Toronto. Jan. 6.—That Ambrose J. Small, millionaire theatre manager, who mysteriously disappeared from the society of his Toronto associates on December 2 last, may have decided to take a holiday either for personal or business reasons is the latest theory evolved in connection with the remarkable case. In a statement last night, George Driscoll, general manager of the Trans-Canada Theatres, with whom Mr. Small had just completed a milliondollar deal, said that he knew of no reason why Mr. Small might not have taken such a step. The deal in connection with buying the theatres was absolutely complete at the time of the disappearance, and in his mind it was probable that after the absolution of the deal Mr. Small should have sought a proposed taking a long holiday after the deal was closed. He denied the rumor that the purchasing company here were bringing action against Mr. Small in connection with the transfer.

The name of Thomas Clerk, London The name of Thomas Clerk, London Township, who was re-elected reeve at yesterday's elections, is prominently mentioned as a likely warden. It is considered a certainty that Reeve Clark will be in the field. He has been a member of the council for many years, and many councillors will be surprised if he is not the successful candidate for the position which James L. Robson vacates.

Hushed Discussions. Reeve Alton Ryckman, Delaware Township, also is likely to be in the field, according to the county building gossip. He is more or less a newcomer to the county council, having served only during the past three years. He has led the discussion on various important questions which the county's governing body has been called upon to deal with, and is held high in the estimation of many of his fellow count. His home is in St. John's.

Several Big Questions.

The 29 councillors of Middlesex have a great deal of work cut out for them during the next twelve months. There are several important questions left over by the 1919 council, including the expenditure of moneys for repairing of roads in various parts of the county. The retiring council recommended that the new council make a grant to Western University; but no sum was mentioned. Through an error in the records of the police court, it was stated in local papers this morning that Mrs. Emma Gyde was charged with selling liquor. This is not a fact. It developed, however, that the boy to whom she sold tobacco had secured a note, which Mrs. Gyde believed was written by his father, so even this minor charge is not being pressed against Mrs. Gyde.

As H. B. Ashplant, one of the defeated mayoralty candidates, would be the person most directly affected by the success of such an attempt, The Advertiser got in touch with him to see if the rumor could be confirmed.

"It is news to me," said Mr. Ashplant. "There certainly were cases of impersonation at the polls, but whether such cases would affect the status of the mayor-elect is a matter for legal minds to decide."

feated P. J. Watt by only four votes in Ward v. If wholesale attempts are made to unseat elected candidates, it is possible he might join in the movement and ask a recount.

A Technicality.

In Ward 2, Ald. Harley's position may be attacked on a technicality in qualification. William Tite was the next candidate in order here and would be the one to benefit if Ald. Harley were defeated. He was a nominee of the Labor representation committee. As one of its "planks" was "Abolition of property qualification for municipal office," it is doubtful whether Mr. Tite would press the case, as his action might not be considered consistent. In Ward 3, an attempt on Ald. G. B. Drake's position is possible. Its success is very doubtful, however.

In regard to an attempt on Mayorelect Little's position, other interested parties were of the opinion that Mr. Ashplant had hit the nail on the head when he observed that "while there were cases of impersonation, whether they would affect the status of the candidate is a matter for legal minds."

Irregularities occur in every municipal election, because it is necessary to use a large number of inexperienced persons as poll clerks. These irregularities are chargeable to inefficiency, but generally do not reflect on any of the candidates concerned.

Dentist's Recipe For Pyorrhoea, Bleeding Gums or Loose Teeth

If your teeth are loose or if your gums are receding and are sore, tender or inflamed, if they bleed easily, are spongy, flabby or colorless and discharge pus, go to your druggist and get a one-ounce jar of Epithol and gently rub a little over the gums with your finger-tips each night and morning.

This is a famous dentist's prescription for such serious gum diseases as Pyorrhoea or Riggs Disease, which make the teeth loosen and fall out and usually brings prompt relief from all the dangerous symptoms. Loose teeth should tighten and gums grow sound and healthy in a short time. Epithol is easy and pleasant to use, and not expensive, as one ounce will last for many weeks. Anyone suffering from Pyorrhoea or Riggs Disease or Sore, Tender gums should give this remedy a trial.—Advt.

Mr. Ashplant was nominated for the mayoralty by the Labor representation committee. The Advertiser got in touch with an officer of that organization and was informed that as far as he knew no such action had been taken. Attempts to unseat aldermen in at least three wards are possible. There is almost certain to be an effort to unseat Ald, F. E. Harley in Ward 2. Two of these attempts would be on the ground of property qualification, and a third might be in the form of a request for a recount.

The most sensational occurrence of the day, however, happened at tonight's meeting, when each of the newly-elected councillors and the defeated candidates were allowed to give a five-minute speech. Ex-Mayor Horton occupied the chair, and Mayor-Elect Brinkman was the first speaker called, next came Ald. Handford, the defeated candidate. On reaching the front of the hall, Mayor-Elect Brinkman extended his hand to shake hands with his opponent, but Ald. Handford, after hesitating a moment, ignored the profhis opponent, but Ald. THE RAID ON REDS. The United States Government announces that there is to be no let-up in the raiding of Red nests throughout the Union. This is well, as from documents secured in the clean-ups of last week a very serious menace has been and is still, to some extent, hanging over this continent. These documents make it clear that the agents of Lenine and Trotzky in America have been pushing their revolutionary scheme through labor unrest, hoping that some great industrial clash might bring on the explosion needed for direct physical attack on constitutional government. Their dirty fingers were easily discernible in the steel and coal strikes and other industrial conflicts, but in each case decent, sane unionism refused to be utilized as a torch for starting the conflagration. Repudiated by labor and rounded up by the authorities America, it is hoped, will soon be sending a long line of Bolshevist cargoes back to Russia.

Practically all of this great timber estate is public-owned and under full control of the Ontario Government. Fifteen million acres are under lease to lumbermen, but the authority of the state as regards imposition of measures of | The "seniors" have invited us fire protection, and whatever conservation requirements may from time to time prove necessarv, has never been disputed.

While fire protection has vastly improved during recent years, there is no more public supervision of timber cutting, no more administrative effort to make the forests reproduce tree crops in perpetuity than existed forty years

Ontario's forests are being "cut out" with little provision for future growth. White pine that built Ontario's great reputation as a lumber province has fallen in production by sixty per cent in ten years as regards crown lands. Jack Frost may nip the world outside, This is largely attributable to exhaustion of white pine forests. Many of the largest pine mills have but a few years supply in sight.

With the exhaustion of the Eastern United States forests, paper mills are being forced to cross the Canadian border. Canada will unquestionably become a main reliance of the great newspaper manufacturing industry in America. Already we export over 600,000 tons of newsprint paper a year.

Unfortunately the same influences driving the forest industries from the Eastern States, are at work in Ontario today. Forest fires and unregulated timber cutting, with meagre provision on the part of the Provincial Government for the future of the forest can bring only one result: a deteriorated forest resource, a reduction of lumber and paper industries, an exodus of population, and a transfer of taxes from timber operations to the shoulders of farmers and townspeople. The history of Canada and the United States is blazoned with instances of exactly this sort of retrogression.

Ontario has adhered to the old tradition of public administration of forests by regarding the forests primarily as a source of revenue. The old regulations and attitude have held fast. Except for fire protection not a single technically-qualified forester has been employed supervising timber berth operations. There is no body of technical men to enforce the regulations on licensed lands and co-operate with the lumbermen in bringing on a new crop of timber. Political patronage has free play in the selection stead of one branch controlling the whole forest administration, fire ranging, timber scaling, forest surveys, technical control of the cutting of timber, etc., two branches in the one department of lands and forests split the existing duties between them and omit entirely the most vital function of real forest administration. As a result of careful study of Ontario conditions in the light of well-tested systems in Quebec, New Brunswick and British Columbia, the Canadian Forestry Association suggests the following changes in the Ontario Government's organization:

1. The transfer to the provincial forestry branch of administrative control over the entire crown forest area. This would necessitate an expansion of the provincial forestry branch so as to provide for the close inspection of timber cutting operations by technically qualified men, with a view to the handling of the forest as a "crop" rather than as a

2. The creation of a forest advisory board, preferably similar to that already functioning with excellent results in New Brunswick, said board to consist of five members, including the minister of lands and forests, the provincial forester, with one representative of the Ontario lumbermen and one of the Ontario pulp and paper interests. The board would have complete control of all appointments to the staff of timber scalers and fire rangers, with authority to set examinations, and to engage employees of the provincial forestry not within the jurisdiction of the Ontario civil service act. On such a basis, the forests of the province may become in truth inexhaustible.

TEMPER AND TEMPERAMENT.

At Milan recently, Arturo Toscanini, the world-famous conductor of orchestras, was haled court for slamming one of his violinists over the head because of a mistake made during rehearsal. A witness for the defence was a renowned psychologist, who testifled that Toscanini being a superman, and so, could not be held responsible for his acts. According to this expert the conductor was in a "fine frenzy" of artistic production. In other words, what would. have been a display of temper in the ordinary every day garden variety of man, was, in the case of Toscanini merely an overboiling of temperament. His assault was that of an artiste, not that of a "crab"; he was above and beyond all rules that apply to the rest of us. INDIAN ELOQUENCE. [Hamilton Spectator.]

The natural eloquence for which the North American Indians are famed has not passed away with the eclipse of their domination. From of deep wisdom which the whites would profit greatly by heeding. No better rule of life could be formulated than that contained in the fine Christ-League of Indians of Canada, issued to all members of the league:

"May the joy and bright hopes that attend the advent of the Saviour of mankind be the occasion of genuine happiness among all members of the League of Indians of Canada and Indians throughout this Dominion. Bountiful may be the blessings to be afforded all in the gift of the Lord of Hosts. "With this season's greetings I would urge you to be more and more united in brotherly regard and fellowship. Let us aim to raise ourselves above ourselves spiritually and materially. "Whatever your wealth or your poverty, strive manfully to do your duty to yourself, to your family, to your neighbor, to the state. Be incapable of the baseness that manifests itself either in arrogance or in envy, and while demanding justice for yourself, you will be no less scrupulous to do justice to others."

It is a restatement of the Golden Rule in language that is the very acme of loyalty and altruism, and reathes the traditional spirit of the Indian, such as Campbell portrayed him:

"Taught from his tree-rock'd cradle to his bier The fierce extremes of good and ill to brook Impassive; fearing but the shame of fear, A stoic of the woods, a man without a tear."

BILINGUALISM. [The Sentinel, Toronto.]

When the advocates of bilingualism harp upon the cultural value of a knowledge of two languages they do not touch the crux of the situation in Ontario. Their whole argument depends upon the pupils having a knowledge of two languages. Nobody raised objection to that. French is taught in Il our secondary schools and colleges, so the people of Ontario cannot fairly be charged with refusing have French taught. But that is not the point of the controversy between Quebec and Ontario. What led to the adoption of Regulation 17 was the fact, as reported by government investigators, that there were 268 school sections in the Province of Ontario where children of English-speaking parents could not get instruction in their language. The result was illiteracy. As the French schools were also religious schools, the young children of Protestants were being taught the catechism of a form of religion in which their parents did not believe. They were not getting a knowledge of two languages, but a totally inadequate teaching in one language, and that not the speech of their So a philosophical discussion of tha value of

The next morning there was a letter from the secretary of the Welfare, asking him to look into the working conditions of his factory employees, and to make the investigation personally. He was throwing it in the waste paper basket, when suddenly he stopped. Wasn't that just what the brute, portrayed in the photoplay, had done? Perhaps he did owe it to the men and women who made his profits possible to investigate, as this society had asked.

After the first day at lunch there was hardly a day that Lillian did not accept his invitation. Kenneth had been so wrapped up in her he did not stop to wonder how it was she was able to dress so well. One day, when at lunch, Mrs. Mills came over and spoke kindly to Lillian, he was struck with a sudden thought—Lillian was a member of the Welfare Workers' Society and was spying on his factory.

Chilblain.

Chilblain is a mild first degree frost-bite of the skin, comparable with what doctors call a first-degree burn, which is a burn or scald that reddens the skin but does not blister or seriously damage the tissues underneath the skin. The prevention of chilblain is a distinct problem, but the treatment is the treatment of burn, for the mildly, the treatment of burn, for the mildly, the same as the mildly-burned skin. Excessive heat or excessive cold produces the same injury—necrosis or death of the injury. If you suffer with chilblains thank your lucky stars it is not necrosis or gangrene of the whole foot. Candidly, I myself can't see how anyone could possibly be thankful for a disease or an accident, yet our friends always bid us to feel that way if we survive, and I add the thought here to give this column a touch of human sympathy which some critics think it sorely lacks.

Prevention.—Anything which embarrasses the circulation predisposes to thilblain. Tight shoes, narrow, pointed shoes which do not give the toes necessary room for movement, round leggarters, constrictions of the waist or pelvis with corsets or belts, insufficient exercise, long hours on the feet without at least momentary elevation of the legs to the vertical, all impair the circulation in the feet.

One subject to chilblain should wear sewed soles only, thick soles, cork inton the feet.

One subject to chilblain should wear sewed soles only, thick soles, cork insoles if the feet perspire much cashmore of wool stockings, and, of, course, woolen underwear.

Excessive perspiration of the feet must be controlled by proper treatment, for moisture is a fast heat conductor and therefore too quickly dissipates the natural warmth of the feet.

Treatment.—Brisk friction with camphorated oil or with bay rum or with vinegar gives relief to the stinging or ish an excessive acidity of the urine.

Ans.—These articles tend to increase the normal acidity of urine: Meats, the normal acidity of urine: Meats, eggs, whole grains, peanuts, and because of benzoic acid content prunes, plums and cranberries, though these fruits yield alkaline ash. These articles tend to decrease the urine acidity: Milk, water taken freely, vegetable soups, all the vegetables and all the fruits excepting those above mentioned. The following are especially useful for reducing excessive urine acidity: Potatoes, lettuce, apples, oranges, bananas, raisins, lemonade.

Tattooed and Sorry.

I have tattoolng on my arm. Is there any way of having it removed? It now proves very embarrassing to me. H. J. Ans.—Tattooing the human body ought to be made a felony. The only way I know of removing the stains is by plastic surgery—dissecting out the discolored skin and grafting skin over the denuded area.

Juniors Will Test Speed Again st Weight, While Intermediates Make O. H. A. Debut Against Watford.

Both games tonight for the London teams, juniors here with St. Thomas, and the intermediates opening their O. H. A. group at Watford are important clashes. The game with St. Thomas will prove whether the local youngsters can stend up against heavy grueiling from a heavy team or not, and will pretty well give a line on what they may be expected to do in the group. The Saints are a husky outfit and are battlers all the way through, and will give the locals a thorough going-over. The London team gives the impression of a much lighter team than they really are when they appear on the ice, and this has led a good many of the fans to withhold judgment until they see them in action against a big team. After tonight's game they will have seen that much and according to the youngesters, another win piled up.

Providing there is a good official, being outweighed doesn't mean much to a speedy team, and the local youngesters don't get frozen to the ice any, on form so far. Sid Rankin, who is billed to handle the bell, will keep the boys playing hockey, and if that is done there shouldn't be many fears for the local crew, no matter how heavy the opposing line is.

The Intermediates make their maiden O. H. A. trip to Watford tonight, and will have to make their impression on the home fans away frem home. On the result of the clash. Watford team is heralded as the best the town has heralded as the best the town has

American's Big Fence Buster For Unnamed Sum-$100, 000 Offered For Ruth Last

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The purchase of "Babe" Ruth, the star batsman of the Boston Americans, by the New York American League Club was announced tonight by Colonel Jacob Ruppert, president of the New York Club, who refused to state the price paid.

Colonel Ruppert said that Manager Miller Huggins of the Yankees is now in Los Angeles, Calif., negotiating with Ruth. Ruth has a three-year contract with the Boston Club, made last season, calling for a salary of $10,000 a year. He is reported, however, to have declared recently that unless this sum was boosted to $20,000 he would not return to Boston.

The famous home-run hitter demanded this increase on the strength of his last season's batting record, when he broke all previous major league records by hitting 29 home runs. NEW YORK, Jan. 5 .- The purchase

In refusing to name the price paid for Ruth, Ruppert admitted that he understood an offer of $100,000 for the player was refused last summer by Harry Frazee of the Boston Club.

Ruth, who is 26 years old, joined the Red Sox in 1915 as a pitcher and was used as a pinch-hitter because of his ability to send out long hits. Last season he was transferred to outfield duty, where he batted .322 as well as establishing a new major league homerun record. He made 12 three-base hits, 34 two-base hits and received 101 bases on balls from pitchers who prehits, 34 two-base hits and received for bases on balls from pitchers who pre-ferred to pass him. Ruth pitched in 17 games and yielded an average of 2.97 runs. As an outfielder he erred only twice in 258 chances.

BOSTON. Mass., Jan. 5.—President Harry H. Frazee of the Boston Ameri-cans tonight said he had sold "Babe" Ruth to the New York Americans because he thought it was an "injustice" to keep him with the Red Sox, who were "fast becoming a one-man team." He did not make public the purchase

Ruth, who is the world champion to home-run hitter, recently returned his three-year contract, which called for a payment of $10,000 a year, without his signature, demanding a much larger salary. Mr. Frazee said he would use the money obtained from the New York Club for the purchase of other players and would try to develop the Red Sox into a winning team.

COUNCIL SETS JANUARY 10 TO

Date Is Decided Upon Tentatively, Announcement Is Made.

PARIS, Jan. 5.-(By the Associated Press.)—The supreme council has tentatively set January 10 for the ratification of the treaty of Versailles. The council's basis for a settlement on the Scapa Flow sinkings was handed over to Baron von Lersner today, and it was announced that an agreement had been reached with the German delegation.

been reached with the German delegation.

The Scapa Flow reparations agreement was reached upon the Allies accepting a diminution of 125,000 tons from the 400,000 tons of naval material originally demanded from Germany. The Germans argued the impossibility of surrendering the tonnage originally demanded, and also pointed out errors in the inventory of the Allies.

The Allies were conciliatory, and fixed 275,000 tons as final. To this the German delegates agreed.

TROPHIES-HEIRLOOMS

J. G. Seagram Owned Many Cup and Trophy Winners in His Time.

KITCHENER, Jan. 5. — Cash bequests ranging from $500 to $25,000 to old and faithful employees are features of the will of Joseph E. Seagram widely-known horseman and distillery owner, of Waterloo, who died August 18, 1919. His will, dated January 30, 1919, has just been probated, and an estate valued at $4,039,710 is disposed of mainly to three sons and one daughter, the latter since decreased. latter since deceased.

More than half of the six-page will is concerned with the late Mr. Seagram's horses. In his time, Mr. Seais concerned with the late Mr. Seagram's horses. In his time, Mr. Seagram owned many cup and trophy winners, including Queen's and King's platers. The cups and trophes are all carefully and specifically distributed among members of his family with the wish that they never be permitted to pass out of the Seagram family. The bulk of the estate consists of stocks and bonds, particularly stock in the Joseph E. Seagram & Sons' Company, Limited, which under the provisions of the will is to be passed down to three of the sons who have long been active in the business.

The stock in the Seagram distillery is divided as follows: 5,100 shares to E. F. Seagram; 2,948 to Norman, and 1,948 to Thomas.

The will directs that a fund of $250,000 be created and the income paid in half-yearly installments to Blanche Alexandrine Bowlby, widow of the late George Herbert Bowlby, M.D., during the period of her natural life. GOVERNMENT DROPS BOOSTER CAMPAIGN: IS MARKING TIME Threatened Crisis Over Borden's Intended Resignation Cause.

[Special To The Advertiser.]
OTTAWA, Jan. 5.—It would appear that the projected Government campaign of education is off. It had been record of the Union Government in various aspects of the day and sounding the praises, at least its accomplishments.

ing the praises, at least its accomplishments.

Mr. Meighen was to have gone west. In fact, he was ready to start when the recent threatened crists rose through the intention of Sir Robert Borden to retire. Hon. Hugh Guthrie and others were to visit points in Ontario, and other ministers were to go to the Maritimes. The proposition has now apparently been shelved.

Mr. Meighen's plans are indefinite, and the proposed trips to Ontario and the Maritimes have seemingly been cancelled. As a matter of fact, the Government has pretty well settled down to mark time until the session meets and a caucus of its parliamentary supporters has been held.

There is a sort of philosophic calm on the hill now that Sir Robert Borden on the hill now that Sir Robert Borden with him. The attitude of most of the ministers is one of quiet resignation toward whatever fate may be in store for the administration when caucus assembles.

Pumps Again Keeping Pace Newspaper States Meeting With Demands, After Much Trouble.

MONTREAL, Jan. 5.-At 6 o'clock MONTREAL, Jan. 5.—At 6 o'clock tonight matters were once again normal in regard to the water situation in this city, and a bulletin issued by E. R. Decary, chairman of the administrative commission of Montreal, stated that the waterworks plant was pumping 67,000,000 galons of water, the normal supply being from 65,000,000 to 70,000. This condition comes after a period fraught with trouble and anxiety. On Sunday evening things were in good shape, when a series of accidents in tervened, and at an early hour this morning the big 30,000,000-gallon pump went wrong. A bearing became overheated, but this was remedied this afternoon.

Then a boiler tube burst in one of the Robb machines, which caused a reduction of pressure for an hour and a half. It was in this connection that Mr. Decary made a statement to the effect that the condition in which the machinery at the pumping station had been left by the strikers was absolutely criminal.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 5.—The expected opposition from the radicals in the United Mine Workers' organization to action of the international officers in accepting President Wilson's proposal for settlement of the miners' strike developed late today shortly after the report of the settlement had been read to the convention by International Secretary William Green.

A motion by Phillip Murray of Pittsburg, president of the Pennsylvania miners, to affirm the action of the international officers and indorse the miners, to affirm the action of the international officers and indorse the policy outlined in their report was promptly followed by attempts of the radicals to reject the motion and to condemn the international officers for having accepted the president's proposal. London, Tuesday, Jan. 6.—The political correspondent of the Daily Mail says that Premier Lloyd George, foreseeing that he has no political future among either the Unionists or Liberals, is preparing to inaugurate a new centre party of which he would assume the leadership.

"This," adds the correspondent. "is the real reason for Mr. Churchill's attack on Labor, which doubtless was more or less inspired by the premier. The association of Lloyd George with Mr. Churchill is so close that towards the end of the last session of Parliament the members used to say that the Government really consisted of Lloyd George and Mr. Churchill last summer made a centre party idea prominent in a public speech he was centrally trained. Chicago, Jan. 6.—Stormy weather and lightness of receipts gave a decided advantage today to bulls in the corn market. Besides, there was some export inquiry for corn. A headache is frequently caused by badly digested food; the gases and acids resulting therefrom are absorbed by the blood which in turn irritates the nerves and causes painful symptoms called headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, etc.; 15 to 30 drops of Mother Seigel's Syrup will correct faulty digestion and afford relief.

At Fordham University Walsh was star football man and all-round athlete, and because of his baseball skill was persuaded to play a season with the Brooklyn National League team prior to entering motion pictures. ROLLICKING PICTURE AT GRAND THEATRE

'Fair and Warmer" Keeps Audience in Continuous Laughter-Vaudeville

Good.

"Fair and Warmer," funniest of omedies, presented in pictures at the Grand last night, kept a large audience rolling with laughter. A hilarious success when it was presented on the legitimate stage, it has been put into picture form, not only without the loss of the intrinsic punch and humor, but with additional merit, because many funny scenes are worked into the pictures that were impossible to present on the stage.

on the stage.

Although the fun-provoking dialogue of the original play could not be produced, it is largely made up for by the sparkling witty sub-titles which permeate the picture. The many funny complicated scenes coupled with these title water continue simples of laughter. itles sent continual ripples of laughter of Wheeler's own wife the funny situations are created.

In striking contrast to the light comedy of the picture was the heavy drama of the headline vaudeville act. Kingsley Benedict, assisted by Edward Wade, staged a dramatic sketch that has a moral to it. The sketch is called "Wild Oats." In playing a dual part, Mr. Benedict reveals considerable dramatic ability. He handles many tense situations while playing the parts of a son of a wealthy man and of a convict remarkably well. The act is original, and its kind is seldom seen in vaudeville.

"MAYTIME" AT GRAND

"Maytime," the exceptionally popular entertainment which the Messrs. Shubert are to present at the Grand Opera House Thursday evening only at 8:15, differs so radically in both theme and treatment from the conventional musical comedy as to mark a distinct innovation in stage fare. Its classification as a "play with music" is exact, for it is a dramatic narrative embellished with auxiliary music which enhances the action by fitting logically into the story. "Maytime" was written by Rida Johnson Young, author of "Brown of Harvard," "Naughty Marietta," "Capt. Kidd Jun," and other recent successes. Its musical setting came from Sigmund Romberg, composer of "Her Soldier Boy" and many of the song hits in the Winter Garden shows. The story, opening in a Washington Square Garden in 1849, proceeds through the "years for three-quarters of a century. The last of the four acts, or episodes, shows a happy culmination in the lives of the grand-children of the romance of their ancestors, blighted two generations before by parental opposition. The intermediate acts present striking pictures of New York life at widely different periods, the salient characteristic of each of the eras being accurately reproduced. The Messrs. Shubert, with their customary prodigality, have provided an excellent cast. There is, of course, a chorus and an augmented orchestra. The seat sale opens this morning.

"FIDDLERS THREE" AT GRAND FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"Fiddlers Three," which is announced for two nights and Saturday matines at the Grand, commencing Friday evening, is said to be a rare bit of music and unusuany well played comedy. It is seldom that a piece of theatrical property meets with such favor as has been accorded this delightful romantic operetta. Its story has charm, and its dialogue is rich in wit and humor. Tavis Belge, the prima donna, has a voice of great range and sweetness — one that is seldom heard outside of grand opera, and has, since her first American appearance at the Cort Theatre in New York last summer, gathered a following of music lovers that must be very flattering to her. Thomas Conkey, whose baritone voice is of rare quality, brings a tunefulness and gayety to the piece that makes it thoroughly good entertainment, Tom Dingle, puts his comedy over the footlights with personal directness and keeps you smiling, and Edna Morn, with her sprightly and graceful dancing, Katherine Clare Ward, Ethel Dwyer, Horace Sinclair, Marius Rogatti, Layman and Kling with their unusual dancing that borders on the sensational, all do their share in adding to the attractiveness of the piece. The sale opens tomorrow.

"CHU CHIN CHOW" COMING TO GRAND ALL WEEK

The arre last night with a series of new stunts.

The new play, "The Winning Stroke," a William Fox production, depicts the life of Yale and includes the great Yale-Harvard boat race in both story and scenic display.

Walsh, being a college-bred man, has the great advantage of being able to handle his new character without making any technical "breaks" that might bring criticism from collegians. He knows the game from start to finish, and as stroke oar of the Yale crew is in his element.

At Fordham University Walsh was star football man and all-round athlete, and heaves of his basehell skill was stage.

Picture, Advertised For Some Time. Is Fully Up To Expectations.

"The Perfect Lover," starring Eugene O'Brien, drew capacity audicomplicated scenes coupled with these titles sent continual ripples of laughter through the house.

The part of Blanny Wheeler seems to have been created especially for dainty May Allison, the star. She plays to perfection the part of a pretty, trusting and loving young wife who has had her dreams rudely shattered. However, her work does not stand out alone, for she is well supported by a cast that is all stars.

The story of the play is based upon doings of two young married couples. In one instance the husband is too perfect and in fhe other the husband is also loyal and devoted, but he considers its a better policy to contrive to make his wife believe he is not. Jack Wheeler preaches his philosophy that if you keep them guessing you keep them in love with you to his friend, Billy Bartlett, who has driven his wife nearly frantic with his thoughtfulness and perfection. In following Wheeler's advice with the help of Wheeler's own wife the funny situations are created.

In striking contrast to the light comedy of the picture was the heavy drama of the headline vaudeville act. He supplies his admirers with the love their husbands are too busy to give them. But he finds that he gains no happiness in this way of living. What happens to him in the end proves a breezy, thrilling love story full of art and intrigue.

The Lampints, French comedians and the Lampints, French comedians and the military authorities towards men in Canada, gave an entirely unjust view of this case and of the attitude of the military authorities towards men in the lampints. The Lampinis, French comedians and illusionists, have a pleasing act. They are artists in their line, and the personality of the man helps to win the goodwill of his audience. Their feature "the bootbox mystery" is cleverly presented, and really is mystifying.

Four returned Canadian soldiers, one said to be a member of the old 33rd Battalion, put on an act called the "Canadian Shrapnel Dodgers." It is replete with humor and takes well. The playing of a violin made of a tin can and one steel wire is a feature of this act.

McCreevey and Doyle present an act called "The Difficulties of Motoring," which completes a bill that will be presented again today and tomorrow. View of this case and of the attitude of the military authorities towards men who have fought our battles.
