spite of the financial stringency the revenue for the year ending March 21, 1914, had fallen off less than $6,-000,000 from the year ending a year ago last March. Out of this revenue all the current expenditures of the government had been paid, together with capital expenditures upon public works and that the big railway subsidies including the grant to the Canadian Northern are responsible for the increase of $19,000,000 in the net public debt of Canada. The large borrowings of the past year, he explained, were made necessary by the subsidies, the loan to the G. T. P., the purchase of the Grand Trunk Pacific three per cent. bonds guaranteed by the Dominion government and advances made to the harbor commissieners of Montreal and Quebec. Leaders of the Tory party in a division decided on Saturday night that there should be no contest, and when the Conservative executive met yesterday it was assumed that the meeting would formally ratify the decisions of the chairman and secretary, but an obstinate minority, anxious for a fight at all costs, reavealed itself.

It appears that, the Ulster members of the Unionist executive at East Fife are very strongly opposed to the idea that Asquith should have a walk-over, od the constituency with missionaries from Ulster.

night. If one is to judge by the enthusiastic demonstration in his favor Mr. Kemp is setting his political house in order. Various rumors are current: one is to the effect that he may take the lieutenant-governorship of Ontario; and another that he is to take a portfolio in the Borden government, of which he is a member with out portfolio. Since Mr. Kemp has been in the Borden government, he has been its chief organizer and general political adviser for the province of Ontario, and with Hon. George H. Perley has had charge of the general political organization of the Conservative party, including the press bureau, redistribution, and political meetings.

Mr. Kemp was chary of announcements. He casually referred to the application of the C.N.R. for assistance and dismissed it with the statement that the matter was still under consideration.

In his address Mr. Kemp said he wished to refer to matters of some local importantce. In the first place it was his constant aim to have the government do something to improve the harbor facilities. Some time after the last election the board of trade, mayor and others urged upon the govand are moving heaven and earth to get somebody to oppose him. LONDON, April 6.—By a majority of eighty, an amendment for the rejection of the home rule bill was defeated in the house of commons tonight, and without division the bill was given for the third time its second reading in the house.

The announcement of the figures evoked louder cheers from the opposition than from the ministerialists, the opposition interpreting them as gratifying proof of a dwindling government majority. But the diminution is accounted for to some extent by the abstention from voting of the

The speeches today were generally much more conciliatory in tone than those which marked the bill's earlier passages. John E. Leslie A. Downey of Beatty Avenue is Under Arrest and Police Have a Stack of Promissory Notes Given on Sales of Stock Which They Think Never Was Delivered.

Seven months ago, upon information laid by a Mrs. Currie in St. Catharines, the police of that city issued a warrant for the arrest of Leslie A. Downey, a foronto insurance agent, charging him with having obtained $300 from her by fraud. Since that time the Toronto detectives and police officials all over the province have kept a special watch out for a man, whom they had come to regard as one of the cleverest confidence men in the business. Yesterday afternoon at 3.30, acting upon information supplied by a "stoolpigeon," Detectives Guthrie and Murray, Acting Detective Nichol of No. 6 division, and a uniformed man surrounded Downey's home at 89 Beaty avenue, and gaining entrance thru a window, got their man hiding in a secret opening behind a bedroom bureau.

Other Charges Probable.

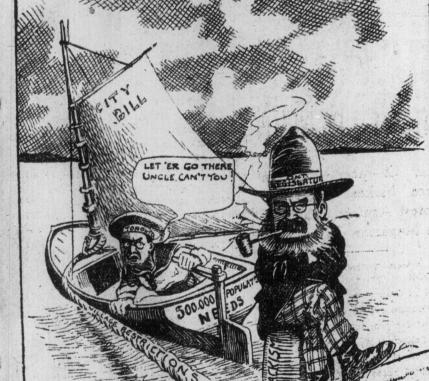

Mrs. Currie's charge against

Downey is that he sold her $300 worth of stock in a company known as the Colonial Life Insurance Co., which, it is claimed, is unchartered, nd hence not officially in existence. What the local police up till last night had not been able to ascertain, is whether Downey has for a year or more engineered fraucs of a similar character on both sides of the border, totaling thousands of dollars.

When arrested by Detective Guthrie, Downey at first refused to even and Costs From People Who Sold the Auto.

A decision of interest to motorists was remdered by Judge Denton in the county civil court at the city hall yesterday, when he awarded Ernest Constant $175 damages and the costs of the action in his suit against Mrs. Alice M. Foster and James A. Barhydt. The plaintiff had bought a Tudhope car from the defendants, which had been represented as a 1912 model. He claimed that it was a 1911 model and that he had been compelled to pay a large sum towards repairs. The purchase price was $750, and Mr. Constant asked $500 damages.

His honor found that the defendants knew that the car had been built in 1911, and tho it had several 1912 appliances, he held that the car was not of the year represented by the vendors.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR NEW BRUNSWICK POTATO IN-DUSTRY.

(Special Correspondence).
ST. JOHN. N.B. April 6.—With the production last year of over 10,000 pushels of potatoes. Premier Flemming nticipates a great development in the potato industry of the province. The completion of the St. John Valley Railway will open up and develop a large area of productive land, and the premier looks for a yield of 20,000.000 bushels of potatoes in a few years. An example of a crop grown by a Sun-bury County farmer may be quoted. On seventeen acres of land he raised two thousand barrels. 6000 bushels, of marketable potatoes, which netted on the wharf, directly from the harvest field, $1.08 a barrel, a return of $2115 The other crops grown on the farm considerably more than paid the rental of the whole farm, and the only labor TOLLS IN PUBLIC

American coastwise ships, he said, was to hide behind the American flag while burglarizing the treasury for the benefit of "a coastwise shipping trust."

Administration senators tonight seemed to be more confident than ever him a surplus or profit of $225. In addition to this, he had 200 barrels of him a surplus or profit of $925. In addition to this, he had 200 barrels of small blemished potatoes, which he disposed of for $90. a total of $60 profit per acre. At present the best markets demand for New Brunswick potatoes moving rapidly to Montreal and Toronto, and through St. John to Havana and other southern ports. The urban population has grown steadily, through the mistaken idea held by young men in the country that great riches are to be won in every town. The direct effect of this migration has been that producers have become consumers, and the demand for all kinds of farm products is greater than the supply. The price current on what the farmer has to sell in New Brunswick is today 100 per cent. higher than it was ten years ago, and the producer of high-price goods can get practically his own price for his offerings. At present a considerable proportion of the foodstuffs consumed in New Brunswick is imported. Great Britain is a large buyer of New Brunswick products. The trans-Atlantic steam-ers coming to the farmer's door give him a decided advantage over his western competitors. The United western competitors. The United States, adjoining the New Brunswick boundary on the west, is yearly increasing its imports from this province, and Cuba takes annually upwards of a

QUEBEC WILL RELY ON ANCIENT LAWS

Fight With Federal Government Over Fisheries Jurisdiction Will Be Strenuous

anadian Press Despatch.
QUEBEC, April 6.—Laws which are said to date from a period anterior even to the time when King John was forced by his barons to sign Magna Charta will, it is rumored, be invoked in the clash of jurisdiction over the fisheries question between the Provinces of Quebec and the Ottawa Government.

The matter which is likely to affect the Maritime Provinces also has arisen out of the recent case between the attorney-general of British Columbia and the Dominion, whereby judgment given in December last it was established that the federal authorities have jurisdiction over everything in tidal waters. That is to say that Quebec may lose her jurisdiction over the estuaries of salmon rivers along the St. Lawrence and especially along the north shore, the estuaries of the Moisie, Natashquan and Godbout being likely to be affected.

An attractive display that meets one on entering, is that of velvets and tapestries. Gothic velvet of quality, such as our modern looms do not evolve, are represented. Ond linen tapestry of the third or fourth century is curious and interesting. The old cream colored background has animals and scrolls in a dark red shade, like little trees, worked over its surface. HOME RULE BILL

Redmond's Last Appeal. "I think in the present circumstances there is nothing for the house of commons to do but proceed with the home rule for Ireland bill as it stands." Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, who made the final speech on behalf of the Nationalist party on the second read-

Carson's Offer Repeated.

Sir Edward Carson then repeated his offer that if the government would agree to allow parliament to decide at the end of the six years' period of exclusion whether or not Ulster should have the continued right of local option, he would call an Ulster convention and submit the question to it.

The only solution, declared Sir Edward, was to leave Ulster out of the bill until her consent to inclusion had been won.

Sir John Simon, the attorney-general, told the house that the government's offer to Ulster of temporary local option was still open, but that Ireland could not be permanently divided. The government, he said, was aiming at Irish unity, and was therefore unable to concede permanent exclusion to Ulster. If the efforts to reach a compromise should fail, the government was going to carry the home rule for Ireland bill as it stood.

FIGHT GOODERHAM BILL City Will Oppose Measure When It is Brought Before Committee.

There was a conference yesterday between Reeve Syme of York Township and Mayor Hocken over the problem of improving the sanitary conditions of the congested areas outside the northern boundary of the city. Nothing definite was accomplished.

The township has a bill in the legislature which provides that the city be compelled to supply those areas with water. The bill will be before the committee today and the city will oppose it. At the conference, Mayor Hocken urged Reeve Syme to withdraw the bill, promising that the city would apply for legislation at the next session which would arrange a supply of water by the city for those congested areas.

Reeve Syme would not agree to withdraw the bill. He contended that the electorate of York Township insist upon the bill being carried to a decision in the legislature.

A NOBLE CONCEPTION ONE CHANGE IN CAST

Finished in Daintiness and Expression.

Many a Hamler has been seen upon Toronto stages and many a noble con-ception of the character has been given, but among them all the inter pretation of Johnston Forbes-Rober son stands distinctive. The inelal pretation of Johnston Forbes-Robertson stands distinctive. The melancholy Dane he reads is a character that men like to dwell upon and to weigh apart from others. His conception has a subtle soul-seizing power which grows but more apparent as the character progresses and the impression of the youth rounds into the fuller one of the man. At the Alexandra long as men essay to interpret Shaksperean characters so long will the life story of the anemalous figure the life story of the anemalous figure of Hamile be woven into varying woofs according to different insights into the story. Of all these the one that can hope to be greatest is that which strikes a common chord in most breasts; which excites a more generous sympathy in the listeners. This has been the ambition of Forbest than the strike the sample of the strike the sample of t Robertson, and it is right to say that ! he has largely achieved it.

A striking feature in his character-

A striking feature in his characterization is the strength of emotion well-controlled, and yet definitely expressed. The depths of his melancholy seem unplumbed by other Hamlets. The bit of sunlight that may play on the surface penetrates no further and all below seems, lost in an unutterable gloom. Yet withal there is not despair. In fact the converging his fate in heing chosen of Loew's Winter Garden opened the week with a big, strong, entertaining, well-balanced vaudeville, dramatic and musical program. Mark Linder, in Roland West's one-act play. "The Criminal." supported by Martin Asomers and Charles North, gave de powerful presentation of the play. Bee Alma, Perry and Bae lifted the house with their brilliant banjo repertoire of grand opera selections and popular melodies. Humorous and startling balancing acts and juggling were featured by the Herrishima Brothers. Wm. Friend and Amy Lesser were ery against his fate in being chosen of all Denmark to avenge the murder of the king is rung out in tones of determination. Here is no petulant boy striving to avoid responsibility.

Bandelane has said that hatred is a precious liquor, which eats away the soul which holds it. In such a way does melancholy work, and in Forbes-Robertson's Hamlet, one can see the Robertson's Hamlet one can see th ing stage by stage. But, as has been noted there is an obvious strain of de-termination which persists through A hostile court and the lack of a confidential adviser make tremendous odds to strive against, and the spirit seems to beat itself in vain against "that inverted bowl we call the sky, but in spite of it all, the "fighting" character sticks. There is a virility in this conseption, but it is of the intellect rather than the personality. Some artists are blessed with so magnificent an impression of physical presence that it is at times a struggle to round out the mental in a corresponding deout the mental in a corresponding degree. The ascetic face and courtly de-portment of Forbest Robertson are sistent organist. The church was well-suited to the type he portrays. No more impressive scene occurs than that of the denomenent when king and queen and prince have gone out to-gether and the hawklike visage of the dead Hamlet stands in profile against the last background.

Another brilliant bit of emotional acting is treated in the audience of the strolling players before the court, when Hamlet, from his seat with will preach on Wednesday night. when Hamlet, from his seat with Ophelia, crawls slowly across the floor, keeping pace as it were with the plot of the tragedy, and hurls the damning explanation into his nucle's face. Gertrude Elfott's conception of Ophelia is finished in daintiness and refined impression. Her madness does not entail a wild unpleasing dishevel goes up. If men organize to raise not entail a wild unpleasing dishevel-ment, but the sweetness of expression with which one associates the person of this shrinking, fragile, little Shaksperean character is retained at all times. Hedge Planting

HE exterior of the home should be attractive as well as the interior, and great possibilities are found for improving the outward appearance of homes in flowers, vines and hedges.

Any house painted with some warm, cheerful color and surrounded with foliage will be homelike looking. Ugly staring windows are softened immediately by a few shading vines, and too high or too low doors and windows are easily remedied with the same means. It does not require a great yard to grow these plants that are most effective in improving the outside looks of a house.

The most striking thing you can plant is a hedge; it is the most use ful, too, for it serves as an inpenetrable screen and strong barrier in this day of fenceless yards. The more you trim a hedge the denser and thicker it grows. The trimmings can be rooted in wet sand and they grow with great rapidity.

Hedges are the most satisfactory of all property dividers for the Hedges are the most satisfactory of all property dividers for they are ornamental and remain green thrubut the year. They readily divide themselves into the tall and dwarf classes. Norway pines, arbor vitae and box hedges are the first, and California privet the second. But this last grows as high as is needed in home grounds and is being extensively used.

Any amateur can establish a hedge and this is a good planting season. California privet is now sold by all nurserymen and is very hardy.

A hedge that is to take the place of a fence should be planted in a tranch six or circle further wide. The depth will depend on the size of the rench six or eight inches wide. The depth will depend on the size of the plants. They should be set about twelve inches apart and stamped in firmly about the roots. Luther Burbank, well called the plant wizard, declares the practice of packing the earth-firmly about newly set out plants of all kinds is the true secret of success in starting them. In a little booklet he has written on this subject he says whenever setting out plants one should separate the roots gently with the fingers so they will not be matted. Set them in the trench or holes and fill the root spaces with fine soil, water thoroly, then finish by hard packing of the top soil.

Hedges planted solely for ornament are often broken by having fir trees or other tall growing plants set in among them. This is a trandsome style of landscape gardening, but amateurs should select the varieties to be combined with some care. The soft greens of some pines are very lovely alone, but do not combine well, So in selecting dwarf and tall shrubs for ormamental purposes choose those of similar varieties and nature.

"Sweet is the lore which nature Brings," — Wordsworth. That "there are more thing in hea

Too many stimulants, he said, caused the accidents at the Liverpool Steeplechase meeting, and if aviators did not stop drinking in excess it would stop aviation. Experts are united in their testimony that the air is subject to extraordinary changes in density and movement, and what are practically vacuums are not infrequent. The pilot, therefore, requires to have all his wits about him, and to be in a position to act immediately. Whatever weakens his adds appreciably to risk.

A BUSINESS CONSIDERATION.

Lindsay Crawford in The Globe: The boycott of Ulster trade began two years ago when the Catholics and Protestant home rulers were deprived of employment by a number of Belfast firms, and were forced to emigrate and seek work elsewhere. There has been a recrudescence of the boycott lately owing to the Carson campaign, not ably a mass meeting of Ulster business men to protest against home rule on the ground of the incapacity and intolerance of the Nationalists. Business here is practically unaffected by the political situation, but Belfast merchants are increasingly apprehensive of retaliation by a boycott, particu-larly if Ulster is excluded. They dread a prolongation of the crisis, and prefer the immediate passage of the bill to six years of agitation and sus-

NEED STERN HANDLING.

Editor World: Referring to the publication in the evening papers of the decision handed down and the penalties imposed by Magistrate Kings-ford upon the four young men who appeared in the police court today on a charge of stealing automobiles, I desire to enter a vigorous protest against the leniency of the sentence. These boys have been stealing cars and going for joy rides in them, and usually the car is very much the worse for wear when the owner eventually recovers it.

Three weeks ago, I left my automo oile standing on St. Patrick street near Bathurst street, and when came out of the house again the car gress of the concern. In 1889 he became general manager and director of the Huron and Eric Savings Co. of London, in which capacity he remained for 18 years. It was during his connection with the Huron and Eric that he became first interested in life insurance, and was elected a director of the Mutual life of Canada.

was gone, and I saw nothing more of it until I learned of its whereabouts, quite by accident, two days later. It was lying on Bathurst street above Eglinton avenue, where it had been set fire to. The loss to me in this case was between $600 and $700. I have little doubt that other owners of cars which have been stolen by young men which have been stolen by young me have been equally heavy losers.

I am not prepared to state positive ly that the boys who appeared in court car, but the offence was the same; machines lose heavily in such escapades, I do not think it fair that the perpetrators of the deed should be allowed to go without a severe penalty tion be accepted and date being imposed upon them. If they are the meet before April 24. to be let off as lightly as were the boys today, automobile owners will be absolutely without protection. cars until they are caught and heavily penalized. If they are given reason to think that all that will be necessary if they are arrested will be to induc their parents to give bond of $100 that their sons will behave themselves in thre, they will not be afraid cuntil after they have once appeared in In the meantime the autom bile owners must suffer, because lenient police magistrate does not wish to appear hard on the boys. He should remember that he has a duty to protect the citizens and their property, and unless he goes to extreme easures occasionally which are very expensive for owners of the cars, will continue. An example should be made of the boys who appear in court on such charges in order to prevent the recurrence of such actions.

No more delightful and elegant function has been seen in Toronto of late than the interesting recttal last evening at the Toronto Conservatory of Music by pupils of Miss Ethel Shepherd. The concert hall was filled to overflowing by an audience all in evening dress, and the platform was beautifully decorated with azaleas, ferns. Easter lilies, gigantic palms and softly shaded lights, artistic rugs and hangings. The windows were also defined by bands of lovely green and the entire surroundings made a most effective and spring-like background for the large choir of 50 young faces, who sang in the Rossini number. Many distinguished people were in the large and deeply interested audience, which included many of weight in the musical world. Miss Shepherd was wearing a lovely gown of delicate pink satin overlaid with diamante lace and with large bows of rich Dresden velvet, with diamond and ruby ornaments. Mrs. Ruth Cross was in a gown of Rose du Barri brocade partly elegant | Mintos and ner youngest son, the Hon vet, with diamond and ruby ornaments. Mrs. Ruth Cross was in a gown of Rose du Barri brocade partly veiled in lace and outlined with rhinestones, a bandeau of diamonds around her shapely coiffure. Mrs. Denison Dana's bionde beauty was well set off by a becoming dress of crystal net with white osprey in her hair. Miss Muriel Bruce was in a graceful gown of white with rose-colored tunic and diamond ornaments.

KELLEYITES PUT COLLEGIANS AWAY

Schneider Starts Well With Some Nice Hitting-On to Memphis, Tenn.

ARKADELPHIA, Ark., April 6 .- (Can. Press.)-Joe Kelley and his band of Toto Maple Leafs stopped off here today and played the local college nine an exhibition game; at least, it was billed as a game. The international Leaguers had the merriest kind of a time running bases, and Manager Kelley was tickled with the work, for it showed that the Leafs had at least wind. The score was 7 to 2, with the locals on the little end

Bradshaw again demonstrated that he will not do for Class AA. ball, and, while the only worked one innings, the sixth, he was the easiest kind of picking for the Bocal college boys, and it was the only pleasure that Arkadelphia had during the whole afternoon. Bradshaw was weak and wild. Castleton relieved him, but could hardly get the ball up to the plate. He gave the locals four hits and their only runs of the game during the time he was on the mound. The Leafs put in two good hours under a boiling sun at leasting practice before the game.

The college pitcher handed out eight tree transportations and "beaned" two men. The Kelleyites had a picnic with the club and hit the ball hard. Schneider got in right with two nice raps. He was doubleheaders in order to accommodate summer. There are only two vacant Sat and Sept. 12, when the ball teams are and Sept. 12, when the ball teams are away, the Leafs playing eleven week-ends at the island and the Waifs eight.

With beautiful weather prevailing, and the rah-rah boys and girls out in force, Toronto burlesqued the game, and practically the entire squad had a try-out, including Schneider, who replaced Jordan the last half of the game. His work enhanced the favorable impression made at Texarkans. Score:

It is hinted that doubleheaders will go on the bill, and that also the Hig Four may be boosted to a six-club lacrosse circuit at the annual meeting in Montreal on April 25, the extra pair to be selected from Ottawa, Quebec and Cornwall. Irish-Canadians are worse off than Tecumsehs with no grounds at all, but Kennedy says they'll be in line all right.

Torontos and Nationals have nothing to worry even if the worst should come, and they were reduced to a lacrosse series of home and home games for the championship of the Dominion Lacrosse Union.

J. M. Cameron of the Athletic Lacroses Club of St. Catharines, is not in favor of granting permission to that club to play Sunday games in the United States. Mr. Cameron is opposed to such a scheme and had no part in suggesting it. He is, however, in favor of the substitution of players during the progress of games, and will give that amendment his support at the annual convention on Good Friday.

T. Burns in Australia With String of Fighters

The Sydney, Australia, Evening News has the following:
Tommy Burns, the ex-champion heavy-weight boxer of the world, is in Sydney again. This time he is here as a manager, and he has Arthur Pelkey, a heavy-weight; Fritz Holland, a welterweight, and Lee Johnson, a featherweight, who is black, under his charge.

All arrived by the Oceanic Company's steamer Ventura, from America, and with them were Mrs. Burns and her two daughters, Mrs. Holland and Mike Comiskey, who is to train the boxers.

Jack Flanagan of the Newtown Olympic Club, for which Billy Howe secured the boxers soon after his arrival in America, met Burns and his party at the wharf and took the visitors to the club's stadium. After an inspection they went to Brighton-le-Sands Hotel, where Pelkey, Holland and Johnson will probably do their training.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Church and Mercantile Cricket League has been called for next Saturday night at the residence of President Eastmure, 110 Pembroke street, when the clubs will be divided into three sections, east, west and centre, and the fixtures arranged. The C. and M. trophies, the Eastmure cup and shield, are now on view in Dineen's window, and make a fine display.

MAITLANDS WILL HAVE FIVE CLUBS

Junior Champions Will Play in Brooklyn-Hustling Northern Club's Annual.

That the north end of Toronto, like Cornwall and St. Catharines, is one of the homes of lacrosse, was evinced last night at the annual meeting of the Mathiand Lacrosse Club at the Century Baptist Church. Over fifty members and players were present, and enthusiasm was the keynote of the gathering. The outstanding feature was the announcement that the club would this season be represented by five teams in active : ervice. Two of these will be members of the O,A,L,A,, one in the senior and the other in the junior series. The remaining three teams will be in the Toronto League. The junior series of the Toronto League constitutes a section of the juvenile series of the O,A,L,A, so in reality there are three teams in the larger association.

juvenile series of the O.A.L.A., so in reality there are three teams in the larger association.

The question of a trip to Brooklyn by the O.A.L.A. junior champions to play the O.A.L.A. decided to accept the date, June 27, offered by the United States team. The delegates to the O.A.L.A. convention were instructed to oppose the following amendments to the association rules, which will come up for discussion on Good Friday: 1. To allow O.A.L.A. teams to play in the United States on Sunday. 2. To have a referee and judge of play in the senior series. 3. To abolish the age limit in the Junior series. The remaining amendments were discussed, but it was thought advisable to leave it to the discretion of the delegates at the convention. The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand, despite the many trips made by the teams last season.

Officers were elected as follows: Hon. patrons, Mr. Walsh, G. T. Moore, A. V. Pickett, C. Cantwell, F. Sinkins, J. P. Scott, D. W. Robertson, A. E. Osler, D. C. Hossack, J. WINNIPEG EIGHT MAY GO TO HENLEY ALSO CANDIDATE FOR DIAMOND SCULLS

WINNIPEG, April 6.— The Winnipeg Rowing Club have practically decided to send an eight-oared crew to Henley, provided that the club's entry is accepted by the stewards, and with each day the enthusiasm of the members is increasing. When the scheme was first broached by Con Riley it was ought that only four members of the famous eight would be able to make the trip, and even as late as the annual meeting, it was thought that four seats in the boat would have to be filled with men who were not in the Canadian championship eight last year.

Since the annual meeting it has been asceriained that Frank Carruthers, bow and captains of last year's crew, and who was again elected captain at the annual meeting ten days ago, will be able to cross the Atlantic with the other members of the crew. This is, indeed, welcome news to both club members and the sporting fraternity of the city, as Carruthers is acknowledged to be on of the best oars in Canada, and his presence in the front will help the Winnipeg eight a great deal in their quest of the highest rowling honors in the world. With the announcement that Captain Carruthers will accompany the crew on the trip, if one is made, the number of last year's champions in the boaot will be live, namely. Con Riley, Marsh Baker, Jerry Aldous, Selby Henderson and Frank Carruthers. While it was announced that Dick Dennison. Ken Patton and E. B. Radle would have to forego the trip, the followers of the crew have renewed their hopes that one or more of these men will be able to get away.

It was also stated that Snapp Culver lit accompany the crew as spare man, but as Culver is a sculler it is tuought in some circles that he may intend to enter in the diamond sculls, which will be contested at the same time. Culver, aitho a trifle light, is one of the best scullers in America, as his showing at various regattas indicates, and he was only defeated in the Canadian championships last year on account of the choppy water. With the announcement that both Culver and Carruthers are the best pair that have sat in a sheel at any Woodstock are considering entering two teams in the W.F.A. this year. They will move their present intermediate team up into the senior ranks and form a new one to take its place.

Supporters and players of Wychwood F.C. will learn with regret that the popular player, Joe Pratt, has asked for a transfer thus early in the season. Joe, who was elected secretary for the present football year, is considered the best inside left in the city, and as a goal-scorer his name is known and feared by not a few custodians in the T. and D. League.

mychwood officials are consoling them selves with the fact that Steve Walker, late of Queen City, may be eligible to play at an early date. He is a sure starter for Mychwood when he gets his reinstatement papers. There will be few changes from last year's eleven. Findlay, who has been a popular hero in goal since Wychwood had a team, will guard the uprights, as of yore. Turney will take and give bumps at right back, and Bobble Wilson will punt them out at left back. Cameron will crawl around at right half, and Sandy Allan will make a bid for onother international cap at centre half. The first half was a brilliant exhibition of football, Gerrards having the best of the game. Chas. having the best of the game. Chas. Green scored the first goal from a rebound off the crossbar, heading the ball into the net. Salada scored next, John Burgain heading thru his own goal, giving West no chance. Gerrards then scored from a brilliant corner by W. Waredfrom Score: Gerrards 2, Saladas 1. The second half started in a blizzard. Gerrards protesting. However, the referee kept the game going, Saladas scoring a good goal. After fiften minutes play the referee stopped the game. Both teams would like to play the game over again on Good Friday afternoon. Final score: Saladas 2, Gerrards 2.

The Bank of Commerce Soccer Football Club team opened their season by playing Swansea on their own grounds Saturday under most adverse conditions. Snow fell practically thruout the whole period. The players were Hickman, Jones, Dennison, Bateman, McRobert, Ross, Witt, Weidner, Valentine, Barr and Curtice. The team, while showing plenty of good material to work upon, is in rather poor condition, but with good train ing ought to be able to quite hold their own in their division. Mike Barr, the well-known old-timer, was in good condition, and scored the only goal of the game. Hickman's saving was a feature thruout the whole period, and Curtice, a new player, made a splendid impression.

Want Township Council to Get Estimate for Don Bridge.

Property Owner Threatens Action Over Valley Road Drainage.

The property owners and ratepayers of the Don section of East York petitioned the York Township Council yesterday to ascertain the probable cost of a bridge across the west Don, alongside the C. P. R. and to consult the various railways and municipalities interested with a view to having such work undertaken. Frank Barber, engineer, said he had worked out an assessment of one cent per foot frontage. The owners of 3000 acres of land would pay a tax of three and a half dollars an acre for a period of forty years. The council decided to call a special meeting some day next week to discuss the matter fully.

Threaten Action.

A communication was read from Alex-

the matter fully.

Threaten Action.

A communication was read from Alexander Kennedy threatening legal action if a proper drainage was not made on Valley road, where the water had rendered his property useless for selling or building purposes.

Not a Street.

The residents of Woodville avenue, east of Pape, petitioned the council for a street and house lighting system. They claim that their street is the only one in the district without lights. The council held that Woodville avenue was not a street, so took no action.

Unregistered Property.

A deputation from the Progressive Ratepayers of Cedarvale asked that the property between Cedarvale and Woodbine avenues be registered, as those who bought the property could not get a mortage on it. The clerk stated that Messrs. Hynes and Grant, the property agents, in a letter received yesterday, had promised to register as soon as possible, but added that this promise had been made many times and never fulfilled.

The township solicitor will see that the property is registered or action will be taken.

MEETIN AT ISLINGTON OF ETOBICOKE COUNCIL

at Meeting.

The next meeting of the Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association, which will be held in the Annette Street School on April -½, promises to be an interesting one for west end citizens. Controller McCarthy has accepted the invitation of the association to be present, and will address the members on transportation as applied especially to West Toronto. It is expected that Mayor Hocken will also be present. R. Home Smith has signified his intention of attending the meeting, and will submit some car routes of his own which he considers necessary for the growth of the west end.

"Interesting Address.

Strong Objection.

A very behement objection to the resolution was uttered by Henry McCrae, who said the bill was a proper one to protect the people's interests. Many of the bylaws were carried by snap votes, which he considered very unfair. He thought the association should not have acted in the matter at all, but it appeared to him they were trying ta pass the resolution by a snap vote.

which form the new British Rugby Union held their first practice games.

From the reports of the captains it would appear that every club will be well represented in their first game on Saturday next. The Welst team seem to be particularly strong. Their three-quarters are very good, and after a few games should show form quite in keeping with the regular Welsh three-quarters. The forwards are also strong.

The South of England promise to put a strong team in the field, as also does the Irish, who are particularly strong in the front line.

The report from the Scottish team leads one to hope really big things for them. They would appear to be fairly strong in every position on the field, which, after all, is better than being strong in one and weak in the others. The North of England anw West of England teams also report very favorabley on the condi-

The general monthly meeting of the 'F, & D. was held last night at Occident Hall, and the largest attendance on record of delegates was present. Secretary Cahill of the U.S.F.A. spoke to members present and in brief echoed the welcome fact that the friendship between the D. F. A. and his association has been firmally cemented, and it only needed the confirmation of both bodies to provide for the arranging of a yearly international match. The international selection committees were elected as follows: England—Messrs. Moffatt, Harmer and Burns. Scotland—Messrs. Morgan, McPherson and McKenzie. Ireland—Messrs. Graham, Totten and another to be elected. Canada—Messrs. Givens and Robinson, and another to be appointed. The leaders in the different sections on July 25 will be eligible for the Charity Cup.

The following delegates will represent Hall, and the largest attendance on re-

England anw West of England teams allowed for the conditions of their men.

Considerable interest is being taken in the Overseas and Y.M.C.A. teams. Each of these teams will consist of men from countries other than the British isles. Several of them will be Canadian born, while others come from New Zealand, Australia and France.

At this time it might be interesting to those who are not conversant with the rules of the British code of rugby to give a few of the most important points of the game as played in this country. The teams comprise fifteen men a side, made tup of eight forwards, two halves, four three-quarters and a full back. (Some tasms play only seven forwards and an extra half).

The ball is kicked off from the centre of the field in the same way as our game. Both kicking and handling of the ball are used, while no signs or numbers are used to advise the players of what movement to take, each player playing in his own way. No forward pass, however, is allowed. In the event of the ball being kicked into touch it is put into play by the half back throwing the half back throwing dead in the field of play a scrimmage is formed for the two forward lines, the most popular formation being three, two, three, he believed in the event of the ball becoming dead in the field of play a scrimmage is formed of the two forward ines, the most popular formation being three, two, three, he believed into the centre of the scrum by the half back and it is the believed of the two forwards to push the opposing pack over the ball. Money Tightness Passing. The minister also took occasion to congratulate the country upon the way in which Canada's financial institutions and industrial enterprises had withstood the severe and world wide financial strain. So far as the financial stringency was concerned, Mr. White declared that the worst was over and that with easier money and increasing trade we would find our financial institutions inspired with confidence and courage for the future. The trade of the country for the year just closed will exceed in the year just closed will exceed in volume the bumper year ending March, 1913, and will far outrank the billion mark. Indeed, for the 11 months ending Feb. 28, 1914, the total trade of the Dominion exceeded one billion dollars and showed a gratifying increase in exports to the United Kingdom and the United States.

Many Tariff Changes.

The changes in the tariff affect no less than 62 schedules of the customs act, and on the whole vindicate the act, and on the whole vindicate the policy of the government in respect to protection for Canadian industries. The demands of the west for free wheat and flour duties was turned down, but some consolation was afforded that section of country by reduced duties upon harvester reapers, binders and movers, which are reduced from 17½ to 12½. An upward tendency is evident in the amendments proposed to the iron and steel duties, altho the bounties are not renewed, and there is no increase in the tariff upon pig dron and steel billets. By an amendement to the drawback clause, which deals with the administration of the Customs Act, manufacturers using pig fron are encouraged to use the Canadian instead of the American product. Increases in Duties.

There is an increased duty upon building stone partly or fully dressed, and caustic soda, chloride of lime and Surtax More Elastic. Surtax More Elastic.

The surtax clause of the Customs Act is to be amended so as to be more elastic, and, if necessary, more effective. At present the surtax against an unfriendly nation is an additional duty of $31.3 per cent. Under the legislation proposed today by Mr. White, the governor-in-council may fix the surtax in any case and make the extra tax 20 per cent. ad valorem.

$168,689,000. For that year the current expenditures of the government were $112,000,0000, leaving a surplus revenue over current expenditures of $56,630,366. The expenditures for that year aggregated $32,369,000 and left a clear surplus of over $24,000,000. Of this surplus $11,000,000 had been expended in the purchase of 3 per cent. Grand Trunk Pacific bonds guaranteed by the Dominion Government, and $2,200,000 had been loaned to the Montreal Harbor Commission.

For the fiscal year ending on March 31 last, the revenues of the government.

For the fiscal year ending on March 31 last, the revenues of the government were estimated at $183,000.000 or a falling off from revenues of the preceding year of nearly $6,000,000. During the first six months of the fiscal year there had been a gain of $5,499,065 but the falling revenues between October and March had turned this gain into a loss for the year of between five and six million dollars. tween five and six million dollars.

Increase in Debt.

The expenditures upon current account during the fiscal year ending March 31 last had aggregated $126,500,000, an increase of $14,500,000 over the preceding year. This left a surplus over current expenditures aggregating $36,350,000. The capital expenditures including railroad subsidies of $19,000,000 and the $15,000,000 loan to the Grand Trunk Pacific aggregated $57,000,000, so that the debt of Canada for the year was increased by $20,500,000. At the same time the financial minister pointed out that, in spite of the financial contingency, the revenues of the year closed had been sufficient to meet all current expenditures and also expenditures upon public works. also expenditures upon public works. The increase in debt had been entirely due to the large railroad subsidies including the subsidy to the Canadian Northern, which had been necessary in order to keep railroad construction afoot and prevent additional financial stringency.

Railroad Subsidies.

The gross debt had increased considerably more as the government had siderably more as the government had been compelled during the year to borrow at various times £3.000,000, £4.000,000 and £5,000,000 partly to retire maturing obligations, principally treasury bills, and partly for investment in what may be reckoned as assets of the Dominion. Thus there had been paid in railroad subsidies $20,000,000. Grand Trunk bonds guaranteed by the government had been purchased of the par value of $12,872.333. There had been paid on ioan to the those countries which admitted Americhased of the par value of $12,872,333. There had been paid on loan to the G. T. P. $8,500,000 and $5.312,000 had been advanced to the harbor commissioners of Montreal and Quebec. In this connection it was satisfactory to note that our last loan had been disposed of at 99. We had invested $24,000,000 in the Grand Trunk Pacific bonds, guaranteed by the government, but the investment, in Mr. White's opinion, was a wise one and highly commended by the British financiers.

Increase in Exports.

Wheat, non and wheat products free of duty. In short, it was up to us, if we saw fit, to accept the prompt of the United States for free trade in wheat-flour and wheat products between that country and Canada.

Price of Wheat.

It was urged he said, by those who favored the acceptance of this offer that the price of wheat was often perhaps usually, higher at the great milling centres of the United States, like Minneapolis, than it was in Canada.

It was also urged that by having free wheat the western farmer would ob-

Moreover the percentage of exports would show a corsiderable increase. Our exports brass, now on the free list, are now made subject to duty.

March 31, 1914.

"As for the financial stringency,"
worst is over. Money is easier and we should have before us a year of great production. The financial institutions of the country will act with prudence and caution, but they will also be inspired with courage and confidence."

True to National Policy.

Before announcing the tariff reso-lutions to be laid upon the table and become at once effective, the minister said that it was as a rule unwise to make changes in the tariff until the time arrived for a general revision, but changes in business conditions sometimes required amendments of certain schedules. The present government had inherited and would faithfully carry out the national poles. faithfully carry out the national policy enunciated by Sir John Macdon It would at all times be ready to make such changes as were necessary to guarantee adequate protection to all Canadian industries, including the basic industry of agriculture. (Ap-

This brought him, he said, to con sider the demand for free wheat. The present United States tariff imposed a duty of ten cents per bushel upon a duty of ten cents per bushel upon wheat and forty-five cents per barrel upon flour. The Canadian duty upon wheat imported from the United States was twelve cents per bushel, and upon flour sixty cents per barrel. The Underwood law, however, admitted free of duty to the United States wheat, flour and wheat products from those countries which admitted American wheat flour and wheat products

On the whole the government had decided that the wheat and flour duties should not be disturbed. It was hope! that with the completion of the Can-adian Northern, the Grand Trunk by lake, river and ocean, so that in the future so large a percentage of the farmer's profit would not be ab-sorbed by the transportation com-

Mr. White said that coke used for Mr. White said that coke used for fuel by manufacturers of pig iron was admitted free of duty from the United States, and it was proposed to establish coke ovens at Hamilton. The difficulty was the duty of 53 cents a ton on bituminous coal. Under the circumstances, the government had determined that importers of bituminous coal for the manufacture of coke to be used for smelting or foundry purposes should be entitled to a rebate of ninety nine per cent.

Free Trade Demanded. in diameter. The house was all attention when, immediately after the dinner recess. Minister White took up the section on agricultural implements. He said that Sir Wilfrid Laurier in preaching free food at Hamilton and Montreal was really preaching free trade. He now desired to say that when the Liberal party demanded free agricultural implements, it was really demanding free trade.

I have no right to object to the leader of opposition favoring free trade, but if he throws down that gage of battle, we will take it up gladly and cheerfully upon this side of the house." (Ap-

Continuing, Mr. White said that the Continuing, Mr. White said that the manufacture of agricultural implements had to pay a duty on practically everything he used in his plant and in his business, including stone, brick building material, engines, machinery, plant, iron, steel sheets, wire tubing chains, castings, etc. The duty upon these articles ranged from 20 to 30 per cent. In addition to this he paid 53 cents per ten upon the coal he used as fuel. Now in ordinary justice could this manufacturer who he used as fuel. Now in justice could this manufacturer who paid so many duties be stripped of all protection? If the Liberals were consistent in their demand for free agricultural implements they would have to favo rabolishing all the duties upon and manufactured all the raw and manufactured materials used by the implement manufacturer. He challenged them to announce such a platform. They would not done to the challenged them to announce such a platform.

the duties upon agricultural implements would close out seventy-seven factories in Canada, would scrap an investment of $45,000,000 and throw ten thousand men out of employment.

The government, however, was anxious to do what could be done for the farmer, and it was felt that upon one range of agricultural implements the duties might be reduced. The manufacturers of harvesters, binders, mowers and reapers enjoyed a special mowers and reapers enjoyed a special advantage because they had rebated to them practically all the duties they paid upon iron used in the manufac-ture of their product. These machines.

HALIFAX. April 6 .- The Hallfax seamer Seal is jammed in the ice in the Gulg of St. Lawrence, five hundred miles from Entry Island, according to a wireless message received by her owners tonight. The message said that the steamer, with 6,000 seals on board had been held fast for a week and that there was no immediate prospect of her release.

The owners of the Seal suggested that this intimation of the ice conditions in the waters about Newfoundland might warrant some slight hope that the missing sealer Southern Cross had not been wrecked but was caught in the ice. The Southern Cross, however, had left the Guig of St. Lawrence and was off the southern coast of Newfoundland when last significa-

BY NEW FEE SYSTEM

Hon. I. B. Lucas Introduced New Bill to Prevent Tax Dodging.

The provincial treasurer is camping, on the trail of those with large estates, who heretofore, by a wholesale distribution of property, have managed to escape the succession duties. In the future every estate will be made to render an account, and the tax laid upon them will be scaled according to size and imposed on a "direct taxation" basis, in which the beneficiary will pay from the amount of the oil estate which comes to him These amendments to the present Suc-cession Duties Act were announced vesterday afternoon in the legislature and a hill-embodying them was laid or the table by Hon. I. B. Bucas.
The treasurer explained that there had been considerable discussion diring the year over the privy council decision in the case of King v. Cotton, in Quebec, and that the popular impression was that the province was pression was that the province was trying to assess on property beyond its confines, but that this had been ruled against. The question of indirect taxation had been raised because the responsibility was placed on the executor or administrator. The beneficiaries are now made primarily hable, and a clause was inserted which decreed that before the issue of letters probate oath should be made by the administrator that he would furnish as a probate fee a bond for which the beneficiary would become liable. The executor might retain the amount out of the estate.

New Fee System. In the working out of the system there will be a new fee arrangement, and every estate will become liable. At the present time those over $200, 200 per $200 At the present time those over $200,-000 pay 5 per cent, and so on up to a specified limit. The minister was very frank in stating that the bill was designed to meet cases where the estate was distributed before the death of the testator. It was an evil which had the before the death of the testator. It was an evil which had to be dealt with and the situation was difficult to handle.

The pointed out that the custom was well established and that testators who did this usually escaped a large part of the tax to which they were liable. Under such circumstances it would be difficult to strike an equitable tax, so that all property which has been turned over without value since 1892 will be considered liable except in the case of gifts to be ordinarily expected. See the collect must be considered liable except in the case of gifts to be ordinarily expected. See the collect must be considered liable except in the case of gifts to be ordinarily expected. ATTEMPTED DELAY ON EASTERN STUB

Evasion of Succession Duty T. H. Lennox Wants Terms of Payment Settled by Railway Board.

WILL MOVE AMENDMENT

If It Carries, the Whole Question Will Be Hoisted.

If a suggestion that T. Henbert Lennex of North York will lay before he house respecting the East Queen street car service comes into effect, the whole matter will apparently be given nother indefinite "hoist." Following the passage thru committee of the bill dealing with the operation of cars on this stub line, Mr. Lennox will move committee of the house that the "terms for payment for such operation and the service to be given be determined by the Ontario Railway Board."
The decision of the committee was that the company should supply the cars and service, with the city looking offer the maintenance. The percentage after the maintenance. The new pro-posal would, in the minds of several, shelve the whole matter for an indefinite investigation by the railway board. In some quarters the amendment is looked upon as an attempt to delay the service for which the people are asking.

Austrian Loan Success Strengthens Market-Canadian Pacific Declined

LONDON, April 6.—Money and discount rates were easy today.

The plentiful supply of funds allowed easy carry-over arrangements for the settlement, but business failed to expand on the stock exchange, owing to the approach of the holidays. Gilt-edged securities were steady on the over-subscription of the London portion of the Austrian loan. Oil shares were in demand, but Paris and local offerings caused a sagging tendency in other directions.

Shown by Stock in Montreal Dealings.

MONTREAL, April 6.—The market drifted idly today, the volume of business being small and price fluctuations narrow and irregular. The one feature of interest was Iron, which showed a moderate degree of firmness in the expectation of a favorable announcement in the budget speech. In the morning it fluctuated between 32½ and 32½, closing there at noon, or just level with the final price of Saturday. In the afternoon it crept up another ½ to 33 and then relapsed to 32½, finishing unchanged on market dealings in about 1706 shares. The final range of quotations, 32¼ asked, 32½ bid, was up ¼ from Saturday.

Steel of the Canada and Scotia firmed up slightly as well as Iron. The common stock of the former company riging ½ on purchases of 50 shares. Scotia was inactive, but quoted ½ up to 73 bid at the close. Elsewhere the market was exceptionally dull.

Bank of Montreal shares were fairly active at 239, and Commerce at 209½.

In the unlisted department the feature was Wayagamack, which jumped 3¼ to 33½, making a rise of 4½ points in two days. In the late trading it fell back %, finishing 32½, with a net gain of 2½.

LAKE FREIGHTERS

Lakes Starts Next Week.

The Canada Steamship Lines, Limited, who control-practically all the steamship freight business between Toronto, Montreal and Fort William, have fixed April 15 as the date on which they will open the season. On that date forty-nine freight steamers will be put in service between Toronto and Fort William. In addition, eleven of the great lake freighters that are too large to come thru the canal, will then be placed in commission. This will mark the first season of the W. Grant Morden, the largest freighter on the great lakes, which is controlled by this line and which was launched last week.

by this line and which was launched last week.

Officials of the Northern Navigation Co. state that the middle of April will see the boats of that line in service between Sarnia and Fort William. This will mean a resumption of the service to the west, via G. T. R. to Sarnia, thence by steamer, from which connection is made with the G. P.

The C.P.R. state also that their line of steamers between Port McNicoll and Fort William will be ready for service by April 15.

Peterson Lake was very strong, at the opening, selling up to 44%, and there seemed to be an order in the market to take all the offerings around 44½, but avidently on account of the weakness in the rest of the list orders were withdrawn, with the idea of picking up the stock at lower levels. There were also rumors of large amounts of long date stock coming due next week, but it is stated that most of this stock is already sold and will not come on the market. From the action of Peterson there seems to be enough buying power to look after all the stock that comes on the market.

Dome Lake remains the outstanding feature of strength in the Porcupines. The insiders seem willing to take this stock on every reaction, and when the market turns up again it looks as if Dome Lake will lead the advance.

On Wednesday, April 8, a special general meeting of the Jupiter shareholders will be held in Montreal to consider an agreement entered into by the Jupiter directors with the McKinley-Darragh & Savage Company. The latter company recently held a meeting, at which this agreement was confirmed by the shareholders of that company.

A great deal of discussion has from time to time appeared in the press as to the real meaning of the agreement between the two companies, and much comment thereon has been indulged in, which has indicated that the agreement was not thoroly understood. An outline of the terms of the agreement is as follows:

The McKinley-Darragh Company has larged taken possession and begun work

$30,000. If, at the conclusion of this expenditure, the engineer decides that the property has shown up as favorably as the report of Mr. Robbins, the general manager of the Hollinger Company in dicated, then the McKinley Company is to pay off the bonded indebtedness of the Jupiter Company, in full, with interest, and to deposit in the treasury of a new company, to be formed to take over the Jupiter property, $40,000, for further development. Upon doing this the new company is to transfer to the McKinley Company 50 per cept. of the stock, and an equal amount to the old Jupiter Company, to be held by the Jupiter Company for its present shareholders.

It is confidently expected that long before the expenditure of the money thus provided, sufficient ore will have been developed to justify the erection of a mill for the treatment of the output, and it is a part of the agreement that not only the money for this mill shall be provided, but for such development work as is desirable until the property is on a paying basis. Any money provided by the McKinley people after the expenditure of the sum of $125,000, which includes the bonds with interest, is to be repaid out of the proceeds of the mill. This financial arrangement is a very comprehensive one, and has been entered into to safeguard the company from the great danger an inefficient financial arrangement had already subjected it to. It may be said that lack of comprehensive financing is perhaps the greatest difficulty of mining companies, as the assets are not of a kind that can be readily pledged when ready money is exhausted.

While the McKinley people may congratulate themselves on having got at an advantageous price a half interest in a most promising property, the Jupiter shareholders, on the other hand, have the satisfaction of knowing that their financial troubles are over, and it is felt that the property is one of sufficient promise to justify an expectation that even one-half of its net profits will be a very handsome return on the stock at any recent pr mandsome return on the stock at any recent prices.

It is anticipated that an overwhelming majority of the Jup'ter shareholders will ratify the agreement with the McKiniey-Darragh Company.

COBALT, April 6.—A station has been cut at the bottom of the 80-foot winze below the 200-foot level at No. 1 shaft at the Gould, and within a few rounds it is expected to cut the vein, which dipped from the workings on the east, at a depth of 40 feet. It was on this vein at the 200-foot level that the company ran into ore from which a 10-ton shipment, running 3500 ounces in silver, was made in February last.

It is proposed to continue sinking operations in the winze when work on the vein is under way. The vein dipped slightly and should be encountered within 10 feet. It showed two inches of bigh grade at the point where it left the working.

On the 200-foot level 100 feet of doc.

In London, bar silver closed unchanged at 26 15-16d per ounce.
In New York: commercial har silver

The mining market was dominated entirely yesterday by the weakness in Big Dome. Peterson Lake was very strong early in the day, and would have undoubtedly sold higher than it did if the general market had held. Traders seeing the rest of the market weak, sold Peterson down in the afternoon to 43. Dome Extension sold down to 11c. Nipissing was stronger, selling up to $6.18. The rest of the market was about steady.

Big Dome was weak selling down to $9.75. Brokers have endeavored to get some satisfactory reason for the weakness in this stock, but inside interests seem unwilling to give out any news It is just about time that the public were informed what is the matter. Shareholders should have some rights.

Dome Extension sold down to 11c. It has been said for some time that Big Dome was going to finance this company, but that company seems to be busy looking after itself at the present time.

Chambers-Ferland holds very strong around 20½. It is reported on the street that some very good finds have been made on this property lately, which accounts for the strength in the stock.

Nipissing was strong, selling up to $6.18. There is a large outstanding short interest in this stock, and the shorts have been disappointed at the small amount of stock that has come on the market since the declaration of the dividend. If the shorts should try to cover their outstanding commitments there would be a sharp raily.

McIntyre was steady around $2.10, most of the buying coming from inside interests. It is stated on reliable authority that the shipments for the month of March amounted to $52,000, and that ore in sight at present amounts to $1,200,000. This is an excellent showing and McIntyre will no doubt be one of the speculative favorites in the next advance in the market.

Peterson Lake was very strong, at the opening, selling up to 44%, and there lows:

The McKinley-Darragh Company has already taken possession and begun work. It is to proceed with this work with all reasonable haste, expending under the direction of one of the ablest engineers on the continent a minimum sum of $30,000. If, at the conclusion of this expenditure, the engineer decides that the property has shown up as favorably as the report of Mr. Robbins, the general in 10 feet. It showed two inches of bigh grade at the point where it left the working.

On the 200-foot level 100 feet of development has been done on the vein, which shows about 60 feet of high grade ore shoot. A raise will be put up some 70 feet to test the vein above the level. The only work being done at No. 2 shaft consists of a crosscut heading across the lake from the 185-foot level. Another shipment of one is expected from the property about the latter part of the present month. The only shipments made to date were the 10-ton consignment in February and a similar shipment in December of last year.

Announcement is made of an annual meeting of the Rea Consolidated Gold Mines of Porcupine, to be held in Toronto, April 21, at which it is proposed to pass a resolution authorizing the directors to enter into an agreement with Charles Millar, president of the Mines Leasing and Development Co., which took over the Reddington lease on Rea ground, for the sale to him of the mine, together with plant, machinery and all other Rea assets other than cash on hand, for 225,000 full paid shares, par value $7, in a 1,000,000-share company, to be incorporated to take over the lease now held by the Mines Leasing and Development Co. Millar and his associates agree to provide such new company with $20,000 in cash with which to continue operations.

CHICAGO, April 6 .- Chances that the ernment crop report tomorrow will Manitoba osts-No. 2 C.W., 41½c; No. 1 C.W., 40½c, lake ports. market closed easy at %c to %c net decline. Corn finished with a gain of 1/2c to 1/2c, oats up 1/4c to 1/2c, and provisions varying from a shade off to 5c advance.

Belief in a bearish official report on the growing crop in this country altho the growing crop in this country altho of prime importance, was by no means the only influence causing the wheat market to sag. Contrary to what was expected, northwestern receipts were liberal and world's shipments enlarged. Besides about 2,000,000 acres in western Kansas, which had been rather dry, reported general rains, and Liverpool sent word of cheaper offerlings in Russia. Cash demand, too, was slow and export bids out of line, both at the seaboard and by way of the gulf.

Corn Was Strong.

Despite free offerings from Argentine all along the coast from the St. Lawrence to Texas, the corn market here turned strong. Shortage of corn for quick domestio use by interior states was said to be growing more urgent. The Missouri April report disclosed only one-third of a supply, compared with a year ago.

Weather that meant delay for seeding brought independent firmness to oats.

Provisions rallied on account of a fair demand from the south. At the outset, however, the market seemed to be headed down grade in sympathy with a break in the price of hogs.

MRS. FLORA DRUMMOND SHRIEKED AND SHRIEKED

And as a Result She Was Remove ed From Police Court

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON. April 6.—"General" Mrs. Flora Drummond, the militant suffragette, shrieked so loudly when she was arraigned today at the police court in connection with the suffragette disturbance at the Unionist demonstration in Hyde Park on Saturday, that she had to be forcibly removed. She would not allow either the magistrate or the prosecuting attorney to utter an audible word.

When Mrs. Drummond entered the prisoners' enclosure, she shouted at the top of her voice that she would not permit any one but herself to speak, because, she said. the magistrate and the police courts were doing the dirty work of Premier Assembles.
