Emigration from England Reaches Alarming Figure SEE BAD EFFECT ON OLD LAND

One M. P. Says it Will Break Nation if Continued—From Devon Alone in Twelve Months 8,456 People Emigrated (Times' Special Correspondence) London, April 1.—Competition between Canada and Australia for men is strong. There is no openly expressed competition; dignity is the keynote, but the agents of each country are busy securing the men to populate its undeveloped areas. Canada has a long lead and it is difficult to conceive that the questions of time and expense of voyage will lose their effectiveness for many years at least, though on the score of expense, the Australian government nearly equalizes the position by granting financial aid to emigrants.

During last year Australia considerably increased its emigration from this country, while that of Canada showed a slight decrease. I am told that the already large amount of money appropriated by Australia for emigration will be largely increased and the organization on this side considerably widened.

Now and again there appear in the newspapers here statements that Canada is attracting settlers from Australia. Such a statement was recently made and immediately a flood of affirmations and contradictions appeared. We were assured that men were crowding out of Australia to Canada. An Australian enthusiast replied that large numbers of Canadian farmers were emigrating to Australia, so many indeed, that the Australian government contemplated opening an office in Vancouver. So strong did the controversy become that George Reid, high commissioner for Australia, issued a statement.

Turning to the English aspect of the emigration question, the widespread alarm. The prime minister's recent statement in the house that emigration was going on faster than ever was gravely received. Fears which were being renewed by the land reform question in renewed activity. Proceeding as it is during a period of industrial prosperity makes the drain doubly severe and raises some interesting points as to the hold Canada has on the imaginations of the people.

In a conversation the other night one of our prominent M. P.'s summarized the situation in the house that emigration was going on faster than ever was gravely received. Fears which were being renewed by the land reform question in renewed activity. Proceeding as it is during a period of industrial prosperity makes the drain doubly severe and raises some interesting points as to the hold Canada has on the imaginations of the people.

marks the exact spot where the great fire broke out, but this is not the case, the fire having really begun in Padding Lane, 202 feet to the east, to emphasize with fact the memorial was built exactly that height.

J. L. Reimera, the custodian of the "tall bully," as Alexander Pope called the monument, says he has no objection on a monument "for among the visitors thereto are no end of emigrants and 'bounders,' as they say over here."

"Most visitors are not seen on being shown the spots herabouts associated with Dickens' works," he said. "Toldgers," which is close by, being an object of great interest. Some of the German judges who will come up and explain to us the alterations they intend to make when they occupy London are a trifle trying.

"I have seen quite a fair number of celebrities, John Burns is well known to me, while Miss. Patti made the tiring journey only a few weeks ago and was not in the least distressed."

Although it is a fallacy to believe, as so many of the European visitors to the Monument do, that Paris can be described from its summit, the view on a fine day, is well worth plodding up the 311 steps to obtain. Box Hill, in Surrey, the former home of George Meredith, is distinguishable quite clearly, and one can see the grand stand at Epsom with the naked eye.

THE ISSUE AT OTTAWA

The Liberals in caucus at Ottawa on Saturday decided to fight the closure bill by every legitimate means, and if possible prevent the establishment of gag rules in Canada. In this decision they have the sympathy of the majority of the people of the country, since there is no justification for the course that is being pursued by the government. The opposition have not refused supply, nor made any attempt to obstruct the business of parliament, with the single exception of their refusal to permit the passage of the naval bill.

SPARE THE HORSE

It is high time a change was made in the method of collecting His Majesty's mails. The government of Canada should not be open even to the suspicion that it is an accessory in the infliction of cruelty upon animals. Those interested in the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals have entered a complaint against those responsible for the collection of the mails from the boxes around the city.

The feeling grows in London that the Borden naval bill "is as good as dead," and that even if closure succeeds in the commons the senate will refuse to pass the bill. London is also coming around to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's point of view concerning an imperial navy. It had been deceived by Mr. Borden and the talk hunters of the Tory party into thinking that the Canadian people favored a policy of tribute.

A TIDAL POWER PLANT

Whether the enormous power at the reversing falls at St. John could be utilized for industrial purposes has long been an interesting theme for engineers, and an interesting source of speculation on the part of the citizens. It will therefore be of interest to St. John people that an attempt is to be made to produce a tidal power plant at Hugsan on the Schlaweg coastline coast of the North Sea.

the beginning of high tide, and stopping them some time after the beginning of low tide. If the water in the sea be lower than in the tank, water will flow from the latter through the sluices into the sea. The promoters of this scheme, on the hypothesis of a regular return of tidal amplitudes, presume that the operation of the turbines from one of the tanks may begin at the very moment the operation from the other tank ceases, thus ensuring a continuous service; they are reckoning on a level difference of five or six feet between the sea and the tank actually in operation, the water in both tanks rising and falling about three feet during each tide.

The board of control of the city of Montreal is considering the question of establishing more playgrounds throughout that city. Sir Edward Grey is about to take a holiday. Evidently the international situation in Europe has improved. The danger of war appears to have passed. The British foreign secretary has had a strenuous experience during the spring of the Balkan war, but the situation is so much improved that he can afford to take a holiday.

It is interesting to note that in connection with the closing of the technical evening schools in Amherst eight different manufacturers awarded substantial prizes to the students making the most progress in the different classes. The manufacturers of Amherst realize the benefits of evening schools and give them every encouragement. It is understood that the board of education of this province hopes to be in a position ere long to give more substantial aid to technical evening classes than it has been able to do in the past, and its disposition is to do so. The small beginning made in St. John during the past winter should be followed by more vigorous action next season.

At the national conference on markets and farms credits which opened in Chicago on April 9, Mr. B. F. Yoakum repeated a statement which he has made before that the United States government should establish a system of economical food distribution. He declared that only 66 per cent of the value received for the products of American farms goes to the producers, while 38 per cent goes for the expense of selling and the dealer's profit, with 12 per cent loss from decay and waste in transit. As an illustration of the conditions Mr. Yoakum said that during the past winter cabbage were rotting in Texas because farmers could not get five dollars per ton for them, while hungry people in cities were willing to pay at the rate of $50 per ton. Other speakers gave equally striking instances of the difference in price from what the producer gets and the consumer pays, and the principle of co-operation was strongly urged in order to bring about improved conditions.

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

MONDAY, APRIL FOURTEEN
Silas Alward, M.A., dean of the faculty of law at King's College, Windsor, N. S., reaches his seventy-first birthday today. He was born at Brunswick, N. B., and was for long one of the leaders of the bar in his native province.

William Thorburn, prominent woolen manufacturer, Almonte, Ont., was born on April 14, 1847, at Portsmouth, Eng. He commenced his business career in Almonte in 1869. He has represented North Lanark in the House of Commons since 1908.

Major H. J. Dawson, instructor in mathematics at the Royal Military College, Kingston, was born on this date in the year 1877. He won distinction as a student and was for some time on the staff of the University of Toronto.

LIGHTER VEIN

Mr. Henpeck—"Is your beef tender to-day?"
Butcher—"Yes, sir; as tender as a woman's heart."
Mr. Henpeck—"Then I'll take a pound of sausage."

Janet, rather wittily, "Is not the one who marries the best man, but the one who makes the best of the man she marries."

Village Gossip—"Was there anything unusual at the wedding?"
Joyce—"Well, the groom looked happy, but you know Bill tries to be pleasant, no matter what happens."

Do you believe that all men are created equal?"
"I used to before I was married."
"And now?"
"Now I find that I can't begin to compare with other women's husbands."

"John, do you love me?"
"Do you adore me?"
"Yes, I do."
"Will you always love me?"
"Yes, I will, as long as you love me."
"You look here, woman, what have you been gone and ordered with home now?"

"I say, dad, could you get me some microbes? Why, whatever for, my lad?"
"Well, I've just read that they multiply rapidly, and I thought they might help me with my mathematics."

PAT'S PHENOMENON.
Paddy, during the work's dinner hour, was endeavoring to explain to Mick what a phenomenon was. "He like this," said the countryman, "is a field of thistles growing."

"Yes, assisted Mick.
"Well, that would not be a phenomenon."
"No, that's quite clear," agreed Mick again.

"But suppose you were to see a lark singing away up in the sky?"
"Yes."
"Well, that would not be a phenomenon."
"No, that also seems clear."
"But imagine there is a bull in the field."
"Yes," Mick could imagine that.

"Even that would not be a phenomenon."
"No."
"But now, Mick, look here. Suppose you saw that bull standing on three thistles whistling like a lark—well, that would be a phenomenon!"

THE HAIRCUT.
But yesterday I dragged and dragged Indifferent to reward or hurt,
I released I wore a collar snugged
And saw fell rents invade my shirt;
I viewed the girls with scornful eye.
As one who higher pathways takes;
Today I pass no mirror by—
Strange what a change a haircut makes!

But yesterday the lure of puff
Awoke no ardor in my heart;
In close communion with myself
I played a cynic hobo's part.
Nor sport, nor song, my longing drew
Impervious to life's thrills and wakes;
Today a million would not do—
Strange what a change a haircut makes!

But yesterday not magic self
Could lure a pickle from my store.
I kept my money on the shelf,
And passed up urgent friends by score.
No more those hours shall come again
The gradual scale of three years before
Today I even borrowed ten—
Strange what a change a haircut makes!

In ironing garments on which there are hooks and eyes care should be taken not to press the hooks together so that they have to be pried open in order to use again. The best way to prevent this is to place a folded towel underneath the part on which the hooks are sewn. When ironed on the folds of the towel the hooks will come out as good as new.

HAD LIVED TOO LONG.
William Walter Wiggins was his name. By his newly-adopted profession he was an office-boy, and was getting on nicely, thank you. The telephone, however, presented difficulties to W. W. W., and efforts of his kind tamed the instrument to his own needs. The other day, since the boss was out at lunch, the telephone bell rang loudly, and William rushed to answer its changing call. "Hello!" cried he. "Who goes there?" Willie was also a boy scout, you see. "I'm one hundred and five," came the reply over the line. "Then, old chap," answered the office-boy cheerfully, "it's quite time you were dead!" William's job is now vacant.

BIG PILES OF BOOKS CLAIMED

Large Shipment to Satisfy Demand.

Every day now is dictionary day at The Telegraph and Times.

Such a demand marked the opening of the distribution of Webster's New Illustrated Dictionary that the success of the popular educational venture is assured, and more books are being rushed here by the carload.

Do not delay to reach the dictionary department before the entire 1913 edition of the most modern dictionary is exhausted.

Start clipping the required six consecutive coupons today.

Be sure that you accept no substitutes.

These valuable books are being distributed from the main office of The Telegraph and Times only. If you cannot come, write your order, including coupon, expense bonus and 22 cents postage.

Do not accept the inferior substitute works which peddlars book dealers are trying to foist on the public as "The Telegraph and Times" dictionary, or as a "just as good as" brand. Get the new 1913 edition with the complete vocabulary and big colored plates and the latest changes. There are no other like it.

Crowds clamored for the flexible leather-bound volumes known as No. 1 from early in the morning until late in the evening Saturday.

What Others Say of The Telegraph's and Times' Offer.

These comments were worth heeding, for the average intelligence among those dictionary seekers was easily seen to be very high. Many professional men filed along in line between stenographers and school girls. Doctors, lawyers and clergymen all seemed anxious to possess the handsomely bound black leather volume which looks like a fine Bible and which they described as "comprehensive" and above all else "handy."

"I've got plenty of dictionaries," a prominent physician said who came with two sets of coupons and carried away two dictionaries, one for his home and one for his office, "but this is the handiest one that I've seen. I'll use it ten times as much as I use the other. I've read the Telegraph and Times for years, and I expect to keep on reading."

"Young lady, don't bother showing me that book," an old man said to one of the busy clerks who started to explain the merit of the volume. "I know Webster's and I know the Telegraph and Times. I've read your paper for years and I have faith enough in your word for it. If you say that book is right, it is right, and I know it. Wrap it up. I'll be back again."

"I am surprised at the extensive vocabulary this book contains," an educator said. "It even includes the vocabulary which has come to be everyday English with us."

While the demand for dictionaries was keeping the clerks busy, courteous clerks in many parts of the city "got busy" with their daily volumes of student editions of Webster's and started to try to attract trade by offering them in exchange for Telegraph and Times coupons and a price which was ever so little better than the book's own.

Be sure your dictionary is 1913 and contains the latest census. Be up to date.

The prices are seventy-five cents and one dollar for reserved seats, and fifty cents for the gallery.

DO YOU ENJOY EATING

Or Does Everything You Eat Distress You

Experts declare that the reason stomach disorders are so common in this country is due to hasty and careless habits of eating. Stomach troubles and run-down conditions also usually go together.

John Lind, of Oneonta, N. Y., says:—"I had a bad stomach trouble for fifteen years and became so weak that I could hardly walk or do any work. My appetite was very poor, and it seemed impossible to get any relief. Since taking two bottles of Vinol I find that it has already made a remarkable improvement in my health, my digestion is much stronger, and I have gained in weight."

"Vinol makes weak stomachs strong because it strengthens and tones up the weakened, tired and overtaxed nerves of the digestive organs. Vinol is easily assimilated by the weakest stomachs, and is delicious to the taste."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not.

AT THE CATHEDRAL

Rev. E. J. Conway, in his sermon in the Cathedral yesterday, devoted special attention to the sin of drunkenness, and made a strong appeal to all addicted to drink to break away from the habit. He made particular reference to drinking in St. John and spoke of home miseries it caused, and of bright young men who were allowing themselves to be ruined by liquor. It was a powerful sermon.

At the monthly meeting of the Holy Name Society last evening, Rev. Dr. Meahan, before a large gathering of men, continued his interesting addresses on church history, dealing with the time of Queen Elizabeth and Mary, Queen of Scots and the conditions in England in the latter years of Elizabeth's reign.

The feast of the Patronage of St. Joseph was observed in the Catholic churches yesterday. At the seven o'clock mass in the Cathedral, His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc was celebrating the anniversary of St. Joseph's society received Holy Communion in a body. There were more than 200 past and present members of the society at the altar rail.

CHURCH VOICE COMES IN FOR CRITICISM

Clergymen Urged to Take Lessons in Voice Production

The strain of speaking in large cathedrals and the ease with which The Man Trained Can Make Himself Heard

(London Standard.)

The Bishop of Chichester's condemnation in the Upper House of Convocation of the "miserable church voice" of some clergymen will probably have the effect of starting public speaking classes among the clergy. The reading of the lessons, said the bishop, is the most melancholy thing in the church today, and several important clergymen in the church admitted to a representative yesterday that there was much truth in the statement. One of the canons of St. Paul's, who is now studying the art of oratory, stated that the resolution passed at convocation urging voice training as a requirement for candidature for admission to a diocesan house was a sign that the church was beginning to abolish "clerical throat."

"Of late," he said, "the clergy have for some reason come in for criticism, but this habit of having a voice specially for the church service has been growing for years. It is an unconscious growth in most cases; in some, I regret to say, it is effluvia. Clergymen do not always allow their natural voice to free and unobscured service in their services, and it has become a usual thing for church officials in one place or another to have a voice which the officers of the church to ask their vicar to speak in his natural manner when conducting services. The fault is found mostly among the young men, some of whom try to cultivate a voice which is only possessed by an old man who has worn out his vitality in the work of the church. Why is it that there is a peculiar tone attached to one's ideas of a bishop? Most people have the belief, unconsciously perhaps, but there all the same, that a bishop's voice is full, low, round, and reverberating. Most bishops have got into the habit of going through the service in a subdued way, but if a bishop's voice is low it is usually heard all over the church. Herein lies the mistake made by the younger men. Their voices are not so mature, they have not the power behind them, and they only try to imitate what they do not possess."

A Dramatic Cure

"At the same time the Bishop of Chichester's cure is rather drastic. His Lordship suggests that every young clergyman should have a pin with its point upwards fixed just under his chin so that his head will be kept high. The 'cure' may be simple, but I fear it will not appeal to those concerned. In the first place, there is no authority which could see to it that the pin was always there. Seriously, however, the only cure is to be had in a thorough training in voice production, which should be given to every clergyman. It would seem to one's ideas of a bishop, and the fact that such a resolution has been passed by convocation will have the certain effect of sending candidates to masters in oratory in large numbers. Already there are classes of that kind for clergymen, which are not largely attended, unfortunately, and only recently there was a very prominent dignitary who instructed all the clergy under his charge to take lessons in public speaking before they made ambitious attempts to conduct a church service.

In large cathedrals like St. Paul's and in abbeys like Westminster is a great strain on an untrained man to make his voice heard even half-way through the building. In St. Paul's every new preacher is told that when he gets into the pulpit he should face the statue of Sir Joshua Reynolds in the opposite corner of the area under the dome, and speak direct at the statue's nose! Also, he is told not to look at the congregation but to lean the thread of his discourse. It has been found, after many experiments, that to speak in that direction is the best way of making the voice carry through the cathedral, but even then the place is so vast that the people in the pews nearer the door have really no chance of hearing an ordinary voice. The echoes from the dome and pillars come back and strike the preacher in the face, so to speak. One can almost feel the blow as the air vibrates round about the pulpit.

"Some years ago there was a famous Nonconformist who joined the Church of England and was asked to preach in St. Paul's. He had a big strong voice, but not understanding the acoustics of the place, he simply shouted. With all his great voice not one member of his congregation heard what he was saying. On the other hand, the late Dean Stanley, who was a little man and had a small voice, was believed to be one of the best heard men who preached in Westminster Abbey. The reason was that he knew how to use his voice and understood oratory.

"It is unquestionable that the value of the church's work would be greatly enhanced if the clergy could be trained to read and speak well. In reading they are mostly at fault, but a good sound course of teaching in oratory would do a great deal towards banishing the miserable church voice of which the Bishop of Chichester just complains."

GOMES TO CANADA TO SPREAD PEACE GOSPEL

Rev. Dr. W. E. Darby to Spend Some Time Here

Since 1869 Has Been Advocate of Extension of Peace Movement and is the Author of Publications on the Subject

(Times' Special Correspondence)

London, April 13.—Dr. William Evans Darby, venerable secretary of the Peace Society, will visit Canada this year to associate himself with the labors of those in the dominion who are working to further the cause of peace and concord. He hopes to hasten the day when active organizations shall extend all over the dominion.

From the time when he was ordained a minister of the Congregational Church in 1869, Doctor Darby has been an advocate of the extension of the peace movement, and the later years of his life have been full of strenuous endeavors to this end. His wise counsel, effective advocacy and unflinching effort have contributed greatly to making peace the prominent theme of the day. He believes that the most valuable work can be done among the growing dominions, perhaps more valuable than can be done in the older countries which are committed to the maintenance of heavy armaments.

His publications on arbitration and peace have been numerous and he has approached the question from all sides. In his earlier years he led that group of thinkers who held that war was the most ironic commentary on the influence of religion, and that the churches themselves formed an instrument potent enough to secure freedom from international strife. Later years have demonstrated that national rather than religious impulses exercise the deciding factor, and those views have been largely, though not completely, resigned. A kindly, gentle spirit, he will be revered in Canada as he is in England and on the continent.

Doctor Darby speaks enthusiastically of the efforts of Rev. William Stephenson of Victoria, B. C., who has done such excellent work for the cause during his ministry there. Speaking of the suggestion to place a statue of George Washington in Westminster Abbey, he expressed himself as strongly in support of it, and remarked on the change of sentiment which made it natural that the great revolutionist should finally be honored in the edifice which enshrines the remains of the patriots and heroes of the country against which he led the rebellion.

PUBLIC WORKS CHANGES.

Telegrams from Ottawa state that J. K. Scammell, of this city, district engineer for the public works department, in charge of the St. John river operations, has been retired from the department. A telegram was received by F. G. G. Goodspeed, district engineer, asking him to take charge of Mr. Scammell's office, and staff, which he has done.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kierstead called upon them at their home in Hampton on Friday evening and congratulated them most heartily upon the observance of their twentieth wedding anniversary. During the evening on behalf of those assembled, Rev. Mr. McLuckie presented to them a mahogany tray, a silver teapot, and a pair of tea caddies.

BAGKACHE A WARNING ALL SHOULD HEED

It is One of the First Signs of Kidney Troubles, if Neglected, Serious Diseases Follow.

No one can be well and healthy unless the kidneys work properly and keep the blood pure. When they become clogged up and inactive, nature has a way of warning you.

Backache is one of the first symptoms. You may also be troubled with disagreeable, annoying bladder disorders; have attacks of lumbago or rheumatism; become nervous, tired, and feel all worn out; suffer from swellings show under the eyes or in the feet and ankles; and many other symptoms are noticed. If they are neglected, dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease, which so often prove fatal, may result.

It is not only dangerous, but needless, for you to suffer and endure the tortures of these troubles, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly and surely ends all such misery.

There is no more effective remedy known for the prompt cure of all such troubles than this new scientific preparation, because it removes the cause. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the walls and linings; cleans out the clogged up pores; neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid waste matter that lodges in the joints and muscles; and causes those terrible rheumatic pains and makes the kidneys filter and sift the poison out of the blood and drive it from the system.

You will find Croxone different from all other remedies. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results.

An original package of Croxone costs but a trifle, and all druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case. Three doses a day for a few days is often all that is ever needed to cure the worst backache, relieve rheumatic pains, or overcome urinary disorders.

The Bitter Chaff Removed

The men who blend, prepare and pack Red Rose Coffee know well what will please good judges of coffee. They crush—not grind—the fresh-roasted bean into small, even grains which brew readily and settle quickly to pour bright and clear. The chaff is removed, and with it the bitter essence you have disliked in other coffees. You will surely like

IN PARLIAMENT

Ottawa, April 13.—A conference of the Liberal leaders was held on Saturday and the matter of the continuance of the fight on the closure bill was discussed. The Liberals were determined not to allow their rights to be taken, particularly when attempted in such an unfair and high-handed manner as has been tried by Premier Borden and his followers. The decision arrived at was to fight to the very last, and to endeavor steadily to have the issue submitted to the people. There was no sign of compromise or encouragement.

The debate on the closure resolution will be continued today. Figures given by Mr. Bovin of Sheffield in the commons on Friday show that in the last dominion election there was a popular majority of 295,617 against the naval bill in its present form.

GAS, SOURNESS AND INDIGESTION VANISH

Just as Soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" Comes in Contact With The Stomach All Distress is Gone

"Really does" put lead stomachs in order—really does—overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches, breath foul, tongue coated, your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back. It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.

SEVEN KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK NEAR MONTREAL

Seven persons were killed yesterday on the branch of the Central Vermont Railway, known as the Montreal-Chamby line. The accident occurred about four miles and a half from St. Lambert. Besides the dead there were fifteen or more injured, some perhaps fatally. The train had about 700 passengers, taking advantage of a free trip offered by a real estate firm to inspect their properties. The train was travelling about thirty miles an hour. The engine, tender, and three coaches left the rails. The following are those who were killed:

- J. Moses, fireman, Montreal.
- J. Lacoste, Montreal.
- Margaret Deer, 10 years old, 19 Conway street, Point St. Charles, Montreal.
- Unidentified man, supposed to be Christie, C. P. R. engineer, The Glen (P. Q.).
- Unidentified man, supposed to be named Rochon.
- Martin White, Lafayette avenue, Montreal south, died on the way to Montreal.
- Unidentified man.

IN THE CHURCHES

In the mission church St. John Baptist last evening, Rev. Father Converse spoke on "Ten Minutes of Recent Canadian Church History." He took up the question of the appeal to admit ministers of other denominations to the pulpits of the Anglican church, and replied to the remarks of Rev. G. A. Kurling in a sermon in Stone church on the previous Sunday night.

In the Caverton Presbyterian church last evening the pastor, Rev. Dr. Morrison, preached on "Pessimism and Optimism." There was a special musical service in which the leading parts were taken by Mrs. George Ballie, Miss Heales, Thomas Rippey and Alice C. Smith.

A service in memory of the late Thomas Hay was held in Leinster street Baptist church last evening, the service being conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. Camp. A temperance social was given in the Seaman's Institute on Saturday evening and was well attended. Addresses were given by the president, R. M. Smith, and Mrs. J. Seymour. A musical programme was carried out. Among those taking part were Miss Thompson, J. Kilburn, and the choir of St. Paul's church. Rev. E. B. Hooper conducted the Sunday evening services.

WEST INDIES SERVICE. It is understood that the government has completed arrangements for an improved service between Canada and the West Indies, having made a contract to last for one year. The new service will have a subsidy of $200,000, and two first-class steamers will be placed on the route. Pickford & Black will have other steamship interests associated with them.

ELASTIC. Old Lady—How old are you, little boy? Bobbie—I'm under five years on the street cars and over sixteen when I go to the movies.

THREE FIRES

A fire declared of incendiary origin and which caused the loss of two valuable horses, occurred on Saturday evening when flames broke out in the barn in the rear of the premises of McAlary & Co., Ltd., Douglas avenue, and occupied by them. Not long after he had found everything all right, the driver returned to the stable and found it ablaze. There was no opportunity to remove the horses and they were suffocated. The fact that the fire was incendiary was shown by the flames breaking out in both ends of the building. The damage will be about $1,000, and is partly covered by insurance.

Another fire on Saturday evening caused damage to the extent of about $6,000 in the Sutherland building in Union street. The blaze started in the top floor which is occupied by Louis Cohen & Co., clothing manufacturers, where most of the damage was done, but the A. O. H. and I. L. & B. Societies which had rooms underneath also suffered by damage from water. The furnishings in these rooms and in the ground floor, which is occupied by Joseph Mitchell, J. Callinan & Son, and James E. Hogan, suffered considerably from the water. The damage is fully covered by insurance, however. The A. O. H. has $1,000 with R. W. W. Pink in the Western Assurance Co., and the I. L. & B. Society carries about $600.

Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Ltd., and Vassie & Co., Ltd., are losers also. The former firm had about $2,000 worth of cloth stored with Louis Cohen & Co., and Vassie & Co., Ltd., had about $1,000 worth. How much of this is really destroyed is hard to say as yet. The building owned by Gandy & Allison, is insured for $8,000 of which is in the Royal Assurance Corporation and $3,000 with the Phoenix Insurance Company. The damage is mostly in the top floor and the ceilings and floors are the only things to be considered in the lower floors. The loss to the building is estimated at about $1,500.

Louis Cohen & Co. are insured for $3,000. Fifteen hundred dollars of this is on stock and the other $1,500 on machinery. The latter is not damaged to any great extent. A third blaze occurred at an early hour on Sunday morning in a shed at the tannery of C. H. Peters' Sons, Ltd., in Erin street. The fire was seen by the night watchman before it had gone very far and it was easily extinguished by the fire department.

An old Irish hymn, attributed to St. Patrick "I bind unto myself today," was sung at Lady Edwina Roberts' wedding.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY, HOME AND ABROAD

BASEBALL

St. John in the White. Halifax Chronicle—The White Sox Baseball Club management are going in for a busy season, and already have plans all under way for games with outside clubs.

The following is the schedule of games which has been drawn up, and it is expected that these will all materialize: May 24—Dorchester. June 1 to 7—Lawrence. June 7 to 14—Arlborough. June 14 to 21—Andover. June 21 to 28—Quincy. July 1 to 8—Moncton. July 8 to 15—Sydney. July 15 to 22—Springhill. July 22 to 29—New Glasgow. July 29 to 30—Westville. August 1 to 8—Stellarton. August 8 to 15—Amherst. August 15 to 22—St. John. August 22 to 29—Fredericton.

This is quite a formidable array of fixtures, but the management feel hopeful that they will all be carried out. The very best players are being approached, and the White Sox have a line-up of several men of exceptional merit on the baseball field.

With the locals out of the game, and the Standards up to the present undecided, there is no reason why Manager Ahern should not make good at the game, provided the players he engages live up to their reputations and play ball.

Fredericton and the Marathons. The Fredericton Mail says that an outfield named Frank Dyer of Boston is signed already for Fredericton, and a pair of young pitchers belonging to Lowell are as available if wanted. Larry Conley would like to come back and has written Manager Ganley. Bob Conley may be with the Peta against Millbrook, and Fred Conley is attending Boston College.

Manager Frank Leonard of the St. John Marathons is to collect his players at Lyman and will practise them there before bringing them to St. John. The players in sight for the Marathons are: O'Brien, third base; Pinkerton, second base; Little, short stop; Williams and Westington, outfield; Blue, catcher. Pinkerton is under suspension and will have to get straightened away. The catcher, Walter Heim, is a new player in this part of the country. He hails from Philadelphia where he played last season with a strong semi-pro club. Little is also new. Farbell, who has pitched before for St. John has been communicated with but nothing definite is known about him yet. George Winter is coaching at the University of Vermont and whether or not he will pitch again for the Greeks is not known.

The Gleason says that McMahon and Proulx are the Lowell pitchers referred to as possible for Fredericton. One is a leaf mite. A first baseman of last year's Lewin State League is also mentioned. In the new Fredericton uniforms the old name, silver gray with royal blue, will be adhered to and the uniforms will be of grey material with a special stripe of blue, while the trimmings and lettering will be of blue.

Local Notes. Ganzel, first baseman with the Marathons for a short time last season, is trying for a berth with the New England League Club at Portland, Me. "Chick" McLaughlin pitched a nifty game for the Winter League Club of St. John recently against Hugh Duffy's Portland recruits.

Poor Outlook in Amherst. Amherst News—Amherst has gone to be had in the last two years in the way of sport. Now another catastrophe has occurred, that is that the "Hamblers' Diamond" has been sold. Senior ball will be the thing of the past, this summer, owing to this fact. The "Scott Act Town" has been asked to join a semi-professional league, but to our knowledge no reply was awarded to Mr. Ahern in Halifax. Amherst could support a semi-pro ball team, the necessary financial backing was furnished, but as there are no chances of this springing, why Amherst will be again left out in the cold.

The News confidently expects to see a professional hockey team in busy Amherst next winter, despite all said against it, and the only way for Amherst to furnish a winning team, is to have a crowd turn out to encourage the boys. This applies to any game, not to hockey alone.

American League, Saturday. In Cleveland, Chicago won from Cleveland, 13 to 2. The game lasted for seven innings only by agreement. Batteries: Cleveland, Steen, Glavinich and Land; Boston and Schalk. Philadelphia defeated Boston on the 11th grounds, 5 to 4. Reddon, pitcher of the Red Sox, was not in his best form and four runs were scored off him in the 11th. Leonard pitched the rest of the game and did good work. Batteries: Philadelphia, Plank and Lapp; Boston, Leonard and Carrigan.

New York at Washington, rain. St. Louis, rain.

Ball Magnate Taken For a Rube Proves That He Has Real Class

By TOM ANDREWS

Funny, isn't it, how the wise ones do get fooled sometimes? And you don't find them any wiser than the crowd which gathered at San Antonio, Tex., in the fall of 1911 to represent the National Association of Baseball clubs. They represented the elite, one might say, of the business and the names of many had been made famous on the sporting pages throughout the country. No wonder that they did not pay much attention to a rangy, slouch hatted and somewhat gawky southerner who lounged about the hotel and listened to the lobby wit and gossip.

Finally somebody did discover that he really was a delegate to the convention and represented the Blue Grass League. They did not stop to inquire where this organization might flourish. There was mild amusement at the stranger's laudable awkwardness. So during the second day's session there was a general smile of good natured ridicule when he arose in his seat to address the chair. But the smile came off in a hurry.

It was not a boob, but a brilliant and logical talker whose rich southern drawl and dry humor appealed at once to his audience. Thereafter no other delegate was listened to with greater attention or respect. Those who had laughed and listened to get acquainted and they learned the stranger's name was W. S. Neal.

Forest and Game Protection (Moncton Times). A. E. O'Leary, chief fire 5th and game warden for the province of New Brunswick, spent yesterday in Moncton and had a conference with the four county members, Messrs. Mahoney, Humphrey, Mahoney and Black, discussing the matter of game and fire protection.

Mr. O'Leary has just returned from Fredericton, where he was in conference with Clyde E. Leavitt, of Ottawa, chief fire inspector for the Railway Commission, superintendent, Wm. Downie, of the C. P. R., and Lieutenant T. G. Logie, deputy minister of lands and mines, with regard to the establishment of a system of fire patrol along the lines of the C. P. R. if this province with a view toward preventing forest fires. The result of the conference was an agreement on the part of the C. P. R. to cooperate with the province in the matter of patrolling its lines for the purpose of preventing forest fires. Instructions will be issued to section men and others to patrol the dangerous sections of the line and to take steps to extinguish fires within 100 yards of the line on both sides.

During 1912 farmers bought sixty out of every 100 automobiles built in the United States.

There is no more frequent source of illness than that arising from bad blood. When the blood becomes impure the whole system is impure; boils and pimples break out, the bowels become constipated, and the head aches more or less.

Do not neglect to purify the blood on the first appearance of a pimple or boil. Cleanse it thoroughly by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters and thus prevent untold suffering.

Mr. D. M. McBlaine, Niagara Falls, Ont., writes—"It is with pleasure I testify to the sterling qualities of your Burdock Blood Bitters. After the Boer War, through which I served in the 1st L.I., I suffered from boils, constipation, and sick headaches, and tried many preparations, but got relief from none till an old comrade of mine got me to try the Burdock Blood Bitters. To say I got relief is to put it mildly. It made me myself again, viz., a man who knows not what it is to be sick, and who has been, and is still, an athlete.

"To anyone in want of purified blood and the resultant all round vigorous health, I can conscientiously recommend B.B.B." Get the 3 B's. Manufactured only by The I. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Recreation Congress to Be Held in Richmond, Virginia

The Times has received a copy of the preliminary programme of the Recreation Congress to be held in Richmond, Virginia, from May 6 to 10, and to be preceded from April 29 to May 6 by classes for recreation workers, with special instruction in folk dancing. This congress is held under the auspices of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, and it is the seventh annual meeting.

The tremendous growth in recreation activities makes this congress of universal interest. The last report of the Playground Association of America shows that 283 cities in the United States maintained 2,094 playgrounds and recreation centres, employing 6200 recreation workers, and 1,363 caretakers. Sixty-three cities employed six hundred and fifty-five workers the year before. There was an increase of twenty-two per cent in the number of workers last year. There was a total expenditure of more than four million dollars. All this means that the congress in May will be attended by delegations from all parts of the country.

The programme shows that every phase of the recreation question, from the play of the children to the leisure of the working people, the use of parks and beaches, systems of administration of municipal recreation, health, administration of playgrounds, recreation centres as social institutions, the training of workers, holding the family together, the place of music, dramatic play, story telling, boys' and girls' clubs, children's gardens, games, athletics, rural recreation, programmes for recreation in rural communities, will be discussed by speakers of ability and experience.

POCKET PEDDLING THE CHARGE IN SOUTH WHARF LIQUOR CASE

The Outcome of a Sunday Afternoon Incident - Nine Prisoners in Police Court

There were nine prisoners before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning, all of them charged with drunkenness. Herbert Downie was fined $8 or two months for drunkenness and the same penalty was imposed on him for profanity. Five others were remanded and three were fined $8 or two months in jail.

After the prisoners were taken down stairs, two of them, James Currie and John Sullivan, were brought up again and Currie was charged with selling a bottle of liquor in his pocket while Sullivan offered him 75 cents for it but the defendant wanted a dollar. He said he did not see the bottle passed to Sullivan but he saw Sullivan hand the defendant some money.

Police Officer O'Leary said he saw Sullivan and Collins going down South wharf, followed by Currie. Sullivan stopped and spoke to Currie and he saw something passed from Sullivan to Currie but he did not see Currie hand anything to Sullivan. The witness went and called Sergeant Baxter and Sergeant Scott and together they went down the wharf but could not see the three men. Currie told the witness that from the other two and later saw Sergeant Scott with Currie and Sullivan under arrest. Currie told the witness that he had bought the bottle of liquor from a "pocket peddler."

Sullivan said that he had come to the city on Saturday and was arrested yesterday on charge of being drunk. He corroborated Collins' testimony and said that Currie had asked him for a dollar for a bottle of whisky but he gave him seventy-five cents. He did not have time, however to receive the liquor as the police arrested them before he could get it.

The defendant when asked if he had anything to say, said that he never sold a drop of liquor in his life. He was remanded.

William Guthrie, charged with wandering about on Market Square and not being able to give a satisfactory account of himself, was fined $8 or two months in jail.

Frank Kennedy, colored, was fined $23 or fifty days in jail for assaulting his wife in their home in Brussels street.

He was well known not only in St. John but throughout the province and had a great number of friends who will learn of his death with sincere regret. SCHOONER IN TROUBLE

Quebec, April 14 - The schooner St. Alexis, which left here last week with provisions for Murray Bay, when in the vicinity of Baie St. Paul, struck a piece of ice and had a hole stove in her side and began to fill. The government steamer Champlain went to her assistance and took off the crew and beached the steamer near Murray Bay, where it is now completely submerged. The cargo is almost completely destroyed.

Mr. Likely was for a long time connected with the Gibson Company's stores at Marysville. A very pleasant anniversary party in honor of Mrs. Likely was held at the home of Mrs. Fred S. Williams one evening last week by a number of Mrs. Likely's lady friends. She was presented with a handsome cut glass bowl and an address. Mrs. Lemuel McLean made the presentation. Mr. Likely was remembered also, receiving a handsome tobacco jar. An enjoyable evening was spent.
