

IN MEMORY OF REV. J. DE SOYRES

Service Held Tuesday Morning in St. John's Stone Church.

Rev. Gustav A. Kuhring Pays an Eloquent Tribute to the Memory of the Dead Rector.

On February 3rd, a year ago, Rev. John deSoyres, late rector of Stone church, was called to his rest and Sunday morning in the church to whose service he gave the best years of his life, a reverent and touching reference was made to his memory by the presiding pastor, Rev. Gustav A. Kuhring.

"I had heard much of him," he said, "I had felt his influence before I came to you and when I assumed office here, I told you what I thought of his life and work. Seven months following in his footsteps and the results of that work have served to deepen my respect for him and my admiration for those wonderful gifts which God had entrusted to him."

"In every phase of our church life and our civic life he is missed—there is none to take his place—he has no successor. To many he has been a blessed example in the unsevered consecration of his talents to the service of God. He nailed his colors to the masthead, but knew where he stood and what he believed. With power of pen and voice such as few possess he faithfully taught the truth as he believed it, and his profound scholarship only served to strengthen his love for the truth in its simplicity as revealed in God's word."

"Most touching and inspiring was it to me to glance back over the record of the texts and subjects chosen by him to present truth in its many lights to his people—chosen so evidently with a desire to warn, to encourage and to help you feel and understand what his message meant to you better today than a year ago, but we must look away from the sorrow to his joy as he now bade his way with unclouded vision the face of Him whom he loved and served here below."

Reference was also made to the recent loss of the congregation had sustained in the death of Thomas Millidge. The rector described him as one of the most retiring and unassuming of men, yet a man of power and deep integrity with a love of knowledge and with a reverence and affection for the word of God and the beautiful liturgy of His church. "Another name," said Mr. Kuhring, "I must present to you this morning, that of James Paterson Sheraton, who passed to his rest some days ago. A native of St. John, he was called to Toronto to begin a theological college of a distinct evangelic character some thirty years ago. It required a brave spirit to respond to that call, for in those days that type of churchmanship was bitterly opposed by those in authority throughout Canada. But Godly men representing the Church of England as a reformed church were being called for among the laity for the ministry and Wycliffe College, grew out of this demand."

"Beginning with four students, under his direction she has grown to be the largest theological college of the church in this Dominion with her graduates holding leading positions in every diocese from Halifax to Vancouver, and with a faculty composed of the sons and daughters of men who have been principal sent forth into Canada, United States, South America, Japan, China, India and Palestine. Surely, under God, much fruit has come from the labors of this man. A strong stream of truth and light has been poured into the Canadian church which has strengthened her and stimulated her missionary enterprises, at home and abroad. Never has the honest declaration of the principles upon which Dr.

Sheraton consented to take office been altered. But what a position he won for himself in the church in Canada. His loss is felt all through this Dominion, and the different church papers are vying with each other to pay tributes to his memory and do him honor. His life is hard to find. Profound scholar, a well-balanced, dogmatic mind and a childlike humility and simplicity of character—a deep love for his students over whom he exercised the most fatherly care and in whom he ever strove to strengthen and confirm the true Hebrew scholar in God's work—a devotedness to the one purpose of his life which enabled him to accomplish work impossible to measure or describe. Surely a loss has come to us in his death! He ever avoided prominence, but he was sought out by the learned for his counsel. The Bishop of Toronto praised him to his students at one of their public gatherings as the most widely-read and valued member of the board of examiners for theological degrees, and the other day at his funeral stated that he was, with one exception, the first Hebrew scholar in Canada. His unusual learning, but strengthened his belief in the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and wherever his graduates are faithful to his teaching, and to the truth in its simplicity is being held up before men. I ask you most earnestly to join in your prayers with mine that God will raise up a man or woman of wisdom and consecration to take his place. It is seldom that we are called upon at one time to speak of three such lives as those that we have referred to this morning. Let them stimulate us to deeper consecration to God's service and to a simple surrender to Him of those talents with which He has endowed each one of us."

The words of their rector were listened to with a deep attention and evident sympathy by his congregation. Suitable hymns were sung during the service and the anthem "What are These Arrayed in White Robes," by Stainer.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR EDWARD F. COLE FOR MURDER OF JOHN F. STEEVES.

Former Hillsboro Boy Will be Taken to Thomaston Prison to Spend the Remainder of His Days for Killing His Chum—Cole Heard His Fate With Perfect Calmness.

JOHN F. STEEVES.

MURDERED MAN ONCE LIVED HERE John Arthurs, Killed on the Hudson River, Has Relatives in This City—His People Belong to Land's End—Word of His Death Received.

PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 5.—Imprisonment for his natural life in the state prison at Thomaston was the sentence given Edward F. Cole, aged 24, of Portland, for the murder of John Frank Steeves of Hillsboro, N. B., by Judge Percival Bonney in the superior court late today. Cole's counsel announced during the day there would be no motion for a new trial. Later Cole was brought into court and at 3.53 p. m. was sentenced. Before the sentence was read, Cole, in reply to Judge Bonney's question if he had anything to say why sentence should not be imposed upon him, said: "No, sir; not a word."

He will be taken to Thomaston tomorrow, probably on the seven o'clock train. Cole was found guilty in one hour and fifty minutes by a jury one week ago last Saturday, after a six days' trial. This was his second trial, the jury failing to agree at the previous one. Steeves' body was found in the woods at Paltmouth April 23, 1905, with the skull fractured and the throat cut. He had been dead 12 days.

The following despatch appeared in yesterday's Sun: "NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Dead about two hours, with his skull crushed in by an axe, John Arthurs, a Canadian employed as night watchman on a pile driver, was found today in the cabin house of the craft in the Hudson river off West Thirtieth street. The cabin was in great disorder. An empty beer can, two bottles partly filled with whiskey, and many cigars and cigarettes were found, indicating that the watchman had entertained some one on board before the murder was committed."

It now turns out that the dead man was John Arthurs, a native of Land's End, on the St. John river, and who formerly worked here. The murdered man was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Arthurs of Land's End, both of whom are at the news of his death came to St. John early yesterday morning in a telegraphic message to one of his sisters, Mrs. Alexander Long, of Metcal street. Soon after his receipt Mr. Long and his brother-in-law, William Arthurs, who is in the employ of Messrs. Brock & Paterson, started for Land's End to hear the sad tidings to the deceased's parents, his wife, beside of less than a year and his other relatives. They travelled on skates. Mrs. Long showed the effects of the shock given her by the sudden word of her brother's violent death. She was unable to give any information regarding the affair, the message being nothing more than a notification that her brother was dead. In response to a question, Mrs. Long said that while she herself had not heard from the deceased for some time she was under the impression that his relatives at Land's End had been in receipt of letters from his regularly. Mr. Arthurs was a man of about thirty-five years of age. Some years ago he was employed as a slinger sawyer at the Woodman mill here. Latterly, however, his habit was to spend the greater part of each year in the United States, usually serving as a night watchman on Hudson river boats of one sort or another. Last summer he visited his old home and while there he was married to Miss M. Day, daughter of G. Day, of Land's End. As intimated above, Mrs. Arthurs is at present at Land's End. The deceased was a man well liked by those who knew him here and up the river, and the news of his death was the subject of general conversation at indiantown yesterday.

In addition to his parents and wife, he is survived by three sisters and four brothers. The sisters are: Mrs. Long and Mrs. John Buckley and Mrs. Fred McCusky of Land's End. The brothers are: Joseph, who has charge of the boom at South Bay; Walter and Edward, who are at home, and William, already mentioned. Walter Arthurs was at one time employed as a conductor on the street railway here. The body, so Mrs. Long was informed by the despatch from New York, will be brought to St. John.

OFTEN PITCHED DICE FOR DRINKS And Played Cards For Geese—More Testimony at Liquor Inquiry.

BATHURST, N. B., Feb. 4.—A. J. H. Stewart gave testimony all yesterday afternoon in the liquor inquiry. He was examined closely as to details and concluded just at six o'clock. He said the conditions of the two wholesale premises selling at retail had existed before ever he took office, and that in his opinion it was better to have a bar in the village than the custom of taking liquor over in bottles from town. He considered it very hard to please all parties and thought the act too strict to be successfully carried out in detail. He admitted the existence of the custom of playing cards for geese at a certain season in the year and that he had joined in and had pitched dice for drinks in the bar. He disclaimed that it was his duty to carry out details of the working of the act. The hearing was adjourned to a date to be fixed by the commissioner.

BRILLIANT MATCH NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Willie Hoppe and George Slosson today settled the details for their championship billiard match. They will play a 900 point game for $500 a side and the championship emblem which Hoppe won from Vignone in Paris. The match will be at eighteen-inch balk line, one shot in balk and will be played March 27 in the Madison Square Garden concert hall.

C.P.R. STEAMERS GET BIG FREIGHTS

Average Value Much Higher Than for Other Lines.

The advantage to be gained by a company controlling both railway and steamship lines is shown by the business done from St. John by the C. P. R. in comparison with the returns from other companies. A great deal of the freight which passes through this port originates on the C. P. R. lines, and that company naturally routes as much as possible of this freight by its own steamers. Other companies, however great, have not this advantage.

The result is that the C. P. R. steamers going from St. John are carrying almost all they can hold, while other lines are satisfied with much smaller cargoes. It does not appear that the C. P. R. is rushing its own freight to the delay of that for other steamers, as no complaint is made. There have been entered at the customs house since the beginning of the season statements of the value of forty-five cargoes sent from St. John. These were divided as follows: Canadian Pacific lines, thirteen; Allan line, nine; Donaldson line, Furness line, six; South African line, two; Manchester line, two; Head line, four.

The total value of the exports has been recorded at $9,757,940. Of this amount the thirteen C. P. R. boats took $5,189,416; that is with 29 per cent. of the cargoes the C. P. R. did 53 per cent. of the business. The average value of the cargoes taken was $399,186, while that of the South African boats, was the Manchester line, with $213,416, or little more than half. As the earning power of the freights carried by water is proportionate to the value, it will be seen that the C. P. R. exclusive of the profits on the railroads, has so far made more money on export business than all the other steamship lines put together. The Allan line, of course, secures a lot of freight at Halifax. The different cargoes taken by lines is as follows:

DELEGATES SAW BLOODY SPECTACLE

Bull Fight in Honor of Moroccan Conference.

ALGECIRAS, Feb. 4.—The brilliant though bloody spectacle of a bull fight in honor of the conference on Moroccan reforms was the event of today. Crowds came from all parts of Andalusia to the vast stone amphitheatre where the bull ring is, and more than 6,000 persons saw the fight. A box gaily decorated with the Spanish colors, accommodated the ambassadors and officials of many countries. Most of the delegations to the conference were represented and many of the envoys were accompanied by their wives and daughters. The Duke of Almodovar, the Spanish foreign minister, who is president of the conference, accompanied by the duchess, was the centre of a group of ambassadors and white-garbed Moors and throngs of Spanish women in picturesque costumes lent the touch of quaintness to the animated scene.

The American and British delegates did not attend. Three celebrated bull fighters furnished the sport, and the bulls were from the famous herd of Don Moreno Santa Maria, of Seville. The first animal brought into the ring, a huge black Andalusian beast, killed two horses before the matador, Lagartijo, skilfully drove his sword to the left into the animal, which fell dead. Thousands cheered at this moment and the band played a Spanish fandango.

The second bull was ceremoniously dedicated to the Duke of Almodovar by Matador Morenita, which is a custom of the country. It proved to be an ugly fighter and gored the blind horse of a picador. This bull was dispatched. Another bull killed five horses, four of them dying in the arena, while the fifth, terribly injured, staggered outside and died.

The picadors were often unhorsed, but none of them was seriously hurt. The skill of the matadors was shown as they proucted before the bellowing bulls, which were stung to madness by the darts which they threw. The foreigners present witnessed the scene with mingled admiration at the audacity of the matadors and horror at its cruelty.

LETBRIDGE, Alta., Jan. 29. To the Editor of the Sun: "Sir,—On Saturday last, Jan. 27th, Calgary played Letbridge a game of baseball on the public square at Letbridge, Letbridge winning 13 to 1. The diamond was in fine shape and perfectly dry. The temperature during the game was about 70. The Calgary team travelled one hundred and fifty miles to play the match and over one thousand people witnessed the contest, the majority without overcoats. I personally have not worn an overcoat for a week. I will send you a photograph taken during the game as soon as they are finished.

IRON ORE AND IRON BOUNTIES.

We have never considered the bounty system an ideal method for the encouragement of native industries and the development of national resources.

The Canadian bounty on lead bearing ores mined in Canada is paid to the producer provided the ores are smelted in this country.

The iron bounties do not work that way. They are paid to the owner of the industry which smelts the ore and produces the steel.

This matter was well presented to the tariff commission in Nova Scotia. It was shown there in the elaborate and instructive statement reprinted by the Sun that while the production of pig and more advanced iron and steel manufactures has greatly increased in ten years, through the development of the Sydney and North Sydney industries, the use of Nova Scotia ore has practically ceased.

The Regina recount between Mr. Bole and Mr. Laird, candidates for the Saskatchewan legislature, has been completed. It gives Mr. Bole, the government candidate, a majority of three.

THE PEARL POACHERS.

The development of ore beds in the Dominion of Canada. This is not altogether a Nova Scotia question. It is a considerably extended question. If, as is confidently stated, we have in this province valuable deposits of iron ore awaiting development, it seems reasonable to expect that a bounty on ore delivered to the smelter would assist and encourage the establishment of an important local industry.

THE CAMPBELL-BANNERMAN PROGRAMME.

A fortnight hence the new parliament of the United Kingdom will be organized, and the Campbell-Bannerman administration will be face to face with its legislative responsibilities.

But, perhaps, the most notable declaration by a minister is that of Mr. Lloyd-George, who plainly intimated that one of the first measures to be taken up would be the education act. The position of this minister, who can now hardly be regarded as speaking for himself alone, is set forth rather plainly: "He wanted to see this question settled once for all, and there was only one way of settling it. That was instead of having two systems warring against each other to their mutual destruction, to have one healthy, sane efficient system."

MEDICAL EXAMINER

Of the United States Treasury Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Prominent Physicians Endorse Pe-ru-na. DR. LLEWELLYN JORDAN, Medical Examiner of the U. S. Treasury Department, graduate of Columbia College, and who served three years at West Point, has the following to say of Peru-na:

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from your wonderful remedy. One short month has brought forth a vast change and I now consider myself a well man after months of suffering."

"Fellow sufferers, Peru-na will cure you."—Llewellyn Jordan.

Doctors have been loathe to endorse a cathartic remedy because catharsis and cathartic diseases have puzzled the medical fraternity for many decades.

The popular endorsement that Peru-na has received at the hands of the people have induced a great many doctors to try the remedy.

More prominent physicians use and endorse Peru-na each year. Dr. A. Morgan, 214 Gaier street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes:

"Regular physicians do not, as a rule, endorse cathartic medicines, have, however, found in my practice that Peru-na is a notable exception and not at all like any other medicine generally sold as a patent medicine."

"In examining it I find that it is a scientifically prepared medicine, composed of herbal remedies of high medicinal value."

"It is a specific for catarrh of the head, lungs or stomach, a fine remedy for female troubles, and invaluable to mothers and children."

"After fevers or other protracted illness, it is one of the best tonics I know of to restore the system to normal condition and I recommend it to convalescents."

"It is a high class family remedy, good for young and old."—A. Morgan.

Peru-na occupies a unique position in medical science. It is the only internal systemic cathartic remedy known to the medical profession to-day.

Robert R. Roberts, M. D., Washington, D. C., writes: "Through my own experience as well as that of many of my friends and acquaintances who have been cured or relieved of catarrh by the use of Hartman's Peru-na, I can confidently recommend it to those suffering from such disorders, and have no hesitation in prescribing it to my patients."—Robert R. Roberts.

Catharsis is a systemic disease curable only by systemic treatment. A remedy that cures catharsis must aim directly at the depressed nerve centers. This is what Peru-na does.

Peru-na immediately invigorates the nerve centers which give vitality to the mucous membranes. Then catharsis disappears. Then catharsis is permanently cured.

Pe-ru-na Contains No Narcotics. One reason why Peru-na has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Peru-na is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peru-na does not produce temporary results. It is permanent in its effect.

It has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catharsis by removing the cause of catharsis. There are a multitude of homes where Peru-na has been used off and on for twenty years. Such a thing could not be possible if Peru-na contained any drugs of a narcotic nature.
