THE 18th of this month, anno 1546, died that famous Reformer, LUTHER, who struck the great blow to papal tyranny in Europe. He was remarkably temperate in meat and drink, sometimes fasting four days together; and at other times, for many days eating only a little bread and a herring. Cicero says, There was never any great man who was not an industrious man; to which may, perhaps, be added, There was never any industrious man who was not a temperate man: For intemperance in diet, abates the vigour and dulls the action of mind and body.

IN studying law or physic, or any other art or science, by which you propose to get your livelihood, tho' you find it at first hard, difficult and unpleasing, use diligence, perseverance: the irksomeness of your task will thus diminish daily, and your labour shall finally be crowned with success. You shall go beyond all your competitors who are careless, idle or superficial in their acquisitions, and be at the head of your profession.—Ability will command business—business, wealth; and wealth an easy and honourable retirement when age shall require it.

The Names and Characters of the Twelve Signs.

♈ Aries

♀ Venus, will be Evening Star, the 1st Day of January, then Morning Star, to the 15th Day of October.—Thence Evening Star, to the End of the Year.

♃ Jupiter, will be Evening Star, until the 4th Day of January, then Morning Star, to the 24th Day of July, and thence Evening Star, to the End of the Year.

HE who would out-live his next heir, must rise by times, and walk abroad in the fields: your feet and head in dew is wholesomer than under the sheets; but he that walks with bad company had better stay at home.

A Rich farmer's son, who had been at the university, coming home to visit his father and mother, and being one night at supper with them on a couple of fowls, he told them, that by logic and arithmetic, he could prove those two fowls to be three. Well, let us hear, said the old man. Why, this, cried the scholar, is one, and this, continued he, is two; two and one, you know, make three. Since you have made it out so well, answered the old man, your mother shall have the first fowl, I will have the second, and the third you may take for your great learning.
