To the brave canadian hearts THAT BEAT AND BATTLE FOR THE CAUSE OF FRREDOM AND THE SAFETY OF THE EMPIRE.

PREFACE

$\mathbf{N}^{2}$early all these Poems have appeared during the past year in the columns of the Globe and the Mail and Empire of Toronto, and the Free Press of Detroit, Michigan.
When the Author read from his poems last winter before the Women's Press Club of Toronto one of its members suggested that an engrossed and illuminated copy of the poem, "I Take Off My Hat to Albert," be presented to His Majesty, King Albert of Belgium. This was done through the kind offices and courtesy of Mr. Goor, the Belgian Consul-General at Ottawa.
His Majesty's gracious letter of acceptance, which the reader will find on another page, is indeed a Royal Foreword to these poetic blossoms of a piteous though heroic time.

TRANSLATION

La Panne, August 11th, 1915.
Office of the Secretary to the King and Queen (or Belcium). SIR:

The very delicate words you have found to express to the King your friendly feelings have greatly touched His Majesty.
The Sovereign, Who has much admired the beautiful illumination adorning the verses composed in His honor, commands me to thank you sincerely and to say that He will be glad to keep this valuable souvenir.

I have the honor to be Sir
Your obedient Servant,
J. INGENBLEEK, Secretary.
To Dr. Thomas O'Hagan,
Ottawa.

I TAKE OFF MY HAT TO ALBERT

A
lbert, King of Belgium, is the hero of the hour;
He's the greatest king in Europe, he's a royal arch and tower;
$H e$ is bigger in the trenches than the Kaiser on his Throne,
And the whole world loves him for the sorrows he has known:

So I take off my hat to Albert.

Defiance was his answer to the Teuton at his gate, Then he buckled on his armor and pledged his soul to fate;
He stood between his people and the biggest Essen gun,
For he feared not shot nor shrapnel as lis little army won:

So I take off my hat to Albert.

I TAKE OFF MY HAT TO ALBERT

King of Belgiunt, Duke of Brobont, Count , of Flonders, oll in one;
Little Kingdom of the Belgoe storr'd with honor in the sun!
You hove won o ploce in history, of your deeds the world will sing,
But the glory of your notion is your dust-stoined, feorless King:

So I toke off my hot to Albert.
For M. Goor.

RT  THE KAISER'S FAVORITE POEMS

$\mathbf{W}^{\text {Hat }}$ are the Kaiser's favorite poems?
Well, now, you tax me haril;
I know the Kaiser's favorite drink
But do not know his bard;
I'm sure it is not Schiller
Who reigns in German homes.
Nor yet Olympian Goethe,
Who writes the Kaiser's poems.
Perhaps that Heinrich Heine Has touched the Kaiser's soul; Or Arndt with his trumpet call Like a new conscription roll; Or, Walther von der Vogelweide With his nest in mythic domes, Is the author and creator Of the Kaiser's favorite poems.

THE KAISER'S FAVORITF POEMS

If I saw the Kaiser's library
I'd know well what he readsThe color of his fancy
And the prompter of his deeds:
I'd learn the depth and wisdom
Of his theorics and his gnomes, If I got but just a glance or two At the Kaiser's favorite poems.

Then let us go to Essen,
Where the Kaiser's books are bound;
They are full of "steel" engravingsAll "best sellers" there are found;
For the Prussian soul and spirit Speaks in rhythm thro those tomes,
And these without a question,
Are the Kaiser's favorite poems.
For Rt. Hon. Dazid Lloyd-George.

LOUVAIN

Ashrine, where saints and scholars met And held aloft the torch of truth, Lies smouldering 'neath fair Brabant's skies, A ruined heap-war's prize in sooth! The Pilates of Teutonic blood
That fired the brand and flung the bot Now wash their hands of evil deed,
While all the world stands ghast and dumb.
Is this your culture, sons of Kant,
And ye who kneel 'round Goethe's throne? To carry in your knapsacks death?
To feel for man nor ruth nor moan?
What 'vails it now your mighty guns
If God be mightier in the sky?
What 'vail your cities, walls and towers If half your progress be a lie?

LOUVAIN

The smoking altars, ruined arch Of ancient church and Gothic fanc Have felt the death stings of your shells,
And speak in pity thro' Louvain.
Wheel bac.. your guns, your howitzers melt,
Forget your "World-Power's" cursed plan And sig in peace and not in blood
Dread Sinai's pact 'twixt God and Man.
For His Eminence Cardinal Mercier.

THE KAISER'S BHOYS

0 ,THE Kaiser's bhoys are marching, "nach Paris" they are going,
But they've sthopped to rest a minit at the Marne and at the Meuse ;
And the Gordons and the Munsters are thryin' to entertain them,
For they've every kind of "record" that the Teutons want to choose;
They have battle cries that sounded for centuries in the Highlands,
They have war cries fierce and stirring as the breath of Munster gales ;
They are shoutin' to the heavens, and they're shoutin' to the Kaiser.
"Faugh-a-ballagh!" sons of Odin, or we'll tie you up like bales.

Fifteen

THE KAISER'S BHOYS

O, the Kaiser's bhoys are dramin' of a naval base at Calais,
But they wakin' ivery mornin' full of sorrow and of gloom,
For the little Belgian sojers cut the dykes and flood their trenches,
And they find their dugouts only jist a bathtub or a tomb.
But they're makin' progress backward, "nach Berlin" they are going,
With their "Landsturms" and their "Landwehrs," keepin' sthep in dim grey line;
And they'll know far more of Britain and her brood of lions snarlin',
When they find themselves "zu Hause" jist beyant "Dic Wacht am Rhein."

For John E. Redmond, M.P.

MOTHERS

l base

orrow

Through the vigils deep of the sable night A mother sits in grief alone, For her sons have gone to the battle front And left on the hearth a crushing stone. Beyond the stars that burn at night She sees God's arm in pity reach; It counsels patience, love and faith, Heroic hearts and souls to teach.

The blue is spann'd and the tide goes out, And the stars rain down a kindlier cheer; And the mother turns from this throne of grief To pierce the years with a joyous tear; For duty born of a mother's heart

Fills all the rounds of our common dayYea, sheds its joy in the darkest night,

And fills with light each hidden way.

For Miss Ina Coolbrith.

IN THE TRENCHES

ALL day the guns belched fire and death And fi!!ed the hours with gloom; The fateful music smote the sky

In tremulous bars of doom;
But as the evening stars came fortl
A truce to death and strife, There rose from hearts of patriot love
A tender song of life.
A song $彳$ s! home and fireside
Swelled on the evening air, And men forgot their battle line,

Its carnage and dark care; The soldier dropp'd his rifle

And joined the choral song, As high above the tide of war

It swept and pulsed along.

IN THE TRENCHES

That night while sleeping where the stars Look down upon the Meuse, Where Teuton valor coped with Frank, Where rained most deadly dews, A soldier youth, in khaki clad, Rock'd where the maples grow, Smiled in his dream and saw again The blue St. Lawrence flow.

Fr Miss Julia O'Sullivan.

THE CHRIST-CHILD

Across the waste, across the snow, O the pity! O the pity! l'ast sentinel of friend and foe

O the pity! $O$ the pity! Comes the Christ-Child clad in white Through the storm-clouds of the night. Bearing in His lily hands Gift of peace to warring lands, - O the pity! $O$ the pity!
"Adeste fideles!" sing the choirs $O$ the pity! $O$ the pity!
Lurid flame the battle fires
O the pity! $O$ the pity!
Shepherds hear the heavenly song, Mid the strife and piteous wrong; Peace on earth but not of men, Peace that knows not crime nor sin. O the pity! O the pity!

THE CHRIST-CHILD

Lay your sceptres at His feet, O the pity! $O$ the pity! Christ, the Babe of Bethlehem, grect, $O$ the pity! $O$ the pity! Legions stretched in battle line, Saw the star and knew the sign, Yet forgot that Christ was born Prince of Peace, on Christmas morn, $O$ the pity! $O$ the pity!

Christmas, 1914.
For Mrs. George McIntyre.

GOD'S NEW YEAR'S GIFT

W hat shall the coming year bring forth,
O Lord, who rulest the land?
For the navies of the sea and air
Are but stubble in Thy hand.
The battalions in the field go forth;
They arm in mighty line;
Do they kneel to know Thy holy will?
Have they asked from Thee a sign?
The kings invoke Thy holy name,
In their carnage and their strife;
But the purple gift it was Thine to give
Recks not of pity nor life:
For they're drunk with the wine of lustful power,
And seared with the sins of earth;
And their prayers and preachments now mock Thy name,
And make of Thy laws but mirth.
January I, 1916.
For Duncan Campbell Scott.

TROUBLE IN THE LOUVRE

W
GEN the German troops were marching with the Uhlans far ahead,
The objective point being Paris, as the Berlin wireless said,
There was trouble in the Louvre, 'mong the paintings on the walls,
There were shoutings 'cross the centuries, there were loud artistic calls:
"Mona Lisa" ceased her smiling and "The Banker and His Wife"
Turned to Millet's "Women Gleaning "-begged protection for their life;
White "The Gypsy Girl" of Franz Hals, fearful of impending fate,
Roused "The Shepherds in Arcadia" with "The Hun is at the Gatel"

Twenty-three

TROUBLE IN THE LOUVRE

Then the panic spread on all sides till the battle of the Marne
Solved all danger of the looting, removed all need to warn;
Straight "The Lace Maker" from Flemish Bruges in the joyous choral led Smiled at "Charles First of England" who had lost his crown and head;
For fear had left the Louvre when the Teutons turned in flight,
So they scanned the sky no longer for dread Zeppelins in the night.
And the paintings born of centuries touched by genius into life
Still are hanging in the Louvre 'mid war's clash and clang and strife.

For Edgar Guest.

"The body of 'Bobs' then lay in state until five o'clock, when it was interred in a crypt nearby those containing the bodies of Nelson and Wellington."-Press Despatch.

Ho is he that cometh to join our mighty dead?
Is it "Bobs" of Kandahar the Empire's armies led?
Give him place, $\mathbf{O}$ Nation great! within your storied walls;
Within our heart his name shall rest, his ashes in St. Paul's.
Soldier of the Empire, Bobs of Kandahar! Lay him near the hero of glorious Trafalgar!
Death has ta'en the shining sword he aye in duty drew;
Lay him near the Iron Duke of fateful Waterloo!

"BOBS" OF KANDAHAR

Soldier of the Empire, well thy work was done, Fit thy sun had setting within sound and roar of gun;
Thy soul had vision of the years fraught with danger's woe,
And counsell'd arméd wisdom against a subtle foc:
Now thy task has ended, the splen-lor of thy sun, Sheds its setting glory on the s.eater life begun, From where the Maple stands in pride to India's torrid star,
Now, mourn an Empire's people for "Bobs" of Kandahar

SONG OF THE ZEPPELIN

And hate is the banner I unfurl so wide That its bluod-dripp'd folds may catch the breeze;
That e'en from the balcony of heaven on high May be seen thls banner on all the seas.
No triumph of arms is my flight by night,
It is only a part of a murderous raid:
Dropping a bomb on an innocent child
Or a crowing babe in its cradle laidAnd all for the Vaterland!

"SOCK lí TO 'EM"

"A Canadian lieutenant writes his mother from the front that what he most needs for the winter is good warm socks."-Press Despatch.

Tes, Wilhelm, sure you'll get it,
The storm is o'er your head;
It is bursting in the trenches
And you're just as good as dead.
You put your foot on Belgium And defied your fate and doom, And now the whole worid hates you And the cry is "Sock it to 'em I"

True, your Taubchens still are sailing, But your battleships are not;
They are coop'd up in a corner Save the submerg'd ones that fought. You are saving time and fuel, But you're sad and filled with gloom, For the very winds are whi. pering
"Blow hard and sock it to 'em."

Twenty-nine

"SOCK IT TO 'EM"

You have sought more spacious realm In the free and genial sun:
Has your sceptre widened any With the salvo of each gun? Your "World-Power" seems to narrow, And your hope lies in a tomb, While dark Fate weaves your chaplet And whispers " Sock it to 'em!"

For Theodore Botrel.

THE BUGLE CALL

Do you hear the call of our Mother, From over the sea, from over the sea? The call to her children, in every land; To her sons on Afric's far-stretch'd veldt; To her dark-skinned children on India's shore, Whose souls are nourish'd on Aryan lore; To her sons of the Northland where frosty stars Glitter and shine like a helmet of Mars; Do you hear the call of our Mothe ?

Do you hear the call of our Mother From over the sea, from over the sea? The call to Australia's legions strong, That move with the might and stealth of a wave; To the men of the camp and men of the field, Whose courage has taught them never to yield; To the men whose counsel has saved the State, And thwarted the plans of impending fate;

Do you hear the call of our Mother?

THE BUGLE CALL

Do you hear the call of our Mother
From over the sea, from over the sea?
To the little cot on the wind-swept hill;
To the lordly mansion in the city street; To her sons who toil in the forest deep
Or bind the sheaves where the reapers reap;
To her children scattered far East and West ; To her sons who joy in her Freedom Blest; Do you hear the call of our Mother?

For Major-General Sir Sam Hughes.

HIS MISSION

"A German will teach Irish at the University of Illinois, beginning in February, when Dr. Kuno E. Meyer of the University of Berlin will become visiting professor of the Celtic language and literature."-Press Despatch. o back, dear Kuno, to the Poles and Alsatians,
And teach them the language your nation has robbed;
Piece out their dreams of new glory and freedom;
Bring joy to the hearts where the children have sobbed.
We love the old Celtic tongue, vibrant with music,
As it speaks to our hearts thro' the chords of long years,
But we don't want your lessons, though laden with "Kultur,"
From a land where Alsatians and Poles are in tears.

Thirty-five

HIS MISSION

Go back, Herr Professor, your mission is ended, For, though your gifts are many, you are "ausgespielt";
Go back and receive your "Kreuz von Eiseln,"
For we don't like the way that you're "ausgebild' $t$."

In this giant new world, with its endless day,
Have nothing in common with your satellite planets,
And care not to shine on your Eagle's prey.

ACHILLES' TOMB

A chilles awoke in his ancient tomb Hard by the coast of Troy; He rattled his armor now full of dust And rubbed his eyes like a boy, As he gazed on the ships of the allied fleet, Ploughing the seas from afar, Bent on their course to the Dardanelles 'Neath the light of Victory's star.
"Why, I've been asleep," Achilles said, "On the windy plains of Troy; Three thousand years have turned to dust With their maddening mirth and joy; Yet it seems but a day since Ilium fell, Since Sinon spun out his tale, And the Greeks returned from Tenedos With a light and prosperous gale.

ACHILLES' TOMB

"Three thousand years is a long, long time, But I'll doze for a thousand more; For I'm sick of the bluff of the Teuton hosts And the gas from each army corps. So lay me down in my ancient tomb, Where the Phrygian winds sweep by, And I'll dream of the days when heroes fought, 'Round the lofty walls of Troy."

For Very Rev. W. R. Harris, D.D.

THE CHRISM OF KINGS

I $^{\mathrm{N}}$ the morn of the world, at the daybreak of time,
When Kingdoms ware few and Empires unknown,
God searched for a Ruler to sceptre the land,
And gather the harvest from the seed He had sown.
He found a young Shepherd boy watching his flock
Where the mountains looked down on deep meadows of green;
He hailed the young Shepherd boy king of the land
And anointed his brow with a Chrism unseen.

THE CHRISM OF KINGS

He placed in his frail hands the sceptre of power, And taught his young heart all the wisdom of lnve;
He gave him the vision of prophet and priest,
And dowered him with counsel and light from above.
But alas I came a day when the Shepherd forgot
And heaped on his realm all the woes that war brings,
And bartering his purple for the greed of his heart
He lost both the sceptre and Chrism of Kings.

T'm
m not going to Tipperary for l've better work to do,
I am dreaming of a new device to catch each German crew;
And when we've chased them thro' the deep, Ach Gottl what fun there'll be
Rounding up the Teuton "subs" in the blue and vasty sea.
So, good-bye, Tipperary! Farewell, Slieve-namon!
I leave you for a season to chase the murclerous Hun;
Von Tirpitz knows their hiding-place and l'll find out, too,
So, good-bye, Tipperary, till we've caught each pirate crew.

TIPPERARY

Then I'll go to Tipperary with its hills of emerald green,
Where the skies are full of splendor and each peasant girl a queen;
Where the men know naught but honor and where duty is their goal;
Where the shadows from the mountains are but sunlight to the soul.
So, good-bye, Tipperary, till we've rounded up caelı erew,
Then I'll turn my face to greet you for to you I'll e'er be true;
So I'm off to chase the pirates and the ocean aisles to sweep,
Ach Himmel, Tipperary 1 there'll be fun upon the deep.

THE KAISER'S " PLACE IN THE SUN"

THE Kaiser is seeking " a place in the Sun" But I fear he'll have to wait, Till another eclipse has dulled its face And the Allies have woven his fate: For the "spots" on the Sun are all occupied With a race descended from Mars;
So there's no place in the heavens for schrecklich Wilhelm, Not even among the Stars.

What boots it, Wilhelm, that your guns are big, And your Zeppelins soar by night,
Since against you are leagued the earth and stars And you're sure to lose in the fight.
You have, drenched the world with heroic blood, And stained the record of Man,
But you'll presently get your "place in the Sun," Yes, the hottest since time began.

For T. J. Murphy.
