CHATHAM DIRECTORY.

TO OUR PATRONS.

It is with pleasure we introduce to our patrons the first complete Directory of the Town of Chatham, and in doing so we desire to return our thanks to all those who have kindly assisted in procuring the necessary information to make the work complete. Especially are our thanks due to the editors of the several papers for the favourable notices of our work in their respective journals, as also to his Honour, Judge Wm. B. Wells, Thos. McCrae, Esq., Messrs. Daniel Kerr, Daniel Forsyth and John Tissiman, for valuable information; and to our patrons generally we wish to express our gratitude for the patronage they have so liberally accorded to us.

That our work is a complete one in every respect, we would not claim; but that it is as complete as faithful labour and careful pains-taking can make it, we have no hesitation in assuming.

Few, but those practically acquainted with directory work have any idea of the difficulties attending the procuring of information and compilation of works of this character. Errors and omissions we know have occurred, and we ask the indulgence of the reader in marking such as had been observed in the subsequent reading of the proofs, and which are noted in the ERRATA.

The ADVERTISERS in this work we most cheerfully commend to the patronage of all those under whose observation these pages may come.

With thanks to friends generally, we leave our work in their hands, hoping to meet and serve them again, in a similar capacity, at some future time.

WM. W. EVANS.

CHATHAM.

THE town of Chatham, the county seat of Kent, is pleasantly situated on the river Thames, 18 miles from its mouth, at the entrance of McGregor's Creek and the junction of the townships of Dover, Chatham, Harwich and Raleigh, and is the centre of one of the most fertile agricultural districts of the Province. It is the most important town between London and Windsor, and one of the largest grain markets in Western Ontario. The population is between 7,000 and 8,000, and steadily increasing. Large quantities of farm produce of every description, pork, wood, lumber, square timber, railroad ties, staves, cordwood, &c., are exported. It is also the seat of a considerable manufacturing interest; and, with its natural facilities for growth and expansion, coupled with the active, enterprising spirit characteristic of its business population, is destined at no distant day to become a city of no mean proportions. It is distant from Detroit, 46 miles; from London, 60 miles; from Hamilton, 140 miles; and from Toronto, 180 miles.

The business streets are lined with many fine blocks and stores, devoted to the varied departments of trade and commerce, while numerous elegant residences adorn the suburban portions.

The river Thames is navigable for steamers and schooners to Louisville, a distance of nearly 30 miles from its mouth. At this point it is spanned by two bridges.

The town was lighted with gas for the first time in the fall of 1872, the Chatham Gas Co. having been organised in that year. The works were purchased by Mr. Lamont, the present proprietor, April 13th, 1874, under whose energetic management the business has doubled in two years.

A good system of water works is the next most needed improvement, and will no doubt not long be delayed, although for emergencies of fire the town can justly boast of one of the most efficient volunteer fire departments in the Dominion, consisting of two steam fire engine companies and a hook and ladder company, with an active membership of about 275, and well officered.

Several first-class hotels, the Rankin House, Garner House, Royal Exchange, Temperance House (late Rutley House), fitted up with every convenience, with other good houses of more humble pretensions, afford every facility of a home for the travelling public.

Chatham contains a number of fine public buildings, prominent among which may be mentioned the Court House and Gael, north of the creek, constructed of white limestone, at a cost of $25,000, the Market House, erected in 1856, at a cost of $6,000, the Rankin House, Garner House, Music Hall, Post Office Block, Scane's Block, together with other buildings of lesser note, testifying to the enterprising public spirit manifested by the citizens of this thriving town.

In her school facilities, Chatham has every reason to congratulate herself on the excellent advantages provided, through the wisdom and liberality of her citizens, for the thorough education of her youth. The school buildings, which are among the finest buildings of the town, comprise a grammar school, central school, and four primary schools, thoroughly officered with an efficient corps of teachers, and liberally patronised. There is also a Roman Catholic Separate School; the Ursuline Academy, in charge of the Religious of the Ursuline Institute, and the Wilberforce Educational Institute, patronised liberally by the coloured population.

THE HIGH SCHOOL is favourably situated on Prince and Murray streets. It is capable of accommodating 80 pupils, and is in every respect equipped as a first-class school. The grounds are two acres in extent, surrounded and laid out with shade and ornamental trees. There are in the immediate neighbourhood many fine residences, public buildings and grounds, including the Church of England parsonage, the Court House, one of the Public Schools, the West Kent Agricultural Society grounds, and the Victoria Park, while the situation is all that could be desired for retirement and study. It is within an easy distance of the business part of the town, thus offering superior facilities to the youth of this county in obtaining a first-class commercial or classical education at a nominal cost.

The Board of High School Trustees consists of six members—three appointed by the town of Chatham and three by the County Council, viz.: appointed by the town—E. Robinson, chairman, John L. Bray, M.D., and H. J. Eberts; appointed by the county—Rev. Wm. King, secretary, George Young, treasurer, and Daniel Kerr. We extract the following from the report of the Board for 1875:

“The school, during the year 1875, has been efficiently conducted by the head master, John B. Rankin, B.A., a graduate of the University of Toronto, and assisted by Charles J. Ketchum, B.A., a graduate of New Brunswick University, who at the end of the last term resigned, and his place is now supplied by Wm. MacIeese, an undergraduate of the second year in the University of Toronto, and having four years experience in teaching.

"The number of pupils enrolled for the year was 38. The attendance during the first half year was 14 boys and 15 girls; during the second half year, 24 boys and 14 girls; and during the whole year, 22 boys and 16 girls.

"Of the pupils attending the High School, 26 were from the town of Chatham, 8 from the county Kent, and four from other counties. The average attendance for the first half year was 19, and for the second half year 31; for the whole year, 25.

"The following are the classes taught, with the number in each: In the classical department 16 were studying Latin, 5 Greek, and 15 French; 38 were studying arithmetic and algebra; 15 geometry, 8 philosophy, and 10 book-keeping. In English grammar, geography and composition, 38; English literature, 8; ancient history, 3; mensuration, 23.

"During the year five pupils obtained certificates of qualification as teachers. The attendance of pupils at the High School is on the increase, 16 new pupils having entered during the present term, and most of them are from the country. With a preparatory class, the number now in attendance would soon be doubled."

THE WILBERFORCE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE was established in the county of Kent in the year 1841, through the instrumentality of Thomas Fuller, Mr. Rolfe, Rev. Josiah Henson, J. C. Brown, Esq., and others, under the title of the British American Institute. In the year 1873, it was incorporated by Act of Parliament as the Wilberforce Educational Institute. The Nazrey Institute was originated in the year 1869, through the exertions of the Rt. Rev. Willis Nazrey, Rev. R. R. Disney, Rev. Walter Hawkins, and others; and in the year 1873 became incorporated by Act of Parliament with and merged into the Wilberforce Educational Institute. This institution is situated on the corner of Princess and Wellington streets, where a suitable building has been leased and a schoolroom fitted up and provided with the necessary furniture, apparatus and appliances for carrying on the high school work. The design of this institution is to meet the educational requirements of youth, irrespective of sex, creed or nationality. The course of study has been arranged with the special object of preparing young men for the matriculation examinations in the faculties of Arts, Law, Medicine, Civil Engineering and Agriculture, at the University of Toronto; also, to prepare young men and women to qualify as teachers, and to enter the commercial and industrial pursuits. The course of instruction comprises that usually pursued in the high schools of Canada, including classics, mathematics, French, German, and the sciences. It is the design of the Board of Trustees to carry on a boarding and manual labour department in connection with the Institute, as soon as sufficient means can be obtained for that purpose.

"THE PINES" URSULINE ACADEMY, on West Head street, was incorporated in 1866, and is under the patronage of the Right Reverend Bishop Walsh, and in charge of the Religious of the Ursuline Institute. The present building was erected in 1870, at a cost of about $21,000. It is a large, commodious brick building of four stories, 105 feet in length by 59 in width, well ventilated, and supplied with everything necessary to promote the health and comfort of the pupils. The basement contains the furnace for heating, kitchen, laundry, bath rooms, and recreation rooms. On the first floor are located the reception room, parlours, chapel, music rooms, &c. The infirmary and class rooms occupy the second floor, while the third floor, with a portion of the second, is occupied as dormitories. The building is heated with hot water throughout. The grounds, comprising 12 acres, are handsomely laid out, and adorned with flowers, shrubbery, fruit trees, &c., and afford ample room for exercise during the hours of recreation. There are at present about fifty pupils. In connection with the academy is a day school, which occupies an adjoining building, with an attendance of about fifty pupils. There are 23 sisters in connection with the Institute. Lady Superior, Mother Marie Xavier.

THE CATHOLIC SEPARATE SCHOOL occupies a handsome three story brick building on Cross street, near Queen, which was erected in 1874 at a cost of $9,000. Four teachers are employed, the female department being under the charge of the Ursuline nuns. The average attendance is 250. The upper story of the building is used as a hall for the meeting of the different Catholic societies and for school exhibitions.

There are twelve churches in the town, representing the usual phases of religious belief, viz., Methodist, Baptist, Church of England, Presbyterian and Roman Catholic.

The town supports two ably managed weekly papers, the Chatham Banner and the Chatham Planet, the latter of which also publishes a tri-weekly edition. The Missionary Messenger, a semi-monthly, the organ of the British Methodist Episcopal Church, is also published here.

The main line of the Great Western Railway passes through the town from east to west. Steps are also being taken to construct a branch line to Charing Cross, to connect with the Canada Southern, which it is hoped will be accomplished the present season, thus extending the facilities for travel and transportation to all points east and west, and recovering a large share of the trade from the south, which was diverted from the town by the building of the Canada Southern. Besides the railroad facilities, daily communication is had with Detroit by steamboat during the season of navigation, while daily stages connect with other points not reached by other modes of conveyance. Thus it will be seen that, in her facilities for transportation, both by rail and water, Chatham is by no means behind her sister towns in the Province, which facilities will be greatly augmented by the construction of the C. S. R. branch.

VICTORIA PARK comprises a plot of about 15 acres, on the north side of the creek and east of the Court House. It is very pleasantly situated, and is being handsomely laid out with carriage drives, suitable walks, and nicely planted with ornamental trees and shrubbery. When completed according to the plans prepared, it will no doubt become a very popular resort for "pleasure and recreation, and will add materially to the beauty and attractiveness of the town.

Chatham is worthily represented in the Canadian department of the Centennial Exhibition, her most important contribution being a steam fire engine, from the "Chatham Steam Fire Engine Works," Mr. John D. Ronald, proprietor. Mr. Ronald's establishment is the only one of the kind in Canada, and his engines, wherever introduced, become very popular, and have already successfully competed with some of the best American makes. The following notice of the "Centennial Engine" we extract from the Chatham Banner:

"The engine is of the second-class size, having double cylinders 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ x9 in., with double brass pumps 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ x9 in. It is a reciprocating, upright engine, with attachment for 2, 3 or 4 streams, as required. The working parts throughout are of steel, the columns, cranks, shafts, links, piston (in one solid piece), &c., being of the very best and highest class of workmanship. The fly-wheel, cylinder-heads and other parts are nickel-plated, while the whole of the work is highly finished and polished. Surmounting the handsome lamp is the figure of a beaver, in brass, heavily plated. In addition to the usual ordinary parts of the machinery there are two braces to keep the hind axle in position, while forward the bearing is so arranged as to take the strain off the king bolt. It is fitted for double suction hose, the size of which is $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches. A driver's seat is also attached, and neatly upholstered. The boiler, which is extra stayed, contains 261 seamless copper tubes, and has been tested at 220 pounds cold water pressure; the pumps have been also tested at 260 pounds to the inch. The wheels are of light and elegant pattern. The whole engine exhibits in every part the greatest care in its manufacture, and is of the highest type of workmanship of the skilled mechanics employed. The trial was eminently satisfactory, and we do not doubt that 'Canada' (its name) will hold its own against all comers."

Mr. George Ross also contributes a plough of excellent design and superior workmanship, which cannot fail to attract attention.

MAPLE LEAF CEMETERY, "the city of the dead," occupies a pleasant location on McGregor's Creek, south-east of the town. It consists of thirty acres, tastefully laid out with good walks, ornamented with shrubbery, and contains a number of handsome monuments.

The section of country in which Chatham is now situated, originally formed a part of what was known as the "Western District," which was comprised of the counties of Essex, Kent and Lambton. Complaints having for a long time been accumulating from the settlers in the more remote townships, of the great inconvenience to which they were subjected in having to travel such a distance to transact business at the district town, measures were taken to remedy the grievance by dividing the district into two, and erecting Chatham into the district town of the new district, which was finally accomplished by an act, passed July 9th, 1847, the new district being called the "District of Kent." By an act passed the 30th of May, 1849, districts were abolished and counties substituted in their place. The town was originally laid out by Governor Simcoe, but the actual settlement dates from about the year 1832, since which it has steadily progressed. The area of the town was augmented in 1855 by the addition of lots one and two, second concession of Chatham ; lot 23, first concession, and lot 24, second concession of Raleigh ; and lot 24 of Dover East. The following extract from "Canada, Past, Present and Future," published in 1851, may prove of interest to our readers :

"Being situated in the midst of a fine agricultural country, it (Chatham) is a place of considerable business. * * * It has rapidly increased in size during the last three or four years ; numerous brick houses have been erected, and property has greatly increased in value. The north side of McGregor's Creek is kept as a military reserve, on which barracks were erected during the Rebellion ; they are now unoccupied or converted to other uses. Chatham now contains six churches and chapels, viz., Episcopal, Wesleyan Methodist, Kirk, Free Church, Baptist and French Catholic. A new stone Gaol and Court House have been erected at an expense of six thousand pounds, preparatory to the separation of the county from Essex. This is a handsome building, constructed of the white limestone from the Anderdon quarries. A new bridge has been completed across the Thames, at a cost of two thousand pounds, and to suit the convenience of the inhabitants, it has been placed in the centre of the business part of the town ; the old bridge having been erected at some distance, and the town having gradually grown away from it. Two steam grist mills and two steam saw mills have been erected, as well as two foundries and machine shops, a brewery, two tanneries, a woollen factory, and four distilleries. There are two principal taverns, the Royal Exchange, and Chatham Arms. Two common schools are in operation, one Protestant and one Catholic, and two female schools. The steamboats, Brothers and Hastings, leave on alternate days, the former for Amherstburg, the latter for Windsor and Detroit only; returning the following days. Fare, $1.50 cabin, and $1.00 for a deck passage. A stage leaves Chatham every morning at eight o'clock for London; fare $3.50; and a mail stage leaves three times a week for Wallaceburg and Port Sarnia. A newspaper, the Kent Advertiser, is published weekly. The Registry Office for the County of Kent is kept here, as will be all the county offices as soon as the new officers are appointed. Large quantities of staves and walnut lumber are annually exported, and from the crop of the present season the shipments of wheat will be extensive. The staves and lumber are floated down the Thames from the land where they are cut; a boom is thrown across the river, just above the town, where they are collected, sorted and shipped."

William Chrysler was the first settler in the town, locating here in 1821. Duncan McGregor was the first merchant and post-master; he also erected the first saw and grist mill. Stephen Brooks, James Read and Henry Van Allen were the next successive merchants. Claude Cartier kept the first tavern. Other early settlers were Wm. Fulford, Andrew Currie, tailor, and John Van Allen. Joseph Northwood settled here in 1832. Daniel Forsyth, the present assessor, was also an early settler. John K. Forsyth, a brother of Daniel, built the first frame house, in 1832, which is still standing, on King street, just east of the Royal Arms Hotel. L. Freeman kept a hotel near the Royal Exchange. Israel Evans also kept a hotel where the Garner House now stands. W. & W. Eberts were early settlers. They carried on an extensive business as merchants and shipowners, and ran a steamboat, the Brothers, between Chatham, Detroit and Windsor. Thomas McCrae, Esq., the present Police Magistrate, was one of the first settlers in the town, locating here in 1832, and was born and brought up in the county, about four miles from the town. He, with his brother William, were among the first merchants.

In 1829 Mr. McCrae was one of a company who purchased a charter from Chauncey Beadle, of St. Catharines, for the right of running stages from Windsor to Queenston, for 21 years. The trip occupied four days, and the fare was $12. The first church erected here was a Church of England. It was built on the west side of William street, near the corner of King, in 1818. It continued standing till about three years ago, when it was destroyed by fire.

[We have been promised some other interesting facts in connection with the early settlers, which, if received in time, will be found under the head of Errata, Additions, &c.—PUB.]
