WHY ADVERTISE?
In the age when statesmen, authors, athletes, actors and clergymen advertise, the plodding business man should not hesitate. As it has been said that the man who hesitates is lost.
"To advertise or not to advertise?" is not the question. There is, there can be no question about it. "To advertise" is all there is to it. Not to do so is to reject the goods the gods give, and to pursue methods several centuries behind the times.

ONE MAN'S THEORY.
Wederly - Why don't you get married?
Singleton - I'm looking for a girl who has a man's for poetry.
Wederly - Because why?
Singleton - Because that kind of girl never marries a man for his money.

A DEADLOCK

Strike Still on, Provision Prices Rising.

Both Sides Willing to Arbitrate
But Can't Agree Upon Conditions of Arbitration

CHICAGO, July 15.—Both sides willing to arbitrate, but neither disposed to allow the other to dictate the conditions under which arbitration should be agreed to—such was the situation this morning in the city of Chicago.
The conference between the packers and the strikers adjourned last night without effecting a settlement. Efforts to this end were continued today.
Material progress has been made, some of the chief points at issue having been virtually disposed of and the remaining differences, although serious, are not regarded as insurmountable. There is no objection to the provisions in the offer of the packers by which all new employees may be retained. The strikers say that the non-union men are not practical packers and that they soon would be crowded out. The principal objection made by the union officials to the offer of the packers is the provision that they "will give preference in the order of application for work." The strikers construe this to mean that each individual man will be obliged to make an individual application. The strikers are holding themselves in readiness for prolonged conflict.

NEW YORK, July 15.—Striking meat handlers today are awaiting for the announcement of the settlement of the strike against the big western packers. This was expected almost any hour from Chicago, but in the meantime prices of beef continue to go up and other provisions were also affected. The big retail dealers announced today that two days more would see the advance doubled, making it from eight to ten cents above the price before the strike was declared. Poultry and eggs have been advanced and fish dealers announce that sea food will be the next to go up.
Forty-five carloads of beef have arrived in the city within the last twenty-four hours. These were consigned to the independent packers, but union teamsters refuse to handle the stock.

U. N. B. PROFESSOR APPOINTED.

M. S. McDonald Accepts the Chair Vacated by Prof. Davidson—Appointment Satisfactory.

(Special to the Star.)
FREDERICKTON, N. B., July 15.— Murdock Stewart McDonald has been appointed and has accepted the vacant professorship at the University of New Brunswick. McDonald was wired his appointment late last evening and this morning sent his acceptance.
The new professor has been taken at Cornell where he will remain until the last of August. His appointment gives general satisfaction.
M. S. McDonald comes from Why-comagh, in Cape Breton. He had a distinguished course in Dunelm, engineering B. A. in 1900. He continued his studies there, taking his master's degree in 1901. Proceeding to Cornell he was awarded one of the Susan Lindsey fellowships of $300 a year in philosophy and ethics, and continued postgraduate work until 1904, when he took his doctor's degree.

FITZSIMMONS IN JAIL
FOR STEALING A LION.

NEW YORK, July 15.—Robert Fitzsimmons has spent two hours under arrest in a Coney Island police station because he refuses to return to the proprietor of an animal show a small lion cub asserted to have been taken without his consent. Fitzsimmons friends finally appeared and arranged a bond of $1,000 pending a settlement of the case. Fitzsimmons recently visited the animal show with several other men, including one of his legs.
The Japanese are still entrenched south of Tai Tche Kiao. No further advance has been reported. The Japanese staff has not yet received confirmation of the report of occupation of New chwang by the Japanese. No news has been received here from Port Arthur or the Vladivostok squadron. The emperor's absence may account for the lack of news.

GRAIN ELEVATOR BURNED;
LOSS ABOUT HALF A MILLION

CHICAGO, July 15.—The Baltimore and Ohio grain elevator, 8th street and Ontario avenue, South Chicago, was burned early today. A quantity of grain was in the building and the loss is put at $500,000. The occupants of a number of frame buildings and cottages adjoining the elevator were forced to flee from their homes in scarcy attire. The fire is believed to have been caused by an explosion of dust in the elevator.
The elevator was in the midst of the railroad yards surrounded by the other elevator and railroad cars. Many freight cars were soon in flames.
Switch engines and crews were put to work to remove them from the fire zone, but it was held there would be heavy loss of railroad property.

SERVANT GIRL CREMATED.

BREWSTER, N. Y., July 15.—The maison of Mrs. W. B. Pasig was burned to the ground early today. Mrs.
Pasig narrowly escaped and a servant girl named Annie O'Brien was burned to death.
The loss is estimated at $35,000.

2,000 JAPANESE KILLED;
NOT 30,000 AS REPORTED.

Attack on Port Arthur Was Repulsed But Losses Exaggerated—Battle in Manchuria is Imminent.

MUKDEN, Thursday, July 14. (Delayed in transmission.)—In the fighting at the right flank of the line of defences at Port Arthur, July 3 to July 8, the Russians drove back the Japanese and occupied the east bank of the Liao-shan river. The Japanese commanding Liao-shan Pass. The Japanese losses were about 2,000. Those of the Russians were insignificant.

RUSSIANS KEEPING QUIET.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 15.—With the approaching departure of the Baltic squadron for the Far East, extra precautions are being taken to prevent the publication of news of the movements or conditions of the ships.
The Russian newspapers are especially careful to suppress any news of the even foreign news despatches referring to the Russian vessels are not passed by the censor. The army organ believes it is scarcely possible for General Kuropatkin to advance until the column reaches Tanchang. It points out that before Kai Chou it took eighteen days for Oka to cover twenty miles, arguing that his slowness may be due to hesitation to where to deliver a blow, and possibly it is his intention to again devote his chief energies to Port Arthur.

The Novoe Vremya today says: "The British must not compare the present situation with the Boer war. They had 30,000 Boers against Great Britain.
We have fifty million Japanese against Russia. The Russian army has a little difficulty on account of the enormous distance they had to dispatch their armies."

A RUSSIAN SUBMARINE.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 15.—The submarine boat Pulton, which has been at Cronstadt, is reported to be in the Neva undergoing tests. It is not known whether she will go to the Far East by rail or with the Baltic squadron.

A BATTLE IMMINENT.

LIAO YANG, July 15.—Fighting is imminent at Tai Tche Kiao and Hai Cheng. The Japanese are entrenched six miles south of Tai Tche Kiao. Much skirmishing is taking place. The weather is favorable for the movement of troops. No rain has fallen for a whole week. The thermometer has registered as high as fifty degrees centigrade. It is rumored that a Japanese column has appeared on the Mukden road. There are several Japanese wounded at Tai Tche Kiao. They are treated and contented. Their sole anxiety is caused by the prospect of win-ting the battle.

Troops are constantly arriving here.

RUSSIAN GENERAL WOUNDED.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 15, 4:15 p.
m. General Rennenkampf was wounded, but not seriously, in a skirmish near Sai Matsa. A bullet passed through the calf of one of his legs.

The Japanese are still entrenched
south of Tai Tche Kiao. No further advance has been reported. The Japanese
of the report of occupation of New
has been received here from Port Ar-
lack of news.

TA TCHE KIAO, July 15 (delayed in transmission).—It was expected that the Japanese would attack this morning. Russian guns were heard to the east of Tai Tche Kiao at 6 a. m. The Japanese did not reply.

Russian guns were heard to the
Japanese did not reply.

Further intelligence brought in by accounts says that the Japanese are returning to the mountains northeast in the direction of Hai Cheng and also further north.

The roads to Yin Kow are now impeded.

The Russians have captured some Chinese bandits led by a Japanese dressed in Chinese costume.

A Japanese officer taken prisoner had despatches showing that in the battle of July 4th the Japanese lost over 700.

The city remains in a ferment of excitement. It was only late tonight that a despatch arrived which had it been generally known, would have tended somewhat to dampen the enthusiasm. This was a despatch from Tai Tche Kiao communicating an undated despatch from Port Arthur received there July 15. It did not mention the assault or the repulse, but it was quite possible that the despatch was sent from the earlier than July 15, so that it cannot be fairly regarded as contradictory evidence.

It is quite certain that up to this date there is no disposition in any quarter in St. Petersburg to question the truth of the news. There is a general conviction that if Viceroy Alexieff decided to communicate the report to the general staff it must be true.

The retreat from Yin Kow and perhaps from Tai Tche Kiao does not weigh in the balance. People who had begun to grumble at General Kuropatkin are inclined under the influence of the news from Port Arthur to take the opposite view, which is also voiced by a military expert, who says the retreat from Kai Chou was a masterpiece in tactics.

This expert sees in Kuropatkin's strategy the flawless carrying out of military science, a departure from which would have precipitated disaster.

In this light, General Baron Stakelberg's march appears to have been a stroke of genius, since he kept in contact with the enemy, prevented a defensive action, and generally retarded the Japanese both in the north and south of the Liao Tung peninsula.

The transfer of General Kuropatkin's staff to Tai Tche Kiao and the appearance of great activity there bluffed the Japanese into devoting all their attention to that quarter, leaving the more valuable line from Liao Yang to Mukden alone.

Even if there be no battle at Tai Tche Kiao or Hai Cheng, the Russians are now looking forward with entire confidence to the concentration of General Kuropatkin's forces around Liao Yang, which will mark the successful termination of the first stage of his campaign.

emperor is expected to arrive here tomorrow or Saturday from his trip to the south of Russia, whither he went to bid farewell to the troops departing for the far east. All preparations have been made at the Peterhof for the reception of an heir to the throne about July 24.

TA TCHE KIAO, Monday, July 11 (delayed by military censor).—The Russian retreat from Kai Chou with the loss of only a hundred men and the infliction of heavy losses on the Japanese was a brilliant feat, of which General Kuropatkin marked his appreciation by conferring decorations on every officer present.

Even July 9 revealed the Japanese in such force that it was necessary to withdraw in the face of tremendous difficulties. The Russian batteries, cleverly masked, disturbed the Japanese gunners and as a result their projected fall short.

The Japanese began to press the rear guard when the majority of the Russian troops had gone north and Col. Kraus with a battery came to the rescue. He fired 500 rounds with terrific effect on the advancing masses.
The Japanese gunners at first fired wildly, but finally found the range, the first well aimed shell killing Col.
Kraus, who was standing beside Col.
Kraus. The Russian guns were then removed.

Two companies still remaining at Kai Chou had to fight their way north with bayonets.
Important events may be expected near Hai Cheng in a few days.

LABOR PARTY IN MONTREAL.

Unions There May Join the P. W.
A. in Nominating Candidates—Liberal Policy Condemned

(Special to the Star.)
MONTREAL, July 15.—The Montreal labor unions opened negotiations with the workmen of Nova Scotia today concerning the formation of a federal labor party. The Montrealers condemn the immigration policy of the Laurier government and the sending of the militia to Sydney, and declare that if a labor party is launched candidates will be placed in every constituency on the island of Montreal.

INFORMATION FOR THE COURT.

(New York Times.)
Judge Alfred Conkling Cox, of the United States circuit court of appeals, telling the Cornell Law School students the other day of an upstate judge who came to sit in New York. He reached the courtroom at 8.30. No one was there and he sat down to wait. At 9.30 in came a young man. He began talking to the judge, not knowing who he was, and told of a case of his that was on for that morning. "I don't know the first thing about the case," said the young man, "but there's an old duffer from Podunk coming to hold court, and I'll tell him my partner is sick or that there's a witness from Jersey we can't get here, or something of that sort. It'll be easy enough.
Some time later, much to the young man's astonishment, the "old duffer" ascended the bench. Several cases were called and several lawyers gave the same excuses of not being ready that he had said he might give.

His own case was called. "Ready," said the opposing lawyer. He looked up at the judge, and the judge spoke. "Young man," he said, "what ever we do with these other cases, we'll grant you an adjournment if you want it. The court learned a whole lot from you early this morning."

HEARD ON THE BENCH.

"I haven't seen Mrs. Penchly in the summer season," remarked the first summer girl.
"No," rejoined the summer girl No. 2,
"she never goes near the water."
"But she ought to go in occasionally, if only for the sake of appearance," said No. 1.

"That's just it," explained the other.
"A few minutes in the water would spoil her appearance."

British Government Will Allow His Body to Be Buried in the Transvaal.

LONDON, July 15.—At a meeting of the privy council this morning at Buckingham Palace, at which King Edward presided, the request of the relatives of the late Mr. Kruger, former president of the South African Republic, for the interment of his remains in the Transvaal was considered, and was subsequently announced that the desired permission would be telegraphed to Clarendon, Switzerland (where Mr.
Kruger died yesterday) through the British minister at Bern.

CLARENDON, Switzerland, July 15.— Telegrams of condolence with the relatives of Mr. Kruger, former president of the Transvaal, who died here yesterday, continue to arrive at Clarendon from all parts of the world. The former president of the Orange Free State, Mr. Steyn, was among those who sent early messages. There will be no funeral ceremony at Clarendon.

SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES.

Police Looking for Woman Who was with Wealthy Manufacturers When Needed.

NEW YORK, July 15.—Detectives are searching all parts of the city for the strikingly dressed young woman who was in a cab with Charles W. H.
Carter, the wealthy manufacturer, last night when he died. After notifying the cabman that his companion was apparently ill, the young woman disappeared. Mr. Carter's son said today that his father had suffered from heart trouble, but because of the small an-amount of money found in his pockets when it was his custom to carry large sums, he believed the death to be suspicious and the whole family would insist on a thorough investigation of all the circumstances. The physicians who examined the body pronounced ed death due to heart disease, but because of the peculiar circumstances the coroner ordered an inquest. The examining physician found that the dead man's false teeth were back in his throat.

Little 4-year-old Helen was dining with her mother at a neighbor's, and the hostess, in an attempt to be entertaining, asked her if she liked kidneys.
Helen looked suspiciously at the chicken potpie on her plate, then responded: "I don't eat 'em; I don't ruvver have some cake."

HONEST OR ASTUTE.

About thirty hours after the Democratic convention had decided to expunge the gold plank from its platform and several hours after he had been notified of his nomination for the presidency, Judge Parker sent a telegram to the convention saying that personally he was in favor of a financial system based on a gold standard and could not accept the nomination unless, if elected, he should be free to act according to his views. Now, every other issue of the campaign threatens to be smothered in the discussion which has arisen as to whether the sending of that telegram was the impulsive act of an honorable and a brave man, who was willing to surrender his chance for the highest office in the gift of his countrymen rather than sell, even temporarily, under false colors, or whether it was a clever political trick, a bold and carefully planned coup to force the Democratic party to endorse a policy without which it could not hope to win.

The Democratic papers hall the action as unprecedented, the acme of all that is candid and honorable and courageous, and they point to Judge Parker as the one man in all American history who has clearly proved that he would rather be right than be president. His opponents on the other hand can see nothing but the action of an astute politician who was equally resolved to have the nomination and to force his party into a position from which there was some chance of success. If he had been all that the Democrats claim, they say, he would have stated his views before he was nominated—for he must have known what the platform adopted was before even his name was presented to the convention—instead of waiting until he had clinched his hold on the candidacy and was in position to force his party to accept him, views and all, or definitely to declare themselves, in favor of a policy upon which they knew they could not win.

And so the argument rages and will rage continually, as all arguments must where there is a good deal of truth in the premises of both sides.

For in the light of Judge Parker's record it is not easy to accept the Democratic declarations that he acted with the most noble independence without care for the consequences. All through the preliminary campaigning of the past few months he has been careful to say nothing. Not even the man who conducted his "boom" knew whether he was a gold or a silver man. He must have known that a firm stand on the money question was essential to any chance of success and, in the light of results, it must be admitted that a better time to make that declaration could not have been chosen. Had he spoken sooner he might have lost the nomination; had he waited longer his opponents would have neutralized his utterances by proclaiming that his party was not with him on the question. But, striking as he did, he forced his party either to endorse the "sound money" doctrine or, by turning him down, to prove that they still clung to free silver. And he must have known that they dared not do that.

But granting Judge Parker political wisdom does not rob him of honesty.
While the frantic praise of his followers may not be entirely justified, neither are the sneers of his opponents.
He did what he knew was right. It is nothing to his discredit that he did it at the right time.

It is a queer sight on politics that the suspicion that a man could be honest even when it might seem to be the best policy, could cause such excitement, anyway.

PAUL KRUGER.

Paul Kruger, who died yesterday, lost his hold on fame when he fled from the Transvaal. Had he stayed and shared in the burdens that pressed upon his people, posterity would probably have held him as worthy to rank with the noblest patriots and most devoted heroes of history. He would have been acclaimed, if not as a man broad enough to be a statesman, at least as one high-hearted enough to sacrifice wealth and the peace of his old age, and to risk his life in a struggle for what he thought was freedom. Had his conduct been brave and sincere there would have been found few to question at least his belief in the justice of his cause.

But he gave up all claim to that when, at the first approach of personal discomfort and danger he gathered his millions of money together and fled ignominiously to another country, leaving braver and better men to bear the brunt of the war into which he had forced them. For that this war was almost wholly the deliberate work of this crafty but over-reaching despot, evidence enough exists to convince all not blindly prejudiced against everything British. Kruger's ambition was

A Dutch South Africa, with the British driven into the sea, and, according to his vision, he laid his plans well. His under estimation of his opponents was his only error. He judged the British army by the few soldiers he defeated at Majuba, and judged the British government by that of Gladstone, which he outwitted. Astounding as it may seem to those who do not comprehend the Boer ignorance of all outside their own narrow lives, he and his abettors confidently expected easy victory.

Therefore, when Paul Kruger is viewed in the perspective of time, the cunning, grasping, bigoted, self-seeking old schemer will show in poor contrast with such men as Joubert, De la Rey and De Wet, who, though they had nothing to do with the making of the war, when once the issue was joined between their people and a strange people, fought bravely and unflinchingly, even after they knew they were giving their blood in vain.

THE TRIST.

I have prayed for a tryst with summer,
I have yearned for it late and long;
My soul goes out to the tardy coming,
As he has laid his bare of song.

On no height of the hills I'll meet her,
But in that that is hidden deep In the heart of the drowsing wood, the sweeter

For all its trance of sleep.

There will she dawn on her old adorer With her morning mien that is more than fair
The shimmer of sunlight glinting o'er her
And a wild rose in her hair.

Somewhere she comes, and the thought elates me
To a mood akin to a dream of bliss,
For I know what happiness awaits me In the glamour of her kiss.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, July 14.—The railway commission met this morning for the first time in their new offices on Queen street.

Flanagan's railway bill was under discussion for the greater portion of the day, and McLean moved an amendment to bring the bill in line with the jurisdiction of the railway commission as to control of rates. Several members supported him, but the amendment was lost. McLean then presented another amendment to remove from the chief commissioner the sole power to decide questions of law coming before the board. This amendment was also defeated.

After recess McLean's amendment to the railway act to adopt American railway passenger rates of 10 cents a mile, graded as in Michigan, was voted down after a long debate. The railway bill was agreed to in committee, but stands for third reading when Mc-Lean will divide the house.

At one o'clock the conservative members assembled in room six, Borden in the chair, and presented George Taylor, the veteran chief whip of the party, with a motion for a vote on cane and other tokens of regard. Borden's presentation speech was in his happiest vein, and he acted with the nobility of a statesman. He is business to the core, and rarely indulges in sentimentalism. He has entertained his political associates at a smoker.

During the debate on Mr. McLean's motion, Mr. Emmerson referred to petitions he had received from several places in the Maritime Provinces to know that a firm stand on the money question was essential to any chance
of success and, in the light of results,
it must be admitted that a better time
been chosen. Had he spoken sooner he
neutralized his utterances by proclaim-
the question. But, striking as he did,
that.

THE SLOCUM DISASTER.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The total dead in the destruction of the steamer General Slocum on June 15 is given as 568 in the final report presented to Police Commissioner McAdoo today by the inspectors in charge of the investigation by the police department. Only 579 of the dead were identified. 265 were reported missing and 61 unidentified, while 180 were injured and only 28 out of the nearly 1,400 on the steamer escaped uninjured. Assuming that the unidentified dead are among the missing, all but one person have been thus accounted for.

LOCAL NEWS.

The first blueberries of the season came down by the river boats yesterday. They are selling at 15c. per box.
The production this year is likely to be very good.

The sisters of St. Vincent's convent, Cliff street, began their yearly week of retreat last night. Every year the sisters spend a week in special prayers and services. The first service was held last night and was conducted by Rev. Father Connelly, C. S. R.

The annual picnic of the St. Joachim parish at Silver Falls was held yesterday at the McTavish grounds out there.
It was a delightful day and the attendance aggregated between 900 and 1,000 people. Rev. Fr. O'Neil had all arrangements perfected for the thorough entertainment of all who attended. The usual amusements were provided and 487 people sat down to the excellent supper provided.

Rev. H. Erb of St. John has been appointed to the University of New Brunswick and received a B. A. degree from that institution in 1900. He has also taken a two years' course at Hamilton Theological School, followed by a year's course and graduation from Rochester Theological School—Island Reporter.

The salmon season in St. John harbor and down the shore is nearing the end. The weirs in St. John harbor and the drift men did less than last year.
The boats down the shore made better catches than in 1903. They averaged all the way from 100 to 250 salmon and some 400. The places where these fishermen outside of the harbor reside are Louville (formerly Planco), Dipper Harbor and Chance Harbor. It is estimated that Lorneville sent out 40 boats, Dipper Harbor 15 boats and Chance Harbor 8 boats. There were two men in each boat.

Str. Lunenburg, from Pictou via northern ports for Sydney, ran ashore on the 13th on Cranberry Head Shoal.
The passengers were transferred to North Sydney by the tug Iona. An attempt was made to float her that night, but it resulted in failure. The structure is reported to be badly damaged, but it is thought possible to save her from becoming a total loss.
She is hard and fast on the rocks and in a dangerous position.

As the City Cornet Band was returning from Rev. Father O'Neil's picnic in a backboard driven by John Dricoll, a team, driven at a furious rate by two young men, dashed into them.
The two were thrown but the cornet horse, relieved of its harness, dashed away in the darkness. One of the harness had a very narrow escape, as he was standing on the sideboard.
Quite a crowd was on the road at the time.

BACK FROM THE WEST.

Senator King Was Looking Over the King Lumber Co.'s Place at Cranbrook.

Senator Geo. G. King was in town yesterday on his return to his home at Chipman from a most enjoyable visit out west. He spent some time at Cranbrook, B. C., where the King Lumber Co. are carrying on a large lumbering business. The limits are located on the Coeur d'Alene railway, between the Cascades and the Rockies.
This concern ship their lumber to the east as far as Winnipeg, and their annual production of manufactured lumber this year will be ten million feet.
The men who conduct this business are B. C. King, Dr. J. P. King, M. P. P.
Dr. F. E. King, all of whom are sons of the senator. Senator King had a view and made careful inspection of the Crothers Lumber Company's mill, located on the North Star branch of the Coeur d'Alene railway, eight miles from Cranbrook. Judge Edgett of Gagetown was there, and along with him Harry and John King, managing this mill, and a big business is being carried on.

While out west Senator King met John Harper and his son of Chipman, on their way to Montana to visit friends.

Among those who are interested in the Crothers' operations are Robt. Ormond, C. R. Taylor, Capt. Taylor of the Star line, and Mr. Slipp of Fred-erickton.

THE FURNACE LINE.

Str. St. John City, from St. John and Halifax, reached London at 4 p. m. yesterday.

Str. Florence which arrived here Wednesday night, and anchored in the stream after having been ashore at the entrance to the bay, was at noon yesterday grounded in Rodney slip for examination. The survey made by the port wardens, along with a foundry man of repute, revealed the fact that two plates had been broken for twelve feet, beginning at the fore part. The keel was gone for 15 feet. It was recommended that temporary repairs be made. The steamer last night shifted over to the Kennedy Slip at the lower government pier.

THIRTY MILLION HUNG UP.

A gentleman from the headquarters of the St. John river who was here yesterday reported that there are hung up between Edmonton and St. Francis River some thirty millions of logs.
The Corporation logs on the St. Francis River are not yet out. They are all hung up there or on the St. John river.

The greater portion of these logs are for the big mills Van Buren, which are owned by the concern which attempted to introduce the dam in the St. John river, about which there was so much excitement in this province not long ago.

BOY DROWNED.

RICHMOND, July 14.—Verdon fourteen years, the only son of Geo.
W. Robertson, was drowned this afternoon at three o'clock while bathing in the upper ballast wharf. The body was recovered an hour later.

WINNIPEG, July 14.—A despatch from Dauphin, Man., says that the march of the first band of Doukhobors ended last night at Flaher's Switch on the Canadian Northern railway, where the mounted police rounded up the pilgrims and loaded them on a special train which was waiting. A few of the Doukhobors made slight objections to being interfered with, but the majority were tired out. They were taken to Svan River, whence they will be taken back to their colony at Thunberg in wagons.

HEALTH MATTERS.

The City is Remarkably Free from Disease of Any Kind.

There does not appear to be any cause for fear that the infant mortality of St. John will reach the alarming proportions which it has done in the past. In that city over a hundred a week have been dying. This refers to infants under one year.

The mortality among young people during the first five months of the present year may be seen from the following figures:

Under one year of age . . . 42 deaths

Between one and five years, 22 deaths

Between five and ten years . . . 13 deaths

Between ten and fifteen years 9 deaths

SYDNEY STRIKE.

MALFA, July 14.—There are evidences on all sides that the Dominion Iron and Steel Co. are gaining strength and it is stated that now there are 70 men at work, and forty of these are P. W. A. men.

Skilled labor is being imported from outside. Six young men, experienced mechanics, arrived from Ontario last night and a few more came in to-day. The company appear determined any longer to hold positions open for skilled men that are out on strike. The general opinion is that the strike is broken and so far as the steel works are concerned that the P. W. A. is beaten. The company appear determined to crush out unionism. Today they blew in one open hearth furnace, and turned out one charge. Tomorrow they expect to have a second one in operation. They will also start the rod mill in a day or two. It was going to-day for a little while for testing purposes. The work of repairing coke ovens is about to begin and it is expected to have one or two batteries in readiness in two weeks.

The Quebec troops are camped on a large field adjoining the works. They are under orders to stay for three months.

JOHN C. HENRY DEAD.

John C. Henry, an aged and respected citizen of St. John, died at his home on Marsh street at 11.55 o'clock last night. He was sixty years old and had been sick for some time.

Mr. Henry was for many years foreman of the St. Stephen Courier, and was well known throughout the province. He was a prominent Mason and also a member of the Knights of Pythias.

GILLEN-McDERMOTT.

At 6 o'clock Thursday morning Miss Gertrude E. McDermott, youngest daughter of Alexander McDermott of this city, was married in the cathedral of Frederick Charles Gillen, of the I. R. general office department, Moncton. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Annie McDermott, and was given away by her father. Mr. and Mrs. McDermott left on the C. P. R. at two o'clock wedding tour to Quebec and Montreal. They will reside in Moncton.

MOULDERS MAY STRIKE.

MONTREAL, July 14.—There is a likelihood of a strike among the moulders employed in Montreal, their employers having made a demand upon the union for a reduction of ten per cent in wages. The men refuse to accept the reduction, as they claim wages here are ten cents per day less than in Toronto, and twenty cents less than in Hamilton, while it costs more to live here. The matter is now under consideration by the board of arbitration.

FIRE IN PORTLAND.

PORTLAND, Me., July 14.—Fire light destroyed the wooden and brick building near Commercial street owned by the Eastern Steamship Co. a laundry, with practically all its contents. The loss is estimated at $50,000; insured for $100,000. The cause is unknown.

IRONIC CONSTIPATION CURED BY BACK LAXATIVE TABLETS.

ANOTHER GENERAL HALF HOLIDAY.

The half holiday will be a general thing again tomorrow. A late canvass of most of the firms throughout the principal parts of the city has been to the effect that there will be no "bolt," as suggested early in the week, but that the firms are holding out. The large houses are determined to see the matter out, if they are supported. Citizens generally are showing a lively interest in the campaign of the city and are aiding the movement by ordering all their household purchases to be made before Saturday noon. Last Saturday the half day was immensely enjoyed by a couple of thousand men, women and children who would otherwise have been standing at their work from eight in the morning until ten at night.

BAND CONCERT.

The first free band concert of the season will be held at the foot of Garden street Saturday evening, commencing at 8.30 o'clock, and a first class popular programme will be discussed. The band of the Third Regiment Canadian Artillery will play and there promises to be a highly enjoyable evening, particularly because of the half holiday. Prof. Horsman, the band leader, is going through the music repertoire of the organization and is selecting the newest and catchiest pieces. This revival of free concert will be a glad news to the city folk who were despairing of any more such delightful evenings as were enjoyed on Hazen avenue, the Garden street stand and King street east in the past. At 8.15 the band will march to the pretty spot at the foot of Jeffrey's Hill to the strains of a stirring new march.

GRAND TRUNK WRECK.

GORHAM, N. H., July 14.—The Grand Trunk express train from Montreal for Portland, due here about three o'clock this afternoon, was derailed about one mile west of Gorham village owing to the spreading of the rails, the engine and four cars plunging down a thirty-foot embankment. Mail agent, Thomas Johnson, was probably fatally injured, his back being broken, while Conductor Delane sustained severe injuries, but is not believed to be fatally hurt.

DINNER TO DUNDONALD.

MONTREAL, July 14.—Lord Dundonald has been extended and has accepted a dinner from the St. James Club, to be held on the evening of July 27th. Already over 200 members have sent in their names as desirous of being present, but on account of limited accommodation only 125 will be able to be present. The committee in charge of the affair consists of leading citizens of Montreal, with Sir George Drummond as chairman.

MORE PAINTINGS BY A. WATSON.

Four very beautiful and remarkably clever water color paintings by an artist who is growing increasingly proud of his work on exhibition in handsome frames in the windows of F. R. Holman & Co., King street. They are from the brush of Alexander Watson, and are local subjects, that is, belonging to the lower provinces.

BASE BALL.

Franklins Won.

The game on the Shamrock grounds last evening between the Franklins and the Portlands resulted in a victory for the leaders by a score of 8 to 5. The Portlands played a fairly good game notwithstanding that some of their best players were absent, and McCormick had to be taken from the field to pitch, and Titus placed behind the bat. As it was, McCormick was found for only six safe ones, and Titus caught a fairly good game when it is considered he was out of his position. Errors were responsible for the majority of runs. ILLNESS MARKED ON NAILS.

Accidents and Mental Depression Also Clearly Shown to Experts.

"One who makes a close study of finger nails will find many curious things about them to excite his wonder and interest," says F. De Donato, who is an expert on such matters. "But none more so than the stories of physical condition told in their growth."

"You know the nail of a person in good health grows at the rate of about one-eighth of an inch each week—slightly more than many authorities believe—but during illness or after an accident or during times of mental depression this growth is not only affected and retarded so far as its length is concerned, but also as regards its thickness."

"The slightest illness will thus leave an indelible mark on the nails which may be readily detected as the nail grows out. If one has a sudden attack, such as acute rheumatism, which sends the temperature bounding upward to 104 or 105 within the space of two or three hours, it will be found on the nails, indicating the difference in thickness of growth between the time when health was enjoyed and the thin growth of the ill period."

"If the illness is one that comes gradually, like typhoid fever, for example, instead of a ridge a gentle incline will appear on the nails. Should one have an arm broken the thick ridge can be seen only on the fingers of the one hand, but in all cases of general sickness the ridge or slope appears on the fingers of both hands. When one has passed through a period of extreme excitement or mental depression the fact will be imprinted on the nails either with an abrupt ridge or a gentle slope, according to the acuteness of the mental influence."

"In no instance can the marks of illness, accident or mental condition be clearly seen on the nail until after the growth has carried the line beyond the white or half moon portion of it, but a week or two subsequent to any of these things the ridge or slope may be found by running the tip of the finger nail down any of the nails."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

BODIES STILL IN FLORIDA.

Delay in Interment the Remains of Captain Peck and Family.

Robert S. Cowan, who went to New York in reference to the drowning of Capt. and Mrs. Geo. W. Peck and their daughter, Miss Sarah J. Peck, on the Florida, Saturday, has returned home. When he left New York three days ago, the bodies had not been forwarded for interment. After the bodies had been recovered from the water they were sent to Key West and placed in the hands of an undertaker there to be embalmed. The cause of the delay in forwarding the bodies is not definitely known, though the delay is believed to have been due to the undertaker, who refused to forward the bodies until he had been paid in cash for his services. When it was ascertained in New York that this might be the cause of the delay the bodies were sent to Key West, where they were actually cause of delay Mr. Cowan thinks that the bodies must now either be in New York or on their way there.

AN UNPLEASANT SURPRISE.

Frederick O. Reid, accountant for Messrs. Emerson & Fisher, received a big surprise about noon today. He was standing just outside the entrance to the firm's store on Prince William street, when suddenly there was a crash and almost at his very feet lay a heavy iron safe. The safe, it seems, fell from one of Messrs. Emerson & Fisher's windows, where a number of them had been stored awaiting shipment. Had the mug in question struck Mr. Reid or any other passer-by the result might have been serious.

R. K. Y. C. CRUISE TOMORROW.

Large Fleet Carrying Many Happy Yachtsmen, will Start Up River Tomorrow Afternoon.

Some weather and a spanking breeze, is what every yachtsman of the R. K. Y. Club is hoping the morning will bring forth.

The club fleet starts on its annual cruise tomorrow the hour of departure being three o'clock in the afternoon. The following yachts are expected to participate: Flagship Selous, Commodore R. Thomson; Louvina, Vice-commodore F. J. Lively; Robin Hood, Rear Commodore T. T. Lantallum; Zuleika, J. Fraser Gregory, fleet captain; steam yacht Ben Hur, J. H. Pullen, H. J. Fleming and W. Fleming; Dawn, S. P. Gentry; Hudson, R. C. Elkin; Conductor, J. C. Johnson and A. E. Brown; Kathleen, G. W. Cook; gasoline yacht Irene, F. P. Starr; and the sailing yachts Canada, F. S. Heans, H. Holder and Howard Casey; Windward, Wm. White and F. R. Dearborn; Dahinda, W. M. Mackay; Hermes II, I. A. Lovitt; Grace McChesney, J. C. McClellan; Tanisha, W. A. Maclellan, and the Lakewide, Malcolm McAvity.

The signal of starting will be one gun fired from the flagship at three o'clock. It will probably be sometime after three, however, before all the yachts get under way. The late hour of starting this year will avoid any undue hustling on the part of the yachtsmen.

The first rendezvous will be Carter's Point, where the yachts will anchor for the night. The fleet will remain over Sunday at Carter's Point. Other points to be visited are Braspen, Green Lake, Washademoak Lake, Belleisle and Oak Point. On the Sunday of the 24th annual diversions will be conducted at Carter's Point by the chaplain, Rev. Linday Parker.

GOSS CASE SETTLED.

Hutchings Woman Has Arrived in Newfoundland and Goss will be Freed at Once.

Acting Police Magistrate Henderson received a telegram this morning from Mrs. and Mr. Harold Lingley, of St. John, Newfoundland, announcing her safe arrival there and expressing her satisfaction the message would prove satisfactory.

The Hutchings woman was arrested some days ago on a charge of adultery along with a man named Frederick Goss. When the case was in court Goss pleaded guilty and wanted to take all the responsibility. It was suggested that a settlement be made and the result was that the Hutchings woman went back to Newfoundland to her people, taking her child. Upon her arrival there she was to telegraph to the authorities here, who Goss was to be allowed to accompany his lawful wife to Boston.

Goss will be released at once and it is expected he and his wife and daughter will leave for Boston tomorrow evening.

WOODSTOCK'S GREAT SUCCESS.

Summer Carnival This Year Beat All Previous Records.

C. B. Foster, district passenger agent of the C. P. R., has returned in the trip to Carleton and Victoria counties. Mr. Foster says the Woodstock midsummer carnival was the largest ever seen in the history of Carleton county. The shrewd merchants and others are well pleased with the affair. All the attractions were good, particularly the horse races and illuminated boat parade on the river. The C. P. R. cash carried two thousand people into the town, and it is estimated that there was fully one thousand other strangers in the city during the two days of the affair. Every hotel and boarding house was taxed to the utmost capacity. As compared with the carnivals of the last two years the attendance this year almost doubled the others.

MORE TOURISTS.

Lots Coming But They Don't Stop in St. John.

The Eastern Line steamer Calvin Austin arrived from Boston this morning with 350 passengers, not counting children. Very few remained in the city, nearly all leaving by rail for points north and east. So far this season the travel by the Austin has been heavy, but the number of tourists that have returned to this city has been small. One gentleman who has been a resident of this city for forty-five years, during the greater portion of which he has been in business on his own, he told the Star this morning that he had never seen the livery and hotel business so quiet during the summer months as at present.

SUMMER PORT WORK.

Longshoremen Have Been Kept Busy This Season.

Longshoremen in the city say that this summer has been an unusually good one for their class of work. For the past few weeks particularly the number of vessels visiting the port has been large, and employment for about three hundred and fifty men has been constant. The summer steamship lines, the Donaldson, Furness and Manchester, have had steamers calling every month and taking away large cargoes.

Both the Manchester and Donaldson lines are each bringing here one steamer additional this summer.

About twenty St. John longshoremen are working this summer in Montreal.

SAILED TODAY.

The Battle Line steamer Cunaxa sailed today for West Bay to load for the West Coast of England. The Cunaxa has a new command, Captain Staunt, who for years sailed in vessels owned by the Battle Line.

The str. Benedict, Capt. Cox, sailed at eleven o'clock this morning for Barrow and Farnham, with a cargo of deals shipped by George McKean.
