George A. Warburton, secretary of the Toronto Y. M. C. A., has lecided to shorten the campaign for $600,000 from three weeks to wo weeks. He has cut out the middle week, and the campaign will have only twelve working days.

This is the result of the favorable response of the business men of the city to the requests made by E. R. NO PATIENT EVER REFUSED

Statement as to Tuberculosis Patient's Plight is Denied,

J. S. Robertson, executive secretary of the two sanitariums at Muskoka, and the two near Weston, writes as follows:

The newspapers of to-da; (Saturday) report the case of a suit in the divi-sional court to sanction the payment of a sum of money out of court to Miss Agnes Sutton's relatives, to enable them to pay a board bill incurred with people who had turned her out because she was suffering from tuberculosis. The report goes on to say: "Where the unfortunate victim of the white plague was to go in view of the fact that no sanitarium would take her in ow-ing to the advanced stage of the disease, does not appear to have been considered."

Permit me to say that so far as the two sanitariums near Weston are concerned, namely the Toronto Free pital for Consumptives and the King Edward Sanitarium, these are established especially for patients in the advanced and far advanced stages of tuberculosis, and no applicant has ever been refused admission into either of these institutions because of the "advanced stage of the disease.' For nearly a year past, with the increased accommodation provided these two in-stitutions, patients in this class have been promptly admitted on application, whilst in the two sanitariums at Mus-koka, namely the Muskoka Cottage Sanitarium and the Muskoka Cottage Sanitarium and the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives — equal promptness has been exercised in the admission of patients in the incipient stages of the disease.

plete arrangements been made for the care of consumptives in all stages of the disease, as in the Province of Ontario.

coming fight with Jeffries. He is quoted as saying : "Of my fight with Burns, I can truth-fully say I never before entered the ring with a heart so full of malice. Mr. Burns H had said many unkind things about me, and in the ring that day I remembered them all. Every the I forced him to his corner I would ask him if he remembered when he had made some certain state-ment, and I followed it up with one of my best blows.

'Mr. Jeffries, too, has said many harsh things about me in return for the cour-tesy that I have always tried to show him. But I shall remember them al lon the day of the battle. April 24.—(Special).— The Cornwall lacrosse team. which hopes to land the championship of 1910. turned out for their first practice on Saturday afternoon. Over a score of players were in uniform, and of these it is rather prophetic to note that only three were seniors. Local comment on the street in the evening was rather optimistic. Senior players were ab-sent, whom the club cannot well dis-pense with, but the fine work of the juniors who were in harness came in for favorable comment. Cornwall's watchword is "It's time for a change." Last year's team—as a team—fell down badly, and the verdict of local public oplinion is, "Try the young fellows." Thickies Loca at Mamiltan

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 25, 1910. ONTARIO MARRIAGES AND

QUEBEC LAW One may read constantly in the English papers warnings addressed to young Englishwomen respecting the marriage law in France, where no marriage is legal without parental consent up to an age which sounds ridiculous to Britons. A similar warning may be kept standing in Canadian papers for the benefit of unwary daughters of Ontario who may not be aware of the dangers of a Quebec alliance. The experience of Miss Agnes Mary Gober, the principal of a dadies' college in Kingston, is a case in point. In 1904 she married W. Agnew, a Montreal man, who proved to be under age. and incapable of marrying, according to the law of Quebec, without the consent of his parents. Legal proceedings for the annulment of the marriage, which have been going on ever much their obligation may have been since, have resulted in Miss Gober finding herself without a husband, He truly said that in the great maaltho according to the law of Ontario jority of cases human rights and prothe marriage was validly effected. THE PASSENGER PIGEON.

The offer of $1000 for the discovery of a nest of the passenger pigeon appears to be more likely to defeat its purpose than to forward it, if all the discoveries have the result of one reported in Ontario. The conditions made by Dr. Clifton Hodge, Clark University, Worcester, Mass., are quite clear. On the discovery of a nest it is not to be disturbed, but to be reported at once to Dr. Hodge. MONDAY MORNING we meet to-day for the worship of God traditionally one of the most re nowned meeting places in the earth. Tradition has it that this is the same "upper room" which was owned by one friendly to our Lord and His disciples and who granted it as their meeting place on several oc-casions most intimately associated with the inauguration of Christianity. Tradition also has it that this is the room mentioned by St. Mark in ou text, where the disciples with the time to time found necessary. Here visitors come, look and depart, filled with a sacred awe, and have done so for centuries, and the inhabitants, each on his own business, have ignored this in a manner hardly imagnable by Europeans. It is possible therefore that tradition in this case and in other instances hereabouts, has located correctly, just as in Rome the prison in which Paul was confined is indicated by tradition with apparent accuracy.

We are favored not only in respect to the use of the room, but additionally in respect to the time of our visit and our use of it. This, according to Jewish reckoning, is the first day of perfect, upright, in the image and likeness of God. It was lost by sin and displaced by a spirit of devilish-ness. It will be the great work of that thousand years of Messiah's kingdom to lift mankind out of sin and selfish-ness and death and to restore the will-ing and obedient to all that was lost in Adam and redeemed by the merit of sacrifice at Calcary. With the close of the millennial kingdom, God shows us that all who will not have attained to the possession of His holy spirit will be destroyed in the second death. Then there shall be no more sighing, nor crying, nor dying, no more JERUSALEM, April 24 .- My friends, the feet and that He had said to her "I am not yet ascended to My Father; but go to My brethren and say unto them, I ascend unto My Father, and your Father; and to My God and your sighing, nor crying, nor dying, no more sin, no more sorrow, for all the former God" (John xx. 17). Jesus said to tell the disciples that He would meet them in Galilee, as He had said to them before. These bewildering experiences were merely leading gradually on, pre-paring the disciples for the fuller knowledge of the facts.

It was the same day (corresponding to to-morrow afternoon) that the Lord overtook two of the sorrowing disciples as they walked into the country to spend the night. Here again He would not shock them and overpower them by a vision of His glorious pres-und and a spend the source for the night in which our Lord with His of His own death with the loaf and with the cup traditionally in this same ence, such as smote down Saul of Tar-sus on his way to Damascus, "shining "upper room." Incidentally we remark above the brightness of the sun at that the early Christian church used "The Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1, 29): "Christ our Passover is slain, there-fore let us keep the feast" (I Corin-thians v, 7, 8). Tradition assures us that this is the same room mentioned in the Book of Acts (I, 13) as the place where the Apostles resided and assembled for worship during the ten days following the Lord's ascension—the same "upper room," therefore, in which was mani-fested the acceptance of all the con-secrated followers of Jesus into Cove-nant relationship with God as "mem-bers of the Body of Christ, which is the church." Of course, our permis-sion to use this room for a public ser-vice to-day was obtained only by pre-arrangement with those having it in charge. True, traditions are not al-ways reliable. Surely, in almost every ways reliable. Surely, in almost every the slaughter," must be the sin-offer-ing, must be despised and rejected of men, must be lifted up on the cross as consecration vows that we will be in-cluded by our glorious Lord amongst those who shall be counted worthy to share also His cup of joy and glory-participation in His millennial king-dom and His glorious work of blessing all the families of the courth honor and immortality of His great sta-tion as Prophet, Priest, Mediator, King, the antitype of Melchizedek, for the fulfilment to Israel and the world of all of God's great promises. all the families of the earth.

Gifted Young Entertainers. The bevy of children entertainers were unusually clever, and it would be difficult to over-estimate the value of the painstaking efforts of Mrs. Marguerite Walsh, who directed their portion of the evening's program. Norma Henderson, a dainty miss of tender years, but with all the confidence of experience; proved herself a gifted elocutionist in a pathetic little recitation, and Edith Walsh's "Ho-sanna" was rendered with rare sweetness and expression. Leonard Smith, a flaxen-haired mite, looked spiritual in a snowy surplice, and his rendition of the fadeless "Holy City" in clear, childish treble fairly took the audchildish treble fairly took the aud-ience by storm. Douglas Ludiow, an older lad, but unmistakabiv a juvenile, recited "Discontent," verse with its inspiration in a garden and with a wholesome moral. Not the least feature was the quartet rendering of "The Lost Chord" by Mabel Young, Helen Yellowlees, Jack Alexander and Leon-ard Smith, and at the conclusion familiar as ter and taught them squareness and Douglas Stanbury, familiar as a vocalist, sang "Lead Me All the, Way" with admirable feeling.

"Scotland's Share in Civilizing the World" BY REV. CANON MACKENZIE

THIS book gives the reader an increased idea of how, much civilization owes to the Scotch. You never would grasp the extent of it unless the facts were marshalled before you as in this book !

Discoveries, improvements, inventions, great works, great victories and great feats-their Scotch authors are legion. The average Scotchman is taller, weighs more, and his brain weighs more than the average of other nations-so we learn from this volume-and in view of Scotch performances the reader will be inclined to believe it.

This book was published at $1.00. Our price 25c.
