ELECTION APPEAL AGAINST FERGUSON OPENS IN PRESCOTT

Minister Buys Supporters a Meal—Man Paid Seven Dollars to Seek Votes.

ARE COUNTER-CHARGES

Prescott, Ont., Sept. 13.—By Canadian Press.—Almen Cook, Spencer-ville hotelkeeper, paid Mrs. Kathleen Bellinger two dollars after she had told him she voted for G. Arthur Payne, U.F.O. defeated candidate in South Grenville, who was a supporter of Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, who was elected; Hon. G. H. Ferguson paid for the dinners of those attending the convention at Spencer-ville on Oct. 6, 1919; John Boyd, Merrickville, paid five dollars to one Levine Matte on election day, 1919, but claimed that this was to liquidate a debt incurred three or four years before, and he also paid seven dollars to a young man named Roche to drive some 40 miles and ask a number of Liberal voters to vote for Ferguson since there was no Liberal candidate in the field. These facts were brought out in the hearing here today of the election appeal against Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, almost the only member of Sir William Hearst's cabinet re-elected in October, 1919.

Hearst by Two Judges. Judges Sutherland and Magee of the supreme court of Ontario are hearing the appeal and counter-charges. Counsel taking part include W. N. Tilley, K.C., W. H. Price, M.L.A., and H. A. Stewart for respondent, and Gordon Waldron of Toronto for the defeated candidate, G. Arthur Payne. The charges are very numerous and counter-charges plentiful. Something like two hundred witnesses, including many women voters, have been subpoenaed and the witnesses in themselves provide quite a large audience to follow the proceedings. The case seems likely to last all week. Proceedings are delayed today by non-arrival of the judges whose train was late, and it was 4.30 in the afternoon when they arrived here. GOVERNOR FAILS TO END STRIKE IN BROOKLYN

New York, Sept. 13.—Governor Smith announced tonight, after conferences with representatives of striking Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company employes and with Federal Judge Mayer, legal custodian of the company, that his efforts to bring about a settlement of the strike had failed. Another surface line was opened tonight, making five miles in all-night operation. Company officials reported operation of 189 elevated and subway trains and 737 trolley cars during the rush hour today. Services on the River bridges was reported as nearly normal.

FAIR EXAMPLE OF SINN FEIN LOGIC

Doctors Attending Cork Starvers Threatened With Death If They Die.

Cork, Sept. 13.—Both the doctors who are attending the hunger strikers in jail here have received death threats. Dr. Battiscombe showed the correspondent the following notification addressed to him on September 8 of an official looking letter head, bearing at the top a Gaelic inscription, which the doctor was unable to translate.

"You have now taken on yourself the responsibility for the lives or death of eleven men on hunger strike in the Cork jail—responsibility which four doctors have already refused to accept. You are hereby notified that should any of these men die in jail, or after their release as a result of this hunger strike, we will hold you guilty of a crime punishable by death under the laws of the Irish Republic.

"It will not do for the Dublin Castle authorities to say that the responsibility is solely theirs. "While you attend these men the responsibility is yours, and if any of them die the punishment will also be yours. (Sgd.) Cork, No. 1 Brigade, Irish "Republican Army."

BOTH MILK AND COWS ARE KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Belleville, Ont., Sept. 13.—(Special.)—Marcus Carnrite, a young farmer of Ameliasburg township, was last evening engaged in milking cows when a bolt of lightning struck the barn, killing Carnrite and setting fire to the barn. The building with the season's crops was destroyed and two cows burned to death. The barn of Mr. Murney Hagerman, of Rawson township, was burned to the ground last night; also the drive-house and a shed attached. Lightning struck the barn, causing the fire. The loss, amounting to about $5,000, was partially covered by insurance.

FACTORIES IN ITALY ARE LIKE SMALL FORTS MEN ARE WELL ARMED

Transport Workers Allow No Movement of Troops—Socialist and Anarchist Flags Float Side by Side—Government Appears to Be Helpless.

Paris, Sept. 13.—Travelers arriving today from Italy describe the seizure of the metal works by workmen as possessing odd features. Flagstaffs on the principal plant bear two flags—red for the Socialists and black for the anarchists. Many private houses display red flags, especially in Milan, according to the reports. Government troops guard the banks, but do not interfere with the occupation of the works. Transport workers allow no movement of government troops from one part of Italy to another. The ministry of war at Rome recently endeavored to send some regiments to northern Italy, but the trainmen refused to move them.

The Italian government has informed the Manufacturers Association that it does not wish to employ troops in clearing the factories, but that a far better course is for the employers to negotiate a compromise with the workmen's committee. The employers have agreed for the present not to near their own works, so as not to expose themselves to forcible exclusion.

Shop committees at first required the workmen to be on duty sixteen hours a day—eight hours for work and eight hours for guard duty. Owing to protests, however, they have reduced the hours of duty to twelve daily. Workmen in all factories are obliged to give a certain amount of time to military drill. They are also well supplied with small arms and some have machine guns.

Making Machine Guns. One factory in the possession of the workmen is turning out a regular daily output of machine guns for distribution. The works now running are using up raw materials on hand, and the finished products are being stored as they have no sales organization. (Continued on Page 4, Column 5).

ANTHRACITE MINERS TO RETURN TO WORK

Will Renew Request to Wilson to Reopen the Wage Award.

Hazleton, Penna., Sept. 13.—The "vacation" strike in the anthracite coal region will be brought to an end within the next few days by the adoption of a policy providing for the ordering of the work of the miners, and the renewal of the request upon President Wilson for the reopening of the award of the presidential wage commission, officials of the mine workers' union predicted here tonight. They declared that this action could be taken without affecting the "dignity and honor" of the mine workers' organization.

TWO PREMIERS AGREED ON POST-WAR PROBLEMS

Millerand and Giolitti Issue Joint Declaration—New Treaties Must Remain Cornerstone of International Relations.

Aix-les-Bains, France, Sept. 13.—The joint official declaration issued this evening by Premiers Millerand and Giolitti at the conclusion of the two days' meeting of the premiers says: "The Italian and French premiers have exchanged their views in a most confident and amiable spirit concerning the European situation, as well as the political and economic relations between France and Italy. They are happy to note the general community of interests of the two countries, interests which can easily be reconciled. The premiers have resolved to study in full accord a solution of the grave problems growing out of the war, and, up to the present, incompletely solved by peace. The essential interests of the two countries, in that respect, remain general pacification along equitable conditions in respect to every nation's independence and the restoration of normal economic relations free from all idea of exclusive domination, either political or economic. "M. Millerand and Giolitti recognize that the fundamental basis of such a peace, which, in order to be lasting, must be just, is a close entente of the allies in the world, especially in Europe of England, Italy and France. The restoration of political and moral order is founded upon the application equitably and sincerely of the great treaties which, terminated the war, as well as those which remain to be concluded, in order to assure definitely European peace. "These treaties are jointly binding, they must remain in the cornerstone of new international relations. The victors must bring into them the spirit of kindly moderation, the vanquished, the spirit of unrestricted loyalty. "The execution of the treaty of Versailles, which is vital necessity for France, and scrupulous respect for the engagements taken, are essential conditions for the acceptance of nations to the concert of nations. In order to attain this result it is necessary to put an immediate end to such wars as which brought together the Russians and Poles and also the hostilities which

IS NO BLUFFING ON EITHER SIDE IN MACSWINEY CASE

Government Has No Intention of Releasing Him at Eleventh Hour.

CLAIM HE HAS NO PAIN

London, Sept. 13.—Assurances that there is no element of bluffing in the respective attitudes of the British government and the Irish Nationalists, relative to the MacSwiney case, were obtained from responsible sources of each faction by the Associated Press this afternoon.

"If the Sinn Feiners think we are biding our time and will capitulate when MacSwiney's condition requires eleventh-hour action in order to save his life, they are mistaken." This characterizes the British official view, as expressed to the correspondent. "There can be no question about our desire or intention of having Lord Mayor MacSwiney recede from the tragic stand he has taken," declared an official at the London headquarters of the Irish Nationalist organization. "If he is not released voluntarily by the government, he will most certainly go down in history as the first Irish hunger striker to perish in an English prison."

MILITARY SEARCH FOR ARMS IN BELFAST UNIONIST HOMES

Activities Take a New Turn and Quarters Are Thoroughly Combed—Troops With Fixed Bayonets Block Streets.

Belfast, Sept. 13.—The activities of the military took a new turn today when they made a house-to-house search for arms in the Unionist quarters of Londonderry. Fountain street, Wrapping lane and the small streets abutting them, right in the heart of the Unionist section of the town, were visited. The search occupied the whole of the afternoon. Troops with fixed bayonets blocked the entrance to the streets. The Republicans have been busy in other places. The Fanad Head coast guard station, at the entrance to Lough Swilly, was burned Saturday night. This morning a mail train, bound from Malloy to Tralee, was held up at Gortalea and all the Dublin and Cork mail was seized.

REPUBLICAN CHOSEN AS MAINE GOVERNOR BY A BIG MAJORITY

State Campaign Was Fought Out Almost Wholly on National Lines.

WOMAN VOTE HEAVY

Portland, Me., Sept. 13.—A large majority for Frederick H. Parkhurst, Republican nominee for governor, over his Democratic opponent, Bertrand G. McIntire, was shown in returns from over half of the state tonight. The total Republican vote in 478 election precincts out of 632 in the state showed an increase of more than 41,000 over that of 1916, the last presidential year, while the Democratic increased by a little more than 200.

Early returns from the four congressional districts contests showed Congressman Wallace H. White, jr., John A. Peters and Ira G. Hersey, Republicans, re-elected by large majorities. Carroll L. Beedy, Republican, was elected to congress from the fourth district, where Congressman Louis E. Goodell was not a candidate for re-election.

The large increase in the total vote was attributed chiefly to the fact that women voted today for the first time and came out in large numbers, in spite of a heavy rain through the state in the afternoon.

The state campaign was fought out almost wholly on national lines. Both parties sent into the state many of their leaders, including the two candidates for vice-president, Governor Calvin Coolidge for the Republicans and Franklin D. Roosevelt for the Democrats.

The chief issue which all these speakers emphasized was the league of nations, the Republicans urging rejection of the league covenant, unless accompanied by strong reservations, and the Democrats advocating ratification without reservations which would change its terms.

LOSE HALF MILLION BY NIAGARA STORM

Huge Money Loss Thru Fall of Hail in Part of the Fruit Belt.

St. Catharines, Sept. 13.—(Canadian Press.)—Altho several hundred thousand bushels of fruit were rendered unfit for shipment by Saturday's storm the crop is so abnormally heavy that there will be plenty for the markets. Individual growers will suffer losses estimated to total $400,000.

The great majority of the growers in the fruit belt were not in the path of the storm. Their crops are so large that it is doubtful if there will be any loss in price. The storm will, however, give the growers untouched by the storm a better chance to market the most of their crops. As an example of how complete was the devastation of some farms, W. H. Bunting, who was fortunate enough to have a supply of baskets on hand, disposed of his entire stock today, having no further use for them.

Addressing Trades Congress Declares Government Will Support Body as Long as It Aids in Keeping Canadian Industrial Conditions Stable.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 13.—(By Canadian Press.)—The feature of the opening day of the thirty-sixth annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada was an address at the afternoon session by Hon. Arthur Meighen, premier of Canada, who arrived on a train from the east considerably behind schedule, and was unable to reach the armories, where the convention is sitting, until almost 3.30. The convention opened formally shortly before 11 o'clock, at an address of welcome by J. F. Clacy, president of the local Trades and Labor Congress; Mayor E. B. Winter of Windsor, Walter McGregor, representing the Border Cities Board of Commerce; W. C. Kennedy, M.P., and Hon. Walter Rollo, minister of labor and health for Ontario, the address of the latter being the feature of the forenoon session.

The congress had gotten started on the report of the resolutions committee, shortly, when four red-coated mounted policemen came unobtrusively through the main entrance to the convention hall, followed by a detachment of city police, and arranged themselves along the back of the hall, and President Tom Moore requested the permission of the delegates to interrupt the proceedings in order that they might hear the premier of Canada speak. Mr. Meighen introduced the premier, telling the delegates that should Mr. Meighen feel it his duty to speak, things with which they were not in harmony, it was their duty to give him an attentive hearing.

Mr. Meighen was given an ovation as he rose to speak and an attentive hearing, through his address. After briefly reviewing the history of organized labor on this continent, he introduced the premier, the best way to get results tending to the improvement of the lot of the wage-earner was by a steady determined movement in those lines that have already brought results.

A National Institution. This congress represents organized labor—not all, but a large portion of it—and it is a national institution. Organizations as a national institution have existed as going concerns for (Continued on Page 2, Column 4).

COURT OF INQUIRY ON CORK PRISONERS

Evidence Presented on Behalf of Several of Hunger Strikers.

Cork, Sept. 13.—(By the A.P.)—A special court of inquiry was held here today to hear evidence in behalf of the hunger strikers now in Cork Jail, which Harold Barry, former high sheriff of Cork, had advised Premier Lloyd George could introduce to prove the innocence of at least two of the men—Sean Hennessy and Jos. Murphy.

President Nolan, of Ballinacorney college, where Hennessy was a student, is expected here to testify for Hennessy. Evidence was given tending to contradict the government's accusation that Murphy and in his possession a live bomb when he was arrested on July 15, but the lawyer for the defence said that he had not had sufficient time to secure witnesses to contravert the additional charge that Murphy also had in his possession a live bomb. The elder Murphy, however, denied that his son had any such documents when searched by the military.

The inquiry was adjourned after a two-hour sitting to await the arrival in Cork of various witnesses. Callaghan O'Herlihy, a student, testified in behalf of Hennessy, but a promised affidavit from another student witness, a friend of Hennessy, was not available, as he refused to go on with it when he learned that Barry intended to present it to the commission.

On behalf of Murphy, his father testified that the bomb in question had been given to his son at the Aghada airbase, and that he had brought it home as a souvenir.

Frank Merritt, a demobilized British soldier, testified that it was he who gave Murphy the practice shell, minus the detonator, which Murphy had picked up at the Aghada airbase in 1916. A bomb introduced by the court-martial prosecutor from another student in Murphy's possession was declared by both Merritt and the elder Murphy not to be the souvenir bomb given to Joseph by Merritt and taken by the military in the raid on the Murphy house.

TWO PREMIERS IN AGREEMENT

The Turkish nationalists and the Committee of Union and Progress have agreed to the application of the peace treaty signed with Turkey.

Upon these two points the Italian and French premiers have exchanged their ideas and reached a perfect agreement.

The liberty and independence of Poland is guaranteed and the frontiers are along the ethnographic frontiers. They are convinced that the nations in the peace terms which will offer much moderation in victory as well as in the respect for the national independence as it has shown resolution and courage in defending its liberty.

The document then says that the preliminary views regarding Turkey are quite in accord, but thinks that the most important problems remaining to be solved are the Russian and Adriatic questions, and continues:

"The Italian and French governments, with respect to freedom of action concerning the soviet government are agreed in the desire that they be created in the Russian state conditions which will allow the country to enter into the concert of nations and resume economic relations, which are as necessary to Russia's very life as to the rest of the world."

The declaration adds that France will give in advance full assistance to any settlement of the Adriatic question between the interested governments, which, particularly in the case of Italy, will be the safeguarding Italy's legitimate aspirations could be just to all the interested parties.

Recognition of Soviets. France and Italy reserve the right to recognize the soviet or not. Premier Giolitti informed the Associated Press that he had given the official communication to the cabinet. Giolitti said that he does not wish to recognize the soviet. Our freedom of action is general reserve, whether concerning political or commercial relations.

Germany shall be admitted to the league of nations who shows willingness to execute the treaty of Versailles. Whether the date be distant or not lies entirely with Germany, according to the result of my meeting with Millerand and the continuation of the close relations between Italy and France, which existed during the war.

There is no reason why Italy, France and Great Britain, which fought side by side for years, should not be in accord with each other. On the question of Fiume, Signor Giolitti said that it must be settled direct with Jugo-Slavia, adding: "Italy desires to come to an agreement; Italy is disposed to compromise up to a certain point, as is the custom in contracts all over the world."

TO SECURE PULP FROM LABRADOR

New Paper Company Forms to Tap and Use Huge Resources.

Montreal, Sept. 13.—Major Daniel Owen, of Annapolis, N.S., who accompanied the planes and flying boat which about a year ago visited Labrador, interviewed here today stated that 15,000 aerial photographs of the country had been taken and elaborated estimates of the 2,500 square miles of the country made. The expedition found that behind the twenty miles of coast line there lay one of the most unexplored forested regions in Canada. In consequence of this exploration, Major Owen said that the paper company has been organized, the Southern Labrador Pulp and Paper Company, in which United States capital has been interested with the idea of installing a pulp mill with four sawmill units of 50,000 feet per day capacity, and will begin operations in the district next year. James Munroe, president of the Canadian Cordage Company, and director of the Imperial Tobacco Company of Newfoundland, is a member of the new company.

Joffe has arrived at Riga and is quartered in the Hotel Saint Petersburg, where a number of short-haired women secretaries and typists are unpacking sealed boxes and shaping up the offices, preparatory to the negotiations, which it is expected will not begin before Sept. 16 or 17, because of the delay in the arrival of the Poles.

MACBRIDE CAUSTIC IN SCORING DRURY

Says Latter Has Different Policy for Hydro and Sir Wm. Mackenzie.

Brantford, Sept. 13.—(Special.)—Mayor MacBride commented today on the Hydro radial issue as follows: "When the Hydro Commission were about to acquire a portion of the Dominion government railways east of Toronto to connect up the Hydro radial system and avoid duplication, the Drury government said it was necessary to appoint a royal commission to enquire into the matter. Mr. Hanna's offer was to sell to the Hydro 'at the actual cost of construction,' which would be about half what the cost would now be. However, when Sir William Mackenzie wants to sell his power interests at Niagara, Mr. Drury says 'The government will probably give its endorsement, provided the price is right.'"

Secret of Labor's Power. "The consistency of purpose with which organized labor has adhered to almost all these subjects is one of the secrets of its power," said Samuel Gompers was first elected president of the A.F. of L. in 1886, that body had about 150,000 members. He is now over 3,000,000.

Claims Inconsistency. "If the government can form its own policy in the matter, why can't the same government not form its own policy in the other matters? Why a royal commission, when the people are concerned and no royal commission when it is Sir William Mackenzie who has 'something to sell.' Seems to me I have heard of Sir William Mackenzie and Sir Donaid Mann somewhere before." Bill and Dan have usually managed to get "government bond guarantees" and government support of one kind and another. Mr. Drury is assuredly getting into good company.

Spanish Farmers to Support Duke of Wellington's Tenants

Grenada, Spain, Sept. 13.—Six thousand farmers gathered here yesterday to support the tenants of the Duke of Wellington in their protest against the action of the duke's steward in ejecting them from farms which had been in the possession of their families for centuries. A resolution was adopted to be sent to the duke informing him that the action of his steward meant ruin to the inhabitants of 20 villages and a large number of families who had formed a society for the protection of their interests.

Another resolution proposed that the duke should renounce the property rights granted his family by the Cortes of Cadiz after the peninsula was won in 1808-1814, and that the government should acquire the property by redemption.

BRITISH MINERS DEMAND CONDEMNED BY LEADER

London, Sept. 13.—The most arresting fact in the coal strike situation is the number of British miners' demand for a reduction in coal prices by Thomas Spencer, one of their own leaders.

Another speaker argued that enough profits were being made by the owners, but official figures show that in the quarter ending last June only £180,000,000 worth of coal was produced, a total was only eight million pounds sterling.

DRASTIC MEASURES BAD, SAYS MEIGHEN

Their principles were summarized in 1881 at the first convention of the Federation of organized labor of the United States and Canada, which met in Pittsburgh in that year. They were stated as follows:

"Legal incorporation, prohibition of child labor, uniform apprenticeship laws, a national eight-hour law, labor reform, abolition of the truck system, mechanics' lien abolition of conscription, and the right to labor organizations, a national bureau of labor statistics, a protective tariff, and the right of the union to secure proper representation in all law-making bodies by means of the ballot."

Stability a Vital Need. "Workers who are anxious to advance their own interests cannot afford to ally themselves either industrially or politically with those forces which seek to introduce into Canada policies and laws that have brought destruction, misery and death wherever they have prevailed. The government of this country has steadily set its face against these influences abroad in this and other lands that aim to destroy respect for constitutional law, the rights of property, liberty, property rights and family relations. The government of Canada does not intend that labor organizations should be established and reasonably well commanded and receive its friendly co-operation and assistance in the work of carrying out the respect of the public. The government's duty is to protect the whole community against dictation from any section, whether of employers or employees.

Political Motion is Snag. Previous to the arrival of the prime minister and after his departure, the report of the committee on resolutions was taken up and fifteen of the 85 were considered in with little controversy, but at adjournment for the day the committee discussion was progressing over one from the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators of America, Local No. 200, of Ottawa, which stated that "whereas the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada has been organized for the purpose of representing labor; and whereas it has been the custom to interview the powers that be in the position of begging, but in hand, to enact legislation; and whereas congress has grown to manhood and self-respect, therefore be it resolved that the congress to be placed on the statute books and eliminate the begging cap in hand function which has been deleted and Mr. Draper, secretary-treasurer, strongly endorsed the action of the committee as being the best and most effective course to be pursued.

Communicative Mistake. "In the first place, we could never as a nation hold up our end and hold a place all in the name of the individual, except by relying upon individual energy, individual effort, and individual reward. If there are any in this country who are willing to stand up for the principle of individualism, they must be prepared to stand up for their theories, and their theories in their experience in Europe. Where the so-called theory of production for the masses has been put in practice, it has resulted practically in no production at all, and has ended in chaos and starvation."

Thirdly, there is a wide disparity between the industry and ability and especially between the good judgment of individuals—a disparity which no claim of public ownership can ever bridge. Thirdly, the intervening territory between rich and poor is covered in this young country with a multitude of small enterprises, the majority of our people. Nowhere in the world is there so large a proportion of those who are neither rich nor poor as in this country. Those who stand the happiest ground of all, the middle ground of moderate means and comfortable living, are being driven to the bottom of the social ladder.

What Government Has Done. "You ask me now what has the government done to show its good faith in the matter of the labor problem that we have accomplished and I will have to do so rapidly as only a few moments of my time remain. I have taken from the ranks of organized labor a vice-president of one of its largest organizations and has given him cabinet rank. Never has any minister in Canada been accorded a more generous confidence from his colleagues and a free hand in the administration of the labor problem than has Senator Gideon Robertson.

Robertson's Policy. "Senator Robertson's policy has been to work in co-operation with responsible labor organizations, and with organizations of employers as well. The government, on his advice, has had labor organizations, a number likely to be sixteen boards or commissions performing public service. This was done at the request of organized labor, and on the whole, it has produced good results. Growing out of a conference with employees and employers in 1918, a scheme of technical education was evolved, and $10,000,000 was applied.

"As a further result of this conference, the government decided in 1918 that the time had come when the system of private employment agencies should give place to a government system, operating on a much wider interprovincial scale.

Between the first of March, 1919, and the first of August, 1920, 551,817 men and women were placed in employment through the government offices and all without charge to themselves. Magna Charta of Labor. "I want to mention another fact that has been going on since the league of nations was constituted, the Canadian representation included a representative of labor. The secretary of this congress went as a delegate to the prime minister, and it is information to this audience when I say that the Canadian prime minister, assisted materially by Mr. Draper, the labor conventions were finally inserted in the program of that conference and a real and useful step was taken to-

WARD THE RECOGNITION BY THE GREAT NATIONS OF THE WORLD OF WHAT IS NOW CALLED THE MAGNA CHARTA OF LABOR

To the terms of that labor convention this government and the other governments joining in the convention are bound. You know what those terms are. You know they are cardinal principles of organized labor. The only way in which advance can be made toward their adoption is by the concurrent progress of great industrial nations along the lines set down.

Equality of Opportunity. "One word more and I am done. No government can bring about equality of opportunity without bringing disaster to all, but the aim of government should be to bring about equality of opportunity. By the principle of equality of opportunity the present government will steadily abide.

"Credit is the basis of industry and commerce and the credit of a country and of its industries is maintained in proportion to the security of property, which is the reward of industry. Capital we need in Canada and the more capital will come if we have comparatively important to ourselves and, therefore, vitally important to themselves and to the nation.

Stability a Vital Need. "Workers who are anxious to advance their own interests cannot afford to ally themselves either industrially or politically with those forces which seek to introduce into Canada policies and laws that have brought destruction, misery and death wherever they have prevailed. The government of this country has steadily set its face against these influences abroad in this and other lands that aim to destroy respect for constitutional law, the rights of property, liberty, property rights and family relations. ADRIFT FIVE DAYS IN AN OPEN BOAT

Fisherman Lost His Vessel and Was Without Any Food.

Halifax, Sept. 13.—"It is all in a fisherman's life," said Fred Wilson of Wakefield, Mass., tonight regarding the five days he spent on the Atlantic in a dory, during which time he drifted and rowed about 70 miles and was picked up by one of the life-saving crews on Sable Island. Wilson was brought here by the Lady Laurier when she returned from Sable Island and leaves for his home tomorrow morning.

as a municipal undertaking was first considered by the municipalities. "The view of the present government in reference to Hydro radial has been a great discouragement to Mr. Lyon, in addition to which you have probably noticed there has been some criticism as to the small city of Guelph being the headquarters of the Hydro-Electric radial movement, and neither Mr. Lyon, myself nor any of the other Guelph men who have been active in Hydro work for such a long time would care to be placed in a position where he has not the unanimous support and entire confidence of the members of the association.

"I am advising you thus fully in order that you may have ample time to give the matter careful attention and consideration, and elect officers who will be able to continue to a successful conclusion the work carried on for the past number of years."

Faithful Efforts. When the Railway Association was formed, Mr. Lyon was elected president, which office he has held continuously, and the work that he has done needs no praise from me, as it speaks for itself.

Meets With Opposition. That Mr. Lyon's intention to resign the office which he has so long and ably filled will not meet with the approval of the executive is evidenced in the tone of the replies to his letter received by Mr. Hannigan today. The first two answers came from Mayor Church of Toronto and W. B. Burgoyne of St. Catharines, and both emphatically declared that Mr. Lyon must be prevailed upon to retain his office.

It is the duty of the hour for both Mr. Lyon and Mr. Hannigan to carry on, writes Mayor Church, after he expresses the opinion that the whole Hydro situation was never more critical than at the present time, when the enemies of public ownership were springing no effort to defeat the people's project. Mr. Burgoyne expresses regret that Mr. Lyon contemplates resignation, and states that the association will make a big mistake if his resignation is accepted.

EMPIRE DAUGHTERS FOR CO-OPERATION

Gratification at Bursary Winners About to Enter University.

The September meeting of the national executive of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire was characterized by a display of enthusiastic and sympathetic co-operation which augurs well for the indentations of the order during the coming year. So great was the volume of business demanding the attention of the executive that their deliberations extended into a period of nearly three days.

The national president, Miss Arnold, occupied the chair, and among those present were: Mrs. Graham Thompson, Mrs. MacMurchy, Mrs. MacDougall, Mrs. McLeod, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. J. A. Stewart, Perth; Miss Laing, Lady Kingsmill, Ottawa; Mrs. Burkholder, Hamilton; Mrs. Balfour, Regina; Mrs. Flinnis, Quebec; Miss Bolter, Mrs. Edwards, Hamilton; Miss Gordon, Kingston; Mrs. Kieley, Mrs. E. Brown Smith, London; Miss McIntosh, Mrs. Wise, Mrs. Mulock, St. Catharines; Mrs. Holmsted, Mrs. Rutter and Mrs. Hill.

Hon. Justice Oslar, president of the Canadian branch of the St. John Ambulance Association, and Fred Cook, chairman of the general executive, addressed the meeting, bespeaking the sympathy and assistance of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire in their work.

Miss Bolter, regent of the Sherbourne House Chapter, was appointed to represent the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire on the child welfare section of the Canadian public health association.

The two outstanding features of the meeting were, first, the response received from the provincial presidents of the order to a letter which had been sent them by the national president, asking for their views as to the best means of disseminating the national patriotic educational propaganda of the order in their particular provinces; and of rousing patriotic feeling generally throughout the Dominion.

War Memorial Bursaries. The provincial president of Ontario, Mrs. Burkholder, was personally able to speak for her province, and what was a source of satisfaction to the officers and executive was that Mrs. Balfour, provincial president of Saskatchewan, had journeyed to attend the meeting and advise as to the feeling and needs of her province in the field, and hear fully the ideas promulgated by the discussion.

The second especially notable feature of the meeting was the enthusiastic reception of the report of Miss Laing, national educational secretary, as the war memorial bursaries in Canadian universities. All that Miss Laing told of the personnel of the successful candidates for these scholarships was of so satisfactory a nature that this part of the national war memorial of the Empire was now in tangible working order, and that in each province a son or daughter of one of our Canadian heroes who has given his life for the empire was about to embark upon a university career was the cause of heartfelt rejoicing.

GOOD CANCER CLINIC RESULTS.

Reports of patients at St. Michael's Hospital who came in for cancer treatment on stretchers and were able to walk out, speaks well for the treatment introduced by Dr. Glover. Of the sixty-five who were under treatment a few weeks since, only nine remain in the hospital.

ENGLISH GIRLS FOR TORONTO.

The party of English girls who arrived on the Megantic at Quebec on Saturday night, twenty-eight came on to Toronto and on their arrival were taken to the Howland Hotel, Charlton street until they rested from the fatigues of their journey. The probability is that most of the party will remain in Toronto.

FOR RESTAURANT PROBE.

The police commission, at their meeting tomorrow, will hear evidence on the question of licenses in local restaurants. The report of Dr. Hastings, on his investigation, will be submitted to the board.

DIVIDED OPINIONS.

A rather small meeting of South Toronto G.A.U. last night, at the Howland Hotel, passed a resolution protesting against the resolution of the Army and Navy Veterans which endorsed the present government and opposed a general election at the present juncture.

SCROLL OF V.C. HEROES.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips.

The president and officers of the War Service Memorial Club have issued invitations to the formal opening by Sir John Eaton on Thursday from 4 to 6 o'clock at 21 East Gerrard street.

Mrs. Paten and Mrs. Paten (formerly Miss Smart), who have been living Devonshire for some time, are about to sail for South Africa, where they will stay for two or three years.

Mrs. Shortt, Hamilton, Bermuda, who is staying with Mrs. Lawrence Boyd, has been the recipient of many small showers and various teas are being given in her honor.

Mrs. J. A. Roberts, who will sail at her marriage on Saturday to Mr. Norman Jarvis, is giving a shower today. Mrs. Wallace Hillwell and her children, Montreal, are also with Mrs. Boyd for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Irish and Miss Lillian Irish are leaving at the end of the week for Lake Placid.

There was a very large gallery at the tennis club yesterday for the first day of the tournament. Some of the players who are in town for the event are the Misses Creswell and Boyd, Barrie, and Miss Chalmers, Ottawa; Mrs. J. A. Stewart, Perth; Mrs. Burkholder, Hamilton; Mrs. Balfour, Regina; Mrs. Flinnis, Quebec; Miss Bolter, Mrs. Edwards, Hamilton; Miss Gordon, Kingston; Mrs. Kieley, Mrs. E. WOMAN DISCUSSES BEAUTY ADJUNCTS

Attention to Hygienic Details—Harmony of Dress With Personality.

"Rejuvenate the body, then dress it," was the advice of Mrs. Josephine Blair, an interesting visitor to Toronto, in the first of a series of lectures which she will give daily at the Murray-Kay store during this week.

Carrying out her advice, Mrs. Blair yesterday afternoon gave a demonstration of graceful and effective calisthenics, resembling in a measure the aesthetic dances which gave to the Greeks of old the poise and beauty which have never been eclipsed.

What can be attained by attention to hygienic details and by the employment of the modern adjuncts to beauty, and thru the harmony of dress with the personality of the wearer, will be illustrated in the course of the talks which Mrs. Blair gives in an easy and entertaining way.

Among the subjects that come into these talks are: "Exercising and Dancing for Health," "The House We Live In," "Marriage and Beauty," "Dressing for Beauty," and things affecting the decoration of the home and the history of the fabrics and textiles which must be chosen in buying material upon which women spend thought and money.

Mrs. Blair, whose parents were from Cornwall and Glenora, has been professor and director of domestic art in the University of Minnesota for the past twenty years. She has also lectured outside this scholastic environment and has traveled and lectured a good deal in Canada. Her lectures, which will be given daily at Murray-Kay's from three until four o'clock are sure to attract large and interested audiences.

TRIAL OF ISSUE IN TAG DAY DISPUTE.

A trial of the issue between Walter John Lakeman and the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada, Alan J. McCausland, E. A. Lestrangle and Malcolm Coulman, has been directed by an order issued yesterday at Osgoode Hall. The points in dispute are as to whether there is justification for the payment of the $1000 to the Ladies' Auxiliary for the proceeds of the tag day of March 25 last; and whether $600 should have been paid to Philip Daniels, and as to whether any money may be paid out except for ENGLISH ESSENTIAL TO NATURALIZATION.

That foreigners will require to have a working knowledge of English before they will be supplied with naturalization papers, Canada's immigration officials brought home to three foreigners yesterday by Judge Denton. Three out of eight applicants were refused on the grounds that they were not sufficiently proficient in a knowledge of the language of the country of their adoption.

VETERANS MAKE FRESH DEMAND FOR GRATUITIES

Depreciated Dollar and High Living Costs Are Cited as Reasons.

Central G.W.V.A. at a very large meeting, held last night at Columbus Hall, Sherbourne and Linden streets, unanimously passed a resolution calling for a special meeting of representatives of each branch in Toronto to consider ways and means of reopening the whole gratuity question with a view to presenting new arguments in favor of granting a straight bonus to ex-service men, not on the basis of service rendered, but on the grounds that the value of the dollar had greatly depreciated during the war, and that the cost of necessities of life had greatly increased, and because of these reasons bonuses had already been granted to various other bodies and individuals.

It was pointed out during the meeting, which was full of discussion that bonuses to members of the civil service since the declaration of war had totaled $2,000,000, that within the past twelve months M.P.'s had received bonuses of $2,500 each, and their salaries had been increased by $1,500. These increases having been made retroactive to the beginning of the last session, and that the shipbuilding interests had been granted an extension of $9,000,000, while railway interests since Confederation in 1867 had been granted $40,000,000, and the extension of 400,000 acres and the bonuses totaling $700,000,000. Added to these were the huge taxation increases permitted since the war, and the sudden and large increases in freight, passenger and express rates. These increased rates, said one man, a prominent member from Kingston, added to the burdens of the ex-service man to the extent of $120,000,000.

TWO IMPORTANT LABOR DISPUTES REACHING CRISIS.

Negotiations Centre Around Mackenzie-Mann and Building Interests.

Two serious labor disputes are subject of mass meetings and negotiations being held in Toronto tonight. The Mackenzie-Mann interests with their men, and of the builder-contractors with the structural iron workers, are the two important labor disputes which are reaching a crisis.

At the Mackenzie-Mann meeting, held last night at the assembly hall of the Labor Temple by hundreds of men employed by the Mackenzie-Mann interests and the men of the Mann interests and the men of the men of electrical workers, plumbers, carpenters and blacksmiths, the matter of grievances with respect to wages in the case of 22 men and conditions in the case of 600 to 700 men, this issue, at the Mackenzie-Mann interests and their employees has hung fire many months, and is said to be coming to a head rapidly.

RED FLAGS GO IN GENOA.

Genoa, Sept. 13.—There is no change in the situation created by the occupation by workers of the various industrial plants here, except that the red flags which had been hoisted when the works were taken over were removed from the factories today, apparently spontaneously.

Each workman is receiving from the Chamber of Labor a card entitling him to purchase goods amounting to 150 lire in specified shops, on condition that he remains at work.

The police continue to arrest foreigners, especially Russians and Hungarians. Those taken into custody thus far have been generously supplied with money, but have been unable to produce credentials of their own interests in the city for their presence here. Some of them were found near the works carrying arms.

Make Men Collaborators.

Milan, Sept. 13.—Important discussions took place today between representatives of the workers and the masters, in which Prefect Lasquoli of Milan and Prefect Taddel of Turin participated.

The most interesting statement in these discussions was that Deputy Daragone, representing the Confederation of Labor, is trying to convince the employers of the necessity in their own interests of solving the problem of their relations with the men in a radical manner, so as to profoundly modify social conditions. He informed the delegates that the confederation was at work on a project aiming clearly to establish a new moral, technical and economic situation for the workers.

Signor Daragone asked the employers: "Do you deceive yourselves that you will be able to obtain greater production from your workmen? If you emerge from this conflict as victors the men will do much less work than in the past. But even if the dispute is solved by an increased wage, peace in the works will only be temporary, so that the problem of greater production will remain still unsolved."

It is necessary now more than ever to produce intensely, feverishly, in order to bring this about it is necessary to widen the circle of the men's rights, allow them to share in the management of the business and make them your collaborators in the highest sense of the word. Make them realize that their activity does not only to the benefit of the masters, but for all. We claim, therefore, in the name of the workers' syndicate, control of business. We have exact knowledge of the conditions of industry and profits; therefore there is nothing excessively subversive in our demands."

The representatives of the employers expressed the opinion that a settlement should be made now on the purely economic question, postponing any decision regarding complete social reforms until the reopening of parliament, which was asked also by the Socialist and Catholic deputies, who observed that paralyzing the men is the only proper tribune to a decision on such important matters involving the life of the entire nation.

Meanwhile in all the works Socialist propagandists are urging the men to resist for definite triumph of the proletarian ideals.

CHAPLIN'S WIFE FIGHTS DIVORCE

Mildred Promises Interesting Disclosures About Radicalism of Charlie.

New York, Sept. 13.—(Special)—The ill-fated marital venture of Mrs. Mildred Harris Chaplin and Charlie Chaplin seems destined for some more stormy weather. This time, however, the scene of their troubled affairs has shifted from the motion picture colonies of the west coast to New York City.

Mrs. Chaplin has changed her mind. She will not give Charlie a divorce. This was the statement made by Henry J. Goldsmith, former assistant district attorney, who has been retained by Mrs. Chaplin as her counsel.

Mrs. Chaplin came east a few weeks ago for a vacation, said Mr. Goldsmith at his office at 11 West Forty-fifth street. "She told me that Charlie had made a wreck of her life, so that she had to quit work for several weeks. In view of the fact that her husband had abandoned her and fled the jurisdiction of the California court, where she was seeking a divorce, she has decided to let that action drop and will not give Charlie his freedom."

What? Fixed at $3,000,000. "It is true," replied Mr. Goldsmith to a question, "that she has retained me to take care of all her affairs, and I have advised her accordingly. I have told her that under the laws she is entitled to 60 per cent. of all Mr. Chaplin's property, both real and personal, and wherever situated, which came into his possession during the time of their marriage on Oct. 23, 1918. I am informed that Mr. Chaplin is worth about $3,000,000, and that part of his property is in the name of his brother, Sidney."

Mrs. Chaplin's observations about her husband's radical tendencies will all be aired in due time, concluded Mr. Goldsmith. "He has stated he was dissatisfied with the laws of his country, because, I suppose, they would not permit him to do exactly as he wished in certain matters. He will probably be taught a good lesson, however, by the hawkeyed California lawyers, but now his theories will fair with his wife's. He will be properly exposed when the law begins to take its course."

Mrs. Chaplin seems to have been aware of his wife's intentions, for it was learned that he came to this city a few days ago. He is staying at the Biltmore Hotel, where he is registered under the name of Spencer.

Montreal, Sept. 13.—The White Star Dominion liner Canada is expected here about Sept. 19, having sailed from Liverpool on Sept. 10.

ITALY' FACTORIES MADE INTO FORTS.

The amount of raw materials cannot last beyond a few weeks. The shop committees attend strictly to the operation of the works without interfering with municipal or industrial affairs. Employers' agents report that the workers have obtained up to 50 per cent. efficiency, as they spend a great deal of the time in idle discussion and conferences on the general situation.

Each plant is a miniature stronghold, with barbed wire entanglements in addition to walls and fences and ready standing. Many sentinels watch closely over all persons approaching the buildings.

General managers of most of the plants have been removed by vote of the workmen, their places being filled by molders or other practical iron workers.

There is no change in the situation created by the occupation by workers of the various industrial plants here, except that the red flags which had been hoisted when the works were taken over were removed from the factories today, apparently spontaneously.

STRIVE TO MAKE SCOTLAND GO DRY.

"Pussyfoot" Johnson to Address Number of Meetings—Liquor Men Busy.

Edinburgh, Aug. 22.—(By Mail).—The campaign to make Scotland dry has been started in earnest by the national citizens' council. Under the provisions of the temperance (Scotland) act, which enables the electors to decide by a vote whether the country shall go dry, requisition forms demanding a poll on the no-license question have been issued. In order to secure a poll ten per cent. of the electors in each area must sign the requisition forms. Should this be forthcoming the next stage will be the taking of the vote which will decide whether the people shall have no licenses, or fewer licenses in their own areas, or there shall be a change in the law.

Temperance enthusiasts believe that altho Scotland may not go dry this year, the "no-license" resolution will be carried in many municipal wards. They have obtained the services of W. E. FOUR MEMBERS OF HOUSE INTERESTED IN LUMBER FIRM

Secured Timber Area Six Weeks Before Last General Election.

Edward R. Heytance, of the Month Pulp & Paper Co., proved an interesting witness at the Riddell-Latchford timber probe yesterday. He testified that four members of the legislature—two Grits and two Tories, were interested in his company. Their names were: Thompson, East Peterboro; Bonnewell, South Perth; Richardson, East Wellington, and Wieg, South Essex. The first two are Conservatives, and the other two Liberals. The witness said the company had a paid-up capital of $146,000, and explained that about six weeks before the last general election they secured a permit from former minister of lands, forests and mines, Howard Ferguson, to cut timber in Sheridan township. The area had not been advertised.

To Judge Riddell, Mr. Heytance said the government does not know how to cut timber in Sheridan township. However, he had been paid.

George H. Rapsay, an official of the game and fisheries department, admitted having negotiated in 1917 with the government for fishing rights on Lake Nipigon. He was then in partnership with Col. J. A. Little, and when later the government engaged in the fish business the partnership was dissolved. He then entered the government service as superintendent of the department of game and fisheries.

Rapsay admitted that he took out nine mining licenses on the Black Bay peninsula and three quarry claims. He said that he, with W. H. Russell, Alonzo Nuttal, and Capt. W. P. Nuttal, were to have quarter interests in these quarries from which gravel was to be taken. Russell and Rapsay financed the deal, witness having put up $7000 or $8000.

Justice Latchford: "You knew Russell was paid?" Rapsay: "I knew he was in the business, but ours was a gravel proposition. The story probably is that Russell took out other claims in the name of the company, which I knew nothing of, and was not a party to it. I was not interested in pulpwood. None was taken off our claims."

Justice Riddell: "You were either made a tool or were a cold conspirator."

"That's the whole story," said Rapsay. Asked whether he had expected to find a market, the witness replied in the affirmative. Russell had paid for the claims of Rapsay and also those of Rapsay's wife, who was in the gravel syndicate. He did not know what was done with the pulp on the claims. There was no gravel, and he thought Russell took it off. Witness didn't think payment for the pulp was worth while. At this point, Judge Riddell remarked: "Perhaps there is honor among pulpwood men."

Company's Only Protection. Richmond Friar, for 25 years woods superintendent of the Sauble Lumber Co., testified that altho the shanty books kept by the company were always close to the culter's returns, he had never seen a consultation to fix the amounts to be entered. The shanty books were the company's only protection.

The boom company, said Mr. Ellis, kept a book showing the number of logs for each company going thru the boom.

The first time a cheque was made on the boom count was in June, this year, when "green" men were on the job.

Mr. Harding: "Is that the first time you were suspicious that the count was wrong?"

"Oh, no," said Mr. Ellis. "The boom company told me the men talked as parrots. When one would cry 'lally' the next man would do the same thing, whether he had a hundred logs or not."

"They were paid for that? The company didn't lose any money?"

"No, they didn't lose."

Mr. McKay: "The men were paid for driving logs?"

Returns Were Made. Theodore Ellis, accountant for the Spanish River Co., gave evidence regarding the logging company managed by J. A. Ferguson, which went into the bush, cut the logs and drove them to the Spanish River, where they were handed over to the boom company. The timber was cut in the Sauble River. Members of the firm were W. T. Bell, J. A. Ferguson and W. Arnold. The price was to be $5 per 1,000

SPLendid MUSIC FEATURE OF FAIR

Interesting Contrast in Styles of Russian and Italian Conductors.

Toronto is to be congratulated upon an exposition which instructs and interests the Dominion in all phases of its national life. But especially the genius of the C. N. E. is to be congratulated upon their inspiration with respect to the finer arts, that of music having been accorded its due of attention. Manufactures and agricultural exhibits are always full of interest, and one may be sure to witness a display in either the department of manufactures worthy of note, but also, it is remembered, the C. N. E. has given Toronto and the Dominion the opportunity to be entertained by the finest types of musical concert.

The C. N. E. in Toronto has this year been favored with two bands of the same type and of outstanding merit governed by bandmasters of two different schools and two distinct types. One of these is the Creators, an Italian, a musician, as genius, will always remain an Italian in his sympathies, and will always remain a Toronto in his admiration for the baton. Thaviu, the presiding genius of the band under his name, is by birth a Russian, by training also a Russian, but by choice and by a factor of the utmost importance in considering the personnel of the two bands.

Points of Difference. As has already been noted, the band of which Creator is the guiding hand is essentially southern in its fashioning and ideal. It lacks the quality of poise and purity which characterize the British school of band music; on the other hand it excels in those wonderfully touching qualities of melody which give peculiar and charming vivaciousness to the color tones. Added to this fact is another, the quality of instrument. There is a resonance in the Italian or Russian bands there is a quality, a richness of tone which is indefinable and wondrously sweet.

Official Was Interested. Government Fire Ranger, L. E. Bliss testified regarding a 405-mile timber limit permit granted by Howard Ferguson to the Haywood Lumber Co., in Haywood township.

"I want to know if anyone could make an application as you did without knowledge of a prior application?" asked Commissioner Latchford.

"I knew of the application," said witness. "My brother and Mr. Evans made the initial application. I heard it thru him."

Put Up Own Money. Witness told of his inspection of this particular property. He was then in the employ of the government. He paid his own expenses of the inspection.

He obtained no information from anyone about the area. He had seen about one per cent. of the area under discussion.

Witness said they were to cut timber on the area, to see if it could be economically disposed of on the 405 square miles.

Justice Latchford elicited the fact that at the rate they had progressed it would have taken nine years to cut out the township.

PROFESSORS' PAY

Ontario Cabinet Will Today Take Up Question of University Salaries.

Not being aware that Premier Drury would return today, Hon. R. H. Grant, as acting premier, assured Sir Robert Falconer yesterday that he would call a meeting of the cabinet ministers today and request them to take up at once the matter of university professors' salaries.

Later, when it was learned that Mr. Drury had changed his mind about going north, Mr. Grant said:

There will be a council meeting, and I will urge the premier to take up the matter. I know he will, because he was anxious to do so before he left."

Sir Robert Falconer submitted a schedule of salaries to the cabinet, which he considers more adequate for the work the professors are doing than those at present received. Mr. Grant believes that the government will agree to them.

POISON CAUSED DEATH WAS JURY'S VERDICT

"That Arthur Bain came to his death on September 9 as a result of having taken some sort of poison, such as wood alcohol or alcohol in excess, at the greenhouse at 314 Withrow avenue," was the verdict returned last evening at the inquest held at the morgue by a jury under Coroner Dr. L. J. Breslin.

Detective Clark said he discovered 25 empty bottles on the premises, but the contents of these, one witness, Feldstar, testified, were consumed over a period dating from November last.

TROPIC COUNTRY USELESS, SHE SAYS

Returning Home From England Sick and Miserable, She Found Relief by Taking Tanlac - Gains Nine Pounds.

"After what Tanlac has done for me, I feel that the very least I can do to show my gratitude is to allow a statement of my case to be made public, for it has completely restored my health," said Mrs. May Dawson of 1031 East Pender street, Vancouver, B.C. "For fully two years I had been unable to eat anything without being troubled with indigestion. My food would sour and form gas, and my heart would palpitate so that I became alarmed. I suffered from terrible pains in the pit of my stomach, and would feel like I was choking. At times I felt so weak and dizzy that I could not stand without holding to something. "I also had severe pains across the small of my back that hurt terribly whenever I attempted to stoop over, I

SPLendid MUSIC FEATURE OF FAIR

Interesting Contrast in Styles of Russian and Italian Conductors.

Toronto is to be congratulated upon an exposition which instructs and interests the Dominion in all phases of its national life. But especially the genius of the C. N. E. is to be congratulated upon their inspiration with respect to the finer arts, that of music having been accorded its due of attention. Manufactures and agricultural exhibits are always full of interest, and one may be sure to witness a display in either the department of manufactures worthy of note, but also, it is remembered, the C. N. E. has given Toronto and the Dominion the opportunity to be entertained by the finest types of musical concert.

The C. N. E. in Toronto has this year been favored with two bands of the same type and of outstanding merit governed by bandmasters of two different schools and two distinct types. One of these is the Creators, an Italian, a musician, as genius, will always remain an Italian in his sympathies, and will always remain a Toronto in his admiration for the baton. Thaviu, the presiding genius of the band under his name, is by birth a Russian, by training also a Russian, but by choice and by a factor of the utmost importance in considering the personnel of the two bands.

Points of Difference. As has already been noted, the band of which Creator is the guiding hand is essentially southern in its fashioning and ideal. It lacks the quality of poise and purity which characterize the British school of band music; on the other hand it excels in those wonderfully touching qualities of melody which give peculiar and charming vivaciousness to the color tones. Added to this fact is another, the quality of instrument. There is a resonance in the Italian or Russian bands there is a quality, a richness of tone which is indefinable and wondrously sweet.

Official Was Interested. Government Fire Ranger, L. E. Bliss testified regarding a 405-mile timber limit permit granted by Howard Ferguson to the Haywood Lumber Co., in Haywood township.

"I want to know if anyone could make an application as you did without knowledge of a prior application?" asked Commissioner Latchford.

Put Up Own Money. Witness told of his inspection of this particular property. He was then in the employ of the government. He paid his own expenses of the inspection.

He obtained no information from anyone about the area. He had seen about one per cent. of the area under discussion.

Witness said they were to cut timber on the area, to see if it could be economically disposed of on the 405 square miles.

Justice Latchford elicited the fact that at the rate they had progressed it would have taken nine years to cut out the township.

Asked whether he had expected to find a market, the witness replied in the affirmative. Russell had paid for the claims of Rapsay and also those of Rapsay's wife, who was in the gravel syndicate. He did not know what was done with the pulp on the claims. There was no gravel, and he thought Russell took it off. Witness didn't think payment for the pulp was worth while. At this point, Judge Riddell remarked: "Perhaps there is honor among pulpwood men."

JOHN TAYLOR ELLIOT IS HONORED IN DEATH

Pioneer Cattle Exporter, Passed Away in Toronto at Ripe Old Age.

The death of John Taylor Elliott, at his home on Dundas street on Saturday, at the age of 80 years, removes a well-known and highly-esteemed resident of the city.

The late Mr. Elliott was born in Pickering township and was one of a large family of boys, three of whom and one sister survive, which are the brothers are James of Cobocok, Thomas of Greenwood and Mr. Elliott of Unionville. Mrs. Henry Height of Pickering is a sister, and Mr. Elliott, a well-known Quaker, Holstein breeder of Unionville, is a nephew.

The late Mr. Elliot was one of the veteran men identified with the export trade in cattle to Great Britain, going over with the first load. On one of his trips the vessel was wrecked on the island of Anticosti. His instrument in the matter was considered most infallible, and practically all his life he was associated with such well-known cattle men as ex-Ald. John Dinn, Ald. James Flannigan, Elton and other prominent shippers and dealers.

LITTLE LIGHT ON MYSTERIOUS DEATH

Foreigner Supposed to Be One of Four Men Bound for Europe.

Further evidence was adduced last night at the morgue anent the death of what was supposed to be one, Hinclose Atera, whose badly decomposed body was discovered at the rear of 19 D'Arcy street on June 23, last. The man was supposed to be a foreigner, and was found buried in straw.

Doubts were entertained as to whether the deceased could be identified, but some little light was shed on this point last night by Detective Ward, who told Coroner Young and a jury that on February 13 last, four men left Kitchener en route for Europe. Enquiry has elicited the fact that three of that number had reached their destination. A photograph of the fourth corresponded as nearly as could be judged to the decomposed remains found in the stable.

Detective Ward said he did not see Hinclose Atera leaving Toronto, and added that from enquiries made the victim left Kitchener with about $3,000 secreted in his underwear.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 14

Our Headless Police.

The Toronto police force needs a head. An "acting chief" is all right enough over summer vacation, but he cannot carry on indefinitely.

Citizens are beginning to complain of the force and the way it is handled. They have confidence in Acting Chief Dickson, but they know after all that Col. Grasset, and not Mr. Dickson, is the chief constable of Toronto.

Our old friend the clock is having a hard time of late. This summer it had to tell one story up town and another story down at the railway station.

His worship explains the sudden reversion to standard time by saying that letters poured in complaining that people had to get up and go to work in the dark.

It is suggested that during the winter months the clock might be set back an hour, just as it is set forward an hour in the good old summer time.

While presiding over a labor debate on Bolshevism in New York the other day, Samuel Gompers broke two gavels. It is evident there was a difference of opinion among those present.

A local tailor is advertising "Jounge suits for men." Who on earth has time to lose these busy days?

The new Mexican government proposes to make its surplus general producers instead of consumers and will place them on farms for that purpose.

"What Mexico needs at the present time," says the new president, Obregon, "is less fighting and more work."

An American pastor is reported to have said he left the ministry because he could not keep a seakins family on a meagre income.

The Irish Republican army is doing a lot of harm, but so can a small child with a box of matches.

All that a hunger strike proves is that its self-constituted victim has more will power than brains.

Reports from Moscow and Warsaw differ in almost every particular. They do not even always agree in the spelling of the names.

Austrian archduchesses should have no difficulty in finding situations with fat salaries in the homes of the American dollar aristocracy.

Farewell to Toronto, farewell to the scene of the great Exhibition, where millions have been; The pastoral products and music are grand.

of the policy is another matter.

It means a commercial war with other maritime nations, and a despatch from San Francisco states that Japanese vessels are slashing rates in a most astounding manner.

The Japanese have been subsidizing shipbuilding heavily, and probably find themselves overbuilt in their time of financial depression.

The purpose of the rate cutting is to compel the repeal of the Jones act, and the press despatch to which we have referred, asserts that British and Japanese vessels by slashing rates are crowding out American vessels from the orient.

Freighters are carrying cargo from California to Europe at ruinous rates. Rate cutting, like tariff legislation, is a game two can play at.

If the United States found that Japan was endeavoring to destroy their merchant marine retaliation of some kind would follow.

The weakness of the American position is the great cost of shipbuilding on this continent. This is a factor which must eventually curb the marine ambition of the United States and restore shipping to something like its old supremacy on the sea.

W. A. Harriman, son of the late E. H. Harriman, who aspires to be as prominent a figure in shipping circles as his father at one time was in the railway world, says that American ships will have all they can do if they can carry the products of their own country to the markets of the world.

An appeal is, therefore, being made to all American shippers to use vessels flying the American flag. How far such a patriotic appeal will go with the hard-headed man of business who can make more money shipping his exports in a foreign vessel remains to be seen.

Young Harriman, by the way, who is the head of a great shipowning and shipbuilding syndicate in the United States, has recently completed a merger between the American Ship and Commerce Corporation and the Hamburg-American Line.

This has been approved by the shipping board, although technically a state of war exists between the United States and Germany.

This combine will make a drive for the big immigration confidently expected from continental Europe.

Canadians watching the battle royal on the sea will be more or less swayed by opposing influences. They would like to see the Union Jack as against the Stars and Stripes engross the commerce of the sea.

At the same time they have a merchant marine of their own. The same influences which may stop American shipbuilding and cripple the American merchant marine will operate against Canadian building ships or sailing ships upon the sea.

We incline to protection, rather than free trade, and while we dislike to see the tariff club used by our neighbors against the mother country, we are anxious to see how it works in the case of other nations.

The shipbuilding and the merchant marine problems are with us, as well as with the people of the United States.

Remark in Passing. New York Tribune says home brewing injects zest into American family life. Certainly, isn't that what it is for.

A despatch says Alberta's coal goes farther than the U. S. product. It'll have to go farther still to beat Ontario's supply this winter if prices go a bit higher here.

HAS SCOTCHED WORK OF SOVIET MISSION

Heralds Admission of Bolshevik Gold Must First Be Explained.

London, Sept. 13.—The Times this morning says the Russian soviet government's placing of £75,000 of Bolshevik gold in the hands of The Herald, the labor organ, temporarily has wrecked the work of the Bolshevik commercial mission in London at a moment when Rasmin Krassin and Leo Kamenoff, the commissioners, had high hopes of immediate results.

Krassin and Kamenoff, says The Times, had an appointment with Mr. Lloyd George Friday afternoon with the purpose of notifying him of the progress of certain trade negotiations and the prospects of establishing trade relations. But on arriving at Downing street, the premier's official residence, they were politely informed that The Herald's announcement that it had in its possession the soviet gold had entirely spoiled the situation and that until it was explained it would be impossible to deal with any other subjects in view of the unrelenting given some time ago that the course of the interview, which lasted for three hours, Krassin assured the premier that he and Kamenoff were entirely ignorant of the Bolshevik offer to The Herald, and Kamenoff said he was returning on Saturday to Moscow, where he would immediately consult his "colleagues concerning the offer. Meantime, says The Times, the activity of the soviet mission has been completely suspended.

The Herald's Account. According to The Herald's version of the interview between the soviet commissioners and Mr. Lloyd George, the premier "heretofore attacked Kamenoff for alleged breaches of faith regarding implied obligations not to interfere in British internal policies."

Mr. Lloyd George, according to The Herald, expressly dissociated Krassin with the mission, and stated that Kamenoff could not be trusted and also that if Kamenoff had not been returning to Russia on his own initiative, he would have been expelled from the country.

The Herald also stated that Kamenoff had not been returning to Russia on his own initiative, but that he had been expelled from the country.

The World will gladly print under this heading letters written by our readers, dealing with current topics.

Editor Wood: All during the war and since, there has been a great deal of talk and thought about immigration. Everyone is decided that the old loose method of bringing immigrants from anywhere and everywhere must stop if we are to be a coherent nation.

Now when there is more trouble than usual in Ireland, would appear to be the appointed time for our government to busy itself with this problem.

THE HOUSE 'ROUND THE CORNER

Thereafter he cooked a meal of eggs and bacon, tea and toast smoking, rambled in the garden, read, thought a good deal, and went to bed.

The light in his room was extinguished soon after ten o'clock. About half-past eleven, little more than twelve hours from the time he had first heard of "the house 'round the corner," he was aroused by a loud crash in the hall.

He could not be mistaken. In that northern latitude a midsummer night is never wholly dark. He not only recognized the sound, but he was a man devoid of fear, he took an electric torch from a drawer, and knew better than to bring it into use until his glare would disconcert others—not himself.

He thrust his bare feet into slippers, unlocked the bedroom door, and passed out onto the landing. As he felt for the first step of the upward stairway, it needed one of steel nerve and fine courage to creep about a strange house in the dark—a house where ill deeds had been done, and in which their memories lurked—brought back by the present adventure to the proportions of a somewhat startling prank, closely akin to the success of the stratagem which had routed Betty Jackson.

And, as he mounted the stairs, keeping close to the wall, and thus preventing the old boards from creaking, again came those ominous knocks, louder, more insistent, but whether threatening or merely clamorous, he could not decide—yet.

CHAPTER III. A MIDNIGHT SERVICE. Armathwaite had a foot on the upper landing when a stifled sob reached his ears, and a determined, almost angry, stamping or hammering shook the trap-door. One element, then, of the mystery attached to this reputedly ghost-ridden house was about to be dispelled.

When James Walker shot the bolt which rendered the door as unyielding as the stout raters which incased it, he had unwittingly imprisoned someone in the attic loft, and the someone, tiring of imprisonment, was making loud demand for release.

Moreover, Betty Jackson was in the secret. She knew of the intruder's presence, but she had learned the particular mode of concealment adopted—hence her renewed efforts to gain admission, her use of the ladder, and her somewhat daring visit during the dead hours of the night.

Now, Armathwaite scouted the notion of a couple of village women being in league with midnight robbers, or worse. Even if some thieving Walker with an unexpected woman sibly have arranged that certain unknown miscreants should lurk beneath the roof, since the arrival of the tenant, he was aroused by a loud crash in the hall. He was up in an instant, laughing at the success of a booby trap compacted of the Burmese gong, some thread, and a piece of wood set as a trigger.

Thereupon, Armathwaite was more surprised than ever. The appeal, the tearful and husky, was precisely opposite in character to the one which he anticipated. He looked for a groan, but instead he heard a voice which he recognized. "Please let me out!" came the muffled reply. "I'll explain everything—"

Again, the answer did not fit in with the conditions. But Armathwaite secured the same chair which Walker had used, pressed the button of the electric torch, and, having forced the bolt out of its socket, raised the door a few inches. "Catch hold!" he said. "I'll show you a light!"

The door was lifted and he glimpsed a beardless face peering from the inner void. He sprang to the floor, put the chair on one side, and awaited developments. Soon the ladder appeared and was adjusted. Then came two neat but strong brogue brogues, with slim-ankled black stockings to match, and the turned-up ends of a pair of gray flannel trousers. The owner of these articles of attire sat for an instant on the edge of the trap, as though reluctant to descend further, and Armathwaite noticed to his very great bewilderment, that the black stockings were of silk.

"Will you kindly promise not to grab my legs as I come down?" said the voice. "I have not the slightest desire to grab your legs, or your neck, for that matter, if you behave yourself," said Armathwaite.

"You don't understand, of course," came the curiously dignified protest, "but I am not misbehaving myself, and have no intention of so doing. This ridiculous thing would not have happened if that silly young fop had not fastened the trap-door. I can't imagine why he did it. It was no business of his, at any rate. And may I ask who you are?"

"I'll answer all polite inquiries, and it may be, put a few on my own account, when you favor me with a closer view," said Armathwaite, not without a tinge of sarcasm in his politeness.

O'Keefe's Ginger Ale advertisement. Features a large bottle of ginger ale and text: 'The "Nineteenth Hole" Sixteen, seventeen, eighteen holes, and then back to the grateful shade, the lounging chairs, and the glass of sparkling, icy, O'Keefe's Dry Ginger Ale at the "Nineteenth Hole"—the club veranda. Your "approach" to the eighteenth may have called for bottling up explosive language. But the cork comes out—the Ginger Ale—at the "Nineteenth" and the nectar flows deliciously, soothingly, in cooling draught. Only O'Keefe's is O.K. for the occasion. Other O.K. brands warranted to give a zest even to the game you lost, are: Belfast Ginger Ale, Orangeade, Cream Soda, Sarsaparilla, Cola, etc., etc. O'Keefe's GINGER ALE TORONTO. Heavy Receipts and Increase in Freight Rates Are Factors.

With 5,000 cattle on sale at the Union yards yesterday, the market was generally all the way from 15c to 15.50 per cwt. lower. The general quality of the cattle was fair to medium, and what few good and choice butcher cattle were there sold much more quickly than the others, but at a much lower level than a week ago.

"Sinbad" at Royal Alexandra.

A monster audience at the Royal Alexandra welcomed "Sinbad, the Sailor," to Toronto last night. The production is described as a musical extravaganza, but it might also be called a spectacle play. Again the "Arabian Nights" and "Bagdad" are drawn on for inspiration, and find appropriate expression in rare scenic effects, beautiful costumes, graceful dancing, and catchy music.

Van Decker, the heroine, looking into a magic crystal, sees what has happened in Bagdad a thousand years before. Then she was a slave girl, while the three suitors for her hand figured as the King of Serendib, Sinbad the Sailor and the Cobbler, respectively.

Blackstone performance to meet their desires.

At the Grand matinee will be given on Wednesday and Saturday, "Shea's Fine Program."

An excellent program submitted at Shea's Victoria Street Theatre yesterday attracted capable audiences to both performances. Those who gave their patronage were amply rewarded, for the several artists vied with each other in their efforts to please.

The Marmel Sisters were seen to advantage in their dance and music contributions, while others who contributed to a program worth while were Lenore Kern, with a capital variety of music, and the Marionettes with their puppetland novelties and Emile and John Nathan in a gymnastic feat.
