A Million a Minute

A Romance of Modern New York and Paris

By Hudson Douglas

They came forth, ten minutes later, the two of them, leaving the room in which they had been dark and strangely silent, and Seager, groping for him in the gloom, laid his hand on his sleeve, causing him to start aside in sudden alarm.

"I want you to solemnize my marriage now, Maitre Georges," said his strange client in a very tremulous voice. "The lady's waiting upstairs—come this way. You have all the papers prepared haven't you?"

CHAPTER XXIII.

Time Is Money—At the Rate of a Million a Minute

Quintance, backed to the wall on the landing at the top of the stairs, heard them coming. He pushed O'Ferral and Corvose toward the open door of the box room behind, and dashed all speededly into it, not daring even to whisper. And, presently, three pairs of shuffling feet came to a stop on the landing outside, a key turned in the lock door.

The feet shuffled onward. It seemed that another door barred their way. That in turn opened with a faint click. A ray of light shot outward ere it closed again. A man's voice spoke, and was answered by a woman's.

"She's in there," said Quintance, under his breath, and tipped from his hiding place.

O'Ferral following, caught at his arm. "Don't burst in on them. Let's hear all these fellows have to say first, if we possibly can. They haven't locked the door behind them. We're free of the meeting."

They halted within the passage between the two doors, and listened intently, with out-putting. Quintance had one hand on the key, one ear at the keyhole.

Within, in the dimly lighted, disheveled studio, the Duchesse and Fanchette had sprung to their feet as Seager pushed past the frail barricade they had erected. Led anyone entering should surprise them asleep. After him came another, a little, wizened, dried-up manikin, black-clad, of evil countenance, behind whom appeared Arden, his smart features grimly inflexible. He pulled the door to, and Seager spoke first.

"Hope you haven't been anxious while I've been away, Dagmar," he observed with pretended solicitude. "I couldn't get back any sooner. I've been very busy on your behalf the whole day, and I've brought you news. It was going to say bad news, but better to be honest. It isn't bad news for either of us, and—Lis—sure you won't break your heart over it; your husband was nothing to you, you know. He's dead, Dagmar. Dropped off quite suddenly—heart disease, the doctors say."

She stared at him in doubt and dizziness, unresponsive, striving to understand, faintly to disbelieve what he said. But his eyes did not drop before hers as usual. He gave her back glance for glance, boldly, seemed to be speaking the truth. And, little cause as he had to esteem the shock of the news, did she, almost stupefied, utter her.

"What your cousin says is quite true, Miss Duchesse. Arden's a firm and solemn. 'This gentleman is a lawyer. He'll tell you anything else you may wish to know.' She darted a quick, despairing glance in the direction of the Maitre Georges, and that individual, well primed with whispering instructions by Seager on their way upstairs, stammered forward.

"Alas! Madame," said he with a great assumption of sympathy, "what my friends tell you is a sad fact. M. le Duc lies dead—downstairs. The body was brought hither—that—that—"

The clock in the corner struck the hour with a sudden, sonorous clang, and almost instantly Notre Dame tolled eleven.

The Duchesse shivered violently, leaned still more heavily on Fanchette's trembling arm. Seager started forward.

"Come on Dagmar," he said, in what he meant for a tender tone, "you must give way, you know. It's sudden, of course, but think—it's all for the best, isn't it? He was nothing to you, isn't he? You're free of him now. Think what that means to you—and to me."

His face darkened as she shrank from him in such looking as was plain to all. And, spurred on by a virulent glance from Arden, he made his full purpose more clear to her.

"This is no time to stand on ceremony. You know what I want you to do for me, Dagmar, and—you're free to marry me now, take my word for that—or, if you won't, we'll take you downstairs and show

WHALE TANGLED UP IN THE CABLE

He Isolated the Whole Territory of Alaska and It Cost Uncle Sam Many Dollars to Repair the Damage.

Seattle, Wash., May 20.—A big whale recently played havoc with the cable connecting the Territory of Alaska with this city and it cost Uncle Sam many dollars to repair the damage.

Sent north to discover the cause of a sudden interruption of cable service between Valdez and Sitka, Capt. Laffin, of the United States cable ship Burrasche, has just returned here with an interesting story. The cable ship picked up the cable near Cook's Inlet, off Sitka, and found enough work to keep the crew busy for several days.

A whale feeding on the bottom of the ocean, and swimming along with its mouth open wide in order that the heads of whalebone might catch and hold food, had come to the surface of the water and had become entangled in the long bunches of whalebone hanging from the upper jaw of the whale and the great fish had caused a great deal of discussion among sailors and gave rise to the theory that it had been twisted by jagged rocks turned over and over by a submarine earthquake.

The cable was severed and again connected and put into service while the ship's crew cleared up the tangled section of cable. It is believed that more than two hundred feet of cable was twisted into a knot. The cable did not part because of its tensile strength of 20,000 pounds.

Some years ago the cable was found twisted and broken in a like manner and now Capt. Laffin thinks he can explain the reason for it. The kinked cable then caused a great deal of discussion among sailors and gave rise to the theory that it had been twisted by jagged rocks turned over and over by a submarine earthquake.

RECEPTION FROCK IN ROSE SHADES. Perme-finished mohair, the new wool and mohair fabric, which has a lustrous, crepe-like texture, was used for this dressy frock, which combines the ed, or shades of rose, with a faded Jaquise rose. The deeper color is used in the satin grille, piping and covered buttons, the braided pattern on bodice and skirt being also of the javotte color. A glimpse of deep cream lace, with long sleeves, has touches of the rose in small covered buttons. The leghorn hat, faced with eudre satin, is trimmed with roses.

WINSTON CHURCHILL PROPOSES A NEW IDEA

He Introduces a Government Bill Creating a National System of Labor Exchanges—Britain to Pay Insurance to the Unemployed

London, May 21.—Winston Spencer Churchill, president of the board of trade, introduced in the house of commons yesterday a government bill creating a national system of labor exchanges similar to those already existing on the continent of Europe, with a view to better organizing labor and reducing unemployment in London and other English cities.

With this new departure, he said, the government also intended to associate a policy of employment insurance. If the bill is adopted, it is proposed to start a scheme beginning in 1910, dealing first with the whole group of the house building, general construction, engineering and machine trades and shipbuilding. This would cover roughly nearly half of the whole field of unemployment and, in fact, the worst part.

The government said Mr. Churchill proposed to aim at a scheme of benefits rather than are now paid by the strongest trades unions. This would necessitate the raising of between five pence and six pence per man per week, the fund to be contributed jointly by the workman, the employer and the state. He was convinced that such a scheme would be a success.

In the last twelve years over half a million places have been found for workpeople in search of employment, and in 1907, 81.6 per cent of those applying to the exchange found work through it. These figures only apply to those towns themselves and leave out of account the work done by the large number of smaller exchanges with which they are connected. Moreover, they do not include the activity of exchanges managed not by the municipality, but by charitable bodies, trade unions and employers, which between them filled in 1907 another 46,301 places. What they show is that the labor exchange plays a highly important part in the organization developed by German towns for coping with unemployment.

The present is not the first attempt this year to legislate for the unemployed. On May 1 the so-called Right to Work bill was rejected by a vote of 238 to 115. This measure provided that the county and county borough councils should come the local unemployment and register the unemployed. Clause 3 unemployed.

HOW TO TELL.

HISTORIC PAGEANT PLANNED FOR BATH

English City Will Depict History of Church in Tableaux This Summer

(Springfield Republican)

Many Americans, as well as thousands of Englishmen, will be drawn to the historic and romantic old city of Bath during the middle of June to see the church pageants which will be done from the 10th to the 18th. They are to be under the patronage of the archbishops of Canterbury and York, while Frank Lascelles will be the master of pageantry. Those who saw the exposition of his skill on the Plains of Abraham at Quebec last summer will know that the coming event will be the most elaborate and the most interesting of the kind in England, but it is too little known among American travelers for the present-day chronicler. Rather we think of it either as the early Roman resort or else as the seat of pill and patch fashion, the way in which we here in Springfield are planning to adopt them, on a small scale, in our independence day celebration and the more elaborate plans for the summer and early fall.

The pageants presenting plans for the Bath pageants to run their course, and 20 tableaux will be shown. There will be the procession of the founders of the church and then will come presentations of the publication of the edict of Constantine, the "alleluia" victory in 493, the founding of the town by King's College, the Magna Charta, the trial of Wycliffe, the translation of King's College at Cambridge, the translation of the Bible, the names and the acquittal of the seven bishops in 1688. This gives a general idea of the object of the pageants, and the standards are planned to accommodate the gathering and seats are to be provided for nearly 7,000 people.

THE HANSON CAB ALL BUT EXTINCT

All-Conquering Taxicab Supplants it in London—Many "Cabbies" Destitute

London, May 20.—The rapidly approaching extinction of the hansom cab before the all-conquering taxicab was generally recognized some time ago. Little thought was given to the cabbie himself. Few were heard now and then to remark upon the competition of the taxi had impugned his manners, and that he was more than 40 years of age, and the whistling of the motor, and on occasions would acknowledge a small increase on his fare.

Then Lord Rosebery wrote a short letter to the Daily Mail drawing attention to the fact that the hansom cabbie was slowly starving, calling him a good fellow and asking the public to come to his aid. In four days the public subscription, yesterday, the fund amounted to £5,000, and it is increasing every week.

Every day scores of cases of extreme destitution are reported. Men who owned their own stables are now making sometimes as little as 4 or 5 shillings week.

Wherever it is possible the broken cabbie is being supported while he learns to drive a motor. Hundreds are doing this, but the age limit is 44, and many are too old to learn. Something, however, is being done to help every broken cabbie, but he is a hard man to find work for.

NOME'S GOLD OUTPUT THIS YEAR $5,000,000

Fairly Accurate Forecast Says It Will be About the Same as Last Year.

Seattle, Wn., May 21.—Nome's gold output this year is approximately $5,000,000, according to a statement made by Jafet Lindenberg, one of the promoters of the Nome district, who is in Seattle. Mr. Lindenberg says that it is possible to make a fairly accurate forecast this early in the season, although the clean-up of the boxes will not be taken until about the first of July. The gold output this year will be about the same as last year.

SHEEP CAMP RAIDED

Three Colorado Sheep Herders Beaten By Cattlemen and 3,000 Sheep Killed

Junction City, Colo., May 20.—The sheep camp of Taylor Bros., near Atchee, Colo., was raided by a band of cattlemen yesterday. Three sheep herders were beaten and tied to trees and the raiders then killed 3,000 head of sheep, the slaughter occupying almost the entire day. The raiders escaped to the hills. The Taylor Bros., possession of which has been contested in a desolate part of western Colorado. Several murders have occurred in quarrels over it.

COMFORT FOR MOTHERS; HEALTH FOR CHILDREN

Baby's Own Tablets will promptly cure indigestion, colic, constipation, diarrhoea and teething troubles, destroy worms, break up colds and thus prevent diphtheria, whooping cough, and other poisonous diseases, and may be given with absolute safety to a newborn child.

Mrs. C. L. Manery, Leamington, Ont., says: "My baby suffered from colic and constipation so badly that we did not know what it was to get to. Before we could get any sleep, these are the simple rules that lead to getting a baby's health.

When other mothers have cleaned their eyes and over-eat, it is not the blues and the fever that comes before a colic attack.

Although its harm is something great, its worthlessness is small. It gets a child's bowels into a regular habit. By rooting all the time, it makes no special difference. How successful we are.

GOT TO THE ROOT OF HIS TROUBLE

And Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured W. Wright's Backache

He Had Suffered for Several Years, But the Old Reliable Kidney Remedy Gave Him Quick Relief.

Kelvington, Sask., May 21.—(Special)—"Yes, Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me of Backache, and I have recommended them to others who have also been cured." These are the words of William Wright, a farmer well known here. "I believe I inherited my trouble," Mr. Wright continues. "At times for several years it was very severe. I also suffered from lambo, and in the morning I had a bitter taste in my mouth and was troubled with dizziness and my skin was dry and harsh and there was a sediment in my urine.

"No treatment I could find gave me any permanent relief till finally believing that my kidneys were the root of my trouble, I determined to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes cured me."

Mr. Wright went at his trouble sensibly. He examined his symptoms, and they showed him that Kidney Disease was his trouble. Do as much for yourself, and if your symptoms point to disorder or diseased kidneys the cure is easy. Dodd's Kidney Pills will do it. They never fail.

THE GERMAN BOGY SCARES ENGLAND

London, May 20.—The "German scare" grows apace, and no sooner is one wild rumor laid at rest than another appears to try the nerves of the English people. Last week there was the story of a big German liner filled with troops which, it was alleged, had entered the Humber, surveyed the possibilities of making a landing, and departed without being sighted by the British warships with which the North sea is supposed to be closely dotted, while today Sir John Barlow, a Liberal member of the House of Commons, and a well known merchant, started a country with the sensational suggestion that the German navy had established a depot of arms containing 5,000 Mauser rifles in the centre of London, together with 7,500,000 rounds of ammunition for the use of 60,000 trained German soldiers now employed in various capacities in England.

As an evidence that Sir John attaches no credence to this sensational story he has notified War Secretary. He has no intention of questioning him concerning it in Parliament.

10 Years' Rheumatism in Left Knee

Treatment at Hot Springs and Years of Experiment with Noted Physicians Failed. "Nerviline" Cured Quickly.

Nearly every old person is troubled more or less with rheumatism, and few actually escape its manifold tortures. So it deforms, others it disables, many it completely destroys.

"I was born with a strong and predisposing tendency to rheumatism, my father and mother both having had it for years," writes J. H. Hunter, from Saratoga. "The aches, the pains, the throbbing muscles—I endured them all—but it was in my left knee that the disease had the worst hold. Pains of the most agonizing kind shot through my knee as if hot irons were piercing my flesh. Nothing did me any good till I used Nerviline. I rubbed it over the sore place four to six times each day and bound on warm flannel cloths. Every night I took half a teaspoonful of Nerviline in hot sweetened water. My cure was completed after several months and I have never since had a single twinge. I strongly urge every sufferer from any rheumatic disease, sciatica, neuralgia, toothache, or headache to test Nerviline. I know its power over pain is simply magical."

There is not an ingredient in Nerviline that isn't good for you. Young men can use it, internally, for external use. Beware of the dealer who offers you a substitute on which his profit is larger than on Nerviline. Large 25c. bottles at all dealers.

SHE THOUGHT THE FLAG MEANT AN AUCTION SALE

A lady who was passing police headquarters on King street east this morning espied the British ensign attached to a pole in one of the windows of the office of the chief of police and approached a newspaper man and another who were departing from the building. "Could you tell me what the goods are composed of that are being auctioned off in there," she inquired and when she was enlightened with the information that the flag was not that of an auctioneer and that the premises contained the police office she departed in a huff and hurried away.

Naptho is an All-around Soap

Naptho does work of all those "special" Soaps. It's a three-water Soap: lukewarm, hot, or cold. Does same good work with cold or lukewarm as with hot, besides cutting out old-time clothes-boiling, hot suds, dirty messes, disagreeable odors, steam and chills.

Naptho eliminates back-breaking, health-wrecking, knuckle-skinning rubbing—soaking clothes over night and starting wash at dawn. No overtime with Naptho—it does work in half time.

ST. JOHN LADIES CAUGHT IN ICE

Mrs. Robert Thomson and Miss Mabel Thomson Were Among the Passengers on the Tunisian

Among the passengers on the Allan liner Tunisian, which put into St. John's (Nfld.) leaving last week, after an encounter with heavy ice floes, were Mrs. Robert Thomson, of this city, and her daughter, Miss Mabel Thomson, who arrived home at noon yesterday.

Thomson and her daughter were after a three months' trip to Europe. They left St. John's on Monday, calling at of heavy ice bumped the steamer, but it is not known whether one of these caused the leak or whether it was done before. In fact, the passengers did not know that anything was the matter nor that they were out of their usual course until 5 o'clock on Thursday evening, when they were told that they would be in St. John's in three hours. No particular shock had been felt.

On Thursday in spite of the presence of the heavy ice, the vessel was sent ahead at half speed, arriving in St. John's about 9 o'clock that evening.

Until the arrival of a diver late on Friday afternoon it was not known just how serious the damage was. Acting on his report, it was decided to make temporary repairs and then proceed to Quebec. This took up Saturday, Sunday and part of Monday, and the passengers employed this time in sight seeing in St. John's.

Mrs. Thomson said that she was informed by residents there that there was an unusual amount of ice this year. One gentleman said that he had climbed Signal Hill, at the mouth of the harbor, and from there had counted 184 icebergs.

ST. JOHN WOMAN WRITES ABOUT THE ENGLISH SUFFRAGETTES

A Trustworthy Account of the Energetic and Determined Campaign Waged by the Women of Albion for Equal Rights at the Polls.

The following article which appeared in the Sunday edition of the Detroit Free Press is from the pen of Mrs. Clara B. Arthur, president of the Michigan Equal Suffrage Association. Mrs. Arthur, who is a native of St. John, is a sister of Miss Mabel Peters.

No feature of the woman suffrage movement is more discussed and less understood in the United States than that of the English suffragettes. Adverse criticism and condemnation of methods are due to misconception of the elements of the woman suffrage demand, and of the conditions which make that demand imperative.

Why are enormous numbers of British women, with passionate earnestness and increasing zeal, entreating for "the vote?" Why have they the unfailing interest of many titled and wealthy women and the enthusiastic co-operation of wage-earning women?

Why are women of rank and leisure, of domestic service, of mill and shop, of every custom, bearing ridicule, serving terms in prison with common criminals, spending large sums of money in agitation and protest, editing special periodicals, and, although repeatedly forbidden and repulsed, knocking continuously at the doors of parliament for a hearing?

How have the suffragettes succeeded in making their cause the dominant issue in English political life?

Why have they a commanding majority in parliament and yet cannot secure consideration by government of their demands?

There are four important suffrage organizations working in Great Britain: First, the National Union, which is a combination of the suffrage societies formed when John Stuart Mill was returned to parliament in 1865. This union has a newspaper, a caravan, distributes literature and carries on a quiet campaign. It was this society which lately assembled in the churches on a given day to pray for the success of the suffragettes.

Second is the Women's Freedom League; third the Men's League for Women Suffrage; and fourth the Woman's Social and Political Union, an outgrowth of the Labor party. Its object is to oppose the party in power, hoping to force that party to take an interest in the claims of women. This union has become so strong a factor that it is really a political party, known as the "Suffragettes."

It must be remembered that precedent of rule regulating government are vast—different to what obtains in the United States. In this country to secure woman suffrage we must change the constitution of 35 states and territories. The English suffragettes have merely to get a majority in parliament.

A GRAND KIDNEY MEDICINE

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Him When Everything Else Failed.

Ulverston, Que., March 17th, 1908.
I wish to place on record, for the sake of others who may be suffering in the same way that I suffered, that no medicine I ever took did me so much real good as "Fruit-a-tives" did.

I suffered for many years with Kidney Trouble, with bad pain in the back. I took every known kidney remedy and kidney pill, but nothing gave me any relief, and I was getting discouraged.

I was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives" and did so—and this medicine cured me when everything else failed.

I used altogether fifteen boxes of "Fruit-a-tives," and from the outset they gave me relief and I am now practically well again; no pain, no distress and all symptoms of kidney disease have entirely left me. I am very thankful to be once more well, and I freely make this statement for the sake of others who may suffer as I did. To them, I say try "Fruit-a-tives."

FASHION MARS WOMAN'S FORM

Sculptor Cains Says Effort to Bring Waist Line to Hips is All Wrong.

Boston, Mass., May 21.—Hugh Cains, the Boston sculptor, declares that women's figures have been ruined by devotion to fashion. He says:

"Women's figure is getting poorer and poorer every year. The female form is degenerating because of style. The women of today are getting further and further away from the Greek figure of 2,000 years ago, which they are all seeking to attain and which the whole world admires."

"As one instance of this, those who determine what is fashionable are trying to bring the waist line further down all the time. At present an effort is being made to get it down as low as the hips. This is all wrong, of course, for nature long ago determined that it should be just below the breast, allowing a soft, graceful line from hip to ankle. So long as fashion dictates that the waist shall be close to the hips, so long will we have women with bulging, lumpy hips and other deformities."

"If women would have just such a waist as they seek—the beautiful that we see in the classic paintings and sculptures, the waist that characterized the ancient Greek woman—let them avoid fashions."

"The tight lacing is the chief destroyer of woman's charms. No woman can have the figure that nature intended her to have under such conditions. Bear that in mind, and then consider the damage caused by high heels, long, tight gloves, and monstrous hats, and you have a serious indictment against the fashion maker."

LUMBERMEN DROWNED

Four Lumbermen Lost Their Lives in the Range River—Boat Capsized and They Were Swept Away

Montreal, May 21.—Word reached the city tonight of the drowning of four lumbermen in the Range river, 125 miles north of Calumet. Three of the victims were brothers named Grenier, but the name of the fourth man drowned has not yet been ascertained.

All four men were experienced loggers, but on the capsizing of the boat in which they were crossing they were carried under by the current, swollen by the spring rains, before assistance could reach them. All were employees of the Riordan paper mills.

Longboat is training at his wife's in Deseronto for his 20-mile race with Shrubbs at the Island, in Toronto, on ay night. The Indian is convinced t he is the master of the little English- at that distance, and intends to show Toronto admirers that he is still the ampion of them all. Now that all his in- nancial difficulties have been settled, Longboat has no worries but to get into condition, and he promises to be good and ready for Shrubbs on the holiday night. The trimming Shrubbs gave him at 15 miles in Montreal last Saturday rankles in the Indian's breast, and he is determined to wipe out the defeat in the Island race. Shrubbs, on the other hand, is quite con- fident of repeating his 15-mile victory, and claims that the extra distance will not pre- vent him from winning. Shrubbs has been very anxious to race Longboat in Toronto, and the honor of winning here will com- pensate him for many happenings in the past.

The Island Oval will be well illuminated. The race is timed to begin at 8.45 p. m.

The "oral" style of wagering is sim- plicity itself, says a New York daily. All that is required is for the bettor to de- posit the necessary money with the book- maker before he goes to the track. There can be no law against private conversa- tion on the lawn and it will be easy for a silent quoter to tell his bookmaker on which horse he wishes to wager. No tickets are exchanged and all depends on the honesty of the bookmaker.

The following timely notice is being posted in many offices throughout the United States:

"All requests for leave of absence owing to grandmothers' funerals, lame back, house-cleaning, moving, etc., must be handed to the manager not later than 10 a. m. on the morning of the game."

Cibot and Orphe, the French runners for the Victoria day Marathon, at Mon- treal, have arrived there, and are at the Turkish bath hotel. Both were pleased upon learning that the race was to be run on a cinder path. They say it suits them down to the ground.

Billy Sherring has been running twelve to eighteen miles every day, and is in top form. He arrived on Friday. Abbie Wood, Fred Meadows, Holmer, Billy Davis, Pat Dineen, Myers, Graham, Coley and Neuberger, together with the above mentioned, make up the best and largest field that ever started a race in Canada. Each man will have his own tent on the grounds, with the flag of his native country flying over it, for the use of him- self and assistants, and no man may leave the track except upon his own quarters.

Billy Davis, the Indian, from Hamilton, arrived and swelled up an already large entry list.

The latest odds are: Wood, 2 to 1; Meadows, 3 to 1; Simpson and Sherring, 4 to 1; Holmer, Coley and Dineen, 5 to 1; Cibot, 6 to 1; Orphe, 10 to 1; Neuberger, Davis, Graham, Paule and Myers, 30 to 1.

Shortstop Enright has deserted the St. Louis team. It is said that his impend- ing marriage to a California woman was the cause of his unceremonious leave-tak- ing.

Sol Mintz, who is promoting the big race between Henri St. Yves against Coley and Sellen, at Toronto, wired from Toronto that the race has been postponed till Tuesday, May 25. No reason is as- signed for the postponement.

IF YOU ADVERTISE

You need the 1909 Edition of the Canadian Newspaper Directory.

According to the 1909 edition of the Canadian Newspaper Directory, just out, Canada and Newfoundland can boast of 185 daily papers, 1,015 weekly or semi-weekly, 242 monthly or semi-monthly, and 14 published less frequently.

These figures can be relied on, as the Canadian Newspaper Directory is published by the oldest and largest advertising agency in the Dominion. A. McKim, Limited, of Montreal and Toronto. This is the sixth edition of their directory, which fills a very real need in Canada, and deserves a place on the desk of every busi- ness man, whether he is an advertiser or not.

In addition to listing and describing Canadian periodicals, the directory sup- plies a comprehensive gazetteer giving the population, the chief industries, the rail- way, telegraph, banking facilities, and other interesting features of every news- paper city, town and village in Canada.

The book contains over 400 pages. It is splendidly bound and is certainly a credit alike to the publishers and to Canadian newspapers generally.

A. McKim, Limited, are particularly well qualified to edit and publish this, the standard book of reference on Canadian publications. They are the pioneers in the advertising agency field in the Dominion, the McKim Agency having been founded in Montreal in January, 1889, twenty years ago, by Mr. Anson McKim, who is still at the head of the business.

During all this time they have been the acknowledged leaders in this line in Canada, and the agency business has been developed from a very small beginning—then performing only the functions of the middle man—to a very large producing enter- prise which runs into the millions.

A CHALLENGE ACCEPTED

Robert Pendleton and C. Cromwell, of the Every Day Club, have accepted the challenge of Guy Russell and Walter Cunningham, published in yesterday's Times. Pendleton and Cromwell will run the chal- lenger's five mile race on the Every Day Club grounds at 7.30 p. m. on May 31st.

In a special letter to a Buffalo friend, Billy Sherring, the famous Hamilton, Ont., runner, winner of the Marathon in Greece, three years ago, states that he is willing to back himself against any man in the world at long distance running, and will bet $5,000 on his chances.

"This challenge is not aimed at any one in particular. I will run St. Yves a Marathon, and I can get backing for $10,000 that I can beat him. I'm willing to run Longboat, too."

A BOY OVERBOARD IN WALKER'S SLIP

Jack Stevens Received an Im- promptu Bath in the Harbor Yestereay

Jack Stevens, the fourteen-year-old son of George Stevens, of Erin street, had an impromptu bath in the harbor about 1.45 yesterday afternoon. With several other lads it is said he was engaged in the old fashioned game of playing trains, though when questioned by the policeman on the beat he said that he had come down to see about the West India steamer. But Walker's slip is quite a distance from that steamer's dock, so the policeman was not inclined to put much faith in his story.

Their play led them toward Walker's wharf, where a small raft moored at the head of the slip attracted their attention. It was high tide and the raft was easily accessible from the wharf. One of the boys got on it and was having a great time pushing it out as far as possible and bringing it back again. Stevens started to jump on the raft also but as he jumped

KID DUFRESNE WON

He Defeated Alf. Lynch in a 15 Round Bout at Montreal.

Montreal, May 21.—Kid Dufresne, of Lewiston (Me.), was given the decision over Alf. Lynch, of Quebec, at the end of a fifteen round fight here tonight.

Lynch was the better man up to the seventh round, and seemed likely to win by the knockout route, when Dufresne came back strongly and established a lead in the second half of the battle. Dufresne fought at 122 and Lynch at 117. Dufresne had the stiffer punch, while Lynch was the better boxer.

Care of the Feet

Much suffering from the feet may be avoided if a few simple precautions are conscientiously taken. Shoes not only of the right size, but of the right shape as well, should be worn. They should be thoroughly comfortable. If one has what is called tender feet, a sufficient quantity of antiseptic cotton should be placed over the sore spots when putting on the stockings. This is easily done if the stocking is first turned wrong side out and then drawn over the foot. The cotton acts as a pad and prevents the shoe from rubbing. When your feet ache dip them in warm water for awhile and then rub them while still wet with white vasoline. It softens the flesh. An application of talcum powder afterwards is very refreshing.

Kidney Comfort in Old Age

When old age creeps on it is usually derangements of the kidneys that cause discom- fort and suffering. The kidneys seem to play out sooner than the other organs. You know this by the backache, pains in the limbs, deposits in the urine, frequent urina- tion, and pain and smarting when passing water.

With the kidneys inactive the whole system becomes poisoned and where there is poison there is pain and such torturing ailments as rheumatism, lum- bago and stone in the bladder.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills bring comfort to the aged by in- vigorating the kidneys, evening the liver and regulating the bowels. They thoroughly cleanse the filtering and excretory systems, improve digestion and purify the blood. Most kidney medicines fail because they do not regulate the liver and bowels as well as the kidneys.

Mr. E. K. Caldwell, auctioneer, Kentville, N. S., writes: "Some years ago I was troubled with pains in my back and had all the symptoms of kidney and liver troubles. I used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and they entirely cured me of these ailments. Now whenever I need a laxative or in fact whenever I am not feeling as well as I should I use a few of these pills with excellent results."

POLICE COURT STATISTICS

If the years of the prisoners who are apprehended by the police were computed from 20 April to yesterday, inclusive, the total would be 3277 years. In that period there were fifteen arrested who had passed the fifty year post. The senior of the number had lived for 75 years and there were two who were 63 years of age. A peculiar feature is that of the fifteen, seven are aged 55 years.

In the forties the number is fourteen and five of these are 40 years old. In point of membership the twenties lead with an advantage of thirteen over the thirties. In the thirties were twenty, and in the twenties were thirty-three. Six of the thirties bore the age of thirty-five. Eight of the thirty-three who were in the twenties were in their twenty-eighth year. Under the age of 20 were eight with the youngest at the age of 11, one at 13, one at 15, two at 17, one at 18, and two at 19.

The record of deposits since Christmas shows that seventeen deposits were forfeited by non-appearance on the morning following the arrest, in the police court, and the aggregated total thus contributed by default to the treasury was $162. Two of the deposits were of $16 each, due for profanity in addition to intoxication. One individual who deserted $25 was liberated by the magistrate for $12, and from another man, who defended himself, information $20 was collected. One who deposited 20 was not muled.

FIND THE MONEY AND WORK WILL BE DONE

Although Short of Funds the Horticultural Association is Planning for Active Work in the Park and Gardens.

Though the cutting in half of the usual civic grant of $4,000 to the Horticultural Association will somewhat curtail their work in the park and garden this year the officers of the association are nevertheless going ahead with their plans for beautifying this great pleasure spot.

Talking with G. S. Fisher, the man who has planned practically all the drive ways paths, lakes, etc. that have made the park such a success from a scenic standpoint, he said their great handicap this year was finances and he hoped the citizens would help them by liberal subscriptions, so that there would be no retrogression. It would be practically impossible, he said to undertake the building of new roads this year but they would endeavor to keep those now made in good condition.

The chain of small lakes back of Lily Lake will no doubt be very attractive this year as it has been arranged to sow grass and clover seed around the ground in that vicinity and when a green sward has been formed it will greatly improve the appearance of that section.

Roads have been built around and about the lakes and some very pretty drives are thus afforded. Last year a large quantity of white pond lilies were set out in the lakes and when these obtain their growth, probably in another year, they will add to the beauty of the place.

In the public gardens, men are at work setting out plants and forming new flower beds and grass plots on the site of the old conservatory, the new one being situated in the north-western corner. With the rearrangement in the grounds they should be more attractive than ever this year.

"TEDDY" ALLISON IN AN EARTHQUAKE

Well Known St. John Man's Experience in Recent Seismic Disturbance in Saskatchewan.

St. John men are usually to be found in almost every section of the globe when there is anything doing. A few days ago the Canadian west experienced a distinct earthquake shock when some damage was done and now it appears that Edmund K. Allison, a well known St. John boy who was in the earthquake district at the time and had quite an experience. Mr. Allison who was in St. John on a visit a few weeks ago, is an elderly partner of the real estate and insurance firm of Allison, Fair & Co., with headquarters at Indian Head, Saskatchewan. Writing to a friend in this city, under date of May 17, he says: "We don't usually expect earthquakes out here on the prairie, but we had our first experience Saturday night. I had just returned from a business trip to Lettbridge, Alta, and as I was tired, turned in early, and the shock came when I was trying to get to sleep. Having experienced several high wind storms out here in the past, I know at once it could be nothing but a seismic disturbance. My bed shook violently and several books, brushes, etc., were sent crashing to the floor. After the first shock came a second, the two covering, I should judge, about 40 seconds. I am satisfied they did not last longer, as it was, the people here did not have time to get frightened, for it was over before most of them realized what had happened."

Press reports from the west state that the quake was more severe in some other sections and some slight damage was done.

Peacock-Murray

A very pretty event took place at the home of Mrs. A. E. Murray, Amherst, on Wednesday evening, when her daughter, Miss Mildred, was united in wedlock to George S. Peacock, formerly of St. John, but now of Amherst. The bride was becomingly attired in white princess lingerie. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties were invited. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly gifts, the groom's present being $25 in gold. Rev. Dr. Chapman tied the nuptial knot.

S. McConkey, of St. Stephen has sold his fine four years old colt, Togo to J. J. R. Sederquist of the same place. Togo is a dark bay of fine style and gives promise of speed. He is by Oakley Baron out of Lunge's mare and ought to prove a good one.

H. C. Green and C. A. Hewitt will leave on the Calvin Austin tonight for a short visit to Boston and New York.
