Morning Courier.

MONTREAL, THURSDAY, MAR. 7, 1857.

We have received a copy of the Report of a Committee of the Upper Canada Assembly, to whom were referred certain Resolutions of the Assembly of Lower Canada, and Mr. Stephen PAVANE's letter accompanying the same.

With the history of the Resolutions and letter in question, of their reception by the Assembly of Upper Canada, and the views of the Hon. Mr. PAVANE, we have to-day published in the said City of Montreal, a paper which we think will be read with interest and satisfaction by our countrymen. It is a paper which we think will be read with interest and satisfaction by our countrymen.

In reference to one of the Imperial Statutes, bearing certain duties, Mr. PAVANE remarks:—It is true that the Government of Upper Canada, instead of a direct or indirect tax, has petitioned for the repeal and continuation of those duties. The Committee, however, thinking it better to leave the duties as they are, and to leave the Government of Upper Canada to take further notice of them, and to take further notice of them, and to take further notice of them.

Upper Canada. We regret to learn that on the night of the 16th instant, during the prevalence of the very heavy rain, a fire broke out in the town of St. Lawrence, which was being built and was being finished by Mr. Francis Davis, was burnt down. The fire was caused by a candle which had been left burning in a room which was being used as a workshop.

Importance. The domestic matter to them is however, of considerable interest. The French Ministry was advised on the 6th of the month by the King's Secretary, that the Emperor's intention was to send a plenipotentiary to the Congress of the Peace.
