BRITISH LABOR CLAIMS TO BE LOCKED OUT

INDUSTRIAL SITUATION
TAKES DRAMATIC TURN
AFTER BIG STRIKE ENDS

Workers' Leaders See Effort Made By Employers To Smash Influence of Unions
CONGRESS TO OPPOSE ATTACKS

Claims Power of Resistance is Unimpaired—Organized Labor Demands Unqualified Reinstatement, While Bosses Would Re-engage Only on Their Own Terms

LONDON, May 13.—The trades unions have no alternative but to resist to the utmost "any attempt to impose humiliating terms on the workers."

A statement to this effect was issued by the Trades Union Congress today, after a special meeting called to consider the failure of employers to re-engage workers throughout the country.

"Our resisting power is unimpaired," the statement continued. "We cannot tolerate the imposition of conditions designed to destroy trade unionism. Peace without vindictiveness is impossible unless the attacks are ended immediately. The workers will not surrender their hard-earned gains."

Premier Baldwin has asked the miners' executives to meet him at the House of Commons this evening.

LONDON, May 13.—Great Britain's nine day general strike called off yesterday, switched today to what labor regarded as a widespread lockout by the employers against union men seeking to return to work on the old status.

This development came as one of the most dramatic of all those in the disturbed days since the industrial upheaval began. What it amounted to, according to labor men, was a disposition on the part of the employers to smash union influence as far as possible.

The Trades Union Congress which conducted the general strike and announced its termination yesterday, accepted the gag, and in a fighting statement declared the trades unions would resist to the utmost "any attempt to impose humiliating terms on the workers."

"Our resisting power is unimpaired," it asserted.

Throughout the country the unions and employers were deadlocked—the unions demanding unqualified reinstatement of the strikers and the employers declining to do so on their own terms. These in some cases called for tearing up the union cards, and there was even a refusal in certain instances to re-employ the strikers at all.

The Trades Union Congress, which placed the situation in the hands of the individual unions when it called off the general strike, was in a state of utmost anxiety as reports arrived from the provinces.

The Trades Union Congress had in effect relinquished direct control of the situation. As reports piled in, however, the Trades Union Congress intimated it might have to resume charge and demand from the government to define its attitude towards the employers' conditions.

This came another general meeting of the council, after which the Trades Union Congress headquarters issued its statement of warning.

HOUSE SITS TONIGHT
Meanwhile Premier Baldwin announced that the House of Commons would debate the strike situation at 6.30 o'clock this evening.

Instead of the resumption of normal conditions, an announcement came from the government that the emergency food services would be maintained.

Food convoys, with armed escorts, continued to pour through London today and the scenes of yesterday were repeated throughout the country, with the populace still walking.

RAILWAYS IN DIFFICULTY
So serious was the injury inflicted upon trade by the general strike that railway companies find it necessary to put on at the earliest practicable moment.

Regarding reinstatement of the strikers, the managers declared many of them had left positions of trust and had broken the terms of their contracts, while others had been guilty of acts of violence or intimidation. The cases of these men would be examined individually, and as many as possible would be re-employed.

Miners Meet Tomorrow Is Postponed

Canadian Press
LONDON, May 13.—The meeting of miners' delegates, scheduled to be held tomorrow, has been postponed, Secretary A. J. Cook announced this afternoon.

"The meeting of delegates will not be held," he said, "because there are no trains to bring them from the country districts. We have our executive of 24 men here, but the delegates from Scotland and other distant districts who are coming by rail cannot arrive until Friday night."

CLASH AT DONCASTER
DONCASTER, Eng., May 13.—The settlement of the general strike in the British Isles has had an aftermath in the nearby coal fields, where mobs of miners held up road traffic and were dispersed only when the police charged and arrested 80 men. A procession of women marching on Doncaster was dispersed by a strong force of mounted police before they reached the city.

TWO DISTURBANCES
As an aftermath of the calling off of the general strike, two demonstrations requiring police action occurred yesterday in Ecclestone Square, where are located the headquarters of the Trades Union Congress. Sixty college undergraduates, wearing special constable badges, rode twice around the square in ten motor cars, tooting horns and scattering the crowds right and left. The college men waved Union Jacks and dragged a red flag in the dirt.

A few minutes later three lorries with food, guarded by soldiers, were halted by a jeering crowd of hooligans in front of the Trades Union headquarters. The lorries were held up until police forced a way for them.

CALLED ON TO CONTINUE
LONDON, May 13.—An official of the railwaymen's union today asserted that in view of the difficulties surrounding the reinstatement of strikers the executives of three of the railway unions have called upon all railwaymen to continue the strike until they received satisfactory assurances from their employers.

Saint John and Moncton Men Share Honors

FREDERICTON, May 13.—W. W. Donohue, of Saint John, captain-elect of the 1926 University of New Brunswick football team, has shared honors in the award of the Brydson-James memorial scholarship for third-year physics, with C. M. Stevens, of Sunny Brae, in the award made by the Alumni Society.

The report of Professor A. F. Baird, the examiner, showed both contestants tied for the award, and the society at its meeting last night acted on the recommendation of the council that the prize be divided equally.

PREPARING FOR RE-UNION AT U.N.B. IN 1926

FREDERICTON, May 13.—Preparations for a reunion of University of New Brunswick graduates in connection with the centenary anniversary of the completion of the arts building, to be held in the main hall of the University of Saskatchewan, who delivered the alumni oration at the centenary of 1926, are being made by the University of New Brunswick Association, and it is likely that he will be recommended for an honorary degree in connection with the centenary of 1926.

FREDERICTON, May 13.—Preparations for a reunion of University of New Brunswick graduates in connection with the centenary anniversary of the completion of the arts building, to be held in the main hall of the University of Saskatchewan, who delivered the alumni oration at the centenary of 1926, are being made by the University of New Brunswick Association, and it is likely that he will be recommended for an honorary degree in connection with the centenary of 1926.

OFFICERS BRUTALLY KILLED BY GANG

SYDNEY, Australia, May 13.—An amazing murder story comes from Kalgoorlie, the chief city of the West Australian gold mining areas. After being missed a fortnight, the mutilated remains of Inspector Walsh and Sergeant Pitman, members of the gold-stealing detention staff were found six feet underground at the bottom of an abandoned shaft. The murder is regarded as the work of organized gold thieves, and enraged Kalgoorlie miners threaten to lynch the criminals when they are caught.

MARKET IS AFFECTED

LONDON, May 13.—The unexpected poor response to the end of the strike by the workers caused disappointment on the stock exchange and business was sluggish all day. Quotations were changed, cases slightly. There were no signs, however, of attempts to sell stocks, and hope was expressed that both sides would get together and arrange matters amicably.

Canadian Delegates Lead At Conference

GENEVA, May 13.—Canadian delegates led the opposition against a proposal that identity papers be issued to all emigrants on their departure from their native land, with the result that the proposal was unanimously rejected at today's conference.

POLISH CHIEF'S OFFER TO STEP OUT REFUSED

PARIS, May 13.—A despatch to the Journal from Berlin says a private lettergram received in the German capital gives the following details of Polish movement.

REPORTS CONFLICT

LONDON, May 13.—The last authentic news of the Polish military revolt received in London declared that President Wojciechowski, with the idea of preserving peace, had offered to relinquish the presidency in favor of Marshal Joseph Pilsudski, head of the disaffected troops.

Freighter Loses Her Propeller In Ocean

SYDNEY, Australia, May 13.—The Eastern States-Australia line freighter "Easter" moon has released that it is drifting helplessly in stormy seas 400 miles from Sydney. She left here for New York via Panama on Monday, May 10. The mishap is due to the loss of the steamer's propeller.

Yarmouth Citizen Formerly Was Member of Union Government Cabinet

HALIFAX, N. S., May 13.—Word reached here this morning reporting the death in Boston of Hon. E. K. Spinney, aged 75, of Yarmouth, N. S., a former member without portfolio of the Union government.

Poor Response By Workers to End Strike Causes Easier Quotations

LONDON, May 13.—The unexpected poor response to the end of the strike by the workers caused disappointment on the stock exchange and business was sluggish all day. Quotations were changed, cases slightly. There were no signs, however, of attempts to sell stocks, and hope was expressed that both sides would get together and arrange matters amicably.

London's Elite No Longer Spurn Work

THIRTY-SIX DEGREES CONFERRED AT UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK

FREDERICTON, May 14.—Thirty-six degrees were conferred this afternoon at the convocation of the University of New Brunswick including three honorary degrees of LL. D., conferred upon A. O. Dawson, of Montreal, vice-president and managing director of the Canadian Cottons Limited, who delivered the address to the members of the graduating class; Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Premier of New Brunswick, and W. J. S. Myles, principal of the Saint John Grammar School, who is celebrating this year the fortieth anniversary of his graduation together with the completion of 20 years service as principal of the Saint John Grammar School.

Canada Represented In Baltimore Race

BALTIMORE, May 13.—Although John C. Miles, 18-year-old runner from Sydney Mines, N. S., and winner of this year's Boston Marathon, in which he created a world's record, has not entered, Canada will be represented in the National Championship Marathon to be run over the Laurel to Baltimore course here on Saturday, by Arthur Scholes, Toronto star, and one of Canada's leading distance men.

HON. E. K. SPINNEY DEAD IN BOSTON

HALIFAX, N. S., May 13.—Word reached here this morning reporting the death in Boston of Hon. E. K. Spinney, aged 75, of Yarmouth, N. S., a former member without portfolio of the Union government.

British General Strike Cost Is Placed At $125,000,000

LONDON, May 13.—The cost of Great Britain's general strike was estimated today for the United Press at $125,000,000. A Board of Trade official made the estimate, which is admittedly conservative. It does not include the cost of the coal stoppage, which is now in its thirteenth day. The estimate was computed on three bases, which exclude other sources of cost:

Alaska Operators Make Efforts To Reach Amundsen
SIGNALS CEASE
Interference From Ships and Private Stations Hinder Reception

SEATTLE, May 13.—A report was current here that the Norge, coming from Spitzbergen by way of the North Pole, passed Point Barrow, Alaska, at 1.30 this morning. Eastern daylight saving time. From Point Barrow to Nome is 550 miles.

CORDOVAL, Alaska, May 13.—At 1.50 this morning Eastern standard time, the airship Norge was heard broadcasting the following: "Airship Norge bound Nome, Alaska, please. Any interference here by canny station?"

NOME, May 13.—Radio operators at Nome and throughout Alaska electrified the air early this morning, in attempts to get in communication with Roald Amundsen aboard the dirigible Norge, en route from Europe to Alaska, after several stations had reported hearing her signals.

NOME WAITS ANXIOUSLY
Amundsen has made his headquarters at Nome many times, and Alaskans here regard him as one of them. In addition to the wish to be the first to witness the termination of one of history's greatest voyages, every citizen was anxious to welcome Amundsen as an old friend.

St. Paul Island navy station reported hearing the dirigible at 10.40 p. m. Pacific coast time (Wednesday). The Norge said: "Airship Norge bound Nome. Please say"—here communication failed. The Norge was sending on 900 meters.

At 11.08 p. m. Wednesday night, the Norge was heard to say: "Does anyone hear us?" She called "RDG," Srdene Kolinska, said to be a Siberian station, and then Nome at 11.10, and at 11.29 p. m. called an unknown station and told it to "go ahead."

ERECTING ARCH
Citizens began construction of an arch of triumph in the main street yesterday and labored into the night. Those who had not turned carpenters paced the streets and bench restlessly and in silence, taking their eyes from the ground only to scan the northern horizon for the great sky ship.

The length of the signals received indicated that Amundsen had touched the bleak northern Alaska coast, and was proceeding southwest toward Nome. The airship left King's Bay, Spitzbergen, at 10 p. m. Monday. Nome time. The flight was to take 70 days and 60 hours.

Ralph Lomen, Norwegian vice consul and a lifetime friend of Amundsen, was selected to head the welcoming committee. Plans call for the deflation of the Norge here, and its shipment to Seattle, Washington, on the steamship Victoria. Amundsen was reported to have promised Seattle friends a year ago that he would spend the fourth of July in Seattle.

NO CHANCE FOR BOLSHEVISM IN GREAT BRITAIN

London Editor Sees Big Defeat For Reds

GREAT TRIUMPH

Declares Recent Events in England Will Be Felt Throughout World

By RALPH D. BLUMENFELD, Editor of the London Daily Express

LONDON, May 12.—The great understanding and indisputable point arising after five days of upheaval is that England is not a revolutionary country and that there is no chance for Bolshevism here.

That sinister prophecy of impending Bolshevism has been made so frequently in the last few years that many people feared Russia's fate was about to befall us.

England intends to run her own business according to her constitutional rights. It will take some days possibly a week for the papers of England to resume their normal form.

NATIONAL HOSPITAL DAY IS OBSERVED

Many Citizens Attend Moncton City Hospital and The Hotel Dieu

Special to The Times-Star. MONCTON, N. B., May 13.—The inclemency of the weather yesterday did not prevent a large number of Monctonians from paying a visit to the city and Hotel Dieu Hospitals on the occasion of National Hospital Day.

At the City Hospital over 300 attended and they were conducted through the entire building by nurses, who explained the use of the X-ray equipment, laboratory, operating room and other phases of the hospital work.

At the Hotel Dieu Hospital, many visitors called and inspected the hospital. Owing to limited space, no special program was carried out.

Dr. R. J. Collins, superintendent of River Glade Sanatorium, and Dr. Whelan, traveling diagnostician of the N. B. Dept. of Health, also spoke on hospital administration and the history of the hospital since its beginning and also gave some very interesting figures as to the cost of operations in the intervening years.

LEAGUE MEMBERSHIP PROBLEMS TACKLED

Reorganization Commission is Planning For Non-permanent Members

Canadian Press. GENEVA, May 13.—Measures designed to solve the problem of membership in the League of Nations council, were taken yesterday by the special commission investigating reorganization of the council.

The commission voted that non-permanent members, in which category Brazil and Spain come, shall not be re-eligible for three years after the expiration of their term, but that the League Assembly by a special resolution, may declare one-third of the permanent members re-eligible practically for an indefinite period.

France has announced that she will ratify the amendment to the League covenant for the rotation of non-permanent members leaving Spain the only country whose non-ratification prevents the amendment from coming into force.

Want Sub-Committee On Salary Schedule

OTTAWA, May 13.—Realizing there was a danger that the salary schedule recently sent by the civil service commission to the government might be returned, the post office employees of Montreal sent a delegation yesterday to request that the sub-committee of the cabinet handle the matter through Hon. Dr. King.

MISSING MAN IS SOUGHT IN NIGHT CLUBS

Police Think Walter S. Ward May Have Staged Own Disappearance

NEW YORK, May 13.—Five days after Walter S. Ward, wealthy sportsman, dropped from sight his whereabouts have remained shadowed in mystery. Diligent search at the Pimlico race track in Maryland, New York and in Broadway night clubs failed to unearth a clue.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., MAY 13, 1926.

CITY AND PORT.

Saint John, in its day, has encountered an unusual measure of misfortune, but at least at times it has passed through deep discouragement and depression, its people have never been beaten. They have builded anew and gone forward resolutely to better days.

There is little in luck if we take the long view, but the word is sometimes useful for purposes of illustration or comparison, and it is now justifiable to say that Saint John appears to be on the eve of exchanging good fortune for bad. One of the bits of luck, using that word with some looseness of definition, is the election of Mayor White at a time when the citizens are ready to follow sane and constructive leadership.

The Mayor not only finds good tools ready to his hand—which in itself is important—but he comes to the office of Chief Magistrate with a definite programme in mind, not a dreamer's programme, not a boomer's programme, but the programme of a man whose business experience, whose knowledge of financial matters, whose complete understanding of the city's present situation and of its possibilities is supplemented by vision, hard-headed capacity, courage and an invaluable sense of proportion.

In a series of addresses which he has delivered to the members of several public-spirited organizations since his election day, His Worship speaking across the table as man to man, shunning publicity at the time on the ground that any formal announcement should be made to and through the Common Council—thereby exhibiting a sane sense of the official proprieties—has outlined succinctly his ideas concerning the past, the present and the future of Saint John, not of the port alone, but with relation to all the interests which bear upon the prosperity and contentment of the citizens at large.

Doctor White is quite content to be judged by what he does hereafter, rather than by what he says in advance. He does not say what he can or will do, but he has placed before hundreds of citizens a clear cut and most comprehensive summary of the things which, in his view, can and should be done not only to correct existing conditions but to give Saint John in the years to come—and at no very distant date—the position which he believes it should occupy, and which, through their co-operation, their devotion, their work, it surely can attain if they have faith and will remember that faith without works is dead.

The Times-Star could not, without impropriety, assume to foreshadow the Mayor's inaugural. He speaks for himself far better than anyone could speak for him, even if any such thing were in order. But this may be said, and should be said, in the addresses already delivered before the organizations mentioned he has established contacts and created among hundreds representing many walks in life a confidence, not to say enthusiasm, which has become with us a very lean diet—but confidence based upon conviction and knowledge.

The Mayor looks back into his history for inspiration and guidance; he analyzes our present situation keenly, going to the roots of the matter; he looks ahead along broad gauge lines, and his proposals for a reasonably rapid expansion are those of a man who knows where he is going and who, when his plans have been placed in detail before the people, will certainly not lack a powerful following which will be steadily augmented as he and his associates progress.

His Worship would be the last man to fall to give due credit to those groups of citizens who have done invaluable spare work in preparing for Saint John's advancement. He is fully cognizant of the fact that he comes to his high office at a favorable moment. It will be seen shortly, if we may venture to predict, that he has the knowledge, the insight, and the courage to give Saint John that quality of civic leadership which is so essential at this turning point in our history. He believes that our future lies in the sea, that we can find markets to absorb not only our present products but the far greater volume which we should be offering for sale as a result of our heritage in the fisheries, in agriculture, our opportunities for manufacturing, our attractions for capital, and, by no means least, our most fortunate situation as a port, one of the great ocean gateways of the Dominion, served by two transcontinental railways, an asset invaluable to the Dominion at large and priceless as regards ourselves if we can secure justice from the Dominion and so be permitted to capitalize what we have.

The Mayor has a penetrating grasp of the taxation situation, of the need for more population in order to bring down our overhead and give us a more vigorous current of life blood, of the need for and the value of new gress. The athlete, if he would succeed, must train, exercise self-restraint and, above all, avoid excesses in every form. Waterloo was won on the playing fields of Eton. If at some later date we are called on to fight another Waterloo, doubtless the Y. M. C. A. grounds in Saint John and elsewhere will lay equal claim to having contributed to an interesting and commendable association of the city and will encourage constructive leadership. Another project of the association, the preparation of a quarter mile cinder track for the young athletes of Carleton, is equally commendable. The association is to be congratulated. It deserves full community support.

The West End Progressive Association does a fine thing by assuming the burden and expense of a clean-up day for that part of the city. The people should be equally ready to respond. It is interesting to note that the association is to be congratulated. It deserves full community support.

HOW TO KEEP YOUR FRIENDS

Miss Mary Jackson had a beau, Chris Taylor was his name.
To see Miss Mary, don't you know, Most every night he came.
But now, 'tis rather sad to state, Poor Mary's lost her Chris;
He hasn't been around of late To see his little Miss.
She loathed him money!

A hushfinger at Casey's place
Was liked by all the bunch;
A snipe was always on his face,
He set a dandy lunch.
He did a thriving business, too,
Which made old Casey smile;
But now his customers are few,
They've been so quick to swindle.
He loathed them money!

In the new Memorial Hall of the University of New Brunswick some where about the time this goes to press a group of girls and young men will be passing a milestone of their lives. Many call Saint John their home; almost all are natives of the Maritimes. They mount the platform in a single file, robed in academic garb, their heads carefully arranged for the first time. Their caps they hold in their hands.

Ranged on the platform are the Senate and Faculty of the University, seated by the august Chancellor in the velvet cap. The body of the hall is filled with parents, relatives, friends, alumni and alumni, with a sprinkling of undergraduates, though the majority of the latter prefer the gallery.

One by one the graduates advance to the Chancellor; a few sentences in Latin, the cap is placed on the head of the new Bachelor of Arts, Science or Law, as the case may be, a congratulatory handshake, the presentation of a parchment scroll, and the ordeal is over—the milestone passed.

About it all is nothing spectacular, and yet the ceremony is vastly affecting. Though some may seek postgraduate honors, it means for most of the young men and women that education, in the accepted sense, is finished; that they are now ready to step out into the world to continue—perhaps really to begin—their real education in the university of life. They dream dreams of what they will do to make the world better. Some of these dreams will be realized; some extend into vision wisers of beneficence; some inevitably will fade away.

Today the graduates are experiencing the friendly hand on the shoulder; tomorrow, doubtless, they will taste the gall of censure or rebuff, only to succumb once more to the sweets of approbation. That life—praise and blame are equally necessary to progress, equally salutary providing neither be unmerited. Meanwhile their hearts are full, and we outsiders cannot fail to be affected by their emotion. We see youth going gallantly forth to battle, girl in bright new armor, some as knights errant; some in Free Companies; some under the banner of a tried warrior. What will be their ultimate fate we know not, but we wish them one and all health, happiness and prosperity.

The province today congratulates those graduating from the provincial University on success achieved and tenders its hopes for successes to come.

Saint John should take particular note of the sobriety athletic meet arranged for Loyalist day and already in train. Athletics in all forms are worthy of support and encouragement; amateur athletics are particularly worthy, inasmuch as they induce all to participate instead of remaining mere spectators; but of all forms juvenile athletics are the most laudable. Athletics bring out all the sterner qualities that we are apt to lose as life becomes easier by reason of civilization's pro-

Poems I Love

By CHARLES HANSON TOWNE

"To a Friend of Boyhood Lost at Sea," by Alfred Noyes.

MR. NOYES must be weary of being told that he is a balladist, first and last. Whenever he attempts to express himself in any other way, a hundred critics rise up to tell him to stick to his last. I have the greatest admiration for his "Highwayman," and "The Barrel-Organ," and that rich group of songs, which runs like golden threads through his "Tales of the Mermaid Tavern." But I think Noyes is far more than a mere teller of tales in verse. His blank verse is resonant and full of iron and his free readings from his poems have done much to stimulate interest in all poetry.

The raw potato that we sliced,
For mackerel-bait—and how it shines
Far down, at end of the taut line!—
And the great catch we made that day,
Leading our boat with rainbows, quick
And quivering, while you smoked
Your clay,
And I look home your "Deadwood
Dick"
In yellow and red, when day was done,
And you took home my Stevenson?
Not leagues, as when you sailed the deep,
But only some frail bars of sleep
Sever us now! Methinks you still
Recall, as I, in dreams, the quay,
The little port below the hill:
And all the changes of the sea,
Like some great music, can but turn
Our lives still nearer to the goal,

This word or two to you;
If you'd keep friends you make each

And have them always true,
No matter who or what they be

You'll lose but few, undoubtedly,
If you'll take this advice:
Don't lend them money!)

PROBLEMS OF EDUCATION

THE problem of education, the teaching of people (adults as well as the young) things that will make them better citizens—more intelligent beings, that will help them get the most out of this business of living—socializing them—is the most important problem of our generation.

There is a general discontent with the old methods of education—discontent among educators no less than with the laymen, and a constant advancement of new ideas and experiments in the hope that more ideal methods of training may be discovered.

"Supposing it be conceded," says James H. Robinson, in "The Humanizing of Knowledge," "that at least one of the objects of general education is to help the young to become acquainted with the best that is now known or guessed about mankind and the world; that it concerns them to know this, and that it should be so presented that it will, by encouraging them to scrutinize our stock notions and habits, best prepare them to lead more intelligent lives and deal more wisely than their predecessors with old and new problems. How are mankind's guides and instructors to

WHO'S WHO

A. J. COOK, the most radical of the later leaders active in the English general strike is A. J. Cook, head of the Miners' Federation in Great Britain. He is an out and out Communist and has had frequent disagreements with other prominent labor men. One of these, J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, during the early days of the coal controversy when he was opposing the counsel of Cook, remarked the miner's leader "would perform a lasting service to the cause of the workers by taking a rest."

What is needed in our educational methods is not a limitation of research and a creation of barriers over which the youthful mind must not leap.

"What we need most," Robinson says, "is a new intellectual mood, a new tolerance of intelligent divergence of opinion, a new appreciation of the role of knowledge in human planning. In order to achieve this we can well afford to be more courageous and adventurous than our predecessors. In view of the infinite possibilities of further enlightenment that have opened before us. Our knowledge must be recast so as to become a part of our daily reckonings."

BOARD AT GENEVA ACTS TO FACILITATE GERMAN ELECTION

Adopts Clause to Hinder Brazil's Barring of Teuton Entry

FIGHT TO PREVENT CHANGE DEFEATED

Non-Permanent Members of League Council Get 3-Year Terms

Canadian Press Despatch.

GENEVA, May 12.—The special commission studying the reorganization of the League of Nations Council today took several steps which are expected to advance materially the possibility of Germany's election to the League at the September assembly.

Until now the practice has been that the new members assume their duties on the first of the year, but the commission voted today that the new non-permanent members should take office immediately on election. Brazil and Spain abstained from voting in order not to break the unanimity rule of the council.

MEANING OF DECISION.

The commission's decision means that should Brazil fail for re-election as a non-permanent member of the council this September, she will be unable to veto the election of Germany to a permanent seat in that body, a condition on which Germany has precipitated her application to join the League.

The commission likewise provisionally agreed that non-permanent members of the council, whose number will be determined later, shall be elected for a term of three years instead of the present term of one year, and that one-third of the total number shall be elected each year. Viscount Cecil, British delegate, has proposed that the non-permanent members be increased from six to nine.

Senator Montano, of Brazil, made a stiff fight against the plan to alter the term of the non-permanent members and in September instead of January, but found the commission solidly against him. He contended that the change was revolutionary and unjustified.

PREPARE FOR DANCE

At a joint meeting of the Trojan and Trojan-Rovers held last night plans were completed for the Mayfest dance and bridge to be held on Friday night to raise funds for the basketball season of next year. Mrs. R. G. March, president of the Trojan-Rovers, was in the chair. Many novelties and special features were decided upon and most satisfactory reports were received from the sale of tickets. There is every indication that the dance will be an even greater success than the last dance given by the two organizations jointly which was an outstanding event of the season.

NEW TOURIST PUBLICATIONS ISSUED BY C. N. R.

The Canadian National Railways have recently published new illustrated booklets dealing with each of the Maritime Provinces, and they are now being distributed through its various agencies scattered throughout the United States and Canada. These booklets were printed in the Maritime Provinces and are a fine example of what can be done in that regard in those Provinces.

The booklet dealing with New Brunswick is well gotten up and contains some very interesting views of some of the outstanding beauty spots and places of interest throughout the Province.

These booklets have done much to attract tourists to the Provinces, and it is suggested that persons having relatives or friends in the United States or Canada to whom they would like to send, if they will write the General Passenger Department of the Canadian National Railways at Moncton, N. B., copies will be gladly mailed to the person whose name and address are given.

ALUMNI OF U. N. B. CHOOSE OFFICERS, AND AWARD PRIZES

H. H. Hagerman and Miss Mabel Stirling, of F'ton, Associate Presidents

FREDERICTON, May 12.—At the annual meeting of the Associate Alumni of the U. N. B., held tonight in the Arts building with a large representation of the members present, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, H. H. Hagerman, Fredericton; vice-president, Dr. W. H. Mackinnon, Fredericton; and B. M. Hill, Saint John; secretary-treasurer, Dr. H. V. B. Bridges, Fredericton; additional members of the Council, W. J. S. Myles, W. Brodie and E. C. Weyman, Saint John; P. J. McNeil, Saint John; J. T. Adair, Campbellton. Representatives to the Senate, Lieut.-Col. W. H. Harrison, Saint John; and Hon. Mr. Justice Crockett, Fredericton. Other representatives to the Senate are B. M. Hill and C. McN. Steeves.

MEDAL NOT AWARDED.

The examiners for the Alumni medal for translating English prose into Latin recommended that no award be made this year. The special committee consisting of A. S. MacFarlane, J. B. McNair and Geoffrey Stead, which was appointed to inquire into the reasons for the decrease in the number of contestants for the Alumni medal reported that the decrease was due to the attention of the undergraduates being given more especially to applied science and other courses in which statistics are not required. Nevertheless it was recommended that the medal be awarded, as it has always been a translation of English prose to Latin.

TIE FOR SCHOLARSHIP.

Professor A. F. Baird reported that the Brydone Jack scholarship for physics had been tied for by W. W. Donohue of Saint John and N. Steeves and it was decided to divide the award between the two.

C. McN. Steeves recommended that steps be taken to hold a reunion in 1926 to commemorate the centennial of the opening of the Arts building and this recommendation was referred to the Council.

Dr. J. C. Murray, president of the University of Saskatchewan, was elected to honorary membership. W. J. S. Myles reported on the activities of the Saint John U. N. B. Club.

ALUMNAE OFFICERS

The U. N. B. Alumnae Society also held its annual session tonight and met at the residence of Mrs. J. E. Page. Officers for the ensuing session were elected as follows: President, Miss Mabel Stirling, Fredericton; vice-president, Miss Ethel VanWart, Fredericton; secretary-treasurer, Miss Grace Fleming, Saint John; assistant secretary, Miss Sarah L. Thompson, Fredericton; representative to the senate, Miss Stirling. Following the business session there was a reception for the women undergraduates.

Mrs. C. C. Jones, who is the chairman of the U. N. B., entertained the members of the graduating class and friends at tea at her residence and at noon the young ladies of the graduating class were the guests of the other girls of the college at a luncheon.

2 Halifax Men Adrift At Sea 5 Days Saved

HALIFAX, May 12.—Five days and nights adrift on the Atlantic in a disabled motor boat with mountainous waves threatening to engulf them, beaten with blizzards of snow and drenched with rain, James Whitman and Walter White, of this city, were snatched from death yesterday morning by the Lunenburg schooner Ida M. Zink some 12 miles off the Sambro Lightship and landed here today little the worse for their exposure. From late Thursday night until 11 o'clock yesterday morning the men were tossed about at the mercy of the wind and sea. The men claim every kind of weather from wintry blizzards to a tropical electrical storm. Forced to bail water from their frail craft constantly and with neither food nor water to sustain them. The men claim they owe their lives to the fact that they carried some liquor which they drank in small quantities to satisfy their thirst.

TIDAL POWER PLAN UP IN COMMITTEE

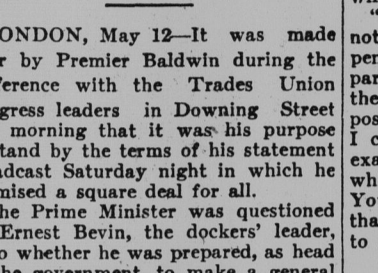

Passamaquoddy Scheme Awaits Sanction by Ottawa House

OTTAWA, May 12.—The scheme for using tidal waters of Passamaquoddy Bay, New Brunswick, for the development of electrical power, was before the private bills committee of the House this morning, and adjourned for a week. The scheme provides for the construction of a series of dams, with locks, running from Maine to New Brunswick, via the intervening islands at the mouth of Passamaquoddy Bay. The power house is to be situated on the American side of the bay near Eastport, Maine.

This morning's proceedings consisted of the presentation of the case of the Canadian Dexter P. Cooper Company, which is seeking incorporation by private bill. The company is asking for the necessary authority to develop power and to sell it in Canada and the United States, subject to the provisions of the electricity and fluid exportation act 1907.

In Addition to the Old Complications of Matrimony Appears a New One in the Form of Man's Jealousy for a Modern Wife's Superior Business Ability—and Earning Power.

THE other day a man killed his beautiful young wife because she was a better business man than he was, and made more money. The woman loved her husband and was good to him. She was ambitious for him. She got him a job with the people for whom she worked, and tried to push him along and help him in every way. But it simply was not in him to be the go-getter that she was. She was a success and he was a failure. And in the frenzy of morbid jealousy that this engendered in him, he slew her.

This vividly do we have brought to our attention one of the new difficulties that the advent of woman into the already complicated matrimonial proposition. It makes the question of how the modern wife can best be a helpmeet to her husband one that takes a Solomon in peacocks to answer.

IN OLDEN times the matter was perfectly simple. The woman who wanted to help her husband along had only to be a good and thrifty manager, to pare the potatoes thin enough and squeeze the nickles. She did her part in building up the family fortunes by saving.

But, in many cases, the old woman's granddaughter is a crackerjack business woman who sees that she can help her husband more by earning than by scrimping, and that she can make more money in one year in business than she could save in ten years by doing her own housework and wearing shabby clothes.

So, as long as she is working for the communal good, the woman who cannot understand why her husband shouldn't be just as willing for her to help him by working in an office as in a kitchen, or why the wife who does brain labor isn't as good a wife as the one who does manual labor.

But the great majority of women who continue to follow any painful pursuit after marriage find out that while there is a new woman who looks at everything in life from a new angle, there is no new man. Women have changed in their relationship to men, but men stand pat just where Adam did when it comes to dealing with women.

IF YOU will notice, it is only women who prate about equality between the sexes. Men take no stock in any such heresy. When a man tells a woman that she is an angel, and that he looks up to her and worships her, it is one of the lover's perjuries at which Joyce laughs. In reality, he doesn't mean a word of it.

The very basic thing on which a man's love for a woman is built is his sense of superiority to her. He wants to feel stronger than she is, wiser than she is, to be more successful than she is. She must look up to him, revere him, ask his opinion, be guided by his advice.

THAT is why the clinging-vine type of woman is so appealing to men, and it is why intelligent, big-brained men so often marry morons, and are happy and contented with them. Their silly little wives do not understand one word in five they say, and are no companions to them, but they satisfy the masculine demand to dominate the woman.

When the case is reversed, as it often is, and when the wife is the more intelligent, the stronger character—when the gray mare is the better horse and pulls most of the load—the marriage is invariably unhappy, and the husband almost invariably either openly or secretly hates his wife.

His love for her is never strong enough to survive the hurt to his vanity. His sense of inferiority to her keeps his nerves raw, and if he is dependent upon her, it turns his very soul to wormwood and gall. I have never known a woman who supported her husband who received any gratitude for it. He would eat her bread, but he did it as a snapping dog that bites the hand that feeds it.

THERE is nothing that fills a woman's cup of happiness so full and overflowing as for her husband to achieve a notable success and be great and famous. She glories in being Mrs. Explorer or Mrs. Engineer or Mrs. Banker or Mrs. Author, and loves to shine in the reflected glory. But the deadliest insult you can offer any man is to speak of him as his wife's husband and call him Mrs. Mary Smith, although Mary may have written the book of the year, or have performed some achievement that has made the world sit up and take notice of her.

Perhaps all of this is natural. Perhaps this cosmic urge that the male has to dominate the female is something instinctive for which he is not responsible. But anyway it is there, and it is something with which the woman who wants to be a good wife, who wants to do her duty to husband and to help him, has to take into consideration.

AND it makes her course a hard one to steer, for, curiously enough, the weak man is often attracted to the strong woman that wants to mother the weak man, and makes her feel that he only needs her to take care of him and boost him and show him the way to success.

So the girl who is making a big salary marries the man who is making a small one, and she tries to supply for him the business sense he lacks and to galvanize him into a hustle of which he is incapable, and they live scraphily ever afterward.

Yet there is nothing we can do about it as long as nature goes blundering along putting the brains and talents of merchants and bankers and trust presidents into a lot of women's heads, and making plenty of men who would have been wonderful housekeepers, and done perfectly lovely embroidery work, if only they hadn't gotten the wrong sex.

Fur, Feather, Chiffon, Silk Seen In Summer Styles

By MME. LISBETH
ACCORDING to the above sample of Dame Fashion's art, fur and feathers, silk, velvet and flimsy chiffons are all worn as part of the summer wardrobe of the well-dressed woman. The photograph was posed by some of California's beauties.

BIBLE PRESENTED

A pleasing event took place Tuesday night in the home of F. S. Thomas, Douglas avenue, when a delegation representing the young men's Bible class of Portland United Church presented to Mr. Thomas a de luxe edition of Dr. Schofield's reference Bible, in recognition of his long association with the class as teacher. The presentation was made by George H. Lewis and A. C. Powers, who conveyed the good wishes of the class in a few well-chosen words. Mr. Thomas has been a teacher of the Bible class for about 30 years.

An odd little costume trimmed elaborately with ostrich feathers and big black polka dots is more appropriate for the fancy dress ball than for any other occasion. An exquisite evening gown, embroidered and beaded in large, flower-like designs, is worn by the third member of the group. Behind her is a filmy dress of chiffon, also trimmed with feathers, while the fifth figure wears a smart velvet coat with handbags of white summer fur.

Menus for the Family

Breakfast:

Coffee

Veal Loaf, Scalloped Potatoes, Shredded Cabbage, Spiced Fruit Salad, Tea, Supper, Cheese Biscuits, Pineapple, Cakes.

GRAPFRUIT SALAD—Peel the grapefruit and then skin the sections very carefully so as not to break them. Lay about three of the sections on a bed of crisp lettuce in the individual salad plate. Over the top sprinkle paprika and then serve with a French dressing made from the mixture of two parts olive oil to one of lemon juice, with one saltspoonful of salt to each tablespoonful of lemon juice.

SPLIT PEA SOUP—One cupful of dry green peas, soaked overnight in four cups of water. In the same water the next day simmer the peas for about five hours. The same water should be used, for in this water are the beneficial mineral salts. To the peas when starting to cook add one-half teaspoonful salt, one-fourth teaspoonful pepper, one tablespoonful butter and one of the outer stalks of a head of celery—some of the large stalks that would not be served in the table. This is boiled with the soup only for the flavor, and when done it is removed and the soup has no further use for it. When the soup is thoroughly done strain through a colander. Have ready a pint of milk and stir into the soup stock and bring to boiling point but do not allow to actually boil. Serve with croutons.

FOR Stomach
Acid PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, raspy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

BETTER THAN SODA

For fifty years genuine "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

A Thought

A false balance is abomination to the Lord, but a just weight is his delight. Prov. 11:1.

Is this your BIRTHDAY

MAY 15—You are just, honest, intellectual, of a somewhat retiring nature, slightly subject to moods, but most lovable at all times. You enjoy travel, not because of the change, but for the educational value. You make the most of your opportunities for mental betterment. You will be happy in married life if you refrain from wanting to be master.

Your birth-stone is an emerald, which means success in love.

Your flower is a lily.

Your lucky colors are red and yellow.

IN NEW YORK SEE SAWING UP and DOWN BROADWAY

VERY fancy priced perfumes are featured by drug stores of Broadway's bright lights.

The dear girls of the music shows and night clubs just "must have the very best" and they don't care how much it costs, long as someone else pays for it.

When a "spending Johnny" meets his chortle at the close of the performance she suddenly discovers to her dismay that she has left her perfume in the dressing room.

"Oh, that's all right," says the John and leads her to the drug store of her selection. Of course he buys. She sniffs over something that costs $20 per sniff, gives the salesman a shy wink and goes on. Later on she receives a good commission.

I am told of one place where the same bottle is sold over and over again and the girl gets $20.

SCARCE a month passes but some news buzzes around Broadway about Nick the Greek, gambler of gamblers, suave and personable, literate and polished, a real fiction gambler in the flesh.

Some weeks ago this column recorded his return from the Middle West with a fat new roll. He has lost many fortunes in a roll of the dice, and he has built many the same way.

There are tales of a game recently in which Nick refused to "fade" any bet lower than $20,000.

He'll be back in a few months for another try at it. Next time he may stay longer and send some of the other boys out to recuperate. Nobody knows exactly how he reaps his new fortunes when he disappears. Probably the same way he lost them. He probably finds a small game and works it into a fortune. Anyway he always comes back with big money.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

THE WHIFFET WHOLOST HIS SHADOW
One day as the Twins were taking turns in the old swing, they heard someone crying.

And looking down they beheld a funny little creature in a bombazine suit.

"Who are you and what's the matter?" asked the Twins together just like that.

Sniffle! Sniffle! wept the tiny creature in the bombazine suit. "My name's Whiffet and I've lost my shadow!"

"Whiffet!" cried Nancy, bending down low so she could see him better. "What's the last name?"

"There isn't any," said the funny little fellow in the bombazine suit. "It's just Whiffet. Don't you know what a Whiffet is?"

"No, I don't," said Nancy shaking her head. "Did you, Nick? Did you ever hear of a Whiffet?"

"No, I didn't either," said Nick. "Where do you live?"

"Whiffet lives in rag bags and dress on left-overs," said the tiny creature. "When they are a year old their parents give them their fortune in buttons and send them out into the world. I'm out in the world now. I'm seeking my shadow. It's lost. Sniffle! Sniffle! And I can't find it. Sniffle! Sniffle!"

"Dear me! Then I'll have to help you," said a voice the Twins knew well. And there on a stalk of yellow butter-eggs, sat the Fairy Queen, smiling in ever so friendly a fashion.

"Oh, thank you," said the Whiffet. "I'm ever so much obliged. Up in the attic where the rag-bag was I didn't have a shadow, for there wasn't any sun, but when I started off on my ad-

That is because Heinz beans are oven-baked. No other way of preparing beans can bring out the full, rich, nut-like flavor. And, what is more, oven baking makes them easy to digest and most nutritious.

So, ask for Heinz Oven-Baked Beans. Let the label be your guide. Beans that are not oven-baked cannot be labeled baked.

Oven baking takes longer—but it makes you remember longer how really good Heinz Baked Beans are.

FAMILY RECORDS OF NOTED LADY ARRIVE

Archives Has Latest List of Descendants of Anneke Jans Webber

The latest installment of the record of the descendants of Anneke Jans Webber, to be received at the local office of the Dominion archives, gives the names of the various grand-children of that much talked of lady who acquired such large property interests in New York city, which her descendants now hope to claim.

The Archives are indebted to Douglas Cody, of this city, for these lists, as he receives them directly from the New York Chancery record as they are published in monthly installments.

Among the many inquiries for information received at the local archives office queries on the Anneke Jans genealogy are considerably more numerous.

Some inquiries seek particulars of early settlers in this province and recently one inquirer wished for information regarding the various types of transportation used about three-quarters of a century ago.

An excellent system of filing the records and cataloguing them has been made and the historical data of the office is made more readily accessible than formerly.

Social Notes of Interest

Mrs. Frederick M. Keator was the hostess at a small but none the less enjoyable bridge at her residence, Garden street, Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. G. S. Keator. Spring flowers adorned the drawing room and also the tea table, over which Mrs. Simon A. Jones presided, assisted by Miss Frances Hollo Kerr, Miss Mary Harrison and Miss Anne Bruce. Prizes were won by Mrs. George K. McLeod, Mrs. Carleton Lee, Miss Kaye and Mrs. John K. Schofield.

The Overseas Nursing Sisters Club, which was organized on Armistice Day, met last evening at the Admiral Beatty Hotel, after which dinner was enjoyed and the members attended the second performance at the Imperial Theatre. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the attendance at the meeting was not as large as usual.

Mrs. E. Allan Schofield, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Harace Egan, and two children, arrived in the city yesterday from Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Egan will occupy the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Schofield in King street east for several weeks and will later move to the summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. Schofield in Robbsey Park for the summer months.

Mrs. E. B. Nixon is expected home today from Montreal, where she has been a patient in the Ross Memorial Pavilion for several weeks. Nixon's many friends will be pleased to know she is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Schofield have taken up their residence at the Kennedy House, Robbsey, for the summer months. Mrs. M. J. Nugent, 39 Richmond street, and her daughter, Florence, have left for Antigonish, N.S., to be present at the graduation exercises at St. Francis Xavier College. Mrs. Nugent's son, James is amongst this year's graduates.

A farewell party was held on Tuesday evening at the home of the Misses Jessie and Alice Orr by the Golden Rule Club of the Central Baptist church in honor of Miss Gertrude Cummings, who is leaving the city shortly for her residence in Boston. During the evening Mrs. Miles Thorne made the presentation of a beautiful purse to Miss Cummings on behalf of those present and she was also made the recipient of many other gifts.

The April number of The Maple Leaf, a monthly published in Oakland, California, and devoted to the interests of Canadians at home and abroad, has the following clipping, accompanied by a photograph of Miss Helen M. Robertson:

"We take pleasure this month in presenting a half-tone portrait of Miss Helen Margaret Robertson, a bright young local girl, who will be graduated from the Piedmont High School at the end of the present semester. Miss Robertson, now about 17 years of age, has been a tireless and brilliant student all during her school years, and will shortly be rewarded by being presented with her diploma by the school department.

Besides being a member of the Honor Society of Piedmont High School, Helen is a student at the Curtis Art and Craft School, and President of the High School Art Club.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. S. Poole in the presence of a few immediate friends and relatives. The happy couple left on the evening train for a trip through the province and on their return they will reside at Springfield, where the groom is a prosperous farmer and lumberman.

HARD PIMPLES ALL OVER FACE Lasted Three Years. Healed by Cuticura.

"My trouble began with pimples breaking out all over my face. They were hard, large and red, and feasted and scaled over. The pimples used to burn, causing me to scratch, and my face looked so badly that I was ashamed to go anywhere. The trouble lasted three years. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more and I was healed after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and four boxes of Cuticura Ointment." New Red Cross Nursing Class Is Formed At Enniskillen

A new Red Cross home nursing class was organized by Miss S. A. Barrington, at Enniskillen on Tuesday, when she addressed the meeting of the Enniskillen Women's Institute. The members of the institute were greatly interested in Miss Barrington's account of the Red Cross work, and were eager to enroll in the newly formed class.

Various members offered the different pieces of equipment that will be needed to conduct the nursing classes, one promising to supply the bed and mattress, another undertaking to provide the linen and others arranging to provide the other articles required which can be found in every household.

The members also said they would tell the residents of neighboring communities, and if possible arrange for other classes in home nursing in that locality. There are already several classes organized in that neighborhood, and they will all be made into one group for instruction by one nurse, who will be sent to the district shortly.

Head of Canadian Cottons, Ltd. Gives Advisory Address To Graduates of N. B. Institution

EXCELLENT SPEECHES MARK ENCAENIA

Founders Praised By Professor Webb, Class Farewelled By W. S. McFarlane, Alumni Orator By J. T. Hebert—Hon. C. D. Richards On Memorial Hall

Special to The Times-Star. FREDERICTON, N. B., May 13.—Addresses laudatory of the University of New Brunswick and breathing optimism and encouragement as well as advice, marked the encaenia exercises at the U. N. B. this afternoon.

The proceedings were along the customary lines and were followed with much interest by the large number attending.

Prof. Webb, who gave the address in praise of the founders, said:

"In the library of the arts building there hangs a framed document entitled 'The Gern of the University of New Brunswick'. This is the original petition which Dr. Paine and six other Loyalists presented to Governor Carleton in 1783 urging the establishment of a college of liberal arts and sciences. Even prior to their departure from New York certain Loyalists had written to Sir Guy Carleton in 1783 pointing out the necessity of a school of higher education in the land in which they were about to settle in order that their sons might not imbibe principles unfriendly to the British Constitution. This gathering here today, to take part in the annual graduation exercises, is sufficient evidence that their efforts to found a seat of learning were not in vain. It is therefore fitting that we pay tribute at this time to the memory of those founders, who, having accomplished that which they set out to accomplish, have long since been numbered with the illustrious dead. They were men of vision and courage with the true faith of Empire builders whose high ideals were never lost sight of in the hardship and suffering which attended those first few years in this new land. They recognized the need of higher education and the service a state university might render this province.

AIM OF THE COLLEGE.

Sir Howard Douglas in his inaugural address at the dedication of the arts building in 1829, defined the aim of the college, "to train men to virtuous, well educated, accomplished, manhood, to bring them the blessings of a sound, virtuous, useful, religious education, to enable them to go to old age with consciences devoid of strain and conduct devoid of censure."

BROADER BASIS.

In reviewing, however, the history of the college from the small beginning to the present day, one is impressed by the many difficulties, some of which threatened the very existence of the college, and temporarily retarded its development before being surmounted. The founders had placed considerable emphasis on the moral and religious aspects of education, and, in common with the custom of that age, sought this value in a way that seemed to limit the religious freedom of others. There was some criticism of the college at that time. Disasters of Assembly and that reached a climax in 1859 when legislation was enacted establishing the University of New Brunswick under broader non-sectarian lines.

ABLE PRESIDENTS.

No small part of the service which this university has rendered has been due to the leaders who have successfully piloted it through its many vicissitudes. The University of New Brunswick has been especially fortunate in always having had at its head very able men. I refer especially to Dr. Brydon Jack, who in his first Encaenia address revealed his fine optimistic spirit when he stated, "our Provincial University will yet flourish and enjoy that measure of success which the advocates and well-wishers of the higher education have long desired to obtain," and further in this speech he said, "I can see no good reason for being cast down or disheartened." Space and time will not permit paying proper tribute to this fine scholar and leader who gave 45 years of his life to the arduous task of developing this seat of learning. Since the death of this great educationalist in 1888, development has steadily continued, especially under our present chancellor.

STRIDES OF SCIENCE.

The present century is outstanding for the great strides made in science which forms such a very prominent feature in the culture of this age. So rapid and spectacular has been the advance, especially in electrical engineering, that we have become accustomed to the remarkable inventions which have resulted from research. In fact we are apt to become impatient if the predicted inventions of our more enthusiastic scientists are not rapidly commercialized. This university has met this new condition by the establishment of engineering departments. The first degrees in engineering were conferred in the year 1900. Now there are separate and distinct courses in civil engineering, electrical engineering and forestry.

In this period of specialization, the engineer of forestry must secure, in addition to a general knowledge of his subject, specialized training in his own practical field. The only way to learn Nature's laws is to experiment.

to the science courses. Today marks the third graduating class from the Law School. There has been a steady development in the arts course. In fact, the arts and science courses are very closely interwoven for there is no real dividing line between art and science.

NO LIMIT TO EXPANSION

But we must not live in the past. Our university is now well established for an era of much greater expansion. Nor is there any visible material limit to the expansion of a university curriculum since the controlling principle of university life is that of service to the country. University ideals are the sternest facts with which states and civilizations finally deal. The university says that man can recognize no master but the truth and that mind is a mighty force making for rich and abundant life.

PURPOSE OF EDUCATION

Three great purposes are characteristic of all true university education. First, it must fit the student for service in some special life work. It must train him to be competent in his chosen profession. Such training must be thorough, modern and equal to the requirements of present knowledge. A second aim is to equip the student for broad-minded, intelligent citizenship. He must not only be an efficient engineer, a skilful physician or the best forester, but he must make a well-balanced, clear-visioned contribution as a man of weight to the needs of the community.

The third aim, no less important than the others, is the development of character. The student should leave the university stronger, more self-reliant, more manly than when he enters its doors. His student days should not merely be a mental but also a moral ripening. The development of character is chiefly a result of atmosphere, example and personal contact. It can best be achieved by the creation and vigilant maintenance of an atmosphere in which the mastery of a profession and the highest service to the community are inseparable.

At no time in the history of our university has there been a greater interest shown and a greater support given by graduates and friends than during the last few years. So many of our graduates have attained national, even international prominence in their professions. But whatever their station in life, there has been a hearty response to the appeal for support. The endowment fund grows larger day by day. Never before has a better university spirit existed amongst our increasing student body.

TRIBUTE TO SPORTS

The fine example of sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct shown by our football team in Montreal last autumn made a great impression on the spectators and was the subject of special comment by several of Canada's leading men. That football team contained men from every class and course of training at the university. With such a fine type of students we have every reason to look to the future with confidence. Instead of merely copying, we are building up our own forestry courses adaptable to the requirements of this country. Laboratory work involving practice in the field of Canadian methods of silviculture, experimentation and research are the vital parts of the forestry course. The tract of forest land at this university so advantageously situated forms a most excellent laboratory for forestry research and has been a very important factor in the success of our graduates in forestry.

To Graduates

The address to the graduating class was given by A. O. Dawson, Montreal, head of Canadian Cottons, Ltd. "I am greatly honored by this occasion," he said. "This university, from whose halls so many men and 400,000 people has spent more than three quarters of a million of dollars for vocational training buildings, not including the cost of equipping these buildings. This means that provision has been made for more than 1,500 they can do much to develop and strengthen the best that is in our land, number of evening students. I have seen many graduates of the Montreal Technical Institution, well equipped to serve the community. And yet I am coming here and more to value an education for its own sake. It is a wonderful asset to have a cultured mind, to be able to appreciate good literature and to be able to converse easily and intelligently with well read men and women.

BRING OUR SONS BACK.

"I think I see that at last our statesmen are awakening to the fact that our neighbors to the south are making the strongest kind of a bid for our best people, and that we Canadians must to some extent, follow the fiscal policy and business methods of the United States. Such a policy would, I believe, result not only in holding the people within our borders, but also, through the development of our natural resources, induce many of our sons and daughters, now living in the United States, to return to Canada. We welcome to our shores many people sound in body and morals from other lands, but they can but inadequately take the place of those who have gone out from our own firesides. Some of our people have grown pessimistic, and we must remind ourselves of the vast resources of the land of our birth.

OUR NATIONAL WEALTH.

"In 1903 our national wealth was $1,100 per capita. In 1926 it stood at $5,400 per capita. On this basis our wealth is greater than that of any other country in the world with the exception of Great Britain and the United States. In regard to our natural resources we are the wealthiest nation on the globe. On the average every resident in Canada is the owner of one half a square mile of territory. This is God's choice land—rich in timber, minerals, agriculture, fur and water

CHANCE FOR LEADERSHIP.

"We have room here for many happy and prosperous homes. How satisfactory it would be to all of us if these millions that are certain to come to Canada could have the inspiration of the leadership of our own Canadian college graduates. Without the right kind of leadership the coming of these people from Europe may prove to be a curse rather than a blessing."

Valedictory

The Valedictory address was delivered by W. Stuart McFarlane, son of Chief Inspector W. L. McFarlane, of Nashwanick. "Four years ago," he said, "the Encaenia for the class of 1926 seemed a

Throw away the Washboard—Use Rinso

THE old-fashioned wash-day is gone. With it has gone the everlasting rub-rub-rubbing and ugly hands, lame backs, frazzled nerves and short tempers and a soapy odour all through the house.

Instead you use Rinso and part of a morning for the weekly wash. You change the hard work of washing to just rinsing.

Just soak the clothes a couple of hours or overnight in Rinso suds, rinse, and that's all. Simple. Efficient. Time saving. Labour saving.

Don't try to do another washing without Rinso. Twelve leading washing machine makers say "Use Rinso".

URGED TO TAKE UP THEIR LIFE WORK IN CANADA

long way off, but the time for which we have been striving is here and we as graduates are about to pass through the portals of our Alma Mater to a different phase of life. We are leaving the life of a society with a simplified, purified, and graduated environment and are entering into the larger and more complex life of the Great Society. It is with regret that we sever our connections with this university and its pleasant associations to put into practice the knowledge we have gained.

"As we finish our last year here our hearts are saddened by the call to the great beyond of Raymond Moore, one of the graduating class from the law faculty. It is with sincere sympathy that we remember his dear ones whose sorrow will be touched anew on this our graduation day.

ENDOWMENT CAMPAIGN.

"During the past year a campaign for an endowment fund has been outlined and inaugurated. This campaign which the Senate is now carrying on was started on the initiative of the Rt. Hon. Sir George Foster. It requires for its full success the co-operation of all who have the interest and the future of the university at heart. The drive for this fund is under the direction of the chancellor and a special committee. Already many generous and encouraging gifts have been received. Among others the Forestry Association has pledged the sum of $500. The class of 1926, too, has pledged itself, and it is with pleasure that I now present to the chancellor the pledges of this class to the endowment fund.

"The several athletic activities and social functions of the past year have been carried on with a marked degree of success. This year's football, hockey and basketball teams have all won intercollegiate championships.

"The completion and equipping of this new Memorial Building, the addition of a broadcasting set to the electrical engineering laboratory; and the success already achieved in the campaign for the endowment fund, are things that we are leaving to institutions that are growing and progressing along every line, an institution that continues to be ranked high among the colleges of the land. We feel more than ever the need of a well equipped and well organized library under the supervision of a man who is in a position to give his undivided time to it. We do not wish to be left behind other universities of the Maritime Provinces in this respect and earnestly hope that the Senate will do what it can for us in the coming years.

Thanks was expressed to the chancellor and faculty and to the college of Fredericton and he closed with a word to the undergraduates and his classmates.

Alumni Oration

The alumni oration was delivered by J. T. Hebert, M. A., LL. B., whose subject was "The College and the Nation." Mr. Hebert did not advocate a purely political education, although in a Provincial university, maintained by a democracy for the benefit of its people, the subject of Government and political science should occupy an important place. He expressed the opinion that colleges and universities should not

She Coughed Night and Day Until She Used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

Mrs. S. E. Little, 103 Inkerman St., London, Ont., writes: "I got a very severe cold which settled in my bronchial tubes. I coughed night and day, and although I tried several different remedies I could get no relief until a friend advised me to take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. This I did, and I must say that it gave me almost immediate relief as I got rid of my cough very quickly. I hope this testimonial will be the means of helping others."

"Dr. Wood's" is put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Memorial Hall

Three gifts were dedicated in Memorial Hall, including two windows, one presented by the Countess of Ashburnham in memory of her husband, and the other by Mrs. G. Clowes VanWart and Miss Lena Fenwick in memory of their brother, George P. O. Fenwick, of Apohaqui, who was killed in the World War. The third gift was a chair in memory of James Talmage Hanning, '10, formerly of Saint John, who lost his life in the flying service in France. The chair was presented by his mother.

The dedication chairman, Hon. C. D. Richards of Fredericton, Minister of Lands and Mines, in his address said: "This building in which we are assembled today stands as a lasting memorial to the memory of the sons of the university who in the dark days of the Great War responded to the empire's call of service and of duty, and who, with others, died that freedom might remain, freedom of thought of action, freedom for the development of our national life and ideals. This fine Memorial Hall typifies and represents in tangible form our sense of reverence for and loyalty to the memory of these men. A humble tribute, perhaps, but yet one which keeps fresh the memory of the past and cannot fail to inspire the future sons and daughters of the university with high ideals and noble purpose.

ASHBURNHAM WINDOW

"In the centre, on the eastern side, will be observed a fine memorial window. This has been erected by the Countess of Ashburnham, in memory of her husband, the late Right Honourable the Earl of Ashburnham. A son of old England and a true Britisher, the Earl of Ashburnham, then Captain the Honorable Thomas Ashburnham, came to this city a number of years ago. He had had a varied and active military service in India and Africa. He was with the famous 7th Hussars in the Egyptian campaigns, in 1882 to 1884, winning three medals, one of which was personally presented by Queen Victoria. He also served under Lord Roberts in South Africa, and he took a pardonable pride in the fact that he was at one time an instructor of Sir Douglas Haig. Some little time before coming to this city, the then Captain Ashburnham happily married one of our own Fredericton ladies, and became identified with this community as one of our own citizens.

"Prevented by age from active service in the Great War, he, together with Lady Ashburnham, was untiring in his work on behalf of those who were privileged to go overseas. His experience and counsel were invaluable, and many of our boys will long remember his kindly and generous interest. We are honored in accepting this fine memorial, and feel that it will be an inspiration to our own boys to be loyal to the Empire he served so well.

FENWICK MEMORIAL

"The other beautiful memorial window in this hall has been erected by Mrs. G. Clowes VanWart and Miss Lena Fenwick, in memory of their brother, George P. O. Fenwick, a graduate of this University of the Class of 1902. He was one of the loveliest sophomores who, in the time-honored way, welcomed myself and the other members of the freshman class, upon our arrival at college, and who were the guardians of our social and physical well-being for that year. He was a clever student and an all round college man. He took post-graduate work at Queen's University and subsequently taught in the public schools, being for two years principal of the Dorchester High School. He then attended Dalhousie Law School, from which college he received the degree of B. C. L. in 1911, being graduated at the head of his class. He was admitted as a barrister in this province in the fall of that year. Shortly after he accepted a position in the department of the Attorney-General of Alberta, where later he became solicitor to the Attorney-General.

J. T. HANNING MEMORIAL

"This fine chair placed on this platform as a memorial to the supreme sacrifice made by James Talmage Hanning, a member of the class of 1917. Upon the outbreak of the war he enlisted and received a commission with the 11th Battalion, but was unable to leave at the time. He joined his unit at Bramshot, England, in August, 1918. Later, he was transferred to the Machine Gun Corps and went to France with the 7th Machine Gun Company in May, 1917. In August of that year he conducted the provincial overseas elections for the Province of Alberta. He saw strenuous fighting during that fall, and fell in the memorable struggle at Passchendaele on October 30, 1917.

BOYS TERMS CASE OF WAISBERG ONLY PROFESSIONAL ONE

Chief Conservative Whip Testifies on Action in Smuggling

ACCUSED PAYS $400 FINE AND $813 DUTY

Question Determined Was Nature and Extent of Penalty, He Says

OTTAWA, Ont., May 12.—"With me the matter from beginning to end, was a professional one, and politics had nothing to do with it," declared W. A. Boys, chief Conservative whip at the customs probe this morning, in referring to his connection with the smuggling case of David Waisberg, formerly of Barrie, Ont. Mr. Boys appeared before the committee at his personal request.

He (Boys) had first seen Commissioner Farrow, who had referred him to the minister, Hon. Jacques Bureau, before whom he had laid all the facts and evidence "as provided by the act." The only question for determination was the nature and extent of the penalty. It was a first offence and after a conference the minister had accordingly decided that a fine of over $400, without confiscation was fairly severe.

DOUBLE DUTY IMPOSED. Mr. Boys referred to subsequent correspondence between the minister and himself and a second interview in the matter. Finally, a decision against Waisberg was given, imposing a double duty and sales tax of $813 in all, on payment of which the silk was to be released. No disposition whatever had been made of Waisberg's alleged attempt to rob.

Mr. Boys declared that upon his return from Ottawa, following the second interview with the minister, he had reported, as any lawyer would, the result to his client, Waisberg, and the latter's wife. This was on November 18, 1922. On August 8, 1924, nearly two years later, he received a letter from the Department that proceedings would be instituted, if duty and penalty were not paid at once.

"I immediately wrote Waisberg to settle, expressing surprise he had not done so long ago," said Mr. Boys. "He did not again call on me, but I learned later he had called at the customs office in Barrie, paid them $18,600 and received the silk."

Mr. Boys further stated that as soon as Waisberg had asked him to act as his lawyer, he had seen the local collector, who informed him the authority assistant had exceeded his authority in threatening to arrest Waisberg, and that the whole matter had reported to the minister, in accordance with the act. Consequently the matter had to be taken up at Ottawa. This, he had proceeded to do on instructions.

South York M. P. Urges C. P. and C. N. Consolidation in Commons

OTTAWA, May 12.—"The public has to pay the piper," said W. F. Maclean, Conservative, of South York, in the House today, referring to the results of the competition between the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways.

Mr. Maclean urged consolidation of the two systems. He thought the Canadian people would never stand for the acquisition of the Canadian National by the C. P. R.

T. Gervais, Liberal, of Berthier-Maskinonge, said that while Quebec was rather protectionist in sentiment, the people of the province were satisfied with the Government.

GENEROUS GIFTS TO BATHURST HOSPITAL

BATHURST, May 12.—"Hospital Day" was well observed in Bathurst, a large number visiting the James H. Dunn Hospital and Gloucester Hospital. The visitors were shown through the institutions by the Ladies' Aid of each hospital and were much interested in what was shown them. The X-ray machines were operated and a general opportunity given the visitors to see the inner workings of the hospitals. Light refreshments were served. Generous donations were made by the visitors.

Says Leopold Gave Knives To Convicts

JOLIET, Ill., May 13.—Nathan Leopold, Chicago college boy who killed Bobby Franks, was the "master mind" of the plot whereby seven convicts escaped Illinois penitentiary after murdering Deputy Warden Peter Klein, according to State's Attorney Rehn, who is conducting a grand jury investigation of the escape.

Rehn said that Leopold's connection with the daring break was indicated by new evidence which had just come to light.

TO WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Wilson's Experience a Guide to Women Passing through the Change of Life

Hamilton, Ontario.—"I have taken several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot speak too highly of it as I was the Change of Life and was all run-down and had no appetite. I was very weak and sick, and the pains in my back were so bad I could hardly move. I got very sad at times and thought I had not a friend on earth. I did not care if I lived or died. I was very nervous, too, and did not go out very much. A friend advised me to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I did. I am a farmer's wife, and always worked hard until lately, and was in bed for two months. I began to feel like a new woman after the first bottle and I recommend it with great success, also Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills. I am willing to answer letters from women asking about your medicines, as I cannot speak too highly of them."—Mrs. EMMA WILSON, 471 Wilson Street, Hamilton, Ontario.

DAIRY SANITATION IN CANADA BLAMED

Conditions Unsatisfactory in Ontario and Quebec, Fair Alleged in U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Allegations that on inspection trips into Ontario and Quebec they found sanitary conditions in dairies to be unsatisfactory, were made before the Senate Agriculture committee today by W. M. McDonough, of the New York Farm and Market Department, and C. P. Osgood, dairy inspector for Maine. They were testifying in support of the bill to require milk and cream imported from Canada to stand the same test as required by New York state for domestic products.

KILLED PIPER PLAYS AS LONDON FETES

LONDON, May 13.—An itinerant killed bagpipe player was the centre of a cheering crowd in the London streets as the celebration over the end of the strike progressed Wednesday evening. He was finally induced to board one of the famous Red Buses, where he played doleful strains as he was refused to take passengers and proceeded through the streets of the city.

TOO LITTLE BLOOD

The Cause of Nearly All the Everyday Ailments of Life.

Too little blood—that is what makes men and women look pale and limp and feel languid. That is what makes them drag along, always tired, never real hungry, unable to digest their food, breathless after even slight exertion, and often feeling that life is scarcely worth living. The doctors tell them they are anaemic—the plain English being too little blood.

More weak anaemic people have been made strong, energetic and cheerful by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills than by any other means. The case of Mrs. A. P. Foster, Bowden, Alta., is excellent proof of this statement. Mrs. Foster says: "Some years ago I was very badly run-down. My doctor attended me for several months and then told me I had better go South to spend the winter as my blood was so poor that he feared I would not stand the cold of our winter. I took his advice and went to my mother's, and as soon as she saw me she said, 'Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are what you need.' She got the pills for me and I began taking them. I had intended staying three months, but at the end of the second month I came home a well woman. When the doctor saw me he said, 'You are all right now, but don't let yourself get run-down again or nothing will save you.' Then last winter I had the influenza, which left me so weak and pale and miserable as before. Again I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and again they made me well and strong. I can gratefully recommend the pills for I feel that they have saved my life."

Gives Address On Missionary Work

An account of his experiences as a missionary among the Indians and whites of northern Ontario was given last night by Rev. W. E. Fuller, curate of Trinity church, at the mid-week prayer services in St. David's church, conducted by the Young People's Missionary Society. Rev. Mr. Fuller made an earnest plea for "prayer partnership" between the missionary societies and the missionaries.

Miss Winifred Ross read the Scripture lesson, Miss Kern read a short paper on "The Good Samaritan." Miss Jameson sang a solo and Robert held a prayer. A silver collection amounted to $11.20. A refreshment committee, convened by the Misses Henderson and Mrs. Thomas Ledingham, served refreshments at the close of the service. An executive meeting was held later, closing the work for the season.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—A reassuring glimpse of progress in the island republic of Haiti is afforded the outside world through circulation of an illustrated booklet, showing in graphic fashion the strides made in recent years in many lines of endeavor.

The booklet, printed in French, has found its way through official channels into many foreign countries. Copies of it have been passed about here by the Haitian legation. It contains upwards of 100 pictures of improved roads, modern buildings and other construction projects in the island.

In the last ten years, more than 1,000 miles of paved roads have been laid, replacing highways that had deteriorated until they were little more than trails. A concrete highway connecting Port-au-Prince, the Haitian capital, and Saint-Domingue, capital city of the Dominican Republic, has been completed by the Haitians up to the border. When the Dominican portion is completed, the trip between the two capitals may be done in hours, where formerly it took days.

This progress has been particularly notable during the administration of the present chief executive, President Borno, said a report in the booklet made by the Haitian minister of public works. His administration also has seen the construction of 14 schools, 13 hospitals and 11 lighthouses; installation of an automatic telephone system, and material progress in irrigation and canals. Since 1921, there has been an increase of 800 per cent in the number of telephones in use and the telegraph system has been augmented and improved.

In order to foster trade between the United States and Haiti, the present Haitian Import Customs Tariff is being revised. Some eight hundred American machines still remain in Haiti, completing their work of reorganizing the native constabulary.

Blade Diamonds Trim All-Stars By 27-22 at Moncton Last Night

Special to The Times-Star
MONCTON, May 13.—The Black Diamonds, a team composed of basketball stars in days gone by, won the fast moving All-stars 27-22 in one of the fastest, most exciting and at times roughest games of basketball played here for some time. They proved that athletes can "come-back" and that experience is still a big factor in winning games.

Close and heavy checking was a feature of last night's battle, allowing practically no team work, scoring on both teams resulted largely from individual efforts. Credits for the winners was the high scorer and displayed his real old time accuracy in shooting, netting the ball for a total of 13 points. Had the Diamonds been more accurate in shooting the score would have been much higher, but the long absence of these players from the game served to weaken their "basket eye," and many shots went wild.

During the first period the play was rather slow, both teams reserving their strength for the final spurt. It ended in favor of the All-stars 16-13. The second period started away with a rush, with the Black Diamonds starting the score, and the game ended 27-22 in their favor. Referee: McWilliam, first period; J. Fryers, second period.
Time—Cook, Scorer—Rayworth and Abela.

Sacco and Vansetti, Convicted of Murder in 1921, Denied New Trial

BOSTON, Mass., May 13.—Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vansetti, defendants in a famous murder trial, yesterday lost a six year battle for life which was financed by radical organizations in this country and abroad. The full bench of the Massachusetts Supreme Court denied Sacco and Vansetti a new trial and closed to them the last door of legal appeal. They will now come before the Superior Court for sentence after conviction in 1921 of the murder of a shoe company paymaster and guard in South Braintree.

QUEEN REJOICES

Happy Over Strike Settlement; Goes For Usual Drive in Streets

LONDON, May 13.—Queen Mary was as happy as any of the King's subjects when word came that the long feared general strike had ended. Despite the crowded condition of the streets, the Queen insisted upon taking her customary drive and in the language of the court circular "noted with satisfaction the obvious relief of the public."

TANNER REBUKES M'CURDY IN THREAT ON MARITIME CASE

Declares Action Likely to Prejudice Seaboard Interests

OTTAWA, May 12—A protest against any re-opening of secession propaganda in the Maritime Provinces on the question of "Maritime rights," was made in the Senate today by Senator Tanner.

Senator Tanner referred to a statement recently issued to the press by Hon. F. B. McCurdy, a former Conservative cabinet minister. He did not regard Mr. McCurdy's statement in any way as a pronouncement of the Conservative party, as Mr. McCurdy had not actively engaged in the last recent general election on behalf of the Conservative party.

"In my opinion it is unfortunate that Mr. McCurdy should choose the present moment to re-introduce what is construed in places to be a threat of secession on the Maritime question," said Senator Tanner. "To do that, I think, is likely to prejudice Maritime interests," he added. The Board of Railway Commissioners was engaged in the investigation of Maritime complaints, he pointed out.

Furthermore, the recently appointed tariff board was said to be engaged in an inquiry into the coal and steel tariffs.

"There is no reason why the interests of the Maritime Provinces should not be fairly and satisfactorily adjusted and their grievances be redressed by the federal Parliament," Senator Tanner said, "without calling up the old phantom of secession which played its political part in Nova Scotia between 1867 and 1887, but was subsequently relegated to the grave by the politicians who made use of it."

MURDER TRIAL IS ON AT ST. ANDREWS THIS AFTERNOON

To Be Heard Before Mr. Justice Byrne in Circuit Court

L. JOHNSON BLAMED FOR J. LORD'S DEATH

King vs. McMahan Expected to Go to Jury This Morning

ST. ANDREWS, May 12.—The criminal case of the King vs. Dennis E. McMahan, charged with causing bodily harm by wanton and furious driving of an automobile near St. Stephen, in August last, was commenced this morning before Mr. Justice Byrne and a jury. Katie S. Smith is representing the crown and Peter J. Hughes, K.C., Fredericton, is appearing for the accused. The crown finished its case today and it is expected that the case will go to the jury tomorrow morning.

At the conclusion of this case the case of The King vs. Lloyd Johnson, charged with the murder of James Lord at Deer Island, in December, 1925, will be commenced.

Potatoes Down To $4 Per Bbl. In Maine

CARIBOU, Me., May 12.—The slump in potatoes has hit the Aroostook market and the price struck $4 per barrel, today, the lowest since digging time. Buyers were ready to take all brought in at that price, but offerings were light, roads being bad. Shipments held up around 100 carloads a day. Experts consider the supply nearly exhausted and not more than 1000 carloads left in the county.

Falling-off is Explained by Gradual Decline of Sailing Fleet

The French merchant marine tonnage at the beginning of 1925 was 3,850,000, as against 3,400,000 last year, according to a report by the Comité Central des Armateurs de France. The falling off is explained in large part by the gradual decline of the sailing fleet.

Helen G. McLean Broke Mainboom and Other Defects Caused by Storm

YARMOUTH, May 12.—The schooner Helen G. McLean, Capt. Freeman Anderson, which put into Tiverton last week with a broken mainboom and other damage, has been towed to Yarmouth on Friday for repairs. The vessel carries a cargo of 715 cases of Scotch whiskey. During the past day or so the steamer Petrel, Capt. Landry, cleared for Havana. Schooner Dorothy Earl, Capt. Donovan, and Russel Zinck, Capt. Backman, for Nassau. All these vessels have gone to sea.

SHIP BOARD SELLS LAKE-TYPE VESSELS

The U. S. Shipping Board has sold two lake-type vessels, the Lake Elwin and the Lake Fairbault, to the Industrial-Naval Societa Anonima of Genoa, Italy. The price paid was $25,000 cash for each ship, the base price the Board sets on all lake-type vessels. Under the terms of the contract of sale these vessels cannot come to an American port except to take outbound cargoes of grain or coal.

The steamer Eda shifted from the stream last evening to No. 1 berth, Sand Point, and is expected to start discharging raw sugar at the refinery wharf tomorrow morning.

MINISTERS ARE GIVEN CALLS TO THREE CHURCHES

Rev. H. S. B. Strothard, Sackville, is invited to Fairville

The quarterly board of the Fairville United church held its regular meeting last night in the school room of the church with Rev. R. G. Fulton, of Centenary church, presiding. On motion of William Bunnell, seconded by Daniel Campbell, an invitation was extended to Rev. H. S. B. Strothard, of Sackville, to become pastor of the church. The motion carried unanimously. Mr. Strothard is a New Brunswick man and a son of Rev. J. Strothard. He holds the degrees of B. A. and B. D. from Mount Allison University.

OTHER CALLS

It was announced in the city yesterday that the congregation of the United church at McAdam Junction has extended a call to Rev. George A. Ross, of Hampton United church. Mr. Ross has been in the Hampton charge for the last five years and has had a most successful ministry there. The McAdam church, to which he has been called, is a community church and entered the United Church of Canada when that body came into being.

Rev. Harold Tompkinson, who has been the pastor of the McAdam church and has done splendid work in that district, has been called to the Wesley Memorial church in Moncton.

It is generally supposed that the two ministers will accept the calls to these new charges, but it will be necessary for the calls to be ratified by the settlement committee of the Maritime conference of the United church which convenes in Sackville at the end of this month.

Europe To Be Represented At Meeting of Canadian Bar In Saint John In September

Announcement Made at Dinner Given Local Barristers Last Night by Sir James Atkins, President of Dominion Body—British Strike Referred to

THE annual meeting of the Canadian Bar Association will be held in the Admiral Beatty Hotel early in September. E. H. Coleman, secretary, said last night, at a dinner tendered to the barristers of Saint John by Sir James Atkins, K.C., LL.D., Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba and president of the Canadian Bar Association.

The meeting would be addressed by one of the leading members of the British bar, and the French and United States associations would have representatives present, Mr. Coleman said. The dinner was held in the Georgian hall room of the Admiral Beatty. Among the guests of honor were Hon. W. F. Todd, Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick; Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Premier and Attorney-General; Chief Justice J. H. Barry, Mr. Justice White, Mr. Justice Gribner, Mr. Justice Crockett, Judge J. A. Barry, Magistrate G. A. Henderson, Hon. L. P. D. Tilley, K.C., president of the Saint John Law Society, Lieutenant-Colonel George Keefe, Dr. T. Carleton Allen, K.C., registrar of the Supreme Court, C. F. Sanford, K.C., vice-president of the Canadian Bar Association, and E. H. Coleman, of Winnipeg, secretary of the association.

TOASTS HONORED

The health of the Governor of New Brunswick was proposed by Governor Atkins and Governor Todd replied briefly, paying tribute to the host of the evening and referring to the courteous treatment that had been accorded him by the government and the members of the legislature during the session just closed. He also spoke appreciatively of the legal profession of the province and its traditions.

The speaker went on that the settlement of the general strike in England had been effected through the agency of members of the bar and that the achievement reflected credit on the profession. Sir James Atkins said Governor Todd had touched an important point, the triumph of law over every adversary. He spoke of the general strike in Winnipeg in 1919, when the citizens had asserted themselves and seen to it that the law was observed.

DOMINION SECRETARY HEARD

Mr. Coleman was the next speaker. He told of the organization of the Canadian Bar Association at Ottawa in 1914. The following years were unpromising on account of war conditions. Up to 1919 the association was marking time, but since then great progress had been made. This year the association would meet in Saint John. The membership had more than doubled since 1920.

The meetings in Saint John, Mr. Coleman said, would be held at the Admiral Beatty early in September. The Nova Scotia bar had promised to co-operate and to make the affair a Maritime one. A distinguished English jurist would speak and the bars of the United States and France would be ably represented.

PREMIER HEARD

Hon. Dr. Baxter spoke of the great achievement of Sir James in welding the legal talent of Canada into the Canadian Bar Association. Dr. Baxter gave several interesting reminiscences of former bar meetings. Dr. Baxter described his experiences of an Ameri-

Curtailing Issue Of Road Permits

Road regulations are being strictly enforced during the time that the highways are closed. George H. Ingram, the provincial tax inspector, said yesterday, Mr. Ingram said that permits to use the road to Moncton had been given to several United States cars and that these had damaged the roadway, particularly in the vicinity of Anegawic, where much repair work would have to be done. For that reason the permits were being curtailed and all officials had instructions to see that the existing restrictions were carried out. It is expected that the roads will be opened about May 17.

A VERIL LE RESURRECTION

Brought About By Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

"I didn't 'Go West' in France, but I came home to Canada carrying my death warrant, the doctor declared. I weighed exactly 120 pounds—not much for a six-footer. Look at me now! Just 185, and as hard as nails."

The speaker (name if requested), a young Canadian from Victoria, B.C., who had served overseas with the Royal Flying Corps, had returned in 1918 a mere shadow of a man. His mother despaired of his life and he, himself, felt that he had come home to die.

His uncle, a prominent doctor, suggested Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, and he decided to give it a trial. In one month he felt better. He persevered, and in three months was back at his position, healthy and happy.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will relieve constipation; relieves it permanently if used regularly. Eat at least two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases with every meal. Only ALL-BRAN can conquer constipation. Made in London, Canada, and sold by all dealers.

HIGHER PRICE LEVELS NOTED ON N.Y. MART

Dealings Confined Largely to Professional Trading Activities

DIVIDEND EXPECTED BY GENERAL MOTORS

Tracing on the Montreal Exchange Today Was of Fairly Briak Nature

NEW YORK, May 13.—Slightly higher price levels were established at the opening of today's stock market, although dealings were confined largely to professional trading activities. Dealers showed a tendency to recover under the leadership of General Motors, which was bought on expectations that a substantial extra dividend would be voted by the directors today. A steady demand for Archon, Atlantic Coast Line and other high grade rails also imparted a firmer tone to trading.

MONTREAL, May 13.—Trading on the local stock exchange at the opening this morning was fairly active and prices revealed a slight tendency to move forward. The leaders, Bescoco and Besco and Braziliers, were firm, both opening unchanged at 2 1/2 and 2 1/2 respectively. Spanish River preferred gained three-quarters at 1 1/2 and fell one and a half at 1 3/4. Southern was particularly inactive and lost an eighth at 1 1/2. The rest of the list was quiet.

Several Hurt in Accidents on Wednesday

Two Little Girls Struck by Auto Truck—Longshoreman Is Injured

About 5 o'clock yesterday two girls, Josephine Stack, daughter of John Stack, 30-1/2 York street, and Anna McNeill, daughter of Walter McNeill, 76 Prince Edward street, each seven years old, were struck by the auto truck as it turned into Richmond street from Prince Edward. The truck was driven by Edward Doyle and it was said no blame was attached to him, the accident being caused by the little ones becoming confused and stepping in front of the vehicle. They were given first aid at Moore's drug store after which the little Stack girl was taken to the Saint John Infirmary and the McNeill girl to her home.

LONGSHOREMAN HURT.

Wallace Moore, 113 Thorne avenue while working on the S. S. Dampier at No. 14 berth, was struck on the head by a sling last evening and received a severe gash. He was taken to the General Public Hospital where his wound was dressed and he left for his home.

FELL OFF BI-CYCLE

Police Constable Quinn responded to a call at 6:55 o'clock last evening to 171 Chesley street to assist in removing Charles Walsh, aged 14, son of James Walsh, from his home to the General Public Hospital for treatment. While riding a bicycle in Chesley street the boy fell off and fractured his right leg above the knee.

AUTO INTO DITCH

George Redmore received slight injuries in an automobile accident in the Rotheray road last evening and was taken to the General Public Hospital for treatment. But was able to go to his home shortly afterwards. Mr. Redmore had been one of the occupants of the Ford car with license plate No. 6586 which ran into the ditch near the Crosby millrace last evening. The driver, Shorland, looked into the case and said that the driver reported that his lights had gone out, causing the accident.

REV. A. K. HERMAN AND WIFE GREETED

New Highfield Baptist Minister
Welcomed by Deacons' Chairman

Special to The Times-Star
MONCTON, May 13.—The fourth annual roll call since the erection of the present church home was held last evening in the Highfield Baptist church with the pastor, Rev. A. K. Herman, presiding. At the opening of the service Mr. and Mrs. Herman were formally and impressively welcomed into the fellowship of the church by Mr. Thomas Perry, chairman of the Board of Deacons. The roll call was rendered by Mr. A. G. Geldard. A very generous offering was received.

The church has featured the service with a solo by Mr. Horace Constable, and also by Miss Doris Magee, with violin and piano accompaniment rendered by Archie Magee and Mrs. Starr.

It was announced that the new church organ had arrived and should be ready for dedication a week from next Sunday. It was stated that city funds outside of the church were being received, and yesterday a generous contribution had been received.

Following an address by the pastor, the entire congregation stood with bowed heads in silent tribute to those members who have answered the last call, and then united in the singing of the hymn, "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder."

This Capricious Spring.

This spring is not so late as it is tricky. When the hottest May 23 in 48 years is followed by the coldest May 24 in 47 years, the weather man seems to be playing a grim joke on the public. So long as a hot one comes, it is enough, however, to push the leaves out and hasten the time, the cold one may be endured. But it is the hyacinths, which a spring to keep the farmers happy. Safely first is its motto.

2 LIQUOR ARRESTS MADE AT YARMOUTH

YARMOUTH, N.S., May 12.—The first arrests made in Yarmouth since the appointment of Rev. D. K. Grant and his deputies as inspectors under the Nova Scotia Temperance Act, were made this afternoon when Deputy Inspector L. M. Tink took into custody two men, named Cribbs and Hubbard, charged with selling liquor. They were taken before Stipendiary Magistrate, Magistrate, and were remanded for trial, one on Friday and the other on Monday.

ACROSS CANADA AND BACK.

"Marvellous beyond conception" aptly describes the glories of Canada's Rockies. To be fully appreciated they must be seen. To start out on a trip by train is no small feat, to many it appears quite a task. Realizing this, Dean Sinclair Laird, of Macdonald College, an experienced Rocky Mountain traveler, for the third year in succession, has undertaken to conduct a party through this glorious wonderland.

A special train of dining, standard sleeping and observation compartment cars has been chartered, to leave Toronto on July 19 via the Canadian Pacific Railway. Stops will be made at Port Arthur and Fort William, which together form Canada's greatest train port; Winnipeg Beach, the popular summer resort for Winnipeggers; Winnipeg, Canada's third largest city; Indian Head, the chief free distributing centre of the Federal Forestry Branch; Regina, the capital of Saskatchewan; Calgary, Alberta's largest city; Banff, the world-famous mountain resort, by automobile for 106 miles over the Banff-Vancouver Highway, the most spectacular drive in Canada; through Kootenay Lake to Nelson, a commercial centre of Southern British Columbia; then through the Douglas headwaters to Princeton, along lovely Okanagan Lake, and to Vancouver by steamer to Victoria.

Returning the trip will be by the main line of the Canadian Pacific, through the great canyons of the Fraser and Thompson Rivers, and through the Selkirk, and Rockies, affording scenery such as can be found nowhere else on earth; Lake Louise, the Pearl of the Rockies, the most perfect gem of scenery in the world; another day at Banff, Edmonton, the capital of Alberta; Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, the city of optimism, Devils Gap Canyon, the most beautiful of the world; then to the coast by steamer, to Vancouver, where one of the fine Canadian Pacific steamers will be used to cross the superior and Huron to Port McNicoll, thence by rail to Toronto, where the trip terminates.

Everything is included in the price of $300.00, from Toronto; transportation, baggage, meals in hotels, in hotels, and on steamers, and sight-seeing tours at points visited. The trip is open to all, and applications for accommodation, are now being received.

Fares from other points than Toronto will be named and descriptive illustrated booklet sent on application to Dean Sinclair Laird, Macdonald College Post Office, Que.

Quick Relief For Rheumatics

Local Druggists Sell Rheuma on Money-Back Plan

If you suffer from torturing rheumatic pains, swollen, twisted joints, and suffer intensely because your system is full of that dangerous poison that makes thousands helpless, and kills thousands years before their time, then you need Rheuma, and need it now. Start taking it today. Rheuma acts at once on kidneys, liver, stomach and blood, and you can sincerely exclaim: "Good riddance to that rubbish!"

Many people, the most skeptical of skeptics right in this city and in the country hereabouts, bless the day when Watsons two stores and other druggists offered Rheuma to the afflicted at a small price and guaranteed money refunded if not satisfied. If you have rheumatism get a bottle of Rheuma today.

THE seven wonders of the world in the spring are the seven days in the week.

BECOMES HEAD OF N.Y. HYDRO JOB

Edward Wright, St. George Resident, Leaves Pulitzer Company

ST. GEORGE, May 12.—Edward Wright, who has for the past years been general manager of the Pulitzer pulp and paper properties in the States and Canada, including the pulp mill here, has resigned his position and severed his connection with the company. Mr. Wright is taking charge of a hydro proposition in New York with headquarters at Malone, a position of responsibility and flattering prospects. While in St. George, Mr. Wright made many friends who regret his departure and wish him every success in the future. Mr. Charlton, of New York, takes Mr. Wright's place. He was born in Montreal and is a graduate of McGill.

NEW ORGANIZATION

Young People of Knox Church Form Society—John Gibbs President

Knox Church Young People's Society was organized last night when about 70 of the young people of the congregation assembled in the schoolroom of the church. Before the business of organization was undertaken a very pleasant social time was spent and all present joined in games, a sing song and contests for which suitable prizes were awarded. Rev. W. L. Newton, the minister, presided for the organization and the meeting elected the following officers for the new society: Honorary president, Rev. W. L. Newton; honorary vice-president, Miss Grace W. Leavitt; president, John Gibbs, who was the unanimous choice of the members; vice-presidents, Miss Clyde McLellan; second, Lloyd Stirling; secretary, Miss Christina McLellan; treasurer, Miss Marjorie Tappley, and corresponding secretary, Miss Martha Murray. Several committees were also formed to carry on the work of the coming season. Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies of the church.

Extenuating

New York detectives recently captured an ex-convict who admitted to three shootings, one murder, and stealing fourteen radios. It is not believed that the radio thefts will be sufficient to keep the fellow out of prison.

SEASON IS DELAYED AT HOPEWELL HILL

HOPEWELL HILL, May 12.—Practically nothing has been done in this part of the county yet, in the way of farming. The land is now mostly bare, but not yet in condition for plowing. Roads are fairly good for wagons, with the exception of a few places where drifts remain. A Moncton doctor made the trip to Hillsboro, by auto, last week—fifteen miles. (General motoring is not expected for some time.)

Good Old England.

(Hamilton Spectator.)

Though British taxpayers are afforded no relief and extra taxes of various kinds are imposed, it can be said that the old country is forging slowly but surely ahead to normalcy. With all her burdens and perplexities, she is able to provide for social legislation of an advanced and expensive character, and pays her way with promptitude. The marvel continues how it can be done when it is remembered that only a negligible tythe of what is owing to her has been paid or is ever likely to be paid.

NOBODY can tell you better how to succeed than the failure.

MONCTON BOY AGAIN IN POLICE HANDS

Alfred Arsenault Arrested on Charge of Breaking, Entering, Theft

Special to The Times-Star
MONCTON, May 13.—Inspector Harris and Police Officer Welsh arrested Alfred Arsenault yesterday on a warrant, charged with breaking, entering and stealing. Arsenault was recently before the local court on the same charge, but was discharged by the judge, with the recommendation that his mental status be inquired into. At that time he pleaded guilty of entering and stealing from D. F. Charter's residence at Cook's Brook. Recently Mr. Charter's home was again robbed. The boy had been away a few days when arrested yesterday, and had in his possession, a bicycle which was passed over to his father, who resides in the city.

WHEN winter sat down in spring's lap he must have had glue on his pants.

What You Get For The Last $10

YES, there are lower-priced bicycles than the C. C. M., but the C. C. M. is by far the cheapest in the long run.

That last $10 you pay for a C. C. M. is the most important part of your purchase. It assures you—

- extra years of easy riding,
- extra reserve strength,
- extra durable finish,
- fewer repairs,
- a higher selling value for your "used" C. C. M.

For that last $10, you get, among other things— the smooth-running Triplex Hanger, a frame of English Seamless Tubing, reinforced at the joints, extra coats of rich, lustrous enamel, 20-year nickel-plate over copper, the classy Gibson Pedal with rustproof aluminum frame, the new improved Hercules Brake, a bicycle with everyone of its 1761 parts made with watch-like accuracy, a bicycle "trued up" at the factory.

And, remember, five years from now your "used" C. C. M. will easily bring $10 more than a five-year-old inferior machine—if the inferior machine has not already reached the scrap heap. You simply cannot lose by buying a C. C. M.

LADS TRAINING HARD FOR LOYALIST DAY SCHOOL BOY MEET

WEIGHT FIGHT CONTESTS ARE ANTICIPATED

Many Schools Will Compete For Handsome Silver Trophy

The schoolboy meet which is being held in the city this week promises to be an unequalled success next Tuesday, Loyalist Day, when many of the contests as possible will be run off on the streets and grounds adjacent to the Y. M. C. A. building in Hazen avenue. The hope has been expressed that the committee of arrangements would be able to hold part of the meet in the morning, so as to arrange the whole tournament off in one day. Last year it was held on two different dates because of the large number of entrants.

Reports from different school buildings indicate that some of the schools met at all well represented in the Loyalist's contests this year will have for instance, Winter street, under the leadership of Principal H. H. Bennett—himself an athlete and footballist—who has organized consistently for the fray. Victoria, practically not represented last year, is to be reckoned with next Tuesday. King Edward, of South End, which last year had only a team of class 1 (smallest) relay runners, is going to have full representation in every event this year. King George School, Bentley street, is also out after the scraps of the St. Vincent and New Albert champion, as is also DuRoi in North End and Aberdeen in East End.

NEW YORK TEAM HANGING TO LEAD

Walter Johnson Scores Fifth Consecutive Win By Beating Browns

NEW YORK, May 13.—New York team hung tenaciously to the major league baseball meastheads today, as challenges from new camps were flung at their feet in the east and west. The Yankees travelled ten innings yesterday to beat back the encroaching Indians by a score of 6 to 3, only three days because of the large number of entrants.

Interest of baseball men, however, was not focused entirely on the first place dispute. Near the foot of the first division, rumbungs of trouble for the leaders came from the camp of the Pirates in the National, and the Mackmen in the American. Although the White Sox pushed Mack's men to ten innings, Simmons' timely double gave them their ninth straight victory at four to three, marking the longest winning streak of the year.

The Corsairs again won in a romp against the Phillies, 14 to 3, bombarding four pitchers, but the Giants, breaking a long losing streak with a 4 to 1 victory over the Cardinals, refused to yield their seat on the fourth rung.

While Boston Red Sox pitching did posted another brilliant performance turning back the Detroit Tigers 4 to 2.

KENTUCKY DERBY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 13.—The Kentucky Derby, most spectacular of all United States sporting events, is but two days off, and the care-free happiness of Derby day has descended upon Louisville, holding sway in its fluttering heart today.

Fifteen or more thoroughbreds, the best in the country, are here for the fifty-second renewal of the $50,000 added race. Recent unsets in races in the east and at Churchill Downs, have brought about a revision of the probable starters and narrowed the field to about 15.

OLIVE BRANCH LOCAL BASEBALL WITHERING UP

County League Prepares For Season at Meeting Last Night

THE olive branch that has been so noticeable during the last few days in local baseball circles is slowly withering up, and with three leagues moving ahead rapidly with plans for their schedules, the fans have commenced to resign themselves to the present mess with a feeling that the league will commence divided operations until the winners are decided and the playoffs out of his class at Logan, N. C., and the brown mare, Rhode O., winning a purse of $75.

C. M. Clement, who raced the brown stallion Michigan Farmer out of his class at Bath, N. Y., last year, was not held responsible, but his winnings of $200 in the race were ordered returned.

ERROR CORRECTED.

The Board also voted to correct an error in the tabulation of results in the 218 trot at Rockville, Md., Sept. 28, 1925, when Johnny B. was listed as the winner instead of Elsie M. The following corrections in the win race list of 1925 were also approved:

Jay Harvester at Elizabeth, Me., Oct. 1, from 2:22 1/2 to 2:26 1/2; Fair View at Woodstock, Va., Sept. 10, from 2:20 1/2 to 2:23 1/2; Captain Abbe at Middletown, N. Y., Aug. 11, from 2:18 1/2 to 2:19 1/2.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL LEAGUE IS PLANNED

Reported at Meeting That More Than Nine Teams Will Enter

THE formation of a Girls' City Softball League is assured. At the League organization meeting held last night at the Y. M. C. A. with Miss Dorothy McArthur, president, in the chair, it was reported that there would be at least nine teams entering and possibly a number of others. Some preliminary work was accomplished and suggestions with reference to referees and scorers were received. A committee was appointed to secure suitable grounds for the games and it was decided to postpone until a meeting to be held on Monday night, May 17, at 7 p. m., at the Y. W. C. A. the further business in connection with the formation of the League. Officers will be elected for the present season at the meeting on Monday night.

GALE GETS FUNDS FOR A POLO FIELD

NEW HAVEN, May 12.—A gift of funds for the construction of a regulation polo field and a small grandstand for spectators on property of the university, west of the Yale Army, by the Phipps family of New York, polo enthusiasts, was announced recently by the Yale Athletic Association. The field, which will cost between $60,000 and $85,000, will be named "Phipps Field" in honor of the donors, who are Henry C. Phipps, John C. Phipps and Howard C. Phipps, brothers, and their sister, Mrs. Frederick E. Gust. An additional $50,000 from an anonymous donor providing for fourteen polo ponies was also announced by the association.

FOR DUAL LANGUAGE

HULLS, Que., May 13.—It is believed that in the interests of every citizen of this Dominion that he or she have at least a smattering of the two official languages, English and French said Findlay Macdonald, M. P. for Sydney, N. S., in a short address here yesterday.

MISS NIGHTINGALE
LAUDED FOR WORK
IN MONCTON SPEECH

Dr. Webster Speaks of Her
Service and 8 Nurses
Graduate

MONCTON, May 12—Next to Queen Elizabeth, Florence Nightingale was the greatest woman who had lived in England and next to Pasteur and Lister she had accomplished most for the alleviation of the suffering of humanity, so Dr. J. Clarence Webster, L.L.D., declared in his address on Florence Nightingale delivered at the graduating exercises of the pupils of the training school of the Moncton hospital, held this evening in the Aberdeen High School assembly hall with ex-Mayor A. C. Chapman, president of the hospital board, in the chair. Dr. Webster said he had worked with the nurses of many countries, mentioning Germany, France, Switzerland, Italy, Scotland, England, Canada and the United States, but he said emphatically that if he himself required a nurse's care he would ask that the nurse be a Canadian.

The eight nurses who graduated were the Misses Hazel Velma Crossman, Mary Amelia Walsh, Anna Maud Mullins, Dorothy Reynolds Oliver, Dorothy Louise Embree, Mildred Elizabeth Wright, Julia Augusta Ward and Grace Rita McGinty. The diplomas were presented by Mr. Chapman.

PRIZE WINNERS

Prizes were won and presented as follows: The Moncton Chapter of Registered Nurses' Association's prize of a nurse's case of instruments, awarded for highest average, won by Miss Embree, presented by Miss Ruby Hall; Hospital Ladies' Aid's prizes of $5 in gold for highest points in nursing, first won by Miss Embree with Miss Hazel Crossman and Miss Dorothy Oliver tied for the second. These presentations were made by Mrs. F. E. Willie. The prize of $20 in gold donated by Norman Sinclair of the hospital board for highest marks in obstetrics, won by Miss Oliver, conditionally, as two nurses have still to complete the course. Prizes of books were presented by Dr. W. A. Ferguson to the Misses Embree, Alice Newcombe and Grace Ward. A prize of $10 for highest marks in surgical emergencies in nursing and massage which was donated by Dr. A. R. Myers was divided between Miss Annie Mullins and Miss Dorothy Embree. Dr. George Lyon's prize of $5 for bacteriology and anatomy was won by Miss Dorothy Alward. Dr. Kirby's prize of $10 for anatomy and physiology was won by Miss Oliver who also won Mr. Chapman's prize of $20 for deportment. Bouquets of roses were presented from the Moncton Hospital board to the graduates. Miss Embree was the valedictorian. The program included the administration of the Florence Nightingale oath to the graduates by Dr. A. R. Myers; selection by the Aberdeen High School orchestra; violin solo, Mrs. Raymond A. Legere; vocal solo, Walter Neale; and an address by Mr. Chapman who recalled the history of the hospital and recalled what it had Courting booths in churches are proposed by Dr. Ira Landrith of San Antonio, Tex., national extension secretary of the Christian Endeavor Society. He says "young people will get together some way and if the church does not supply the means they will go to the other extreme."

MAY SHORTEN RAIL
LINE IN ALBERT CO.

Projected Alteration Would Cut Off Mile Near Hopewell Hill

HOPEWELL HILL, May 12—The report is again being circulated and, it is said, with very good authority, that the track of the Albert branch railway between Daniels and Hopewell Hill stations, a distance of four miles, is to be straightened, to cut off the detour around the Shepody marsh, the work being in prospect for the coming summer. This alteration would shorten the distance between the two stations by a mile and a half. For 50 years—ever since the road was built—visitors have looked in amazement at the circuitous route of the line here. The generally accepted reason for the circuit seems to be that the terms of contract required the road to tap the river at its mouth. If this was ever of any advantage, the detour apparently outlived its usefulness. For years there has been talk of bringing the track in and shortening the mileage. The report that this is now likely to be accomplished is given considerable credence and is strengthened by the assertion of railway employes that instructions have been given not to put any more repairs on the present piece of road. It is understood, expressed the hope that a new building might be erected, warmly praised the management, referred appreciatively to the editorial in The Telegraph-Journal of that morning, and paid a glowing tribute to the work of the staff, the nurses and the superintendent, Miss A. J. McMaster.

URGED TO TAKE UP THEIR LIFE
WORK IN CANADA

1910, is the gift of his mother. "I", as he was known by his classmates and college friends, was a native of this city. He was popular at college. He became qualified civil engineer and deputy land surveyor. He followed this profession for eight years, five years being spent in Saint John.

DIED ON FIELD OF HONOR

After the outbreak of the war he declined a commission, and paid his own expenses to England in order to be recommissioned at a very low altitude. In November of that year, at Baupanne, while endeavoring to carry out his reconnaissance at a very low altitude, his machine was shot down and flames by fire from the ground and fell within the German lines.

PRIDE IN THEIR DEEDS

"While we realize and appreciate the sense of loss sustained by the relatives and friends of these gallant young alumni of our University, we can also, I believe, join with them in a feeling of pride in the consciousness of duty well performed. As we accept today these memorials, may we remember and cherish the memories of the men in whose honor they are placed, and may they be an inspiration to future generations of men and women passing through these halls to nobler and better service."

The Rossley Private
Dancing School
For Adult Boys and Girls.
New Classes Now Being Formed.

MRS. JACK ROSSLEY is now prepared to give lessons to older boys and girls who would like to learn stage dancing. These dancing lessons are not for stage work, but to build up and make young bodies strong and graceful, unless parents wish their children to take up a stage career. The younger children already enrolled are learning quickly and just love the work, even the tiny tots, who think it is all play, take a great interest and on two lessons are shaping well. Only bright, intelligent children of good families enrolled. For further information call, write or phone MRS. JACK ROSSLEY, Telephone 884-11, 237 Charlotte St.

LEWISVILLE SCENE OF PRETTY WEDDING

Special to The Times-Star
MONCTON, May 13—A charming wedding took place Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Louis France church, Lewisville, when Miss Emma M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick

LeBlanc, Sunny Brae, became the bride of J. Napa Comeau, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Comeau, Railway avenue, city. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss May Gratten. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Father Dumas LeBlanc, uncle of the bride. The altar was artistically decorated with a profusion of spring flowers and potted plants. The witnesses were Clovis LeBlanc, brother of the bride, and Eddie Bourgeois.

The bride was gowned in navy blueorgette, heavily appliqued in rose design, with hat of corresponding shade, and carried a shower bouquet of American beauty roses. After the ceremony, the wedding party went to the home of the bride's parents, where a buffet lunch was served. Those serving were the Misses M. LeBlanc, P. Steeves and E. Comeau.

AMERICA'S FOOD SUPPLY.
(Louisville Courier-Journal.)
America is becoming more and more a manufacturing nation. Annually, federal figures cite the increased abundance of farms. The falling off of exportable food surpluses proves this. Every year, then, the burden of a tariff on imported foodstuffs becomes heavier.

IVANHOE

RADIALLY THE RANKS OF THE EMBATTLED KNIGHTS THINNED OUT. THEN IT WAS OBSERVED THAT THE DISHERITED KNIGHT AND BOY-GUILLBERT WERE ONCE MORE IN COMBAT. TO THE AMAZEMENT OF THE CROWD, FRONT-DE-BORDER AND ATLESTARE BOTH ADVANCED TO GUILLBERT'S RESCUE, AND UNDOUBTEDLY THE YOUTH WOULD HAVE GONE DOWN EXCEPT FOR AN UNLOOKED FOR INTERRUPTION.

Sir Walter Scott's Classic In Pictorial Form

GIANT KNIGHT, CALLED BY THE CROWD THE BLACK SLUGGARD BECAUSE OF HIS SEEMING INDIFFERENCE, SUDDENLY SPURRED HIS HORSE AND UNSHEATHED FRONT-DE-BORDER WITH A BLOW OF HIS SWORD. THEIR MATCHING ATLESTARE'S BATTLE-AX, HE STRUCK THE LATTER OVER THE HEAD AND KNOCKED HIM SENSELESS. THEN HE LEFT.

By REDNER

THE DISHERITED KNIGHT SOON UNHORSED BOB-GUILLBERT AND WAS COMMANDING HIM TO YIELD HIMSELF WHEN PRINCE JOHN, NOT CARING TO SEE HIS FAVORITES SO RUDELY DEALT WITH, DROPPED HIS WARBER AND ENDED THE COMBAT EVERYONE THOUGHT THE DAY'S HONORS SHOULD AGAIN GO TO THE UNKNOWN KNIGHT, BUT PRINCE JOHN NAMED THE BLACK SLUGGARD.

By BLOSSER

EVERYWHERE THIS KNIGHT COULD NOT BE FOUND, AND HE AGAIN WAS THE DISHERITED KNIGHT NAMED CHAMPION. HE RECEIVED THE CORONET FROM LADY ROWENA, AND AGAINST HIS PROTESTS HIS HELMET WAS REMOVED, DISCLOSING THE FEATURES OF IVANHOE. CEDRIC'S DISHERITED SON, ROWENA, RECORDING HIM, UTTERED A CRY, AND IVANHOE, SORELY WOUNDED, FAINED.

COMPENSATION CASE APPEAL IS NOT ALLOWED

Judge Grimmer Decides Against Application Made For William Ganter

A petition was presented to His Honor Judge Grimmer, sitting in Chambers this morning, on behalf of William Ganter, for permission to appeal to the Supreme Court, Appeal Division, from the final decision of the Workmen's Compensation Board, made on April 29 last. It reduced the award for permanent partial disability made by the board on May 20, 1925, from 84 per cent. disability to 25 per cent. disability.

The grounds for leave to appeal were:

1.—That, having once determined the compensation, the board could not reduce it.

2.—That the board had no jurisdiction to reduce the award without notice to Ganter.

3.—That there was no evidence before the board which bore a reduction.

His Honor considered that the only questions involved were questions of fact and not of law, and as by statute there was no appeal from the board's finding on a question of fact, permission to appeal was refused.

D. Mullin, K. C., was for the petitioner; C. F. Inches, K. C., for the board.

COUNTY COURT.

In County Court Chambers this morning His Honor Judge Barry delivered judgment in the case of C. T. Dean vs. W. Malcolm Mackay, Limited, which was tried before him at the February sitting of the court. This was an action for $130, balance declared due for wages. The court found that the plaintiff was not an employee of the defendant, but of one Alexander McLeod, and gave judgment for the defendant, with costs. E. P. Haywood was for the plaintiff; C. F. Inches, K. C., for the defendant.

The meeting decided to give cash donations to the Maritime Home for Girls, at Truro, and also the Inter-Provincial Home for Women at Coverdale. It was also decided to hold a picnic at a social hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Bender, Mrs. Colin Gilker, Mrs. McGuire and Mrs. R. Dole.

CANADIAN BOARD HERE IN SEPTEMBER

Large Gathering on Business Subjects in Saint John on 28th, 29th and 30th

Word was received last evening by F. Maclure Sclanders, commissioner of the Board of Trade, that September 28, 29 and 30 had been chosen as the dates for the sessions of the first annual meeting of the Canadian Board of Trade, which is to be held in this city.

The information was contained in a telegram from Col. J. L. Egan, Ottawa, secretary of the Canadian Board of Trade.

When the place of holding the first annual meeting was under discussion the representatives of Halifax, Vancouver and Winnipeg favored Saint John and it was decided to meet here. Representatives will be present from all of the larger centres of the Dominion.

DR. WARWICK HOME Says Hope is Dr. Melvin May Avoid Operation—Convention Attended

Dr. William Warwick arrived home today from Toronto and Montreal. In the latter city he spent a day so with Chief Provincial Health Officer Dr. G. G. Melvin, who is a patient in the Royal Victoria Hospital under observation for stone in the kidney. It is hoped an operation will be unnecessary.

In Toronto Dr. Warwick attended the annual meeting of the Canadian Public Health Association, held in conjunction with the health meeting of Ontario officials. Nearly every section of the Dominion was represented. The Saint John sub-district health officer was the only representative from the Maritime Provinces.

The gathering was addressed by Dr. George Vincent of the Rockefeller Foundation, Prof. Winslow of Yale University, president of the American Public Health Association and Dr. C. J. Hastings of Toronto.

Local News

TO BORDER TOWN.
 W. L. MacFarlane, chief inspector under the prohibition act, left Saint John last evening for St. Stephen, where a case dealing with a violation of the law was to be heard before the court today.

REALIZED $91.
 The Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd held their closing meeting yesterday afternoon with Mrs. H. Blagden in the chair. Mrs. Rudolph Phillips reported $91 net from a recent supper and sale. The meetings of the guild will be resumed in September.

BURIAL SERVICE
 A burial service for George William Nelson, formerly a resident of Carleton Place, Ontario, was held at the General Public Hospital on January 5, aged 70 years, will be held at the vault and grave in Cedar Hill cemetery, Carleton Place, Ontario, on Friday, May 14, at 2 o'clock. Relatives and acquaintances are invited to attend.

HIS BIRTHDAY
 Mrs. Charles Cranell entertained at the tea hour yesterday afternoon, at her residence, 1 Portland street, on the first birthday of her little grandson, Ernest R. Buckingham. The youthful guest of honor was the recipient of many dainty gifts. Spring flowers made an effective decoration in the drawing room and also centered the tea table.

KEEP OFF GRASS.
 George Walker, 18, a native of England, was arrested last evening by Sergeant O'Neill on a charge of trespassing on the grass in Market Square, West Saint John. It was said he had been playing baseball there and had been warned to keep off the grass. A fine was allowed to stand.

DR. BAXTER WILL CASE
 B. L. Gerow, whose appointment as executor of the estate of the late Dr. George O. Baxter, his appointment being made in the will, has been contested, said this afternoon that he had been sworn in as an executor recently by Judge H. G. McInerney, of the Probate Court. Mr. Gerow said that a settlement had been arrived at.

COLLIDED.
 Street car No. 180 and a truck of the New Brunswick Power Co. were in collision this morning in Prince William street about 10:30. The street car stopped near City Hall, and the truck, which was following it, bumped into the rear end of the car. Aside from the breaking of a pane of glass, no damage was done.

SAYS WRONG PLACE.
 A representative of the N. B. Tourist Association appeared before the committee meeting of the council this morning and presented a request that the members take out individual memberships in the association. His Worship advised that the meeting was not the place to canvass the commissioning of a matter of this kind should be done in their individual offices.

GREETINGS FROM U. N. B.
 Geoffrey Stead, president of the Saint John U. N. B. Club, this morning received from Chancellor C. C. Jones the following telegram: "Convey to all dear sons and daughters in your vicinity the Greetings of Alma Mater on the occasion of the Anniversary of 1926. A class of 31 go out in the world to join those who have preceded them, from all of whom Alma Mater expects loyal support."

STATUTE REVISION.
 The commission on the revision of the Statutes of New Brunswick sat this morning in the Government rooms, 255-256, King street, and the report given out. Hon. W. P. Jones, K. C., Woodstock; E. R. Richards, Sackville; and J. A. Craghan, Newcastle, members of the commission, with K. E. MacLaughlin, secretary, were present.

ATTENTION SUGGESTED
 That the approach from Protection Island to the polo to show, West Saint John, was in a dangerous condition was reported today. A citizen last evening stepped in the plank and fell but escaped injury. He said drowning accidents were possible if people should step in these holes and into their balance, topple into the waters of the harbor.

CITY'S TAX RATE.
 Questioned this morning as to a rumor that the tax rate for 1926 would be $2.26, His Worship Mayor White said there had not been an official notice yet from the assessors as to the rate, and this information would have to go to the council before it was made public. It was said this morning around City Hall that of the increase this year a little more than 10 per cent was due to the vocational school.

MR. PAGE HERE
 "Joe" Page, prominent C. P. R. publicity agent, was in town today in connection with matters that will give the city widespread publicity if carried through to a successful conclusion. The genial "Joe" is not yet ready definitely to announce his plans, but it is understood that they concern a baseball trip here this fall. Mr. Page will leave for Montreal tomorrow afternoon on his way to New York and Philadelphia.

GRAND MANAN ROUTE.
 The steamer Grand Manan, undergoing overhauling at West Saint John, is expected to commence her summer schedule between Saint John and Grand Manan on June 1. There will be bi-weekly sailings from here. On June 1, she is due to leave here for Grand Manan. She will return Friday and leave the same day for the island, making the return trip to the city on the following Monday.

ROTHESAY BASEBALL.
 A meeting of members and friends of the Rothesay baseball team will be held tonight at Rothesay. Plans will be discussed and other matters related to the Rothesay-Fair Vale baseball league attended to.

DEFER ACTION IN TWO MATTERS AT CITY HALL

Imperial Oil and C. P. R. Applications Go Over—Private Conference Follows

An application by the Imperial Oil Co. for permission to install a steel oil tank and one by the C. P. R. for a new and larger ramp at the landing of the steamer Empress were discussed by the committee of the whole this morning at City Hall, but action was deferred in both matters.

At the close of the committee meeting His Worship requested the members of the council to remain as he had some things to discuss with them. The Imperial Oil Co. had requested permission to erect a 12,000 gallon steel tank at Broadview Avenue, for storing lubricating oil. Commissioner Bullock said the application was in line with the act of 1899 except that no plan of the proposed tank had been filed. Commissioner Prink moved that the application lie on the table until a plan was filed and this carried.

C. P. R. APPLICATION.
 Commissioner Bullock reported on a plan application of the C. P. R. He had written that the Eastern S. S. Company were paying a rental of 12 per cent on the cost of the quarters occupied by them and suggested that if the C. P. R. were willing to pay an increased rental of 12 per cent on the cost of the proposed ramp, estimated at $3,000, he would be willing to recommend the work.

J. M. Woodman, superintendent of the New Brunswick division of the C. P. R., had replied that the ramp needed repairs and he thought if the railway company paid 12 per cent, on one half it was all that could be fairly asked of them.

The commissioner will continue the negotiations with the C. P. R.

W. J. HOLMES DIES; BUT FEW DAYS ILL

Active in South End Playground Work and Well Remembered in Entertainment Circles

Saint John today lost a good citizen in the death of William J. Holmes, 42 Wentworth street, who died in the hospital. He had been ill only since Monday evening. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Agnes Odell, a niece of the late Michael Farrell.

Mr. Holmes was a man of high character and was one of the pioneers in establishing the South End Playground. In his younger days he also was quite prominent in amateur theatricals in this city, and was a pleasing singer with the old Snowflake minstrel. He had been a member of the Bicycle Club minstrels. He was always willing to give his talent to any worthy cause. For several years he was employed as watchman at the City Market and later was with the wholesale grocers, but retired about three years ago.

The funeral will be held on Saturday at 10 o'clock at his late residence to the Cathedral for high mass of requiem.

MRS. GEORGIANNA BUSTIN DIES AT 81

Widow of Thomas Bustin Had Been Ill For The Last Five Years

Death last night claimed Mrs. Georgianna Bustin at her residence, 275 Princess street, following an illness of five years. She was in her 81st year and was the widow of Thomas Bustin and a daughter of Michael and Sarah Thompson, all of this city. She is survived by her daughters—Mrs. E. L. Matthews, Mrs. Hutchinson and the Misses Caroline C. Georgianna, H. Zaidee and G. Loleta Bustin, all of Saint John. Three grandchildren are Dr. H. B. Bastin of Port Elgin, N. B.; Miss M. Bustin and Miss E. L. Hutchinson of this city. Mrs. C. W. Crichton of Halifax, and Miss M. Thompson of this city, are sisters, and S. B. Thompson of Boston, is a brother. The late Stephen B. Bustin, barrister, was a son.

Mrs. Bustin was a life long member of the Queen Square church Sunday school and during her years of inactivity was a member of the home department. Those who had the privilege of administering to her during her long illness could not help but be comforted and uplifted by the Christian spirit and fortitude displayed under suffering.

Local Real Estate Company Meeting

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Saint John Real Estate Co. was held yesterday afternoon. The managing director, Hon. L. P. D. Tilley, K. C., referred to the incorporation of the Company on March 22, 1906, with a capital of $40,000. This had since been increased to $200,000, of which $181,000 had been sold and paid for. The report showed that the Company owned 73 houses and had 270 tenants. On the basis of four to each family the Company would have 1,080 of the city's population in its houses.

The board of directors was re-elected as follows: F. Neil Brodie, H. C. Creighton, Col. E. T. Sturdee, V. D. D. C. Clark and Hon. L. P. D. Tilley. These elected F. N. Brodie, president; H. C. Creighton, vice president; Hon. Mr. Tilley, managing director and secretary-treasurer.
