

WRITS SHORTLY TO BE ISSUED FOR GENERAL ELECTION THE FIRST WEEK OF DECEMBER

Andre Fanteaux Named Solicitor General—Winnipeg Liberals Display More Enthusiasm Than Judgment in Inviting Mackenzie King to Go West—Latest Revenue Statistics Shattered Claim of Agrarians Who Have Maintained Government Raised Too Much by Indirect Taxation.

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—Hon. Arthur Meighen announced Saturday that he had recommended an immediate dissolution of parliament to His Excellency who is visiting in Toronto, and expected that his recommendation would be given effect at once. At the same time he stated that the writs would shortly be issued for an election during the first week in December, the definite date being made known as soon as all the electoral officers were appointed. Several appointments were made Saturday and await the approbation of His Excellency.

Solicitor General.

Andre Fanteaux, K. C., who addressed the large gathering in the Monument National Friday evening, accompanied the Prime Minister from Montreal and will be named Solicitor General. He would have been sworn in Saturday if the Governor General had been in the city. Mr. Fanteaux will contest either Terrebonne or Laval Two Mountain. He has been active in political life for several years. It is also possible that another French Canadian will enter the cabinet without portfolio. Another report here credited to Lord Riddolph Monty with an inclination to test his fortunes in Beauharnois in the coming election. This has always been good fighting ground and was represented for twenty-one years by the late Hon. J. E. H. Bergeron. L. J. Pagnieu, who has represented this constituency for thirteen years, was elected in 1918 by twenty-nine, in 1911 by twenty-seven, and in 1917 by acclamation.

More Enthusiasm Than Judgment.

Winnipeg Liberals, in their invitation to Hon. W. M. McKenna King to go West, have displayed more enthusiasm than judgment. If there is one section of the country that Mr. King would ignore during the campaign it is that between Fort William and Calgary. Here the Liberal leader has three policies—revenue tariff in Ontario, protection Quebec, patronage in Nova Scotia—and with his susceptibility to environment, his counselors fear that in a Prairie tour he would develop a free trade rash. Last year, during his Western tour, he displayed a violent trade for Union of the Liberal and Farmer forces on the basis of similarity in official tariff policies. To tour the Prairie now would be extremely embarrassing to the Liberal leader, whose free trade speeches and appeals to the Agrarians are still remembered. It would be even more embarrassing to his Quebec colleagues, who have been advocating protection in defiance of the official party national pronouncement and also attacking the Agrarians. Hon. Mr. King desires to re-visit British Columbia, but cannot realize that Province except by airplane or the Panama Canal, without facing the Wood-Creer element. The Liberal leader is spending three weeks in the Maritime Provinces with a total representation of thirty-one and can scarcely ignore fifty-seven constituencies West of the Great Lakes, although it has been reported that he did not intend making a campaign in that part of the Dominion. Premier Meighen will advocate the same policy in every section of Canada that he has already given to the public in London, Portage La Prairie and Montreal.

Revenue Blow to Agrarians

Agrarians have been condemning the Government for raising too much revenue by indirect taxation and not assessing the money directly for Federal purposes. The latest revenue statistics show that this criticism is not founded on fact. For the five months ending August 31st, of the present fiscal year, the Federal treasury has received from business profits tax and income tax $41,400,000 and from customs and excise $80,200,000. From inland revenue the returns are approximately $30,800,000 chiefly from the sales tax which is both direct and indirect in its application. It will be seen that the returns from specifically direct and indirect taxation are approximately equal. It is only fair to point out however, that in the remaining seven months the indirect taxation will greatly exceed the direct, but, even if so, the application of the principle of direct taxation has been greatly increased. While advocates of direct taxation the Agrarians made a sorry showing in this method of contributing to the country's financial requirement. For the fiscal year 1920-21, 19,597 rate payers paid income tax and among these were only 16,652 farmers. The farmers of Canada in all contributed only $611,736 while professional men paid $2,648,656, employees $11,391,200, merchants, $7,636,521, manufacturers $2,917,739 and all other taxpayers $11,323,563. In their advocacy of the reduction of the principle of direct taxation the Agrarians do not appear to be endangering their bank accounts.

LLOYD GEORGE RETURNS HOME ON THURSDAY

Cabinet Will Then Consider Representatives for the Irish Peace Conference.

LONG SESSION OF CONFERENCE EXPECTED

Believed Deliberation on Form of Home Rule Bill Will Continue Until February.

London, Oct. 2.—Returning to London, according to his present plans on Wednesday Premier Lloyd George will call Cabinet meeting Thursday at which the British representatives to the Irish Peace Conference will probably be elected. Undoubtedly Lloyd George himself will act as chief of the delegation although it is probable that he will not attend every session of the conference himself. The meeting at which the form of Dominion Home Rule, satisfactory to Sinn Fein will be sought, is expected to continue for months with several interludes to give an opportunity to Irish spokesmen to present their proposals in Dublin over various phases of the situation.

THREE ARRESTED CHARGED WITH SHOOTING SLIPP

One Confesses Being in Party That Shot Prominent Woodstock Druggist.

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 2.—The mystery surrounding the shooting of Woodstock, the young druggist and leading business man at Woodstock at 10 o'clock last Tuesday night, has been solved by the arrest last night of Ollie Davenport, of Houlton, and Richard Britton and John Burpee, of Woodstock, and they are now in the Woodstock jail awaiting preliminary examination. Davenport confessed that they were the men in the Maine car from which the rifle shot came, that Britton did the shooting, the Slipp auto for a moose. Although a rightfully injured in the face, it is hoped, that unless blood poisoning or pneumonia sets in, that Mr. Slipp will recover.

THE VATICAN SEES ANOTHER WAR SOON IF THE WASHINGTON PARLEY FAILS

Rome, Oct. 2.—Cardinal Gaspari, papal secretary of state, sends to America, the Papacy's wishes for the success of the Washington conference on disarmament. "The conference must succeed," he declared in an interview granted today, "for if it fails there will be another war in a few years. Imagine Japan saying at Washington, 'We won't disarm, for we will soon be stronger than America.' The answer would be an immediate war between the two powers. The Vatican believes in the abolition of conscription as the greatest step towards disarmament. No nation can make war without conscription, as was proved by America and England during the world conflict. War's failure to achieve results is established. What, for instance, are Italy's gains worth compared with the loss of 600,000 of her best men and the economic ruin she has sustained? The complaint against the former Austrian Empire was that it was a mosaic of separate states. Czechoslovakia is a worse mosaic, with more bitter hatreds among the populations. We have peace, but no pacification. The 14 points have fallen by the wayside. President Wilson was fettered in Italy beyond measure, but he would not be now."

QUESTION OF INDEBTEDNESS DELICATE ONE

Great Britain Has No Intention of Injecting It into Arms Conference.

AWAIT SUGGESTION OF UNITED STATES

Financiers Point Out Great Economic Advantage in Cancellation of Debts.

London, Oct. 2.—The British Government has decided that, as far as Great Britain is concerned, there will be no attempt to inject the question of Allied indebtedness to the United States into the Washington Conference, the United Nations learns from sources usually reliable. In spite of the fact that the majority of the Cabinet and some of the press believe that the debt question should be brought before the conference while many British economists argue that it should play a major part in the November discussions, the Foreign Office holds the view that the question rests solely with the Washington Government, and that it would be unwise to introduce the subject except under America's initiative. This view receives additional emphasis when it is realized that Washington has received an impression that most Europeans, including the British Government, are either pessimistic, apathetic or unwilling to cooperate in the conference, and foreign offices are convinced that this impression is based, in part, upon fear of the debt question being raised.

MARGOT PUBLISHES DIARY OF "LITTLE JOURNEY" TO NILE

First instalment of Mrs. Asquith's Work. Written Thirty Years Ago, as Racy as Her Reminiscences and Abounding in Frank Comment.

London, Oct. 1.—Margot (Mrs. Asquith) is at her "best" in a new diary of "A Little Journey," taken with her father and mother thirty years ago to Egypt, Rome and the Nile, the first instalment of which was published this week by the Ladies' Field. It is as racy as the much discussed reminiscences of last year and abounds in shrewdness and often brutal comments on public men and with ideas on politics, life, literature and social habits. It is written in the same vein and with the same atmosphere as her father's diary, which is still being attacked in many circles here, but is being sold heavily.

BRIAND GOING TO STATE FRANCE'S POSITION

Premier Will Make Important Speech at St. Nazaire on October 9.

Paris, Oct. 1.—Premier Briand will outline the position of the French Government relative to the conference on limitation of armaments and far eastern questions in a speech at St. Nazaire on October 9. On that occasion he will, with various other members of the cabinet, be a guest at a mid-day banquet there, and he purposes to make a declaration of ministerial policy concerning all questions of prime importance now before the country which will be laid before Parliament when it reassembles on October 18.

Among these questions are national finance, German relations, and the Washington conference. It is expected that the premier's utterances regarding the conference will be only incidental to a comprehensive statement of the government's plans.

The visit of M. Briand to Washington continues to be a subject of animated discussion by the newspapers and the friends and opponents of the premier. Nearly every other day a report is current that M. Briand has given up the voyage across the Atlantic, but they are followed immediately by an official communication from the premier's office that his plans have not undergone a change since he accepted President Harding's invitation to attend the meeting at the United States capital.

It was announced when M. Briand decided to go to Washington a month ago that he would make the trip across the Atlantic with the French delegation on board the armored cruiser Edgar Quinet, landing at Hampton Roads. He reached this destination in the afternoon, but he did not desire to have his plans controlled by a definite date for sailing, which would be the case if he went to the United States on board a regular liner. He was, however, anxious to wish to be in a position to defer his departure, if necessary until the last hour which would permit his arrival in Washington on November 11.

Members of his staff, knowing the inadequate passenger accommodations of the cruiser, which is still outfitting at Toulon, have gently, but persistently, represented the inconvenience attending a trip of that ship. It is now announced that he has decided to sail on the Lafayette on Nov. 1, with his entire staff.

It is generally understood that M. Briand will take with him to Washington as principal delegates Philippe Berthelot, general secretary of the Foreign Office, and Albert Sarraut, Minister of Colonies. The fourth delegate is uncertain, as his selection depends upon whether the principal powers include among their delegates their ambassadors in Washington, in which case Ambassador Jasseron will be added to the French delegation.

Buying Power of People Going Up

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Buying power of the people of the United States will advance and may reach a normal level not a post-war level within six months, said Eugene Meyer, Jr., chairman of the War Finance Corporation, who conferred today with representatives of eight States called here by the Farm Bureau Federation. Mr. Meyer is returning to Washington from a trip extending to the Pacific coast, in which he met business men of virtually every state in the middle west, the coast and a part of the South.

CANCER'S HIGH UNNECESSARY TOLL IN N. Y.

Over Nine Thousand Residents Will Die of Affliction in Metropolis This Year.

New York, Sept. 28.—Nine thousand 200 residents of New York State will die of cancer during the present year, 1921, according to an estimate made by Dr. Francis Carter Wood, director of the Institute of Cancer Research, Columbia University. Dr. Wood, one of those working in the interest of "National Cancer Week," to be held from October 30 to November 5 by the American Society for the Control of Cancer, makes his estimate in the current issue of the "Health News," the official organ of the New York State Department of Health. His figures are based on mortality records, running from 1916 when 9,400 cases proved fatal, to and including the present through—four comprising Secretary Hughes, Edith Root, Senator Underwood and Senator Lodge.

in various other parts of the province. While the trick itself is so old as to be almost worn out, it carried with it a shrewd little scheme which would tend to catch any teller on his guard, as it seemed to imply a promise of banking protection on the part of the crook who put the deal over. It took the form of a fairly prosperous-looking man, presenting himself before the paying teller's cage with a $1,500 cheque made out to "Cash"—which, in other words, means that the cheque was payable to himself or to any other person who chooses to present it—but which had not been marked. The teller informed the man he would have to get the cheque marked at the ledger before it could be cashed, and the swindler moved away in the proper direction. He remained away a sufficient number of minutes to lead the proper tone to his transaction, but instead of going to the ledger-keeper's department, he merely substituted a $15 cheque, properly marked for that amount, but which had been raised to $1,500, and this he presented to the paying teller.

The teller caught off his guard by the handwriting of the ledger department on the raised cheque, paid over the money, and it was until some time later that he made the discovery that the cheque was a fake.

That is practically the same deal which was put over the Bank of Commerce back in August by the brazen individual who was successful in making his getaway, and who has not been heard from since, unless he chances to be the same man who hit the Standard Bank yesterday. The chief difference in the two cases lies in the fact that at the Bank of Commerce two raised cheques were presented, one on the regular department, and the second upon the foreign exchange department.

With this in mind the delegates are expected to work for a week or ten days, during a definite programme will be developed to encourage those lines of industry which now are backward, unemployment conditions may be minimized.

Swindled Bank Out of $1,500

Cheque Raised from $15 to $1,500 Cashied by Toronto Firm.

Toronto, Sept. 28.—Another striking piece of evidence of the shrewdness of the bank swindler was provided in the city yesterday when the head office of the Standard Bank on King street west was tricked out of $1,500 by means of the old ruse of the raised cheque; and though the police spent several hours in searching for the swindler yesterday they failed to get any trace of him, so it is assumed that he made a clean get-away and is far from the city by this time. In addition to setting over a straight cheque for $1500, the crook strengthened the theory of the local officials to the effect that there is a clever and daring gang operating in the city. Just as there appears to be in several other parts of the province. Credence is given to the gang theory by the fact that the trick which hit the Standard Bank some $1,500 poorer yesterday, was practically a duplication of the scheme which was put over on the Canadian Bank of Commerce on August 27th, when that institution was robbed of $3,500 and by the further fact that it is stated the same thing has been done in various other parts of the province. While the trick itself is so old as to be almost worn out, it carried with it a shrewd little scheme which would tend to catch any teller on his guard, as it seemed to imply a promise of banking protection on the part of the crook who put the deal over. Facts Regarding The Forthcoming Arms Conference

Each Nation May Have Six Negotiators—Lloyd George's Presence Problematical.

Washington, Oct. 1.—From behind the curtain of international negotiations going on relative to the arrangements for the forthcoming Arms Conference, the following facts have been made their appearance: 1.—While these engaged may have as many as six negotiators on official mission, and Japan has signified intention to have only three, the United States Commission will probably be made up of six negotiators, four comprising Secretary Hughes, Edith Root, Senator Underwood and Senator Lodge.

League Tribunal Denounces The Soviet Government

Their Economic System Declared to Have Been the Cause of Famine.

Geneva, Sept. 28.—From the same League Tribunal where the English delegate Barnes, in 1920, championed the Soviet Government, the Reds today, received a most scathing denunciation when the League refused to make any attempt to succor the famine stricken Russians, as such an attempt might strengthen the Soviet position, it was held.

Delegates from the neighboring states, Yugo-Slavia and Finland were extremely bitter in declaring the Soviet economic system was undoubtedly caused by famine. Spansky, the Serbian delegate, said the Soviet revolution had been squandered largely on propaganda. "Either Russians must continue hungry," he said, "or Moscow government must go."

Reconciliation In Stillman Family

Miss Stillman Who Sided With Father Makes Up With Mother.

New York, Sept. 27.—Miss Anne Stillman, daughter of James A. Stillman, former head of the National City Bank, who espoused the cause of her father after he sued to divorce Mrs. Anne Stillman, became reconciled to her mother during the summer, it was learned last night. When she departed for France on Saturday to enter an exclusive finishing school, Miss Stillman was said also to have been on friendly terms with her brother, "Bud," who has been outspoken in advocating his mother's cause and that of his youngest brother, Guy.

Although Miss Stillman never definitely broke with her mother, she sided with her father, and it was through her that an effort was made to compromise the case last spring. It was explained last night that Miss Stillman now occupied an unusual position in the family, as she was on friendly terms with both her parents. Mr. Stillman accompanied her to the steamship Olympic.

John E. Mack, general counsel for Guy Stillman, confirmed a report that Mrs. Stillman, "Bud," Anne, Alexander and Guy had taken part in a so-called "family reunion," in Canada. When he was asked to explain the reconciliation Mr. Mack said: "Mrs. Stillman is a very sensible and broad-minded woman, and understands that after all Mr. Stillman is the girl's father."

Miss Stillman's position in the controversy which disrupted the Stillman family was said to have been that of one who wished to avoid taking an extreme position on either side. As a young girl just entering society, the publicity of the divorce action was distasteful to her. But her efforts last spring to effect a settlement and end legal proceedings failed, principally because of Mr. Stillman's refusal to recognize the legitimacy of Guy Stillman and Mrs. Stillman's determination to refuse any terms that did not include this.

During this period, Miss Stillman was seen frequently with her father and never with her mother. "Bud" Stillman then said she did not understand the situation and predicted that when she did, she would follow his example and take her mother's side.

Vital Statistics Month of August

Fredrickton, Oct. 1.—Dr. G. G. Melvin, registrar general of the department of public health, gave out the following gross totals of the births, marriages and deaths occurring in the province for the month of August, and up to September 24:

C. P. R. Earnings Highest of Year

With Increased Traffic Was Greater Decrease in Operating Expenses.

Montreal, Sept. 28.—Possibly influenced by continued large through grain shipments, if not by an improvement in other lines of traffic, the earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway for August, amounting to $17,064,285, are the highest for any month this year to date. Also with the increased traffic there was a greater decrease in operating expenses as compared with last year, and net profits continue to increase, standing at $2,576,139 after the deduction of $14,488,146 for working expenses, an advance of $776,232. Compared with August last year, the gross earnings decreased $930,503, but the increase in net profits was accounted for by a decrease of $1,396,229 in working expenses, as compared with August, 1920. The decrease in gross earnings is probably accounted for by the fall in business which preceded the general shipment of grain late in the month.

The company's eight months to August 31 also show an advance in net profits, they being up $2,282,126 over those of the corresponding period in 1920, standing for the first eight months of this year at $17,590,621. In this instance, again, the reduction in working expenses overshadowed the decrease in gross earnings. The gross earnings for the eight months are $116,992,566, down $10,535,349, while working expenses were reduced by $12,867,336, as compared with the first eight months of last year.

THE MORE GERMANY WORKS MORE OTHERS MUST STOP

Munich, Sept. 30.—"We must go to the limit of our capacity with regard to reparations," Dr. Walter Rathenau, the German Minister of Reconstruction, declared before the Congress of the Imperial Association of German Trades. "Complete fulfillment of the terms of the ultimatum will affect the world economically more severely than ourselves. England has 3,000,000 and America 6,000,000 unemployed. The more Germany must work the more the others cease working. What is needed is an international understanding."

Which Shall It Be?

TOTAL PROHIBITION IMPORTATION

PROHIBITION cannot be enforced because it does not appeal to the conscience of the people. You may vote the province dry but you cannot vote the individual dry.

PROHIBITION in the United States and Canada has produced perjury, hypocrisy, contempt of the law, illicit stills, social unrest, and the use of poisonous drugs.

PROHIBITION prevents temperate people from obtaining good liquor and drives others to "rot gut" and "swamp whiskey."

Without prohibition the bootlegger cannot live. Who ever heard of bootleggers before prohibition was tried?

PROHIBITION causes employment of stool pigeons, informers and armed inspectors.

PROHIBITION affects the poor man only. Those who can afford it have already filled their cellars.

PROHIBITION creates class hatred and can only be enforced with a policeman's club. Therefore it is un-Canadian.

THE RIGHT TO IMPORT gives the temperate man the freedom to exercise his undoubted rights to buy legally what he wants to drink. (They can't drive it out of the home, they merely make you make it at home).

THE RIGHT TO IMPORT removes the cause for profit from perjury, hypocrisy and all of the evils that follow total prohibition.

IMPORTATION assures you good liquor, bought in a legitimate way and protects you by government rules against poison.

IMPORTATION eliminates the bootlegger's profit and automatically puts this despicable creature out of business.

IMPORTATION eliminates the undesirable characters who follow in the wake of prohibition.

IMPORTATION does not discriminate between Canadians who are entitled to import a bottle or a case.

IMPORTATION creates an open market under government regulation. If you don't want to import, you don't have to. If you do want to import, you do it legally in the Canadian way.

(Ottawa Journal)
Australia has made a sorry mess of the scheme to build or buy homes for the towns and cities for returned soldiers. After spending $12,223,498 on 12,000 houses and the Commonwealth discovered that the spending of the money was accompanied by an organized and bungling which promised to cost the Government fifty strands high on the rocks.

When the scheme was launched it was announced by the department in charge that $10,000,000 would be expended in the effort to build cheap substantial houses. Immediate prices of land and building materials began to soar, so that the maximum figure for a house, $700, was quite inadequate and it was raised to $800. But even this sum would not suffice with the ever-increasing cost of building materials to suit the government as legitimate prices.

USED AS FORGER, YOUTH BATTERS TWO DETECTIVES

Resents Charge Before Charming Dinner Companion, But He's Handcuffed Eventually and Correspondence Looked Over.

New York, Oct. 1.—Two brutal and battered detectives and two somewhat less injured policemen sat around in the detective room at the West Forty-ninth street police station last night alternately nursing their hurts and questioning a battered but still belligerent and well dressed young man who was handcuffed to the table.

Spread out on a table near by was a large collection of hotel keys, checks, letters and other papers bearing several names, and a little bottle almost full of what the police described as knockout drops. After much questioning the police collectively put the young man in a cell and wrote down a charge of forgery on the ticket.

Detectives Fitzgerald and Dennison on the urgent request of R. L. McGuire, a salesman for the Studebaker Corporation, made a business call on William D. Brown, at the young man is booked, who he was dining with an attractive young woman at a restaurant on Forty-ninth street not far from Broadway.

AN AUSTRALIAN SCHEME THAT FAILED, COSTING LARGE SUM

Plan to Build or Buy Homes in Towns or Cities for Returned Soldiers Was Disastrous Financial Venture.

(Ottawa Journal.) Australia has made a sorry mess of the scheme to build or buy homes in the towns and cities for returned soldiers. After spending $12,323,490 on 17,000 houses the Commonwealth has discovered that the spending of the money was accompanied by an orgy of waste and extravagance which promised to leave the Government ship stranded high on the rocks.

When the scheme was launched it was announced by the department in charge that $50,000,000 would be expended in the effort to build cheap and substantial houses. Immediately prices of land and building materials began to soar, so much so that the maximum figure for a house, $700, was quite inadequate and it was raised to $800. But even this sum would not suffice for anybody having land or building materials to sell regarding the government as legitimate prey.

Confronted with the impossibility of paying the price which the dealers in building supplies demanded, the government went in for buying large timber areas and erecting saw mills. Fabulous prices were paid for these areas and the government reaped huge returns from their patriotism. The timber taken from the government areas was sold scandalously below the standard required. Paint and other materials were of like quality. After building thousands of houses at prices far in excess of the cost, the government had to make a survey of the situation.

Owing to the absence of the Prime Minister at the Empire Conference in London and the promise of immunity from criticism during his absence it was not till July that the details of the scandal were brought to light. When Mr. Balfour returned to the Commonwealth he found that millions had been wasted on the erection of houses which for the most part were standing empty owing to poor construction and their excessive cost. On the Senate on July 21 last Hon. J. G. Millen, Minister of Repatriation, unfolded the story, showing that incompetence was the least of the charges leveled against the responsible officers. There had been a reckless excess of authority and gross breaches of trust. In one case there had been an expenditure by an official of $2,900,000 when authority was given to spend only $150,000. This was for the purchase of existing houses. In other instances the minister of the department had been used to advance personal interests.

Must Go The Limit German Bloc Aims To Drive Out Wirth

Said Ultimatum Fulfillment Would Affect World More Than Germany.

Berlin, Oct. 1.—A Cabinet crisis may arise in the Reichstag before the end of this week. It is regarded as possible that Chancellor Wirth, in opening the political discussions scheduled for Friday and Saturday, will offer the resignation of the entire Cabinet. It is expected, however, that President Ebert will give the Chancellor an opportunity to form a new Cabinet. Whether this will be possible will depend on the decisions the Industrial party reaches in its meetings tomorrow and on whether this party can make an agreement with the Majority Socialists. Both these parties are preparing to announce their minimum conditions for collaborating. There already have been informal conversations in the National Economic Parliament between these principal parties which makes a working agreement seem probable.

The Majority Socialists practically have renounced their demand that gold values be directly taxed, thus removing the principal obstacles to an agreement. It is regarded as likely that the Industrial party will make the elimination of Chancellor Wirth a condition for their collaboration in the Cabinet and the majority Socialists might concede this if they are permitted to name the new Chancellor from their own party.

The political conflict on Friday will center around the Industrial party's protest against Chancellor Wirth's press censorship. It is charged that the Industrial party is being used by newspapers because of their political tendencies, and not for specific offenses. The New York Herald correspondent here asked a prominent majority Socialist why his party capitulated on the question of taxation of gold values. He said: "The Socialists did not feel sufficiently strong to fight more than one battle. Now the breaking of unity between the Nationalists by placing the Industrial party seems more urgent than the immediate taxation reform. By provoking class war taxation, we risked forcing the right wing of the Industrial party into the arms of the Nationalists."

The majority Socialists also are disappointed because they lack a practical taxation programme. The Industrial party, on the other hand has proposed a workable scheme to raise a foreign loan through mortgaging German industries. The majority Socialists think the increased cost of living and the unrest resulting from the depreciated mark will suffice this winter to raise the taxation issue, which they now avoid. It is expected that the Reichstag will discuss the ratification of peace with the United States. This will be a formal act, because the political parties in the Reichstag already have declared their assent to ratification. An adjournment for five weeks after next Saturday will permit the Reichstag and the Economic Parliament to study the programme which Chancellor Wirth has proposed.

Industrial problem, yet in national discussions very little time indeed has been given to foreign trade. "Before the war we owed Europe $4,000,000,000. Now Europe owes us $30,000,000,000, which she cannot pay in money, but only in goods. What do we do to add her in her task? We clamp on a new tariff system. "If we make the repayment of Europe's debt impossible let us at least admit the possibility of cancellation. This is the only way to stop the thing for the whole world the United States included, but I know that my ideas do not agree with those of any of the great leaders in Washington. "The educational system of the United States is all out of gear with our present needs and should undergo a thorough overhauling. It is narrow and incultures narrowness in a majority of our citizens. "If we do not get at the roots of business depression as they lie in foreign trade there is nothing for us but to lower our standard of living to a level more nearly approximate with that of other parts of the earth, and that, I think, that this would be a splendidly happy and above what they need for the present situation. The nations of western Europe live much less expensively and less luxuriously than does the United States, and yet are happy in so doing. Why should we not do the same?"

NATIONS WATCH AMERICA AND THE JAPANESE

Diplomatists at Geneva Look for Struggle at Arms Conference.

Geneva, Sept. 30.—The Washington conference for the limitation of armaments will have the benediction of the League of Nations under a resolution proposed by Lord Robert Cecil today and unanimously passed by the Disarmament Commission. While this resolution is really expressive of a sincere desire on the part of most nations represented at Geneva to see tangible results come from Washington on this problem over which the league worked in vain, it is an interesting fact that all the talk heard at the Geneva meeting is to the effect that disarmament is now regarded in European diplomatic circles as an entirely secondary aim of the Washington meeting.

Instead of being primarily for disarmament the conference is seen by the majority of delegates attending the League of Nations Assembly as a battle between the United States and Japan over their respective relations to China and the Far East. This is almost the only phase of the conference that is being talked about when over diplomats discuss the prospective meeting at Washington.

Coincidentally, however, the Japanese delegation here has addressed to every other delegation two books, one on Japan's right to exist, an article by George Bronson Rea and the other on the progress of liberal institutions in Japan by M. Miyako, former chargé d'affaires at Washington. This is the first Japanese propaganda attempt here and it can be regarded as deeply significant. It is evident that a great misconception exists in some capitals concerning American motives in bringing up the question of disarmament. Part of the Washington agenda touching on the Pacific. Much elucidation will be necessary if these are to be properly understood. The tendency in some quarters seems to be to ascribe them to America's desire to curb Japan commercially as a dangerous rival rather than because of a benevolent desire to maintain peace and to protect nations like China and the Philippines from the Pacific. Senator Georges Reynald, French member of the Disarmament Commission, said today: "The Washington conference is assuming more importance for France because France, not Great Britain, can be an arbiter in the Pacific question. This is unquestionably France's desire, but many of the shrewd diplomatists gathered here to watch the Pacific discussion and see Great Britain as the arbiter between America and Japan. Some even go so far as to criticize American diplomacy in creating a situation wherein they see Great Britain holding this role."

Because European diplomacy now sees the Washington conference only as a big battle between rival Powers, as it once saw all conferences as a struggle between Germany and Great Britain, there is more and more scoffing at the idea that it will produce any definite disarmament measure, naval or otherwise. The Disarmament Commission decided to ask experts to consider the propriety of requesting the League Assembly to make public all researches on poison gas. Lord Robert Cecil contending that this might stop its use. H. A. L. Fisher of Great Britain ridiculed this, saying he feared poison gas had come to stay, though its use might be curtailed. The Japanese representative did not vote on the resolution. Another resolution presented asks the nations to stimulate disarmament propaganda.

Harding Would Cut Short Debates

Favors Curtailing Privilege of Unlimited Talk in Upper Body. Washington, Oct. 1.—A movement to curtail Senatorial privilege of virtually unlimited debate reached such proportions today that an unofficial committee of Republican Senators went to the White House and conferred on the question with President Harding. While the proposed rule has not yet been drawn up, it was understood that the plan contemplates a change in the Senate rule so that cloture would be invoked by a mere majority vote instead of by the two-thirds vote now required. After invocation of the rule each Senator's time for debate would be limited to one hour, it was said. The movement so far has been confined to several Republican Senators, having been initiated actively at a conference of about a dozen Republicans last night. The "cloture" members comprise mostly Republicans of the younger group from both Eastern and Western States. Obstruction of the anti-beer bill recently in the Senate was said to have been the immediate cause of the new cloture movement. It was said in addition, however, that during the recent recess of Congress Senators had heard many complaints of delay in Senate business because of filibustering and other methods of obstructing debate. Many Republican Senators were sounded out today and a majority were said to have favored the new plan. Those active in the new movement said that they were sure of substantial support on the Democratic side. It was pointed out that Senator Underwood of Alabama, Democratic floor leader a few years ago, had sponsored a more drastic cloture rule.

YANKEES TRIMMED BOSTON AND WON AMERICAN LEAGUE PENNANT

Cleveland Lost to Chicago—Pittsburgh Defeated St. Louis and the Giants Lost to Brooklyn—New York National and Americans Open World Series on Polo Grounds Next Wednesday.

Special to The Standard.

New York, Oct. 2.—With the Yankees trimming Boston on Saturday by a score of seven to six, and the White Sox walloping Cleveland seven to four, the Yankees capture the American League pennant for 1921. At the Giants won the National League pennant the two New York teams will now play off for the World's championship and all games will be played on the Polo grounds. On Saturday Brooklyn trimmed the New York Giants seven to four but it did not worry manager John McGraw as he had the flag won some days ago, his nearest competitor, Pittsburgh, defeated St. Louis four to three making their percentage a little higher, but they were out of the race last week.

The fans are now getting ready for the World's series which opens next Wednesday. It has been a great baseball season and the fight for first honors in both National and American Leagues has proved most exciting right up to the finish.

The Receipts.
If the Giants and Yankees play to capacity crowds on players pay days of world's series—first five days—players will divide total pool of about $245,430, sixty per cent to winning club and forty per cent to losers.

This estimate is based on the sell of 1200 boxes at $5 fifteen thousand reserved seats at $5; nine thousand unreserved seats at $3 and twelve thousand seats at $1.50. As each club has 25 eligible including coaches, winners would receive about $5,890 each and losers about $3,920.

The greatest individual winner's share to date was that received by the Reds for the money world's series in 1919, $5,207.11. The White Sox that year received greatest individual losers shares $1,200.

Many Visitors.
Thomas W. Hazelden of Seattle is reported to have arrived at the Hotel McAlpin tonight to see the first New York intra-city series. Hazelden said he had never missed a world's series yet. Other fans in points remote from New York have wired asking for hotel reservations several being on the way from cities in Texas.

The Costumes.
Both the Giants and Yankees will go "on road" theoretically during the world's series.
On Wednesday the Giants will be "at home" occupying their own bench and playing in their home uniforms of white, while the Yankees will hold out in the visitors dugout and play in grey travelling suits. On the second day the positions and uniforms will be reversed and thus they will continue to switch from home bench to visitors' dugout, and from white to grey suits day by day until it's all over.

In Other Years.
It's 15 years since the White Sox hitless wonders of 1906 defeated the Cubs four games to two in only previous intra-city world's series. Frank Chance and his great Cub machine remembered by losing two games in succession after each club had won two. This series drew a gate of only $106,500, considered a stupendous

Miller Huggins Manager of Yanks

Brought Team Through to Pennant in Spite of Opposi- tion Within His Club.

Special to The Standard.
New York, Oct. 2.—Miller Huggins, manager of the Yanks, brought his team through to the pennant in spite of the opposition within his club all most as strong as that offered by the Indians. There was a time during the summer campaign when Huggins, suffering from painful illness almost lost his job. The Yanks under the management of Roger Peckinpaugh had won nine straight games and the players wanted Huggins dropped because, they said, he wasn't a smart baseball man. However, Huggins had been John McGraw's right hand and he had a great deal of experience. Huggins is a retiring little fellow of the field, not a good mixer, and not of a dominant or driving personality.

Huggins' pitchers all have been going well during the last two weeks of the pennant campaign, and seem to be in unusually good shape just as the world's series impends. Carl Mays pitched Saturday and beat the Athletics. Bob Shawkey pitched Thursday in Philadelphia, and again on Sunday against the Red Sox at Polo grounds, winning both games. Sunday's score was 7 to 6 and Yankees were playing a baroque ball game at that, not running out a hit and throwing the ball about the field in a playful fashion. Waite Hoyt, so called Kid Pitcher, won one game of the important series with the Indians and then went into another game to pitch seven innings. He was relieved in the second game but might have won had he been permitted to play. However, Hoyt used to be with the Giants and Huggins may therefore decide that he cannot be safely used in the

Something About Famous Babe Ruth

Played in Two World's Series With Red Sox Against Dodgers and Cubs.

Special to The Standard.
New York, Oct. 2.—Babe Ruth has played in two world's series with the Red Sox against the Dodgers of 1916, and the Cubs of two years later but though he has 142 home runs to his credit in the last three seasons Babe never yet has made any world's series home runs.

Babe Ruth, outfielder, may be through as a major league pitcher but he still holds the record for consecutive storeless world's series innings established when he was pitching for the Red Sox.

The feeble Athletics slammed Ruth for six runs in the eighth inning of Saturday's second game, just after the Yanks had won the pennant.

But Ruth can't get to 29 consecutive storeless world's series innings which is one more than even the great Christie Mathewson may claim. After being scored on in the first inning of the second Red Sox-Brooklyn game in 1916 Ruth shut the Dodgers out for 13 innings winning 14 of 17 games 2 to 1. Babe next pitched world's series ball against 1918 Cubs, shutting them out in 9 innings. His next "Out" was in the same club in the same series he went along for seven innings without being scored on and won both games.

Roy Vole went "sour" and caused much trouble in scoring but when he finally got away he did good work, taking second money.

The 2:32 trot and 2:25 pace was won handily in straight heats by Sacrose with a keen contest between the other horses. Batonetto was five lengths behind at the start in the second heat and was distanced.

As all games are to be played in New York the trip will not prove as expensive as if a person had to travel to some city farther away.

President W. R. Wakely has been active during the past year and the club is now in a position to proceed with the erection of an up-to-date club house and shell house.

'M PULLING FOR HOMER PER GAME AND IF YANKS WIN GEORGE'LL DO IT'

New York, Oct. 1.—Mrs. Babe Ruth has edited the dictionary. She has scratched out the word "impossible." She considers the word quite unnecessary as far as her husky husband is concerned.

Wherefore it was absolute confidence, not alone hope and optimism, that shines in her eyes when she said: "I think George ought to make a home run in every game of the world series!"
That is Mrs. Ruth's ambition. You bet she thinks Babe can do it!

Did you notice the name? No, the home-run champ's wife doesn't call him Babe. To her he's George.

Mrs. Ruth is as little as Babe is big. She has a small, rounded figure, Auburn hair that is short and curly, large eyes of a deep violet, and a happy voice.
Happy? Well, what woman wouldn't be? Millions of eyes focussed on her husband, paying homage to his prowess. And women in unprecedented numbers going to baseball games—even though many know nothing about baseball—just to see the famous Babe bat out a home run.

"Jealous?" Mrs. Ruth laughed. "Of course I'm not! I watch the women staring at George and smiling at him—and I think how lucky I am."
"They come to see me, too? Well, maybe some do. Yes, I do see many looks directed my way. And I suppose women do comment. Sometimes they have picked out the wrong one—and I have lots of fun listening."
Mrs. Ruth smiled. No, she wouldn't tell what she had heard. But apparently it wasn't distressing.

The Bambino's wife goes to every game the Yankees play in New York. She always sits in box 86, at the left corner behind the Yankees' dugout. Sitting there, she can see Babe as he ambles in after smashing out a home run, and he acknowledges her smile of praise along with the plaudits of the crowd.
"George has been in three world series before," Mrs. Ruth said. "These

U. N. B. Students Hold A Meeting

Decide to Appoint Publicity Committee—Hockey Team to Play in Boston.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 3.—At a meeting of the Students of the University, held Saturday, it was decided to appoint a publicity committee which would have charge of the advertising of all university activities. It was also decided to give permission for the University hockey team to play at Boston next winter, Harvard, Tech, and Dartmouth are the probable opponents. The appointment of a manager was deferred until Friday next, D. R. Bishop has been acting manager.

Senior Football Team Vs. U. N. B.

The St. John senior football team will probably play U. N. B. at Fredericton next Saturday.

According to a statement made by W. R. Walsh who with W. E. Stirling is coaching the team. Mr. Walsh said arrangements had been practically completed to have the team play at the capital on the 8th.

The St. John High School team is to play Fredericton High at the Capital next Friday in the opening game of the Inter-Scholastic league.
The Mount A. football team are desirous of having the St. John players meet them at Sackville on the 15th.

Mount Allison Won From St. Dunstons

First Game of Season Played at Charlottetown Saturday —Score 3-0.

Special to The Standard.
Charlottetown, P. E. I., Oct. 1.—In the initial game of the football season on the C. A. A. grounds here this morning the St. Dunstons' fifteen went down to defeat before the Mt. Allison University team from Sackville, N. B., the score being 3 to 0. The red and white lads of St. Dunstons played a superior game to that of their opponents through for the only touchdown on the field, the exception of leaving a loophole on their five yard line in the first period which the Mt. A. boys took advantage of, sending Angerville through for the only touchdown of the game. "Big Chief" Myers failed to convert on the touch and the score board registered the lone 3 for Mt. Allison. E. Gillis, W. Gillis, L. McDonald, P. Walsh, P. Sullivan, W. McDonald, Rooney and McEgavey played a great game for the Saints, while Angerville, the snappy forward starred for Mt. Allison.

During both half hour periods of play the piskins was in Mt. A. territory two-thirds of the time. At the end of the last period, just as one of the Saints captured the ball to attempt the touchdown, which would have tied the game, the referee, Frank McDonald, of Charlottetown, blew the whistle for all time.

This is St. Dunstons' first defeat in five years, but their spirit is of the winning sort, and with another practice or two they will become the same college champions that the Islanders knew in previous years.

London, Oct. 1.—The new service of steamships bringing Canada four days from the United Kingdom is on the way to becoming an accomplished fact.

The financial editor of the Times remarks that this fast trans-Atlantic service between Canada and Britain forms part of the plan submitted by the Imperial Shipping Committee.

The Times adds that any state shipping scheme, in view of the prevailing depression, will be scrutinized very closely. Any and all general expedients of state management, says the writer, hardly encourages the development of the principle involved in such schemes.

POOR OPINION OF PROHIBITION IN AMERICA

Labour Members of Parliament Return to England With Adverse Report.

(United Press) London, Sept. 30.—Labour members of Parliament, who visited the United States to find out all about Prohibition and report back to the House of Commons on their findings, are unanimous in the decision that those who think prohibition "an unmixed blessing" are dead wrong.

Prohibition, which the Britishers have been led to believe exists, they declare isn't there at all. They discovered—as who could not—that there is a vast deal of home brewing, illicit distilling, fast eating and consumption on the sly not to mention increasing use of drugs.

"We had many opportunities to break," they say somewhat impudently, "but we were very chary of them on account of the extreme potency and poisonous character of these concoctions."

Investigators found some palatable stuff in private, but were highly disgusted with the situation which has been created what is notoriously and odiously known in England as "in-formers."

"We went to America with open minds," the report concludes, "but we cannot agree with the idea that has been impressed upon us here in England that prohibition is an unmixed blessing."

Sleeping in Parks Not Forced, He Says. Major Underwood of Salvation Army Sees No Need for Military Secs.

New York, Oct. 1.—No one need sleep in the park, or go hungry, or ask for a nickel in the streets in this city. This statement was made yesterday by Major Edward Underwood of the Salvation Army, chairman of the committee on housing and relief of the Municipal Industrial Aid Bureau. He said he is convinced that the great majority of the men sleeping in the parks do not want to avail themselves of the lodgings offered by the city, and that many of them are from out of town and not in search of employment.

"They have come here," Major Underwood said, "because of the wide publicity given to the efforts of the city to alleviate conditions and the prospect of finding it easy to live here on the generosity of the people and the local government."

The housing committee met yesterday and decided against the use of armories for sheltering the homeless unemployed. The municipal lodging houses, Major Underwood said, coupled with temporary buildings available and the facilities of private organizations can take care of nearly 3,000 persons. He has distributed personally hundreds of printed cards among the park sleepers inviting them in the name of the Mayor and the Commissioner of Public Welfare to get supper, lodging, breakfast, bath and free medical attendance at the municipal lodging houses in exchange for two hours work, but very few men have accepted, he said.

Many of them told him frankly that they objected to the city's hospitality because the rules require them to take a bath and have their clothes sterilized. Major Underwood warned against giving money to street beggars. "It is not helpful," he said, "and should be discontinued. The committee does not contenance soliciting money either by individuals or organizations in the streets and subways, and such solicitation is not authorized by the committee or by any charitable institution associated with it."

At the Municipal Industrial Aid Bureau, Worth and Centre streets, it was said that Louis H. Sullivan, who is in charge there, had been called to Washington to attend the employment conference. About 200 persons registered yesterday, and solicited practically O'Neill of the 77th street station arrived and pronounced there would be no police interference.

The line is one of several resulting from the crusade of Urban Ledoux, who visited the city a week ago as a volunteer worker in behalf of the unemployed.

Celebration of Harvest Festival

Rev. W. E. Best Was the Special Preacher at Mission Church.

Rev. W. E. Best, rector of Dorchester Anglican church, was the special preacher at Mission Church St. John the Baptist, Paradise Row yesterday.

Rev. J. V. Young took part in the service at the close of the Harvest Festival, the church being appropriately trimmed with asters, purple and white, red leaves and bunches of grapes, while vegetables, to typify the harvest, were placed before the chancel screen.

Rev. W. E. Best took his text from St. Mark's gospel, 4th chapter, verses 26 to 29. The Parable of the Harvest. This parable describes the laws of God in operation in the vegetable kingdom, and forcibly bring before us the truth—the gradual growth of religion within the hearts of Christian men and women.

The seed of spiritual life is planted in baptism. Only God can give the growth, but each individual can check this growth. Given the right conditions and making use of the means of grace provided each soul can grow and be fed forth from the grace of God.

The sermon closed with a prayer that more and more of this truly rooted religion might be found among Christians.
