THE FANCY DRESS BALL

Children Of Miss McLean's
Class Give Very Pretty Affair

LAST OF THE SEASON

One of the most unique events of the season took place in the Chatham Dancing Academy last night, when a fancy dress children's ball was given, under the direction of Miss A. McLean.

A large number of parents and young people were in attendance, who witnessed with pleasure the different dances of the children.

The first few numbers consisted of waltzes and two-steps, which were executed in excellent style, showing that Miss McLean had been very particular in her instruction, and on which she is to be highly congratulated. The Heel-Toe polka was a very interesting number, as was also the Searf dance. Each student seemed to be perfectly at home and very much composed, and demonstrated that they were enjoying to their heart's content the pleasure derived from the numerous dances.

The Gavotte dance was one of particular interest. Each couple were well mated, which added much to the picturesqueness and beauty of the dance. The music was suitable and was well played and in good time.

Next to mention are a schottische and The Robber two-step. In the latter the boys were all masked and changed or stole the partners of their friends in a very clever manner.

At nine o'clock the Lantern dance came on. All the lights were turned off and the children marched in, each carrying a lighted Chinese lantern. They marched around the hall in single file and double file. They made diagonals and also snake courses. These were especially pretty and deserve comment. The trainer showed excellent taste and clever ability in her work and instruction, and is quite deserving of complimentary remarks.

Harry Fleasong sang with good expression and voice the songs, "If Everybody Happy" and "I've Said my Last Farewell, Good-bye."

The Opera House Orchestra furnished the music in their usual excellent style, and the party was a decided success in every way.

A number of young people enjoyed themselves very much in dancing, after the children's program was over.

AN OLD BOOK

Mr. Walter Brock, of this city, is the possessor of probably one of the oldest books in the city. The title page has the following: "The works of the Most Reverend Dr. John Tillotson, late Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Containing 54 Sermons and Discourses, on Several Occasions, Together with the Rules of Faith. Being all that were Published by His Grace Himself, and now Collected into One Volume. To which is added, an Alphabetical Table of the Principal Matters. The Seventh Edition. London: Printed for T. Goodwin, B. Tooke and J. Pemberton, in Fleet street; J. Nicholson, in Little Britain; and J. Tonson, in the Strand. MDCCLXIV." A picture of Lord Archbishop of Canterbury is printed on the opposite page. The name of William Smithson, 1766, is written on the cover. The printing is the old style, the small letter "a" resembling our present day "f". The work has been well gotten up and printing excellent. The work is 193 years old.

Peasants Tried To Fool The Roumanian
Troops

REBELS USE STRATEGEM

Bucharest, April 6.—The determined bravery of the insurgent peasantry, in some of the recent fighting, is illustrated by a story of the battle of Belascesti, near Craiova, published in a local newspaper. The insurgents, who numbered ten thousand, armed with guns, axes, knives and scythes, accompanied by their wives and children, made a desperate attack on a body of Roumanian infantry and artillery. The latter opened fire, killing large numbers of the peasants, who, after an unequal combat, retreated to a village, carrying their dead and dying. Half an hour later a long funeral procession, headed by a priest, issued from the village, a coffin being followed by thousands of weeping peasants. As they approached the troops the commandant ordered the mourners to halt, but the latter pressed on, and were met by a volley, which killed or wounded a number of them. After further fighting the remainder of the peasants fled, leaving the coffin which, when the soldiers examined it, was found to be empty. A few minutes later the peasants again attacked the troops, meeting the same fate. Artillery was then brought into action and the insurgents were summoned to evacuate the village within three hours. The peasants utilized the interval to unite their forces and delivered a fourth desperate assault on the troops, advancing in the face of artillery fire and rifle volleys and getting into hand-to-hand conflicts with the soldiers. The peasants, however, were defeated in the end and the houses of the village were rased to the ground by the fire of the field guns.

Kaibars to the Frontier.
St. Petersburg, April 6.—Owing to the restlessness among the Russian peasants on the Roumanian frontier, due to the revolt of the Roumanian peasantry, the Government has ordered Gen. Kaibars, Governor-General of Odessa, to send a strong detachment of infantry and artillery to the frontier and to take energetic measures for the restoration of order.

A MATTER OF GRANTING

Ottawa, April 5.—At last evening's session of the Dominion House Mr. Fowler (Conservative, New Brunswick) and Mr. Bennett (East Simcoe) made merry at the expense of the Canadian navy, which requires a hot house for its silver-lined cuspidors and the like.

One item in the estimates is for a flag to be flown when the minister of marine is on board.

"What is the design of this flag?" asked Mr. Bennett.

Mr. Templeman, acting minister, could not state.

"A man up a tree" sticking on grafts would do all right," suggested Mr. Bennett, and both sides laughed heartily.

AN INQUIRY ANSWERED

"What is being done with the limestone which is being taken up out of the road-bed on King street west?" asked a ratepayer this morning. "I see they are hauling it over to the park. Is it being sold to some party, or is the city having it ground up for our own use? Would you mind inquiring about this matter, as I know a number of citizens would like to be enlightened on this point?"

The Planet afterwards hunted up City Engineer E. B. Jones and made the desired inquiry.

"The limestone is being sold to Blight & Fielder," replied Mr. Jones. "It is taken over to the park by the city, crushed and then sold to the contractors, who use it for making concrete."

"What does the city get for the crushed material?"

Mr. Jones replied that the price paid by Blight & Fielder for the crushed stone is $1.30 per cubic yard.

FIERCE FIRE AT MCGILL

Engineering And Mechanical
Building Completely
Gutted

LOSS IS HALF A MILLION

Montreal, Que., April 6.—About four o'clock yesterday morning fire broke out in the Macdonald Engineering building of McGill University, and in less than an hour this magnificent structure was gutted. The damage is estimated at $500,000 and is partly covered by insurance. No explanation is as yet forthcoming as to the origin of the fire.

About 4:30 a young man noticed flames and rang the fire alarm, others in neighboring streets remarked the reflection in the sky, and notified the authorities. Firemen were on the scene in a moment, but it was evident from the outset that there was very slight chance of saving the building.

Already the flames had got hold of the roof and were leaping skyward, casting a light that turned early morning into day.

Heat Was Intense.
The heat was intense. The windows in the neighboring chemistry building were cracked and great waves of smoke rolled in all directions. Means were immediately taken to prevent the spreading of the flames, in fact little else remained to be done. Before five o'clock the changing of bells and galloping of steeds had collected a crowd round the building. Students came rushing up by hundreds. The campus and roads around were crowded. So great was the heat that some standing on the steps of the medical building had to come down.

Tower Falls With Crash.
The stone annex that stretches back to University street was saved. Shortly after five o'clock the tower fell with a crash. The wooden roof quickly followed suit, and a few moments later two explosions occurred caused by contact of fire with chemicals. By six o'clock the flames began to subside. The fire had almost burned itself out. As the smoke cleared away one could see that the roof had gone near the northwest, and there was a huge gap in the stone wall and the remaining masonry tottered. Inside the place is just a mass of brick and smouldering timber. As late as half-past six a network continued to fall.

Scientific Instruments Lost.
The building was supposed to be constructed of semi-fire proof material and was equipped with hose. With the possible exception of the heavier instruments on the first floor the scientific equipment is entirely lost. The students number about 400 and examinations were in progress. The examination papers were destroyed.

The full amount of insurance carried on the building and contents is $420,000, which is estimated at between 75 and 80 per cent. of the loss. Only the walls are standing. The fire was never under control till it died out.

The students had their outfits in their lockers, so each student loses from $50 to $200.

QUAIL FOR KENT

London, April 6.—Mr. H. M. Graydon yesterday distributed from this city upwards of 1,000 quail in the counties of Lambton, Essex, Middlesex, Kent and Elgin.

Previous to this season Mr. Graydon has arranged for the cost of this by private subscription, but this year the Ontario Government bears the expense in accordance with its policy of increasing the game in the Province.

Mr. Graydon says this distribution has met with much success. In many places last spring where one pair was placed, large coveys were found in the fall. Where the sympathy of the farmers has been enlisted the success has been marked.

Mr. Graydon says that the farmers are coming to realize that quail is a good bird to have around, living as it does on weeds hurtful to the crops. On the other hand they eat little or no grain, and in consequence the farmers have nothing to complain of in this respect.

A dutiful man known that, it is never his duty to be full.

It doesn't take two pairs of half-hose to make a pair.

THE TRIAL WILL PROCEED

Harry Thaw To Face Jurors
Again On Monday

VERDICT ON THURSDAY

New York, April 6.—The trial of Harry K. Thaw will proceed on Monday, when Delphin M. Delmas, leading counsel for the defence, will begin his summing up to the jury.

District Attorney Jerome decided late yesterday not to appeal to the appellate division of the Court of Appeals for a writ of prohibition or mandamus to halt the trial.

Mr. Jerome may argue briefly on Monday morning against the confirmation of the report of the lunacy commission, which declared Thaw to be sane, but he is aware that Justice Fitzgerald's disposition is to confirm the report, which was unanimous.

The district attorney has many witnesses still under subpoena, but it is said he will press the trial forward to an early verdict, or what is regarded as more likely, a disagreement of the jury.

Immediately after the adjournment, Mr. Jerome set about seeking precedents upon which to base his appeal to the higher court. He was at his office again early yesterday, and then went to the appellate division building.

Instead of applying for a stay of trial he sought counsel among his judicial friends, and, it is said, to have been upon their advice that he re-considered his determination to press the matter.

It was stipulated some weeks ago that each side should have one day for summing up. It was learned last night, however, that Mr. Delmas may speak for two entire days.

District Attorney Jerome has said that his summing up will not require more than three or four hours. He will ask the jury to convict Thaw of murder in the first degree.

It is thought that a verdict will be reached on Thursday.

CLEMENTS ON HATCHERIES

Ottawa, April 5.—The House spent the most of yesterday morning in supply on fisheries estimates. There was a rather warm discussion on the appropriation for the fish hatchery at Wiarton. Dr. Sproule charged that the whole business was "tainted with corruption," and the hatchery established to influence the electorate. Dr. Barr, Mr. Telford, Mr. Mackenzie and Clements took part in the discussion.

MR. COLLIS' GOOD WORK

Inspector Collis has returned from the O. E. A. meeting in Toronto, where his proposed amendments to the school law were all adopted. Among these may be mentioned the following:—

1. That persons afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis be not admitted to any Normal School to train for teaching.

2. That candidates for teachers' certificates be required to pass examination in all the subjects which they shall be required to teach. This would mean that candidates must be able to teach penmanship and be themselves good writers.

3. That rural school boards be enlarged and that at least one person having children attending the school be elected each year.

The greater number of Mr. Collis' suggestions of last year have been adopted by the Minister.

Mr. Collis is to be congratulated upon the success with which he has met in trying to improve the system of education. He is one of the first educationists in the province to-day, and is recognized as such by the other people in the profession. His suggestions are always listened to with respect, and it is a tribute to the excellence of those suggestions that all of them offered a year ago have now been adopted. It is to the credit of Chatham that her educationists are generally recognized as men of ability and power.

Licenses to Be Restricted—Local Measures Finally Passed.

Toronto, April 5.—By the bill presented to the Legislature by the Attorney-General, Hon. Mr. Foy, yesterday the purchasers of Cobalt and Kerr lakes are to be protected from litigation from parties alleging prior discoveries or claims.

In presenting the measure Mr. Foy explained that last year orders in Council were passed withdrawing these lakes from exploration and the present bill enacts that persons alleging prior claims may be dealt with only by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.

Mr. Cameron (West Huron) and Hon. Mr. MacKay took exception to the principle of the bill. They charged that the bill was an interference with the legal claims of the Florence Mining Co.

Hon. Mr. Whitney said the alleged discovery was subsequent to the withdrawal of the lakes from prospecting operations by order in Council.

Hon. Mr. MacKay said it was a matter of principle. Either the Government sold a good title or a bad one.

Hon. Mr. Foy declared the honor of the Province demanded the protection of the bona fide purchasers.

The Attorney-General also introduced a bill to amend the Ontario election act—a measure technical in character.

The following measures were given their third readings:

Respecting Brampton and the Public Library Board—Mr. Smith.

To incorporate the Women's Christian Temperance Association of Belleville—Mr. Morrison.

Respecting St. George's cemetery in the township of Bentinck, Grey county—Mr. Jamieson.

Respecting the town of Berlin—Mr. Lachner.

To Limit Sale of Liquor.

Mr. Thompson (Westworth) moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Liquor License Act, by prohibiting any agent or disposing of any liquor outside of the municipality in which he has his license.

Hon. Mr. Hanna said the bill was merely a discrimination in favor of the wholesaler, which he was sure was not the intention of the mover. He asked a withdrawal of the bill.

Hamilton had established a so-called agency at Dundas in competition with a retailer who paid his regular license.

Mr. Hanna replied that the case in question was now under the department's consideration.

ONTARIO BANK CURATOR

THE EXPERT FINANCIER WHO IS WINDING UP ITS AFFAIRS.

Mr. W. E. Stavert and What He Has Already Accomplished—The Liquidation of the Yarmouth Bank Was the Last Big Task He Undertook Before Going to Toronto to Save the Wreckage of Ontario Bank.

When the Bank of Yarmouth suspended on March 6 of last year the Maritime Provinces were in the throes of an exceedingly severe winter storm. The depth of the snow was measured by feet, not inches, trains in Nova Scotia had been blocked for a month, and the commerce of the Province was tied up by the long spell of inclement weather. Communication was maintained by telegraph, and one day the news of the suspension of the Bank of Yarmouth was flashed to President E. S. Clouston of the Canadian Bankers' Association. Under the provisions of the banking act the president's first duty was to appoint a curator. The task was no ordinary one for it meant the actual application of the new powers conferred by Parliament upon the banks, whereby they might effect the liquidation of any institution in the association without recourse to outside aid.

The choice fell upon Mr. W. E. Stavert, General Manager of the Bank of New Brunswick, and he was telegraphed to hasten to Yarmouth at once and take over the affairs of the bank there.

"Please proceed to Yarmouth," were possibly the opening words of the telegram, and they supplied one problem to be solved. Between St. John and Yarmouth was a railway, but for the time it was hopelessly buried beneath great snowbanks, which a late winter blizzard was persistently piling over the stalled trains. That night a small tug put out from the harbor of St. John and headed through the gale for Yarmouth. There was one passenger got on it, the financial doctor who had been called to the aid of the sick bank. Some of the Maritime papers at the time described the terrible experience of that tug in the storm, how it staggered into Yarmouth in the morning dangerously listed with the weight of ice on its upper works, but with the curator aboard safe and sound and ready to begin his task.

Six months later the full double liability had been collected from the shareholders, the creditors had been paid in full, and the affairs of the bank had been duly wound up. The expedition which marked the whole transaction must have rather startled the banking world, then watching the liquidation proceedings of two Montreal banks, which failed in 1894, and which are still struggling along under boards composed of four and six liquidators respectively. Curator Stavert when his work at Yarmouth was completed was taken from the Bank of New Brunswick by the Bank of Montreal to be its superintendent of offices in the Maritime Provinces, which is said to be the position fourth in seniority on the executive staff of the Montreal institution.

The crisis in the affairs of the Ontario Bank gave the Canadian Bankers' Association another opportunity of testing Mr. Stavert's power, and his appointment was generally approved. Now the eyes of the whole country are on him, for upon the curator rests the duty of vindicating the rights enjoyed by the Bankers' Association to care for its own members and for the depositors and shareholders of an insolvent bank.

Mr. Stavert is a man of about forty-five years of age, and has been in the banking business in the United States, the West Indies and Newfoundland as well as Canada. He works early and late, has apparently no time for anything but bank business, and newspaper men who have met him in Toronto, while admiring his invariable courtesy, are still convinced that the coating of ice he got on the Bay of Fundy the night he crossed to Yarmouth has never had a chance to thaw.

Curiosities of Coffee.

Coffee, as experts are aware, has a very extraordinary property. It is one of the most absorbent matters in existence. Coffee beans placed in a damp room swell, and absorb moisture till they nearly double their weight. Here is the chance of the dishonest grocer. Not content with the amount of profit made upon coffee, he places pails of water in a room with piles of uncovered coffee beans, and by swelling the coffee adds something like 50 per cent. to his profits. The flavor is ruined, but that does not matter to him. So absorbent is coffee, not only of moisture, but of gases and flavors, that shippers of Brazilian coffee always stipulate that the sacks of fresh Rio beans shall never be carried on a steamer which has raw hides as any part of her cargo. These will not matter to him. He is sure than anything else and render it unfit for use. The useful side of this quality of coffee is that in a sickroom a handful or two of fresh roasted and ground beans acts as an excellent purifier and deodorizer.

MISS LOIS MAY ALDEN.

A Woman to Start Farm School For City Waifs.

To reclaim city waifs by transplanting them from the vitiated atmosphere of the city streets into a farm school is the attractive plan of a young New York woman, Miss Lois May Alden. If she is successful, hers will be the first farm home school in the country. In Warwick, England, such a home has been started, and it has succeeded remarkably well, drawing its pupils from the worst sections of London.

In order to become thoroughly conversant with farming in all its branches Miss Alden has enrolled herself as a member of the State Agricultural school at New Brunswick, N. J., where free courses in agriculture have been recently instituted. She is registered both for the animal husbandry and the market gardening and fruit growing.

Macaroon Whip. Macaroon whip is simply and easily made. Soak one-quarter of a package of gelatin in one-quarter of a cupful of cold water. Grate or crumble one-quarter of a pound of stale, dry macarons. Cut very fine one dozen candied cherries. Stand the gelatin over hot water until dissolved, then add to it one cupful of very heavy cream with half a cupful of sifted powdered sugar, two tablespoonsful of sherry and a few drops of almond extract.

Watch closely and as soon as it shows signs of thickening whip the whites of two eggs to a froth, add them to the cream and whip the mixture until it is a solid froth. Lightly mix in the macaroon crumbs and half of the cherries.

Turn into a serving dish and sprinkle the remainder of the cherries over the top. Keep very cold until served.

MISS LOIS MAY ALDEN.

courses and so far is the only woman in these classes. For some years there has been a government experiment station at this point, but not until now have the special courses for students been offered, and when several fine buildings now under process of construction are finished the plant will be quite complete.

Miss Alden has had this idea in her mind since she was a small child, and as she grew older it seemed to her the only practical solution of the problem of what to do with the children of the city's streets.

"I have always cherished a passion for farming and also for helping friendless and homeless children. To combine the two seems the most delightful thing I could do," she said in speaking of her plans. "Nature will do more in a minute for these children than stereotyped book instruction in a month. In learning to love nature they will learn to love one another. It is my plan to secure a plot of ground somewhere near a city where produce can be raised and disposed of easily. There farming and market gardening will be taught. This will not only give the children a home, but it will give them a vocation. There is money in wholesale gardening for those who prepare for the work scientifically."

"There will be, first of all, an attractive home life. Boys and girls will be equally divided in numbers. They may enter the home anywhere from twelve to fifteen years old. A regular schedule will be carried out. There will be studies in the morning and afternoon relating to the agricultural course, with practical demonstrations. They will make their own gardens and take care of the dairy, and there will be instruction in animal husbandry on the side. There will also be the household duties, each child doing his or her own share, in order to give them the idea of the domestic side of farm life."

How to Treat Sunless Rooms. No one wants a gloomy room, but what to do with such a room is a problem that has bothered more than one of us.

Many a woman has foregone inside curtains and even sash curtains to allow all the light possible to come into the room, but still it looks dreary. It is not as much the light that we need as the sunshine, and when this cannot be had we must make it, or rather, get the effect of it.

A room with a northern aspect should not, of course, be papered in blue or some such cold color, but rather in rich warm tones of olive, green, brown, red or yellow. If the room gets but little light and sunshine, yellow should be our choice. Not only should we have yellow on the walls, but also on the ceiling, for the sake of the reflection. A pretty treatment is to have a light pumpkin yellow on the walls as far as the picture molding and a lighter shade above this and on the ceiling. Then yellow silk sash curtains, pulled back, tend to make a room sunny.

Brass can make a wonderful difference to a dreary room. A large jardiniere with a plant in it placed in a dark corner will lighten up most marvelously. The andirons, too, will give a cheery reflection. Even candlesticks help and little trays and bowls, be they ever so small. The importance of brass in a sunless room cannot be too strongly emphasized. Mirrors brighten up, and so do some pictures, with well polished glass and gilded frames, but these little points are too seldom taken into consideration.

The Secret of Good Coffee. The real secret of having good coffee lies in two things—buy the best and make it carefully, and the best way to make it is the simplest. The following is perfectly simple and satisfactory: Get a pint measure or larger tin, heat it with boiling water, put in one large heaped up teaspoonful of ground coffee to each person. Nearly fill with boiling water, place the tin on the fire and stir slowly until a creamy froth comes to the top. Have a warmed jug or coffee-pot ready, into which pour the coffee slowly through muslin, even straining through a thick sediment, which remains with the grains. Your coffee is then ready for immediate use and may be boiled up repeatedly without being renewed. A very good tip when making a new brew is to pour on the grains the sediment and a little of the cold coffee usually kept in the coffee-pot and thrown out by the maid. Even the grains should not be wasted, as they make excellent mold for delicate plants.

Do You Know—That you can make a faded dress perfectly white by washing it in boiling water? That salt, dissolved in alcohol, will often remove grease spots from clothing? That two potatoes grated in a basin of water will give better results than soap in washing delicate flannel and woolen goods, ribbons, etc? That piano keys can be cleaned, as can any old ivory, by being rubbed with muslin dipped in alcohol? That a little thin cold starch rubbed over windows and mirrors and then wiped off with a soft cloth is an easy way of producing most shining results? That hot milk is even better than boiling water to take out fruit stains?

A Clotheshorse Hint. Where there is very little room the following suggestion will make a very good substitute for that domestic animal, the clotheshorse, which is easily carried out by the home carpenter. From the carpenter obtain several dowels or white round sticks. At the hardware store get some brackets. Place the brackets in a manner to bring the dowels across a corner of the kitchen, and on them the clothes may be hung to air. During the week the dowels may be removed and put away in a corner or may be used to hang dish towels to dry. This arrangement does away with the dangling line that is of great annoyance to the taller members of the family.

The Dressing Table. Simple little covers for the dressing table are made of the mercerized chambray that comes in such pretty shades of pink and blue, and they make an agreeable change from the white ones in such constant use. The cover is made just the size required, with the addition of four inches all round, which is turned up on the right side and hemmed down by the means of further stitching done in heavy white mercerized cotton. The corners are mitered carefully so as to be quite flat and are blind stitched down.

Hair Sachets. Scent sachets for use in the hair may be easily made, and in this respect it should be borne in mind that in shape they should be very narrow, not wider than a finger, to allow them to be pinned beneath the coils before the hair is dressed. They should be covered with lace net so that the hairpins may go through them. In the center of each place a tiny roll of cotton filled with the favorite sachet powder.

A Dry Shampoo. Orris root powder dusted over the hair is often a substitute for frequent shampooing. Sprinkle the powder into the hair and rub it well into the scalp; then brush it out. Orris is one of the few powders which may be used for this purpose, as it will not stop the pores. It is cleansing and will give a faint sweet odor to the hair.

Black kid gloves generally wear out at the finger tips and then assume a rusty brown tint, which is anything but pleasant, although the other part of the glove may be perfectly good. When this happens, take a little black ink, mix it with a small quantity of olive oil and apply it to the finger tips. Leave it until dry, and the gloves will be very much improved in appearance.

Photographs that have become soiled or that are mounted on cards the edges of which are broken may be soaked off by placing them in water. This cleans them, but does not injure them in the least, and after drying thoroughly between blotters they may be mounted again on new cards.

Kerosene rubbed into boots and shoes which have been hardened by water will soften them. Rubbing with a woolen rag saturated in kerosene will also brighten tin and granite ware.

Carefully Milled From The Finest No. 1 Manitoba and Ontario Red Winter Wheat

OUR method of combining the finest No. 1 Manitoba with Red Winter Wheat so as to make the most perfect bread and pastry flour—so as to retain both the nutriment of the Manitoba and delicate flavor of the Red Winter Wheat—would be wasted if our milling process was not so absolutely perfect.

The extreme care we take in milling "Kent Mills" Gold Medal Flour might seem unnecessary to the casual visitor to our big plant.

The most improved devices for manufacturing flour are used.

You should see our immense rollers in operation. These gradually reduce the wheat to flour—do not crush it to powder and take the life and nutriment out of it as in the old-fashioned way.

By our improved system the gluten and starch cells are carefully and entirely separated from the indigestible bran and cellulosic coats, and partially crushed into myriads of tiny, sharp, white granules of uniform size.

Not a grain of the wheat germ, which impairs the keeping qualities of the flour, or any other substance that shouldn't be there, can possibly get into "Kent Mills" Gold Medal Flour.

It's always uniform, always dependable—the highest grade, most satisfactory flour for household use.

MAJORITY STOPS ENQUIRY.

Motion to Summon Accountant Before Bar of the House.

Ottawa, April 5.—Once more the North Atlantic Trading Company is under the limelight.

Mr. Monk moved to bring before the bar of the House for contempt O. H. Beddoe, an accountant of the interior department, who went to Europe to audit the accounts of the company.

Mr. Monk pointed out that the House was entitled to know upon what facts the auditor found the accounts to be correct. For example one item with which the company is credited is a payment of $14,000 for "printing."

"Surely," Mr. Monk insisted, "we are entitled to know who are the printer or printers to whom this sum was paid. How can the House sanction a payment of $14,000 for printing when the Government refuses to say who did the printing?"

Mr. Oliver submitted that Mr. Beddoe was merely carrying out the policy of the Government. The Government and not Mr. Beddoe should be held responsible.

Dr. Sproule said that secrecy was the badge of this Government. The public accounts committee was a disgrace to the House. A partisan chairman ordered witnesses not to answer questions.

Armand Lavergne favored compelling the disclosure of the names of the shareholders in the North Atlantic Trading Company.

Mr. Bourassa vigorously insisted that it was a most dangerous principle to allow a witness to defy Parliament. The trading company's contract was immoral, otherwise there would be no need of secrecy.

Hon. George E. Foster submitted that the public accounts committee was an auditing committee, and investigating committee, but for the past two years a partisan chairman and a servile partisan majority has strangled any effort to really investigate any suspicious transactions.

Upon division Mr. Monk's motion was defeated, yeas 58, nays 99. A party vote, except that Bourassa, Lavergne and Robitaille voted against the Government.

Mr. Fielding Will Act.

Ottawa, April 5.—Hon. W. S. Fielding has been appointed as Acting Minister of Railways and Canals. Although no official announcement has been made on the subject, it is understood that no appointment will be made to the vacant portfolio until the Premier's return from England.

PAID $800 SETTLEMENT.

New Finds Himself in Jail on Serious Charge.

Owen Sound, Ont., April 5.—Last summer Dr. Parks of Faversham, while attending the family of W. Patterson, of Collingwood Township, had his suspicions directed to the 13-year-old daughter of the house, whose mind is somewhat unbalanced. Direct questioning elicited a confession that for two years she had maintained illicit relations with Hugh Thompson, a neighboring farmer, who is 56 years old.

In November following Dr. Parks took the girl and her parents to the office of Mr. John Birnie, K. C., Town Solicitor of Collingwood, where depositions were made. Mr. Birnie wrote to Thompson, and as a result the latter visited the lawyer's office and made a settlement for $800, paying $600 cash and giving a mortgage on his farm for the balance.

Two hundred dollars of the amount paid Mr. Birnie handed over to Dr. Parks, and the rest he retained, the parents of the girl receiving nothing.

Recently the Attorney-General's office learned of the charge against Thompson, and Provincial Detective Greed went up and arrested him. He appeared before Magistrate Dawson, of Fiesherston, yesterday and was committed for trial.

Mr. Birnie, in explanation of his retention of the money, stated that he heard rumors that the Crown was about to take the matter up, and thought it best not to pay over the money to the parents. Dr. Parks claims that the $200 which he received was in payment for professional services to the family, in addition to $160 which he had already received.

MR. ST. JOHN NO BETTER.

Hospital Attendants Report His Condition Unchanged.

The Provincial Revenue Expands.

Toronto, April 5.—Succession duties in March received by the Provincial Treasury amounted to $194,327.33. In March, 1906, the total was $35,596.74. The first three months of this year have netted $245,933.74, against $133,230.35 for the same period last year.

The Provincial Secretary's department received in the month of March $23,638. Last year in the same month the receipts were $17,323. For the first quarter of 1907 the revenue amounted to $38,667. For the same quarter in 1906 the amount was $50,104.

The large increase in the number of companies incorporated and the promptitude with which fees were paid by companies making annual returns account for the larger revenue.

Freedom For Ireland.

London, April 5.—The Tribune says: "Before the colonial Premiers separate we may expect to see them pass a resolution asking that freedom under the crown which they so fully enjoy shall be extended to Ireland. So far as the Government is concerned the resolution will be not only warmly received, but immediately acted upon."

Charged With Murder.

Montreal, April 5.—Wm. Simpson, the young farmer of Hudson Heights, who shot his two infant children and then tried to kill himself, has been placed under arrest on a charge of murder at the Notre Dame Hospital, where he lies hovering between life and death. He was reported as somewhat better last night.

"I can recommend Peruna for dyspepsia and stomach trouble.

"I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved."

"It is indeed a wonderful medicine, and besides a good tonic."

Colds in the Head and Throat.

Chas. W. Bowman, 1st Lieut. and Adj. 4th U. S. M. Cav. Vols., writes from Lanham, Md., as follows:

"Though somewhat averse to patent medicines, and still more averse to becoming a professional affidavit man, it seems only a plain duty in the present instance to add my experience to the columns already written concerning the curative powers of Peruna."

"I have been particularly benefited by its use for colds in the head and throat. I have been able to fully cure myself of a most severe attack in forty-eight hours by its use according to directions."

"I use it as a preventive whenever threatened with an attack."

"Members of my family also use it for like ailments."

"We are recommending it to our friends."

COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrapper and attach its correctness under oath, are daily giving in favor of the more honest position of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody.

Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed of the best medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm to the system by creating or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrappers—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that) yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-on-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption.

Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" as it is and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay or non-professional testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicines at reasonable prices.

Recommends Pe-ru-na to the Afflicted.

Brig. Gen. D. T. Kirby, Washington, D. C., writes concerning Peruna, as follows:

"Friends of mine having used your Peruna catarrh cure with good results, I am impressed with its curative qualities, and can recommend it to those who are afflicted."

An Invigorating Tonic.

Rear-Admiral Highborn, U. S. Navy, Washington, D. C., writes:

"After the use of Peruna for a short period, I can now cheerfully recommend your valuable remedy to any one who is in need of an invigorating tonic."

For Catarrh of the Stomach.

Gen. W. W. Duffield, Washington, D. C., writes:

"I have used Peruna in my family and have found it a valuable medicine and take pleasure in recommending it to all who suffer from catarrh of the stomach or who require a tonic of prompt efficacy."

DEAFNESS CAUSED BY CATARRH—RELIEVED BY PE-RU-NA.

Gen. A. M. Legg, writes from the Savings Bank Building, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"I take pleasure in endorsing the many recommendations I have heard and read of Peruna, because of having had knowledge of the truth of so many of them."

"We always tell our sick and ailing friends of the remedies that we have learned, from experience, were good for us when ailing in the same way, and we do it as a duty we feel that we owe them."

"Why is it any the less our duty to advise all the people we can when we know of a good and comparatively inexpensive remedy that makes many cures, and benefits in almost all cases?"

"My own little personal experience of being relieved of deafness, caused by a siege of catarrh, warrants me in advising all the afflicted to just try Peruna."

Used Pe-ru-na—Satisfied As to Its Merits—Recommends It to All Sufferers.

Gen. S. S. Yoder, 208 Md. Ave., N. E., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I desire to say that I have found Peruna to be a wonderful remedy. I only used it for a short time and am thoroughly satisfied as to its merits. I shall gladly recommend it to all sufferers."

For Kidney Trouble, Coughs, Colds and Catarrh.

Gen. A. T. Hawley, 1886 25th St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I have used Peruna and find it very beneficial for kidney trouble, and especially good for coughs, colds and catarrhal trouble."

Convinced of Pe-ru-na's Merit.

Brig. Gen. J. Floyd King, Washington, D. C., writes:

"I unhesitatingly state that I am convinced Peruna is a medicine which will effect all that is claimed for its use."

"Those desirous of obtaining special directions with regard to the use of Peruna should write to Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio."

When Other Remedies Failed Pe-ru-na Proved Efficacious.

Hon. Geo. W. Honey, National Chaplain U. S. Army, Ex-Chaplain 4th Wisconsin Cavalry, Ex-Treas. State of Wisconsin and Ex-Q. Master General State of Texas, O. A. R., writes from 1700 First street, N. E., Washington, D. C., as follows:

"I cannot too highly recommend your preparation for the relief of catarrhal troubles in their various forms."

"Some members of my own family have used it with most gratifying results."

"When other remedies failed, Peruna proved most efficacious and I cheerfully certify to its curative excellence."

Pe-ru-na, a Standard Treatment For Catarrhal Diseases.

Mr. John C. Nelson, Dayton, Tenn., geologist and mining engineer, while a Captain in the Federal Army during the Civil War, contracted a case of rheumatism. This malady was constant and persistent, inducing the development of other ailments, which also became chronic. After taking a course of Peruna, Capt. Nelson writes:

"Having been painfully afflicted with chronic rheumatism and the adjunct complications for many years, and after having received many general and special treatments with only temporary relief, I read your scientific treatise on catarrhal diseases."

"At my request you prescribed a special course of the Peruna remedies, which I closely followed, and am happy to report that my rheumatism and complicated ailments are subdued, and I feel young again at the age of 60 years."

"Reason will accept your classification of catarrhal diseases as scientific and true, and the Peruna remedies as a standard treatment for them. I thank you heartily for your skilled and logical advice."

Enjoys Renewed Health and Strength.

James J. Osborn, 628 Wahsatch Ave., Colorado Springs, Colo., has filled all the positions in Knight Templar Masonic Order, was a Mason since 1866, Judge of County Court, Clinton, Mo., and also County Collector of Clinton. He writes:

"A sluggish liver which I had been troubled with for two years made life miserable and I was unable to attend to my business half the time. I looked weary, had headache most of the time, and my food distressed me and did not seem to do me a particle of good."

"Heading off the many cures performed by Peruna, I decided to try a bottle. Before I had taken many doses I felt better."

"I took it as directed for two months when I was a well man."

The average woman drives a horse much as she would a tack.

Death is not the worst evil.

HOW DO YOU JUDGE A PIANO?

Musically inclined people naturally judge a piano by its tone—and that's why "Nordheimer" pianos are found in the homes of so many musicians of note.

If you have an ear for tonal quality the remarkable beauty, sweetness, purity and volume of the "Nordheimer" will appeal to you.

We could explain at length the various mechanical contrivances which are incorporated in the "Nordheimer" piano to produce its unrivaled tone, but they would be understood by a mechanic only.

We much prefer you to judge this piano from what your own ear tells you about its tone—then you are sure to be satisfied.

Pleased to have you call at your earliest convenience and examine the "Nordheimer." The One Price System assures you a fair and square deal.

Our Mr. R. V. Carter will visit Chatham frequently in our interest and will be pleased to furnish you with any information you may desire. Correspondence addressed to him in care of the Garter House will receive careful attention.

The anthems rendered by the First Presbyterian choir on Easter Sunday will be repeated to-morrow evening, also a selection by the male quartette.

It is claimed that duckshooting, which is now out of season, is being indulged in by a number of local sportsmen. The authorities were notified this morning that one man came into the city with quite a load of ducks. It is likely that an information will be laid against him.

Fred, Steves, of Adelaide street, met with a most unfortunate accident last night. He was chopping down a cherry tree back of his place when the ax he was using caught on a clothes-line, and glancing back, almost severed his right ear from his head. His injuries were attended to by a physician, and it is thought that there will be no untoward results.

Mr. R. Dromgole, late manager of the Merchants' Bank, Tilbury, and formerly accountant of the Galt branch of that institution, arrived in town last evening on his way home to London, to renew acquaintances here. Mr. Dromgole has severed his connection with the Merchants' Bank and intends entering another bank, or will embark in commercial life. His many Galt friends were pleased to see the popular former Galt banker. He left this evening for London.—Galt Re-former.

REBUKE MR GRAHAM

Toronto, April 6.—The first note of dissatisfaction among Liberals in the Legislature with the leadership of the Hon. G. P. Graham developed at a caucus of the party members this afternoon.

It appears that, when Mr. Graham the other day took upon himself to approve the increase in salaries of Cabinet Ministers suggested by the Hon. J. P. Whitney, Prime Minister, he spoke without having first consulted his following.

Not a few of the rank and file are said to be much annoyed over this development, and Mr. Graham is consequently in a far from enviable position.

Hitherto the attitude assumed by Mr. Graham on the various questions of public policy, as they have arisen from time to time, has met with the approbation of his following, so that it is an interesting source of speculation as to just what will be the outcome of this initial note of dissent.

Speaker St. John's Condition.
Toronto, April 6.—Very little change was reported in the condition of Speaker St. John at the General Hospital last night.

Watts attended a ball in Sarnia last night, which was given by the Kaministiquia Club of that city.

The first meeting of the Park street Methodist League that has been held in four weeks was given last night. Ald. W. H. Westman occupied the chair in a very able manner. An address on "Peaceful Living" was given by Mr. Wignmore.
Mr. Allen addressed the meeting, after which a solo by Miss Pabst was given in a very pleasing manner.

CRYING BABIES

Babies do not cry for the fun of it, nor is it always because they are hungry, as so many young mothers think. Nine times out of ten baby's cry indicates that his little stomach is out of order. Mothers will find instant relief for their suffering little ones in Baby's Own Tablets. A few doses will cure the most obstinate cases of constipation, indigestion or vomiting, and a Tablet given now and then to the well child will keep it well. Mrs. Mary Pollock, Gawas, Ont., says: "Baby's Own Tablets have been a great benefit to my baby. They have made him happy, peaceful and contented, when before he used to cry all the time. I have more comfort with him since giving him the Tablets than I ever had before. He now sits and plays and laughs while I do my work. What greater praise can I give Baby's Own Tablets." For sale at druggists or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brookville, Ont.

MINORS IN POOL ROOMS

There has been some complaint recently to the effect that young boys are allowed to frequent certain pool rooms in the city. It is claimed that these boys, some of them of tender years, are allowed to play pool in the places complained of,
which offense is punishable by law.
As far as is known most of the local pool rooms are conducted in a law-abiding manner, and some of them are model places of amusement as far as living up to the law is concerned.

However, it would be well for some of the local rooms to be a little more careful in the matter of allowing minors to play on their tables.
Thus all suspicions would be set at rest.

"MADAM BUTTERFLY"

The announcement of the coming of Puccini's Japanese opera, "Madam Butterfly" to the Detroit Opera House in Detroit, Mich. for one of the few engagements in this city has been much talked about. Grand opera, has aroused wider interest among music lovers than anything
Henry W. Savage has sent West since his notable production of "Parsifal." Those who have already heard the opera during its record-breaking run at the Garden Theatre in New York, declare it the most fascinating and beautiful production of a grand opera that has ever been brought to America. Its Japanese settings and costumes are picturesque and gorgeous. Mr. H. E. Kreshbach, the dean of American music critics of the New York Tribune, says the music, has the very fragrance of the flowers.

Henry W. Savage spent eight months in organizing this new company, his agents visiting every preminent opera house in Europe for available prima donnas to sing the exacting title role. Walter Rothwell, the gifted conductor who was so highly praised for his work with the "Parsifal" orchestra, together with the composer himself, Kreshbach, from Paris, came to Budapest, where "Madam Butterfly" was a perfect furore last winter. This is the little Hungarian beauty Elza Szamosy who will sing at the opening performance in Cleveland. Puccini also selected Miss Rosa Vessali, the American girl who was singing with so much success in Milan, Italy.
The third Madam Butterfly is the beautiful coloratura soprano, Florence Easton, from Covent Garden.
At the Berlin Opera Comique Mr.
Savage found Harriet Behne, the contralto who has the role of Suzuki, from Paris three years ago for the Savage Grand Opera Company, has been engaged to alternate as the Japanese maid.

The only well known artists left from the English Grand Opera Company are the two superb tenors
Francis MacLennan and Joseph F.
Sheehan. The entire cast of "Madam Butterfly" numbers nearly twenty roles, with a chorus of geisha girls, natives, Japanese officials and friends of Butterfly.

The big orchestra of sixty musicians will be under the baton of Ber-told von Vienna, Alfred Feith from Berlin and Cornelis Dopfer from Amsterdam.

Arrangements are being made for excursion rates on all railroads during the "Madam Butterfly" engagement in Detroit, Mich.

CANADA NOW A NATION

ADMIRAL LORD CHARLES BEREFSFORD PRAISES DOMINION.

Declares Canada Not Only Is the Country of the Future But Has Already Taken Her Destined Place—Unable to Find Greater Attachment to Britain in Any of the Colonies.

Lord Charles Berefsford passed through Winnipeg recently on his way to New York. The admiral is in America in connection with the estate of his brother, Lord Delaval, who was killed recently in a wreck in Texas. He went west to San Francisco from Texas and reached the city by way of Vancouver.

"One of the common remarks we hear in Great Britain with reference to Canada," he said, "is that the Dominion is the 'coming country.' There can be no doubt regarding the future of the Dominion, which will be increasingly bright for hundreds of years to come."

"The fact is, however, not that Canada is the country of the future—Canada already has arrived. She has passed through the early years of infancy and childhood and has taken her place as one of the countries of the world.

"I cannot tell how pleasantly I have been impressed by all that I have seen in the West. I made short stays at several points, including Calgary and Medicine Hat. I had not previously seen much of Western Canada."

Visited Coast Years Ago. "Many years ago, it was in 1864, I spent some time on Vancouver Island and on the main land of the Pacific Coast. These were the days when I was with the Pacific squadron. I was on three frigates on the Pacific, and was on shore on many fishing and hunting trips. The memories of those days are exceedingly pleasant."

"I was again in the Dominion in 1874, when I was on the Atlantic coast and saw something of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Of the great interior portion of Western Canada, I have seen nothing until the present time, and nothing would express my admiration too strongly."

"I was particularly struck with the great natural advantages about Medicine Hat, where we spent a few days. It would appear certain that this town is destined to become a city of great importance."

"The town appeared to me to be located very similarly, though in a smaller way, to say Chicago, or Hangchow in China."

Great Commercial Future. "The supply of natural gas, as long as it lasts, must have a great influence on the future commercial development of the city."

"Then there is the river, not very deep, but with an excellent water head and capable of carrying a considerable traffic. The town also has the rail head and, all in all, is possessed of singular advantages."

"Calgary also is remarkably built, and is a most thriving and progressive city."

"The people of the West are all of a fine, manly stamp, full of energy and go."

"In England, the feeling unquestionably is that the connection be-between the mother country and the Dominion, and in fact all the colonies, should be drawn closer."

"I frequently have expressed the conviction, which is the conviction of large numbers of British people, that the colonies are of more consequence to Great Britain than Great Britain is to the colonies."

Imperial Feeling Strong. "I have not been able to find anywhere in the colonies any traces of a feeling in favor of any change in the relations between the mother country and the colonies."

"If Canada should decide to break the connection between herself and the Empire, the tie of course would be broken at once."

"I believe, however, that there is not one of the colonies in which the people are more attached to the mother country than they are in Canada."

Speaking of war, Lord Berefsford said: "There is less chance for war than at any previous time in the history of the world. There was a time when governors and rulers made war and peace. This is no longer the case. War cannot be declared unless the people are for war, and peace is not made until the people are for peace."

"What we must have in the Empire

MOONEY'S
PERFECTION
CREAM SODAS

"Yes Ma'am—this is the Mooney Baker-boy."

"Another box of MOONEY'S PERFECTION CREAM SODAS? Yes Ma'am."

"You like them better than any other Biscuits you ever tried? Mooney's Biscuits are everybody's favorite."

"Now that you know MOONEY'S for what they really are—the most delicious biscuits in Canada—I hope you will always order them and insist on having them."

is a perfect organization, both in size and numbers, but it is better to have a small force, perfectly organized, than a large force disorganized.

"There can be no doubt that it must be the policy of the Empire now and for many years to come to be prepared for war."

Lord Berefsford was informed of the contents of a letter appearing in The Morning Post from Sir Charles Tupper, suggesting that the representatives in London of the colonies should be members of the Privy Council, and thus admitted to councils of the nation.

"I should say it was a most excellent idea," he said. "We must get closer to the colonies. I believe the proposal would be warmly received in all parts of the Empire, and there is no reason why the suggestion should not be adopted."

FIVE DOLLARS A POUND.

Witty Canadian Barrister's Plea Carries Weight With the Jury.

There have been many witty Irish-Canadians in the legal profession. Chief among these was Mr. James O'Reilly, who was the Crown prosecutor in the case against the murderer of D'Arcy McGee in 1868. But Mr. O'Reilly had not always such stern matters to deal with and was known as the most brilliant wit at the Kingston bar. He was once employed by the plaintiff in a breach of promise case, and as his client was ugly, he saw that he must make a practical appeal to the jury.

The lady in the case was an elderly cook, fat as every good cook should be, and possessed of only one eye which had a peculiar and unpleasant glare.

Her Face Was Red. Her face was extremely red and as Mr. O'Reilly gazed upon her lack of charms he felt that ordinary eloquence about beauty in distress would be thrown away. Her lover was a man of rather mean propensities who had young husband to a large share of rials on the occasion of his regular calls. In fact, during their acquaintance he had gained forty pounds. Mr. O'Reilly obtained two photographs of the perfidious gentleman—one showing him to be a genuine and amiable creature, the other after his course of applied domestic science, showing a plump and prosperous citizen. The members of the jury were deeply impressed when Mr. O'Reilly's mellifluous voice asked the question:

"To whom do these forty pounds belong if not to my client?"

The plain avowal of justice of the appeal aroused the calculating sympathy of the jury and it was gravely announced that, as the defendant had gained forty pounds during his courtship and as the meanest human flesh ought to bring five dollars a pound, the forsaken cook was entitled to two hundred dollars for the defendant's improved condition.—Canadian Courier.

LIVED IN FIVE REIGNS.

Distinguished Canadian Lady Passes Away In Toronto.

By the death of Mrs. Featherston Oslar who died recently in Toronto at the advanced age of 101, Canada has lost one of her most distinguished daughters.

Mrs. Oslar, who was the widow of the late Rev. Featherston Oslar, rector of Dundas and Plamboro, has lived under five British sovereigns, having been born in Cornwall, England, in 1806, when George III. was still on the throne. She was married in England, and accompanied her young husband to Canada when sent out in 1833 by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. As the pioneer missionary of the Church of England, Rev. Mr. Oslar endured many hardships, all shared by his devoted wife. In 1832, Rev. Mr. Oslar retired from active work and came to Toronto, where he resided until his death in 1895.

Since that time, Mrs. Oslar seldom left her residence, but until a few years ago, she was an active member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England, a body in which her deceased daughter, Mrs. William, was a moving spirit in the early days of its existence.

There are now living five sons and a daughter, twenty-six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The celebration of Mrs. Oslar's one hundred birthday on December 14th last, aroused the very greatest interest not only among her large circle of relatives and friends, but in many cities where the names of her sons have become famous. All her living descendants with the exception of two or three were present on that occasion.

To few women fell the lot of seeing no less than four of her sons rise to prominence in differing and equally important walks of life, but this in the privilege which crowned Mrs. Oslar's old age. Her second eldest son, the late Britton Bath Oslar, K.C., was for years before his lamented death the chief ornament of the Bar of Canada. Edmund Boyd Oslar, M.P., her fourth son is a leader in financial and political circles, and his brother, Mr. Justice Featherston Oslar, has occupied an honored place on the bench for more than a quarter of a century. Her youngest son, Dr. Wm. Oslar, rector of the University of Oxford University, enjoys a world wide reputation in his chosen profession.

Stay On the Farm. They tell me that you are thinking of leaving the farm this spring. Don't do it; keep close to the soil. You are tired of feeding the cat, the sheep and the pig, tired of chopping the wood, tired of cleaning the stable out, tired of the store on the corner—tired of it all. You have visited the city, and its roar fascinates you. Everyone seemed well dressed and happy, and the laughter and conversation of the passers-by were music to your ear.

Stay with the farm, for it is a healthy spot to live on, where you get a complexion from nature's brush and an arm made strong in God's gymnasium, where you need no medicine to make you eat. Stay with the farm, where life is natural and friendship more real, where you can wear what you want when you want, and there is none who will criticize. Stay with the farm, with the spirit of trust and friendliness, from the colts who follow you up and down the line to the swallow who builds in the barn.—Charles E. Raymond in the Record.

Just Figure out the Cost

What's the use of putting up a barn that will last only ten or twenty years, when, for the same money, or even less, you can build one that is good for a generation at least, and is lightning-proof, fire-proof and water-proof?

Use "Acorn Quality" Corrugated Galvanized Sheets and both price and quality will be right. They will cost no more than an all-wood building. The process of corrugating renders the sheets so rigid that a lighter frame may be used, than with any other structure. Sheeting boards are quite unnecessary and only wood strips are required.

Then, the cost for labor in applying Corrugated Sheets, is, by actual test, less than half what it would be for wood shingles. The economy effected by labor, sheeting boards, and lighter frame-work, more than makes up the difference in cost between present day wooden shingles and our "Acorn Quality" Corrugated Galvanized Sheets.

Our lightning proof barns are in almost every locality in Canada. We will mail you, on request, a list of users in your own county. Get their opinion.

CHILD ALMOST A SOLID SORE

From Skin Disease from Birth Until Six Years Old—Father Spent Fortune on Her Without Benefit—Old Doctor Suggested Cuticura, which Cured Her in Two Months, Leaving

SKIN SOFT AS A BABY'S AND WITHOUT A SCAR

"I have a cousin in Rockingham Co. who once had a skin disease from her birth until she was six years of age. Her father had spent a fortune on her to get her cured and none of the treatments did her any good. Old Dr. C. suggested that he try the Cuticura Remedies which he did. When he commenced to use it the child was almost in a solid scab. He used it about two months and the child was well. I was there when they commenced to use your Cuticura Remedies. I stayed there two weeks and then went back and stayed with them two weeks longer and when I went home I could hardly believe she was the same child. Her skin was as soft as a baby's without a scar on it. I have not seen her in seventeen years but I have heard from her and the last time I heard from her she was well. That is where I became acquainted with Cuticura. I hope this may be of some service to you in the future. Mrs. W. P. Ingle, Burlington, N. C., June 16, 1905."

The Lord Mayor's Show.

The election of a new lord mayor to the civic throne, who the ensuing year to be Sir William Tereolar, naturally turns the thoughts of Londoners to their annual race show on Nov. 9, the day on which they are permitted by the law to indulge in many extravagances which would not be permitted them on any other day in the year. It is a day on which a Londoner cannot be locked up for anything short of theft or violent assault. He can do almost what he pleases, with a policeman looking smilingly on.

It isn't the magnificence of the lord mayor's show which Londoners enjoy, for truly of late years it has seemed to have lost all its original splendor. It is the fun they get out of it.

The difficulty in securing some fresh ideas with which to make the lord mayor's show different in its main features from its predecessors increases as the years roll by. For some time past interest has been created by the rumor that this year's pageant will differ from those of recent years.

It is now definitely stated the show will contain no cars or floats, but that their place will be taken by an entirely new feature, which should prove one of the most interesting, as it is the most original, that has been seen in recent years.

It will consist of representation in costume of seven centuries of city civic life, the representation being carried out by groups illustrative of the lord mayors of each century, with their sheriffs and high officers. Each group will be dressed in the correct costume of the period and will consist of ten persons, so that the total number of persons in the seven groups will be 70.

Such historic lord mayors as Fitz Alyn and Dick Whittington will be included, and this feature undoubtedly will overshadow all others in the procession, which otherwise will follow traditional lines.

TEMPTATION IS NOT SIN

CHRIST IS ABLE TO KEEP HIS PEOPLE FROM FALLING.

PROVIDES A WAY OF ESCAPE

St. Paul's Great Natural Law—Trial Is the Lot of Everybody—None Are Exempt—Companionship in Sin—Color Blindness Typical Illustration—Faith in Jesus Christ the Only Antidote.

Entered according to Act of Parliament of Canada, in the year 1907, by Frederick Dwyer, Toronto, at the Dept. of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 31.—That temptation is the lot of all; that in being tempted, but in inviting and yielding to temptation is sin, and that if we trust in God and seek to do right we will always find a way out is the lesson of this sermon. The text is 1 Corinthians x, 13, "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man."

The scientists teach us that anthropology, or the science of man, is the crown of all the natural sciences, but subsidiary to it and contributory to its proper comprehension are the other natural sciences. Nature has the same method of working in all, and if we learn what she does in the lower spheres we shall know what she does in the higher. If we learn how the plants and the animals grow and thrive, we learn in part what in a similar way man will grow and thrive. No man is absolutely unique. He is one of a species the members of which prosper under like conditions or degenerate under the opposite conditions. Nature is a unit in this.

In other words, the same inexorable natural laws which cause a rose or a lily or a heliotrope or a horse or a cow or a sheep or a robin or a bluebird or a trout or a black bass to do and to be what it is under certain conditions are the same inexorable biological laws which will compel man under certain conditions to do certain things. When we study the characteristics of a species we study in a broad sense the characteristics of all the individuals of that species, and there is no exception to the rule.

Now, Paul in the words of my text is enunciating a great natural law. He comes to us and says: "My brother, in your egotism you believe you are different from the rest of mankind. You may think that no man ever faced just the same trials and temptations and sorrows and bitter disappointments which you have. But in your loves, your hates, your sorrows and your temptations you are just like the generality of mankind. You are under the common law. You must eat as they eat. You will laugh as they laugh. You sleep as they sleep. You suffer from the cold and the heat as they suffer. You cry as they cry. You are tempted as they are tempted. You sin as they sin. Furthermore, you can be saved from your sins by the same law of Jesus Christ as they can be saved. You are part of a great species of living creatures which is called the human family." Then Paul seems to generalize all his thoughts into these words of my text: "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man, but God is faithful who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able, but will, with the temptation, also make a way of escape, that ye may be able to bear it."

My friends, as there are thousands of men and women in the past who have been tempted just as we are tempted and God has found a way by which they may escape from their temptations, so if we let Jesus come into our lives and accept his offer of a way of escape we may overcome our present temptations. We all have many temptations. There is no doubt about that. The next question is, Do we apply the gospel weapon against these temptations?

There are, in the first place, physical temptations. There are temptations of the blood, of the nerves, the muscles of the stomach and of the heart. There are the temptations which appeal to the physical organism which we have inherited from our ancestors and which may have been weakened by disease or by abuse. These temptations of the physical organism are among the very fiercest of all temptations to battle against. Paul was speaking literally as well as figuratively when he described himself as an armed sentinel standing guard over his body or as an armed foe in mortal combat with the passions of his flesh. He knew, as every true Christian ought to know, that unless he was continually warring against the evil desires of his flesh he would become their slave. He said, "I keep under my body and bring it into subjection lest by any means when I have preached to others I myself should be a castaway. Oh, my brother, do you know that with the help of the Holy Spirit you may overcome your physical temptations?"

One of the most common of those physical temptations is the craving of the stomach and the nerves for a stimulant or a soothing narcotic. You have not a law, good for nothing drunk or loafer. You are an intense, ambitious, energetic man. You perhaps started with nothing, and everything, to use a slang expression, "seems to be coming your way." Your business has been going ahead by leaps and bounds. The orders have been tumbling in on you as an avalanche. If you had ten hands and ten feet and ten eyes and ten brains, you could work them all to their limit. The result is you have been overworking that body. You cannot sleep at night. When you arise for breakfast in the morning you are more tired than when you went to bed. About two years ago you began to use stimulants. You did it to arouse your depleted faculties. Then at night you commenced to take some sedative. You said to yourself, "I must sleep. I must sleep or I shall die." Then you did not like liquor. You did not in the beginning crave that sedative. But now every nerve and muscle and sinew of your body is crying, "Give me drink! Give me the sleeping potion! I must have them or I shall go mad!" Under these temptations of the flesh you are going down and down. You are heading straight for a premature grave. Do you not realize now what Paul means when he says, "I keep under my body and bring it into subjection lest by any means when I have preached to others I myself shall be a castaway?"

Or perhaps we have broken the moral code. Perhaps we have inherited the inflamed proclivities of some dissolute ancestor. When we try to govern ourselves, we find that we are like a mettlesome, high strung horse, ready at a moment's notice to take the bit in his teeth and rush madly away. The cold-blooded man of phlegmatic temperament cannot understand why the quick-tempered, high strung, nervous, passionate nature can so easily kick over the traces and do what it ought not to do. The phlegmatic man is a mound of wet sand slowly being dried by the rising sun. The passionate man is a gunpowder magazine, ready to be exploded by a spark. And yet the power of God can come in and make it possible for a weak man to overcome the temptations of drink and all the unspeakable temptations of the flesh. Yes, the power of God has been able to help thousands of men in the past to triumph over the cup and over the more or less habit and over libertinism. The power of God can help you now to triumph over your evil desires of the flesh. Your temptation is not an extraordinary case. There have been many men of the past even more virtuous than you who have been saved from the sins of the flesh. Have you forgotten Paul's statement? "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to men, but God is faithful who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able, but will, with the temptation, also make a way of escape, that ye may be able to bear it."

But there are mental temptations as well as physical. Just the same as a man may have a malformed body he can have a malformed mind. His thinking apparatus may be all askew. In Bulgaria a short time ago there died a young woman of thirty years of age. She had the mind of a matured, developed woman. She could talk as woman, but still could not see the body of a little six-months-old baby. She never grew physically after she was a few months old. She had to sleep in a cradle. She had the mind of a woman, yet the body of a little child. In direct antithesis to this we often find men of fully formed physical bodies who are worse than children in intellect. Their minds are warped and twisted out of form. They have such malformed intellects that they cannot think aright. They cannot tell the difference between right and wrong. In their own minds they are intellectually color blind.

You know what I mean by a man having defective color sight. When the applicant for a locomotive engineer's position applies to the railroad, which is the first and chief rule by which the official tests the applicant? He takes him into a room where there are a lot of worsted yarns all jumbled up together. "Now, you go and pick me out the blue skeins," says the examiner. "Now pick me out the red." The difference between the colors of red and white may involve the safety of hundreds of passengers which an engineer may have in his charge. Some of you may be surprised to learn that hundreds of would be engineers have been rejected because the optic nerves of their eyes could not carry their messages aright. So there are hundreds and thousands of men whose brains are deformed. They cannot think aright. They cannot tell right from wrong when they see it. These men have malformed intellects, just the same as others have malformed bodies. Of course I am here using the brain in the broad moral sense and not in the narrow.

I was never more impressed with this thought than some time ago when I was reading the story of the man I think, Henry Ward Beecher ever preached. It is called "The Courtship of Conscience." In this discourse Mr. Beecher shows how each man by education as well as by hereditary law becomes an entity to himself or an individual different from all other individuals. Each man to a great extent judges the world by giving voice to the predominant characteristics of his own heart and mind and life. "Now," says Mr. Beecher, "take a man of large benevolence. That is the predominant quality of his mind. It overshadows everything else. As he goes through the Bible everything that magnifies the goodness of God and the mercy of God will come after his magnet. Whenever he comes to a fissure where there is smoke or wrath he jumps it and will not touch it. While, on the other hand, the man who has not such benevolence, but has a good deal of the sense of justice of government and of rules and regulations, goes through the Bible, and when he returns he has on his back a pack filled with the texts of fire."

Mr. Beecher was showing that every man's mind is a law unto itself. If that mind is a malformed or one-sided mind in its color blindness, it will cover with false colors every moral object its eyes focus, just the same as the locomotive engineer with color blindness may think the red light of warning is the white light of safety.

Now, the power of the Holy Spirit may come into our lives and teach us to think aright. Through the Holy Spirit we can get a revelation of the divine sacrifice means. Through him we can truly get an infinite grasp of what the words "Jesus Christ our Saviour" mean to the troubled, sinful heart. Oh, the sins of the mind! Oh, the awful results of wrong thinking to the human heart! The mind fog is like any other kind of darkening mist. If you have ever crossed the Atlantic, you know well what I mean. When you come to the banks of Newfoundland, the fogs settle about you so thick that you cannot see the prow of the ship from the stern. Then the boat slows up, and the deep throated fog horn begins to call. Every time that hoarse note goes rolling over the waters it seems to be calling, "Oh, ships and fishing smacks, where are you?" Then off in the distance you will hear a faint answer calling:

"Here am I! Beware! Beware! Beware!" So in the mental fogs of doubt and mysticism, in the fogs of skepticism which envelop every human heart, there is but one right course. Slow up. Send forth the cry for guidance. Call and keep calling: "Jesus, where art thou?" Then amid the deepest, densest gloom of life thou wilt hear the Saviour's answer: "Here am I! Come to me! Come to me!" Oh, may the mental fogs which have enveloped so many of us to-day be lifted by the sunshine of God's love. Our mental doubts and skepticism are no worse than those which have been lifted from hundreds of beclouded minds. "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man."

But there are temptations from without as well as temptations from within. There are temptations which come to us from other men, as well as temptations welling up in our own hearts. There are temptations social and commercial as well as spiritual. The prophet of old described himself as a little terror stricken bird, with a great flock of angry sparrows encircling it trying to peck it to death. Thus, when we see all the temptations which swoop down upon us from without, can we not cry out: "But heritage is mine, and I am a speckled bird. The birds about me are against her. Come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field come to devour?" For truly wherever we go into the outside world Satan is ready to greet us with fierce temptations. Do you remember the nursery fable where the spider stands at the door of his palace trying to get the fly to come in and banquet with him? Well, that is the way Satan stands at the door of the commercial and the social world begging his victims to come in and sup with him. He looks at us and smiles and says: "Come, join our social club! Come and learn how to drink wine and to gamble with us! Come and join our dancing cotillon! Of course many of these entertainments may conflict with your old fashioned ideas, but never mind; you can still be a member of the church and be just like hundreds and thousands of Christians who profess their religion and do not practice it." Or Satan sends acquaintances, who say, "Come, let us use in your old fashioned ideas, but never mind; you can still be a member of the church and be just like hundreds and thousands of Christians who profess their religion and do not practice it."

I always look upon the infectiousness of sin a great deal as I do upon the transmitting power of an electric current. When we were young I had a classmate who owned an electric battery. Then he used to stand us boys around in a circle. We would all clasp hands, and the end men would take hold of the handles of the electric battery. Then my classmate would turn on the current, and this current would go running from hand to hand until it had made the complete circuit. If two of those men would unclasp their hands, instantly the circuit would be broken and the current stopped. So I believe Satan sends the currents of temptations through the hearts and the minds and the souls of men. He arranges us about in circles. Then he gets us all to clasp hands. Then because men by our side sin we sin, and because we sin other men sin.

Now, my brother, the question for you to decide to-day is not whether you have been tempted. Your spiritual temptations are such as have always been common to man. The great question for you to decide is whether you are willing to clasp hands with Jesus Christ and with good men who are struggling to save sinners who will let the divine currents of redemption leap through your mind and hearts and souls as the electric current goes coursing over the wires. In other words, to-day are you going to break the divine currents which want to save and redeem you and give you safety up to the evil currents which will be the means of your eternal overthrow?

If we clasp hands with Jesus Christ, if we clasp hands with Christian men, if we get in touch with the divine life, we shall overcome the evil currents. Now, my friends, the question for you and me to decide is this: With whom shall we clasp hands? Shall we clasp hands with Satan? Shall we clasp hands with Christ? If you clasp hands with Satan, you must be destroyed by Satan. If you clasp hands with Jesus Christ, you shall by the promises of God be filled with eternal life. Which current will you seek to-day, the divine current of spiritual power which comes straight from the throne of God or the current of evil by which you will be forever destroyed? In God's name which current will you choose? Hear you not God's promise, "There hath no temptations taken you but such as is common to man, but God is faithful who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able, but will, with the temptation, also make a way of escape, that ye may be able to bear it?"

Milk Supply. It is computed that there are about 3,700,000 cows kept for milking purposes. The average yield of each animal is 440 gallons of milk during the year, which gives a total of 1,628,000,000 gallons (725,000,000 gallons of nearly two million gallons daily) is consumed as milk, leaving about 900,000,000 gallons to be converted into butter and cheese. This produces 89,825 tons of butter, and 126,000 tons of cheese. It was estimated by the Public Analysts' Society that the milk consumers of England were paying at least £1,500,000 per annum for water sold as milk.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Young Woman Tries to Take Her Own Life.

Toronto, April 5.—Jennie Goldbeck, a young woman of comely appearance, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of attempting to commit suicide. Until recently she has been living with two other girls above a Chinaman's laundry on Church street.

Her companions were married one day last week, and the other on Tuesday to two Chinamen who visited the laundry.

Miss Goldbeck was taken in hand by the Salvation Army, and for the past few days had been living at the army's home at 25 Esther street.

Shortly before noon yesterday one of the attendants missed her, and on investigating found her lying on the bed of a room with the gas jet turned on.

Medical attendance was summoned, and the young woman revived. She was afterwards taken to No. 3 police station.

RHEUMATISM ALMOST KILLED

For years Mrs. S. Stahlschmidt, of Humberton, Ont., was a martyr to rheumatism. "I was so stiff and lame I could scarcely walk," she writes. "An attack striking my limbs made walking impossible. Friends and doctors gave prescriptions but I only got relief from Ferrozone. I took twelve boxes and gained from the first. To-day I am well, feel stronger, weigh heavier and look the picture of health."

Now, my friends, the question for you to decide is whether you are willing to clasp hands with Jesus Christ and with good men who are struggling to save sinners who will let the divine currents of redemption leap through your mind and hearts and souls as the electric current goes coursing over the wires. In other words, to-day are you going to break the divine currents which want to save and redeem you and give you safety up to the evil currents which will be the means of your eternal overthrow?

Sir Wilfrid at Montreal. Montreal, April 5.—The Ministerial special reached here last evening from Ottawa at 6.30 and five minutes later the special left for St. John, N. B.

On board were Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Frederick and Lady Borden, Hon. L. P. and Madame Brodeur and their attendants.

The train left earlier than was expected, hence a great many people who intended to greet the Prime Minister failed to reach the depot.

Sir Wilfrid, although thin, seemed hale and hearty, and there was no sign of anxiety on his face.

Perishes in Grass Fire. Binghamton, N. Y., April 5.—Avery Woughter, a farmer, living near Campville, was burned to death yesterday in the fire which totally destroyed his home, barn and farm buildings. The fire started from burning grass.

Slightly Improved. Toronto, April 4.—At a late hour last night Mr. Speaker St. John seemed slightly improved.

An official at the hospital said the vitality shown by Mr. St. John was something remarkable, and that in the face of the strong fight he had already made for life, it was impossible to give up hope. This is the feeling of all the doctors. They do not attempt to minimize the very critical state the patient is in, or the developments which a few hours may bring about, but unite in saying that the case is not yet hopeless.

A lazy liver may be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. A stick is all right for the back of a lazy man. But it would be a savage as well as a stupid thing to beat a weary man or a starving man because he is lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging liver it is a great mistake to lash it with drastic drugs. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred a torpid or sluggish liver is but a symptom of an ill-nourished body, whose organs are weary with over-work. Let your liver alone. Start with the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in proper working order, and see how quickly your liver will become active and energetic. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the deflection of other organs. CHILDREN'S FROCKS.

No Very Radical Changes in Young Folks' Attire.

In the spring showing of suits for girls are small black and white shepherd checks. The plaited skirt is again to the fore in tailored suits, and the coats differ from those of last year only in minor details. They fit closer both in the back and at the sides, with straight fronts, closing single breasted. Last year the bias strapping concealing the seams was barely half an inch wide. This season some measure as much as one and a half inches wide, so wide that they resemble box plaits. The sleeves, in conventional coat style, end in silk cuffs, and the neck finish is a man's turnover collar faced with the black silk. The buttons are mostly of the material inclosed in black rims. White frocks and suits hemmed with a color are again to be worn, headed with plain or fancy white braid, which effect brings the two colors into more harmonious relations. Double skirts appear on many smart little white dresses hemmed with rose linen, the bertha and sleeves showing the same finish, the band of braid taking away the kimono-like appearance. Soutache braid will never go out of fashion for trimming children's dresses until something equally appropriate is made to take its place. This year these braids are more alluring than ever. The pretty marcelled varieties are quite as good as the linen, being totally unlike the stiff cotton soutache of a few years ago. These braids must be shrunken before using, and special care should be taken not to strain or pull when sewing them on.

A graceful little frock for a wee girl is pictured. The material is Persian lawn trimmed with embroidery and beading. The epaulets are of embroidered flouncing. JUDIC CHOLLET.

HERE AND THERE.

A Fascinating Cotton Fabric—Millinery Notes and Dress Hints.

A material that will be popular next summer is flowered cotton tulle. It comes in a variety of patterns on white and tinted grounds. Another idea that allows of an attractive change is a tulle dress in white over a slip of flowered organdie, which gives the same effect as that of the expensive printed tulle.

It is a fact worthy to be noticed that hats are being built with as much regard to the side and back effects as to the front. And any number of ostrich feathers are prominent on the spring millinery.

English flannels in soft pale colorings in checked and striped effects are to be very much worn. A striped suit running to a mixture of olive and black threads so woven that they make only a faint striping on a white ground is fetching.

These flannel suits are made with the new tight fitting little basque coats which are fitted and boned down. They come only slightly below the waist line and button with one button over a tiny double breasted vest set in and trimmed with a dash of color.

The costume illustrated is especially adapted for between season wear. The coat is one of the smart fitted affairs, with a narrow vest of contrasting material. The skirt is made after one of the new models that give a panel effect. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FRIBBLES OF FASHION.

Smart Neckwear For Summer—Ornamental Stock Collars.

The stiff white collars with lining and tie of the ubiquitous heavy plaid silk are quite new.

Butterfly bows have gone out, and all the new neckwear show rosettes or four-in-hands. Ornamental stock collars are again fashionable. One style is of pink net and white ribbon, reversing the usual color combination, sewed together by opalescent beads.

Embroidered strips sold by the yard for collars and fronts for shirt waists are by no means new, but this year some of the dealers are making the strips on heavier material, so they are less liable to crush, and the machine made designs upon this new material give much the appearance of hand work.

The predominant note of the spring fashions in waists is the use of soft, clinging materials. Crepe de chine and soft silk will enjoy even more favor than they have enjoyed this winter and will largely supplant the lingerie blouse.

Some of the faintest and most attractive of the season's frocks worn by the young are made in princess style—that is, with the waist and skirt joined, making one garment. Here in the cut is a very attractive one that combines tucks with shirring and is trimmed with the fashionable plaited frills.

ATTRACTIVE TRIFLES.

Include a Silk Frock in Summer Outfit—Short Walking Skirts.

A good silk frock is one of the necessities to include in the summer wardrobe. One of the most conspicuous of the spring silks is the rajah variety, which is shown in all the new color combinations and designs. There are fascinating plaids and stripes in two tones in wide and hair line effects.

Alce blue is again to figure as a modish color, and in silks this shade is especially effective with the new satin sheen.

Apple green taffeta worn over a blouse of fine fluny lace in a deep cream shade is a charming summer gown. A touch of black on the bodice in the form of a butterfly bow is decidedly French on such a costume. The plaited skirt holds its own for street wear on the new spring suits. It is cut three inches from the ground and is only objected to by women who do not wear dainty shoes.

Long skirts are worn on all house dresses. A train is not necessary, but a good sweeping length is needed.

The pony jacket, though seen in a number of smart models, is not as modish as it has been, but it will be ranked with the styles that are good taste. This means much, for it implies that whoever wears it has not gone wrong in selection.

Here is a nightgown that is at once simple and dainty. It is sufficiently open at the neck to allow freedom, and its sleeves are wide and loose, yet there are no fussy details about the pattern.

A SPRING DANGER.

Many People Weaken Their Systems By Dosing With Purgative Medicines.

A spring medicine is a necessity. Nature demands it as an aid to enriching the blood and carrying off the impurities that have accumulated during the indoor life of the winter months. Thousands of people recognize the necessity for a spring medicine, dose themselves with harsh gripping purgatives. This is a mistake. Ask any doctor and he will tell you that the use of purgative medicines weakens the system and cannot possibly cure disease. In the spring the system needs building up; purgatives weaken. The blood should be made rich, red and pure—purgatives cannot do this—What is needed is a tonic, and the best tonic medical science has yet devised is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every dose of this medicine actually makes new, rich, red blood, and this new blood strengthens every organ and every part of the body. This is why these Pills banish pimples and unsightly skin eruptions. That is why they cure headaches, backaches, rheumatism, neuralgia and a host of other troubles that come from poor watery blood. That is why the men and women who use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills eat well, sleep well, and feel active and strong. Miss Mabel Synott, Lisle, Ont., says:—"I was pale and weak and suffered greatly from headaches, and I found nothing to help me until I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These have completely restored my health and I bless the day I began taking them."

But be sure you get the genuine Pills with the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around each box—all other so-called pink pills are fraudulent imitations. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

HOTEL MAN'S STORY.

St. Lawrence Hall, April 5.—Manager Brown and Mr. Humphrey, of the St. Lawrence Hall, have made the following affidavit and had it published in the local papers:

"As the name of our hotel has been mentioned in connection with the accusations recently made against the Hon. Mr. Emmerson, we wish to make a formal declaration that during the 20 years of our acquaintance with him, the Hon. Mr. Emmerson has never been turned from the door of the St. Lawrence Hall, under any pretext of any kind whatever. This accusation is absolutely false, from beginning to end, in so far as it concerns us."

Detroit, April 5.—Although two big steamers are in the ice at the entrance of Soe River at Detour, and more are coming, the opening of Lake Superior navigation is not expected until April 12 or 15.

The ice from the Soe to Detour is from 12 to 15 inches thick. Above, the ice remains almost solid to Parisian Island. A drizzling rain set in yesterday and has commenced to soften the ice.

GOT A PAIN IN YOUR BACK?

You got a pain in your back, and you wonder what is the matter. You perhaps pay no attention to it. Backache is caused by imperfect action of the kidneys, in fact, is the first sign of kidney trouble to follow.

The kidneys, proper, are composed of a close network of fibrous tissue, interlaced with tiny elastic fibres. Their object is the excretion of the uric acid, and other poisonous matter composing the urine, from the blood.

They are continuously at work to preserve the general health of the body and most people are troubled with some form of kidney trouble, but do not suspect it.

Some of the symptoms are: A feeling of weakness in the small of the back, sharp pains in back, puffiness under the eyes, and swelling of the feet and ankles, urinary troubles such as suppressed urination, excessive urination, cloudy, thick or highly colored urine, etc.

Dr. J. E. Williams, Oshawa, Ont., writes: "I suffered for two years with kidney trouble. I had terrible pains in my back, hips and legs. I could not sleep and had a poor appetite. I took four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, and the pains left me, my appetite returned, I now sleep well. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from kidney trouble."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

MODISTIC MATTERS.

Shirt Waist Shoulders Broad—Useful Spring Frocks.

Broad shoulders characterize the first of the spring shirt waists. The smartest design for a linen shirt waist is made with three deep plaits on each shoulder back and front. At the back the plaits taper toward the waist. The regular shirt waist sleeve is used, finished with a straight cuff. The stitched plaits and broad shoulder line give this shirt waist an air of newness. The neck is finished with a band, and an embroidered linen collar of the stiff kind is worn.

REPARATE TONE WAIST—5570.

The lingerie waist will be much in vogue; still there will be a great demand for tailor made linen waists.

A practical and pretty dress for spring is of smoke gray voile trimmed with the same shade of taffeta intricately embroidered with soutache. With the blouse and skirt goes a short jacket of taffeta almost entirely covered with braiding and so cut that the sleeves and body appear to be in one, and the sloping shoulder line is unbroken. The collar and chemise of this frock are of embroidered batiste of a cream tint trimmed in real Valenciennes, a narrow central plait bordered on each side by this lace edged plaitings of batiste.

Stiff linen collars are embroidered with a tiny flower in black and other shades besides the omnipresent Scotch plaid.

The waist that can be worn over a separate yoke is one of the latest developments of fashion. The model illustrated is well adapted for washable materials, wool and silk. The cuffs are adjustable, so that the sleeves can be long or short at will.

Hat Shapes Still Prevail in Headgear. Narrow Braids.

The newest veil is circular in form and made of brussels net with a border of chantilly lace or of ribbon trimmed plaitings.

Among the spring shapes in straw, flat, narrow braids are more in evidence than the fancy silk straws that have reigned for several seasons.

Hats with wide brims that taper to nothing in front and widen out in some cases to extravagant widths in the back are shown in models of both straw and straw and mallines. Bell shaped crowns and brims that roll up high at the left side and are very narrow elsewhere make chic little hats, especially where their severity of outline is softened by ostrich plumes, which, by the way, show no signs of abdicating their place as the most popular hat trimming.

Small and easily molded shapes of leghorn and panama straws will be extensively worn this spring. These hats are bent without rule or reason into becoming lines. No shapes are, however, worse traps for the unwary than these same simple ones of the small type, for unless their lines are exactly right the individual who wears them is apt to look as grotesque and ridiculous as in the small shepherdess shapes or the brimless polo caps that prevailed for a short time some seasons ago.

Black and white effects are favorites in the outing class of chapeaux.

The negligee illustrated is not a specially new effect, but one whose comfort has been well tried. It is made of flowered chalis with bands of silk, and when worn over a smart lingerie petticoat is very fetching.

PSYCHINE (PRONOUNCED SE-KEEN)

A Marvellous and Triumphant Record of Victory Over Disease.

No medicine has ever effected as large a number of wonderful and almost marvellous cures as Psychine. It has had one continuous record of victories over disease of the chest, lungs and stomach. Where doctors have pronounced cases incurable from consumption and other wasting diseases Psychine steps in and rescues numberless people even from the very verge of the grave. Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Chills, Night Sweats, La Grippe, Pneumonia, and other like troubles, all of which are forerunners of Consumption, yield quickly to the curative powers of Psychine.

Mrs. Campbell, one of the many cured, makes the following statement:

"I cannot refrain from telling all who suffer of my remarkable recovery with Psychine. In April, 1905, I caught a heavy cold which settled on my lungs and gradually led to consumption. My lungs were diseased, my night sweats were insupportable. My doctor, Mr. J. H. Fryer, of the St. John's Hospital, recommended Psychine to me, when I was living in Ontario. After using Psychine for a short time I ate and slept well, the night sweats and cough ceased. Months ago I stopped taking Psychine, as I was perfectly restored to health and to-day I never feel better in my life. Psychine has been a god send to me."

Mrs. Campbell, 179 King St. W., Toronto.

Strange Story of a Dream.

A correspondent sends the following anecdote, or, as he calls it, "case of thought transference," which was told him by an eminent engineer, whose name we withhold. This well known engineer had been to Bulawayo on the occasion of the opening of the railway to that place. A friend who accompanied him on the occasion contracted enteric fever and died on the homeward voyage. Half an hour before he died his hair turned perfectly white.

On arriving in England the engineer went to break the news to the young man's sister. He found that not only did the lady know of the death of her brother, but she knew the time and the circumstance of the hair turning white. The engineer was requested to break the news to the father and mother as gently as possible, but to say nothing of the hair turning white. After a journey of 100 miles he found that both father and mother, whom he saw separately, not only knew of the death of their son, but knew of his hair turning white at the time of his death.

Each had had a dream, a vivid dream, at the moment of the death taking place, and each had kept his and her own counsel, and they had not spoken to each other of the dream.—London Mail.

CONSTIPATION CLOGS THE BOWELS

No other cause produces so much sickness as constipation, and therefore it is dangerous to allow the bowels to become clogged up. Bad blood, dyspepsia, headaches, biliousness, boils, pimples, and piles, are all caused by constipation.

Avoid all of these troubles by the use of nature's remedy for all diseases of the stomach, bowels and blood. It acts on the bowels and promotes their free and regular action, curing constipation and all troubles which arise from it. It has been on the market for over thirty years so you are not using a new and untried remedy. B.B.B. has cured thousands of others and will cure you. Mr. B. Woodcock, Naskwak Bridge, N.S., writes: "For over two years my wife was troubled with constipation. She tried several physicians but could get no relief, but after taking three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters she was completely cured and is to-day in good health. My wife and I cannot speak too highly of B.B.B."

OLD COACHING DAYS.

Some Adventures in New Brunswick Half a Century Ago.

A correspondent writes to The Moncton Times as follows:—"Forty-five years ago, on the 14th of November, 1861, I left the St. John's Hotel, of St. John (N.B.), in the King's mail coach, driven by John Crabb, with seven passengers on board for 'The Bend,' as Moncton was then called. There had been a heavy snowstorm for some days—snow and frost. The wind came around south with heavy rain—a good deal like the weather we are having now. We left the hotel at six o'clock in the evening with two span of horses. When we got to the marsh road bridge the driver stopped and sung out to Nos. seven, six, and five to jump out as he could take only four passengers. Mr. Henry, who was going to Mr. Prince's funeral, being No. seven, jumped out. He handed a parcel to the driver to give to Mr. Prince's family. All the rest of us kept our seats and paid our passage and had our names objected to jumping out, as we had registered in the hotel book."

Walked Through the Mud.

We all talked the matter over and told the driver that we would walk up the hills and bad places. The driver, being a fine fellow—no better on the road—consented to try, as we said we would walk over the bad places. He started again, but got stuck in the mud at the bottom of a hill. We got out and walked through the mud. Some of the bridges were washed away by the freshet. We got along the best we could—out all night. We got to the old Moncton Hotel, kept by Mr. King, about four o'clock in the evening—twenty-two hours coming from the St. John Hotel to the Moncton Hotel. Just think of the difference in traveling now—could go to New York in that time. As I have said, we got to the Moncton Hotel about four, nearly dark.

Schooner Was Frozen.

I ran round to see what chance there was of getting to Shediac, and if the little schooner Oregon was still running. I was told that she was frozen in at Summerside, but might have got out since the soft weather set in. I found the man who drove the mails to Shediac. He had a rickety old wagon. I asked for passage. He said he thought he could take me, and would leave in half an hour, which he did. I saw a few friends, and then got aboard his rickety old wagon for Shediac, and, after quite a journey over the bad roads, arrived there and was delighted to hear that the little packet Oregon, of thirty-five tons, had arrived that day. I went across in her next day to Prince Edward Island.

No Fur Coats Then.

Let young men who read this think of the difference in traveling then and at the present time. No fur coats to muffle up in then. Hurrah for Canada and the governments that have made her what she is to-day! Some of those who were on board the coach were John McKenzie, ex-Mayor of Moncton, the only one except myself who is now living. Police Magistrate Humphrey Gilbert, of St. John; Robert Cutler, M.P.P. for Kent Co., and Capt. Howard Beatty, of Moncton.

"Although we were twenty-two hours on the way we all enjoyed ourselves very much. There was a jolly time on board. Great political speeches by 'Cutler, McKenzie and Beatty, and great cheering. Never heard better speeches at that time. There was the county election going on at that time."

JUST SEVEN YEARS AGO.

Paardeberg Fought and Won in the South African Campaign.

Seven years ago Feb. 27, "there came a tale to Canada," which, while bringing, as it did, sorrow and pain to many, yet was the cause of heartfelt rejoicing throughout the whole Dominion.

This news was contained in a cablegram from Field Marshal Lord Roberts, then commanding His Majesty's forces in South Africa in the war against the Boers, to the British War Office in London. It told its own story in simple words, and reads as follows:

"Paardeberg, Feb. 27, 7.45 a.m. 'General Cronje and all of his force capitulated unconditionally at daylight and is now a prisoner in my camp.'"

"The strength of his force will be communicated later."

"I hope H. M. Government will consider this event satisfactory, occurring, as it does, on the anniversary of Majuba."

Present at Paardeberg was the 2nd Battalion R. C. R., commanded by Lieut.-Col. Otter, and they did their part on that day nobly, earning unqualified praise for their steadiness and discipline under fire, from Lord Roberts himself.

The casualty list in the R. C. R. numbered 8 men killed and 29 wounded.

Canada Americanized.

Why on earth the newspapers should devote so much space to the trial of one of the degenerates of New York moral degeneracy, for the murder of some of the other evening where one of the guests was a well-known journalist and man of literary attainments, who has recently visited Canada and the United States. "You Canadians appear to have no love for the United States," was one of the first remarks levelled at the writer. "If we have little love for the United States the reason is to be found in the fulsome adulation of everything American in England," was the reply.

Engraved Easter Eggs. Engraving on eggs is a special art in South America. The tools used are extremely delicate, and the utmost precision must be used in the process. The varying depths of the engraved line give light and shade to the design, and the result of this pure line engraving on the smooth oval shell is surprisingly beautiful. On the first day of spring the Easter eggs are put on exhibition, and no store is too small and shabby, none too important and imposing to fail to have its stock of eggs ready. A popular design shows a map of South America on one side and on the other two clasped hands, with a liberty cap below and a rising sun above.

3c. a day will Cure Rheumatism.

The aim of most "cures" for Rheumatism seems to be to relieve the pain. When they have done that, their usefulness is gone. And the next time you take cold, or your feet get wet, or you over-exert yourself, back comes the pain.

Bu-Ju The Gentle Kidney Pill is different. It does relieve the pain, as quickly as the best liniment. And it does MORE. IT REMOVES THE CAUSE OF Rheumatism, uric acid in the blood.

Every drop of blood passes through the kidneys. These organs should filter out impurities. When they are weak, inflamed or diseased, the impurities stay in the blood and are carried to the sensitive nerves. Rheumatism is simply this irritation of the nerves, caused by uric acid and other impurities being deposited upon them—their favorite place being the joints and muscles. Make the kidneys filter the blood properly, keep the blood pure and rich, and there can be no Rheumatism. Bu-Ju does this.

Buy Bu-Ju on an unconditional guarantee that they will cure you or money refunded. At all druggists, soc. a large box, or sent on receipt of price.

The Old Feather Bed.

What has become of the old fashioned feather bed? We mean the kind so high it required the service of a step-ladder to climb into it? Did you ever climb into one of them when you were a kid and sink down, down, down, till you gasped and wondered when you would touch bottom and if you didn't need a life preserver? And do you remember how good it felt upon a cold morning when you poked your head from under the covers and saw the window panes frost covered? And do you remember how you used to climb out of its billows, half dress yourself, shivering, teeth chattering, run down stairs and steal behind the kitchen stove, half your clothes in your arms? And how good those griddlecakes and sausages smelled! Feathers may not be healthy to sleep on, as claimed by doctors, who probably never slept on them, but they seemed mighty good to the kid. Why doesn't somebody write a song about "The Old Feather Bed?"

PUBLIC HIGHWAYS FORCED TO RESIGN

Municipalities Must Be Notified of Condition Before Held Liable.

Toronto, April 6.—Extra the unpopular section 806 of the Consolidated Municipal Act.

At the opening of the session petitions rained upon the Legislature asking for the abolition of the enactment which places the liability for accidents from defective highways on the municipalities.

In introducing the Government bill to amend the Municipal Act, Hon. Mr. Hanna stated that it was based on the conclusions of the municipal committee. Under the amendment the municipality must be notified of the dangerous condition of the highway ere it could be held liable. Mr. Hanna admitted that the new act might work a hardship on the stranger who met with an accident.

The bill was given its first reading, as was also Mr. Hanna's other bill to amend the Assessment Act.

A number of private bills were given their second reading.

Game and Fisheries.
The House went into committee on the Government bill "respecting game, fur-bearing animals and fisheries in Ontario." The Prime Minister took occasion to congratulate Hon. Dr. Reaume and Hon. Col. Hendrie on the work they had done upon the measure.

Mr. Graham was not prepared to endorse the provisions for overseeing as in the bill. The policy for some years had been wrong to his mind, and he wanted to know if the Government intended to adhere to it. The law could not be successfully enforced by engaging a number of young fellows at $50 each. They simply regarded it as a sort of honorarium for party services and the work was not looked after.

Hon. Dr. Reaume said it was proposed to improve the system. The local men would not be done away with. The Province was divided into seven districts, each under a game warden, and it was proposed to install an efficient staff at the headquarters at Toronto.

Mr. Graham enquired as to whether anything had been done regarding the reported extension of area held exclusively by the "Tademeac Game Club" in Freeman township.

Mr. Whitney replied that the extension had not been granted. The matter would stand until Hon. Mr. Cochrane returned.

Mr. Graham put in that he understood it was not the policy of the Government to give such grants.

"That's about right," was Mr. Whitney's laconic comment.

The Liberal leader also alluded to an organization known as the St. Lawrence River Anglers' Association, an international club operating in the Thousand Islands district. This club had an agreement with the Dominion Government. He asked what the status of the United States hunters and fishers would be when their privilege conflicted with the Ontario law.

Hon. Dr. Reaume said he had found there was an agreement between the Dominion Government and the State of New York and "the Yankees seemed to have all the best of the argument." Subsequent to the arrangement the Fisheries Department was established in Ontario and the agreement had ever since been respected. He did not believe the Government would permit the clubs to keep it up much longer.

A vote in committee occurred on an amendment of Mr. Todhunter, proposing to limit the number of deer a man may shoot in a season to one, or one each for units in a shooting party. The amendment was lost on a vote of 15 to 11. Neither Hon. Mr. Whitney nor Hon. Mr. Fox voted. Another amendment to strike out the prohibition against automatic guns was also voted down. Mr. Game's amendment to strike out the clause prohibiting the lumbermen having guns was, however, carried.

Mr. Stadhofme gave notice that he would on Tuesday introduce a bill to regulate the hours of labor of cab drivers and others.

DEFICIT IN PRINCE EDWARD.

Estimates Tabled in House Indicate Small One for Next Year.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 6.—Estimates were tabled in the Provincial Legislature yesterday. On current account it is estimated $328,499 will be required. On capital account $21,500. The largest items are:

Administration of Justice $21,500
Education 128,000
Legislation 9,000
Public works 58,000

As only half of the increase in the subsidy from the Dominion will be available next year, there will likely be a small deficit. When all of the seventy thousand is paid a surplus is expected.

Pleads Guilty to Forgery.

Chatham, April 6.—When Harry Wiers of Charing Cross came before Magistrate Coulson yesterday for sentence for forging a $375 cheque on the Bank of Commerce last Saturday, another charge against him was laid by the crown, that he attempted to forge a cheque on the Standard Bank. Wiers pleaded guilty and was again remanded till Wednesday to enable the crown to secure further pertinent evidence.

A big batch of letters from Charing Cross church circles were on the magistrate's desk, all pleading for clemency.

Power Bylaw Beaten

Shelburne, April 6.—The bylaw for the purpose of developing electrical power for Shelburne at a cost of between $50,000 and $65,000, was defeated yesterday by 14 majority, the vote being 64 to 78.

Austria and Hungary Agree.

Budapest, April 6.—According to statements made in well-informed quarters, Austria and Hungary have agreed to patch up their quarrel and renew the Ausgleich until 1917.

Snowstorm in Montreal.

Montreal, April 6.—Montreal awoke yesterday to find themselves in the midst of a snowstorm. The beautiful was promptly transformed into alabaster.

Colonial Office Made Peremptory Request For Apology.

London, April 6.—The Standard yesterday declared it was able to publish for the first time the circumstances leading to the resignation of Sir Alexander Swettenham, as governor of Jamaica.

The paper said that, according to Sir Alexander's own statement in a letter to an intimate friend, he resigned in consequence of a peremptory demand from the Colonial Office to apologize to Rear-Admiral Davis.

To this Sir Alexander replied that if such a course were really necessary he would do so with pleasure, but that such a compulsory apology carried with it his resignation.

Sir Alexander denies emphatically that there was any dispute between him and the American admiral at the time of the Kingston earthquake, saying:

"We were the best of friends during the whole time the admiral was here. He had the use of one of my private carriages, and drove around with my private secretary."

The Standard adds that this letter was written privately as one friend might write to another, but it fell into the hands of a newspaper correspondent. If the documents referring to the resignation of Sir Alexander were published, the paper concludes, it would be found that the statement that he applied to be retired "on the ground of age" was entirely misleading.

HOTHOUSE REQUIRED.

M. P.'s Make Merry At Expense of Canadian Cruisers.

Ottawa, April 6.—The house, from noon yesterday, was in supply, principally respecting marine and fisheries estimates.

There was some discussion in regard to the oyster culture about Prince Edward Island, adding suggested that fisheries should be controlled by the Federal Government. He regretted that Ontario and Prince Edward Island could not agree to this. Twenty-five thousand dollars was appropriated towards encouraging the transportation of live fish.

At the evening session, Mr. Fowler (Conservative, N.B.) and Mr. Bennett (E. Simcoe) made merry at the expense of the Canadian navy, which requires a hothouse for its silver-lined cupidons and the like.

One item in the estimates is for a flag, to be flown when the Minister of Marine is on board.

"What is the design of this flag?" asked Mr. Bennett.

Mr. Templeman, acting Minister, could not state.

"A man up a tree, sticking on grafts, would do all right," suggested Mr. Bennett, and both sides laughed heartily.

The House remained in supply until adjournment at 12.25 a.m. Iron and steel bounties will be up on Monday, and the insurance commission will report on Tuesday.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY.

The United States Express Co. Loses $20,000 in Goods.

New York, April 6.—Four men were arrested Thursday on charges of complicity in a series of robberies, by which the United States Express Co. claims to have lost goods valued at more than $20,000. The men arrested were Charles W. Webb, 32 years old, a clerk employed by the company; Milton J. Carman, 18; Israel Aronow and Charles Cook. Webb and Carman were charged with larceny, and Aronow and Cook with receiving stolen goods. All were held under bail. The police say the goods were stolen from the company's store-room and taken out in the guise of packages for delivery. Detectives have been working on the case for some time.

IMMIGRANT WAS KILLED.

Did Not Heed Gong on Winnipeg Car.

Winnipeg, Man., April 6.—Joseph Wrixon was killed by being caught under the wheels of a trolley car on Main street Thursday night. With two other men he was standing on the track as a car approached, and though the motorman, John McLaughlin, rang the gong, they did not move, and were struck, it being too late to stop the car after it was seen that they were not going to get out of its way. Wrixon was under the car nearly three-quarters of an hour before he could be released, and was still living when removed to the hospital. He was an English immigrant, recently arrived.

SWALLOWED TABLETS.

Child Died Twenty Minutes After Visiting Drug Store.

Chatham, Ont., April 6.—The five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Kavanagh, Tilbury, died in 20 minutes, after swallowing several strong tablets that she had purchased for her mother as a drug store. The child was sent for the tablets, but swallowed some of them on her way home.

Scalded On His Engine.

Brookville, Ont., April 6.—The body reached here yesterday of Michael Bennett, of Westport, who lost his life as the result of an accident on the New York Central Railway at Richville. He was employed as locomotive fireman on a freight train which collided with another, head-on. Bennett was thrown against the boiler, and the escaping steam from the broken gauge glass scalded him in a terrible manner. He was 21 years of age, and unmarried.

Aeroplane Smashed.

Paris, April 6.—Santos-Dumont made an effort yesterday with his aeroplane to win the Deutsch-Archdeacon prize. The aeroplane rose two metres (two yards) and had covered 50 metres (53 yards), when the wind proved too violent, and the apparatus fell and was smashed. Santos-Dumont was not hurt.

To win the prize the machine must cover a closed circuit of nearly two-thirds of a mile in circumference.

THE STAGE

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

(Supplied to The Planet by Press Agents.)

At the Brisco Theatre—

Moving pictures—April 5-6.

Shadows of the Past—April 10.

SHADOWS OF THE PAST.

Lincoln J. Carter's emotional drama, "Shadows of the Past," will come to the Brisco Opera House next Wednesday, April 10th.

Some exceedingly clever character work is shown in the play. The character of Adolphus Bond, the eccentric funny little English barrister, is one of the most pleasant bits of comedy work that has appeared on the stage. Miss Julia Gray, who plays the stellar role, in which she is given a wide scope to show her dramatic abilities, plays the part to perfection and in a way that always elicits the applause and sympathy of an audience. It is that of a mother who sacrifices her honor in order that her child may be spared to her. It is one of the most unselfish acts of womanhood ever exhibited, and one that every courageous woman would sanction and duplicate were she similarly placed.

The woman lawyer does not always disdain a man's suit.
