59TH YEAR. NO. 23421 LONDON, ONTARIO, TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 22, 1922. PRICE, THREE CENTS

COAL CUT-PUT FOR WEEK IS 5,000,000 TONS

Germany Will Not Pledge Mines As Guarantees

BERLIN STATES IMPOSSIBLE TO AGREE TO PLAN

Experts Estimate Gold Value of Bank Reserve at $5,000,000

INVOICE ON DOLLAR BASIS

Manufacturers Place Plants at Disposal of Entente.

Berlin, Aug. 22.—Minister of Finance Hermes was reported today to have left no doubt in yesterday's deliberations with members of the reparations commission, that the pledging of state forests on the left bank of the Rhine and the state mines in the Ruhr district as guarantees for the payment of German reparations, was impossible.

It is estimated that on the basis of 1,200 marks to the dollar, the present value, the combined capital stock, reserves, realty and building fund reserves of the eight major banks of Greater Berlin, including the four big institutions comprising "Die Gruppe" today represent a gold value slightly less than $5,000,000, although these assets are entered on the last balance sheets of the banks as worth 4,772,000,000 marks.

Germany's unpaid reparations debt is estimated at 120,000,000,000 gold marks. The slump in the mark is accelerating the practice of invoicing on the dollar basis by most of the export lines, especially textile industries, many of which are also placing their plants at the disposal of the entente, accepting raw materials on condition that these be turned into the finished product at a fixed wage.

Church Union Continues As Live Issue.

TORONTO, Aug. 22.—Church union continues to be one of the most debated questions of several of the great Canadian denominations. Organic union seems to be in favor in Methodist opinion, while in Presbyterian congregations there appears to be less enthusiasm.

According to a recent letter which Rev. Ephraim Scott, editor of the Presbyterian Record, has addressed to the editor of the Methodist Guardian, a strong portion of this church does not consider amalgamation with other denominations to their advantage.

CALLS MEIGHEN REMARKS FALSE

Delegate Tunney of Ottawa Scores Ex-Premier at Montreal Congress

Asserts Board of Appeal Not Representative of Labor.

Montreal, Aug. 22.—Ex-Premier Meighen's statement to organized labor in reply to the latter's plea for a reorganization of the civil service was labelled "a complete misstatement, a fabrication, and not in accordance with the true facts in the case," by Delegate Tunney of Ottawa, representing the unionized government employees, at this morning's session of the Trades and Labor Congress.

"Contrary to Mr. Meighen's statement," declared Mr. Tunney, "we have not been granted a board of appeal against the decisions of the civil service commission. The board of hearing does not represent us, as we were refused a representative on it. So, too, is the statement untrue that civil service workers' salaries have increased one hundred per cent. As a matter of fact, J. W. Wilkinson, Vancouver, that organized labor should give a more generous support to the 'Congress Journal,' an official publication of the congress, precipitated the first spirited debate of the convention."

Delegate Watson of Nova Scotia, a miners' representative, assailed an editorial recently carried by the 'Party of Canada,' and the role it played in the United Mine Workers of America elections.

President Tom Moore promptly left the chair to take part in the debate. "I am certainly amazed," he began, "to see delegates come here to squel because we have said something they don't agree with. Certain sections of labor, or certain leaders, who are opposed to the ideal of international trade unionism began a careful propaganda against us through labor papers who control they had secured. They could do this, they could attack us, but we were supposed to remain silent. Let me say that so long as I am a member of organized labor I will fight any untruth or calumny wherever it comes from."

P. M. Draper, veteran secretary of the congress, in a fighting speech, supported President Moore.

PREPARES FOR AUSTRIA CRASH

Chancellor Will Ask Powers What Action Will Be Taken.

May Appeal to League for Permission to Fuse With Germany.

Vienna, Aug. 22.—Chancellor Seipel's sudden visits to Prague, Berlin and Rome are said in well informed circles here to mean the determination of the Austrian government to force events and bring the country's situation to a precipitate head rather than continue in a drifting policy. It is understood the chancellor will flatly inform the premiers of these three countries that a collapse is morally certain, and is near at hand. He will point out the danger of this eventuality to the three neighboring states, and ask them what action they are prepared to undertake, singly or collectively, when the crash comes, whether they will interfere and, if so, how.

Upon Chancellor Seipel's return to Vienna he is expected to convolve the situation before it. If the assembly agrees with him that there is no solution to the present crisis from within, he is expected to demand the assembly's approval to appeal to the League of Nations for the fusion of Austria with Germany, or for the voluntary partition of the country. Should this program be carried out, it is believed in the best informed circles here to be a disaster.

BRITISH MINERS HOSTILE TO 6 DAYS' WORKING WEEK

London, England, Aug. 22.—(Canadian Press Cable).—Lanarkshire miners are hostile to the proposal to make the working week six days. They prefer to keep Saturday as an idle day, though the proprietors, finding a brisk demand for their output, have arranged for six days' work a week. Pickets have been posted in several districts to prevent work being done on Saturday. Nevertheless many pits are busy.

Offers Woman $100 a Month If She Will Sell Husband

FORMER MRS. SPRECKELS MAKES BARGAIN. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—An offer by Mrs. Edith Huntington Spreckels Wakefield, first wife of the late "Jack" Spreckels, California millionaire, and herself prominent in San Francisco society, to "buy" another woman's husband from her for $100 a month for the rest of her life, came to light here today and is admitted by Mrs. Wakefield.

The wife (Mrs. Kendrick) said: "Mrs. Wakefield wrote me a letter five or six weeks ago when I was in a sanatorium, asking me to come to her home. Soon after I arrived she told me that she was in love with my husband, and that he was in love with her. She said she would give me $100 a month for life, and would see that my baby was well taken care of if I would divorce Rodney so that she might marry him as soon as she secured a divorce from Dr. Wakefield. Ten days ago she and my husband both told me that it was a bargain, and they left in her car for a camping trip in the Lake Tahoe district."

The husband (Rodney Kendrick) admitted as follows: "Long before this episode my wife told me that she did not love me any longer, and intended to secure a divorce. She had been ill with tuberculosis, and for some time was a patient at a Stockton sanatorium. Several weeks ago Mrs. Wakefield and I brought her back to Sausalito and the three of us were living happily there together. There was no concealment of how things stood. Mrs. Wakefield told my wife in the presence of my mother that she loved me, and would marry me if we were free. There was no longer any love between myself and my wife, and yet we were all friendly. It was the plan that everything should be done for my wife's comfort and happiness, and up to now no objection has been made."

Mrs. Wakefield is described as "39 and good looking." She is the mother of three children from her marriage with Spreckels. The eldest is 19.

WILL ATTEND NEGOTIATIONS

R. H. Hessel, of Maintenance-of-Way Union, Goes to Montreal.

Expect Parley to Open Within Next Few Days.

R. H. Hessel, member of the Maintenance-of-Way Protective Board of the Grand Trunk Railway System and prominent in local labor circles, has left quietly for Montreal to attend the opening of negotiations between the officials of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance-of-Way Employees and the Canadian Railways Association, which, it is declared on good authority, will reopen within the next few days.

The conciliation board, investigating the disputes between the thousands of shopmen in the Dominion and the railways, will announce their decision by the end of the week, it is said, and in the meantime it is rumored that union officials of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance-of-Way Employees will meet at a secret meeting in the railroad capital to discuss the situation.

Before leaving Mr. Hessel contradicted the report that the maintenance-of-way men had cancelled their application to the minister of labor for an arbitration board to settle their differences, but claimed that the union officials would call for a conciliation board later.

A strike of the members of the Federated Shop Trades in Canada was narrowly averted last week, when the Canadian railways withdrew temporarily the wage cut, pending further negotiations between the union officials and the road magnates. They made it clear, however, that this action did not mean admittance by the railways that their stand in enforcing the reduction before giving the men a chance of appeal was contrary to law, but that it was solely for the purpose of averting an industrial tie-up in Canada.

The strike situation in the United States has taken on a very serious aspect owing to the refusal of the railroad heads to grant to the striking employees their seniority rights which they automatically lost by going on strike.

Realizing that a strike of shopmen and maintenance-of-way men in Canada with industrial conditions as they are at the present time, would be nothing short of disaster, the Dominion government is doing everything in its power to bring about an amicable settlement between the railways and the unions.

COUPLING BREAKS, TRAILER MAKES DASH FOR LIBERTY

Freed From Motor Truck, Vehicle Goes on Rampage Down Stanley Street.

When a trailer owned by the Lumsden Construction Company, en route to the new highway under construction, near Lambeth, broke loose from a motor truck at Horne and Stanley streets, Monday, pedestrians had a narrow escape from the Stanley street hill at a rapid rate, but fortunately were rescued against the curb when opposite Wortley road, and stopped.

Had this vehicle continued its speedy trip, it would have either crashed into York street bridge or been precipitated into the River Thames. A large hole was smashed in the concrete curb by the trailer when it veered off the road on to the boulevard.

Apart from the youthfulness of the condemned woman, it is maintained that public opinion has become entirely against the execution of females.

TO INVESTIGATE INDUSTRY

Senate Labor Commission Reports Favorably on Borah Bill.

BULLETIN.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Prediction was made today by the department of labor on the basis of reports from its conciliators that within a week sufficient bituminous mines will begin operation to produce 9,000,000 tons weekly.

Normal production of bituminous prior to the strike amounted to approximately 8,000,000 tons.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Coal production the week beginning yesterday was estimated at between five million and six million tons by the central coal distribution committees. This would be the highest output since the miners' strike began April 1.

The total production for the present week, the committee estimated, would include about 1,500,000 tons new production, resulting from the Cleveland agreement.

The first step toward meeting President Harding's recommendation for a thorough investigation of the coal industry was taken today by the senate labor committee in reporting favorably the Borah Bill to establish a federal commission to make an exhaustive inquiry and present recommendations to congress.

HOLD PRELIMINARY MEETINGS. Sydney, N.S., Aug. 22.—A preliminary conference between officials of the British Empire Steel Corporation and the executive officers of united mineworkers, district 2, looking to a settlement of the Nova Scotia coal strike, began at the British Empire Steel Corporation's general offices here at noon.

The first meeting is regarded by both sides as merely a preliminary, and adjournment until Wednesday is expected. The conference will be satisfied if they get a few of the rough spots ironed out of the situation this afternoon.

The United Mine Workers' executive committee held a secret session at the Vidal Hotel this morning. They discussed the irreducible minimum upon which they were prepared to effect a settlement with the operators at the conference this afternoon.

The night passed quietly in the coal fields, with no reports of disturbance or damage on the property. The almost continuous three days' rain has kept the bulk of the strikers indoors, although the pickets, under semi-military discipline, carry on as usual.

DYING PRIEST CHARGES MUTE WITH SHOOTING

Father Chohey of Dundalk Signs Statement Accusing
John Cosgrave.

HELD ON OLD WARRANT

Constable Arrests Alleged Assailant On Information Laid by Father.

OWEN SOUND, Aug. 21.—John Cosgrave shot and wounded me at the entrance to St. Patrick's Church, Proton Station, on the night of Saturday, August 19, at about 8:20 p.m.

This was the statement signed by Father Chohey of Dundalk in the presence of Major Pembroke, high constable for Grey, today, while the stricken priest lay dangerously wounded at the home of a neighbor.

Soon after he entered his brother's house by Major Pembroke and Constable Cronin of Proton. He had a box of six cartridges of .25 calibre, besides some loose ones in his pockets. The rifle that he had used was left in the bush Cosgrave resisted the putting of handcuffs on him, but came quietly to Owen Sound. He was lodged in the lockup here, and at 8 o'clock came before Magistrate O'Connor and was remanded until August 30. The warrant on which he was arrested was issued this spring, charging Cosgrave with assaulting his father and doing actual bodily harm.

Father Chohey, the victim of the assault, is in a very serious condition, and slight hope is held out for his recovery. Late last night he had a severe hemorrhage, but rallied somewhat today.

This morning Dr. Gideon Silverthorne of Toronto was called into consultation by Dr. T. P. Carter of Dundalk, who is in charge of the case. Dr. Carter stated tonight that Father Chohey was in no immediate danger. The bullet pierced his right lung.

Old Warrant Used.
Constable G. P. Rice of Dundalk told of the shooting of the priest by Cosgrave. Father Chohey was in the act of closing the door of St. Patrick's Mission Church at Proton Saturday night when he saw Cosgrave approaching from the road with a rifle. He stepped into the church and pulled the door to. It is alleged that Cosgrave tried to force the door. The priest then opened it, and Cosgrave, standing within five feet of him, pointed the rifle at him and fired. The rifle was a .32 and the bullet soft nosed. It made a clean wound going in but tore the flesh when it came out in the back.

Constable Rice was sent on a previous occasion to put Cosgrave in custody. It is alleged that the complaint had been laid by the father who charged his son with assault. Cosgrave then went to live with a brother and it was here that the police located him. On their entry to the granary where he was working at the time, he jumped through a window and escaped into the swamp. Six hours later he returned to the house, but he was not then seized.

Felt Wronged by Sale.
Cosgrave is also a Catholic and no religious question is involved in the shooting. It is believed to be due to a family quarrel. It is thought that there were strained relations between the Cosgrave father and son. The family formerly owned some property outside their homestead. The father sold this and it is alleged that the son felt wronged in not being considered in the sale.

Constable Rice said he thought the shooting was because Father Chohey was friendly with Cosgrave Senior, and the son took this method of getting revenge.

Father Chohey has been in the district for four years. It is said that Cosgrave had threatened him on previous occasions, but there is no certainty in this statement. Cosgrave is deaf and mute.

Father Chohey is a graduate of Loyola College at Kitchener. For the last four years he has been at Dundalk. Previous to that he was curate at St. Basil's Church, Brantford.

FIND DYNAMITE STICKS STOLEN

BUFFALO, Aug. 21.—Police investigating the recent attacks with dynamite on the trolley company here today learned that 1,000 sticks of dynamite had been stolen from a magazine near Lockport. Much of it is still unaccounted for and is believed to be in the hands of the thieves. The dealers discovered the loss when an inventory was taken at the request of the authorities. The concern gets its explosive in carload lots and sells to contractors in large lots and to retail customers never more than ten pounds at a time.

The unemployed men, however, served an ultimatum that if their demands for reduced food prices to the unemployed were not granted the police will not be able to stop them a second time from giving vent to their despair.

VICTORIA REJECTS BIDS ON $1,000,000 BOND ISSUE

VICTORIA, B.C., Aug. 22.—Although some of the tenders received were said to be satisfactory, the high prices in the majority of cases exceptionally high, the finance committee of the city council yesterday rejected all bids for a $1,000,000 refunding bond issue to meet obligations falling due next January. New tenders have been called for, and will be returnable on Friday.

Approve Pensions.
Old age pensions were approved, but the important resolutions on the subject of the industrial disputes act were temporarily shelved to permit a conference of the unions affected by the act which regulates disputes in public utilities. The conference will be held within the next few days, and a special report or recommendation submitted to the congress for action.

At the morning session the provincial government was represented by Hon. A. G. Gault, minister of labor, and Hon. Mr. Lacombe, minister without portfolio in the Taschereau government, as a special representative of labor. The federal government sent no representative, two messages of regret owing to inability to attend being received from the prime minister, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, and from Hon. James Murdock, minister of labor.

Tomorrow's sessions will resume the consideration of the remaining resolutions.

In face of all this she had not met the greatly reduced schedule of payments adopted May 5, 1921, that she had not lived up to the deliveries of coal and wood demanded by the reparations commission, and that since the armistice Germany had not balanced her budget.

foreign quarters here, that a most serious situation would result, inasmuch as all the openly discussed plans for partition have failed to find an answer to the question of what would become of Vienna.

Precipitate action, regardless of the central government, by one or more of the Austrian provinces in the event of a collapse is not unexpected, and the Tyrol is regarded as a danger spot in this connection. Should a secession movement develop the government would be utterly powerless to use force, and it is believed, Chancellor Seipel will ask either Czechoslovakia, Germany, or Italy if they are prepared to do so.

Count Czernin today openly advocated the immediate consummation of a union with Italy, both economic and political.

A spontaneous demonstration by unemployed workmen yesterday morning in Prague, the high tension existing in Vienna, iron window shutters crashed shut, as if by a signal, and the populace faded from the streets. The police turned out in force, but beyond a few easily suppressed scuffles there were no disorders.

The unemployed men, however, served an ultimatum that if their demands for reduced food prices to the unemployed were not granted the police will not be able to stop them a second time from giving vent to their despair.

CONDEMNS FUEL BOARD METHODS

John Manning Launches Angry Attack At Labor Convention.

States "Injunctions Won't Move Trains or Bayonets Dig Coal."

MONTREAL, Aug. 21.—American anti-strike legislation and government intervention in industrial disputes were the targets of an angry attack by John Manning, union leader, at the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, speaking to the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress here this afternoon.

Sarcastically referring to the United States Fuel Board, Manning said: "In the States we have begun to call it 'the fuel board.' Its remedy was to stop in and fix a price for coal at the mine of $4.50 a ton, about $1.03 higher than the peak prices during the war.

"It is nothing but injunction, and the state militia against us. But they will yet learn that injunctions don't move railroad trains nor do bayonets dig coal."

With the left wing of the congress apparently a silent factor, President Tom Moore and his executive face a tame convention. Of the 60-odd resolutions on the agenda only two will raise any degree of opposition, as evidenced by the progress made today when 24 were disposed of by the concurrent vote. Delegates were enthusiastic as the evening session closed, as a result of the impetus given their battle against national, sectarian and independent labor by Mayor Mederic Martin, recognized as a formidable force in Quebec labor circles, who pleaded for the merger of all other unions into the international trades union movement as represented by the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, and the American Federation of Labor. The mayor, a Roman Catholic, appealed to his fellow Catholics to shelve the sectarian question, as represented by the powerful Catholic unions of Quebec, and unite under the international banner where all creeds shared an equal right. Tom Moore's brief address in the morning followed the same line.

as they no longer are able to operate under the conditions imposed by the reparations commission, both as regards ability to purchase raw materials and most German wage demands.

WILL MAKE GERMAN PAY.
BAR LE DUC, FRANCE, AUG. 21.—France is firmly determined to make Germany pay for the devastation she caused in the war, and rather than depart from this fixed intention she will act alone, Premier Poincare declared at the opening meeting of the general council of the department of the Moselle today, in a speech which is generally regarded as the complete official declaration of the French reparations policy.

The necessity and justice of the payment of reparations by Germany was emphasized by the French premier, who placed the blame for the present situation on the attitude of the commission on reparations, and the failure of Great Britain to understand the desperate plight of her allies, and the need for the payment of the indemnity.

M. Poincare recited figures in an effort to prove that Germany was responsible for her own collapse, and had deliberately failed to live up to the demands of the reparations commission. He vigorously denied that France sought to enslave Germany in revenge for the devastation of war.

Premier Poincare held out the hope of German and French co-operation with both nations working together some day if she would change her tactics and do her best to repair in peace the damage she caused in war. France was eager to co-operate with her allies, he said, but would take independent action rather than be deprived of her just compensation.

The premier spoke at length of the divergent courses now being taken by France and Great Britain. He declared that it was only natural that nations, like people, should think first of their own interests. France could not continue to bear the burden of all the allied compromises, he asserted.

He went on record as advocating an allied conference for the settlement of war debts, which would be attended by all the nations interested. "Without exception," the latter phrase was taken to mean that he referred to the United States.

The premier compared the relative policies of France and Great Britain, asserting that the execution of the treaty and the payment of reparations were vital to France, while Britain, finding her industries paralyzed and her people out of employment, was obsessed with regaining her markets.

Deplores Compromises.
"They follow their road and we follow ours," he continued, "and it is not surprising that we draw apart at times. It is very natural and inevitable and I am neither scandalized nor astonished. What I cannot understand, however, is why compromises always are made at the expense of France."

"England," he declared, "whose intentions always have been regarded as friendly, does not realize the gravity of the French financial situation and the important interest which France has in the rapid collection of reparations."

Regarding the depreciation of the German mark and the attitude of Germany towards the reparations question, M. Poincare declared that it was a well-known fact that Germany had not met the greatly reduced schedule of payments adopted May 5, 1921, that she had not lived up to the deliveries of coal and wood demanded by the reparations commission, and that since the armistice Germany had not balanced her budget.

It was further proved, he added, that Germany had deliberately depreciated the value of her mark through the reckless printing of paper money. In face of all this she had not met the greatly reduced schedule of payments adopted May 5, 1921, that she had not lived up to the deliveries of coal and wood demanded by the reparations commission, and that since the armistice Germany had not balanced her budget.

LAUNCH ATTACK FROM AMBUSH

Irish Rebels Resort To Guerilla Warfare With Well-Armed Bands.

Republican Forces Repulsed After Tiring On Hotel At Greenore.

DUBLIN, Aug. 21.—Ambushes of National troops by large bands of irregulars are reported from different parts of the country, indicating the abandonment by the rebels to some extent at least of the plan of organized resistance in favor of a guerrilla campaign. These bands are well armed.

One Free State soldier was killed at Blessington, and four were wounded near Ennisceorthy in ambushes.

A large number of irregulars recently taken prisoner have escaped from Stranorlar Prison, in Donegal, by tunnelling a passageway to the rear of the courthouse.

ATTACK GREENORE HOTEL.
BELFAST, Aug. 21.—Republicans on Sunday night attacked the London and Northwestern Hotel at Greenore, County Louth, with machine guns, and the result was the death of the headquarters of the Nationalist forces, and the attack was met with a heavy fusillade lasting an hour, after which the attacking force withdrew.

It is reported that the republicans evacuated Omeath Saturday, but the sailings of the ship, the Republic, Company's boat have been suspended pending the conclusion of operations. Roving bands of republicans have been observed along the South Armagh border; they are being closely watched.

DECLARE ATTEMPT PLANNED.
LONDON, Aug. 21.—It is declared that the attempt to kill Michael Collins, commander-in-chief of the Free State army, was forecast in Ireland and was planned, first, to secure the removal of the man out of the remaining figure in the provisional government, and thereby weaken the Free State movement, and second, as a measure of reprisal against the shooting of Harry J. Boland by Free State soldiers.

Travelers say that the provisional government's policy of releasing captured irregulars after exacting a promise of loyalty to the Free State has resulted in an increasing number of irregulars secretly assembling in Dublin ready to continue the campaign of guerrilla warfare, bombing and sniping. Under the existing terrorism there seems to be little idea of an early meeting of parliament, which must act on the constitution.

Resort to Diplomacy.
This governmental policy is based on the conviction that peace and order can best be established in Ireland by resorting to diplomacy, rather than to harsh extermination in battle or the severe punishment of captured rebels. Some Irishmen are reported as feeling that such a policy can only perpetuate the rebellion for an indefinite period and relegate to the far future peace in Ireland.

The criminal element of the country, gunmen as they are termed in Dublin, are taking advantage of the disturbed conditions, and numerous persons have been held up in the streets and robbed of their valuables. The railroad stations, public buildings and the Shelburne Hotel, the sole remaining hostelry of importance, are constantly guarded by troops with drawn weapons to meet isolated attacks from rebels, who lurk about the city in civilian clothes and do not hesitate to shoot down soldiers of the Free State army.

Recent arrivals from Dublin state that their talks with the average citizen, including porters, cab drivers and workmen, brought forth the assurance that 85 to 90 per cent of the people of Ireland were solidly behind the Free State government.

Eamon De Valera was credited by them with the ambition to maintain disorder so as to oblige military intervention.

EXAMINATIONS PROVE BURDEN

Minister of Education Reports Great Increase in Certificates Issued.

ails Last of Diplomas to Principals of Schools.

According to a statement made by the minister of education, this year the burden of provincial examinations is the heaviest the department has known. The number of certificates issued increased from 18,469 in 1921 to 30,704 in 1922. There had to be 700 associate certificates employed instead of the 450 employed last year. The extra staff employed to handle the clerical work had to be increased from 170 to 250 persons. The results of the year were not made public in the usual way, because the newspapers could not give the space to the immense task, and preparing any lists for publication would have greatly impeded the giving of the certificates.

The last of the certificates for the lower, middle and upper school examinations have now been mailed by registered post to the principals of the schools concerned. Accordingly all candidates should be in possession of their certificates. Those who have not received their certificates should communicate direct either with their principal or with their principal's secretary. It has not been possible to give information directly to candidates, as the giving of such information would have delayed seriously the sending of the certificates to the principals. In spite of the great increase in the number of candidates this year, it has been possible to complete the sending of the certificates four days earlier than last year. Had the late of publication in the newspapers as in previous years, the mailing of the certificates to the principals would have been delayed by one week.

Candidates who have failed on one or more subjects are informed that in all cases where the marks obtained appear to justify it, the answer papers have already been re-read by the appeal examiners. Accordingly candidates are strongly advised, before submitting an appeal for re-reading, to consult their principal or the teachers of the school concerned. Appeals received before Sept. 1 should be accompanied by $1 for each paper to be re-read, up to a maximum of $5. After Sept. 1 the fee is $2 for each paper, up to a maximum of $10. Appeals that are rejected by the department will be handled as promptly as possible, but applicants must be sent out to mail to the appeal examiners in due parts of the province. Accordingly, if any appeals are received, it will be necessary to wait three weeks to determine the results.

Candidates are also advised that the summer middle and upper school examinations commence on Monday, Sept. 11, and that no supplemental examination is provided in the case of school subjects. Time tables and exam forms for application for the middle and upper school September examinations will be sent on application. Full information as to fees and other matters of examination will be found in the application form for the September examinations. This year's exceptionally burdensome examination work for their energy and energy. If mistakes occur, they are regrettable.

MOTORIST DRIVES CAR ON TALK TO AVOID TROLLEY

Regarding traffic regulations, a motorist astonished guests the Tecumseh House Monday afternoon when he drove his large touring car over the curb and sidewalk on Richmond street right up to hotel entrance in order to let a guest out. The motorist was prevented from driving parallel to the curb because several other autos occupied this space, but undaunted he drove over the sidewalk, allowed the guest to pass, and then backed into the driveway.

BREWERS' PICNIC AT SPRINGBANK

Annual Outing of Local Union
Featured by Sports Program.

The annual picnic of the Brewery Workers' Local Union No. 381, held at Springbank, was enjoyed by some three or four hundred people. Two baseball games and a baby show were the main features of the day, the latter event being adjudged the best ever held by the London union.

In the soft-ball game between the ladies and men, the latter proved superior in every position on the diamond and won easily. In another game the single men ousted the married men and carried off the honors.
B. Hertel proved to be a very effective judge in the baby show, and the infants made such an impression on the officials that each received a prize.

All the races were well contested and were run off smoothly. H. Clair acted as starter and W. Baumback as announcer.

The committee in charge of the outing were: President T. Campbell, Secretary J. Jenkins, H. Clair, J.
O'Brien, J. Clair, S. Dann, W. Baumback, C. Howarth, H. Whitlock, J. Steele,
J. Gadsby and D. F. Campbell.

The results of the events follow:
Girls' race, 7 and under—M. Duckworth, C. Whitlock, M. Constable.
Boys' race, 7 and under—J. Baumback, W. Jenner, R. Clements.
Girls' race, 8 to 12—M. Clark, M.
Nash, M. Whitlock.

SCOTS TO STAGE PICNIC WEDNESDAY

Everything, Within Law,
Which Marked Caledonian
Outings, Secured.

All the vim and energy of the United Middlesex and Elgin Caledonian Societies has been poured into making a success of the big Scotch picnic, which is to be staged at Port Stanley Wednesday.

More gigantic in its preparations, and more extensive in its scope than any picnic held at Port Stanley, this year, or any other season, the outing will see a revival of all the old Caledonian games and customs, a treat which Scotchmen will enjoy for the first time in many years.

Scotchmen in both counties have been rallied to form committees and make arrangements for the picnic, all working under Warden Cousins of Middlesex, the head of the United Societies.

The tug-of-war, which was a feature of the Caledonian picnics of Elgin County, which, at one time, were held annually and drew Scotchmen from all parts of Western Ontario, has been revived, and heavyweights from both counties have been matched against each other. Not only is there a silver cup for the winners, but cash prizes are to be awarded to the members of the winning team.

Scotch dancing and "real music"
by pipers from different points in Ontario, putting the spot and scores of other attractions have been listed on the program. Not a thing which marked the old Caledonian picnics, and which it is at all possible or within the law to secure, has been neglected by those who form the committees.

Chief of all the clans in Elgin
County is K. W. McKay, county clerk, and with him are associated
Hugh C. McKillop, M.P. for West
Elgin; C. St. Clair, Leitch, K.C.; Judge Duncan Ross of Elgin, and a number of others.

Minutes of Baptist Convention of 1847 Unearthed

PAPERS FOUND IN PARTITION.

ABLE to peer into the garrets and framework of all the old houses scattered about the country, historians might unearth information vastly more interesting than hard, dry facts to compile in their volumes.

As a result of an article which appeared in a recent edition of The Advertiser, written around a copy of The London Advertiser of 1873 which was unearthed in the tearing down of an old house on Dundas street, J.
N. Tipp of 111 Marley place, has announced his possession of a worn, old document discovered in a similar manner.

Twenty years ago, while tearing down a house on Mount Salem, Mr.
Tipp noticed folded up and placed behind the studding in the partition as a wedge a ragged and yellow packet of papers. Curiosity aroused, he stopped to pry it out, in spite of the protests of his fellow-worker that he was wasting time.

However, the same companion, on learning that the packet was a copy of the minutes of the tenth anniversary of the Western Baptist Association, was more than interested, and offered a good sum for the possession of the London, which was refused. And the possessor isn't a Baptist, but a Methodist.

The convention was held in the church at Bayham June 4, 5 and 6, 1847, and the document bears the inscription, "Saint Thomas, printed by Nathaniel Bate."

At that time the church must have been moving to greater and more far-reaching organization, for there are resolutions that "We open a correspondence with the Michigan Baptist Association and that delegates be appointed to the Grand River Association, the Eastern Association and the Michigan Association."

Amongst the number of "African Baptists" who sent delegates are mentioned the Wilberforce Baptists, who were a colony of colored people who lived at that time out a short distance from London.

Of the London Baptist Church,
Philip Rosser is mentioned as clerk,
and the "messengers" were Bro. W.
Allway and Elder George Wilson.

Extracts from an enlightening paper, written as a circular letter to conclude the London, showed that even at that time there were some who had grave doubts and misgivings that the church was failing, seeming to show a similar spirit to those today, who cry that "the church has ceased to function."

One sentence claims that "Many of the churches have come through a season of conflict and trial, and a cloud, not of glory, but of dust and darkness, seems to have overshadowed our tabernacles, but" it goes on to say, giving Biblical illustrations, that "the darkest hours is frequently followed by a burst of light—and to resuscitate us from our present apathy there need be no effort to stimulate our minds into lively activity."

WEEDS ON STREET ANGER BEACONSFIELD RESIDENTS

Complain To City Council that Property Appearance Spoiled by Nuisance.

Residents of Beaconsfield avenue and Orchard street have complained to Alderman J. T. May that there are too many noxious weeds on these thoroughfares and that they spoil
the appearance of their property.

Alderman May has passed the complaint on to City Engineer Brazier who will investigate it, and eliminate the weeds if on city property.
If they are on private property city employees will remove them and charge the bill to the owners.

City Engineer Brazier expressed the opinion Tuesday that these weeds are a second crop this season, the initial growth having been cut a few weeks ago.

JOHN PETHICK.
Winnipeg, Aug. 22.—Death occurred on Monday of John Pethick, 56 years old, at Preeceville, Sask., while visiting his son, William H. Pethick.

Company, Winnipeg, for a number of years.

He left for Vancouver in 1903 to assume management of the McLellan & McFelly Hardware Company. Some

M'CLARY EXHIBIT LEAVES FOR C. N. E.

Gaily-Decked Trucks Convey London-Made Goods To Toronto.

A large consignment of London-made goods manufactured by the Mc-Clary Manufacturing Company left
this morning at 6 o'clock, by road,
for Toronto.

Traveling on the highway, a convoy of huge motor trucks, conveying the McClary exhibit to the Canadian National Exhibition, will pass through Ingersoll, Woodstock, Plattsville, Galt, Dundas and Hamilton, making a short stop at these towns to distribute souvenirs.

The trucks were gaily decorated with banners and flags, and presented a gala appearance as they proceeded in column formation toward Ingersoll.

SAY PARKED CARS HINDER UNLOADING

Carling Street Merchants Object to New Angle Regulations.

Merchants of Carling and Talbot streets, whose store entrances front the areas recently designated for angle parking of motor cars by the city council, are up in arms at this action, declaring that such traffic regulations interfere with their business.

Those merchants whose store entrances abut the south side of Carling street, protest the angle parking regulations on the grounds that motor cars cause a congestion
there, and prevent them from loading or unloading goods to or from autos at the curb.

They have suggested that a space
be marked off in the center of Carling street for parking purposes, by two white lines, but City Engineer
H. A. Brazier states that this thoroughfare is not wide enough for such a suggestion to be placed into operation.

The complaint of these businessmen will likely be dealt with at the next meeting of No. 2 committee of the city council.

An excellent roadway between this city and St. Thomas little known to travelers, is the Bostock line. It is strongly recommended to motorists who have aversion to detours of uncertain quality.

The road runs from a point on the provincial highway between Glendale and Lambeth, and runs through to St. Thomas. Although narrow, the road is in excellent condition except in wet weather, for being of a clay nature, it is subject to stickiness in rainy seasons. It meets the Glanworth road not far north of St.
George's street hill.

TWENTY APPEAL ENTRANCE RESULT

Board Expects to Reach Decision by Tuesday Night.

Twenty appeals against examination results have been made to the high school board on entrance appeals, which is sitting today at the College Institute, by students in London who tried their entrance examinations in June.

The board expects to reach decisions in every case by Tuesday night,
when the results of their deliberations will be forwarded to Toronto for further consideration. When the returns are received from that city, probably in a week's time, the decisions will be forwarded to each student by mail.

The number of appeals this year is no greater than the average for the past several summers, it is stated.

Announcement of the medal winners on the entrance examinations in this city will not be made for some days yet. The work of the board in this respect has been delayed because of the system of promotions introduced two years ago in the public schools of the city.

NO AUTO LIGHTS WOMAN PAYS $2

Even in the angle parking areas, motorists must keep all three lights on their autos burning brightly at night. Mrs. Fred Wright, a Western Ontario resident, failed to observe this ordinance, and had a fine of $2 entered after her name on the police court blotter this morning.

She parked her car on the east side of Clarence street, just north of Dundas, Thursday night. When an officer passed at 9:50 o'clock he found all her lights out.

This mail will consist of all classes
—letters and registered matter at 10
a.m., parcel post and newspapers at

Arrested Every Time He Went to Buy Mirror.

A T last George Robinson believes he has obtained an unbreakable mirror for his truck. He has been forced to discard two and to appear in police court twice this season
as a result of their breaking.

George told Magistrate A. H.
M. Graydon that every time he went to buy a new mirror an officer stopped him for failing to have one on his car.

The court thought his excuse was quite plausible and dismissed the case after Robinson had assured him that his latest mirror was giving excellent service.

INSPECTOR SAYS LONDON MILK OF FINE QUALITY

Dr. C. S. Tamlin Making Good Report
Despite Recent Hot Weather.

When the board of health meets in regular session Tuesday night, Dr. C.
S. Tamlin, inspector of herds and dairies, will report that the milk supplied to London homes is of fine quality, despite the fact that the recent hot weather is not conducive to good milk.

"The milk tested is of fine quality,"
Dr. Tamlin stated Tuesday morning.
"I have had some quarrels with producers over the quality of their milk, but nothing to speak about. Some of the samples were taken on the hottest day of the season, and to be fair to the producers I took second samples for analysis. The latter showed that London's milk supply is of good quality."

CAMOUFLAGED CAR LOOKS EXPENSIVE

It is claimed that many and varied are the efforts which have been made to disguise a popular and inexpensive brand of automobile, commonly known as "Lizzie."

However, it must be admitted that the culmination of success was reached in one which toured the streets of London Tuesday morning.
The engine had the familiar "brass band" which once designated the old species of touring car, the body shaped precisely like a sedan but formed of light oak paneling.

The incongruity of the combination was somewhat amazing and it attracted a certain amount of attention from passersby, all of whom, however, were ready to admit that it looked comfortable and seemed to have no difficulty in getting itself about with alacrity.

500 AT L. AND P. S. R. OUTING

Interesting Program of Sports and Amusements Provide Entertainment.

Sir Adam Beck, Mayor Wilson and Philip Pocock Attend.

It was estimated that 500 people attended the London and Port Stanley Railway Company's annual outing, held at Port Stanley, Monday.

Although it was impossible for all employees to be in attendance all the day, yet shifts were so arranged that practically each man was able to put in a few hours at the picnic.

A baby show, in which there were 13 events, and a program of races and sporting events, numbering 38, comprised the afternoon's entertainment, and as a "grand finale" there was a splendid banquet spread on Inververie Heights for all the picnickers.
A ball game, a radio concert and dance in the Japanese tearoom provided amusement in plenty for the evening.

Sir Adam Beck, Philip Pocock, J. E.
Richards and Mayor Cameron Wilson were in attendance.

Owing to the fact that all the prize
winners did not return their coupons,
it was impossible to collect a full account of the races, but the following are as many as could be compiled:

Girls under five years—G. Jordan,
S. Kinsman, E. Patterson.
Boys under five years—Jack Jordan,
C. Bellows, B. Blake.

Winning and Losing.

WHAT has become of all the talk about so much trouble in the Liberal party at Ottawa? What has become of all the rumors about the old-time stalwarts who would simply tolerate MACKENZIE KING for the time being, but insist later that he must make way for someone older in the service of the party?

There was a persistent rumor that the period between sessions would see something very much like a shake-up. Others were just as certain that there would have to be a general election to "clear the air." The air has been cleared all right, and there has been no general election required to do it.

On every appearance that the premier has made on the platform since the session closed he has been given a reception that for genuine warmth and sincere approval could hardly have been surpassed. In all his utterances he has referred to work in hand, work to be done.

How different are the public utterances of HON. ARTHUR MEIGHEN. He has had some excellent opportunities when addressing large bodies of voters to place his ideas before them—to tell of work he thinks should be done—to outline policies that would carry with them the solution of our most pressing problems.

HON. ARTHUR MEIGHEN has faced these audiences, but his messages have been delivered with the sound of bitter defeat. He has not increased in the estimate of the public. As leader of the opposition, he is not nearly as impressive as with the prestige and weight of the premiership attached to him.

It is a fact, and a patent one, that MACKENZIE KING has increased his grip upon public affairs, and is now in a much more commanding position with his own party than when the election was in progress, or even after the returns were announced.

On the other hand, there is a feeling among a large number of Conservatives that there must be a change of leadership before there can be a mending of the party's fortunes. These men know that Mr. MEIGHEN, though a clever debater and a keen cross-examiner, is not possessed of qualities that will bring forth a program big enough to enlist sufficient support to make them workable. A section of the Conservative party has been in open revolt ever since the last election, and from this section Mr. MEIGHEN will never receive support or encouragement.

On the whole, the situation is very much more favorable for RIGHT HON. MACKENZIE KING than for Mr. MEIGHEN.

Much Overdone.

SINCE the strike of soft coal miners in United States has caused such inconvenience, public attention has been riveted on everything in connection with the industry. Things generally work out this way. As long as everything is all right, the public pay very little attention to the where or why. When everything goes wrong, it is always interesting to know what's the trouble.

The Chamber of Commerce has given out some facts that it has unearthed, and which throw a new light on the question, tending to show that so matter what settlement is made now, there is bound to be trouble later on.

It is estimated that 285,000 men working steadily, or nearly so, could take out all the soft coal that would be required. Instead of that force, there are, or have been, 610,000 miners on strike in these fields. It follows that 510,000 miners have become dependent upon the industry more than are required in full working time to meet the demands of the country for the product of the labor of these men.

There can never be freedom for the country or for the industry while the mines continue to be overmanned to the appalling extent here represented.

A King's Life.

THINGS do not seem to be going well with King Alfonso of Spain. Like many another nation, Spain has started investigating things in connection with a war. It will be remembered that some months ago Spanish troops met with a serious reverse in Morocco when trying to carry out what appeared afterward to be nothing less than a real fool order.

An advance was ordered on Mount Ararat, and it was a disaster and nothing else. The thing cut and hurt the proud Spaniard, and it was decided to get to the bottom of the whole middle.

It is not possible to get to the bottom of the trouble, because it appears now that King Alfonso himself gave the order for the advance that had disaster twined all around it.

Alfonso has been a popular monarch of a country that has very little of its past glory left to it. Its efforts at colonization have been fruitless in recent years, and the system it pursued in the past cannot be applied today, because the world of this age would not stand for it.

The king of Spain is not seeking to have built for him a goat on which he can unload his blunders and set himself right before the people. He refuses to sidestep where the blame is to be attached. He has lived through a troublous life, and it is a question whether he would not be much better off in some other occupation. Being king of Spain is not a sinecure.

Using Firearms.

THE Los Angeles Times thinks that city has done a great stroke of business in passing legislation "that makes it impossible for any Tom, Dick or Harry to go into a shop and purchase a gun with which he may go out and shoot some person, or become a hold-up artist."

There is no doubt a certain amount of imbecility in making it possible for any man to arm himself.

The trouble is that when one city passes such regulations, there is nothing to prevent a weapon being secured some place else. For instance, if a resident of Los Angeles found he could not get a gun there, what is there to hinder him putting the price of one in an envelope and sending elsewhere for it?

All over the continent we have laws and regulations against the carrying or owning of firearms, and yet whenever a little trouble starts it is generally found that some one has a weapon.

And all the time that this law-making is going on, the factories making these shooting irons are running away full blast with the sanction and approval of the government. Their goods are widely advertised, and shown as giving a sense of protection to the person in the home.

What is the sense of making revolvers in the first place? In the time of war or national emergency it is a different matter, but in ordinary times it is well worth considering. As long as these places keep on grinding out revolvers, people are going to get them, and as long as they get them there is always the temptation before them to go ahead and make use of them.

A New Declaration.

THE DETROIT NEWS, looking over the events that have taken place in the United States during the last few months through the continuance of the coal strikes, thinks it is about time that country had a new and a stronger declaration of independence, based on the rights of the individual.

It has been made very apparent during the last few months that the individual had no rights.

If he were a coal buyer he could not get coal.

If he had wanted to go out and do the work himself, and dig the coal, he would not have been allowed to do it.

In other words, no person could or would sell him coal, neither would he be allowed to go out and get it.

The Detroit paper can well suggest that it is time to put some new props under the liberty plea in United States.

LITTLE TISERS

The summer resorts have the usual quota of fakirs who swim well with one toe on the bottom.

If any person can suggest anything worse than a woman of 35 trying to act kittenish, let's have it.

Our idea of a good summer resort is a place where you can sit on the porch in the evening in your sock feet.

Let's get a lot of coal controllers appointed, and then dig in after a while and find out if there is any coal for them to control.

Some people like to live in the country where they know all the people, while others like to live in the city where so few people know them. This business of saving time by tinkering with the clock probably started in the mind of some young person who hated to pass her 21st birthday.

The Galt Reporter wants to know if they can run street cars on the pay-as-you-go plan, why the same thing can't be applied to the rest of the municipality.

Now wouldn't there be the deuce to pay if those miners who have been seized with the noble idea of going back to work had forgotten where they left their picks.

Lots of men stay away from church because the preacher does not interest them. And these same chaps would not be on hand if Peter were there to preach his greatest sermon.

There is not half the pity for the man who goes away on his holidays and comes back with a sunburned neck as there is for the man who couldn't afford to go away to get a sunburn.

Careless handling of matches causes a fire loss in Canada of $6,700,000 a year. Quite a goodly heap of ashes, but as a nation, we show no tendency to wear sackcloth and ashes over it.

A charge is made that some bad fish are being sold in Ontario. Let's have an investigation—haven't had one of any kind for a week and a half. And this time we'll investigate the buyers' noses.

A woman writes to this paper protesting against any more jokes being made about the short skirts. Quite right, sister, but there are so many jokes in them we can't just keep from wading in now and then.

One big picnic was held, and the reporters puts it that "not a politician was present to mar the occasion." A picnic at this season without a politician around is like a ham sandwich without any mustard in it.

Many opinions have been expressed about the strike of the anthracite miners, but some of the real ones will come when the thermometer on the veranda shows two below zero and the coal bin registers zero.

The nations of the world are experimenting with new gases for killing people, new flying machines for bombing defenceless cities, and new warships for sinking other craft. Truly we are getting back to normal all right.

Sarnia Chamber of Commerce did a good day's work when it arranged a picnic for the people of Port Huron, the event being very much of an international affair. It is highly desirable that the people of this country know the people of United States and vice versa—much better indeed than to take the word of some vote catcher on the subject.

Two of the larger vaudeville circuits in United States have made it a rule of their houses that jokes about prohibition shall be barred. This does not mean that there is any particular sympathy toward the movement on the part of the houses in question. It is simply a recognition of the very patent fact that jokes about prohibition, like those on the mother-in-law, have been worked to death, and it is time they were shelved for keeps.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

HERE WE HAVE ITEMS OF LOCAL AND DISTRICT INTEREST AS RECORDED IN THE ADVERTISER OF 1897.

Weather—Fine and moderately warm.

Rails and other material for the Pottersburg street railway extension were ordered this morning. "We will try to have it built before the fair is held," Manager Carr said this morning. "We are going to push it as fast as it can be pushed."

A fishing party consisting of Ald. Hunt, Ald. Stevely and Ald. Rumball with their families went out to Dodson's pond, near Union, yesterday, to catch black bass. A large number were seen to jump out of the water, and an excellent catch of weeds is reported.

DR. BISHOP'S ADVICE

FIGHTING DIPHTHERIA

BY DR. R. H. BISHOP.

DIPHTHERIA is probably the most treacherous of all children's diseases. It attacks and progresses very quickly. There is a specific curative agent, antitoxin, but you usually don't know you have diphtheria until it's too late for antitoxin to have any preventive effect or to stop the course of the disease.

Before science had discovered and applied antitoxin, more than half the diphtheria cases died. Today only one out of every eight cases proves fatal, and a great many of these deaths are the result of delay.

It has been pretty well proved that every case of diphtheria could be cured by giving the antitoxin during the first 24 hours of the disease.

That this remedy may be administered in time, it is necessary to call the family physician when the least suspicion arises.

If the child has a sore throat with white, flaky deposits on the tonsils, it is suspicious. One should not wait for further symptoms, such as fever and marked physical depression; these are signs of an advanced stage. A group cough is suspicious. When the disease attacks the voice box, hoarseness and a ringing cough result, and the victim may soon strangle from obstruction of the wind-pipe, caused by the diphtheritic membrane.

A running nose is another suspicious symptom. Parents should look out for the dirty, white discharge noticeable in diphtheria cases—a serious obstruction to breathing. School children may "catch" diphtheria from one another in many ways—by drinking from the same cup, by putting pencils and marbles to their mouths, by turning pages of books with wet fingers, by kissing, spitting, coughing, sneezing, or by using infected towels, handkerchiefs or napkins.

Teachers should be especially watchful for any of the above signs in children and report any suspicious cases to local health departments. This precaution may mean the saving of many little lives.

NO. 302—BLOND, ANGULAR WRITERS.

You have probably noticed, from former articles, that in the practical work of character reading it is not possible always to draw sharp lines of distinction except when extreme cases are considered and when only a limited number of characteristics are taken up.

Recall, for example, that theoretically light coloring indicates activity, nervous energy and independence and quickness as against the opposite characteristics for dark coloring, while a convex profile indicates nervous and quick mental processes against the slower, plodding and deeper thought of the concave profile, and the square face shows physical and mental activity of an energetic nature as against the passivity and economy in activity of the round face. Note, please, that the classes mentioned overlap a good bit, yet are not exactly the same.

There is the same sort of overlapping of the classifications in graphology.

Thus, the angular hand shows nervous activity, energy, alertness, etc., while the forward-slanting hand indicates pretty much the same thing, though not quite. The one indicates a bit more of the fundamental character, and the latter, let us say, the manner in which the fundamental character finds its expression.

But when you find a blonde who has all the other physical indications which emphasize the fundamental qualities denoted by blondness, you will be pretty sure to find a person who writes an angular hand, and more than likely a forward-slanting hand. For, in a measure, the angular hand indication is the same as that of light coloring, and the forward-slanting hand is in large measure the sign of the same points of character as the convex profile.

LEARN A WORD EVERY DAY

TODAY'S word is—INDEFATIGABILITY.

It's pronounced—in-de-fa-tig-a-bil-i-ti, with accent slightly upon the first and more strongly upon the third and sixth syllables.

It means—the quality of being incapable of fatigue or weariness; tirelessness.

It comes from—the Latin prefixes "in," meaning "not," and "de," meaning, among other things, "from," and the Latin verb "fatigare," meaning "to weary."

It's used like this—"The indefatigability of the late Lord Northcliffe was responsible, in great measure, for tracing the English to their task in the World War."

Bran Will Free Your Entire Family from Constipation!

EIGHT MILLION PEOPLE were admitted to the hospitals of America last year. Nine-tenths of the sickness can be traced to constipation! If every man, woman and child would eat Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbed, each day, nine-tenths of all sickness would be eliminated!

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbed, is not a "remedy." It is nature's health food. Bran acts as a sweeper, at the same time cleansing and purifying without irritation or discomfort! Results are astounding!

Physicians endorse the use of Kellogg's Bran for constipation because it corrects constipation as a food—not as a "remedy"! Your physician will tell you that the desirable way to relieve constipation is through food. We guarantee Kellogg's

Bran will relieve constipation permanently if at least two tablespoonsful are eaten regularly. Chronic cases should use as much more as necessary.

When Kellogg's Bran is eaten regularly it will also clear up a pimply complexion and sweeten the breath.

And, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbed, is deliciously good! Kellogg's has an appetizing nut-like flavor, is crisp and adds zest to any food with which it is eaten. Or, it's just fine to eat as a cereal! Or sprinkle it over your favorite cereal! Kellogg's Bran is used in muffins, raisin bread, macaroons, pancakes and a hundred other palate-tickling ways—and all the time building health!

Start the children eating Kellogg's Bran. It will actually increase their growth. Get it at your grocer's. It's wrapped "WAX-TITE."

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

A Trying Period Through Which Every Woman Must Pass

Practical Suggestions Given by the Women Whose Letters Follow

Detroit, Michigan—"During the Change of Life, I had a lot of stomach trouble, and was bothered a great deal with hot flashes. Sometimes I was not able to do any work at all. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in your little books and took it with very good results. I keep house and am able now to do all my own work. I recommend your medicine and am willing for you to publish my testimonial." Mrs. J. S. LIVERNOIS, 2051 Junction Avenue, Detroit, Mich.

Queer Feelings at Middle Age
Sheboygan, Wisconsin—"I was run-down, tired and nervous. I could not even do my own housework, could not sleep at night and all kinds of queer thoughts would come to me. Finally, I gave up going to the doctor and a friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After the first bottle I could sleep better and I have kept on improving ever since." Mrs. B. LANSER, 1639 N. 3rd St., Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

Knightsbridge, Ontario—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at the Change of Life for troubles women often have at that time. I had not been well for a year and was not really able to do my work. A friend who had taken the Vegetable Compound herself recommended it to me, and I highly recommend it to all women with troubles like mine." Mrs. DANIEL J. TRACY, Knightington, Ontario.

Let the Compound Help You
The critical time of a woman's life usually comes between the years of 45 and 50, and is often beset with annoying symptoms such as nervousness, irritability, melancholia. Heat flashes or waves of heat appear to pass over the body, cause the face to be very red and often bring on headache, dizziness and a sense of suffocation.

Another annoying symptom which comes at this time is an inability to recall names, dates or other small facts. This is liable to make a woman lose confidence in herself. She becomes nervous, avoids meeting strangers and dreads to go out alone.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted to help women at this time. It exercises a restorative influence, tones and strengthens the system, and assists nature in the long weeks and months covering this period. Let it help carry you through this time of life. It is a splendid medicine for the middle-aged woman. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs and contains no harmful drugs or narcotics.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

STOP U. S. BANKS SENDING MONEY TO IRISH REBELS

Injunction Signed by Justice Burr On Application of Free Staters.

ORDER TIES UP $2,300,000

Representatives Contend the Funds To Be Devoted To Further Revolution.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—A temporary injunction restraining local banks in which are deposited moneys collected for the Irish Republican cause from releasing them to Eamon de Valera, or any of his agents, was signed late today by Supreme Court Justice Burr on application of attorneys representing Michael Collins and other officers of the Irish Free State forces.

It was announced that approximately $2,300,000 was tied up by the order. Service of complaint on de Valera and the other defendants was ordered to be made through the insertion of advertisements in papers in England and Ireland. Most of the funds involved are said to be deposited with the Guaranty Trust Company and the Harriman National Bank.

Reasons For Injunction.

The main contention urged against the de Valera custody of the Irish funds, the application for an injunction read, was that Ireland is now a nation; that de Valera is against the present government, and is a fugitive, and that he is not entitled to the money.

If de Valera or his forces were granted the present funds in United States banks, the Free State representatives contend, it would be devoted to the carrying on of further revolution against the present government and prolong needless and unjustifiable civil war in a country which has expressed by the ballot its preference for the Irish Free State form of government.

It is further stated in the application that the Irish Free State is prepared to make good the bonds of that nation, and that the quickest way to end the present revolt is to deprive de Valera and his aides of funds from this country.

All checks on these funds were deposited in the local banks in de Valera's name up to the time of the signing of the Irish peace treaty, it was said today. The money was placed under the jurisdiction of three trustees—Bishop Fogarty, James O'Mara and de Valera. They, in turn, were responsible to the Daily Eireann.

Deposit $50,000 Bond.

Opponents of de Valera charged that, in spite of their protests, not less than $125,000 was withdrawn from the Irish funds in this city during the early part of this year. There was begun some time ago a series of inquiries concerning the exact status of the funds; those who opposed de Valera charged that they could obtain no information from him, and that legal proceedings were thus necessitated.

The firm of attorneys representing the Irish Free State officials today deposited with the county clerk a bond of $50,000 guaranteeing the good faith of the applicants. The funds involved are represented by $1,500,000 in securities, and $800,000 in cash.

Declares Ways of Modern Woman Slowly Creating Race of Bachelors

LONDON, Aug. 21.—Modern woman is driving man into celibacy. This indictment against the women of the "flapper age" was made today by Francis Henry Gribble, critic and novelist, and one of the best-known publicists in Great Britain.

Modern woman, according to Mr. Gribble, is robbed of her mystery, and therefore the desire of man to marry her is lessened.

"There is no question that the mystery in which women used to be wrapped was a romantic asset and a provocative challenge which sometimes led men to propose marriage to women whom they certainly would not have wished to marry if they had known them better," said Mr. Gribble. "Emancipation of women does not merely mean that chaperons have been discarded as obsolete.

"That, perhaps, was all that it meant at first, but it has gradually come to mean, in many cases, a freedom of manner and a laxity of morals so pronounced, that the clergy of all degrees and denominations have been moved to protest. And that sort of thing, little as the women who laugh at these protests may suspect it, has a distinct bearing upon their prospects of marriage.

"And for an obvious reason. The seriously domesticated man will not have for his wife the type of girl who has made too free with the conventions in her 'desire to live.' She has set tongues wagging by her indiscretions—and no man likes his wife to be the subject of such gossipous recollections."

DR. SUN YAT SEN TO ACCEPT OFFER

Will Assist Wu Pei Fu in Reorganizing Chinese Government.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 21.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen, deposed president of South China, who recently fled here from Canton, leaped to the front today as a pivotal figure in the reorganization of the Chinese government with receipt of a telegram from Wu Pei Fu, dominant military figure of North China, endorsing Sun's recent manifesto and pledging his support to Sun's policy for rebuilding the federal government machinery.

Despite the fact that Sun Yat Sen backed Chang Tso Lin, governor of the three eastern provinces, in his late unsuccessful tilt against Wu Pei Fu, the latter's telegram today, addressed to his personal representative here, General Sun Yueh, expresses unqualified indorsement of Sun Yat Sen's policies.

These include the southerner's terms for the convocation and functioning of parliament free from all outside interests, self government for the provinces, to replace the Tschun, or military governorship system, and the conversion of the independent provincial armies into labor battalions to wield the hoe instead of the sword.

PERE MARQUETTE TO REFUND CUTS

President Alfred Announces Canadian Clerks Will Receive Checks Shortly.

WINDSOR, Aug. 21.—Frank H. Alfred, president and general manager of the Pere Marquette Railway, today announced to members of the council sitting here on the pay dispute between the P. M. R. and its clerks, that the clerks would receive back paychecks for the difference in pay between the old rate and the reduced rate, which came into effect July 1.

This action came as a result of a conference with Mr. Alfred, after Charles B. McClurg, St. Thomas barrister, representing the clerks on the board, stated that according to the terms of the industrial disputes act no pay cut could be put into effect before a board of conciliation had rendered a decision on the case.

The pay cut went into effect on the Pere Marquette Railway on July 1. Mr. Alfred, while signifying his complete willingness to comply with the terms of the Canadian act, declared that it was his opinion that the Canadian clerks were getting an unfair advantage over the American employees, who still receive the reduced rate.

FOUND DEAD UNDER SNOW-PLOW IN TORONTO YARDS

John Harrison Believed To Have Been Struck on Head by Lever.

TORONTO, Aug. 21.—John Harrison, aged 38, of 39 McMurray avenue, was killed at the West Toronto P. E. R. freight yards this morning. Harrison, who was a carman, was working under a snowplow with another man. This workman went to the shop to get some material and when he returned he found Harrison dead. There were no witnesses of the accident, but it is believed that when Harrison pulled out the pin on a lever he was fixing, the lever swung back and struck him on the head, instantly killing him. The body was removed to the morgue.

THINKS CANADA CANNOT COMPETE IN MEAT TRADE

BRANDON, Man., Aug. 21.—A profitable business in chilled meat between Canada and Great Britain cannot be established for the simple reason that Canada would be competing with the trade from South America, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, declared J. D. McGregor, known internationally as a cattle dealer, during the course of an address on "The British Embargo" to members of the Kiwanis Club here today.

Mr. McGregor said he had come to this conclusion from personal investigation and that climatic conditions were too big a handicap for Canada to compete in the chilled meat trade.

C. N. R. WILL NOT BE ELECTRIFIED

Management Writes Karl N. Homuth That Financial Conditions Bar Project.

Special to London Advertiser.

GALT, Aug. 21.—Karl K. Homuth, M.L.A. of Preston, at the last session of the Provincial Legislature, fathered a motion asking that the branch lines of the Canadian National Railways, including the Grand Trunk, be electrified.

He has received a reply from the management of the Canadian National Railways to the effect that financial conditions bar electrification of their lines, and furthermore, lines now operated in Ontario are not at present handling a sufficient volume of business to warrant their electrification. As to the G. T. R. lines, the C. N. R. management professed to be in the dark.

Mrs. Benjamin Goodfellow of 61 Ainslie street north, died this morning in her 63rd year. Born in Bolton, Ontario, she had been a resident of Galt for the past 40 years. Stricken with paralysis nineteen years ago, she had been an invalid since.

Her husband, four sons and three daughters survive. Frank, Galt; Clarence, Fort Worth, Texas; Fred, Galt; Victor, Toronto; Mrs. C. H. Houston, Chatham; Mrs. F. G.

Poison Ivy May Cause Death of Kitchener Citizen.

Special to London Advertiser.

KITCHENER, Aug. 21.—Valentine Berlet, of this city is confined to his bed in critical condition as a result of an experience he had on Saturday with poison ivy in a vacant lot owned by the city on Cherry street. The lot was filled with unsightly noxious weeds and it seems that Berlet in some manner while passing through the lot came in contact with the poison ivy.

The face of the man is swollen, and his legs and abdomen are in a similar condition. The poison has gone through his system, and only slight hopes are entertained for him. It is believed he was endeavoring to clear the property of weeds when he unknowingly became involved in the ivy. The city may face legal proceedings as a result of not complying with its own bylaw regarding the cutting of noxious weeds.

Tinck, Galt, and Mrs. W. N. Burnet, Tofield, Alberta.

Riding on a jigger with her husband and two sons, Mrs. J. Hill of Harrisburg, received a fracture of the right arm and a broken rib when the machine jumped the rails outside the city and plunged down an embankment.

Gus Strohm, carter, of Guelph, was arrested by Chief Wilson of Hespeler Sunday charged with being under the influence of liquor while driving an auto. He is alleged to have run down two other cars in his journey to Hespeler, damaging both. In one car, Mrs. R. McPherson of Guelph, sustained a severe scalp wound.

DIE AFTER EATING CANNED SALMON

QUEBEC, Aug. 21.—Seven members of the family of Zephirin Gagnon at St. Michael, Belle Chaise Connty., about 15 miles below this city on the southern bank of the St. Lawrence River, were poisoned after eating canned salmon Saturday. Herman and Leontine, two daughters, aged respectively 11 and 12 years, died. The father and mother and three other children will recover, it is expected.

The Man Who Brings the Message of Life Insurance is the True Friend of Us All

You know something of the work of the Life Insurance Man, but do you appreciate that if it were not for his efforts, the homes of Canada would be without the protection of three-and-a-half billion dollars of life insurance?

He is, by his daily work, "holding the bridge" against trial and distress for millions of wives and children, or providing "old age comfort" for many who would otherwise be in want.

Moved by a vision of the good to be accomplished, the Life Insurance Man has faced his problems with optimism, and now sees over a million dollars paid out each week by the Life Insurance Companies in Canada to the beneficiaries of his labor.

Life Insurance Representatives are the great ambassadors to your home. They will be pleased to show you how simply and easily you can throw the "mantle of protection" around it.

In Toronto this week the Life Insurance Representatives on this Continent are meeting for the purpose of further increasing their power to serve the public. Life Insurance Service extends greetings from all who are engaged in this great cause, and also on behalf of the policyholders throughout the Dominion of Canada.

BLACKHEADS GO QUICK BY THIS SIMPLE METHOD

Blackheads—big ones or little ones—soft ones or hard ones—on any part of the body, go quick by a simple method that just dissolves them. To do this, get about two ounces of peroxide powder from your druggist—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—and wash off. You'll wonder where the blackheads have gone. The peroxide powder, and the hot water, have just dissolved them. Pinching and squeezing blackheads only open the pores of the skin and leave them open and unsightly—and unless the blackheads are big and soft they will not come out, while the simple application of powder and water dissolves them right out, leaving the skin soft and the pores in their natural condition. You can get peroxide powder at any drug store and if you are troubled with these unsightly blemishes you should certainly try this simple method.—Adv.

MARY ELLEN RETURNS.
Dear Miss Grey,—After a long time, I come wandering back home, to the Mail-Box. I saw where M. J. A. was inquiring for me, and wondering where I had gone to. Well, Miss Grey, I'll tell you a little secret: I had that young lady call on me last Sunday, and she often praises my flower garden. Now, I wonder if she knows where I live.

Some time ago I saw a letter from a girl who said she lived near the sand hills. I was wondering how many of the Mail-Box readers have seen the sand hills or been there. I have seen them a good many times, but I never was on the big hill, except once. It is very high and long, so high that tall trees blowing off the shore of dear old Lake Erie. It is great fun for the young folks, and children to climb them, for soon after they get started, the coarse, white sand gives away, and back they go. It is much easier to come down, for once you start, there is no stopping you. There is a nice winding path, too, for the older ones.

I saw some time ago, Miss Grey, where you spoke of the Boxites having an Old Boys' Reunion. It would certainly have to be an Old Girls', don't you think? I think it would be fine for everyone to send in a letter. Now that the time is passed for planting weeds, why not get postcards of the Sick Children's Hospital and sell them. I think this is a lesson to us all. It does not seem long since the first ten cents was sent in for that blessed stocking-foot pattern, and just think how much money has been raised.

I have a good vegetable garden this year, and lovely flowers, and some are from seeds you sent me. I saw Calamity Ann's letter, and think her suggestion of the recipe book just fine. Let us go ahead with it.

I saw where Tetter offered two pieces of sheet music for ten cents, the money to be used towards the fund. I would like to correspond with her, as she must be near my age, as they have dress with wedding veil bordered with seed pearls and trimmed with orange blossoms. The wedding march was played by Mrs. W. G. Francis of Philadelphia. Rev. A. E. M. Thompson of Centennial Methodist Church officiated. After the signing of the register a dainty wedding breakfast was served. After a honeymoon trip down the St. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. MacGregor will reside at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Ontario.

HAYES—PHENIX.
A pretty wedding took place Saturday afternoon at 50 Elmwood avenue, when Mildred Phoenix of Highgate, was married to Hugh George Hayes of Ridgeway. They were unattended, and left on a motor trip east. Upon their return they will reside in Ridgeway.

ATTENTION, YOUNG MOTHER.
Dear Miss Grey,—A couple of days ago I saw a letter from Young Mother No. 2, saying she had received no help. I sent a parcel to her nearly a month ago. Did I have the right address? I am enclosing a note for the hospital fund. MAY.

The number was 7 in place of 9, but I am quite sure the postman would deliver it to the right home. Did you receive the parcel, Young Mother? It is not very encouraging for the Boxites who send parcels when they are never acknowledged, but of course you did not receive the bundle, Young Mother, you couldn't thank May for it, could you? Thank you, May, for remembering our hospital fund with the enclosed note.

GRENPELL MISSION BALE REACHES LABRADOR PORT
Secretary of Local Branch Receives Letters From Orphanage and Hospital.

Word has been received by Mrs. Harris Elliot, secretary of the Grenfell Mission, that the bale, shipped by that society last June has reached its destination.

The superintendent of the hospital at Harrington, Labrador stated in her letter that they were doubly thankful for the case of evaporated milk, as the hospital supplies had been delayed and they were without milk for some time. They were more than delighted upon opening one parcel to find that it contained what they were in need of most.

The following is the letter written by the superintendent of the orphanage at St. Anthony, Newfoundland: "We acknowledge, with many thanks, the receipt of the box of clothing for the orphanage. The generous amount sent and the quality of the articles make us doubly grateful. The clothing will be put to immediate and advantageous use." Signed, Francis E. Baier.

The August meeting of the Nanticoke W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Evans. An appeal from New Ontario for clothing was favorably received, and Miss Keny of Woodstock gave a splendid talk on the work done in the city in which she teaches, by the "School and Home Club."

Mrs. Parkinson of Vancouver gave an impromptu talk on institute work. Her talk was very practical. Mrs. Joseph Peart, of Cayuga, president of the county of Haldimand W. I., gave an inspiring talk on "Institute Work." Vocal solos were given by Miss Oakes and Miss Eva Thompson; an instrumental by Miss Evans, and several graceful dances by Miss Gladys Cooper of Weston.

The meeting was on the lawn, with Mrs. Oakes presiding, and at its close the hostess served dainty refreshments.

HOLDS LARGE MEETING.
The Ruthven W. M. S. held its July and August meeting at the home of Mrs. Angus Birley, at Union, Tuesday, about 100 members being present. An interesting feature of the meeting was the gathering in of the little aprons which had been sent out to many friends, and which were returned with the pockets bulging with pennies. Everyone who received an apron was to measure their waists, and for every inch they measured around they deposited one penny.

Some of the members were obliged to deposit quite a large sum in pennies. Mrs. George Steele, who is now at Huntsville, Ont., and a number of her friends, sent in $30.

Do not suffer another day with itching, bleeding, or protruding piles or hemorrhoids. No surgical operation required. Dr. Chase's Ointment will relieve you at once and afford lasting benefit. Six boxes, 25¢ each, or $1.50 for six boxes. Send to: Dr. Chase, Ltd., Toronto. Sample box free.

The minutes went by slowly. To Antony, lying hidden in the undergrowth at the foot of his tree, a new problem was presenting itself. Suppose Cayley had to make more than one journey that night? He might come back to find him in the boat; his eyes were fixed on the boat as he considered these things, and suddenly, as if materialized from nowhere, Cayley was standing by the boat. In his hand was a small brown bag.

Cayley put the bag in the bottom of the boat, stepped in, and using a punt-pole, pushed slowly off. Then, very silently, he rowed toward the middle of the pond. He had stopped. The oars rested in the water. He picked up the bag from between his feet, leaned over the nose of the boat, and rested it lightly on the water for a moment. Then he let go. It sank slowly. He waited there, watching; afraid, perhaps, that it might rise again.

Antony began to count. And now Cayley was back at his starting place. He tied up the boat, looked carefully round to see that he had left no traces behind him, and then turned to the water again. For a long time, as it seemed to the watchers, he stood there, very big, very silent, in the moonlight. At last he seemed satisfied. Whatever his secret was, he had hidden it; and so with a gentle sigh, as unmistakable to Antony as if he had heard it, Cayley turned away and vanished again as quietly as he had come.

Antony gave him three minutes, and stepped out from the trees. He waited there for Bill to join him. "Six," whispered Bill.

"Good," smiled Antony. "Mine was the eighteenth—a little way past it. Better hang your coat over the sixth post, and then we shall see it more easily. I'll put mine on the eighteenth. Are you going to undress here or in the boat?"

"Some here, and some in the boat. You're quite sure that you wouldn't like to do the diving yourself?" "Quite, thanks." They had walked round to the other side of the pond. Coming to the sixth post of the fence, Bill took off his coat and put it in position, and then finished his undressing, while Antony went off to mark the eighteenth post. When they were ready, they got into the boat, Antony taking the oars.

"Now, Bill, tell me as soon as I'm in a line with your two marks." He rowed slowly toward the middle of the pond.

"You're about there now," said Bill at last. Antony stopped rowing and looked about him.

"Yes, that's pretty well right." He turned the boat's nose round until it was pointing to the pine tree under which Bill had lain. "You see my tree and the other coast?"

"Right," said Bill. "Now, then, I'm going to row gently along this line until we're dead in between the two. Get it as exact as you can—for your own sake."

"Steady," said Bill warningly. "Back a little, a little more—a little more forward again—Right."

Antony left the oars on the water and looked round. As far as he could tell, they were in an exact line with each pair of landmarks.

"Now then, Bill, in you go." Bill pulled off his shirt and trousers, and stood up.

"You mustn't dive from the boat, old boy," said Antony hastily. "You'll shut its position. Slide in gently."

Bill slid in from the stern and swam slowly round to Antony.

"What's it like?" said Antony. "Cold. Well, here's luck to it."

He gave a sudden kick, flashed for a moment in the water, and was gone. Antony steadied the boat, and took another look at his landmarks.

Bill came up behind him with a loud explosion.

"It's pretty muddy," he protested. "Weeds."

"No, thank the Lord." "Well, try again."

Bill gave another kick and disappeared. Antony coaxed the boat back into position, and again Bill popped up, this time in front of him.

"I feel that if I threw you a sardine," said Antony, with a smile, "you'd catch it in your mouth quite prettily."

"It's awfully easy to be funny from where you are. How much longer have I to go on doing this?"

Antony looked at his watch. "About three hours. We must get back before daylight. But be quicker if you can, because it's rather cold for me sitting here."

Bill flicked a handful of water at him and disappeared again. He was under for almost a minute this time, and there was a grin on his face when it was visible again.

"I've got it, but it's devilish hard to get up. I'm not sure that it isn't too heavy for me."

"That's all right," said Antony. He brought out a ball of thick string from his pocket. "Get this through the handle if you can, and then we can both pull."

"Good man." He paddled to the side, took one end of the string and paddled back again. "Now then."

Two minutes later the bag was safely in the boat. Bill clambered in after it, and Antony rowed back. "Well done, Watson," he said.

This Leaves the Arms Free from Hairy Growths

(Toilet Talk).

A simple method for completely removing every trace of hair or fuzz is here given. This is painless and usually a single treatment will banish even stubborn growths. To remove hairs, make a thick paste with some powdered delatone and water, spread on hairy surface and after about two minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This method will not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be certain you get delatone.—Adv.

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES

A FEW MINUTES AFTER THE HARBORMAN HAD DISAPPEARED IN A CLOUD OF DUST JACK SPED ANOTHER RIDER COMING FROM THE DISTANCE AND STEADILY GROWING LARGER. SOON ANOTHER POKE APPEARED.

THE RIDER DAWED HARDLY UP THE ROAD AND DREW BEIN WHEN HE REACHED JACK. "DID A MAN ON HORSEBACK PASS THE WAY?" HE ASKED. JACK REPLIED THAT HE JUST WENT UP THE ROAD.

THEN JACK QUICKLY STEPPED OFF THE ROAD, JUST IN TIME TO ESCAPE BEING TRAMPLED UPON BY ANOTHER WILD RIDER, MOUNTED ON A HANDSOME WHITE PORT HORSE AND RIDER SOON DISAPPEARED IN THE DISTANCE.

JACK WAS PLAINLY PUZZLED, AND WONDERED WHAT ALL THE EXCITEMENT WAS ABOUT HE DETERMINED TO RUN UP THE ROAD AND SEE IF THE RIDER HAD STOPPED ANYWHERE. CONTINUED IN THE NEXT CHAPTER.

Wide Variety For College Girls

THERE are so many new and attractive styles for girls that the young woman who is going away to boarding school or college will have a difficult time choosing which to take and which—regretfully—to decide against.

Cold Cabinet Pudding

THIS recipe gives an opportunity to use stale cake. Any cake except molasses or spice cake may be used, as well as any kind of preserved or dried fruits, as raisins or currants.

1 pint milk 1/4 cup cold water
2 whole eggs or yolks 3 eggs 1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt 1 cup fruit
1 tablespoon gelatine soaked in 1 Stale cake
1 teaspoon vanilla

Make a custard, using milk, eggs, sugar and salt. Add gelatine soaked in the cold water. Have ready a mold or bread pan and in it pour enough of the custard to cover the bottom.

Place the mold in ice and when mixture sets cover with a part of the fruit and pieces of cake. Add some more of the custard and again allow it to stand before putting another layer of fruit and cake. Repeat until all the material has been used. Let stand in a cold place until the mold is firm enough to turn out. It may be served with whipped cream or some preserved fruit, or just as it is.

Radio Radiations

BY THE RADIO EDITOR.

TO the layman there is nothing startling about power transmission—radio.

He has heard of so many startling things done by radio that he has now reached the point where almost anything can be expected of it as a matter of course.

The radio engineer, however, would be very much startled if an efficient method of power transmission without wires were actually put into use.

The nearest approach which we have to a radio power station at the present lies in those larger stations erected for communication with ships.

In these stations, energies totaling perhaps 250 kilowatts are used.

High Frequencies. In the form generated for home or factory consumption, electricity cannot be caused to radiate into space. It must be transformed into alternating impulses of very high frequency. The higher the frequency, the greater the efficiency of radiation.

The highest frequencies are used in the smaller, short wave stations which usually employ one to two kilowatts of electrical energy. Here, under the very best conditions, but 25 per cent of the energy put into the radio apparatus ever leaves the antenna or radiating device.

The highest powers used in radio necessitate operation on much longer wave length—much longer frequencies. Under the very best conditions at the high-power stations but four per cent of the total energy put into the apparatus ever leaves the antenna.

Great Loss. But, supposing 100 per cent efficiency were to be had in the transforming apparatus and the radiator. How large a part of the radiated energy would be absorbed and utilized by the receiver? A very small part.

The greater portion would be radiated into space and dissipated through natural agencies. Vegetation, mountains, cities, bridges, and all manner of things would be receiving and wasting the radiant energies just as they are doing now. Perhaps but one ten-thousandth part of the total energy would ever be usefully employed even were the transmitting station surrounded by nearby receivers.

"You cannot be well and strong, and full of vigor, force, and power unless your blood is rich in iron," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician Bellevue Hospital (Out-Door Department), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital. "It is your red blood that enables you to resist and overcome disease and that nourishes every organ in your body. Without iron your blood becomes thin, pale, and watery. Poor blood cannot nourish your vital organs and as a result you may have pains in your heart or kidneys, indigestion, headaches, and feel all run-down and tired-out."

LONDON RINKS IN TOURNAMENT

Dominion and Ontario Bowling Competitions in Full Swing at Toronto.

Semi-Finals To Be Played Tuesday Night With 25 Rinks in Running.

Toronto, Aug. 22.—Play in the Dominion and Ontario bowling competitions was continued at the annual Dominion bowling tournament this morning, and in addition the Toronto event was commenced. Play was held up to a certain degree by the various rinks changing from one club to another, and as much progress was not reported as anticipated.

Twenty-five of the 193 rinks that started in the Dominion event were still in the running at noon with 24 of them being engaged in the second draw of the day. The semi-finals will be reached tonight. Of the 25 rinks that remain 5 are from points outside of Toronto, Hamilton having two and Belleville, Weston and Kingston one each. Of the local clubs Canada are the largest represented, with four rinks, St. Matthews and Rusholme three each, while Kew Beach and High Park have a pair each. Those with a single representative left in the primary event are Thistles, Riverdale, Withrow, Lawrence Park, Oakwoods, and R. C. Y.

Tom Chambers, the veteran skip from the Hamilton Victorias, went down before A. McCurdy of Rusholme in the second round by a margin of 100. The shot, and thereby one of the fabled quartets for the final was eliminated. Sir John Wilson disposed of Chapman of Guilph, and then was drawn against a club mate, McKay of Canadas. Last year's trophy winners, McDougall's Riverdale four, still pursue their undefeated way, as do Goforth's Canada quartet, who were defeated in last year's final.

Brings Crew of Missing New York Sight-Seeing Plane Safely to Land

New York, Aug. 22.—One of the most elaborate searches ever devised to locate a missing airplane was called off early today when a fishing smack arrived at Long Beach, 40 miles from here, bringing W. T. Miller, pilot, Harold Thompson, mechanic, and the lone passenger of the seaplane Ambassador II, that dropped from sight Sunday morning.

The fishing smack attempted to tow the battered hulk of the sky cruiser, in which the three men had fought a game fight for 48 hours against the chill winds and waves, but finally had to abandon it to the waters of the Atlantic.

Drawn and haggard from exposure, with nothing to eat and only a little sleep, the three men refused to tell of their adventures until they had recovered from the exhaustion caused by their experience. The identity of the passenger was not learned, it being said that he did not desire to cause his family any anxiety, as he was supposed to have gone on a business trip.

Both Miller and Thompson, who are in their 20's, saw air service during the war, and fellow aviators, say Miller has high rating as an aviator and a record singularly free from mishaps.

The search for the sight-seeing plane started Sunday after Miller failed to return from what was to have been a flight over the Fire Island lighthouse.

ST. THOMAS COAL CRISIS RELIEVED

Dealers Give Assurances of Readiness To Co-operate in Every Way Possible.

Special to London Advertiser.

ST. THOMAS, Aug. 21.—Coal prices in the city have fallen considerably with the settlement of the soft coal strike in the United States, and the situation is considerably relieved here. Mayor Charles Raven reports.

With prices moving downward, it is not considered good policy for the city to invest in large supplies of soft coal, as was formerly advised. This is particularly the case on account of the assurances by local dealers that they will co-operate in every way possible in helping to relieve any shortage which may occur.

The mayor, however, emphasizes the desirability of citizens investing in supplies of soft coal, coke or wood as fuel for the early part of the winter as the prospects for anthracite coal being shipped until the middle of December or next January are far from bright, and he deems it advisable for householders to wait. Small amounts of hard coal may get through to Canada the local dealers report, but the mine operators are promising no deliveries.

Mayor Raven has learned that there is quite a plentiful supply of Pocahontas coal available and also Welsh coal, which compares with the American soft coal from the United States can now be purchased for $14 or $15 a ton.

It is probable that the city will invest in a quantity of wood.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL OF MRS. MARY CAMERON

Pioneer Settler of Stanley Township Dies in 75th Year.

SEAFORTH, Aug. 21.—There was a large attendance at the funeral of Mary Baird, fourth daughter of the late Thomas Baird of Stanley and widow of the late John Cameron, who passed away on Wednesday evening, August 16, after an illness of six weeks.

The funeral was held from the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. Alexander Thompson, on Saturday afternoon to Baird's Cemetery. Rev. W. D. McIntosh officiating.

The late Mrs. Cameron was born in Auchinleck, Ayrshire, Scotland, on Oct. 30, 1847, and came to this country with her parents in 1852. She was united in marriage to the late John Cameron on November 24, 1878, and came to reside on the 4th concession of Stanley. Their only child died in infancy.

After her husband's death in 1901 she went to live with her sister, Mrs. Alexander Thompson, where she remained until her death.

Mrs. Cameron was an esteemed member of the Ruessfeld Presbyterian Church, and was greatly beloved in the community, where she spent 69 years.

Mrs. Peter Campbell is another sister, and Thomas Baird of Stanley is a brother.

INDIAN GETS JAIL TERM FOR BREAKING INTO HOUSE

Special to London Advertiser.

ST. THOMAS, Aug. 21.—Stolen money was used "profitably," Henry Hill, an Indian 18 years of age, told County Magistrate Hunt, Monday morning, when he faced a charge of breaking and entering the dwelling of D. Jamieson of Southwood.

Eleven dollars were taken, $4 of which was used in paying bills and $3.15 went to pay insurance for his father and mother. The remainder was used to buy groceries.

Hill was sentenced to six months in the Burwash Reformatory.

His Worship Magistrate Hunt, in pronouncing sentence, stated that the second charge of stealing, was not being pressed, but that the first was a serious offence for which the accused might be sent down for seven years. The Indians had behaved exceptionally well until just recently, said the Squire, when an epidemic of thieving had apparently swept the reserve. He was determined to put a stop to such actions, but did not like to send the accused down to Kingston as he might come out of the penitentiary an old man, if not in years, in thought.

WINS POINT IN WILSON TRIAL

Defense For Former London Evangelist Scores in Los Angeles Court.

Reputed Dying Statement of Cox Ruled Out by Judge Wood.

Special to London Advertiser.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 21.—The defense in the trial of Herbert Wilson, formerly of London, Ont., charged with the murder of Herbert Cox during a sensational attempted jail break some time ago, scored today when Superior Judge J. Perry Wood refused to admit the reputed dying statement of Cox. The court held after hearing a discussion of the case that the statements testified to by Deputy Sheriff Frank Dewar were not proven to be the last words of Cox.

Wilson was also testified to during the proceedings that Roy Rankin, a turnkey in the jail, accepted $1,000 in cash to let the prisoners on the Bridge of Sighs, where the murder took place.

Rankin testified that he was approached by Cox and all the arrangements made to leave the bridge grating open on the afternoon of the break. He then told Deputy Sheriff Manning of the plan of the prisoners. Later, Rankin stated in reply to the questions of Paul W. Schenck, Wilson's counsel, he met Wilson began a discussion of the matter.

After learning that the door would be unlocked, Wilson gave Rankin ten $100 bills. Rankin stated that he saw Cox and a man by the name of O'Brien enter the bridge, but did not see Wilson. The trial will be continued tomorrow.

REPORT ONTARIO CROPS INDICATE HEAVY YIELDS

TORONTO, Aug. 21.—Ontario's hot weather crops are mostly making fair progress, according to the reports of the Ontario Agricultural Department's county representatives this week. In Kent and adjoining counties the tobacco has been maturing rapidly and the harvesting will probably commence next week. Canadian peaches are now appearing on the market and the reports say there will be a fair supply.

Some grades of apples are plentiful, others have been lost to heavy recent windstorms and the peach disease. In some districts it is reported that the recent hot dry weather has brought corn along too fast, but on the whole the yield will be good.

In nearly all sections of lower Ontario the grain crops have been cut and stacked. A large proportion is threshed or in the barns.

Criticize British Premier For Failure To Make Ger-

Press Cable.)—Some months prior to the death of Lord Northcliffe it was generally noticed that the attitude of his papers towards Mr. Lloyd George and the premier's colleagues, although it remained critical, had become less vehement and bitter. Maybe it was only a coincidence, but today the Times and Daily Mail have prominent editorials betokening a hiveler tone towards the premier and the members of his cabinet.

The Times does not mention the premier by name, and the article, in fact, is to some extent vague, but it mentions the heavy burden of debt
this country is carrying and Viscount Grey's aspiration for a homogenous government by men who really believe in what they are doing. The Times article winds up with a warning to the ministers that they must show, on their return from their vacation, greater zeal and efficiency in their guardianship of the public interests than they have recently shown.

The Times editorial almost looks like a preliminary shelling, to be followed by a sustained bombardment.

The Daily Mail, however, directs

Arrest Pair Sought for Over Two Years.

SOMERVILLE, Mass., Aug. 21.
—Fred H. Nixon and Joseph B. Danby, both of Montreal, were arrested here early today. The police said that the men, who have been sought for two years, were under indictment for grand larceny in connection with the disappearance of goods valued at $30,000 from Grand Trunk Railroad cars.

Officers took Nixon and Dan-
by to Portland, Mo., for arraignment before a United States commissioner.

After some preliminary references to reparations, the Daily Mail declares it is easy to see why the premier is expecting an early collapse of his cabinet. As a result of his complete failure to get German money, the Mail continues, he should be writing his 20,000 book of memoirs for Sir William Berry, the eminent publisher, of which amount Lloyd George is to receive £50,000.

"As he has not made Germany pay,
he is going to make Berry pay," the Mail says. "This, doubtless, will be very satisfactory for the premier, but it does not afford much comfort for the British taxpayer."

ECONOMY BY KING
SAVES HIM $50,000

British Ruler Curtails Unnecessary Expenses in Household.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—As the result of strenuous wifelying of the economic axe in the household of King George an annual saving of something like £10,000 is being made. The king, inspired by his subjects' efforts to save, some months ago ordered a special investigation, and a treasury expert was lent for the purpose.
With his majesty directing the whole royal household was overhauled, including Buckingham Palace, Windsor Castle and other royal residences.
Completion of the task now, with a saving reported, is pleasing to the king, whose financial resources are said to be overestimated by the public.

Household administrations will not be impaired, nor functions cut out, but all will be less elaborate. The money granted by the House of Commons annually for maintenance of the crown and its household remains as it was, less than £500,000, and the king has resolutely declined to apply for an increase in spite of the general rise in the cost of living and supporting staffs. That means that King George has had to draw considerably upon his private resources during the last eight years.

Last year his majesty retrenched in personal expenses. He cut down his racing stud, curtailed his stables and put the yacht Britannia into dry dock. The last named act had an effect that was not calculated, for in this year's show at Cowes many other owners withdrew their big yachts,
and the king felt that an unfortunate blow had been suffered by the sport. He has now decided, with the better financial position as the result of other economies, to just the Britannia's pennant again next year. He also plans soon to bring his stud horses up to the same standard as prevailed in the time of King Edward VII.

HOLD RUSSIAN AS SLAYER
OF THOROLD CONTRACTOR

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 21.—
Harry Rutka, a Russian Pole of Thorold, is being held by the Thorold police this afternoon and two others, names unknown, but believed to hail from Port Colborne, are being searched for in connection with the murder at Thorold last night of Adam Solton, a Russian contracting carpenter. Tony Solton, a brother of the victim, is in St. Catharines General and Marine Hospital with serious wounds.

The fight was over a demand for liquor.
