ST. JOHN, N. B. MONDAY, JUNE 24, 1889.

MR. BLAIR AND THE ST. JOHN METHODIST PREACHERS.

The attempt of Attorney General Blair to bulldoze the Methodist Conference through the medium of his good friend, Rev. Howard Sprague, D. D., has ended in failure. The conference, by a vote of 90 to 50, decided on Saturday that it had not been proved there was any violation of the traditional policy of the Methodist church.

NOTE AND COMMENT. One of those high sounding phrases which some men like to use without understanding their meaning, is "the Methodist church is not yet two centuries old, and everything that has been done in connection with it is in record, so that to speak of it as having a "traditional policy" is a misnomer.

as oblivious of the truth as the brass of mankind, and that when a man regards his own self interest as the golden rule of life, and strives to be a pope among his fellows, rather than a humble follower of the Master, he is far upon the broad road which leads to destruction.

STILL INCREASING. The circulation of the GAZETTE Saturday last was larger than on any previous Saturday since the paper was started.

THE ELLIS CONTEMPT CASE. John V. Ellis, editor of the Globe, who was guilty of contempt of court by slandering Judge Tuck does not mean to go to jail if he can help it.

CRIMES OF IRISH SOCIETIES.

What British American Society Charges Them With.

(Boston Herald-June 22)

A mass meeting, that was held last night under the auspices of the National British-American Association of the United States, which has been holding a three day convention in this city, called out an audience that comfortably filled Faneuil Hall. There were many ladies, and the platform were the officers of the state and national associations and many prominent members of the organization. The meeting was very enthusiastic throughout. It was called to order by Henry Arthur, of Lawrence, who said that Faneuil Hall was the birthplace of the British American Association, the strongest organization for the protection of our public schools and political rights ever formed. He introduced James H. Stark to preside. Mr. Stark made a short address, in which he spoke of the Queen's Jubilee in Faneuil Hall two years ago, when a mob of 15,000 people surrounded the building. This, he said, caused the formation of the British-American Association, which has now extended into many states, and is still growing. He then introduced J. Henry Williams of Pennsylvania, the secretary of the National association, who quoted a statement by a Roman Catholic priest that it had been proved by the evidence before the Barry trial that there had been a series of dastardly crimes committed by the Ancient Order of Hibernians. These crimes, he said, were the legitimate result of the principles and systems of these secret political organizations. Many of these crimes have been committed in Pennsylvania, and 20 members of the order have been hanged for them. Such a thing as a class vote is a menace to the republic, he said, "but I say to you combine for when you combine, good men must combine to defeat them. It is only by combining that we can exert the full power of our individual strength. American people are not antagonistic to you. You welcome you as they do the representatives of no other nation, for a name blood flows in their veins. If you would insist on receiving the recognition due to your numbers and strength, you must work to that end."

ADVISE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken up by a sick child crying and crying all night long? If so, you should have Burdock's Blood Bitters. It will cure your child's ailment, and it will also cure your own. It is a powerful purgative, and it will cleanse the system of all impurities. It is a blood purifier, and it will give you a clear, healthy complexion. It is a tonic, and it will give you strength and vitality. It is a cure for all ailments of the blood, and it is a cure for all ailments of the system. It is a cure for all ailments of the body, and it is a cure for all ailments of the mind. It is a cure for all ailments of the soul, and it is a cure for all ailments of the spirit. It is a cure for all ailments of the human race, and it is a cure for all ailments of the world.
