PUBLIC OWNERSHIP IS FEATURED IN THE NEW CONSERVATIVE PARTY PLATFORM

R. L. BORDEN ANNOUNCES NEW POLICY OF PARTY IN COMMENCING AT HALIFAX HIS CAMPAIGN TOUR OF CANADA RECOMMENDS CONTROL OF UTILITIES CORPORATIONS

Great Franchises Should Be Operated For Public Benefit—Systems of Telephone and Telegraph Should Be Nationalized—Restoration of Western Public Lands.

R. L. BORDEN, K. C., M. P.—Leader of the Conservative Party in the House of Commons, Who, Last Night in Halifax, Opened a "Campaign Tour," Which Will Carry Him Across the Continent.

HALIFAX, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Speaking to an audience of about 2000 people R. L. Borden opened his Canada tour in this city to-night at the Empire Rink from the same platform on which Hon. G. E. Foster delivered his famous "Dance, you beggars, dance," speech in the 1900 campaign. For a beautiful August night the gathering was a large one, and a noticeable feature was the unusually large number of ladies present. Before the meeting Mr. Borden held a reception, at which he met many leading Conservatives. Whatever may have been the feeling against the leader after the so-called salary grab, it has been well represented. His reception to-night was equally as good as that previous to the 1904 election, but minus the fireworks. The people were there, but apparently not to cheer. They came to hear and Mr. Borden said in every word Mr. Borden said and went home with R. L. Borden occupying a higher position in their estimation and with brighter hopes for the future of the party.

Previous to Mr. Borden's speech the time was occupied by Dr. R. C. Weidon, who ran against Hon. Mr. Fielding in the by-election last fall. He said it was up to the Conservatives to rise up and get a hustle on. The old party was not yet dead, and it was confident that at the next election the Conservatives would have the support of a large number of honest independent Liberals. John C. O. Mullins, Mr. Borden's colleague at the 1904 election, followed.

Mr. Borden spoke for nearly an hour and a half. His style was slow and deliberate. It was an elaboration of the different planks of the Conservative platform, or, as he styled them, articles. On several occasions he met with applause. Particularly was this marked when he dealt with the article concerning the dealing with public domain and with the treatment of public franchises. His enunciation of the Conservative policy on these matters was well received.

He was followed by Mr. Bergeron, M.P. for Beauharnois, who captivated the gathering in a brilliant style, full of fire, humor and satire. He ridiculed the claims of the present administration. His reception was truly remarkable, and while speaking at a late hour he was repeatedly urged to go on. Where Mr. Borden failed to elicit applause, Mr. Bergeron succeeded, and where Mr. Bergeron spoke seriously all the time, Mr. Borden used ridicule in his attacks.

Mr. Borden's Address.

Mr. Borden spoke as follows: It is fitting that I should give to you some statement of the attitude and policy of the Conservative party with respect to certain great questions. Time compels me to leave for future meetings many extended arguments in their favor. The same consideration obliges me to postpone to-night necessary criticism of the misgovernment

Conservative Platform.

- 1.—Honest appropriation and expenditure of public moneys in the public interest.
- 2.—Appointment of public officials upon considerations of capacity and personal character, and not of party service alone.
- 3.—More effective provisions to punish bribery and fraud at elections, to ensure thoro publicity as to expenditures by political organizations, to prevent the accumulation of campaign funds for corrupt purposes, and to prohibit contributions thereto by corporations, contractors and promoters; to expedite the hearing of election petitions, and to prevent collusive arrangements for the withdrawal or compromise thereof; to provide for a thoro investigation of corrupt practices, and, if necessary, to appoint an independent prosecuting officer, charged with that duty, to simplify the procedure therefor, and to enforce the laws so amended.
- 4.—A thoro and complete reformation of the laws relating to the civil service, so that future appointments shall be made by an independent commission, acting upon the report of examiners, after competitive examination.
- 5.—Such reform in the mode of selecting members of the senate as will make that chamber a more useful and representative legislative body.
- 6.—A more careful selection of the sources from which immigration shall be sought, a more rigid inspection of immigrants, and the abolition of the bonus system, except under very special circumstances and for the purpose of obtaining particularly desirable classes of settlers.
- 7.—The management and development of the public domain (in which are to be included great national franchises) for the public benefit, and under such conditions that a reasonable proportion of the increment of value arising therefrom shall inure to the people.
- 8.—The operation and management of our government railways by an independent commission, free from partisan control or interference.
- 9.—The development and improvement of our national waterways, the equipment of national ports, the improvement of transportation facilities and consequent reduction of freight rates between the place of production and the market, whether at home or abroad, and the establishment of a thoro system of cold storage.
- 10.—The reorganization of the present railway commission as a public utilities commission, with wider powers and more extended jurisdiction, so as to establish thoro and effective control over all corporations owning or operating public utilities or invested with franchises of a national character.
- 11.—The establishment, after due investigation, of a system of national telegraphs and telephones, under conditions which shall be just to capital already invested in these enterprises.
- 12.—The improvement of existing postal facilities, especially in newly developed portions of the country, and the inauguration, after proper enquiry as to cost, of a system of free rural mail delivery.
- 13.—A fiscal policy which will promote the production within Canada of all useful articles and commodities that can be advantageously produced or manufactured from or by means of our natural resources, having due regard to the interests of the consumer, as well as to the just claims of our wage-earning population.
- 14.—The promotion, by negotiation, legislation and other constitutional means, of a system of mutual preferential trade within the empire.
- 15.—The restoration of the public lands to the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan upon fair terms.
- 16.—The unimpaired maintenance of all powers of self-government which have been conferred upon the provinces of Canada under the constitution.

Beck Is Needed in Ontario To See Cheap Power Through other been switched away by the corporations. You see what has already happened to our Mayor Judd.

"But how could the corporations be concerned even if Mr. Beck did run for a federal seat?" asked The World.

"The electrical trust believes Mr. Beck is got out of the way, even by being tempted by a larger field of influence, it will be comparatively easy for the trust to juggle the Ontario power policy to suit its purposes. With Mr. Beck at the head of the campaign, however, and the people confident in his ability and integrity, the electrical trust sees nothing but public ownership and benefit for the people. The trust does not like that."

"There is only one thing for Hon. Mr. Beck to do, and that is to stay in local politics until cheap power is an absolute fact. To do otherwise would be to wreck the most promising political career in Ontario."

Meanwhile Mr. Beck is saying nothing. He expects, when Mr. Whitney returns on Aug. 27, that the power policy will be ripe for further progress.

What mostly offends the Conservatives is the suggestion that Hon. Mr. Beck would care to go into the federal arena when the Ontario power policy, originated and carried on by Mr. Beck, has yet fully to be consummated.

A prominent Conservative, speaking to The World to-day, said: "I don't think there is anything in this rumor that Hon. Mr. Beck intends to get out of provincial politics and try for a federal seat. He has made his reputation and staked his public career on the Ontario power policy, and for him to mean that he has not been sincere in the past."

"The people of the Province of Ontario look to Mr. Beck to give them cheap power. If he draws out of the night before the victory is won, the suspicion will arise that another public ownership man has some way or another been switched away by the corporations. You see what has already happened to our Mayor Judd."

WALTHAM MANAGER WEALTHY MUSN'T PROTECT FROM RIGORS OF THE LAW GONE; MANY SCARED

Little Italy Wrought Up Over Losses—Ginetta Italian Bank Closed and A. Ginetta is Wanted.

Little Italy has a "bank scandal," and the detective department has a warrant for the arrest of A. Ginetta, manager of the Ginetta Italian Bank, 100 West Front-street. He is charged with the theft of money deposited with him for transmission to Italy. The total amount involved in many complaints is over $200,000.

All the money may have been sent to Italy, but as is shown in a number of cases the forwarding has been delayed for months.

Trouble has been brewing for months. The bulk of the money was deposited in March, April and May, and the senders settled back to await the thanks of grateful families at home. They never came, and the waiting Italians became restive. Complaints were made at the offices of "the bank," but according to the complainants complaints were not popular and those who made them were driven from the doors of "the bank" with threats and abuse.

Finally the warrant was sworn out and application made for many more. Then Mr. Ginetta disappeared and he said by his countrymen to be "across the line."

Sixteen of sons of Sunny Italy gathered about "the bank" yesterday, but they were not admitted. The doors were closed, and the usual police case in such a case, did any police officer of the reasons for the closing of the doors appear.

The crowd frustrated between "the bank" and the city hall, where Inspector of Detectives Duncan was deluged by bunches of Spanghetta talk which the efforts of Michael Basco, Italian Agent Sacco, the Glionnas and Rev. G. Merino, pastor of the Italian Church, who mingled the trouble, once cast but little light.

Last night Inspector Duncan received a call from one of the directors of the New York Company, which "the bank" is a branch, and which has a similar institution at Port William. This gentleman produced books of account showing that several of the sums complained of had been received by the company and sent to Italy, but that while these amounts were paid in here in April they had not been received in New York until the end of July, nor did the books cover all cases. The New York company, however, declared that his company would willingly deposit a sum sufficient to cover any discrepancy.

Crown Attorney Corley had heard of the matter. In fact he had been at work on it for weeks. He had notified the Canadian Bankers' Association of the fact that the Ginetta concern was violating the Banking Act in the use of the word "bank" in its name, having no Canadian shareholders. The penalty for this offense is a fine of $1000 or a year's imprisonment. He has received no reply. Mr. Corley states that even if the moneys received were only retained for months and finally transmitted, a technical theft has been committed.

"Many of the Italians are in a state of frenzy. In several cases all the savings of a year's frugality, such as Canadians cannot practice, are involved. In one case brought to the notice of the detective department the sum was $2000.

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT Decides to Let Tribunal Settle Newfoundland Dispute.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The American Government, which has taken the lead at The Hague Peace Conference in endeavoring to promote arbitration, will be responsible for giving The Hague tribunal the most important case yet submitted to it, in the Newfoundland fisheries dispute, which undoubtedly will be taken there as a result of the negotiations conducted in London between the foreign office and the American ambassador, Whitelaw Reid.

Both the foreign office and the embassy maintain diplomatic reserve, but it has been learned from unquestionable sources that the issue of the dispute has been harmonized and had reached an impasse.

Finally Mr. Reid made a proposal to submit the dispute to the arbitration of The Hague tribunal, having the authority of President Roosevelt and Secretary Root to do so. After a week or two of consideration the British Government accepted the proposal, and proposed that for another year, while the matter was under arbitration, the fisheries should be conducted as they were last year, under the same modus vivendi.

There has been delay in concluding the arrangement. While the British Government has secured the assent of Sir Robert Borden, the president of the arbitration, to the agreement, Sir Robert, undoubtedly, will be reluctant to accept the modus vivendi, which he opposes strongly last season. However, there is little doubt that the agreement will be entered and that the fisheries during the new season, beginning next week, will be conducted on the same methods as the last.

President Roosevelt Says That Jurists Are Too Apt to Sympathize With Prosecuted Corporations.

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Aug. 20.—President Roosevelt made some important statements in his address to-day at the laying of the cornerstone of the Cape Cod memorial monument, which is to be an imposing structure commemorating the first landing, within a few feet of its base, of the Pilgrim Fathers on American soil.

"There will be no change in the policy we have steadily pursued," declared President Roosevelt; "no let up in the effort to secure the honest observance of the law, for I regard this contest as one to determine who shall rule this government—the people, thru their governments and agents, or a few ruthless and determined men, whose wealth makes them particularly formidable, because they hide behind the breastwork of corporate organization."

The president declared that the government would undertake no action of a vindictive type, and, above all, no action which would inflict great or unmerited suffering upon innocent stockholders and upon the public as a whole. He said that the government's policy in its ultimate analysis meant "a healthy and prosperous expansion of the business activities of honest business men and honest corporations."

Referring to the present troubles in the stock markets, the president said: "I have received countless requests and suggestions, public and private, that I should say or do something to ease the situation. There is a worldwide financial disturbance. On the New York stock exchange the disturbances have been particularly severe. Most of it I believe to be due to matters not particularly confined to the United States, and to matters wholly unconnected with any governmental action, but it may well be that the determination of the government, in which gentlemen will not waver, to punish certain malefactors of great wealth has been responsible for something of the troubles, at least to the extent of having caused these men to combine to bring about as much financial stress as they possibly can in order to discredit the policy of the government, and thereby to secure a reversal of that policy so that they may enjoy the fruits of their own evil-doing."

No Change in Policy.

"That they have misled many people into believing that there should be some reversal of policy is possible. If so, I am sorry, but it will not alter my attitude."

"I wish there to be no mistake on this point. It is idle to ask me not to prosecute criminals, rich or poor, but I desire no less emphatically to have it understood that we have undertaken, and will undertake, no action of a vindictive type, and, above all, no action which shall inflict great or unmerited suffering upon the innocent stockholders and upon the public as a whole. Our purpose is to act with the minimum of harshness compatible with obtaining our ends."

"In dealing with those who offend against the anti-trust and interstate commerce laws the department of justice has to encounter many and great difficulties. Often men who have been guilty of violating those laws have not acted in criminal fashion, and if possible should be proceeded against criminally; and, therefore, it is advisable that there should be a clause in these laws providing for such criminal action, and for punishment by imprisonment as well as by fine. But, as is well-known, in a criminal action the law is strictly construed in favor of the defendant, and in our country, where both judge and jury are far more inclined to consider his rights than they are the interest of the general public; while in addition it is always true that a man's general practices may be so bad that a civil action will lie when it may not be possible to convict him of any one criminal act."

"There is unfortunately a certain number of our fellow countrymen who seem to accept the view that unless a man can be proved guilty of some particular crime he shall be counted a good citizen, no matter how infamous the life he has led, no matter how pernicious his doctrines or his practices. This is the view announced from time to time with clamorous insistence, now by a group of predatory capitalists, now by a group of sinister anarchistic leaders and agitators, whenever a special champion of either class, no matter how evil his general life, is acquitted of some one specific crime."

None Beyond Reach.

"Many men of large wealth have been guilty of conduct which, from the moral standpoint, is criminal, and their misdeeds are to a peculiar degree reprehensible because those committing them have no excuse of want, of poverty, of weakness and ignorance to offer as partial atonement. When in addition to moral responsibility these men have a legal responsibility which can be proved so as to impress a judge and jury, then the department will strain every nerve to reach them criminally. Where this is impossible, then it will take whatever action will be most effective under the actual conditions."

"In the last six years we have shown that there is no individual and no corporation so powerful that he or it stands above the possibility of punishment under the law."

Still "Undesirable."

"At one point, President Roosevelt departed for a moment from his address as previously laid out, to remark: "As I have said as to desirable and undesirable citizens remain true."

INDIANS FIRE ON CONSTABLES

Wound 2 Resisting Arrest—An Armed Force Sent From Pembroke to Make Capture.

PEMBROKE, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—In attempting to arrest an Indian on the Golden Lake Reserve, two Pembroke constables were fired upon by a party of Indians, with the result that the constables had narrow escapes. Both were slightly wounded.

A special force of constables was despatched from here on the noon train to-day to affect the arrest of the notable Indians.

The constables are heavily armed. There are 100 Indians on the Golden Lake Reserve, and they have always been considered industrious and peaceable.

The quiet of the reserve was disturbed on Friday last, when an Indian named Sarazan arrived on a visit. He tarried too long at the wine and the firewater on Saturday, and this roused his savage nature to such a pitch that he made a violent assault on one of the Indian women, a Mrs. Seymour, lacerating her face and beating her badly. Word was sent to Pembroke, and Constables Young and Dixon were sent out to arrest the Indian. When the constables arrived at the house Dixon called out to the inmates to open the door. They replied they would not, but would shoot any person who attempted to get in.

While Young was endeavoring to break open the door, Dixon tried to gain an entrance thru the window. Almost immediately there was a fusillade of bullets, one of which tore Dixon's chest. Dixon fell to the ground. When Young came to Dixon's assistance, he was fired upon again and one bullet pierced the constable's hat, grazing his forehead.

At the house was occupied by a number of armed parties and Constable Dixon was wounded. The constables decided to return to Pembroke for assistance.

CROSSING AT CANNON-ST VERY DANGEROUS PLACE

Coroner's Jury Recommend Protection—Second Attempt at Suicide—Other News.

HAMILTON, Aug. 20.—(Special)—Hillard Culp, a butcher's assistant at Beamsville, made the second attempt on his life this morning, making a big gash in his throat with a razor. Two years ago while in a camp at Orillia he tried to commit suicide. His friends do not know any good reason why he should try to make away with himself.

This was the verdict brought in tonight by the coroner's jury that investigated the death of Michael J. Noe, the young Irishman killed by a train near the corner of Ferguson-avenue and Cannon-streets last Saturday morning. "We, the jury, find that Noe came to his death by being run over accidentally by a railway car at the Cannon-street crossing of the G. T. R. The jury are further of the opinion that the company should afford better protection to the public at this crossing, as we consider it an extremely dangerous place. The evidence was to the effect that the unfortunate young man was not intoxicated, and that the only person about his person was that he appeared to be very sleepy.

The truth was the self-governing colonies regarded the matter entirely from the point of view as a government guarantee.

The loan was inevitable thru unforeseen consequences of the war, wherefor they played so conspicuous and honorable a part, and a necessary incident of the completion of the settlement, which settlement, as all know from the language of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, had been ratified by practically the unanimous sentiment of the self-governing colonies of the empire. Criticism That Transvaal Can't Afford to Help Out a Mining Company.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The plan of Premier Botha of the Transvaal to present the Cullinane diamond to King Edward meets with much criticism both in England and the Transvaal.

The finances of the colony are in oad condition, and many persons think that the expense of purchase ($1,000,000), is unnecessary. Moreover, the magnates of the Premier Diamond Mining Co. have found the Cullinane diamond to be a white elephant. There is no market for such huge stones. The Premier people are political supporters of Gen. Botha's party and critics say that if the stone belonged to the De Beers Co., which is an opponent of Gen. Botha, there would have been no thought of presenting the diamond to the King, adding that the Botha party wants to gain the credit for a patriotic act, while putting money from the treasury in the pockets of their friends at a time when the colony can ill afford such luxuries.

Mr. Asquith, replying in the house of common to the allegation that the Transvaal loan bill is an invidious form of colonial preference, said no communication had reached the government from any responsible statesman thru-out the empire in protest, or even criticism, of the loan.

MASQUERADES AS MAN.

Smooth Woman Discovered on Being Searched in Store.

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—(Special)—For the past nine months a young English woman has been masquerading in Ottawa as a man and evidently a member of a gang of light-fingered gentry.

"He" called on arrival at the Y. M. C. A. in search of work, and after being employed in the scullery of a gentleman's house obtained a position as a clerk in a leading dry-goods store. Articles of clothing were purchased, and eventually the young man was asked to enter the manager's office.

In searching "his" person the identity of "his" sex was discovered, and enough evidence was secured to convict, but the proprietor, for business reasons, refused to prosecute, naming "Thompson," therefore, from being a captured man, is now a free woman, and has made herself scarce.

BIGAMIST SENTENCED.

George Hicks Given Two Months for His Offense.

WHITBY, Aug. 20.—George Hicks, the Pickering Township bigamist, is now in jail, having been sentenced this afternoon to two months by Police Magistrate Harper.

Hicks' first wife, now living in Detroit, was brought over by the crown to prove that she had seen and spoken to her husband within seven years. The defence was that Hicks had been informed of his wife's death, and if he lived apart from his wife for seven years he could marry again. This was claimed to be reason for acquittal.

The magistrate, however, found the prisoner guilty and imposed a light sentence.

FORESTERS ROBBED.

Unknown Thief Steals and Forges Their Cheques.

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—(Special)—Letters, cheques and express orders have been stolen from the letters of Court Royal Albert, Canadian Order of Foresters.

The name of G. W. Steacey, secretary of the Foresters, has been forged, the cheques were endorsed and cashed at local banks, and express offices. The thief is unknown, but the matter has been placed in the hands of Const. Col. Sherwood of the Dominion police. The cheques are only for small sums.

SURETIES REFUSE.

Won't Go Good for $3000 Shortage of P. C. Creagan.

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 20.—(Special)—A special meeting of Thoroff council was held last night to consider the letter from P. W. Casey, solicitor for Horace D. Walton and Washington Johnston, sureties for P. C. Creagan, tax collector, whose accounts show a shortage of $3000. Casey stated that the clients refused to become responsible for the collec-

GREAT FISHING IN DOON DUE TO THE BAD WATER

Carp Rose to the Surface and Spears Were Used in Killing Them.

A spectacle of men in boats in the River Doon, spearing fish, attracted the attention of hundreds of people yesterday.

Seven small boats with men who had nets and spears, together with men and boys who "fished" from the shore, got hundreds of pounds of the fish, some of which weighed as high as seven pounds.

Many rumors of drownings spread over the city and the telephones in the newspaper offices were loaded with contradictions of these reports.

One lad came close to death as a result of his eagerness to watch the capture of a monster carp. Stretching forward from the crows on the bank he fell into the water, from which he was rescued by one of the boatmen.

William Loane, 6 Radenhurst-avenue, who has a boathouse, has "known" the River Doon since 1845. He was found by a World man vainly trying to wash the slime from the bottom of a boat just brought in by a fisherman.

Does The Morning World reach your home before 6.30? If it does not send in a complaint to the circulation department. The World is anxious to make its carrier service as nearly perfect as possible.

WE WANT A BETTER MAIL TRAIN SERVICE.

The public of Toronto and Ontario can better realize the inferior service which they are getting on the railways in this province by a knowledge of the fact that two of the so-called mail trains between Toronto and Montreal on the Grand Trunk are run without mail clerks of any kind.

The mail bags are left to the handling of the baggage-men, who are at present over-worked with baggage. There is no sorting of mails on the way in connection with these trains, and nobody can go to the train and post letters as they can in the case of those trains which carry mail clerks.

This condition of affairs has been going on for seventeen years and there is no promise of improvement. The attention of the postmaster-general is now called to it, and he must see from the growth of the country that it is time mail clerks were put on these trains.

It is also up to the postmaster-general to find a way of supplying Toronto with an early morning mail train both going east and west from Toronto. Such a train is needed by Toronto as well as by its newspapers, and the business requirements of the capital of the province cannot be properly met without it.

We believe the trade of Toronto would be immensely benefited if the postmaster-general found a way of securing an early morning train out of this city at 4 or 5 o'clock in the morning each day.

Another grievance that the people of Ontario suffer from is the late hour in the day at which most of the morning accommodation trains going out of Toronto depart. The same timetable prevails to-day and the same number of trains run to-day as were run twenty-five years ago.

Very little improvement has been made; and if any, it comes to the accomodation of the hour at which the accomodation trains depart. It will be found largely due to the fact that most of the express trains arriving in Toronto from the east and the west are from one to two or three hours late almost daily.

The postmaster-general should look into these things and he must know that the mails due in Toronto by 7 o'clock seldom reach Toronto postoffice until well on to 9 o'clock. There are delays all along the line and the postmaster-general could probably come to Toronto, bringing his best officers with him, and spend a week with them studying the mail question. The board of trade can help in the work.

MEN WHO WIN.

The progressive man naturally enjoys hard work, especially such work as calls for resource, initiative, and skill. He regards his work as a school, in which every new experience is an interesting and helpful lesson. He is eager to take new responsibilities, eager to do any piece of unfamiliar work, and eager to do more and more skillfully the work he already knows well.

The unprogressive man often has just as much natural ability as the other, but he has a wrong idea about work. Sometimes he works hard in the wrong direction because he thinks it is the right one. More often his failure to get ahead is due to the fact that he does not bring all his powers and enthusiasm to bear upon the work in hand. His whole heart is not in his task.

The unprogressive man does not consider his work a school, but vaguely imagines that it is a sort of punishment to be avoided if possible. It matters not to him that the world needs to have the work done—he thinks only of his own immediate comfort, and in so doing loses the great reward which the world pays to its real helpers—the joy of a useful life.

If you know of an unprogressive man—one who shrinks because he thinks he gains ease, and who works only from necessity—help him to see these two opposite standpoints. One clear glimpse of the true relations between him and his work will sometimes inspire a man and give to the world another progressive worker.

EDUCATION AND TEACHERS' SALARIES.

Among the duties imperatively demanded from a democracy none is more fundamental than the provision of a thoroly sound educational system. It is the boast of the English-speaking communities of North America that every soldier of Napoleon carried a marshal's baton in his knapsack, as the poorest boy in a public school may rise thru the higher schools to the universities and enjoy every advantage which, in many older countries, were ill recently the privilege of wealth. That is right, but it is of equal importance to secure that the education imparted be, in each grade, of the class best suited to develop an all-round, capable citizen. The training for that end must begin in the common school which, apart from its value as the first step in the educational ladder, is also the most valuable agent in the unification of a mixed population.

Ontario prides itself on the excellence of its school system. In theory it is admirable, but in practice there are unquestionably serious deficiencies. In part of local authorities of the responsibility resting on them to provide at least reasonably good educational facilities. In the pioneer days, both of the United States and Canada, the establishment of the public school was a primary consideration. Indeed, the value of education was appraised all the more highly because of the difficulty attending its procurement. But now that schools are compulsory and the call upon local educational boards resolves itself into the provision of the necessary funds, a tendency exists in many quarters to limit the salary appropriations to the lowest amount at which a certificated teacher can be got.

As a consequence the pedagog profession is ceasing to attract young men who naturally prefer other lines of work that offer remuneration more in accordance with present standards of living.

There is and must be ample room for their relative numbers should be so disproportionate as they are now. The best authorities practically agree that after a certain age boys are best handled by men, and this is particularly true in the upper schools, but whether the teacher be male or female, it is essential that the scale of remuneration be sufficient to enable the teaching profession to hold its own with other walks of life. Public opinion in many rural communities of Old Ontario needs to be stimulated in this direction. Resentment has already been exhibited at the regulations made by the government for the purpose of enforcing a minimum salary, altho these were mere concessions for their moderation and were generally supported.

This is too important a matter to be dealt with from a party point of view and every effort possible should be made to deepen the sense of responsibility on the part of local authorities for the efficient working of the provincial educational system.

ON WHOSE BACKS. No one disputes the fact that the life underwriters of Canada are perfectly entitled to discuss the report of the Fryal commission on insurance, and any prospective legislation touching life insurance. Underwriters and policyholders alike are vitally interested in insurance legislation.

To discuss the probable effect of any proposed legislation is the undisputed right of both. If this discussion is for the purpose of getting at the facts, sifting the wheat from the chaff, and deciding upon the best mode of modifying or revising the insurance law of Canada, it deserves to be applauded by the whole people. But if it is a stinger purpose, if it is intended to becloud the public mind and to make it appear that the revelations made during the recent insurance investigation are trivial and not worthy of being remedied, then the discussion is a dangerous one, against which the people need to be warned.

At the present writing we are free to admit that the Underwriters' Association is discussing insurance legislation professedly in the interest of the policyholders. It is well, however, to remember that the Underwriters' Association has other interests to consider, and will have nothing to do with the passing of legislation affecting insurance companies in Canada. The province of legislation for the people of Canada rests with the Dominion Parliament. The responsibility for this legislation will not be upon the shoulders of the Underwriters' Association, but will be upon the backs of the representatives of the people.

If the present and the prospective policyholders of Canada keep this thought in view, whatever the purpose of the Underwriters' Association, the ultimate result will be for the good of all concerned.

NATIONAL DECORATION DAY.

The Militia Veterans' Association Grand Council have announced that they favor declaring May 24 as the Canadian national day of decoration. The association will meet at the exhibition grounds on Sept. 6 at 3 o'clock.

SHOEWORKERS TO DEMAND GENERAL USE OF LABEL

Majority So Decide—Delegates May Lose Jobs if They Stay Too Long.

The International Boot and Shoe Workers' convention, now in session at the Labor Temple, promises to be the most costly and lengthy on record. They do not expect to get thru their business for at least another ten days. There are over 250 delegates present, each drawing $6.50 a day for expenses. Starting from the opening of the convention, a week ago, Monday the expenses total about $2000 a day.

The president announced that several delegates had been notified that unless they returned to work on Monday next they would be discharged. This led to the passing of a resolution that it was desired that all delegates should remain until the end of the convention and if any were discharged they should be protected.

An acrimonious discussion took place on the recommendation of the adoption of President Tobin's report, the Hickey section being very bitter. It was finally carried by a vote of 203 with 29 against.

A resolution of condolence was passed to Delegate J. Lynn of Haverhill, Mass., who was called away on account of the death of his brother. The afternoon session was devoted to a discussion on the use of the union stamp, the committee recommending that its use be made compulsory by all manufacturers, others suggested that it be left voluntary.

The majority decided that coercion was the only method that would ensure good wages and healthy conditions for the workers, and that the same policy should be applied to all employed in the trade to make them join the unions.

BITTER COMPETITION IN RATES ACROSS POND

Fight for Control of Steerage Passenger Business May Reach Ruinous Stage.

MONTREAL, Aug. 20.—A bitter competition for control of the steerage passenger business between North America and the continent of Europe is now in full swing of development and advances this morning indicate that it may reach a ruinous stage if some agreement or compromise is not recorded in the immediate future. Indirectly the effect will be felt by the steamship lines in Canada, and they are already taking steps as to how the difficulty may be met.

Twenty-three dollars from New York to Rotterdam is the rate now announced by the Russian volunteer fleet, and the Russian Asiatic Steamship Co.'s rate of $2 below that, announced by the conference lines Saturday, the latter having made the reduction to compete with the Russian company.

Rates on Canadian lines have been considerably lower from Montreal to Liverpool than from New York to Rotterdam, but it is highly probable now that they must make new readjustments and every effort possible should be made to hold their own against the ruinous rates fixed at New York. They run from about $26 to $28.75 on turbine steamers and Empresses.

Representatives of three Liverpool lines here, the C. P. R. steamships, the Allan and the Dominion, have met and discussed the matter, but as yet are not prepared to make any definite announcements.

WILL RELIEVE STRINGENCY.

The Commercial, Winnipeg, Aug. 17.—The opinions of some pessimists that the crop condition will cause duller business here is absurd. Even admitting that the yield would be less than it is estimated each acre of wheat will be worth about $2 more than last year. That would mean that the total value of this year's wheat would exceed that of 1906 by $10,000,000. Where, then, is there room for the opinion that their own agents will curtail the money circulation of the country? The Commercial has maintained right along that this fall's crops would relieve the money stringency, and that a record business would be done in Western Canada this fall and winter.

Political Intelligence

The World continues to give the news and talk about politics, and, most of all, about the men now in politics. They are all having a hard time of it. E. W. Thomson has been reading the riot act to Sir Wilfrid Laurier in a Boston paper. It was a most illuminating article, and The World published it in full. So did The Halifax Herald, with a lot of black-lettering thrown in. But all the hide-bound party organs took good care to keep their readers ignorant of it. But, since The World gave it widespread publicity, everyone is talking about it, and the more independent papers have commented on it a great deal.

Soon after this Thomson outburst the Ottawa correspondent of The Toronto News started in to overhaul the Conservative organization. Incidental of the mention of the name of W. F. Maclean in the Thomson letter, the M. P. for South York has come in for a lot of criticism, some of it very harsh, some of it very true, but he, too, like the rest, more than the rest, must pass under The World's publicity searchlight. So to-day we give our readers the text of a cold criticism passed on him by The St. John Sun, now the leading Liberal organ in New Brunswick. Here is how it runs: W. F. MACLEAN.

Editorial St. John Sun (Liberal), Aug. 17. A few months ago Mr. E. W. Thomson, the well-known Ottawa correspondent, wrote an article for The Boston Herald, descriptive of Canadian political conditions, in the course of which he made the remarkable suggestion that Sir Wilfrid Laurier might strengthen his cabinet by offering a portfolio to W. F. Maclean. This might have passed for the irresponsible product of an ingenious but none too reliable political writer, hard up for pot-boiling material, but for the fact that Mr. Maclean himself has apparently taken the matter seriously. Not only has his newspaper, The Toronto World, given Mr. Thomson's article conspicuous publicity in its columns, but marked copies of The World of that date have been sent broadcast over Canada, presumably at Mr. Maclean's expense and instigation. This, taken in connection with the fact that The World of late has evinced a warm admiration for Sir Wilfrid, and a generous appreciation of the government generally, if it does not bring the matter into the realm of practical politics, at least opens avenues of interesting speculation.

ALSO A TRIBUNE OF THE PEOPLE. Mr. Maclean, the nominally a Conservative, and actually a member of parliament on the opposition side of the house, believes the party name in his every characteristic, and is as little at home in his present company as a fish on land. Constitutionally, he is a Liberal of the most radical type, and continually the struggle between his peculiar situation. During his fifteen years' service as member of parliament, he has consistently posed as the advocate of the common people's interests, and tho he is demagogic in his methods, it cannot be denied that his policies have always supported his pose. Nobody has introduced so many measures of public interest as he, and tho, in every case, his propositions have at first been received coldly and indifferently by both sides of the house, he has hammered away indomitably, preaching to the public rather than to parliament, and, as a result, has had the satisfaction of seeing frequently both government and opposition swinging into line behind his suggestions—the never of hearing either give him credit for causing the change. The railway commission, for instance, was largely due to his persistent advocacy of more stringent government control of corporations; the Bell Telephone enquiry was a measure instigated by him; so was the legislation bringing telephone and telegraph companies under the control of the railway commission; so was the insurance enquiry and the agitation for lower railway fares. Altogether, he has been a highly useful public servant, and, judged by his policies and performances, would be a strength to any government.

BUT HE IS A BANDIT, IN THE EYES OF SOME. But his personality must be reckoned with by any political leader considering the advisability of affiliating with him, and if the idea of taking Maclean into his cabinet has ever occurred to Sir Wilfrid, thought of the Maclean idiosyncrasies must give him pause. Able and original and versatile and unconquerably plucky as Maclean is, he is by nature a typical Ishmaelite, as impatient of all authority and as careless of his methods of evading it as even the Moroccan bandit who recently kidnapped his famous namesake. "The man with the knife" is his common cognomen, and, if his colleagues can be believed, it aptly describes him. The instinct of discipline is not in him, and a man lacking that is not conducive to peace in any party. So, tho he is unquestionably one of the most useful men in the house, and might, by reason of his undoubted ability and popularity with the Ontario masses, make a capable and useful minister, it is doubtful if his presence in the Laurier government would prove of any permanent strength. Sir Wilfrid, like his famous predecessor, Sir John A. Macdonald, is not inclined to be long patient with insubordination, and it is doubtful if he and Maclean could get on together. As a matter of fact, speaking politically, Maclean is probably of more use to the government in his present role of thorn in the opposition's side than he would be as a minister.

HE APPRECIATES THESE BOUQUETS. P. S.—The World asked the member for South York what he thought of this opinion of him, and he said he thought it was too flattering. Indeed, he was getting off easy. When he looked across the 49th parallel and saw what they were saying of those who upheld public rights there; of those who were enforcing respect for public law, and who were, because of that, held up as "wreckers," as "disturbers of prosperity," as "Socialists," as "White House cranks," and all kinds of other hard names, he thought he was getting off easy with being called "the man with the knife," or "brigand," or "bandit." But, admitting that he was a "bandit," "an Ishmaelite," the people of Port Hope and Cobourg were saving 25 cents and 30 cents on each trip to Toronto, and a great many other people in other places were making a proportionate saving in railway travel, and he didn't mind the hard names. He rather liked these attentions. They helped to make him picturesque, at least, and picturesque was quite a useful thing to have about the house. It was often gentlemen who could not make themselves picturesque, who went out to "touch up a bit" those whom they didn't like. And finally, he said that, after reading Mr. Borden's program, as outlined at Halifax last night, that gentleman, too, might be called "a bandit" before long, and after Mr. Roosevelt's speech of yesterday, he, too, might be styled an "Ishmaelite."

R. I. His itinerary will, it is said, include a hurried visit to Niagara Falls, when he will cross the Canadian border. He will return from Niagara direct to New York and conclude his engagements there, and the Flygia is expected to sail from Boston Sept. 5.

UPPER HOUSE MEMBERS DON'T CONSIDER WOMEN

New Zealand Will Not Have Suffrage for Women Under Much Heralded Bill.

WELLINGTON, N.Z., Aug. 20.—The women politicians whose cause was championed by the house of representatives of New Zealand received scant consideration from the legislative council, which to-day, without a division, rejected the bill providing for the election of an upper house by the house of representatives. According to one of the clauses women electors were to be eligible as members of the upper house.

The legislative council of New Zealand, or upper house of the general assembly, now consists of forty-four appointed members, some of whom are life members. The house of representatives or lower house is composed of eighty members, elected by the people for terms of three years.

W. G. YARWORTH JONES, Treasurer.

1123 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

PROPERTY—The mining property of this Company is situated in the northwest corner of Jackson County, Oregon, in the "Cascade Forest Reserve," about 60 miles north of California, and on the western foot-hills of the Cascade Range. There are 12 full locations (240 acres), which practically cover all the surface of what is known locally as "Buzzard Mountain," a rounded peak, of volcanic origin, nearly 3-4 of a mile in diameter, rising over 700 feet above the level of the mill site on Elk Creek. The entire mountain is a mass of quartz-porphry intersected by strata or veins of rich "rotten quartz." IT IS ALL MILLING ORE. The estimate of the quantity above mill level by C. W. Evans, C. & M. E., of Ashland, Oregon, and James T. MacLean, C.H.M. & M.E., of New York—both thoroughly competent, reliable, and conscientious engineers—is four hundred million tons. As the ore is similar to the rich Tonopah ores, it is expected to run to great depth, and the values to steadily increase. It is a free-milling, concentrating and cyaniding proposition. The ore can be delivered at the mill in immense quantities for less than 25 cents per ton. It is easily quarried and still more easily milled. All the ore will pay handsomely for treatment. Apart from the rich veins, the gold values are from $8 per ton and upwards. The rich "pay-streaks" or strata of "rotten quartz" vary from 3 inches to 20 feet wide. They run parallel to each other about 22 feet apart. One of these, 40 inches wide, stripped or tunneled for 800 feet, averages: Gold, $28.00; silver, $24.00. Another one, over 20 feet wide, gave over $10.00 per ton on the plates of the testing mill, besides the rich sulphurets. The ore is somewhat similar to the quartz at the great Treadwell Mine, on Douglas Island, Alaska, but is very much more easily mined and milled, and at least three times as rich.

WATER POWER: An immense water power within five miles of the property can be harnessed to supply up to 8,000 horse power. There is an unlimited water supply on the property of all milling requirements.

TIMBER AND WOOD: There is over one million feet of clean, tall timber on the property. There is an abundance of wood for fuel.

RAILROADS AND ROADS: The nearest railway station is Central Point on the Oregon and Southern Pacific, distant 44 miles. There is a good wagon road to the property, the last eight miles of which was built by the former owners. The heaviest machinery necessary can be taken in to the mine. A railroad now being built will pass within ten miles of the property.

CAMPS: Good camp accommodation for twenty men is provided. Everything is practically ready to proceed with operations.

DEVELOPMENT: Over 1200 feet of tunnels have been cut into this mass for testing purposes. A 3-1/2 foot Huntington Mill was installed by the original owners, who knew very little about mining, and still less about milling, yet in the sampling and testing of the different classes of ore they made enough to pay most of the development and a living besides.

MILLING: The present owners have lately purchased this property. The small mill now being properly installed, and will be at work before the end of August. It will earn over $60.00 net per day. A milling plant will at once be ordered and installed, capable of fully treating 200 tons or over per day. When this initial plant has demonstrated the most economical and profitable method of milling this particular ore, then a large plant will be installed, capable of handling from 12,000 to 15,000 tons per day.

THE ORE IS PILED UP READY FOR MILLING.

(A Statement from the Treasurer.)

The owners of this mine are practical mining men. They are thoroughly posted on all the improved methods of securing values from the ore. It is a very simple proposition in this instance. The ore carries good values right from the "grass roots." Money can be made by "any old method." Operations were commenced the moment the property was secured. The "Testing Mill" will be running before the end of August and earning from $50.00 to $100.00 per day. Preparations are now under way to install a large "Initial Plant" to handle at least 200 tons per day.

The application for Incorporation is being prepared, and the Charter will be obtained as quickly as possible. The titles have been passed by our attorneys. They are the usual mining titles, without a flaw on the record.

We offer the public 60,000 shares at twenty cents on the dollar, that is—a $5.00 share for $1.00, to raise $60,000.00. Every dollar received will be used on or in connection with the property to enlarge the milling operations. No application will be received for less than 100 shares. Only 60,000 shares will be sold. Every applicant will receive his subscription in full until that point is reached. All the necessary data in this advertisement to form the basis of subscription. Subscribers will please send 25 per cent. of their subscriptions with their application. The balance will be due and payable on five days' notice, when the Charter has been obtained, so that legal certificates can be properly issued.

The operations will go on whether the public subscribe or not, but necessarily more slowly. The present small milling plant can be steadily increased until a large output is provided for. Only the richest ore need be milled. In a letter received to-day (August 14) from the mine, Mr. MacLean says:

"I have devoted my time for a few days to the ore that has been opened up by tunnels, containing millions of tons. I have panned some of the virgin 'ground that would go over $100.00—free gold—to the ton."

The lowest estimates, based on many tests and mill runs, place the bullion values at over $8.00 per ton of ore. The ore is easily milled, and at the utmost the cost of mining and milling will not exceed $1.50 per ton.

Monthly reports will be sent to every shareholder, and the smallest shareholder will receive exactly the same fair treatment and dividends as the largest.

We have every reason to believe that this is a larger and better property in every way than the Alaska-Treadwell, which is capitalized at $5,000,000, and has paid $8,785,000.00 in dividends; or the Homestake, which is capitalized at $21,840,000.00 and has paid dividends of $16,080,250.00. Both of these properties carry values of less than $4.00 per ton. Their ore is hard, has to be mined and hoisted, and their mines steadily unwatered.

SULTAN'S ARMY NOW AT TANGIER

Spanish Charge D'Affaires Much Disturbed Concerning the General's Attitude.

TANGIER, Aug. 20.—Five hundred sheikhs and troops, the best of the Sultan's army which usually are under the command of Cais-Sir Harry MacLean have arrived here. It was originally the intention to send them to Casablanca to co-operate with the French-Spanish forces, but Marine Minister Gabilas now talks of sending them to Mazagan.

Abel-Krim Ben Sliman, the minister of foreign affairs, in a letter to the French charge d'affaires, has reiterated the Moroccan government's condolences as a result of the assassinations at Casablanca, and added an expression of the hope that the relations between Morocco and France would remain friendly.

The Spanish charge d'affaires is reported to be much disturbed by the attitude of General Ollala during Sunday's fighting at Casablanca, when the Spanish commander, acting under a misunderstanding of his instructions, only used his troops in defending Casablanca, not taking part in the fighting outside the walls.

PARIS, Aug. 20.—The correspondent of The Matin at Casablanca speaks in loud praise of the 75-millimetre gun, fourteen rounds of which, he says, put 150 Arabs to flight. In attacking the centre of the camp on the right the Arab horsemen galloped to within four hundred yards of the French positions, where two rapid-fire guns had been mounted on the roof of a farm building. These guns opened each with 500 shots per minute, swept the ground with a rain of lead and covered it with the dead and dying.

The Tangier correspondent of The Matin telegraphs that, with the object of getting rid of the fanatical members of the Ghema, who favor a holy war, the sultan has appointed them to a delegation that is to come to Tangier to discuss measures of pacification.

Pellatt Aground. KINGSTON, Aug. 20.—The steamer Pellatt has run aground about eight miles below the city, while en route to Montreal.

VICTIM IN POOR HEALTH CONTRIBUTED TO DEATH

But Evidence Goes to Show That Assault Was a Brutal One.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—The inquest into the death of Edward Hines, who was killed as the result of a fight at the rear of the Windsor Hotel, Thursday night, was concluded this morning, the jury returning the following verdict:

"We find that the said Edward Hines came to his death as the result of blows received during the progress of a fight that took place between himself and one Thomas Ryan, in the Windsor Hotel yard on the evening of Thursday, Aug. 15. We believe further that the physical condition of deceased was not of a robust character at the time, he being unwell for some time previous, and that this weakened condition of the said Edward Hines caused by the shock occasioned by the blows given him by Thomas Ryan, the not given with murderous intent, but the result of a quarrel, and that the said Thomas Ryan is guilty of manslaughter."

Donald, Peter and John McLeary described the fight in detail, showing how Ryan had attacked Hines while the latter was removing his coat and hat. After deceased had fallen unconscious to the ground, his assailant fell upon the body and delivered a number of vicious blows, probably after the man was already dead.

Ryan appeared before Police Magistrate Elliott this morning, for a hearing prior to a remand to the jail, awaiting the assizes in December. His counsel, Hearst and MacNamara, made a strong appeal for bail, which was finally granted in the sum of $10,000.

COBOURG HORSE SHOW OPENS

COBOURG, Aug. 20.—The third Cobourg Horse Show was opened this afternoon during a slight shower of rain, but notwithstanding, a large attendance greeted the Hon. Adam Beck, who was introduced by the president, John D. Hayden, to a large, fashionable and enthusiastic audience. Mr. Beck, in addressing the audience, spoke of the beauty of the Cobourg grounds, of the lake immediately to the south, to the magnificent residences and grounds of Cobourg citizens. He spoke of the value of such shows in maintaining the supremacy of the horse and holding its own against its new rival, the automobile. Congratulating the officers of the show, for their enthusiasm and devotion to the good cause, he closed under the promise that he would be here next year with his horses, and would try his best to make the show a greater success.

After three cheers for Hon. and Mrs. Beck, the show opened with Class 18, hackney stallions, followed by one and two-year-old geldings or fillies. In the harness class, mare or gelding. In the harness class, mare or gelding. In the harness class, mare or gelding.

LEADER OF WIARTON MOB SHOT DEAD BY WOMAN

Attempt to Force "Undesirables" to Leave Town Ends in Death of Citizen.

WIARTON, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Philip Gilbert, a bachelor, aged 45, was shot and killed, supposedly by Agnes Thomas, alias Mrs. Reid, at 10 o'clock to-night.

In company with a girl called "Stella" the woman is now under arrest for the shooting. She was conducting a house of ill-repute on the northeast hill, above the town. Gilbert, it is said, organized a crowd of about 25 men and they started for the house to order them out of the neighborhood.

The women refused to go. An attempt to tear down a fence was made and a second afterwards a shot rang out and Gilbert fell dead with a bullet thru his heart.

Both women were placed under arrest. Agnes Thomas had a 22-calibre revolver. She hails from London.

CATTLEMAN TESTIFIES ABOUT DETAINED STOCK

States It Has Been Held as Long as Three Weeks—Moncrieff Is Free.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—W. W. Moncrieff, managing editor of The Tribune, will not have to go to jail for refusing to divulge the name of a correspondent to the beef commission, as the commissioners to-day decided that nothing would be gained by committing him.

W. W. Brauer of New York, a large cattle buyer and exporter, claimed, on the stand, that Gordon, Ironsides and Farces were using unfair methods to drive him out of business.

"I wish to say that I have had dealings with all of the principal cattle dealing centres, and I never met such a band of pirates. We do not know just who is responsible for this, but we believe the purpose was to drive us from Winnipeg as cattle buyers. Everybody has a key to the yards. Three times in one day my cattle were mixed with those of other people's."

"On one occasion I had 20 head stolen out of my cattle and these were secreted in a pen at one end of the yard, where it was clearly not expected that we should find them, because of a blinding snowstorm that prevailed."

"Our cattle have been detained as long as three weeks in the C. P. R. yards."

Sour Stomach

"I had constipation and feel like a new man. I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and sour stomach for many years. I have been taking medicine and other drugs, but could find no relief only loss of strength. I was advised by my friends as the only thing for indignation against my stomach and to keep the bowels in good condition. They are very nice to use."

NO LOANS TO LUCAS.

Was Never Under Obligations to Man Who is Now on Trial.

An error crept into the newspaper reports of the evidence submitted in the trial now going on before the Boot and Shoe Workers' Convention and the injustice to Edgar Lucas of Hamilton.

Mr. Lucas not only did not receive any loan from Hickey last year, nor did he accept a loan from him in this city last week.

At Boston there was no foundation at all for the rumor of a loan, while in Toronto, when a small sum was offered in a friendly way, it was declined.

It was not Hickey who accompanied Lucas to the express office in Boston but Edmunds, a fellow-inspector.

WANTS HUSBAND'S BODY.

Mrs. Grant Unable to Get Information re Man Drowned.

Mrs. Grant of 157 Ontario-street called on The World yesterday and asked for information regarding David Taylor, who, under the name of Grant, married her a few years ago.

She last saw him in Toronto at her home on Nov. 20 last, but she heard from him just before Christmas of last year. At that time he was with the surveying party captained by Cavendish Watson in New Ontario.

She said that in the winter he went into the lumber camps at Berriedale, near Parry Sound.

Since then she has been unable to get any trace of him, although she believes that the man who was recently drowned at Mesford was her husband. She says that this man before he passed away gave several names as being his own, but the last name he gave was the name Grant. That was his real name, altho he liked to travel under the name of David Taylor.

LOSES LIMB TO SAVE GIRL.

Brockville Brakeman's Heroic Work Costs a Foot.

BROCKVILLE, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—The timely and courageous rescue of a little girl, a R. W. & O. R. crossing in Ogdensburg resulted in George W. Rowell, a brakeman, losing one of his feet and suffering other injuries.

When an outgoing freight train came along towards the crossing Rowell noticed a little girl named Duquette, aged six years, standing on the step and clinging to the grabber. She was badly frightened, having boarded the car when it was about to pull out from the shipyard, where it was made up, and as the train gained momentum in going thru the yard she was naturally afraid to jump.

Rowell took in the situation at a glance and ran towards the girl, catching her in his arms. The impact, however, threw the rescuer and rescued down and in some way Rowell's foot got under the wheels and was so badly mangled that at the city hospital, to which he was removed, amputation of nearly the entire foot

WAS HE ON CAR?

Company Say Alex. Robertson Was Attempting to Board Motor.

Coroner J. J. Graham opened an inquest into the death of Alexander Robertson, killed by a street car in East Queen-street Monday night.

The Street Railway Co. declare that the man was not upon the car at the time of the accident, but was attempting to board the motor, when he slipped between that and the trailer. They say further that the car did not pass over the body, but had to be lifted from it. The inquest will be resumed Aug. 29 at the city hall.

THE HAGUE, Aug. 20.—Nearly all of the governments have sent instructions to their delegates to make an effort to bring about some kind of obligatory arbitration and also the establishment of a permanent court of arbitration in order to save the conference from failure.

How often you feel that dull, tired ache in your back, and wonder what cause it. Look out for it. There is never a pain without a cause, and the cause of this pain is going to lay you up some day for months. It tells you of a weakness, and you should cure it. Your kidneys may be crying for needed help; your spinal nerves may be exhausted, and you should want strength; you may have locomotor ataxia in its first stage, or lumbago, all of which are serious, and need to be cured to protect your health.

Do you think a dose of medicine taken into your stomach will relieve the pain? It may be stupefying the nerves, but that is not real relief. Don't you see that there's only one way to cure that trouble, and that is by giving strength to your back muscles, and stimulating circulation. No pain or weakness can exist where electricity is, for electricity is the life of the body, and when it goes in pain goes out. It is the action, the power, and no organ nor part of the body can be weak when it is full of electricity, and that it can get from my Electric Belt.

Electric Belt is a body battery made up of separate cells. It is easily, comfortably worn next to the body during the night, and gives out a continuous stream of that blood-building, nerve-feeding force, which is the basis of all health. You simply buckle it about your waist when you retire, turn on the current, and all night long, while you sleep, it pours a glowing electric current into the nerve centre of the back.

60 CARS AT CITY YARDS QUALITY OF CATTLE POOR

Prices Steady at Monday's Quotations—Hogs $6.75 Cwt.—Sheep, Etc., Steady.

Receipts of live stock at the City Market, as reported by the railways, were 60 carsload, composed of 841 cattle, 423 hogs, 1087 sheep and lambs, with 182 calves.

The quality of fat cattle, generally, was disappointing, all of the dealers being of the same opinion, and that was that they could not get enough good quality cattle to supply their customers. Trade was fair, with prices fully as good as they were at the Junction on Monday, when quality is considered.

Exporters.

Crawford & Hunslett reported one load of cattle, weighing 1300 lbs., at $4.25 per cwt. Export bulls were quoted at $4 to $4.25.

Best butchers were quoted at $4.50 to $4.75; medium, $3.75 to $4; common, $3.25 to $3.50; cows, $2.25 to $4 per cwt.; canners, $1.25 to $2 per cwt.

Butchers.

Trade in milkers and springers, with the exception of a few of the top, was dull and prices ranged from $2.50 per cow, and one or two were quoted at $5 each.

Receipts were moderate, with prices unchanged at $3 to $6 per cwt., and an odd new milk-fed calf brought $5.50 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Deliveries of sheep and lambs were light in comparison with late market receipts. The market was generally firm for all of good quality. Export ewes, $4.50 to $4.75 per cwt.; common, $3.50 to $4; medium, $3.25 to $3.50; canners, $2.25 to $2.50; cows, $2.25 to $4 per cwt.; canners, $1.25 to $2 per cwt.

Veal Calves.

Receipts were moderate, with prices unchanged at $3 to $6 per cwt., and an odd new milk-fed calf brought $5.50 per cwt.

TRIP DIFFICULT TO LARDER.

Returned Visitor Relates Story of Trip to New Gold Fields.

James Hales, just returned from Cobalt, gives an interesting talk on the condition of the country and different mines.

Mr. Hales returned from Cobalt with a large party on Saturday, after an extended trip to the silver country. He relates the following experiences:

"We were in the Larder Lake district for three days, and during that time it was necessary to walk from Heaslip to the lake. The roads are almost impassable, and in some places it is difficult for pedestrians to get along. We climbed over logs and rocks, jumped over ruts and pools of water. We were fortunate in having John Sharp of New Liskeard as our guide. One can imagine the condition of the roads when it is stated that our company pays $120 for 1000 pounds for transportation of their lumber, several times the original cost. One merchant at Larder Lake informed us that he paid five cents per pound for the hauling of his merchandise from the railway station.

"The government is expending considerable money in constructing two roads, one to the north end of the lake and the other to Fitzpatrick's. These roads are greatly needed, as they are in every direction around Larder Lake and hundreds of prospectors are daily coming to the country to locate a claim. As soon as a quartz vein is found some enterprising prospector immediately stakes his claim and begins work.

"We visited several of the best known camps and the parties in general were greatly impressed by the amount of work being done. In two mines we saw the gold in its native state, but in most places the free gold is not visible. The assays show gold and silver besides arsenic, iron and sulphur.

"The development of these claims has been completed and now the miners intend to erect buildings and sink shafts, so as to determine the value of the mineral at the surface. In many cases, the ore has been washed, but the assays show increased value at lower depths. The prospect of these two camps is exceedingly good. The rock is highly mineralized with iron pyrites, copper pyrites and galena.

"We were entertained at the camps of the Combined Gold Fields Co., Limited, the Searchlight, Garden Lake, and the Humber. The general manager of these two companies, showed us a number of claims on which the development work had been completed. He was greatly impressed by the apparent richness. Messrs. Sharp and Fitzpatrick, and those who helped them stake out their claims, were pioneers in this district.

"The return trip from the lake to Toronto was made in a very comfortable way. It was necessary to make 11 portages. In two instances we made the experiment of shooting the rapids. The water was very high, and our final experiment was not successful. Our canoe stuck in the rapid, and we were obliged to portage it. After that we adopted the safer and less exciting method of carrying canoe and baggage around the portage."

GENERAL FRENCH COMING.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The Canadian Associated Press learns that Gen. Sir John French, inspector-general of forces, intends to visit Canada, and make an official examination of the state of the defensive service. No date is named, but it is likely to be early next year.

Lieut. Rogan states the Coldstream Guards' Band hope shortly to again visit Canada.

MONTREAL STRIKE.

MONTREAL, Aug. 20.—The Garment Workers' strike has spread, and 300 men and women are now out demanding shorter hours, weekly pay, and union of piece work. The employees of Vinberg were out last week, got their demands and are back at work.

Mount Clemens Mineral Spring Report.

This famous resort is a delightful place to recreate, and easy of access by the Grand Trunk from Toronto. Leaving Toronto at 1.00 p.m. in the Pullman parlor car you arrive at Mount Clemens 7.40 p.m. or take sleeper at 11.00 p.m. and reach there 6.25 a.m. Round trip rate from Toronto $11.50. Train at Grand Trunk city office, north-west corner King and Yonge-streets, for booklet or address J. D. McDonald, district passenger agent, Union Station, Toronto.

Drive Horses to Death.

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 20.—A boy of about 17, who gave his name as Lavern Adams, charged with stealing a horse and driver from H. Pettit, rider grower, of Winona. He stole the horse one night last week, and drove it to St. Catharines, where he was arrested. He is now in the city jail, and proceeded to this city on foot.

Summer Cottage Burns.

The summer residence at Bala Muskoka of Stewart Campbell of Toronto was burned on Sunday night. The fire is thought to have started from a kitchen. The furniture was also lost. The total damage is $2000; partly covered by insurance.

Senate Building on Fire.

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—The parliament buildings of Canada were threatened with destruction by fire last night. Telephone and electric wires, and a cross at the entrance to the senate side of the building and set the work on fire.

Montreal Finances.

MONTREAL, Aug. 20.—The city council report, issued to-day, shows a deficit of $4,841,956 for 1906 and of $1,169,562 for 1905. The expenditure was $4,814,164 for 1906, and $4,882,415 for 1905.

MARKET ONE IMPROVED OFFERINGS ARE SCARCE

Undertone to Cobalt Market Shows a Decided Improvement on Lessened Offerings.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, Aug. 20. Enquiries for Cobalt stocks to-day reported them harder to buy than they have been for several weeks. There was only a limited enquiry from actual investors, but where commitments were made bids had to be advanced above yesterday's level. This undertone to the market was quite firm by comparison with recent markets, and traders short of shares expressed a nervousness not exhibited recently. There was no news to account for the improved situation, but it is becoming evident that the floating supply of shares at current levels is gradually being lessened.

STANDARD OIL CLAIMS ABSOLUTE INNOCENCE

States That $29,000,000 Fine Was Imposed Only Because of Legality of Freight Rate.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The directors of the Standard Oil Company to-day issued a pamphlet to its employees and stockholders, relative to the fine of upwards of $29,000,000.

"It should be known as widely as possible that this is no case of rebate or discrimination, but simply a matter of the government's right to collect the value of the oil for every cartload carried over the Alton road during two years at an open 6 per cent. rate—a rate used over three competing roads for ten to fourteen years.

"The trial judge refused to allow proof that the 6 per cent. rate had been filed by the Chicago & Eastern Illinois, and was, therefore, a 'legal rate'.

SHORTENS ROUTE.

New Kingston-Ottawa Line Cuts Down Mileage.

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—It is stated that the Grand Trunk Railway will proceed without delay to the construction of the line of railway between Kingston and Ottawa as soon as its route map, now before the department, is approved.

In certain places the line projected, which is known as the Kingston-Smith's Falls & Ottawa Railway, is almost identical with the proposed Canadian Northern line, and there has been more or less conflict about it that is not yet settled.

The assurance has been given that, as soon as approval of routes is secured with the proposed Canadian Northern Grand Trunk being the real backers of the scheme.

It will substantially shorten the line between Ottawa and Kingston. Some years ago the city voted a $50,000 subsidy to this company, but it lapsed by reason of not being earned.
