WARRANT DIVISION, TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
March 26, 1870.

SIR: I have the honor to inclose a letter from the honorable Secretary of State, asking an appropriation to pay the "awards under the Hudson's Bay and Puget Sound Agricultural Companies' treaty with her Britannic Majesty." I also send copy of a draught of an act making the necessary appropriation, which was prepared at the State Department.

The award referred to will be found on page 38 of the inclosed pamphlet.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, &c.,
GEO. S. BOUTWELL,
Secretary.

Hon. JAMES G. BLAINE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, March 24, 1870.

SIR: By the treaty entered into on the 1st day of July, 1863, between the United States and her Britannic Majesty, for the final settlement of the claims of the Hudson's Bay and Puget's Sound Agricultural Companies, it was stipulated that the sums which might be awarded by the commissioners under the treaty should be paid by the one government to the other in two equal annual installments, the first to be paid within twelve months and the second within twenty-four months after the date of the award.

The commissioners appointed under the treaty, by their award dated September 10, 1869, determined that there should be paid in gold coin by the United States the sum of $450,000 to the Hudson's Bay Company, and $200,000 to the Puget Sound Agricultural Company.

I beg to call the attention of the Treasury Department to the fact that the first installment of these awards will become payable, under the terms of the convention, on the 10th day of September next.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

HAMILTON FISH.

Hon. GEO. S. BOUTWELL,
Secretary of the Treasury.

AN ACT making an appropriation of money to carry into effect the treaty with Great Britain of July 1, 1863.

Whereas, by the treaty entered into on the first day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, between the United States and her Britannic Majesty, for the final settlement of the claims of the Hudson's Bay and Puget Sound Agricultural Companies, it was stipulated that the sums which might be owned by the commissioners under said treaty should be paid by the one government to the other in two equal annual installments, the first to be paid within twelve months, and the second within twenty-four months after the date of award, without interest. And whereas, the commissioners appointed under said treaty did, by their award dated September 10, 1869, determine that there should be paid in gold coin by the United States of America the sum of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars on account of the possessory rights and claims of the Hudson's Bay Company, and the sum of two hundred thousand dollars on account of the possessory rights and claims of the Puget Sound Agricultural Company: Therefore
