PURITY FLOUR

And Its Keeping Qualities

SOME people find it necessary to buy a considerable quantity of flour at one time—sufficient to last for a long period. Naturally they are anxious to procure a flour of the kind best adapted to lengthy storage.

There are two important reasons why PURITY FLOUR possesses these qualities. One is that it is made entirely from Manitoba Hard Wheat. The other lies in the fact that the careful milling necessary to produce "Purity" absolutely excludes all low-grade particles of the wheat berry. It's the high grade Manitoba Hard Wheat Flour that keeps—stands longest storage.

That's "Purity."

"Purity" flour may cost a little more, but is more than worth the difference. Try it. Watch results both for quality and yield.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By MUTE CAMERON

"Yes, but that's what people always say about anyone who can't think of anything else nice."

The girl who said that had just been told that some one had remarked what a wonderful sweet disposition she had.

I quote her comment on the compliment, because I've heard other girls say the same thing and because I most strenuously object to this belittling of one of the highest compliments anyone can receive.

If this girl had been told that some one had said that she was a wonderful musician, she would doubtless have been very happy.

She has been complimented on being proficient in a much more rarely mastered art than music—the fine art of being too good to live with—and she thinks cheaply of the compliment.

Are't folks queer?

Listen little girl and all your sisters in the folly of this queer point of view. Scorn if you will what I say, but I want you to give ear to what some real folks have said about the value of the sweet disposition and the life-importance of the fine art of being good to live with—

"A happy man or woman is a better thing to find than a five pound note. He or she is a radiating focus of good will, and their entrance into a room is as though another candle had been lighted. We need not care whether they could prove the forty-seventh proposition, they do a better thing than that; they practically demonstrate the great theorem of the Livableness of Life."—Robert Louis Stevenson.

"The habit of looking at the bright side of things is worth more than a thousand pounds a year."—Samuel Johnson.

"Perhaps most pleasantness has not a very heroic sound, but the human heart, that knowing its own bitterness, can yet carry itself cheerfully is not without heroism. Indeed, if that human heart does not more than hold its tongue about its own aches and pains, it has a certain moral value that the world cannot afford to lose. 'Pleasantness' does not sound so well as self-sacrifice or wisdom or spirituality, but it may include all these words. And certainly, just to start one's husband out to his work cheerily, to make the hobbled-hoy of a son feel a gentler and sweeter sentiment towards women because of his own mother's sound, sweet gaiety and strength to help one's servants to put good humor and friendliness into their services—these things make for righteousness in the world."—Margaret Deland.

"I do not know of any way so sure of making others happy as of being so one's self."—Sir Arthur Helps.

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a shallow chest, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Fiere's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of sluggish impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whiskey or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum, but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 40 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

Household Notes.

If fresh cut flowers need reviving place the stems into boiling water, and by the time the water is cold the flowers will have revived. Cut the ends of the stems afresh and place in fresh cold water.

Old tea or coffee stains require soaking in cold water before boiling, but freshly made stains by pouring boiling water over the spot from a height so that the water will fall on the stain with some force.

Did you ever try raising flowers in big gourds? If filled with sand and rich earth, the flowers will thrive and flourish, as the gourds retain moisture. Ferns, bulbs and especially fine vines, do well in gourds.

Ink stains, if old, can be removed from wood by using a solution of two-thirds alcohol and one-third sweet oil. If they are fresh stains, breathe on them; and while damp rub gently. They will disappear easily.

Keep a bowl of cold water near and when leaves or crushed berries stick to your fingers, dip your hands into the water and they are instantly cleaned. This idea makes the task of looking over fruit much easier.

Psoriasis 'All Over Body'

Most dreaded of skin diseases was cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Psoriasis is a sort of chronic eczema. The itching it causes is almost beyond human endurance, and it is usually considered incurable. But this case proves that Dr. Chase's Ointment is a cure, in spite of the doctor's prediction.

Mrs. Nettie Massey, Consecration, Ont., writes:—"For five years I suffered with what three doctors called psoriasis. They could not help me and one of them told me if any one offered to guarantee a cure for $50.00 to keep my money as I could not be cured. The disease spread all over me, even on my face and head, and the itching and burning was hard to bear. I used eight boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and I am glad to say I am entirely cured, not a sign of a sore to be seen. I can hardly praise this ointment enough."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cts. a box. All Dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto.

If skim milk be used instead of water in the preparation of white-wash, the wash will resist the action of moisture; also if a little copperas water be used, the disinfecting properties of the preparation will be enhanced.

When laying new matting cut each width six inches longer than necessary. Then ravel the ends and tie the cords together. When the matting is taken up to be cleaned it cannot ravel out annoyingly and there is no waste.

Rub white soap on the cloth first. When making eyelet embroidery, hold a piece of soap under the material and let the stiletto pass into it. The soap gives a slight stiffness to the cloth and a much better eye can be made.

To have the crust well done when a custard or pumpkin pie is to be baked, spread the pastry on the pie plate the day before and put it in a cool dry place till next morning. Then fill and bake; the under crust will be a rich brown.

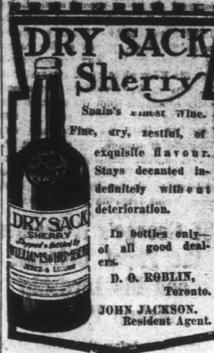

A fresh mildew spot needs lemon juice an exposure to the sun; if it is an old spot dissolve a tablespoon of chloride of lime in four quarts of cold water and soak the fabric in this until the mildew is gone. Then expose to the sun.

To set the blue color in goods, from the most delicate blue shirtwaist to blue overalls, dissolve five cents' worth of sugar of lead in one gallon and a half of water. Soak the goods in it about fifteen minutes; wring out and wash as usual.

Many people are not aware that pasting court plaster on the wrong side of the dress, just as soon as the material shows sign of a crack, will prevent the tear from going further; even when entirely broken, court plaster will heal "the little rift within the lute."

White spots caused by spilling perfume on a polished bureau, or by overturning alcohol on a table or even the spots caused when cleaning pianos with alcohol and water, can be removed by the use of oil of peppermint on a soft cloth. Rub gently.

In making frozen desserts remember that parfaits are richer than ice cream, so that less is necessary. A quart is usually counted as a generous measure for six persons. To freeze a quart, or even three pints, an eight inch cube of ice will be found ample.

Cut the crown out of an old, broad brim hat, and wear the brim when shampooing the hair. Sit in the sun, with the hair spread out over this brim, and toss and shake until dry. This is the handiest way to sun golden hair, and does not cause headaches, as the neck is protected, also the eyes.

At the Bridge Wist Club

I played on at bridge at midnight. Though my bank account ran low, And a warning voice within me Said I'd better quit and go.

A moment's calm reflection Might have saved me from such fate. But the lust of bridge had gripped me. And, alas, it was too late.

And ever the cards before me Seemed luring me on to play. And the currency, gleaming and glowing, Seemed to lift and bear me away.

And I bid when I should have bridged it. And bridged when I might have bid. And only the god of the foolish Knows the mad, sad things I did.

And ever the play went wilder. And the cards still wilder went. And I the wisest of any— For I risked my last red cent.

How often, oh, how often. In the good old days long past, I had played on at bridge at midnight. And raked in the pile at last.

How often, oh, how often, I prayed in a tense aside, I might bear away in my pocket That pile so deep and wide.

But the game was dead against me I'd lost my luck at the play, And the debts there laid upon me Seemed greater than I could pay.

With my coin all fallen from me, I left in the cold gray dawn, Deep cursing the bridge at midnight, And wondering what I could pawn.

Cut it Short.

When you have a tale of woe, Cut it short; Brooding makes your troubles grow. Cut it short; Sun is somewhere in the sky. Things will brighten by and by. Just keep mum, before folks cry. Cut it short.

When you feel you want to swear, Cut it short; Swearing is a waste of air. Swearing never gained a race, Swearing never helped a face, Swearing's always out of place. Cut it short.

When you start to tell a lie, Cut it short; You can do it if you try. Cut it short; Truth will bear its weight, they say. Lies they leave regrets each day. Do not stretch the truth, I pray. Cut it short.

When you visit with a friend, Cut it short; Never stop but one week's end. Cut it short; Do not be a foolish lout. Do not wear your welcome out. Just depart before they shout. Cut it short.

Under the Maple Leaf Daily News Breaks Silence.

At last, after almost a week of silence, the Daily News has ventured to break silence on the naval agreement between Britain and Canada, which we published last week and on which we have been commenting since Tuesday last. The opening statement of our morning contemporary betrays such a misapprehension of both the terms of the agreement and of our inferences that little reliance can be placed on the article under reference. Our contemporary's opening statement runs thus:

"Because Canada has been given permission to fly the Dominion flag in North Atlantic waters, a series of extraordinary inferences are being evolved by our Water Street contemporary."

Our inferences are not drawn from any such premises. It is true that the agreement merely gives permission to Canada to fly the Dominion flag in North Atlantic waters.

A reference to the agreement will show that the naval ships of Canada can fly the Dominion flag whether they are within their own naval stations of the Atlantic or the Pacific, in British waters elsewhere, at any foreign port, or in any part of the world. The right to fly the flag attaches to the ship, not to the waters in which the ship may be.

Clause 2 in part runs: "The ships of each Dominion naval force will hoist . . . at the jack staff the distinctive flag of the Dominion."

In reference to our inferences, we would draw the attention of our esteemed contemporary to clause 4 and schedule A. Here they are:

(4) The Canadian and Australian governments will have their own naval stations as agreed upon from time to time. The limits of the stations as considered desirable are set forth in schedule A for Canada, and in schedule B for Australia.

Schedule A—(Canada)—The Canadian Atlantic station will include the waters north of 30 degrees north latitude, and west of the meridian of the 40 degrees west longitude. The Canadian Pacific station will include the waters north of 30 degrees north latitude, and east of the meridian of 180 degrees longitude.

Newfoundland is so far within the zone of the Canadian Atlantic station that no ship can leave a port in Newfoundland or Labrador without traversing at least a thousand miles of water within the station which is termed on this agreement Canada's "own." Moreover there is no exception made of Newfoundland waters, and still further, Newfoundland has never yet had under her control the defence of Newfoundland waters. That defence has been in the hands of the Admiralty, and under this agreement the Admiralty hands over the defence to Canada.

In face of the plain words of this agreement, in view of the withdrawal of the North American squadron from North Atlantic waters, it is idle for our contemporary to declare that the regulations to which our contemporary refers do not affect Newfoundland in any way.

The North American squadron with its Admiral in charge is a thing of the past. Half the Atlantic to the east of our shores has been handed over to the defence of Canada, which has the nucleus of a navy. She is contemplating the establishment of naval yards and the building of a navy for the purposes of the agreement and in accordance with her declared policy. How these matters are regarded may be gleaned from the following despatch:

"London, July 28.—The Globe frankly regrets that Asquith did not find it convenient to reply to Lord Walter's question, asking for a definite statement as to Canada's decision regarding participation in war. The Globe says there have been important signs that the evil of the Laurier doctrine has corrupted some South African politicians and apparently the Commonwealth Premier. It has also been put to immediate use in Canada itself as shown in Laurier's Montreal speech that he has established a free maritime zone, both on the Atlantic and Pacific, which shall be absolutely under Canada's own care.

The Globe says it is further asserted that Canadian vessels will fly both the White Ensign and the special Canadian flag, the latter replacing the Union Jack. While the Jack is only a symbol, it is an extremely significant symbol. Its omission will be regarded by many with feeling we hardly care to give utterance to. It is pushing the doctrine of autonomy to excessive lengths. We know from Laurier's speech that he prides himself on this."

We are glad to learn that the Daily News will refuse to recognize the Canadian Navy. But gratifying as is the announcement of our morning contemporary, we are more concerned about the attitude of the Newfoundland Premier, what about the attitude of the Newfoundland Premier, the Right Honourable Sir Edward Morris? Is he on record as declining to accept the protection of what the Daily News calls "Canada's 'tin-pot navy.'" If so, where is the record to be seen? Let our contemporary get Sir Edward to quote it, and lastly, why is Newfoundland not specially exempted from the naval agreement, so that all who see it may read it? Until we have some such tangible assurance, we shall let the Naval Agreement table on Friday week in the House of Commons at Ottawa speak for itself and draw conclusions from its plain terms.

St. George's Welcomes the Papal Delegate and His Lordship Bishop Power.

For hours before the arrival of the special train bearing His Excellency the Delegate, His Lordship Bishop Power and the attendant clergy, the F. R. station platform and the roads leading to the Palace were thronged by an expectant crowd. There was a wonderful display of bunting, of beautiful arches wreathed with flowers, the roads were lined with evergreens. Everything that a deeply religious and enthusiastic people could do had been done to welcome the direct representative of St. Peter, who had been specially commissioned from Christ's Vicar to honour Newfoundland, to honor our Cathedral town by consecrating and installing in his See the Rt. Rev. M. F. Power, Bishop of St. George's.

The distinguished prelates were met at the station by a deputation of the officers and members of the Star of the Sea Society, amid salutes of musketry and continued cheering proceeded to the Cathedral where the Papal Benediction was given to the kneeling people who filled the church to its utmost capacity.

Night closed quickly and St. George's became a fairy town sparkling with illuminations which were reflected back in millions of shimmering ripples from the tranquil waters of its most beautiful harbor; colored lights were displayed and gleamed and glowed from the arches lighting up the flower wreaths and evergreens; fireworks were displayed and crowds thronged the streets enjoying a scene that has never been equaled here before and seldom in Newfoundland.—(Com.)

Price of Fish Dropped 80 Cents.

It will be a great shock to the fishermen and planters who have fish to sell to learn the news to-day that fish has dropped about 80 cents a quintal in the St. John's market. Fish for which $6.50 could be got easily last Saturday in town cannot to-day fetch more than $5.70.

Woman Cut Off Hand.

A Mrs. Quinton, of Seal Cove, B. B., became so violently insane last week that she deliberately took an axe and attempted to cut off her hand at the wrist. She only succeeded in mangleing it badly when her friends caught her and took away the weapon. They sent to King's Cove for Constable Murphy who went to Seal Cove and brought the woman to St. John's by the train that arrived here at 12.30 p. m. to-day.

Here and There.

STILL VERY ILL.—Rt. Rev. Monsignor Brown, of the West Coast, is still in a precarious condition of health.

A WEDDING.—Mr. Thomas Humphries, of Ayre & Sons office, and Miss Mercer, of Bay Roberts, who formerly worked at Maunders', this city, were married last week.

TRAPS NOT HAULED.—The traps had not been hauled at Portugal Cove this morning when the mailman left owing to the strong tide that was running. They all had good hauls on Saturday.

Public Sale.

A WITNESS WANTED.—We are requested by the police to ask the young man who escorted Miss M. Murphy to the East End Fire Hall, Regatta night, to come forward, as they want to get his evidence.

ASSIGNED TO CREDITORS.—A West End business man is in financial difficulties and has assigned to his creditors. The liabilities are said to be between thirty and forty thousand dollars.

Royal Treasure.

Windsor Castle Contains $12,500,000 Worth of Valuables.

Windsor Castle and Buckingham Palace, while being two of the best furnished residences in the world, are perfect museums of treasures new and old, and the royal property is so well guarded that it is practically impossible for a thief to lay his hand on a single article.

During the reign of Queen Victoria several plots were hatched to burgle both Windsor Castle and Buckingham Palace, but not one of them was carried out successfully. Some years ago a gang of swell West End thieves made up their minds to attempt to pilfer some of the treasures within Buckingham Palace, and one of their number managed to enter by the private entrance unseen. He was discovered in one of the corridors, however, and, being unable to give a satisfactory reason for his presence in the palace, he was promptly handed over to the police.

The royal residences are strongly guarded by military and police, and private detectives are engaged to keep guard over the treasures.

The strong rooms at Windsor are elaborate apartments and the doors are burglar proof and powder proof. In the strong rooms there is a plate valued at over $12,500,000. There is a gold dinner service sufficient for 140 persons, with other articles of gold and silver numbering in all 1,100 and weighing 30 tons. A candelabrum of gold, representing St. George and the Dragon, used for lighting the royal table, is so heavy that two men are required to lift it. It weighs 2,700 ounces and is valued at between $60,000 and $65,000. A more modern piece of plate, an ewer, designed by the late Prince Consort, is worth $55,000. It was made to commemorate Queen Victoria's first visit to Scotland and represents her late Majesty's deerhounds standing over a dead stag.

Central District Court.

Quail vs. Renne.

Plaintiff who was engaged as a foreman baker with the Rennie Baking Co. sues them for $200. He was given three months notice and dismissal with the salary corresponding. He now sues for $200 for alleged breach of contract. The case was not finished this forenoon.

Old-fashioned surah, neglected for years, has re-established itself for gowns and as a trimming.

There is little doubt that the autumn will bring along the little bolero jacket in numbers and variety.

Cream butter color and pale ceru lace are effectively used in combination with white velvets and marquisettes.

Basques seem to be gaining ground and they are seen on all sorts of costumes and in a great variety of forms.

Probably more one-piece silk dresses are seen this season than at any previous time, and nothing has in it more satisfaction for a woman.

Gloves are dyed in every conceivable shade to match the colored shoes and stockings, which in every case ought to harmonize with the toilette.

Special Evening Telegram.

BERLIN, Aug. 6.
The prospect of a speedy settlement of the Moroccan question between Germany and France are welcomed on every hand, but the terms of the agreement, when they become known, will probably cause considerable dissatisfaction in various quarters, both in Germany and France.
Negotiations have been difficult, and the French people are not quite so optimistic as the Germans over the final outcome. Details still remain to be arranged, and it is recognized generally that these are most important.
Germany and France have both been compelled to concede a number of weighty points, because neither are prepared to press matters too far. The leading article in the Pan-German Post not only attacks the foreign Minister and Chancellor and demands their retirement from office, but makes a terrific onslaught on Emperor William, asking, "What has happened to the Hohenzollerns?" It also calls the Emperor the strongest supporter of the Anglo-French policy,
and continues, "We will not yet believe what the English and French newspapers have said for weeks,
namely, 'wait till your Emperor returns and then retreat will be sounded, and Germany will recede from her position.'" The Pan-German Post concludes by calling the Emperor
"William the Timid," and "A valorous patriot." Herr Harden, in Zuku-nft, also attacks His Majesty severely, naming him "William the Peacemaker."

died from gastritis. A typhus fever has broken out in the valley of the

Excursion to "Conception."

The people of Conception Harbor are already making preparations for the big excursion that will take place there on August the 23rd in aid of the fund for the building of St.
Rev. Monsignor Vetch's Presbytery.
The rev. pastor, who is doing great work there in the building of churches and schools, is being largely assisted by his people in preparing for the excursion. All who have horses and carriages have volunteered to go to the station at Avondale on the morning of the 23rd and carry all the visitors from St. John's to Conception Harbor. An excellent programme is being arranged for the day. The visitors will be afforded an opportunity of seeing the beautiful scenery of this part of the bay on the drive from the station. All the carriages will go in procession and make a round which will take in Collier's
— a charming spot — and all the vantage points such as Lewis' Hill, where one gets a Killarney-like view of the bay. The afternoon's programme will include sports on a fine field at the west end of the town and a dance in the hall at night. The committee in charge will have a liberal supply of viands for the 20 tables that will be out in the field near the Convent.
There will be boat races on the harbor also. In fact Rt. Rev. Monsignor Vetch and his energetic committee are determined to leave nothing undone that may help to give the visitors an enjoyable holiday. They are determined, if they can help it, none will come away dissatisfied. They will do their best. Monsignor Vetch has made wonderful progress in the building up of the parish since he assumed charge there. The crowning work is, of course, his beautiful church, which is a never failing source of surprise to all who visit it for the first time. There are nine flourishing schools in the parish, and a fine church also completed by the Monsignor at Collier's. Provided that the weather is fine on the 23rd, we hesitate not to expect an excursion for all who go to Conception Harbor. For it must be remembered that Monsignor Vetch is equally as anxious to treat all visitors well and give them
a favorable impression of his place and his people as he is to raise the necessary funds to complete his Presbytery.

lian last Friday night, when a collec-

gate to the Marine and Fisheries De-Fishery Rules. He was convicted and fined and his factory closed down.

quiem Mass for the souls of the faithful departed will take place at Bel-

to-morrow morning.

Notes From Tilling.

We are very glad to have our esteemed pastor, Rev. W. P. Finn, formerly P.P. of this place, once more visiting us. He arrived here on July 25th and was accorded a grand reception. On his entering the harbor
he was greeted with volleys of guns, and flags were flying in honour of our former beloved pastor.

Rev. Fr. O'Brien is at present visiting Labrador. We hope that his visit will be a pleasant one to him;
we hope also that his stay with us will be as long as the above mentioned pastor's—Rev. Fr. Finn.

There passed peacefully away on August 1st, Mr. Edward Dwyer, a native of this place at the age of 77
years. The many friends of Mrs.
Dwyer (his daughter-in-law) deeply sympathize with her in losing one who was so industrious and kind-hearted.
It was but a few months ago since her husband died and left behind him besides his wife, three children all too young to know or regret the loss of a father.

Mrs. Michael Sexton has been very ill the past six weeks, suffering from a rather serious complaint; she has had medical treatment during all this time, and was at one time attended by two doctors, viz. Drs. McLean and Eccart. There is not much improvement in her at present and she will likely have to undergo an operation.

Miss Alice Walsh who went to spend a few months in the city, returned this morning by the S. S. Pogata. She has a sister a nurse in the Insane Asylum in St. John's, and would have liked to stay, but owing to ill health she had to return home.

It appears that the fishing season
with cod traps is all over here now,
and a great many traps have been taken out of the water. On an average the fishery with cod traps this season has been extra good compared with last year's voyage. The people of this place have always been kind to the fishermen of other places, this can be clearly understood from the fact that so many of them from other places come here in the summer season fishing; well, this is all right, but it seems that some of these people do not think of the favours that have been shown to them when they are so importunate as to come round and interfere on the fishermen of the place by trawling, splitting, etc., on the fishing grounds inside the limited line. There seems to be some injustice shown to the fishermen of Tilling.

THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

When I was young I loved a maid who left all others in the shade. Her eyes were of an azure tint, her charms too numerous to print. I hoped to make that girl my bride, but fate to me that boon denied.
THE DREAM I left my native town to stray in towns and cities far MAIDEN. away. The years passed on, and youth was fled, and silver hairs grew on my head, and hope became an aching void, and I wore teeth of celluloid. And all the time and everywhere I dreamed about that maiden fair. No other damsels had her grace, her sunny locks, her gentle face. Ah me! I loved her from afar, as one may love a shining star. Last month I journeyed home once more, to see the friends I loved of yore, to see the shack where I was born, and blow my father's dinner horn. There was a suffragette parade, and at the head of it the maid of whom I'd dreamed so many years; I saw her through a mist of tears. Ah, she had whiskers on her chin, and bore the sign: "We Women Win!" Her nose was red, her person flat, she wore the most outrageous hat! I siped about a million weeps, and uttered some despairing cheeps, and sought a drug store, there to drink a gallon of refreshing ink.

The annual meeting of St. Bonavent-

in the Aula Maxima yesterday. Rt.
Hon. Sir E. P. Morris, President of the Association, filled the chair.

The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were submitted showing that the Association is in a good financial condition.

The President delivered a long address of great interest. He referred to the aims and objects of the Society and the duty that all owed to their Aima Mater. He encouraged all the members to continue their efforts on behalf of St. Bonaventura's College.
The new college had cost $70,000; it was pleasing to know $2,000 of this was already paid off chiefly through the efforts of the friends of the College, the Men's and Women's Associations. Rev. Bro. Culhane being moved to the chair the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

In all its Forms can be Cured.

It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything, I have no heart to exert myself, and at times I care for nothing.
I often have a pain in the pit of the stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just a stired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden.

Now, it seems a shame and a pity

Melting Out Justice.

Maggie Tobin, an 11 year old girl of LeMarchant Road, summoned Chas Downs for beating her last Saturday. It appears that she was wheeling her baby brother in a carriage along Le Marchant Road when a six year old daughter of Mr. Downs kicked the perambulator. The Tobin girl beat her off, and Downs who was tarring the roof of his house nearby, came down the ladder, ran after Maggie Tobin and caught and beat her. He told the Judge that he merely flicked her in the face with his fingers but the girl's evidence and that of another witness was to the effect that he kicked her and "clouted" her and pulled her by the hair till she became unconscious. Her father told the court that she had been under the doctor's care ever since. The Judge fined Downs $5 and ordered him also to pay Tobin $3.50 for doctor's bill and medicine.

Two young men were charged with assaulting indecently Mar. Murphy, of Petty Harbor, on Wednesday night. The case was taken into the Judge's private room. The hearing was postponed until tomorrow in order to get the evidence of the witness who rescued the young woman and brought her to the East End Fire Station.

A carman named Murran for fias driving a horse and cart around by the side of the bridge, endangering the lives of the children, was fined $10 on 30 days. Mr. R. H. O'Dwyer was witness against him. Mr. W. J. Higgin appeared in this case, as in the Tobin case.

Personal.

Miss Alice Harvey and Miss Edith Parsons, who had been spending a vacation with friends at Sydney, arrived by to-day's express, having thoroughly enjoyed the trip. Mr. Eliza Buton, of the firm of Burton & Son, New Melbourne, arrived in town, by the Fogota, on Saturday, on business for his firm. Mrs. Phineas leaves for Japan on Tuesday's express.

Among the passengers by the S. S. Mongolian were Rev. Peter Bryce and his wife returning from a visit to his parents and friends in Scotland. Mr. Bryce is a native of Bantree, known as the birthplace and home of David Livingstone. His wife, Mrs. Bryce, is a daughter of Hon. H. J. B. Woods P. M. G., and they have stopped en route to Toronto, their home. It spends a few days with their many friends in St. John's. Rev. Mr. Bryce is in charge of a large Institutional Church in Toronto, the first of its kind in that city, if not in all Canada. His establishment and success is due largely to the aptitude and ability of Mr. Bryce for that special form of Church work. It has attracted much attention and is liberally supported by the wealthy Methodists of Toronto. A building adapted to the purpose has just been erected at a cost of about $40,000 and it is expected that a larger one will follow as the work expands. The locality formerly called Shacktown is now known as Earle's-court, and the transformation of the place, we understand, is fairly indicated by the respective names.

Another Giant Vessel.

White Star Said to be Planning a "Gigantic." New York, July 26.—After the arrival of the steamship Baltic, of the White Star Line, it was reported unofficially that the company has in view the building of a new vessel as a sister craft to the Titanic and the Olympic. It is said that the new boat will probably be called the Gigantic, and when she is built, her designers will correct any shortcomings that may be found in the Olympic or the Titanic. It was said that the new steamship would be launched in 1913.

New Gospels Are Found in Egypt.

Documents, Said to Contain Unknown Utterances of the Saviour Discovered. Boston, Mass., August 1.—A new uncanonical gospel of Christ, containing many utterances of Jesus hitherto unknown to the world, is believed to have been discovered through the work of the Egyptian Exploration Fund, according to the official announcement issued from the Boston headquarters of the fund. Enough ancient writings have been taken, from recent excavations to furnish material for twenty large printed volumes.

London Promoter Must Pay Back.

Horatio Bottomley, M.P., Loses Appeal—Fleeced Retired Civil Servant. London, July 31.—Horatio W. Bottomley, the editor, financier, newspaper owner and member of parliament to-day lost his appeal in the Appeal Court from the decision of June 30 by which he was ordered to pay $250,000 to Mrs. Eleanor Curtis, wife of a London barrister. Mrs. Curtis charged Mr. Bottomley with getting money from her father, the late R. E. Master, by misrepresentation in regard to the sale of certain shares. Mr. Master was a retired civil servant and he became interested in some undertakings promoted by Mr. Bottomley and at the time of his death it was found his large fortune had been depleted by these dealings. Mr. Bottomley, who is a clever lawyer, has promoted various companies and has been in the law courts several times as a result. He has also promoted several newspapers, among them being the London Financial Times and the weekly publication John Bull.

Would Marry Lady by Cable.

And Naval Officer at Gibraltar is Surprised When He Finds He Can't Do It. London, August 1.—The registrar of a Dorsetshire town has received a letter from a naval officer at Gibraltar in the following terms: "I should be glad if you would tell me the best means of being married by cable. What will it cost? Will it be necessary to have a minister and a registrar at both ends? Of course, I should have witnesses at both ends." A reply was sent to the officer to the effect that the proposal was impossible, but the would-be-bridgeman has just written again, expressing his surprise at the inconvenience he is put to, "just to get married."

Prince of Wales Now a Midshipman.

London July 31.—The Prince of Wales began his duties as midshipman today on board H. M. battleship Hindustan, which is now lying at Portsmouth. The Hindustan is of the King class, which, with the exception of the Nelson and the Agamemnon, is the most powerful type of the pre-Dreadnought fighting ship. The royal midshipman will be treated exactly the same as any other youngster aboard, except that he will have his own cabin. He will receive 21 pence a day.

Forty Turtles From West Indies

The Royal Mail steam packet Atlanta, in from West Indies port Monday, brought 40 big sea turtles, the first to be landed in New York for nearly two years. They were kept on the forward deck under charge of the boat's yeoman, whose duty it was to turn them over when they were tired of being in one position, and wipe their eyes with a swab at eight bells every morning. The turtles were landed all alive. When turtles die at sea they are put in the refrigerator and landed under the name of "angles" to the trade, but it is said they make just as good soup. —N. Y. Fitzwilliam Heir.

With the pomp and ceremony of feudal days, Viscount Milton, the infant heir of Earl and Countess Fitzwilliam, was on Saturday, Feb. 11, christened at Wentworth Woodhouse, Yorkshire, perhaps the most magnificent mansion in the whole of England, and the ceremony acquired an added interest from the fact that it was the first time for nearly three-quarters of a century that a direct heir had been born to the reigning head of the family. Outside in the great park hospital-ity was dispensed on a lavish scale to the seven thousand guests who had been bidden to the christening. There were fireworks, football matches, and entertainments galore for the multitude of guests, including all the old English sports. Thousands of people gathered round the giant spire where an ox was roasted, and countless glasses were raised to the health of the baby; but the immediate relatives and friends of the family were present in the little private chapel, and the baby who was the occasion of all the festivities without was carried into the chapel wearing the historic scarf of the Fitzwilliams. According to tradition, this scarf was presented by William the Conqueror to Sir Wm. Fitzwilliam for valor at the battle of Hastings.

The Lure of Cards.

How Society Women Gamble in Dear Old "Lanion." A few years ago Father Bernard Vaughan preached a course of sermons on the mania for bridge which was invading smart society. As a matter of fact, bridge is only one of the many forms of gambling in which the up to date society woman indulges. Her field of operations includes the Stock Exchange and the Turf, as well as the bridge clubs and the tables at Monte Carlo and Dieppe. The following is a fair sample of how a member of the "smart" gambling set spends her day. In the morning, after a careful perusal of the sporting news in the daily paper, she telephones to her bookmaker backing what she considers the likely winners for the day. This finished, she either gets through to her stockbroker or else motors into the city for a personal interview with him. Nowadays, many society women have a very shrewd business instinct. It was the great ladies of Mayfair and Belgravia who were the first to reap a profit from the rubber boom of last year. After lunch, our fair gambler turns in to her card club, where she will play bridge, or its latest development—auktion dinner—till dinner time. After dinner, more bridge or baccarat, usually at home or at a friend's house.

What is known as the "card instinct" seems to be more strongly developed in women than in men. At any rate, the proficiency at bridge of many prominent ladies of society is astonishing. At the present moment, the best bridge player in London is the wife of a very well known Guardsman. This lady is generally supposed to make $6,500 a year at bridge, and this result is due entirely to skill. A curious feature of the gambling spirit in society is the way bridge tournaments have taken the place of bazaars. At these tournaments the entrants money and a percentage of the stakes is devoted to some charitable object. A fund organized by the Lord Mayor last spring largely profited by one of these tournaments. Most gamblers are superstitious, ladies especially so. There is a certain contest, well known in the bridge world, who has a method of her own for testing her luck before-hand. Every morning, after breakfast, she plays a couple of games of patience. If the cards come out well, she regards it as a good omen, and goes to the bridge club early. If the cards are perverse, she accepts the warning, and abstains from bridge that day.

Patience, by the way, is often made a medium for big gambling, especially that form of it known as "montana." In a certain ladies' club it is no uncommon sight to see two members gambling heavily at "montana." One plays the cards, and the other bets her a certain sum against the cards coming out. In this way $50 or $75 often changes hands in a single afternoon. As long as they are in England, society women do their gambling in private. But all this secrecy is thrown off as soon as the Channel is crossed. At Monte Carlo in the winter, and at Dieppe and Dinard in the summer, any casual visitor to the Casinos at these places can watch some of the most exclusive of society dames playing baccarat or chemin de fer with Tom, Dick and Harry. They are there for the purpose of gambling, and so long as they win, it is no concern of theirs from whom their winnings come, or to whom their losses go, for the matter so of that. Many of them gamble in the most reckless fashion; but with hardly an exception they are most unemotional players. There is no greater offence than to grumble when one loses or to chortle when one wins.

Why should I buy a roofing that needs to be painted every little while to keep it tight, when, for the same money or less, I can buy AMATITE which needs no painting?

The outer surface is composed of red mineral matter, which makes painting unnecessary. With an Amatite Roof on your building you end your roofing troubles. When you buy a roofing that requires frequent painting you begin them.

Smooth roofings that require painting are a nuisance and an expense. When you buy them, you buy trouble—not protection.
