THE LANDSLIDE AT RODNEY SLIP

Affected Section of Union Street Fenced Off... SHED FELL LAST NIGHT

And Smith House Expected to Fall Into Rodney Slip at Any Time—City May Burn

The landslide which occurred at Rodney Slip, Charlottetown, yesterday, is a matter of much interest to the residents of the West Side. Last night's rain caused the Union Street sidewalk to sag considerably more and the fissure in the street was widened quite a bit.

The affected section has been fenced off, as the sidewalk is now on an angle of about 45 degrees. The shed at the back of the Smith house broke last night and is now lying in a tangled mass on the mud and piles at the rear of the building.

It is stated that John Henderson, proprietor of the restaurant, will start an action for damages against J. E. Smith, who leased the building from the city. It is not yet known what will be done with the building, but it is understood that no one will buy it as the city will have it burned, as this is considered the safest way of getting rid of it.

Engineer Peters, Director of Public Works, who had not budgeted the sidewalk, is now in a dilemma as to how to remove the structure owing to the possibility of the whole area sliding a slide into the harbor.

STRIKE IS SETTLED; ST. JOHN MEN RETURN TO WORK ON STEAMERS TODAY

Contract Signed This Morning Whereby Lashoremen Returned to Work at Last Year's Rates—Steamship and Railway Men Express Pleasure at Settlement and Pay Tribute to Gentlemanly Conduct of St. John Men During the Trouble.

It is expected that arrangements to send all the imported laborers back to Montreal tomorrow will be made. John Russell, Jr., manager of the Times and Telegraph, authorized by David Russell by wire from Montreal has been in conference with the steamship people looking toward a settlement that would send the men away at once. It is expected that Mr. Russell's efforts will succeed.

The agreement was signed at about 11:30 o'clock this morning whereby the local men will go to work at last winter's rates which are as follows: Day work, 20 cents an hour; night work, 30 cents an hour; trimming grain, 40 cents an hour; half time for waits; double time Sundays and holidays.

The signing of this document was, however, only a formality as the settlement was made last night and some of the men were at work on the Allan line and the Slesian this morning.

A meeting of the lashoremen was held in their hall on Water St. last night and it was decided that the men would go to work at last year's rate.

A number of west end young people will hold a pie social and dance in Old-fellow's hall, west end, tonight.

Another carload of Canadian and foreign immigrants arrived at the Atlantic Express station today. The majority of the men proceeded east.

John McKenzie, who left this city for the west last August, returned yesterday, after having spent five months in the west of Canada.

The body of Mrs. Mary K. Riddick, who died in Boston of pneumonia, was brought to the city on the Atlantic Express this morning. Undertaker Powers met the body which was interred in Fernhill.

Dr. J. W. Kerr, the immigration examining physician at Quebec who will be stationed at Sand Point during winter, has arrived in the Atlantic Express at the Clifton. Mrs. Kerr accompanies him.

YARMOUTH MAN DEAD. Dan McLaughlin, senior member of the old dry goods house of McLaughlin Bros., died here this morning, after a short illness of pneumonia. The deceased, with four brothers, came from St. John forty years ago and started a dry goods business. They soon had one of the largest establishments in the province.

Wun Lung and the Oungandoo must be cared for, and it is expected that the Ladlow will be troubled with an occasional lack of something in the kitchen. The Oungandoo has been fitted with thirty-five new bronchial tubes, and her wheeziness has quite disappeared. Wun lung will receive a new liver pad and some winter under clothing.

ASK DAMAGES FROM CITY. Case of Galbraith vs. City of St. John Up in Circuit Court Today.

The case of Galbraith vs. The City of St. John was taken up in the circuit court this morning, Justice Hanington presiding. The plaintiff, William A. Galbraith and his wife, Elizabeth Galbraith, are suing the city for damages to the amount of $1,000.

They claim that in February last, while the employees of the city were thawing out a water pipe opposite their residence at 129 Brussels street, they cut through a gas pipe and filled the plaintiff's house with gas, rendering the plaintiffs unconscious. The gas pipe, the plaintiffs say, was cut about three o'clock in the morning, and they allege that the gas was not cut off until five hours later, or at eight o'clock; that the plaintiffs were taken from the house, which they had abandoned for some time, and Mrs. Galbraith became seriously ill as a consequence of the gas poisoning, and that she was unable to receive medical treatment for more than two months.

This morning, William A. Galbraith, one of the plaintiffs, Owen Trainer, John Clift and William W. Garnett were examined for the prosecution. G. V. McPherney, K. C. appeared for the plaintiff, C. N. Skinner, K. C. for the city.

ATTEMPTED TO KILL DUCHESS. Naples Excited Over Alleged Attempt on Life of Duchess of Aosta.

NAPLES, Nov. 29.—Great excitement was caused here today by an alleged attempt against the life of the Duchess of Aosta (formerly Princess Helena of Orleans, and wife of the eldest cousin of the King Emmanuel), who is very popular here (formerly in the city of Naples), in a place at Capri in an automobile, a man about forty years old picked up a stone intending apparently to throw it at the Duchess, but was prevented from doing so by a policeman who arrested him. The man asserts that he picked up the stone to clear a way for the passage of the automobile.

POLICE COURT NEWS FROM P. E. ISLAND. Sabbath Desecration Charge Against J. G. Speardakes and Others Dismissed.

In the police court this morning James Campbell, Jeremiah McCarthy and Patrick Connell, were fined $4 each for drunkenness. Peter Neilson for being drunk in the C. E. waiting room court for committing a nuisance therein was fined $8. Joseph Foley was given in charge, according to the books, by Thomas Gibson, deputy sheriff, for staying in a room on a police court writ.

Rev. Frank G. Kelly of Lepore, Mich., a native of Charlottetown, son of the late John Kelly, formerly water commissioner, has been elected president of the new Catholic Church Extension Society of the city. The next meeting is Dec. 13th, at the archbishop's residence, Chicago.

The Boston Pilot says: "No better movement has ever been started among Catholics in America than the Catholic Church Extension Society by the Rev. Francis C. Kelly. Its object is to build small churches in the country and on the frontier settlements and equip them for effective missionary work. There is a great field for churches in the west and south especially, and a great lesson for Catholics in the work of the Methodist, who for many years have been establishing centres in new territory. We have cities which are still insufficiently provided with churches. Early in Cardinal Manning's episcopate the project of a great cathedral for the Catholics in London came up, but the great cardinal said that he must first save the children. His policy of many small churches and schools scattered all over London has saved a Catholic population to care for the great cathedral of today."

DEAD, AGED 91. TRURO, N.S., Nov. 29.—(Special)—Mrs. Ellen Murray, widow of the late John Murray, died at North River today, aged 91 years, the highly respected resident of that section for the last century.

MANY VESSELS LOST IN BIG STORM WHICH SWEEP GREAT LAKES. CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 29.—Reports received up to early today show that nine vessels were wrecked in the storm which swept over the Great Lakes Monday night and yesterday. One life is known to have been lost, and it is feared eight others have perished as a result of the storm. Six vessels are reported missing.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER. Mr. Peter Binks was down town this morning. He has been very busy at home for a couple of days, trying to make up his mind whether he had any opinions on the strike. Now that the strike is settled, Mr. Binks's mind is made up. He is convinced that the strike should be settled. It is a great relief to his friends to learn that Mr. Binks has come safely through the ordeal of making up his mind.

ONE HUNDRED TARS FROM ALLIED FLEET OCCUPY MYTILENE

MYTILENE, East End of Mytilene, Nov. 29.—All is quiet here today, the landing of the international contingents Sunday afternoon, with the subsequent occupation of the customs and postal buildings was carried out without arousing any demonstration on the part of the Turks. So peaceful is the population that 500 out of the 600 men landed from the allied fleet were subsequently withdrawn, their continued presence ashore being deemed by the commandant to be quite unnecessary and only a hundred sailors of different nationalities remain in occupation of Mytilene.

Constantinople, via Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 29.—The occupation of Mytilene by the allied forces has had no effect on the population of Constantinople, which is celebrating the Bairam festival but advice from Adrianople and Salonica reports apprehensions of trouble in the event of the prolongation of the present situation. There has been an alarming increase in the number of murders of Bulgarians by Macedonians in the vilayet of Salonica during the past few days. The authorities are doubtful whether they will receive any further respect from the Porte on the subject of demonstrations of the powers until the celebration of the Bairam festival is concluded.

SPECULATIVE ORGIES OF RECKLESS OPERATORS

That is How the New York World Describes Recent Events in Wall Street--The Over-Inflation and the Present Danger.

(New York World) The return to normal conditions in the money market has again developed the spirit of over-speculation which was chiefly responsible for the acute monetary conditions of two weeks ago, and it would not surprise the conservative element in the financial district if a repetition of the effect should follow the return of the cause.

Repressive Measures About the only effective measure that has as yet been adopted to restrict this over-inflation has been the refusal by the Chase National Bank, the American Exchange National Bank, and several other Wall Street institutions, which still adhere to old-fashioned principles and practices in the management of their deposits, to accept deposits, Loans, and Advances as collateral to anything but the most secure securities.

ABOUT GEORGE H. HAM FROM WEST INDIES

He Will Be In St. John Early Next Month On His Way Home From England. In an article dealing with the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Victoria Times says: "Not the least of the lesser luminaries, although he is perhaps not a railway man in the strict sense of the term, is George H. Ham."

IS THERE A WOMAN Who Can't Make Good Pastry.

WITH "Royal Household" Flour Did you read our talk about "Royal Household" Flour in this paper a few days ago--showing that it makes just as good pastry as it does bread--nearly everybody knows it makes the best bread and that you need no special pastry flour when you have "Royal Household" in the house?

Did you try it? And you couldn't make good pastry with it? Wait a minute. Perhaps we did not make it quite clear to you that there is a "Royal Household" way indeed but a particular way which is quite worth following out.

Of course every woman knows that in trying a new flour she is not likely to get the very best results the very first time. When a woman gets acquainted with "Royal Household" Flour--learns the feel of it--sort of makes friends with it--and gets familiar with the "Royal Household" way--she can make pastry that will be the delight and envy of everyone who sits at her table.

A woman said the other day--"Royal Household" is a sight if you take a little care and handle it in the "Royal Household" way. When I am careless about how much flour, water, etc. I put in--and just kind of rush things through--the pastry is never so good--but when I am careful--when I measure everything accurately and follow the Ogilvie's simple way of doing things--then "Royal Household" makes the most delicious pastry you ever tasted."

In the business world, a successful producer of any article of general consumption not only works all day, but sits up nights--thinking--scheming--planning some way to make his product even a little bit better than any one else has made it. No reasonable expenditure in time or machinery is too great if it will improve the product a little.

Surely then it is quite worth while for any housewife to put forth a little effort to have her baking--upon which the family health depends so much--just as good as it can possibly be.

We honestly believe that any woman of ordinary intelligence--by using "Royal Household" Flour in the "Royal Household" way--may have better bread--better pastry--everything better that is made with flour--for the remainder of her life time, if she will simply take the trouble to give "Royal Household" Flour a careful and reasonable trial.

The "Royal Household" Way. 1 pound of Royal Household Flour. Wash the butter thoroughly or use free from salt. Put both flour and butter in a cold place. Keep all smalls ice cold while working the dough. This is important. Mix about one-fourth of the butter into the flour, adding enough cold water to make a nice paste. Roll out thin and spread more butter on with a knife; fold up as you would a piece of paper, repeating this until all the butter is worked in. It is well to roll thoroughly, as better results will be obtained; half an hour is none too long. The dough should then be put in a cold place for several hours, over night is better, but do not allow it to freeze. Bake in a moderately hot oven.

Telephone any dealer for a 7 lb. bag of "Royal Household" and give it a fair trial. If you have tried it once, and because of not being thoroughly acquainted with it, did not get such results as you hoped--try it again--but in the "Royal Household" way.

If your dealer does not keep "Royal Household" send us his name and address and we will see that he or some other dealer delivers a 7 lb. bag to you promptly.

Send us a post card with your address and we will send you our recipes and a lot of useful hints for making bread and pastry. But don't forget to telephone your dealer for the 7 lb. bag.

Dan Patch paced his 13 miles in a total of 23.84; making his average per mile 1.8323; his fastest in all his trials with and without the wheel shield, and including his last performance, when he lowered Dan Patch's record by racing in 1.38, which was his fastest time in any of his races.

(Portland Advertiser) Bangor is sitting up and taking notice of the boxing line and Mike Daly is planning to put Billy Critch of this city and Jesse Savage of Bath on there for ten rounds soon. Frank Smith, the well known ball player, who for the past two years has been catcher for the Franklin baseball team in the League, is to leave Moncton shortly, having accepted a position with the Canadian Northern at Winnipeg. Frank is one of the most gentlemanly and popular baseball players that has ever played on a local team and his removal to the west is a distinct loss to the game. SOME REFLECTIONS

The strike is over. St. John men are once more doing the work that should be done by St. John men. The agitators could no longer prevail upon the members of the Longshoremen's Association to continue a hopeless struggle against the welfare of their wives and children. These men deserve the highest praise for their patience, and their good behavior under the most trying circumstances.

THE UP-STREET FAIR

Occasionally the Times finds it necessary, in the interests of peace and good neighborhood, to turn aside from matters of real importance, and take across its knees that untruthful and somewhat pernicious meddler, the St. John Star. The necessity appears to have arrived once more.

CONCERNING MR. KELLY

We sometimes derive profit from what others say of us, and it was therefore with due humility that the editor of this paper stood in Berryman's Hall last evening and heard what Mr. M. J. Kelly thinks of him. Mr. Kelly said that the editor was well paid for what he wrote in yesterday's Times. It is quite true that the editors of newspapers are paid, just like the secretaries of Longshoremen's associations.

RABBI RABINOWITZ

Rabbi Rabinowitz was understood to make the extraordinary mis-statement last evening that the press of this city was cursing the workmen. The friends of the learned Rabbi should suggest to him that he keep within the bounds of reason and common sense. He perhaps does not realize that in his speech last evening he did a gross injustice to the press of St. John.

THE COLD-CATCHING SEASON

We have been so accustomed to the notion that we catch cold that it is so easy to realize that it is really the microbes which enter into the human system and produce the unpleasant and often dangerous symptoms known as a cold. The primary cold-producing agency is one's own physical condition.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING

A meeting was held last evening in Berryman's Hall. Rev. R. Mathers made an interesting, discursive address, which had no special reference to the strike, except that he expressed a hope to see it speedily settled. Rev. Fr. Chapman complimented and congratulated the men on their fine behaviour during the strike, paid an eloquent tribute to the worth of the working classes, sharply criticized the city council, the press, the corporations and trusts, counselled the men to stand together in their organization, urged them to think of their wives and children, and expressed hope that the strike would be settled within twenty-four hours.

Mr. F. L. Potts wanted the city council to change outside laborers $100 each; denounced aldermen, hoodlums, grafters and the like, and expressed great sympathy with working men.

Mr. Edward Sears showed that the Telegraph two years ago stood up for the interests of St. John, by denouncing the corporations, and expressed his sympathy with the workmen. He wanted the strike continued and believed the citizens would support the men.

Rabbi Rabinowitz expressed full sympathy with the men, said the press was cursing the working men, and drew lessons from Russia to the effect that the St. John workmen should all organize and grasp the weapon of a general strike. Mr. J. A. Likely advised the men to accept the thirty cent rate and go to work.

President Moore of the Longshoremen's Association made a temperate and admirable address from his standpoint, setting forth the case of the men and telling what had been done to date.

Mr. M. J. Kelly read the leading article in last night's Times, said the editor was well paid for writing it, and made a somewhat fierce speech that was in marked contrast to Mr. Moore's quiet words. He moved that the mayor be asked to summon the city council to arrange a settlement of the strike. This motion was adopted by a small show of hands.

Mr. Sears then moved that the mayor be asked to hold a public meeting. He is the man who would lead a strike fund with $20.

After some discussion the original motion of Mr. Kelly was reconsidered and rejected. Before Mr. Sears' motion could be put Mr. Likely again urged the men to accept the strike. Mr. W. L. Hann had previously urged the same course, but was greeted with cries of dissent. Mr. E. A. Schofield supported Mr. Likely. The voice of Mr. James Brennan was for war on the city council. Another motion in the body of the hall wanted to know the price of red ribbon. Finally, Mr. Moore having whispered something to Mr. Likely, the latter moved that the men present remain and try to settle the strike at once. This course was adopted. Mr. Kelly and Mr. Sears were headed off.

Up to this time, therefore, that Mr. Moore whispered to Mr. Likely, the meeting was entirely barren of result and was about to adopt a motion by Mr. Sears that would have had the effect of prolonging the strike.

It was known about two early in the evening that unless some word came from the meeting, the men would be persuaded to buy if it should seem that the wages of progress were favored. They will participate in the market only as they gradually come to recognize that it is increased value which is at the base of increased prices, and that prices are far from having overtaken value.

It is to be expected and welcomed when the pace of the advance is checked from excess of natural profit-taking, and one who tries to catch frequent fluctuations will not fare so well as he who holds his position through temporary phases, convinced that legitimate conditions are working out. The final trend of the market. Speculative doublets will complain with poor grace if reactions do not go far enough to please them. Such profits as there are belong to those who, with patience and grit, through passing cloud and tests, have carried the market to where it is, and who are ably backed by natural influences to carry it higher.

THE MARKET CONDITIONS

(Watson & Alper, New York.) It is seldom in a stock market so obviously governed by the facts of property as this year's that so many important interests are operated by the old out holdings in fear of tight money and Russian speculation and long complaining against the "pernicious" and talking of the wisdom of "permitting" a substantial reaction. These men, of both large and small financial culture, who had the patience and the courage to hold through the November money squeeze and through all the alarms over the Russian troubles are not, now that many clouds are passing away, to be rebuffed at their news in surprise. The public, if distrustful of the present trend, will be persuaded to buy if it should seem that the wages of progress were favored. They will participate in the market only as they gradually come to recognize that it is increased value which is at the base of increased prices, and that prices are far from having overtaken value.

It is to be expected and welcomed when the pace of the advance is checked from excess of natural profit-taking, and one who tries to catch frequent fluctuations will not fare so well as he who holds his position through temporary phases, convinced that legitimate conditions are working out. The final trend of the market. Speculative doublets will complain with poor grace if reactions do not go far enough to please them. DR. McLEOD WAS MASKED

Boston Physician Who is on Trial in the Dress Suit Case Mystery Concealed His Identity While Performing Illegal Operation.

Boston, Nov. 28.—(Special)—At today's session of the trial of Dr. Percy D. McLeod, charged with being an accessory to the death of Susanna Agnes Geary, the victim of the "dress suit case mystery," Louis W. Crawford and William H. Hunt testified that Dr. McLeod said he would prepare the body of the girl for disposal, and that he delivered the suit case to them after they had been made ready.

Hunt also testified that Dr. McLeod said he had made out a certificate of illness which had been sent to the manager of the "The Shepherd King" Company at Lowell to explain the girl's absence from the company. Both of these men also testified that Dr. McLeod was a frequent caller at the Bishop office, and that he was paid money there about once a week. The testimony was brought that Dr. McLeod said the outside work he had done had no part in the illegal operation, but did attend to patients upon whom such operations had been performed.

Emma W. Colter, of Jamaica Plain, who had been employed as a maid at the house occupied by Mrs. Dean at 68 Winthrop street, Roxbury, identified Dr. McLeod as a man she seen there on two or more occasions, she saw him in the room occupied by Miss Geary, at which time he wore a mask.

According to Miss Colter Miss Geary was admitted to the Winthrop street house Sunday, Sept. 10th, the day on which she was supposed to have gone to Lowell with the theatrical company. Four days later—the following Thursday, Sept. 14th—Dr. McLeod called on her. He appeared the Geary girl died the following Tuesday, the 19th, but Miss Colter did not know it. She was told the girl had been taken to another hospital and was getting better.

Sarah E. Griffiths, a nurse, testified to being called to the house and asked to assist at the laparotomy operation which Dr. McLeod said was the only thing that would save Miss Geary's life. She agreed to assist.

The operation was skillfully performed, she testified, and no effort was lacking to save the girl. After Miss Geary had come out of the ether she was thought to be doing for the worse until the following Sunday night, Dr. McLeod by telephone instructed her and she followed his instructions. About daylight the following morning she noticed that the change had taken place in the girl's condition, and telephoned Dr. McLeod, who came to the house at once.

Dr. McLeod administered hypodermic injections. The girl lived throughout the day and until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Only the nurse and Miss Sarah Dean were with her when she died. She died peacefully, the nurse testified, and was conscious to the last. She made no request for a priest or that her parents be sent for. Miss Griffiths said she tried to induce the girl to tell her the name of her mother, and the latter's address but the girl refused to do so, saying her mother knew nothing of her condition and she didn't want her to know. She said she was a Methodist and that she came from Lowell.

Miss Griffiths said she left the house at 9 o'clock the same day, and that she subsequently saw Dr. McLeod who said he understood as Miss Griffiths understood that Dr. Dean was the mother of Miss Geary. She said she saw the girl's mother and provide a decent burial for her.

Dr. John H. Pettes, of Warren street, Roxbury, who assisted Dr. McLeod at the laparotomy operation, testified to the fact. He testified also that Dr. McLeod told him he was doing some of the hospital work for Dr. McLeod, and that last summer, when Dr. McLeod wanted to go out of town over Sunday, he asked Dr. Pettes to look after his patients at 68 Winthrop street, which Dr. Pettes did.

Mr. Vahsy's cross-examination touched upon several points. Crawford testified that the lease of the Bowdoin office called for the payment of $10 a week. This represented the rent and good will. In addition to this Dr. Roberts J. Henderson, the lessee, was called upon to pay the running expenses at the office.

Hunt admitted that he was under indictment in Philadelphia, charged with having caused the death by a criminal operation of a girl named Maude Gilpin. He said he did not operate upon this girl, although he admitted he ran away from the charge. He admitted that he had been in business in Philadelphia under the name of Dr. R. J. Roberts, but he denied collusion with a coroner's assistant and several undertakers with reference to the operation of bodies or connection with several so-called doctors, whose names were given.

He denied ever having told anyone it was his habit to dispose of bodies by placing them in suit cases, or that he had ever turned bodies in quicklime. In connection with his Philadelphia inquiries, Mr. Vahsy introduced several witnesses from that city.

Dr. Pettes was on the stand when the hour for adjournment was reached. His direct examination will be continued this morning.

Two witnesses testified that before the laparotomy operation was performed Dr. McLeod and Dr. John H. Pettes wore white masks, which they removed after the Geary girl became unconscious.

LET YOUR STOMACH HAVE ITS OWN WAY

Do Not Try to Drive and Force it to Work When it is Not Able or You Will Suffer All the More.

You cannot treat your stomach as some men treat a lolly-dower; force drive or even starve it into doing work at which it rebels. The stomach is a patient and faithful servant and will stand much abuse and ill treatment before it "rebels," but when it does you better go slow with it and not attempt to make it work. Some people have the mistaken idea that they can make their stomachs work by starving themselves. They might cure their stomach that way, but it would take so long that they would have no use for a stomach when they got through. The usual way out of the difficulty is to let the stomach rest if it wants to and employ a substitute to do its work.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do the work of your stomach for you and digest your food just as your stomach used to when it was well. You can prove this by putting your food in a glass jar with one of the tablets, and sufficient water and you will see the food digested in just the same time as the digestive fluids of the stomach would do it. That will satisfy your mind. Now, to satisfy both your mind and body take one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after eating all that you want—and you will feel in your mind that your food is being digested because you will feel no disturbance or weight in your stomach, in fact, you will forget all about having a stomach just as you would when you were a healthy boy or girl.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act in a regular way because they contain only the natural elements of the gastric juice and other digestive fluids of the stomach. It is no different what condition the stomach is in, they go right ahead of their own accord and do their work. They know their business and are not influenced by the weak stomach. In fact, physicians are prescribing them all over the land and if your own doctor is real honest with you, he will tell you frankly that there is nothing on earth so good for dyspepsia as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

MATTHEW HOWARTH HAS DISAPPEARED

Complainant in Manslaughter Case Has Left for Parts Unknown—Police Will Seek Him.

Moncton, Nov. 28.—(Special)—A sensation has been created in connection with the Howarth-Blackwood manslaughter case by the sudden disappearance of Matthew Howarth. It was learned that he had disappeared with his family from Moncton. Later it was discovered that he had left in a large heavy laundry, heavy stable and driven to Boundary Creek, where he boarded No. 133 train for St. John presumably en route for the States. Howarth left the horse in care of a Boundary Creek man, paying for his keep, but said nothing as to where it he hoped.

The cause of Howarth's flight on the morning of the case coming up in the county court is a mystery. He borrowed all the money he could from different parties yesterday and today. There are several citizens mourning his departure. From one money-lender he borrowed $40 on his household effects, which, it is said, belong to Howarth's landlady, for rent. He also took in his intimate friend and the man who was with him at the time his boy was shot, Charles Banks. Yesterday he asked Banks for a loan of a little money until this morning. Banks let him have all he had—$4.00—telling him he must have it today to pay his way to Dorchester. Howarth failed to keep his promise and Banks says he cannot account for his strange conduct. Howarth also tried to pawn one of numerous guns he has had in stock and it is supposed he succeeded. Several others were approached for loans showing that Howarth was raising all the money possible.

Howarth came to Moncton last July and he stated he came here from England but it now appears he was in Milltown and St. Stephen for a time, where he went by the name of Harris. He conducted his employment in the Moncton mill has not been of the most favorable character and his disappearance under the circumstances stated has started a number of rumors concerning him.

The crown authorities are endeavoring to apprehend Howarth and have him at the trial of Blackwood, which comes up Thursday.

In the event of the complainant effecting his escape the case will probably be proceeded with by the crown falling back on the evidence of Charles Banks and sons, who were with Howarth when his boy was shot.

In commenting on Howarth's disappearance Judge Wells said his disappearance and the more reason why the case should be investigated.

LAST NIGHT'S PUBLIC MEETING

It Was a Remarkable Gathering in Many Ways But, as Predicted, Adjourned Without Accomplishing Anything.

The public meeting in Berryman's hall last evening, which was called by Rev. R. Mathers and Rev. W. P. Chapman, to discuss the strike situation, was most attended. The greater number of those present were members of the ship laborers' association. Speeches were delivered appointing the men to stand firm and not give in while others advised the men to accept the old rate and go to work. Much strenuous matter was introduced at the meeting. Towards the end it was recommended that the men should remain on the platform.

Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, Hamilton, Ont., writes as follows: "I was a great sufferer from kidney trouble for eight months. I had terrible pains across the small of my back. PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS. The president, Mr. Lawrence A. Wilson, has issued the following address to his supreme committee: Gentlemen: The supreme committee, Benevolent and Protective Society of Montreal.

I must first thank you for the kind and enthusiastic interest you have taken in the formation of this society for the protection of all classes of citizens.

As this organization has not been formed for long, I will simply draw your attention to the fact that there are many homes in this city at the present time without a stick of coal, a pound of meat, and without necessary food or clothing, and it is the cause of much illness, misery and sometimes crime.

The objects of the association are for the purpose of making provision for those afflicted by sickness, accidents, reverses of fortune, and for providing relief for the widows and orphans of the lawful representatives of deceased persons; for the prevention of crime among the young; and to defend the interests of the citizens of the city of Montreal, by procuring incorporation of the same.

If Your Ill Health Is Due To BILIOUSNESS

read how others have suffered with the same complaint, and how they found relief from Biliousness, Constipation and Stomach Trouble. The greatest physicians in the world can't do more than CURE you of Biliousness and Liver Complaint. That is exactly what Fruit-a-tives do. Here is the proof that proves—

"I am taking Fruit-a-tives and must say they are the best remedy I have ever seen for Liver and Stomach Trouble. I would not be without them at any price."

For Anemia You Must Have Iron AND ANYONE CAN USE IRON, AS IT IS COMBINED WITH OTHER INGREDIENTS IN DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

Anemia or bloodlessness is indicated by paleness of the lips, the gums and the eyelids, and is most frequently found in girls and young women.

Other symptoms are deficient appetite, irritability, nervousness, shortness of breath, dizziness, faintness, headache, easily fatigued, depression and despondency.

The blood is lacking in the life sustaining power which is necessary to the proper working of the bodily organs, and can only be restored by the use of iron, as any qualified physician will tell you.

But iron alone cannot be taken into a weakened stomach. In Dr. Chase's Nerve Food iron is combined with certain nerve restoratives in such a way as to be easily assimilated into the blood and thus afford immediate and lasting benefit to the system.

And more than this, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, through its action on the nerves, sharpens the appetite and aids digestion, so that help is also afforded in deriving the full nourishment from the food taken into the body.

On account of these two ways in which Dr. Chase's Nerve Food enriches the blood and builds up the system, it is beyond doubt the most effective treatment for anemia and similar wasting disease that was ever compounded. Note your increase in weight while using it.

Miss Virginia Tule, Lower Neguac, N. B., writes: "Since the age of twelve I have been subject to spells of weakness which would come on me two or three times a week. I would be obliged to go to bed and was almost unconscious. I had pain in my stomach and back and no medicine seemed to be of much benefit to me."

"My sister Eva was also in very poor health, so we began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and continued the treatment for seven months. During that time I gained about thirty pounds in weight, and my sister gained about twenty. My sister gained nearly as much as I did, and we believe there is no treatment for pale weakness so good as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

THE STMR. BAVARIAN Montreal, Nov. 28 (Special)—After four ineffectual attempts to pull the Allan line steamship Bavarian off Wye Rock, it has been decided to abandon the big liner till for seven months. During that time I gained about thirty pounds in weight, and my sister gained about twenty. My sister gained nearly as much as I did, and we believe there is no treatment for pale weakness so good as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

The secret of good ironing

is good starching. Whiteness, stiffness, smoothness, evenness—all that goes to make good ironing comes from the starch. The hot iron merely brings it out. If it's poor starch, it's bound to be poor ironing. Colman's Starch is pure starch, good starch for ironing.
