No matter what your age, you have the chance to do what you want to do, you have the chance to become what you want to be, if you have enthusiasm, courage and persistency.
The present generation sees many wonderful things its predecessor never saw, but it will never gaze upon that entralling legend of the old time which read, "Square Meals 25 cents."

The Ontario Department of Education is issuing 36,702 certificates this year as a result of its lower, middle and upper school and matriculation examinations. This is nearly double the number issued last year.

A new cure for hay fever, said to be infallible, is nothing more or less than a hornet's nest. To take the treatment it is necessary to secure several layers of the nest, roll the material into a cigarette and smoke it.

Those people who attended the big Ford Owners' Picnic at Bright's Grove, August 2nd, will be interested in the announcement that the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, will send the film photographed that day around the circuit of picture houses of Lambton County.

According to the report of the Ontario Beekeepers Association, July, 1922, Lambton county stands second in the production of honey for the year, Wellington county being first. Lambton produced 144,530 pounds and Wellington 176,000 pounds. Huron came close to Lambton, producing 143,150 pounds.

The Adolescent Act is now in force and all children between 14 and 16 years of age are required to attend school, unless they secure permission from the school attendance officer. To enforce the act penalties are imposed on persons employing adolescents who do not hold certificates and on parents and guardians who connive at, or permit violation of the act. Section 6 of the act points out that all between the age of 14 and 16, holding either home or employment certificates, must attend part time courses for an aggregate of 400 hours for the term.

Jumper flannels opened this week, all the popular shades.—A. Brown & Co.

In connection with the new sales tax on bonds, which went into effect on August 1st, it is pointed out that the tax will be passed on to the purchaser, as in the case at present in the commodity market. People who purchase securities may be prepared to pay this charge of three cents per $100 in addition to the cost price of their securities. It is to be remembered of course, that Dominion and Provincial Government bonds are exempt from the impost.

The season for wild ducks opened Friday last, Sept. 1st, and in the Province of Ontario continues until December 15th, both dates inclusive. There is no open season, however, for wood and eider ducks, the season for these being closed until September 15th 1923. This is the information which the local duck shooters as well as all others will abide by this year.

At 9 o'clock Saturday morning, Edward McMullen, alleged leader of the Wyoming bank bandits, held in jail at Sarnia, by means of a fake revolver overpowered Watchman Forbush and Turnkey Burns, and tied their hands and feet. Warden Dodds came to their rescue and fearlessly grappled with the prisoner and prevented his escape. The prisoner was being taken from his cell, where he is in solitary confinement, to have his morning bath. He will be arraigned next week for attempted jail breaking.

Nearly a thousand people lined Main street on Wednesday night and enjoyed, either actively or passively, the community street dance gotten up to close the day of sport provided by the baseball tournament management. The brilliantly lighted block and the various colored costumes of the dancers, the balmy atmosphere and soft moonlight conspired to make the event one of real enjoyment, which was made the more pleasurable by the splendid music furnished by the Military Band of Strathroy. The dance was kept up until after midnight. The neighboring towns and countryside were fully represented and contributed liberally to the financial success of the evening. Every one was in the best of humor and the spirit of gaiety prevailed. The crowd was most orderly with not an unseemly word or action to mar the enjoyment of the evening. The event was a huge success and another of the kind will be anxiously looked forward to by the young people of the town and surrounding country.

Send in your items and we will be pleased to print them. Sign your name, which will not be published.

On Monday afternoon of last week the Utopia Bible Class took their well-filled baskets and journeyed down the track to a beautiful spot on Brown's creek to enjoy a few hours with their beloved classmate, Miss Jennie Moore, before her departure for her home in Denver, Col. After all had partaken of the bountiful refreshments, they enjoyed community games for a time. Then with joined hands they sang "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love", and thus the young ladies expressed to her in her new home. ## BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

Watford Still Holds Its Own Against
The Pick of Two Counties

Wednesday of last week was a feast day for baseball fans of the eastern part of the county, judging by the crowd that attended the baseball tournament staged in Watery works Park by the local team.

Teams were entered by Parkhill, who was privileged to pick from all Middlesex; Bridgen, loaded up with the best men of Oil Springs; Waubuno, with a foreign battery and 3rd baseman; and Watford with Davis, of Strathroy, on the mound.

The first draw placed Parkhill against Bridgen for the first game in which the men of the north fell easy victims to the southerners by 15 to 4.

In the second game, however, fans saw, without a doubt, the biggest, fastest, tightest and most thrilling game ever witnessed in an amateur league, when the locals trounced Waubuno and their stars 3 to 1.

This necessitated a play-off with Bridgen for first place, which resulted in another one-sided game with a win for the locals of 18 to 6.

Taken all in all, it was a grand feast of ball for the fans and made a very fitting climax to the most exciting baseball season Watford has enjoyed for many years. The proceeds amounted to over $300.

WATFORD SCHOOL FAIR

"In Watford there are gardens and such gardens were not made by singing 'Oh how beautiful', and sitting in the shade."

While better boys than we go out and start their working lives
By grubbing weeds from borders with broken kitchen knives."

—W. H. S. Student
Arrangements are about completed for the Watford School Fair to be held in the Armories, Friday, Sept. 15th, afternoon and evening.

The afternoon will be taken up with viewing the exhibits, the baby show and a program of sports for the boys and girls.

In the evening with John Farrell, Hon. President, as chairman, the recitations, singing, piano playing &c will be judged, also some special attractions from out of town will be added to the program. The Women's Institute, under whose auspices the Fair is held will conduct a refreshment booth. Prize lists are being printed for distribution. The school gardens will be judged for the second time this week.

The Horticultural Society distributed aster seed to the pupils of the Public School and offers three prizes in each grade 50c, 30c, 20c for best bouquet grown from these seeds. Three blooms only of each color to make up the bouquet.

Inspector Jas. Edwards and Agr. Representative W. P. MacDonald will be present.

Watch next weeks Guide-Advocate for latest news and keep the date of the Fair in mind.

SAFETY FIRST

"Safety first" is a good maxium in most things, but particularly so in relation to the investment of money. The rich may afford to speculate and to take the risks attendant on high rates of interest. Those whose means are moderate must be careful to see that there is absolute security in their investments. For such people there is no other form of investment which takes such a high rank, combining absolute security with liberal interest, as the bonds of the Dominion of Canada. Holders of Dominion bonds bearing five and a-half per cent, maturing December 1, 1922, can re-invest their money at the same rate of interest by exchanging the old bonds for new ones running for either five years or ten years, as the bondholder may prefer. Arrangements for carrying out this exchange can be made through all the chartered banks.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A young body does not necessarily mean a healthy mind, nor an old body an infirm one.

Our advice to young people who are not anxious to pursue educational training is "Learn a good trade, and learn it well."

A city editor remarks that "there are too many stocking banks". How does he know? Has he been watching the ladies get into automobiles or street cars.

The fuel shortage is getting to be a serious question in the cities where they are using discarded railway cars and old ties for fuel. The railway companies usually burn these discards.

A writer in Pottsville, Penn., says there is more coal in storage in that State today than last year at this time, notwithstanding the four month strike. The whole scheme was fomented, he says, largely by the operators, to keep the price of coal up.

It is rather strange that Mr. Drury should believe that his government has been gaining political support in the cities and towns. Why should he think that? The policies of his government have not been in the interests of the town-dwellers.—Hamilton Herald.

The hard coal miners strike is over and the Operators announce that there will be no advance of price at the pit's mouth. If this policy is adhered to the public will know whom to put the blame on if there is any profiteering on the way to the consumer.

The state of Pennsylvania has taken out $25,000,000 burglar insurance on securities for which the state treasurer is responsible. That is quite a compliment to burglars and rather surprising, unless the insurance is very cheap. One good vault and one honest man could take the place of that insurance.

If the Montana Legislature passes a bill now before it, the Government of that state will be up against a law enforcement problem nearly as hard as the enforcement of the Ontario Prohibition law. The bill makes it unlawful for any one "to kiss a person of the opposite sex except in the case of man and wife."

That gasoline will ever drive electricity out of the field as a motive power for transportation is a delusion which will not bear a moment's examination of the facts. Gasoline is derived from a mineral oil rapidly being exhausted and not renewable. Niagara Falls will endure as long as the sun shines.

In a recent article in the Michigan Farmer on the Value of Breeding, there was the following statement:—"In the recent demonstration in North Dakota, the yearly product of a scrub cow was 500 pounds of butter. The first generation after the use of a pure bred sire, an increase of eighty three per cent. in milk production, and fifty eight per cent. in butter fat was noted, and in the second generation, the increase was 180 per cent. in milk production, and 128 per cent. in butter fat."

The Collingwood Bulletin says:—"We are of the opinion that if Chautauqua makes a visit through this section next season a more generous contract will have to be offered. The only place we have heard of where the guarantors were not called upon to make up a deficit was Ottawa. We note by last week's Bowmanville papers that even in that place, where a large profit was made a year or so ago, the guarantors were called on to put up $7.50 each, having been $803.13 behind. In Barrie also the deficit was $800 while the town council in a generous outburst tacked on its fellow citizens a license fee of $55."

Fifty million dollars will have been spent on improving Canada's highways when the five-year period terminates in the fall of 1923, according to reports received by A. W. Campbell, Dominion commissioner of highways. Of the total $20,000,000 will have been appropriated by the Dominion Government, and the remainder by the different provinces.

London Free Press:—The coal shortage and the danger of its becoming a recurrent problem may compel the Canadian railways to consider at an early date the question of electrification. It is the only permanent solution for the railways of Ontario. Aside from the difficulties of securing coal, the annual fuel bill is one of the most perplexing worries of the managements. If this enormous total could be eliminated by the use of electricity it would mean a tremendous saving to the country.

With the avowed object of keeping people from gossip and other forms of harmful conversation, and of inspiring kindly thoughts and kindly speech in the minds and mouths of its members, "The League of the Kindly Tongue" has been formed in this district by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Strickland of Essex. Let us hope that the League will secure a large membership, and that its members will live up to its obligations cut out gossip and inspire kindly speech. 'Tis true some people would sacrifice a lot of their present pleasure but the community would be better off.—Essex Free Press.

WHAT SHALL I DO WITH THE MONEY

Many a holder of the Canadian Government bonds maturing December 1, 1922, has been asking this question. The advertisement of the Minister of Finance supplies an answer. The investor, by giving notice to the manager of any one of the branches of a chartered bank, can arrange to get new bonds bearing the same rate of interest, the highest possible security and a liberal rate of interest.

RUN DOWN PEOPLE WEAK AND NERVOUS

Thousands in This Condition Can Easily Help Themselves.

There are thousands of people who bear the pain and discomfort of minor ills in the hope that the indisposition is only temporary and will be outgrown in time. Often such illnesses are not serious enough to require the attention of a doctor, but will respond to intelligent home treatment if a reliable remedy is used. Women, busy with a multitude of household cares, young women in offices or stores, or girls studying hard in school, easily fall a prey to that condition of bloodlessness known as anaemia. The trouble need not be serious if prompt measures are taken to check it in its early stages. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will restore the elements needed to bring the blood back to strength, and once the blood regains its healthy vitality the entire body will soon show the benefit. Among the many who have found benefit through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mrs. Albert W. Smith, Miscouche, P.E.I., who says:—"I was very much broken down in health, had pains in the region of my heart, and was so short of breath that if I went upstairs I would have to lie down as soon as I reached the top. Then a strange, nervous twitching of the muscles took possession of me, and every muscle in my body would apparently be twitching. I became very emaciated and my family were much alarmed as to my condition. At this time I read an article in our home paper concerning Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided to give them a trial. The result was that in a short time I felt much improved, and under further use of the pills I felt like a new woman, had gained in weight, and was in every way better. I would urge anyone afflicted as I was to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial."

You can get these Pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

P. Dodds has a large stock of good stout school shoes, well made to stand rough usage and keep out the wet. Prices shaved to the closest profit.

Issued in 1917 and Maturing 1st December, 1922.

CONVERSION PROPOSALS

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE offers to holders of these bonds who desire to continue their investment in Dominion of Canada securities the privilege of exchanging the maturing bonds for new bonds bearing 5½ per cent interest, payable half yearly, of either of the following classes:—

(a) Five year bonds, dated 1st November, 1922, to mature 1st November, 1927.

(b) Ten year bonds, dated 1st November, 1922, to mature 1st November, 1932.

While the maturing bonds will carry interest to 1st December, 1922, the new bonds will commence to earn interest from 1st November, 1922, GIVING A BONUS OF A FULL MONTH'S INTEREST TO THOSE AVAILING THEMSELVES OF THE CONVERSION PRIVILEGE.

This offer is made to holders of the maturing bonds and is not open to other investors. The bonds to be issued under this proposal will be substantially of the same character as those which are maturing, except that the exemption from taxation does not apply to the new issue.

Dated at Ottawa, 8th August, 1922.

Holders of the maturing bonds who wish to avail themselves of this conversion privilege should take their bonds AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE, BUT NOT LATER THAN SEPTEMBER 30th, to a Branch of any Chartered Bank in Canada and receive in exchange an official receipt for the bonds surrendered, containing an undertaking to deliver the corresponding bonds of the new issue.

Holders of maturing fully registered bonds, interest payable by cheque from Ottawa, will receive their December 1 interest cheque as usual. Holders of coupon bonds will detach and retain the last unmatured coupon before surrendering the bond itself for conversion purposes.

The surrendered bonds will be forwarded by banks to the Minister of Finance at Ottawa, where they will be exchanged for bonds of the new issue, in fully registered, or coupon registered or coupon bearer form carrying interest payable 1st May and 1st November of each year of the duration of the loan, the first interest payment accruing and payable 1st May, 1923. Bonds of the new issue will be sent to the banks for delivery immediately after the receipt of the surrendered bonds.

The bonds of the maturing issue which are not converted under this proposal will be paid off in cash on the 1st December, 1922.

Methodists in Canada claim to have made a 10 per cent. gain in church membership the past four years.

The Ontario Agricultural College will resume for the fall and winter session on the 29th Sept. The MacDonald Institute is scheduled to open on the 15th.

62 notices of bankruptcy were gazetted last week for Canada. Not a good sign, but possibly the best way to face business entanglements and get straightened away to probably try again in some instances.

Western wheat is of such a high quality this year that three-fifths of the grain marketed to date is No. 1 northern. Canadian flour mills will have excellent raw material to grind this season.

Newspaperdom is still alive. The Dominion of Canada is served by 125 daily papers and 999 weeklies. When it comes to comparisons with other countries Canada looms up most creditably for quality and influence particularly.

A new machine digs a conduit, removes the earth, and lines the walls with cement as it goes along. It is capable of building water mains, conduits, and tunnels for any purpose, doing the work of a large number of men in a very short time. The only excavation necessary is an opening large enough to lower the machine to the depth desired for the tunnel.

A Mexican company are taking steps to use fuel oil in their engines owing to the coal miners' strike, and have closed a contract for the purchase of 25,000 barrels of oil a day at a stipulated price of 68c American money a barrel.

Statistical records show that the happily married man who loses his helpmeet by death is prone to choose a widow if he marries again, while a divorced man, three times out of four, picks out a spinster. The fascinating widow captures two out of every five catch-able widowers, and gives the sweet young misses a run for it by carrying off one out of every five bachelors who enter the chains of matrimony.

The Board of Railway Commissioners has issued instructions to all the railways in Canada that the use of green lights which were formerly used on signals on the rear of cabooses and end coaches will be discontinued and red lights, denoting danger, will be used in their place. This also applies to the green lights which were formerly used to hang on the arms of the gates in use at level crossings.

Church union continues to be one of the most debated questions of several of the great Canadian denominations. Organic union seems to be in favor in Methodist opinion, while in Presbyterian congregations there appears to be less enthusiasm. According to a recent letter which Rev. Ephraim Scott, editor of The Presbyterian Record, has addressed to the editor of the Methodist Guardian, a strong proportion of his church does not consider amalgamation with other denominations to their advantage.

As a result of a conference held at Toronto, of prominent apple growers, officials of the federal and provincial departments of agriculture, the co-operative marketing of a large percentage of Ontario's 1922 apple crop is assured. Some 25 apple growers, representative of the local fruit growing associations in the Lake Ontario, Georgian Bay, Lake Erie, Lake Huron and eastern counties' districts unaniously accepted the offer from the Niagara Fruit Growers, Ltd., to find a market for the crop on a 10 per cent. commission basis.

FAIR PRIZE LISTS ARE NOW READY

The Prize Lists for East Lambton Fair are now being distributed.

The lists are larger than ever before, and the prize offerings have been increased in some instances over any former year, and should prove attractive enough to bring out an unusually large list of entries. A great many valuable special prizes are being offered in various classes, and several exhibitors will be handsomely repaid for their trouble in fitting up stock and bringing other goods to the Fair.

A new department is the School Children's exhibit which includes over one hundred articles or animals besides some special prizes.

In addition several trials of speed will also be put on for which $500 in prizes will be hung up, also foot races for girls and boys. The officials are putting forth every effort to ensure the success of the Fair and the residents of Watford and vicinity should afford them the needed assistance to make the Fair a huge success.

A GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR THE CHILDREN

Mothers, the surest way of keeping your little ones' well and happy, whether it is the new-born babe or the growing child, is to keep their bowels regular and their stomach sweet. Nine-tenths of all childhood ailments are the result of clogged bowels and sour stomach. The most necessary and the best medicine for little ones is a gentle laxative—something that will relieve constipation, sweeten the stomach and promote rest and natural sleep. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. They are a gentle but efficient laxative, are absolutely guaranteed free from opiates or other injurious drugs and may be given to the youngest infant with perfect safety. They banish constipation and indigestion, break up cold and simple fevers and give the baby that health and happiness which all children should have. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

GRAHAM-CHAPMAN

A wedding of interest took place at high noon on Wednesday, August 30, at the home of the bride, under an arch of flowers and ferns, when Lottie Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Chapman of Inwood, was united in marriage to Stanley Armour Graham, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Graham of Sarnia. The Rev. P. Streeter, rector of the Anglican church, Inwood, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, was becomingly gowned in white crepe de chene and lace and carried a bouquet of carnations and ferns. The guests, who were the immediate relatives of the bride and groom, sat down to a dinner luncheon, after which Mr. and Mrs. Graham left on an extended motor trip to eastern points. The bride's travelling suit was navy blue tricotine with sand blouse and hat to match. The bride received several cheques and many beautiful gifts, including a silverware shower, also a kitchen shower from the Bell Telephone staff of Sarnia, of which she was formerly supervisor. The gift of the groom was a gold octagon shaped wrist watch. Upon their return they will reside on Richard street.

PASSING OF WILLIAM STOREY

William Storey, one of the best known residents of Sarnia, for 60 years passed away Thursday evening at his residence, 166 South Front st., at 6.30 following an illness originating with a stroke three weeks ago, the first illness which he had had in his long and eventful life of 87 years and two months.

The news of his demise has caused widespread regret in Sarnia and in many parts of Western Ontario, where the late Mr. Storey was as well known almost as in his home city.

In 1868 he went into business for himself being successful enough to establish the business that is today carried on by his son George W. Storey, and grandson Gordon B. Storey on Front street, a wholesale and retail tobacconists business that is widely known throughout Western Ontario, the wholesale business extending to many of the smaller towns of the district.

Day after day, year after year, the late Mr. Storey attended closely to the welfare of his business until July 14, 1919, when the active management was taken over by his son and grandson.

The funeral service took place on Sunday at St. George's Anglican church, the Rev. F. G. Newton and Canon Doherty of London, conducting the service. Interment was made at Lakeview cemetery.

DEATH OF MRS. J. W. SYMINGTON

Mrs. J. W. Symington, nee Mary Stirrett, died on Sunday morning, August 27th, at her home at Camlachie after an illness of six months. She was aged 70 years. Her late husband, James W. Symington, predeceased her eighteen months ago. Three sons and three daughters survive: William J., of Camlachie; George, of Saskatchewan and Bruce, a medical student at Toronto; Misses Jean and Greta of Toronto, and Mrs. James Armand of London, Eng. Her surviving sisters and brothers are: Mrs. James Cairns and Mrs. John Burden of Camlachie; John Stirrett of Port Arthur, Robert Stirrett of Sarnia; George Stirrett of Toronto, and Dr. Andrew Stirrett, medical missionary of Nigeria, West Africa. Deceased was the second daughter of the late George and Mrs. Stirrett, who were pioneer settlers of Plympton Township.

The funeral took place from the family residence to the Wyoming cemetery, on Tuesday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Jno. Bailey of Toronto, a former pastor, and Rev. A. W. Gazley, of Camlachie. The bearers were R. S. and Wm. Jardine, Andrew Lunam, Geo. Stirrett and Alfred and Fred Symington. The three last named are nephews of the deceased.

THE TORTURE OF INDIGESTION

Thousands Made Miserable By This Trouble

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Relieves It

What is Indigestion and what causes it? As you know, solid food must be changed into a liquid by the stomach before it can be taken up as nourishment by the blood.

The stomach acts as a churn. It is covered by a strong, muscular coat and lined with a soft, delicate membrane which secretes the Gastric Juice which digests or dissolves solid food.

When food enters the stomach, the muscular coat squeezes and presses the food from end to end, or churns it, with the gastric juice to dissolve or digest it.

But—if the stomach muscles are weak—or if the dissolving fluid is poor or insufficient—then food cannot be digested properly and you have Indigestion.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the most wonderful medicine in the world for strengthening the stomach muscles and providing an abundance of pure, full-strength dissolving fluid to completely digest every meal.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" does this because it keeps the kidneys active, the bowels regular and the blood pure, which insures pure Gastric Juice.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" will correct your Indigestion or Dyspepsia and enable you to enjoy every meal. Try it.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

C. O. D. POSTOFFICE SERVICE

Ottawa, Sept. 1—Announcement is made by the post office department that a C. O. D. service in connection with mail matter will become effective in the Dominion on October 1. The regulations under which the service will be operated are as follows:

On and after October 1, 1922, a C. O. D. service in connection with mail matter will be established within Canada, whereby charges due the sender up to $100 may be collected from the addressee and remitted to the sender by post office money order. This service will apply only in the case of mail matter posted at a money order post office for delivery at another money order post office within Canada. Rural routes, starting from money order post offices are for this purpose considered as money order post offices and may be granted a C. O. D. service.

The C. O. D. fee also covers insurance and registration.

It is forbidden to send articles of C. O. D. which have not been ordered or requested by the addressee.

No article is to be accepted for C. O. D. which bears any wording to the effect that the article may be examined before acceptance, as the C. O. D. service does not carry with it any examination privilege.

Mary's Porch Tea Room

By LAURA MONTGOMERY

Mary sat looking tranquilly from her chair by the great south window that looked down the village street. A serene smile played about her lips as she thought of the year that had just been finished. The occupants of the pretty, rambling house on the corner of Main street and the Lincoln highway had grown steadily poorer, but the village had not known of this except in a vague way until the death of Mary's mother, whose pension died with her. Then the whisper had gone about that Mary would be obliged to sell the house where she had lived her whole life, dismiss Aunt Chloe, whose faithful black hands had first handled her when she had been born and who had tended her ever since, have a sale of the fine walnut furniture and start life afresh.

"She has absolutely no income left, and she's too frail to work for anyone," Miss Pansy had commented pitifully, "but she's so proud and aristocratic-like that no one dares ask her plans or try to help her."
 "I went to call, intending to ask her to move over to our house until she had made her plans. We have plenty of room, and I like her, but she acted awful stiff. I guess she doesn't like to be with people. She's lived alone so much. The doctor stopped his car outside and came up the walk, and I know he intended to stop and visit with her, but she just nodded, cool-like, and said she was feeling all right, and asked him to take a pot of lilies back with him for Mary Brown, who lives next door, and before he knew it he was just walking back that board walk carrying the flower pot."
 Tabitha laughed shortly. "That would have been a match long ago if she hadn't acted so stiff; old doc is awful friendly, and likes to mix; she'd spoil his practice with her high-and-mighty airs. Folks about here like you to act common and nice, and let you help them. That ain't Miss Mary's way, though she's always ready to sit up all night with anybody who is sick or do for them that need it. What she ought to do is to be a taker, instead of allus trying to be a giver."

Although such conversations had not been heard by Mary, she had, nevertheless, been conscious of her neighbors' opinions, yet she had become so shy and self-absorbed that she had been unable to change. Aunt Chloe had repeated many stray bits of gossip to her as she had served her mistress in the cool, shaded dining room. It had been the fat blue teapot in her servant's hands that had brought about the great idea.

"Yassum, ma'am, that motor party wanted to know where they could get a good cup of tea. They admired your roses and said the place looked like a picture with the tall row of hollyhocks along the side of the house. I tote them that was a hotel down street but they won't git no tea there. Not tea fit to drink." Aunt Chloe had chuckled as she poured out the clear amber tea into the frail blue teacup.
 Miss Mary permitted her tea to grow cold as she turned the idea over in her mind. She had often watched with wistful eyes the gay motor parties that flashed past on the Lincoln highway and vanished up the ribbon of yellow road bordered by flaming maples, leaving only an echo of laughter on the summer air.

A week later the neighbors stared frankly as they lingered near the corner house. The narrow windows on the west end of the house had been torn out and a great plate-glass window installed. The rambler roses had been carefully lifted aside, and when the work was finished the trellises were replaced with their burden of dark green vines heavy with roses. The large gates to the grounds that were usually closed were propped open and a charmingly lettered sign apprised passing parties that afternoon tea was served within.
 "Miss Mary's going to stay here; she's opened a tearoom. When I went past there were two big cars standing outside, empty, and I could see Aunt Chloe, in a starched cap and apron, passing little trays on the south porch," reported Pansy. "I wonder if Miss Mary feels very badly seeing strangers on her porch?"

Before the cool fall days had reduced the number of cars Mary had put away enough money to carry her comfortably through the winter months. More than that, she discovered, greatly to her amazement, that she had found contentment. Instead of looking on each day as a period of dragging hours to be lived through, she found herself rising earlier that she might lose none of the busy, happy moments. The mingling with the customers gave her a new interest in life and after her first shyness had worn away she found herself talking eagerly as her guests demolished the plates of tiny delicious sandwiches.

One day Harold Sinclair, a devoted admirer of Mary since schooldays, called at the tea room.
 "The interior of your home reminds me of an old southern home," Harold remarked as he looked about with approving eyes.
 "My mother came from the South and brought all this furniture when she first married. She would be horrified at the thought of my keeping a tearoom, but do you know," Miss Mary's eyes were bright as she spoke. "It seems as though the cutting of that great window had removed old illusions that hampered me and kept me isolated from my neighbors. Since I've gone into business I've found that it is pleasant to receive favors. The first day I opened up Mrs. Sawyer brought me six apple pies, to help out if you have a rush," as she said, "but I know why she brought them." Here the bright eyes grew misty with feeling. "She was afraid I didn't have enough in the house to prepare if I had any customers."

"You don't ask me to sit down," he remarked, looking at the deeply cushioned chair opposite hers. "You have time to chat with almost anyone except me, and I'm growing tired of being excluded. I used to think you liked to live in solitary grandeur behind your tall black iron fence, but now that you've thrown your gates open to the world and dispensed cheer through the spout of your fat blue teapot, I feel that I should benefit also."

The Dresden-china pink in the cheeks of Miss Mary became a swift crimson. "You like to joke," she murmured with a little catch in the voice she essayed to keep firm. It seemed to her that the deepening dusk had become golden with promise. "May I give you a cup of tea?"
 "No," he decided with a sudden thoughtfulness in his voice. "It's taken me a long time to find out that you're not a recluse at heart; Pansy tells me that you actually borrowed some tablecloths from her. I don't want a haughty princess, Mary, but I do want a wife. The gates are open now. Want to come?"

Aunt Chloe, approaching with a question on her friendly lips, stopped short, looked a moment with joyful comprehension on her loyal face, then tiptoed away.

SEEM SOMEWHAT SET APART

Literary World Writer Asks and Answers His Own Question, "Are Teachers Really Queer?"

Well, if not out and out queer, at least queerish? A little odd or quaint, you know; just a bit unlike the rest of us? Yes, you have to admit it; teachers are different. Their clothes aren't quite normal, and they wear their hair in curious lengths, or styles, or shades, and they flock by themselves—talking a strange jargon and laughing at invisible jokes and taking a grisly pleasure in the misfortunes of their victims—while if any man of affairs tries to join in their conversation they are awkwardly silent and seem helplessly out of place in ordinary social intercourse. They are like Gulliver among the Lilliputians, when they are safely ensconced in their classrooms and none too high to do them reverence; but in the outer world they are like Gulliver among the Brobdnagians. They are a race apart—unsmooth, uncomfortable and unaccountable and probably unnatural, paying for over-development in one direction and by under-development in every other. They resemble Chinese ladies whose feet have been deformed by binding, except that they are misshapen at the other extremity—suggesting those unpleasant, old elongated skulls generously exhibited in the ethnological museums. They easily demonstrate that not every useful proposition is universally true, for, assuredly, they have "some element of strangeness in the proportion," and yet who on that account would dare to claim for them the Verulamian "perfect beauty?" says a writer in the Literary World.

A Jersey cow on the farm of John H. Bailey, near Etonia, on the Provincial highway, recently gave birth to a freak calf. The heart of the animal is situated about the centre of the neck and is distinctly visible and the heart-beats plainly seen. The calf is strong and frisky.

WANSTEAD U. F. O. FIELD DAY

Over 2000 people from all parts of East Lambton gathered at Wanstead on the farm of Thos. Simpson, to participate in the 2nd annual field day of the Wanstead U.F.O. Club on Wednesday, August 23rd. By one o'clock the cars poured in continuously and the program committee were kept busy till the sun was set seeing that everybody enjoyed themselves. The committee overlooked making a ring to run off the sports in and much time was lost keeping the large crowds back which cheered each item of the program.

The basketball game commenced the program at 1.30 p.m. and it was a hard fought game. Wanstead and the eighth line, Enniskillen, old rivals, found the score 9 all the first half, but Wanstead came back and fought desperate the last period pulling out a win 15-20. The children's races were then run off and were keenly contested. Although all could not win the main prizes, our big hearted secretary Arch. Williamson saw that each child had sufficient reward to make a trip to the icecream booth. The young men then showed their sportmanship in the pole vault. Arch. McDougall proved the best man with the pole, jumping a little higher than eight feet. C. J. McCormick and Kemp were tied at a couple of inches lower.

What appeared to amuse the crowd the most was the ladies base ball game between Mandaum and Oban, the former winning 18-20. The 12th line Enniskillen handed the Comets a shutout the final score being 8-0. The potato race gave the boys a run for their money, R. E. Johnson getting the most potatoes in the shortest time.

Alex McMillan's team of Wyoming drew the 24 men on 100 ft of rope, Marshall Hoskins of Uttoteter, had the best drawing team on the ground but McMillan's team were about a half ton heavier.

Then came the ladies hitching contest which was very exciting indeed. Miss Annie Morgan of Kerch won first money winning from Margaret Ferguson a 12 year old girl by a few seconds, Miss Margaret would have won only she got into her buggy without the lines.

The horse races attracted a large crowd while the girls baseball game was being played. Stanley Scott of Forest took first money, beating Ernest Freer of Petrolia by a neck. Johnson of Camlachie was third, following close behind all the way.

The concert in the evening was a great success, it being held on the school grounds. McIntosh's orchestra of Wyoming supplied an abundance of music, while a couple of gentlemen from Petrolia treated the crowd to some moving pictures. Local talent also shared in the making of a splendid entertainment. The U.F.W.O. had a booth on the grounds and kept the inner man satisfied. Gate receipts $77.

WONDERFUL THE WAY IT HELPED HER

So Writes Mrs. Lemery of Brockville, Ontario, Regarding Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brockville, Ontario.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and female disorders. I was so weak at times that I could not stand up. I had been this way for nearly three years and the different medicines I had taken had not done me any good. I found one of your little books in my door one day and thought I would give it a trial. I am now on my fifth bottle and it is wonderful the way it has helped me. I am feeling much better, have no weak spells and can do all my work now. I am recommending your Vegetable Compound to all I know and you can use my testimonial to help other women."—Mrs. CLARA LEMERY, 178 Abbott St., Brockville, Ontario.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women's ailments and has a record of nearly fifty years behind it.

Why the Fall is the Best Time to Paint

1st—Because your house will be much drier, after the summer heat, and a dry surface is essential to best results. The paint will take better hold of the wood and will dry harder.

2nd—Because the flies, gnats, bugs and other insects which so often spoil the appearance of the newly-painted house, will not trouble you now, and the weather is ideal for painting.

3rd—Because your house needs protection as well as beauty, and needs it more in the winter than any other time. The paint will keep out dampness and decay, which cause far more loss than fire.

4th—Because LOWE BROS.' HIGH STANDARD PAINT is perfectly adapted to Fall work. It will save you money, time and trouble. Its quality is your best assurance of long wear, protection and economy. It goes farther than most paints and takes less to make it go.

The lad fell and the hind wheel of the truck passed over the small boy. He was picked up and carried to his father's house where he recovered consciousness, but died at the hospital. No blame is attached to the truck driver in connection with the accident, it is stated.
