KENTVILLE MUSIC STUDY CLUB.
March 19, 1918.
When we look back a few years and see that music was an ordinary study and little time was spent in attaining in high standard of efficiency in this art, we now can and must give credit to some person or persons for the high standard attained in this land, as we see our people getting and giving the rarest of musical treats. Those associated with music are glad to give freely of the talents awarded them and we as people should not overlook the fact that our young are growing up and are in need of this important study. How are we going to provide for them? Is it not possible to do more in our schools along this line?
Much growth has been witnessed in the Kentville Music Study Club, great enthusiasm being exhibited both by performers and listeners. The Club was most fortunate in having an evenings programme rendered by the music faculty of Acadia Seminary. Mr. McKee director of the department assisted by Miss Eadie, Miss McKenny and Miss Bunting. Each of these artist was highly appreciated by the large audience and the Kentville Music Study Club wish to thank the members of the Faculty for their kindness in coming to Kentville and in rendering such a splendid programme.

Her record is three eggs in six hours. An expert poultry man was there trying to purchase the hen, and when he could not, he paid $30 for six eggs. An effort is being made to find a good mate for this hen, as she has beaten records of the best layers at the Ontario Agricultural College. J. W. Ingram is the owner of this Black Minorca.

NEW ROSS.

New Ross has again been sorely stricken, John S. Murphy, received on Friday last a telegram informing him that on March 12th, his eldest son Capt. Vincent P. Murphy left Canada entirely killed in England.

Lieut. Murphy left Canada with the 25th was thru the battle of Courcellette where he was promoted. He was one of the 5 officers of that battalion who were left. He leaves a sorrowing Mother two brothers and two sisters besides his father. His Brother Joe is in a flying Corp. Tom at home. His sisters Pauline a little maid of seven and Mrs. J. D. McLean (Ruth) who were among the sufferers of the Halifax disaster.

Many wildcats must infest our woods 5 have been killed by our Huntsmen, Aden Hennigar 1 Richard Lenihan 2 Tom S. Murphy 2.

Alfred S. Barkhouse our enterprising Merchant has placed on his premises Electricity 1-2 Horse power. This is a step well worthy of imitation. It enlivens Charing Cross and if (as there is talk of) Casting a bright ray over the monumental stone. The citizens meeting was well represented at its meeting. That is the promoters and well wishers took an active part. Mess. Sandford in Halifax was chosen for the work and the style of stone also chosen. From 10 of our citizens $200 was subscribed towards the statue for the top, at the meeting.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Editor "The Advertiser."

Dear Sir:

I am willing to concede that there are quite a few good points about Rhode Island Reds, but really cannot let the latest statements of your correspondent go unchallenged.

1. There is no title such as "the champion" bird of Canada and United States, as it would be simply impossible to pick such a bird.

2. The best bird amongst 6500 entries, at the Guelph show was a S. C. White Leghorn cockerel owned by Walter Rose, of Yeesswater, Ontario.

The R. C. Rhode Island Red pullet referred to by you correspondent was first in her class at Guelph. Also at Minneapolis, where she won color special in female Reds, a far different award from the best bird in the show.

Yours Truly,
