The farmers on the line of railways from Dalhousie to Bathurst, and also on the other side of the bay, have, during the last two months exported large quantities of potatoes, chiefly to the States. The crop potatoes, chiefly to the States. The crop last fall was in these places far above the average, which made a large surplus. The comparative failure of the crop in the States has made a great demand for potatoes. The price has only been 85 cents per bbl., but still they will be high enough for the consumers, as besides the freight, there is 75 cents duty on each barrel.

The river driving has not yet commenced, but if the weather continues warm as at present there will be abundance of water for that purpose in a few days. A large freshet is expected as there is a great depth of snow still in the woods.

The Ice Slowly Movign

Last Tuesday afternoon, April 12, the ice began to break and show signs of moving. One or two persons crossed the river early Wednesday morning, and the same afternoon there was open water along the southern part of the river, the ice having melled very rapidly on account of the mild weather. This stretch of water steadily increased until Thursday and Friday, when the ice began to "run" very slowly.
