REPORTS OF THE CLERGY

IN CHARGE OF PARISHES OR MISSIONS, READ AT THE MEETING OF THE DIOCESAN SYNOD, HELD IN ST. STEPHEN, JULY, 1898.

INTRODUCTION.

We have reason to believe that the issuing of the reports from the clergy on the work in their respective parishes, and the lists of subscribers to the mission work of the diocese, is looked for with interest by the members of the Church. The report of this year is of more than ordinary interest because we have entered upon a new order of things. On January 1st, 1898, the long talked of union of the Diocesan Synod and the Diocesan Church Society was consummated, and the old Diocesan Society Report is a thing of the past. But the change after all is a change in name only, for the work of the Church, so well and so faithfully carried out by what was known as the Diocesan Church Society for over fifty years, has not come to an end, but will still be carried on by the Diocesan Synod, and carried on, too, on nearly the same lines as in past years. It has been found necessary to make a few changes, which, after due consideration, have been thought advisable, but they are very few, and of minor importance. One of the alterations which have been made is the changing of the close of the financial year from the thirtieth of June to the thirty-first of December. It is for this reason that the Report for 1898 has not been sent out earlier. It may be well to quote here the words of the Canon on this subject, which are as follows:

Each rector, incumbent, or missionary (and, in case of a vacancy of any parish or cure, the churchwardens) shall furnish the Secretary of the Board, on or immediately before the twentieth day of June in each year, with a statement in detail of the amount of all contributions from the parish or mission for Home Mission purposes during the year, so far as the same shall have been received or pledged; and shall furnish a final statement of such contributions to the Secretary on or before the thirtyfirst day of December, which final statement shall be accompanied by an account and payment in full of all contributions to the Synod for Home Mission purposes received during the year.

This is followed by a direction to the Board of Home Missions to issue a report as follows:

The Board shall, as soon as practicable, after the thirty-first day of December in each year, issue a report which shall contain a list of con-tri butions and collections actually received during the preceding year, and such other information as they shall deem proper.

This Report is issued by the Board of Home Missions in accordance with the above direction. In addition to the list of contributions, the Board have printed the reports from the clergy. No provision has been made in the new canons requiring reports from the clergy, but the Executive Committee recognizing the importance and interest of such reports, and not wishing to depart from the practice of the past in this respect, requested his Lordship the Bishop to ask the clergy to prepare reports to be read at the annual meeting of the Synod, as has been the custom at the annual meeting of the Diocesan Church Society, and it is gratifying to state that every clergyman responded to this request, and for the first time on record we have a report from every clergyman in the diocese in charge of

We ask a careful reading of these reports, for they show something of the work which is being done by the clergy and laity throughout the diocese.

In the report there will also be found a financial statement from the treasurer of the Synod. In connection with this we desire to call attention to the fact that although all the parishes have been filled, if the amounts from the aided parishes were all paid in up to date, there would be a deficiency of about $500 for the year.

It is gratifying to learn that the contributions from the selfsupporting parishes have been larger than for some time past, and we feel that as the Church people recognize the claims and needs of the Church, they will gladly and liberally contribute to them.

We cannot close without a reference to the loving remembrance of the mission work of the Church in the diocese by the late Reverend Simeon Jones Hanford, who was himself an earnest and faithful labourer for so many years in that work, and who has bequeathed so generous a sum to the mission funds of the diocese.

In concluding this brief introduction, we desire to express our confident hope that the members of the Church in the diocese will do their utmost for its maintenance and prosperity, and we would ask their united and earnest prayers for God's blessing upon all these efforts for the advancement of His Kingdom, and the glory of His name. ### ADDINGTON AND ELDON - REV. JAMES SPENCER.

There have been no material changes in this parish since my last report. The work of the Church has gone along without anything to disturb the harmony of the parish or to prevent the development of spiritual life among the parishioners. The services have been regularly and punctually held, and the attendance at all the means of grace has been fair.

Several losses and additions have been made in the number of the congregation at Campbellton, while the outlying districts have been looked after, as far as circumstances of weather and roads have permitted. The small church at Campbellton has been painted and renovated on the outside, and the time-worn fence around the church lot has been removed to give place to a better one. Mr. Shives is very kindly supplying the material for this free of charge, and several men belonging to the congregation are erecting it without cost to the parish.

There are usually three or four services each Sunday in this parish and two Sunday-schools. As a rule the services are hearty, and the work of the choir and teachers most commendable. The lady, who for eighteen years has had charge of the organ at Campbellton, has now resigned. Her faithful services will be long remembered. Miss Eva Spencer has taken Miss Murray's place. The ladies of our Guild have been doing helpful work during the past year in raising funds for the rectory, which still has a debt of nearly three hundred dollars.

There are but few among our congregation in a position to afford much financial support. A large number of our men earn but small wages, and what with their house rent, taxes, and everything in the way of food supplies to buy, many of them are very closely run; quite a number of them earn less than three hundred dollars a year, still they help as best they can; and now we have adopted the weekly envelope offertory system they may, by giving a little weekly, give more in the end. I have made a personal canvass of every person in the congregation upon the subject, and have put the system into operation at the request of our last Easter meeting. We know now exactly what is promised, and hope to see the conditions fulfilled.

We have tried to assist the work of the Church beyond the limits of the parish and diocese as heretofore, but our contributions have been necessarily small.

With the assessment and the expenses of carrying on our work we have to raise at least nearly seven hundred dollars yearly, and this does not include anything for repairs on rectory, so that we find our resources taxed to the utmost limit. Still we would not dare to complain, for as the work is God's we must believe that He is able and ready to lead us aright so long as we trust in His fatherly hand.

It is with pleasure that we are able to realise that perfect good will exists between rector and his parishioners, and it is earnestly desired that his services may be made an eternal blessing to many.

There are willing hands and hearts ready to assist in carrying on the work, and we cannot but hope that a blessing will be theirs for anything done for the cause of Christ and His Church.

The church at Dawsonville is well cared for and kept in spotless order by the Dawson's and others of the congregation. The rector is always welcomed among them as well as by those living in the different other little settlements. The winter up here is very long and cold and the greater part of the people find their hands full to earn a mere living. It is no unusual thing to see the little children in the country running about in the winter barefooted in four or five feet of snow. Want of proper clothing, as well as want of thrift, prevent many from attending the services of the church, but they are visited and instructed in their homes or in some building borrowed for the purpose of service or instruction.

His Lordship the Bishop kindly sent a box of Bibles last Christmas, which were distributed among the poorer children, and received with gratitude.

In conclusion, I must thank the Board of Home Missions for its continued grant, without which this parish could not maintain its work, while it is very necessary that our people should feel that upon them rests the duty of supporting the work. Should the time come when it is possible to get along without a grant, I feel sure the parish will be ready to relieve the Board of the amount now given.

To God we owe constant praise and thanksgiving for His many and continued mercies and blessings. To His glory, through Jesus Christ, may all our efforts be directed till the church militant becomes the church triumphant.

ALBERT - REV. ALLAN W. SMITHERS, B.A.

I entered upon the work of this mission on the eighth day of June, 1898, and so cannot attempt to give an extended account of the condition of the Church in the County of Albert.

It may therefore suffice to say that so far I have been received with the greatest kindness everywhere, and by all men, and that I firmly believe that the Church will win her way and hold her own, and more than her own, if we are only faithful to the charge committed to our care.

I am not going into ancient history, to refer to past neglects and past mistakes; it is for us to make the best of our present opportunities, and to sow the seed now, that others may reap hereafter.

Difficulties — and grave difficulties — doubtless exist, but I feel that I have been sent not to chronicle, but to overcome, them; and, in my weakness, I cast myself upon the love of my brethren, relying upon their sympathy, and asking the prayers of the whole Church.

During the last three weeks I have visited Hillsborough, Hopewell, Riverside, Albert, Harvey, New Ireland, Church Hill and Mechanics' Settlement, and have discovered over one hundred people who claim to be members of the Church of England. This progress throughout the county is suggestive, not so much of rapid promotion as of rapid locomotion. However, the work is stimulating and the results are in higher hands.

Some of the churches are in good repair; two, however, are almost in ruins. Services have so far been held in the parish church, and in halls at Albert, Hillsborough, Church Hill; and in Mechanics' Settlement the use of a handsome structure, built by the Presbyterians, has been kindly placed at my disposal.

I wish to express here my sense of obligation to the Rev. A. J. Cresswell, who, at great personal inconvenience, drove me from Hillsborough to Riverside and introduced me to some members of the Church, and who also has given me a great deal of information that will be extremely useful to me in my attempt to work this large mission.

The condition of the Church here is certainly not satisfactory, after a vacancy of twelve years, but we are not in despair. In. fact there is no such word as despair in the bright lexicon of Albert.

We do not seek the pity of the diocese, but we do ask for the sympathy, the love and the prayers of our brethren in our efforts for His is glory, till the to raise once more the standard of the Church. The truth is, that the flag which was at half-mast has been run out to the peak, and by God's help we must keep it there. In closing I must ask the Board of Home Missions to deal very gently with this mission, and we recognize with gratitude the generous treatment so far meted out to us. To the principle of assessment we offer no academical objection; we merely object to the assessment itself. Give us time to view the beauties of that system at a respectful distance, and meanwhile we will endeavor to do our best for ourselves and for others after awhile. Charity begins at home, but does not stay there. So much for Albert.

And I would now ask the indulgence of the Synod to say a parting word on behalf of my first and well-beloved mission of Waterford and St. Marks, which I have just left after eight years of hard but happy service. This mission I served as a deacon for one year, and as a priest for seven years, and I think it only right to acknowledge here and now the unfailing kindness I have ever received from the parishioners of that gallant little mission; to acknowledge their loving obedience, their noble generosity, their kindly forbearance and 'd eir unswerving loyalty. I am glad to be able to state that my old mission was not left vacant upon my removal to Albert. The Rev. Arthur A. Slipper is now in charge of it; I predict for him a happy pastorate in the new work which he has undertaken; I feel confident that under his zealous efforts the mission of Waterford and St. Marks will be true to its past record and go forward by leaps and bounds; and I wish him God speed in the work which he has so splendidly begun.

ANDOVER - REV. S. BACON HILLOCK.

I began work in the parish of Andover December 5th, the second Sunday in Advent. The spirit of peace has been in our midst during the seven months past, and I sincerely hope and pray that the "fruit of the spirit," "against which there is no law," may be with us through the coming days.

Mission Church—Clenburn District. Services are held first Sunday in each month, 3.30 P. M.; third Sunday, 10.30 A. M. celebration of the Holy Eucharist. ld first O A. M. of this seating utmost. The responses are hearty. The singing is enthusiastic. The whole congregation act as choir, and they do their part with earnestness. This mission carries the gospel to a number of people who otherwise might not hear its sound once a year.

St. John's, Medley Memorial, Church—Four Falls District. Services are held second Sunday, 7.30 P. M.; fourth Sunday, 10.30 A. M. As yet there is no regular time for the administration of the Blessed Sacrament in this district. The people seem interested. The congregation, as a rule, is equal to the size of the church. The responses are not as hearty as they might be; but this, no doubt, is due to a lack of prayer books. We hope to be able to overcome this difficulty in a few months. Until recently we have not been able to have much music in our worship. Now we have a new organ, on which thirty-five dollars have already been paid. A small choir has been organized, and 1 have begun giving instruction in the singing of Church music.

St. George's Church—Bairdsville District. Services are held second Sunday 10.30 A. M. celebration of the Holy Eucharist; fourth Sunday, 7.30 P. M. The work here has been satisfactory so far. The congregations have more than met our expectations. The responses are hearty, and the people seem to love their Church. A Sunday-school will be organized shortly, and this I will visit occasionally for the purpose of giving catechetical instruction.

Trinity Church—Village of Andover. Services are held Fridays, 7.30 P. M.; first Sunday; 10.30 A. M., celebration of Holy Eucharist, and evening prayer, 7.30 P M.; second Sunday, 3.30 P. M.; third Sunday, 7.30 P. M.; fourth Sunday, 3.30 P. M.; and on every fifth Sunday, 10.30, A. M. and 7. 30 P. M. On the third Sunday a special service for the children is held at which in place of a sermon catechetical instruction is given. The congregations, although they do not always fill the church, are all that can be expected. The responses are hearty. There is a well organized choir and the rendering of the music is unusually good. The work here has been carried on with a good will by all parties concerned. The Woman's Aid Society has contributed largely towards paying the parish debt. The cemetery has been enlarged and improved. A new fence has been erected about the same, the wire for which was donated by the Page Wire Fence Co. Other donations were as follows :----The sum of $14.00 for repairs on organs, by several millmen ; a large lamp over the front entrance to the church, and a brass altar-cross by Mr. and Mrs. C. LeB. Miles. An oak chair for sanctuary by Mrs. Pickett and family. A lot of land adjoining the cemetery was given as an extension to the same by Mr. Wm. Hoyt. Up to date there has been no trouble in raising money for all purposes.

Services, 123; communions made, 363; baptisms, 5; marriages, 6; burials 2.

I have visited every family and every individual within the bounds of the parish who is a member of the Church or who is in the habit of attending its services.

BATHURST-REV. THOMAS W. STREET, B. A.

Two years ago I reported that "a marked degree of quiet and peace" had prevailed in this parish since I assumed the charge; and I may safely affirm that the same condition exists to this day.

The attendance at the church services is not only good, but shows a notable increase. During the almost three years of my incumbency the indebtedness of the parish has been entirely wiped out, the rectory, as well as the church edifice itself, is kept properly insured, which was not the case before; new chandeliers and lamps have been placed in the parish church, and the grounds surrounding them put in proper order, and today the parish is in better condition, financially, than it has been for many long years. I cannot forbear mentioning the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Payne, who freely and graciously gave to the church corporation a deed of the property on which the new church at Tetagouche now stands. This building will, I think, be ready for consecration before the next annual meeting of Synod.

Of the forty-two persons confirmed during my incumbency, more than one-half are regular, and the remainder occasional, communicants. None have wandered from the Church.

Notwithstanding these marks of progress and growth I am reluctantly obliged to say that, in my judgment, the time has come when I ought to give up my present charge and allow another to carry on the work. I am satisfied that it would be better for the interests of the Church that a change should be made. I need not discuss this point here, but shall refer the whole matter to my Diocesan, whose decision must determine my future movements. c chair for adjoining be by Mr. in raising

BLISSVILLE AND GLADSTONE-REV. HORACE E. DIBBLEE, M. A.

This mission is perhaps better known as Fredericton Junction—the name of the village which forms its centre. As it is now in its fourth year, and many persons are beginning to recognize its existence as one of the more promising young missions of the diocese, I may be permitted in this report to answer a few every day questions.

Where is it ?-On the main line of the C. P. R., twenty-two miles from Fredericton and forty-five miles from St. John.

What is it ?—A thriving little village where many of the C. P. R. employees reside, where there is an extensive lumber manufactory, and where several roads from the neighboring settlements converge, the gathering centre of an industrious and growing population. Three miles distant is situated the largest lumber mill in the county, where a number of men find ready employment.

A date to be remembered !- December 10th, 1894, when the first Church of England service was held at Fredericton Junction.

The field of work !---This missionary field now embraces the two parishes of Blissville and Gladstone.

What has been done !—Twenty-two adults and infants baptized; eighteen candidates confirmed; a Sunday-school organized with thirty scholars, and an ardent desire for our Church's services awakened in the homes and hearts of many who have not hitherto known the Church. Average congregations 125 and 70; members of the Church about 90.

What we need most !—A church for our worship; a building lot has been secured, upwards of $500 have been already raised, and the people are most enthusiastic in their desire that the work of building should begin at once. They have shown their willingness to help themselves; but for only fourteen families, none of which are rich, the undertaking assumes a most serious aspect.

However a church must be built ; and, please God, at no very distant day, the liberality of our Church people in New Brunswick will ensure that it shall be built!

We know that our little mission has had the smpathy of all, in the heavy losses it has sustained during the past year.

The removal to St. Paul, Minn., of Mr. Henry Miller and his family, has caused a serious break in our ranks from every point of view. There was nothing too great for Mr. Miller to undertake for the Church, which, in his older years, he came to love, and into the full membership of which, just prior to his departure from us, he became enrolled. In his family, our choir recognized the right arm of its strength, while to the missionary they were regarded as ever-ready and efficient co-workers.

But what has brought the heaviest burden of sadness to all hearts was the sudden death of Henry Allen Thomas. He was taken from us in a moment one evening last March, just as we were returning from our evening service, to the fullness and beauty of which he had contributed his usual share of hearty, devotional aid.

In his death the Church in this diocese loses one of the most faithful and untiring of its lay-workers, one of the strongest and best equipped of its exponents.

And yet it is here in this infant mission of the Church, whose every association speaks of him, that his loss will be realized most deeply.

Whatever, in God's providence, the growth here may be, it will never be forgotten how earnestly and unweariedly Mr. Thomas contributed to its first seed sowing.

We deplore our loss, but he has left to us a splendid heritage, which will abide for long years to come, the life-pattern of a layman's loyal devotion to his Church, and a personal character above reproach.

BURTON-REV. HORACE E. DIBBLEE, M. A.

Steadily and uneventfully has the work of the Church been carried forward during another year. It is not with us so much a matter of large returns, as of continuous and patient labor. If, during the time for which we now report, only ten have been added to our number in holy baptism, this at least may belp to encourage us, that even a smaller number have been taken from us by death Several candidates have been prepared for the Laying on of Hands, and they will be admitted to that privilege we hope during the month of August. In these respects at least our work would seem to indicate progress, viz., in the increased number of baptisms, in the larger congregations at S. John's church, and in the improved financial condition of the parish. Last year $424.36 (exclusive of the endowment) were contributed by our people towards the parochial and missionary purposes of ndertake for ve, and into arture from cognized the they were

John's ne parish. ontributed urposes of the Church, which, compared with the amount contributed three years ago, shows a very marked increase. We trust that this growing liberality may be accepted as an index of a still larger and more essential growth.

Our branch of the Women's Aid Association continues to be an active auxiliary to our work. Not being desirous of possessing an endowment fund sufficiently lars 5 to threaten the loss of individual effort on the part of our prople, our branch of this society will now cheerfully work for the complete restoration of our church property. With this object in view much has been already done, and before the close of the year much more will be accomplished.

Our contributions to the D. C. S. last year amounted to $46.91, over and above the children's offerings. That amount I believe will be increased this year by one-half; upwards of $60 are already assured for the Home Mission Fund.

The report from this parish closed last year with an expression of personal gratitude for the generous labor of a devout and zealous priest, who has since been admitted into the Church at Rest. In our church yard, near that altar where for many years his faithful ministrations were devoted for his people to his God, the mortal body of that good man awaits the resurrection. In the hearts of the people of Burton, as in the substantial position of this parish to-day, there is ample testimony borne to that fruit-bearing ministry and saintliness of life which characterized the Rev. Richard Simonds.

CAMBRIDGE-REV. A. J A. GOLLMER.

There is nothing of very great importance to aunounce in this our fourth annual report, and the first report to the Synod since the amalgamation of the D. C. S. and the Synod.

I am thankful, however, to be able to report that God has given me health and strength to fulfil the various duties of the mission according to the ability given me. The winter of 1897 will long be remembered as an exceptionally severe one. This hindered many from attending the so vices of the Church who had not sufficient love for their Church to enable them to surmount difficulties.

The Rectory Fund has steadily advanced in spite of the many calls on people's pockets, the debt being reduced over one hundred dollars during the past year; there is now left about two hundred and sixty dollars to be raised.

I have baptized four infants, all of whom were baptized in church. Three couples were married,—two couples in St. Luke's church, Waterborough. I have buried one adult and two children.

The work at Chipman and Coal Creek has been carried on as usual during the past year.

I have been in this mission about four years, and feeling that a change would be beneficial both to myself and parishioners, it is my intention to resign my mission as soon as I can get another sphere of labor, trusting that the work accomplished, however feebly or imperfectly, may be blessed by the Great Head of the Church.

CAMPOBELLO - REV. W. H. STREET, B.A.

In reporting from this parish I have in the first place to acknowledge our indebtedness to the Rev. H. Montgomery for his clear and forcible statement of the needs of the diocese during his visit to this mission in the index of the diocese during his visit to this mission in the interest of home missions. We cannot, therefore, be blind to the fact that the scriptural mode of giving, set forth also in the papers furnished for circulation, is the only legitimate and successful means of dealing with church finance, and I do trust my people will learn to recognize this truth.

The public services during the year have been regular, well attended, and reverently rendered.

On the 7th of June last I baptized three adults, making thirteen adults baptized since I entered upon the charge of this parish.

A "rood screen," executed by Ross & McPherson, of Sussex, has lately been placed in the church—the gift of Mrs. Cochrane, of England, in loving memory of her parents, Captain and Mrs. Robinson Owen. The inscription is now being made ready by Mr. Rogerson, of St. John, the well-known sculptor.

In the Sunday-school we still keep to "The Rev. Walter Gwynne Lessons." (Thly for the past year, changing from "The Manuals" to his "Bible Lessons for the Christian Year," we find them most helpful in the school and at the different homes. two hun-

I trust she will forgive my referring to this, yet it is only one of her many noble and Christian offerings to our church and parish.

CANTERBURY STATION, SKIFF LAKE, MCADAM JUNCTION, BENTON-REV. BERNARD BARTON.

Canterbury Station-I was only appointed to this parish in October last. I found on my arrival in the village four families of Church people and two female communicants. The entire parish cannot boast of a single male communicant. A Sundayschool had been in existence some time before my arrival, but the teaching was undenominational. Definite Church teaching is now given at monthly children's services and Church S. S. leaflets are used by the teachers. The children are further instructed in the Church catechism at classes held weekly in the rectory. For adults, a few classes were held last winter for the study of the prayer-book, but very few availed themselves of this opportunity to gain a further knowledge of Church principles. The spiritual state of the parish is at a very low ebb. The church has been enriched with two new frontals, white and red, brass cross and vases sent out by friends from England, and a credence given by a friend in Woodstock. The church has also been thoroughly cleaned, a new sanctuary floor has been laid, the sanctuary is lighted with hanging lamps, and a small font has been placed in position at the west end. The total cost of these improvements, including gifts sent out from England, does not fall very far short of $140. While this sum has not been raised by the parishioners, I must testify to the good work done by the sewing circle, whose labors have been rewarded by the sum total of $44.33, taken at a recent sale of work.

Skiff Lake—This church is in a most deplorable state of dilapidation. The super-frontal on the altar is old and faded, the plaster has fallen from the ceiling, drops of rain or melted snow have leaked through the shingles and fallen in dangerous proximity to the consecrated elements, no kneelers are provided for the worshippers and no font for the administration of Holy Baptism. It would cost about $200 or more to put this church in a proper state of repair. The spiritual life of this parish is also at an exceedingly low ebb. Six times since my arrival in the parish of Canterbury I have given notice of a celebration, and the church's solemn exhortation has been publicly read at Divine service, but the requisite number of communicants failing to present themselves at four of these services, it has been necessary to dismiss them at the end of the p.ayer for the Church Militant.

McAdam Junction-At McAdam Junction we have no church and our services are now held in private houses. For six months in succession the Union Hall was placed at our disposal, but quite recently the doors of this building have been closed against A church is sadly needed at this important centre, and an us. influx of Church families renders it an imperative duty that such a building should be run up without delay. Little progress can be reported with our present arrrangement of monthly services, but there is a prospect of good work being done in the near future, if only an energetic priest or deacon could be found to reside in the parish and supply the inhabitants with weekly ministrations. Towards the stipend of an assistant priest or deacon I have already offered to relinquish the whole of the grant given me by the Diocesan Synod, but unfortunately the Board is not in a position to accept my offer.

Benton—This little church stands outside the boundary of my parishes, though under the present arrangement I am responsible for the services held there. In this little mission there are three male and ten female communicants, and the collections are as large as, and on some occasions even larger than, those received at McAdam Junction. Comparisons are odious, but it is only fair that these facts should be allowed to speak for themselves. On the other hand, however, I must testify to the excellent work done in this little village, and the good foundation laid previous to my arrival, by the Ven. Archdeacon Neales and the Rev. W. B. Belliss.

Unlike Canterbury and Skiff Lake, which were altogether neglected by the Church for two years or more, Benton has received for some time past fortnightly services. This little mission deserves far more attention than I can possibly give it, and with the Bishop's sanction I trust that arrangements may shortly be made for me to relinquish the work there. The stipend attached to Benton is only $75 per year, and I have gladly promised to give up this small sum to enable me to do better work in the hitherto neglected and now almost lifeless parishes of Canterbury and Skiff Lake. A strong man, physically as well as mentally, is needed to pick up lost ground. Many years of faithful teachcelebration, cly read at ints failing has been the Church

THE CATHEDRAL, FREDERICTON—VERY REV. F. PARTRIDGE, D. D., DEAN.

The cathedral occupies a peculiar position in this diocese, which is probably unique in the Anglican communion. It is the Bishop's church, belonging to him, and in which he is rightly supreme. It is attended by a large and regular congregation, the pastoral care of which is assigned to the Dean, who is assisted in it by the sub-Dean. The cathedral clergy, with the full concurrence of the rector of the parish, have charge, likewise, of a mission at Morrison's Mills, where services are held every Thursday evening throughout the year, and occasionally on Sundays.

At the cathedral, the mother church of the diocese, divine worship is held daily, in the morning at 9, and in the evening at 5, except on the festivals, when morning prayer is at 11, with a celebration of the Holy Eucharist. During the seasons of Advent and Lent evening services are held on Wednesdays and Fridays at 7.30, and during Holy Week every evening at 7.30. The Holy Communion is celebrated every Sunday at 8 a. m., and on the first Sunday in each month at the 11 o'clock service as well.

The relations of the cathedral and the parish church are of the most cordial character. The parochial Sunday-school is held in the church hall, which is used for all church gatherings, and which, when the improvements now in progress are completed, will be one of the most commodious buildings of the kind in the diocese.

There is a chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in connection with the cathedral, of which the Dean is chaplain; and a second one at the Mills, under the superintendence of the sub-Dean. There is also a church club of over forty members, of which the Dean is president, which meets during the winter months for discussion of matters beneficial to the church. A Bible class is held on Friday afternoons, for women, by the Dean, and one on Friday evenings, for young people, by the sub-Dean. The Women's Bible Class has been studying the Acts of the Apostles during the last season, with interest and profit, and the sub-Dean's class have been engaged on the Prayer Book.

The ministrations of the Church are kept up with great reguharity, and, although many losses have been sustained during the past year by the death and removal of members of the church, others have been added by confirmation and otherwise, and it may be truly said that the work of the Church is prospering. We try, at the cathedral, to make all members of the Church who may visit us feel thoroughly at home, and especially to welcome the clergy. Any help, advice, or assistance that can be given to them, and more particularly the younger among them, is most cheerfully and gladly afforded.

The statistical detail of our work has been presented in another form.

CARLETON-REV. W. H. SAMPSON.

I have just closed the eighth year of my ministry in the parish of Carleton, and by the blessing of God's Holy Spirit upon that ministry, I can report a steady increase in the number of communicants and in the number attending the Sunday school. My people are devout and earnestly reverent in Divine worship. The services are hearty and much enjoyed by a congregation that fills the church.

During the past year I have held 190 services for Divine worship. There have been 40 baptisms, 10 marriages, 23 burials; 21 have been confirmed. The Sunday school has 230 on its roll, with 20 officers and teachers. There is a communicant roll of 220, 150 of whom received the sacrament on Easter Sunday.

Offerings on behalf of Foreign, Domestic and Home Missions have been made in accord with the wish of the Bishop and the Canon of our Diocese. A list of subscribers to the Home Mission Fund is appended.

CHATHAM-REV. CANON FORSYTH, B.A.

In accordance with the "legal and honest" request of the Lord Bishop, I beg to submit to the Synod the following report of work in my cure for the year just ended, which was the twenty-fifth of my incumbency. he Lord of work fifth of ay that of the contract for the finishing of the restoration and improvement of S. Mary's Chapel. The work will probably be executed within the next two months, and then a quarter of a century of the church's history will be fittingly celebrated by the completion of additions and improvements in the material fabrics of the church in our parish which will be of enduring advantage and satisfaction. Some account of the building of our rectory and Sundayschool house, the purchase of an organ for S. Mary's, and the re-construction and re-furnishing of S. Paul's and S. Mary's churches will be found recorded in a recent history of the Progress of the Church of England in our Diocese of Fredericton. And so confining my report, which I have been admonished should be "concise, but as full and interesting as possible," to the work of the year just ended, I proceed to say that the public services have been held without interruption in S. Paul's (Parish) Church, and S. Mary's Chapel of Ease, one service being held on each Sunday in the former church, which is three and onehalf miles out of town, and two and three services on alternate Sundays in the latter, which is in town. The Holy Communion has been celebrated on every Sunday and holy day in S. Mary's, and once a month and on festivals falling on Sundays in S. Paul's. The morning and evening prayers have been said daily and "openly" in S. Mary's Chapel of Ease, when I have not been "let by sickness or some other just cause." The attendance of the people has varied from none to fifty on weekdays. When none have been present I have recognized the company of the faithful in the Holy Church throughout the world, and that of the angels and archangels and the heavenly host, and not considering myself alone, have endeavored to lead all who may to aim at the ideal of the Psalmist when he said : "Prayer shall be made ever unto Him, and daily shall He be praised."

The attendance at the Sunday services has been from two to fifteen at early communion, forty at morning prayer with litany at S. Mary's at 9.30 o'clock; seventy-five at 11 o'clock and one hundred and twenty-five at 6.30 P. M.; fifty at S. Paul's at 11 A. M., and forty-five at 3 P. M.; the whole average attendance representing slightly more than one-half of the whole church population of the parish, viz.: 400, including children and adults. The area of the parish is twenty-seven square miles, and the distance of the farthest parishioner from church is about six miles. One hundred and twenty-six communicants have communicated at least once during the year. Twenty-two of the 146 communicants of the preceding year, in which there was a confirmation, failed to communicate, and two have died. The Holy Communion has been celebrated eighty-six times, including once in each church on Christmas and Easter day. Sixty-five communicated on Easter day, or about one-quarter of the confirmed parishioners. The neglect of so many to make constant and frequent use of our Lord's own ordinance of the Holy Communion is one of the discouragements of our work, but we can only labour on and pray that those who know their duty may realize more and more the blessing of attending to it.

During the year thirty-one children have been baptized, four marriages have been solemnized, and three dead have been buried in God's consecrated acre at the Parish Church. Sunday-school is held in connection with S. Mary's congregation, One with seventy-two names on the roll, - thirty-five boys and thirtyseven girls. There are one male and ten female teachers, and one librarian, to all of whom I am thankful for their faithful help. The children bring offerings at each session of the school, which are devoted to expenses, including the cost of thirty-six copies of the monthly "Young Churchman," Provincial Synod leaflets and library books. Occasional children's services are held in S. Mary's Chapel in connection with this school. At S. Paul's (Parish) Church, three and one-half miles from town, very few children are within two miles of the church, and no school is held, but monthly children's services, with catechetical instruction, are held as a substitute. The children of the parish have contributed $53.57 in Advent and Lenten offerings for the "Children's Mission Fund." I have endeavoured to place a missionary box in every household, and I am glad to note that the interest of the children in Diocesan Missions is increasing. I have of late been preparing candidates for a confirmation to be held late in August, or early in September next, it being two years since the last confirmation was administered in the parish.

During the year about $1,200 have been contributed in weekly and quarterly Sunday efferings in church for the maintenance of the services in the parish, or an average of $23 each Sunday in offerings varying from $2.25 to 1 cent, or an average of 10 cents weekly from each adult parishioner. In addition to thus providing for ordinary current expenses the parish has contributed $254 in two special Sunday offertories at Harvest Thanksgiving and Easter, to vards the repairs fund of S. Mary's chapel; $10 were given to Foreign Missions, at Epiphany, and $14 to Domestic Missions, at Ascensiontide; $10 were given to Bishop Blyth's work on Good Friday, and $9 to the Society for ied. Mary's school room in December last, on the occasion of the visit of Mr. Montgomery, diocesan agent; and collectors, to whom I am grateful for their valued help, have recently been gathering in the $100 the parish has undertaken to contribute to diocesan missions. Their work is not quite complete, but I have no doubt that the increase of contributions will be $62 more than last year, bringing the amount up to $100, so that the total sum raised in the parish for all purposes of the Church has been about $1,700. The contract for the completion of S. Mary's chapel repairs has been let at $1,475, and handsome contributions towards this object, of $500 from His Honor Judge Wilkinson, and $50 from Mr. F. E. Danville, have already been made. With like exemplary contributions from others, and in thank offerings on such occasions as Harvest Thanksgiving, which it is suggested may be made, the hope and prospect is that very soon our church restoration will be complete and paid for, in the most excellent way of free-will offerings.

I conclude my report, which I hope may be satisfactory to your Lordship and the Synod, with the prayer of Nehemiah of old, that God may think upon those for good who have by their interest, sympathy and gifts of means, contributed to the furtherance of the past year's work for God and His Church.

DERBY & BLACKVILLE - REV. C. O'DELL BAYLEE.

The parish and mission of Derby and Blackville lies on both sides of the Miramichi, Cains and Renous rivers for a distance of thirty miles. The rectory is situated in the parish of Derby, about one mile from St. Peter's, fifteen from Trinity, and sixteen miles from St. Agnes. Owing to the distances I can only give the following services each month: St. Peter's, Derby, second and fourth Sundays, 11 A. M.; Sunday-school 2.30 P. M., and 7 P. M. Trinity, Blackville, first and third Sundays, 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. St. Agnes, Blackville, first and third Sundays, 2.30 P. M. During the winter and early spring it is a very difficult matter to keep up the services.

Now, if we are to retain our hold on such a scattered population, more frequent services ought to be given to them than what they now receive. An occasional visit will not supply the place of the due ministrations of the Church, nor prevent our people from being absorbed by other bodies of Christians who exceed us in numbers.

Having laboured in this field for six years, I would respectfully suggest that some re-arrangement of the Church's work be made in the County of Northumberland. A part of its population scarcely ever see the face of a clergyman of the Church of England, especially on the Northwest Miramichi and its tributaries. But considering the many claims that press heavily upon the funds of the diocese, I would suggest that a committee be appointed by the Lord Bishop to visit this large and important county and see what could be done.

We must remember that there is only one resident clergyman between Newcastle and Marysville, a distance of about eighty miles.

I am thankful to say that the work of the Church has gone on without any serious interruption during the past year. The services are well attended, the Church property all insured, and free from debt.

While humbly thanking God for past mercies, I commit the future of this large mission to His holy care.

DORCHESTER - REV. J. R. CAMPBELL, B.D.

I would be glad if I could speak not only of general prosperity, but also of numerical increase in our parish. But it falls to my lot to record the departure, during the past year, of very many members of our flock.

I always much regret the removal of whole families from our midst, inasmuch as, not being a commercial or mercantile people, we have but slight ground for hoping for their return, or of the vacancies, created by their removal, being filled by others. Our one consolation is, to know that they are doing the work of the Church, like so many others who have left us during the past fifteen years, in other parishes, and even in other lands.

I have also to mourn the loss by death within the year of five communicants, who were all, during their lifetime, supporting friends of home mission work of the Church. er to keep

The special needs of the board having come home to their consciences, a goodly number of cur old friends have increased the amount of their offerings, for which we are all very thankful.

FREDERICTON-REV. CANON ROBERTS, M.A.

In addition to the usual statistics of work done in this parish, the report from Fredericton has for many years past consisted simply of the statement of the amount collected for home missions. So far as my own personal labours are concerned, I do not desire to depart from this time-honored custom. I am indeed humbly thankful to Almighty God for such measure of success as He has granted to those imperfect efforts. Beyond this I would only add a few brief acknowledgments. First, I would acknowledge the thoughtful love of the Church people of Fredericton, among whom I have been ministering now for five and twenty years as rector. Their kindness not only urged my taking a two months' rest and change, but also provided most generously the means which enabled me to do so, while the warm words of affectionate confidence, which accompanied their gift, were even more helpful than the gift itself. And in this connection I wish to refer to a dear friend and brother, whose prompt and unselfish offer to become responsible for the services at the parish church during my absence, made it possible for me to leave without anxiety.

We all remember with affectionate sorrow the sudden death of the venerable priest, who for more than fifty years had done faithfully and well the work of the ministry within this Diocese. As a refined and cultured Christian gentleman, devout and holy in his life, full of wisdom and good works, he retained always the sincere affection and respect of his brethren the clergy, and of all among whom he ministered I cannot speak as I would of my own personal loss, both in his friendship and in his ever-ready help. Under the unexpected trial, caused by his death, my reverend brethren, the clergy of the Cathedral, at once most generously undertook the vork from which our dear friend had been called away; and notwithstanding the multiplicity of their own duties, carried on my services without interruption.

To this brief record of my grateful acknowledgments to those whose friendship enabled me to take the first long holiday I have had in two and forty years, I will only add in conclusion that the collectors for the Home Mission fund have about completed their task, and assure me that, notwithstanding the fact that improvements and repairs on the Church hall, involving an expenditure of between two and three thousand dollars, are now going on, the contributions for home missions will be at least as large as they were last year—$1,078, and they hope to have even a little more.

GAGETOWN - REV. N. C. HANSEN, M.A.

In this, our first report to the Synod, we shall recall, at the risk of being neither interesting nor concise, a few of the outward signs of the activity of this parish during the last seven years. We do not do this in any spirit of self-glorification-God forbid that we should glory, save in the cross of Christ-but by the way of a little encouragement to ourselves to give us heart for better achievements. Seven years ago the present rector found the church practically without paint on the outside. The walls on the inside were just as the plasterer left them ten years previously, save, of course, the accumulations in those years of darkness and of smoke. The fence around the block could with difficulty be persuaded to stand up by means of props. was no horse shed where those from a distance could find shelter for their horses and carriages from the burning sun or the pouring The old burial ground had been filled up and the place was generally overgrown with bushes. The roof of the rectory and barn leaked. The fence around the rectory block consisted chiefly of fir poles, and was modelled on the unartistic zig-zag

Now the church has been painted without and within, and properly ventilated. The choir has heen entirely re-arranged, and pews have taken the place of chairs. A very beautiful reredos (the gift of the late R. P. Starr) adorns the sanctuary, and brass lamps have replaced the old unsightly ones. All the liturgical colors of altar and lectern anti-pendia and vases have been procured at great expense. A handsome tablet, in memory the multies without hin, and cranged, eautiful ictuary, All the es have nemory of the six rectors of the church, has added to the historical interest of the building. In short, the church has assumed a completely different aspect. It is beautiful to look at inside. When a late rector was lying in state in the church, one of his sons could not help admiring the church, and saying how his father would have liked to see the church as it is now.

But it is not only the church which has been thus improved. The tottering fence around it and the burial ground has been replaced by a handsome one of woven wire, and all bushes have been cut down and monuments raised up. A new burial ground, too, has been acquired and consecrated, and a pretty fence placed around it. A horse shed, large enough to hold six horses and carriages, and to store the fuel for the church, has been built some little distance from the church. Both the rectory and barn have been properly shingled, and the interior of the rectory has been greatly improved. The log fence around the grounds has been removed and a pretty fence now surrounds them. Among other improvements we may mention the large addition of books which has been made to the library of the Sunday-school. Nearly one hundred dollars have been expended for this purpose. We have to thank the S. P. C. K. for one donation of  $\pounds 10$ . An organ has also been procured for the schoolhouse at Summerhill. We are thankful to say that these things are all paid for, and that we owe no man anything but love. In the autumn we hope to give the church a prettier coat of paint on the outside. Our Women's Aid and King's Daughters have made us grants for this purpose. Some money is also on hand for painting the Sunday-school building.

We also beg to report that the success of the services on the Mill Road, begun last year, has greatly exceeded the rector's most sanguine expectations. The attendance has been constantly increasing. The interest it has aroused in the Church in that locality has been very marked. None of the people are rich in this world's goods; but before anyone outside suggested anything of the kind, the rector was handed a purse and thirty-five dollars as a mark of appreciation of the services.

As to the spiritual state of the parish, we shall not venture to make any revelation. The kingdom of God does not come with observation. We only thank God that during the past seven years none have been alienated from the Church through any fault of the rector, or indeed for any cause, and that at this moment we appear in perfect harmony among ourselves, working together in love for the dear Church of England, and endeavouring to worship Him in spirit and in truth. Though the past year has been one of great personal anxiety and depression to the rector, and everything has been done under great difficulty, and much, alas! left undone, still the clouds have not been without their silver lining. In some respects the year has been a very pleasant one. It has called out kindness and sympathy and thoughtfulness when they were never suspected. Rich and poor, young and old, Church people and people outside the Church, seem to have vied with each other in kindness. And thus our hearts have been drawn together as they never were before. May God bless and reward them all.

Our contributions to extra parochial objects this year are as follows: Children's Mission Fund, $16.68; Bishop Blyth's Fund, $2.68; S. P. C. K., $2.30; S. P. G., $6.30; Domestic and Foreign Missions, $3.00; Diocesan delegation, $4.00.

GRAND MANAN-REV. W. S. COVERT, B.A.

I came to Grand Manan twenty-five years ago. For more than twelve before that time I had charge of what are now known as the parishes of Lancaster, Musquash and Lepreau, in which there were four churches and six stations, one of the last named being the then rising village of Fairville, where the Rev. Maurice Swabey and I for some time held services every Sunday evening. I have now entered upon the fortieth year of my ministerial work.

Our parish church on Grand Manan is the oldest, but one, of the churches built of stone in the Diocese. The oldest is in St. John, and was built in 1824; ours was built in 1840. In 1896 this church was so improved that it is as good as new. The church was mainly brought about by what I think may be called a young people's revolution.

Whether through printer's errors, or on account of my indistinct writing, I do not know, but there were a few unhistorical statements in the D. C. S. report as printed last year. One of these is in reference to the building of the Church of the Ascension. It is there somewhat strangely stated that my immediate predecessor, who I may say retired from pastoral labor at least twelve years before work on that church was begun, was the builder or promoter of the building of that church. He simply had nothing to do with it. The printer mistook a "W" for an "H." I wrote, "We built it." The printer made it, "He built it." I obtained a plan from a well-known architect in St. John. Bishop Medley was generous. The corporation of Trinity Church, St. John, gave us windows. Our people contributed liberally. Some friends outside the parish assisted, and so we built the church. I may add that since its erection we have received two handsome gifts from St. Stephen and one from New York.

During the twenty-four years past there have been 200 marriages, 191 baptisms and 163 burials.

The number confirmed has been 67, and there are now about 14 ready and desirous to be confirmed.

The number of communicants during the past year was 50, but of these four died before the year closed. The whole number of Church people is about 185.

GREENWICH --- REV. H. A. CODY, B.A.

The work has steadily advanced in this parish during the last year. The regular services have been held in the various places, and the attendance at the services has been very good. As Greenwich is a small parish, services have been held in Speight's Settlement, Petersville, Queens Co., and in the parish of Kars. The latter has been much neglected during past years, and many have been lost to the Church. At present the Church there has a very precarious existence, and the services are held in a vacant room of a farm house. We trust some day to have a small church erected in Kars, but not until steps have been taken to unite it with one of the adjoining parishes, so that the services will be conducted in the future without any serious omission.

We are thankful to report a successful series of lectures, illustrated by the so-called "Diocesan Magic Lantern," on English Church History, which we feel have been beneficial in many ways. But this is the only parish in the deanery which has cause to be thankful. The other parishes in the deanery were excluded from its use; and the only conclusion one can draw from the action of the committee is that they considered the lantern safer locked up in the Book Depository in St. John than if at work disseminating Church history among the people.

Two Sunday-schools have been carried on during the people. year with splendid success. Not only have we been able to add to our library, but this year we have subscribed for a number of Church papers. What we need now is the revival of the Sundayschool Teachers' Union in this section of the deanery.

During the past year the registers show 15 persons confirmed, 20 baptisms, 9 burials, 1 marriage, and 180 services held.

HARDWICKE - REV. W. J. WILKINSON, M.A., B.D.

The work has been carried on as usual during the year, and in looking back upon the past I think we have no cause to be discouraged, but much reason for which to thank God and take courage.

One or two things of a pleasing nature I might mention which helped to brighten the year. About fifteen men worked hard for two days in digging and stoning up a new drain from the cellar of the rectory, giving their work freely and willingly, thus saving the parish paying out twenty or thirty dollars for having the work done. Thirty-five dollars were also spent in repairs on and in getting storm windows for the rectory. A balance of twenty-five dollars was paid off on the graveyard fence, and fifteen dollars for insurance. These, no doubt, to rich parishes appear very triffing, but when the parish is usually in arrears in its assessment, it is no light matter to meet these incidental expenses. In my anxiety I appealed to the Women's Aid Association of Fredericton, and I received not only a very sympathetic letter from the secretary, but a post office order for twenty dollars from the association. I mention this here most gratefully, because what seemed at one time a hard problem was solved at once. With the kind assistance of the Women's Aid Association and the men of the parish, who worked at the drain, we met without any difficulty the balance.

I must also mention with deep gratitude to the kind donors, that last Christmas a box of useful and valuable presents was sent to the rector's family by the St. Paul's Needlework Society, St. John. Such kindly deeds do much to cheer the hearts of those who are engaged in missionary work as showing they are not forgotten by those who enjoy the privileges of city life. n St. John the people. g the past ble to add number of ne Sunday-

Whilst we have been greatly helped by the gifts and kind sympathy which I have mentioned, we have met with a loss which, humanly speaking, is a very serious one to the parish, and that is the sudden and unexpected death of John Goymer Williston, who, although he had been churchwarden for twenty years, was comparatively a young man at the time of his death. He was a consistent Churchman, and the parish will miss his wise counsel, and the deep interest he took in all matters connected with the Church.

I am at present preparing a large class of candidates for confirmation, and in this work I have the valuable assistance of Mr. H. H. Gillies, a Divinity student and graduate of King's College, Windsor. He is now prosecuting his studies at the General Theological Semirary, New York, and is spending his vacation with me, and assisting me in the services.

The salmon and lobster fishing are unusually poor here this year, but the crops look well, and I am in hopes the parish will raise the extra amount assessed by the Board of Home Missions without any trouble.

I forward this report to be read by the secretary, because, owing to the serious and lamented illness of Mrs. Williston, I have asked the Bishop to excuse me from attending the meeting of the Synod this year.

JOHNSTON - REV. C. A. S. WARNEFORD.

In reporting of this parish many events have taken place of particular interest. On June the 5th his Lordship the Bishop visited the parish to ordain the Rev. H. Cody to the priesthood. At morning prayer the congregation was large, and at the ordination service some four hundred persons were present, filling St. John's Church, Highfield, to its utmost capacity. The Venerable Archdeacon Brigstocke presented the candidate, and at the evening service was the preacher. The Rev. C. P. Hanington, former rector of the parish, was present, also Revs. E. Warneford, Pickett and Cresswell.

At the Easter Monday meeting it was decided that some repairs should be made on the interior of St. John's Church, as the plaster had fallen off in many places. Before June the 5th the church was ceiled both on the ceiling and walls, the front of gallery, pillars and windows re-painted, and the whole interior of church varnished. The church now presents a very hand-

On the 8th of June a special service was held at St. John's Church, when the sacrament of baptism was administered to one adult and two infants, and one child received into the Church. On the following Sunday, June 12th, in two of the other churches two more infants were baptized.

With few exceptions three services have been held in the parish each Sunday during the year.

Although the parish has difficulty in raising the present assessment, at a meeting held respecting an additional assessment of $25.00, all agreed to make a special effort and raise the required amount. As the repairs on the church have to be provided for, more exertion will be required, and we trust, through the aid of our annual picnics, to raise sufficient to pay our debt.

KINGSCLEAR - REV. H. MONTGOMERY, M.A.

Owing to the fact that since my report in October, 1897, I have been absent from the parish nearly three months, engaged in diocesan work, much cannot be expected in the way of an interesting report. Indeed I have found out by experience that it is impossible to keep up with one's work in a parish and do diocesan work at the same time. During my absence the Rev. S. J. Hanford looked after the spiritual welfare of my parishioners, and not only am I indebted to him for his great kindness, but so also is the Diocese, for with his usual generosity and self-sacrifice he refused any compensation for his services beyond his travelling expenses, amounting to ten dollars. I take this opportunity of publicly thanking him, on behalf of my parishioners and myself, for his great kindness in supplying services in the parish.

There is nothing of special interest to report from this parish, unless it be that the few Church people we have are doing their best to keep up the Church, and respond to the demands made on them by the Board of Home Missions. We had the pleasure of a visit from the Venerable Archdeacon Neales, the diocesan delegate to the deanery of Fredericton, in January last, and in response to his appeal we are endeavouring to raise thirty-five dollars more than we have been doing for the Home Mission June the 5th alls, the front whole interior a very hand-

Fund. This amount is divided between the whole mission of Kingsclear, Ludlow and Blissfield, the largest share being provided by this parish, and that, too, notwithstanding the fact that there is probably no other parish in the diocese that suffers more from removals than the parish of Kingsclear. Since last January I have lost fifteen parishioners, nine of whom are communicants, and this means a decrease of not less than twentyfive dollars on our subscription list.

There being no industry in the parish outside of agriculture, our young people are obliged to seek work elsewhere. But what is Kingsclear's loss is Fredericton's gain, and we have to content ourselves with the fact that in no small measure we are helping to enlarge the congregations at the Cathedrai and the parish church in Fredericton. We are looking forward, however, to the return of our former parishioners, Lieut. Col. Maunsell and family, whom we gladly welcome back again, and we hope to see his interest of bygone years in parochial and diocesan work, when formerly a resident in the parish, revived again.

A beautiful stained glass memorial east window, presented by Mr. and Mrs. John Kilburn, in memory of their only daughter, to S. Mark's church, Upper Kingsclear, was put in place last November, and adds very much to the beauty and dignity of the little church. Unfortunately for us Mrs. Kilburn is one of those worthy parishioners and communicants who has been attracted to Fredericton, and we shall miss very greatly her assistance and substantial aid in Church work.

Recently I have begun work, at the request of the people and with the consent of the Bishop, in a corner of the parish of This service once a month in All Saints' church. Bright t five miles from my rectory, but on the opposite church ... The attendance at the services is good, and much side of the interest is evalued in the welfare of the Church. A new fence has just been put around the churchyard, and the few faithful members are preparing to repair and paint the church. Such earnestness and zeal on the part of these people, without being urged by a clergyman, is indeed commendable and deserving of attention. I am able to give them a monthly service only, but even this much they rejoice in getting, and show true appreciation in having once more the ministrations of the Church.

Having no less than six churches and two stations to attend, at distances varying from five to seventy miles from home, I feel more and more that I cannot do justice to the work demanded of me. It means a little here and a little there. Still, I shall endeavor, with God's help, to do the best I can, ever remembering His words: "Precept upon precept, line upon line, here a little and there a little."

LUDLOW & BLISSFIELD-REV. H. MONTGOMERY, M.A.

There is nothing new or startling to report from this mission this year, as it is now no longer a new mission with neglected Church people to gather in and look after. The mission has outgrown its infantile stage, and is verging into a state that demands greater attention and direction than it now gets with only a monthly service, excepting the summer months, when a lay reader gives more frequent services. The crying need of this mission is a resident missionary. The Presbyterian community has now a resident minister in the mission, and if the Church is to still further advance and prosper, the sooner a resident missionary is sent the better, if for no other reason than for the fulfilment of that famous British motto, "What we have we'll hold." For while most of our people are loyal and faithful to the Church, yet there are others who need the parson near at hand to keep his eye upon them, and to encourage them a little in the right way, "Lest they forget." Under the present arrangement, with only a monthly service, and no time for regular visiting among the people, we cannot hope for any great growth or development on the part of the Church. Consequently the great need of the mission is, I say again, a resident missionary. During my absence from the mission on diocesan work, the Revs. H. F. Whalley, J. R. Parkinson and A. B. Murray, kindly supplied services, which the people deeply appreciated, and for which they, as well as myself, are very grateful. In Doaktown we have been called to mourn the loss, by death, of one who, though not a Churchman in name, was one we believe in heart, and a benefactor to the Church in this place,-the late Robert Swim. He it was who gave the land on which the church stands and a subscription of one hundred and fifty dollars towards its erection. His home was ever open to the missionary, and his horse always ready for Church work when needed. a man of enterprise and industry he is a great loss to the community, and his place will be hard to fill.

I am happy in being able to report that Mr. Wm. Whyte and Mr. James Gilks continue to render me valuable assistance still, I shalf rememberline, here a Whyte istance in the work in Doaktown. "Always on hand" is their mottoin Church work, and I doubt if there is another parish in the Diocese that possesses two more active and willing helpers than these faithful, loyal Churchmen. What with lending Church books and quiet talks they are doing a noble work for the Church. Both are higl.ly esteemed by their fellow men, and their influence makes itself felt, and the Church gains by it.

In Ludlow the work goes on quietly, as usual. The congregation at S. John's Church, Carroll's Crossing, is steadily increasing, and is now the strongest and largest in the mission. At S. James' Church we are just holding our own. This church has suffered greatly by the removal of several families from this part of the parish.

At Boiestown, a thriving village in the upper part of the mission, I have been asked by the people to give them services, and a hall has been secured for this purpose. I hope to have my first service there this month (July). There are a few of the faithful in Boiestown, and we hope the number will be increased by extending the work to this part of the mission. We are looking forward to the return of Mr. Hugh Hooper as lay reader for the summer months. With his assistance I hope to prepare a class for confirmation. The difficulty is to find many candidates, owing to the large number confirmed in recent years.

The Church people in the mission will, I have reason tobelieve, endeavour to raise their share of the increased amount required by the Board of Home Missions. One of the subscribers who has been giving five dollars a year handed me a monthly pledge card some little time ago, saying he could give one dollar a month as easily as to pay five dollars at one payment; this means an increase of seven dollars in his subscription. We hope there are many others who will follow his good examplein the whole diocese.

Deaconess Jacob still favours the mission with occasional visits—looking after the welfare of the Sunday-schools and the insurance on the churches. She is always sure of a hearty welcome in the mission, both by young and old, more especially by the young at Christmas time, when the never-failing box comes with all its attractive sweetness. We are all deeply indebted to her for her many good works in the mission.

Thanking God for His manifold blessings on our work in past years, we hope and labour on, trusting in His promises and His all-sufficient aid.

MAUGERVILLE AND CANNING — REV. R. W. COLSTON, M.A.

The past year does not seem to have afforded much of such general interest as to warrant a record of its history being made, yet it has not been an unprogressive one. I hope and believe that scriptural growth has characterized it.

The most important event of the year was the incorporation of Lower St. Marys into the territory of which I have the spiritual charge. My parish is now bounded by the River Nashwaak, the River St. John, the parish of Cambridge, Grand Lake, and the parish of Chipman. It consists of the civil parishes of Maugerville, Sheffield, Northfield, Canning, and part of St. Marys. I have five churches to serve—Christ Church, Maugerville; Holy Trinity, Lower St. Marys; St. Mary's, Little River; St. Luke's, Douglas Harbour; St. Michael and All Angels', Newcastle Bridge. The four latter are respectively nine, twenty, twenty-one and twenty-nine miles from my rectory.

CHRIST CHURCH.—In this church I have services twice every Sunday, except the last Sunday in each month. I cm thankful to be able to report that the attendance at these services has been quite up to the average; the congregations earnest and devout. I regret exceedingly that the Upper Maugerville Sunday-school, which for many years has done such good work, is for the present closed. The Lower Maugerville school is doing a useful work, with an increased membership and interest.

During the past year we have sustained two severe losses in the removal to Fredericton of Miss W. Perley and the death of Mrs. Geo. R. Smith. Miss Perley has for some time past done very excellent work in the Upper Maugerville Sunday-school. Mrs. Smith was all her life very closely identified with the life and work of the Church in this parish.

As we had a very comfortable balance of sixty-two dollars on the right side on Easter Monday, we intend beginning this summer very much needed repairs to Christ Church. A good deal of work has been done during the past year in and about the rectory at a cost of seventy-seven dollars. We hope, year by year, to do a little towards restoring it to its old position as one of the most desirable rectorics in the Diocese.

I have had two baptisms and one burial.

HOLY TRINITY.— Here I have afternoon service on the first and second Sundays of the month, and a celebration of the Holy Eucharist on the third Sunday.

The congregation is a small one. The people are hearty, earnest Churchmen. The average attendance since March last, when I took charge, has been twenty-six. I have had one baptism and one burial here.

ST. MARY'S.—One afternoon service, on the last Sunday in the month, is all the little handful of Church people here receive.

At this service we have an average congregation of sixty-five. We are much indebted to Miss Johnson, our organist; although not a member of the Church she never misses a service.

I have baptized two infants in this church.

ST. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS'.— In this, the parish church of Canning, I have three services a month. Two of these are on the last Sunday of the month; the other on a weekday evening. All are well attended. The average is a little less than last year. This is due to the action of the vestry, taken at my suggestion, of restoring the graveyard to its original and legitimate use—a burial place for members of the Church of England. This has offended some.

A new woven wire fence has been built in front of the churchyard. The material and work were voluntary contributions. It adds very much to the appearance of the grounds, and enables us to keep our churchyard neat and clean. The graveyard has been cleaned up; it now looks decent.

During the past year very great difficulty has been experienced in raising the amount of our assessment. The people are poor, as a rule. We hope and pray for better things in the future. I have not yet received the list of contributors to the Board of Home Missions for this year.

ST. LUKE'S.—In this quaint old church I have a forth ightly service on a weekday. During the past year we have d one a little towards making the church fit for the service of God. The rectory and glebe of the parish of Canning are sit uated near St. Luke's Church. This property has brought in a revenue of thirty dollars per annum.

The following extract from my diary will give some idea of the work in this extensive mission :

Summary for June-Services, 22; celebrations, 6; pastoral visits, 29; miles travelled, 357.

MONCTON - REV. E. B. HOOPER, B.A.

In presenting the first report from the parish of Moncton to the Bishop and Synod of this Diocese, I am thankful to be able to set forth certain facts which point to satisfactory progress in matters both spiritual and temporal.

Ist. S. irritual progress.—On December 27th, 1897, we were honoured by a visit from the Bishop for the purpose of administering the rite of confirmation. Fifteen persons were confirmed, fourteen of whom have since been enrolled as communicants.

The number of communicants in the parish is larger than ever, the number at Easter being considerably in advance of any previous year.

The services, on the whole, are well attended. Greater interest is being manifested in missions—foreign, domestic and home.

2nd. Material Progress.—St. George's church has been enlarged, raised up, and a splendid stone wall built under it. The wall is 11 feet or more from the bottom up. A capital schoolroom has been made and furnished underneath the church. It is light, well ventilated, warm in winter and cool in summer, and admirably supplies a long-felt want. Two coal furnaces have been put in which easily heat both church and school-room. The grounds about the church have been nicely graded and seeded down. My parishioners and I are proud of our church fabric, which has been so much improved and beautified. Total cost of improvements about $3,000; of this about $1,000 has been paid, and arrangements have been made whereby the balance is to be paid within three years.

Rev. Henry Montgomery visited the parish in the interests of Home Missions and succeeded in arousing a greater interest in our Missions, and a deeper sense of our duty towards them. $30 have been subscribed and more will be collected in the Autumn. in a revenue

MUSQUASH AND LEPREAU — REV. ALFRED BAREHAM.

The work of the Church in this parish, during the past year, has been pursued with a quiet and steady earnestness. The district, being of an essentially rural character, where the people are found uniformly willing and glad to attend Divine service, furnishes but few occasions for any startling outburst of parochial enthusiasm. It is never difficult to gather a good congregation in any part of this parish, and the people seem anxious to co-operate with the rector in the common duties that the Master has made the parish responsible for.

A few details that have marked our progress during the year may call for particular mention.

The new church at Mace's Bay is now almost entirely out of debt, a fact which is worthy of note, the cost of the building, about seventeen hundred dollars, being met mainly by the efforts of the people themselves. It is hoped that as soon as a few small legal formalities are arranged, which will soon be the case, the edifice will be duly consecrated. The latest additions to this church consist of a new set of lamps, including two handsome brass chandeliers, and an appropriate reading desk the latter being the gift of G. H. Thomas, Esq., in memory of a sister.

In the parish church of Musquash a beautiful window, representing Christ as the Good Shepherd, and which is the work of Messrs. J. C. Spence & Sons, of Montreal, has been placed in the chancel. This window is the gift of the men of the congregation.

His Lordship the Bishop of the Diocese visited Trinity Church, Mace's Bay, last November and confirmed seventeen persons.

The visit of the Rev. O. S. Newnham during the past year could not fail to be of instructive interest in stirring up the people to a deeper sense of their connection with, and obligation to, the Diocese at large.

The Rev. H. Gomery, the accredited agent for the S.P.C.K., was with us in the spring, and forcibly placed the claims of that society before the people. His appeal resulted in a collection of over eight dollars.

The people of Musquash having presented the rector last fall with a valuable raccoon skin coat, the Mace's Bay and Lepreau friends during the winter called at the rectory and presented Mrs. Bareham with a coat of the same handsome fur. The people of Prince of Wales a short time afterwards provided the rector with a pair of plucked otter gauntlets. All these gifts were accompanied by addresses breathing esteem and affection, and furnish indications of the helpful and appreciative feelings on the part of the people towards the rector in his efforts to meet the exhausting demands of this large parish.

Adding to these things, what is most important of all, an obvious growth in spiritual life and discernment of Divine realities, I feel I am justified in considering that the parish has been moving, and that in the right direction.

NEWCASTLE AND NELSON - REV. P. G. SNOW.

In a parish where the work is more or less the same month after month, there may not be any special incident to chronicle; yet every occurrence ought to have its value, so that if one member rejoice, all the members may rejoice with it.

The Sunday and week-day services have been held regularly; and the Advent and Lenten services were well attended.

At Eastertide there were fifty-one communicants, the largest number for many years. The members of the Young Women's Guild of St. Andrew have met weekly at the rectory during the winter months, and in Easter week a very successful sale of work was held. Mrs. Harley, the president of the Guild, is always to the front in any matter respecting the Church, and much credit is due that lady for the help she has given in all matters connected with the Church.

At the annual meeting of the parishioners a vote of thanks was given by acclamation to the members of the Guild for their energetic and persevering work in raising funds for Church purposes.

In December we were pleased to have a visit from the Rev. H. Montgomery, who was appointed by his Lordship the Bishop to visit the northern portion of the Diocese in the interests of the "Diocesan Mission Fund." Having explained the amalgamation of the D. C. S. with the Diocesan Synod, and stated the financial condition of the Board of Diocesan Missions, he pictured the trials and hardships of Church people in various parts of the Diocese, but especially in Albert County, who were longing for the spiritual food which we enjoy, and made a strong appeal to all to strive to do all in their power towards the spread ome fur. His of the gospel and the maintenance of the Church in our own province. The meetings were a success, and we trust seed has been sown for next year's reaping.

The quarterly meeting of the Deanery Chapter was held in this parish the second week in May. One pleasing feature of this meeting was that all the clergymen of the deanery were present. On Tuesday morning there was a celebration of the Holy Communion in St. Andrew's Church, when the Rural Dean officiated, assisted by the Rev. W. J. Wilkinson.

At 10.30  $\Lambda$  M the Chapter opened at the rectory with the usual office. Being the annual meeting, the election of officers for the ensuing year took place.

A very successful meeting of the Sunday-school Teachers' Association for the deanery was held at Newcastle on Tuesday, May 10th, at 3 p. M. Such meetings have the desired effect of bringing the clergy into touch with those who are most active in parish work. Clergymen become conversant with the needs of the various organizations, and have an opportunity of regarding matters from a lay point of view. Lay workers, on the other hand, become personally acquainted with the clergy and with each other, and take interest in the Church's work beyond their own sphere.

Before concluding my report T might say that the annual service for Church workers was held in St. Andrew's Church on St. Andrew's Day at 10.30 A. M. It consisted of matins, suitable sermon by the rector, and celebration of the Holy Communion. We sincerely hope that this service may encourage all those who attended to go forward in their work for Christ and His Church, and draw closer the bonds which bind them to one another, and to Him.

NEW DENMARK - REV. C. E. MAIMANN.

The work in this mission has gone on quietly in the past year. His Lordship granting me leave of absence for four months, I spent some time in old Denmark in the interests of emigration, being sent for that purpose by the Provincial government.

Although no immediate results accrued to benefit us, we hope in a near future to see some fruits of our endeavors. One thing I am thankful for, Mrs. Maimann and myself returned from Europe in better health, and, after a short rest, ready to take up again the work in this interesting mission. Lordship confirmed on that day thirty-one persons in St. Ansgar's Church. The services, which consisted of the confirmation service and a celebration of the holy communion, were impressive, as were also the Bishop's addresses to the large audience present.

The great need in this parish is a Sunday-school building. When in his address his Lordship assured us of some help to accomplish the task, we were greatly encouraged.

I have come to realize that the Church in this parish must do something towards helping to educate the children and many of the young people, whose education in the past has been sadly neglected. But no convenient place is to be found in the colony in which to carry on this necessary work. My plan for the furtherance of the object is this : The building of a school near the church and rectory. In this building to conduct a regular Sunday-school; then in the summer months to gather the children three days in the week for instruction secular and religious; and in winter hold evening school for the young people. To accomplish this it is not only necessary to build a school, but that my whole time be given to New Denmark. To make this possible the parishioners have agreed to raise $100 more a year towards the rector's salary. And we trust that the Board of Home Missions will, in consideration of the important work to be done in New Denmark, grant our request, that I be allowed to devote my whole time to the upbuilding and strengthening of St. Ansgar's parish. The proposed building will cost nearly $700. lumber and labour will be given by the men of the colony. Some money will be needed to carry on the work speedily. Ready anxious to have the school completed before the winter. 1 am generous Church people in our province to remember us with their gifts.

Of improvements at St. Ansgar's I mention a strong fence put up this spring enclosing cemetery, church and rectory. Much credit is due to the women of the parish for raising $50 toward building the fence.

GRAND FALLS.—His Lordship the B'shop confirmed two persons in All Saints' Church on the evening of 23rd of June last.

UNDINE. — New pews have been put in at St. Alban's church. I also wish to make mention of the gifts for this church, a lectern and praver desk from Archdonson Bright of the church, a lectern

NEW MARYLAND - REV. H. F. E. WHALLEY.

A service has been held in this parish every Sunday, with two exceptions, when owing to the state of the roads I was unable to reach the church. The services have been well attended. There has been a celebration of the Holy Communion on the second Sunday in each month, at which the number of communicants has never been less than sixteen, and generally more.

His Lordship the Bishop visited the parish on Sunday, October 31st, when seven candidates were presented for the holy rite of confirmation. The church was filled to its utmost capacity, and the Bishop's addresses were listened to with the greatest attention.

The week-day evening services held during Lent were well ttended, and the special sermons preached by several of my brother-clergymen were much appreciated. The clear and able address delivered by the rector of Maugerville on the occasion of the S. P. C. K. anniversary, did much to enlighten the people on the history and work of that great society. The congregation at these Lenten services averaged forty.

The Sunday-school, which was re-opened as usual, keeps up to its average number, the children being most regular and attentive scholars. We have twenty-three names on the books.

The outside of the church has now been painted, with the exception of the roof, which will receive attention this summer. The women of the congregation have provided a new matting for the aisle this summer, which has done much to make the church look neat and well cared for. We are also very grateful to Mrs. Medley for the handsome red pulpit hanging presented to the church on Trinity Sunday.

Since October, 1897, there have been four baptisms, four burials and one marriage. As the churchyard is now getting very much filled up, the advisability of making an addition to it was considered at the vestry meeting, and a committee was appointed to make arrangements for purchasing about a quarter of an acre of land adjoining the present burial ground. I trust this will be accomplished and the ground fenced and ready for consecration before winter sets in.

NORTON - REV. C. P. HANINGTON, B.A.

There is nothing of special interest to report in connection with Church work in this parish. Services have been held regularly at the three churches, at which the congregations were fairly good. This parish, having bravely undertaken, some years ago, to become self-supporting, has not found it at all an easy task which it took in hand; yet it is not discouraged as to the future, but trusts that what it has undertaken, it shall always prove able to carry out. We feel, however we ought not, for some years at least, to be expected to give for much help to work outside of the parish. Yet our interest in this work has not slackened, we hope, and not only have collections been taken up through the year towards some of the special funds of the Synod, but contributions towards the Home Mission Fund to the amount of $17.50 have been already promised, and perhaps this amount will yet be added to before the end of the year.

PETERSVILLE - REV. W. B. ARMSTRONG, M.A.

The services have been maintained in this parish during the last year without a break. Involving, as this does, a good deal of exposure and encounter with storms, yet the fact being established, that the clergyman will be always at his post is a great inducement to the people, who generally have considerably shorter distances to travel, to make the effort to attend.

During the last winter monthly services were held at Clarendon, a station on the C. P. R., which were attended by the lumbermen from a camp adjoining, and also by some of the residents of the place. Some of the former expressed their delight at hearing the familiar words of the Church service again.

At Welsford we have started a fund for new seats for St. Luke's. The church was built over forty years ago, and whilst the building has been improved in other ways, the seats are altogether too stiff and uncomfortable. Accordingly, we commenced with a concert last year, and by the aid of various entertainments and collecting cards, we have about ninety dollars on hand, so that ere long we hope to have more suitable seats erected.

We have met with a great loss in the death of Mr. Geo. H. Scribner in April last. He attended the church here very regu alw plea sho in rep

r. Geo. H. here very regularly, though living at some distance from it, and seemed always thoroughly to enjoy its services. His manly form and pleasant manner will be much missed by us all. Through a short, but very trying sickness, he expressed his entire confidence in the merits of the Redeemer, half an hour before his death repeating aloud the hymn, "Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear." An interesting circumstance, and, as far as I can learn, one wholly unprecedented, took place in the Church of St. Luke, Welsfe 1, on the fourth of March last, namely, the marriage of two Indians, John Bernard and Mary Francis. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity with people anxious to witness the ceremony. After the service was over, all adjourned to the hall near by and the Indians were entertained, speeches and music followed, and a collection was taken up on their Altogether, it made an occasion not to be easily behalf. forgotten in the history of the parish, and at the same time showing to the Indians a kindly feeling and interest, which would never be likely to pass from their memories. The Church of England has not, as far as one can learn, taken much interest in these former owners of our soil. The only mention of the subject, as far as one's memory serves, is that the Rev. Thos. Wood, S. P. G. missionary at Annapolis, on the Sunday after his arrival in St. John, July 1st 1769, after performing Divine service in the morning, preached in the afternoon in Indian to thirteen Indian men and women-an Indian girl being then baptized. Perhaps if more interest were taken in our dark brethren of the forest, and a spirit of kindliness shown to them, we should find them accessible to the truth, having in their composition many noble elements of character.

PORTLAND - REV. R. P. McKIM.

With thankful acknowledgment to God I make this report of what He has been pleased to do with us during the past year.

The usual services have been conducted in the parish church, and an increasing number of communicants have availed themselves of the privileges of the Lord's Table.

At Millidgeville services have been held regularly on Sundays and on Friday evenings throughout the year. Attendance has been good and always a hearty response.

In October of last year I felt led to open a mission service at Strait Shore Road, a hitherto neglected portion of the city. What was entered upon as a venture soon proved to be a success and we know that much blessing was vouchsafed.

Every Sunday in the year we conduct a distinctly evangelistic meeting after the usual evening service. In the winter these meetings are held in the school room and the use of a lantern and slides has proved very helpful. During the summer months an out of doors meeting is held twice in the week, on Thursdays and on Sundays, when large crowds attend. These evangelistic services have borne precious fruit and we know that through them many souls have been joined to the Lord.

Every Sunday during the summer all the vessels lying at the wharves, situate in our parish, are visited and the men spoken to about the things of Christ.

The Lord Bishop has been pleased to hold two confirmations during the year. One at the parish church at which thirty-two candidates were presented, and one at Millidgeville when ten persons received the laying on of hands.

The money contributions have been good; $250 have been paid on the bonded debt of the church, and $600 to missionary and charitable objects.

We have this year, for the first time in the history of the parish, I believe, made a contribution to the mission fund of the Diocese.

PRINCE WILLIAM AND DUMFRIES — REV. G. F. SCOVIL, B. A.

From the first of October until Christmas there were no services held in Prince William nor Dumfries—the rector being absent through illness. So we only report for about six months. But even in that short time we thankfully realize that there has been a certain growth of the Church in our mission.

Eighty services have been held, one marriage, two burials, twelve baptisms—four of them adults. Our communicant list has increased from sixty-five, of last year, to eighty-five, not counting about a dozen who communicate only once or twice a year, although there are ample opportunities.

We had a visit from his Lordship the Bishop during the first part of June, when All Saints' graveyard at Upper Magaguadavic was consecrated, and forty-eight candidates received the rite of confirmation. Ten of these were confirmed all € the

During the three most difficult months for work in the mission, namely, January, February and March, the rector was assisted by Mr. Mansel Shewen as lay reader, who rendered very efficient services indeed.

The rectory near St. Clement's Church is almost completed. It has cost us between thirteen and fourteen hundred dollars. At the completion of the rectory this mission will receive eighty dollars less of a grant. We have also voluntarily accepted an increase in assessment of twenty-five dollars. And thus, in fact, we have relieved the Diocesan funds from paying one hundred and five dollars annually to the support of the clergyman in charge of our mission.

RICHIBUCTO - REV. H. A. MEEK.

In presenting my second report of work here I must first of all express great gratitude for continued mercies and favors at the Lord's hand.

Work has been going on as usual and the services regularly attended to. The congregation at Buctouche have further manifested their interest in the work by placing a very nice organ, at the cost of one hundred dollars, in the church, and the Kingston people have now got the church nicely painted inside and outside, and now have an edifice worthy of the sanctuary of the Most High.

We have, in part, adopted the envelope system. As yet it is in its elementary stage, but I hope by carefully working it up that we may get it on a firm and permanent basis, as I feel convinced this is the scriptural plan of providing for the maintenance of the Lord's work.

The most important event of the year was the mission spoken of in my last report. It was held in the month of October. After much prayer and thought the Rev. R. P. McKim came to us for ten days. The Holy Spirit was manifestly present, and there are many of us who will always have a thankful remembrance of that season of blessing. There were some who did not quite understand this work at first, but have since expressed their gratitude for the blessing of new life in Christ Jesus. It was a time of special blessing and help, as the scriptural truth of a present and full salvation in Christ was faithfully and forcibly presented, and I hope ere long that the Master will send us a similar visitation in the other sections of the parish, for I feel sure that this is what is needed in the Church life of to-day, viz., a fuller recognition of Jesus Christ as a present and

I am looking forward for the time soon to come when I may present a class of candidates to the Lord Bishop for confirmation.

RICHMOND - REV. A. W. TEED, M.A.

Nothing of very special interest has taken place in this mission during the year The work has gone on much as in the past. The Sunday services have been regularly held in the two churches and at the two mission stations, and have been fairly well attended. At each of these places a home missionary meeting was held during last March by the Venerable Archdeacon Neales, and I trust that the information then conveyed to the people will have the effect of arousing them to still greater efforts to sustain the Church, so that the additional amount required from the mission for the coming year may be made up. Small amounts have been sent in for the S. P. G., the S. P. C. K., and missions to the Jews, and the Epiphany and Ascensiontide appeals have been heeded. The young girls of the parish church, in their Sunshine Club, still continues to do good work for the Church. While no further advance has been made on the interior of S. John's Church, I am glad to state that the debt of fourteen dollars, referred to in my last report, has been paid, and considerable funds have been collected, and we hope shortly to have the interior of this church completely restored. The exterior of S. Paul's church has been painted, and sufficient money has been raised to meet this indebtedness. The parish register for the year ending April 30th shows eleven baptisms, one marriage, two burials.

ROTHESAY - REV. A. W. DANIEL.

Rothesay, r midweek ance, 253. Principal of the Rothesay Church School for Boys, has held a second service in S. Paul's, Rothesay, each Sunday of the school term, and I have held a regular Friday service at Rothesay, and special services on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, Ascension Day and Christmas Day. Holy Communion has been celebrated once a month at each of the three churches in the parish, with additional celebrations on Christmas Day and Ascension Day.

Number of communicants on the roll, 170; average number, 91; number at Eastertide, 120.

Sunday-school work has been faithfully carried on at four different points in the parish. The schools have been well supplied with competent teachers. The rolls show about 111 scholars. Two of the schools were closed during the winter months. At Hammond River this was in a measure compensated for by a weekly house to house Bible class. A weekly Bible class was also held at Rothesay during the winter.

At Easter S. Paul's Church, Rothesay, received a very beautiful addition in the form of a memorial stained-glass chancel window, relieved by handsome carved oak pannelling, erected by the family of the late Hon. John Robertson in memory of himself, his wife, his sons and his grandson. The window illustrates the Ascension, and is considered by all to be an exceedingly fine piece of workmanship.

A chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was formed in connection with S. Paul's Church in December, and has already borne much good fruit.

The Sewing Circle of S. Paul's has paid off an additional $200 on the church organ.

The congregation of S. Augustine's Mission, Quispan is, have bought and paid for a new prayer desk and a cabinet organ.

The vestry clerk's statement for the year ending first of April last shows the receipts of the parish to have been $1,417.65, and expenditures $1,361.95, leaving a balance on hand of $155.70. Of the expenditures, $1,091.78 were for parochial and $270.17 for extra parochial purposes.

I rejoice to be able to report our contributions to Home Missions nearly double those of last year, the result of adopting the system of quarterly pledges, and I feel sure that if this was generally adopted throughout the Diocese it would very materially increase the general mission funds of the Diocese. We have had nothing which calls for especial notice in our parish work ; it has been going on as usual with its accustomed waxings and wanings. I am sorry to say, however, that we were unfortunate enough to have the eastern memorial window blown in during a severe storm a few months ago, and it is now being repaired by Spence & Sons, Montreal. The work at the mission of Baie Verte has been progressing most favorably, although I am sorry to say that the corner stone of our new church is not yet laid. The plans furnished by Mr. W. C. Harris were found too elaborate and quite beyond our means, and we are now having simpler plans drawn, and we hope to proceed immediately to build. The little church at Tidnish has been beautified by the placing of a window in memory of the late H. G. Ketchum, C. E., and has also been the recipient of a beautiful pulpit banner and two pede mats for the altar, the generous gift of Mrs. Medley.

We are looking forward to an early visit from the Bishop of Nova Scotia for the purpose of confirmation, when some fourteen candidates will be presented.

SALISBURY-REV. C. H. FULLERTON, B. A.

Church work in this mission has been carried on during the past year under the same conditions as reported by me on former occasions. The services of the Church have been held regularly at Petitcodiac, Havelock and in the other parts of this field of labour.

The congregations at the various churches are, as a general rule small, owing to the fact that there are few families that may be called Church, and few out of the religious denominations that seem to have acquired a taste for the form of service found in the prayer book.

I can thankfully say there are a few in this mission who are faithful in their allegiance to God's Church and who do rally to her support when called upon to do so. St.

on who are 10 do rally Havelock is the most encouraging portion of my field of labour. There are more Churchmen here than in other parts of the mission; and they are regular in their attendance at public worship as well as zealous in many good works.

In my last report I referred to the fact that the interior of St. Paul's Church had been thoroughly renovated.

This year I can say that a neat substantial fence has been built on two sides of the lot on which the church stands, and that during this summer the outside of the church will be painted.

I hope also to have St. Andrew's Church, Petitcodiac, shingled and painted before winter sets in. In this report I must also mention a visit made by the Rev. Henry Montgomery.

A meeting was held by him in St. Paul's Church, Havelock, and a good practical address was given by him bearing on the financial needs of the Board of Home Missions, which was not only greatly appreciated by the people who heard it, but resulted in a small addition to the funds of the Diocese. I very much regretted that Mr. Montgemery was not able to make a longer stay in our midst. I, however, followed his direction, and gave addresses at Petitcodiac and Mannhurst on the same lines he followed.

Our united efforts were not in vain; for I can humbly say, my people have pledged themselves to raise $35.00 more for this year than they did in former years, thereby lightening to some extent the drain that has been made at times on the rector's somewhat scanty purse.

The parish register records for the year : Baptisms, 4 ; marriages, 3; Burials, 3.

ST. ANDREWS AND CHAMCOOK – REV. CANON KETCHUM, D.D.

The Rev. Canon Ketchum deeply regrets that he cannot report at present increased contributions for the work of the Board of Home Missions. He trusts they will, at least, come up to the amount given last year.

At the special appeal on the part of the Rev. Henry Montgomery in January, the collection amounted to $28.50. The offerings of the Sunday-school amount to $20.

For the support of a curate there is a large requirement from the parishioners. Otherwise the offerings for home missions would be much more. The Rev. E. W. Simonson renders most valuable assistance. He is indefatigable in his work, which is highly appreciated by the rector and the people.

On the twentieth of October last the Lord Bishop visited the parish. Thirty-four were confirmed, including one young man, in private, who has since passed to his rest. Of this number eleven were confirmed at St. John's Chapel, Chamcook, many of whom had been brought into Church and baptized as adults under the ministration of Mr. Simonson. This was the first time such a service was held in this part of the parish, and it has greatly aided in the good work which is growing therein.

ST. DAVID-REV. J. W. MILLIDGE.

As in my twentieth and last report to the Diocesan Church Society I gave so full an account of this mission, and as that report was read barely eight months ago, this report must be brief. Affairs parochial have been going on much as usual, with the exception of an unusually large number of deaths. For some months scarcely a week passed without a funeral, and the prevailing sickness, together with stormy weather and blocked roads, reduced the Sunday congregations very considerably. Since the spring opened, however, a marked improvement has been visible.

At Ascensiontide we had a visit from Rev. H. Montgomery, who came to us as a deputation from the Board of Home Missions. He addressed the people at four different places, very forcibly putting before them the duty of doing all they possibly could to support the Church in their midst. It is to be hoped that as a result of his work the extra assessment to be laid upon this mission will be fully met by the increased contributions of the people.

St. Thomas' church, parish of St. James, has been repainted, and the Church of the Ascension will be repainted during the summer, as part of the money required is on hand. A handsome wire fence has been placed round the churchyard of the Transfiguration. stance. ted by

ST. GEORGE AND PENNFIELD - REV. R. E. SMITH, M.A.

For nearly forty years I have been connected as a missionary with the old D. C. S., which has lately been merged into the Diocesan Synod, ten years as assistant minister in St. Andrews, and nearly thirty years in S<sub>1</sub>. George and Pennfield.

It will not be out of place to give a concise resumé of my work during that period.

My chief work in St. Andrews was to assist the rector in the services of the Church on the Sunday.

Since undertaking my present mission I have had both churches repaired and modernized. During the first eighteen months of my incumbency the fine rectory in which we live was built; $500 of the $3,000 required was collected in the church. In those days we generally collected about $200 yearly for the D. C. S. In connection with this I might mention the name of the late Mrs. Joshua Knight, who was our yearly collector. To her this duty was a labour of love, and faithfully she fulfilled it.

Referring to my record, I find that I have baptized 880 persons; 410 persons have been confirmed; 179 marriages have been celebrated, and I have performed over 420 bodies the last sad obsequies of the dead. What a large congregation these would form if all brought together, equal to about four or more of my usual congregations! During the same period I have held 6,285 services, and have given 6,285 sermions and addresses. The first record I have of communicants is eighty-seven, the present number about 130.

When I began my incumbency we had appropriated pews, now they are free and unappropriated in St. George, and free in Pennfield.

We have always had two Sunday-schools in operation; that in St. George has some 100 names on its register.

At the present time the same work goes on, much at times to encourage and frequently much to discourage. In Christ Church, Pennfield, we expect shortly to have Gothic windows placed in the nave instead of the old-fashioned square ones, and which will harmonize better with our beautiful chancel window.

We had a visit lately from the Rev. Mr. Montgomery, diocesan delegate, who in a most eloquent and forcible manner brought before the people of the parish the claims of Home Missions. The attendance in St. George was moderately good; in Pennfield, the church was packed by an attentive and appreciative audience. In the matter of giving, it is hard to uproot the early education of the people when they got their religious privileges for nothing, and they were spoiled under the too fostering care and generosity of the good eld S. P. G. The weaning process began too late. Under the first rector, for a period of twenty years or so, they had to pay nothing at all; under the second rector, my predecessor, very little, and now the people's subscriptions for the sustentation of the Church, compared with other denominations, are ridiculously small, and I fear that while their ears were tickled by Mr. Montgomery's eloquence, the result will be small.

About "hard times" you will expect to hear something, I suppose. Secularly, "hard times" have departed; ecclesiastically they are present. It is much easier to get rid of "hard times" than "hard hearts."

It is our earnest desire and hope, that under our new organization, our dear old Church will be built up and prosper, but we will have to avoid "red tape" and not make so many calls for such a multiplicity of objects upon our poor and struggling country parishes, which have all they can do to keep above water. However, we will endeavor to meet the demands made upon us. I hope I have been "concise" if not "interesting."

ST. JAMES, ST. JOHN-REV. A. D. A. DEWDNEY.

In response to the request of the Lord Bishop of the Diocese I have much pleasure in submitting the following report

During the year the work of the Church has gone on with much to encourage. The presence of the Holy Spirit has been manifested in blessings which have accompanied the preaching of the gospel, in the unity and harmony of the congregation, in the earnestness and reverence of their worship, and in the strengthening and upbuilding of souls.

The present n mber of communicants is the largest in the history of the parish, and gives evidence that Christ Jesus has not been preached in vain. Three years ago, for the convenience of a few, evening communions were adopted, and have been greatly appreciated and are now largely attended. Contributors to the funds of the Church have increased between 30 and 40 per cent., and a general interest in spiritual matters has been shown. To accommodate our large school it has been found necessary to enlarge our school house. Funds have been colle

It would take too long to refer to the work of the different parochial societies, and what they have accomplished, and further reference to their loyal co-operation is omitted.

The annual subscriptions to the diocesan funds will not be received till September. What they will aggregate it is impossible to say. $11.75 has already been handed in.

During the year we have lost a number of our oldest and most respected members. With respect to one of these I may be permitted a word of tribute. The late Robt. W. Crookshank was for more than a quarter of a century warden of St. James, and for many years a representative to this Synod. During all these years he proved himself a faithful and loyal Churchman, an earnest and devoted Christian, a generous and unstinted contributor, and a passionate lover and diligent student of God's He was a man of strong convictions and steadfast purword. He had met with us, as was his regular custom, on pose. Sunday morning at the Lord's Table. After dinner he lay down to rest, and there with his dear ones around him he fell asleep. He was not, for God took him. A month later he was joined in the land of the spirits of just men made perfect by the faithful partner of his life. These servants of God have left behind them in St. James, and throughout the city of St. John, a memory which will long remain fragrant, and an influence for good which will be felt for long years to come.

ST. JOHN — THE VENERABLE ARCHDEACON BRIGSTOCKE, D.D.

In accordance with the request of the Lord Bishop I submit the following particulars as furnishing a summary of the work of the Church in this parish.

In making this my first report to the Synod of the Diocese, I might be expected to refer, after my twenty-five years' rectorate of this most important parish, to some of the chief events during that long and in many respects, and for many reasons, very eventful period. But that would not be in accordance with the request that we present a succinct report. I cannot, however, forbear from saying that while the work during that period has been at times difficult, if not severe, it has been marked throughout by many acts of great generosity and kindness on the part of my congregation, crowned as those acts were in 1895, when by the liberal bequest of the late Charles Merritt, Esq., the parish came into the possession of a very handsome property, consisting of a commodious house, garden and stable, to be used as a rectory, and which after having been put in thorough good order by the kindness of the vestry of my church, was placed at the disposal of myself and family for occupation.

One other feature of my work I must be allowed to mention, namely, that notwithstanding the absorbing character of my large parish in a very busy city, I have always made it my endeavor to assist in carrying on the work of the Diocese.

The past year has not been marked by any special event, but all has gone on with complete harmony, unflagging interest and with much hearty co-operation. This is, I feel, a good deal to say, and could not have been said in former years. That ubiquitous person, the aggrieved parishioner, seems to have left us, at any rate we do no not hear from him, and we therefore hope he no longer exists. I am sincerely thankful for this condition of affairs, for though many storms threaten which never come down, and do no hurt, yet it is distracting and unsettling to be always attending to adjusting a machine rather than working it.

In this connection I would acknowledge the kind readiness with which all members of the vestry take up the work belonging to them, and which often enough makes heavy demands upon them. The property, the buildings, the burial ground, and even the dispensing of charity, pleasant though it may be to relieve want, all call for much attention, and much devotion of their time.

The services of the Church which form our first care, are, considering all things, satisfactorily attended. The celebrations of the Holy Communion every Lord's day, and on saints' days, command, we are glad to say, an increasing attendance, and give at least some proof of greater appreciation of spiritual food, and greater desire for higher spiritual attainments. Full advantage is sought to be taken of the seasons of Advent and Lent by arranging for sermons on special subjects, and for giving special instruction on some aspect of truth or of the Christian life. Holy week is on the whole well observed, and Good Friday increasingly so. Offertories are devoted regularly twice in the year to diocesan missions, also annually to foreign and domestic missions, as directed by the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, for the parochial objects of the District Nurse Fund, and Sunday-school, and many other miscellaneous objects which circumstances may call for.

Parochial Associations .- Of these mention must be first made of the Sunday-school. I am glad to report favourably of its condition. We are fortunate enough to have a good superintendent and a faithful body of teachers and officers, numbering twenty-eight. I find the lessons approved by the Provincial Synod, and sent out with notes by a committee from Toronto, They combine Bible and Prayer Book subjects in satisfactory. regular order, so that any painstaking teacher is well supplied with abundant material from which to teach. Last Advent and Lent, a new departure in the matter of instruction was made by instituting a service for public catechising each Sunday in the church for the scholars. This plan proved successful, and will in all probability be again adopted on the return of Besides making special offerings in Advent these seasons. and Lent for the "Children's Mission Fund," in compliance with the letter from the committee for interesting Sunday-schools in mission work, each class at the beginning of the year guarantees a fixed sum for the missions of the Church; the amount thus raised is devoted to the support of the Indian boy in the home at Elkhorn, North West Territories, to diocesan missions and some benevolent objects. By this method, it is sought to promote regular and systematic giving for the Church's work.

In connection with the Sunday-school, and as a constituent part of it, there is a branch of the Daybreak Workers' Union, for enlisting the interest and co-operation of the younger girls in Zenana missionary work. Under the superintendence of a few teachers this band of young workers meets from about October ot the end of June, every Monday evening, for making various articles, which are forwarded to India to the Zenana schools. This band has been in operation two years, and so far has worked satisfactorily.

The Young Men's Association, now in its eighth year, proves invaluable in keeping the young men of our congregation together. The number on the roll is sixty-five. The work of ushering, as the showing of visitors to the church into seats is called, is done entirely by the association, and so far very carefully and satisfactorily. Then, in conjunction with the Young Women's Guild, the association decorates the church, and arranges for entertainments through the winter months, which, for novelty and variety can hardly be surpassed. The association takes the burden of the work of the Sunday-school pic-nic, when it is held, and proves itself, by its hearty co-operation, a most valuable organization. The association contributes ten dollars to diocesan missions.

The Young Women's Guild, established in November, 1890, is also flourishing, and carries on its work most assiduously and successfully. It meets every week, and each alternate week the rector attends the meetings and gives prayer book instruction for the first hour. Its membership numbers about forty. The guild contributes twenty dollars to diocesan missions.

The Guild of Nazareth is for our boys who have been confirmed, and is therefore not of large dimensions. It is doing a very useful work in trying to keep in touch with boys growing up into manhood. It has met with success.

One of our annual parochial events is a sale of fancy and other articles on behalf of missions. It is carried on under no organization, but is participated in by all in the congregation who care to and are kind enough to help. The proceeds are usually divided between our diocese and Algoma, in the proportion of two-thirds to the former, and one-third to the latter. Many thousands of dollars have been reised by this means.

Our chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, No. 136, is in full operation, and does much useful work. Members visit the hotels in the parish, which are the largest in the city, every Saturday evening, and le ve printed invitations for the guests remaining over Sunday to the services in the church. Many strangers respond to this invitation. Once a month the chapter takes charge of an evening in the seamen's mission, providing a programme of an entertaining or religious character, or both, for the sailors who frequent the rooms. A men's Bible class, under the auspices of the chapter, is held from about the first of November to the end of April. It is very ably presided over by the director, Mr. Robert Matthew, and has been successful. The number on the roll last season was thirty-five. It is open to all over 16 years of age who like to attend it.

I may here make mention of a Bible class for ladies, presided over by myself. It is held usually for five months in the winter seasons, and is always largely attended. It was set on foot in 1876, and with an interruption cansed by the great fire in 1877, has been carried on for these many years, with unabated interest. Both by those who attend it, and by myself, its sessions are regarded as among the happiest and most profitable hours in the week. n, a ten

For the favourable character of the work of the parish, I am much indebted to my valued curate and assistant, Rev. Wm. Eatough.

This report—a summary though it may be of the work carried on—has grown to longer proportions than was intended, and this fact may perhaps lead to a re-consideration of the request made to rectors of city parishes to furnish a report at all. It is difficult to see what purpose can be served thereby, when the chief statistics pertaining to the parish have already been furnished under the provisions of Canon XXI.

MISSION CHURCH OF S. JOHN BAPTIST, ST. JOHN-REV. J. M. DAVENPORT, M.A.

The little Mission Church has pursued the even tenor of its way during the past year with but little variation from its ordinary routine of Sunday and week-day services, Sundayschool work and the work of guilds and classes. The statistics are about the same as usual-over 1,300 services in the Church, of which 486 were celebrations of the Holy Communion, (over 400 early, viz., 7 and 8 A. M.), 128 sermons, 50 catechizings. Special services and courses of sermons in Advent and Lent; 27 baptisms (4 adult, 23 infant), 27 confirmed, 8 funerals, The roll of communicants is at present 270. The 4 weddings. majority of these are nominally monthly communicants, though some of them communicate less frequently, and some few not more than three times a year, while on the other hand some communicate once a week, or fortnightly, and some few more frequently still.

One very important event in the life of the Mission Church happened this year, viz.: the parochial mission conducted by the Rev. R. Dolling, late of S. Agatha's, Portsmouth. For four months previous to his arrival in St. John, careful preparation was made by intercessions, tract distribution and frequent instructions, for the efforts he was about to make for the conversion of sinners to God and the strengthening of the faithful. His labours were unceasing during the ten days he devoted to our welfare. Four times a day he preached, and during the intervals he spent much of his time in personal attention to souls. The city of St. John had some evidence given it of the ability and power of the missioner in the large meeting of menonly, addressed on the Sunday afternoon in the Mechanics' Institute, and the daily mid-day address to men-only in the Church of England Institute, kindly lent to me for the purpose by the Venerable Archdeacon of St. John. As a congregation, we have much reason for heartfelt gratitude to God for the spiritual benefits gained from the visit of so eminent an English missioner, and we all feel the responsibility laid upon us to answer more earnestly than ever to God's call to advance in the spiritual life.

Under the able superintendence of Sister Elizabeth our Sunday-school has progressed in efficiency—the numbers on the book are larger and the attendance more regular. The children are brought into Church after Sunday-school every Sunday for a children's service and catechizing by one of the clergy, generally speaking by the Rev. W. Hays. By this means we hope to, and in many cases do, secure the attendance at Church of the boys and girls after they have left the Sunday-school. The children contribute a weekly offertory to the Church, and in Advent and Lent make special efforts to collect money for the Children's Mission Fund.

The Mission Church is well served by a guild of women called the Guild of S. Monica, which includes within itself several committees for carrying out special works. It numbers about 35 The Altar Committee devotes itself to the cleaning members. and decorating of the altar and sanctuary, upon which so much of the dignity and beauty of the worship of God depends. The Embroidery Committee undertakes church embroidery for its own church, and for other churches which send in orders or require donations of necessary articles. The Recreation and Refreshment Committee looks after the creature comforts of parochial gatherings of various kinds, and the provisions for Sunday-school treats, etc. All the members of the Guild of S. Monica aid in making preparation for sales of work, and in carrying them through effectively. By such means the guild was enabled last year to contribute $250 towards the support of the branch house of the Community of the Holy Name, which does such useful work with the children, and among the sick and needy of the district. A chapter meeting of the whole guild is held once a month in the church, when its special religious service is used, and an address is given by the chaplain. There are other guilds at work in the church besides the Guild of S. Monica. One for young women communicants under the care of Sister Eunice and the Rev. P. Owen Jones, its warden, named the Holy Cross Guild. Its main object is to deepen the spiritual life of its members. It meets every week, under the Sister, and has a chapter meeting under its chaplain once a month. A guild of perseverance, in charge of Rev. W. Hays, for young men communicants, which meets once a month for religious service and instruction preparatory to communion.

One very useful work in charge of the Sisters is the mothers' meeting, which assembles every Wednesday at 2.30 p. m. for work, prayer and religious instruction. Through it many a soul has been converted to God and become a regular communicant, bringing light and happiness into homes hitherto negligent of all religion. There are 60 names on the books and an attendance average of over 30. From time to time the priest in charge gives addresses or illustrated lectures to the mothers' meeting.

There is a Bible Class for men, which meets every Tuesday at 7.30 p. m., and in Lent a Bible Class open to all in church, on Tuesday afternoons.

During the past year the improvement club for girls has been started by two of our ladies, assisted by several of their friends. The three R's are taught, shorthand, typewriting, needlework, recitation, etc. The venture has proved highly successful. About 90 names are on the books, and an average of 60 girls attend every Monday evening.

The Davenport School, under its head master, the Rev. P. Owen Jones, has had a full complement of boys for the greater part of the year, and has accomplished much satisfactory educational work. 'Unfortunately, experience assures us that the fees, lowered four years since to the Woodard standard, are too low to allow of the school becoming self-supporting. 'To place the school upon a sound basis, independent of the subsidies of its warden, endowments are needed in some form or other, either by scholarships or annual income. In the case of the Woodard schools in England, Church laymen have come forward nobly to their support. Is it too much to expect that Canadian Churchmen may be found to relieve so well proved a work as our Church school of its financial burden ?

With regard to Church support, our church, which is wholly free at all services to all comers, is maintained by offertories and envelopes. Special collections and subscriptions are taken for the support of the sick and needy, for diocesan missions, for home and foreign missions. Including the children's offerings we contributed over $225 to D. C. S. last year; over $260 for the sick and needy; about $50 to Bishop Blythe, $30 to Bishop of Algoma, $30 to S. P. G. foreign, $50 to Bishop Richardson's Central African Mission, and something to domestic missions, general. Our contributions to the B. H. M. this year (including children's) will be about $50 more than last year.

ST. MARTINS.

The Rev. A. A. Slipper writes: I resigned the rectorship of St. Martins on the first of June last. The services of the Church have been held regularly throughout the past year in Holy Trinity Church and the outstations, and the attendance has been fairly good.

My rectorship here has extended over a period of three years and eleven months, the second longest in the history of the parish. During that time I have baptized forty-seven persons, married eleven couples, buried thirty persons, and forty-four have been confirmed, about forty of whom have since become communicants.

I have endeavored, during my incumbency, to do the Church's work to the best of my ability without any attempt at courting popularity, with what success is best known to the Great Overseer of all. It is with feelings of regret that I leave some very close friends in St. Martins, and I shall always remember with feelings of gratitude their loyalty in supporting their rector amidst peculiar difficulties.

ST. MARY, ST. JOHN-REV. W. O. RAYMOND.

A lot of work is done in this parish and a lot is left undone that ought to be done. The fact is, there is a good deal to do. Statistics show this. I have been at St. Mary's church now over fourteen years, and in that time have baptized 742 infants and adults, presented 212 candidates for confirmation, married 252 couples, and officiated at 616 burials. The average yearly numbers are : baptisms 52, burials 43, marriages 18, and candidates confirmed 15.

While much has remained undone that might have been done, the congregation at St. Mary's are thankful for many encourage25 out G. on, ons out ments. Eight years ago last Easter the number of communicants was 80; at Easter this year there were, including a few sick communicated privately, 178. During the same period of eight years the number of communicants on the roll increased from 125 to 221.

During the past year the services have been remarkably well attended and the offerings have increased correspondingly. The church, so far as I know, does not at present owe a dollar. It however needs a good many things, including an organ and a furnace. Just at present we are taking a breathing spell, after spending about $3,500 in putting the church and Sunday-school in a thorough state of repair.

The premises about the church have been much improved lately through the zeal and energy of Mr. E. V. Godfrey, and are now very attractive.

We have a fair share of parish organizations; among them a united and harmonious vestry, which meets monthly with an average attendance of at least ten members; an active chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew that has thirteen members; a Young Poople's Association with upwards of sixty members, and a Ladies' Guild of some thirty members. The Sundayschools continue to do good work, the total enrolment being 348 scholars and thirty-nine teachers and officers, a total of 387. The Sunday-school raised about $330 for all purposes last year.

The young men's orchestra of nine or ten members has been a great assistance to the church in many ways. Our singing is very hearty, and is largely congregational, and the responding of the congregation is of the best.

I cannot close this report without referring to the parochial mission held during Lent by the Rev. Alfred Bareham, which grew in interest and power from the outset, and resulted in very great spiritual blessings, of which the outward tokens were manifested in ways too various to be mentioned, one of them being the very large number of Easter communicants. Evangelistic services, in continuation of the mission, were held after the departure of the missioner, and the church was filled every evening during holy week, when very earnest addresses were made by the Ven. Archdeacon Brigstocke, Rev. John de Soyres, Rev. J. M. Davenport, Rev. F. M. Bacon and Rev. W. H. Sampson.

Perhaps it is rather invidious, where one has many loyal helpers, to mention any by name, yet I cannot refrain from expressing my hearty appreciation of the services rendered by the wardens, Messrs. Olive and Town, by Mr. L. H. Roberts, director of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood, by Mr. J. N. Rogers, as choir leader and instructor, by Miss Adams, as president of the Young People's Association, by Messrs. T. E. Dyer and T. J. Unkauf, as secretaries of the Sunday-schools, by the Misses Patton, Mrs. A. W. Golding and Mrs. Olive, and many other devoted Sunday-school teachers. The juniors I leave out in this enumeration, with the single exception of Annie May Chamberlain, who is a teacher in the morning school, but has also attended the afternoon school as a scholar since March 17th, 1889, without missing a Sunday, a period of over nine years.

My people have been very good to me in many ways, have aided me in all good works, and borne patiently with all shortcomings. May He who alone can grant success to our endeavors for the advancement of His glory and the good of His Church, be with us always.

ST. PAUL, ST. JOHN-REV. A. G. H. DICKER.

The past year has been one of steady work and progress, and it is satisfactory to be able to record that although several of our Church members have left St. John during that period, there were 309 present at the Easter communion in 1898 as against 301 in 1897, showing an increase of eight communicants, to which must be added thirty-seven candidates who were confirmed by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese on the second Sunday after It may be mentioned that eighteen of these candidates Easter. were males, and about half of the whole number were adults, five having previously belonged to non-conformist denominations. This raises the confirmed from S. Paul's to 153 since Easter, 1894, being an average of something over 30 presented each year. Our Sunday-schools have continued to increase, more than 200 names being now on our registers. Three Bible classes are held by the rector each week, one for senior boys, one for confirmed lads, and one for men.

During the year we have made a much needed addition to our church, in the form of a choir room and chapel, in which our daily services through the year, and saints'day communions are held, and choir practices and Bible classes take place.

The cost of this building, $1,500, has been raised by the energy of the ladies of the Parish.

Unfortunately, following upon this expenditure, it will be necessary this year to paint the exterior of the church and gers, nt of Γ. J. isses other this lain, nded with-

We have not yet heard from all our regular contributors, many of whom are in the country, but the amount will be somewhat over $400; we trust that we shall do better next year.

A word is due to our mission church of St. Barnabas, Sandy Point Road, at which service is held every Sunday, holy communion being celebrated on the second Sunday in each month. The loyalty and devotion of the members is really remarkable, practically the whole of the communicants being present at each celebration.

We are happy to say that Canon DeVeber who has lately been seriously ill, is once more able to take the oversight of this mission, and it is our earnest hope and prayer that he may long be spared to minister amongst us.

ST. STEPHEN (CHRIST CHURCH) – REV. O. S. NEWNHAM.

There is nothing of special importance to report from this parish. The work of the Church in her services has gone on regularly during the past year. The congregation at Christ Church has somewhat increased in numbers, and some names have been added to the list of communicants. The Sundayschool holds its own and is doing a faithful work in training the coming generation in the principles and doctrines of the Church. We are very fortunate in having so earnest a Churchman as The Young Women's Mr. C. N. Vroom as superintendent. Guild of Christ Church still continue their good work, and many of the additions and improvements around the church and schoolroom are due to their untiring efforts. They have lately erected a new cote for the bell, and purchased a new carpet for the platform in the schoolroom and for the vestry, and provided rew prayer books for the church. In addition to this they keep the yard around the church looking bright and neat. In addition to their other work they have made a donation of forty five dollars towards the insurance on the church. We have lately secured a group of photos of the rectors of the parish, which is of historical interest. We have had six rectors in eighty-seven years, and it is interesting to be able to look upon the faces of those who have maintained the work of the Church during these The work of the Church in Milltown is somewhat years. hindered by the fact that services can only be given on Sunday afternoons and Wednesday evenings, with the addition of a monthly celebration on the first Sunday in the month at nine o'clock. Four o'clock on Sunday afternoon is not the most convenient hour for holding service in a town parish, and Milltown would be a good field for the employment of any of the superannuated clergymen, who could still take Sunday services, and who have a desire to continue work for the Church so far as their strength allows. If regular Sunday morning and evening services could be given in Milltown, the Church would gain We suffer somewhat in Milltown from removals. largely. Many changes are constantly taking place amongst the employees at the cotton mill. If there could be some way found for providing assistance in the services, work could be taken up in the outlying country districts, which at present cannot be touched.

We are glad to welcome the Synod of the Diocese to St. Stephen, and though our numbers are not many, we are glad to be able to say that the visiting clergy are to be entertained by the members of the Church in the parishes of St. Stephen and Trinity without having to go outside. It would have given us much pleasure if we could also have extended the same hospitality to the visiting lay representatives. If our number had been greater this would have been done.

TRINITY, ST. STEPHEN-REV. F. ROBERTSON.

The past year has been a time of spiritual blessing in this parish, for which we heartily thank God.

The Sunday services of the Church have been well and regularly attended and heartily participated in by the congregation, and upon the whole we are glad to report that the work of the Lord has prospered in our midst. Perhaps the most encouraging part of our work is the continued interest and holy enthusiasm which pervades our Wednesday evening services, which are exceptionally well attended, and not infrequently the Spirit's power and presence is sensibly felt amongst us, melting our hearts and drawing us nearer to the Saviour.

Our people are loyal to their Church and to their rector, and ever ready to give heart and hand to every good work.

The financial standing of the parish is better now than it has been for many years. During the past year many old standing bills have been settled, the small mortgage on the rectory greatly reduced, and about $200 expended on repairing and beautifying the rectory itself.

The communicants' roll is gradually increasing. Ten adult candidates were presented to the Bishop for confirmation in December last, and others are now waiting for a similar opportunity.

The future prospects of the parish are bright and hopeful, and we are encouraged to still go forward in the work of the Lord.

SHEDIAC AND POINT DU CHENE-REV.A. F. B. BURT.

The work of the Church in these parishes has gone steadily forward during the past year. The great principles of evangelical truth and apostolic order have been faithfully set forth, and have been eagerly received by the local members of the Church, as well as by the many visitors of other communions who come to our parishes, especially during the summer months. Our members have shown themselves possessed of a liberal spirit in contributing to local needs, and also to other Christian work which they could conscientiously support. The sum of $22.65 has been subscribed to the diocesan mission fund, and upwards of $100 to other missionary work. A visit from the deputation sent to Canada, with the sanction of His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, by the London Society for Promoting Christianity among the Jews, was much appreciated by our people, and was of great value, not only in stirring up missionary zeal, but also in correcting many false impressions which existed concerning the other agencies employed in the work of Jewish evangelization. The deputation spent over two weeks in this Diocese regution, and could have done more work had time allowed. We had hoped to have been able to hold a parochial mission during the present year, but our plans did not mature—the Lord not opening the way. We wait upon His divine guidance, hoping that in the near future our desires may be granted, and pray that a great outpouring of the Holy Spirit may be vouchsafed for the deepening of the spiritual life of our people, and for the bindingback of many souls to God.

SIMONDS-REV. LEO A. HOYT, M. A.

The report of this parish during the present year is one of steady growth, with nothing startling either in the way of success or failure. At Golden Grove, I find the largest growth in congregations with an ever-increasing desire for knowledge in the ways and history of our Church. At Garnet I have held regular monthly classes during the week for instruction in the These classes have been attended by interested listeners, Bible. the house being nearly always full. At Coldbrook, matters are rather discouraging. The rolling mills, upon which the place depends, have not been in a flourishing condition, and this state of things has militated against the interests of the Church at this The principal feature of work in this parish during the station. past has been the building of a church at Red Head. The sills of this building were laid on May 24, 1897, and on the 24th of May of this year it was considered sufficiently advanced to hold services. The building is far from complete. In fact, only the exterior has been finished; but circumstances have demanded that we should occupy it, so the Bishop has given his license and the Church people of Red Head are in possession of a house of their own in which they are worshipping God.

In this connection, I may mention with many thanks the encouragement I have received from kind friends of the Church. Mrs. Medley, of Fredericton, and many kind friends in St. John, have aided us not only with kindly words of sympathy, but by substantial gifts, and have placed within view the realization of our hopes, the consecration of a church at Red Head. e had g the openthat hat a or the ding-

SOUTHAMPTON AND QUEENSBURY--REV. R. COLEMAN.

This is ny first report of the mission since my appointment, a little over a year ago. At that time they had been without a clergyman in the mission for nearly a year, and, I think, without the services of the Church, excepting when the Rev. G. F. Scovil, of Prince William, could occasionally reach two of the stations.

During my first six months I took for my guide the programme of services followed by the last rector. This gave three Sunday services a month at Temperance Vale, two at Bear Island, two at Caverhill, two at Upper Queensbury, one at Maple Ridge, one at Meductic Falls, one at Millville. When there were five Sundays in the month, Temperance Vale, Maple Ridge and Caverhill had the extra services.

About the end of October last year, at a meeting of the neighboring clergy, and with the approval of the Lord Bishop, it was arranged that I should take a share in supplying the Mission of Douglas and Bright with the ministrations of the Church. From that time my programme was changed so as to take in S. Paul's church, Upper Keswick, as often as possible, there being a goodly number of Church people in that vicinity.

S. Paul's Church is thirteen or fourteen miles from the nearest station in Queensbury, and twenty-three or twenty-four miles from Temperance Vale, my central station. To fill this additional appointment I have to omit S. Thomas, Upper Queensbury, and Millville, from my list of regular Sunday services, hoping that under the circumstances the Church people of Millville would go to Maple Ridge or Temperance Vale to service, and that the very few at Upper Queensbury would go to Bear Island.

During last winter, owing to the state of the roads and the distances between the different stations, it was sometimes impossible to give more than two services on a Sunday. This was a great drawback. From November, 1897, to May, 1898, I held on an average two Sunday services a month at S. Paul's, Upper Keswick. Even this meant an occasional omission of a Sunday service at one of the other stations. During the summer months I am trying to add another service a month as often as possible at S. Paul's without diminishing the number elsewhere. This involves a great amount of Sunday driving, and can only be carried on when the roads are in good condition; to fill my Sunday appointments alone and return home means on the average a drive of forty-nine or fifty miles. This, together with other parochial work and visiting, runs up the total to considerably above 4,000 miles in the year, as far as I have kept account. It will be seen that the driving takes up an unusual amount of time, and yet this does not represent what ought to be done. One cannot but feel that for the Church to make progress in these parts there ought to be an increase of Sunday services, e. g., service every Sunday in Temperance Vale and at S. Paul's, Upper Keswick, as well as an addition at other stations.

There are many things to be thankful for, as there are many encouraging features in the work all through the mission. The services are generally well attended in all parts of the mission, considering the number of Church people and how scattered they are. The prevalence of sectarian ideas is a great hindrance to the work of the Thurch, but generally speaking there is a good feeling towards the Church, and many from outside attend the services and appear to appreciate them. Personally, I have met with nothing but kindness from the people. Great credit is due to the teachers of the Sunday-school in Temperance Vale for keeping up the work of the Sunday-school there when they were without the services of the Church. One feels that such efforts should receive the highest commendation.

The services at St. Paul's, Upper Keswick, also are bright and hearty, and the congregations in the evening are usually large. Effort is being made here by some members of the congregation to re-organize the Sunday-school.

The hand of death has been severely felt in some parts of the mission during this Spring. The records show ten burials, one marriage and eleven baptisms.

The departure of Miss Carruthers and Mr. Wm. Caverhill from Upper Caverhill this Spring is a loss deeply felt by the congregation and clergyman. They have been very faithful and ready helpers in Church work.

At a harvest festival held last autumn at Bear Island, a sum of about thirty-five dollars was realized for Church purposes. There still remains a portion of the debt on the Church, which we hope will be paid off this year.

We feel thankful to be able to say that in many ways there are signs of a growing interest in the Church, and we take courage for the future. ns on ether cal to have up an what ch to use of Vale other

SUSSEX AND STUDHOLM-REV. S. NEALES, M. A.

I am thankful to be able to report from the parishes of Sussex and Studholm a year of peace and harmony, and I trust also of some progress, although I must not conceal the fact that there are many features of the work which are far from encouraging. Perhaps it would be as well to touch upon the dark side first. We are, I am sorry to say, still wofully in debt, and although some $400 of debt was paid off last year, we are still more than $1,000 behind. Under these circumstances I trust we will be excused for not contributing more liberally than we have this year towards the Home Mission Fund. But we have done something, and I have already reported to the secretary of the B. H. M. the promise of $87.78 from the two parishes of Sussex and Studholm. Perhaps the most discouraging feature of the work is the Sunday-school, which I wish I could report as in a more flourishing condition. But being without any place in the village in which to hold our Sunday-school, and having had our children in many cases attending for several years back the Sunday-schools of other religious bodies more conveniently situated, it is a work of some difficulty to induce them to leave these schools to which they have become attached, and to come the long distance required to attend our own. And this handicap applies, though in perhaps a less degree, to the older portion of the congregation in their attendance at the services. And in fact, if the Church is to hold her own and do her proper work in Sussex, she should have some base of operations nearer the centre of population than is now the case. To this end as soon as it is possible we hope to undertake the building of a Church hall in the village, which could then be used for almost every parochial purpose, except the Sunday services. If the people will not come to the church, the Church must go to the people. Among the cheering features of the year's work which I have to record, are the two official visits of the Bishop, the first when he came to collate me to the rectory of the parish, and the second, when shortly before Easter he confirmed thirty candidates, all of whom have since become communicants, the most of them making their first communion on Easter day. Although still far from what it ought to be, our number of communicants is, I am thankful to say, steadily increasing, and on Easter day, and during the week following, there were 116 communicants who received the most comfortable sacrament of the body and blood of Christ.

We have also had several events of more than parochial interest occurring in the parish during the past year. On the second day of February last, the Kingston Deanery Choral Union held its annual service in Trinity Church, Sussex-and this with its attendant work of preparation was most eagerly enjoyed, not only by our own choir and parishioners, but by many others from adjoining parishes, who, notwithstanding the usual snow blockade which is said to always accompany these events, forced their way through to be present at this most delightful service. The annual Diocesan Sunday-school Conference, which was held in Sussex in May, will doubtless be chronicled elsewhere in the reports of the Synod, so that I need not refer to it further than to say what a source of pleasure and satisfaction, and I trust of profit also, it was to us all to have it held in our midst as well as to meet on our own ground so many of the faithful clergy and laity of the diocese. One thing else I must refer to, and it is that sad event-not really sad-but bright with the hope full of immortality, when a few short weeks ago there was laid to rest, in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, the earthly remains of one whom the parishioners throughout the whole parish, and many others, all remembered with loving, grateful thought as a faithful and true friend, as a devoted and consistent Christian, and as a loyal and true helpmeet of her noble husband-the late lamented Canon Charles Medleywhose memory now seems to grow greener as the years roll by.

In conclusion, 1 must bear witness to the uniformly kind and generous treatment that I have constantly received at the hands of my parishioners during the past year. For their many acts of kindness, for their considerate sympathy and assistance, I feel that I must give expression to my heartfelt thanks not only to them, but also and most chiefly to our heavenly Father who is the Giver of all good things.

UPHAM AND HAMMOND-REV. W. J. BATE.

I am thankful to be able to report that Church life and work in my large and scattered parish of Upham and Hammond can be summed up in two words—"healthy" and "progressive." As the successor of the Rev. S. J. Hanford, I wish to bear record on the floor of this Synod to the noble, self-denying, and faithful work done, and the good foundation laid by him during  $\mathbf{h}$

h life and Hammond ogressive." h to bear nying, and im during his thirty-eight years of unceasing labor, and to say that in every Church household the name of Parson Hanford is ever remembered with love and affection.

In the united civil parishes of Upham and Hammond there are some 110 families or 450 souls giving allegiance to the Church, and of these 450 one-third are communicants.

Last October the Lord Bishop visited my parish and confirmed fifty-six people—thirty-seven men and nineteen women the average age of both males and females being twenty-eight years. Archdeacon Neales visited Upham last December and placed before the congregation the financial needs of the diocese, with such effect that, although we are poor, and under ordinary circumstances not able to bear any increase in our assessment, yet when the demand was made for at least $25 a year more we willingly agreed to it.

Last Easter the parish of Hammond, after a period of 19 years of unorganization, was again fully organized, and is represented this year in Synod, and I believe I am correct in saying that not for some 20 years or more has my parish been represented by two lay delegates, one each from Upham and Hammond, as it is to-day.

I am endeavouring to raise enough money to buy a bell for Upham church, and toward this my people have already $45, which together with a contribution of $15 from the Women's Aid Association of Fredericton, makes a sum total of $60, so I live in hope that by this time next year the sound of the "church going bell" will be ringing in our midst.

The entries in the parsh register show that there have been for the past twelve months 31 baptisms, 7 marriages, 11 burials among the latter being one of the two original founders of S. Paul's church, Hammond, Mr. John Ferguson.

In conclusion I wish to say that my people are most kind and friendly, and have shown their good will in many ways, and I humbly pray that the goodfellowship now existing between pastor and people may continue and increase, that so the Church may "lengthen her cords and strengthen her stakes" to the honour and glory of God.

VICTORIA.

The Rev. H. M. Spike writes: For various causes we have been without a rector for several months. In this matter the parishioners were not to blame. I have been enabled to supply the services since the Rev. Mr. Withycombe left the parish. Although the parish is self-sustaining, the parishioners are not numerous. Subscriptions and collections will be sent in for the work of home missions some time this month. The Sundayschool has sent in the contents of the Lenten mission boxes, amounting to $11.10; the Epiphany appeal for Domestic and Foreign Missions, $7.22; the Ascension appeal for same object, $5.31; the centenary of S. P. C. K., $2.67; for Jews' mission at Jerusalem, in connection with Bishop Blyth's work, $4.24.

The Rev. O. S. Newnham visited this parish in February, and very earnestly explained to the congregation the great wants of the home mission work in this diocese.

We must feel that the feeble country parishes ought to have our sympathy and support, for it is evident that our clergy are doing their work for the salvation of souls with much self-denial, and frequently under many adverse circumstances.

WATERFORD AND ST. MARKS-REV. A. A. SLIPPER.

I took charge of Waterford and St. Marks on the first of June last, the Rev. A. W. Smithers having been appointed by the Bishop to go and take up again the work of the Church in Albert County. The services have been held regularly at St. John's Church, Waterford, at the Mission Room at the Upper Corner, Sussex, and at All Saints' Church, Jeffries' Corner. The congregations are fairly good, and the services are hearty and reverent. At this early stage I cannot give an extended report, but feel that I must say a word as to the state of the Church in this parish which is such as reflects great credit upon the Rev. A. W. Smithers and shows how earnestly and faithfully he has worked here, and how acceptable has been the definite teaching of the Catholic Church.

WELDFORD AND HARCOURT – REV. G. L. FREEBERN, B.D.

The work in these parishes has been going on quietly during the past year. The rector was ill for a month or so during the winter, when the services were omitted for a few times.

Though the majority of the people are poor in worldly possessions, they are always willing to give of what they have. This was shown by their giving twelve dollars' worth of labor at clearing a new cemetery.

Twenty-one infants and three adults received the sacrament of holy baptism since July, 1897. There have been sixteen burials and three marriages.

WESTFIELD – REV. HENRY T. PARLEE, B.A.

The report from this parish for the past year is only a record of work done in ordinary routine. The services have been regularly conducted both at the parish church and at St. James'. Trinity Chapel, however, has not had as many services as could have been wished, owing to the difficulty of crossing the river. It is most unfortunate that the river St. John divides this parish, as one of the most promising sections has to be deprived of regular services.

This parish has still to struggle very hard to maintain its existence. During the year the ladies raised the sum of $145.00 to be devoted to payment of stipend. The outlook at present seems somewhat brighter, and we hope to be able to report by next year that a very much smaller amount will be necessary to be raised to supplement the subscription list. We are pleased to report the steady increase in the growth of the subscription list throughout the different parts of the parish. The offertories of the three churches amounted to about $145.00 for the year, being about $35.00 in excess of any year previous to 1897.

The list of communicants is still increasing. During the year past several persons have become communicants who had been confirmed long years ago. O si sic omnes!

I have to report twelve baptisms, one marriage and eleven burials.

The parish churchyard has been enclosed by a neat and substantial fence, and the church itself has been raised and underpinned. The two new organs recently placed in the parish church and Trinity chapel are fully paid for, as well as all im first of nted by nurch in at St. Upper rr. The urty and nded reof the dit upon aithfully definite provements on Trinity. The new horse shed at St. James Church—the best in the diocese—is completed and paid for. The church itself is sadly out of repair, and it is questionable whether it would be advisable to expend upon the structure the amount of money required to put it in good condition. Said amount would go a good way towards building a new church. We are indebted to Mrs. Patterson for the gift of two handsome pulpit frontals, one white and one red. The ladies have provided new white book markers, music books, outside lamp, etc.

At the rectory we have at last made provision for an abundant supply of good water. This we have not had before since the rectory was built. The water is now pumped directly into the house from a brick and cement cistern about one hundred feet distant. (Note—it is paid for).

Through the kindness of Mr. J. F. Woodman, of Salt Lake City, U. S. A., who provided the material, a new fence is being constructed around the parish graveyard.

In closing my report I think I may safely say that our record for the year past has been one of progress.

P. S.— Since writing the above I have to record the loss by fire of St. James' Church, Westfield Beach. It caught from a neighboring building and in a few minutes was in flames. The organ, altar, prayer desk, books, stoves, etc., etc., were saved. The church was burned during session of Synod.

WESTMORLAND - REV. D. M. BLISS, B. A.

I am glad to be able to report a slight increase in the amount contributed by this parish to Diocesan Missions. The annual return of the number of baptisms, etc., has already been forwarded. This is a small country parish, as has been said, containing "humble though no less sincerely attached members of the Church," but, I am happy to say, so far we have been able to erect our church buildings, defray all incidental expenses, and at every Easter have a balance in our own favor.

WICKLOW AND WILMOT - REV. J. E. FLEWELLING.

effort ork of ricton for pastoral work, have been gratefully received and privately acknowledged. The rector wishes to return hearty thanks to many parishioners for their kind words and presents.

The saddest affair which occurred in Church circles, was the untimely death of one of our communicants, Albert Brittain, who died en route to the Klondyke. His body was brought home and interred in the cemetery at Bristol in this county, a great concourse following in procession. May he rest in peace.

The baptisms of infants have been greater than usual in the past year.

The reports from lady collectors for Diocesan missions have not yet been completed. There will, I fear, be a slight falling off, but we hope to send $75.00.

WOODSTOCK - VEN. ARCHDEACON NEALES, M.A.

Owing to the duties to which I was called as Diocesan delegate; and later, owing to enforced rest which I was compelled to take, I have been absent from my parish more than any previous year.

While doing the work of Diocesan delegate, my duty was taken by the Rev. E. A. Warneford, and during the last few weeks of my absence, the Rev. W. B. Belliss, my assistant, has carried on the work of the parish without any help. Mr. Belliss has been serving as curate in this mission very acceptably for the past two years, and it is with great regret that the parish finds itself unable to provide sufficient means to retain his services beyond the first of August. When he leaves us, he will carry with him the respect and good will of all members of the Church. It is a matter also much to be regretted, that his removal breaks up the plan of work for the whole mission, which has been carried on for the past two years.

Last autumn, a beautiful Caen stone font was placed in S. Luke's Church as a memorial to our late beloved Bishop and Metropolitan, and subscribed for in loving remembrance by those on whom he had laid hands in the holy rite of confirmation.

A new pipe organ, placed in the same church in April last, gives great satisfaction to all.
