THE CALL TO WORK.

A word from the Clergy of the Cathedral to the Members of the Congregation.

The holiday season is over and the season for work has arrived. It was encouraging to see so many of our workers at the Early Celebration of the Holy Communion last Sunday when special prayers were offered for God's blessing on the work of the different Guilds and active Associations in connection with the Cathedral. We hope to see this winter a large increase in the number of those who wish to give proof of their practical Christianity. There is work for all who are willing-hearted—work for Christ and His Church. In every issue of the Monthly Notes there is a list of the Guilds and other organizations wherein you will find opportunity and scope for all kinds of work in the Church. Don't wait for this or that work to be pressed upon you—VOLUNTEER.

The Members of the Congregation and others who have promised subscriptions towards paying off the debt, are requested to send the amounts of their contributions as early as they can conveniently to Mr. E. M. Chadwick, Treasurer.

A Charter of Incorporation has been granted for the "The Toronto Cathedral School, Limited." The provisional Directors are His Grace the Archbishop, David Kemp, George William Verrall, Jun., Jacob Andrea Kammerer, William Henry Brouse, and Herbert Langell Dunn.

The ground was broken for the erection of the School building at Humbercourt on Monday 14th September. The Archbishop, accompanied by a dozen or more of friends from the neighbourhood of the Cathedral, drove out in a coach and four, and His Grace with due ceremony turned the first sod, after which a number of those present, including several of the boys of the school, each contributed to the making of an excavation. All the Masters of the School were present. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Jones, and the Rev. Mr. Jenkins, were also present, with many others of Weston. Among those who went from Toronto were Mrs. Sweatman, Mrs. Chadwick, Mrs. Matthews.

A notable event of more than local interest was the marriage of Miss Edith Margaret Sweatman eldest daughter of His Grace the Archbishop, to Mr. John Lowe Walton, in the presence of a large gathering of friends of His Grace and Mrs. Sweatman.

Among the many gifts to the bride was one from members of the congregation, a very handsome Elizabethan oaken cabinet, made under the direction of Mrs. Leigh. We take this opportunity of tendering, on behalf of the Cathedral Congregation, to the Bride and Bridegroom our best wishes for their future welfare and happiness.
