The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Izaak Walton Killam Memorial Library
Dalhousie University

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

BYE-LAWS.

For the guidance and regulation of a Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, constituted under Charter from the Grand Lodge of England, dated May 1st, 1890, and called held at the town of Twillingate, in the Northern District of the Island of Newfoundland, on the first Thursday in every month.

Whereas it is necessary for the better government of this Lodge, that a code of Bye-laws shall be established for the regulation of its internal economy, and of other matters not determined by the general constitutions of the Masonic Society :

Be it therefore enacted by the members of Twillingate Lodge, by and with the approbation of the Right Worshipful the District Grand Master, that the following rules and regulations shall be observed and obeyed by every Brother who now is, or who shall hereafter become, a Member of this Lodge.

CHAPTER I.

Relative to Meetings and the Admission of Members.

1. This Lodge shall be held at such place in Twillingate, as may from time to time be duly determined, (being at present held in the Court House) and when removed from one place to another, such removal to be reported to the District Grand Master, and also to the Grand Secretary for the information of the Grand Lodge, on the First Thursday in every month (which is the regular night of meeting) and at such other times as may be found necessary, such occasional meetings to be deemed emergencies; and the Master, or in his absence, the Senior Warden, is hereby authorized and empowered to call the Lodge together when there may be occasion; the cause of meeting to be specified in the Summons for Emergencies, and nothing else shall be transacted in the evening.

The hour of meeting shall be 8 o'clock p.m. throughout the year.

2. And whereas great inconvenience results from admitting members at a late hour, no Brother shall be allowed to enter the Lodge after it has been opened one hour, except by special consent of the principal officers; and no Brother shall, on any pretence, be suffered to enter the Lodge while it is engaged with particular business.

3. Every person desirous of being initiated into the mysteries of Masonry, shall make application, in writing, agreeably to the annexed form, and be proposed on a regular Lodge night, by a member of the Lodge, and seconded by any other member of the Lodge. If the Lodge consents to receive the petition, it shall be referred to a Special Committee of three, whose duty it shall be to make a thorough investigation into the physical, mental and moral qualifications of the said Candidate, and make their report thereon, at the next regular communication, unless farther time be granted. On the report of the Committee, the Lodge shall proceed to ballot for the Candidate, and if no black ball appears, he shall be declared elected. Should only one black ball appear, the Master may

Should one black ball appear on the second ballot, the Candidate shall be rejected. This Lodge may not initiate any person without due enquiry, and being satisfied, in a Masonic manner, that he has not been rejected, or otherwise refused admission to Masonry; and if upon enquiry it shall be so ascertained, then not until six months after such rejection or refusal. The Candidate must be a resident of the Colony, twelve months before he can be initiated, except in the case of sea-faring men.

“ In cases of emergency, the following alteration as to the mode of proposing a Candidate is allowed:—Any two members of the Lodge may transmit, in writing, to the Master, the name, condition, occupation or profession, age and abode of the Candidate whom they may wish to propose, and the circumstances which may cause the emergency; and the Master, if the emergency be proper, shall direct the Secretary to notify the said recommendation to every member of the Lodge, stating the name, age, condition, occupation or profession, and place of abode of the Candidate; and may at the same time, direct a Lodge to be summoned to meet at a period of not less than seven days from the issuing of the summons, for the purpose of balloting for the Candidate; and if the candidate be then approved of, he may be initiated into the first Degree of Masonry. Previous to the ballot being taken, the Master shall cause the said proposition, and the emergency stated, to be recorded in the Minute Book of the Lodge, but the candidate shall not receive another degree on the same day, nor at a less interval than one month, except by dispensation from the District Grand Master. The expenses of the Dispensation and Emergency, shall be defrayed by the party on whose account it shall be called.

4. Every Brother who may desire to be admitted a member of this Lodge shall make application in writing, stating his name, occupation and place of abode, as well as the name and number of the Lodge of which he is, or was last a member, or in which he was initiated; he must then be proposed in open Lodge, on a regular night of meeting, (having previously visited the Lodge once at least) by a member, who shall at the same time pay a deposit of one dollar to the Secretary for the Lodge, and file with him the Grand Lodge Certificate of the applicant, as well as the certificate of his former Lodge; or if the applicant be not in possession of such documents, the proposer shall produce sufficient proof that the applicant has duly conformed to the Rules of the Lodge to which he last belonged. If the proposal be seconded by another member, the Master shall proceed in all things as in the case of a Candidate for the mysteries, a ballot being also eventually necessary for his admission.

CHAPTER II

Relative to Fees, Fines, and other pecuniary affairs.

1. Every person who may be proposed as a Candidate for initiation in this Lodge shall at the time of being proposed, deposit with the Secretary the sum of four dollars, currency, and if he be found worthy of admission, (agreeably to Chapter 1, Section 3,) it shall be considered as a part of what he is to pay into the fund. If he be rejected, it shall be returned to him; but if he decline or neglect to come forward, as herein-after provided, it shall be forfeited to the Lodge.

2. Every Candidate who shall be initiated into the mysteries of Masonry in this Lodge, shall pay the sum of twenty dollars, currency, which sum shall entitle him to be advanced to the Degree of a Master Mason, to be registered in the Books of the Grand Lodge, and to receive a Grand Lodge certificate; and the said sum (including the four dollars previously deposited) shall be actually paid into the hands of the Secretary, before the ceremony of initiation shall be commenced; and the Master shall on no pretence allow the provisions of this rule to be evaded.

3. Every Brother who shall be admitted a member of this Lodge (agreeably to Chapter 1, Section 4,) shall pay into the hands of the Secretary at the time of his admission, (including the four dollars previously deposited)—if an entered Apprentice, the sum of twelve dollars currency, for which he shall be advanced to the Degree of a Master Mason, and registered in the books of the Grand Lodge. If a Fellow Craft the sum of eight dollars, for which he shall also be advanced to the Degree of a Master Mason, and registered as aforesaid; and if a Master Mason the sum of four dollars, with the expense of registration (if any) upon the Books of the Grand Lodge, but the aforesaid sums shall not entitle the Brother to receive a Grand Lodge certificate.

4. If any Candidate for initiation, or for advancement in Masonry, or for membership, who may be accepted as hereinbefore provided, shall neglect to avail himself of such acceptance, for three months after the ballot is taken and announced to him, he shall be considered to have declined; the vote shall be rescinded, his deposit shall be forfeited, and he must thereafter apply for admission in the usual manner, before he can be received. Provided he shall not be unavoidably prevented.

5. Every member of this Lodge, except the Secretary, shall pay to the fund the sum of Thirty cents on each and every Lodge night, (unless exempted from such dues by special resolution of the Lodge) and no member shall on any account be permitted to ballot until the whole amount of his dues and fines (if any) be paid; and in order to avoid confusion and delay in the collection of dues, &c., it shall be the duty of the Master or presiding Officer on each regular night, immediately after the Minutes of proceedings at the former meeting are read and confirmed, to cause the Secretary to call on the members in the order of their entry upon the Minutes; and each member when so called shall pay his fees then due.

6. Every visiting Brother must be introduced by a member of the Lodge, who is himself a Master Mason, the said introducer to become responsible for the good conduct (see Chap. 3, Sec. 2) of such visitor while in Lodge.

7. Any member of this Lodge, whose business obliges him to leave Notre Dame Bay, may on his return resume his membership, by paying the monthly dues since his departure; and if he has been absent one year or upwards, six dollars shall be deemed sufficient therefor. But if any member residing within the limits of the Lodge, which shall be deemed the town and suburbs, shall absent himself for six consecutive regular Lodge nights, without sending a just and reasonable excuse in writing to the Master, he shall be summoned by the Secretary or other member appointed for that purpose, and if he do not attend at the next regular meeting after the receipt of such summons or send a just and reasonable excuse as aforesaid; his neglect or disobedience shall be deemed a contempt of the authority of this Lodge, and shall be forthwith excluded; and if any member shall be in arrears for dues for twelve months, (except in case of absence from Notre Dame Bay as aforesaid) and refuse or neglect to pay the same when called upon to do so, he also shall be excluded. Such exclusion in either case, to be at once reported to the District Grand Lodge, for the information and decision of the Right Worshipful District Grand Master, and also to the Grand Secretary, for the information of the Grand Secretary.

8. A Lodge Certificate, signed by the Master, Wardens and Secretary, shall be granted on application, and free of expense, to any member of this Lodge, when he shall have resigned, or been excluded for non-conformity to the Bye-laws; such Certificate to state the circumstances under which he withdrew or was excluded. And if any Brother who shall have been initiated, or advanced to the higher Degrees in this Lodge, be desirous of having a Certificate of his admission, &c. before the receipt of his Grand Lodge Certificate, he may receive such certificate free of expense, which shall contain the dates of initiation, passing and raising, and be signed by the Master, Wardens, and Secretary; but such certificate must be delivered up as soon as the Grand Lodge certificate shall be received.

9. All dues, &c., shall be collected by the Secretary, who with the Treasurer, shall balance the Books of the Lodge on the regular Lodge night preceding the Anniversary which is to be held on St. John's Day (21st June) in each year, and at any other time when a member of the Lodge shall require it, such member first giving one month's notice in open Lodge to that effect. The sum of thirty cents shall be paid to the Tyler of the Lodge for his attendance each night of meeting and fifty cents for the initiation of each candidate. All monies collected by the Secretary, shall, within two days after receipt of same, be handed over to the Treasurer who if required, shall deposit the same in the Union bank, to account of Twillingate Lodge, No. 2364, to be disposed of agreeably to the decision of a majority of the members present at any meeting of the Lodge. Every cheque for such monies to be signed by the Master and Treasurer.

10. Any member of this Lodge who may be desirous of resigning his Membership, shall give notice of such intention. Such notice to be given by either letter or in person on a night of meeting, and the Brother so resigning shall pay up his dues and fines to the day of his resignation, inclusive.

11. The Worshipful Master and Wardens shall be a Committee of Charity, and have power at any time to draw on the Treasurer, through the Master, for any sum not exceeding four dollars currency, to bestow on a distressed worthy Master Mason, his wife, widow, or orphan child.

1. The election of the Worshipful Master and Treasurer of this Lodge shall take place on the regular night next preceding the Anniversary in each year; and the officers so elected shall be installed into their offices on the said day, after the minutes of Election shall be confirmed, and the Master shall then appoint and invest the Wardens and other Officers.

2. If any Brother shall presume to enter this Lodge in a state of inebriety, or shall curse, swear, or use any profane or immoral language therein, or shall behave with disrespect to the Master, Warden, or Brethren of the Lodge, so as to disturb the peace and harmony of the same, he shall for any such offence against the regulations and the spirit of Masonry be excluded from the Lodge, unless due reparation be made, and a Report made to the District Grand Secretary, for the District Grand Master's information.

4. The Cash or Fund, as well as the Jewels, and all other things belonging to this Lodge, shall be, and they are hereby vested in, and made and deemed the property of the Master and Wardens for the time being; so that any actions or suits that may happen to be necessary for the preservation or recovery of the same or any part thereof may and shall be brought or commenced in their names, in trust, for the use and benefit of the Lodge, and to be paid, applied, and disposed of, as a majority of the members shall, in due form, think proper to direct.
