Over Nine Thousand German and Austrian Prisoners Taken in Two Fights.

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE TORONTO WORLD. PETROGRAD, Nov. 7.—Eight thousand five hundred prisoners, in addition to officers, were taken by the Russians as a result of a surprise attack on the enemy near Semikovitz, on the Stripa River, which produced extremely desperate fighting and ended in accordance with the Russians' plans, the war office announced here last night. The operations were conducted by fierce frontal attacks and the crossing of the Stripa River. Many machine-guns were captured. The Russian troops encountered much difficulty in sending the great number of Austrian and German captives to the rear across the Stripa River and Lake Ischik, which the Russians had also crossed to attack the enemy. The Russians also took 712 Germans and 22 officers prisoner and captured seven machine-guns and two cannon in a fight near Kostionkova, west of Bafalovka, and drove the enemy, who (Continued on Page 3, Column 4).

ADVANCE POSTS LOST BY ENEMY

French Make Successful Coup Before Andrechy—Bombard Foie's Defences.

FIGHTS IN CHAMPAGNE

Bomb Throwing and Artillery Duels Feature of Day's Operations.

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE TORONTO WORLD. PARIS, Nov. 7.—German advance posts before Andrechy, between the Somme and Oise Rivers, were captured by French infantry today, the French War Office announced. Activity of the enemy in the sector of Beauvais was checked by a curtain of fire. North of the Aisne, French batteries concentrated their fire on the German defence works in the Vingre region, and on German cantonments in the Neuvion wood and at Commenancourt "with particular effect," the French War Office says. Fighting in Champagne is at close quarters, an engagement with grenades being reported, with the repulse of the Germans east of the knoll of Le Mesnil. A reciprocal bombardment with shells of large calibre also took place in the sector lying between Tahure and Hill 199. Later the violence of the artillery engagement was centred in the neighbourhood of Tahure. In Artois there was also an artillery duel of great intensity in the Givenchy wood area at Beaurivages. Mine Throwing in Vosges. Fighting was commenced by the Germans with mine throwers at La Chapelle, in the Vosges, Saturday night, and continued during the day. The French artillery effectively checked the mine throwing. Trench guns were also brought into play in this district and at Viou, north of Col du Bonhomme. Mine bombardments are reported from the wood of Le Pretre. Intense fighting with trench mortars is reported from Hetsas and Bousinghe, in Belgium. A German sap with workmen was blown up with a French mine at Hill 236, in the Argonne. Eight bombs were dropped in the region of Dunkirk by German aeroplanes, and a small boy was injured. Significant material damage was done. The Belgian War Office reported tonight that the German artillery had become almost inactive. Belgian sappers dispersed military pioneers north of Dinande and near Dref Grachten.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Amsterdam correspondent of The Exchange Telegram Company says that a German submarine which stranded near Ter-schelling has been interned with its crew, by the Dutch Government.

The submarine referred to is evidently the U-8, which was reported to have been towed into a Dutch port several days ago.

NEW LEADER IN GREECE LEANING TOWARD ALLIES

All Members of Old Cabinet Except Zaimis in New Ministry.

CRISIS IS POSTPONED

Skouloudis Reputed to Be Favorably Disposed Toward Quadruple Entente.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—M. Skouloudis, the Greek premier, has declared his intention of observing an attitude of very benevolent neutrality toward the entente powers.

ATHENS, Nov. 7.—M. Skouloudis, commissioned by King Constantine to form a new cabinet, has accomplished the task. All the members of the Zaimis ministry are retained except the premier himself. The new prime minister has taken the portfolio of foreign affairs. The formation of the new cabinet, it is generally assumed, will delay if not eliminate the crisis which probably would follow a dissolution of the chamber of deputies by the king.

It is believed in political circles that the chamber probably will be prorogued in ten days, as it then will have passed the legal term of three months. M. Venizelos and his followers are expected to approve this solution of the crisis, which will make it possible to avoid dissolution and elections, the result of which would be uncertain.

MOST IRISH IMMIGRANTS CAME FROM CONNAUGHT

Those Shipped From Liverpool Mainly Farmers' Sons, Dublin Believes.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—A Dublin despatch to The Times, referring to the stoppage by the Cunard Steamship Co. of intending emigrants of military age, says that the young men thus prevented from sailing were for the most part farmers' sons and that the chief exodus has been from the Province of Connaught, Ireland, which has now in the army the lowest percentage of all the Irish provinces.

"There is probably no truth," says the correspondent, "in the suggestion that any of these men received assistance from German sources in America."

BRITAIN CURBS TRADE UNDULY SAYS U. S. NOTE

Washington Declares It Cannot Submit to Continuance of Blockade.

CHAMPION OF NEUTRALS

Britain's Course is Described as "Ineffective, Illegal and Indefensible."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The United States, in its latest note to Great Britain, made public here today, covering exhaustively British interference with American trade since the beginning of the European war, declares that the so-called blockade instituted by the allies against enemy countries, on March 11, is "ineffective, illegal and indefensible." Notice is served that the American Government "cannot submit to the curtailment of its neutral rights" and that "no compromise of principle suffer further subordination of its rights and interests."

Ambassador Page, to whom the note was sent by special messenger for delivery to the London foreign office, was instructed by Secretary Lansing "to impress upon the British Government that the United States 'must insist that the relations between it and its majesty's government be governed by a policy of expediency, but by those established rules of international conduct to which Great Britain in the past has been the United States to account when the latter nation was a belligerent engaged in a struggle for national existence.'"

Declaring the United States "unhesitatingly assumes" the task of championing the integrity of neutral rights, the note proclaims that the (Continued on Page 7, Column 1).

Inconceivable Audacity Shown in Bleeding of Public Treasury.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—Archbishop Bruchési in a pastoral letter on "Justice," which will make it possible to avoid dissolution and elections, the result of which would be uncertain.

"What can I say about the impudence, the inconceivable audacity, the very cynicism with which the public treasury is being drained, that none would ever dream of attempting in regard to a private individual?" This he regards as a symptom of national decadence.

Letters found on Bushner's body, addressed to his wife, contained the confession that he not only murdered H. J. McColley, sheriff's bailiff at Ft. McMurray, but also a man named Rees.

LORD KITCHENER GIVEN GREAT FORCES TO PRESS BIG CAMPAIGN IN THE BALKANS

Kitchener Will Visit Egypt, Mesopotamia and the Dardanelles.

HE HAS NOT RESIGNED

London Globe, Which Said He Had, Seized by the Police.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Lord Kitchener, British secretary of war, before leaving for the near east, conferred with Premier Briand, minister of War Gallieni and Gen. Joffre.

This despatch contains the first hint of the route taken by which Lord Kitchener is proceeding to the Orient. It apparently bears out the report in London that his mission includes an effort to coordinate the work of the general staffs of the allied armies.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—"Lord Kitchener, at the request of his colleagues, has left England for a short visit to the eastern theatre of war."

This announcement, made Saturday night, after a cabinet council—an unusual meeting for Saturday—and a long audience which Premier Aquitti had with the King, set at rest the rumors current as to the war secretary's present intentions.

Later an additional official statement was issued as follows: "The statement that Earl Kitchener has resigned his post as secretary of state for war has already been authoritatively denied. It is equally untrue to suggest that Earl Kitchener has tendered his resignation, or that his visit to the King had any relation to any such subject, or that his visit to the eastern theatre of war in any way betokens that such resignation is contemplated."

On the contrary, this visit is undertaken by him, in discharge of his duty as secretary of state for war, which duty he has no intention of abandoning."

Almost simultaneously with the announcement of Lord Kitchener's proposed visit to the east, the authorities seized the printing plant of The London Globe, together with the issues of yesterday and today. This is the first action of the kind taken by the authorities since the outbreak of the war, against a daily paper in the United Kingdom.

The London Globe, together with the issues of yesterday and today, and the papers, both in England and in Ireland, including The Labor Leader.

Big Demonstration in London Yesterday Proved a Splendid Success.

SUPPORT LORD DERBY

Resolutions Reaffirm Belief That Voluntary System Will Be Saved.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A remarkable demonstration in furtherance of Lord Derby's recruiting campaign was held in Trafalgar square today by the trades unions of London. As a result a large number of young men enlisted. With the exception of the Clapham branch of the Independent Labor party, which declined to participate, all the unions of London sent representatives, and an immense crowd gathered in the square.

Resolutions adopted at the meeting reaffirmed the conviction that the volunteer system of enlistment would meet the needs of the country, and prevent the establishment in this country of the conscriptionist military and naval systems."

TWO HUNDRED IRISHMEN SAILED FROM GLASGOW

GLASGOW, Nov. 7.—About 200 Irishmen, eligible for military service, sailed Saturday by the Anchor line steamer C. S. Florida for New York. The most strenuous efforts of seven recruiting sergeants, who were authorized to promise a refund of their fares to those who enlisted, resulted in the enlistment of only two men.

The public was not allowed on the quay and there was no demonstration.

THOUSAND BULGARIANS CAUGHT AND KILLED IN MOUNTAIN PASS

Serbs Hold Firm and All Attacks by the Enemy Have Been Repulsed.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A division of 25,000 Bulgarians is attempting to envelop the French force in the Vlandovi region, according to information from Bulgarian soldiers obtained by a Greek outpost in the Belasica mountains, at the junction of the Greek, Serbian and Bulgarian frontiers, says a Reuter's despatch from Saloniki. Heavy artillery and rifle fire has been heard at the outpost station.

A Serbian official is quoted as declaring the Serbs are holding firm at Babuna Pass, where all Bulgarian onslaughts have been repulsed. The pass is said to be piled deep with Bulgarian dead. At one point more than 1000 Bulgarians were caught between a crossfire and annihilated.

An important British contingent was landed Saturday at Saloniki, where additional landing facilities have been granted the allies after negotiations with the Greek authorities.

HIGH PRICES OF FOOD EVOKE GERMAN SOCIALIST PROTESTS

Rise in Foodstuffs Declared Unbearable in Pronouncement in Vorwaerts, and Laboring Classes Look on Approaching Winter With Anxious Fears.

BERLIN, Nov. 7, via London.—The Vorwaerts, organ of the German Social Democratic party, purchases a large column pronouncement from the executive committee of the Social Democratic party, declaring that the government measure thus far for the regulation of the food supplies and prices are only half measures. It demands the adjusting of prices of foodstuffs so as to eliminate war profits, both wholesale and retail.

The pronouncement begins as follows: "The rise in the prices of foodstuffs has become unbearable. The prices of all important provisions and other articles of daily necessity, such as fuel, clothing and footwear, have reached an exorbitant height. With anxious looks the people of the laboring class and up to the circles of the middle class look forward to approaching winter. Already bitter want rules in many families. Must there be so much selfish lust for gain and capitalistic greed of profits rage unrestrainedly in the column pronouncement from the executive committee of the Social Democratic party, declaring that the government measure thus far for the regulation of the food supplies and prices are only half measures. It demands the adjusting of prices of foodstuffs so as to eliminate war profits, both wholesale and retail.

The committee demands in addition to the fixing of prices for other foodstuffs also a distribution of foodstuffs on hand in equal ration among all the empire's inhabitants, as is done with bread, in order to avoid preferential treatment of the rich who are able to pay."

"The army operating in the Sanjak has taken four field guns, three machine guns, 600 rifles, 700 tools and a quantity of munitions, and in addition has captured six officers, three surgeons and 300 soldiers.

"On the rest of the front the artillery struggle is developing."

HEAVY AND CONTINUOUS RAINS CHECK ACTIVITY OF CANADIANS

Creeks and Streams Swollen Into Small Rivers in Flanders—Canadian Artillery Answers Germans Effectively—Bravery of Three Officers Wins Reward.

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—Major-General Sir Sam Hughes tonight received the following despatch from the Canadian general representative in France: CANADIAN GENERAL HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Nov. 7.—The period from Oct. 30 to Nov. 15 has been marked by the fall of heavy rains. Creeks and streams have swollen into small rivers and low lying grass has been converted into swamp. The wet weather and conditions generally have resulted in a week almost devoid of incident.

shelled certain sections of our area more or less vigorously, but in most instances prompt retaliation by our artillery has silenced the hostile fire.

On Oct. 29 a shell from our artillery exploded a bomb depot in the German front trench.

All reports indicate that the enemy working parties have been particularly busy repairing damage to their trenches caused by the heavy rains and are battling out the water.

On several occasions, hostile parties have been disturbed by our fire. A few enemy patrols have ventured out.

HOPE TO SAVE SERBIA

French Follow Up Successes—Capture of Nish by Enemy Confirmed.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Hope that the situation in Serbia can be saved has been strongly revived by the departure for the east of Lord Kitchener after conferences in Paris with Premier Briand, Gen. Gallieni, the war minister, and Gen. Joffre. It is believed the campaign is to be carried on energetically by the man who knows the east better than almost anyone else.

Advices from Saloniki and other points today show that much larger forces than were thought to be near the scene are being landed at Saloniki and are proceeding to points where it is believed they can do the most good.

Troop trains are continually leaving Saloniki, but so much secrecy is being maintained that it is impossible to compute the number of men.

Czecha and Allies. A despatch from Athens says that by agreement with local authorities, the entente allies will construct a jetty and make a new road at Saloniki to facilitate communication between the wharves and the railroad terminus. The authorities also have given the entente allies permission to use part of the wharves to land troops when the wharves are not used for Greek transports.

One report says that an Anglo-Italian army has landed at Valona (Avlona) on the Adriatic, with the purpose of crossing Albania. The Russians are still concentrating in Bessarabia, and are preparing to make a descent on Bulgaria from the east.

Progress by French. An official statement issued at Paris concerning the army of the east says: "The day was calm on Nov. 5. There is nothing to report regarding our advance from Krivopal. On the front of the Crena River we continued our progress on the Rabbro side."

There was no infantry action during the day of Nov. 5 toward (Continued on Page 2, Column 6).

TOMORROW is Khaki Day, but--especially significant--tomorrow is also the anniversary of the birth of the late beloved King Edward.

To-morrow Toronto gives of its means to help recruiting along, and so, by hastening the dawn of a lasting peace, pays tribute to the memory of Edward the Peacemaker.

The need is very great. Government money available for this purpose is insufficient with the extraordinary efforts necessary to secure the number of recruits which will satisfy Toronto in her determination to keep the leadership.

The work must languish--Toronto must relinquish her proud place as the leading recruiting centre--if money is not forthcoming at once for daily necessary expenses.

To-morrow--KHAKI DAY--Toronto will say in no uncertain terms how much she values her splendid leadership. To-morrow she will send the news of her tribute to the late King Edward ringing across the country.

To-morrow she will crown the magnificent efforts of the city regiments and the recruiting depot--will give her "God-speed" to them, and put behind them the power of a great city resolved that the coming of peace shall not be delayed one hour for lack of men.

You will be tagged To-morrow--Tuesday--

KHAKI DAY

The women of the city, organized--enthusiastic, the women of Toronto, whose consecrated devotion during the war has been monumental--give us the privilege of showing the troops that not only will we line the streets and cheer them, but that we stand ready to help them add hundreds and thousands to the marching legions.

Help give a man to the King and KEEP TORONTO AHEAD

All expenditures carefully supervised by the executive officers. CITIZENS' RECRUITING LEAGUE Chairman, His Worship the Mayor; Vice-Chairman, Dr. Norman Allen.

FRESH SUCCESSES FOR ITALIAN ARMY

Offensive in San Michel Zone on Carso Realizes Progress.

WIN IN FILLA VALLEY

Big Force of Austrians Lured Into Trenches and Dispersed.

ROME, Nov. 7. (Via Paris, Nov. 8, 12:30 a.m.)--The official communication of the Italian general headquarters, dated Nov. 7, says:

"Throughout the whole of the theatre of operations, the actions of our artillery continue, and our infantry attacks have gained fresh successes for us."

"In the Filla Valley, one of our detachments while reconnoitering succeeded in drawing under our entrenchments at Sella Neva numerous forces of the enemy, who were subjected to a withering artillery fire and dispersed."

"On the Carso yesterday, after repulsing an enemy attack in the San Michel zone, our infantry took the offensive and dispersed the Austrians, making 212 prisoners."

The building is said to have been practically completed since April, while the present office is deemed to be wholly inadequate for the big increase in the business of Newmarket. No explanation of the delay in opening has so far been given.

Will Tender Welcome TO RETURNED SOLDIERS

North Torontonians Make Preparations for Big Celebration This Evening.

The reception to be tendered the three returned North Toronto soldiers from the front in the Eglington town hall tonight promises to be a notable event.

A procession headed by the 9th Mississauga Horse Band, the North York Rangers' Band, together with the North Toronto Citizens' Band, will start from the southern limits of the old town and march to the town hall, where the soldiers will be officially welcomed home.

Short addresses by all the local clergymen and aldermen will be given. North-end citizens are invited to attend.

ENTERTAINS VEGETABLE GROWERS

The Toronto branch of the Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association held their regular monthly meeting on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, on Leaside Avenue, Brantford, where they were royally entertained by the host and hostess.

The greenhouses and grounds were a source of delight to the visitors and during the afternoon there was an interesting discussion on matters pertaining to the association.

attacked the Russian lines west of Budki, back to his trenches.

Several German attacks were repulsed near Uchine Village, and German counter-attacks have been repulsed as far south as Lake Swenton, southwest of Dvinsk.

Take Second Line Trenches.

The second line of German trenches on the western shore of Lake Swenton was captured by the Russians with 300 prisoners, two machine guns and a searchlight. Four German counter attacks were defeated.

The Russians made a successful attack on the Germans near the Village of Oni, southwest of Riga, and obliged them to evacuate the point temporarily. The Russians also forced a crossing of the Dvina near the Village of Lezour, near Iksku, and occupied the cemetery, and south of Pivers in the same district, they dispersed Germans crossing the river.

A German attack on the Russians near Medvegie on the left bank of the Styra was repulsed.

The weather, which has turned wintry, has not interfered with the Russian offensive along the eastern front.

The Russians have extended their attack within the last four days against the district west of Riga, and thence to the south of Dvinsk. They are keeping the Germans on the move, and the latter admit that in the region of Lake Swenton the Russians penetrated their lines.

The Austrian official statement claims that 6000 Russians were taken prisoner on the Stripa.

Big Battle Proceeding Northwest of Dubno on Stripa River.

VIENNA, via London, Nov. 7.--The official statement from general headquarters issued today says:

At Mercy of Venizelos

LONDON, Nov. 7.--The new Greek Cabinet will be presented to the chamber and parliament will be dissolved if it fails to sustain the government, says a Reuter despatch from Athens.

The new cabinet is at the mercy of the Venizelos majority in the chamber, but the impression here is that no attempt will be made to turn it out, thus avoiding dissolution of parliament and consequent elections, the result of which could not be predicted while the army remains mobilized.

LONDON, Nov. 7. owing to the pressure which would be exerted by the government and the pro-German propaganda.

The cabinet is composed of the following ministers, who took the oath of office today:

Cabinet's Personnel.

Premier and minister of foreign affairs--M. Skouloudis.

Minister of public instruction--M. Michellidiki.

Minister of justice and communication--D. C. Rhalis.

Minister of interior--M. Gounaris.

Minister of national economy--M. Theotokis.

Minister of marine--Admiral Kountouriotis.

Minister of finance--Stephen Dragoumis.

Favorable to Allies?

Besides the premier, M. Michellidiki is the only new member of the cabinet. The office he takes formerly was held by M. Theotokis, who becomes minister of national economy, a new post.

Theress urges the advisability of going on without a dissolution of parliament and new general election.

M. Skouloudis is not a deputy but is regarded as an able diplomat, known chiefly for the part he played in the London peace conference in 1913, after the Balkan war. He was minister of foreign affairs in the Rhalis cabinet in 1897. He is reputed to be favorably disposed toward the quadruple entente.

Gen. Yanakitsas, who remains in the Green Cabinet as minister of war is credited with having been responsible for the crisis which resulted in the overthrow of M. Zaimis. M. Venizelos, who controls a majority of parliament, took exception to a statement by the war minister, and when an apology was not forthcoming brought about the vote which showed a lack of confidence in the government.

were similarly treated some time ago, but The Labor Leader, after a secret trial of the case, was allowed to resume publication.

Attacks Were Bitter.

The Globe, while one of the oldest papers published in the country, and for long considered a steady and conservative organ, has latterly lost that character, and has been chiefly noted for its violent attacks on public men during the administration of the Liberal government. It has been one of the government's bitterest opponents and has, since the war, attacked the administration of the King-Thurston government. On Friday it bitterly attacked Sir Frederick E. Smith, the new attorney-general, whom it had heretofore supported and who the evening before had defended Premier Asquith against what he described as "discreditable personal attacks."

The Globe also published a report of the resignation of Lord Kitchener, this being based chiefly on the fact that the war secretary had been re-elected by the King Thursday night, and a brief announcement in a morning paper that a change of the utmost importance was about to take place in the conduct of the war.

The Globe is edited by Charles Palmer, for many years its parliamentary reporter.

Move No Surprise.

The announcement that Lord Kitchener is to visit the east front did not come as a surprise. It was generally believed when it became known that he was about to undertake a mission that the Balkans would be his destination, for there is no man in the British Empire better equipped with a knowledge of near eastern affairs, military and political, than he.

It is thought that his activities will not be confined to this theatre of war, however, but that he will visit Egypt to inspect the defences of the Suez Canal against a possible German or Turkish attack; Mesopotamia, where the British expedition is doing bigger things than was expected of it, and is now nearing Bagdad, and the Dardanelles, where steps are being taken to push the operations to a conclusion.

Besides this, it is understood that his duties will include efforts to co-ordinate the work of the general staffs of the allied armies.

It is considered impossible for Premier Asquith to hold both offices of prime minister and minister of war for any length of time. The Earl of Derby, director of recruiting, has been mentioned as a possible incumbent during Earl Kitchener's absence.

A Good Job.

The police officials who seized The Globe newspaper, made a very thorough job of it. They cut off the electric power by which the machines are driven, removed all the stereotype plates, withdrew the vital parts of the linotype machines and presses, and seized all copies of Friday's and Saturday's papers, all standing galleys, and even the manuscript which had been prepared for the printers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.--Twelve bodies, eight women and four men, all of whom have been identified with one exception, and the list of missing narrowed down to one man, summed up today the casualties as the result of the fire in the diamond factory building in Williamsburg section of Brooklyn yesterday.

Reports from the hospitals where 41 injured were taken after the fire showed that less than 30 were detained for further treatment, others having been sent to their homes. Several of those are said to be in serious condition and it is possible, hospital authorities said, that more deaths may result.

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

CENTRAL SUFFRAGE BODY NECESSARY

Confusion Results From Many Independent Societies, Says Mrs. McClung.

PLAN TO HELP SERBIA

Women's War Auxiliary Formed To Be Nucleus of Dominion Body.

Representatives of the various suffrage societies of the city met at Ormscliff, the home of Mrs. A. E. Ormsby, on Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Nellie McClung gave a heart to heart address on suffrage, in the course of which she gave some suggestions which were later accepted by the meeting.

Speaking as an outsider, Mrs. McClung said that in her opinion the number of suffrage organizations in Toronto was confusing. People from the west, for instance, in communicating with the east never knew whom they were linked up with owing to the many names representing different organizations.

Blot Out the Old. She suggested a blotting out of all old affiliations and a new start with a central national body with provincial and local offshoots on something the same lines as those followed by the W.C.T.U. The present she considered the psychological moment for an impetus in the suffrage cause. While the hands are working in patriotic service, give the brain something to think about, she advised.

All Are Wanted. "Get the best women," she advised, "from every class of society, because all are wanted. The vote is the tool by which women may level the path to make it easy for the little feet," was her definition of the thing for which suffrage strives.

A Dominion Organization. If a central suffrage body were organized Mrs. McClung felt personally, she could not speak officially, that Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, which already had the vote, would link up with the main body.

Women's War Auxiliary. Much discussion followed Mrs. McClung's address, all favorable to her suggestion. It was finally decided to evolve the meeting into a committee to be known as the women's war auxiliary, which would work for patriotic purposes. Serbia being mentioned as an immediate object for service. A collection was taken up which will form a nucleus to supply material upon which to begin work. It was agreed to hold a meeting next Monday, time and place to be announced thru the press. Tea was afterwards served and the conservatory thrown open to the guests.

Among the seventy or so present were: Mrs. L. A. Hamilton, Mrs. Hector Fremont, Dr. Margaret Gordon, Dr. Stowe-Gullen, Mrs. Lang, Miss Constance Boulton, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. McIvor, Miss Jessie Melville, Mrs. Ellis and Dr. Davis.

UNVEILED MEMORIAL TO LATE LADY OTTER

Window Erected in Old Garrison Church, Portland St., by Maj.-Gen. Sir Wm. Otter.

A window erected by Major-General Sir William Otter in memory of his wife, the late Lady Otter, was unveiled by Col. Sweny at St. John's Church, Portland street, the old garrison church, yesterday morning. Rev. J. Russell Maclean preached, taking his text from James II, 22, "thy work faith was made perfect." The trend of the sermon was that the greatest achievement in life was that of a noble character. The mightiest was the quiet life lived humbly before God.

Col. Peuchen and many more of Sir William's friends attended the service, and in addition a detachment of the Royal Canadian Dragoons as well as members of the guard at Stanley Barracks took advantage of the opportunity to show their respect to Major-General Otter, who was at one time commander-in-chief of the R.C.D. and Lieutenant-Grubb of the guards.

Song and jest, hilarity and frivolity, dancing and prancing, but above all the exploitation of the eccentricities of the two leading comedians make the coming of Charles Waldron's "Bostonian Burlesquers" to the Gayety Theatre this week, one of the real events of the season at that house. Frank Finney, author-star of "The Isle of Nowhere," the two-act musical farce offering, and J. P. ## "Marrying Money" at Strand

A very exquisite piece of satirical humor is the comedy, "Marrying Money," which, with Clara Kimball Young in the leading role, will form the headline at the Strand Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The plot turns on the machinations of a match-making mamma, and on the way in which they were thwarted by her beautiful daughter, who chose to marry for love. Yet in apparently thwarting her mother's plans, the daughter was, all unconsciously, falling in with them, for her penniless lover comes into a fortune and everybody is satisfied. ## Clara Morris Says—

THAT NO WOMAN SINCE EVE TAKES A MAN'S DELIGHT IN DINNERS.

I WAS tired of their arguments and isms, and therefore, maybe, spoke flippantly.

The equality of man is confined wholly to the masculine attitude toward dinner. There men see with the same eye, stand on the same level, shoulder to shoulder, and archbishop, artist or artisan finds in his dinner the crown of the day.

The black from the bush approached the dwelling on a sheep station and asked for "the Big Mary"—meaning the mistress. As she put out damper, coffee and a bit of meat for his own cooking she asked if he had been drinking rum. He replied—the suggestion with scorn.

"Had he, Jum-Jum, prayed?" she asked.

Jum-Jum had prayed, she was earnestly assured. But, wishing to know whether he had prayed to the unseen God of Spirit or to some god of stone or twisted tree limb, she asked:

"Jum-Jum, where is your god?"

Enthusiastically rubbing his oily black skin over the place mentioned, he blantly answered:

"Jum-Jum god in 'um belly, Big Mary."

"Strange," said the English "Big Mary." "Here a black aborigine and there my husband—an Oxford man—yet each enshrines his god in the same place."

There's equality. Ever since Eve gave that unlucky apple dinner, with its bitter aftermath of endless complaints and reproaches, she has had scant love for dinner. Who has ever known a female gourmet?

Indeed, a woman who dines with interested appreciation of foods, sauces and wines is sure to be not only a cosmopolitan, but something of a good fellow. For your true domestic type a big, formal dinner for blouse guest is but an occasion for "bores to be bores."

"Mr. X. will not be home, so don't bother about dinner, just send me up some tea and toast or coffee and a sandwich," is a message familiar to every cook. As a social function, as an expression of hospitality, the dinner is all powerful, and our old friend, Sam Johnson, says: "A good dinner lubricates business."

We welcome the coming and speed the parting guest with a dinner; start a presidential boom, open and close big undertakings, each with the great seal known as a banquet.

The absolute proof of man's love for his dinner is found in his ability to sit alone at his table facing an empty chair, and with appreciation wait down the bill of fare from "on the shell" to demi-tasse and blue smokes, suffering only a slight sense of dulness.

Thrifty man loves his dinner with all his heart and all his strength. May good digestion wait on appetite, old chap!

Repeat this exercise by standing first on one foot and then on the other until you are too tired to exercise more. You will soon notice that your knees are growing more and more limber and your waist measurement flatteringly less.

A third movement is excellent, not only to reduce the waist, but to improve the contour of the entire body. Lie flat on your back, straighten the right knee and raise the foot as high toward the head as the muscles may be made to stretch. Alternate with the other foot until the muscles become tired.

At first the muscles will not possess much elasticity, and you will not be able to raise the foot very high, but before many days you will notice that each day you can raise it higher.

I know a very dear old lady—nearly 80 years of age—who has the figure of a young girl, and who attributes it to the fact that she has exercised for 20 years, doing this movement every night and morning.

History says that the waist of Catherine de Medici measured but 12 inches in diameter due to the fact, I believe, that she wore stays made of steel. We do not aspire to have such a wasp-like waist, but to be in fashion nowadays the waist must be no longer on an even line with the hips.

Exercise the Best Way to Reduce the Waist Line

By LUCREZIA BORI,
Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York.

If you are a student of fashion—and what woman is not—you will not do well to neglect the advice of the experts. The waist line is the key to the whole figure. It is the pivot point of the body. If it is not in its proper position, the whole figure is thrown out of balance. The waist line is the key to the whole figure. It is the pivot point of the body. If it is not in its proper position, the whole figure is thrown out of balance.

The "Chair Gym." The waist line may be reduced several inches by exercising with a chair. Wear loose, comfortable clothing, and sit on the chair facing the back. Grasp the back of the chair firmly with both hands and then, without moving, twist the body to the right, just as far as you can, and repeat the movement to the left.

You will find that this exercise will pull all the muscles and cords about the waist and abdomen which are seldom exercised on account of being encased

Advice to Girls

Only remember, when she promises to marry you she becomes yours, and you must protect her against herself, and yourself, too, if you have to.

RE-ENFORCED. WELL, young man, if the girl has an atom of sense she won't think you love her, she'll know before she lets you kiss her, either with or without asking. Do you intend to marry this girl? Would you want to marry a girl who allowed a man to kiss her every time he felt like it? If she is so obliging to you wouldn't you sometimes wonder just how obliging she is to others? Tell the girl you love her, and want to make her happy, and then leave the rest of it to the girl.

Terrible Suffering. WHAT do you want of a man weak enough to let his father or any body else get him away from you? What if his people don't like you? You don't like his people, either, do you? If he looks to me as if something had happened to your husband. Why don't you find out where he is and what he is doing? Go and see him and talk the matter over. Make him tell you the truth. If you can't go to him write, or get the officers of the law to look him up. You are his wife and he can be arrested for deserting you. Find out just what is the matter with him, and if he left you in order to please his father or anybody else on earth, do everything you can to keep away from him to please yourself.

A man who leaves his wife voluntarily once will leave her again, and the sooner she gets rid of him for good and all the better for both.

Domesticity and Refinement. AUNT MINERVA gave a final dab at her eyes with a very substantial handkerchief, somewhat masculine in size. "There is a tremendous satisfaction," she observed defiantly, "in making a fool of one's self, and I for one am not in the least sorry that I belong to the sex that doesn't have to put on the brakes when emotion begins to suggest the advisability of tears."

The Tension Relieved. "I hate women who persist in crying over nothing. I particularly despise the woman who weeps over shattered china and a hammered finger, but I don't in the least mind the woman who goes on an emotional spree now and then and simply dissolves into a lachrymose shower of relief. It's delightful," said Aunt Minerva, dabbing again at her eyes, "simply delightful, and I feel so

The Good-Night Story

AN INDIAN ROMANCE By Vernon Merry

ONCE upon a time there was an Indian girl, the daughter of a powerful chief, so beautiful and so light-hearted that she was beloved by the whole tribe, who called her Dancing Sunshine. Her father wanted her to marry the big, ugly son of a neighboring chief who had promised to give seven horses for her hand. But Dancing Sunshine had other ideas.

She loved a young hunter who had been found lost in a great snow storm while he was yet a mere boy, years before. Her father was very angry when he found this out, and drove the young hunter away, and when his daughter refused even to look at the man of her father's choice, the old chief shut her up in a cave some distance from her home.

There was water in the cave, and he placed food enough for her for several months. Another Indian girl was sent with her, and then the front of the cave was walled up and the girls were left alone.

If he thought that Dancing Sunshine could be changed in any such way as that he was mistaken, for the two girls with their flint knives began digging a way out. It was hard, rocky soil, and they did not know which way to go but they kept at it day in and day out until the days had gone to weeks and the weeks into months. Then one morning their little tunnel pushed through into daylight, and the almost exhausted girls found themselves in the bright sunlight once more.

They stole back toward their old home, but what was their surprise to find that it was gone. A few bones, picked clean by the wolves, some broken weapons were all that marked the spot where they had lived. She knew what it meant. Some other tribe had stolen upon the village and destroyed them. She was very sad and disconsolate as she looked among the ashes.

Then she overheard an exclamation, and, looking up, saw her lover, though he was almost too startled to speak. He had thought her dead.

The old chief had had his young men whip the stranger out of the village, and warned him that he would be tortured and then killed if he ever came back. But he did come back with a force of warriors from his own tribe which lived over the mountain, and they came just in time to save the life of the old chief whose tribe had been beaten and scattered by a roving band.

For the lovers the separation ended as happily as if it had been a made-up story, which it is not, but actually occurred many years ago, not a hundred miles from here.

RIVER ODDITIES

The branches of the Mississippi have an aggregate length of 15,000 miles. The Connecticut, the principal stream of New England, is 480 miles in length.

The Irish, in Siberia, is 200 miles in length, and drains 600,000 miles of territory.

During a single flood of the Yang-tze-Kiang, in China, 600,000 persons were drowned.

The Arkansas river is 2170 miles long, but at various points in its course is very thin for its length.

The Potomac river is only 500 miles long, and in its lower course is rather an estuary than a stream.

The Mississippi, at the point where it flows out of Lake Itaska, is 10 feet wide and 15 inches deep.

The Columbia river of Canada is 1400 miles in length; the stream of the same name in Oregon is 600.

The river Dees in Scotland has had more poems written in its honor than any other stream on the British isle.

Australia has no rivers of any consequence. The interior of this vast continent is almost destitute of water.

The Appalachicola river, in Florida, is only 100 miles long, but it has a name out of all proportion to its length.

Some of the streams of Idaho are believed to have the power of petrifying organic matter placed in their water.

All the rivers which flow into the Arctic ocean are frozen solid to the bottom during about six months in every year.

In a river which changes its channel every point gains ground and every bend tends to become still more crooked.

Diary of a Well-Dressed Girl

By SYLVIA GERARD

SOLVING THE PROBLEM OF AN EASTER DRESS. NATURE relented today and gave us a hint of real spring. The bright sunshine and warm breezes whispered of shooting buds and flowers soon to come. I wanted to get out into the garden to dig and plant seeds.

Winter finery seemed stifling and I felt like packing away everything that seemed woolly.

Mother and I went shopping and I bought the material for my Easter frock.

Mrs. Mathon has promised me all of next week and, with my help, she ought to make two or three frocks in that time.

I was undecided whether to get a felle, cachemire de sole, shantung or silk poplin. The latter seemed the wisest choice, so I selected a lovely shade of dull china blue.

All of the ribbed weaves will be much worn this season and since the flaring skirt of the Restoration has been revived, materials with more "body" and non-sagging qualities are in demand.

After we bought the material I went up stairs, where the French modals were displayed, and made a sketch of how I wanted the frock made.

The original model is fashioned of a kimono type, while the sub-sleeves are full bishop sleeves of chiffon, shirred about the wrists to form wide cuffs and frills which fall over the hands.

Attached to the bodice are two triangular pieces of the material which fall over the skirt to simulate a pointed bodice.

The full skirt is shirred several times above the waist to form a girde.

I think I'll have the tailor make a short jacket—one of the stunning little Etow models that one sees in the shops.

The prettiest jackets have wide, pointed revers, like they were in the directoire period, and long snugly fitted sleeves with turned-back cuffs.

The collars of these coats stand up high at the back of the neck and then turn over with long pointed corners. Large collar-shaped buttons, covered with the material, are used to fasten them and, sometimes, the cuffs are also trimmed with the buttons.

Smart Frock of China Blue Silk Poplin. With this frock I'll wear my blue flower-trimmed hat and gray gaitered shoes.

It is considered very smart to wear white gloves heavily embroidered in the color of the frock, with which they are worn. A pair stitched and embroidered with China blue would look well with my Easter frock. I guess I'll have to invest in a pair.

How You Can Rid Yourself of the Lip-Biting Habit

By DR. L. K. HIRSBERG
A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins)

CHARACTER may be read in the lips. No shallow or absent chin means more than a sharp, thin pair of lips. Physicians, too, are prone to be guided in their diagnosis according as the lips are white, waxy, dry, moist, cracked, pale, pink, carise, red, scarlet or vermilion.

In fiction stories, the bold, tall hero, who dashes back the waving hair from his forehead, bites his lips to control his manly impulses. The sweet, chagrined heroine usually bites her lips in vexation. In real life, both bite their lips consequent to the bad habit.

Causes of Habit. Anything which causes the natural moisture of the lips to evaporate, which dries the lips, and causes them to shrink, will almost surely give rise to splits and an effort to scratch or bite the lips with the teeth. Fever blisters, pimples and other eruptions also incite the impulse, especially in the upper teeth—of chewing down upon the soft and delicate texture of the lower lip. Irritating condiments, such as pepper, mustard, salt, catsup, tobacco sauce, and the like also originate the effort to moisten or allay the labial sensitiveness with the fingers.

Pleasant preventive of biting the lips is to keep the cherry pathways salved and greased with some delightful and conservative cosmetic, which ornamental, curative and antiseptic all in one.

Habit-Breaking Remedy.

Such a combination should be self-assertive, so that the victim of lip-biting kept continuously conscious of the fact that there is something on the lips which must not be disturbed by the teeth. An effective ointment to serve all these ends is made in this fashion:

Almond oil..... 1 dram
Spermaceti..... 1 dram
Reddened wax..... 1 dram
Glycerine..... 1 dram
Balsam of Peru..... 1/2 dram
Cochineal to make scarlet
Red wool fat..... 3 drams

This, by no means pleasant coating to the lips, will save them from many a disease-bearing germ, as well as to retain their own beautiful texture.

Answers to Health Questions

Q.—Last winter big, scaly spots began to appear on my body and formed very heavily at the knees and elbows, and on the edge of my hair. I had a Wasserman blood test made and doctors called it psoriasis. Have been taking medicine, but it doesn't improve. What can I do? What is the cause, and is it contagious? Is it curable?

A.—The cause is not known. It is not contagious. At present psoriasis is treated with success, all treatment being handled by specialists.

FARM NEWS FOR FARMERS

James Clemons, a well-known farmer, residing near Chrysler, was instantly killed by a New York and Ottawa train Wednesday. He was returning home with a load of lumber when the train hit him. The horses were also killed.

Mayor J. Lloyd Jones, Burford, purchased 24 ewes from the noted flock of Southdowns from the estate of the late Capt. Guy Drummond, Beaconsfield, Que. Three of the ewes are from the Sandringham flock bred by the King, the largest purchaser at the sale.

Hector Wilson of Vespra Township was killed last week when his team ran away from being frightened, the wagon passing over his body. He lived a couple of days, but never regained consciousness.

About sixty car loads of cattle were shipped from Alisa Craig during the past two weeks, with an average of 20 head to the car. The number would be about 1200.

Two children belonging to J. Zoschke, a farmer near Belleville, and 6 years, were burned to death in their home last week. The parents were working in the field and sent the children in to put on their coats. The little girl noticed the fire was very bright and opening the stove door poured some coal oil on the fire. The flames enveloped both children, resulting in their death before aid could be given.

According to J. Lockie Wilson, superintendent of the agricultural societies for Ontario, the four hundred fall fairs which have passed this fall closed one of the best years in their history.

John H. McCleary, a farmer residing in the township near Belleville, died last week while driving home from town by falling out of his buggy over the dashboard. His body was found at midnight, three miles from his home. He was 52 years of age.

At a sale of P. A. Dick Mayfield, last week stock brought high prices. Five grade cows sold for $580.

Samuel Syme of Derby had 1500 bags of potatoes this season, the product of 15 acres, and the four hundred in district where the bulk of his neighbors crop were lost by rot. He attributes his success to frequent spraying during the season.

Two yearling Holstein heifers were sent from Prince Edward County for sale in British Columbia, one by Edward Purtille and one by William H. Gough, both of Bloomsbury. They received their returns last week. The former got $360 and the latter $200. The highest price paid at the sale was $400.

In the straw mow of the barn of Solomon Rice, farmer about a mile from Elmira, caused the destruction of the building with its season's crop, four-year-old pigs and a heifer. The loss will be about $9000.

The number of sales being held this fall is remarkable and it is interesting to note the exceptionally good prices that cattle are bringing. At Cookson Bros. sale, in the Township of Malahide, 10 cows and heifers averaged $34.69. At Thomas Harvey's sale at Jamesstown, Huron County, a herd of 18 grade Holstein cows and two-year-old heifers brought an average of $84.

A farm report just issued shows that one-fourth of the telephones operated by a leading company are located in farm houses.

The placing of an order with the war office for over six million pounds of canned beef, to be delivered before the end of the present year, should strengthen and steady the market for Canadian cattle.

Owing to the rot in potatoes this season many farmers will have to buy for their own use. Ontario seems to be working in the field and sent the children in to put on their coats. The little girl noticed the fire was very bright and opening the stove door poured some coal oil on the fire. The flames enveloped both children, resulting in their death before aid could be given.

The war will make many changes, and one of these will be the transfer of certain industries from Ontario to another. Germany manufactured extensively beetroot sugar, and it is probable that this industry will take the attention of Ontario farmers who have found it a very profitable crop to produce in the past and conditions should be better for the future.

The annual report of the Ontario Station board, the minister of agriculture, notes an improvement in the class of animals, by reason of the fact that the Ontario Agricultural Board was 36 per cent in 1914, 34.1 per cent, and 1915 32 per cent. For the past year, 516 pure bred and 1913 grades. The first class of grades will be eliminated after August, 1916, and the Ontario Agricultural Board is quite satisfied with the results.

Alex. Auld, of Guelph, was one of the buyers at the sale of Saorchorn bull calves at the annual draft sale of Wm. Duthie & Co. at Colony, Scotland. Prices as high as $6250 were paid for individual animals. Mr. Auld purchased one for $1500.

Charles Schilliv, a Brant Township farmer, accidentally shot himself on his brother's farm, near Brantford, while handling the gun it accidentally discharged, the entire charge entering his head, killing him instantly. He was 30 years of age.

A very serious outbreak of hog cholera on the farm of Roderick McDonald, Colchester South, last week, is the cause of much uneasiness in the township. Of the herd of 75, 50 had to be slaughtered. It was thought that the disease, which has appeared at intervals along the line, had been stamped out, and this outbreak is baffling the government veterinarians.

AMERICANS BOOST A NEW BATTALION Club Planning to Raise Funds to Equip Ninety-Seventh. RECRUITING GOES ON Hundred Already in Hamilton and Double That in Calgary.

Planning to raise funds to equip the 97th Battalion, which is known as the American Battalion, the American Club held a smoker Saturday night. Among the activities which this club has planned for the benefit of the soldiers will be a monster oyster supper for each week of November during the American Thanksgiving Day. President Asa R. Minard announced that the directors of the club were willing to stand the expense out of their own pockets. Each battalion will be served in its own building at the camp one evening during the week.

Progress regarding the recruiting for the 97th Battalion was announced by Major A. B. Clark, formerly of the 23rd New York National Guard, who is second in command in the absence of Colonel R. H. Labar, who is the commanding officer. He reported that there were already 100 men in Hamilton, and that 200 more are waiting for the command to come active recruiting will be commenced soon, he stated, among American-born citizens of Ontario. The American Club has furnished seven officers, and the younger members are contemplating enlisting in the ranks. The 97th Battalion will be located in the live stock building at the Exhibition after November 15th.

Among the other speakers were Frank H. Littlefield, Joseph E. Day, and Morgan Griffiths.

The Leasing Company of Working Miners who have been making regular production from the Gold Reef with a prospectors' equipment and a small five-stamp mill, have incorporated themselves as a company, and are moving to another place. They are now known as the Porcupine Excelsior Mining Company. They have taken the names of Tommy Burns' claims in Shaw, in the southeast corner of the area, some high-grade streaks of ore, narrow but rich, and the company will proceed to take out the ore and mill it as they did on the Gold Reef. They are bringing their machinery, consisting of a small compressor, mill, hoist, and a five stamp mill to the Shaw claims at once.

SELLING OF STOCKS DEPRESSES PRICES

Losses Embraced Almost Whole of Active List at New York.

WAR GROUPS LOSING

Moderate Recessions in Crucible and U. S. Steel and Baldwin Locomotive.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Selling of stocks, mainly for professional account, was renewed Saturday, and continued with little interruption throughout the short session.

War shares yielded more or less severely to moderate pressure, the automobile group losing 2 to 5 points, while the steel group was held steady.

The bank statement showed an actual loan expansion of about $52,000,000, with a corresponding increase of deposits, and a negligible cash loss.

Business advances were of the same cheerful tenor as those recently issued. Bonds were lower on small inquiry.

MONTREAL'S MARKET ON WHOLE ADVANCED

Stocks Erratic Saturday, But Closed Generally Higher Than Friday.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—After a steady to firm opening Montreal stocks weakened towards the end of the first hour on Saturday, only to rally again during the afternoon.

Good rallies in the market of Canada and Scotia, and a sharp recovery in the afternoon among the features of the morning.

MARKET LESS ACTIVE AFTER THE REACTION

Trading in Domestic Stocks Slowed Down, But Undertone to Prices is Good.

The Toronto Stock Market slowed down on Saturday, but the undertone to prices was good and Friday's reaction was not carried to any further extent.

WHEAT DEPRESSED ON BIG OFFERINGS

Rumors About Kitchener's Mission Also Used to Force Down Market.

WEAKNESS AT CLOSE

Million Barrels of Flour Purchased by French Government in U. S.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Predictions of a liberal increase of the visible supply total on Monday gave an advantage Saturday to the bears in wheat, and so also did a good deal of wild guessing about the reasons for the departure of Earl Kitchener from London.

The market closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 3/4c lower, with December at $1.04 1/4, and May at $1.03 1/4.

Announcement that primary receipts of wheat today amounted to 1,000,000 bushels more than on the corresponding day a year ago had much to do with making the bulls uneasy.

Reports that the French government had bought 1,000,000 barrels of flour in the United States furnished strength in wheat throughout most of the first half of the day.

LITTLE SPECULATION IN MINING ISSUES

Standard Exchange Quiet at the Week-End, With Only Investment Demand.

There was little speculation in the mining stock market on Saturday. The outside demand was mostly for McIntyre and Dome Extension, the latter being slightly firmer at 2 3/4.

McINTYRE EXTENSION HAS MANY ORE BODIES Toronto Brokers Issue Circular Reciting Work Already Done on Porcupine Property.

J. P. Bickell & Co., Standard Bank Building, have issued a circular on McIntyre Extension, part of which follows: The property of the McIntyre Extension Mines, Limited, consisting of one hundred and twenty-seven (127) acres, is situated in the heart of the richest gold producing area of the Porcupine camp.

The McIntyre Extension is completely equipped with all necessary buildings for the accommodation of two hundred men, and a plant with a capacity of eighteen drills and all other necessary equipment for the carrying on of active mining operations.

Other ore bodies which have been proven by diamond drilling, one to the depth of 1218 feet, are expected to be opened up from this shaft at a depth of 1000 feet.

It is anticipated that the shaft now being sunk to a depth of 1000 feet will open up ore bodies between the 500 and 1000 foot levels.

PLENAUM TO SELL STOCK. A special general meeting of the Plenaum Mines Limited has been called for Friday, November 12, at the headquarters of the company, No. 36 Toronto street.
