BOARD OF HEALTH ANNUAL MEETING

Question of Water Supply Receives Attention, and Other Matters Also.

The annual meeting of the Board of Health was held last evening in the City Hall with Messrs. Geo. Pette, Mayor Bowley, Dr. Pearson, M. McBride and Wm. Glover in attendance. In the early stages of the meeting a communication from the Trades and Labor Council was read, requesting a full and complete investigation of the prevalence of typhoid fever in the city during the past summer and also of the water supply of Brantford. A discussion in connection with this question, involving the various reasons for the condition of affairs that existed at that time, consumed most of the time.

The first matter considered was the granting of a permit to store and cure hides, to the Galvin Hide Company, with headquarters at Hamilton, who has succeeded Mr. Lunenfeld, on the premises on the north side of Water street. The desired permission was granted to the applicant on the understanding that the same conditions should prevail as had existed during the occupancy of the former owner.

The minutes of the last meeting were then read and adopted and the accounts passed. A communication from the Trades and Labor Council was then read, requesting that an investigation into the prevalence of typhoid fever in the city during the past year, be conducted by the board. Dr. Pearson stated in his report, which was then submitted. Following the adoption of the report Mayor Bowley made the assertion that the consumption of water per head, was three or four times that of cities in the United States. This wastage could be curtailed somewhat by the introduction of the meter system but at the present time this would be impracticable as the manufacture had practically ceased, and the meters could only be had at a great expense.

There was no doubt but that a better supply would have to be given to the public next year than had been the case in the past season, was the opinion of Mr. McBride. The supply had been unequally distributed this summer, as in the case of some citizens using the water for watering lawns in the morning, and thus forcing the remainder of the users to be inconvenienced. The wastage caused by eighty per cent of the water used for flushing the streets going into the sewers, was brought up by Mr. Pette, who thought that only in the windy seasons of Spring and Autumn should the streets be watered so profusely and that otherwise one flushing followed by another at intervals of time would suffice equally well. In this connection, he advocated a special system of smaller pumps along the river to supply the carts from the river and thus

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK, FEVERISH CHILD

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take time from play to empty their bowels, and they are tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. Give it all of cold or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleanser" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for use, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. The only one to get for a 50-cent bottle is "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Head back with content any other fig syrup.

leave the purified supply at the disposal of the householders.

The general consensus of opinion was that it would be inadvisable and impossible at the present date to secure meters, that an additional number of inspectors should be appointed in the summer months to look after the matter. Dr. Pearson looked forward to the time when the provincial government would control the supply of the municipalities, having as their source, some of the colder lakes to the north. In regard to the matter at a recent meeting of the Trades and Labor Council, concerning the prevalence of typhoid fever, in the past season a discussion of the health officer's report took place in the course of which it was shown that out of the entire 49 cases that received treatment, the city could be held responsible for only 21.

The report of Sanitary Inspector Wm. Glover was then submitted and adopted. In view of the fact that in view of the manifold duties incumbent upon Mr. Glover, that he should have some assistance in the discharge of his duties.

A resolution was introduced by Mr. McBride to the effect that the present unsanitary system in vogue in the selling of produce on the market should be abolished by the entire square off into sections and numbering them consecutively so that the farmers would be able to purchase them in advance and thus relieve the necessity of arriving there on the previous day to insure their securing the desired positions, and thus exposing their produce in the open air overnight. This system would also be a means of taking action in the event of non-delivery of goods purchased, as the seller could be traced by the consumer merely by informing the proper authorities of the number of the section where the purchase had been made. If a record were kept of those who rented the stalls, no difficulty would be experienced in tracing the dealer responsible. The motion carried.

As regards the question of the water supply, the board thought that the matter was absolutely in the hands of the Water Commissioners who had a big enough task in hand in securing an adequate and pure solution of the difficulty without being further hindered by the interference of the Board of Health, in unavoidable contingencies.

This concluded the gist of business to be transacted and the meeting was then adjourned.

Well Made Garments Are a Pleasure!

ALMOST any suit looks well when it is first put on, but after a man has worn it a little while, and his body has begun to move around in it, the effects of the pressing iron wear away and dampness begins to play havoc with the fabric. Then, unless the shape of the garments have been wrought into the cloth, and the cloth has been cut so right that it can't help hanging properly --so that the collar must cling to the neck and lapels lie firmly against the breast, the original appearance will soon be lost.

When you buy a Suit you want Satisfaction from the first day until the last.

Wonderful Values in REAL IRISH LINEN!

Ireland, which is capable of producing flax of excellent quality and high tensile strength, has for years been dropping back, until now the Irish crop is almost a negligible quantity on the flax markets of the world. Belgium we depend on for contrain flax (the finest imported flax). That source completely cut off we are left only the Russian flax, and that at enormous cost of transportation, owing to the long railway journey to the port of Archangel, which is only free from ice a very few months during the summer. The difficulty of chartering boats is often responsible for tremendous losses. Through lack of buildings for storage, the flax is often thrown out of the cars, exposed to the weather for months and rendered useless. Ships carrying flax are singularly unfortunate in encountering submarines, and quite a number have been sunk.

Materials made from flax are essential in military equipment, tent duck (for which one contract alone called for three million yards), aeroplane cloth, butcher linen, hospital equipment, linings for uniforms, etc.; last, but not least, linen thread for tents, boots and uniforms.

The demands of the war office have been enormous and cotton substitutes the reverse of satisfactory. In the Irish market flax that could have been purchased for $125.00 per ton, in 1913, is now costing $485.00 per ton. Cost of bleaching, mill furnishings, coal, freight, in fact everything has enormously advanced, in some cases as much as 300 per cent.

Under such circumstances, and taking into consideration the demands of the war office, which come first, it is not so surprising that the linen offered to the public is so expensive as that it is so cheap. Pure linen goods are now very scarce and prices are still going higher. This week we learn of an advance in table damask of 75 per cent, on best yarns and 50 per cent on warp, which will make a difference of 25 to 30 per cent, on the finished article. Advances to date amount to from 75 to 125 per cent, over 1913 prices. When war ends there cannot be a sudden slump in prices for the all-sufficient reason that stocks do not exist, and the trade in high class linens could not assume the normal for years to come, owing to the system of production.

Why Hair Falls Out

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.

There is much speculation in Sydney Mines as to the attitude the miners will take as regards the Workmen's Compensation Act, which becomes operative on Monday.

THE LETTERS

Which Passed Between the Premier and Hughes

Ottawa, Nov. 15.—Circumstances which led up to the removal of Lieut. Gen. Sir Sam Hughes from the post of minister of militia are set forth in the correspondence made public yesterday afternoon. It is exceedingly voluminous.

Generally speaking the trouble arose over the constitution or attempted constitution by General Hughes of an overseas army council. Sir Robert taxed Sir Sam with being assigned to that position. He autog- raphed Sir Max and claimed that in view of the work he had done, it would be humiliating not to ap- point him. With Aitken in the job he would warmly support the pro- posal. With Sir George Perley there the scheme would have his bitter opposition.

The Crisis
The fat got into the fire when in a long letter dated November 1st, Sir Sam accused Sir Robert of de- liberately planning months ago to make Sir George Perley minister overseas. The premier likewise was accused of making incorrect state- ments. Sir Robert would not stand for this. He demanded Sir Sam's re- signation and got it, but the min- ister indulges in strong criticism and wild statements.

While there were other letters they are all summarized in the re- ally important ones that follow.

Differs With Premier
Ottawa, November 1, 1916.
Dear Sir Robert:
In reply to your memorandum of October 31st ultimo, permit me in brief to summarize.

I do recall my visit to Great Brit- ain in the Autumn of 1914. I did expect both under the statutory law of Britain and under the law of common courtesy, that I would have been permitted to exercise some "control and direction" over our "control and direction" of our re- spective boys in the way of organiza- tion.

But there had evidently been some communication to the effect that "control and direction" of this magnificent force should be under the British Government direct. The then Mr. George Perley, Acting High Commissioner, implied such in the following words: "You do not pre- tend surely to have anything to do with the Canadian soldiers in Brit- ain."

Further, Sir Robert, I spoke to you on my return and told you the circumstances, both then and sub- sequently. You, yourself, know that last year you took occasion to speak to Sir George Perley concerning the matter. The treatment he accorded me after this was the only respect- able or courteous treatment he ever gave me.

Regarding the consultative Sub-

Militia Council. It has only been tentatively formed. My way of doing things is to obtain results, not ne- cessarily the creation of bodies or- ganized by order-in-Council. As everyone knows what has been workable in theory does not so turn out in practice.

On my arrival in England this year, I was met by your cablegram of July 31st which you quote.

During the month of August I visited every camp in England, France and Belgium and consulted in detail with the leading officers of the Canadian force. I went fur- ther and asked for suggestions from leading officers of every force.

As a result, before I left England, I decided to try the thing out in practice, and in an informal way, and before embodying anything in order-in-Council, would find any weak points in the system which might arise, and could add any im- provements necessary.

Every officer concerned was di- rectly notified of this, that no ques- tion of rank, or pay, or precedence or anything else, other than trial organization, was contemplated.

As a result, before I left England, we had made many improvements.

Permit me to draw your attention to nearly every commission which has been formed. They look beau- tiful on paper, but few, if any one of them, have been anything like per- fect in practice. The Hospitals Com- mission, the Pensions Board and the National Service Commission all seemed lovely when sent out, but everyone concerned with them knows of the absurdities therein contained.

Permit me further to draw your attention to the fact that the British Constitution does not exist on paper; no order-in-Council is behind it.

Further, had I ventured to con- duct this force on the basis of for- mal orders-in-Council, the First Divi- sion would not have left Valcartier yet, and you know yourself how by technicalities the Second Division was held up for four months through little petty haggling on the question of motor trucks, etc., etc.

The second line of your memoran- dum says: "So far as I am aware, you exercised the same control and direction over the forces in Great Britain during the first year as sub- sequently."

Sir Robert, no one knows better than you that this statement is in- correct. This last year, with the full concurrence of the War Office, our management and direction have been given every consideration, and by their request I am through.

On other point and I am through. It might be implied from your memorandum that my failing to secure authority by order-in-Council for this sub-Militia Council impeded you in the way of your own ruling re- garding Sir George Perley. May I be permitted to say that both you and I know to the contrary. I know that Sir George Perley had planned something along these very lines. You have, also, admitted that as early as the first week of September you had this mat- ter under consideration. I under- stand that it was under considera- tion by you and Perley earlier. You incidentally remarked yesterday that you had not consulted any of your colleagues. Of course when I drew your attention to the statement, you corrected yourself.

Dear Sir Robert, no one knows better than you that this statement is in- correct. This last year, with the full concurrence of the War Office, our management and direction have been given every consideration, and by their request I am through.

On other point and I am through. It might be implied from your memorandum that my failing to secure authority by order-in-Council for this sub-Militia Council impeded you in the way of your own ruling re- garding Sir George Perley. May I be permitted to say that both you and I know to the contrary. I know that Sir George Perley had planned something along these very lines. The Right Hon. Sir Robert L. Borden, G.C.M.G., Prime Minister of Canada, Ottawa, Canada.
Resignation Requested.
Ottawa, November 9, 1916.

Dear General Hughes:
During your absence I have given very careful consideration to your letter of the 1st instant, and I must express my deep regret that you saw fit to address to me, as head of the Government, a communication of that nature. As you are to return to- morrow, it is my duty at once to announce to you my conclusions.

Under conditions such as the times were very trying and which gave me great concern, I have done my utmost to support you in the adminis- tration of your department. This has not been very difficult by reason of your strong tendency to assume powers which you do not possess and which can only be exercised by the Government-in-Council. My time and energies, although urgently needed for much more important duties, have been very frequently employed in removing difficulties thus unne- cessarily created. You seemed actu- ally to administer your department as if it were a distinct and separate gov- ernment in itself. On many occa- sions, but without much result, I have cautioned you against this course which has frequently led to well- founded protest from your colleagues as well as detriment to the public in- terest.

I do not intend to dwell upon the instances, some of which are still under consideration, in which you have acted without authority or con- sultation in matters more or less im- portant. Of these, the latest is the establishment of a Militia Sub-Com- mission in Great Britain, including the appointment of its personnel. I con- veyed to you on the 31st July, a clear proposal, involving consideration of the great moment, the Cabinet must be consulted before action was taken. All the members of the Gov- ernment have full and direct respon- sibility in respect of the very im- portant matters which the proposed Council would advise upon and di- rect. The intimation which was given to you in my telegram of 31st July should not have been necessary. As soon as it was received, you proceed- ed to disregard it. Some portions of your letter are expressive of the ac- titude which I have described and to which you evidently intend to ad- here. Such an attitude is wholly inconsistent with and subversive of

CHEVROLET MADE IN CANADA

The Chevrolet is an All-Canadian car. Made in Canada, for Canada and by efficient Canadians.

It is probably for these reasons that the Chevrolet is such a popular car in all of the provinces. Many, many thousands are in use.

The Chevrolet has been designed and built to meet Canadian usage and road conditions. It has the necessary rugged- ness. And in addition is possessed of good looks and all of the comforts.

That the average Canadian appreciates the qualifications of the Chevrolet is evi- denced by the way he purchases this famo- us car.

But more than that, your letter is couched in such terms that I cannot overlook or excuse it. I take strong exception not only to statements which it contains, but to its general character and tone. You must surely realize that I cannot retain in the Government a colleague who has ad- dressed to me such a communication, with regret that you have thus imposed upon me the disagreeable duty of requesting your resignation as Minis- ter of Militia and Defence.

THE COURIER

THE SITUATION.

The notable British advance on the Somme front still continues. The village of Beaucourt has now been taken and in all, over five thousand prisoners have been taken in two days.

Of little less importance is the continuation of the victorious drive of the Serbians towards Monastir. Despite strong resistance from Bulgarian-German forces, their advance has not been stopped, and the last height which remains before Monastir, has been taken.

The rumor is again rife that the Austrians are attempting to enter into a separate peace with Russia. There will be no result to such efforts and meanwhile the Russians are accumulating great stocks of guns and ammunition for big events in the Spring.

The United States has lodged a protest with Berlin against the deportation of Belgians to Germany, in order to take the places of men released for the army.

THE DEFEAT OF HUGHES

Certain United States papers are discussing the cause of Hughes' defeat, and the Providence (R.I.) Journal, an influential publication, finds the reason in the fact that the Republican candidate did not make direct issue of:

"The protection of American life and property on land and sea; the upholding of our national dignity and honor; the responsibility of America for the interests of humanity."

In other words the Journal thinks that Hughes would have won, had he come out flat-footed against the German menace and pledged himself, if elected, to help bring the war lust lords to timber.

It is very doubtful, indeed, if such a course would have helped him. There are a large number of people in the States who feel humiliation over the fact that the devilish Lusitania crime has been absolutely unavenged. Also that while the rights of neutral nations have been wantonly trampled in the blood stained mire, Uncle Sam has held aloof, chuckling over his increased harvest of dollars, owing to the war, and not stirring even his little finger to help in the cause of human liberty, which he is supposed to hold so near to heart.

The evidence is undoubted, however, that the Uncle Samites in the mass, do not feel that way. The strongest cry on behalf of Wilson was "he has kept us out of the war" and Hughes and his advisers pussy-footed on the subject, because they feared that Roosevelt's support was in itself a dangerous load to carry, in the direction of getting the States into the hostilities. Had Hughes been out and out for getting into the European scrap, he would have met with a far worse reverse than that which he did sustain.

THE CORRESPONDENCE IN THE HUGHES MATTER.

A perusal of the correspondence which passed between Premier Borden and the Minister of Militia, prior to the request forwarded to the latter for his resignation, will convince even the staunchest friends of Sir Sam Hughes, that there was no other alternative but to ask him to relinquish his position. It is to be regretted that a man possessed of such undoubted qualities of energy and service, should have run amok with regard to the administration of his department, but having done so there could be only the one alternative.

Like most big men, Sir Robert is tolerant up to a certain point, but when that has been passed, he has shown on more than one occasion that he is master in his own political house, and this is as it should be.

ing difficulties" created by Hughes. He also states that the latter more than once assumed powers which could only be exercised by the Governor in Council.

Agar represented the crown.

CRITICAL CONDITION

The young man, Fred Wilkes, is reported to-day as in a critical condition. Dr. Kendrick of Galt, was down in consultation with Dr. Richardson on the case and it is now thought that but for Mr. Clark's immediate rush to phone for the doctor and the latter's prompt response, Wilkes would have been carried from the depot a dead man.

A GOOD START

At the regular monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society, held yesterday afternoon, in the Board room of the Shelter, a genuine surprise was sprung on the meeting by Mr. Jos. Ruddy, who presented a cheque for $50 from Mr. Geary Pickles, for the first life membership in the society.

EVERYBODY NEEDS PURE, RICH BLOOD

Pure blood enables the stomach, liver and other digestive organs to do their work properly. Without it they are sluggish, there is loss of appetite, sometimes faintness, a deranged state of the intestines, and, in general, all the symptoms of dyspepsia.

Pure blood is required by every organ of the body for the proper performance of its functions. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood, and this is why it is so successful in the treatment of so many diseases and ailments. Its acts directly on the blood, ridges it of impurities and other humors. It is a peculiar combination of blood-purifying, nerve-toning, strength-giving substances. Get it today.

WAITING FOR THE POSTMAN

"What's the hardest thing about your work?" I asked a man who has recently branched out in business for himself.

"Waiting for the postman," he said (his orders come by mail), "or perhaps I should say, trying to keep my mind on something else while I'm waiting for the postman."

"I wonder if there is anyone reading this who hasn't at one time or another suffered from that particular form of torture known as 'waiting for the postman.'"

"Perhaps You Were Waiting For A Love Letter." Maybe, as in this case, it was a business letter; maybe it was an overdue letter from some loved one whose health or safety you were anxious about; maybe it was just some molehill like an expected invitation exaggerated into a mountain by the intensity with which you desired it.

"And wasn't it the most temper trying, patience fraying job you ever had?"

"A Watched Pot Never Boils." You try to go about your work and put him out of your mind, and behold you find yourself looking out of the window. There is no postman in sight. You strain your eyes helpfully, as if that would produce him out of the blackness.

You go back to your work. You hear a step coming up the street; you fly to the window again. It's just some stupid civilian. You feel an uncomfortable dislike for this unoffending person. If the case is very acute your primitive ancestry stirs in you and suggests that it would be a relief to hurl something at him.

He stops to look over his mail. Finally the postman actually comes into sight. He waves his way toward you from house to house, with the most maddening deliberation. He stops to look over his mail; he stops to pass the time of day with the grocer's man; he waits interminably at front doors.

At last he actually reaches the house next door. And then what does he do but stop and talk five minutes by the clock on the mantel (fifty by the one in your brain) with the lady next door. You always liked the lady and gives you—

Eventually he actually comes up your own front path. You spring to the door. He fumbles in his vest and gives you—

Excuse me, but there is the postman's ring at last. I must answer it. Will you wish me good luck?

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no yawning, snuffling, mucous discharges or dryness, no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream to your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly. It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

Rippling Rhymes by Walt Mason

It seems as though the dreary war will never have an ending; the peace the world is longing for, no white-winged dove is sending. A year ago we hoped and prayed that ere another summer the soldier would have sheathed his blade and gone to work as plumber. We saw the winter months advance, and as the spring drew closer, we hoped that he would soak his lance, and open up as grocer. And when the vernal freshets roared, we watched the man in armor, and hoped that he would can his sword and get a job as farmer.

Alas, our hopes were all in vain; the world is mad and dizzy, and Europe counting up white-winged dove is sending. A year ago we hoped and prayed that ere another summer the soldier would hold a friendly meeting, first might end the beastly scrap that's kept the world affrighted, and fix the blamed ding-wizzled map so all would be delighted. But horse war and dangers, to which the captain and the king have evermore been strangers.

BRITISH SCORE MOST IMPORTANT VICTORY

London, Nov. 15.—The British have captured Beaumont, a result of the continuation of their powerful drive, begun yesterday. The prisoners taken by the British number more than 5,000 up to the present, according to the official bulletin issued last night. The text reads: "The village of Beaumont-sur-Ancres is in the hands of the British. Prisoners reported to date number considerably over 5,000, and more are coming in."

The day's statement follows: "To-day a local advance was made east of Butte de Warlecourt, practically our objectives were gained. Some 80 prisoners were taken in this area." (Copyright 1916 by The Associated Press.)

With the British Armies in France via London, Nov. 15—4.30 a.m.—The British advance along both sides of the Ancre, which continued yesterday with the capture of the village of Beaumont, is considered by the British commanders as one of the most important successes in the four months of the offensive. They insist especially on the relatively insignificant character of the German resistance in a position which they consider of great strategic importance and one of the most highly fortified on the entire western front.

Many Prisoners. More than five thousand prisoners have been collected in the extensive subterranean galleries and chambers which were sunk on both sides of the valley and were miles in extent. Five hundred Germans surrendered in a tunnel near St. Pierre Division, which was a mile and a half long. This tunnel gave access to scores of electric lit chambers in which companies of infantry were housed and which contained quantities of machine guns and bombs. Another seven hundred prisoners were caught in a ravine south of Beaumont-Hamel, where they were cut off by the first attack on Monday afternoon. The British success south of the Ancre was increased owing to the fact that

CONFERENCE FOR RECRUITING

Lt.-Col. Morris Visits Simcoe To View the Station There.

Other Interesting Items of the 215th Battalion.

The balance of the members of the 215th will not be inducted on a previous occasion because of their being absent taking a course, or for some other reason, received their delayed treatment, and as a result are feeling stiff and sore to-day.

The trench work at the old brickyard has been discontinued for this week owing to the lectures being given in First Aid at the Y. M. C. A. They will be resumed, however, at the conclusion of the classes.

Lieut. Hoag of the 4th C.M.R., recently returned from the front, was a visitor at the headquarters of the 215th battalion yesterday.

Colonel Morris was in Simcoe conferring with the recruiting officials of Northfolk County with regard to the situation in that district and the prospects of further enlistment. The conditions prevailing were thoroughly discussed, and although nothing definite was decided upon, the 215th were assured of the heartiest co-operation of the people of the neighboring county. A representative of Haldimand County interviewed Col. Morris recently with relation to that section to the proposed campaign was reviewed. Nothing more will be done in the matter until word is received from headquarters when Col. Morris will pay a visit to that county, similar to that of Monday to Simcoe. The general opinion in the two adjacent divisions appears to be that they have been just as thoroughly combed as Brant, and that although there is some available material, the same difficulty is being experienced there as elsewhere.

Capt. Dolson, who is administering the dental department of the 215th battalion returned to the city yesterday from Toronto, where he was completing arrangements for the transportation of the necessary equipment for his department. As a result the balance of the supplies have arrived, and operations will be commenced immediately.

Two officers and eight N.C.O.'s will leave to-day for Toronto take a course in bayonet fighting and physical training and three officers and six N.C.O.'s will attend a class in military drill. Lieuts. Ryan and Sutherland will go with the first class and Capt. Muttter, Lieut. Gundy and another officer will take in the latter course. The classes are to be conducted at exhibition camp. Another class such as the above will practically complete the required standard of qualifications for the officers of the battalion.

With the approach of colder weather, issues of winter mitts will be made to the men in the near future.

RANELAGH

Mrs. James E. Minshall and son Clarence, of Burth and Mr. James Hoggard, took dinner at Mr. Thos. Wood's on Sunday.

Mr. R. Cooper spent last Saturday at Brantford.

Miss Emma Jull has returned from Norwich, where she spent a couple of weeks with relatives.

The farmers are very busy with fall ploughing and getting their roots and apples put away for the winter.

Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast a Splendid Habit

Open sluices of the system each morning and wash away the poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning. We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before the action of lime stone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast and it is said to be a little while until the roses begin to appear in the drug store, but it is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with bilious rheumatism, stomach trouble or indigestion a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way abetter.

PASSENGERS SENT TO PRISON

Taken From Dutch Steamer By a German Submarine.

By Courier Leased Wire. London, Nov. 15.—An Amsterdam despatch to the Times says that the Belgian and Dutch passengers on the Dutch mail steamer Konigin Regentes, recently seized by a German submarine, have been sent to prison in Bruges. The Belgium women and children were released and allowed to return to their homes. It is reported that the Konigin Regentes' seizure was in retaliation for the refusal of the Dutch authorities to allow a German vessel to proceed from Antwerp to Bremen through Dutch waters.

"September Morn" is without question the greatest musical success of the century and includes a cast of musical comedy celebrities far above the average, together with a beauty chorus selected for looks and ability to sing among the many songs that have taken the country by storm: "September Morn", "I Lost My Girl on Broadway", "In Parade", "When a Little Boy Loves a Little Girl", "The Merry Widow", "Beautiful Dreams I'm Dreaming", "A Spare-Rib from the Butcher Shop of Life", "The Sun-Shadow Girl", and "Where is the Pleasure in Wine and Song in the Woman is Not There".

It's a big dance festival including the Tango, Maxine, and Heaton Waltzes. Summing it all up, "September Morn" is a real musical jamboree!

"When Dreams Come True." The announcement is made that "When Dreams Come True," one of the newest musical comedies, which has a great vogue in New York and Chicago during last season, will be presented at the Grand Opera House.

The action of the play opens on board the immigration deck of a steamship on its way to New York. The plot develops to unfold early and the music theme begins when Robert C. Adams as "Kean Hedges," the son of a multi-millionaire who, on account of having become infatuated with a French dancer in Paris, is recalled to America by his father. Being short of funds, he has had to take his passage home in the steerage of the ship, and it is while he is lonely, he sees, as he thinks, in a vision, his dream girl. When the ship reaches the dock, the girl of the dream becomes a reality, and romance runs merrily till the end.

A number of tuneful songs are introduced, chief among them being, "Come Along to the Movies," "Love is Such a Funny Little Feeling," "You, Dear, You," "Who's the Little Girl?" and "When Dreams Come True."

The scenic appointments are elaborate, and the costumes of the various numbers show a number of new and elaborate creations.

The company numbers forty people with a large singing and dancing contingent, selected for their youth, grace and ability.

"When Dreams Come True," it is promised, will be one of the most enjoyable theatrical entertainments of our local season.

BELGIAN KING'S BIRTHDAY TO-DAY

King Albert, "King Without a Country," Needs Support.

To-day, November 15th, is the birthday of King Albert of Belgium, the sovereign of that nation of noble men who, when the German army swept into Belgium two and a half years ago, drew his sword and said, "For us, there can be no other answer."

King Albert and his consort are still in the field, he at the head of his shattered 18th army, she doing the work that only a woman can do.

Isolated from this king and his army are seven millions of his subjects—mostly women and children, the women and children of Belgium's soldiers—subjected to German rule, being starved, maltreated and driven slowly toward death.

Among them is another army of Belgium relief workers attempting to save their lives. These workers and Belgium's king expect the allies of this little nation to help these people.

Let our answer be as prompt and effectual as that uttered by him the day the Germans began their march towards Britain, the advance which he and his men defeated. Let us draw—not the sword, but the purse strings—and also say, "For us there can be no other answer but to help."

The Belgian Relief Committee in your town, or the Central Committee, 59 St. Peter St., Montreal, awaits this decision.

Rubber Supply Is Steady While Leather Gets Scarcer This Explains Low Price of Rubber Footwear in Spite of Increasing Cost of Fabrics, Chemicals and Labor

The war is using up enormous quantities both of leather and rubber. At the same time it is seriously restricting the output of the former, much of which came from Russia—while rubber production keeps pace with the demand. From the great plantations now reaching maturity in Britain's tropical Dominions will come this year 150,000 tons of raw rubber—75% of the world's production, and an increase of over 40,000 tons from last year.

Thus, thanks to the British Government's foresight in encouraging these plantations, the Allied armies have been abundantly supplied with all the rubber products they need. Germany and her allies have been cut off—and the price to the world at large has actually been reduced. Meanwhile, leather has been getting scarcer and more expensive—80% higher than in 1914—and the end is not yet.

At normal prices a pair of good shoes cost about four times as much as a pair of standard quality rubbers, and would last nearly twice as long if the rubbers were worn to protect them in bad weather. So even before the war rubbers were a mighty good investment, to say nothing of their prevention of wet feet, colds and doctors' bills.

Now, when shoes cost seven or eight times as much as the rubbers, the saving from wearing the latter is so outstanding that no one who believes in thrift will think of going without them. Nor will those who are anxious to help win the war, for by wearing rubbers and overshoes we conserve the leather so scarce yet so absolutely necessary for the soldiers.

MR. FISH

London, Nov. 15.—Announcement was made that Superintendent W. R. Davidson will the London division of the Grand Trunk, who came to this city six years ago from Wichita, Kan., where he had been with the Missouri Pacific, had been promoted to a superintendency at Detroit. The announcement is accompanied by others affecting several western Ontario men.

Mr. Davidson, former chief dispatcher at Stratford, succeeds Mr. Davidson here.

Robert Fish, former travelling locomotive inspector out of London, who for several years has been in charge of the Grand Trunk at Brantford, is Mr. Forester's successor as superintendent at Stratford.

Ross McLennan, chief dispatcher at Stratford, former chief of the Western lines, succeeds Mr. Davidson here.

A. S. Sharp, who went from London to Brantford to become chief dispatcher there at the time of the last general change two years ago, comes back in Mr. McLennan's place.

W. B. Doherty, present night chief dispatcher at Stratford, becomes day chief at Stratford, while J. R. Brent, a dispatcher on the local staff moves up to the duties of night chief here.

The changes were effective last night at midnight.

It is not too much to say that Mr. Fish has proved himself one of the best and most liked G. T. R. officials ever in Brantford. Always courteous and efficient he has made for himself a host of friends who sincerely congratulate him upon his promotion. It was he who was responsible for the carrying out of the improvements of the depot property and in every way he identified himself with the best interests of the city while here. Stratford is certainly gaining a good citizen. His only son Russell is on Overseas service with the 125th (Brant) Battalion, having left the G. T. R. executive offices here to enlist as a private.

"I AM GOING ENGLISH"

Huns Taken by British

Resistance, but to be Captured

HUNS ADMIT

Advance Was Least Costly

Troops Since

By Courier Landed Wire.

London, Nov. 16.—(New York Cable)—German prisoners, taken the British advance on the Ancre, fall of being subjected to a terrible bombardment when suddenly out of the gloom they found English troops all around them, and running along the top of the trenches throwing bombs among them. Telegraphs of a special correspondent of The Times at headquarters in France. "Some of them were wounded," he said, "and the rest were taken prisoner. Others tell how the English had grasped the place where they were lying, so they were left behind. The other English came up from nowhere and there was nothing to do, but surrender."

"None of them seemed to be sorry to be prisoners, whether they were Wurtembergers, Rhinelanders or Prussian Guardsmen. Some had fought since the beginning of the war and been in the first affairs. Belgium others had been exempt until recently, but at last had active service because nobody is exempt now. Whatever they are they seem war weary now. One man said:

"With us it is all peace talk, am going to learn to love the English. He would not see the humor of the suggestion that it was a little late to begin."

"On the front attacked today and yesterday, the Germans undoubtedly fought badly. In all my search to-day I have not found one of our men who got to close quarters with a German who really fought. I believe there have been some bayonet wounds, but nearly all our casualties were caused by long range fire, smaller proportion than the usual number being from shrapnel and shell splinters."
