

HURON SIGNAL

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1850.

ELECTION OF LOCAL OFFICERS.

Our readers will know that we go for the elective principle, as the best mode of appointing local officials; they know also that we are ardent admirers of a well-conducted and talented journal...

The Signal agents to have come to this conclusion on account of the elective principle having been grossly abused in a ward in his own town, and by the County Council of the County of Carleton which he says, "had literally voted itself out of existence..."

But we differ from our contemporary in the conclusion that it is impossible to create a great principle because all are not ready for the change. It will be many a long day before the people of Canada are fully fitted for absolute self-government...

In acknowledging the foregoing very friendly compliments of our esteemed contemporary, the Warder, we willingly admit that his illustration will continue to be not only the expediency, but the right of allowing the native Indian of Canada, in his present untutored state, to vote, either directly or indirectly, for a Professor of Chemistry or Mathematics in the Provincial University...

The Signal advocates the extension of the elective franchise to every man of sane mind, and to every man of sane mind, and to every man of sane mind...

should the County of Huron, or Carleton elect a sheriff, the fact that all the rest of the Sheriffs and Clerks of the Peace throughout the Province were chosen impartially, intelligently, and well-qualified men, would have no effect in mitigating the calamity which the unfortunate County had inflicted on itself through ignorance and party spirit...

There are many other questions which should be made subjects of legislation, and which, if judiciously legislated on, would tend much to the immediate and substantial improvement of the country and the people—subjects on which there could be little difference of opinion, among those who are really solicitous for Canada's welfare...

There is a certain depth of moral degradation—a certain stage in the abandonment of truth and honorable principle which, when once reached, almost forbids the further efforts of philanthropy and morality...

LIE AND STICK TO IT.

There is a certain depth of moral degradation—a certain stage in the abandonment of truth and honorable principle which, when once reached, almost forbids the further efforts of philanthropy and morality...

It is true that Thomas McQueen, Esq., the semi-socialist Editor of the Huron Signal, perpetrated a string of doggerel, entitled 'Welcome to Lord Elgin,'—British American.

It is not necessary to inform our friends in Toronto that we have obtained a copy of 'Colonel Fudge,' as we are loath to break in on our friends. We understand, however, that 'A Conservative' has already received orders for upwards of two hundred copies—and he intends, so soon as the Editors of the Comet has been granted for a Franchise, to publish an edition in pamphlet form.

Received 'Money Letter' from A. B. Orr, Esq., Stratford.

We feel very sorry on being called on to direct attention to the Advertisement of Mr. James Genter, which will be found below. Mr. Genter has certainly been one of the most persevering and industrious inhabitants of Goderich...

We understand that an American gentleman, a resident of Louisiana, attracted by the beauty of Montserrat, made a proposition to the proprietor to purchase the place, offering some $20,000...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

It is true that Thomas McQueen, Esq., the semi-socialist Editor of the Huron Signal, perpetrated a string of doggerel, entitled 'Welcome to Lord Elgin,'—British American.

It is not necessary to inform our friends in Toronto that we have obtained a copy of 'Colonel Fudge,' as we are loath to break in on our friends. We understand, however, that 'A Conservative' has already received orders for upwards of two hundred copies...

Received 'Money Letter' from A. B. Orr, Esq., Stratford.

We feel very sorry on being called on to direct attention to the Advertisement of Mr. James Genter, which will be found below. Mr. Genter has certainly been one of the most persevering and industrious inhabitants of Goderich...

We understand that an American gentleman, a resident of Louisiana, attracted by the beauty of Montserrat, made a proposition to the proprietor to purchase the place, offering some $20,000...

CAUTION.

CHARLOTTE GIBBONS, My Wife, having clandestinely absented herself from my house, and having in a very unattractive manner, abandoned her house and helpless children to the care of strangers...

We understand that an American gentleman, a resident of Louisiana, attracted by the beauty of Montserrat, made a proposition to the proprietor to purchase the place, offering some $20,000...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

It is true that Thomas McQueen, Esq., the semi-socialist Editor of the Huron Signal, perpetrated a string of doggerel, entitled 'Welcome to Lord Elgin,'—British American.

It is not necessary to inform our friends in Toronto that we have obtained a copy of 'Colonel Fudge,' as we are loath to break in on our friends. We understand, however, that 'A Conservative' has already received orders for upwards of two hundred copies...

We feel very sorry on being called on to direct attention to the Advertisement of Mr. James Genter, which will be found below. Mr. Genter has certainly been one of the most persevering and industrious inhabitants of Goderich...

We understand that an American gentleman, a resident of Louisiana, attracted by the beauty of Montserrat, made a proposition to the proprietor to purchase the place, offering some $20,000...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

It is true that Thomas McQueen, Esq., the semi-socialist Editor of the Huron Signal, perpetrated a string of doggerel, entitled 'Welcome to Lord Elgin,'—British American.

It is not necessary to inform our friends in Toronto that we have obtained a copy of 'Colonel Fudge,' as we are loath to break in on our friends. We understand, however, that 'A Conservative' has already received orders for upwards of two hundred copies...

We feel very sorry on being called on to direct attention to the Advertisement of Mr. James Genter, which will be found below. Mr. Genter has certainly been one of the most persevering and industrious inhabitants of Goderich...

We understand that an American gentleman, a resident of Louisiana, attracted by the beauty of Montserrat, made a proposition to the proprietor to purchase the place, offering some $20,000...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

It is true that Thomas McQueen, Esq., the semi-socialist Editor of the Huron Signal, perpetrated a string of doggerel, entitled 'Welcome to Lord Elgin,'—British American.

It is not necessary to inform our friends in Toronto that we have obtained a copy of 'Colonel Fudge,' as we are loath to break in on our friends. We understand, however, that 'A Conservative' has already received orders for upwards of two hundred copies...

We feel very sorry on being called on to direct attention to the Advertisement of Mr. James Genter, which will be found below. Mr. Genter has certainly been one of the most persevering and industrious inhabitants of Goderich...

We understand that an American gentleman, a resident of Louisiana, attracted by the beauty of Montserrat, made a proposition to the proprietor to purchase the place, offering some $20,000...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

COMMUNICATIONS.

Dear Sir,—It is lamentable to see me, who if they would consent to labor within their proper sphere, might contribute so much to the public, making himself, like Mr. McQueen, and Wallace, into an unintelligible rhapsodist...

Our supposition was correct. The Loyalist struggled into visibility last week without any apology for its former week's falsehoods—without any contradiction by any of the honest conservative gentlemen who had displayed so much righteous wrath against its 'infamous productions'...

It is true that Thomas McQueen, Esq., the semi-socialist Editor of the Huron Signal, perpetrated a string of doggerel, entitled 'Welcome to Lord Elgin,'—British American.

