The Bishop and his family have gone to the Island, for the summer. Canon and Mrs. Macnab are arranging for a vacation during August, and we expect the Rev. J. F. Rounthwaite, of Brantford, to take Canon Macnab's place during his absence.

Mr. Archbold has gone to his new charge of Minden, taking with him the sincerest wishes of the congregation of St Alban's for his welfare and success in the Mission work to which he has decided to devote himself for some time to come. While he will be missed by many of the St. Alban's congregation, it must be recognized that the work which he is entering upon is such as every young Clergyman should take up as an important step in his career, and it would not be right for us to complain or in any way whatever to hinder so entirely proper a change on his part.

Further donations of gems for the Pastoral staff comprise a garnet from Mr. Murless, and five garnets from Miss E. McCorquodale.
