HEAD OF SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA IS IN CITY TODAY

An interesting visitor to the city today is Commissioner W. J. Richards, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army in Canada, who came here from Fredericton where, last evening he was tendered a hearty welcome. To a Times reporter today he expressed his admiration for the condition of the army as he found it throughout this country, and the efficiency of its officers. Better soldiers of Christ could not be found in any part of the world as his verdict.

EIGHT RELATIVES IN THE KING'S SERVICE

The Fredericton Mail says that R. W. Gregory of that city has an interesting claim regarding relationship with volunteers in arms for the country's defence. He has two sons, three grandsons, two nephews, and a son-in-law enlisted in various branches, and although seventy-two years of age, has offered his services to the militia department at Ottawa. One of the soldiers is Morris Allen of Marysville, his nephew, with the 26th Battalion here. Mr. Gregory himself is a veteran of the British Army.

FIND INCOMES SMALLER

A. W. Sharp, chairman of the board of assessors, said this morning that one of the features of this year's valuation was the discovery that many of the average incomes had been reduced. BREAK-UP OF AUSTRIA UNLESS PEACE SOON

London, Jan. 23.—The Daily News correspondent telegraphs from Rome:—Duca D'Avanna, Italian ambassador at Vienna, yesterday had a conference with Baron Von Burian, the Austrian foreign minister. The Austrian newspapers attach the greatest importance to Baron Von Burian's policy and hint that he desires to prevent Roumania and Italy from intervening in the war.

POPE QUOTED AS EXPRESSING THIS VIEW IN CONVERSATION WITH CARDINALS

Rome, Jan. 23.—The Pope, in conversation with the cardinals after the consistory yesterday, said that he feared the disintegration of Austria was inevitable unless peace was brought about within a short time. This remark of the Pontiff is considered here to be of the deepest significance. The Austrian Emperor is regarded as the greatest supporter of the Vatican, and the Pope is assumed to know more about the affairs of that country than even the trained diplomat.

GAVE HIM WATCH

At a pic social and dance conducted in their hall, Simonds street, last night by members of Union Jack Lodge No. 88, P. A. U., a jolly time was had. A feature of the programme was the presentation of an army watch to Sergeant George Taylor, who was promoted by the front by a detail of soldiers present in uniform, and the presentation was made by George Earle, W. M. They were auctioned by F. L. Tottis and a big team realized.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. HANNAH LYNCH

Many received a great shock this morning as it became known that Mrs. Hannah Lynch had died suddenly during the night, at her home, corner of Rodney and Watson streets, West End. For many years Mrs. Lynch had conducted a shop there. Her husband, James Lynch, a well-known ship carpenter of his day died twenty-five years ago. For the last few months, since her sister died, Mrs. Lynch had lived alone. She had not been in good health for some little time and while a doctor was in to see her yesterday there was no indication of any serious trouble. It is believed that death was caused by hemorrhage. Mrs. Lynch was about sixty-five years old, a woman of kindly manner and warm heart, and one who numbered very many friends. She was a daughter of the late Thomas Murphy and of a large family only one had survived—Mrs. Joseph O'Brien of West End. The funeral will be held on Monday morning at eight o'clock to the Church of the Assumption for high mass of requiem.

MOTOR FIRE APPARATUS

Commissioner McLellan today confirmed a report that he would purchase this spring the piece of motor fire apparatus for which he was given bonds to issue bonds last year. He said the combination ladder truck and hose wagon would be here in about three months but he said nothing as to the type to be purchased. The price mentioned for such apparatus at the time bonds were authorized was about $30,000.

BEAR MASCOT NOW WITH THE HOME GUARD

Transfer of an important member of the 26th Battalion, overseas service, was one of the events of the day in local military circles and the member in question is now quartered at the training quarters of the Home Guard in Chipman Hill. Commissioner McLellan was largely instrumental in securing the transfer which was that of the little black bear, brought to the army by a North Shore contingent, and which was denied the right of crossing the ocean. Seeing an opportunity to secure an attractive mascot for the commissary, the commissioner made arrangements to secure the bear and his ownership from month to month will pass to one or the other of the firemen according to the results on the scoreboard.

This is a particularly well built wooden house of the square type of architecture so common some years ago, but unfortunately not in vogue at the present time. The house has been entirely renovated by Mr. Vassie during the last few years and with its wide old-fashioned doors, broad halls and large rooms, is a very attractive home. It is situated on a large freehold lot and has a beautiful sunny exposure.

TAKING THE BOY OFF THE SHIP

Captain Threlson, of the Norwegian bark Jumo, was in the police court this morning on drunkenness charge. A few days ago he was reported by a young boy William Baxter, a member of his crew, on a charge of assault. He promised to treat the boy well on the return passage and also to allow him part of his wages to send to his mother. The magistrate told the boy that if, on the return voyage, he was abused, he should report the matter as soon as he arrived home. Upon considering the matter this morning the magistrate decided that the ship was no place for the boy and sent a policeman along with the captain to bring him and his belongings ashore. The boy was paid off and his papers turned over. When this had been accomplished the captain was to report with the policeman at headquarters, K. L. MacRae, Norwegian vice-consul, was in court.

The French Mother.

(A. M. Belding).

They call you Emperor, but you have killed my son,—
 My son! The hope of my old age,—What had he done?
 If murder be a crime, that stain is on your soul,
 Oh Emperor! Whose mad ambition levies toll
 On mothers' hearts amid the wreck of hope and home—
 Was that his voice—my son's? No, no,—he will not come;
 On Christmas morn they buried him on Yzer's banks—
 On Christmas morn, oh Emperor—do you give thanks
 That Christ was born, to save the souls of sinful men?
 "Thy kingdom come"—is it a German kingdom, then?

My son was fair to see. Can I forget the years
 I shared with him his joys and soothed his childish fears?
 He never cared to roam,—the current of his life
 So led and merged with mine that when this awful strife
 Had torn him from my side, my very heart was rent.
 And all my days were dark, my nights in anguish spent.
 I see him now as when he rested in my arms,
 A trustful babe, secure from all of life's alarms,
 My first and only born, the pledge of that dear love
 Which had transformed my world, ere yet the storm of war
 Had swept his father from our side. Oh, God how far
 We two have journeyed since the dreadful message came—
 You were a child then, Emperor, and not to blame—
 That I was widowed and my boy was fatherless,
 With few in all the world to pity our distress.

And now my son is gone! My life is cold and bare—
 To whom should I appeal for love, or whither fare?
 All that I loved is lost, and I am old and weak,
 And worn with toil—They do not answer when I speak,
 Those lips my lips have pressed, who were the world to me,
 Before the sad years brought the curse from Germany.

But France, my France, shall live, though I be gone to dust;
 Her steadfast, fighting soul defies your bayonet thrust.
 She has not fought the last of Gallic tyrants down,
 To yield a servile homage to your iron crown.
 The Paris road, if you but read the signs aright,
 Has graves for milestones, and is haunted in the night
 By spectral hosts, that rise from long forgotten years
 Of bitter strife, of long drawn agony and tears,
 To bear dumb witness to the truth that France will rise,
 Though beaten to her knees by ruthless enemies,
 And with a soul undaunted seek her destiny,
 Enthroned their peer among the nations of the free.

But you and yours, mad Emperor! Whose savage creed
 Would doom the helpless mothers of the world to breed
 Their sons for slaughter—What have you to hope or gain?
 Do you not hear the wail of sorrow for the slain?
 Your work, oh Emperor! Whose very throne was built
 On greed of power and wars that shamed the world—Your guilt
 Will bring the judgment of the sword—But oh the cost—
 The strength of all the brave young lives forever lost—
 The broken hearts, the mother's tears, the orphan's woe,
 The trenches turned to strong men's graves beneath the snow
 Blaspheemer! Do you dare assert the right Divine
 To deluge earth with blood and tears? By what great god
 Do you maintain the justice of the sacrifice
 Of lives by millions? Gambler! You have thrown the dice
 In hope to win the lordship of the world; but He
 Who is the arbiter of human destiny,
 Who from the soul of evil plucks the good and true,
 With steadfast purpose all the stormy ages through,
 Will crush your proud ambition to the blood-stained sod,
 And drag your naked soul before the bar of God.

I will not curse you, Emperor,—But oh, the graves!
 The graves beneath the snow; the dead beneath the waves;
 The roofless homes; the temples shattered by the shell;
 The helpless victims outraged by your hounds of hell—
 These—these will die, and brand your nation and your name,
 Aye, and your memory, with everlasting shame,
 I will not curse you, but you bear the brand of Cain,
 Your brothers' blood cries out from every battle plain.
 You might have made the earth a nobler heritage,
 And writ your name in gold on history's cherished page—
 Instead you chose the baser part, and nevermore
 Will peace consent to dwell within your guarded door,
 The brood of hate and fear, the torture of defeat
 Will haunt you all your days, and there is no retreat
 Will shield you from a conscience winged with every dart
 Your vengeful wrath has levelled at a mother's heart;

But oh, my son,—God pity me! My tears are dry,
 You might have spared my boy to me,—Nought else had I
 To love and cherish in the wide wide world
 His voice was music in my ears, my comfort was his choice.
 I hear him calling in the stillness of the night,
 I know he called me ere his spirit took its flight.
 Aye! Called me at its years long gone, wroth to my breast
 He fled for refuge as the young bird to its nest—
 You killed him Emperor! And I must hasten on,
 I envy not your fate—I go—to join my son.

WAR PUZZLE

Above will be found the picture of a modern gun of the kind that is being used in the present war. At a glance the gun and some of its parts appear to be all there is in the picture, but by careful scrutiny some soldiers' faces will be found. There are 19 of them in all. Can you find them? It is an easy task, but by patience and perseverance can be accomplished.

You may win a cash prize by doing so. Many have done this and will be shown by the names and addresses published below. If you find the faces mark each one you find with an 'X' cut out the picture and send it to us, together with a slip of paper on which you have written the words "I have found all the faces and marked them." Write these nine words plainly and neatly, as in case of ties, both writing and contents will be considered factors in this contest.

This may take up a little of your time, but as there are TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS in cash and One Hundred premiums given away, it is worth your time to take a little trouble over this matter. Remember, all you have to do is to mark the faces, cut out the picture, and write on a separate piece of paper the words, "I have found all the faces and marked them."

We do not ask you to spend One Cent of Your Money in order to enter this Contest. Send your answer at once; we will reply by return mail telling you whether your answer is correct or not, and we will send you a complete Prize List, together with the names and addresses of persons who have recently received over Two Thousand Dollars in Cash Prizes from us, and full particulars of a simple contest that must be fulfilled. (This condition does not involve the spending of any of your money.)

Names of cash prizes in our late contest will be shown by return mail to each contestant. This competition will be judged by two well known business men of undoubted integrity, who have no connection with this company, whose decisions must be accepted as final.

Below will be found a partial list of the names and addresses of a few persons who have won some of our large prizes in recent contests. Although these persons are generally unknown to us, they are our references. An enquiry from any one of them will bring the information that our contests are carried out with the utmost fairness and integrity. Your opportunity to win a good round sum is equally as good as that of anyone else, as all previous winners of cash prizes are deleted from entering this contest.

THE WAR NEWS

German airships have been dropping bombs on Dunkirk. This activity may be regarded by Germany as of some value in striking terror to its enemies, but it will not have that effect. It will simply deepen the determination of the French and British to fight to the bitter end.

A Paris newspaper prints a report to the effect that after retreating several fierce attacks by large forces of German the British have made some further advance near LaBassee, while along the whole line in Belgium and France the Allies are holding their own and repulsing German attacks.

UNCLE SAM'S ATTITUDE

The singular attitude of the United States government is causing some concern in London. The London Spectator fears that Britain is drifting toward a collision with the United States. The whole trouble arises out of the desire of some American citizens to make money by shipping goods to Germany and the desire of German-Americans to stir up trouble between the United States and Great Britain.

GLADSTONE ON AUSTRIA

The Times yesterday quoted an extract from an address by Mr. Disraeli many years ago showing that the British statesmen of that day fully understood the designs of Germany, and realized that if the Prussia of that day had her way the supremacy of Britain would be very seriously threatened.

makes honest attempts to confront its difficulties. Yet I must look to what that policy has been. Austria has ever been the unflinching foe of freedom in every country of Europe. Austria trampled Italy underfoot; Austria resisted the unity of Germany; Austria did all she could to prevent the creation of Belgium; Austria never lifted a finger for the regeneration and constitution of Greece.

TAX REFORM

When a deputation from the Single Tax Association of Toronto waited upon the city council last month to ask that the city again petition the legislature for home rule in taxation, the speakers declared that the present system in that city penalized industry and allowed the speculator and the forestaller to escape.

ROME HEARS THAT EMPEROR FRANCIS JOSEPH HAS DECIDED TO ABDICATE AND YIELD UP THE AUSTRIAN THRONE TO THE ARCHDUCHE CHARLES FRANCIS.

The town council of Newcastle has declared itself in favor of what would practically be the adoption of the commission plan of government. The Montreal Mail says that opposition to the increased freight charges proposed by the Canadian railways is to be made by manufacturing associations to the Railway Commission.

Count Witte is said to be conducting a peace propaganda in Russia. The Petrograd papers, however, say that his German proclivities are well known, and that he will have no influence on public sentiment.

While the government may be justified in refusing to grant the benefits of the Patriotic Fund in the case of soldiers who marry hereafter, it will certainly involve a great deal of hardship if they apply the rule in the case of those soldiers who were married before the order was issued.

Jews from Palestine are arriving in thousands at Alexandria, having been driven out by the Turks. They are penniless, and the Jewish community in Alexandria has its resources over taxed in the effort to take care of them.

The Public Welfare Commission of Chicago reports that there are 100,000 idle men in that city. According to figures compiled for the Public Forum of the Church of the Ascension, a partial list of unemployed in Greater New York totals 892,700, while there are at least 60,000 homeless and without the price of shelter.

Referring to conditions in the Canadian west, Winnipeg Finance says: "To sum up, as regards the west's present position and outlook. So far as there still remains in western cities a class dependent upon the more speculative form of business prevalent a year or two ago, the pinch of further stringency is likely to be felt. But the war will bring increased returns to farmers and will stimulate agriculture in all its branches; trade-growing out of the raising, distributing and manufacturing of foodstuffs will be stimulated, and the buying power of those directly affected thereby will be well sustained. But even from this class the demand for luxuries has lessened—the impulse to economize being general."

What has the foreign policy of Austria been? I do not say that Austria is incurable; I hope it will yet be cured, because it has got better institutions at home, and I heartily wish it well if it

"Fruit-a-lives" Keeps Young And Old in Splendid Health

J. W. HAMMOND, ESQ. Scotland, Ont., Aug. 23rd, 1913 "Fruit-a-lives" are the only pills manufactured, to my way of thinking. They work completely, no gripping whatever, and one is plenty for any ordinary person at a dose. My wife was a martyr to Constipation. We tried everything on the calendar without satisfaction, and spent large sums of money until we happened on "Fruit-a-lives." I cannot say too much in their favor.

Those who have been cured by "Fruit-a-lives" are proud and happy to tell a sick or ailing friend about these wonderful tablets made from fruit juices. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

"What does this sentence mean?" asked the teacher. "Man proposes, but God disposes!" A small boy in the back of the room waved his hand frantically.

"Well, Thomas," said the teacher, "what does it mean?" "It means," answered Thomas, with conscious pride, "that a man might ask a woman to marry him, but only the Lord knows whether she will or not."

Old Aunt—"Joannie, how many times have I told you to stop that noise!" Johnnie (reflectively)—"Seven."

School Teachers Should Warn Parents of Optical Defects, After Simple Test!

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Upon the public school teacher rests much of the burden of improving the condition of juvenile eyesight and of reducing the frightful and constantly swelling statistics of those who walk 'eternally in darkness.' The school teacher has control over the child when he is more often exposed to conditions which cause eye trouble and which lead to falling sight! The light in which the child studies—his contact with children who have communicable eye disorders—the every day test of his visual powers in the daily blackboard lesson. Impress school teachers with the vital importance of warning the parents, especially those parents who are apt to overlook warnings until too late! Upon the school teacher depends much, and in some cities school boards have taken up this educational work with a determination to get results. But many other cities neglect it. No teacher should complain of this work, for she is the one who is the most benefited by it. One child who through some uncorrected eye, ear, nose or throat defect, continually lags behind his class and becomes idle, chieftain and disturbing will cause the teacher more trouble in the course of a year than would the making of these tests. They are really labor- and nerve-saving devices, and the teacher ought to recognize this fact and encourage them. This has been the case where the tests have been systematically carried out.

GIRL OF THE SLIMS HEROINE OF NEW BOOK

Mrs. Mary S. Watts, writer of semi-historical tales, has turned from the romance of Ohio's pioneer days to the world's dark corner, to find material for her new book, 'The Rise of Jennie Cushing.' Mrs. Watts' book is a romance, not an economic essay, but, nevertheless, it throws searching light on the struggle and the cause of the struggle—the jobless, friendless girl who fights for existence on the battlefield called the city.

GYPSY TRIO AT THE LYRIC ONE OF WORTHY OFFERINGS

It is seldom that one is privileged to enjoy such an entertainment as the Lyric as that being provided by the Gypsy Trio. As singers none can dispute the fact that they are of high order. Some time ago, possibly three years, the same act won praise at the Lyric, then appearing under the name of the Rambolli Trio. Since that time they have sought a greater field of endeavor with success and it was only by chance that the management of the Lyric theatre was able to offer the trio for their present engagement. The special stage scenery carried, alone worth seeing, while the costumes leaves nothing to be desired. The lady of the act is a singer of wonderful temperament and style who interprets her songs in an artistic manner. In the 'Miserere' from Il Trovatore she shows dramatic talent, and obtains with this number results which bring about spontaneous applause from every audience. Her work in the Anvil Chorus and Funiculi shows to advantage the bright and pure soprano voice she is gifted with. The gentlemen of the trio also proved pleasing. Mrs. Rambolli's 'Gypsy Love Song' from The Fortune Teller succeeded in impressing critical listeners, not only with the mellow quality of his voice but with his method of using it. The act is the best of its kind that has graced the stage of the Lyric for a long time. This evening will mark the final appearance of the trio and those who have not already taken advantage of this opportunity of hearing something above the average, the management says, should make a special point to attend tonight.

KAISER'S SON WELL ENOUGH TO GO TO BADEN FOR A REST, IS REPORT.

MARITIME NURSES.

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—The militia department has issued a supplementary list of nurses for service with the Canadian forces. Those chosen for the maritime provinces are: Marion E. Hegan, St. John (N. B.); M. Dibble, Woodstock; A. A. Thompson, Chance Harbor (N. B.); P. Armstrong, St. John; Joyce Wishart, St. John; A. L. Mackay, Halifax; M. C. Drew, Liverpool (N. S.); Alice Mills, Truro (N. S.); M. M. Ellis, Halifax.

St. George Firm Dissolves.

St. George, N. B., Jan. 22.—After thirty years together the old and familiar firm of O'Brien & Gillmor, well and favorably known throughout Canada and the province, has been dissolved by mutual consent. The members of the company were John O'Brien and Daniel Gillmor, now senator. The business will be continued by Mr. O'Brien under the firm name of O'Brien & Gillmor.

Every child found defective should be handed a 'card of warning' to be given to the parents, notifying the parent that a defect has been found and urging that the child be taken to a doctor of the parent's choosing, either at his office or free dispensary.

If no attention is paid to these cards, the matter should be persistently and tactfully followed up, either by the teacher or the school nurse, or by both. In this way many dull and backward children will become bright and pliable scholars, their health will be improved, the community will be benefited, both socially, morally and financially, and, lastly, the teacher's work will be immeasurably easier and pleasanter. The annual, systematic, preliminary examination of school children's eyes, ears, nose and throats by school teachers is an agency of enormous and incalculable benefit to the children, to the parents, to the teachers and to the community at large. If medical inspectors had to be hired to do this work, the lack of funds might prove an embarrassment. But medical inspectors are not necessary, as the teachers can do it perfectly well, and by answering the nine simple questions at least 95 per cent of serious eye, ear, nose and throat diseases will be detected.

HEALTH WRECKED THROUGH LA-GRIPPE

It Generally Leaves the Patient Debilitated and an Easy Victim to Other Diseases

One of the foremost medical writers says: 'It is astonishing the number of people who have been crippled in health for years after an attack of la grippe or influenza.' The real danger from this disease, which sweeps over Canada every winter, is during convalescence when the characteristic symptoms, the fever, the catarrh, the headache and the depression of spirits pass away. Grip leaves behind it weakened vital powers, thin blood, impaired digestion and over-sensitive nerves—a condition that makes the system an easy prey to pneumonia, bronchitis, rheumatism, nervous prostration and even consumption. It is a condition that calls most emphatically for a tonic for the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic especially adapted to meet this need as they purify and enrich the blood. They tone up the nerves and give vigor, strength and health to the debilitated system. Mrs. Howard D. Claffey, Indian Island, N. B., says: 'For several winters in succession I was attacked by la grippe which left me weak and badly run down. In each case I used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with the most beneficial results. When, with the treatment, was again prevalent I took the precaution of fortifying my system with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and recuperated my health, while many of my neighbors were down with it. In fact I enjoyed the best of health all spring and feel sure the medicine will so fortify the system as to prevent the trouble.' These Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or may be had by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BAD COLD? TAKE CASCARETS FOR BOWELS TONIGHT

No Headache, Constipation, Bad Cold or Sour Stomach by Morning

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache. Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels. A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.

AMERICAN STEAMER SAILS WITH FOOD FOR THE GERMANS

New York, Jan. 22.—Risking possible seizure by British warships lying off the Atlantic coast, the American-owned steamer Wilhelmina, flying the American flag, and loaded with approximately $200,000 worth of foodstuffs consigned by an American commission firm to an American citizen in Germany, passed out to sea tonight, entering on the first voyage of its kind undertaken by any vessel from an American port since war began, nearly six months ago in Europe.

If the Wilhelmina is detained or seized, the W. L. Green Commission, the Company, of St. Louis, charterers of the vessel and owners of her cargo, will, according to their counsel here, file a protest with the American state department, declaring that the cargo is conditional contraband, denying the right of a belligerent warship to confiscate it, and requesting the United States to demand the immediate release of ship and cargo. The cargo consists of grain, meats and dried fruits, and is intended, according to the shippers, for consumption by the civilian population of Germany, and will not be sold, directly or indirectly, to the German government or its armed forces.

TIMES, JANUARY 23, 1915 PAYS HIGH TRIBUTE TO SMITH-DORRIN

Toronto Soldier, Back From War Son Disabled, Says General Saved First Force

(Toronto World) "If it hadn't been for General Smith-Dorrin, the first expeditionary force would have been wiped out," declared Samud Nurse, 17 McNeal street, who after being severely wounded, returned from the front yesterday.

"The Germans thought they had us licked," said Nurse, "and turned off at the Marne, Von Kluck thought he had us going, but Smith-Dorrin fooled him. That was what killed the whole German campaign."

Nurse, who was with the Army Medical Corps, was wounded while taking a party of stretcher-bearers to the relief of a wounded Scotch Fusilier, "we had 100 yards to go to reach the trench in which the man lay wounded, but we never reached there. The Germans made a massed infantry charge with bayonets, and we took shelter in a dugout. The men in the front trenches retired. I saw them passing us and ordered my four men to get out an get back. No sooner were we out of the dugout than we were all hit. I received a rifle bullet through the lungs, a jagged piece of shrapnel shell got me in the hip and a shrapnel bullet passed through my right shin. That was all I remember until I came to in a French dressing station. My four bearers were all killed."

Nurse was in action at Alsace, where the fighting continued for eleven days; at Dixmude during the retirement from Antwerp, and also through the heavy fighting on the Yser, when hundreds of men were drowned when the dykes were broken. Nurse, who has been honorably discharged from the army as physically unfit for active service, is well-known in Toronto, having been a waiter in the Woodbine Hotel, and later manager of the Paris poolroom in King street.

O. Henry's Masterpieces Selected By O. Henry Himself as His Best Work

THE ROSE

When The Rose of Dixie magazine was started by a stock company in Toombs City, Georgia, there was never but one candidate for its chief editorial position in the minds of its owners. Col. Aquila Telfair was the man for the place. By all the rights of learning, family, reputation, and Southern traditions, he was its forerunner, fit, and logical editor. So, a committee of the patriotic Georgia citizens who had subscribed the founding fund of $100,000 called upon Colonel Telfair at his residence, Cedar Heights, fearful lest the enterprise and the South should suffer by his possible refusal.

The colonel received them in his great library, where he spent most of his days. The library had descended to him from his father. It contained ten thousand volumes, some of which had been published as late as the year 1861. When the deputation arrived, Colonel Telfair was seated at his massive white-pine center-table, reading Burton's Anatomy of Melancholy. He arose and shook hands punctiliously with each member of the committee. If you were familiar with The Rose of Dixie you will remember the colonel's portrait, which appeared in it from time to time. You could not forget the long, carefully brushed white hair; the hooked high bridged nose, slightly twisted to the left; the keen eyes under the still black eyebrows; the classic mouth beneath the drooping white mustache, slightly fringed at the ends.

The committee solicitedly offered him the position of managing editor, humbly presenting an outline of the field that the publication was designed to cover and mentioning a comfortable salary. The colonel's hands were growing poorer each year and were much cut up by red galls. Besides, the honor was not one to be refused.

"The colonel's speech of acceptance," Colonel Telfair gave an outline of English literature from Chaucer to Macaulay, re-fought the battles of Chancellerville, and said that, God helping him, he would so conduct The Rose of Dixie that its fragrance and beauty would permeate the entire world, hurdling back into the teeth of Northern minions their belief that no genius or good could exist in the brains and hearts of the people whose rights they had destroyed and whose rights they had curtailed.

Offices for the magazine were partitioned off and furnished in the second floor of the First National bank building; and it was for the colonel to cause The Rose of Dixie to blossom on the fourth or to wilt in the balmy air of the land of flowers.

The staff of assistants and contributors that Editor-Colonel Telfair drew about him was a peach. It was a whole crate of Georgia peaches. The first assistant editor, Tulliver Lee Fairfax, had had a father killed during Pickett's charge. The second assistant, Keats Unthank, was the nephew of one of Morgan's Raiders. The book reviewer, Jackson Rockingham, had been the youngest soldier in the Confederate army, having appeared on the field of battle with a sword in one hand and a rifle in the other. The first proof-reader, Roncevalles Sykes, was a third cousin to a nephew of Jefferson Davis. Miss Lavina Perkins, the colonel's stenographer and typewriter, had an aunt who had once been kissed by Stonewall Jackson. Tommy Webster, the head office-boy, got his job by being recited Father Ryan's poems complete, at the commencement exercises of the Toombs City High School. The girls were wrapped and addressed the magazines were members of old Southern families in a reduced circumstance. The first printer was a scrub named Hawkins, from Ann Arbor, Michigan, who had a guarantee company bond and a bond from an even Georgia stock company sometimes realize that it takes live ones to bury the dead.

Most mothers are anxious when their little ones are teething, for at this time the baby's stomach gets disordered and there is a grave danger of convulsions. This anxiety can be lessened, however, if the mother keeps a supply of Baby's Own Tablets in the house and gives an occasional dose to her teething baby. The Tablets are the very best medicine in the world during the teething time. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach, promote peaceful sleep and break teething painless. NEW FREEMAN FOR RECALL OF COMMISSIONERS

(New Freeman.) When men like Senator Thorne, T. H. Estabrook, James Robertson and other captains of the business world feel it necessary in the interest of the city to speak on business problems, their words must carry great weight and citizens generally should stop to think what it threatens to be a little less than calamity to the city by reason of the excessive appropriations that had been made for the city. It is not surprising that in making their estimates for this year were familiar with conditions in the city, they were not, and it is not surprising that they stand condemned by the Board of Trade and other citizens found it necessary to intervene at City Hall and prevent what threatened to be a calamity to the city by reason of the excessive appropriations that had been made for the city.

C. P. R. BRAKEMAN INJURED

James Burns, a C. P. R. brakeman injured by falling from a special freight train at South Bay last night, was suffering from a dislocated shoulder in the hospital this morning but otherwise his condition was satisfactory. He lost his footing as the train passed Sooy Railway, and was thrown from the train. He was taken to the hospital and his shoulder was dislocated. He is now in the hospital and his condition is satisfactory.

How to Destroy The Dandruff Germ BY A SPECIALIST

That the dandruff germ is responsible for nearly all the diseases to which the scalp is heir, as well as for baldness and premature gray hair, is a well known fact, but when we realize that it is also indirectly responsible for many of the worst cases of catarrh and consumption, we appreciate the importance of any agent that will destroy its power. We, therefore, particularly pleased to give herewith the prescription which an eminent scientist states he has found, after many repeated tests, to completely destroy the dandruff germ in front of to three applications. It will also almost immediately rid the scalp of dandruff in numerous cases produced a new hair growth after years of baldness. This prescription can be made up at home, or any druggist will put it up for you. It contains Bay Rum, 2 ounces Lavender Compound, one-half ounce Menthol Crystals, mix thoroughly, and after standing half an hour it is ready for use. Apply night and morning, rubbing into the scalp with the fingers. If you wish it perfumed, add 1 dram of your favorite perfume. While this preparation is not a dye it is unexcelled for restoring gray hair to its original color.

War Cannot Slaughter MORE VICTIMS THAN PNEUMONIA.

Pneumonia is described as a preventable disease if taken in time. Pneumonia is the scourge of the able-bodied men and women "a little run down perhaps," but strong the belief that they can fight off a cold. Colds are not easily fought off in this northern climate. On the first sign of a cough or cold, our advice to you is "Get Rid of It." The slight cough, the irritating cough, the tightness of the chest, if not attended to, will sooner or later develop into some serious lung or bronchial trouble. GET A BOTTLE OF DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP and you will find after the first two or three doses have been taken the cough or cold will quickly disappear. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark; the price, 25c and 50c. Be sure you see that the name of The T. Milburn Co., Limited, appears on both the label and wrapper. Mrs. Edward Hugo, Moose Jaw, Sask., writes: "My little girl, three years old, contracted a bad cold which settled on her lungs, and turned into pneumonia. It was given up by our doctor, and she was given up by our doctor. I decided to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and by the time she had taken three bottles she was well again. I shall always keep a bottle of 'Dr. Wood's' in the house."

Rev. John Davidson, of Thurso, Ont., writes: "I have had considerable trouble with my throat, caused by public speaking in heated buildings and exposure to damp and chilly atmosphere. I find PEPs very effective in soothing the throat." Rev. Edward G. Heaven, Markville, Ont., writes: "I have used PEPs and find they give considerable relief to the throat. I have also found them very beneficial for colds." PEPs is the direct treatment for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Hoarseness, Laryngitis, and other ailments of the throat, chest, and lungs. As PEPs dissolve on the tongue, healing vapors are liberated which are breathed down direct to the sore places. Liquid cough lozenges, etc., cannot be inhaled, they go to the stomach not the lungs. ### Donald Brian May Retire From Stage

Actor Who, Some Say, Belongs Here Will Prob'ly Quit This Season—General Stage Notes—Sir Herbert Tree May Come From England—"Tipperary" New Musical Comedy—The Local Players—American War Drama

An exchange says concerning an actor whom some claim as a former St. John Man—"The sad news is spreading that Donald Brian is to retire from the stage after this season. In reliable quarters it is said that Mr. Brian's present contract with Charles Frothingham will end in the spring and will not be renewed. Furthermore, Mr. Brian, having accumulated enough of this world's goods, is indifferent to monetary temptations, desires that he is through with starting ours and the discomforts of road travel. His immediate plans are said to contemplate the founding of a "Temple of Persephone in New York, not unlike Castle House, with himself as the presiding genius, and a corps of dancers to instruct those who wish to learn the latest dances. As this scheme is not to bear fruition until fall, and as the bottom is dropping out of the dance craze with startling rapidity, there is still hope for the matinee girls that some day Mr. Brian may again face them over the footlights."

Other places besides St. John have claimed Donald Brian. His local admirers, if such there were, have not been very well proven.

Robert Downing, who at the height of his fame some years ago, created somewhat of a sensation by giving up the stage for the pulpit, has been engaged to take charge of the Department of Expression in the E. K. Peell Conservatory of Music and Art in Philadelphia. Mr. Downing was one of America's prominent actors, and was associated with Joseph Jefferson, Edwin Booth, Mary Anderson, and others of equal note. He also starred at the head of his own company throughout the states and Canada. His most famous role was that of "Tipperary." For the last seven years Mr. Downing has been in evangelistic work, and is now the pastor of a church in Wilmington, Del.

An improvement.

A fixture installed this week in the Opera House is a smoking and toilet room for men. Appreciation will be expressed to the manager, W. C. McKay. The new room will be opened for the first time on Monday evening.

Miss Phyllis Nelson-Terry, a young English actress who came from England last fall with a deal of heralding and then failed to attract audiences in New York in Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," has gone into vaudeville, playing a condensed version of "Topsy."

"It's a Long Way Tipperary" is now a musical play. Gus Hill is the producer.

"Radice," the melodrama which the late Kyrie Bellow made so fascinating, has been revived in London with Gerald Maurer in the character of J. George Bernard Shaw is going to New York. This is one of the interesting developments that has grown out of the series of productions which Granville Barker has been preparing for presentation in Wallace's Theatre, Manhattan, beginning this week. The plays include two plays by Mr. Shaw. Neither of these plays has been seen on this side before. They are "Arms and the Man," which will be seen with the comedy "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," as the opening attraction, and "The Doctor's Dilemma."

The Local Stage.

From the light and amusing frivolities of musical comedy to the heavier tones of drama is a marked contrast, but with the coming of the Young Men's Stock to the Opera House to remain a month, the transformation has been accomplished. It is some two years since this company played in St. John and they were given a hearty welcome this week on their return. The plays included "A Butterfly on the Wheel," though seen in St. John before, was offered then at fancy top prices, but a more popular scale will rule during its presentation. Nearly 200,000 persons are said to have seen and enjoyed this divorce problem play during its presentation by the Messrs. Schubert and Lewis Waller, English actor-manager, in New York. Joseph Brooks has decided to terminate the performances of "My Lady's Dress," now playing at the Blackstone Theatre, Chicago. The reason is ascribed to "unsettled conditions in the theatre," which sounds very like the reason given earlier in the season, when this play was withdrawn from the Playhouse. And even as it was then promised for February, so also it is now announced as scheduled for early next fall."

Charles Coghlan, son of Rose Coghlan, has been engaged by Charles Hopkins for a part Alfred Sator's comedy "The Clever Ones."

The first production of Edgar Selwyn's new comedy "Rolling Stones," will take place in Chicago on Jan. 31. The cast will include Ernest Glendinning, Richard Stirling, Harry C. Bradley, Edward Jarrett, Francis Ring, Beatrice Ingram and Claiborne Foster.

Sir Herbert Tree hints in London that he is going to the states in the autumn in the states as "The Highway of Life," not a success in the British capital he may undertake a tour of the states and Canada in old plays.

American War Play

Henry Von Tilzer is to produce "Stultitia," the single production of which set Washington ago.

"Stultitia" appears to have many mystical advantages. Written in February, 1918, its dire prophecies seemed vilitated by an Intelligence, and familiarity with official affairs of the nation. It portrayed the night's phenomenal victory waging war upon the United States, with complications involving the Monroe Doctrine and the Panama Canal.

The story is told in four acts. All the scenes are laid in Washington. Statesmen, politicians, military advisers, advocates, labor union leaders, socialists and the President of the United States are introduced as characters.

The president is pictured as making a hard but fruitless fight for strengthening of the nation's defenses, but meeting defeat at the hands of congress and financiers.

George Frothingham, the original "Topsy" of the old Bostonian, died suddenly of heart trouble in Burlington, Vt., on last Tuesday. He was seventy-five years old.

Mr. Frothingham appeared on Monday night in a revival of the comic opera "Robin Hood." He was stricken suddenly and died in a short time. Mrs. Frothingham was with him at the time of his death. Since Frothingham first appeared as the Jolly Friar, about twenty-seven years ago, he had repeated the performance more than 6,000 times.

George B. Frothingham was born in Boston and was probably the sole survivor of the famous group of singers

The piece rose to immediate favor when the Schuberts and Lewis Waller, English actor-manager, produced it in New York last fall. There it remained all season. Previously it had been seen in London with Mr. Waller in the cast, and like New York, it remained in London an entire season.

Such a well established record will, it is believed, make the presentation in this city at the Opera House on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, and Wednesday matinee, one of the notable events of the theatrical year. The play is in four acts, the famous divorce trial scene being shown in the third.

who made the Boston Theatre famous. He was a member of the Boston Ideal Company that antedated the Bostonian. That was in 1879. He had been on the stage since that time. He recently started on a season on the road as Friar Tuck in "Robin Hood." Old-time stage patrons also remember him as a splendid Dick Deadeye in "Pinafore."

He was soon to perpetuate his art in moving pictures, being engaged by the company in Brooklyn to depict his famous role in "Robin Hood."

On October 20 Mr. and Mrs. Frothingham had a quiet observance of their 20th wedding anniversary. Much of the day was occupied in receiving callers. Friends from far and near came to congratulate the veteran member of the old Bostonian, and his gentle, hospitable wife. Their parlor was filled with roses and chrysanthemums, and not a few fond remembrances were received.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Frothingham dined with friends.

Gossip of The Studios

People known in St. John in "The Movies"—Harry Keenan a Late Recruit—Lillian Russell in "Wildfire"—New Lasky Studio Immense—Irene Howley Out of Biograph—Variety of Screen Favorites

Harry G. Keenan, who has appeared with Henrietta Crossman and Robert Mantel on the "Legitimate," is a recent addition to Thomas Ince's forces at Inceville, Cal.

Three Vitagraph favorites—Dorothy Kelly, Anita Stewart, and Lillian Russell—helped the cause of charity by selling flowers and programmes at an affair held in the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York, last week.

Irene Howley, who has been in Biograph films for almost two years, has left that company. Miss Howley goes to California, and besides, she says, "I need a little rest after three years of steady work."

Miss Howley was with Bellamy for a year before David Griffith took her to Biograph.

My Miles Minter, the daily star of the "Fairy and the Wolf," on which the Frohman Amusement Corporation is now working, has at twelve a stage record which would be envied by many an actress of twice her years. She began her career at five with Nat Goodwin in "Coney Kibby." She played with Robert Hilliard in "A Fool There Was," with Bertha Kalich in "A Woman of Today," was for three and a half years the title-role in Edward Peple's "The Littlest Rebel," and in addition, young though she is, has played difficult ingenue roles in stock.

Marie Dorso has just completed her first engagement before the motion picture camera for live Panopticon.

"The Morals of Marcus." During the taking of the picture, Edwin S. Porter and Hugh Ford, the directors of the film, asked Miss Dorso to be ready for an early morning call, to take an exterior scene, when the charming young star asked whether it would be possible for her understudy to appear in the desired scene, so that she could join the company later at the studio. The directors politely explained that the substitution was not feasible, when Miss Dorso innocently asked, "Then is it possible to take the scene by 'double exposure'?"

The new glass studio at the Jesse L. Lasky Hollywood plant has been completed after several months of construction work. Work was so fortunately timed as to bring the completion of the studio at the opening of the short rainy season in California. The Lasky plant in Hollywood now occupies the space of three city blocks, and several miles away is the 20,000 acre Lasky ranch.

Vera Lewis, for years on the legitimate stage, is now with Bowery, playing important character roles. Miss Lewis will be seen in the "Caprices of Kitty," the first Bowery release featuring Elsie Janis, and in "Betty in Search of a Thrill," in which Elsie Janis will also play the star role.

George Lederer has turned down an opportunity to return to the music comedy field, because, he says, "I am unwell to motion pictures." Mr. Lederer believes that with the production of Bayard Veiller's "The Flight," he will establish himself in the motion picture world. The production is in six parts.

Creighton Hale, who starred in the Pathe production of "The Warning," has returned to the Pathe ranks to take an important part in "The Exploits of Elaine." Though only twenty-five years old, Hale has had a long stage career, starting when he was five years old with an appearance in "East Lynne." He made his screen debut under the direction of the Whartons and is now returning to them in "The Exploits of Elaine." Ashley Miller, Edison's director and author, is to adapt and stage the Mrs. Fiske play, "In Spite of All," that will soon be made a three-reel Edison production. This is the third of a line of adaptations which Mr. Miller is handling in addition to his own scenarios. "My Friend from India," and "The Glory of Clementina," by William Locke, were also adapted and staged by Ashley Miller for the Edison Company.

Lionel Barrymore will be seen in support of Lillian Russell in the film adaptation of "Wildfire," now being produced by the World Film Corporation.

Lloyd Carleton is to direct the screen production of "A Grain of Dust," to be written by William Fox, with Edson in the leading role. Claire Whitely, Bryon Douglas, Edna Pendleton, Walter Hitchcock, Haron Walsh, Stuart Holmes, and other artists will be seen in this production.

While Paul Scardon was appearing simultaneously in the feature "The Sins of the Mothers," and the playlet "What the Coon Saw," at the Vitagraph Theatre, discussion between general scenery brought out the fact that Scardon is one of the few screen stars who is willing entirely to submerge his personality for the sake of securing the make-up required by the story. Throughout his four years of studio work Paul Scardon has never hesitated to adopt a different disguise for each role he plays, a sacrifice that means much to picture players who must depend on impressing photoplay patrons with their features to achieve personal popularity.

BORNEO BELLES WEAR 'EM THIS WAY, TOO

STIRRING ADDRESS AT Y. M. C. A.

A stirring address on the work of the Young Men's Christian Association was given last evening in the rooms of the local branch by the national secretary for Canada, Charles Bishop, of Toronto, one of the association's ablest speakers. He made a fine impression upon a large audience, following a dainty supper served by the Ladies' Auxiliary and Young Women's League, and was frequently interrupted in the course of his address by outbursts of applause. At the close the president, J. Hunter Hayes, a vote of thanks was also tendered the speaker for his generous aid, extended personally to Mrs. T. H. Somerville, president of the auxiliary, and Miss Harding, president of the league, in recognition of the services rendered by themselves and those assisting. The motion was made by W. C. Cross, seconded by Edgar Prime.

The speaker emphasized the need of service among the members—this was one of the most important, if not the most important, objective of the association. "Help the other fellow," was the slogan and it was produced in a splendid type of ability. This motto was differentiated from the spirit of training of the German youth by military lines, whose slogan now seemed to be, "Kill the other fellow." The ideal of service was pure unselfishness and properly carried out was productive of remarkable development of boyhood and manhood, and better standards of humanity.

Russia is showing a good example. When the army began to mobilize all the public-house in Russia were closed. As the result both the regular Russian soldiers and the Cossacks have behaved in an exemplary manner, in contrast to the drunkenness and brutality which have marked the conduct of the Germans.

Helping Them to Expert Knowledge of Woollens and Tailoring.

"I published a detailed list of some of the garments to be sold at and below cost during the consignment sale," said John F. Condon, of the Semi-ready store. "This is in line with our policy to make prices and values as plain as day. There was in the old days so much chicanery about the clothing trade that we go to extremes in telling our customers real facts, for we know that expert knowledge of wools and weaves will help our trade."

"Twenty years ago a man who bought a ready-to-wear suit was jered at by his fellows with 'I see there was a fire last night,' or 'O' call me back again,' but today no man thinks of ordering an overcoat from a retail tailor. And it will soon be the same with suits.

"The high-priced woollens we tailor in suits are the finest fabrics woven in Britain," concluded Mr. Condon.

LONGEST BATTLE IN HISTORY STILL RAGES AMID BLIZZARDS IN POLAND

Gigantic Engagement Which Started Nov. 13 Still Continues in Blinding Snowstorms, Surpassing Anything of Its Kind The World Has Ever Known — Old Men of Landwehr Reported Drugged and Sacrificed by Germans

(By W. H. Neilson, Special War Correspondent)

Warsaw, Russia, Dec. 26—(By messenger to Athens and mail to United States)—The longest battle in the world—the second battle of Poland—still rages adding day after day to a record that is already established.

Beginning on November 13 with a bloody fight at Wlozlaw, the conflict continues, and every time the calendar moves forward a day thousands more of Russians, Germans and Austrians find their last resting place in the valley of the Vistula.

Apart from the suffering it is an interesting, a delectable, battle to Warsaw, not many miles distant—the goal of Hindenburg and the precious possession of Italy.

At nightfall when the air is still and the rumble of traffic quieted it is quite the proper thing to gather in groups and listen to the boom of cannon in the distance. The horse-play and rough antics of peasants amuse the bystanders.

But the passing of an ambulance brings the clowns to their senses and the vauville to an end, because this is real serious business, this war, in Poland. Out at the front soldiers who escape bullets are freezing to death. Sentries turn to pillars of snow under the blizzards. It is zero in the trenches. Russian winters are hard enough in times of peace; frightful in war.

Also from the front comes the story of absolutely the latest horror of war—drugs.

"The Germans are drugging the old men of the Landwehr with ether," swears a wounded Russian captain now in a Warsaw hospital.

"The stiffened men are compelled to advance over open ground against the Russian trenches. A withering fire opens and they stumble blindly forward, too senseless from the effects of the drug to seek cover. Soon the entire line is annihilated and the real attackers advance using the bodies of their fallen comrades as cover. That was the original plan."

"Prisoners belonging to the Landwehr have had to be sobered from the effects of the drug by Russian doctors."

A statement from General Soukhomlinoff declares that the Germans are sacrificing great numbers of soldiers. His communication follows:

"Partial displacements of our armies recently effected between the Vistula and the Warta rivers can have no bearing upon the check that might have been inflicted upon us by the enemy in the course of a battle extending over an enormous front."

"Such occurrences in either direction are inevitable. Retreat at one point is compensated by an advance at some other point. Thus in the direction of the enemy is exhausting himself in vain attacks on our Buzza positions, uselessly sacrificing considerable numbers of troops."

"The right bank of the Vistula has been entirely cleared. The enemy, after a serious defeat in the region of Mlava has been thrown back upon his own territory."

"In South Poland and in Eastern Galicia the German offensive has been stopped absolutely. All the efforts of the garrison of Przemysl to force the blockade have been defeated. Under these circumstances there can be no question of allowing Warsaw to fall into the hands of the enemy.

"The untidiness which the German general staff is trying to spread may find their excuse in the necessity of giving heart to the German people and influencing the public opinion of neutral countries in favor of Germany. The civilized world has been able to gauge their worth."

"A Russian soldier, with large, intelligent eyes, was brought to my attention," declares a Russian surgeon, describing the bravery of the czar's fighting men. "His hand had been crushed by a fragment of shell, and it was necessary to amputate the wounded member. I was selected to perform the operation."

"While I was preparing my instrument the soldier said: 'Your Honor, why don't you begin?'

"His voice had a mocking tone. I shall be ready directly," I replied. "Don't be afraid, your Honor," he said; "it won't hurt." But I think it better to send you to sleep," I answered. "No, I will not sleep," said the soldier. "But you will scream," I remonstrated. "Am I a woman?" asked the man.

"The result was that we did not give him chloroform. While I was performing the operation he did not make a sound, but his face, before gray and animated, wore a look of strong determination. When the operation was over the man gave a sigh of relief, and his face regained its look of animation."

"That's all right," he exclaimed; "but what about the hand, your Honor? what shall you do with it? I suppose you will throw it into the fire." "What shall I do with it?" I answered, and my voice trembled involuntarily. "Ah," said the soldier, "it is a pity to lose it after all. It has well beaten the Prussians, and now it seems that I am to fight no more."

"While the arm was being bandaged the soldier examined the hand, which lay on the table, with close interest. 'Shall we send it to one of the Germans as a present he asked at length. 'He may be glad of it and as he took leave of me he laughed.'"

By the time this reaches the United States the Russian campaign in the Caucasus against the Turks probably will be productive of extensive and bloody fighting. It is natural to believe that the Russians are weakening the forces of the German-Austrian front to battle the Soltani hosts.

This is not true. The forces to the east are regiments which had not yet reached the Polish battlefields and perhaps would not be sent here except in dire extremity. Their commander has his own troops and none have been drawn away from Poland to operate against the Turks.

"If anything, the force fighting the Turks would be brought to the German front and the Turks left to shift for themselves over the cold Caucasian ranges, the inhabitants of which hate them with barbaric fury. Guerrilla warfare and a mountain winter are believed sufficient to discourage even the wildest fighting Turks, so the Russ do not fear serious invasion could result."

H. M. Ryall, first mate, U.S.S. 'Boston,' Yarmouth, N.S., writes: 'I fell and badly cut my shin. The wounds did not trouble me for about a week, and then my leg began to swell and pain me very badly. The doctor told me that my clothing had poisoned the wound. He gave me some salve and an antiseptic wash. I used these for a short time, but instead of getting better, the blood poisoning and the pain kept getting worse, until my leg was terribly swollen and the pain was so intense I could not sleep. Indeed I was afraid the doctor would advise amputation. A friend then recommended Zam-Buk. Almost from the first application I felt a change taking place. I continued the Zam-Buk treatment and after a few boxes had been used the wound was completely cured. I certainly believe that Zam-Buk saved my leg. Don't take chances, as soon as accidents happen apply Zam-Buk and avoid all danger of blood poisoning or complications. Zam-Buk is best for cuts, burns, eczema, pimples, piles, cold sores, chapped hands and all skin diseases and injuries. Insist on the genuine Zam-Buk. See name is on every box. All druggists and stores, etc.'

IT'S JUST PLAY FOR BOY CRAFTSMAN TO MAKE THIS ARTISTIC BOOK RACK

BY JOHN L. DOUGHENY (Printed by special arrangement with the American Boy Magazine.) You can get the wood for this book rack from some old piece of furniture in the attic, or buy it for a few cents at a lumber yard or second-hand store. Begin work by drafting out the ends of the pieces from which they are to be cut. Draw your lines carefully with a fine-pointed hard pencil. The holes near the top of the sides need not be fully drawn. Mark their centres only. Use a 3/8-inch bit in boring each of the four holes which form the completed hole. The curve at the top and sides is sawed with a compass saw and smoothed with wood chisel and sandpaper. A compass or coping saw is a small wire frame with saw blades that may be put in quickly. They are very handy for the boy mechanic. One frame and six blades can be bought for a small sum. To ensure both ends being similar, mark them out from a cardboard pattern.

BEAUTY AT SWEET SIXTEEN

Comes Back When One Clears Up the Complexion by the Quick Acting Stuart's Calcium Wafers.

Pimples are an offense to others and a crime against yourself. People have only tolerated you because they considered the condition of your face to be a misfortune against which you have no remedy. But now that it is universally known that Stuart's Calcium Wafers will usually banish pimples, blackheads, blotches, eruptions, and liver spots, your continued negligence will be considered inexcusable.

"I Wish I Could Make Every Pimpley Woman Take Stuart's Calcium Wafers Just One Week." The person with a pimply face is always unattractive and at a disadvantage in society. Those ugly disfigurements set at naught the effect of the most perfect features. If your face and figure had the classical outlines of a Greek statue, a mass of pimples would still destroy your beauty. A clear, fresh skin is absolutely essential to any real beauty. A beautiful complexion is dependent on a rich, pure, abundant supply of blood to the skin. Calcium sulphide has long been recognized as one of the most effective of blood purifiers. Quickly converting all impurities into gaseous form that readily escapes from the pores, it purifies in remarkably short order. Calcium sulphide is the chief constituent of Stuart's Calcium Wafers, which contain besides, certain no alternatives that invigorate the blood. You will be delighted at the rapidity with which all face disorders will disappear, once the impurities have been cleansed of their impurities through their use.

J. A. MACDONALD PIANO & MUSIC CO. LTD. 7 Market Square, St. John, N. B.

The Kind of Man Who Makes a City Prosper

J. A. Macdonald, Head of the J. A. Macdonald Piano and Music Company and President of Amherst Pianos Limited

"Business as usual" is the slogan of the J. A. Macdonald Piano & Music Company. The fine spirit shown by this firm, of which J. A. Macdonald is the head, is worthy of all praise. The big fire which destroyed their premises on Barrington street has not in the least dampened the ardor of this progressive firm, and the Halifax Herald takes pleasure in drawing attention to it as one worthy of emulation. Mr. Macdonald, since coming to Halifax some eighteen years ago, has clearly shown what pluck and enterprise can do. The eighteen years' residence in this city has been marked by continued progress and prosperity, both for himself and the various enterprises with which he has been associated. Coming to Halifax as a salesman his keen business mind saw opportunities which he did not fail to embrace. His first venture was to enter into partnership and form the firm of Miller Brothers & Macdonald. Later he bought out that business and started the present firm, that of J. A. Macdonald Piano Company, the success of which is well known all over the maritime provinces.

Apart from his interest in the firm of J. A. Macdonald Piano Company, he is identified with a score of enterprises, notably the Amherst Piano Company, one of the largest and most flourishing industries of the town of Amherst, and it might be mentioned in this connection that as a mark of his ability and standing in this community the Board of Trade of Amherst has made him its vice-president. He is vice-president of the Nova Scotia Trust Company, president of Sterling Securities, president of the Canada Realty & Investment Company, director of the Eastern Lumber Mills, director of Humphreys, Limited, and president of the J. A. Macdonald Piano Company. This will give some idea of the wide scope of Mr. Macdonald's business activity.

Mr. Macdonald takes a keen interest in the development of the province and in its institutions and is a vice-president of the Nova Scotia branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and a governor of St. Francis Xavier College. He is an ardent friend of the working-man, and his services and sympathies in this connection have been recognized many times, he having been chosen as arbitrator representing the railway men on several occasions, notably the big strike on the C. P. R., when the arbitrators held their meetings at Ottawa. At the grand convention of Brotherhood of Railway Employees, representing lodges all over Canada, held last week in Montreal, the members passed a resolution thanking Mr. Macdonald for his interest in their work in the past, and assuring him of their continued confidence.

It will be seen that Mr. Macdonald has not lost much time since coming to Halifax, and if he has gained a full measure of success, the city and province have also received unmeasured benefits. The Halifax Herald takes this opportunity to pay a just tribute to one who, in honoring himself has honored the whole community. Fifty J. A. Macdonalds would make Halifax a great city.

HINTS FOR THE COOK

- Coffee Mousse. One quart thin cream, 1/4 box gelatin (scant) or 1 cup boiled coffee, 1/2 tablespoon granulated gelatine, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons cold water and 2 tablespoons hot water. Add gelatine, soaked in cold water and dissolved in boiling water to the coffee, add sugar. Set in a pan of ice water and stir until it begins to thicken, then fold in whip from cream, put in mold. Cover, pack in salt and ice and let stand four hours. For raspberries and strawberry mousses wash and hull 1 box of berries (quart), sugar, one and a half teaspoons baking powder. Cream the butter, add sugar gradually, yolks of eggs well beaten, milk and flour mixed and sifted with baking powder. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and add to first mixture, then add branched and citron. Bake in a moderate oven one hour. Reserve a little of the flour to mix with citron; this will prevent its falling to bottom of cake. Fruit and nuts should always be floured before adding to cake mixture. Be careful in the baking.

We Are Not Ashamed of You, Mr. $15 Man

WE do not sell our $15 Suit and Overcoats in a dingy corner of our store—we're not ashamed of them or of you either, Mr. $15 Man. We have provided ten beautiful stores in Canada for our "Mill-to-Man" tailoring and we are just as glad to cater to your wants as we are to the wants of men with more money. We believe that every time we sell a $15 garment we make a friend for our stores.

YOU will find that our $15 garments are not the kind that you ordinarily expect to get for $15—they are better—they cost more to make—they are sold at less profit. They are equal to any $25 suit or overcoat that you can buy elsewhere in Canada and in many instances they are worth more. It is your right to have this surprising statement proved—and we'll do it in detail if you will give us the chance.

Mitt Artists Crowd Chicago, Waiting For Prize-Fight Lid To Tilt—Fullerton Gets An Eyeful Of Pugs, Big And Little

(By Hugh S. Fullerton.) Fightless Chicago suddenly has become the Mecca of the pugilists. The Windy City, for years merely a tank stop for fighters en route to or from the coast and New York or Philadelphia, this winter is the training place of the majority of the chief pugilists of the country and their activities have stirred the fans and improved the chances of passage of a boxing bill.

There are three boxing bills ready for presentation in the legislature at Springfield, two of which are "squats" and meant for the good of the game; the third evidently intended to be for the benefit of certain promoters in Chicago.

A few of the boxers now working out in Chicago—Jimmy Clabby, middleweight; Ruby Hirsch, bantam, and Joe Welling, lightweight.

For the first time the big athletic clubs of Chicago are behind the bills—the square ones—and there is a liberal support among the down state legislators that promises the passage of some kind of a bill permitting boxing in Illinois. All the bills provide for boxing commissions, limited round bouts and two of them provide for a decision.

The sudden influx of fighters after the game was killed in California gave boxing a big boost in Chicago. Three gymnasiums in the downtown district have by a crowded every afternoon by fans waiting for the boxers work. Jimmy Clabby and Mike Gibbons, and he has a reputation for taking care of himself all year round.

Joe Hall, the famous defence player of the Quebec N. H. A. team. Joe Hall is the proud possessor of the unique title "The Bad Man of Hockey." But he has gone along for years with the name. He is still playing a strenuous effective article of the Each December the fans begin to ask where that man Hall is and whether he is going to turn up for the season again. Meanwhile Joe takes a last look at his farm near Brandon, Man.

His reputation with the public as a bad man grows with respect. On the ice he did not break into the game until after New Year's. But he never could stay away from the fun, and in the last four seasons with Quebec has played the best hockey of his career and has had many pleasant evenings with Newsy Lalonde and whoever else might happen along.

Senior hockey is likely to have Hall for some years yet. He may have been playing ten years, but he is not thirty.

Joe Welling, who now threatens to blossom out into another champion for Larry Lichtenstein, Clabby's manager, and he has a reputation for taking care of himself all year round.

NO TONGUE, YET HE TALKS (Sackville Tribune.) The many friends of Samuel T. Smith of Joliette, are greatly pleased to see him out again after his recent serious operations. Mr. Smith had a cancer on his tongue and it was found necessary to remove his tongue entirely. Naturally one would think that he would be unable to talk, but strange as it may seem, he really seems to suffer little inconvenience from the loss of his tongue, which is supposed to be such an important member.

The Man In The Street

Many are asking "What's the trouble with our taxation system?" The trouble is we really haven't any.

Stone crusher's crew to be laid off because of decreased estimates. Now someone will "holer" about steam-roller methods.

News note says "German helmet is particularly light." Made expressly for the German head, presumably.

No matter how many ships go down the censorship still floats.

It Might Help Some

One of the things the new chief of police might tell the men is as to the right of pedestrians in crossing the roadway or at street corners. At present the motorists and teamsters seem to think the humble being on foot hasn't any rights.

American steamer Dacia to sail with cotton cargo for Germany, might well be re-named "Au-dacious," but then again "Foolhardi" might sound well.

Man at Salmon River lost $1,000 worth of logs by the breaking of a dam. The chances are he said much more than that however.

And all of us should have our fares read.

Fares Please!

After January 1st all cars on the main line will be run pay-as-you-enter system" was the announcement made. But after seeing the old type of cars, and the old system of collecting still in vogue on the main line in some cars, the feeling is that the announcement should have been withheld until April 1st.

Above all there should be enough cars at the rush hours, especially on a wet or stormy day.

St. John Dentists Association had big dinner this week. A fellow would have to have some "pull" to get a look-in.

Lent begins this year Feb. 17. Those who have tumbled from their platform of good New Year's resolutions, will have another chance to make some.

One of the reasons why the Germans are delighted with the success of their aerial raid is that they may think the English are now "looking up" to them.

Familiar Quotation: "Our coal-bin's low"

We've Some Short-measure estimates.

Though Ottawa despatch enquires if "St. John has any short-measure milk bottles." Don't say, but we've got a new engineer in the water service, and perhaps we'll find out a few things.

DEATH OF WILLIAM HALL.

Money For Men Arrived From Ottawa Today

TOMORROW'S PARADES

The Recruiting For The Mounted Rifles—More Social Gatherings in Honor of Men Who Are Going Across Sea

If there has been any grumbling or discontent among the men of the 26th Battalion because of their pay allowances not being given regularly it should be ended at once for checks covering the payment of the money due the men reached the city today and Major Arnold, regimental paymaster, handed the company allowances to the respective paymasters. The matter of paying the men has been considerably held up because of the confusion arising from the elimination process and the general muster and this is considered to have been the cause of whatever slowness has been noticed.

While there has been no direct payment since November, Major Arnold said today that advances had been made to the men who are now "looking up" to the paymaster thought that after this payment matters would run more smoothly.

Church Parades.
Detachments of the 26th will parade to the Salvation Army headquarters, to Queen Square Methodist, St. Paul's, and the Cathedral tomorrow. The Army Service Corps, No. 5 Company, will cross the harbor tomorrow to St. John's (Stone) church for morning service.

Recruits Offerings.
Enough names have now been submitted to Major McLean to fill his quota for "B" Squadron of the 6th Mounted Rifles, but with the weeding out process, and the giving way to superior type of volunteers, there are many vacancies to be filled. No further appointments were heard of today.

In Soldiers' Honor.
At the home of W. H. Gambelin, Duke street, last evening, friends of Captain George Gambelin, of the Divisional Ammunition Column in training in Fredericton, assembled and spent a pleasant time. Best wishes for his success overseas were extended.

A jolly time was enjoyed last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Jones, 34 Melville street, at a gathering in honor of their son, Walter L., a popular member of No. 5, C. A. S. C. Included among the guests were several of his associates in the service unit and in the 26th. Games, music and dancing were enjoyed. Plans no selection by Thos. Roberts, and readings by Roy Harding, Q. M. S. of No. 5 Company, added to the enjoyment. Refreshments were served.

Colonel J. A. Grant, divisional medical officer of headquarters, Halifax, left this morning for Fredericton where he will conduct an examination into the sanitary and medical properties of the militia in training there.

FOR PROVISION OF SAFEGUARDS AT SOME LOCAL CROSSINGS

T. P. Regan, president of the N. B. Automobile Association, has interested himself in provision of safeguards at the crossings over the C. P. R. between Fairville and Grand Bay. Complaint was made to the railway commission by F. L. Peters last summer as to danger at three of these crossings and the commission sent their inspector to St. John in company with members of the automobile association he visited the crossings and photographed each one.

As a matter of form, before any order is made for protection the municipality in which the crossings are situated is asked for submission of the facts regarding the necessity and this commission recently came to the municipal council. At the meeting on Tuesday, however, the letter was tabled, thus disposing of the matter indefinitely.

Lancaster councillors expressed doubt of the wisdom of making any protest for fear that the commissioner would order the municipality to bear part of the expense of the safeguards, and strongly against the advice of the county secretary, on motion of Coun. Potts, the communication was filed.

Mr. Regan said this morning that he had yet to learn why the councillors had taken this action. Protection of the crossings would have entailed no expense to the county as it was intended only there should be an automatic alarm with a bell to ring on approach of trains in the daytime and a light showing at night. He had interviewed several of the councillors and hoped to see the matter reviewed at the May meeting of the council.

IT IS BEING DONE
In a report of an interview with Colonel Grant, he is quoted as saying that "if the board of health informed the militia authorities of any cases of infection, there would be little need to fear an epidemic at the army." Dr. Melvin informs The Times that what Colonel Grant suggests is actually being done, and has been done for some time by the board of health. He suggested it some time ago, and the militia authorities are duly informed in every case.

APPEAL TO WASHINGTON

Patterson Williston of Bay du Vin in St. John Last Week—Totally Blind in Fearful Accident; Wonderful Operation May Give Him Some Vision

Totally blind for two years as the result of an accident and without a faint glimmer of hope for restoration of his sight, Patterson Williston of Bay Du Vin, was denied admittance to the United States by immigration officials on his way there for treatment and was obliged to return home with his friends sought to secure a reversal of the decision in his case by an appeal at Washington.

The story is a sad one, and with the generosity of his employers and Mr. Williston's own patience and fortitude the bright spots.

While foreman of a dynamiting crew of the Great Northern Pulp & Paper Company, in Maine, Mr. Williston was terribly injured by a premature blast of dynamite. One ear was severed, his nose broken and the sight of both eyes ruined. From the first, however, the company has borne the expenses of his treatment and when not in hospital a man has been detailed to do nothing else but wait on him. Through skilful grafting and other treatment his nose has been restored and he spent nine months in an ophthalmic hospital in Philadelphia. There a most wonderful operation was carried out.
