should not write so soon again. I wonder if any of the Boxites have any crochet patterns—any kind at all? I would be very pleased to receive them, and if you have a sachet to spare, would you send it to me? Miss Grey, did you receive a letter I wrote once and inclosed three S. F. P.'s and a crocheted piece of insertion, and I asked for the bead portiere? I got the portiere, but didn't see my letter in print. SNOWBALL.

Ans.—Have forwarded you patterns. I am sorry you did not see your letter in print.

Kitty Kelly—Thank you for sending in recipe.

"Ne'er-do-well."

Dear Cynthia Grey,—A bad penny always turns up, doesn't it? But, now that we have started to discuss books, I couldn't keep away. (Blessings on thee, Ura Kidd!)

Has any one read "The Treasure of Heaven," by Marie Corelli? I think tho' I'm not quite sure that it is my favorite book. It is a story of an old millionaire who grows weary of society, with all its shallowness and artifice, and sets out to find happiness. You feel that you are right there with him. You cry with Tom o' the Gleam over his kiddie and laugh with Mr. Bunce and Mr. Twitt. I know that you'd love the old millionaire and Angus Reay and Mary Deane. And not only do you derive pleasure from this book, but you also learn many things which you may not have known before.

Those of you who like history and adventure will love "The Prince and the Pauper," by Mark Twain. It's ten times more thrilling than any tencent novel, and then you feel that you have read something worth while afterwards.

I see that you liked "The Frontiersman," by Cody. Ura Kidd, have you read his "Under Sealed Orders" and "If Any Man Sin"? They are both stories of the great northland and are very good.

I like Mary Roberts Rinehart's books. I have just finished "Tish" and am now reading "Love Stories." They're just great. Her "Love Stories" are all, with one exception, about nurses, and their patients.

Isn't it too bad that Conan Doyle has got the Spirtualism Bug? No more Sherlock Holmes' yarns, I'm afraid I liked his "Valley of Fear" and the "Hound of the Baskervilles."

Grace Richmond's books are entertaining, don't you think? Still, I wish her heroines were not so unusually beautiful and intellectual. They make poor me feel so very homely and ignorant.

I don't like Robert Chambers very much. I have just finished his book, "In Secret" and of all the far-stretched tales, it takes the cake.

I love Gene Stratton-Porter's books. Didn't you love "Laddie" and the "Harvester" and "Freckles" and "The Girl of the Limberlost."

"White Fang" by Jack London is a wonderful story of men and animals, with that kind of ending which makes you feel all nice and warm inside. Then there's the "River's End" by James Curwood, and "The Shepherd of the Hills" by Harold Bell Wright and— oh, Cynthia Grey, won't you give me the whole page to write about the books I love and like and dislike? There, now, aren't I selfish? But, honestly, I feel that I could go on forever discussing books. It seems to me I've just begun. Will you let me come again, soon, please? NE'ER-DO-WELL.

P. S.—Inclosed please find dime.

Ans.—Why not continue your letter later. It was very interesting, and I am quite sure every one enjoyed it. Thanks for dime.

Caramel Icing.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have been reading your page for some time, but neglected writing to it until now. Are we not having lovely weather for February? The roads are a bit rough in this part of the country. I am a girl 16 years old. I live in the country. Our nearest town is five miles and city thirteen miles away. I am the only girl, and I stopped going to high school in December. Miss Grey, will you please send me the much-asked-for stocking-foot pattern? I am sending ten cents for the S. C. H. I am also inclosing a recipe for caramel icing: 1 cup brown sugar, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon cream, 1 tablespoon vanilla; boil three minutes and stir while boiling. I must close. May I come again, Miss Grey? I will sign myself SHORTIE.

Ans.—Am mailing you pattern. Thanks for dime and recipe.

FOR LOVE OF BETTY

[BY MAY CHRISTIE.]

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

XXVII.—Home Again.

When Trevor was restlessly pacing the New York streets Betty was speeding toward her country home as fast as an express train could carry her.

The morning mail had brought her an ill-spelled letter from the Irish servant Kate, which ungrammatically and longwindedly stated that "the missus" wasn't quite so well, and that she (Kate) would be glad to see Miss Betty back at the Red Cottage, for "shure 'tis all at sixes and sivens we are without ye, miss."

Betty, anxious over Aunt Marion's welfare, had explained the situation hurriedly to Mrs. Carton, asking to cut her visit short. Whenever Aunt Marion was better she would return to New York.

Tears stood in Betty's pretty eyes. She hoped that Mrs. Carton wouldn't think she was ungrateful. She had had a lovely time—she hated to run off like this—but she was wanted at home—her place was really with the invalid.

Kindly Mrs. Carton cut short the girl's apologies and explanations.

"My dear, of course, I understand," she said. "I'll phone for a taxi for you right away. Now, don't say any more. I'm not in the least offended. Betty I'll expect you back in a day or two, that's all. You're an unselfish little angel—and I hope Aunt Marion will appreciate all that you're giving up for her. Now, mind—you're to come back to me as soon as possible!"

She was genuinely sorry to see Betty go. Betty was so sweet, so thoughtful for other people. Her disposition was so sunny, too. But Mrs. Carton had noticed that something had been troubling the young girl. There had often been a shadow across her pretty face these last few days. Some love affair, of course! She wished she had questioned the young girl. And yet—despite all Betty's sweetness—she had a pretty air of dignity and reserve that somehow prevented one from approaching too close!

Now, as the train sped toward her destination, Betty's thoughts were oddly varied.

With a little twinge of conscience the young girl realized that her mind turned all the time to last night's scene—the one in which Davon and April Moore had figured so conspicuously—instead of toward Aunt Marion.

"Kate's letter wasn't so very alarming," she told herself. "But it would have been wrong of me not to return home at once."

She was torn between two wishes. One was to be with Trevor, to hear from him an explanation of last night's astounding happenings—and the other was to be at the post of duty back in the Red Cottage.

"April—why, she can't care for him—not after what we saw last night." So ran Betty's confused reflections. "And yet—how could any girl know Jack, and not love him? He's—he's the most attractive boy in the whole wide world!"

Betty blushed vividly at the admission, staring with unseeing eyes at the flying landscape.

A swift, confused memory of all he had said last night came over her. She had listened—eagerly—to every word of his impetuous, broken avowal. She couldn't help herself. It was as he himself had said—something stronger than herself had got her in its grip.

The novelty of it! The wonder of it! She closed her eyes and leaned back in a corner of the seat.

She had had plenty of admirers even though she had been "buried in the country." Betty's charm and beauty and sweetness had always attracted men. She was of the type that always will attract.

But never, never before had she known what love was like.

"There's no good fighting against it any longer," she whispered to herself—and a little song of happiness was echoing in her heart. "If April doesn't care for him—and, impossible though that may seem, she cannot care—then everything will come all right—for Jack and Me!"

Trevor, pacing the New York streets, had a sudden moment of illumination. The parlormaid at Mrs. Carton's had been unable to tell him Betty's whereabouts. The young lady had gone off suddenly, that was all. Mrs. Carton herself was out, at a committee meeting. She wouldn't be back till late at night. Trevor could get no adequate information till her return.

But Trevor couldn't wait till then No laggard in love, he! Why, the most likely thing in the whole world was that Betty had gone home, back to the shelter and the quiet of the Red Cottage! She had been upset over last night's affair. No wonder! How quickly she had run off, shy little creature that she was!

Yes, that was it. How hadn't he guessed before?

Or—he knew that Betty's aunt had not been very well. Betty was so fond of her, so anxious. That would prove an additional motive in the young girl's flight.

Yes, he would follow Betty—and at once. No time like the present. Dear, beautiful, kind-hearted Betty! How he admired her! How he worshipped her! She hadn't her equal anywhere. . .

"I must do the thing properly," he told himself, turning his steps toward a well-known jeweler's.

LETTERS OF GRATITUDE
Eloquent language and illustrations in advertising may appeal to many, but after all it is the homely, sincere letters from women, overflowing with heartfelt gratitude for health restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that convince other suffering women that there is a medicine that will help them also. Many such letters are being published in this paper from day to day, and it is to any woman's advantage who suffers from female ailments in any form to give this old-fashioned root and herb remedy a trial.

THE CURIOUS PUP.

Part Thirty-One.

"March Wind, March Wind, won't you come to carry me back home. Oh, March Wind! Oh, March Wind!" again and again Nibbles called. Suddenly his voice got thinner and thinner, finally it disappeared altogether. Why couldn't he talk? Strange everything seemed to be going! There was a mist before his eyes, and he felt himself drowsy and uncomfortable.

"Here, little dog, what are you doing in my balloon?" asked a voice filled with surprise and with just a little anger in it.

Nibbles opened his eyes wide. Why it had all been a dream, the trip to Jack Frost Land, the little mayor and the tiny citizen, the cats on Stray Kittens' Island, March Wind and everything. Here he was in the balloon where he had fallen asleep. He wasn't so very far from home either.

When the balloon man saw the surprised look on Nibbles' face he laughed softly. "This is no place for pups," he grinned. "What if the balloon had started off and carried you up into the clouds?"

How Nibbles wished he could tell the man that that was what the balloon had done, but then he remembered that it hadn't really, he had just dreamed that, too.

But dreams sometimes do come true, and Nibbles thought of how meanly the balloon had acted in his dream, so he lost no time in trying to get out of it. The balloon man soon gave him a hand over the basket, and once more the little dog's feet were on firm ground.

You would have laughed had you seen Nibbles scurrying home. All thought of going out in search of adventure had left him. It was quite dark when he arrived at his home and he was hungry. Perhaps that's why he didn't tell his kind old mother his adventures until after he had had a good feast. When he did tell, however, the kind old dog laughed to herself. "That's what comes of being curious," she declared. "If you hadn't wanted to see what was inside that balloon basket you would never have had such a dream."

But, after all, Nibbles was glad he had had the dream, for it wasn't such a bad dream, was it

FAST BOXING AT PETROLEA

Bouts Put On in Town Hall Last Night Pleased Large Crowd.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

PETROLEA, March 2.—A good sized crowd from Petrolea, Sarnia and the district saw the boxing contests held here tonight under the auspices of the Returned Soldiers' Athletic Club. The bouts were snappy throughout, and the crowd was greatly pleased with the exhibition, which was staged in the town hall, with Professor Blake of Toronto as referee.

In the first bout E. Bennett of Petrolea and Guy McPhadden of Toronto put up a fast battle in the 135-pound class. In the second round Bennett was forced to the floor, and McPhadden won on points.

The next event, also a 135-pound class affair, was between Joe Barrett of Petrolea and George Pettet of Sarnia. In the third round Barrett was knocked down, but was right up. The decision was given to Pettet on points.

Went Four Rounds.

The next event went four rounds as a result of the judges disagreeing. It was between "Kid" Clarke and Jerome Cassidy, both of Sarnia, in the 135-pound class. At the end of the third round the judges could not settle on a decision, and an extra round was put on. At the conclusion of this the decision went to Clark on points.

The fastest bout of the evening was that between Bill Hall and Jack Jenkins, both of Sarnia. This was a 118-pound event, and kept the audience on its toes throughout. Hall was awarded the decision on points.

Pete Zimmerman and Ralph Bennett, both of Petrolea, were matched in a 125-pound fracas. This was a good bout. Bennett had the advantage of height and reach, and won on points.

An exhibition battle was staged between Silverman and Gossagy, both of Toronto University. This was in the 145-pound class, and was fast throughout. No decision was given.

Arnold Slater of Petrolea and Jack Lozier of Sarnia, in a 158-pound affair gave a fine exhibition. In the first round Slater beat Lozier up, but in the second Lozier came back strong and knocked Slater down. Slater took the count.

In a final bout between McPhadden and Clarke, McPhadden was knocked out in the first round.

A close contest was staged between Ted Randall of Petrolea, the winner in the 98-pound class, and Bill Hall of Sarnia, 115 pounds. This was a fast contest all the way through. The decision was awarded to Hall on points.

Forced to Quit.

In a bout in the 125-pound class between George Stewart and Bennett of Petrolea, the first round was very snappy. In the second round Stewart sprained his thumb and was forced to quit.

Prof. T. H. Blake of Toronto, British army welterweight champion in 1912, and Grant Stirrett, a local boy who is attending Toronto University, and who is heavyweight champion of the university for 1921, put on an exhibition bout. Although Prof. Blake is a much smaller man, he took nothing from Stirrett, and the boxing was of a character that kept the fans interested every second.

Three Bothwell contestants were expected to have taken part, but were unable to get here.

The Returned Soldiers' Athletic Club is planning a number of other events for the coming season.

STUDIES INTERFERE WITH McGILL TEAM

MONTREAL, March 2.—The authorities at McGill University are objecting to its hockey team, which has won the championship of Quebec, going into the elimination series. The authorities contend the members of the team are losing time at their studies by traveling to distant points to play games.

GALT WINS FIRST OF FINALS FROM NORTHERNERS

Red and Whites Will Take Five-Goal Lead To Collingwood Friday—Ice Was Covered With Water—Watts Injured.

PRESTON, March 2.—Galt Intermediates go to Collingwood on Friday night with a five-goal lead over Collingwood, the winner of O. H. A. championship for last four years. In the first period Galt scored two goals to Collingwood's one. In the second period Galt got one more and Collingwood none, and in the last period Galt scored three more and the game ended Galt 6, Collingwood 1.

The game was very fast from start to finish, the soft condition of the ice preventing combination and team play, which resulted in individual playing and a lot of puck batting instead of shooting. Most of Galt's goals were well earned. For Galt Wilkinson in the nets played a stellar game, stopping many nasty rolling shots. George Himes on defence was probably the fastest skater on the ice, and made several nice lone rushes. Freddy George, his side partner on defence, blocked well. Norman Himes at centre worked all night like an old war horse and got three goals for Galt. Speedy Oliver and little Punch George on wings worked the boards well and held Draper and Wall of Collingwood. Alex. Watts, sub defence for Galt in the third period, was carried off the ice, the result of a collision with Frier. He was reported to be O. K. after the game and will sub in Collingwood on Friday night.

Collingwood Handicapped.

Collingwood was handicapped on soft ice, and could not get their team play working. Frier and Fellows showed up best for the Northern town champions, with Cook in the nets saving the situation on several occasions. Galt will run a special train up to Collingwood on Friday night, and a large number of fans are going along with the team, accompanied by Harvey Hawke's Jazz Band.

The line-up:

Fellows	Defence	G. Himes
Frier	Centre	N. Himes

SOO WINS ROUND FROM PORCUPINES

Latter Team Were Unable To Get Going.

TIMMINS, Ont., March 2.—(By Canadian Press).—The hockey team from Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., tonight defeated the Porcupine team here by 5 goals to 5. Having already won the first game, played at the Soo last Friday night, by 5 goals to 4, they win the round by 5 goals, and will meet the champions of the O. H. A. at Toronto in the preliminaries for the Allan Cup. It was raining here tonight and the ice was very slow. The lighter Porcupine team seemed unable to get going at any stage.

The line-up:

London Is After Heavyweight Bout

Offer of $750,000 Received by Rickard From English Promoter.

NEW YORK, March 2.—Tex Rickard, promoter of the Dempsey-Carpentier heavyweight championship contest, announced tonight receipt of a $750,000 offer for the bout from London. The offer, in cable form, was signed by Geo. McDonald of the London Olympia. Rickard, who has until the end of the month to select a site for the contest, announced that he would give the proposition due consideration.

SUNNY SOUTH IS MECCA FOR MAJOR CLUBS

State of Texas Is Favored by Seven Teams—Cubs Return To Camp They Have Used Three Consecutive Years.

New York, March 2.—Baseball players, veterans and rookies, representing sixteen major league clubs will be training under the southern sun for the 1921 pennant races before the close of the present week. Already the migration of the National and American League squads is under way and some of the older stars have indulged in a week or two of preliminary work at the various mineral baths before undertaking the more strenuous training of the southland.

In the selection of the training camps, the various managers have shown the same wide difference of opinion regarding the choice of quarters that has prevailed in the past. Divided into states the list shows that Texas is favored by seven clubs; Louisiana named by four; Florida and Arkansas by two each and California one.

Nine of the clubs have selected sites different from those used in 1920, while seven will return to the same parks or quarters used twelve months ago for conditioning of the players. Of the sixteen clubs, the Chicago Nationals will be the only squad to return to the same camp for the third consecutive season, Pasadena, California, having the call.

Where They Will Train.

JUNIOR NORTHERN SEMI-FINAL IS CALLED OFF

Will Be Played Friday Night —Special Train From Preston.

TILLSONBURG, March 2.—Owing to the extreme mild weather the second game in the junior semi-finals in the Northern League with Preston tonight had to be postponed until Friday evening, when the Preston lads will have to play the whole sixty minutes to retain their six-goal lead, as the local team will be greatly strengthened for the home game. Preston fans expect to run a special train, as these two teams met in the semi-finals last season.

Garrison Five Are in Good Condition For Game With Central Y

Have Had Stiff Workouts All Week With "U" Team — Gillies Replaces McLean—Ken Foreman Will Referee.

Central Y seniors are sure to get a surprise if they depend on the dope sheet against the local Garrison quintet Friday night at the armories in the first home and home game for the championship.

They'll probably go on the West Enders' defeat of the locals as a basis for what they may expect here, but they'll be quite a way out. The night West End appeared here, Duffield was just out of bed and Brock and Reid should have been there, and the result was the crew cracked under the pace they forced. Friday night they should be in the best shape of the year as far as condition goes, and they have the senior experience pretty well digested by this time.

The local five have been hard at work all week working out against the university team. They will, however, be without the assistance of McLean, who has gone north, but he will be replaced by Art Gillies of local hockey fame, who has been unable to take part in any of the games to date owing to the O. H. A. schedule. The Toronto team is coming here full of confidence, but "Buster" Reid and company fail to see it that way, and a rattling good game should result.

Foreman as Referee.

President Arnie Dillon of the O. B. A., has appointed Ken Foreman of the Ontario Agricultural College, as referee. The spectators can rest assured that he will make both teams play clean and fast.

The London Aces and the Catholic Club Juniors meet for the first time on a large floor, and as both of these teams are fast and in good condition, a fast preliminary game is expected.

CANADIENS AND ST. PATS WIN

HAMILTON, March 2.—The curtain was drawn down on hockey in Hamilton for this season, when Canadiens defeated Hamilton in a N. H. L. fixture here tonight by a score of 7 to 1. The visitors were always best, and it was only the fact that they adopted defensive play in the second period that the score was not larger. The Frenchmen excelled in every department. Their defensive was excepionally strong, while on the offensive Pitre, Lalonde and Arbour were always able to stage combination play which baffled the Hamiltons. Leo Reise was one of the shining lights of the Hamilton team and along with Goldie Prodger and Mickey Roach, bore the brunt of the locals' burden.

Mummery Effective.

Big Mummery was effective for the visitors and staged many rushes which had the desired results. Lalonde and Pitre were the other bright stars on the visiting team.

ST. PATS 3, OTTAWAS 2.

OTTAWA, March 2.—St. Patricks of Toronto maintained their standing in the race for the second half honors here tonight, when they paddled their way through a sheet of slush and water to a 3 to 2 victory over the champion Ottawas. Considering the weather of the last two days, the ice was in fairly good condition for the start. The second and third periods, however, found a thin film of water on the ice, and the players had extreme difficulty in carrying the puck over the rough and scarred surface.

The game was one of the cleanest played here this year. All the scoring was done in the first two periods. None of the goals were really earned. It was only when an opposing player could work his way for a rebound that it was possible to beat the opposing goal tender. Both Benedict and Forbes played stellar games.

Dye Leading Scorer.

"Babe" Dye, leading scorer of the visitors, evidently found the heavy ice to his liking, and was prominent throughout the entire performance. The St. Patricks' forwards fed him freely and his dangerous shot had Benedict on the qui vive at all times.

The line-up:

Ottawa.	Position.	Toronto.
Benedict	Goal	Forbes

MORGAN'S TEAM WINS DOG DERBY

THE PAS, Man., March 2.—C. B. Morgan's team won the dog derby today. His time was 32 hours, 50 minutes. The rest of the entries were far behind. Mackay is reported second, six miles behind, and Goyne is said to be fourth. Billy Winterton guided the winning team.

Morgan lives here, and is a strong supporter of the annual event. Winterton last year drove a team for W. Hayes and finished third.

Shamrocks Play Stratford Five Saturday Night

Win Is Necessary For Locals To Hold First Place—Preliminary Game at 8 o'Clock.

The fourth game of the L. O. B. A. between the local Shamrocks and the Stratford quintet is scheduled to take place in the armories on Saturday evening. Interest has been ripe all week with regards to this game, considering the fact that the "Irish" girls are tie with the Hamilton "Brownies" for the first rung. A win on Saturday night is an absolute necessity in order that the locals can hang on to the position and the name "Victorious Shamrocks."

The line-up for both teams will be as follows:

Shamrocks—Pearl Blackwell and Helen Woolley, forward; Lottie Garrett, centre; Edna Holland and Mary Lindsay, defence; Carrie Blackwell, sub.

Stratford—Audrey Hughson and M. Miehm, forward; I. M. Lattimer, centre; Vera Lattimer and Helen Knechtel, defence; Annie Ellis and Reta Hill, subs.

A preliminary game is called for at 8 o'clock between the London Hussars and the Stratford intermediates.

ATTEMPT TO REVIVE FOOTBALL IN INGERSOLL

INGERSOLL, March 2.—An attempt will likely be made at an early date to revive interest in football. The feeling is growing that an effort should be made to place the game on a pre-war plane. Considerable of the former material is available, and should sufficient interest be manifested a town league may be formed. It is also expected that considerable interest will be manifested in baseball during the summer.

PAIR BOWL 1,108 PINS AT AMERICAN TOURNEY

BUFFALO, March 2.—A score of 1,108 pins, shot by two different Buffalo pairs in the doubles, and 615 in the singles were the high marks in today's rolling of two-man and individual games in the American Bowling Congress tournament.

G. Hoefner and F. Duarch and T. Cochran and W. Clement were the Buffalo pairs to roll the high two-man sets of the day. W. Kinsley made the 615-point individual total.

STRATFORD-WATFORD SENIOR FIXTURE IS CALLED OFF

STRATFORD, March 2.—After looking at the ice in the rink on Wednesday morning the officials of the hockey club decided that it would be utterly impossible to play a game of hockey on the ice, or at least slush and water, so the game with Watford and Stratford seniors has been cancelled until Friday night if the ice is at all good then.

The coming Referendum

Vote and Vote "Yes!" on April 18

THE Ontario Temperance Act as a war-time measure was an unqualified success.

On October 25, 1919, the people of Ontario voted by an overwhelming majority in favor of the permanent continuance of the Ontario Temperance Act, prohibiting the sale of intoxicating beverages.

The "Bootlegger" Must Go

On December 31, 1919, came the repeal of the Federal Order-in-Council—which was also a war-time measure — prohibiting importation, manufacture and export of intoxicating beverages.

Thus it became possible for individuals in prohibition provinces to import liquors for consumption in the home; thus the "bootlegger" is able to offer the same for sale contrary to law, and thus the expressed will of the people in this province is being defeated.

Importation Must Cease

Everything that applied in the last vote against the sale of intoxicating beverages within this province applies equally to the Use of them, and their Importation for beverage purposes should also be prohibited.

Hence arose necessity for further legislation and another Referendum.

Shall the Importation and the bringing of intoxicating Liquors into the Province be Prohibited?

YES!

SOVIET MASTER OF PETROGRAD

Authorities Have Quelled Revolt—City Is Now Quiet.

STOCKHOLM, March 2.—The Russian Soviet authorities have quelled the revolt in Petrograd, after bringing troops from the front, according to advices received from Helsingfors. The dispatches assert that the insurrection was crushed after severe fighting and that the city is now quiet, with the Soviet master of the situation.

The sailors at Kronstadt remained neutral.

The dispatches add that the Soviet has been unable to conceal the fact of the spread of the counter-revolutionary movement throughout the country, and that M. Kalinin, president of the extraordinary commission, has been obliged to admit peasant risings everywhere.

LENINE PROMISES.

Riga, Letvia, March 2.—According to a Moscow report the commissary for labor and defence has published a proclamation signed by Nikolai Lenine, promising that the Government will use all the means at its disposal to supply the destitute working population with the necessaries of life. A special fund of ten million gold rubles will be donated for this purpose and the commissary of trade instructed to send abroad a commission for the purchase of required supplies.

Moscow newspapers also publish a proclamation issued by the Moscow Soviet, which is addressed to "all workers, peasants and members of the red army—honest citizens." The proclamation asserts that the red army has triumphed on all fronts. It accuses the Socialists of being corrupt agents of the Russian aristocracy and capitalists and foreign bankers of trying anew to conquer Russia by hunger in organizing a Cossack revolt in Siberia and the disturbances in the Ukraine to prevent the transport of supplies to various centres, and of taking advantage of the economic crisis at the moment of a rising against the Government, thereby provoking bloodshed.

It accuses Entente agents of complicity, and says one of the French agents has been arrested in Petrograd.

The Soviet asks the population to arrest agitators who try to organize demonstrations near red army barracks. The proclamations are considered here official recognition of the trouble which started three weeks ago, when, at a meeting of metal workers Lenine was accused of torturing workers and ruining Russia.

When Lenine asked the metal workers whether they would prefer the former Czarist regime they are reported to have exclaimed: "Let come who may—whites, blacks or devils themselves—you clear out."

LEAMINGTON WOMEN GUESTS OF VETERANS

Banquet Held in Club Rooms Proved Most Enjoyable Affair.

LEAMINGTON, March 2.—The banquet tendered the Ladies' Auxiliary by the Leamington branch of the Great War Veterans in their club rooms last evening was one of the most enjoyable social affairs of the season. The waiters who were all clad in khaki seated the forty guests at the tables, which had been specially decorated for the occasion. The menu which was printed in French proved rather a puzzling novelty to many of the women.

Following the supper Mrs. Miles Oper called the gathering to order and introduced the following toast list: "The King"; "Her Majesty Queen Mary," proposed by Mrs. M. Smith, and responded to by Miss Vera MacSween; "Our Sister Organizations," proposed by Mrs. P. J. Poore, and responded to by Mrs. A. Foster; "Our Guests," proposed by Miss C. Patillo, and replied to by Dr. A. Foster; "Our Fallen Heroes" was honored by a silent toast; "Our Veterans," proposed by Mrs. W. G. Taylor, and responded to by Mrs. C. Beech.

The toasts were interspersed by musical numbers by the following: Song, Miss Edith Ladyman; song, Miss Anna Fraser; piano duet, the Misses Trott; song, Miss Cisele Ladyman. Misses Helen Poore and Vera MacSween were accompanists.

Mrs. Clyde Little, on behalf of the auxiliary, moved a hearty vote of thanks to the boys for their splendid banquet and entertainment which were heartily seconded by Mrs. H. Freeland.

Rev. W. F. McConnell addressed the gathering, and thanked the ladies for what they had done for the cause of the G. W. V. A.

Dr. Hillies delivered a short address and touched on many interesting points relating to the work of the auxiliary and war veterans.

There was a short discussion regarding the sports day to be held in Leamington on July 1. This is expected to be one of the greatest days in the history of the war veterans.

AMERICAN LABOR TO DROP INTERNATIONAL

Federation Executive Decides To Sever Relationship With Others.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Severance of all relationship with the International Federation of Trades Unions was practically decided on today by the American Federation of Labor's executive council, but final action on the matter was withheld until tomorrow.

The declaration of the federation on the proposed separation is understood to assert that labor in the United States cannot remain affiliated with the European organization because of its "revolutionary activities," and because it had failed "to recognize the national autonomy of each trade union centre." The system of due of the international also is declared to place an excessive burden upon the federation.

The council in its discussion today is understood to have agreed that the federation cannot be brought under the domination of an organization that advocates the use of "revolutionary violence."

MONTREAL, March 2.—A true bill was this morning returned against Major Robert W. Griffith by the grand jury in the court of King's Bench. Griffith is the self-confessed slayer of William A. Grant, minister of education, is expected in the city next week, and the two municipal boards will confer with him regarding the extension.

SEES DEFICITS NOT SURPLUSES

McGill Professor Disagrees With Radial Estimates of Hydro.

TORONTO, March 2.—Dr. L. A. Herdt, professor of electrical engineering at McGill University, Montreal, who gave evidence here yesterday before the royal commission that is inquiring into the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission's radial railway projects, was on the witness stand again today, when he was cross-examined by Robert McKay, K.C., counsel for the municipalities which favor the radial railways. Dr. Herdt, who in answer to a question placed the cost of steam railway operation per car mile at about 16.7c, said that the railway operation per mile did not matter, as it was no basis of comparison with the radials.

Estimates of surpluses on three of the five radial railway lines would prove to be deficits, Dr. Herdt claimed. The deficits, he said, would be as follows: Toronto-St. Catharines, $204,049; Toronto Eastern, $342,391, and the Hamilton-Guelph-Elmira line, $94,457. Assuming that a sinking fund of 1 per cent. should be allowed for, Dr. Herdt found that the total deficit would amount to $711,291, as contrasted with hydro estimates of a surplus of $807,642, less the sinking fund charge of $456,411.

Only on the Toronto Suburban and Niagara Central did Dr. Herdt agree with the hydro commission's estimates.

COMBINE POSITIONS AND CUT EXPENSES IS LABOR'S PROPOSAL

Sarnia May Get City Clerk Qualified To Act As Solicitor.

SARNIA, March 2.—Combining the position of the city solicitor and city clerk, pooling the salaries and securing the services of a man to pass upon all civic legal work, as well as draw up bylaws, thereby slashing expenses, which, under the present system, are said to be rather high, was the plan proposed by trades and labor officials at a meeting this afternoon to consider cutting down expenses on the city payroll. It was pointed out at the meeting that as things now stand every bylaw put through the council has its legal expenditure in the estimates, and with conferences with the solicitor necessary through the year bring the expenditure for legal advice to a large sum.

A city clerk, qualified to act as a solicitor, even though paid an increased salary, would result, it was stated, in a saving on the year's work. St. Thomas, it was stated, adopted the plan and is so well satisfied that they would not think of going back to the old way. The local trades and labor council will advocate the matter.

WAGE READJUSTMENT WILL BE DISCUSSED

M. C. R. Laborers and Shop Helpers Are Called To Detroit.

ST. THOMAS, March 2.—Looking to a possible readjustment of their wages, Michigan Central officials have called a conference of its unskilled employees in St. Thomas and those engaged on the east of the Canadian division in Detroit next week. The section of labor affected is unskilled laborers, such as track and maintenance of way men and shop helpers, and those outside of the mechanical departments.

The gathering will include the employees in the same class, resident as well as in the other divisions of the road, and the latter situation will be discussed in all its bearings on the present and future activities of both the M. C. R. and N. Y. C. lines.

An effort will be made to reach a mutual and satisfactory compromise, and adjust a schedule agreeable to all parties. As the national agreement governing the working of the shopmen will not expire until March 15, there will be no consideration of their case until after that date.

SEDUCTION CHARGE IS LAID BY GIRL

Roy Millard Will Come Up in Police Court Today.

ST. THOMAS, March 2.—Charged under the act with alleged seduction by a local young woman, Roy Millard, aged 24, was locked up today on a warrant sworn out by her. Millard is alleged to have transferred his attentions to another St. Thomas girl, ignoring the first affinity, hence the arrest. He comes up Thursday morning.

Extend Closing Hour.

The Retail Clerks and Shoe Assistants Association will appeal to the local merchants to extend the Saturday night 9 o'clock closing to the remainder of the year.

There will be a big representation of the businessmen and heads of local industries at the luncheon to be tendered the Canadian Manufacturers' Association tomorrow noon.

Injured His Knee.

Slipping while boarding his train in Toronto, Manager Caughell of the local gas department, badly sprained his knee, and is being treated at home for the injury.

The first March robin is reported by Charles Minard this morning at Russ Corners.

Smallpox Abating.

A room in one of the schools was closed today, because of the discovery of a case of smallpox among the children. The epidemic is fairly well under control just now, says Dr. McKillop, and there are no complaining from parents as to the results of the children's vaccination. There were four new cases reported during the week, and half a dozen were allowed to leave the isolation hospital yesterday.

LIQUOR VALUED AT $3,000 IS SEIZED

Farmer Claims He Has Had It in His Cellar Three Years.

KITCHENER, March 2.—License inspectors today seized $3,000 worth of liquor, 45 cases in all from A. Feitsch, a farmer near here. He claims he had it in his cellar for three years. His case will be heard on March 10.

Indications are that the tax rate here will be higher. Every effort is being made to hold it down. The increases in the school board estimates may advance the rate by two mills.

WILL BE INDUCTED MARCH 10.

SARNIA, March 2.—At a meeting of the Sarnia Presbytery here arrangements were made for the induction of Rev. Mr. Waghorne at Mandaumin on March 10. Provisional arrangements were also made for the induction of Rev. J. J. Monds of Carleton Place at Petrolea on April 12. Routine reports in connection with the work of the presbytery were also received.

Chicago, March 3.—Moderate upturns in the price of wheat today accompanied word that the Allies had given notice to Germany that Monday would be the limit for submission of the peace terms which had been outlined. Green bug reports from the Southwest States and meagreness of country offerings were also bullish factors. Buying orders, however, lacked volume. Opening prices, which varied from unchanged figures to 1c higher, were followed by gains all around and then something of a reaction.

Corn hardened with wheat, notwithstanding liberal receipts. After opening unchanged to ⅝c higher, the market scored a slight general advance.

Oats were firmer as a result of the bulge in other grains, but eased a little after opening ¼c to ½c higher.

THIEVES MADE RICH HAUL AT CHATHAM

Bonds and Valuables Worth Several Thousand Dollars Taken.

CHATHAM, March 2.—The office of a local manufacturer, whose name is being withheld by the police, was broken into last night, and in addition to a quantity of American money, Victory bonds, several notes and valuable insurance papers were stolen. Provincial Officer Lowe, who is working on the case, intimated today that the value of the stolen articles amounted to several thousand dollars. The G. N. W. Telegraph office was entered during the night also, and a small amount of money taken. Thieves also visited the residence of George Mahler on Park avenue and got away with a three-gallon jug of wine and a small sum of money.

Stolen Auto Found.

High Constable Peters has located an auto stolen from M. G. Dean of Tillsonburg in May, 1919, in Chatham Township. The car was brought to the city from Toronto by a man who was employed by the telephone company. He disposed of it at a garage here. It was subsequently purchased by Nelson French, in whose possession it was found. The officials will get in touch with the Toronto man who brought the machine here. There is no suspicion attached to him.

In the past eighteen months the Wilson Packing Company paid out $3,500,000 to the farmers of the county for stock, according to a statement made by an official of the company at the banquet tendered the Canadian Manufacturers' Association delegation here today.

Elected Moderator.

Rev. James McRae of Eberts was elected moderator of the Chatham Presbytery at the meeting held in St. Andrew's Church yesterday.

The body of Peter Cain, the Port Lambton man who was killed in the train wreck at Porter, Ind., arrived in the city today and was taken to his former home tonight.

BEN SPENCE IS GLAD NEW TRIAL REFUSED

TORONTO, March 2.—"I am particularly glad the Government has conserved the main point of the issue that there be no trial, but that what appeal is allowed shall be on the evidence as presented in the magistrate's court," was the opinion expressed by Rev. Ben H. Spence of the referendum committee, regarding the declaration of Hon. W. E. Raney yesterday that the Government is willing to allow an appeal to the county court from convictions under the O. T. A.

"Much of the present campaign in regard to appeals is a poorly camouflaged effort of the 'wets,'" said Mr. Spence, "but the fact is that the stronger, tighter, more restrictive the law is in its provisions, the easier it is to enforce."

TRAINS IN COLLISION; TWO MEN ARE KILLED

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 2.—The Pennsylvania Railroad express ran into a freight train at Bailey's station, west of here, early today, killing W. J. Line, engineer, and W. E. Smith, fireman. Three passengers were slightly injured. The wreck was due to fog.

BOARD WILL NOT SUBMIT QUIETLY TO ANY HOLD-UP

If Teachers Force Salary Issue They Will Be Released.

ST. THOMAS, March 2.—A compromise may be reached by the board of education and the teachers of the collegiate as to the extent of the increase in their salaries if the Teachers' Federation does not interfere with the terms.

The special committee will endeavor to deal with the individual teachers rather than as a body. But the threat made by the head of the Teachers' Federation, Toronto, that it would see that none of collegiate staff would be supplanted by other teachers if their resignations follow complicates the situation.

The board is willing to deal with the individual teachers and compensate them according to their work and merit. Some of them, the board considers, are not entitled to an advance in their salaries. If these should insist that all be treated alike and as a united branch of the federation, the majority of the trustees admit that there is nothing else to do but take the teachers at their word and let them go.

A compromise is possible, says the board, if the teachers consent to an individual conference.

TO LIFT QUARANTINE.

OTTAWA, March 2.—The quarantine placed on Ottawa, Hull, Aylmer and Gatineau Point by the Quebec superior board of health will be lifted in a few days, according to Dr. Hector Palardy. The latter is in charge of the enforcement of the quarantine order for the Ottawa-Hull district.

GALT CADETS MADE A FINE SHOWING

GALT, March 2.—The collegiate cadets were this afternoon inspected at the armories by Major-General Burstall, accompanied by Lieut.-Col. McCrimmon of London. The cadets made an exceptionally fine showing, Sir Henry Burstall congratulating them and remarking that they were the most efficient corps he had ever inspected. The inspection was witnessed by a large number of students.

The collegiate institute board has sent a request to the city council for a grant of $22,000 for this year, an increase of $6,000.

During February only four building permits were issued, three for garages and one for repairs, the total value amounting to $1,450.

Mr. Oliver Towne
(ALL OVER TOWN)

Folks in this town don't seem to mind it at all when I "butt into" their business. They seem to like to take me into their confidence. I suppose it's because they know that a real service is back of the interest I take in their affairs. If they want to sell out or take in a partner they tell me so. Then I go all over town until I've found the right buyer or the right partner. That's my line of business, and it only costs you 30 cents a day in this paper—a line that spreads your wants "all over town." And I'm just as helpful if you want a job, if you've property to sell, a house to rent, an automobile or household furniture to dispose of, or rooms to rent. Yes, sir; I'm strong for service, a fiend for finding the fellow or the fixture you're fishing for. I'll satisfy and classify your wants in the columns of this paper.

APPLICATION TO PARLIAMENT

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made by the Corporation of the City of London to the Legislature of the Province of Ontario, at its present Session, for an Act:

1. To authorize and carry into effect certain changes in the civic government of the City of London, in the following particulars:

(1) After the 31st day of December, A.D., 1921, the provisions of sections 1 to 8, inclusive of this act, shall apply to the Municipal Corporation of the City of London, and in so far as the provisions of this act shall alter, vary or change the provisions of the Municipal Act, the Public Parks Act, the Public Libraries Act, 1920, the London Waterworks Act, and amending Acts, the City of London Acts, or any of them, or any other Act in respect of the civic government within the City of London, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

(2) For the year 1922, and thereafter, the Council of the Corporation of the City of London shall be composed of a mayor and eight commissioners, and the said commissioners shall be elected by a general vote of the municipal electors of the said city. Of the said eight commissioners, the four commissioners who shall obtain the highest number of votes at the election held for the year 1922 shall hold office for a term of two years, and the four commissioners who shall obtain the next highest number of votes shall hold office for a term of one year; and in each year thereafter four of the said eight commissioners shall be elected by a general vote of the said electors, and shall hold office for a term of two years; provided, that in the event of the election by acclamation of all the commissioners for the year 1922, the four commissioners having the highest assessment in the City of London, according to the last revised assessment roll, shall hold office for a term of two years, and each of the four commissioners having the next highest assessment as aforesaid, shall hold office for a term of one year.

(3) The mayor shall be elected by a general vote of the said electors for the term of two years.

(4) In the event of the death, resignation or removal from office for any cause under the provisions of the Municipal Act of any commissioner, during his term of office, the candidate at the last preceding election having the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected a commissioner of the council for the unexpired term of the person so dying, resigning or being removed from office; provided, that in case of the candidates at the last preceding election having been elected by acclamation, or there was a tie vote, the vacancy so created shall be filled by the election of another commissioner by the council for the unexpired term of office of the said commissioner so dying, resigning or being removed from office.

(5) Upon the organization of the Council, the Public Library Board, the Public Utilities Commission of the City of London, the Board of Health and the Hospital Trust shall be dissolved, and the said several boards shall have no further authority or powers in respect of the utilities, works and commissions, powers or duties heretofore under their charge, respectively, under any Act of the Province of Ontario, but any officer or employee employed by any of the said boards in or about the construction or management of the said utilities shall be continued in office until removed by the council, unless his engagement sooner terminates.

BRITISH AGREE TO ARMED FORCE

Lloyd George Consents To Military Measures Against Germany.

LONDON, March 2. — Mr. Lloyd George, the premier, consented today to the employment of armed force against Germany in the event of her non-compliance with Allied reparation demands, to the extent of the occupation of Mannheim, by British, French and Belgian troops, and also of the Ruhr ports on the Rhine where coal is handled.

The British premier had hitherto declared himself unwilling to use such militant measures.

The French long range guns have already been advanced to a point where they will command the city of Essen, the home of the Krupp plant.

COMPLETE AGREEMENT.

LONDON, March 2.—The Allies have reached a complete agreement upon their answer to Germany on the reparations question and upon the consequences that will follow her failure to accept their terms, it was learned tonight.

STATEMENT OF ALLIES.

LONDON, March 2.—After the meeting of the Allies today a statement was issued from the conference embodying a summary of the German reparations proposal and comment thereon.

"The plan prepared by the Allies at Paris for the payment of the reparations," says the statement, "relieves Germany of a substantial proportion of the amount payable by her under the treaty of Versailles."

Then follows a summary of the German proposal, and the statement says: "This proposal does not merit either examination or discussion. To demonstrate its true character it is sufficient to note the following:

"First — The German Government assumes they are at liberty to calculate the present value of the fixed annuities on an eight per cent basis. This table is applicable in the Paris plan only to discounts of fixed annuities made in the first two years.

"Second—The German Government ignores the value of the variable annuities provided for in the Paris plan, the amount of which depends upon the value of German exports.

"Third—The annuities payable under the Paris plan are in addition to whatever sums may be found to have been paid on account of reparations.

Value of Deliveries.

"Fourth—The German Government assesses at twenty billions the value of the deliveries made by them on account of various obligations imposed upon them by the treaty. The reparations commission assess their value at less than half that sum. The amount to be credited to the German Government in respect to these deliveries in the reparation account will be found to be very small.

"Fifth—The German Government use an 8 per cent table for the purpose of arriving at the amount due from them; they propose at the same time that the interest upon their debt shall be limited to 5 per cent.

"Sixth—The German Government propose that their securities shall be relieved of taxation in the country of issue, thus burdening the country of issue with part of their liabilities.

"Seventh—On the assumption that the amount which Germany will pay during the first five years will be 1,500,000,000 marks, and that the whole obligation will be discharged in 30 years, the amount she will have to pay for the 25 years following that period to provide for interest on the sinking fund of her whole debt will be three billion a year. The present value of German payments on this reckoning will amount at the outside to somewhere about 27,000,000,000 marks."

Compare This Sum.

"It is only necessary to compare this sum with the value of the payments made under the Paris plan to expose the entire inadequacy of the German proposal. Under the Paris plan, an 8-per cent table, the value of the fixed annuities alone is 53,000,000,000 gold marks. This table is, however, applicable only to discounts of future annuities made during the first two years. On an 8 per cent table—the rate at which discounts can be made after 1925—the present value is over 85,000,000,000 gold marks.

"It is, of course, difficult to make an estimate of the value of the variable annuities under the Paris plan, but a substantial addition, at any rate, should be made to the above figures in respect to these annuities. The sum which the German Government asks the Allies to accept in satisfaction of her debt amounts therefore to a small fraction of the sum fixed at Paris.

"The consequence would be that Germany's external debt, which is limited to her reparation liabilities, would correspond to a small proportion only of the external debts which the Allies were compelled to contract for the war."

To Hear Decision.

The Germans at noon tomorrow will hear the unanimous decision of the Allies on the counter-proposals which Dr. Simons, German foreign secretary and head of the German delegation, presented yesterday at the reparations conference in Lancaster House, and the consequences which will follow their failure to comply with the Allied terms.

The Germans, who remained in their hotel throughout the day, eagerly scanning the tickers, questioning callers regarding the happenings at St. James' Palace, and communicating what they could gather to Berlin, were despondent tonight when their hopes that differences might arise between the Allies to lighten their country's burden were dashed by the finding of the conference.

One of them remarked: "Well, perhaps it is the only way out. If Briand yielded, his Government would fall; if we yielded, our Government would fall. Therefore, the only course is for the Allies to impose their terms."

BACK UP SIMONS.

Berlin, March 2.—The newspapers in their editorials today are unanimous in declaring that Germany's counter-proposals to the Allied reparations demands go to the extreme limit of Germany's economic capacity.

The Lokal Anzeiger questions whether it is even possible for Germany to fulfill the counter-proposals, and advises Dr. Walter Simons, the German foreign minister, who is head of the German delegation in London, "don't budge."

GERMAN COMMENT.

Berlin, March 2.—The German cabinet met this afternoon and discussed reports on reparations sent from London by Dr. Simons. The various political parties held meetings tonight to consider the situation arising out of the London conference, and, according to the Vossische Zeitung, it is assumed that a new attempt will be made to arrange a united front in the Reichstag, although prospects are not considered very favorable.

Among the papers commenting, the Zeitung Am Mittag thinks that the Allied gesture is an inclination of a preconcerted affair having practically nothing to do with the German counter-proposals and hopes the German delegates "will not be misled by this artificially-heated atmosphere but demand, as they are entitled by treaty, that the reparations commission shall fix the total indemnity and elaborate a scheme for payment."

The Vorwaerts, majority Socialist organ, declared that if the Entente should break off the conference in a determination to enforce the reparations demands nothing would be left for the German proletariat but to stand together and hold out in a common effort on their own behalf and on behalf of the workers the world over "to escape the worst yoke of slavery which capitalism ever has attempted to fasten on the working classes."

The Tageblatt warns the Entente leaders to cease from pursuing their "political illusion." It tells them that the days of Versailles are gone, and that the Germans will not and cannot be made to waver "through menacing talk."

"If our foes are dissatisfied with what we voluntarily offer, and are able and willing to pay," says the Taeglische Rundschau, "they are privileged to look about in Germany with the purpose of finding out eventually that they may satisfy their pretended rights."

FINDING SKELETON PUZZLES AUTHORITIES

STONINGTON, Conn., March 2.—The finding of a skeleton yesterday near the Lord's Point bridge in this town presented a mystery to the local authorities. The bones were those of a man, about five feet, seven inches tall. There was a decayed suit of clothes on the skeleton, a panama hat, brown shoes and gold rimmed glasses. Nearby was a cane and a small empty bottle. The label of the bottle bore the name of a drug store in Providence, R.I. In the skull were four gold teeth. An empty wallet was in the clothing, and also a badly battered gold watch.

Medical Examiner Gray said the man probably died last summer, but he could not determine the cause of death

Are You Human?

A little baby. A little child. Don't they appeal to you? Doesn't your heart yearn to pick them up, to cuddle them close to you, to shield them from all harm? sure it does else you're not human. Being human you love them. Their very helplessness makes you reach out in all your strength to aid them. In health there's no flower so beautiful. In illness there's no night so black.

Save them then. Use every precaution. Take no chance.

When sickness comes, as sickness will, remember it's just a baby, just a child and if the Physician isn't at hand don't try some remedy that you may have around the house for your own use.

A Word About Truth.

"Great is Truth, and mighty above all things." So says the Old Testament, yet it is equally true to-day. Truth shows no favors, fears no enemies.

From the inception of Fletcher's Castoria, Truth has been the watchword, and to the conscientious adherence to this motto in the preparation of Fletcher's Castoria as well as in its advertising is due the secret of its popular demand.

All imitations, all substitutes, all just-as-good preparations lack the element of Truth, lack the righteousness of being, lack all semblance even in the words of those who would deceive.

And you! Mothers, mothers with the fate of the World in your hands, can you be deceived? Certainly not.

Fletcher's Castoria is prepared for Infants and Children. It is distinctly a remedy for the little-ones. The BABY'S need for a medicine to take the place of Castor Oil, Paregoric and Soothing Syrups was the sole thought that led to its discovery. Never try to correct BABY'S troubles with a medicine that you would use for yourself.

FERGUSON CLASHES WITH RANEY IN DISCUSSING TIMBER PROBE

Attorney-General Says Peter White, Conservative Party Counsel At Timber Inquiry, Was Dismissed For "Insolence and Truculence" in Letters to the Department —Ferguson Terms the Probe a "Persecuton" and a "Public Scandal."

[Special To The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, March 2.—Pressing his motion for a return of all correspondence relating to the appointment and dismissal of Peter White, K.C., as counsel for the Conservative party at the timber probe, Hon. G. H. Ferguson, Conservative leader, revived the whole timber controversy on the floor of the Ontario Legislature yesterday.

Liberals in the House were able to sit back during the afternoon and enjoy the heated controversy between Government and Conservative forces. They denoted by their vigorous applause, however, entire sympathy with the Government's effort to retrieve whatever losses in timber revenue the province may have sustained under the Conservative regime.

Peter White, K.C., according to Attorney-General Raney, was dismissed as Conservative party counsel at the timber probe because of his "insolence and truculence" in letters to the department. Whatever the merits of Mr. White's argument that it was not his place to delve into affairs of the Liberal regime, Hon. Mr. Raney said the Government did not propose to submit to the tone of his letters of refusal. He said that Glyn Osler, K.C., counsel for Shelvin Clark Company was guilty of the same "insolence and truculence" when he declined at Fort Frances to bring forward the defence of his clients.

Hon. Mr. Ferguson, as usual, went out hot foot after the commissioners, and termed the probe a "persecution" and a "public scandal." Attorney-General Raney just as vigorously defended them as men doing a noble duty.

ASKS FOR CORRESPONDENCE.

TORONTO, March 2.—Clashes between Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, Conservative leader, and Hon. W. E. Raney, attorney-general, featured this afternoon's session of the Ontario Legislature. The Conservative leader resumed the debate on the motion of Charles McCrea, Sudbury, asking for a return of correspondence regarding payment of counsel fees to Peter White, K.C., who acted as counsel for the Conservative party for some time at the timber inquiry being carried on by the royal commission composed of Justices Riddell and Litchford. Hon. Mr. Ferguson cited precedents for the payment by the Government of all counsel fees in such cases, and asserted that Mr. White had done excellent work in bringing out information valuable to the commission.

"This has been the most outrageously unfair commission that has ever conducted an inquiry," Mr. Ferguson declared. As to the attorney-general's treatment of Peter White, Mr. Ferguson said: "The attorney-general says, 'You are being paid by me. You will do as I tell you or get off the job.'" The only thing left for Mr. White to do was to resign, which he did, Mr. Ferguson added. Mr. Ferguson found fault because R. T. Harding, the former crown counsel in the timber inquiry, had not asked questions bearing on the administration of the lands and forests under the Liberal regime.

Premier Marvels.

Premier E. C. Drury asked: "Would it not have been possible during the fifteen years your party was in power to have conducted all the necessary investigation?" The premier added that he marvelled at the way Hon. Mr. Ferguson was running the House.

Hon. Mr. Ferguson retorted that "some people are marvelling at the way the premier is not conducting the affairs of the House."

Mr. Ferguson, referring to the timber commission, said it was a public scandal that the attorney-general should have appointed a member of a former government of Ontario to investigate the affairs of a succeeding government.

The attorney-general stated that it was a wide open inquiry, and that there was not a word in the order-in-council limiting the inquiry to the Conservative regime. So far as he had read the evidence taken by the timber commissioners, Mr. Raney said, he had not seen on partisan word reported by the commission.

Speaking of a letter written to him by Peter White, K.C., referring to a resolution passed by the Conservative convention held in Toronto last December condemning the Riddell-Latchford commission, Mr. Raney characterized the letter as "insolence and truculence." He said the Government would not allow any man in its pay to talk that way to it.

Major J. C. Tolmie, Windsor, asked: "What are Mr. White's duties?"

The attorney-general replied: "As much as Mr. Harding's: to bring out the facts."

Purpose of Inquiry.

The purpose of the inquiry, he said, was to get the facts, not to "get Howard Ferguson," and to improve the administration of the province of Ontario.

Referring to the reported threat of Mr. Ferguson that he would "nail hides to the fence," the attorney-general asked: "Could you imagine the hide of the honorable member for Southwest Toronto (H. H. Dewart, K.C., Liberal leader) stretched on the barn door of the honorable member for Grenville (Mr. Ferguson), together with the hide of the attorney-general?"

"I would not even bury them in the same grave," said Mr. Ferguson.

Capt. Joseph R. Thompson, Northeast Toronto, suggested that "there are so many holes shot in the hides they are not worth anything."

Hon. Mr. Raney said the timber frauds were colossal. "We will never be paid for all the timber that has been stolen from this province," he added. Mr. Raney said he did not defend everything R. T. Harding had done, but Mr. Harding had done signal service to the province.

Referring to the action begun by the Spanish River Paper and Pulp Mills, Limited, against Commissioners Riddell and Latchford, Mr. Raney said that if the company was able to head off inquiry in this way no government in Ontario could ever again carry through an inquiry by means of a commission. He intimated that the Government was considering what could be done in the matter.

Edgar Watson, North Victoria, moved adjournment of the House.

GOVT. TO CARE FOR FEEBLE-MINDED

TORONTO, March 2.—Premier Drury today assured a large deputation that the Government would go as far as possible towards dealing with the feeble-minded problem.

Provincial Secretary Nixon said: "We are ready to provide institutional accommodation for patients whom the doctors see fit to send. We have at the present time accommodation for many more patients. I believe we have accommodation for 1,000 more than we have." He pointed out that Orillia was available for more and they had another institution to set aside for the purpose.

The petition was read by Mr. Carpentier, Hamilton, president of the Provincial Association for the Care of Feeble-Minded, and the speakers included Rev. Canon Plumptre, Mrs. Adam Shortt, Ottawa.

WAS OLD ACQUAINTANCE.

TORONTO, March 2.—As the result of an old acquaintance with Hon. Peter Smith, provincial treasurer, "down on the farm," Andrew H. Pepatt told the Legislature public accounts committee today, he was selected for an $80 a day job, including travelling expenses, in connection with the redemption of Ontario provincial securities in England. Mr. Pepatt went to England and arranged with Lloyd's for a loan of $12,000,000. It cost the country $4,000 for Mr. Pepatt's services and expenses, and this was the item which the committee was investigating. Mr. Pepatt admitted that the Bank of Montreal might have looked after this business just as well. The provincial treasurer, said Mr. Pepatt, wanted a man whom he could absolutely trust.

HARDING'S ACCOUNT FOR $50,000 COMES BEFORE COMMITTEE.

TORONTO, March 2.—R. T. Harding, late counsel to the timber commission was today asked at the public accounts committee of the Legislature to explain an item of $50,000 paid to him in connection with the famous timber investigation. He explained that he was formerly partner of H. H. Dewart, K.C., which partnership was dissolved in October, 1919. He formerly practised at Stratford, Ont., and was for 21 years a friend of the present provincial treasurer, Hon. Peter Smith.

Mr. Harding declared that his appointment as counsel to the timber commission was a complete surprise. Attorney-General Raney was responsible for his appointment. Hon. Howard Ferguson said that it was essential to know with whom witness had discused this matter before his appointment. He said that in December, 1919, he had a retainer from Mr. Callahan concerning the Shelvin-Clark Company affairs, but that was prior to the appointment of the Riddle-Latchford commission.

Had Told Raney.

In discussing the appointment of the commission with the attorney-general, Mr. Harding said he had told Mr. Raney that Mr. Justice Riddell was the best man in sight. Explaining the item of $50,000, he said that he had to engage accountants to assist him. He made no arrangements with the Government, he said, except that he said to the provincial treasurer: "I want some money." In the meantime he had gone ahead and spent $25,000 of his own money without any arrangement.

"The truth is that the prime minister is the man who gave you the directions regarding the inquiry?" asked Mr. Ferguson.

"Both the prime minister and the attorney-general were assisting me," said Mr. Harding.

All He Received.

Mr. Harding said the $50,000 represented all he had received towards cost of employing experts, accountants and traveling expenses. He had paid $2,000 each to the two judges conducting the inquiry. As near as he could tell the actual disbursements paid out by him totalled $71,000, not including his own fees, which would run at $50 per day for preparation and $100 a day for work at the investigation, approximately $12,000 for his own fees. Mr. Harding admitted that he was the man who introduced Mr. Backus to the prime minister, and said Premier Drury then remarked: "Are you the dreadful man Backus we have heard so much about?"

He knew that Backus was then at Queen's Park to secure a timber limit, but he did not know it was the English River limit he was after.

Witness swore that he had never directly or indirectly ever had any communication with A. D. George concerning any deal in which E. W. Backus was interested. "Very well, we will see about that," said Mr. Ferguson.

The committees here adjourned until Friday morning, Mr. Harding being instructed to bring along all papers he has under his control.

BOY BANDITS TIE AGENT UP AND GET AWAY

Youthful Pair Took $25 From Till At Paris Station.

BRANTFORD, March 2.—Close watch kept on the two roads from Paris by the Brantford police failed to reveal any signs of the two youthful bandits who, this evening, held up the station agent of the L. E. and N. Railway at Paris. After binding the agent they emptied the till of $25 and fled. It is believed here that they had an auto and departed on the route to Woodstock.

BRANTFORD MOTOR SHOW.

BRANTFORD, March 2.—Brantford's 2nd annual motor show opened in the armories tonight. Eight auto dealers and three accessory dealers had a total of over 50 exhibits. C. J. Mitchell, president of the show, and Mayor Wedlake took part in the opening, the mayor putting particular stress in a speech upon the part motor cars had played in the building up of Brantford. There are over 3,000 cars in the city now. The Dufferin Rifles Band participated in the opening.

BUY HOTEL FOR $15,000.

WOODSTOCK, March 2.—The deal for the purchase of the Buckingham Hotel by local Masons has been virtually concluded. The building is to be made into a new Massonic Temple, and when the proposed improvements have been completed it will be one of the finest in the province.

The Masons paid $15,000 for the premises.

WILL ASK REFUND.

WINDSOR, March 2.—Simon Landa of Walkerville was called to testify before Magistrate Gundy today concerning the theft of 160 cases of liquor from his home on December 10. Landa has already served a sentence of 30 days, and paid a fine of $2,000.

He has made application for a refund of the fine from the Ontario Government, since today John Chittam, Earl Rivitt, Freeman Baldwin and Harold Graham, all of Windsor, pleaded guilty to stealing liquor from the home of Landa on December 10. The men pleaded guilty, but questioned the amount of liquor they were alleged to have taken from Landa's house. Landa today told the court he had all the doors of his house locked on the night of the theft, and that the men forced entry at the point of a gun.

MARRIAGE

A friendly introduction to a pretty maid,
A future conversation in a quiet glade,
A fluttering feeling that makes you want to sing,
And then it's just beginning, you'll have to buy the ring;
You'll have to mend your spending ways,
Marriage is not the cheapest lot,
But you're saving quite a penny
When you buy at Johnston's shop.

MANITOBA URGES LIFTING EMBARGO

The Legislature Unanimously Backs Doherty—Fear For Cattle Trade.

WINNIPEG, Man., March 2.—Removal of the British embargo on Canadian cattle was unanimously urged by the Legislature at this afternoon's session on the grounds that there is no disease in Canadian cattle which justifies the continuance of the ban, and that the uncertainty as to future markets for live stock in the Dominion is having a paralyzing effect on the cattle raising industry of the west. Dr. Tolmie, Federal minister of agriculture, will be notified of the decision, and the minister of agriculture for Ontario, Hon. Manning Doherty, who is leaving for England to make representations to the authorities, will be informed that he has the backing of Manitoba.

The resolution, which was proposed by Hon. G. H. Malcolm, minister of agriculture, was seconded by W. Robson, Glenwood, leader of the Independent-Farmer group, who stated he knew for a fact that hundreds of farmers would be compelled to get out of the cattle business if the embargo were not removed.

Mr. Malcolm pointed out that the lifting of the embargo, which he thought is likely, would relieve the cold storage question here and suggested that before the proposed action for a government-owned plant is taken, a committee should be appointed to make investigations.

The moving picture industry came in for some criticism by members when the second reading of the child welfare bill was being considered.

"Many of the pictures are a greater menace to the children than the bar was," declared Dr. R. J. Waugh, Conservative, Norfolk.

CHAMP CLARK, VETERAN, DIES

With Record of 26 Years in Congress Aged Leader Succumbs.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Champ Clark died here this afternoon in his 71st year, and within two days of his retirement from the House of Representatives after a service of 26 years.

The late Champ Clark was best known in Canada through his famous speech advocating annexation of Canada by the United States, delivered during the discussion of reciprocity in 1911. He declared that nine-tenths of the people of the United States favored the annexation of Canada. His declaration was largely instrumental in defeating the proposal sponsored by the Laurier Government in the Dominion election of 1911.

The late Mr. Clark was born in Anderson, Ky., on March 7, 1850.

The speech was made by Mr. Clark in the House at Washington, February 14, 1911. In it he said:

"I am for reciprocity, because I hope to see the day when the American flag will float over every square inch of the British North American possessions clear to the North Pole. They are people of our blood. They speak our language. Their institutions are much like ours. They are trained in the difficult art of self-government. My judgment is that the if the treaty of 1854 had never been abrogated the chances of a consolidation of these two countries would have been much greater than they are now."

APPLICATION DISMISSED.

WINDSOR, March 2.—Mr. Justice Lennox at the spring assizes of the supreme court in Sandwich today dismissed without costs the application of the town of Ford for an injunction to restrain the Grand Trunk Railway from closing the railway crossing on Albert road.
