

Canadians Aid in Hardest Blow Dealt Enemy; Bulgarians Are on Retreat in Northern Macedonia

Bulgars, Driven From Florina, Surrounded and Disoriented

Franco-Russian Troops Win Brilliant Victory in Macedonia

SERBIANS WINNING WAY HOME AGAIN

Enemy Falling Back Precipitately on Monastir. Suffering Heavy Losses, While Serbians at Another Point Carry Entire First Line

Athens, Sept. 18, via London.—Franco-Serbian troops have surrounded the Bulgarian forces in northwestern Macedonia, which are falling back precipitately on Monastir, according to reports received here.

Paris, Sept. 18.—Florina, an important town in northwestern Macedonia, was carried by assault by French troops today, according to an official statement issued here tonight. The Bulgarians are retreating in disorder in the direction of Monastir, the statement adds. Serbian troops also have gained successes in the region of Lake Ostrovo.

An official statement follows: "East of the Cerna, Serbian troops have reached the approaches to Mount Vetrnik and repulsed violent Bulgarian attacks. Taken under barrage and machine gun fire enemy contingents suffered heavy losses. Further west Serbian detachments continue to advance despite the difficulty of the ground, and have, with a single rush, carried along the crest of Kaimakalan the first Bulgarian line, which was strongly organized and defended by numerous wire entanglements. Enemy counter-attacks, launched during the night, were repulsed completely.

"Northwest of Lake Ostrovo, Serbian infantry continues the crossing of the River Bouda, while the artillery energetically bombards Bulgarian positions on the right bank.

"On our left wing Franco-Russian troops engaged strong Bulgarian forces on the Roma-Florina front. After a desperate struggle lasting through the whole day of the 17th and all of the following night, and despite the desperate resistance of the Bulgarians, who delivered a series of counter-attacks and cavalry charges, our troops gained a brilliant victory. The town of Florina was carried by assault at 10 o'clock this morning by French troops, and is entirely in our possession. The enemy is retreating in disorder in the direction of Monastir."

Appeal to Greek King. Paris, Sept. 18.—The population of Mytilene and Lemnos have addressed appeals to King Constantine, beseeching him to adopt a national policy and save the nation and his throne, says a despatch to the Havas Agency from Athens.

"Col. Lelakis, who is now at Saloniki," says the correspondent, "has urged the Commander Heliopoulos of the Kavala garrison, announced to the officers there that Field Marshal Von Hindenburg had assured him that the Greek army had been made prisoner as a result of Bulgaria's demand. Former Premier Venizelos went on learning that the colors of a certain regiment at Kavala had fallen into the hands of the Bulgarians."

Dead on Field of Honor. Dublin, Sept. 18.—Lieut. Thomas Michael Kettle, professor of economics in the National University, has been killed in action at Ghinohy. He was a brother-in-law of the late Sheehy Skeffington, who was shot during the recent uprising in Ireland.

TERRIBLE DISTRESS AND FAMINE PRICES START VIENNA RIOT

New York, Sept. 18.—A news agency despatch from London says: "Food disorders have broken out in Vienna, said a Geneva dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company today. 'Bread is selling at $4 a pound, and rice at $2 a pound. There is terrible distress among families of working men, the despatch adds.'"

ATTEMPT TO STEAL SOLDIERS' VOTE IS NOT SUCCESSFUL

F. B. Carvell, M. P., Brings Pressure to Bear With Good Results

Government Workers in Carleton County Not Able to Carry Out Their Disgraceful Plan—More of Their Methods Exposed—Strength of Opposition Increasing Each Day—That Surplus Potato Statement—Hon. Mr. Robinson and Others Take a Hand in the Campaign for Better Government

Woodstock, Sept. 18.—Additional interest was given the campaign today by the arrival of an automobile party from Westmorland which included Hon. C. W. Robinson, F. J. Sweeney and James McQueen. Attorney-General Baxter also appeared on the scene, but evidently is not on the list of government speakers, for he is at his hotel tonight. Hon. Mr. Robinson, F. J. Veniot and Jas. McQueen are at Summerfield tonight, and Dr. Smith, M.P.P., and A. B. Cope, M.P., are in Brighton parish, while Hon. W. P. Jones and Hon. F. J. Sweeney and F. E. Sharp, are in Wilmot parish.

The move to get Valcartier men supporting the government home and leave opposition soldiers there was frustrated by the prompt and energetic action of F. B. Carvell, M.P., who used the telegraph wires to such effect that opposition as well as government men will be permitted to journey to Halifax via Woodstock with leave to stop off and vote. Several telegrams were received from opposition men at Valcartier expressing their gratification at the result of Mr. Carvell's prompt action. It was his first campaign work since leaving a sick bed. The telegrams giving permission to the opposition men to leave came from both F. B. McCarry, in charge of the militia department, and the brigadier general at Valcartier.

An unpleasant feature of the campaign is the barefaced attempt to shift the responsibility for the liquor seizure at Hartland to the opposition party in the effort to make the public believe that the liquor was for the use of the opposition. The account sent to The Telegraph yesterday did not give the personal particulars, which would have included the names of the prominent shipper mixed up in the business and the men who received and planned to distribute the fighting booze, but opposition workers have all the facts and particulars. They know to whom the rum was shipped and how it was shipped. It may be stated again and this statement cannot be contradicted: THE OPPOSITION HAS NO RUM, AND WILL HAVE NONE. On the contrary, it is common talk in Woodstock that there is a distribution depot here in charge of a well known government dealer. Instead of accomplishing the end aimed at and desired—the securing of votes—these methods have disgusted decent citizens, who will protest against such acts by voting against the government.

OPPOSITION SUPPORT INCREASING. From all over the county come many reports of changes and new support for the cause of better government. Just how far that sentiment will go remains to be seen; it is hardly conceivable that Carleton county will fail to rebuke this government for its many discreditable acts.

The long delayed statement showing how the surplus potatoes were disposed of will not bear examination. It was completely punctured by F. J. Veniot at Summerfield tonight. Taking up the account as published in the Standard of Monday, Mr. Veniot showed that it differed in many respects from the auditor-general's report.

The auditor's report, page 202, of surplus potatoes shows only 13,712 barrels purchased, while the published account in the Standard shows 11,351 barrels sold at Halifax, Cuba and Havana and 5,000 barrels to A. C. Smith & Company, making a total of 16,351 barrels, besides a large quantity of culls sold to A. C. Smith & Company. It will thus be seen that, in their attempt to cover up this transaction, they have fallen into another trap.

BRITAIN'S REPLY TO U.S. MAIL NOTE IS ON ITS WAY

Washington, Sept. 18.—Great Britain's reply to the American note protesting against seizure and censorship of neutral mails, is on its way to Washington, and is understood to be largely a repetition of arguments in justification of the policy of the Allies contained in a preliminary memorandum, received here last February.

FURTHER CAPTURES OF ENEMY FIRM HOLD ON COMBLES

Important Little Town Almost Completely Surrounded Is Result of Advances

BERLIN ADMITS LOSING VILLAGES

Altogether 1,800 Prisoners Were Taken by French in and About Denicourt—British Gain More Than Half-Mile on Mile Front, Capturing "the Quadrilateral"

London, Sept. 18.—The British line has been advanced 1,000 yards along a one mile front, says the official statement from general headquarters issued last night. "A powerfully fortified German work, known as 'The Quadrilateral,' has fallen completely into British hands. Progress was also made north of Fiers where heavy German counter-attacks were repulsed.

The text reads: "South of the Ancre our troops made another important advance today. A strongly fortified German work situated between Boudaux Wood and Ghinohy, known as the quadrilateral, which hitherto resisted our attacks, has fallen completely into our hands. As a result of its capture our line has been advanced to a depth of about 1,000 yards along a one mile front.

"Seven machine guns and numerous mortars were taken in the course of this highly successful operation. "Enemy counter-attacks north of Fiers were driven back with losses, and we made progress. Hostile troops, massing for a counter-attack at Lesboefs and Fiers, were caught by our artillery and dispersed.

"Besides the guns already reported since the morning of the 16th we have taken five heavy howitzers, two field guns, three heavy and three light trench mortars and a number of machine guns. The total number of prisoners taken in the past 24 hours is ten officers and 800 men.

"There was considerable aerial activity yesterday. Several enemy machines were driven down. Four of our machines are missing.

Paris, Sept. 18.—Both north and south of the Somme river, in France, the British and French armies at various points are keeping up their vigorous offensive against the Germans, and have achieved further successes and put down strong German counter attacks. To the south of Combles the French have taken additional trenches, making stronger their investment of the little town, which is now almost completely surrounded.

Having evacuated the village of Denicourt, south of the river, the Germans have been driven back southward about two-thirds of a mile toward Ablaincourt. South of Barleux a German trench to the west of Hogry has been captured. Fierce artillery fighting is still in progress on the sectors of the Peronne-Badonville road, recently captured by the French. During Sunday and Monday more than 1,600 Germans were made prisoners by the French in the Denicourt sector.

"There is considerable artillery activity in the Champagne region. On the Verdun front the French have captured a trench on the southern slope of the famous Dead Man Hill.

Brisk Attack Wins Trenches. Tonight's official communication reads: "North of the Somme a brisk attack gave us the mastery of a group of trenches 200 metres south of Combles; we took fifty prisoners.

"Violent artillery fighting continues in the sectors of the Bethune road. "South of the Somme fierce fighting continues at Denicourt. Our infantry, after capturing the village and the last of its defenders, drove back the enemy's advance posts to a distance of about a kilometre to the south, in the direction of Ablaincourt.

"Simultaneous operations enabled us to occupy a trench west of Hogry and oust the enemy from three small woods southeast of Denicourt, and also to occupy several trenches to the south-west.

"The total number of unwounded prisoners taken Sunday and Monday in this sector exceeds 1,600, of whom 25 are officers.

RING OF VICTORY IN OFFICIAL STORY OF FRIDAY'S FIGHT

Canadians Believed to Have Captured Famous "Danube Trench" and Mouquet Wood

Of 35 Divisions Containing 750,000 Men Facing British Since Somme Fight Began 29 Divisions or 630,000 Men Have Been Withdrawn or Dispersed—Armored Cars Really of Great Value, Enfilading Trenches With Machine Gun Fire—Between 2,000 and 3,000 Allied Air IFights Over German Lines in Last Week and but Four Enemy Machines Come Over British.

(Special to The Telegraph)

Ottawa, Sept. 18.—Only very meagre bulletins have been received at militia headquarters here as yet as to the part taken by the Canadian divisions in the big allied gains of the last three days on the Somme front. These bulletins merely state that the Canadians had a conspicuous share in the taking of the ground won and that the casualties are not as heavy as might have been expected considering the ground gained and the impetuous character of the Canadian attack.

From what is known here of the position in the British line held by the men from Canada there is no doubt but that the "capture of Mouquet Farm and of the Danube Trench," as mentioned in Sir Douglas Haig's despatches, must be placed to the credit of the Canadians.

FIVE LINES OF ENTRENCHMENTS CARRIED.

London, Sept. 18.—A British official communication issued this evening gives a more complete account of the fighting in the Somme region of France of Sept. 15-16. The communication says: "The attack was launched at 6.30 o'clock the morning of the 15th on the front from the Leuze Wood to Fonzere. The enemy's position consisted of a treble line of entrenchments, connected by strong subsidiary trenches. In addition to this the enemy was holding some advanced positions, with machine guns in trenches, works and shell holes behind these fortifications, and at a distance of some 7,000 yards from our front the enemy had recently constructed and wired a fourth mine line of trenches in front of the Le Transloy-Bapaume road.

ARMORED CARS AGAINST 1,000 GUNS.

"Supported by more than 1,000 guns, of all calibres, the hostile defense was formidable. Punctually our infantry, accompanied by heavy armored cars, moved forward to the assault close under cover of our field artillery and barrage. The front of the German line was carried everywhere, except at two points, namely, on the high ground between Ghinohy and the Leuze Wood and at the Fouraux Wood. Neglecting these places the infantry swept forward around them, and by 10 o'clock in the morning had captured the whole of the village of Fiers with its strong points, and advanced to a position beyond the village.

CANADIAN TROOPS SHARE IN CREDIT.

"The outskirts of Martinpuich and Courcellette also were reached about the same time. The latter two villages fell into our hands in the course of the afternoon. The Northumbrian and London Territorials, Scottish and English new army divisions, with troops from Canada and New Zealand, shared with our Guards the credit for these successes.

"On our right the enemy maintained his hold on the high ground northwest of Leuze Wood, and our efforts to dislodge him were not successful. At the Fouraux Wood, however, the enemy began to surrender when both his flanks were turned, and by 11 o'clock the whole wood was in our hands.

"We thus gained not only practically the whole of the ground between the Combles valley and the River Ancre, but are well down the forward slopes. Thanks to our excellent artillery observations thus afforded, we are in a position to inflict heavy punishment on the Germans. Our armored cars gallantly led the action, knocking out hostile machine guns and inflicting heavy losses by their machine gun fire, enfilading the German trenches and causing indescribable demoralization in the enemy's ranks. On the night of the 15th the enemy began to counter attack with forces hastily brought forward from all directions. These counter attacks continued throughout the 16th, and were all repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy. The New Zealand troops after gaining their objectives on the 16th, were particularly heavily counter attacked, and not only stood their ground and punished the enemy severely, but even made some progress.

MOST EFFECTIVE BLOW DEALT BY BRITISH.

"On the 16th our troops made further progress, especially in the direction of Lesboefs. In the course of the above operations, and in close connection with them, the new army troops have skilfully and gallantly extended our gain south of Thiepval, seizing trenches and capturing hundreds of prisoners. The result of the fighting is of great importance, and is probably the most effective blow which has yet been dealt the enemy by the British troops.

"The damage to his morale is probably of greater consequence than the seizure of dominating positions and the capture of between 4,000 and 5,000 prisoners. To date, since July 1, the British forces alone on the Somme battle front have met and engaged 35 German divisions, of which 29 have already been defeated and withdrawn exhausted.

PETROGRAD LOOKS FOR SUCCESS IN FRESH OFFENSIVE

Pressure on Von Bothmer at Hallez Expected to Bring Fruit in Lemberg's Capture

BERLIN REPORTS TEUTON RECOVERY

Break in Line Recaptured by Raiding German-Turkish Forces is Reported—Rumanians and Russians Offer Battle to Bulgarians in Dobrudja—Italians Check Counter-Attacks.

London, Sept. 18.—To stem the tide of the advance of the army of the central powers in the Dobrudja region of Rumania, the Rumanians and Russians have ceased their retreat, and definitely set down their battle line.

This extends along the front of Rachova-Tropadin-Turza—running from the Black Sea to the Danube, just south of the ancient double ramparts known as Trajan's Wall, which begin at Constantina on the sea and run westward to the river. Both Sofia and Berlin report fresh advances in this region, while in Transylvania the Rumanians are reported to be keeping up their progress against the Teutonic allies.

Petrograd is silent officially with regard to the new big offensive started by the Russians from the Pripiet marsh region in Russia down into the Carpathians, but Berlin says the Germans turned the attack along the Narayuvka river in Galicia, regained a greater portion of the territory lost to the Russians Saturday, inflicting heavy casualties on the Russians, and made 8,000 prisoners.

The Italians are still holding their newly acquired positions on the Carso front, despite vigorous attacks by the Austrians, which were preceded by heavy bombardments.

Rumanians on New Line.

Bucharest, Sept. 18, via Amsterdam to London, Sept. 18.—The following official communication was issued today: "On the north and northwest fronts there were no important engagements. South of Sibia (Hermandstadt) we took forty prisoners and two machine guns. In the valley of the Streul there were violent combats.

"On the south front, on the Danube, our artillery sank barges carrying enemy soldiers. "In Dobrudja there were artillery duels. South of Kobadin a battery of Russian mortars silenced the enemy's heavy artillery.

"An aeroplane has dropped bombs on Turm Soveran on the Danube, near the Iron Gate.

Petrograd Looking for Success.

Petrograd, via London, Sept. 18, 4.25 p. m.—News of a new series of battles in the general neighborhood of Halicz, in Galicia, ends an almost unprecedented period of quiet extending on all the Russian fronts except those in Asia Minor where the Turks without marked success are steadily repeating their efforts to launch an offensive against the left flank of the Russian Caucasian army.

Thus, all three arms of the Russian forces contributed almost equally to the result. Russian cavalry particularly distinguished itself by executing a brilliant irrefragable charge reminiscent of old time warfare.

Italians Hold Ground, Launch Air Raids. Rome, via London, Sept. 18.—The official statement from general headquarters issued today reads: "Demonstrations were made by the enemy at several points on the front, generally in the form of violent and prolonged bombardments, on the evening of Sept. 16, on Monte Seluggio, in the Poiana Valley, and yesterday on Miral and Vodil, Monte Nero, between St. Daniele and Volosno, west of Tolmino, in the Piava sector, on the middle Isonzo and against Gorizia. FOUR TROUBLE... Don't let it spoil your life. Don't let it ruin your chances. Consider This. Dyspepsia means that your stomach has lost tone and cannot properly deal with food. If you take digestives such as pepsin, you don't help your stomach; you only enable it to shirk its work. It will go on shirking. Stimulants on the other hand, whip up the digestive organs and end by exhausting them. You can't cure yourself that way. Real cure consists in strengthening the digestive organs, and that you do when you take Dr. Cassell's Tablets. These Tablets (the most popular of all British remedies) restore the digestive organs by increasing the vital force of the system. Their power to increase vitality is phenomenal. That is why they are so sure, not only in dyspepsia, but in all run-down conditions. Try them and see. You will be astonished at their efficacy.

MARITIME PROVINCES LEAD ALL CANADA IN TWO WEEKS' RECRUITS

Showing Not Particularly Gratifying, But it Eclipsed All Other Districts Irrespective of Population—Grand Total Compares Favorably with Other Divisions of Same Size—Kilties' Beacon on Fowler's Mountain.

It is a matter of common knowledge that during the latter half of August the maritime provinces gave more recruits than any other division of the Dominion of Canada. From August 15 to 31 the maritime provinces gave no less than 567 recruits, the second in line being British Columbia with 522 men. In the entire Dominion during the last half of August there was recruited 3,670 men, the province of Quebec, as usual, footing the list with 133 recruits. It may, however, be pointed out that during the first two weeks of August only 72 men were secured in the province of Quebec, and the latest report shows considerable improvement.

There was a great falling off in the district of Kingston (Ont.), the first half of the month giving 694 men, and the last half giving only 237 recruits. Only the maritime provinces show a good increase, the first half of August giving 493 and the second half 567.

No Money Yet

In spite of the fact that Lieutenant-Colonel P. A. Guthrie announced that he had been informed by Lieutenant-Colonel B. R. Armstrong, A. G. and Q. M. G. of Military District No. 6, that the returned soldiers who are deputy recruiting officers through the province would receive their money at once, no checks have as yet been forthcoming.

It may be well to note that yesterday the recruiting office in the city of St. John was open only a few hours, the recruiting sergeant there not having received any remuneration for his work since June last. It is pointed out that this hold-up in the pay of recruiting sergeants is causing a general demoralization of recruiting in this province.

For 65th Battalion

Major J. H. Evans was in the city yesterday on a recruiting tour for his unit, the 65th Field Artillery Depot. Major Evans is a Moncton boy and deserves the best support that St. John or any other portion of the province can give him. His battery is undoubtedly one of the best units of its kind in Eastern Canada and is composed of the best that New Brunswick can produce. A very few more men are needed to complete its complement and those who follow Major Evans should be sure to follow on the heels of the western front and has played its part gallantly and well.

Moncton Recruits

The latest recruits reported from Moncton are for the Canadian Engineers as follows: Robert Fleming, Chatham; Cornelius McCaffery, Newcastle (N. B.); Sergeant Major Beatty, recently signed on two other men at Newcastle, making four in all. Lieutenant McBeath and his assistants have secured about Why Conscription?

(Contributed by the Recruiting Office of the Sixth Division.)

It was in the land of Belgium—poor, stricken Belgium—where women become martyrs and men become heroes in a day. In the near distance the remnants of a once flourishing city were wreathed in the smoke of battle, and the crashing shells proclaimed that soon night would remain but its name and its memory to the children of man. For miles around and as far as the eye could reach, the green fields with their leafy trees and quiet garden plots, beside the touch of a spring, and little birds warbled everywhere. Across the landscape plainly can be seen many deep furrows in the earth, drawn seemingly in crooked fashion, as if a drunken hand had held the plow. On the hillside could be discerned a great patch of yellow, breaking the verdant surrounding carpet that nature had woven for the world. No birds are singing here—bullets instead. Ah! yes, but yesterday the great gas cloud had rolled down over the hills, leaving desolation in its train. 'Tis the yellow of parched and poisoned earth, and not the splotch of sunlight one might take it to be. 'Twas the second day of the second battle, the name of the furrows there seem to be moving back and forth little dots. Little puffs of smoke or dust are seen everywhere. Great splashes of earth present themselves, and following, we observe a great crawling hole in the furrow. A strange din comes to the ear. (Draw nearer with me, my gentle friend, till we see what it is all about.) How strange! A great force bent upon the conquest of the world are sweeping for just fresh from the northern woods. It was fine looking meat and the dealers were asking from twenty to twenty-five cents per pound. Thus has the first big game of the season been placed within reach of the public and, for the next three months, moose, deer and caribou will be coming as regularly as our ordinary domestic beef. The price will, of course, decline as the season advances but, being the first delicacy of its kind for the season it naturally comes a bit high.

Yesterday marked the opening of the big game season and there was quite a rush for licenses at the local offices. At the office of D. Scribner & Co., forty-one licenses were sold up to the supper hour while Phillips & Co. had disposed of about twenty. All these licenses were issued to residents of the province costing $8 each. The big rush for licenses has not yet started and will not be in full swing until about the middle of October.

As a general rule, very few non-resident licenses are issued in the city, the visitors to the province securing their licenses either at Fredericton or at other northern points. Two good sized caribou cases were for sale in the market yesterday.

But it is hard to make a good tool of a sharp man.

CLARION CALL COMES FOR N. B. KILTIES

Plan Evolved by Lieut. Colonel Guthrie, in Hospital, Now to be Carried Out
BEACON FIRES, FIERY CROSS AND MEETINGS

The Scotch Appeal Will Be Upremost—Expect New Provincial Record in Recruiting—One Mother's Sacrifice.

The recruiting teams of the 26th New Brunswick Kiltie Battalion, have used the mark; they are straining forward to catch the sound of the starter's pistol. They will hear it a week from today. Then they will be away in a trice to set up a new recruiting record for the old province and organize a new regiment in an old field that has already given many stalwart sons to the cause.

One week from today will bring to New Brunswick something that heretofore, in the annals of this province, has not been thought of, and something that down through the centuries will be remembered, talked about, and written about as long as the memory and the history of the present mighty struggle between the warring nations of the world is a topic of study and discussion among the people of this province, recruiting for the Kilties.

Over two years have elapsed since the work went mad with war, and the British Empire, standing as she always has upon the side of right and justice, entered the lists in the defence of down-trodden Belgium, in defence of her sacred treaty rights, and in defence of the cause of Christian teaching. Since then the call for men to do Canada's share in the fighting on the western front has been nobly answered by the sons of New Brunswick. Many line battalions have been raised, officered, trained and sent across to uphold the honor of our province in foreign lands. Many methods have been adopted to attract the young men of the country to the various units and once more lead his enlistment, but Monday, Sept. 25 will stand out distinct and clear, overtopping all efforts in the recruiting of young men in the province.

Lying on a hospital cot in La Touche, France, broken down by the ailments of the enemy, Lieutenant-Colonel Guthrie, then in command of the 70th Battalion (White Gurkhas), knowing that he could not recover in time to go back to the recruiting office, devised a scheme for the recruiting in the province of New Brunswick for a new battalion which he desired to march with into action again on the western front.

So it came about that plans were laid for the enlistment in the province of a Highland regiment. It was proposed in May last to begin recruiting for this unit, but as New Brunswick had at Valcartier Camp, but plans were laid for the enlistment in the province of a Highland regiment. Lieutenant B. B. Newman of the machine gun corps was killed while engaged in the instructional work in Vancouver at the outbreak of the war. His eldest brother was killed last September. Captain Harvey Lloyd, killed, was the grand-nephew of Captain Harvey, who carried the colors of the Coldstream Guards at Waterloo.

Beacon at Fowler's Mountain.

Hampton, Sept. 15—The vestals for the signal light which is to be used for the purpose of securing recruits for Lieutenant-Colonel Guthrie's battalion is now being built on Fowler's Mountain, which is situated on the Norton road about two miles above Hampton station. It was first stated that the fire would be built near Kingston, but it was found that this hill was better suited as it commands a wider view, extending from St. John to Sussex and on the St. John river to the Grand Lake. The trench will be about fifty feet high and will be built on the present plan, as to have it lighted about September 25, after which a recruiting meeting will be held at the "shirtonet."

The O. C. of the 26th O. S. Battalion has arranged for the return to New Brunswick of all his officers and N. C. O's, thus it will be that every man in the unit with authority to give orders, shall be one who has faced the enemy in France or Flanders. These officers and N. C. O's by the 25th will all have returned to Canada and reported. The province has been divided into districts, each district to supply a platoon. This makes a platoon for each county and one for the city of St. John. Each platoon will be officered by a man hailing from that particular district, under the supervision of the recruiting sergeant, also hailing from that district.

Great preparations have been made for the opening night, and the campaign and scheme which some time ago was proposed by the O. C. and those who somewhat elaborated upon it, is being put into effect. This is a Scotch regiment—a Scotch Highland regiment—why, then, should we not go back into Scottish history for our methods of calling to the colors the sons of New Brunswick, who may have a drop of Scotland's blood in their veins? There will be fifteen meetings held in the province that night, which meetings shall be addressed by fifteen of the most prominent speakers in Canada, also by fifteen returned soldiers who have come limping back to take their places in the Kilties. Fifteen of the highest peaks in the province have been topped by treasuries upon which have been piled flags and oil barrels ready for the torch. At 8 o'clock on the night set, just as the chairman at each of the fifteen meetings rises to announce the beginning of the campaign in his district, the pile will be fired and the sky ablaze forth in the red call of war, and there shall be neither man, woman nor child in this province who, standing on the door step of their home, whether it be in the city, streets, country, home, stead or silent lumber camp, gazing at the sky, cannot see there the reflection of one of these fires of "Creigh-gowan Heights."

Fifteen little girls in MacLean Tartan, one at each meeting, will stand at the front of each of the fifteen platoon, and recite Dirie the Pile on Creigh-gowan Heights. Out from the meeting will be sent an auto or motor, which will cycle a man with a flaming torch, which will be the cross of St. Andrew, which will be carried blazing through the roadways of the province from shire town to shire town. Beings will be arranged so that all the district will be lit up as if all the province will be made from Fredericton to Woodstock to Andover to Edmundston to Campbellton to Dalhousie to Newcastle to Richibucto to Dorchester to Hillsboro to Hampton to St. John to St. Andrews to Gagetown to Ororocton to Fredericton.

Just a little way from each centre the auto will be met by a man on horseback, who will carry the torch to the place of meeting. While the province will be circled by a fiery circle, while the skies are aglow with their fiery message the eloquent orators will send forth the call to the men of New Brunswick to rally and fulfill their duty. At each meeting there will be a pipper, who with his MacPherson pipes will send into the

King Inspected 26th as Representative of Whole Canadian Army at Front

Our New Brunswick Boys "Carried On" as They Had Done Most Gallantly for Months

High Officers of Canadian Command Presented to King on This Occasion—Many Flattering Remarks on Appearance and Record of Battalion Now Reaching the Stage of "Old-Timers"—Their Recent Exploits Showing Dash and Heroism.

Written by an officer of the 26th, an article has been forwarded to The Telegraph by Lieut.-Colonel A. E. G. MacKenzie giving an account of the king's review of the New Brunswick battalion at the front, the 26th having been chosen as a representative Canadian battalion.

The letter and article follow:
Headquarters, 26th N. B. Battalion, France.
To the Editor of The Telegraph, St. John (N. B.):
Dear Sir,—Herewith is an account of the king's recent visit of the king to our battalion as written by one of my officers.
I am forwarding this to you as I am sure the people of New Brunswick will be pleased to read this visit through the medium of your paper.
I remain,
Yours very truly,
A. E. G. MacKENZIE, Lt.-Col.
O.C. 26th N. B. Battalion.

The account follows:
On Monday the 14th of August was a red letter day in the history of the New Brunswick battalion.
"Sometime during the morning the word came that the king was coming through our district, that he would watch an artillery shoot and then motor past our camp. Nothing of a formal nature, the notice read, must be done in the way of receiving him should he decide to inspect our lines. Of course the news spread to all ranks and many war garments received fond attention. It was a beautiful day, rather windy for Belgium, but a bracing sort of summer day. The old windmill threw its great red sails about industriously but not with more gusto than our men put into the various exercises and drills they were practicing.

"Carry on" as for eleven months.
Orders had said to carry on with the usual work. We did. We had been carrying on with the usual work for eleven months and knew how. So it was that as the king's car drove up along the parade, the men of the 26th Battalion were carrying on in their usual snappy style, every phase of infantry fighting was being practised on the parade ground. Lieut-General Byng, the commander of the Canadian corps, the G.O.C.'s of the Canadian divisions and staff officers of many and high degrees were gathered at the corner of the field to receive his majesty. And so for many minutes before our royal visitor arrived our boys were the object of many expert and critical glances. They were also the object of many comments from this brilliant gathering and some of these remarks were overheard, and they were flattering indeed.

"Proud and happy day" for the battalion.
The cars stopped and his majesty accompanied by the Prince of Wales, General Sir Herbert Plummer, and more staff alighted. He was first seen to shake hands with General Byng, then with Generals Turner, Currie and Lipsett, then we saw our O. C. being presented, saw the salute and the handshake and saw them start on their way.

Hardest Test in Guns.
But the battalion got its hardest test when it took over a piece of newly captured line on the evening of the 14th of June and endured practically a constant heavy bombardment for five days and as many nights—when our casualties were a fourth of the number we took into the line. That time we took the "come back" from the concentrated artillery that had worked such havoc during the third battle of Ypres. No wonder we felt proud and happy that day when the king inspected us, and when he chatted with some of our men, asked their questions, and looked carefully at their sleeping and eating quarters. Then the boys felt that fighting for the king really meant something after all.

BODIES OF BOTH VICTIMS FOUND IN ST. JOHN RIVER

Accidental Drowning the Verdict at Sunday Inquest into Deaths of Engaged Pair.

Woodstock, Sept. 17—The bodies of Harvey Marsten and Elsie Hillman, who were drowned while returning in a canoe from a revival meeting near Meductic on Friday night, have been found. Her body was found on Saturday morning at 8 o'clock, one half mile below where his body was found at 8.45 this morning, in the river eddy, at Meductic. Men in boats searched all day yesterday and last night but without success until this morning.

Coroner Lindsay, of Woodstock, held an inquest, at 9 o'clock this afternoon, and the jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning. Murray Appleby and Asa Bragdon, who found Marsten's body, were the only witnesses.

Miss Hillman will be buried at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and the funeral of Mr. Marsten will take place the same afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Harvey Marsten was 40 years of age and the son of Eara Marsten. He is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Greely Hillman, of Union Corner; Mrs. McCullen, of Red Bridge; Mrs. Shaw, of Wakefield, and Lisic at home, and two brothers, Ham, of Woodstock, and Peter at home.

Miss Hillman is the daughter of Mrs. Edmund Hillman. Her brothers and sisters are Nelson, of New Bridge; Moses, of Simonds; Greeley, of Union Corner; Judson, of Meductic, and Jasper at home; Mrs. Jacob Cummings, Mrs. Abram Cronkite, Mrs. Miller and Miss Sylvia.

NO TIME LOST IN BRINGING MOOSE TO CITY MARKET

Saturday, Sept. 16.

"Not far advanced was morning day," as the post has it, when the first moose of the season succumbed to the bullet of the hunter in the New Brunswick woods. Care free and full of life, the high animal was pursuing his daily rounds in his forest home up to the fatal hour of 12 o'clock Thursday night, when the bars of the close season went down with a rattle and the monarch was laid low. At least this is how the details have been handed out.

They show much expedition in matters of this kind in New Brunswick and the enterprise of the early hunters is evidenced by the fact that, before the morning had been well advanced, moose meat was on exhibition in the local market just fresh from the northern woods. It was fine looking meat and the dealers were asking from twenty to twenty-five cents per pound. Thus has the first big game of the season been placed within reach of the public and, for the next three months, moose, deer and caribou will be coming as regularly as our ordinary domestic beef. The price will, of course, decline as the season advances but, being the first delicacy of its kind for the season it naturally comes a bit high.

Yesterday marked the opening of the big game season and there was quite a rush for licenses at the local offices. At the office of D. Scribner & Co., forty-one licenses were sold up to the supper hour while Phillips & Co. had disposed of about twenty. All these licenses were issued to residents of the province costing $8 each. The big rush for licenses has not yet started and will not be in full swing until about the middle of October.

As a general rule, very few non-resident licenses are issued in the city, the visitors to the province securing their licenses either at Fredericton or at other northern points. Two good sized caribou cases were for sale in the market yesterday.

But it is hard to make a good tool of a sharp man.

reason to believe that the more thoughtful Conservatives in Carleton are disgusted by the coarse methods of the government supporters and will vote for better management of the public affairs. They realize that no Conservative would lose his identity with his party by voting against B. Frank Smith and his colleagues. He would only be following the example of Sir Hibbert Tupper and thousands of other Conservatives throughout the Dominion who have declared themselves against corruption. Carleton County's reputation is at stake in this fight. Its citizens are asked to endorse the very methods which Peel, Westmorland, Quebec, North Perth, Nova Scotia, Manitoba and British Columbia refused to stand for. The clean thinking people of the Dominion await the Carleton verdict with intense interest. It ought to be as decisive and emphatic as the answer of each of the other constituencies in Canada where a firm stand has been taken for honesty in public life.

Thirteen hostile aeroplanes would seem to be a pretty fair day's haul. The British captured or destroyed that many in the Somme region yesterday. Four of their own machines are missing, but the feat is another proof of the superiority of the Allies' air force.

Mr. Lloyd George's interview with the Associated Press ought to have the effect of offsetting much of the poisonous work of pro-German agents who desire to make further trouble in the United States over the Allied blockade. The British War Minister assures the American people that their trade secrets are perfectly safe in the hands of the military censors. It certainly would not help the Allies to betray the American manufacturers in this way. In fact, it could not fall to have the opposite effect.

The Public and the Price of Necessities. (Toronto Star). The mayor and board of control talked eagerly of starting a municipal coal yard in order to see that the citizens got coal at a fair price this year. They talked that way on Tuesday and called in Commissioner Chisholm, who encouraged them in their purpose. A more complete report was asked for from Commissioner Chisholm and Commissioner Harris.

Next day they got their report which was unfavorable. The inference appears to be that Commissioner Harris threw cold water on the ardor of the others. The mayor and controllers marched up the hill on Tuesday and on Wednesday they marched down again.

In the report presented by the commissioners on the coal question a general principle is laid down from which we dissent. They declare that the city would not be justified in engaging in the coal business except on a competitive basis, and not then unless the price of coal is exorbitant.

The thought at the bottom of this reasoning is that the sellers of coal have a perpetual right to supply the buyers of it so long as they stop short of actual extortion in the prices they charge. But what if, as time goes on, a community learns that it is cheaper and better to have public street lights rather than compel every person to carry a lantern; or to have a general water service rather than compel each household to have a pump or carry water from the lake; or for the whole community to unite in purchasing coal wholesale rather than have each household buy his own supply a ton at a time at the highest retail cost.

As a community gains experience it ought to learn how, in various ways, to cheapen the cost and improve the quality of the general services its people require, and as a community learns better ways it ought to dispense with old-fashioned, hand-to-mouth methods.

In this city we need coal in winter and in summer, and the climate necessitates the use of a great deal of both if the people are to have health and comfort. Such being the case, why should not public interests supersede all other considerations? Why should not the community buy wholesale and retail at such a price as will pay for the service? A Mother, 1916. Where shall I lay the spirit of my son—for he is dead, I must find his grave. In the grey town amid the noise and stir—but not, not here. I wander far to rest my son—for he is dead. For he is dead and I must find his grave. The people of the town they catch my dress. But I rush on for I must find a deep, quiet grave. Where I can lay my son, for he is dead. For he is dead and I must find his grave. I search deep waters, but they shift and sigh. Dim places where the trees are shaking—Weary my feet to climb this last steep hill. But I must find a place to lay my son, for he is dead. For he is dead and I must find his grave. Where the grass is blowing on the hill—and the young corn is growing—There have I laid the spirit of my son—for he is dead. For he is dead—I have found his grave. News. Bowser Defeat in British Columbia Proves Utter Rout

But Six Conservatives Left and These May Be Reduced by Soldiers' Vote

New House Probably 42 Liberals to Six Conservatives—One Minister Only Survives and His Election in Doubt—Dr. J. H. King, New Brunswick Man, The New Provincial Secretary Under Premier-Elect Brewster, Native of Albert Co.—Regarded Throughout Canada as Awakening of Pacific Province to Nefarious Rule of Graters.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 15—The Bowser government was snowed under in yesterday's contest more completely than the early returns indicated. At a late hour tonight there was every reason to believe that not more than six Conservatives were elected. All the cabinet ministers have been defeated, with the possible exception of Hon. W. R. Ross, who is leading by sixty votes with several places in the Peace River district yet to hear from. Hon. Mr. Bowser, the Conservative leader, himself went down to defeat, although some of his followers are hopeful that the soldiers' vote may save his seat. On the other hand, it is pointed out by Mr. Bowser's opponents that the soldiers' vote may increase the majorities of the Liberal candidates.

THE NEW GOVERNMENT.

From a semi-official source the following cabinet slate for the Liberals is outlined:

- Premier and president of the council, H. C. Brewster.
- Attorney-general, M. A. MacDonald.
- Minister of mines, Ralph Smith, or William Sloan.
- Provincial secretary, Dr. J. H. King, of Cranbrook.
- Lands, T. D. Pattullo, of Prince Rupert.
- Finance, E. D. Beare, of Chilliwack.
- Mr. Brewster, the new premier is a native of Harvey Bank, Albert County (N. B.), so that one New Brunswick man succeeds another in the premiership. Dr. J. H. King, mentioned as provincial secretary is a son of Senator King of Chipman and J. D. W. B. Harris, another successful Liberal, is a son of Hon. L. P. Harris, of White's Cove.

Yes, it's "Snatched."

Montreal, Sept. 15—A Vancouver dispatch to the Star this afternoon says that Winnipeg from 40 to 48 seats out of a total of 47 in the legislature, Liberals of B. C. yesterday succeeded in "snatching" the majority.

On yesterday's vote Premier Bowser and his cabinet were apparently defeated. Though results in several close constituencies are still in doubt. Prohibition has been carried by 6,000 or 7,000 majority and woman's suffrage by more than that.

Debility is a word that fairly expresses many ailments under one name. Poor blood, weak nerves, impaired digestion, loss of flesh, and general exhaustion, are the usual attendants on this condition. It is the penalty of overwork or the result of neglected health. You must regain your health or succumb entirely. There is just one absolutely sure way to get back to normal health, and that is to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills will bring you new life, fill every vein with rich, red blood, restore elasticity to your step, the glow of health to your cheeks. They will supply you with new energy and supply the vital forces of your system.

BURPEE A BELIEVER

SUGGENDS TO STRAIN OF MANY MONTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Burpee A. Belyea, of 286 Rodney street, west end, yesterday received word that their son, Private Burpee A. Belyea, jr., of the "Fighting 26th," had been admitted to No. 10 Stationary Hospital in France suffering from debility and shell shock. Private Belyea was in the bombing section of the New Brunswick unit and has been on the firing line for twelve months. He is only twenty years of age and has stood the strain of constant fighting in a most remarkable manner.

Through a large number of bloody counters, this is the first time he has seen the inside of a field hospital as a patient. He is a married man. He has a brother-in-law, Private Roy McAulay, of the 26th Battalion, who is now in hospital suffering also from shell shock. Another brother-in-law, Private G. W. Paton, formerly of the 6th C.M.R., is now home wearing the returned soldier's button, having been wounded in action and discharged. Private Belyea who was yesterday reported admitted to the hospital, it may be hoped, is not seriously ill. He is well known in the city.

BRITISH CASUALTIES.

Friday's casualties in the British forces on the western front are given in a recent cable from London, and 5,798 men, including 948 wounded Australians, of whom 1,106 are dead. Those units bearing the brunt of Friday's fighting were the Royal Fusiliers, King's Royal Rifle, Northumberland Fusiliers, Royal Engineers, Oxford and Bucks Light Infantry, West Yorkshire and Middlesex.

FULL BATTALION OF FRENCH-CANADIANS COMING TO ST. JOHN

The 150th, Commanded by Lt. Col. Hercules Barre, Who Wears Ribbon of Legion of Honor, Likely to Spend Some Time in City—Battalion with Fine Reputation.

St. John is likely to welcome before many days one of the finest battalions in Canada, commanded by a most distinguished officer when the 150th French-Canadian Battalion, under Lieutenant-Colonel Hercules Barre, arrives here from Valcartier.

This battalion, it is understood, is likely to be one of two for which preparations are being made. The 150th is said to be at full strength, practically in overseas shape, and contains soldiers of the finest type of French-Canadians. The 150th spent last winter in Amherst, then a little more than half filled, and made a fine reputation there.

Lieutenant-Colonel Barre has been described as the bravest of the brave. He went overseas with the first contingent in the 14th Battalion, was seriously wounded at Ypres, and returned to Canada on the Hesperian with Lieutenant-Colonel Guthrie, giving that officer the push of the sinking steamer which saved his life. Before he left the steamer, Lieutenant-Colonel Barre succeeded in saving the lives of several women and children at the risk of his own.

Canadians all will read with a thrill of the most recent honors bestowed by his majesty on soldiers for distinguished service in the field. Many Canadians have won glory. Two, in the most recent announcement, have won the cherished "D. S. O." and twelve have been honored with the military cross.

CARLETON CAMPAIGN IS GETTING WARMER

Sordid Story of the Government's Misdeeds Appalls Electors

Citizens of That County Realize That All Canada is Waiting for Their Verdict on Graft and Corruption—A Plain Story by One Who Was on the Inside—What Will the Answer Be?

Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 17.—The election campaign has three days to run and they will be strenuous days for both parties.

The friends of better government are exerting every effort to redeem the fair name of Carleton county and place it in line with those constituencies and provinces throughout Canada that have protested against graft.

The example of Westmorland was not lost upon Carleton county, and the electors are just realizing that some of their political favorites used them to serve their own selfish ends without regard to the welfare of the province and with the sole idea of enriching themselves and their political friends.

Today those men are against the wall fighting for the election of Smith and Sutton and to continue the government in power that has favored their schemes and plundered the people. There is a nervous desperation in their struggle. They realize that if they should lose they would be done and New Brunswick would be saved, and if they should win they would not last long.

It seems a pity their supporters are spending such an immense campaign fund for such a result. Their hearts are not in the fight. The party hoodlums are working because they are paid, but the honest men who supported the government in 1912 are standing aside and not taking an active part.

Some of them will not vote; others will vote against Smith and Sutton for better things, more opposition, and others again will split their ballots; there will be many who will vote McCain and Smith and many Upham and Sutton. These are Conservative splits which will satisfy themselves with giving half of their vote for better government.

A new feature of the campaign has developed. Smith's friends and the outside influence of the government members have demanded the obliteration of James K. Fleming. The outside assistance expected on the platform would not materialize because Fleming was brought to the front. Smith was never satisfied with Fleming's demand. He wants the federal nomination taken and the trace between him and the premier was only temporary. But the refusal of Attorney-General Baxter to come into the county—the non-appearance of Premier Clarke, who was expected, the absence of Landry since the first days of the campaign, are explained by the Fleming-Smith alliance. The pressure on Smith was too great, and Fleming has been relegated to the background.

Mr. Daggett's Exhibition.

Then the appearance of an official of the agricultural department, Mr. Daggett, upon the stump has done the party much harm. A complete copy of Daggett's speech will be remembered a long time in Woodstock. In the first place, instead of the huge crowd of people noted in 1912, the open air audience was small—about 150 or 200—with several scores of women and children, and many of the electors were not in a condition to appreciate what the ministerial agricultural deputy was saying.

But the speaking was disgusting in those who did go to hear some details of the very grave charges that had been made by the opposition. A minister of the gospel while with rage, leaning over a balcony rail, shouting frantically to the crowd below personal abuse of a former departmental official, H. M. Blair, who had made serious charges against him, calling him "Judas Iscariot," and urging that he should be mobbed, did not appeal to right thinking citizens of Woodstock as the proper course.

The course of Daggett made people eager to hear what Blair had to say, and the story he related was not pleasant to listen to. Backing up his facts with documents, sometimes in the handwriting of former and present members of the government, for an hour or so he stands and gives such an inside history of graft and corruption as to make the head ache and the mind reel. The elector who listens cannot help but believe.

The former ex-deputy minister does not attempt to persuade. He simply takes one member of the government after another and tells many things he knows about them which should utterly condemn them as advisers of his honor and stewards of the people.

A Revolting Story.

Premier Clarke and his request to him to play sick at the time of the investigation, also the premier's knowledge of Dr. Landry's statement that the foreman in Kent county "did not kiss the book" are dealt with fully; and it may be stated here that Blair is not the only one who made a serious charge against the premier. A less person than that sober-minded and much-respected king's counsel, John M. Stevens, of Edmundston, said in his speech in the Hayden-Gibson Theatre that from his own personal knowledge Premier Clarke was informed by William H. Berry soon after Dugal made his charges in the house of assembly against Fleming, that they were true, and yet he not only stood in his place in the house as attorney-general and acting leader of the house in the absence of Fleming and denied them, but savagely warned Mr. Dugal that if he failed to prove these charges he would not only lose his seat in the house but be politically dishonored.

Blair's statement about Premier Clarke therefore had corroboration from an unexpected quarter. But his disgusting tale of bribery of some members of which he said he had absolute and personal proof was also unexpectedly corroborated by P. J. Veniot, who said that he had been approached by the same lobbyist and asked to secure the vote of Messrs. Dugal and Pelletier.

Minister of Agriculture Murray and his deputy Daggett—the $500 payment upon the Guthrie election notes—which Daggett says he advanced at the request of Murray, who afterwards repaid him, are all dealt with in detail by Blair who makes his statements with great caution, knowing that Smith has stenographers in the meetings taking down his statements. Murray's inquiries as to Morrissy's honesty, and when he was assured by him (Blair) that Morrissy was no grafter, the answer which Blair says Murray made that he remembered another minister (Fleming) who had protested his innocence, are all a part of the story, as well as a graphic account of the hot interview between Morrissy and Murray and the latter's blunt denial to the former that he had ever inquired about his honesty. Then, amid much laughter, Blair says that Murray sent for him and abused him because he had told Morrissy what he said about him. No wonder the electors sit silent and amazed and listen almost breathless to the sordid tale. He also dealt with the road foremen in Kent who padded their pay lists and swore to them and whom Dr. Landry excused by saying that in his county they "did not kiss the book."

Those "Surprises."

Then a more serious charge is made against the provincial treasurer. Blair has produced requisitions that called for the payment of many thousands of dollars of road and bridge accounts. These requisitions were for different years for work done in September and October. He tells how he was ordered by the treasury board to take those accounts back and "tuck them away" until after the close of the fiscal year. And then he tells how Hon. Dr. Landry would stand in his place in the house and tell the people how all the accounts had been paid and none outstanding at the close of the fiscal year and boat of the surplus.

LORD BROOKE WOUNDED; KAISER'S NEPHEW KILLED

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—Today's casualty list announces the wounding of Brigadier General Lord Brooke, son of the Countess of Warwick, who is commanding one of the Canadian brigades at the front.

LORD BROOKE.

Berlin, Sept. 15, via London, 4.48 p.m.—Princess Frederick William of Hesse has been killed at Kara Osman, it was officially announced by the war office today in its report on operations on the Balkan front.

Princess Frederick William of Hesse was a nephew of Emperor William. He was born in 1893 at Frankfurt-On-The-Main, the eldest son of Prince Frederick Charles of Hesse and Princess Margaret, sister of the German emperor.

He was reported wounded in the fighting in France in September, 1914. Prince Frederick William, the second prince of the house of Hesse to be killed in the war, Prince Maximilian falling on a French battlefield in October, 1914.

Seven other German princes have been killed during the war, two of Saxony-Meiningen, three of Lippe, one of Reuss and one of Waldeck.

APPEAL TO THE ELECTORS OF CARLETON COUNTY BY MESSRS. MCCAIN AND UPHAM

ELECTORS OF CARLETON COUNTY: Gentlemen: Having been chosen by the Opposition party candidates in the approaching bye-election, and being unable, in the short time at our disposal to see and discuss personally with you the important issues before the people, we take this opportunity of presenting our views upon many matters of interest and of soliciting your support.

The Opposition party of New Brunswick today is composed of both Liberals and Conservatives. We are not appealing for your support as Liberals but as men deeply interested in good government for our province. Prominent Conservatives all over New Brunswick are opposed to the present provincial government, for reasons which all of us are aware of. Men who supported Mr. Hazen in 1908 are now candidates and supporters of the Opposition party in 1916. Northumberland counties have pledged themselves to support better government for New Brunswick, and we wish to make it plain to every right thinking Conservative in Carleton county that if they support us as candidates of the Opposition, they will not in any way lose their identity as Conservatives. Just as thousands of Liberals in 1908 voted for a change of government in New Brunswick and still remained Liberal in federal politics so we believe many Conservatives will vote election day, September 21.

We are both busy men and if we consulted our own private interest would not go into politics. If all men did that, however, the business of the country would be neglected and the right of the people to choose their representatives is one of the principles our forefathers fought for, the electors of Carleton county are simply exercising the right of their franchise in nominating us as candidates at this time.

We are only doing our duty as citizens in responding to the call of the Opposition party to help govern this province—a duty which is just as necessary though it must admit not as full of sacrifice and courage as that which called so many young and brave men from Carleton county to the trenches in France and Belgium to fight for Canada and the empire.

We do not intend to dwell at any length upon the special and personal faults of the individual members of the government. While the investigations of charges have proved them too true in respect to their political conduct upon individuals as well as the government, there must be a feeling of regret at the loss of prestige for New Brunswick and for the reputations that have suffered in the pursuit of political advancement and personal wealth.

Our province must be governed honestly and prudently. To that end we pledge our best efforts. There were only two men out of forty-eight members who opposed the government in 1912. The country has suffered because of this and that reason alone should induce you to follow the example of Westmorland county and by electing as strengthen the Opposition and make it a greater safeguard for the public interest.

The increase in our bonded indebtedness has been such as to make thinking men pause and consider whether the

GRAFTERS MUST BE TURNED OUT

Strong Address to Carleton County Audience

BY F. E. SHARP

Issues of the Campaign Dealt With and People Reminded That Eyes of All Canada Rest Upon Them Now—A Chance to Strike Blow for Purity and Honesty in Public Life.

Lower Woodstock, Sept. 15.—At a public meeting here last evening Fred. E. Sharp, of Kings county, was the principal speaker. He dealt with the issues of the campaign in a comprehensive manner and in part spoke as follows:

"If this bye-election was only to elect a private member of the house of assembly for this constituency I would not be here taking part in this campaign. This is not an ordinary by-election. It had been brought about to fill a vacancy in the government, and the members of the government are not chosen to represent only the county they represent but the whole province.

"Therefore as a citizen of the province I am here to assist in this campaign for better government. Allow me to point out to you that ever since this gigantic war broke out over two years ago, and the Atlantic cables flashed the news across the water and our boys began to enlist and go over seas, contingent after contingent having gone forward, the people of Canada have been awakened.

They have been reading and thinking in a manner they never thought before. A keener interest has been taken in public affairs. In every by-election in Canada since this war began every candidate or party with whom graft or suspicion of graft has been associated has gone down to defeat. In fact North Perth West Toronto, in the provinces of Manitoba and British Columbia, large majorities for one party have been turned into minorities for another party.

Some of them take it that thousands upon thousands of electors have changed their politics. I do not wish to take it that way. I believe that thousands of voters have only changed their votes for the time being in order to rebuke the grafter and expel him from public life.

"This portfolio of chief commissioner of public works of this province has been carried around for quite a while. A considerable time being wasted during the past spring, Westmorland county was asked to endorse the present government in power in this province by electing Hon. Mr. Maloney to this important office. During the contest in that county, the eyes of the whole province of New Brunswick, yes, the whole of Canada, were turned toward Westmorland county to see what the result of that contest would be.

The whole of Canada, were turned toward Westmorland county to see what the result of that contest would be. In spite of all the influences used, refused to endorse the government. I believe there were many independent electors in Carleton county who rejoiced at the result of that contest. On the 21st inst. you are to have the same opportunity of administering a stinging rebuke to this same incompetent, corrupt administration as was done by the electors of Westmorland last May.

Remember that the eyes of the whole of Canada are upon you to see what you may do. I ask you as Nelson of old asked his men, 'Do you dare?' The Hon. Mr. Smith has been telling you electors it will be a great benefit to have the largest spending department in the gift of the government to come to this county. Don't be influenced by any such insinuations for if this man is elected (though I don't believe he will be) he will not only be chief commissioner for Carleton county and if he begins to favor his own constituency he will very soon hear from the rest of the province.

Mr. Sharp also spoke at considerable length upon the agricultural policy of the present government. Being a practical farmer himself, he pointed out the many faults, and suggested many reforms. Immigration, education, and roads and bridges were also dealt with.

Honors Follow North Sea Fight

London, Sept. 16.—(Toronto Mail and Empire Cable)—Honors awarded as a result of the Jutland battle are enumerated by the official Gazette yesterday as follows:

Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, Order of Merit; Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty, Knight of the Grand Cross of the Bath; Rear-Admiral Sir F. G. D. Sturdee, Companion of St. Michael and St. George; John Jellicoe, Cornwall, a boy who remained at his post during the action, although mortally wounded, was awarded the Victoria Cross; Sub-Lieutenant Prince Albert, R. N., has been recommended for commendation for service.

Re honors for Sir Doveton Sturdee, The Telegraph is informed there is some mistake as called, as he is already a baronet. K. C. B., a C. M. G. and C. V. O., so he cannot be C. M. G. again. This may be intended for K. C. M. G.; also, he is vice-admiral, not rear-admiral.

GOVERNMENT FORCES IN CARLETON DISCOURAGED

They Realize That the Sentiment of the People Everywhere is Strongly Against the Grafters—Opposition Speakers Given Remarkable Receptions—An Answer to the Hon. Mr. Murray.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Woodstock, Sept. 15.—The unscrupulous government clique, the party hoodlums, the men who have tried to make Carleton county a political parish have got their tails down. They are discouraged. Public sentiment, the highest sentiment of the people, is against them and they know it.

The candidates feel the strain of hearing refusals of their own followers to support wrongdoing. They do not seem to separate canvass. Smith's friends are clamoring to save Frank from defeat. The ultra party men are crying: "If Smith is defeated it means the defeat of the government." Mr. Murray may do better. He realizes that the defeat of Sutton means a defeat for Smith. A minister should prefer defeat than acknowledge that he cannot carry his colleague with him. That, however, does not bother Smith. His defeat means not only the defeat of the government but the upsetting of all personal schemes. That would be a good thing for New Brunswick, but unfortunate for Smith. The opposition forces are elated with their success yesterday and amused at the false reports sent out of their splendid meetings.

Tonight there is a big meeting at Hartland, which P. J. Veniot, Dr. Smith and Mr. Upham will address. Copp and Stevens are also on the stump. Fred E. Sharp, one of the Kings county candidates, is doing splendid service in the campaign, and G. H. Adair, the secretary of the Kings county opposition association, is speaking every night.

Mr. Murray's Remarkable Position.

Tonight at Waterville, E. S. Carter gave a complete answer to Hon. Mr. Murray's statements yesterday concerning the potato graft. He forced Murray to contradict himself and the auditor-general from the records of the house. Murray and Daggett built a trap for themselves by permitting Smith's transaction in potatoes and are now paying the penalty.

"I see that Hon. Mr. Murray is much concerned about my charges made at Centreville in connection with the expenditure for patriotic and Belgian potatoes," said Mr. Carter, "and he has fortified himself with letters from the auditor-general and from Mr. Slipp the potato inspector. These letters are late in coming and they are not as convincing as they might be. We learn from the auditor-general that the money from the sales of potatoes came from A. C. Smith & Company, the business associates of Frank Smith, and that there was an item in the account of $2,400 refund. Now what does Mr. Murray mean? Does he mean to say that at this date his information is different from what it was when the house was in session? Does he mean that when he gave the people of New Brunswick a straight denial that there had been any refund that he did not know what he was saying in the synopsis report on page ten of the appendix, 1914? Hon. Mr. Murray gives the facts directly to the present statement of an auditor general. Every day almost there were questions asked him concerning this potato transaction. He evaded the queries. He said there was no letter of credit given Smith in the name of the auditor general. Every day almost there was a question asked him concerning the bank to honor Smith's drafts. He said Inspector Slipp had not condemned potatoes one year, forgetting that the year before he said that he did condemn them.

"And then finally he denied that there had been any refunds. Here is the record and the record can't lie, no matter how cleverly the auditor general is from the records. Was any other amount for any reason or purpose whatsoever refunded to the province by any of those connected with the purchase or assorting of potatoes, and what was this amount sent at what date was it paid to the province, and by whom or through whom?"

"Answer—No." "In the face of that statement made by Mr. Murray himself while he was acting premier, when the auditor general was only a few yards away from him, when Mr. Babbit was within hearing distance and with B. Frank Smith, himself, sitting across the aisle and listening to the statement, how can Hon. James Murray stand upon the platforms of Carleton county and try to stuff down the throats of the people that B. Frank Smith did make a refund of $2,400 on this account?"

"I see that Hon. Mr. Murray did not tell the truth in the legislature or he is not telling it now. He can take his choice. He elaborated his speech with personal abuse of myself, which does not affect the issue. The day will soon come and it cannot come too soon to suit me when Murray and Carter will stand before the people of Kings county and the electors will decide who is right and who is wrong. Only give the people the chance to see what they are doing and what other matters."

Mr. Carvell is improving and he hopes to be able to take part in the battle the first of the week.

GOVERNMENT SUPPORTERS FLOODING CARLETON CO. WITH ELECTION RUM

Woodstock, Sept. 17.—There is already increasing evidence of rum and money in government circles. In Hartland, yesterday, the Scott Act Inspector made a large seizure from the cellar of a government supporter. Drunken men fed upon this supply of liquor have been making the neighborhood noisy. Decent conservatives are taking alarm at the prospect of this week and are protesting against such election methods. The villages are simply being flooded with rum. Barrels of it arrived by train, disguised of course, but filled with fighting booze. To permit such revolting methods to disgrace Carleton county and drown the voice of the people in their protest against graft and corruption, is too disgusting to think of. Leading government workers know all that is going on. Some of them posed and are posing as religious men and yet they are bribing many electors and setting them and others drunk in order to win the contest. WHAT MUST THE STRONG TEMPERANCE MEN IN THE COUNTY WHO ARE CONSERVATIVES THINK?

The Opposition party is not buying votes of rum. Not one cent has been spent for liquor. There is an attempt in the government newspapers to make the people believe otherwise, but organizer E. S. Carter says he is prepared to make a solemn declaration stating that not a cent has been spent for liquor and none has been given to any person whatsoever by the Opposition organization with the knowledge or consent of those who have charge of the campaign. The rum and money methods of the government are only spurring those working for better government to greater efforts.

The result in British Columbia where the grafters went down before a enraged people, and the recent declaration that contractors had to pay $2,500 in connection with the settlement of their claim for constructing a section of the Valley Railway, have created a deep impression here. It was like adding fuel to a dying fire, and the blaze is hot and furious.

It seems the same old story over again. In the face of everything, in spite of money, in spite of hypocrisy, in spite of the desperate battle of the hoodlums, WHAT CAN CARLETON COUNTY ELECTORS DO BUT VOTE FOR BETTER THINGS?

ARMORED CR CLIMBS TRENCHES, BARBED WIRE AND SHELL CRATERS

London, Sept. 16.—The reference in Thursday's official communication to a new type of armored car, is the first official mention of a development which has been much whispered about recently in army circles. Those who have seen the new vehicles refer to them as "tanks," while the soldiers have given them the nickname of "Willies."

The designers sought to render a heavily armored motor car, capable of being operated in the shell torn and roadless wilderness of trenches, where a vehicle mounted on ordinary wheels could not be used.

NO SHIRKERS IF THEY COULD SEE SMILES LIGHT UP FACES OF SUFFERING "HOSPITALS"

Tribute to Heroic Spirit of Canadians Paid by Sapper W. Brindle, Himself Seriously Injured--The Maple Leaf Greatly Honored Along the Battle Front--Bleeding and Broken, They Come Back "Still Singing."

Good reading for the young man still hanging to his old job at home is contained in a letter received Saturday by Charles Ledford, secretary of Marlborough Lodge, S. of E. from Sapper W. Brindle, a middle-aged member of the lodge...

The letter follows: "What happened your chest? 'Just a chunk of shrapnel, sir.' 'Would you like me to write to your people and tell them how you are getting along?' 'If you would be so kind, sir,' said the boy."

"What shall I tell them," asked the chaplain. "Oh, just tell them how you have been getting on. The boys will be all right, but for God's sake, sir, don't tell them my leg is gone."

"The chaplain looked the amazement he evidently felt at this reply, for whilst he could see the other wounds he had no idea of seeing the missing leg. He looked round at us Canadians and said: 'My hat is off to you, boys, everytime; there is no probing the depth of a Canadian.'"

"To see our splendid boys pass out of the trenches as I go by is the same, no singing ever singing, and to see them come back again, bleeding and broken, still singing, is to me the sight of a lifetime, and makes me feel proud of the fact that I belong to the same race."

"How are you my son?" "Oh, not too bad," was the reply. "How is your arm this morning?" "Not too bad, sir."

"Oh, pretty good, sir."

Yours sincerely, SAPPER W. BRINDLE, C. O. R. C. C.
