Pioneer Celebration

There was sunshine in the air and sunshine in the hearts of the people. A more perfect day could not have been selected and a more successful days program and entertainment could not have been arranged. Great credit is due the Alberta Stake Sunday School officers and their aids for the splendid time enjoyed by—if there was any kick coming at all, it would be registered in these words, "Just a little too hot." It was truly a children's day and they were out en masse. Dressed in their best and with their holiday faces on they made the best of the day and put the icecream, lemonade, gum and popcorn out of sight while papa's nickles took a sneak into the coffers of the refreshment committee.

At the Athletic Grounds a rostrum and sitting platform had been arranged in front of the Grand Stand where the the Union Jack floated gaily in the breeze. The platform was decorated with the Red, White and Blue and its occupants were protected from the Sunniest Sun of Sunny Alberta by W. O. Lee and Son's Awning. Judge Harvey and members of the Court graced the morning's program, and when he was about to be called upon for a speech, Sheriff Young, like some of his colleagues in the Police business, could not be found.

The morning program consisted of music from the Band, Congregational singing, Stump Speech by J. D. Stewart of Mountain View, Vocal Selection by young ladies from Aetna, led by sister D. K. Green and speeches by J. M. Tanner, H. L. Hinman and John A. Woolf. Aunt Rhoda Hinman told of the trying times in Nauvoo and the exodus to Winter Quarters. Uncle Henry brought the Pioneers from Winter Quarters to Salt Lake Valley while Patriarch John A. Woolf told of the early days in Salt Lake City, of the Raid of the Crickets and the Rescue by the Sea Gulls. Dr. J. M. Tanner spoke in forceful and eloquent tones of the virtues of hardships and sorrows in the lives of true Christians and of the fidelity and honor of the Mormon Pioneers. He was listened to with corrupt attention and the people were hungry for more.

Following the morning's program the people retired to the grove where picnic and the good things of the land were spread out upon the face of the earth and the good people proceeded to supply the wants of the inner man. A couple of hours of social picnicking swapping sandwiches and tasting one another's ice cream, telling old time yarns, etc. and so forth and then the large crowd wended their way back to the grand stand and the grounds for the sports.

The greasy pig furnished lots of fun and the Indians chased for his scalp like genuine men of the plains. He was first caught by a Red Man that was not in the entry and so was turned loose again and gave them a good chase for his hide.

Cardston won the baseball game and the Alberta Star Basket Ball Team put it over the picked five in a score of 25 to 7. This wound up the sports and everybody shook the dust from their feet in preparation of the Grand Ball which was carried off in the Assembly Hall to the enjoyment of all present.

Let us not forget to say a good word for the Band and the services they rendered. The visiting members of the Court and His Lordship spoke in the highest terms of their excellent renditions, splendid discipline and fine uniforms. We are always ready to give way to the Band.

Cardston Wins at Winnipeg

Once again the good word is flashed from the east to the west, "Cardston wins first and second prize for Winter Wheat at the Winnipeg Industrial." You will remember that a year ago we took first prize with grain sent by Mr. Perrey. This year Messrs Woolford and Perrey sent consignments of Winter Wheat to the Winnipeg Exhibition and as a result captured first and second prizes respectively. When you take into consideration the fact that we received ALL THE PRIZES AT EDMONTON AND ALL THE PRIZES AT WINNIPEG FOR TWO YEARS, you ought to confess freely that we have the district and no josh. Much credit is due the gentlemen named and they should be compensated for the expense of shipping, etc. While they are honored in the fact that their grain proved better than all competitors, we are the most benighted in the advertising which the district will receive from the same.

The Proof of the Pudding is in the Eating

Last Saturday evening THE STAR was highly pleased to welcome two boxes of fine strawberries—a trial present from Mr. James Anderson. As Justice of the Peace, such "trials" are of a most acceptable kind and as publisher of the "Great Family Journal" they cannot be beaten. We certainly did as Mr. Anderson requested—we gave them a fair and square trial and wouldn't mind going to court again in a case of this kind—if not a "case" at least a couple of boxes.

The berries were, in appearance, like the B. C. product but possessed of a higher and better flavour and of a healthier and firmer texture than the ones we receive from Province west. We have never seen better berries than these; we have certainly never tasted better ones. They were grown out of doors on Mr. Anderson's farm just across the St. Mary's River at the large Wagon Bridge. Seeing is believing, but tasting is more satisfying and we heartily thank Mr. Anderson for the very fine sample which we received last Saturday. If this "fine sample" is a fair sample then Mr. Anderson need have no fear in competition from the rice fields of Florida to the balmy breeze of Maize.

Ideal Home of Arthur Perrey's

This neck of the woods is chock full of surprises even to those who have been here for a number of years. The writer had the extreme pleasure yesterday evening in visiting the home and ranch of Mr. Arthur Perrey. We have no hesitation in saying that for beautiful and pleasant home life, clean progressive and scientific farming, gardening, poultrying, etc. etc. this farm stands at the head of the list. No fences down, gates work like a charm, roads clean and well graded. Everything to please the eye, gratify the heart and satisfy the appetite. Mr. Pig has no need to visit Packingtown and pass through the horrors of the Jungle for Mr. Perrey takes him from the block and attends to his case of "Smoke" right at home. We should like to tell you just what we think of this lovely home and its almost perfect surroundings, but having just returned from a wedding, we are "too full for utterance." The ladies feasted upon the lettuce, the sweat peas, the sunflowers, the lilies and the numerous garden vegetables while we "harder souls" looked at the Alberta Red—that prize winning grain, the rye that dazzled the eyes but not the head at this stage of its existence and spring wheat that is already in the head and ripening very rapidly. Experiments in oats showed heads fully 18 inches long—it is one of those things that is truly a "marvel and a wonder." Pictures of this farm at this time of the year would be one of the finest pieces of advertising that the country could get. You cannot know just how fine it is until you go and take a look at it. An hour's drive from Cardston will put you in the field.

Remember Utah Excursionists that the fine prize winning yields in the Cardston District are all from non-irrigated land. If you want to get away from irrigation, come to Cardston. Yields average all the way from 25 to 50 bushels of wheat to the acre.

Southern Alberta's Best Fair & Sports

In keeping with the growth of the City and the development of the Country The Lethbridge District Agricultural Society has this year determined on a Three Day's Fair and Sports and there is no doubt whatever that the Handsome prizes offered in connection with the Agricultural Fair and the Large Purses hung up for Sporting Events will draw a bigger crowd than ever before in the history of this popular annual event.

Remember the date August 6, 7 & 8th. $8,000.00 offered in prizes. Extensive improvements are being made on the Society grounds, the Grand Stand capacity having been doubled. New poultry house and Judges stand having been erected and the track improved until it is now the fastest half mile track in Western Canada. All buildings have been removed back from the track and there is now a beautiful paddock of fifty feet in width between the Grand Stand and Track. Twenty four hundred shade trees have this year been planted out on the grounds. The big prizes for heavy draft horses and Alberta Red winter wheat are special features of the prize list while relay races, trotting, running and foot races and professional Base Ball games make up a program of sports which will equal if not surpass anything ever held in Alberta.

Cardston Welcomes the Utah Excursionists.

Cardston, Showing Cahoon Hotel and Main Street

Utah Excursionists! Cardston bids you welcome! She invites you to come in and share with her the bounties and good things of one of the finest countries out of doors. She wants you to come and visit her town with its modern and up-to-date improvements; look over her district which is world-famed for the many prizes won for Winter Wheat and then decide that you have found the promised land and dwell there with her and her good people.

It may not be amiss to tell you that Cardston is the pioneer town for the Canadian Saints. While she is the oldest, let it be distinctly understood that she is in no way ancient. Just twenty years ago, the late President C. O. Card camped upon the bank of Lee's Creek with a very few followers. The following letter written by his widow, the talented and versatile Aunt Zina of the Latter-day Saints University, which was dated at receded so that, under the guidance of the North West Mounted Police, we had crossed in safety. When Aunt Mary told her little boy, Wilford, that this was "home" he looked forlorn and broken-hearted and bursting into tears exclaimed, "Well ma, where are the houses," and his echo answered "Where?"

Bishop Farrel poked his head into the tent (that was all he could get in, were so full) to borrow our axe. He joked us women folk about "our tongues" getting tired—which of course, was no joke at all. But, lo and behold! The rain ceased and a beautiful carpet of snow covered the earth. When all had retired, I raised a corner of our wagon cover and peeped out wondering what it was that was making such a dreadful noise. I soon discovered that it was only uncle Rhue Miles in the act of snoring. Soon Brother Card joined fallen-asleep when uncle Rhue's into a stern reality. Brother Leavitt built a log cabin at the foot of the hill. Others soon followed so that when winter came we were all housed. Then came the ever true spirit of pioneer life. We must have industries. A grist mill made flour for us and year by year other necessities were added. Great, Card's energy and desire to bless the people was ever prominent. Soon we had a steam thrasher, a saw mill, a cheese factory, a co-op store, a canal sheep industry, Implement Store, big land deal, etc. These were all started by our people and every encouragement was given to those things calculated to improve and develop the country and its resources. Our money went like water on the sand and years have come and gone. Success and failure have added their quota to our human experiences.

Cardston has more real improvements and up-to-date, live, progressive comforts than any other town her age and size I know of. Your latest "plunge" for light and water is immense. STAY WITH IT. Your new tabernacle can materialize this year and next by the people just acting as a unit.

You will soon have competitive railways and coal discoveries that will give you the impetus and advantages you need. Stick to Mother Earth and get her to yield your hay and your beet crops and your grain. Then your prosperity is assured. God bless you dear old Cardston for I love you. The best part of prizes we brought back on Spring Grain and Oats. During the last week, Cardston has again captured first and second prizes for best winter wheat at the Winnipeg Fair, 1907. Don't you think that this is pretty good evidence of delivering the goods and cornering the trade?

If you have taken occasion to study the laws of Canada in their relation to the settler you have discovered that the greatest advantages possible are offered to those who wish to come in and make their homes. The Government will help you in every way possible. Lecturers are continually sent out and experiments are being made to obtain the best results. Government grants for Agricultural Fairs amount to two thirds of the Prize List, offered and one dollar for each member. There is every reason to be proud of a Government that does so much for the farmer and vouchsafes for him the strictest protection against law-breakers and guarantees the best

Power House in Course of Construction

Salt Lake City, June 3rd, 1907. may furnish you a little food for reflection with regard to the inconspicuity of what the world erroneously calls "Mormonism in Canada."

Dear Old Cardston: Twenty years ago today you were born! Oh, how it stormed! The Yet we were happy and made the best of our trying circumstances. Brother and Sister Matkin took dinner with us. I say "us" advisedly for dear Uncle John and Aunt Mary Woolf were "playing a keep house" with us and one tent protected all our devoted heads. We met brother and sister Anderson. He told us it had been storming "just a little" and sister Anderson said, "Gosh I should say it had." We told them what a time we had crossing the St. Mary's river and showed them the boat we had expected to use but how our Heavenly Father sent this cold storm and the water in the river rooster began crowing for day-light. Well, "the evening and the morning were the first day."

The long days were full of work, work, work! Soon we were surrounded with all we needed for a summer camp. Stirling erected a bowery over my tent floor, the wagon was put at the back of the tent for a bed-room, so that I had three apartments. The ladies in camp began calling on each other and one afternoon when we were out strolling we were called back to meet two ladies who lived on a ranch nearby. We had no idea that civilization had so soon reached us. Mrs. Shaw and her charming daughter Jessie were the visitors who came to extend the hand of fellowship and right glad we were to meet them. From that day to this we have been friends. So we had "garden truck" ready to eat and what might have appeared a summer picnic to the casual observer, soon developed my life and fortune I gave to you. My own dear sons are yours still. Your joys are mine; your sorrows are mine. "Arise and shine." May no good thing be withheld from you, is the prayer of, Your true and faithful friend, Aunt Zina.

Member of Provincial Parliament, John W. Woolf

From that small beginning Cardston has grown until her population today numbers 1,200 of the finest people that you will find in any man's country.

The Cardston District, speaking of our political division, embraces Magrath on the east, Caldwell on the west, Taylorville on the south, the north being bounded by the Blood Indian Reserve. In a strictly agricultural sense, the Cardston District extends east to Spring Coulee, the town of Magrath forming an Agricultural District of its own. Cardston was isolated from the railway by a stage drive of 18 miles. Today we have a daily train running into the city and a daily mail service. We have two fine brick banks, two elevators and a roller mill. We have a sub-port for Customs and a sub-agency for Dominion Lands. We have a detachment of the Royal North West Mounted Police—the defenders of the west. In industries we have a fine boot and shoe factory, harness making, manufacturing of baking powder, flavoring extracts, etc., and tents, awnings and wagon covers. We have three large mercantile stores and one of the finest and best variety stores to be found anywhere. Lumber yards, blacksmiths, laundries, photo parlors, restaurants, drug store, meat markets, tonsorial apartments, first class, up-to-date hotels, implement Take down your map and have a look at Cardston. Size her up from any point of view you wish to make. Take your pencil and run a line from Cardston through the famous Cochrane Ranch to Mayjuc, and then remember that not only has a charter been granted for building a railway between these points but also that a subsidy to assist in building the same has been promised and now doubt will be contained in the estimates of the coming Parliament. Another projected line is being run from Cardston to Pincher Creek on the Crox's Nest railway and a third charter from Frank to Cardston is owned by "Jim Hill" and will be constructed within the next 18 months, so that it would appear that the last in railway connection shall be the first in railway development. The facilities will greatly aid the farmers and very materially advance the price of land, which, today, is cheaper than anywhere else in the Province of Alberta.

Yankees are always looking for the people that "deliver the goods" to use a street expression. With a merry twinkle in his left eye, Uncle Sam is always "Johnny on the spot" when it comes to spying out the good things of the earth and their location. Cardston has "delivered the goods" from an agricultural standpoint. One year ago we sent Winter Wheat to the Winnipeg Industrial Exhibition, which is one of the largest of its kind in Canada. We took FIRST PRIZE. In the early part of the present year we sent grain to the Provincial Fair at Edmonton—the Capital—and we "hogged" ALL SIX PRIZES ON WINTER WHEAT to say nothing of the and most scientific methods in farming.

Don't go back to your homes in the vales of the west without coming to Cardston. You will miss it if you do for Cardston is the "Mother" of the Mormon settlements in Canada and nestled in the shadow of the Rocky Mountains you love so well. Cardston can show what Southern Alberta has done for the truly industrious and progressive farmer.

There is no country like Alberta for the young man starting out in life; there is no country like Alberta for the man with a family. No saloons in Cardston. A quiet but progressive people, having all the enjoyments of the dance and social and frequently visited by the best theatrical troupes on the road.

Let us prove to you that what we say of Cardston is true. All we ask is that you will come and see for your elf and then tell your friends all about it.

Above all things come to Cardston.

Good Crops

This will be the record year in Southern Alberta, is the message which everyone brings about the crops. It is claimed that;

- The acreage of wheat is larger.
- The crops are better.
- The prices are higher.

Never before in the history of the province have conditions been quite so satisfactory as at the present.

Never before have farmers been speaking with so much faith and hope.

For winter wheat conditions have been ideal. The late spring did not effect the acreage. The winter was ideal and the spring after it was the very best that could be.

The Cahoon Hotel and Union Bank of Canada

Remember Utah Excursionists that the fine prize winning yields in the Cardston District are all from non-irrigated land. If you want to get away from irrigation, come to Cardston. Yields average all the way from 25 to 50 bushels of wheat to the acre.

If you want to see wheat that will yield 50 bushels to the acre—AND NO IRRIGATION—call on S. M. Woolf or his brother Johnny and get them to take you over their farms east of the St. Mary's River.

What do you think of a strawberry measuring four and three quarters inches? That's just exactly the measurement of one brought into the office last Monday by Mr. James Anderson. He has about 2000 plants bearing berries besides a quarter of an acre in raspberries. James is going into the business in a first class manner. He also has a fine poultry yard consisting of Brown and White Leghorns, Gray Wyandottes, Buff Orpington, Rhode Island Red and Turkeys.

DAVID H. ELTON,
Editor and Proprietor.

Cardston, Alberta, Canada.
Friday, July 26, 1907.

The school population in Mormon towns, like Magrath, Raymond and Cardston, is far in advance of Gentile places of equal size, and nearly as large as cities such as Medicine Hat and Lethbridge. Just to enlighten the public we quote the following figures:

	Population.	Pupils.
Cardston.....	1000	408
Raymond.....	2000	527
Magrath.....	900	225
Lethbridge.....	4000	776
Medicine Hat.....	4000	621

The Mormon people certainly have no sympathy with race suicide, as the extensive school population proves.—Lethbridge Herald.

The announcement is made that Mr. E. N. Barker of Cardston, has been appointed sub-collector of Customs at Cardston, in the place of F. D. Shaw who has been appointed to the Lethbridge office. Mr. Barker at present is acting as a judge at the Alberta fairs, but he will take charge soon as Inspector Kenny puts the reins of office in his hands.

While the Customs Department is fortunate in securing the services of so capable a man as Mr. Barker, his appointment must occasion great regret. In his position as secretary of the Cardston Board of Trade and director of the Farmers Association he was doing splendid work in making the resources of Alberta, and particularly those of the southern part of the province, more widely known. In these capacities it will be impossible to replace him. He is a man worthy of filling the highest positions of responsibility and it is a matter for regret that the public has not the advantage of his service in a wider sphere.—Edmonton Saturday News.

A deputation from Cardston, headed by deputy sheriff Martin Woolf, President of the Board of Trade came in on Tuesday to interview the Railway Commissioners in regard to the sins of omission and commission of the A. R. & I. Co. Their particular grievance is the five cent passenger rate charged, while the other railroads of the West are compelled to charge a three cent rate. The Cardston Board of Trade has taken the matter up and will fight it out energetically.

Messrs L. H. Jelliffe of Spring Coulee, M. Woolf, President of Cardston Board of Trade, and T. H. Woolford, President of the Cardston branch of the Alberta Farmers' Association appeared informally before the Commissioners concerning the conditions on the A. R. and I. railroad. They asked to have the recommendations of the Commission's chief traffic manager carried out especially the reduction of the passenger rate from five cents to three cents a mile. Mr. Jelliffe in a well arranged argument maintained that the high rate was deterring settlement as well as causing settlers to leave the district. The present fare to Cardston and return is $6.60, while the stage fare used to be only $5 for the round trip. Now that the railroad was on a paying basis the rate should be reduced. The deputation also urged the extension and operation of the Kimball branch from Raley Junction to serve a large number of farmers who could not afford to pay from six to nine cents a bushel to haul grain to the present stations. The commission promised to make arrangements in the future to hear the case thoroughly.—Lethbridge Herald.

A company of Cardstonians are figuring on chartering a Pullman for a trip to the Coast. If their plans can be matured it will be one of the biggest and best advertising schemes Cardston has ever had. Cardston steamers will decorate the outside and Cardston literature will furnish the interior. We hope the plan may be realized Man's wants are little here below, but he wants that little quick. The people of Cardston want the Customs Office down town. We expect to do our "Duty" in this regard. A petition should be drafted and presented to the Collector here, Mr. E. N. Barker, with the request that he present it to headquarters. The present location is altogether out of the way for all ordinary purposes. As one of our leading men told the Inspector when he was here, "It is not on the way to any point where business men are called to go." It is simply a matter of getting the question before the proper authorities when action will be taken. By all means let us have the office down town.

The one thing that Cardston needs at the present time is a good publicity man to direct the prospective settler to the richest and cheapest and best agricultural district under the sun. With our improvements of Electric Lights and Water Works we need a larger population so that the many can make the burden light. Others may talk of their 25000 Club and 100000 Club, we are not so hoggish, knowing that they will come sooner or later when they once see the district that we have to offer to them at the prices that we are able to quote. What we want at the present time is double our present population. This is being talked and discussed by our leading citizens and it is quite likely that at the Municipal Election this Fall it will be made a Campaign Cry. Publicity for Cardston means an increased population; an increased population means a greater demand for our public improvements and less taxes for the few who now enjoy them.

Said Malcolm Young, the genial and whole-souled Sheriff of the Lethbridge Judicial District, "You have the whole earth skinned for crops this year." The Sheriff is a man of few words but how those words do count.

ALBERTA FARMERS ASSN

It is time for the Farmers of the Cardston district to reach out and help themselves. The Alberta Farmer's Association has been in operation for some two years. The total membership fees paid by the Cardston Branch is $181.00. The Cardston Branch is delinquent to the Central Association in the sum of $37.00 and to the local secretary $20.00. We are pretty well aware of the names of the two men—or at least the "few" men—that have been carrying the burden of this Association. We want to tell you in words of plainness just what the Association has done for the farmers of the district. Now mark you, Mr. Farmer, these benefits are of a PERMANENT CHARACTER. Through the effort of the Alberta Farmers' Association new markets have been opened for the consumption of the grain product which has added a few cents to the price of every bushel shipped out. Meeting the Railway Commission, the Association succeeded in getting a reduction of 3 cents per bushel between here and Fort William. When you take into consideration the fact that they were shipped out from here about 100,000 bush, you can easily figure a net gain of $3,000.00 in this one thing alone. It is figured that we will ship at least 500,000 bushel this year—some place it at more than this—which would mean at least $15,000.00. In this regard we shall continue to get more and more benefits as we raise more grain. The farmer should take all these things into consideration and every man should come forward with his fees and do all that he can to maintain the one Association that is doing so much for him. Those who have been carrying on the work so assiduously in the past have reached that point where they intend to "throw up the sponge" if they do not receive the proper support. It is therefore up to the farmers to rally to their aid and continue to have their interests looked after as they have been in the past. If they are not it is quite likely that we will at least stand still or drift backwards—we cannot go forward without the assistance of a solid and united organization such as the Alberta Farmers Association provides for the men of the soil.

JOHN W. WOOLF

Here is what the Toronto Globe says of our local representative:

The personnel of the Legislature reflects to some extent the cosmopolitan nature of the Canadian west, though in a very few years this admixture of races will be much more in evidence. Then, as now, however, the man's birthplace will matter little, for he will be completely absorbed by the western spirit. As the House is now constituted, there are about twenty members who are natives of Ontario; one from Quebec, and one from Utah, another from Ireland and one from each of two foreign countries—Russia and Italy.

Of these latter, Mr. J. W. Woolf, the son of a former rancher in Utah State, is a splendid specimen of the naturalized Canadian from the western States. He was the first representative in the Territorial Parliament of the Mormon colony of Southern Alberta, and he is still the dominant figure in politics there. A man of strong personality and magnetism, Mr. Woolf in physical appearance is of the type artists delight in portraying as the western cattleman. Tall, muscular, alert, he has a keen, dark face that in repose is rather pensive, but radiant when animated. Clear-headed, upright, frank of speech and hospitable, this member from Cardston is popular with his colleagues in and out of the House, where his intellect and common-sense have frequently impressed themselves upon caucuses.

WEDDING BELLS.

One of the largest home weddings it has ever been the writer's privilege to attend took place last Thursday afternoon, July 25th at the home of Mrs. Catherine Pilling on the banks of the St. Mary's River just across from where the St. Marys Detachment originally stood. The occasion which brought this large crowd was the uniting in the holy bonds of matrimony of Mr. James Pilling and Miss Margaret A. Hewitt.

The wedding services were conducted by President Edward J. Wood. Singing, "Redeemer of Israel, our only delight" Prayer was offered by Elder Rufus Pilling followed by singing, "How firm a foundation ye saints of the Lord." President Thomas Duce then gave a few words of instruction and counsel to the participating parties. He was followed by Bishop Tanner of the Aetna Ward who also spoke for a few minutes. President Edward J. Wood then performed the ceremony, the bride being given away by her brother and attended by the little daughter of Mrs. Susie Pilling. Singing "What is right" Benediction by Ephraim Harker.

Following the wedding came the usual repast for which the "big house" has been noted these many years. There was seating capacity for 35 at one sitting and there were four sittings besides numerous "hand-outs" to the many children. Beautiful and useful presents were brought by visitors. The afternoon was spent in a pleasant social way, the services were at 3 p. m. Tonight the young couple are treating their friends to a dance in the Amusement Hall at Kimball and Cardston will be represented with the other settlements to the south.

Among those present were: R. A. Pilling and wife, Rufus Pilling and wife, John Pilling and wife, Joseph Pilling and wife, Elias Pilling and wife, James Neilson and wife, Presidents Edward J. Wood and Thomas Duce, Ephraim Harker and wife and the Misses Mary and Edith, Mrs. H. M. Brown and her son Hugh, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wilcox, Bishop Tanner and wife, H. Richards and wife and son Neal, Chris. Jensen Jr. and wife, Alvin Golde and wife, George Bennet and wife, Mr. Arthur Perrey, James T. Brown and wife, H. E. Wynder and wife, P. P. Skriver and wife, James Karl and wife, John Adams and wife, Elijah Laycock and wife and daughter, Mrs. William Card, Mrs. L. D. King, Mrs. Owen King (the last six being from Raymond) M. L. Stoddard and wife, Aunt Rhoda Hinman, Mrs. B. F. Lamb, James Mayland wife, James Hansen and wife, C. T. Marsden Jr. and wife, Lem Falkner and wife, Mrs. Eva Hansen, Mrs. D. K. Green, Mrs. Nora Sheffield, Mrs. D. W. Card, John Taylor and wife, Misses Birdie Hudson, Rosetta Richards, Mattie Ellison and Miss Finch, John Wigill and wife, Miss Hyde Fay Hatch, Joseph Marsden and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Elton.

The Star joins in wishing them a long life in union upon the earth and that peace and happiness and success may crown their days.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Crockett on the evening of July 24th when Mr. Walter Crockett and Miss Welch were united in the bonds of matrimony, President Edward J. Wood officiating.

The Star wishes them much joy and happiness.

LAUNCHING THE GERTRUDE

In the presence of a large number of spectators, on Wednesday July 17th, the first steam boat to ply the waters of the Kootenay Lakes, was launched.

Save for a few clouds overhanging the mountain to give romance and picture-queeness to the scene, the morning was fine and clear.

THE GERTRUDE—so called for Miss Gertrude Seyde, secretary treasurer of the Waterton Oil, Lard and Power Company, and a large shareholder in the same—is a fine little boat 85 feet long and 18 feet wide. Mr. Peterson is the designer and builder and great credit is due him for the excellent piece of work he has turned out. Only the very best materials have been used in the construction of the boat. The essential feature is that she only draws 8 inches of water, this being a great convenience at low water.

In the absence of Miss Seyde, the pleasant honor of christening the new boat was conferred upon Miss Edna Smith and she performed the duty in a admirable manner. Mr. J. P. Hansen, President and General Manager of the Company, stood upon the prow his face beaming with satisfaction as he felt her timbers gently glide into the waters of the Kootenay Lakes.

The Company intend using the boat for transporting their supplies to the logging camps which are located 20 miles up the Lakes. It will also be drafted into service for pleasure parties. Mr. Hansen is adding more power to the Milland in a short time hopes to be able to meet the local demand for lumber at a reasonable rate.

Supreme Court.

The regular sittings of the Supreme Court convened on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Owing to the absence of His Lordship, Court was adjourned until 2 p. m. At 2 p. m. Court was resumed with Judge Harvey presiding.

The first case on the docket was that of Neils Neilson versus William Reid. This had been settled by mutual agreement.

The next and only case was that of L. L. Follett versus J. H. Vaghn, large debt procedure. This was a Jury Trial and the following citizens were duly sworn as Jurors, H. A. Donovan, Frank May, H. R. Sloan, Bert Cask, Frank Brown and Charles Nye. Mr. W. C. Simmons appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. L. M. Johnstone for the Defendant. The return of the Jury was as follows: "Judgment for the Defendant with costs less costs of a small debt action to the Plaintiff." The legal phases of the issue had been taken out of the hands of the Jury by His Lordship.

Next on the docket was the case of Josiah Draper versus Roy Folsom. This was settled mutually by the principal parties thereto. Two sessions of the court were held, one in the afternoon and an evening session commencing at 8 o'clock.
