THE VICOMTE DE FRONSAU TO POSSESS THE CROWN LANDS AND NOTIFY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ACT.

The Viscount de Fronsau having completed the investigation which brought him here, is getting ready to return to Boston, where he will meet the others of the Forsyth family interested in the claim and discuss matters at greater length and to more purpose than has hitherto been done. It is the Viscount's intention to return via Yarmouth, where, with the new steamship Prince Edward for the homeward trip.

Before anything definite can be done it will be necessary for the heirs to discover whether or not there are any descendants living of Jean Mercan. Jean Mercan was, son of Pierre Mercan, born in 1685, and married in 1709 to Anne, a younger daughter of Richard, Viscount de Fronsau. It is not known whether there are any living members of this branch of the family, but if so they will have to be informed of their heirship to a portion of the estate in Cape Breton, and in order that this may be done a process of hunting will have to be performed to turn them up. As no descendants of Jean Mercan are known (and the Viscount has a marvellously extensive knowledge of his family records), it will probably be a difficult matter to locate them. As soon as they are found, or if there are none, as soon as they are satisfied they do not exist, the matter will likely be pushed vigorously.

During his stay here the Viscount de Fronsau has visited the crown lands office and has examined the maps and various sources of information there.
He has also consulted with one of the foremost law firms in the city and has been informed that there is no statutory limitation relative to the crown, so that the chance of the heirs ultimately possessing the lands still unoccupied by private individuals are good.

If affairs develop as the Viscount expects, some of the heirs will visit Cape Breton next summer and on some part of the crown lands will build a house. This will be equivalent to taking possession and the government of Nova Scotia will be informed, through the attorney of the heirs, that they have taken possession after which the fun will begin. Most of the lands which they claim lie in the county of Inverness.

The Viscount de Fronsau will not return to the province this fall. For the time being his work is to further investigate the claims and rights of the De Fronsau heirs and engineer the business of the affair, which is beginning to attract considerable interest here.
There is, however, a possibility that some of the Boston Forsyths may want to visit the province this fall, and especially the parts of Cape Breton to which they lay claim, and in that event the Viscount, who is now well acquainted with the whole question, will accompany them. But it is his intention now to wait until next summer before he returns. When he does return next summer, people may look out for something interesting—so he says.—Halifax Chronicle.

CURED AT THE SHRINE.

Almost Hopeless Cases of Kidney Trouble Daily Being Cured by That Most Wonderful Remedy, The Great South American Kidney Cure.
D. J. Locke, of Sherbrooke, P. Q., spent 1100 in treatments for a complicated case of kidney disease and received no permanent benefit. He says:
"I began the use of South American Kidney Cure, and when four bottles were used I was completely cured.
This is but one testimony of thousands who have gone almost discouraged to this great cure, and have returned with joyful hearts and lasting cure.—Sold by E. Lee Street.

LIVELY BASEBALL.

AN UMPIRE NARROWLY ESCAPES AN IN-FURATED CROWD.

NEWPORT R. I., Sept. 3.—The Brockton-Newport ball game had a noisy finish yesterday. The team were battling for the leadership of the league and great excitement prevailed. During the game Umpire Connolly made a number of decisions that did not please spectators. In the ninth inning a close decision prevented the tying of the score by the home club. The crowd rushed for the Umpire, who was protected by the players and police. A lively scrimmage ensued, and all available officers were sent to the grounds to quell the disturbance. Connolly was taken into the grand stand and finally to the dressing room, while the police fought the crowd. Later Connolly was taken to his hotel in a patrol wagon under police escort.

THE CROP FAILURE.

AGRICULTURAL CRISIS FEARED IN IRE-LAND.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The failure of the potato, hay and corn crops in most of the districts in Ireland has resulted in the gloomiest outlook for the winter. The chairman of the Michaelstown board of guardians at a meeting held by that body on Thursday last, declared Ireland is on the verge of a great agricultural crisis, and that numbers of rate payers will be compelled to go to the workhouse. The prices of bread is rising slowly in London, and here also the outlook for the winter is gloomy. This city requires 70,000 quarters of foreign wheat weekly independent of flour, and during August less than 65,000 quarters arrived per week. Not one tenth of London's bread is made from English flour and the bakers assert that with flour at 54d (11 cents) will send them into bankruptcy. The hop crop is below the average. The picking, which is in full swing, has produced the usual pauper invasion of Kent and has been marked by greater distress than usual. The workhouses and police stations of that county are filled with them and there have been several deaths from exposure in the fields and hedges during the recent storms.

PAIN—WRACK.

No Station in Life is Proof Against Rheumatism—All Come Under the Ban—South American Rheumatic Cure Cures all.

"O'Connor, of Gannon's, has been employed by the Bathbun Company for nearly twenty years as an engineer, and from the nature of the employment was subjected to severe attacks of rheumatism. He tried many remedies with scarcely any benefit.
South American Rheumatic Cure was recommended to him. He found almost instant relief and the first bottle effected a cure.—Sold by E. Lee Street.

SPAIN READY TO FIGHT.

RATHER THAN SUBMIT TO INTERFERENCE BY UNITED STATES IN CUBA.

HAVANA, Sept. 8.—A great sensation has been caused here by a letter from Gen. Marcelo Azcarraga, now Spain's Prime Minister, addressed to one of the leading Spaniards in Havana who for years has been a decided influence in all colonial affairs by his high social position in the island as well as by his intimate friendship with the most prominent leaders of the Conservative party in Spain. Though not a word of the letter has been published in the local press, it is public knowledge through the high Spanish officials and members of the Union Constitutional party to whom it was shown at a private dinner at the house of the gentleman who received it.

To all appearances Gen. Azcarraga wishes to be known by the leaders of the Spanish party in the island without making any official declaration through the press which might cause premature diplomatic trouble. The letter refers to the answer which the Spanish Government is ready to give to any proposal of interference from the United States that Gen. Woodford may make to the court of Spain, and its most important paragraphs say:
"The Spanish patriots in Cuba ought not to entertain the least apprehension about the mission of Mr. Woodford.
According to the Government's information from its representative in Washington, the intentions of the United States are probably much exaggerated, and besides our position is so clear and our determination to repel any unjust pre-tension of that nation so emphatic that we are resolved before yielding to go to all extremes even to war if necessary in order to defend our sacred rights in Cuba."

"Nor, if we go to war, shall we be less confident of the triumph of Spain. We will be the champions of the great political principle of European colonization in America against that wrong idea that the United States is the arbiter of national life and property in the New World. We have the sympathies of Europe, no doubt about that, and Europe will not consent to an expulsion from the Cuba. The day in which, by the power of arms, or yielding before a warlike pressure from the United States, we shall give Cuba up, that day would be the eve of England's loss of Canada and Japan's, and France's departure from her American colonies. No Europe will not consent to our failure, and apart from the fact that our arms will have a better occasion to display their strength in a contest against a civilized country than in the guerrilla fights in the manguas of Cuba, we shall have, even if we fail, a hand to lift us up in the last moments."

"Gen. Woodford will be received and even welcomed as our honored Don Antonio (Canovas del Castillo), wished to welcome him. It brings only claims of American citizens harmed in Cuba attention will be paid to those claims as far as they are just. In a friendly manner we will be notified also of Spain's right to claim other damages, and instructions will be given for the purpose to our Minister in Washington. But it will be a great mistake if he intends to the fraud of the day.

Carter's Little Liver Pills. suggest any other kind of American interference in Cuba. Canovas did not answer the proposals for home rule made by President Cleveland, but now if the United States persists, the answer will have to be given. It will be straight-and firm. It will end forever all those vain pretensions of the American role outside of their land. Spain will say that she does not admit in the least the right of the United States to interfere in Cuba, that the war between the Cuban rebels and Spain is but a civil war, a contest of family, and that foreigners ought to keep hands off. And Spain will stand by her answer whatever the consequences may be.

Another letter, from Senor Romero Robledo, shows the same high spirit and says:
"You can assure our friends down there that in spite of what they may read in some Madrid newspapers and what words some politicians have uttered, more to make a sensation than anything else. Spain's historical pride in Cuba, that the war between the
war, a contest of family, and that for-

"I believe, notwithstanding all, that much has been exaggerated in this affair, and that Mr. Woodford will not be less friendly than Mr. Taylor or not less a sufferer from chronic catarrh.
Instructions have been cable from Madrid.—Gen. Weyler to be ready for any emergency from abroad. Unusual activity is displayed in the forts and the arsenal."

"I WILL BE HERALD."
In Letting the World Know What a Boon Catarrh Sufferers Have in Dr.
Agnew's Catarrh Powder.
John E. Duff, of Paulding, O., says of Dr. Agnew's Catarrh Powder: "I was a sufferer from chronic catarrh. I was advised to try Dr. Agnew's Catarrh Powder. It worked a great cure in me. I had almost instant relief. It is the best remedy I ever tried for this disease. I will do all I can to make its excellent qualities known to those suffering as I did.—Sold by E.
Lee Street.

LONDON'S WATER SUPPLY.
The daily average consumption of water in London, England, is 167,860, 233 gallons, an average of 23 gallons per capita of the population of 5,675, 870. The area supplied is 845 square miles, and this necessitates 5,147 miles of piping. The supply comes in part from the River Thames, above Richmond, from the River Lee and from springs and artesian wells. Fifty-four reservoirs with a capacity of nearly two billion gallons distribute the water, which passes first through a thorough filtering process. Since the Parliamentary commission of 1893 to inquire into its purity no complaint is heard upon that score.

FEMALE HUNTERS.

The Amherst ladies as a rule go in more for sport than do the gentler sex of this town. Amherst is the home of several women who can handle a breech-loader with the majority of men, and when the opportunity presents itself they are not afraid to put their knowledge in this line to practical use. For instance, last Wednesday, the opening of the season for duck, saw one or more ladies away out on the marshes, attired in proper sporting garments, gun in hand and with eyes for nothing but the wily duck. Of course they were accompanied by their husbands or other male friends; still, one lady at least had the satisfaction of bagging a bird. A party of ladies and gentlemen were, however, about the middle of next month for the northern part of the province on a two weeks' hunting expedition.—Sackville Post.

CUBAN SELF-GOVERNMENT.

Spain has assured the world that the Cubans cannot govern themselves. She predicts, in their success, another negro republic. In this representing to the nations of the earth that the independence of her colonists would mean a relapse into barbarism, constant revolutions, and a loss to civilization, Spain both condemns herself and pleads for her own salvation. Cuban revenues are the life-blood of Spain. The Spanish people, loyal, patient, and proud of their country's martial glory in the dim past—which is still bright to them—cannot endure heavier burdens of taxation, nor submit to greater drudgery upon their patriots. They have gladly poured out their savings, that Spain might live; they have freely given their lives, that the national territory of their beloved country might be held intact.
In spite of the patriotic self-denial, subjugation and suffering of the common people, Spain has gradually lost one rich colony after another, through insurrections caused by the inordinate greed of officials sent to govern them, and by the refusal of the Spanish nation than were the losses of all its South American dependencies early in the century. Then Spain was rich; now she is bankrupt. Her debt is enormous and pressing; her expenses are far beyond her home revenues; her resources are mortgaged; her people, impoverished by taxation and on the verge of revolution. If Cuba should be lost, and the Spanish people should be asked to supply its vanished revenues, the latter would certainly rise against those who have kept them in want in order to support an extravagant and impotent Monarchy; and they might declare themselves in favor of popular government. The contention of Spain, that the Cubans, after Spain's long and victorious reign, are not fit to govern themselves, is, therefore, at this juncture entitled to very little consideration. It is to the Cubans themselves that we must look for evidence.—T. G. Alward, in the September Forum.

RECORD FOR MOTHERHOOD.

MRS. PEARL BRADLEY, 18 YEARS OLD, WITH EIGHT CHILDREN.

St. Louis, Sept. 3.—Pearl Bradley holds the record of being the mother of more children than any other woman in East St. Louis.
She called upon Supervisor Dr.
Alexander Woods in the East St. Louis public library building this morning and made application for aid.
"I am eighteen years old, doctor, and have eight children to support. I was married, but my husband deserted me, leaving the children for me to feed and clothe."
"I was 13 years old when I was married, and my children have been born two at a time. I am beginning to feel awful sick again, and cannot work as used to."

She said that she came from New Orleans and lived at East St. Louis during the past five years.
The doctor, by investigation, found her story to be true.

THE AMER'S TROOPS.

THEY TAKE THE FIELD ON THE SIDE OF BRITAIN.

Simla, Sept. 6.—The Swatis, up to the present, have surrendered 2,000 guns, 1,000 swords and 70 breech-loading rifles. A few days after the council at Cabul, when the Amer of Afghanistan repudiated the complicity of his officials in the uprising of the tribesmen on the Indian frontier, the British agent addressed a letter to him asking for a specific answer to the strong tribunes that natives from Lughman were joining the Haddah Mullah, and that supplies were being sent from Lapura to the gathering of the followers of the Haddah Mullah. The Amer immediately replied in an autograph letter, reminding the British agent of his public repudiation of the complicity of his officials, adding that though the Mullah's disciples helped the Russian forces secretly they could not do so openly for fear of the Amer. The Amer also informed the agent that the Afghan officials at Nuigrah had been instructed to secretly watch the suspected disciples of the Mullah in Afghanistan, and he asserted that the Governor of Lughman recently attacked and dispersed 500 men who had been collected by the Mullah's disciples, and who were about to join the Mullah. The Governor, the Amer asserted, had arrested forty of these men.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The Times' Simla correspondent says that in addition to dispersing the Lughman, who had been collected by the Mullah's disciples and were about to join the Mullah, the Amer's troops also scattered a body of Shinwaris who had assembled near Peshawar, intending to enter and hold the Khyber Pass for the Afghans. The Amer, the correspondent says, is plainly determined to keep the tribesmen in check, and measures will be taken by his orders that will cripple the Mullah's power and probably prevent further rising.

NO SERIOUS FIGHTING.

BRITISH TROOPS MARCHING ALONG THE
DISTURBED LINE.

FESHEWAR, Sept. 5.—No fighting of importance has yet occurred between the government forces and the tribesmen who have taken part in the uprising.
The enemy are concentrating at various points and it is estimated that 17,000 of them are now on the same range, but they appear loath to attack the government troops. It is reported that the followers of Mullah in the Shikhar district are deserting, him and the Afri-dis are returning to Khyber Pass. The British troops are marching along the disturbed line and several columns have been sent out in different directions.
A slight skirmish has occurred near Hanga, from which part a small column was dispatched and secured the districts of Atlaguir Nawimela and Turi. They found the enemies posts deserted. There was some firing, but the enemy refused to be engaged at close quarters. The subaltern commanding the Mullagori
