

WAR OFFICE GRAFT IS THE RESULT OF BAD SYSTEM, DECLARES BRITISH PRESS

Civilians Escape, But Officers on Poor Pay Are Tempted to Accept Bribe Money for Contracts.

SCATHING COMMENT ON ALL SIDES

Soldiers Were Made Victims of Bribery, as They Had to Contribute—Government is Called Upon to Act.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] MONTREAL, May 28.—A London cable to The Gazette says: While the majority of writers in this morning's papers agree in condemning the system which fostered bribery in the army for which the guilty were sentenced yesterday there is also criticism as to the differential treatment of the chief military and civilian offenders.

The Daily News does not believe that the punishments were severe enough in view of the gravity of the offences and points out that the first effect of the system of corruption was robbery of the soldiers who had to pay at the regimental messes and who were made victims of this association of the servants of the state in a flagrant dishonesty which injured alike commercial morality and the efficiency of the public service.

Two obvious consequences must follow. The War Office must see whether a system cannot be devised offering greater safeguards against bribery and businessmen must realize that illicit commissions and bribery are amongst the foulest excretions of industry.

Senate Kicked on the Bill Yesterday—Legislation is Plainly Not Intended to Affect Six Nation Indians.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] OTTAWA, Ont., May 28.—There was considerable opposition in the Senate yesterday to the bill which has passed the Commons to amend the Indian Act. The chief discussion was upon a new provision requiring the compulsory surrender of reserves by Indians in case of a "reserve which adjoins, or which is situated wholly or partly within an incorporated town or city or in the immediate neighborhood thereof or which is so situated as to materially retard the natural development of the surrounding country."

TOWNSHIP OUGHT TO PUT A STOP TO THIS HOLD-UP

Autoists Are Being Held Up Daily Near Langford on Account of the Bad Condition of the Road.

A little game is being worked on the Brantford and Hamilton road which may result in County Court proceedings. Yesterday, particularly with the ball game between the rival cities, many autoists used the road and were stung for a dollar. The method is this: A neatly covered hole into which autos slip, a nearby team of horses, and a dollar for their use. Several parties yesterday were using the road and in succession, as they approached Langford, about eight miles from Brantford, their cars were suddenly jolted into a deep rut.

Rev. Patterson Was on the Job

ST. CATHARINES, May 28.—A great strapping, young Addington farmer, Earl Lawrence, former Judge Cawson yesterday, the complainant being a pretty young girl, Nellie Carl District Attorney Michael Brennan suddenly suggested that the case might be settled by Cupid.

"Will you marry this girl?" he asked the prisoner.

"Surest thing I know," returned Lawrence.

"Then stand and get a pastor," said Mr. Brennan.

Rev. Joshua R. Patterson, pastor of First Methodist church, and formerly of Brantford, was the nearest and he came a hurrying. In five minutes Lawrence and Nellie were man and wife, and were being congratulated by the newspapermen and lawyers who acted as witnesses. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence hied back to the court room.

"Well?" inquired the judge.

"We're married," coyly observed the girl bride.

"Then the case is dismissed against your husband, and I'd advise you to keep an eye on him."

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET

A Famous Song and its Composer

Samuel Woodworth, the son of a modest Massachusetts farmer, was born in Scituate, that state, January 19, 1785. While the family were poor and had no luxuries, their lot was no worse than that of the ordinary New England family, and they lived in comparative comfort.

Young Samuel received the usual education of the country boy of his time, began writing verse at an early age—and was apprenticed at the age of fifteen to the printing trade.

While his life was a succession of ambitions, attempts and failures, his fame rests secure on his faithful portrayal of the old-fashioned well and weather-beaten well-swept, universal to be found in the farms of that day.

While living in New York City, on Duane street, he came home one July day, nearly overcome with the heat, and with nothing to drink but the tepid water of the city—ice being unknown in those days in the summer months—he exclaimed to his wife: "What would I not give this moment for a long draught from the old oaken bucket hanging in my father's well!"

"Samuel!" replied his wife, wouldn't that be a good subject for a poem?"

Forthwith he sat down—the thronging recollections of his childhood crowded thick upon him—and that charming idyl of bucolic New England sprang into deathless life and fame. The music is said to have been adapted from an ancient Scottish melody by Frederick Smith, Woodworth died in 1852.

This song, like so many of the heart lyrics of an elder day, is found in the famous song collection called "Hearts Songs"—which the Courier is offering nearly free of cost to its readers.

Wellington St. Church Makes Fine Progress

Annual Meeting Shows All Departments in Splendid Shape.

The most successful year in the history of Wellington St. First Methodist Church was reported last night when the annual congregational meeting took place in the school, no fewer than 150 representative members being present. Rev. R. D. Hamilton presided in his usual happy way and opened the session with a hymn. The business was interspersed with songs of praise, and there was a feeling of sociability in the air which made the evening a most pleasant one to those present.

Every branch of church work was dealt with and in every instance the reports of the divisional secretaries were excellent and favorably commented upon. The membership of the church is 325, while the members of the quarterly board number 35. The Epworth League reported a substantially increased membership.

Both properties are on the line of the Lake Erie and Northern Railway and the Brantford Street Railway, in the midst of a good manufacturing district, and also a growing neighborhood. Holme-dale properties have improved in value very much in the last few years, and are still growing better.

We would be glad to have you tender for these properties. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Terms—10% cash on acceptance of tender and 40% in 30 days from date of sale, and the remainder of the purchase price to be paid in sixty days thereafter. THE FOUR YEAR TERM.

Rev. H. W. Crews of the Canadian Methodist Church, has come out with the statement that he is tired of being an "ecclesiastical transient."

He refers of course to the fact that under the present stationing system the average stay of a pastor in each place is three years, and the limit four years. The basic idea seems to have been that change proves beneficial alike to the people and Ministers, but many of the latter seem to think that in more than one essential it works harder upon them than anyone else. It certainly cannot be very pleasant for men, especially those with growing families to have to pack up bag and baggage every thirty-six months or so, and break pastoral and friendship ties, and have the wife and children also affected in like manner. Other churches regard the itinerancy system as inadvisable for a good many reasons, and when a pastor doesn't suit them there is more than one way to let him know that fact. Those who do sit remain, hence called to bigger spheres and there is thus more of a continuity, both with regard to associations and service. It may not be an ideal method but it seems to have worked quite well.

HAMILTON HAS A HOUSE-CLEANING.

In the Ambitious City there has been a committee of investigation with regard to the civic works department and evidently none too soon. It is reported that in connection with time sheets available there have been discrepancies of as high as $500, while other sheets representing an outlay of $90,000 or more have mysteriously disappeared. No doubt they saw what was coming. The following is an extract from the report:

"The committee recommends that the auditors be instructed to check up the 1914 time sheets with the pay-rolls, and that in future the foreman's time sheet shall be extended and balanced with the treasurer's pay-roll. "Steps should be taken to prevent time sheets being destroyed, as the loss of these sheets effectually prevents the discovery of errors which might exist, but of which all trace is now completely lost. "The time sheets for the year 1910 and 1911 have, with a few exceptions, been lost or destroyed. The committee hopes to collect the foreman's time books for this period in order to continue the investigation.

"In searching for information from various sources it has been found that the city is in need of a proper place for filing all books, agreements, contracts and records which should be preserved and kept in systematic manner. The condition of the records belonging to the Board of Works would disgrace a country village, not to mention a city of 100,000 inhabitants. "Your committee recommends immediate attention to the system of paying employees, accounting for labor and material sold and the proper filing of important and valuable records."

THE IPSWICH ELECTION.

It was decidedly significant that at the period of the passing of the Home Rule Bill, the Asquith Government should have received such a black eye in connection with the above contest. Not only was the seat lost, but in addition Hon. Mr. Masterman, a recent appointment to the Cabinet, received his second rejection within a few months in his effort to get popular endorsement. "Contrary to his usual course with regard to bye-election fights, Lloyd George went into the fray with his coat off and declared in his public speeches that the struggle was the "most critical in the history of the country," and Mr. T. P. O'Connor, M.P., Home Ruler and noted journalist said the same thing in the cabled letter which he sends across the Atlantic with reference to British affairs.

Ipswich is a workingman's constituency and has been steadily Liberal, Rev Silvester Horne, recently deceased, having carried it for that side last time by a majority of 344. Saturday's conflict was a three-cornered one and the Unionist beat Masterman by 622, and the Liberal and Socialist combined by 227. The outcome constitutes one more evidence that the present administration is out of touch with the people, yet notwithstanding this, the indications are that Asquith will hang on until he has completed Home Rule and carried the Welsh Disestablishment bill.

MILITANT SUFFRAGETTES

John Bull has certainly been more than tolerant with the militant suffragettes. Houses and grandstands burned, public men assaulted, masterpieces slashed to such an extent in public galleries as to lead to closing of them, smashed store windows, contents of public letter boxes destroyed by acids, bags of flour and other missiles thrown at a Judge during a recent trial, the yell of "You Russian czar" hurled at King George during a matinee performance in a theatre, and frenzied cries of "Shoot the King" at a recent militant gathering—these and many more continued outrages have certainly made up a sum total of crime and offense which is practically appalling. It is safe to affirm that no other class in the Old Land could have got away with one tithe of what these frenzied creatures have accomplished and are still accomplishing, and the wonder is that more drastic measures have not been sooner taken. The chivalrous plea that because they are of the fair sex, they should be considered handled, ought to no longer hold good. When women cease to behave as such, they ought to be treated in the same manner as any other ordinary mortal.

At last the public have become thoroughly aroused, and the strange anomaly is presented that it is only owing to strong protection by the police that the shrieking sisterhood are even able to endeavor to hold public meetings.

There are very many people who think that women should have the vote, but never under any circumstances as the reward for outrage and intimidation. It begins to look more and more the fact, as alleged by London Truth, the fearless exposé of all shams, that the Pankhurst wing of the movement is not in the game to secure the ballot, but for notoriety and personal gain at the expense of the funds.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

It makes an awful difference when the home team gets the wallop.

'Tis the voice of local Tories, you can hear them exclaim: "Got both Brants before; going to do it again."

The attitude of the Ontario Liberal papers just now is that of a small boy who dares a bigger boy to fight and then whines that he didn't do so as he sees the licking coming.

Teddy Roosevelt seems to be good at discovering things, but if he should attempt to locate any enthusiasm at this time among Ontario Grits he would have the job of his life, and then some.

The peace mediators were in Toronto yesterday travelling from Niagara Falls in order to attend a garden party given by the Duke of Connaught. No attention was paid them by the municipality. Why? Didn't they look big enough from a dollar and cents ad. standpoint?

MONTREAL MASHERS TO RECEIVE SURPRISES

Will Not Be Arrested, But Chastised by Athletic Young Policemen.

MONTREAL, May 28.—Would-be "mashers" on the streets of Montreal are to be treated to surprises by a number of athletic young policemen, who have "unofficial" authority from the chief of police to chastise men who offer insults to ladies on the streets or otherwise make themselves obnoxious. Such persons will not be arrested, but will receive such rough handling as to discourage any further misconduct.

REFORMATION, AND NOT PUNISHMENT

From the hour of rising, 5.30 a.m., with breakfast at 6 o'clock, the whole day is marked out for work to such an extent that there is no time for idleness. As rewards however, for good work, provision is made for reading and recreating from 6 to 8.30 each evening.

Other Questions The subjects of fire protection, sanitary precautions, work of inmates, disciplinary measures, prohibition of intoxicating liquors, accounts and records are all fully dealt with.

These regulations are only issued after having been fully carried out and proved workable under the direction of Hon. Mr. Hanna at the industrial farm near Port William during the past two years, and can be made applicable as other similar institutions are established in Ontario.

Industrial farms having passed the experimental stage these regulations are issued by order of the Legislature and are regarded as progressive and indicative of the fact that Ontario is leading all other countries in this special department of moral and social reform.

Birthdays of Note

THURSDAY, MAY TWENTY-EIGHTH

Today marks the eighty-third anniversary of the birth of Bladworth Angus, former president of the Bank of Montreal, and one of the most prominent of the older generation of Canadian financiers. Born at Bathgate, Scotland, he obtained his training as a bank clerk in the Manchester, Glasgow and Liverpool Bank, and then came to Canada fifty-seven years ago to take a position in the Bank of Montreal. He rose in a few years to be general manager and then resigned to devote himself to outside undertakings. He became associated with Lord Strathcona and Lord Mount Stephen in their railway undertakings, notably the C.P.R., of which he continues to be a director. His other interests are widespread and he is on the directorate of many companies. Besides his business connections he has given generous support to art and philanthropy.

Uncle Walt The Poet Philosopher THE JINGOES. The publishers of yellow papers cut up all kinds of jingo capers, and naught can make them cease; for gory war they wildly clamor, and use the bludgeon and the hammer on all who stand for peace. To sell more papers they'd be willing to see the nation go forth spilling its own and others' blood; they'd stir old hates and make them hotter, and nag our statesmen on to slaughter, and stain our flag with mud. They care not for the hopes of others, nor for the tears of wives and mothers, nor for the swaths of dead; to boost a frenzied circulation they would embroil a peaceful nation and stain the green sod red. When next the country calls for fighters we ought to see that our martial writers are in the foremost rank; we ought to place them where the foemen can shoot each one in the abdomen—another name for tank. I'd like to see the brimstone eaters go forth with cleavers and repeaters to slay the dusky Mex; to see them through the desert drilling and forced to take a hand in killing till blood ran down their necks. Though they are fat and feeble-wristed, the whole blame bunch should be enlisted and trotted to the front; before a mile of ground they'd covered they'd wish the White Dove o'er them hovered—they'd cuss the warlike stunt.

Damage at St. James' Cemetery—Other News Notes of the Town.

(From our own Correspondent) Mrs. Fred Blackhurst received a cablegram from her father, Mr. Ratcliffe of England, announcing the serious illness of her sister there. Mrs. Blackhurst left yesterday for England, and her many friends in town wish her a safe voyage and trust she will find her sister much better on her arrival. Miss Smith has left for Branchton to teach school until the end of June. Miss Steele, the former teacher has had to resign on account of ill-health. On Sunday there will be special services held in the Baptist Church. All Baptist churches throughout the world are commemorating "Judson Day," it being one hundred years since Adoniram Judson and his wife began their pioneer missionary work in Burmah—Rev Mr Reid, their pastor, will preach at special services. In the morning they will have a children's choir, and all mothers will be presented with white flowers. Mr. Reid's address in the morning will be to the parents, his subject being "The influence and responsibility of mothers."

Word has been received in Toronto that Miss Vera E. Clington had arrived in Winnipeg safely, and was then married to Mr Ernest Whigler of Medicine Hat, formerly of Paris. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler left later on a wedding trip to Vancouver, B. C. They were married by Rev J. Irvine Walker, at the Riverside Presbyterian manse, Winnipeg, on May 20th. Considerable damage has been done in St. James cemetery lately. Last week some one deliberately broke the water tap, and at other times flowers have been stolen. A reward will be given for information concerning the above, as the cemetery board are anxious to punish the guilty ones. Hilda, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Johnston, had the misfortune to fall and burn both hands on a coal oil heater. The burns were very severe, but the little one is doing as well as could be expected. Mrs M. McKay of Paris announces the engagement of her youngest daughter, Miss Helen McKay, to Mr.

A. R. Miller. The wedding will take place sometime next month. Brant County School Fairs.

A meeting of the presidents of the schools east of the river in South Dumfries, was held in St. George on Monday afternoon. The meeting was for the purpose of discussing the school fair.

There will be meetings held later on in other parts of the county, where schools have been organized. It has not been decided when the coming meetings will be held. One will be held at Keg Lane, or at the District Representative in town, for schools west of the river in South Dumfries. For the north part of Burford, the meeting will be held at Cathcart and for the south part of Fairfield. A few of the schools in Brantford township that have been organized, will join with the schools at Burford. It is hoped to be able to organize the entire county next year, for school fair. All but part of Brantford and Onondaga has been organized up to the present, making about 4 schools in all. The work is under the direction of Mr. Schuyler, district representative of the Agricultural department, Paris. At the regular meeting of the Council, an additional grant of $900.00 was made toward the Library to meet some needed improvements and repairs. The request of the Board of Education that the soft maple trees in front of the High School to be removed, which will be done. The Fire committee recommended the purchase of hose wagon and suggested that one be purchased at a cost of $300.00 which formerly cost $700.00. It was in good condition and had only been used a short time. The wagon will be purchased. It is likely that several streets may be oiled in an effort to keep down the dust, as the present water wagons are over taxed. The town auditor, Mr. John Lindsay wrote asking an increase of 150 in his salary, owing to the increase work by the Hydro-Electric and Water Commission. This was referred to the Finance Committee. Two large lights will be placed on the Brantford Hill, another at Skinner's corner on the flats, and lamps on the bridges will also be fixed. Laurel St. has been graded and opened up at a cost of $100.00.

BRANT DEANERY

"We, the members of the Deanery of Brant, in session assembled this 27th day of May, 1914, do hereby give notice and wish it understood by all members, associates and friends of the Church of England in and around Brantford, that: 1. The connection between the organization known as the St. Luke's Boy Knight and St. Luke's church having been severed in the fall of 1913, this organization has no connection whatever with St. Luke's church, nor is it recognized by the Church of England. Donations to this organization are not donations to the church.

to read a paper on "Eschatology". In opening the subject he enlarged its scope to include "Some Problems of the Gospels." The writer dealt upon the attractiveness of the literary aspect of the Gospels and defined the Synoptic problem. He stated that the Documentary theory of construction was now generally received and went on to point out the pertinence of the eschatological issue. While finding the theory of the German theologians very interesting, the writer's opinion was that it would not soon be generally received. The doctrine of the "Last Things" must arrest the attention sooner or later of every thinking man. The value in study of eschatology lies in an active attempt to prepare for the second coming of Christ.

Tea was served to Deanery members in the basement by the ladies of St. John's congregation and their kindness was greatly appreciated by all the members who found it possible to remain.

Sunday School Convention.

In St. John's Church, at 8 o'clock last night, the S. S. convention was held, with Rev. C. C. Purton, inspector, in the chair. After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting the chairman offered some valuable remarks in reference to Sunday school work in this deanery. He then called upon Mrs. Kinney of Paris to read a paper, "The Supreme Value of the Child," in which she pointed out those qualities in the teacher that impress and win the child. Her paper showed knowledge of her subject and an acquaintance with methods of teaching. Above all, she urged the importance of sympathy and love. Her paper provoked discussion that brought out good points and showed that Mrs. Kinney had found the touchstone of teaching. Rev. R. A. Hiltz, General S. S. Secretary, gave an excellent address, which pleased and instructed all. He laid stress on personal qualifications, intellectual qualifications and the personality of the teacher. In closing, he urged every teacher to avoid discouragement, knowing that unknown fruit is often reaped by acts of duty lovingly performed. The meeting then closed with the singing of an appropriate hymn and benediction by the Rural Dean.

Horses Burned.

The central firefighters and the men from the King William street station, the first on the scene, met with considerable difficulty on the road over. As King street east has been torn up, it was necessary to make a circuit to James and Chatharine Sts. The groans of horses in the stables was the occasion for an onslaught on the door by several firemen with axes, but it was fastened so firmly that considerable time was lost. The result was that of six horses quartered there, only two were saved. The other four were in stalls off to one side, and the heat was so great that they soon succumbed. Mr. Wood stated that the lost animals were the two prize teams which had won awards at almost every fair in Ontario.

Into Main Building.

Up the chutes which were used for carrying the grain after being treated to the last process to the ground floor, the flames raced, and soon the interior of the building was like a furnace. All the wooden fixtures were exceptionally dry, and were quickly destroyed. The machinery and other contents of the third and top floor were badly damaged. After eating its way along the walls, the fire soon reached the roof, which dropped with a resounding bang. Fortunately, Chief TenEyck had foreseen such an emergency, and he had his men safely away from danger. When a big chimney threatened to fall, the chief again showed his good judgment in having it bowled inwardly with a long pole. A Building Inspector Anderson, looked over the building this morning, and ordered that the portion most seriously damaged be torn down.

Erect New Buildings.

The Wood Milling company is a branch of the Dominion Flour Mills company, and when Mr Wood was asked this morning what the intentions of the firm were, he stated that, as he is merely a shareholder, he could not say what would be done. He did say, however, that the corporation had purchased the old separate school site, at the corner of Hunter and Liberty streets, some time ago, and that a modern building would undoubtedly be erected thereon. For some time past the present building has been on the market for sale. The firm will not be severely affected by the fire, was the statement made by Mr. Wood. At before nine o'clock this morning, arrangements had been made with the Brantford mill to supply sufficient flour to fill all orders on hand. Several carloads will be brought to Hamilton to-day, so that customers will be well looked after.

Golf Notes

The team to represent the Brantford Golf and Country Club, in Galt on Tuesday afternoon next, June 2nd will be selected from the following players: Messrs Schel, Reville, Champion, Large, McKay, Orr, Neil, Thornton, Jones, Bunnell, Paterson, Mabon, Wilkes, Brewster, A. E. Watts, Yates, Webling, Forsayth, Ellis, Caudwell, H. Hewitt, George Miller, W. B. Preston. The first fifteen player's score will count on the Webling Shield competition.

BOMB FOUND.

LONDON, May 28.—A bomb filled with gunpowder, gelatine and iron bolts was found to-day in the freight car of a train at Wellington. The missile is believed by the authorities to have been placed there by suffragettes.

Attractive Speaker: Mr. H. H. Powell while in Toronto, heard two addresses by Mr. Adams, head of the town planning department of the British Government. He states that he is a most engaging speaker and handles his subject in a masterly manner. The essence of his talks is in reality individual and public welfare, although the house question and city planning are large factors. He received ovations from large audiences after his talks. Citizens of both sexes should certainly hear him in the Y.M.C.A. hall to-night.
Opened To-morrow: The Bank of Montreal's fine new building at the corner of Market and Darling streets, will be opened for business to-morrow morning.

P., was asked to have Mohawk rural route number one changed from 10 a.m. from Mount Pleasant post office to 145 p.m. He succeeded and now the people are able to get the Brantford afternoon papers on the date of publication, for which they are very grateful.
Many Doors Found Open: Last night entrance to two business houses of the city were left open and only found by the police on their beats late at night. This occurrence has been frequent lately and the Chief Constable desires to call tradesmen's attention to the fact in order that they may take greater precautions in the future. The Chief says that such a condition of affairs entices all kinds of thieves who quickly discover "slack" towns.

Military Notes

C's going to have its picture taken, wonder if the inspecting officer's flattering opinion of them has anything to do with it. They certainly did look good and there's enough real service experience in 'C' to carry it through just such a night of tests as last Monday. At any rate its the case—Major Butler said so, and 'C' is having their picture taken while the 'halo' is still visible. Owing to a typographical error in our last night's notes the statement re-prepare should have read—"second last battalion drill"—meaning evening parade—the next drill is on Monday as has been usual. AM members of C. Company are requested to parade on Sunday next at 2 p.m., sharp, so that the company can be photographed before attending Divine Service.

PROGRESS MADE FOR CELEBRATION

Old Home Week Executive Received Committee Reports

At an enthusiastic meeting of the executive committee in charge of the Old Home Week celebration held last night in headquarters, in the Temple Building, enthusiastic reports were brought in from the various committees. The matter of Finance has held a number of the committees back in their work, but this will trouble them no longer as they were assured of finances a plenty. In this respect the sports committee are one of the first on the waiting list. J. J. Kelly has his programme completed and is now waiting for his share of the appropriation.

A number of accounts were passed by the Executive. The Finance Committee is sending out 2,500 invitations alone and the Executive considered that this was one of the best advertising methods for the Week. These invitations go to each lodge and will be read there and in that way many people will learn of the celebration, who will not receive a personal invitation.

The Finance Committee reported that they had made splendid progress in their canvass of the city. Already a big amount has been subscribed and they are very well pleased with the results of their work.

The Decoration Committee was given authority to order not over $500 worth of decorations immediately. The decorations have to be imported from Germany and must be ordered at once.

Two communications were read from Montreal firms regarding the insuring of each day for the entire week. One company quoted approximate rates for each day, but neither company could quote definitely any rates. The rate itself depends entirely on the weather conditions in this part of the country for the last four or five years and the committee would be put to a great expense to get these conditions from the weather bureau.

Lloyd's will only insure the week against weather for 90 per cent of the actual expense of running the celebration and the rate of interest is 15 per cent. When the Executive considered the actual cost, taking in everything, they decided that the expense would be too great and therefore they let the matter drop. They are admittedly taking a chance, but the odds are two to one in their favor, as August is an usual dry month.

The Brant and Dufferin Rifles chapters of the Daughters of the Empire asked for permission to erect booths in various places in the city to serve refreshments during the week, but the matter was left over until a later date.

WHAT THEY DID TO CHIEF DENEAU WAS REAL SHAME

Brantford Manager, Superstitious About Club Being Due for a Good Licking, Decided to Go in Box and Take the Medicine Himself—He Did.

"I considered we were due for a good beating. I expected it last night, but we did not get it. It does all good ball teams good, because it is a real tonic. To-day, with a wet diamond and cuppy outfield, I did not consider it was good business to waste Taylor in a fray. He could not, under such circumstances, begin to get his ball going right, and I proposed to save him. If anybody was to take a beating it was up to me. Did you notice the scoreboard?" Thus spoke Rube Deneau following yesterday's game at Hamilton, when the Athletics vanquished the Red Sox by 15-0. Eddie Taylor pitched the first inning only, and the Rube pitched seven. In the eighth inning Hamilton made eight hits and eight runs. It was some walloping, but even the Red Sox took it good-naturedly.

To attempt to describe the various plays of the game would be impossible. The superstitious Frenchman apparently had his mind set on the fact that the Red Sox were in a good walloping. Consequently he did not propose to waste any good pitching material in the pastime, and therefore saved Eddie Taylor for the last time, and injected himself into the game. The Hamiltonians made three runs in the first, but a muff by Biddy Burns with 2 out was followed by two runs. Consequently while Taylor is charged with the loss of the game, he was not to a great degree responsible. In fact it was no day for Eddie with his spit ball. The diamond was wet and the outfield was in puddles. Under these conditions, pitching such as Taylor dishes up, was impossible, and the Rube rightly decided to save him for Eric against whom he proved most effective on the last time out, scoring a shut out. With Chase sore from a head-on collision with Fisher, and Gero ready for the next start, Deneau decided that it was a good chance for himself to get a warming up. And he got it! He bravely faced the Athletics for a few innings, putting them right over the heart of the plate and making the Athletics hit, just as if each man was wanted at the telephone. In the eighth round every Athletic up hit the first ball pitched, and it was generally for a one, two or three base hit. The Rube just smiled and continued to hand up the straight ones, and the Athletics continued to bring them.

On the whole, the game was without features, unless a couple of errors by Biddy Burns could be so construed. Biddy and Dolan slipped around in the quagmire as if they were slip shop horses in a January hail storm. Had the game been kept close at all the Red Sox might have come from behind and won, but after a few innings, it developed that nothing but the plain old wallop would produce a run. The Hamilton south-paw, only had to play straight baseball. He did not have to look out for any of the inside stuff, and just curried over.

Brantford had chances in the first and second innings to score. In the first, Wagner and Dolan both hit safely, but Wagner was caught going to third on Dolan's smash. In the second the bases were filled with one out, but LeCroix lined to short and Ivers was caught off third, thus making a double play. Taylor struck out, retiring the side. After that, the Athletics simply romped away, and to their heart's content fed themselves on Deneau's straight ones and his round house curve.

"If you're going to take a licking take a good one," is the Deneau slogan, and the Rube lived up to it yesterday. On such occasions he believes in his players getting all the bad playing out of their systems. They surely did this yesterday, and during the process did not look half bad at that. Hamilton sport writers chuckled with glee at the outcome.

Toronto v. London LONDON, Ont., May 28.—A free-for-all scrap in which a dozen players participated, and as a result of which one of them, Schultz, of Toronto, will be haled into Police Court, disturbed initial session of a double bill at Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon, and threatened to render the completion of the performance an impossibility.

Schultz and Beebe came into conflict at the commencement of the game when the former applied certain very vulgar epithets to the London hurler, while the latter was not listening. The fact that Beebe was absent was called to Schultz's attention, and to make good he is said to have repeated his remarks to Beebe. Then the fight started and the police were called upon to quell the disturbance. Schultz's name was taken, and he will be summoned for abusive language and assault. Reidy and Bamford were chased from the park by Umpire Walsh, whose work was far from pleasing to the fans, who hissed him throughout the afternoon.

Both games were pitchers struggles. In the former Auld was better than Beebe, and led the Torontonians to a 3 to 0 victory, while in the latter Reising outpitched Kirley, and the shut-outs were exchanged.

Woeful Wailings

(Hamilton Spectator.) Either Rube Deneau has some grand pitchers or Hamilton has some very weak hitters. Deneau has his bunch playing together. Phen Dad Stewart reports to round out the line-up Rube will have some outfit.

Eric's, the good little shortstop, was hit on the side of the face by a pitched ball and given a severe shaking up. He stuck in the game, however showing considerable courage.

Rube Deneau is a bad man in a pinch. He is able to hit a wild pitch for a home run, and then again he is liable to fan. An uncertain quantity, but a dangerous one.

Hamilton had so many players in uniform that Red Fisher had to use a road uniform and for that reason could not be used as a pinch hitter.

The fans were not at all backward in expressing their disapproval of yesterday's game. They want to see more hitting and a little tighter defence.

Biddy Burns is a pretty reliable sort of a chap to have around. Biddy is willing to wager that he gets on the bases oftener than any man in the league, and he will just about win should any one take him up.

There is a big element of luck in hitting at that. Some of the local players are hitting the ball hard enough but are having no luck in placing it.

Bill Roth is a pretty good custodian of the third sack. He has filled one gap for Deneau in such style that there should be no more worry about it.

Soft Ball

There'll Be Something Doing! The Printers' Team held a work-out in Recreation Park last night. Some team too, containing this aggregation of talent: Johnson, Cassidy, Twyman, Prime, Oxley, McGowan, Hazelton, Fenel, Horsnell, Mullin and others.

Reads like the muster roll of a Fenian Chapter and its spirit in play resembles the aforesaid gentlemen of Ireland. There will be one almighty, everlasting resurrection day awakening for theilly handed gentlemen known locally as the Clerks, when the two teams play off on Friday night.

"SMOKY JOE" SHOWED HIS OLD-TIME FORM BOSTON, May 28.—"Joe" Wood, who was operated on on February 22, following an attack of appendicitis, pitched the first entire game of the season yesterday and Cleveland was defeated 5 to 4. Hits for extra bases and sacrifice flies gave the Red Sox most of their runs.

Wood started wild, allowing three bases on balls in the first inning, but after that he showed much of his old-time form. The score:— Cleveland 110000011—4 6 1 Boston 00101001x—5 10 1 Hagerman, Steen and Carisch; Wood and Cady.

With Roth on third and LeCroix on second in the ninth and one out, some joker on the Red Sox bench called for a squeeze play just to avoid a shut out. It would have been good comedy with Brantford 15 runs behind.

Buster Burrill pulled off a marvelous bare hand catch at London yesterday.

Del Orcutt, playing for Amby Kane's team at Taunton, recently got three hits in one game, a two bagger, a three bagger and a home run. The latter was the longest hit ever made on the grounds. Kane's team won 17 to 13. Amby had two of our old Red Sox friends, Hadley and Clearmont doing the pitching.

Fans who read the score board last night were astounded. Well it was time to hand Hamilton a game.

Doc Reising, who won his game for London, has the laugh to-day on Deneau. Our manager-pitcher has not come too yet.

President Nelson watched the game yesterday and decided that if Deneau pitches any more games he will have life insurance policies taken out on all the Red Sox. It's rather dangerous being in the park.

Hamilton has won five out of nine games from Brantford.

Biddy Burns dropped two flies yesterday in left field, one off Taylor for the first inning, which accounted for two runs.

Deneau figures that two out of three games from Eric will be satisfactory. Brantford, Ottawa and London are all bunched closely together.

If Hamilton couldn't hit Deneau's pitching yesterday, they couldn't hit a barn ordinarily.

Famous "Wrecking Crew" Not Doing Much Damage

Ottawa's Attack Dependent Entirely on Top and Bottom of Batting Order

The famous "wrecking crew" of the Ottawa Senators viz—Shaughnessy, Rogers and Dolan, which struck terror to the hearts of scores of pitchers last season, has so far failed to create any great disturbances among the dandelions and daisies in the far reaches of the Canadian League parks. None of the slugging trio are hitting worth a lick. Shag is clean off his stride. In addition to carrying around a Charley horse, he is overworked with the long session of mental worries and hard work at spring training, and should rest up. His bad leg alone ought to keep him on the bench. Neither Rogers nor Dolan have found their eyes so that the middle section of the Ottawa batting order is about the weakest of the whole line-up.

Fortunately the top and bottom of the lineup order is slamming the ball and it is really these two ends of the team that are keeping the club up near the top. Hill, Lage and Powers are hammering the ball hard, while Bullock is hitting the ball timely. The Senators' pitchers have a knack of coming through frequently with If Shag is compelled to lay up, Eddie Wager will go to centre. Wager is showing good hitting ability and is a useful fielder.

A NEW PITCHER WILL REPORT ON SATURDAY

Asher of South Bend Will Replace Gallagher on Red Sox Line-Up—Lamond May be Traded to Erie This Week.

Manager Deneau announced last night, before the Brantford team left Hamilton for Erie, Pa., that Ed. Asher, an experienced right-hand pitcher, will report to Brantford Sunday. Asher was too high-priced a man for South Bend, and that was one reason why Brantford was able to secure him. He is a known quantity as a pitcher and will be no experiment. Gallagher, who pitched on Tuesday and got away with a victory over the Hamilton team, did not impress Manager Deneau, and it was immediately after the Tuesday game, in spite of Gallagher's victory, that Deneau decided to land a real good pitcher.

The club recently has had other deals on, but so far they have not materialized. One deal may go through, however, on Brantford's visit to Erie. Lamond has been offered by Manager Deneau to Erie for Clucker Dunn and a pitcher. Recently Erie has been writing all over the country for a catcher, as that department of the Yanks is in bad shape. The other deal on the tapis was Ivers for Mickey Barney, who is under suspension by St. Thomas. Barney is a first-rate second-sacker, but will not play for St. Thomas. It seems hardly likely that this deal will be negotiated.

Deneau expects by June 12 to have his line-up permanent when Johnny Nelson reports to the Red Sox. Nelson will play third, Honeck short and Roth second. Wagner's work has not proven up to the standard, although his fielding has been fair. He has been very weak at the bat.

No game will be played at Erie to-day, as the New York Giants are giving an exhibition game there. Brantford and Erie will play a double-header Saturday.

Our First Opinion Still Stands Unamended

Frank admission by the sporting editor of the Hamilton Spectator that first opinions about the Ambitious City pennant chasers have to be amended, is really refreshing.

Listen to the following wail from Bobby Robinson, who threatens to buy several Brantford gentlemen new headgear this fall:

"There is no doubt but that early opinions of the local ball squad will have to be amended to a certain extent. The failure of some of the youngsters to come through as expected and the inability of the veterans to get going with the stick is tending to give the team a rather sorry appearance. Yesterday the Athletics appeared outclassed by the Brantford team, although it must be admitted that the pitching was mainly responsible. This does not excuse the lifelessness of some of the local stalwarts and does not explain away some of the recent defeats. In the last ten days the Hams have lost six games, won one and drawn one. This is indeed a sorry showing.

At the present time Manager Yates is still on the quest for at least two infielders and another seasoned pitcher. That the infielders are needed is only too evident. The great need appears to be one of a first baseman, a short stop and a third baseman. Dolan is slow and awkward and green as grass. Lacking in initiative and "pep" he has been a weak link in the chain. Monday he practically cost Manager Yates a victory after Yates had twirled grand ball, and another games his weakness has proven almost as costly. Dudley is not a shortstop. He may be a good first baseman, and undoubtedly is a good ball player, Baldwin fields well, barring a shyness on ground balls, but is a weak hitter. Dudley might fill the first base gap, leaving third base and shortstop to be plugged up. This is the writer's opinion. It does not come from any member of the club, and is given in all spirit of fairness, with no desire to have it classed as a "knock." The team is not delivering the goods, and to the writer, it seems only too evident that three positions have to be filled, before a better showing is made.

Y. W. C. A Girls Battled Nobly On To Victory

They Defeated Hamilton Last Night at Basketball by Score of 9-7—It Was a Tremendous Affair From Start to Finish.

Imagine ten hot, perspiring girls, five each on opposing sides, filled with enthusiastic energy and battling nobly, each to her utmost for victory, and you have an idea of the scenes which marked the meeting of the Hamilton Y. W. C. A. basketball team and the local quintette at the Brantford Association last evening. The local girls were the heavier and more formidable set, and they went in filled with the determination to win, and win they did by the score of 9 points to 7. Less weight, the Hamiltonians took the floor, and it was evident they labored under two disadvantages, being somewhat handicapped by the unaccustomed size of the ball, and also being a lighter crew. They stuck to their task, and playing doggedly came through the encounter with honors. They were defeated but by no means disgraced.

From the start, Brantford forced the pace and in two minutes Evelyn Fenn had netted, gaining two points. Retaliation followed and Hamilton forged ahead on scores by Gerty Fryke. This aroused the local girls to deeds, and Evelyn Fenn, with strong, merring shots, put Brantford at the head with an extra two scores, to which Mabel Bartle, with a neat little shot, sent in under difficulties, added double points. The interval was called with the score standing Brantford 8, Hamilton 4.

Stronger work and more dangerous rushes marked the second half, and it was well for the Brantfordites that they had supplies in hand, for the visitors got around the basket and Mabel Fryke added three points to the four, making seven. Again, after pretty work by the team, Mabel Bartle came to the rescue with a clean shot from the mark given for a foul. This gave Brantford a lead of two points, and to these they tenaciously clung, and when the final came they ran out with worthy winners by two points. They played to win, and are to be congratulated on the result for this is their third consecutive win, they previously beating Stratford by 9-6 and 14-11.

Evelyn Fenn was a supposed defence player, but she was in every position possible last night and her efforts brought result, for she tagged six of the points, proving her versatility. Perhaps no one was a more hearty and unselfish player than Mabel Bartle, and although she was well watched, she scored three points which included a beautiful basket for a foul. Madeline Brohman was strong on the defence, and Kitty O'Rielly, at centre, was unfortunate not to score, for she labored valiantly. Mildred Dalton did her part well and truly, and the team as a unit displayed strength and combination when the Hamiltonians allowed it. Helen Brant was their hardest worker, although she had very little over the others. Gerty P-yke and Mabel Fryke proved experts at throwing the ball, and it was well for Brantford that they were well covered, for at every opportunity they dashed down and made for the points, some of their work was neat and excellently executed. Vina Gow ably supported them in forward work. Although up against a big proposition in Evelyn Fenn, Kathleen Fitzsimmons played pluckily and well.

In their earnest endeavors, hard knocks were given and taken by both teams, but the best of good spirits prevailed. The Ambitious City girls were inclined to cling hold of the ball and opponent, but the watchful eye of Gordon Berry, who acted as referee, was ever vigilant, and play was kept up to a high pitch.

The line-ups were as follows: Hamilton—Centre, Gerty Fryke; forwards, Mabel Fryke, Vina Gow; defence, Kathleen Fitzsimmons (captain) and Helen Brant. Brantford—Centre, Kitty O'Rielly; forwards, Mabel Bartle and Mildred Dalton; defence, Evelyn Fenn and Madeline Brohman.

After the game the visitors were entertained to a delightful and informal banquet, and a very happy time was spent before the opponents of the evening departed.

Draw For Hill Cup Decided By Executive

Dufferin Rifles Will Play Paris—Stronger Clubs Clash—Referees Chosen for Saturday's Games

The draw for the John Hill Cup took place last night at the weekly meeting of the Paris and Brantford league, held in the Y. M. C. A. It resulted as follows:
Dufferin Rifles vs. Paris.
Wanderers vs. S. O. E.
P. S. A. vs. Scots.
Holmedale vs. Tutela.

All games to be played on the ground of the first named, July 4th. The draw could hardly be better made, for the stronger clubs clashed while the weaker ones battle the issue. The pick of the round lies between the Holmedale-Tutela and the Duff-Paris encounter. Perhaps on account of past meetings the Duffs and Paris would prove the greater attraction. The Duffs have already defeated Paris in the league, and Paris have disposed of Cockshutt's who succumbed to the Riflemen. It will be a great game. Tutela, although down to play away, seem good enough to take the points at Holmedale, but the Tigers are admittedly good pot hunters. Scots have the P. S. A. team to contend with, and they fancy their chance of getting into round two, and the Wanderers entertain the Roses who will have to work hard to defeat the old Dragoons, who invariably show their form after opening poorly.

A charity match will be arranged for the benefit of Fred Hingley of Tutela, who broke his leg on Saturday.

The referees for Saturday's games will be as follows: Paris vs. Tutela, Hollands; S. O. E. vs. Wanderers, C. Smith; Cockshutt vs. Duffs, G. Elliott; Scots vs. Holmedale, Farnsworth.

The referees came back to the league as individuals, and the association idea has been dropped indefinitely. This met with the approval of the league, who had decided not to recognize any union of referees.

W. Richardson has been retained for the Scots and S. Pickwell has been transferred from the Duffs to Tutela. This concluded the business of the meeting.

The estate of the late Lord High Commissioner for Canada totalled $23,257,010.

MILK PER ACRE IMPORTANT

Bulletin Issued at Gives Good Hint Farmers.

If it may be of interest to the average dairyman, the following table shows the yield of milk per acre in the various dairy sections of Ontario. It is a question of yield per acre in Ontario more than 600 pounds of loyal whole-hearted support to the local factory and the national industry of dairying and the dairy herd will be more productive. Greatly derived by keeping individual of each cow, because the finished product "average" has no intention whatever of the average patron to lbs. of milk from the average. The first necessary step for certain that each cow producer, then one may with more hope - $30 a acre.

This latter figure is a way ahead of the yields attained of only 250 pounds may be found on many dairy farm in Canada, and five of the past season's figures go against the average yield per acre in Ontario more than 600 pounds of loyal whole-hearted support to the local factory and the national industry of dairying and the dairy herd will be more productive. MILK PER ACRE IMPORTANT ITEM PLAN OF GOD IS FAR REACHING

Bulletin Issued at Ottawa Mr. E. Whelpton Gaye Fine Gives Good Hints to Farmers. Lecture at the Colonial on Sunday.

It may be assumed that the farm is the average factory patron is fairly well adapted to dairying, that the farmer himself is inclined towards dairying, rather than to say, fruit growing, and that his cows are fairly good, then it will be of interest to know how the farm is made to interest to this dairy limitation.

There are frequently noticed yields as low as 250 pounds of milk per acre cultivated, including pasture, but some good patrons obtain 750 and 800 pounds per acre. Even this is little enough, for there are plenty of authentic records of 1,000 and 2,000 pounds of milk per acre. It should not be extremely difficult to obtain more than this, even 2,500 or 3,000 pounds.

This latter figure is a long, long way ahead of the yields already mentioned of only 250 pounds, which may be found on many a so-called dairy farm in Canada, and is indicative of the possibilities in reach of the factory patron who is really anxious to attain first rank.

It is questionable if the average yield per acre in Ontario is much more than 600 pounds of milk. If local whole-hearted support is given to the local factory and to our national industry of dairying, the farm and the dairy herd will be made far more productive. Great help will be derived by keeping individual records of each cow, because the old established, complacent "average" cow has no intention whatever of assisting the average patron to get 3,000 lbs. of milk from the average acre.

Hard Colds—People whose blood is pure are not nearly so likely to take hard colds as others. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure and this great medicine cures the system after a cold as no other medicine does. Take Hood's.

THE GOLD DUST TWINS' PHILOSOPHY

WHEN young Miss Housewife first aspired, to build the home her mate desired, she dreamed of castles in the air, with never toil nor woe nor care. She half imagined, in a way, that keeping house was only "play."

Too soon the sordid side of life—the dust and grime and soot and strife—each one, in turn, reminded her, that little problems must occur. A part of thrift is in the knack of fighting dirt around you, back of keeping constantly at work where dust and germs of illness lurk.

This housewife had her little cry, gave up—and scarcely knowing why. Then, from the sombre clouds of doubt, two rays of golden hope crept out. The Gold Dust Twins threw wide the door and entered, eager for a chore. They polished all the silverware, they scrubbed the bathroom and the stairs. Each mirror soon was shining bright, the lettes shone with gleaming light, and all around, from pit to dome, they garnished up that little home.

Ah! Ye who feel that, once begun, a housewife's work is NEVER done, have cheer! The Gold Dust Twins make play of any task that comes their way. A mop—a cloth—a busy brush, and honestly it makes us blush, to think we ever played the drone by working in the house alone.

THE RETURN OF TARZAN

By EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

TARZAN let the officer think that he had been lost, wandering finally into the domain of Kadour ben Sadeu who had escorted him back to Bou Saada. As soon as possible he bade the good officer adieu and hastened back into the town. At the native inn he had learned through Kadour ben Sadeu a piece of interesting information. It told of a slowly vanishing white man who went always disguised as an Arab. For a time he had nursed a broken wrist. More recently he had been away from Bou Saada, but now he was back, and Tarzan knew his place of concealment. It was for there he had come.

"Rokoff, you are a devil!" he was saying. "You have hounded me until I have lost the last shred of my honor. You have driven me to murder, for I want to the minister of war full proof of the affair you so ardently long to conceal, and, further, will charge you with my murder. Come, be sensible. I am your best friend. Have I not protected your honor as though it were my own?"

Gernols sneered and spat out an oath. "Just one more little payment," continued Rokoff, "and the papers I wish and you have my word of honor that I shall never ask another cent from you or further information."

"And a good reason why," growled Gernols. "What you ask will take my last cent and the only valuable military secret I hold. You ought to be paying me for the information instead of taking both it and money too."

"You never shall again, you dog!" hissed Gernols. "The next time I sighted you I shall have done for you. For an hour I sat on the two pieces of paper on my table before me ere I came here; beside them lay my loaded revolver. I was trying to decide which I should bring. Next time the choice shall be easier, for I already have decided. You had a close call tonight, Rokoff. Do not tempt fate a second time."

Then Gernols rose to leave. Tarzan barely had time to drop to the landing and shrink back into the shadows on the far side of the door. Even then he scarcely hoped to elude detection. The landing was very small, and though he flattened himself against the wall at its far edge he was scarcely more than a foot from the doorway. Almost immediately it opened, and Gernols stepped out. Rokoff was behind him. Neither spoke. Gernols had taken perhaps three steps down the stairway when he halted and half turned, as though to retrace his steps. Tarzan knew that discovery would be inevitable. Rokoff still stood on the threshold a foot from him, but he was looking in the opposite direction, toward Gernols. Then the officer evidently reconsidered his decision and resumed his downward course. Tarzan could hear Rokoff's sigh of relief. A moment later the Russian went back into the room and closed the door. Tarzan waited until Gernols had had time to get well out of hearing, then he pushed open the door and stepped into the room. He was on top of Rokoff before the man could rise from the chair where he sat scanning the paper Gernols had given him. As his eyes turned and fell upon the ape-man's face his own went wild.

"What do you want?" whispered Rokoff, for the look in the ape-man's eyes frightened him. "Have you come to kill me? You do not dare. They would guillotine you. You do not dare kill me."

"I dare kill you, Rokoff," replied Tarzan, "for no one knows that you are here or that I am here, and Paulvitch would tell them that it was Gernois. I heard you tell Gernols so. But that would not influence me, Rokoff. I would not care who knew that I had killed you. The pleasure of killing you would more than compensate for any punishment they might inflict upon me. You are the most despicable cur of a coward, Rokoff. I have ever heard of. You should be killed. I should love to kill you," and Tarzan approached closely to the man. Rokoff's nerves were keyed to the breaking point. With a shriek he sprang toward an adjoining room, but the ape-man was upon his back while his leap was yet but half completed. Iron fingers sought his throat. The great coward squealed like a struck pig until Tarzan had shut off his wind. Then the ape-man dragged him to his feet, still choking him. The Russian struggled futilely. He was like a babe in the mighty grasp of Tarzan of the Apes. Tarzan sat him in a chair, and long before there was danger of the man's dying he released his hold upon his throat. When the Russian's coughing spell had abated Tarzan spoke to him again. "I have given you a taste of the suffering of death," he said. "But I shall not kill this time. I am sparing you solely for the sake of a very good woman whose great misfortune it was to have been born of the same woman who gave birth to you. But I shall spare you only this once on her account. Should I ever learn that you have again annoyed her or her husband—should you ever annoy me again—should I hear that you have returned to France or to any French possession—I shall make it my sole business to hunt you down and complete the choking I commenced tonight." Then he turned to the table, on which the two pieces of paper still lay. As he picked them up Rokoff gasped in horror.

He Was Like a Babe in the Mighty Grasp of Tarzan.

Tarzan examined both the check and the other. He was amazed at the information the latter contained. Rokoff had partially read it, but Tarzan knew that no one could remember the salient facts and figures it held which made it of real value to an enemy of France.

"These will interest the chief of state," he said as he slipped them into his pocket. Rokoff groaned. He did not dare curse aloud. The next morning Tarzan rode north on his way to Bouira and Algiers. As he had ridden past the hotel Lieutenant Gernols was standing on the veranda. As his eyes discovered Tarzan he went white as chalk. The ape-man would have been glad had the meeting not occurred, but he could not avoid it. He saluted the officer as he rode past. Mechanically Gernols returned the salute, but those terrible, wide eyes followed the horseman, expressionless except for horror. It was as though a dead man looked upon a ghost. At Sidi Aissa Tarzan met a French officer with whom he had become acquainted on the occasion of his recent sojourn in the town.

Mann's Coal We Have Plenty of Coal Have You?

"You left Bou Saada early?" questioned the officer. "Then you have not heard about poor Gernols?" "He was the last man I saw as I rode away," replied Tarzan. "What about him?" "He is dead. He shot himself about 8 o'clock this morning." Two days later Tarzan reached Algiers. There he found that he would have a two days' wait before he could catch a ship bound for Cape Town. He occupied his time in writing out a full report of his mission. The secret papers he had taken from Rokoff he did not inclose, for he did not dare trust them, out of his own possession until he had been authorized to turn them over to another agent or himself returned to Paris with them.

As Tarzan boarded his ship after what seemed a most tedious wait to him two men watched him from an upper deck. Both were fashionably dressed and smooth shaven. The taller of the two had sandy hair, but his eyebrows were very black. Later in the day they chanced to meet Tarzan on deck, but as one hurriedly called his companion's attention to something at sea their faces were turned from Tarzan as he passed, so that he did not notice their features. In fact, he had paid no attention to them at all. Following the instructions of his chief, Tarzan had booked his passage under an assumed name—John Caldwell, London. He did not understand the necessity for this, and it caused him considerable speculation. He wondered what role he was to play in Cape Town.

"Well," he thought, "thank heaven that I am rid of Rokoff. He was commencing to annoy me. I wonder if I am really becoming so civilized that presently I shall develop a set of nerves. He would give them to me if any one could, for he does not fight fair. One never knows through what new agency he is going to strike. It is as though Sabor, the tiger, had induced Tantor, the elephant, and Hstah, the snake, to join him in attempting to kill me. I would then never have known what minute or by whom I was to be attacked next. But the brutes are more chivalrous than man. They do not stoop to cowardly intrigue."

At dinner that night Tarzan sat next to a young woman whose place was at the captain's left. The officer introduced them. "Miss Strong! Where had he heard the name before? It was very familiar. And then the girl's mother gave him the clue, for when she addressed her daughter she called her Hazel."

NOT PREPARED YET FOR PROHIBITION

So Declared Bishop of Niagara in His Address to Synod Yesterday.

The Bishop of Niagara, at the opening of the Synod meeting in Hamilton yesterday delivered a striking address, in which he touched upon many leading questions of the day.

Dealing with the subject of intemperance, the bishop, in his address, said: "Though all are agreed upon the evils of intemperance in the use of alcoholic beverages, and anxious to remedy them, opinions of honest men differ as to the best methods to be adopted to that end. The difficulties besetting the question are indeed great. In remedying the evils in one direction we must be careful lest we create others probably as great in another. Stringent laws of indeed defeat their purposes and cannot be enforced unless they are supported by the hearty co-operation of all classes."

Personally I am decidedly in favor of the closing of all drinking saloons but I do not deem it expedient, even if it were possible, to do so until public opinion is more strongly on the side of temperance and until we are prepared to offer a wholesome substitute. It is not the matter of stimulants merely which often turns a man's steps to the saloon. It is his room decorations and comforts and companionship and cheerful surroundings. The saloon keeps in such matters are wise in their generation. They know that good cheer means all sorts of pleasant surroundings as well as stimulants, and they minister to this craving. It is just here that the total abstinence movement has been seriously lacking and is almost certain to prove a failure in our cities. The closing of the bar creates a void which nothing else supplies. Life in a big city creates an awful void, which must be filled up in one way or another.

We must go on educating the people, particularly the young, upon the benefits of temperance, and to strive to change the social customs which encourage what is termed the "treat" system. This habit has become deeply rooted in our social life. I believe there is nothing more injurious to men, and especially to young men. This practice ought to be fought vigorously both in the pulpit and in private and business life. I believe that many men who are not themselves total abstainers would gladly join with others in destroying this system. I would suggest that in every parish efforts should be made to enroll such men in a society in which they would be pledged not to "treat," and to discourage the practice in others. I would also suggest that wherever advisable, efforts should be made by the prominent members of all religious bodies to establish coffee-houses or temperance clubs to take the places of the present saloons as licences are withdrawn. In regard to the licensing of new saloons and the facilities afforded for drunkenness, there is no reason for and delay in legislation. State and city authorities have done much to lessen the evil, but there is vast room for further improvement. On certain streets in our larger cities are many saloons within a stone's throw of one another, which are quite unnecessary for any purposes of legitimate traffic. The number of these places of temptation is too great for many men of weak will. The present system, too, of licensing saloons and pool rooms in de-

Why Do Women Suffer

When They Could Be Well? It is so easy to be well and strong and able to enjoy life, that it is surprising how many women drag themselves through the day suffering tortures from lame back due to kidney trouble. Mrs. Wilcox found the way to cure herself and gladly writes about it so that other women may be induced to use the same remedy.

"During the last winter, I was bothered very much with a Weak Back. I was advised by a friend to try GIN PILLS and I did. The first box I found helped me very much and I found when I had taken the second, I was completely cured." Mrs. F. WILCOX. If GIN PILLS do not do all that we say they will—let us know, and we will cheerfully refund you your money. Send for a free sample and see for yourself that they will do you good. ance-of the wishes of the respectable people of the neighborhood, and under influences that dare not be avowed, is a distinct hindrance to social progress.

Unfortunately, this whole question is now a political one—a fact which is by no means in the interest of temperance. It is pre-eminently a moral question and though the aid of legislation must be obtained whenever public opinion is ripe for it, we should avoid making it a purely political issue.

There are other social evils which threaten alike the well-being of both church and state.

Moral Conditions.

"Impurity," said his lordship, "is worse than intemperance; its evils are even more widespread. It is more loathsome in its character, and more devilish in its consequences. What the doctors tell us is enough to make us tremble. It is something we must fight. It is an enemy that is destroying souls by the thousands, and we must wake up to the fact and fight it."

Burke always held to the idea that society is corrupted from above and not from below. It is not a process of capillary attraction, but from contagion from the upper classes. Those most looked up to influence the class below them, and these again others, until a prevailing influence is carried down from the top to the bottom. We can see how this operates in matters of fashion. Fashion which originates in some desire of taste, is first of all a creature of what is called society. It is then taken up by social imitators, who, in turn, pass it along, until it prevails through the social fabric. This is true of fashionable vices as well as matters of style and dress. It is in this way that immorality and unbelief, which sometimes becomes the rage in high or fashionable life, are distributed all through the lower orders and take the form of an epidemic.
