Notes.

Convention Offerings are not restricted to any one Sunday, but are equitable at all times. The deficit can be reduced now as well as during the year, and contributions are much needed at present.

Organ Fund Collection. By vote of the church, there will be a SPECIAL COLLECTION for the Organ Fund to-day. Envelopes are distributed, it is earnestly hoped that there will be a generous and general response.

We are indebted to our sister, Miss Alice Haverstock, for her comprehensive and concise address, "A General View of African Missions," at the last Monthly Missionary Meeting. With so many of our promising young people interested in Missions, the prospects of our Church are bright.

Parents, will you follow up, please, the suggestions given last week in reference to contributions by envelope? See that every one of the family, young enough to drop an envelope in the collection plate has an offering to make. We are doing well financially, but we can do better. The more we give to the Lord, the more we want to give. It is wonderful how he multiplies our small offerings.

All around us are earnest souls longing for the Gospel of Christ. They are dissatisfied with the coldness and formality of many of our churches. They yearn for spiritual worship. The world crowds in and presses these desires, but when they enter a real, warm hearted, spiritual place, the fire burns. It is the duty of the Church to feed these hungry souls. Thank God, numbers of such are being attracted to our services. They tell us that there they get the food their souls have waited for years to receive. May the Holy Spirit help us always to keep our Church in such a position that sinners will be brought to Christ, and find a real Church home with us.

Those who rarely attend the services of the Church, have a low idea of the Church of Jesus Christ. They do not believe that Christ founded it for the salvation of the world, or at least they do not believe in the presence of power of Christ to save through the assemblies of his people. But the vast majority of those who profess Christ, have sought Him at the Church service. What opportunity would the unconverted have, did Christians give their public assemblies. But they could not and obey the commands of Christ. There is power yet, thank God, in the services of the Church.

The Pastor will be glad to speak with you at the close of each service. Kindly inform him immediately concerning the sick, the aged, any without regular church home, and where a visit will be helpful. All are urged to use the information cards in pairs.
