FARM FOR SALE.
The best 100 acre farm on the Howick and Carrick townline is offered for sale. Excellent soil, new brick house and new bank barn, with cement stables and pig pen. 8 acres of bush and good orchard. Convenient to church and schools. Apply for terms and particulars at this office.

BORN.
HARRIS—In Howick, on June 14th, to Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Harris, a daughter.
CULLITON—In Carrick, on June 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Culliton, a son.
EWALD—In Toronto, on June 7, to Mr. and Mrs. Ewald (nee Hooley) a son.

LOTS OF FRUIT.
The opinion of an expert is that the yield of fruit this summer will be one of the greatest on record unless there are some June frosts to nip the young fruit at its beginning. There is no variety of fruit that will be an exception to the rule. Plums set during the past week—that is, the blossoms disappeared, and the fruit began to show, though still small and green. It shows at this early stage, however, that the trees will be overloaded with plums, and the fruit-growers and farmers seem to think that they will have to do some pruning in order to get the full sized fruit—the branches are so heavily loaded already. Peaches will be good this year, in spite of the prognostications of some Niagara Falls expert, who said that the blossoms had not fertilized properly. Peaches will be about as heavy as the other varieties of fruit, and the farmers and fruit-growers will have a hard job working any peach famine cry this summer. Pears and apples are also in good shape. Apples are just beginning to set, and the chances are that the apple yield will be as good as the others—and that means that it will be a bumper one.

Chas. Conn, of Lexington, Ky., died of a rattlesnake bite. Conn said he was a snake charmer, and took the reptile out of an exhibition case in a spirit of bravado. He was bitten twice. He became unconscious in a few moments, and raved until death ended his suffering.

The town of Dundas, population 4000, was seized by a sheriff's officer, the reason being that a Mrs. Sutton secured judgment for $3250 against the town for the death of her husband, who was killed by a live wire trailing on the sidewalk.

LAKELET.
Carrick Liberals have one cause for rejoicing over the results of the recent elections, but we poor beggars in Howick had none. Our man defeated, the party smashed, and well, we will get over it. "Whatever is best," is an old saying, the truth of which is difficult to grasp just at present. We were not disappointed at the result in North Huron. Taking the figures at the last Provincial election the Conservatives had a majority of 203, and Mr. Currie, though a good man, could not cut that down though he reduced it to 170.

So Tom Bennett fell. It is a wonder the result of the election did not keep Tom from falling. He was quite optimistic regarding the result. He struck it for once. He had no vote this year, and that is a good job. He has always made a muss of voting.

Mr. Wm. Wallace of Springbank, sold his driving mare to Mr. Schwartz of Mildmay. This mare took first prize at all the shows last fall and Wm. got a high price for her.

John Wolf and Robt. Ferguson are putting additions to their barns and Robt. McLachlan, Geo. Hubbard and John Darroch are building driving sheds.

There is a much larger acreage of mangels sown this year than usual. Turnips have been such an uncertain crop during the past years that farmers are going out of them. R. Milligan who owns 300 acres of land and always had 8 to 10 acres of turnips, has not sowed a row this year.

The officials here on the 8th were: D. R. O.—Jno. Wolf; Poll Clerk—John Montgomery; Constable—Chris. Binkley; Scrutineers for Mr. Musgrove—G. Hubbard and Ernest Musgrove; for Mr. Currie—Jno. Porterfield and John Darroch. The count here was Currie 55, Musgrove 81.

Clifford.
On Tuesday morning another of the old residents of Howick was called away by death in the person of Mrs. Earngrey, sr., aged 81 years and 17 days.

Mr. Walter McMichael returned a few days ago from his ranche at Qu'Appelle, to his home at Fordwich. He reports business good and prospects for the farmer never better at this time of the year.

Mr. John W. Deitz is pushing forward the brick work on Mr. John Dahmer's new dwelling on the old skating rink property. Indications point to a handsome building to still further improve the appearance of beautiful new Clifford. Visitors absent fifteen years would not recognize modern Clifford.

On Wednesday morning of last week, at 6.45, at the Evangelical church, Clifford, Mr. Henry Stroh and Miss Minnie Demmerling were married. The officiating clergyman was Rev. A. W. Sauer, the new pastor. Mr. Chas. Reidt was groomsmen and Miss Carrie Eckel bridesmaid. The happy young couple left on the morning train south on a trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo.

Gazette to new subscribers to Jan. 1st, 1909, for 40 cents.

A woodpecker sat on a knotty limb; his head was red and his temper grim; for the world was out of whack with him. He had hammered the stumps till his head did swim; he had looked for worms till his eyes were dim; he had punched each tree and knot and limb, and never a bug there was for him. Not a song he sung, not a woodland hymn, for how can a bird with hunger slim, and gaunt starvation gruesome grim, looking right into the eyes of him, get up a voice like a cherubim, and with melody make the welkin swim? His crop was vacant, and only a whim was in the stomach of him. Then he flew to the river and drowned him, and never made an effort to swim. His last words were "Oh birdie trim, why do you vote for that have so prim, who got to work on each woodland limb, and placed a trust on the bugs of him? I'm like the farmer, gaunt and grim, who gets surrounded by a rim of trusts that fill him to the brim with wind till there's naught in the stomach of him." The woodpecker then was out of breath, and the fish that ate him starved to death.

FORMOSA.
Mr. and Mrs. Strauss of Bamberg are visiting friends in Formosa and vicinity. License inspector Cannon was in the village on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Beitz of Drayton, visited friends in the village last week.

MARRIED—On Monday, June 15th, Mr. W. Wilhelm of Carrick to Miss L. Monahan, also of Carrick. The ceremony took place at the R. C. Church, Formosa, Rev. J. J. Gehl officiating.

Louis and Eugene took a drive to St. Clements last Monday and returned on Friday.

Mr. C. Zinger, operator at the G. T. station at Guelph, visited at his home here over Sunday.

BORN—On Thursday, June 11th, to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Weishar of Carrick, a daughter.

The Salem Baseball team will play our team here on Thursday, (Corpus Christi) at 4 p. m.

CON. 10 CARRICK.
Miss Scott, teacher at S. S. No. 5, gave her pupils a picnic on Tuesday afternoon. There was a large crowd present, Hanover, Walkerton and Neustadt being represented. The ladies of the 10th provided eatables in abundance and all had an enjoyable time.

—Miss Bertie Zinn has resigned her position as teacher at P. S. S. No. 6, to take effect at midsummer. The whole section is sorry to lose her.

Miss Clara Miehhausen of Walkerton and her brother Frank, spent Tuesday at Frank F. Schmidt's.

Wm. Hacker, pathmaster in this division, has completed his statute labor for another year.

One of our lady gardeners planted 260 cabbages this spring. She expects to have a big cargo of sauer kraut this winter.

Miss Susan Diebolt of Neustadt is home for a few weeks.

Joseph Schickler and wife went to Berlin on Saturday to visit the former's father.

George Russwurm had the misfortune to cut his thumb badly with the axe last week while fixing his gravel box.

Conrad Wiseman is still on the sick list.

DIED LEAVING TRAIN.
London, Ont., June 16.—John F. McNamara, a well-known citizen of Walkerton, who was on his way home from Chicago, while getting off the Lehigh Express, which arrived here at 4.10 this morning, fell into the arms of his nephew, Mr. John W. McNamara, and died a moment later.

Mr. McNamara was 32 years old and for many months had been touring the Canadian West and Western States in the hope that his health would be benefited.

Mr. McNamara was the son of Mr. Wm. McNamara, of Walkerton, and is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters.

The remains were taken to Walkerton this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

BURGLAR SENTENCED.
Walkerton, Ont., June 12.—Charles McCrae, one of the trio of burglars who went through a jewelry store in Port Elgin on the 4th, was brought here from Owen Sound. Part of the jewelry was found deposited in a heap of stones in a field near Chesley. McCrae pleaded guilty and was given three years at Kingston. McCrae is apparently a hardened criminal. The other two, Dublin Wilson and Reed, are yet a large. Wilson served a term for shooting Detective Farr of London several years ago.

Too much credit cannot be given to County Chief Russel, who followed them through the different townships, and finally cornered them at Owen Sound. According to McCrae, they had arranged a series of robberies in Warton, Owen Sound, Chesley, Paisley, and Walkerton on their return trip.

John Rudolph, hotelkeeper of Tara, was fined $20 and costs for selling liquor on Nomination day.

Libby's Food Products

Peerless Dried Beef

Unlike the ordinary dried beef—that sold in bulk—Libby's Peerless Dried Beef comes in a sealed glass jar in which it is packed the moment it is sliced into those delicious thin wafers.

None of the rich natural flavor or goodness escapes or dries out. It reaches you fresh and with all the nutrient retained.

Libby's Peerless Dried Beef is only one of a Great number of high-grade, ready to serve, pure food products that are prepared in Libby's Great White Kitchen.

Just try a package of any of these, such as Ox Tongue, Vienna Sausage, Pickles, Olives, etc., and see how delightfully different they are from others you have eaten.

COST THOUSANDS OF LIVES.

Effect of a Telegraphic Error About a Flood in China.

How a telegraphic error was responsible for the loss of thousands of lives is told by a Shanghai correspondent. The disaster occurred during a freshet on the Han River in the beginning of April.

Owing to heavy rainfalls in the mountains in northwest Hupeh it frequently happens that a torrent of water rushes down the mountainsides into the Han, a tributary of the great Yangtze. Hitherto warning of the freshets has been telegraphed from Siang-yang, 400 miles away from the mouth of the Han, and on receipt of the news men have hurriedly sent out, equipped with gongs, to warn the boats at the mouth of the river to find a safe anchorage.

On the evening of April 6 messengers were sent around with the news that a freshet, six feet high, was on its way down. The inhabitants and the boating population considered a six foot freshet to be of little consequence, and took no precautions whatever, believing that, as in former years, its arrival need not be expected for another twenty-four hours.

Unfortunately the telegram announcing the oncoming torrent was delayed for twenty-four hours and by an error in the wording the height was reduced from twenty-six feet to six feet. The freshet arrived at lightning speed at midnight on April 6. The night was pitch dark, the inhabitants were asleep. Suddenly thousands of boats in the Han River were torn from their moorings and hurled together in a confused mass on the breast of a raging torrent. Deep laden boats were sunk immediately, others were pounded to pieces and some catching fire lit up a scene of appalling destruction.

The people on shore were powerless to assist and the cries of the perishing went to the heavens and were very painful to hear, as a native newspaper described it. Those boats that escaped the initial onset of the torrent were swept out into the Yangtze, where a strong northeast gale completed the work of destruction.

Life boats were sent out to the rescue, but could render little service. The terror of the night was increased by three huge junks which took fire and drifting toward the foreshore of the British settlement endangered the hulks moored along its front.

The native papers state that a small steamer, 700 large junks and innumerable small craft were destroyed. The loss of life, at first estimated at 2,000, probably exceeded double that number. Eighteen hundred bodies were picked up at one bend of the Yangtze alone. A number of women and children are among the dead. Thirteen hundred masts were recovered at the same spot.

FATHER & DAUGHTER BENEFIT
RINGWORM AND ECZEMA CURED BY ZAM-BUK

Miss Wilhelmina McCharles of Powassan, Ont., writes: "I have proved Zam-Buk a healing balm for eczema. My father had it very bad on his hands and they were swollen very much. One night he decided to try Zam-Buk. I had previously used it for Ringworm which I could not remove until I tried Zam-Buk. This removed the Ringworm in a very short time. In the morning father's hands were very much improved. He therefore continued using Zam-Buk, and the eczema is now all gone. I hold Zam-Buk in high esteem as a healing balm."

ZAM-BUK is Healing, Soothing, Antiseptic. Of all drug-gists and stores, etc., or postpaid from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

TO PREVENT CONSUMPTION.

Successful Outcome of Experiments by German Scientist.

Mr. Nathan Straus, of New York, who recently established at Heidelberg a laboratory for the purpose of demonstrating to German men of science and health reformers that his method of pasteurizing milk is an effectual way of preventing consumption, has just obtained from Professor Feer, of Heidelberg University, a striking testimonial. Professor Feer inoculated ten guinea pigs with milk obtained from cows known to be suffering from tuberculosis. In the case of five guinea pigs, the milk, after having been pasteurized by the Straus method, was inoculated into the guinea pigs in its raw condition.

The result of the experiment has been remarkable. The five guinea pigs which were inoculated with pasteurized milk were thriving on it, and remain in excellent health. The five guinea pigs inoculated with raw milk are all suffering from tuberculosis in its most virulent form, and are certain to die. The experiment reveals the grave danger incurred by the use of raw milk taken from diseased cows, and, at the same time, proves that the pasteurization of milk, as advocated by Mr. Nathan Straus, effectively purifies milk and renders it fit for consumption.

ON MAKING FRIENDS.

Do you ever stop to think of how many friends you have? No? Well, it's a good idea to do so now and then. The art of making friends is well worth acquiring. Just sit down and count up how many friends you have gained during the last year, and how many you have lost. The result may be astonishing. People drift apart so quickly in these days. Absorption in business is one reason for this; another is the modern dislike of writing letters; and a third a tendency—particularly with the passing of years—to become too self-centred. All these things prevent us making new friends, as well as helping us to lose old ones. Determine to prevent this. It is easy. Look for likable qualities in those you meet, and you will find them. Don't be too cautious about your acquaintances, thus shutting out much pleasure in life. Finally, when you meet someone who is inclined to be friendly to you, be ready to do your part, and it will be plain sailing.

A SPLENDID PRESCRIPTION.

For Rheumatism, and all Kidney, Liver, Bladder and Urinary Affections.

An eminent physician informs us that he has used the following prescription in his practice for a number of years and found it very successful in the treatment of kidney, liver, bladder and all urinary affections, and is unsurpassed for the cure of rheumatism, driving the uric acid entirely from the system. He claims that a very few doses will relieve the most severe pains in the back arising from disordered kidneys and impure blood.

The prescription is one ounce of sweet spirits of nitre, one ounce of compound tincture of iron and four ounces of syrup of rhabarb, taken in desert-spoonful doses in water, after meals and at bedtime. These ingredients are harmless and inexpensive and can be obtained at any reliable drug store and mixed together at home.

SENTENCE SERMONS.

Truth needs no authority other than its own.

He is good natured whose nature it is to do good.

He does nothing extraordinary who despises the ordinary.

Things always are looking up to the man who tries to lift them up.

Faith in God without friendship with man is like poetry without print.

Nothing worries some folks more than to find trouble taking a little nap.

It is a good thing to watch the man who is over nice about indifferent things.

We never are ready to be lifted up until we have been thrown down a few times.

You are not looked to heaven simply because you are versed in the heavenly book.

The soundness of your virtue does not depend on the volume of sound you can make.

The first step toward cleaning up your neighbor's back yard is taking a hoe to your own.

There is something wrong with a man's prayers when they never choke his utterance.

It is better to give your friends a little lift now than to put a lot of love all over their tombstones.

Some men never hear the bugle call of heaven because they are so occupied with listening for the trumpet of fame.

RECIPE.

To lay carpets without pounding thumbs, squashing fingers, using profane language, skinning your knees and getting rheumatism and lame back and that tired feeling—hire the job done.

INDIGESTION CAN BE CURED

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Succeed After Other Remedies Fail.

There are twenty drugs to help your digestion for a time, but there is only one medicine that can positively cure your indigestion for good. To any one with indigestion a half dozen boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are worth all the purgatives and mixtures in the country. After all these things have failed Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured the worst cases of indigestion by going straight to the root of the trouble in the blood.

You can take a purgative to tear through your bowels and make a clean sweep of your food, whether it is digested or not. You can take stomach bitters to create a false appetite—if you don't care what happens after you swallow your meal. You can drug your stomach with tablets and syrups to digest your food for you—if you don't care how soon you ruin your system altogether. You can do all these things—but don't call it "curing your indigestion." There is only one way to cure indigestion, and that is to give your system so much good, pure, red blood that your stomach and liver will have strength enough to do their natural work in a healthy and vigorous way.

That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure indigestion—they actually make new blood. Here is the proof. Mr. R. McCorkell, St. Thomas, Ont., says:—"About a year ago my system became generally wrecked. My stomach was always in a state of nausea. The sight of any kind of food often turned my stomach and I would arise from the table without eating. Doctors advised different medicines which I took without benefit. Finally I became so run down that I had to quit work. For two months I tried to build myself up with the aid of doctors, but as time went on and my condition did not improve I became much discouraged. Then a friend told me he thought Dr. Williams' Pink Pills would help me, and I began their use. In three weeks time I was so improved that I went back to my work, but I continued using the pills until I had taken twelve boxes, and now my stomach is strong, and I am ready for a good meal three times a day, and life now really seems worth living."

It is because Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, red blood that they cure such common ailments as anaemia, with all its headaches and backaches, rheumatism, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, partial paralysis and the secret ailments from which women and young girls suffer so much. You can get the pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SAP BLINDED HIM.

Man Cut Tree in Mexico Was Burned by Acidlike Sap.

While making an inspection of a tract of timber in Michoacan, Mexico, Edward Spendlove came to a peculiar looking tree and struck it with an axe he was carrying. Instantly a quantity of sap spurted from the tree, striking the man in the face and entering his eyes.

The sap had the properties of a strong acid and burned his way into the eyeballs and into the flesh of the face. Spendlove was blinded, and physicians say that his eyes have been permanently injured, and that he will never see again.

The tree is thought to be a species of poison oak. The natives in that part of Mexico have known of the dangerous properties of the sap for many years.

IN FINANCIAL CRISES.

Many a bank confronted by a run has saved itself from ruin by artifice. One American bank, just as a run was starting, hired half a dozen men to draw out large sums in cash. These men, with great bundles of greenbacks and with huge bags of gold, would run round to the rear of the building, hand in all that money, and then come and draw it out again. After half a dozen such drawings the run ceased. One banker, on the verge of ruin, got a sack of metal, spread a layer of gold coins on the top, and nailed the sack to the paying-teller's counter. The sack was shown to the multitude that had gathered for a run, and a blacksmith was bidden to lift the sack, if he could. Of course, he couldn't, and the crowd dispersed, satisfied that, with so much gold, the bank was safe. Another dodge is to paint, on the morning of a run, all the woodwork. Wet paint shows the crowd up considerably. Nobody wants to get his clothing smeared.

CHILDHOOD DANGERS.

No symptom that indicates any of the ailments of childhood should be allowed to pass without prompt attention. The little ailment may soon become a serious one, and perhaps a little life passes out. If Baby's Own Tablets are kept in the house minor troubles can be promptly cured and serious ailments thus averted. And the Tablets can be given with equal safety to the new born babe or the well grown child. Mrs. H. Gendron, Martinville, Que., says:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets and have found them in every way satisfactory. I always feel safe when I have them at hand." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

RUSSIAN EMPRESS ROMANCES.

Marriage of Princess Dagmar of Denmark and Grand Duke Alexander.

How many people are aware that the marriage of the Empress Marie Foodrova of Russia, the Czar's mother, provided one of the most pathetic love stories in the annals of royalty? asks London Tit-Bits.

Before the Empress, who was Princess Dagmar of Denmark, married Alexander III. she was engaged to his elder brother, the Czarevitch. In 1865 at Nice the Grand Duke Nicholas fell from his horse and was so badly injured that his life was despaired of. His fiancée hastened to him and never left his side till he breathed his last. The succession to the throne devolved on the Grand Duke Alexander.

He stood by the deathbed of Czarevitch, who, in the presence of the Emperor and Empress, placed the hand of the weeping Princess into his, saying to her with almost his last words: "Marry my brother; he is true as crystal, and I wish it."

Enforced by political reasons, this bequest was law to the bereaved girl.

CANADA'S GREAT CELEBRATION.

There are now subscriptions announced to the extent of about $600,000 for the great Tercentenary celebration at Quebec, and nearly a million dollars will be forthcoming for it.

From an historical point of view it will be the greatest demonstration this Continent has witnessed. From a spectacular standpoint it will be one of the most dazzling combinations of picturesque events ever seen in any country. There will be thousands of characters in the processions, all dressed to the very life. The tableaux, on the Plains of Abraham, where the historic battles were fought, will embrace all the transcendent epoch-making events of Canada's romantic history, including Wolfe's work up to his death. The street pageants will be of wondrous beauty, the naval demonstration of an impressiveness not heretofore realized. Quebec will be filled to repletion by thousands from England and the United States, and tens of thousands from Canada, but fully ten million of people will wish to be present, and cannot find hotel accommodation.

One of the greatest matters of anxiety to those organizing the celebration has been the question, how to provide the millions of people who cannot see the celebration with illustrations and descriptions, to give the scenes of grandeur to the world in their entirety.

Arrangements have been completed by The Standard of Montreal, now recognized as the National Illustrated paper of Canada, to issue what will be known as "The Standard Tercentenary Number," published by George Murray Publishing Company, Montreal. We have had the privilege of examining the proofs of some of the gorgeous supplements to go with The Standard. They eclipse in interest, in fidelity of detail, in beauty of color and execution, anything ever attempted in Canada, and will bring the Tercentenary celebration right into the homes of those lucky enough to procure a copy.

To connoisseurs The Standard Tercentenary Number is one that expert judges would think could not be sold under $2.50, and yet it is to be published at 50 cents. It will be practically the only Tercentenary Souvenir. The publishers announce that orders are being now booked, and all orders mailed on or before June 20th to June 25th will be certain to be filled. After that date the public must take their chance, first come, first served.

Where orders remitted for cannot be filled, remittance will be refunded. The Publishers of The Standard, 171 St. James Street, Montreal, have gained a continental reputation for their publication. The coming issue, to illustrate the Tercentenary Celebration, will certainly be the most interesting thing of the kind ever produced on this Continent. We predict that in one month after the celebration it will be in demand at even ten dollars a copy.

They cannot begin to issue enough to meet a demand that will be phenomenal. It is a pleasure to testify to the value of a thing of surpassing merit.—Exchange.

HEREDITARY.

"Pa, can I have some money to go to the circus?" asked little Johnny Whittaker.

"Hey?" said Mr. Whittaker. Johnny preferred his request for the second time with faltering voice and indications of rain on his part.

"Want to go to the circus, hey! Don't you know that circuses are wicked? I never wanted to go to the circus when I was a boy. And what do you want to see at the circus?"

"I—I—want to see the w-wild a-animals," said Johnny, beginning to blubber in earnest.

"Want to see the wild animals hey? Don't you twist the cat's tail often enough? Where did you get the love for wild animals? I never cared for them."

"I—I—I inherited it."

"Inherited it! Well, I never! And who from?"

"F—from N-Noah," sobbed the despairing hopeful. The promptness of Johnny's reply was too much for the old gentleman, and he came down at once with the necessary coin.

A TRAITOR TO HER SEX.

"She is a horrid girl!" exclaimed eight-year-old Elsie, she's forever wishing that she was a boy.

"Well," replied Kitty, also eight, "I'm sure I wish I was, too."

"Of course, but she wishes it out loud, so the boys can hear her."

DANDRUFF IS A DISEASE

SURE TO GET ONE.

"Mr. Spudlong," began the youth, hanging his hat on the back of the chair, "I will occupy only a few moments of your time. I have come to ask you for your daughter. I—"

"Young man," said the elderly banker, "do you—"

"Yes, sir; I realize fully that she has been tenderly nurtured and that she is very dear to you; also that her home is one in which she has been surrounded by every luxury. But she is willing to leave it."

"Can you—"

"No, sir; I can't quite maintain her in the style to which she has been accustomed, but I have a good salary, and I am ready to chance it. So is she."

"Will you—"

"Yes, sir; I would not expect to live with the family. I am able to buy and furnish a modest home for her."

"Young man," said Mr. Spudlong, looking at his watch, "I rather like your style. You can have her. Good—"

"Morning, sir."

The total shipments for the week were 919,020 pounds, or 459 tons. The total shipments from Jan. 1 to date are 14,129,248 pounds, or 7064 tons. The total shipments for the year 1907 were 28,061,010 pounds, or 14,040 tons, valued at $6,000,000. In 1904 the camp produced 158 tons, valued at $130,217; in 1905, 2144 tons, valued at $1,473,196; in 1906, 5129 tons, valued at $3,900,000.

TOLD BY THE "GENERAL."

General Booth, as he is called by all his followers, naturally takes his work very seriously. He is not, however, above telling a humorous story even if the laugh is against him.

Here are two anecdotes he sometimes relates in the course of his addresses.

A woman was taken into the Army quarters while intoxicated. On regaining her normal state of mind, and learning where she was, she exclaimed in despair:

"Take me out of here, quick, or I'll lose my reputation!"

Another case the Army workers took in hand was that of an old man who had been so long under the influence of drink that he had forgotten all about himself. Finally, the officials learned the whereabouts of his wife, whom he had deserted, and this telegram was sent:

"We have found your dear husband." Promptly there came an answer. It ran:

"You can keep him!"

In future every Russian soldier will receive a pocket-compass with a luminous needle.

The Cynical Bachelor rises to remark that married life is frequently one grand, sweet song, but with the husband playing the accompaniment.

CHINESE TO SAVE FORESTS.

School of Forestry Soon to be Opened—Where Wood is Scarce.

The Chinese are saving their forests. The almost worldwide movement to protect and establish forests has reached the Celestial Empire, and the first Chinese school of forestry shortly will be opened in Mukden.

The Chinese realm sometimes is pointed out as the worst example among modern nations of forest destruction. The floods which periodically are poured down from the denuded mountains are destructive beyond comparison with those of any other country, and the want of forests is assigned as the chief cause. Wood is scarcer in China than in almost any other inhabited region of the world, although the country is well adapted to the growing of trees. In the establishment of a forest school the Chinese Government gives evidence that it realizes the need of beginning its reforestation in a scientific manner.

VALUE OF HUMUS.

1. Humus is decaying vegetable matter in the soil.
2. It is the storehouse of nitrogen, the most expensive and the most necessary of all plant foods.
3. It contains the food upon which the soil organisms live, whose function is to convert organic nitrogen into nitrates in order to be available for the use of plants. It materially assists in decomposing the mineral constituents of the soil, such as potash and phosphoric acid, making them available for the use of plants.
4. It increases the power of the soil to hold water without becoming water-logged.
5. It makes clay soil more open and friable. It serves to compact sandy soil and increase its drought-resisting power.
6. It prevents washing to a great extent, thereby diminishing the loss of fertility by that cause.
7. Soil filled with humus more readily admits the air so necessary to all useful plant growth.
8. There appears to be a distinct relationship between the amount of humus in the soil and the amount of available nitrogen therein. It has been observed that when it is absent from the soil, there is a distinct reduction of the ability of that soil to grow crops. Hence in practice in order to obtain the best crops we have to resort to barnyard manure rather than the use of concentrated fertilizers.

The Demon, Dyspepsia.—In olden times it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ambient air, seeking to enter into men and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so possessed should know that a valiant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are ever ready for the trial.

LYNCH LAW IN CHINA.

The Chinese do not hang criminals, even when the mob takes revenge. In the remote mountain districts the people burn the robbers. The passers are watched, after a robbery, all strangers or suspicious characters are arrested, and when satisfied that they have their man, they get dry wood, kerosene, and yellow oil beans, chain the culprit, and then burn him alive. The yellow beans cause the bones to incinerate. The victim seldom cries out more than three times, and the bystanders have a holiday. A Chinese military official once asked the people to release one of three robbers to him in order to torture him and get the names of his confederates; but the people declined, saying that burning was better than decapitation. Three were burned one morning, and the same night another robbery, close by, was committed.

I suffered for years and years with heart trouble, headache and weakness. I never expected to find anything to cure me. I saw one day, in 'La Presse,' that Peruna was excellent and I tried it. One bottle produced a change in me and if the price had been $100 a bottle I would have paid it gladly. I have taken six bottles and am entirely cured. Please accept my thanks and best wishes for your Peruna."

Many cases of heart trouble are caused by reflex disturbances.

Derangements of the stomach and liver produce symptoms of heart trouble. Catarrh of the stomach is a very frequent cause of sympathetic heart disease.

Palpitation, shortness of breath and bloating after meals are the most prominent symptoms.

Manufactured by Peruna Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio, U.S.A.

Such a condition of the stomach is also liable to produce headaches of the worst sort.

Medicines that palliate the symptoms will never lead to a cure.

It is the effect which Peruna has upon the stomach, healing the mucous membranes and restoring the natural function of the stomach, that causes Peruna to bring such prompt relief.

The change of dietary that comes with spring and summer has the effect in weak stomachs of setting up inflammation, resulting in dysentery and cholera morbus. The abnormal condition will continue if not attended to and will cause an exhaustive drain on the system. The best available medicine is Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial. It clears the stomach and bowels of irritants, counteracts the inflammation and restores the organs to healthy action.

A Magic Pill.—Dyspepsia is a foe with which men are constantly grappling but cannot exterminate. Subdued, and to all appearances vanquished in one, it makes its appearance in another direction. In many the digestive apparatus is as delicate as the mechanism of a watch or scientific instrument in which even a breath of air will make a variation. With such persons disorders of the stomach ensue from the most trivial causes and cause much suffering. To these Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are recommended as mild and sure.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT.

A glut in the strawberry market is the prediction of fruit dealers in nearly all sections of the country. Reports from the growers of berries indicate that the coming crop will be better than for many seasons, and show that a larger acreage has been devoted to the fruit. It is predicted that lovers of this successful fruit in many Northern cities will be able to eat all the good berries they want at moderate prices.

An English tourist was doing the Scottish Highlands, and forgoing with the village policeman in an out-of-the-way place said:—"I suppose you have some pretty long tramps in this district, my man?" "Well, I'm thinking" replied the keeper of the peace, as he surveyed the lengthy stranger, "you are longest I've seen yet."

George H. Gooderham, a wealthy distiller, and Conservative candidate in South Toronto, has purchased the News, which will after July 1st be conducted as a Conservative journal and will be issued as a morning paper. The News was purchased a few years ago by J. W. Flavelle, a prominent Toronto Methodist and has been conducted as an Independent (?) paper.

On Saturday morning, 6th inst., the four-year-old son of Mr. William Cherry, who lives south of Palmerston; was found dead floating on the surface of a pond in his father's field by a couple of Palmerston boys who had gone there to bathe. The little fellow had followed his father to the field, where he was working, and was seen playing around the field by his father about twenty minutes before the body was found.

Fred Wellhouse, the Kansas apple king, tells a story on himself that explains why he has not succeeded in politics. He has not told a lie since 1864. He was then held up by bandits, to whom he handed over a small sum of money, and declared that it was all he had. The urbane bandits didn't believe him, and searched him, finding a package of money that he had hoped to save. They were so incensed by his disregard for the truth that they threatened to kill him, and it was by the merest chance that he escaped with his life. He then made a vow that he would never again tell a lie and has stuck to it.

If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is no fever, usually. It is the after effect of our winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. Tired, worn-out nerves leave us languid, lifeless and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Shoop's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Druggists everywhere are advising its use as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the spoonful than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a failing appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. Sold by Jno. Coates.

Kansas has its first woman probate judge. Gov. Hock has just settled the probate judge fight that has been going on in Mitchell County for several months by appointing Mrs. Levi Cooper, widow of the probate judge, to the office. While Mr. Cooper was judge his wife acted as his deputy and did most of the work in office. There were two men candidates for the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Cooper, and both pledged themselves to appoint Mrs. Cooper his deputy. When the matter was brought to the attention of Governor Hoch he is said to have remarked, "Since Mrs. Cooper is so valuable in office I'll make her judge." While Mrs. Cooper is the only woman probate judge in the state, several other women hold offices of importance. Miss Oala Hein-line is now serving her third term as County Attorney of Seward County, Miss Kate Johnston has just completed a term as County Treasurer of Norton County, while there are about half a dozen women serving as registrars of deeds and about thirty as county superintendents of instruction.

IN A BREATH THERE'S REST.

BREATHE HYOMEI AND BE CURED OF CATARRH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA.

Nature has a remedy for catarrh, epidemic colds and bronchitis that is far better than dosing the stomach with medicine and drugs. It is the healing oils and balsams of Hyomei which medicate the air you breathe, reaching the most remote air cells in the nose, throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs and restoring health to the mucous membrane. Hyomei acts like a curative internal air bath, and has the same healing and antiseptic effect as the air where the Pine and Eucalyptic forests give off their fragrant and healing balsams. Breathe the healing Hyomei and see how quickly you will get relief from catarrh and head colds. If it does not help you there will not be a penny's expense, as J. Coates agrees to refund the money. The complete Hyomei outfit costs only $1.00.

SOME CHANCE AFTER ALL.

During the week certain members of the flock had been paying overmuch attention to sampling the local whiskey, and the minister took advantage of his position in the pulpit to administer gentle reproof. "An' I tell ye, one an' all, ye're on the way to Perfection!" he cried. At that moment a fly settled on the Bible before him. He raised his fist. "Ye're agacin' tae everlasting torments!" he shouted, "An' ye'll all get there just sae sure as—sae sure as I ding the life out o' this flee!" His fist crashed down as he uttered the words; then he looked to see the result of his handiwork. "Missed!" he ejaculated. "Ahl weel, maybe there's a chance for some o' ye yet!"

Mr. Wilson Millar shot a bear near the river at McCalder's bridge. He brought it to town, making quite an excitement among the boys. The animal weighed about 125 pounds.—Port Elgin Times.

The town of Warton is up against a big suit against the Canada Furniture Co., the Siemon Bros., and Christian Hill, on the grounds that they have not fulfilled the conditions of their mortgage. The Canada Furniture Co. had bought the factory from Siemon Bros. and are seeking to show by two reasons that they had no right to fulfil the conditions. It will likely be a hard fight before either party owns it is beaten.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Possibly, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves. This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

JUNE 28TH, 1908.

Temperance Lesson.—Eph. v: 6-20.
Golden Text.—Be not drunk with wine wherein is excess: but be filled with the Spirit. Eph. v: 18.

Verse 6—What is it that has stamped some things as always and necessarily evil, and other things as good?

Read the five preceding verses and say why the things mentioned are vices and are always condemned in the Bible.

Why, for example, are lying, stealing, covetousness, evil speaking, laziness, drunkenness, gluttony and kindred things always wrong?

In what way does "the wrath of God" come upon immoral persons?

Verses 7-10—Is it wise or right for any person to experiment with, or try to prove for himself by experience, what the results are of the actions which the Bible and the wisdom of the ages have declared to be harmful?

Are there some things which we have to experiment with in order to learn their effects; that is "proving what is acceptable unto the Lord?"

Is every act that works out "goodness and righteousness and truth," a fruit of the Spirit, whether or not it is in harmony with the strict letter of the law?

Can a person retain the favor of God if he continues to do that which either hurts himself or his neighbor, whether it is within the letter of the law or not?

Verses 11-12—What should be the attitude of every good man to the liquor traffic and kindred evils?

Weak women should try Dr. Shoop's Night Cure. These soothing, healing, antiseptic suppositories go direct to the seat of these weaknesses. My "Book No. 4 for Women" contains many valuable hints to women, and it is free. Ask Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., to mail it. Ask the Doctor in strictest confidence, any questions you wish answered. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is sold by J. Coates.

What are the effects, upon the mind and life, of thinking, reading, or talking about impure or revolting actions?

Verse 13—What is the light which makes manifest the secret bad deeds of men?

Is it possible for men to pose as good men, while they are secretly bad, and not be finally found out?

What is the light which makes manifest the evils of the liquor habit?

Verse 14.—In what respect may evil doing be compared to sleeping?

Will a wide-awake wise man do wrong that is, that which he knows necessarily injures himself?

What is the nature of the light which Christ gives all true Christians, and all penitent sinners?

Verses 15-17—Does sin differ from inanity, and if so, in what respect?

Are the days more evil now than they ever have been in the past?

By what method may we always know what "the will of the Lord" is?

Verse 18—What comparison is there between being "drunk with wine" and being "filled with the Spirit"?

An inebriate craves the drink and is under its control; may and should every Christian crave God and be under his control?

Verses 19-20—Can a person be a Christian who is not glad and rejoicing?

What are the benefits to ourselves, and others of showing our joy by cheerful words and song?

Is there any event in the life of a Christian for which he ought not to be thankful?

Says an exchange:—"If you wring a sponge out of cold water and rub it well along the wooden part of the window every morning in the fly season you will not be troubled with flies." It kills the eggs. This cold water cure takes a very short time to perform.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.
TORONTO.

Receipts of live stock at the city market as reported by the railways, were 105 carloads, composed of 1514 cattle, 2295 hogs, 879 sheep, 679 calves and 1 horse.

Exporters—Export steers are worth from $6 to $6.50; export bulls, $4.75 to $5.25.

Butchers—Prime picked butchers sold at $5.85 to $6; loads of good, $5.60 to $5.80; medium, $5.15 to $5.50; common, $4.75 to $5.10; cows, $3 to $4.75; canners $1.50 to $2.50 per cwt.

Feeders and Stockers—About 2 loads of stockers all told were on sale and these weighed from 500 to 700 lbs, and were bought by Messrs. H. & W. Murby at $3.30 to $3.75 per cwt. Mr. Murby reports a moderate demand for both stockers and feeders.

Milkers and Springers—There was a fair trade in milkers and springers, but no extraordinary prices were reported. Quotations for cows ranged from $30 to $32 each.

Veal Calves—There was a heavy delivery of veal calves, and prices ranged from $3 to $5.50 per cwt. for the bulk, with a few extra choice at $6 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts of sheep and lambs are becoming larger each market, as the season advances. Sheep $4.25 to $4.60 for ewes; rams, $3.50 to $4 spring lambs, $3.50 to $6.50 each.

Hogs—Mr. Harris quoted selects at $6.15 per cwt, and lights at $5.90 per cwt.

CLOVER SEED PROFITABLE.

As was predicted a year ago, there has been a decided shortage of clover seed this spring. A light crop in Europe, the United States and Canada caused the stocks for this spring's trade to be abnormally low, and this resulted in unusually high prices for good seed.

At present the indications are that the foreign exporting countries will not produce more than an average crop of clover seed, and the Ontario supply is likely to be short. In some sections of Ontario the clover crop was seriously affected by drouth last season, and the amount available this year for seed production may be limited. Much the same conditions prevail over a considerable portion of the clover seed producing area of the United States; so that unless the yield from the areas which were not seriously affected by the adverse weather conditions last season is exceptionally heavy, a shortage of seed for next spring's trade is more than probable.

In view of the conditions cited, the advisability of utilizing every available clean field, or part of field, for clover seed purposes is urged.

In growing clover and grass seed for the market, it is important to bear in mind that the standard of purity demanded in the Canadian trade is higher than it was a few years ago. The demand for seed of first quality has substantially increased. The result of this demand for seed of good quality has been that the seed grower finds impure seed an almost unmarketable commodity while the production of good clean seed has grown to be a remunerative industry. Hence the necessity of taking every possible precaution against the presence of noxious weed seeds.

The first step in the production of good clover and grass seed is to procure the cleanest possible seed. If this is used on clean land and is followed by a thorough system of weeding in the field, the product will be clean. The field weeding is of prime importance, although it is often overlooked. When we remember that every growing weed, if allowed to mature, will produce from 10,000 to 50,000 seeds, it will be readily understood that the removal of these plants must make a great difference in the market value of the seed.

COUNTERMANDED.

A very devout President clergyman in the Middle West had just married a couple, and, as was his custom, offered a fervent prayer, invoking the divine blessing upon them. As they seemed to be worthy folk and not overburdened with this world's goods, he prayed, among other things, for their material prosperity and besought the Lord to greatly increase the man's business, laying much stress on this point.

In filling out the blanks it became necessary to ask the man his business, and to the minister's horror he said, "I keep a saloon."

In telling the story to his wife afterward the clergyman said that as he wrote down the occupation he whispered:

"Lord, you needn't answer that prayer."

MI-O-NA MEANS STOMACH COMFORT.

IT'S OF SPECIAL VALUE TO MANY HERE IN MILDMAV.

A notable discovery and one that appeals especially to many people in Mildmay, is the combination of stomach help in the Mi-o-na treatment. This preparation works wonders in case of indigestion or weak stomach.

It acts directly upon the walls of the stomach and bowels, strengthening and stimulating them so that they readily take care of the food that is eaten without distress or suffering.

So positive are the good effects following the use of Mi-o-na that the remedy is sold by J. Coates under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails to cure. A 50 cent box of Mi-o-na will do the good the stomach needs which is simply to make it do its own work.

To stop any pain, anywhere in 20 minutes, simply take just one of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain tablets. Pain means congestion—blood pressure—that's all. Dr. Shoop's Headache—or Pink Pain Tablets—will quickly coax blood pressure away from pain centres. After that, pain is gone. Headache, Neuralgia, painful periods with women, etc., get instant help. 20 Tablets 25c. Sold by J. Coates.

A certain young man took his girl to church. The evening was warm and the young lady complained of feeling faint. The young man smiled sweetly upon her and took something out of his vest pocket and whispered to keep the tablet in her mouth. She shyly placed it under her tongue, rolled it over and over, but it failed to dissolve. She felt much better, however. When the sermon was over she slipped the tablet in her glove, being desirous to examine the indissoluble little substance that her "steady" had given her in the house of worship. When alone in her room she pulled off her glove and out fell a trouser button. She is looking for a new fellow now.

MURDER IN RAILWAY CAMP

Serious Stabbing Affray at Reynold's Construction Camp at Iroquois Falls.

A despatch from Halleybury, Ont., says: Word has reached here of a serious stabbing affray at Reynold's construction camp at Iroquois Falls, about 120 miles north of here, on Saturday night. As a result Fritz Young, a boatman of Stanhope, Quebec, is dead of his wounds, and Thomas S. Wright, a foreman in the employ of the Reynolds Co., is under arrest, charged with murder. Two other men from the camp, Michael Morris and James Quinn, are also under arrest, charged with aiding and abetting Wright in the murder of Young. The three prisoners are now awaiting trial, and are confined in the jail at New Liskeard.

The affair is said to have started with some words between Young and Wright over the former having left two boats up the river instead of bringing them down to the camp again with him. Wright is said to have come out of the tent to where the other two men, Quinn and Morris, were sitting and told them he would knife Young with a new knife he had purchased that day. The men urged Wright to fight him with his fists instead, and they all three returned to the tent, where the fight, in which they all took part, ensued. A cook, a Frenchman named Brisson, was in the tent and managed to separate the men, but when he went to lift Young to put him out of the tent he found that the man was bleeding profusely from a knife wound in the stomach.

Young begged to be taken to Mc-Douglas Chutes, where he could be attended to by a doctor, so the men wrapped him up in a blanket and started in a heavy rainstorm in a boat for the Chutes at about 9 o'clock on Saturday night. About five miles up the river they decided to camp for the night. Young was in too serious a condition to be moved, so they left him in the boat. When they returned next morning they found the man was dead.

LIGHTNING IN BRITAIN.

Several Persons Killed During a Terrific Storm.

A despatch from London, England, says: London was visited on Thursday by one of the severest thunderstorms that can be remembered in the city. For about four hours the lightning never ceased its flashing, but London, which is nearly always peculiarly lucky in this respect, escaped the torrential rains which flooded the Thames valley and the hail which caused so much havoc in the neighborhood of Epping. Homes as large as big nuts smashed the windows of greenhouses and ruined plants. The e was hardly a house or shop which did not have two or three windows smashed. The railway embankment at Grindon, Staffordshire, was demolished. The railway station at Rosley, also in Staffordshire, was struck by lightning and burned down. The fire brigade of Tunbridge was kept busy owing to the number of houses being set on fire by lightning. The railway bridge on the Cambrian Railway was washed away, a brewery at Margate was split in two and about a score of factory smokestacks were thrown down. An entire flock of sheep and lambs was reported killed in Derbyshire. In several parts of the Midlands people were killed, but the complete death roll has not yet been ascertained.

TRAGEDY AT POWDER MILLS.

Explosion Near Montreal Kills Two Workmen.

A despatch from Montreal says: A second explosion within six months, at the works of the Standard Explosive Company, at Le Perrott, near Montreal, occurred about 9 o'clock Saturday morning and as a result two workmen lost their lives. The victims were both employed in the black powder mill, where the explosion occurred. The dead are: Baptiste Ropierre, Vaudreuil; and A. Sagalin, of Le Perrott. Both were middle-aged men, and were married. The building in which the explosion occurred was completely wrecked, the roof being blown off and the walls shattered. Fortunately, it was completely isolated from the other buildings of the plant. The two victims were the only men at work in the vicinity. The other buildings of the plant contained hundreds of workmen. The shock of the explosion was tremendous. It shattered windows in farm houses all over the island.

BRIDE WAITED, GROOM CAME-NOT.

Cut His Throat Exactly at the Wedding Hour.

A despatch from Winnipeg says: Alexander Scott, a young foreman of the Winnipeg Paint and Glass Company, committed suicide in his room on Wednesday night by cutting his throat. Scott was to have been married to an estimable young lady in this city, and the wedding was to have taken place at eight o'clock Wednesday evening. The guests had assembled at the house of the bride, but as Scott did not put in an appearance at the appointed hour, the bride's brother and one of the guests started for his lodging-house to learn what was keeping the bridegroom. They found Scott lying on the bed dead. He had done the deed at the exact hour the wedding was to have taken place. The only motive that can be suggested is financial straits and mental derangement.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Toronto, June 9.—The quality of the offerings lately has been very good compared with what was on the market a few weeks ago. A number of very choice export cattle sold at $6.15 to $6.35. Fairly good exporters brought from $5.75 to $6. The best butchers as a rule did not sell for more than $5.70, but in a few

CROPS LOOKING SPLENDID

Everything Points to Increased Returns for the Western Farmer.

A despatch from Winnipeg says: Mr. W. G. Matthews, General Manager of R. G. Dun & Company, reached Winnipeg on Wednesday, returning from his annual trip of inspection through the west, and gives a most encouraging statement concerning his observations. He says: "In the coast cities I found wholesale trade very good; in fact, most of the dealers there said their sales were up to last year's, but the retailers are complaining of duller times, and the lumber interests are very much depressed. Many of the large mills are shut down entirely, while some of them are running on short time. They are all looking forward with a great deal of interest to the crop in the three western Provinces here, and they are very hopeful in consequence of the excellent conditions at present.

"Prospects of the fruit crop there are good. This is becoming a very important part of the business situation. "In Calgary and Edmonton trade was better than I expected to find it. The crops all through the territory I have been over are looking splendid. Conditions have been very favorable for getting in the seed; rains in the western Provinces have come earlier than usual this year, and all they want is warm weather now to produce what they all think will be a bumper crop. The acreage is largely increased, and everything points to increased returns for the farmer."

cases $5.80 was paid. Good loads of butchers' brought $5.20 to $5.50. Milch cows are a little off, as the enquiry for them is not quite so active. Sheep and lambs are quoted lower again, but found fairly ready sale at the reduced prices. Calves are also lower, or large offerings. The hog market is still unchanged, although the receipts were very heavy. During the hot weather farmers find it safer to sell their hogs alive, rather than dressed, which fact is responsible for the light receipts of dressed, and the heavy receipts of live hogs.

HUNGRY SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Terrible Destitution in New York's Lower East Side.

A despatch from New York says: The reports that hundreds of pupils in the public schools of the city are suffering from lack of proper nourishment as a result of so many persons in the poorer sections of the city being out of employment were given official consideration by the Association for the Improving of the Condition of the Poor on Wednesday. To every school Principal in Greater New York the association sent letters requesting them to immediately notify the association of cases of destitution. As a result it is expected that relief will be sent to hundreds of homes within the next few days. The association is being assisted in this work by the United Hebrew Charities Society. More than five hundred children of the school districts on the lower East Side are in need of food, according to a report made on Wednesday by District Superintendent Julia Richman. In many cases it has been found that children go without food on an average of two days a week. Many of these children have fainting in school from lack of nourishment. This is what has led to the discovery of the deplorable poverty.

50,000 FIRE AT WINNIPEG.

Big Abattoir Gutted and Quarter of Contents Destroyed.

A despatch from Winnipeg says: A spectacular fire swept the great abattoir of Gordon, Ironsides and Fares, located at the corner of Logan and Trinity, on Thursday. The loss is said to be at least $50,000, covered by insurance. The interior was completely destroyed. The abattoir in the ruined building were 200,000 carcasses of pork and 5,000 carcasses of beef. Of this number probably one-quarter were destroyed.

EIGHT RIVER DRIVERS PERISH.

Boat in Which They Were Returning Went to Pieces.

A despatch from Fredericton, N. B., says: Eight men employed on W. J. Noble's drive for the Cushing Company were drowned by the breaking of a bateau while they were shooting the rapids at the mouths of the Big Black River on Tuesday. The victims were residents of the St. Basil District, in Madawaska. They had secured an old bateau, and were on their way home after the drive.

MONTREAL CONSTABLE KILLED.

Horse Was Frightened and Reared, Throwing Him on His Head.

A despatch from Montreal says: Constable Guibeault, of the city mounted police force, was killed on Saturday afternoon. A canvas cover on a passing wagon blew off into the face of his horse and the animal reared throwing Guibeault, who landed on his head on the road, sustaining a fractured skull. He died a few hours later without regaining consciousness.

SPRANG TO DEATH IN RIVER.

Galt Woman Commits Suicide From C. P. R. Bridge.

A despatch from Galt says: Mrs. Sa'em Armstrong, a widow aged about 48 years, eldest daughter of Thomas Patterson, ex-assessor and collector for the Town of Galt, committed suicide on Saturday morning about 10.30 by jumping from the Canadian Pacific Railway bridge in the Grand River, a distance of about 70 feet or 80 feet, at a point in the river where the water is about 20 feet deep. Deceased was not acting strangely in the vicinity of the bridge, and shortly afterwards walked deliberately out on the bridge and jumped off. The body was recovered on Sunday.

LOST IN BURNING MINE.

Twenty-three Men Missing at Gladstone, Colorado.

A despatch from Silverton, Colo., says: Twenty-three men are missing and may be dead in the Gold King mine at Gladstone as a result of the fire which destroyed the mine building late Friday night. It was discovered that three men were missing, and a party of thirty-four went into the mine to find them. The missing men were supposed to be on the fifth level, and when the rescue party reached the fourth level they met with bad air and gas. Fourteen of them managed to reach the surface again, but twenty were overcome. Two special trains with three hundred men accompanied by doctors and nurses were sent to the mine from Silverton and a second rescue party has entered the mine.

MURDERER SENT FOR TRIAL.

James Farish Creighton is Arraigned at Owen Sound.

A despatch from Owen Sound says: Formal commitment of James Farish Creighton, the self-confessed murderer of his wife and his step-daughters, Katherine and Claire Chapman, on the morning following Victoria Day, took place on Saturday afternoon, and followed the evidence of the witnesses, Dr. Harry D. Cowper, who made the post-mortem; Geo. A. Wright, Alexander Gilliland and Wm. Heighes, who were first in the house and heard the man's confession; Dr. Hershey, who was called in the night previous to the murder, and David Christie, from whom the prisoner secured the revolver. The prisoner was strongly guarded and evidently felt his position keenly.

HUDSON'S BAY RAILWAY

Government May Make Arrangements With the Canadian Northern Railway.

A despatch from Ottawa says: It is understood that, in lieu of Government construction and ownership of the proposed new Hudson Bay Railway, as originally suggested, it is the intention of the Government now to secure the construction of the road and control of rates in an equally effective manner by entering into an arrangement with the C. N. R. to complete the construction of their present line towards Hudson Bay from the Pas to Fort Chipewyan. The C. N. R. Hudson Bay line is now completed to the Pas, a distance of 480 miles from Fort Churchill, and a general survey of the rest of the route to the terminus has been made. The Government's plan, it is stated, is to give a liberal cash bonus to the Canadian Northern Railway Company to complete the road and to guarantee a portion of the bonds. In return the country will secure control of rates on the road, running rights for all other roads over it, and the opening up of a vast new territory of nearly 100-million acres of good land. No land grant will be made to the company, but the cash bonus will probably be somewhat over the usual $6,400 per mile.

FORTY LUGGERS WERE LOST

Great Typhoon Struck the West Australian Pearling Fleet.

A despatch from Victoria, B. C., says: Bringing news of an unprecedented disaster to the pearling fleet off West Australia, involving the loss of 40 luggers and 270 lives in a typhoon, the Canadian-Australian Liner Manuka arrived on Wednesday afternoon. The disaster to the fleet of the pearling luggers occurred near Thursday Island, a typhoon striking the fleet just as it was starting for the pearling grounds, scattering the vessels, completely wrecking some and driving others ashore. About twenty Australian pearlers were lost. The other victims were Malays, Manila men, Japanese and Kanakas. The survivors reported harrowing experiences, some having been picked up in the last stages of exhaustion, after having cut away their masts and having been clinging to the wrecked hull, while sharks followed, waiting for the exhausted men to drop from the wreckage. Many were rescued by the steamer Parbo, sent from Broome as a relief steamer. The bodies of some of the victims were eaten by sharks. The beach near Broome presents a terrible sight, covered with wreckage and bodies.

A Broken Vow;

—OR—

BETTER THAN REVENGE.

CHAPTER XVI.

That spirit of mischief which had always animated Mr. Victor Kelman prompted him now to throw himself into the very heart of the business, and bring down with a crash whatever houses of cards had been built. At the time when he had first come into the matter so accidentally, he had made one discovery of importance; that was that Olive Verney had adopted the identity of a certain Aunt Phipps, whom she had discovered was expected to visit No. 3 Greenway's Gardens. The mystery had always been, of course, as to how she had become possessed of that information, and where and why the real Aunt Phipps was hiding.

Now, in a sense, that mystery was solved—or at all events the key to it was in Mr. Victor Kelman's hands, in the shape of that slip of paper bearing the address of Aunt Phipps in Westminster. Holding that sudden power, Mr. Victor Kelman dalled with it, in a way, and was in no hurry to use it.

For of course he had first of all to consider what the consequences would be. Victor Kelman was never openly vindictive—life was too short, and too pleasant; he was only occasionally bitter and envious of people who had the good things of life, when he had not. And he was particularly bitter and envious concerning young Christopher Dayne. For had not Christopher been for some time past in the enjoyment of money which had once, for a fleeting hour or so, been in Victor's possession?—and was not Victor reduced to a mere matter of a sovereign or so, whilst this or a mere woman's whim, had the bulk of the money. And here, in this slip of paper he held in his hand, was the fine strong lever, which could overthrow that house of cards, to begin with.

Again, as to Lucy. He had no active feeling in regard to the girl; he was simply annoyed with her, in a curious way, because she had given her heart to Chris—Chris, who was a mere boy, with no experience of the world, and nothing about him—at least in the eyes of Mr. Victor Kelman—in any way attractive. Such a stupid sort of love-story certainly should, if possible, be upset. It had been upset already, but might be patched up again; if the boy were suddenly brought to ruin, there would be no probability of his doing anything but despairing decently altogether.

Lastly, but most importantly—as to Olive Verney. She had instructed him to do this thing, and he would in that way be pleasing her; would he, however, be serving his own case? To do the man credit, he had for Olive probably the strongest feeling he was capable of having for anyone; and he had a very deep admiration for her. Being himself a weak and somewhat less character, he recognized the strength and the firmness she displayed always; he had seen her, with those calm, brave eyes of hers, go through many years of hard and cheerless life as the companion of a man whose creed was a dark and horrible one; yet he was enough a man of the world and a judge of character to know that, in all that time, the woman in her had never been submerged. Hard as she appeared and sternly as she ordered her life, there was always, just beneath the surface, as it were, that touch of gentleness and of true womanliness that redeemed her. And it was that he loved in her, while he admired the strength.

She had gone, telling him that she would not return, and that she had done with that particular matter in which he had discovered her; his instinct told him that she would return. That was where the tenderness in her nature would assert its sway; she would want to know, above all things, what had happened, and what had been the effect of the coming of the real Aunt Phipps, and of the news of which she must be the bearer.

"She'll come back again—even if she does it secretly," he thought to himself, with a chuckle—"and the only person from whom she can glean full information is her beloved Victor. That is reasonable enough; I am her emissary—her messenger; she must come to me for my report. It is really curious how much fun the best-intentioned people in the world throw in one's way. I already see myself bringing the real Aunt Phipps here; I already observe the uncertainty of our dear young friend Chris when he discovers that he has been living on money provided by an utter stranger, and that he has a payer for an aunt, after all. How very, it requires thinking about; I'll wait a day."

He waited a day; and the more he thought about the scheme the better he liked it. Above all things, the mysterious coming of the man was not his vanity also, in that he saw himself as the chief actor in a very pretty little comedy.

"I don't like you, Mr. Christopher Dayne," he said, with a jerk of the head in the direction in which an imaginary Christopher Dayne might be, "and I should like to see your proud head brought down a little. More than that, you have the money which should have been mine; I'm not sure that I mightn't be able to make you disgorge. Good idea, that; I must see what we can make the real Aunt Phipps do." Behold him, then, taking his jaunty way towards Westminster; diving down into the dim narrow street; and presently discovering the shop of Tagg the clockmaker.

Having watched the house for a little time, and having pretty well made up his mind what he should do, he swung himself in through the little door into the shop, and confronted Jordan Tagg, busy as ever among his clock.

"What a deuce of a row!" ejaculated Mr. Victor Kelman, looking all about him with a frown. My enchanting Father Time, when you have quite ripened that wheel into its place, might give me a moment. With a long beard of yours, you only want cheap scythe and an hour-glass, you'd look the picture to the life. Please wake up, Father Time, and let us hear from you how the world wags in your establishment. I believe the old fossil is deaf as the proverbial post," he said, still in an undertone.

Jordan Tagg looked up at him quite "I am not deaf, sir," he said, "and have been called Father Time before day, though in not quite so abrupt fashion. What can I do for you? you want a clock?"

"Time is of so little importance to me, my friend, that a clock would be of much use," said Victor, seat himself on the low counter, after brushing aside a clock or two to his way. "I have come on a much more agreeable errand; I have come to see certain Mrs. Phipps."

"What do you want with her?" asked the old man, looking at him suspiciously.

"Fie—fie!" exclaimed Victor, shaking his head at him. "Shall I tell a lady's business? Perish the thought; let me breathe it to the lady herself. To be so earthy, my friend, I am interested in Mrs. Phipps; I bring a message for her. Does she have many visitors, may I ask?"

"Never but one," said Tagg slowly. "And that one a woman—tall, dark and handsome; with eyes that shine through you, and a voice that is kind and rather pleasant—eh?" asked Victor quickly. "You see I know all about it, in fact, I come from that one visitor, want you to tell me something about her?—I mean about Mrs. Phipps."

"I know nothing of her," said Tagg. "She never goes out; she keeps her room, I hear her walking about at night sometimes, and talking to herself. But, mind you,—Tagg leaned suddenly forward across his counter, and dropped a thin hand on Victor's shoulder—"like certain clocks I have had to deal with; may stop suddenly for no reason. They run down—these clocks—and never go again. Do you follow me?"

"My dear Father Time, we all run down at some time or other, and it is not always possible to wind us up again—or not always worth while. If you will indicate the room in which I shall find the charming lady who is in danger of running down, I shall be glad. I shan't hurt her, and I may take her cheering news. This way? Thank you; I will announce myself."

Mr. Victor Kelman went jauntily up the stairs, humming a little to himself, and quite pleased with his errand. The man always desired, above all things, to be interested; and he had been very deeply interested lately. He had touched matters of life and death and fortune and ruin; and he liked it. At the moment he was simply wondering what sort of being this Aunt Phipps was, who could so willingly consent to be kept out of the way as she had done.

He knocked sharply at the door, and listened. There was the sound of a chair being moved, and then a footstep within the room; then the door was opened. Looking in with his habitual smile, and his hat in his hand, Victor Kelman saw a little thin, faded old woman, who seemed a little afraid, and yet in the midst of her fear, to be rather glad to find a visitor at her door. Victor advanced a step—bowed with his best manner—and addressed her.

"Mrs. Phipps? Don't be startled; I'm a friend. May I come in?"

"If you will, sir," said Aunt Phipps. "I don't have many visitors, and it's a poor sort of room—not the sort of place that Phipps would ever have liked me to be discovered in, I can assure you. Why, when we were in Paris—"

"My dear lady," exclaimed Victor, stopping in the middle of the room, and looking all about with an air of the deepest admiration—"I really must protest. There is a poem somewhere on the subject—tealing with home, and having something to do with a work-basket; but I forget the words. A poor sort of room, Mrs. Phipps? Fie—fie! I look about me, and I see evidences of a woman and a woman's tastes—he kissed his fingers towards the evidences, and smiled more than ever—"and there are about the room and about you these indefinable little—fiddles—I am at a loss for a word, but there they are. As for the aspect—he walked to the window and looked out—"there may be a chimney-pot or two that could be dispensed with—but it might be wise. In a word, my dear Mrs. Phipps—a charming ing room—and—he bowed again, and smiled again—"a charming lady."

"Ah, sir, you should have seen it—not this room, but those I've been used to, I mean—when poor Phipps walked the earth," said Aunt Phipps, searching in her pocket for the black-bordered handkerchief, with the full knowledge that she must need it very soon—"and when we used to have wine as quite an ordinary thing, and never thought of going anywhere without a carriage. Quite a royal way he had with him, poor Phipps; and I expect that he died in much the same manner, if the truth were known. I tremble to think, sir,—the black-bordered handkerchief was very much in evidence—"I tremble to think that he may have used firearms; he liked everything loud, even to his clothes."

The poor old woman had at some long-forgotten time been naturally of such a cheerful temperament that she was glad now, when this smiling, affable man came before her, to pour out something of the pent-up woe that was in her heart; glad, after sitting in that long waiting and

FARMERS EXCURSION

To MODEL FARM AT GUELPH

The Annual excursion to the Model Farm at Guelph will be held on Saturday, June 20th, 1908. Tickets good to return on following Monday.

Fare from Mildmay $1.15. Children half price 60 cents. Time 7:39 a. m. This will be the greatest holiday excursion of the season; let everybody come out and enjoy themselves. Train reaches Guelph at 8:50 a. m. Special train leaves Guelph at 5:30 p. m. for return.

Everybody should patronize this excursion, because farmers deserve a holiday as well as other people, and should visit the Farmers' College where all varieties of grains, grasses, roots and forage crops are grown for their inspection. Other interesting features of the college are, live stock, poultry and dairy, agricultural museum, as well as the Rural Consolidated School, MacDonald Institute, and the new Machinery Hall, which in itself is worth the trip. President Creelman extends a welcome to all.

The Leading Store

Prices make our store the busy one.

We are busy just now opening up

BEAUTIFUL - NEW - GOODS

For the Spring buying.

There is something intensely interesting in watching the healthy, active growth of a successful business. Last year's business showed a big increase which must be attributed to conditions, which are a part of our business methods:

- I.—Merchandise of unequalled quality, correctly priced.
- II.—Broad and liberal buying to keep assortment complete.
- III.—Having satisfactory store service.

We meet this Spring's business with confidence that it will bring us still greater measure of success.

We are placing into stock this week piles of NEW SPRING MERCHANDISE for your inspection.

New Dress Goods, Suitings, Vestings, Blousings, Dress Trimmings, piles of new Wash Fabrics, new Wrapperettes and Flanelettes, Muslins, Lawns, Silks, Cretons and Art Sateens, Table Linens & Napkins, New Ribbons, Veilings, Gloves, Hosiery Ladies' Fancy Collars and Ties, Floor Oils and English Linoleums, beautiful designs.

Frost Fences Are Strong All Around

The laterals of a Frost Fence are High Carbon No. 9 Hard Steel Colled Wire, thoroughly galvanized—that can't be broken until the strain reaches from 1000 to 2200 pounds.

The stays are No. 7 or this same No. 9 wire. And the two wires are locked with the Frost Locks. That braces the fence in all directions—up down and diagonally.

We are so sure that Frost Fences are the strongest and best that we guarantee to repair, free of charge, any fence that goes wrong. That's fair, isn't it? Frost Wire Fences are for sale 1/2
