FISHING VESSELS DRIVEN ASHORE.

HIGHLAND LIGHT, Mass., Mar. 20.—Ten fishing vessels, the most of them belonging to the local haddock fleet, were driven ashore on the flats during the night and others are forced still further up the shore. A large field of ice is passing around the Truro shore, yesterday blocked the harbor entrance when the wind shifted to the easterly last night and forced the fishermen on the flats. As the vessels all rest on a soft bottom, it is believed they will come off with little damage, as soon as the storm is over.

QUO VADIS, POLAND?

ST. PETERSBURG, March 20.—Henrik Siewicki, the Polish novelist, published today an article dealing with the Polish school question, in which he describes school life in Poland as a "round of chargin, torment and tragedy." He adds: "The years of youth and adolescence are years of suffering and torture. It is only the fear that their children might become social pariahs that makes parents wish them to obtain certificates."

JAPANESE ARE 20 MILES NORTH OF THE PASS.

Russians Burn Bridges to Delay Japanese Advance---M. Witte Will Be Head of Proposed Peace Council.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The Japanese legation today received the following cable from Tokyo: "At four a. m. on March 19, our detachment occupied Kai Yuan, 20 miles north of Tie Pass. The enemy afterward attempted a counter attack, but were repulsed. The enemy burned bridges on the main road south of Kai Yuan and also destroyed part of a railway bridge. A number of Russian guns were found buried near Mukden."

ST. PETERSBURG, March 20.—A despatch from General Linovitch, dated March 19, 9 p. m., says: "The commander of the second army reports that he has had no further fighting. 'No reports have been received from the first or third armies. 'I have inspected the troops which have arrived from Russia. They are in excellent spirits and good health.'"

STRUGGLE IS HOPELESS.

NEW YORK, March 20.—A St. Petersburg despatch to the Times says: "According to a statement by a high personage, the question of peace will probably be submitted to the council of the ministers after the pending reorganization by which the council is absorbing the committee of ministers and become a sort of cabinet under a prime minister, who, presumably will be M. Witte, the leading peace advocate in Russia."

"The car has begged M. Witte to withdraw his resignation. The announcement of the mobilization of troops in the districts of Moscow, Odessa and Warsaw is regarded by the war party as convincing proof of the government's intention to continue the struggle, but the advocates of peace declare that they equally signify an intention to negotiate for peace. They say that if this government is really preparing to receive or make overtures, it would naturally wish to prove the strongest array of armed force in order to induce the foe to give the best terms. The apparent hopelessness of the struggle is recognized in every quarter."

KUROPAKIN COMING HOME. ST. PETERSBURG, March 20, 2.35 a. m.—A report in circulation last night that General Kuropatkin is remaining in Manchuria and that he will assume a subordinate command cannot be confirmed and private despatches from Gushu Pass, confirming the earlier official report stated that General Kuropatkin's train left on Saturday for St. Petersburg.

TIE PASS WAS EASY.

General Kuropatkin's Headquarters in the field, March 16, via Fusan.—General Kuropatkin's army continues to lead the Japanese forces which have now been engaged for nine days in a hard pursuit in which they have covered a distance of more than 45 miles with frequent fighting. The weather in the mountains is very cold with frequent hard storms.

The brigade in advance occupied Tie Pass Wednesday night after a brief engagement. The Russian retreat became more disorganized daily, after the storm during the first day the Russians buried their dead, but since then they have left the dead wherever they fell. Tuesday the Russians made an attempt at resistance in entrenchments north of the Hun river, but abandoned them after they had been shelled for two hours.

ST. JOHN BILL CONSIDERED.

Amendment with Reference to the Assessment Commission before the Municipalities Committee This Morning.

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 20.—The municipalities committee met this morning and elected Mr. Allen, chairman.

The bill in amendment of the act to authorize the St. John common council to make a grant of money for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the assessment commission was considered. Mr. Maxwell explained that the object of the bill was to authorize the common council to make further expenditures to enable the commissioners to obtain information in regard to the rental of real estate.

Mr. Copp objected to the third section, which provides a penalty for refusing to give information or giving incorrect information to the commissioners. As there was no section authorizing any further expenditure of money the bill was held over until Wednesday to enable Mr. Maxwell to communicate with the common council.

The auto bill will be taken up by the committee tomorrow morning.

POLICE COURT

Magistrate Ritchie Ignores the Grand Jury's Recommendation Regarding Double Fines on Monday Morning

In the police court this morning three drunks were fined $3 each for drunkenness, and one who had left a deposit of eight dollars for a similar offence forgot to come back to see if there would be a rebate.

In view of the presentment made by the grand jury last week, it is surprising that this man did not show up, as the jury strongly condemned the practice of imposing double fines on Monday morning. His honor, however, has ignored the jury's recommendation and has preferred to be guided by the law as in all cases where a man is fined a fine of eight dollars or twenty dollars, as against the ordinary week day penalty of four dollars or ten dollars.

One of our readers sent a jail to jail today is the stepfather of a lad who recently escaped from the reformatory, and who was captured last week by the police and sent back.

John Diamond, 33 years of age, a native of Ireland, has been remanded to jail while his pal or at least the man who was with him at the time of his arrest has been allowed to go and get busy at once which he promised to do. These men were locked up on Saturday as common law offenders, and were found loitering about alleyways on the north side of King square and not having any visible means of support.

Officers Marshall and Scott testified that the men had been a nuisance, while Fred Driscoll, a King square barber, said the men had declined to move away from his door way when requested to do so. It seemed Diamond was the offender and that during the short time he has been in the city he has been twice arrested and once claimed protection at the central station.

MORE IMMIGRANTS.

Two large trains of immigrants passed through the city this morning from Halifax to the West. About 6 a. m. a train of eleven cars arrived, followed about eight o'clock by a second train of twelve cars. A few of the settlers will be distributed at Montreal and Toronto, but the majority are going to the Northwest.

FIFTY VICTIMS OF BOILER EXPLOSION.

DEATH ENDS WEDDING FEAST.

Celebrating Italians Attack Policeman who in Self Defence shot One of Them Fatally.

CHICAGO, March 20.—A wedding celebration at Clark and Polk streets was terminated suddenly by Policeman Henry Dicker, who shot one of the merry-makers, Vito Malpeda, inflicting a fatal wound. Half a dozen Italians, one of whom was Malpeda, attacked the policeman because he had ordered them to disperse. Malpeda ran into a saloon, snatched a club from behind the bar and felled the officer. Dicker regained his feet and used his own baton on the Italians. Malpeda rushed on him again from behind and dealt a terrific blow which sent the policeman to his knees. Two men seized his club and Dicker drew his revolver as Malpeda came toward him again with the club uplifted. At the first shot the Italian fell.

Hundreds of dwellers in "Little Italy" ran from the tenements. Women threw themselves upon the man who lay wounded in the street. The police were notified, and when a wagon load of reserves arrived, more than 1,000 persons, men, women and children, were struggling in the street. Officer Dicker, covered with blood, stood at the side of the man he had shot, and held another of his assailants under arrest. After his injuries were dressed, he returned to his post.

BOGUS BALLOT BOX CASE AGAIN.

(Special to the Star.) BELLEVILLE, March 20.—F. J. Reilly's trial for conspiracy in the ballot box case was resumed this morning. There was a long fight over the jury, the crown challenging sixteen and the defence eleven jurors. Miss Lillian McCrae was the first witness and swore to the correctness of the copy of the evidence given by Reilly in the preliminary investigation. B. P. B. Johnston objected to the admission of this evidence because it was given under arrest, but the judge decided to allow it subject to a decision later on point of law.

SPRING FRESHETS.

ELMIRA, N. Y., March 20.—The Chemung river and its small tributary streams, which went on a rampage and did considerable damage yesterday are all receding today, owing to the sudden dropping of the temperature and no further trouble is expected unless the weather conditions should change soon.

Three deaths, two in nearby villages, and one in this city, resulted from the flood yesterday.

The new section Temple of Honor and temperance recently organized in Fairville, will hold their first regular meeting tonight in Orange hall at 8 o'clock. All templars are invited to be present.

The police were kept busy Saturday night ejecting drunks from barrooms and private houses. Some half dozen reports are recorded on the books.

Awful Disaster in a Brockton, Mass., Shoe Factory -- Fire Which Followed Brought Fearful Death to Many Caught In the Ruins.

BROCKTON, Mass., Mar. 20.—Within an hour after the six hundred employees of the R. B. Grover Shoe Factory had begun work today, a boiler blew up in the factory engine room, wrecking a section of the building and started a fire which destroyed the ruins and spread to other buildings nearby.

Owing to the nature of the accident and the speed with which the flames seized upon the section which fell after the explosion and the excitement, any accurate estimate of the loss of life was impossible. It was understood that upwards of 200 persons were at work in the departments near the boiler room and the first indications were that hardly one could have escaped. Later, however, it was learned that about fifty were unaccounted for and it was believed that many of this number be dead or injured.

The factory, a large four story wooden structure, was in ashes within an hour. The flames extended to several dwelling houses nearby and to the Dahlburg block across the street from the Grover factory. These also were consumed and other property was also damaged. At 10.30 o'clock, it was believed that the fire was under control and the financial loss was estimated at $200,000. The boiler which exploded was located on the ground floor of an ell which extended from the main building.

In the three stories of the ell were located work rooms. Persons living near heard a dull roar and saw a cloud of smoke rising and the ell of the factory falling to the ground. Almost immediately flames burst forth from the ruins of the boiler room and quickly enveloped the wreckage of the ell. Before the hundreds of persons in the main building had left it, the fire jumped from the ell and in a few minutes the entire structure was a roaring furnace. Most of those, however, in the main part of the plant, succeeded in escaping, although in the terrible panic which followed the explosion, quite a number were injured.

The Grover factory was situated at the corner of Main and Calmar streets in the Cambello district, about a mile south of the city proper. The district is within the city limits of Brockton. General alarms summoned all the fire apparatus in the city to the scene.

TRAINS LATE.

The Atlantic Express was about forty-five minutes late in arriving here today. The Boston express was one hour and forty-five minutes late, so the train for east was held for the accommodation of people who come from Boston and who were going east of Moncton. This was done as since the I. C. R. have cancelled the late train there would be no way in which people bound for points east of Moncton could get away from here before tomorrow morning. As the Atlantic was late it only meant that the eastern train was held forty-five minutes.

BYE-ELECTIONS.

While there may have been room for doubt concerning their value as party tactics when the protests against many of the Nova Scotia members were made after the late elections, there can be none now as to the advisability of pushing those protests vigorously to their conclusion, and we are glad to learn that, with the exception of Hants county, this is the intention of the Conservatives in that province.

It is greatly in the interests of the Conservative party and of the country just now that in as many constituencies as possible the people should be given a chance to record their opinion on the issue now before them—in the party's interests because there is little room for doubt that this opinion is strongly adverse to the government's position, and in the country's because, if the condemnation is forcible enough, the government may thereby be induced to abandon a policy so full of danger to the peace and the well-being of the Dominion.

True, the people have already spoken so unmistakably that even this authocratic government dare not altogether ignore their protest and is already offering what it calls a compromise; a compromise, however, which does not affect the real ground of the protest.
According to Liberal journals, the amendments to the autonomy bills which Laurier proposes to make as a so-called concession, will "merely" confirm by federal authority in the new provinces the separate school system which at present obtains in the territories. The Liberal pretence is that all this storm of objection which has centred upon Ottawa from every province of Canada—save one—is caused by those additional provisions in the autonomy bills which not only confirm this privilege but increase it by providing for public financial support for the sectarian schools, and that the removal of these sections will make the legislation unobjectionable.

The Liberals are wholly wrong in this and they know it. The basis of the bulk of the protest is a belief that all this storm of objection which has centred upon Ottawa from every province of Canada—save one—is caused by those additional provisions in the
autonomy bills which not only confirm
this privilege but increase it by providing for public financial support for the
sectarian schools, and that the removal
of these sections will make the legislation unobjectionable.

So it would be well if as soon as possible several bye-elections gave opportunity for more emphatic protest than can be conveyed by petitions or resolutions. Within a few days, probably, the extent of the concessions Laurier is at present willing to make will be known and the country will have the issue definitely before it. That he is determined to force separate schools upon Alberta and Saskatchewan, that he will not compromise upon this point, unless forced to, is indubitable. It has probably been his intention to rush this thing through the house this session and give the angered electorate four years to cool off before facing them. It is in the power of the opposition to defeat this intention and to give the people, before this mischievous legislation is passed, a chance to record their opinion, in a manner he cannot misinterpret, that their passage means his downfall.

THE GOVERNMENT'S DUTY.

A wayfaring man, though a Liberal, cannot misinterpret Sir Thomas Shakespeare's letter published on another page of the Star today.

Unless the deepwater accommodations in St. John harbor are increased, he says, and that immediately, the bulk of the C. P. R. export trade must go elsewhere. The company will not provide these accommodations, he adds: Logically, it is up to the city. But Sir Thomas admits that the city has already done a great deal and says that he does not "feel justified in urging upon the city an increase of its indebtedness to provide better and more modern accommodation."

The natural conclusion to be drawn is that Sir Thomas is choosing this way to inform the federal government that if it is interested in the preservation of Canadian trade for Canadian ports, now is the time to show it. Improvements must be made or the trade will go elsewhere; the railway would rather take the trade elsewhere than make the improvements; the city—the most interested party—cannot afford to make them; clearly it is up to somebody else interested in the development of the port and the preservation of the funds to carry out that development.
The leader of the Conservative party has over and over again declared the responsibility of the national government for the maintenance of national ports and has pledged his party to a policy based on this responsibility.
Unless the present government awakens soon to a sense of its duty in this direction, someone in a few years' time will be erecting on the site of a once flourishing city called St. John, a monument to a government's indifference and foolishness.

Why should the minister of justice or any one else regard it as an extraordinary or inconsistent thing for conservatives in Quebec to be signing petitions in favor of separate schools in the west, while members of the same party in other provinces are signing petitions to the contrary effect? The division of opinion on this subject is not on party lines. It is equally true that thousands of liberals in Ontario, the maritime provinces and the west are petitioning against the coercion clauses of the government bill, while their party friends in Quebec are taking strong grounds for the bill as it stands. The value of a petition sent to parliament consists wholly in the fact that it expresses the desire of the petitioner, and if the men who sign are not influenced by the position of their leaders at Ottawa, their petition it worth so much the more as the expression of their individual wish.—Sun.

I MISS YOU SO.

Th' world's as bright as a dream of light,
And I trample the wrong, and I lift the right,
And my soul stands white in God's own sight:
But I miss you so—
I miss you so!

My task complete when the toll seemed sweet,
For all the thorns that pierced the feet,
And a laurel crown where the morning meets—
But I miss you so—
I miss you so!

Wealth, and honor, and highest place—
The wished-for goal in the easy race,
But all for a beautiful, vanished face,
Where I miss you so—
Where I miss you so!

LABOR TROUBLES IN WARSAW

Strikers Taking Vengeance on Men Who Failed to Join Them—Many Acts of Violence.

WARSAW, March 19.—(10:45 p. m.)
Now that most of the strikers are ended the workmen are beginning to carry out the threat of revenge on such of their fellows as refused to quit work with them. On Saturday a foreman who had refused to join the strikers was fatally stabbed, and today a workman who had refused to walk out was shot and severely wounded. The authorities fear that these incidents are only the beginning of a series of such outrages.

The workmen are greatly excited in anticipation of orders for mobilization.
The men are determined to offer violent opposition. Scarcely a day passes without the appearance of some pamphlet. One secret publication entitled "The Barricade," which was recently circulated, preached revolutionary doctrines, urging workmen to prepare for a final struggle and build barricades in the streets. The mobilization is expected to begin at Lodz tomorrow.

Workmen in several mills there already are striking as a manifestation of hostility to such measures.
The school strike at Warsaw is reaching an acute stage. The authorities issued a final order that boys not returning to school before Wednesday will be expelled, regardless of their number.

The Polish educational committee which recently went to St. Petersburg, is angered at the government's non-conciliatory attitude and met here today to issue a final order that boys not returning to school before Wednesday will be expelled, regardless of their number.

Warsaw and Lodz manufacturers have been invited to send delegates to a meeting of the industrial representa-

B. C. EMPIRE LEAGUE.
The British Canadian Empire League held an interesting meeting at Norton Saturday evening in the Foresters hall. The meeting was called by the secretary of the committee, Dr. W. B.
McVey. Colonel Donville is at present preparing a circular for the league. It is proposed to establish branches in each county, with separate officers.

W. H. Baxter, the chairman, introduced Edw. Sears, who told of the object of the league.
Dr. McVey read a paper in which he reviewed the various events which bore on the movement toward empire.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Victoria County News offers a practical argument for some form of church union or co-operation. The News states that on the evening of Sunday, March 12th, four churches in Andover and the two across the river at Perth were all closed, and no religious service was held in either town.
Crowds of people last week admired the great painting, "The Light of the World," now on exhibition here. Those who have seen it cannot find adjectives enough to adequately express their admiration of this great picture. Today the picture may be seen without money and without price.

The N. B. Military Veterans will be held at the Park Hotel at 2:30 p. m. on Wednesday, March 20th, to celebrate the 39th anniversary of the turnout to defend the city and province at the time of the Fenian Raid. The dinner committee will meet at the Park Hotel this evening to make final arrangements.

"Wives" have found the premises which they now occupy on King street inadequate for their growing business and have leased the Bruchhof building which adjoins. They have leased the lower flat of the building to W. H.
Bell, who will handle products of the dairy. The next floor will be made suitable for a banquet room and will be fitted up in grand style. About the other changes in the building a definite decision has not been made. The company will take possession of their enlarged quarters the first of May.

The work of demolishing the barn on the premises which has been purchased by the proprietors of the Royal Hotel, has been commenced preparatory to the erection of the new building. When the new addition to the building now standing on the lot is finished, the Royal people will have twenty-three fine sample rooms under one roof. Edward Bates has the contract.
The average size of the sample rooms will be 18x25 feet. It is expected that they will be available by the first of July. When the work is completed the expenditure including the price paid for the property, will be in the vicinity of $19,000.

TERRY'S FIRST TIME IN AMERICA

Edward Terry has turned his sixtieth year. He has been acting for forty.
He has had a place of his own on the English stage for twenty, and a little theatre in London for nearly as long.
Yet this is his first visit to America.
"I know," he said the other day, in his clear, crisp, dry voice, "I know; I've dangled from the end of a rope over a crossed in the Alps. I have been nearly wrecked off the Seychelles. I've even been taken across the veldt in South Africa, by a chauffeur who considered that it was his first attempt at driving a car. I've had a stranger with a glassy eye put a moist hand in mine in Johannesburg, and say, 'Ed, mon, I used to shave ye in Sauchichall street in Glasgow.' In Australia the custom house officers used to greet me with 'I used to see you at twenty-five years ago,' and then chalk my luggage without opening a single bag. But this is the first time that I have come to America."

LORD DUFFERIN'S GALLANTRY.

"T. P." recalls the following entertaining anecdote of Lord Dufferin, in illustration of his ready wit: Lord Dufferin was describing to Queen Victoria the extraordinary feat of a man who, he said, had leaped twenty-one feet. Nobody believed the story.

"But," said Lord Dufferin, "I myself have leaped fifteen feet."
"That is as far as the end of the table is from Miss—" observed the Prince Consort, referring to an attractive young girl on Dufferin's right.
"If, sir," responded Dufferin, "Miss—were on the other side, I could leap a foot farther."

Only one man in the city of London outside the Tower possesses the password which enables him to answer the challenge of the sentries at any time.
It is the lord mayor, and the password is given to him by authority of the king.

WEAK INDIGESTION.

Indigestion and dyspepsia have wrecked many lives. People who are weak and miserable should know that health would return if the digestion were made normal. This is just the condition Huteh's Tablets bring about. It cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness, liver and kidney trouble, and produces sound sleep. It will make you well. See that you get Huteh's, for stomach trouble.

It's a doctor for ten cents. A big bottle with 300 in it for $2.00.

THE COFFEE WE DRINK.

More than one billion pounds of coffee, valued at $38,000,000, came into the United States last year, practically all for the use of the people of the United States. The total quantity of coffee imported from foreign countries during the year, as shown by figures recently issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor through its bureau of statistics, was 1,112,703,548 pounds, valued at $37,427,099, and from Porto Rico, 2,392,524 pounds, and from the Hawaiian Islands, 1,827,491 pounds—the total value of the coffee from these two island divisions of the United States being $515,852, bringing into the country $38,000,000. During the same period (the calendar year 1904) there was exported from the United States $4,255,947 pounds of coffee of foreign production, valued at $6,468,592, so that the consumption of coffee during the year was approximately 1,053,000,000 pounds, valued at about $31,000,000.

The figures of the world's production of coffee in the coffee year 1903-4, which have just reached the bureau of statistics, show that the coffee exported from the various producing countries of the world, and therefore the quantity entering the world's markets during that year, was in round terms, 2,260,000,000 pounds, or barely double the quantity brought into the United States alone during the calendar year 1904.

A prominent physician in Baltimore recently perpetrated a witticism at his own expense. It was late at night. The doctor had lost his night key; the door was locked; he was cold from a long ride; and the more he rans the night bell the more the suspicion grew in his mind that some one had chloroformed the entire household. Finally, however, his sister was aroused by a long ring of the bell. Naturally she thought that there was some one at the door who wished to see the doctor; and that, as the doctor was out, she would herself have to answer the summons; else the caller would keep her awake for a long time. So, hastily throwing a loose gown over her nightdress, she hurried to the door. Opening the door the least bit, in order not to present her disheveled and intruding eye, she shouted through the crack, in a tone of sleepy impatience, "The doctor's out," and was about to close the door, when the physician thrust one foot through, at the same time exclaiming:

"Yes, I know the doctor's out; but he wants to get in!"

"I Samuel Jenkins, agree to pay John Huggins $200 whether conveyed or not. It is understood that said Jenkins is not to be pushed. Witness my hand and seal this day of May, Samuel Jenkins."

DANIEL WEBSTER AND THE BRANDY.

Mr. Webster's fondness for brandy gave one of his important clients a very curious case. He was called to Philadelphia to defend the good old rubber patents, and the head of the firm met him at the station. When they had entered the carriage, he at once turned to Mr. Webster and referred to one feature of the evidence to be presented in the trial the following day.

"I speak of it, Mr. Webster," he said, "as it has a peculiarly important bearing on the case, and I thought you might not have understood its significance."

Mr. Webster, who was looking dreamily out of the carriage window, was recalled to a consciousness of the client's presence. He yawned, and, settling back against his cushions, remarked:

"I've always hoped I might some day come to Philadelphia, because I've been told that there is no place in the United States where they serve finer brandy. When I came away from Boston, I said to some of my friends, 'Boys, I'm going to find out about that Philadelphia brandy, and if I find that it really is the best, I shall have made a useful trip.'"

"Several times Mr. Goodyear tried to draw his distinguished attorney's attention to the particular point at issue, but he never seemed to take the slightest interest in it. The brandy of Philadelphia was apparently the only topic which interested him, and he always resorted to it."

Mr. Goodyear left him somewhat brusquely at his hotel. When he returned to his office his story was anything but inspiring. "We've got a man who is supposed to be the greatest lawyer in the United States, and the only subject in which he takes any interest is Philadelphia brandy!"

That night, though, Mr. Webster worked in his room until after two o'clock, occasionally walking the floor, and marshalling his case into battle array. He piled the next day was one of his most impressive utterances in his power and logic, and the case, involving hundreds of thousands of dollars, was to the Goodyears.

ST JOHN STAR, MONDAY, MARCH 23, 1905.

President of C. P. R. Talks on St. John Harbor Facilities.

Says That the Railway Will Not Build Any Wharves Here and That C. P. R. Steamers Will Have to Go Elsewhere Because of Lack of Accommodation.

Following are extracts from a letter received a few weeks ago by George Robertson from Sir Thomas Shaughnessy for the publication of which permission was granted by the writer:

The Canadian Pacific Railway Co., Montreal.

February 20th, 1905.

Dear Mr. Robertson.—The whole situation with reference to the steamship business at St. John is in a most unsatisfactory condition, and I do not just know what the outcome will be. The present facilities are absolutely inadequate even for the tonnage passing through the port, and any increase of tonnage is out of the question until additional accommodation is provided. I can quite understand that the work already done has proved a good deal of a burden to the city of St. John, and, therefore, do not feel justified in urging upon the city an increase of its indebtedness to provide better and more modern accommodation.

With all that may be said upon the subject that the Canadian winter port must, of necessity, be at St. John or in that immediate vicinity. There are one or two other points quite close to St. John that could be utilized, but at either of these it would be necessary to start anew and build up a port where there would be none of the advantages of a city of considerable size like St. John. The Grand Trunk, when completed, can no doubt utilize Halifax for business originating along its line, but for a great many years to come ninety per cent. of the export tonnage available from the railways centering on Montreal, and for this Halifax would be out of the question by reason of its long rail haul. The Grand Trunk has, of course, its own winter outlet at Portland, and this, I should say, would never be changed for business passing over the Grand Trunk railway because export traffic yields at best but a very narrow margin of profit to the rail carrier. Portland, by reason of its proximity to Montreal, is an easy and economical outlet. The distance to St. John is 60 per cent. greater, and to Portland, and to even to what it could be the advantage of the port, but because the expenditure involved in the equipment of a national port is much larger than a city with St. John's resources could prudently undertake.

Yours very truly,

GAME LAW VIOLATIONS.

Hearing of Case Against Garrett

SUSSEX, N. B., March 19.—Hearing in the game law violation on Saturday before Police Magistrate Morrison created much interest, the court room being crowded the entire day. Only one case was heard, that against Ernest Garrett, who has been confined in the Hamilton jail under a warrant for several days. The evidence given to show that the killing of three deer was done by Waldon Parlee and Arthur Garrett, who have gone to the States. All the others, however, mentioned in Saturday's Sun are implicated under the law, particularly Ernest Garrett, who disposed of the carcasses and evidently the accused took a prominent part in the hauling from the woods and the subsequent disposal. The magistrate, at the request of Mr. Fairweather, adjourned the hearing until Monday at 10 a. m. for the preparation of defense and in default of bail, recommitted the defendant to jail. The remaining cases were adjourned until next Saturday at 10 a. m. A salutary lesson is being given to lawbreakers and without doubt will put an end to such offenses in the vicinity of Sussex. The warden, Major C. H. Arnold, will be glad to get information against other offenders, which information under the act, is a privileged communication and cannot be disclosed in evidence.

SAVE THE COUPONS.

Those who use the popular Rainbow Cut Plug Smoking Tobacco should save the coupons, as they are valuable for premiums.

EBEN PERKINS' PATENTS.

Eben Perkins, manager of the Maritime Mail Works, has secured patents covering mill making machinery which he has invented. Mr. Perkins has been at work on the models for some time, in fact he is nearly always carrying on some experiments in machinery. The two patents referred to were issued in Canada last month and in the United States about three months ago. The patents cover machinery for the manufacture of horse nails, and are not by any means the only inventions which Mr. Perkins has to his credit. He invented horse nail machinery about eight or nine years ago, which was patented, and is still in use. Mr. Perkins has also taken out many other patents. For his new invention Mr. Perkins has already received two offers, both of which are now under consideration.

to prevent any combination of ocean carriers from adding to the disability under which we already labor by reason of our longer distance, we acquired, at great expense, a fleet of ocean steamships, but there is not wharfage accommodation for these ships in the port unless other steamship lines are crowded out. We now have under construction two fast passenger ships that will run to Quebec or Montreal during the summer months, but there is not a wharf in St. John at which these vessels can land their passengers and cargo, and, therefore, we shall be compelled to run them somewhere else after navigation in the St. Lawrence is closed. In the interest of economy, most, if not all of our vessels should follow.

The truth is that, with all that has been said during the past few years about a Canadian winter port, no general feeling in favor of the expenditure for the requisite facilities has been aroused. Some of our St. John friends have been good enough at times to suggest that the Canadian Pacific Company might properly, at its own expense, provide these facilities, but that is out of the question. It is no part of the duty of this company to improve the harbor or build wharves at St. John any more than it is at Montreal or Quebec. It would not be unreasonable to ask us to provide the wharves, cattle pens, freight sheds and other facilities required for the interchange of traffic between our railway and the various steamship lines over the wharves, or, if these be made a portion of the general scheme, to expand from us by way of rental a fair return on the investment, but beyond this we would not be willing to go. The dredging and lighting of the harbor, the construction of suitable wharves and other works, and the maintenance of all of them, are essentially public works and do not come within the province of an individual railway company.

This subject has been causing our directors and officers a good deal of anxiety, and we all hope some earnest and energetic business man will step in to secure what is so badly wanted within the next year or eighteen months. The present conditions are intolerable, not because the city of St. John has failed to do what it could for the advantage of the port, but because the expenditure involved in the equipment of a national port is much larger than a city with St. John's resources could prudently undertake.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) T. SHAUGHNESSY, President.

FATHER MATHEW ASSOCIATION.
The first lecture of the course was delivered in St. Malachy's Hall on Sunday afternoon by John A. Barry. His subject was "John Boyle O'Reilly." The subject was interesting, well delivered and a notable tribute to the famous poet, editor and patriot. W. F. Higgins, the president, introduced the orator in a neat speech.

At the close of the lecture Mr. E. A. Agar moved a vote of thanks to the speaker, and highly complimented him on his fine discourse and admirable delivery. The motion was seconded by J. J. Morrissey, who spoke briefly in terms of commendation. In speaking to the motion T. O'Brien spoke of a pleasant evening he spent with Mr. O'Reilly at a reception given by the Catholic Union of Boston.

The president announced that there would be several more lectures.

COM. COOMBS' ROYAL WELCOME.

Head of the Army Visits Canada.
His Meetings Yesterday Were Attended by Great Crowds—He is a Powerful Preacher.

Commissioner Coombs, commander in chief of the Salvation Army in Canada, reached St. John shortly after six o'clock Saturday evening and will be here until Wednesday. The commissioner was given a magnificent reception at the station by army officials from the city and elsewhere. The commissioner was tired after his work of the week and he went to Col. Sharp's home for the evening.

Three large audiences greeted Commissioner Coombs at the York Theatre yesterday. The great Salvation Army official was excellent form and his addresses were most interesting. In the morning he spoke from the text, A Man Full of Faith and of the Holy Ghost, and his remarks were listened to with the deepest interest.

The afternoon service began at 3 o'clock, and long before that hour the lower floor of the theatre was well filled and crowds were surging into the galleries. On the platform besides the commissioner were Col. Sharpe, Lt. Col. Pugmire and the members of the local staff. Col. Sharpe presided. A large band was in attendance, and the first half hour was devoted entirely to the singing and playing of appropriate hymns, such as Let a Little Sunshine In, You Have Carried Your Burdens Long, In the Shadow of His Wings, etc. Now and again as the hymns were sung, the commissioner would step to the front of the platform and in a low sweet baritone voice would sing a verse giving an intensely interesting phase to the proceedings.

Col. Sharpe introduced the commissioner, who on rising said that like the Irishman, he wished to say a few words before he began to speak. In these few words he told of the great pleasure it gave him to be in St. John, and of the honor he felt in being again at the head of the Salvation Army in Canada and of the marvelous success of his efforts.

After leaving the dominion he had labored in God's work for over six years in the Australian colonies and in a low sweet baritone voice would sing a verse giving an intensely interesting phase to the proceedings.

The commissioner read the one hundred and thirtieth Psalm to Christ. He so many words to tell of the organization of the army in St. John, how he labored amidst so many disappointments and the bitter criticism of the church of which John Alexander Dowie the self-styled Elijah the Restorer, the head, and removed to Zion.

He ever lived to make intercession for them. Hardships must be suffered, but like St. Paul he may say I have fought the good fight, I have kept the faith. The comprehensiveness and the all-embracing nature of the message was dwelt upon by the commissioner. God's ability to save is not denied, nor His willingness. But God everlasting and almighty as He is, cannot save a sinner who is not willing to come.

The commissioner told of his experiences in Scotland and the conversions of men, some of them the most hardened of sinners, and drew impressive pictures of the scenes there enacted. Every one must come to God he said; must come for mercy or for justice. It is for you to say which it will be. The thought of the alive gang, chained together and dying on their tracks, the exiles doomed to Siberia, and the convict who is deported for life, all passed before the mind of the hearer, but these combined can never reach the awful loss when men turn from Christ and go out into everlasting darkness.

The commissioner called upon the audience to earnestly search their souls and to accept salvation. Many came forward at the close of the address.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS.
The city funeral directors met with the secretary, F. W. Wallace, at the arrangements for the next annual meeting of the Funeral Directors' Association. A resolution was unanimously passed inviting the association to hold its next annual meeting in this city. The invitation will likely be accepted, and the meeting will be held about the 15th of August at the Park Hotel. It is expected to be the best meeting in the history of the association, as several American undertakers will be present.

STEAMER WRECKED.

Big Vessel Ashore on Block Island—Crew Brought Ashore in Lifeboats.

BLOCK ISLAND, R. I., March 19.—In rounding the southern end of Block Island, two hours before daylight this morning, the steamer Spartan, Captain J. O. Briggs, of the Boston & Philadelphia Steamship Company, on her way from Providence to Philadelphia, grounded on the point and sunk until the water was even with her lower deck, with a 15 foot hole in her bow.

The vessel carried a cargo and a crew of 23 men. As the weather, while thick, remained fairly good until just before daylight, when a heavy swell set in from off shore, the crew, which had remained on board, signalled to be taken off. It was reported at 8 o'clock tonight that the stern of the vessel showed signs of breaking off.

The New Shoreham life savers were notified and once more started out for the Spartan.

The Spartan is a steel steamer of 1,596 gross tonnage, 222 feet long, 57 feet broad, 16.5 deep, and was built at Wilmington, Del., in 1883. The vessel is owned by the Boston and Philadelphia Steamship Co.

The life savers returned at 9.30 o'clock tonight with eleven of the crew, including Captain Briggs, the others having decided to remain on the steamer.

RUSSIA READY TO MAKE PEACE.

Some Ministers Want to End the War.
Defeat—Russia Won't Pay Any Indemnity.
But Czar is Still Unwilling to Admit

ST. PETERSBURG, March 20, 1.45 a. m.—While Emperor Nicholas still declines to abandon the prosecution of the war, but both countries maintain its ability to continue the conflict, the Associated Press is in a position to state that powerful influences, including several of the emperor's own ministers, are now strongly urging that the time has come to indicate to Japan Russia's desire for peace upon a reasonable basis.

Should Japan then attempt to impose too onerous conditions, these influences argue that, in view of the universal wish to see the bloody conflict ended, Russia's position will be strengthened abroad by the alienation of sympathy from Japan and the situation at home improved when the nation's pacific proposals have been met with impossible terms.

One of the emperor's ministers in a conversation with the Associated Press said: "We have suffered bitter defeat on land and sea. We can, however, still continue the war, but both countries have suffered great losses in blood and treasure, it would only profit the rivals of both were to fight on until one of the other is exhausted. Russia has a hard task fighting the war against such adversaries six thousand miles from home, and I contend she can make no such gains. As the victor on land and sea, Japan can afford to remember that two countries which must live together long, and whose neighbors may need each other's friendship, Japan may consider the time propitious, on account of the situation in European Russia, to try and crush us. Suppose, for the sake of argument, she succeeded in finally forcing a humiliating peace, it could not be more than an armed truce. The clouds at home will eventually roll away. With the army and navy reorganized, in five, ten or fifteen years, there will come a day when revenge. No permanent peace is possible now or later unless Japan is reasonable."

To the suggestion of the possibility of an alliance between Russia and Japan, the minister said: "A reasonable peace must first be established. 'What,' was asked, 'would be reasonable?' 'Broadly speaking, Russia's renunciation of her entire Manchurian policy should satisfy Japan's claims. She could have her protectorate over Korea, such privileges on the Kwantung peninsula and at Port Arthur as the powers would not oppose, and the Chinese coast for the railway be placed under international control, Russia maintaining her rights to a railway line through northern Manchuria to Vladivostok."

"What would be Russia's attitude on the subject of indemnity?" "Russia never yet paid indemnity, and history practically forbids a precedent for indemnity when territory is not occupied to insure payment, and Japan holds not a foot of Russian territory. Japan could, however, take the proceeds of the sale of the property and rights of the Chinese Eastern railway, which was built with Russian money."
