Trouble Feared In The March Out On Monday

IRISH SITUATION TENSE

Orangemen Will Hold Demonstration This Year Two Miles Out of Town—Home Rule Bill to Come Back to Commons Next Week

(Canadian Press) London, July 11.—The situation in Ulster today is without a parallel in the United Kingdom since the Jacobite rebellion of 1745. Short of actual hostilities, the position, according to the opposition newspapers, could not be more desperate. This is the eve of the 224th anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, and only the exercise of great restraint on the part of the Ulster volunteers, will prevent disturbances on Monday. The tension is extreme throughout Ulster, and especially in Londonderry. The Orangemen have agreed to hold their demonstration two miles outside the town. They will march wearing the sashes of their order, and the danger-point will come when they have to pass a Nationalist street. It is practically certain that every man will carry a revolver. In order to reduce the risk of conflict, as much as possible the Orangemen will march out of the city about 10.30 and return about 8 p. m., the hours being chosen because the majority of Nationalist volunteers will then be at work. A meeting of the British cabinet is to be held on Monday to decide what course shall be adopted over drastic changes made by the House of Lords in the home rule amending bill. The bill will come down to the commons next week.

BRITAIN LOOKS TO INDIA FOR MORE COTTON

London, July 11.—In the hope of some day securing a raw cotton supply independent of America, the International Federation of Master Cotton Spinners and Manufacturers' Association has launched a scheme for the establishment of a model cotton plantation in Punjab, India. Considering the advances already made in India, it is estimated that before many years the Indian crop will be almost as large as the American crop. The model plantation in India will demonstrate the benefits which arise from intensive farming, thereby encouraging the landed proprietors to adopt this system and to improve the yield per acre and the quality of the fibre. The land will be sown with as large a percentage of American cotton seed as possible, and the agricultural department of Punjab will have the right to purchase any of the surplus seed produced which is not required for the estate, for distribution in other districts. The federation has secured a twenty years' lease of 1,000 acres close to railway and water supply. A modern spinning mill is to be erected and as there is scarcely any population in the vicinity, model villages are to be established for the workmen, who are to be brought in and instructed by experts. Prominent members of the federation believe that within a few years it will be possible to increase the Indian cotton crop to ten million bales without encroaching on the area required for food. Manufacturers in all countries using Indian cotton are subscribing to the project.

CANADIAN CLUBS The Association of Canadian Clubs will meet this year in Vancouver. Great preparations have been made to ensure success. Among the speakers will be, it is expected, Sir Robert Borden and Hon. Arthur Meighen. Delegates will be entertained. It is hoped the Canadian Clubs of this province will be represented. Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, who is provincial vice-president, desires any who are going to send their names to her address, St. Andrews, N. B., so that she may have provision made for their entertainment. Ordinary tourist rates prevail for the trip to Vancouver and return.

Great Turn-Over in Manitoba; The Liberals Nearly Oust Roblin

Government Just Gets By; Ministers Have Hard Time

WINNIPEG IS CAPTURED

Liberals Take Four Out of the Six Seats—Tory Control Not Wholly Assured Yet For There Will Be Re-counts—Majorities Cut Down, Including the Premier's

Winnipeg, Man., July 11.—The Roblin government had a narrow escape yesterday's election and is not yet altogether out of the woods, though the probability is that when the final returns are in the government will have a narrow working majority. The Conservatives have captured twenty-three seats, the Liberals 21, while two are doubtful, but the Conservatives are leading in each. Three deferred elections in new territory will likely go Conservative. The biggest surprise was the Liberals' win in Winnipeg, the taking of four out of six seats. All the ministers had a close fight, Armstrong being defeated and Montague getting in by a bare majority of four.

BLACK FOXES WERE SAID TO HAVE ESCAPED It was reported today that a good-sized fox was running loose in the woods near Northfort, four black foxes having escaped from one of the ranches there. G. M. Barker, one of the company which controls five ranches at Northfort, expressed surprise that such a report had been made. The keeper, he said, had heard it and had counted the foxes and found none missing.

BELLE OF THE SEASON IN LONDON

A new picture of the Hon. Monica Grenfell, eldest daughter of Lord and Lady Desborough who perhaps is the most popular of the society favorites of this season. Her father is a famous sportsman who swam the Niagara. Her mother is lady in waiting to the queen and a brilliant hostess whose only weakness is said to be a love for successful people. She gathers them at Taylor Court, her husband's wonderful Thameside palace, and most of the unmarried male-ones have their hearts turned by her handsome daughter. The latter is one of the best punters on the Thames, and an expert and fearless swimmer, too.

ALL BLAME ON STORSTAD, SAYS PRIVATE TELEGRAM

A private wire to J. M. Robinson & Sons today announced that the findings of Lord Mersey and his fellow commissioners who formed the board of inquiry into the disaster in which more than 1,000 persons on the steamer Empress of Ireland lost their lives, had placed the blame for the collision entirely upon the collier Storstad. The Storstad is held responsible for the accident, because she changed her course. The helm of the Storstad was ported by order of the third officer, Mr. Saxe, who thought that the Empress was at port, whereas in reality she was at starboard. The order to port was given without instructions from the first officer of the Storstad, but as he was in charge at the time, he is held jointly responsible with the third officer. The first officer is also blamed for having failed to call the captain when the fog came on. There is nothing to blame in the course followed by the two ships before the fog came on. It is almost certain some of the bulkheads of the Empress were not closed at the time of the collision. Kendall, it is said, would have been better advised to give the Storstad a wider berth, but they do not consider his failure to give a wider berth a contributory cause. The chief officer of the Storstad was wrong in altering his course.

GREAT DISPLAY OF BRITANNIA IS PLANNED FOR SPITHEAD

London, July 11.—All the British fleets and flotillas in home waters, which now-day means practically the whole of the British navy, has been ordered to be at Spithead on July 17 to spend a week-end and pass in review before Admiral of the Fleet, King George V. The mobilization, which is in the nature of a test, is this year to take the place of the usual manoeuvres, in which the present admiralty board has decided to teach the officers-manning that they do not know already, besides being a very heavy expense. The ships and auxiliaries, which will number some 400 craft, the largest fleet ever assembled, will include every class of vessel from the big dreadnought battleships to the smallest submarines, aeroplanes and hydroplanes. The spot is an ideal one for the assembling of a great fleet, the one stretch of water in the world that seems to have been designed by nature as the frame for great naval pageants. It gives the public as well as the officers and men, an opportunity of seeing the great fleet the upkeep of which costs the British taxpayer so much, gathered together as though ready for actual warfare, for every ship will be so manned and outfitted that she could go into immediate battle. The reserves will be called out and the cadets from Osborne and Dartmouth Colleges will be embarked, as they would in war-time, and after the king has concluded his visit, they will go for a short cruise with the entire fleet.

A City of Trees

Paris, July 11.—The city authorities have just completed a census of trees in Paris. These along the boulevards and avenues amount to 87,647, while those in the public squares add 26,233 to this number. The public gardens, such as the Luxembourg and private gardens, which are numerous even in the central part of the city, have not been counted. The trees of the streets include 27,645 plane trees, 10,994 elms, 16,088 chestnuts, 4,667 sycamores, 8,492 limes, and sixty-two poplars. There is only one oak accounted for.

TIME FOR PREMIER CLARKE TO ACT; NEW FREEMAN MAKES STRONG DEMAND

The New Freeman this morning says editorially:—Up to the present we have refrained from making any comment upon the Dugal charges in the hope that every day would see this matter disposed of in a manner that would be in keeping with the public dignity of this province. Unfortunately, however, owing to the absence of material witnesses, there now seems no greater possibility of ascertaining the truth or falsehood of these charges than when the commission began. The recent boy burglaries in this city have called forth many timely remarks from the public officials and the press, but we seriously ask, is it not possible that the public is to blame in a measure for this unhappy state of affairs. The youths of our day who read the papers teeming with charges and counter charges of graft by men in the high places, may not unreasonably look lightly upon petty thefts when they see greater ones by men of standing and influence practically condoned by indifferent public opinion. Theft is theft, whether it be the misappropriation of thousands of dollars or the pilfering of a few copper coins. We believe the progress that is now being made in the proving or disproving of the Dugal charges does not lead to an uplifting effect upon the minds of the youths of this province, or deter them from their evil propensities in this regard. The time has now come when every man must rise above party and take a stand consistent with the highest public ideals of this province. The eyes of the people of eight provinces in this dominion are fixed upon New Brunswick. Let the charges preferred by Mr. Dugal be proved or disproved, and let no influence stand in the way of settling the real facts in this matter. We now call upon Hon. Mr. Clarke, acting premier, in whom we have the fullest confidence, to take immediate action for the removal of the covered and material witnesses. We call upon him in the name of public honesty we call upon him in the name of public justice, we call upon him in the name of the province to expedite matters inasmuch as lies within his official power, and to clear the atmosphere of the grave and deep suspicions that are lurking in the minds of the people of New Brunswick.

FINE TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF MR. EMERSON

Moncton, July 11.—Thousands of citizens were expected to gather today to pay their tribute of respect to the late Mr. Emerson, a staunch friend of Westmorland county, every walk of life, of all classes and creeds, young and old, were expected to form up and proceed to the Central Methodist church, this edifice having been placed at the disposal of the First Baptist for the occasion. The procession will probably be one of the most impressive ever witnessed in this part of the province. It will be headed by Chief of Police Rideout, then will come the Citizens' Band, followed by representatives of St. John's, Moncton and other places. Next will be the barbers, a band, containing magnificent floral tributes, the hearse, mourners, and hundreds of citizens on foot. The mayor of Moncton having issued a proclamation asking the business establishments of the city to close during the funeral, the business will be suspended. The pall-bearers will be—Hon. P. McSwaney, senator; Hon. C. J. Osmann, A. Corp., ex-M.P.P.; J. Leger, ex-M.P.P.; James McQueen, Sheldale; C. S. Hickman, Dorchester; J. F. Hawke, Moncton; and Councilor Fred Magee of Port Elgin. The church, it is expected, will be inadequate to accommodate the large concourse of citizens. A committee of ladies from the First Baptist church, under the leadership of Mrs. A. E. Killam, have draped the interior of the building. There will be a combined choir from the First Baptist, Central Methodist and Presbyterian churches, under the leadership of W. A. McKee, organist and chorister of the First Baptist church. The hymns selected by the family are "Not all the Blood of Beasts," and "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go." At the close Mr. McKee will play the Dead March in Saul, the congregation remaining standing. From the church the cortege will go to Elmwood cemetery, where interment will take place. Rev. Mr. Beanson, Baptist pastor at Dorchester, conducted a service at Dorchester for the family. Rev. G. A. Lawson, First Baptist pastor, will conduct the service here, assisted by Rev. Mr. Beanson. (Continued on page twelve, 1st column)

LOCAL ORANGE CELEBRATIONS

The following events have been arranged for the Orange celebration: At Lorneville and the Reach today, parades and picnics. On Sunday at 8 p.m., the St. John district Loyal Orange Lodges will parade to Leinster street Baptist church. Rev. Wellington Camp will preach on "A Motto for Orangemen." To Sussex on Monday. Special trains from all directions will carry the crowds to that town, and the committees are making arrangement for the entertainment of between 5,000 and 6,000 people. At the open air meeting on the militia grounds by W. B. Wallace, grand master; Rev. A. W. Currie, Kings county master; Past Grand Master A. Thomas, of Fredericton; Past Grand Master B. Williams, of Dorchester, and others will speak. Two baseball games and a parade will be features of the celebration. On Monday there will be a picnic, celebration and ball at Musquash, at which a great many of the county members are expected to be present.

Who is Getting The Money?

This is directed to the eye of local retailers. When nationally made products are advertised in the columns of The Telegraph and Times a demand is created right here. It is among people who are either your customers or would like to be. The dealers who are alert to let the public know they have these goods, who display them in their windows, who advertise the fact that they bring this business their way. And more important than making sales is the fact that these dealers are also making customers. They are adding to their asset of good will.

REPORT FROM POLICEMAN O'LEARY STILL GOOD

Reports from the hospital this morning are to the effect that the condition of Frank O'Leary remains about the same. Later it was said there had been a slight improvement.

CANADA'S RAILWAYS

(Times Special Correspondence.)
London, June 30—Canadians are so often accused of being unduly optimistic regarding the performance and future of the dominion that it is refreshing to find that much of the praise of Canada and Canadian undertakings comes from competent observers from other countries who cannot be accused of that form of patriotism.

In Canada, too, he says, are most efficient, and the rates are not as a rule higher than those of the Australian governments, whose service is, however, of such a character that one can only apologize for it.

It is the same with telegraphs in Australia, which are all government owned, and recently the hours at which a telegram could be sent were reduced by two and the offices are now open only from nine to six. Altogether, according to this authority, Canadians may feel that they are a great deal better off than the Australians.

A coffin, a box of brass funeral furniture and fittings, and a small parcel of plates were sold by auction at Buckingham market to a pensioner postman for 10s.

LONG-LINED RUSSIAN TUNIC REPLACES TUNIC SKIRT IN FASHION'S FAVOR

(By Maybelle Mortimer.)
It is astonishing to see how the skirt tunic has disappeared from milady's wardrobe. Every one is wearing the long Russian tunic and they seem very becoming to both the lady who is fat, fair and forty and the girl who is just sixteen. Underskirts are still very narrow, but the tunic grows wider each week.

For summer fabrics it is made of accordion or side pleats but for the heavier materials it is slightly gathered at the waist line. The "set-in" sleeve has come to stay, but the comfortable and artistic blouse is on the wane. High collars are trying hard to encircle the modish woman's throat but as yet she will have none of them. Perhaps when the winter winds do blow she will change her mind.

The Allenburys' Foods

WHEN Baby cannot have the natural Food, i. e. healthy mother's milk, great care should be taken in selecting a true substitute. No starchy or farinaceous food should be given to an infant under six months of age. It is not only useless, for the young infant cannot digest starch, but is a frequent cause of illness and rickets. The food given to an infant from birth to 3 months of age should correspond in all respects with human milk. From the beginning of the fourth month to the end of the sixth month, the child requires a more developed food for the building up of brain, nerve, bone and muscle. After the sixth month, baby is growing stronger and more active, and once again a food must be provided to satisfy the increasing demands of nature.

Doctors, Nurses and Parents in all parts of the world have proved that the "Allenburys' Foods provide a complete and progressive dietary specially adapted to each stage of a child's development. Each of the Numbers 1, 2 and 3 Foods is specially prepared to meet baby's needs as Baby gets older.

The "Allenburys' Foods are based on scientific certainties. Used as directed, they are exactly what Baby needs to develop into a healthy and robust child.

IMPERIAL ANNOUNCES "SQUAW MAN" HOURS

Important Information Concerning Monday's Broadway Production —Two-Hour Show

In announcing Edwin Milton Ryle's "The Squaw Man" for the first three days of next week Imperial Theatre has stirred considerable interest. This is one of the most notable stories published in a decade and its dramatization was presented in the best theatre for record-breaking runs. Being a closely copyrighted work the picture production has cost the owners, the Jesse Lasky syndicate of New York, a tremendous royalty. It is contained in six brimming reels, consuming one hour and forty-five minutes. With musical features the Imperial's programme will be nearly two hours long.

Intending patrons are requested to observe the hours of programme opening at 8 o'clock and 8.45 in the afternoon and 7 and 8.45 in the evening. Because of the length of "The Squaw Man" feature the usual orchestral overture will be omitted. Holmes and Buchanan will open the programme in the evening and appear after the first show at the matinee.

THE GATLIN TREATMENT EST. 1900

For Drink and Drug Habits

For fourteen years Gatlin Institutes have been receiving for treatment cases of "nervous drinking." During this entire time no man has ever come to a Gatlin Institute with "alcoholic nerves" and craving for liquor who did not leave with nerves steady and without any craving or desire for liquor whatever.

Usually but a period of three days is required—no one has found it necessary to remain longer than five days for liquor treatment.

When the business or professional man has to drink for his "nerves" it is time to think—TO THINK HARD

The treatment is purely vegetable, guaranteed harmless, quick in its action, certain and lasting in its results.

It is the only scientific treatment administered without the use of hypodermic injections or any other strenuous method.

Treatment may be had at any of the Gatlin Institutes established throughout the world, or special treatment will be furnished those who prefer remaining at home.

MANITOBA'S VERDICT

"The result is undoubtedly a sore blow to the expectations of the government," says a Canadian Press despatch referring to the Manitoba election. This paragraph from the report was carefully eliminated by the St. John Standard.

GOOD NEWS FROM WEST

Canadian Finance of July 1 has a very cheerful survey of crop conditions in the west. It says the C. P. R. report of a grain acreage of over 20,000,000, an increase of 1,715,000 acres over last year.

The news from Ottawa regarding the finances of Canada is not of a cheerful nature. The revenue for the past financial year was $85,000,000 less than that of the preceding year, while the expenditure for the ordinary cost of administration was $18,800,000 more than in the preceding year.

Referring to the effect of crop prospects upon general business, Canadian Finance says that there is a decidedly better feeling with an improvement in retail business and a corresponding demand for supplies at wholesale.

"Fears are expressed by some wholesale merchants that the harvesting of a good crop will be followed by such a consumptive demand for goods that the merchants throughout the country will not be able to cater to it; for manufacturers in most lines have been curtailing their output, and the jobbers have not been stocking up as liberally as in former seasons."

The people of Eastern Canada, who are of course affected by western conditions, will experience a feeling of satisfaction that the outlook is so promising.

INDUSTRIAL FARMS

It may be hoped that the Community Council will not abandon its efforts until an industrial farm has been provided either as a provincial institution or for the municipality of the city and county of St. John. In a little book just printed by order of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, and entitled "Regulation for the Government and Management of Industrial Farms in the Judicial Districts of Ontario," we find this statement of what Ontario understands to be the objects of an industrial farm:

- 1. To provide open air employment with moral and physical reformatory methods, for persons who would otherwise have been kept in idleness in a common jail.
2. To lessen the expenditure hitherto made for jail maintenance by making industrial farms self-sustaining.
3. To permit the earnings of a person sentenced to an industrial farm to be applied toward his own maintenance, the maintenance of his wife, children, or other members of his family dependent upon him, and to pay the travelling expenses of a person in any place where employment has been secured for such person on his parole or discharge.
No one can reasonably deny that we need an industrial farm to produce these results in St. John, and as the system has long since passed the experimental stage, and has been proved over and over again to be in the highest degree beneficial to the community, every good citizen should be interested in and should get behind a movement to have such an institution established for this municipality as of for the province.

Who got the rake-off from the Southampton Railway? Will Sir Robert Borden make that projected tour of the west? He has received sad news from Winnipeg.

The prestige of Sir James Whitney proved to be much stronger in Ontario than that of Sir Rodmond Roblin in Manitoba. Mr. Carvell has called upon Acting Premier Clarke to assist in securing the books of the St. John & Quebec Railway Co. in order that the Royal Commission may be able to investigate thoroughly the cost of the Valley Railway and the diversion of moneys charged by Mr. Dugal. Mr. Clarke will see the necessity of doing all in his power to facilitate this enquiry, and the government has the power, since the company is under contract with the government. All the evidence must be produced.

The Standard has returned to its favorite task of proving the Times to be a "self-convicted liar." The sins of this journal may be grievous, but the exposure of them will not bring Mr. W. H. Berry or Mr. James H. Corbett back to New Brunswick, conceal the facts about the Southampton Railway, or explain that trust company loan to Mr. A. R. Gould and his friends. Touching the matter of Mr. Berry's salary for May, the Standard is bluffing for a purpose which is quite obvious.

What do Sir Edward Carson and his friends hope to gain by threatening civil war? Do they really think they can overthrow the British constitution and defeat the armies of Britain? The Liberal press asserts that they are merely working up another sensation to influence the debate in the House of Commons, and frighten the government. Obviously, if civil war should occur, the forces of the government would win in the end. What then would be the gain to Ulster?

The news from Ottawa regarding the finances of Canada is not of a cheerful nature. The revenue for the past financial year was $85,000,000 less than that of the preceding year, while the expenditure for the ordinary cost of administration was $18,800,000 more than in the preceding year. The total expenditure for the year showed an increase of nearly $40,000,000 over that of the preceding year, and over $60,000,000 in excess of that in the last complete fiscal year of the Laurier administration. For the first three months of the present fiscal year the revenue shows a decline of over $7,500,000 compared with the corresponding period of last year; and while there is a rapidly falling revenue there is also an increasing expenditure and a growing national debt. Such a condition of affairs is a striking commentary upon the administration in Canada.

What do the friends of the Fleming government think of the showing in the matter of the Southampton Railway? What was that government doing to guard the public treasury when this road was under construction and after? The engineers who came down from Ottawa to make an estimate of the cost for Commissioners Pringle find that in order to secure the double subsidy the cost of this road was represented to be $182,000 greater than a reasonable valuation. Instead of costing $22,000 per mile, and if the figures are correct the two governments paid the railway company $65,000 more than it cost to build the road. Such an astounding condition of affairs can only be explained, even if we take the most charitable view, by saying that those who should have guarded the public treasury were utterly neglectful of their duty.

However much of a Suffragette a woman may be, says an American writer, she'll still wish there was a man at home when a tramp comes to the door. Nelly—"I can never make out what makes Harry write such awfully gushy letters." Lily—"Oh, I suppose he uses a fountain pen you know."

LIGHTER VEIN.

Friend—"Were you smitten by your wife before you married her?" Benwick—"Yes, but, not half as much as I have been since."

"Live within your income," was a maxim uttered by Mr. Carnegie on his 60th birthday. This is easy; the difficulty is to live without it.

Blochumper—"After all beauty is only skin deep." Spatts—"In many cases it is not so deep as that. It is often on the skin's surface."

In nearly every household a woman is chancellor of the home exchequer, and if she proves incapable in that responsible post so much the worse for her and all connected with her.

"Will you marry me?" "Do you love me for myself alone?" "Why of course! Did you suppose I loved you for the sake of your six maiden aunts and four old maid sisters? Do be reasonable, Clara."

Mrs. Lott—"Is there no way you can break yourself of that habit of talking in your sleep?" Mr. Lott, tremblingly but hopefully—"Do you think it would help at all, my dear, if you'd let me talk more when I'm awake?"

"Little Boy"—"That lady gave me some chocolates." Mother—"I hope you were polite about it." "Little Boy"—"Yes, ma'am." Mother—"What did you say?" "The Boy"—"I said I wished you had met her before she got acquainted with you."

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRE

Belfast, Ireland, July 10.—The "provisional government" formed by the Ulster Unionists at its first meeting today gave Sir Edward Carson a free hand to take whatever action he may think fit to call upon the Ulster Volunteers to arm, calling the Ulster Volunteers to arms, the men were declared ready for mobilization at a moment's notice.

The Canadian Press Association in convention at St. John, N. B., decided to appeal to Premier Borden as a last resort against the increased postal rates for newspapers proposed by Hon. Mr. Pelletier. It is the opinion of the Association that the Government is elected vice-president of the Maritime Provinces and J. C. Keating of the Moncton Times a director for the maritime provinces.

CURES AT STE ANNE'S

Some twenty-five cures are said to have been effected at the shrine of Ste Anne de Beaupre, Quebec. Two of the most notable cases are that of Francois Xavier Dorion, of Rimouski Falls, Me., who went to the shrine in 1908, and left his crutches behind him when he went home, and the case of Mrs. George Marlow, of Waterbury, N. Y., who had been ill with palsy for six years. She also left her crutches after her stay at the shrine and went home completely cured.

How Thin People Can Get Fat

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More A Physician's Advice "I'd certainly give most anything to be able to fat up a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such a result is not impossible, despite past failures. Thin people are victims of mal-nutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are when the powers of nutrition are normal. Instead of getting into the blood, all the fat and flesh producing elements stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste. To correct this condition and to produce a healthy normal amount of fat the nutritive process must be artificially supplied with the power which nature has denied them. This can be best accomplished by eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is a scientific combination of six of the best strength-giving, fat-producing elements known to the medical profession. Taken with meals, it mixes with the food and turns the sugars and starches into rich ripe nourishment for the tissues and blood and its rapid effect is remarkable. Reported gains of from ten to twenty five pounds in a single month are by no means infrequent. Yet its action is perfectly natural and absolutely harmless. Sargol is sold by good druggists everywhere and every package contains a guarantee of weight increase or money back. Caution—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in the treatment of nervous indigestion and general stomach disorders, it should not be used in its remarkable flesh producing effect, by those who are not willing to increase their weight ten pounds or more. Special sale of water wings, regular 32 1/2 pair, for 50c, at Watson's drug stores, King and Main streets.

Scratching Made it Pain so Badly Lost Many Nights' Sleep. Could Not Do Work at All. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Box 605, Valleyfield, Que.—"My hand would get full of little white blisters and when I would scratch it would pain me so badly I lost many nights' sleep. My hand was one mass of sores. I more than suffered and talk about itching! When I rubbed my hand it would burn. I had it about six years. I could not do any work as the cold weather started my hand got sore. I tried all that was given me and was treated for three months and every night I washed my hand in— It had spread all over my hand. I started to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I got relief. One cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment completely cured me." (Signed) Mrs. Sarah Morrice, June 11, 1913.

NEW RULES FOR MEN OF STREET RAILWAY EMPLOY

Frederick Ramsay, who was discharged from the employ of the St. John Railway Company, has not yet been reinstated. New rules have been issued.

The rules forbid: Carrying passengers free; carrying employes free; wearing dress in uniform; drinking, or carrying on their person any intoxicating drinks while on duty; entering any place where intoxicating liquors are sold while on duty; smoking tobacco while on duty; allowing one man to run the car unless either one of the men has become disabled through accident; loafing at the ends of the line; holding conversation with the motorman running the car while in motion; failure of either motorman or conductor to observe the rule that has to do with stopping the car before the approach to any railroad crossing station; being absent from duty without permission; wilful negligence, incompetency or making false statements. All motormen and conductors on the line have been provided with a copy of the instructions.

BOOKS ABOUT CANADA

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, June 30.—"We have never known," said a London librarian today, "such a demand for books dealing with Canada. This demand is so marked that instead of the usual two or three copies of a book which may find a fair number of readers which we ordinarily obtain we double the quantity in the case of books on Canadian life. The natural result is that authors are paying more attention to Canada as a literary field, and this means an increasing output of Canadian subjects." This is undoubtedly true. More and more, the man who is "making up his mind" to go to Canada, consults the books that have been written by travelers rather than emigration "literature" issued by railway companies, real estate firms, or even governments; and it has become the usual thing for Canadian and provincial governments, as well as the railways, to employ the pen of an author of known merit to depict the advantages of the dominion.

HOT WEATHER AILMENTS

A medicine that will keep children well is a great boon to every mother. This is just what Baby's Own Tablets do. An occasional dose keeps the little stomach and bowels right and prevents sickness. During the hot summer months stomach troubles speedily turn to fatal diarrhoea or cholera infantum and if Baby's Own Tablets are not at hand the child may die within a few hours. Wise mothers always keep the Tablets in the house and give their children an occasional dose to keep them well. Don't wait till baby is ill—the delay may cost a precious life. Get the Tablets now and you may feel reasonably safe. Every mother who uses the Tablets praises them and that is the best evidence that there is no other medicine for children so good. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Co., Brockville, Ont.

Defence Begun In Pinder Road Matter

Fredericton, N. B., July 10.—It was a good day's work, $132,000 was knocked off the alleged cost of the Southampton railway and the "Ethiopian in the woodpile" was located. The case for the government was practically completed and the defence made a beginning.

This was the record of the proceedings at the Southampton railway inquiry which is being conducted by Commissioner R. A. Pringle, K. C. of Ottawa.

James Milden. James Milden took the stand when the court resumed in the afternoon. He is one of three engineers employed by Commissioner Pringle to make an independent inspection and valuation of the railway. He said that his estimates of values were made independent of the others, but upon examination by Mr. Carter on the report submitted by Engineers Walsh in the morning, he agreed with almost every detail.

Mr. Pringle, witness said that he could not explain the difference of between 55 acres reported by them as cleared and 96 acres paid for. According to progress estimates he would allow a difference of $3 per acre, as the construction engineer would see a better opportunity to get accurate figures. He would allow a little larger figure on the grubbing, for the same reason. If it was shown that the amount of work paid for was greater than their figures he would allow a reasonable increase if it had been paid for on the report of a competent engineer. He would be inclined to make a small allowance for each excavation also.

Commissioner Pringle asked if it would be possible for a competent engineer to go over the road and estimate the rock and not come within say 1,000 yards of the amount of solid rock, adding that Mr. Brown made a first estimate of about 8,000 yards, increased it to 12,800, and later to 21,850 yards, while the reports showed only about 4,000 yards. Witness said that he did not see how any engineer could have estimated it at more than 4,000 yards. Some increase might occur during the progress of the work, but nothing like that.

Defence Opens. The first witness called by the defence, George Chapman, then took the stand. He is bridge foreman for the C. P. R. at Woodstock and had put in the two bridges on the Southampton railway. He was paid for the time spent himself and his men by Mr. Pinder. He produced time books for the work, including also the construction of the turntable and engine house. Mr. Pinder boarded them in addition to paying their usual wages. The labor bill was $21,850 charged to the turntable, $184,10 to the bridge, and $807.88 for the engine house. Charges for board, turntable, $186, bridge, $46.50, and apshouse, $78. Witness returned and supervised repairs when the Nackawick bridge went out.

To Mr. Pringle, witness said the usual charge for erecting old steel was $2.00 per ton and less for new steel. He did not compute the weight of these bridges. While witness was on the road, other C. P. R. crews were engaged there, one on ballasting, another with a steam shovel, and another track laying. Canceled checks were produced and witness identified them as payments for the bridge work. Another lot was produced and he decided they were the right ones. Finally an account showing the cost of the work was arrived at. Mr. Pringle—According to the accounts and vouchers you evidently did the work for about one cent a pound, and our engineers' estimate of five cents would be very liberal.

Witness could not say if $1,500 was a fair allowance for turntable and pit. He thought the water station estimated at $1,000 should be worth $1,500 to $2,000. He would not want to build a station and freight house valued at $1,600, for less than $1,800.

John W. Jackson. John W. Jackson, foreman in the track department of the C. P. R., came on the stand for the defence. He was sent by the C. P. R. to work on the Southampton railway while the water station was being built. He worked about three months in the fall of 1912. Witness thought $400 a mile a fair charge for the track laying, but it might cost more during the winter.

To Mr. Carter, he said it would be much cheaper than $400 a mile in good weather, but he would be surprised to learn that contractors did some of the work for $125 a mile.

"Well, then, you will have a chance to be surprised," was Mr. Carter's comment.

When Mr. Jackson was told he was no longer needed, he paused on the stand for a moment, and then blurted out: "Well, I want to know who is going to pay me for coming here."

Following the laughter which greeted this outbreak, the commissioner remarked: "That is a very pertinent question," and Mr. Carter added: "I think the government is good for Mr. Jackson still was not satisfied and engaged in an argument with counsel regarding the amount he was to receive for expenses. Harry Quigg, the next witness, told of working on the Southampton road as time-keeper for Jackson's crew, whom he classed as Russians, Italians and natives. He identified the time-books and they were put in evidence. No totals were given and they will have to be figured out.

The court adjourned at 5:15 o'clock, to resume at 9:30 in the morning.

CALLS ON ACTING PREMIER TO COME TO JUSTICE AID

Mr. Carvell Obstructed In Inspection of Books — Demand For Presence of Berry

Fredericton, July 10.—F. B. Carvell, J. M. Stevens and E. S. Carter, who with P. J. Hughes of this city have been looking over the books in the office of the St. John & Quebec Railway Company since Wednesday, left for home this evening. Mr. Carvell and Mr. Carter will attend the funeral of Hon. Mr. Emerson at Dorchester tomorrow.

This evening Mr. Carvell speaking of his work in connection with the railway books, said that while they had obtained much valuable information they found it impossible to pursue their inquiry with success without the books of the St. John & Quebec Railway Company, these books, as the books were all in New York.

Wants Company's Books Produced. In consequence of his inability to get these books Mr. Carvell said he addressed the following letter to the acting premier and Attorney-General George J. Clark.

Fredericton, N. B., July 10, 1914. Hon. Geo. J. Clark, Attorney General and Acting Premier, St. Stephen, N. B.

"Dear Sir: My associates and myself have now spent two days in an investigation of such books of the Quebec & St. John Construction Company, as have been furnished us, but any explanation thereof has been persistently refused. We have been shown no books or documents whatever of the St. John & Quebec Railway Company, and have been informed by Mr. Guthrie, counsel for the railway company, that no such books are here, and so far as he knows, they are all in New York.

"In my opinion, no intelligent conclusion can be obtained either as to the cost of the road or the diversion of the moneys received from the proceeds of guaranteed debenture stock without the books of the St. John & Quebec Railway Company, and therefore, as counsel for Mr. Dugal, I call upon you, as acting premier and attorney general of this province, to see that all the books of accounts, minutes and other documents of the St. John & Quebec Railway Company are produced before the commission at its next meeting.

"As this company is a creature of the legislature of this province, with its head office in the province, and its only known business is to handle over $4,000,000 of money obtained from stock endorsed by the efforts of Mr. Berry's friends to induce him to return to ask more witnesses to attend than would have been required had the chief dealer told his story. In this connection he said he had written the attorney general in the following terms:

"Believe me, sincerely yours, (Sgd.) F. B. CARVELL."

"There will be a number of additional witnesses summoned in the railway inquiry," Mr. Carvell said, and speaking of the timber bonus charges he said it might be necessary because of the failure of the efforts of Mr. Berry's friends to induce him to return to ask more witnesses to attend than would have been required had the chief dealer told his story. In this connection he said he had written the attorney general in the following terms:

"Believe me, sincerely yours, (Sgd.) F. B. CARVELL."

Manchester Robertson Allison, Limited

at the request of W. H. Berry, who is needed as a witness at the Dugal investigation, I visited him at the St. Croix Exchange, Calais (Me.), and spent some time in discussing the timber charges generally.

"From his statements to me, I am convinced he does not intend voluntarily to attend before the commission. I feel that, as counsel for Mr. Dugal, I have exhausted every means in my power to secure his testimony on this important inquiry, and I now so notify you, and call upon you, as the representatives of the crown in this province, to take such steps as may be necessary to secure his presence and testimony in the earliest possible date.

"I am enclosing a copy of this letter to the chairman of the commission. "Believe me, sincerely yours, (Sgd.) F. B. CARVELL."

It is openly stated here by those who should know that Mr. Berry has neither been suspended or dismissed. The matter is one entirely in the hands of the acting minister, Hon. Mr. Murray, and he has not shown any inclination to take action.

SOME QUEER TASTES

Some animals and also birds have very extraordinary tastes for different foods and drinks quite apart from those with which Nature has provided them, and it is in the knowledge of these peculiarities that the skill of the trapper lies.

So marked is a monkey's taste for an intoxicating liquor made from the fermented juice of rice that this drink is invariably used for trapping these creatures. Bears are very partial to alcohol and many of the performing variety find their highest reward in honey and beer, run-around.

Canaries delight in eating lettuce, which is well known for its narcotic properties, and they will eat it to such an extent as to leave themselves stupefied for a long time afterwards.

Foxes are ordinarily the most cunning and, consequently the most difficult to capture of animals, readily succumb to a trap baited with the body of a dead cat. Snails, weasels, etc., the bane of the gamekeeper, are seldom proof against a trap sprinkled with oil from fish.

NEWS NOTES FROM NORTH END OF CITY

With the coming of the berry season, the want of a boat on the Kennebecasis is being more and more felt and both in the city and all along the river people are indignant that there is at present no boat to bring to the city the large quantities of berries which are grown along the river.

A good supply of strawberries was brought to Indiantown on the river boats during this week and considering that the berries are not nearly so plentiful as they were last year, and are later, the price is comparatively low.

The work of laying the new pavement in Main street is progressing favorably. Several parts of the street are being dug up and the New Brunswick Telephone Company, the St. John Railway Company and the Water and Sewerage Department of the city are completing whatever necessary work they have on hand in putting wires and pipes under ground so that it will not be necessary to cut through the pavement.

General regret on learning of the tragic death of Joseph Quinn who was drowned yesterday when he fell from the gangway of the D. J. Purdy, is being expressed among steamboat men at Indiantown and by people of the North End generally. He was popular among his associates. Mr. Quinn was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quinn, of Somerset street, and leaves behind him a wife and three children.

Mrs. N. C. Scott, Mrs. W. E. McIntyre, Miss Fullerton and Miss Auguste Slipp left yesterday by boat for Grand Manan to attend women's missionary meeting to be held at Grand Harbor.

BULLS AND BLUNDERS

Some Rich Ones Made By Public Speakers

(London Tit-Bits.) Like the Irishman who said that his rope had only one end because the other had been cut away, John Buffin, when he spoke recently of "throwing out a life-line" in parliament, provided a very amusing illustration of the art of making a statement which contradicts itself.

It recalls a famous "bull" made by Sir William Hart-Dyke, a Unionist ex-Minister, who caused uproarious laughter in the House of Commons one day by remarking, "The right honorable gentleman has caught big fish in his time. He has gone to the top of the tree to find them."

Alluding to an item of £2,000,000 in the army estimates one year, a certain member described it as "a flea-bite in the ocean," while another, advocating an increase in the European troops employed in India, remarked, "You may depend upon it, sir, the pale face of the British soldier is the backbone of the Indian Army."

An Irish member, speaking of suicide, said, "The only way to stop it is to kill it."

DYSPEPSIA MADE MY LIFE MISERABLE

Did Not Think I Would Ever Be Able To Enjoy Another Meal, Until I Decided To Investigate Claims For "Fruit-a-tives"

W. F. ALLEN, ESQ.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 22nd, 1913 "I feel that I would be doing 'Fruit-a-tives' a great injustice if I did not make known to you the wonderful results that I have obtained from its use. For the past eight years, I have been afflicted with Dyspepsia. I had given up all hopes of ever being able to enjoy another meal, when I investigated to see your advertisement in the papers, and as a last resort, I decided to chance and see if all you claimed for 'Fruit-a-tives' was true. Now, after having used six boxes, I find that your claims for 'Fruit-a-tives' are well founded. I am now in perfect health and can enjoy my meals as I formerly did, and I cannot praise 'Fruit-a-tives' too strongly."

WELLARD F. RILEY. Just as sure as day follows night, just so sure will 'Fruit-a-tives' cure every trace of indigestion and Dyspepsia. 'Fruit-a-tives' keeps the stomach sweet and clean. 'Fruit-a-tives' insures the digestive juices being fresh and plentiful by riding the whole system of impurities. 'Fruit-a-tives' stimulates the stomach muscles, and insures every meal being promptly and completely digested.

If you have any Stomach Trouble, such as Belching Gas, Pain After Eating, Sour Stomach, "Heart Burn"—and especially if your Bowels are not regular, by all means take 'Fruit-a-tives' 60c. a box, 6 for $2.50, limited size, 25c. make it a capital offence, punishable with death." It was the same member who assured the house that "As long as Ireland was silent under her wrongs, England was dead to her cries," while it was during a debate on the scandal of packed juries during the Irish troubles that a member in support of the government exclaimed, "By trial by jury have I lived, and by the blessing of God with trial by jury I die."

There was a wild howl of delight, too, when some proxy member was careless enough to remark, "The time has come and is rapidly arriving," which is equal to the cry of the member who wished motion was "at the bottom of the bottomless pit!" When it was stated on a money grant that it was unjust to saddle posterity with a debt incurred to benefit the present, one member asked, "Why should we beggar ourselves to better posterity? What was posterity done for us?" The laugh following rather surprised him, as he was unconscious of his blunder, and he promptly made matters worse by saying, "Sir, by posterity I do not mean our ancestors, but those who come immediately after them."

Of other "bulls" perhaps the gem of all was that perpetrated by Montagu Williams when he was defending a murderer. He wished to impress the jury with the fact that the judge had once been a great prosecuting counsel. "Gentlemen," he said, "the leopard cannot change his spots, and neither does his right hand lose its cunning!"

THE FIRST CARPET. The first carpet ever seen in East Hampton, N. Y., was in Faron Lyman Beecher's house. One day a little money came from Uncle Lot Benton, the good angel of the Beecher family. With it said, "The only way to stop it is to kill it."

CANADIAN CLUB IN LONDON TOWN

Social Centre Established in Empire Capital—Norton Griffiths One Interested

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, June 30.—A club for Canadians in London has been proposed for many years, but the numerous schemes for its formation have never come to fruition. This makes all the more remarkable the recent establishment of the Canadian Club in a few weeks.

Many notable people here are associated with this proposition, and Captain E. de P. O'Kelly, the honorary secretary, informs me that the list of officers includes the names of the following vice-presidents: Lord Charles Bessford, the Earl of Clarendon, the Earl of Errol, the Hon. H. L. Lawson, and Lord Nunburnholme. On the committee are: Sir Henry A. Blake, Sir Cavendish Boyle, Sir Richard Bulkeley, Sir Thomas Dewar, Baron de Forest, Moreton Frewen, M. P.; Norton Griffiths, M. P.; Sir Newton Moore, J. S. Redmayne, Sir Clement Kinloch Cooke, Sir Gilbert Parker, Captain C. E. Hutton, J. Reid, agent-general for Ontario, Hon. H. Furner, agent-general for British Columbia and J. B. Howard, agent-general for Nova Scotia.

It is remarkable, however, that the names of most of the prominent resident Canadians and Anglo-Canadians who have interests in the dominion are at present conspicuous by their absence. This is all the more noteworthy as there is no strictly Canadian social club in London. One reason is found in the fact that prominent resident Canadians engaged in finance and commerce, find greater social advantage in becoming members of London's famous clubs than in a strictly Canadian club where the tendency might be to become too "shop-py."

The directorate of the new Canadian Club, however, anticipate no difficulty in making a big success of their efforts. Premises have been acquired off Piccadilly, in the heart of London, which will afford accommodation for a club with about 1,000 members. They contain the ordinary clubrooms, and rooms will also be set apart where members can entertain ladies, while it is proposed, if possible, to acquire adjacent premises which will be put entirely at the disposal of lady Canadians in London. The fact that there are a large number of bedrooms, however, is no doubt due to the utility of the club from the point of view of Canadians visiting London. The committee do not anticipate that the present premises will be sufficient to accommodate the ultimate membership of the club, and they have therefore made arrangements to build a special club-house as soon as the success of the club warrants it.

CANADIAN ART Praised

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, June 30.—In the world of art the opinion of E. Rimbault Diddin, curator of the Walker Art Gallery, Liverpool, counts for a good deal, for he is in the front rank of art critics. Mr. Diddin gives high praise to Canadian artists in art and to the work of Canadian artists.

"The most striking feature of Canadian art," he says, "is a sincere observation and love of nature. Canadian artists aim high and while the very eminence of their ideals renders their task difficult, their work impresses me by its earnestness and idealism." On his visit to Canada he was surprised to find how rich Montreal was in

THE NEW OBSERVATORY

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, June 30.—Interest has been excited in astronomical circles here by the establishment of a new dominion observatory near Victoria, B. C.

The location of this observatory at the "halfway house to the east" is considered ideal, and the decision to equip it with the most modern scientific appliances and an eminent scientific staff has called forth expressions of satisfaction. At Friday's meeting of the British Astronomical Association, the fellows listened to some interesting particulars about the six-foot reflector ordered for the new observatory, given by Mr. Swasey of Cleveland, whose firm has undertaken the work. Embodying the latest principles of scientific construction, the tube for the dominion telescope will be of lattice construction, the diagonal bars being braced to give equal compression

THE GREAT MASTERS

The motor car could have gotten along without DUNLOP TRACTION TREAD—but not so well. If DUNLOP TRACTION TREADS had not come into being, motorists would still be looking for protection from skidding; a tire that would never rim-cut; and that would adapt itself to every car, every load, because it had sixty-six cubic inches greater air capacity. In the generality of causes, DUNLOP TRACTION TREAD has sold more cars than any other single source. Tires make or mar the pleasure of driving. A standardized safety-ensuring tire like DUNLOP TRACTION TREAD means auto prospects can be made to forget their anticipated fears about skidding, punctures, rim-cutting, and go ahead and buy the car.

John C. Fisher's Plans For Next Season—Sarah Bernhardt May Have to Give up Her Tour of The World

A cablegram from London says that while the Gaiety Theatre audience, at the matinee of "Adèle" wondered why the curtain did not rise, three detectives from Scotland Yard were behind the scenes questioning Dallas Welford, one of the principal comedians in the play...

George H. Brennan will next fall give a New York production of "Plat's Daughter" a New England morality play that has been produced outside of Boston many years as a religious duty by a body of churchmen. Only women are in the cast, and for press agent purposes it is reported that they may also carry a petticoated stage crew.

John C. Fisher, who has brought several big shows in St. John, takes rank with the more extensive producing managers next season. His most important venture will be "The Butane," book by Harry B. Smith, music by Victor Hebert and lyrics by Robert B. Smith. "Hazel Dawn" will be featured in the production. After a short road tour this piece will play Broadway. In support of Miss Dawn will be Alan Madie, Will West, William Danforth, Stewart Baird, Robert G. Phipps, Zoe Barnett and Byron Jones. The latter two have played in St. John under his direction.

"What Happened at 22" is a play by Paul Wiltsch, who wrote "Thais" for Constance Collier. The leading roles will be taken by Reginald Barlow and Carroll McComas. One of the principal characters is a forger who has been undetected for years, and becomes so again by his own skill that he is caught. Manager Fisher has engaged R. A. Barnett to write him a new musical play for next season. Also, early in August, he will produce "The Eleventh Hour" by Albert Price.

Nine plays by as many dramatists, composing the flower of English authorship, is the glittering promise to be consummated in the near future. Among the contributors of this all-star author's bill are celebrities no less numerous than Sir J. M. Barrie, Sir Arthur W. Pinero, Hedon Chambers, Henry Arthur Jones, W. Somerset Maugham and Bernard Shaw.

To be sure, each play is to be limited to five minutes in length, but each is to be complete in its story and as carefully constructed as dramas of three and four acts. The idea originated in London, where a benefit performance is to be given at a garden party. At first the idea took the form of asking only three prominent playwrights to write short sketches for the occasion, but it developed until the list included nine of the foremost dramatists in all England.

While the authors are inspired solely by philanthropic motives, the sum total of their nine miniature works constitutes a novelty that has a big commercial value. An inkling of the scheme, which was more or less a secret, was first made known in London about ten days ago and reached New York only last week. Already two managers there have called their representatives to acquire the American rights at any reasonable cost, and it is to be assumed that Chas. Frohman who is on the ground, is not idle in this direction.

Robert Loraine, successful as an actor, aviator and soldier, and the man who has twice starred in the United States in George Bernard Shaw's comedy, "Man and Superman," is to be married in August to Miss Hegenbusch, the eighteen-year-old daughter of a wealthy Dutch broker. Miss Hegenbusch is being trained as a singer. Mr. Loraine was formerly the husband of Julie Opp, now Mrs. Faversham, and for years was a favorite London matinee idol. Soon after his marriage he joined the English army and fought through the Boer war, which he gained signal honors for reckless bravery. More recently he has won distinction as an aviator.

David Bispham who sang in St. John recently, was honored a few days ago when his alma mater, Haverford College, Philadelphia, conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Law (LL.D.). The eminent baritone will, it is expected, be seen in vaudeville again next season.

William A. Brady's most elaborate production next fall will probably be Arthur Collins' big Drury Lane spectacular melodrama, "Sesel Orders." He will stage it in conjunction with the Shuberts at the Manhattan Opera House. "It pays to advertise," by Cooper Meigs, author of "Under Cover" and Walter Hackett, has been tried once with considerable success.

Several million soap bubbles forming a wall about fifteen feet high and extending across the stage, served as background for a "Temple" dance at a New York roof garden. The scene was supposed to take place by a volcano in action.

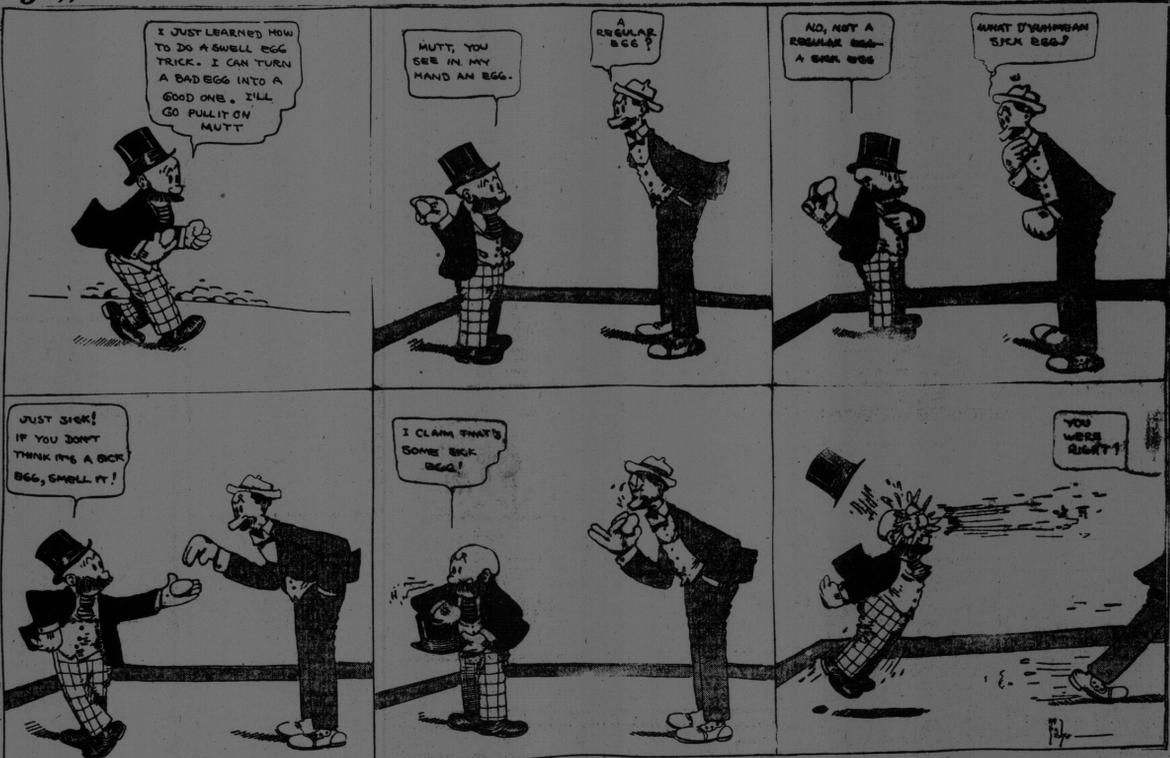

Gail Kane and Grant Mitchell have been engaged for George M. Cohan's dramatization of Frank L. Packard's "The Miracle Man."

Frank Mandel has made a play from material in Ralph Connor's "Black Rock" and "The Sky Pilot."

Winthrop Ames is to produce "The Lonely Lady," by Beulah M. Dix at the Little Theatre next season in New York. Charles Frohman has secured the American rights for Sydney Gundy's latest play, "The World Without End."

May Have to Give up It is reported in London that Sarah Bernhardt's contemplated tour of the world next season, was not

SECOND TIME MARRIED

Raymond Hitchcock to Be Seen in Movies—Arthur Johnson in Series of Fifteen Special Stories For Screen

Kathlyn Williams, known to local audiences as the picture actress who plays the leads in "The Beauty Shop," has instituted suit for divorce against Frank R. Allen, charging desertion. Mrs. Allen asks for the custody of her nine-year-old son by a former marriage.

Raymond Hitchcock, now appearing in "The Beauty Shop," and his wife, Flora Zabelle, will be featured in a five-reel photoplay now in course of preparation by the Lubin Company. The story of the picture has been written by Lawrence McCloskey and the production is in the hands of George Terwilliger.

The feature is said to offer something entirely original in screen work and is being termed by the Lubin officials a "photo-phantasy." The interiors were filmed at the Lubin studio and the exteriors will be taken at the Hitchcock estate on Long Island.

Since the announcement that Ethel Barrymore was to appear in a photoplay, there has been much curiosity as to which of her stage successes would be chosen for the screen debut. The movie company which finally won her over has prepared a surprise by having an entirely original story written for Miss Barrymore. It is called "The Nightingale," and though from the pen of Augustus Thomas, will be seen on the screen before its stage appearance.

An exchange says—Granting that there is a "press agent in the woodpile," there are many film men who did not need the widely published tirade of Detective William A. Pinkerton to convince them that the underworld is unpropitious.

materialize. Bernhardt cannot stand unassisted it is said. One of her knees is almost beyond recovery, and doctors are in constant attendance upon her. Bernhardt is confined to her bed, where she must remain at least a fortnight while the physicians are striving to help her. The world tour had been planned to start in New York under the management of W. F. Connor, who piloted Bernhardt on her famous independent circuit of the states, before last season when she played in vaudeville for the Orpheum Circuit. While on the Orpheum time Bernhardt got around the stage with difficulty, and it was then expected that she would never reappear in America. Bernhardt has been at Dax taking the mud baths. She expected to spend the summer at her Brittany home before leaving for America.

Bernhardt is about 68 years of age. Her last season in the States, while playing vaudeville, netted Martin Beck a profit of $88,000, although Bernhardt traveled at a weekly expense of more than $10,000, including her own salary of $1,000 daily (paid each night after the final performance), cost of transportation from Europe and return and other expenses, also for all attending expenses.

Florence Reed

Three of America's Fairest Women Who Attribute Their Beauty to Careful Diet

"If we would regulate our diet we would have no use for drugs," said Florence Reed to me at another time. Miss Reed pins her faith to raw vegetables; a salad of thin slices of raw carrot, cabbage and green peppers is a daily dish with her in the spring.

Maxine Elliott believes in the "grape cure" and each year she lives on the luscious fruit for at least ten days. Beautiful Jane Cowles is fond of tomatoes for her spring diet each year.

All these women are dark-haired, dark-eyed beauties with complexion of Spanish hue. They can eat and should eat things which are active upon the liver as dark-complexioned people are more apt to have sluggish livers than blonds.

It will be seen that each of these beauties has hit upon some one of the fruits or vegetables that is a splendid "liver twister."

But the stage has one great charm—Genius invariably comes into its own in the end! Perhaps there is no profession in which Fame's greasy pole is so hard to climb. But one thing is certain—success follows merit as surely as night follows day.

Sir Charles Wyndham will next year celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of his first appearance on the stage in London. What an eventful life those fifty years of strenuous toil have been! Ill-luck had Charles Wyndham in its grip for years before he scored his historic triumph as Charles Surface and Darryl Garrick.

Sir Charles Wyndham, Famous Actor Knight

(London Ideas)

Nigh upon sixty years ago there stood outside the office of a long-forgotten actor-manager two young artists with frayed collars, patched boots, and frosty noses, eagerly awaiting the moment which might provide them with small parts at two pounds a week, or send them back to the depths of despair.

With stomachs not too well lined they were glad to rest against the manager's window, when, in the middle of their discussion of their "chances" of jobs, one of their elbows went clean through the window-pane and the sound of smashing glass finally closed (as they thought) their united hope of employment in that direction. Those two obscure and struggling actors were no other than Harry Brodribb, who was to become the great Sir Henry Irving, and Charles Wyndham, who is to day the doyen of British actor-managers, and a rich man.

But what struggles and triumphs had they to endure before their names were even familiar to the theatre-goers of London Town.

Early Vicissitudes Henry Brodribb (he had not yet changed his name to Irving) had "chucked his job" in an East India merchant's office to go "on the road" in the days when he was glad to play to audiences of bumpkins in public-house backyards and country barns, carrying the "props" from town to town on his back, like a Punch and Judy show, and for years he followed this unpretentious round before he made his first appearance on the regular stage at the Lyceum Theatre at Sunderland and proved a failure! And Charles Wyndham was destined to "go through" with not less a succession of soul and sinew than poor Irving!

He and the Gloucestershire lad who became England's first actor-knight were of the same age. Wyndham had been educated for the medical profession, but his adventurous soul yearned for "oulets" and when the American War broke out he went off to the States and played his part in that heroic struggle with credit, if not distinction. Then he turned actor, and went on for the first time with John Wilkes Booth, American "lion" who has gone down to posterity as the assassin of President Lincoln. Coming home, Charles Wyndham eventually found a billet on the stage in London, met with derision, and was eventually dismissed for incompetence by no less able a judge than John Wood. What a poor portent for the neighborhood-in-waiting!

After Many Years But the stage has one great charm—Genius invariably comes into its own in the end! Perhaps there is no profession in which Fame's greasy pole is so hard to climb. But one thing is certain—success follows merit as surely as night follows day.

Sir Charles Wyndham will next year celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of his first appearance on the stage in London. What an eventful life those fifty years of strenuous toil have been! Ill-luck had Charles Wyndham in its grip for years before he scored his historic triumph as Charles Surface and Darryl Garrick.

A man of tall and commanding presence, Charles Wyndham possessed in addition a voice which was sometimes rasping, sometimes peculiarly fascinating, and a temperament sanguine, instilling, masterful. But, above all, he was a comedian. For twenty years Charles Wyndham made London merry with the lightest of light comedy. Then he decided on a change. So he revived O'Keefe's "Wild Oats," a semi-sentimental comedy, in which, as Rover, he made such a hit that he felt that the old joyous roistering days were over and that the time had arrived when the public might make the acquaintance of a new Charles Wyndham, an old friend in a new guise—Charles Wyndham the serious. Old English comedy came naturally, of course, to the most sprightly of touch-and-go comedians, but it was the picturesque sentimentalism of David Garrick which led to the modification, to the greater seriousness of the Wyndham programme. First English Star Tour to States Sir Charles Wyndham it was who set the example—now being followed with such bounding success by all our great actor-managers in 1914. Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson, Cyril Maude, Caruso and Martin Harvey are all said to have returned to England lately the better off by a hundred thousand pounds and for years before his death Sir Henry Irving was known as "an American actor sometimes seen in London" so fond was he of the Americans and the showers of shekels which always followed his trips across the Atlantic. So it is interesting to turn to the first American "star tour" and its hero—Charles Wyndham.

There were no grand dinners, bouquets, and bands when Charles Wyndham went back to the States! He had had his first experience as a theatrical manager in London at the Princess's and he left it in pretty much the same condition that the Princess is in today—the abode of rats innumerable, under "lights" which sends a shiver through every actor who gazes upon its forelorn and boarded-up facade. But hope ran high in Charles Wyndham's breast. The first English actor-manager to take his own supporting company across the "Atlantic Ocean," Charles Wyndham arrived safely in New York, and for a short time seemed blessed by a few of Fortune's smiles! Chicago, however, was destined to be his ruin. Charles Wyndham's arrival in Chicago was to have been an epoch in the theatrical world. For his coming an enthusiastic Chicagoan had built a brand new theatre and spent upon the decorations alone $100,000!

"If Chicago had only seen it Once!" That very day took place the great fire which destroyed Chicago! With the beautiful new theatre, which was to be the making of Charles Wyndham, went banks, churches, shops and great mercantile offices, until the city was a mass of smouldering ruins. For days, so complete was the destruction of Chicago, Charles Wyndham had not the courage to go to his bank manager and ask him "how he fared." He feared but one word—ruin! Outside the new theatre its broken-hearted owner gazed mournfully upon the flames, and said "I should not have minded so much if Chicago had only seen the place—if only for one night!" It is easy to imagine the repulsive pang that shot through the breast of Charles Wyndham at those words!

The bank reported that Charles Wyndham still had a few pounds to his credit; but there were few lovely theatres in America in those days, and after working the small mushroom cities of the states a little longer the future prime counsellor of England was home-ward bound, "broke to the world!" So ended the first real American tour! Today Sir Charles Wyndham is reputed to be worth a quarter of a million; and though he is seventy-seven, he is full of hope for that Jubilee celebration in 1915.

SCORE POPULAR SONGS.

Mothers Start Agitation for Board of Censors to Watch Copyrights. The Congress of Mothers in Washington last week started something that may eventually lead to the discovery of who paid the rent for Mrs. Rip Van Winkle. As long as everybody's doing it, the Congress of Mothers seem bent upon joining in.

Nation wide agitation has been started in the United States against certain types of vulgar songs and a movement is on foot to have a censor to pass on all songs before they are copyrighted. It is argued by members of the congress that the power of music is flagrantly misused and that it is made the vehicle of objectionable and demoralizing words and ideas.

At the recent convention of the congress of Mothers in Washington the matter was discussed, and a resolution was adopted asking that a censorship board be appointed, with a woman among the members. Now the mothers are agitating to have the U. S. Congress appoint this commission in order that it may begin immediately to pass on all songs presented at the Library of Congress for copyright.

Songs which destroy the reserve between the sexes, those which are aimed at the sanctity of the home and those which are vehicles of irreverence are scored by the mothers, who believe the popular song might be artistic in composition and elevating in sentiment if something were done to stop the flow of cheap and vulgar music that in some cases now finds its way to the public.

ing too strong a place on the picture screen. There is no excuse in the conditions of actual life for bestowing so prominent a position in the plot of a world to the social struggles of social outcasts. There is too much of sorrow in the lives of many of us to magnify a pessimistic view of the world by an overabundance of wrong and misery on the screen.

"Less crime, please," should be the request of many manufacturers to their authors. An occasional feature picture treated by a careful hand, like an occasional reading of Poe, may well serve its purpose, but the regular run of pictures should seek a closer relation to the ordinary stations of life. Step up a notch in the scale and shake the acquaintance of social-lepers. Honest, we could manage to squeeze through this existence without an introduction to Gyp, the Plug, Second Story Steve, or even Dress Suit Buffies. We'd much rather improve our acquaintance with John Jones, Sally Smith, and Billy Brown.
