I saw content the other day. Sit by her spinning wheel, And Plenty in a wooden tray, Of wheat and indian meal

Health also at the table sat. Dining upon a ham ; But Appetite demanded yet, A cabbage and a clam,

Wealth sat enthroned upon a green And fragrant load of hay ; And Happiness compelled a dog Behind his cart to lay.

Delight was obesing butterflies With Laughter and with Joy ; Affection gazed with ardent eyes Upon the sweet employ.

Beauty was watering fragrant flowers Beside the cottage door ; And Pleasure spoke about a tour

Justice bid good morrow, and Invited me to tes; a But Jolly bid me stay away,

Usless I came with Glee. Patience sat in an easy chair,

Unravelling a skein ; While Mirth with roguish eye and air, Would tangle it sgain.

Benevolance had built a tower Of pudding bread and meat, And bid Compassion take it o'er To Want, across the street

But I was gratified to see Easy, and fice, and fair. With Innocence upon his knee, Old Satisfaction there.
