CHAPTER XXXVI.
THE UNSOLVED ENIGMA.

"And you ask for ten thousand more immediately, with a prospect of still further calls."

"Loans, loans, my dear Dartmouth—say loans. All will be repaid."

When the Count Vitzarelli enters Rome as conqueror or dictator of Italy!" broke in Reginald Dartmouth, coldly.

The count's face lighted up.

"Yes, yes!" he said. "And that, thank Heaven, may not be long!"

"Or it may," said Reginald Dartmouth. "There is a chance, you see, my dear count; a very risky chance. Now, we Englishmen, shop-keepers as we are, require some security for our money. Show me, if you can, what shadow of security I possess that Italy will be Count Vitzarelli's and that my money will be mine again."

The count shrugged his shoulders.

"What further information can I give you than you already possess, my dear Dartmouth?"

Reginald Dartmouth smiled subtly.

None he knew.

"And, further, my dear count," he resumed, this time more slowly and, if possible, more softly—"I speak now as a man of the world to a man of the world—what security do I possess, supposing Italy the count's, that all I have staked will be returned to me?"

The question was a direct insult, and the high-born count sprang to his feet with all his Italian passion blazing in his face.

"Sir!" he exclaimed. "This insult—"

"Nay," said the captain. "An insult can not be where none is intended. Sit down, count, I pray. I spoke as a man of the world. In business to ask a man for security is not to insult him. When money changes head with a gesture almost of contempt.

"No count," he replied, rising as he spoke. "I ask for one to whom I have already given my heart; I ask for one who will give me a greater stake in the cause than even self-interest. Give me the woman I love and I am yours, count, till death."

"Her name—her name!" said the count, excitedly.

"Lucille Vitzarelli," replied Reginald Dartmouth, with impressive distinctness.

The count sprang to his feet with an exclamation upon his lips and a host of varied emotions flitting across his face, pride not being the least.

"Lucille!" he exclaimed, when the breath, driven from him by the sudden announcement, had returned sufficiently to allow of his speaking. "Lucille—my niece, the Countess Vitzarelli!"

"The same," returned Reginald Dartmouth, with cool sang-froid.

"But," breathed the count, sinking into the chair again and looking up into the immovable face with a troubled and hesitating glance—"but, are you aware, do you remember—"

Then, disliking to give utterance to his thoughts, he stopped.

"Your pause, count, in your gentle reminder of the respective stations of the suitor and the lady. You would have me remember that I am plain Captain Dartmouth, of good family and descent blood, perhaps, but still untitled and undecorated, and that your niece is of pure, blue blood, Countess of Vitzarelli, and an Italian princess. The reminder is unnecessary, inasmuch as I, for one moment, have never allowed myself to forget it."

And he smiled the subtle smile of power which had several times already irritated the Italian.

"I have never forgotten it, count, and I never shall. I pray you do not forget that we of England think so much of our old Norman blood as you of your kingly descent, and that with us titles go for nothing weighed against wealth and power. Both of these are mine. Your presence here—this small book—proves it. These I offer you, unlimited and unstinted, for the hand of your niece, Lucille, Countess Vitzarelli."

The count rose and paced the room.

"I, Captain Dartmouth—I will not sell Lucille, even for Italy. I can not. Ask me all else, even my life, and I give it you willingly. But this—is impossible."

And with a gesture of the hand, as if pushing the obnoxious proposal from him, he sank into the chair again.

Reginald Dartmouth eyed him with intense and cool enjoyment.

"You use harsh words, almost as harsh and more unnecessary than those you condemned in me awhile ago. I asked you not to sell your niece. I asked you to give her to me; I should have asked your consent only."

The count brightened up.

"My consent?" he said. "That is another matter."

"Just so," said Reginald Dartmouth, "and you will give that—say, and readily, because you feel within your heart perfectly assured that Lucille—the old man turned at the other's familiar use of the name—"will never give hers. No excuse, I explore," he added, as the count, with a tell-tale flush, was about to speak. "We are men of the world, my dear count, and your sharpness—I may use the word, I hope, without offense—does you credit and does not offend me. You give your consent to my espousal of your niece, Lucille, if I can obtain her's?"

A POPULAR HOUSE OR PORCH DRESS.

Pattern 2277 was used to make this comfortable model. It is cut in 7 Sizes: 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48 inches bust measure. A 38 inch size will require 6 1/4 yards of 36 inch material. This is a splendid style for mature figures. The lines are simple and pleasing and the skirt is of comfortable width.

Gingham, seersucker, linen, drill, poplin, lawn and chambray are excellent materials for this style.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 15 cents in silver or stamps.

A GOOD "BLOUSE AND SKIRT STYLE" FOR THE GROWING GIRL.

Pattern 3278 is portrayed in this model. It is cut in 4 Sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. A 12 year size will require 6 yards of 36 inch material for the blouse and skirt of one material. The skirt alone requires 3 yards of 36 inch material.

This will be effective in plaid suiting for the skirt, and pongee for the blouse. Linen, jean, wash silk and chambray are also good for the blouse, while the skirt may be of serge, gabardine or khaki.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 15 cents in silver or stamps.

"Yes, I do," said the count.

"Good!" said Dartmouth. "And now, still in the character of men of world, let me in due form get your illustrious name to the promise."

And before the count could speak he drew a parchment from a drawer and, with the rapidity of a notary, drew up an agreement to that effect.

"Now," said he, with a smile, "sign, count, while I draw out your check and give you a formal promise of a further supply."

The count approached the table and took up a pen.

But, as if his courage needed some stimulant he he could sign away his beautiful niece's hand, he caught up the goblet at his elbow, drained it at a draught, and hastily wrote his name at the bottom of the document.

Reginald Dartmouth took it and, after scanning it carefully, handed the check with the words:

"Exchange, my dear count, is no robbery. There is money for money's worth, with more to come."

The count took the check and hastily thrust it into his pocket, as if the very touch of it were a contamination; then, rather pale and agitated, said, with a glance at the table:

"I will delay you no longer, my dear Dartmouth. We meet to-night at the usual rendezvous."

Reginald Dartmouth shook his head with a smile.

"I start for my Dale estate to-night, where I am to prepare for your and the countess's visit, my lord."

And with a bow that had as much mockery as respect in it, he summoned a servant to show the illustrious visitor out.

LOOK WHAT WE OFFER NOW

BOYS' CLOTHES Are Cheap.

This is a fact! Still we know some of our readers are going to stop and say—"Tain't so, nuthin is cheap!" But you are wrong, and there are various things cheap to-day, but the trouble is most people don't want cheap things. Times are changed since we were boys, when the sign of a good healthy boy was to go round with—well, patches on his trousers. Accidents would occur sliding down trees and roofs, and getting over fences. But our story is,—we have just opened a range of

Boys' Am. Grey Tweed Suits,
Two-Piece Suits to fit ages 9 to 14 years.
Price Range being $9.60 to $10.60.

Boys' Heavy Khaki Drill Suits,
Ages 4 years to 10 years. Only $4.90 suit, for all sizes.

These Khaki Suits will wear like a bit of iron. They are made Military Style but can be altered if required. The coat comes with four pockets, each with a Buttoned Flap, and Coat Buttons are detachable Military Metal Buttons. The Pants have two front pockets and one on the hip, and also Belt Support Straps. Consider this price of $4.90 and you will find nobody will even just make a boy's suit for that price to-day (excluding the materials), unless the boy's mother. And she will do this even if she doesn't get a vote; and who will say that a capable woman like that doesn't deserve one.

We have some other Boys' Tweed Suits in stock in odd sizes at prices of some time ago.

We have Boys' Tweed Pants in stock at low prices.

We have even some Boys' Odd Vests in stock at the moment.

TALKING ABOUT

Older Stock and Older Values,
ALL OUR BOYS' COTTON SUITS AND BLOUSES ARE SELLING AT LAST YEAR'S PRICES, SO THEY ARE CHEAP AS WELL AS GOOD STYLES.

We had more Boys' Cotton Suits and Blouses last year than we had Summer. This year we have more Summer.

We Have a Good Range of

Cotton Rompers for Little Chaps

To tell the truth we purchased some of these this year, but you will find good values here despite that.

If the boy is going camping this Summer he may want an Oil Coat. We have them at last Fall's prices. Goods bought at this Spring's prices were mostly high, but the prices quoted for Fall staggered us. We can therefore advise you in all faith to buy before newer prices come into effect.

Intense Fighting Along Polish Front -- Bolshevik Forces Suffer Heavily -- Democrats Favor League of Nations--Dublin Facing a Crisis -- Wilson Hostile to the Jones Shipping Bill.

POLES CLAIM SUCCESS.
WARSAW, June 23. Fierce fighting is proceeding along the entire Polish front and increasing in intensity, according to a Polish official communication issued yesterday. The communication asserts that the Bolsheviks, profiting by numerical superiority and great masses of cavalry, are seeking decisive results at all costs. The heavy fighting for several days in the region of Lake Meshuzul ended with the defeat of the Bolsheviks, who were dislodged from their positions. According to the communication the enemy's resistance has been broken all along the line between Pripet and the Ryzyracy-Kalenkowitz Railroad, where the Bolsheviks lost two thousand men killed. The Poles captured quantities of important war materials. Bolshevik General Budenn's army has been prevented from developing its success in occupying Jemilczyn. Ukrainian forces have broken the enemy's front at Bielany. The communication reports a number of others minor successes.

GREAT BRITAIN NOT ASSISTING GREEKS.
LONDON, June 23. No obligations have been entered into by Great Britain to give assistance to the Greeks in their operations against the Turkish Nationalists, Premier Lloyd George stated in the House of Commons. The Premier declared that the Nationalist army was recognized as a combatant army subject to the laws of war.

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN ON PEACE TREATY.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 23. The League of Nations Covenant was championed as "the Monroe Doctrine of the world" by Homer Cummings, temporary Chairman of the Democratic National Convention, in his keynote address at the opening session to-day of the Peace Treaty's defeat in the United States Senate he said, "no blacker crime against civilization has ever soiled the pages of our history." He declared for endorsement of the Peace Treaty and League of Nations by the United States without resolution of any nature. Incidentally he supported Canada's right to a vote in the League Assembly.

FEARING FAMINE IN DUBLIN.
DUBLIN, June 23. The corporation of Dublin to-day passed a resolution creating committees in certain areas to meet the famine threatened by the stoppage of railways. Alderman McDonagh said Dublin was rapidly approaching a state of siege, and that machinery must be created to meet the crisis.

HEAVY SENTENCES FOR TRAIN ROBBERS.
QUEBEC, June 23. Hon. Judge Desy passed the following sentence to-day in the Harlanka train robbery. George Topping, alleged leader of the gang, gets life term at St. Vincent De Paul. His confederates, Porteau and LeVasseur, are respectively awarded sentences of twenty-five and fifteen years.

WANT 70 CENTS AN HOUR.
LONDON, June 23. The local hod carriers and building laborers went on strike yesterday to enforce their demands for 70 cents an hour.

PELACZ EXPLAINS HIS POSITION.
MEXICO CITY, June 23. General Manuel Pelacz, who has been virtually the ruler of the State of Yamaulipas, declared as false today the rumors that his forces were holding the Gulf Petroleum District. These forces, he said, were being partly disbanded. General Pelacz described his relations with the War Department as entirely amicable, and expressed the belief that the Government probably would assign him to the Tampico military section.

A REPUBLICAN THREAT.
NEW YORK, June 23. A special despatch from Washington, printed in the Tribune this morning, indicates that protests regarding the discrimination against Canadian transportation interests involved in the Jones Shipping Bill, will not receive very sympathetic consideration should the next occupant of the White House be a Republican "carrying out the policies of a Republican Congress." According to the Tribune, a statement was issued on Saturday by the Republican publicity association which says, "It is quite probable that President Wilson will turn a sympathetic ear to the protest against the Jones Shipping Bill, but after March of next year, when a Republican President will be at the White House to carry out the policies adopted by a Republican Congress, there can be no doubt that the spirit of the Shipping Bill will be maintained and a permanent Merchant Marine will be established."

FOUR DIE FROM WOOD ALCOHOL.
HARTFORD, Conn., June 23. Four deaths in this city from wood alcohol poisoning were reported to the city police. The source of the poisoned liquor has not been ascertained.

MORE DESTRUCTION.
FERMOY, County Cork, Ireland, June 23.—Damage amounting to hundreds of pounds was caused by rioters and window smashers here last night. The inhabitants attribute the demonstration to soldiers, who left their barracks on hearing of the kidnapping of Brig. General Lucas on Saturday night. Attempts to burn houses were frustrated.

CANCER SERUM PROVING EFFECTIVE.
TORONTO, June 23. Remarkable improvement is shown in the condition of thirty-five patients suffering from advanced cases of Cancer, who have been treated with the serum discovered by Dr. Glover of this city. No hope was held out for the recovery of any of the patients when Glover first administered his serum, but to-day it was stated they were all free from the dreadful agony they have been suffering, and many were making plans for the future.

High Appreciation.
Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir,—To the public in general, and prominent men in particular, the resignation of Mr. J. R. Courage, R. N. Co. Agent at Alexander Bay Station, will be received with much regret. For over two years this gentleman has been in charge of the above station and has won the esteem and approbation of all. It is not always possible to appoint an agent who can, and do, prove efficient in such a degree as Mr. Courage has. They may be satisfactory in a remote sense but it is difficult to maintain the exactness of the company's interest and retain the approval of all the passing public all the time. Such an agent acts as a medium between the company and the public. He is the conductor of all the important transactions from the one to the other.

It can clearly be seen then the advisability of retaining the services of such officials and how detrimental to the company's interest and loss to the people at large the withdrawal of tried and proven servants would be. The company trusts the agent to do their work, the people depend on the agent to give them satisfaction.

Mr. Courage has proven an ideal man in every way. Kind and considerate to passengers, painstaking and obliging to consignees, condescending yet maintaining the dignity and justice of the company's business—not swaying one jot or tittle from the plain but difficult path of duty. It would be well worth the company's while to make an effort to stand by such a man by offering him an opportunity for making good. He has started and made a mark, let him finish his efforts. The quality and not the quantity of employees is what makes a company, a state, a country progressive. Let us pray then that the Reid Nfd. Co. will use its best endeavours to retain the services of Mr. Courage, whose work has been already termed excellent.

Yours truly,
ONE OF THE PUBLIC.

ARTHUR LeBEAU, of Winooski, Vermont, who declares he is new in the 'pink of condition' and enjoying life for the first time in many years as the result of taking Tanlac.

"Thanks to Tanlac I am now enjoying life for the first time in years," recently declared Arthur LeBeau, foreman of the Porter Screen Co., Winooski, Vermont. "For five years I was a sick man. My principal trouble was indigestion. I had no appetite and generally went off to work without any breakfast because I knew if I ate anything it would only upset me.

"My condition was so bad in fact, I could neither sleep, eat nor work with any satisfaction and was so nervous that the least thing would upset me. Nothing seemed to agree with me and I would have severe cramping pains in my stomach and at times my heart would palpitate badly. I also suffered from shortness of breath, and the least little exertion would make my heart thump like an engine.

"At last I almost decided I would give up my job as I got so weak and miserable I felt I could stand it no longer.

"One night as I sat reading a paper I saw a statement about Tanlac which convinced me it was just the medicine I needed. It helped me from the very first dose and at the time I had finished my third bottle, I hardly knew myself.

"I never have the slightest symptom of indigestion now and I feel like a brand new man in every way. My appetite is splendid, my nerves are steadied and I sleep soundly at night. The work I used to dread now seems easy for me and I am now in the very 'pink of condition.' Of course, I am only too glad to recommend this medicine."

Tanlac is sold in St. John's by M. Connors; by Reg. Sullivan, Fouch Cove; Sound Island Store, Sound Island; Dennis Flynn, Avondale; J. J. O'Brien, Cape Broyle.—adv

CHAPTER XXII.

ANACONDA AND THE SMELTING PLANT.

If we were asked to express our opinion of Anaconda in a word, we should say Compact, if in a sentence, we should say sanitary, picturesque and compact. We saw many evidences of prosperity during our stay, and were highly honoured by the people, and especially by the business men. Among the buildings we were pleased to note a splendid public library, a fine large hotel, large and spacious public schools, a splendidly laid out court house, and a commodious printing plant, from which is published one of the most up-to-date papers of the day—"The Anaconda Standard." Besides these buildings, the Church edifices and theatres, and the banks, add considerably to the architecture of the city, and then the level site of the city itself, with its wide and regularly-laid out streets, gives an impression of taste, and a feeling of comfort. The area of the city is two and a half miles long by one and a half wide.

The chief industry of the place is centered in the smelting plant of the Copper Company. This plant is an immense concern, and has employed directly within its gates some four thousand men, all of whom work on the regulation of eight hour shifts. The plant runs full blasts all the time, Sundays and Mondays, day and night; but to divide the night work, the shifts are changed, so that each watch has an equal share of the same. We visited this plant, and were shown through it by Mr. A. J. Lacey, one of staff. The ponderous engines, and massive machinery, and the huge furnaces, told their own tale, and knocked all our ideas of such things higher than a kite. When we say that we cannot describe the machinery, what, therefore shall be said of the men who operate this machinery? We are confounded. We know not what to say, but will try to say something. For eight hours they stand, or sit, on duty. Many of them have normal duties, but others of them have duties almost superhuman. This particularly applies to those who work the blasts of the great furnaces; and who, amid pouring molten metal, move about like so many beasts of burden. The application of labour-saving machinery to every department of the plant is very commendable, and all that can possibly be done for the alleviation of toil is done; and amply done—hence machinery literally does the work. But without men, the machinery, ponderous as it is, and perfectly as it is adjusted, would be but so much dead weight. So among it all we beheld the men—the living machines—who in mechanism are greater than all the genius of their race, and more wonderful than all their own works put together.

There we saw them. Again we asked ourselves why such toil, and why such conditions. Amid dust, smoke, and fire, those strong men told of the words uttered of old, when, to the father of the race, it was said "in the sweat of thy brow shalt thou eat bread." But there was a difference in this case. It was not the brow only of these men that was sweating, it was their whole body, nor could it be otherwise, for the heat was intense. At the same time, the plant, in every department is open and airy, and is well arranged, and reflects great credit upon the management. But with all these precautions, the heat of the blasts is very great, and the fumes of sulphur are very strong, so that at best the atmosphere is sweltering and oppressive. Our party could barely stand it, and it seemed a risk for us to go where we really did. But not so with the operatives; for they all seemed quite at home; and amid the whirl of ponderous wheels, and the clanking of powerful cranes and under the shadow of leaping flames, which threatened to lick them up, as an alligator would its prey, they stood their ground, and toiled on.

Our descent into the mines at Butte was seemingly dangerous to the novitiates; but of the two experiences we think that the sulphur fumes of the great smelting works at Anaconda were more so; but it was all well worth while, for it taught us a lesson well worth learning. We were at leisure. Ours was the holiday; and we found that in leisure as well as in occupation there were lessons to be learned—lessons which made us reflect, and which, like the echo, strike back upon ourselves.

George Street Church Services.

Rev. Professor Watson of Mount Allison Theological Faculty, was the special preacher on Sunday morning and delivered a scholarly and instructive sermon. Taking as his text, Psalm 45 vs. 4, "There is a river the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God." The preacher showed how the Jews were familiar with bodies of water, and how these formations of water were used to illustrate the different aspects of spiritual life and experience. From the interesting waters of Jerusalem, and the provision made for a supply of water for the city itself, while besieging soldiers suffered from thirst, the Psalmist drew his picture, "There is a river the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God." From the history and circumstances of Israel the Professor showed that many of the passages of scripture referring to rivers were figurative, yet based on fact and pregnant with spiritual meaning. In captivity when the adverse circumstances completely discouraged them, a prophet starts out and points out that when purified of rebellion, and filled with loyalty to God, He will bring them back to a land transformed and fruitful. The vision of the prophet buoyed them up, and in the midst of discouraging and distressing conditions the people were cheered by his optimism. "Behold Christ came and men's thoughts were lifted from the blessedness of earth to that above, and in the book of Revelations the writer goes back to the lives in the city of God. In the time of persecution, hopelessness and darkness the people cried "Hallelujah, for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth." Theirs was a great faith. This is needed to-day—a faith that never grows discouraged. In closing the speaker spoke of the accidental discovery of an inscription on the conduit of the pool of Siloam, placed there by unknown workmen 3,600 years ago. That conduit still brings life and cheer to Jerusalem, and illustrates that most of us are like unnoticed workmen, whose work opens up a way for God's grace to flow to the whole world. Wherever efforts made with faith and prayer, the word, thought and deed are wholesome things. Such lives tell and make way for the waters to flow for the healing of the nations. A large congregation listened attentively throughout the sermon.

In the evening the Rev. Dr. N. Burns preached, and opened his sermon with the question—"What's wrong with the world?" Suggested remedies offered by a New York paper were:—

- (a) Work and save.
 - (b) Education.
- The latter might help mind and body, but what about the soul? Faith is needed in human life. The most indispensable remedy is spiritual. The devastated areas of the soul must be restored and peace of mind secured. We must take pleasure in the things that do not cost money or life. Spiritual forces are the only hope for permanent peace; the only cure for the world's trouble.

The text was from Rom. 8:9, "If any man has not the spirit of Christ, he is none of his." This had two associations, Peace and War. The preacher quoted from his own experience at the Front to show how broad of view was inevitable, and how narrowness fell down before the great spirit of brotherhood. There are two meanings here:

(a) The spirit that Christ sent to the world after he left;

(b) The spirit of Christ is ours, in harmony with the teaching of Paul. Christ in us and we in Christ. This is the true man. Christ wrote no authoritative book or creed. He breathed His spirit into men; He taught men truth and left them under His spirit to translate it. He left them to form a church according to the organization of the day. There are two tests of the spirit of a person. What a man does. How he spends himself in expressing his highest ambition. Three summaries of Christ's life:

(a) According to Peter "He went about doing good," bringing back to health those who suffered.

(b) He came to bear witness to the truth. He was the revelation, the showing forth of God. He was the Truth.

(c) He came to give life.

"I am the way, the truth and the life." Men get life by living in touch with the living Christ. The disciples were transformed through the touch of His personality. We must see the characteristics of man inwardly.

First, a man must be absolutely honest, absolutely sincere. The great challenge that Christ gave, brought the approval of God. "This is my beloved son." Christ was the highest type of human goodness.

Again, He understood what was in man. Men felt Christ understood them. There was about Him the unselfish spirit, the spirit of service. The inner spirit is the test. The method of Christ is to catch His spirit and reproduce it in human life. "Learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart."

The Anthem by the choir, the solos by Miss Christian and Mrs. Christian, delighted the large congregation.

Side Talks by Ruth Cameron

ISN'T THIS A FAIR SCHEME?

RUTH CAMERON

Some days ago I tried to make the abstract word "landlord" represent a concrete person who might be having as hard a time getting along these days as his tenants. At that time I promised to tell about a scheme which a friend of mine, who has recently bought an apartment house, has worked out.

He calls his plan "Rentals at cost and undisturbed tenancies."

"A landlord or owner in times like these," says this member of the hated class, "wants to furnish his tenants a warm, clean and weather-tight to postpone repairs so far as possible, but to have a reserve fund with which to pay for them when they can be made at more reasonable costs, to pay his taxes, insurance and other operating expenses, and to have a reserve against vacancies. He also wants an income on his investment at the market rate. In times like these he cannot know to-day what his costs will be for next year, still less can he know what they will be in two years hence."

plan will keep rents down to what they were five years ago or even last year. It isn't a plan for getting heat without buying coal. Tenants must expect to pay what it costs to house them, but surely they will do it more cheerfully if they know they are not getting stung. The plan does not offer any great saving in rent, but it does offer undisturbed tenancies and the peace of mind that comes from knowing that you are not being the victim of the profiteer."

A Warning to Tenants.

Of course the inevitable question arose to my mind, "Will the tenants agree to this plan?" (It has not yet been presented to them.)

"Perhaps," said my friend, "perhaps not. But one thing I can tell you—tenants are not the only ones who suffer from present conditions. The great majority of landlords are decent men, though some, no doubt, are not. The public has a real interest in encouraging decent men to stay in the field. When tenants close their eyes to the plain facts in the case and regard all landlords as profiteers, they are simply offering any decent man now in the field the choice of operating on a charity basis with public respect, or on a business basis with public odium. His choice will be soon made. The field will gradually be abandoned to others."

"And the tenant will be the greatest sufferer then?"

Young man, bring along your best girl and treat her to a nice cup of tea, the kind the good ladies of St. Joseph's are in the habit of giving. You will be surprised at the price they will ask.—1928, 31

He Will Give Them All the Figures.

"Now in order to insure my tenants an undisturbed tenancy at a fair rate, I am going to suggest this plan to them. First, I will lay before them all the figures in the case, the value of the property, a detailed estimate of operating expenses and of an allowance to be reserved for vacancies, a statement of the market rate for capital in various fields of its employment, and of the rate thought fair for this investment taken at its assessed value; and, finally, an estimated total rental cost and a distribution thereof between the various floors."

"In order to give a fair margin of safety, a sum will be added to the known expenses before the total estimate is made, but the amount to be taken for his own profit by the landlord will be definitely specified, and the tenant will receive back at stated times, the difference between the contract rent and what it actually costs to house him, just exactly as the holder of a life insurance policy receives his dividends if the company finds itself able to pay them."

SOLVENCY.

Take this advice: Don't go in debt! Your solvency's your one best bet. Far better drive a henny car, that breaks a sleet at a far, that backs when you would have it pull, and know it's yours, paid for in full, than journey in a fine sedan that's bought on the installment plan. Far better wear a suit of duck on which you've paid the final buck, than go around in brave array while tailors clamor for their pay. Far better in a cabin dwell, in some remote, secluded dell, than occupy a gilded hall where balliffs with their warrants call. There's naught contributes, you will find, more strongly to your peace of mind, than being in a place to say, "No man can dun me for his pay; I owe no kopecks, far or near, my bills are paid, my record clear." I've tried both plans, and so I know; all kinds of bills I used to owe, and lawyers chased me through the town, and stern collectors ran me down. And life was then a sad affair, of walking floors and tearing hair. But now I pay for bed and board, and buy no junk I can't afford, and life is like a pleasant dream, or like a shortcake soaked in cream.

Antiquity of the Smiths.

In the United States the Smiths number about a million. It has been discovered that there was a man named Smith living in Egypt in B.C. 227, and there may have been even earlier Smiths. The Smiths (remarks a writer) have always shown themselves more clanish in the U.S. than in other countries. They once organized a banquet at which the guests were Smiths to a man, and the President was Captain Smith, the Governor of Virginia. The cooks were Smiths, the waiters also, and a Smith said grace. An ode was specially composed for the occasion by a poet Smith, and this was issued in book form by a publisher named Smith.

Stainless Steel.

From Sheffield, England, comes the intelligence that the hardware store will soon display, besides its tin, enameled, and aluminum ware, kitchen utensils made of rustless steel. This metal, high in chromium content, has previously been used almost exclusively for knife blades; but recent experiments with accurate heat treatments, which render it more workable, now make it available for this domestic use. Frying pans, kettles, and other utensils made of stainless steel are always bright, no matter how used, after immersion in boiling water. They will not scale like iron, and in consequence will not grow thin on the bottom. Incidentally, engineers are investigating the possibilities of its use in the construction of bridges, the necessity of painting which now entails large expense.—Popular Mechanics.

THE LITERAL TRUTH.

Now an honest man was Bill McGann and honest, was Jim McNabb. But Bill was blunt and plain of front while Jim had the gift o' gab; Jim stuck to the truth in important things, but he sugared his talk at times.

But Bill McGann had a stricter plan—which is why I am writing these rhymes.

The two of them loved the self-same girl, and a beautiful maid was she, But Bill fell short when he went to court, two honest to win was he.

For Jim McNabb, with the gift o' gab, wooed Kate in a different way—He promised her things like diamond rings if only she'd name the day.

He promised her furs for her pretty neck, and dresses of silk and lace, He vowed as his wife she could live her life as a lady of ease and grace.

A mansion of stone and a car of her own, he pledged to the lady fair, Which both of them knew that he never could do, but little they seemed to care.

Now Bill McGann was a truthful man, and never the truth he'd shrink: "It you'll share my life as my gentle wife, there are times that you'll have to work."

"There'll be beds to make, and pies to bake, an' dishes to wash," he said, "An' both of them knew what he told was true, for it happens to all who wed."

Now pretty Kate is Mrs. McNabb and she's making the bed for Jim, And poor old Bill is a bachelor still for never a girl takes him.

For maidens fair never seem to care for the hero who comes to woo, However he acts if he sticks to the facts, for the literal truth won't do.

Fads and Fashions.

Dark blue twill is used for street dresses resembling suits. Striped materials are being used for bindings and pipings. Evening frocks have tulle flounces with uneven edges. The dropped shoulder line is smart with the short sleeve. Fall suits will have very deep cuffs and high choker collars. Half way to the knees is the fashionable length for the suit-coat. A dark blue poplin has a huge muslin collar with watermelon pink. Evening dresses are often entirely covered with sequins and beads. A touch of white neckwear generally brightens up the dark dresses. Embroidery in jet edges the revers and cuffs of a black satin suit. A traveling coat of green velour de laine has a deep-pleated cape collar. Narrow, loosely tied belts are worn with the straight bodice effects.

The Presidential Election.

The Republican Party—the G.O.P.—though of contrary minds on many issues, is completely and thoroughly at one in the determination to defeat as well as discredit, the Wilsonian party and its policies, and it may be that Wilson himself may yet be in for a third term running. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts chanted the first note of the "Hymn of Hate" against President Wilson when he declared that "Mr. Wilson and his dynasty, his heirs and his assigns, or anybody that is his, anybody with bent knee who has served his purpose, must be driven from all control, from all influence upon the Government of the United States."

Many signs among the Democrats, point to the re-nomination of Woodrow Wilson for a third term as President. The Democratic Convention is now in session at San Francisco, and Mr. Wilson is said to be a candidate. In an interview with the New York World some time ago, he came out very strongly for the ratification of the Peace Treaty and the adoption of this as a prime feature of the Democratic platform.

the President's son-in-law, Mr. McAdoo, who was, it is said, the strongest in the running. This reduces the list of Democratic possibilities to eleven, these being: Attorney General Palmer, of Pennsylvania; Governor James M. Cox, Ohio; Governor Edward I. Edwards, New Jersey; Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Nebraska; William Jennings Bryan, Nebraska; Secretary of Agriculture Meredith, Iowa; Senator Robert L. Owen, Oklahoma; James W. Gerard, New York; Senator F. M. Simmons, North Carolina; Ambassador Davis, West Virginia; Senator Carter Glass, Virginia. Recent developments at Washington have made Mr. Wilson's re-nomination a more than possibility, and placed the situation in a new aspect. Nor was it seriously considered that he would offer for a third term, but certain happenings made for his being in the field as the Democratic nominee again. Nearly four hundred delegates are credited with supporting McAdoo, and as these are more than the one-third of the vote of the whole Democratic Convention, such a number would form a nucleus of the necessary two-thirds (728); necessary to nominate a candidate for the Presidency. It is assumed, therefore, that these delegates who favored McAdoo, "will be used either to secure the nomination of Mr. Wilson himself, or of the candidate whom he favors, and among those mentioned, the one who is regarded as being the first favorite of the President is Senator Carter Glass, of Virginia."

Two Fires. At about 6 o'clock this morning the Central firemen were called to the Nrd. Brewery, Circular Road, where sparks from the smokestack had set fire to the shingled roof of one of the buildings. The blaze was put out without much damage being done. At 10.30 this morning an alarm of fire was sounded from the Cross Roads. The Central and Western firemen responded in quick time. The fire occurred in the home of Mrs. Saurley, on the Southside Road, and was caused by a squall driving sparks from the chimney onto some clothing in a room. The damage done was slight and covered by insurance. The West End chemical and hose motor truck, driven by Mr. C. Kavanagh, was on the scene in less than one minute being fully 4 minutes ahead of the horses-drawn apparatus. The services of the firemen were not requisitioned, however, as neighbors put out the blaze with a few pails of water.

Does It Mean Cheaper Flour?

The notice beneath has been posted in the Board of Trade Rooms, for the benefit of all concerned, by the Food Control Board: "In negotiations between the Nrd. Food Control Board and the Canadian Wheat Board, the latter have intimated that flour may now be bought in Canada for shipment within 60 days. The ruling of the Wheat Board that flour should bear the market price at time of shipment is therefore rescinded in the case of Newfoundland."

TUESDAY, June 29, '20. In hot weather, possession of a good Shampoo Liquid is a very convenient thing, and we suggest Coconut Oil Shampoo as the handiest as well as the most thorough thing of the kind. This remarkable preparation will take every bit of dust and dandruff from hair and scalp and give it a perfectly "clean sheet." Besides it is most refreshing in hot, dusty weather, and its use, unless immoderate, will tend to promote the growth of the hair and preserve or restore its gloss. Coconut Oil Shampoo is certainly well worth trying. Price 40c. a bottle.

Police Court.

A resident of Cape Broyle was fined $100 for smuggling. The master of a schooner was also fined $100 for having liquor unlawfully in his possession. The police cases in the same connection were postponed sine die. A stoker for being drunk, was fined $2 or 7 days. A boy, resident of Southside, had to furnish bonds of $100 for cutting and stealing wood.

Escaped Lunatic Captured.

The authorities were advised today that the man Griffiths, who escaped from the Lunatic Asylum some time ago, had been captured at Whitbourne and is being brought in on the local train to-night. The other escaped patient, Duke, is still at large and is believed to have gone west.

Last Mark of Respect.

A large number of citizens attended the funeral of Mrs. George Langmaid yesterday afternoon. The arrangements were under the direction of Undertaker Collier. The enclosed hearse was covered with beautiful wreaths testifying to the esteem in which the deceased lady was held. Rev. Dr. Pedley conducted the service at the home and also conducted the committal service at the graveside. Interment was at the General Protestant Cemetery.

ANGLO-JAP ALLIANCE.
 TOKIO, June 29.
 Negotiations are going on between Japan and Great Britain with regard to an Anglo-Japanese Alliance, according to a statement made by Premier Hara at a meeting of the Setru Kai party.

NO INFORMATION.
 LONDON, June 29.
 It was announced in the House of Commons last night, that no information had been received respecting General Lucas being captured by Sinn Feiners. Premier Lloyd George said that martial law has not been proclaimed in any part of Ireland.

SINN FEINERS KIDNAP OFFICER.
 LISMORE, Ireland, June 29.
 Several private houses and places of business were sacked Sunday evening by soldiers, in reprisal for the kidnaping of Brigadier General Lucas, Saturday night. There was some firing in the streets but nobody was killed.

D'ANNUNZIO AGAIN.
 LONDON, June 29.
 A despatch to the London Times from Rome, dated Monday, says that a serious state of affairs is reported from Zara, a seaport in Dalmatia. It is said that the Italian Admiral, Millo, appealed to the Italian Government to send reinforcements to him, but that he was unable to obtain them. The despatch adds that it is reported that Gabriel D'Annunzio has sent a battalion to Zara. The cause of the trouble is not indicated in the despatch.

ALL SAVED.
 STOCKHOLM, June 18.
 Two thousand war prisoners on board the Bolshevik steamer which sank recently in the Neva River, were saved, according to a despatch to the Dagsblad from Helsingfors, Finland.

IMPOSSIBLE TO GRANT DEMANDS.
 LONDON, June 28.
 With a view to forcing the Government to disclose its complete financial proposal for Ireland, Opposition leaders in the House of Commons today moved amendments seeking postponement of the clause in the Home Rule Bill repealing the 1914 Act. The amendments, however, were rejected. Lloyd George taking part in the debate was again conciliatory towards Ireland, but insisted that nobody now would be satisfied with the 1914 Act, and that it was impossible to grant the demands of Irish extremists. He was convinced that things would improve in Ireland when the genius and common sense of her people realized that the British people would never consent to the extreme demands of the Sinn Feiners, and that the United States would not support the demand for an Independent Ireland.

REFUSED TO SAIL WITH POLICE.
 BANTRY, Ireland, June 28.
 The refusal of trainmen to work trains carrying soldiers and police has been followed by similar action by officers of the Bantry Bay Line steamer, Lady Elsie. When the vessel was ready to start for Castletown, Berehaven, twelve armed police came aboard and refused to leave, whereupon the officers declined to man her. She is now at the pier with the police aboard.

OMAHA HAS CYCLONE.
 OMAHA, June 28.
 Omaha and vicinity was visited by a devastating wind and rain storm late this afternoon. Trees and out-buildings were razed in the city and one woman was injured seriously. Telephone communication to the west and southwest is completely demoralized.

BRYAN FOR RATIFICATION.
 SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.
 Ratification of the Treaty of Versailles, with such reservations as the Senate majority approves, is proposed in the plank of William J. Bryan, dealing with the Treaty and the League of Nations, made public tonight.

Where Were the Tin Islands?

Where were the tin islands? asks the Children's Newspaper. Every boy and girl has been taught that the Phoenicians visited Britain before the time of Julius Caesar to get tin for use in the manufacture of bronze. They have been told that when the ancient writers speak of the tin islands, or Cassiterides, they mean the Scillies, although little or no tin is found in those islands. The fact is that no one could say definitely where the tin islands were. Some historians thought they were the little islands at the northwest corner of Spain, while others have believed that they had no real existence, and that in speaking of them the authors merely meant to indicate that tin came from overseas. Now, however, an important discovery has been made that seems to clear up the mystery. Tin has been found in considerable quantities in the Hebrides, and everything suggests that these are the famous tin islands of the old writers. The mystery has largely arisen owing to the fact that the Phoenicians, who were cunning traders, and did not want anyone else to poach on their preserves, kept the source of their tin secret. This discovery of tin in the Hebrides is a very interesting fact, and it will be curious if the islands that first brought Britain into prominence should again become a source of wealth and fame.

Machine to Detect Liars.

An apparatus by which it is possible to detect liars has been invented by Dr. Augustus D. Waller, F.R.S., of the London University. This is done by taking electric records of the effect of cross-examination on a criminal's nervous system to indicate whether he is telling the truth. Dr. Waller discovered that the resistance of the skin to electricity varies with the state of the emotions, and has so developed the discovery that even apprehension can plainly be "spotted" by the fluctuations of a spot of light on a scale. "This," he says, "is how we shall get the criminal. He will be trying to prove an alibi. He will look the judge in the eye and say he was never, say, at Chelsea, in his life. Now we apply my method. Attach the electric wires to his hands and then show him a few pictures, including one of the place the criminal was suspected of having visited. The others will give negative results, but when he is shown that particular one the result will be that the light will jump—and there is no power in mortal man to stop it."

To Protect the People.

"When society finds itself victimized by workmen who strike unlawfully, or by employers who attempt to exploit the public by lockouts, there must be some means of redress. Upon this principle we have organized in Denmark a society composed of every man and boy willing to stand firmly for the rights of the people and to maintain vital industries in any emergency," said Ishow I. H. Fenger, leader of the Danish Public Protection Society in explaining at Copenhagen how it has been possible to operate successfully one of the world's largest free harbours when every dock labourer in Copenhagen quit work. Mr. Fenger, who is a noted Danish attorney, is being aided by representatives of all classes, who intend to protect the organization along militant lines so that it will be ready to

Shamrock IV. a Marvel.

Sandy Hook, June 28.—Canadian Press—Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV., challenger for the America's Cup, had an informal spin off here Thursday. The yacht beat down the main ship channel to Scotland light vessel, and then ran back to her anchorage inside the hook. She carried a new topmast. This is shorter than her old spar. The rig improved the sailing qualities of the craft and her performance was highly satisfactory to Chas. E. Nicholson, her designer, and Captain Burton, who is to sail the yacht. The shorter topmast reduced Shamrock's rating by almost a minute over a thirty mile course. Sir Thomas stated that the challenger would race the 22-meter trial yacht to-morrow.

THAT DRIVE HIGH PRICES ON IS NOW AT ITS HEIGHT OF SUCCESS!

We are for Fair Prices Now and all the time!

We will continue our policy of FAIR PRICES — during this drive and AFTER it. This store has made "FAIR PRICES" its policy for over 16 years—and that will be its policy ALL THE TIME.

Here is a sale that for value cannot be approached in this city. We'll make it the most notable selling event in the store's history.

LET US PROVE IT.

Break Down the Barrier of High Prices Give the H.C.L. a Staggering Blow! It's Our Duty---and Yours!

The continued advance of HIGH PRICES MUST BE CHECKED. Merchants, manufacturers and the public must work hand in hand to accomplish it. We must ALL do our share. We are doing our's by completely disregarding former costs—or even present costs. We are cutting down ALL prices, bringing them down to something like they were in days gone by. Now it's up to YOU—the Public—to take advantage. Now it's up to YOU to come here, buy what you need and SAVE. Here are values that WE KNOW cannot be approached. Here is a selling event you MUST not overlook.

Methodist Conference

Monday, June 29.

Work was resumed, and after the devotional exercises the minutes were read and confirmed. Rev. Wm. Swan occupied the chair in the absence of the President.

Messrs. Wm. Peters and A. Soper were appointed auditors.

The local preachers and class leaders' committee reported. The discussion will conclude when the state of the work is before the Conference.

Approval was given by Conference for the appointment of Revs. D. Bond, Chas. Lench and Wm. J. Morris for a fifth year.

At 12.15 Rev. Dr. Pedley gave the last of his addresses. The subject "Henry Ward Beecher: Memories and Reflections." Dr. Pedley spoke of the great American divine as one who knew him intimately. He had sat at his feet; had heard him preach and very frequently. He divided his subject into two heads, Memories and Reflections. He first heard of the great Henry Ward Beecher when he was in St. John's. During the American Civil War the three great names were Lincoln, the Statesman; Grant, the soldier; Beecher, the prophet.

He first met him in Montreal in 1870. "My first opportunity," said the Doctor, "was in the winter of 1876-1877. That is a long time ago, but the impression abides." He concluded at the time of his death in 1887 that the world without Beecher was a mutilated world. He was like a gleaner in the harvest field. Beecher made Plymouth Church. He began with 25 members. In 1876, after 29 years of service, the church accommodating 3,000 worshippers, was always filled.

His introduction to the first sermon he preached was:

"Lord what a wretched land is this wherein is no supply; No beautiful flowers, no wholesome fruits, No streams of living joy."

After delivering this doleful verse he paused a moment or two and said "The man that wrote them didn't deserve any." He beautifully described Beecher's New Year's Eve Sermon at the outgoing of a ship never to return and the incoming of a ship representing a new year. The Friday Evening Lectures were described briefly. There were four classes of workers. He referred to a meeting at the time of the death of Vanderbilt.

He, Beecher, made a comparison between the great millionaire and Philip Bliss. Lyman Abbott, another great divine was present, and reminded the audience that Vanderbilt when dying requested the singing of "Rock of Ages" and "Jesus Lover of my Soul." Beecher replied, "Better he had sung those hymns forty years before."

Beecher called upon his congregation to visit him on New Year's Day. High and low, rich and poor, great and small, white and black were invited, and the doctor said, "that was where I saw my opportunity."

Reflections:—It may discourage us to come too near to great men; and like Peter we say, "Depart from me for I am a sinful man, O Lord." There was in many things the inimitable. Beecher had inexhaustible vitality. He had a marvellous range of intellectual gifts. He had great facility and fullness of speech. Dr. Dewart had said, "Give me time and I could write something like Dr. Punshon, but I couldn't come near Henry Ward Beecher." There was the inimitable. We may imitate some of the aspects mentioned. Beecher's care of his body, the training of his mind, and also his industry. And more fully in the higher realm imitate his sympathy with men and his fellowship with Christ. This man so well equipped, so abounding in force, had at the centre of his life the Christian motive.

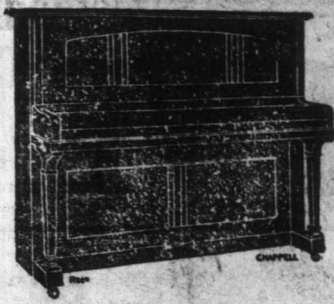

Dr. Pedley closed with a most beautiful reading from the writings of Henry Ward Beecher.

Rev. Dr. Bond moved a resolution expressing sincere appreciation of the Conference. Rev. Dr. Curtis seconded, and Rev. Swann and other supported the motion.

The Station Sheet for 1920-21 was read after the afternoon session had been opened. At 4 p.m. the Board of Governors met and presented the report of the Board for the past year. The election resulted as follows: Hon. R. K. Bishop re-elected Chairman; Hon. R. A. Squires, Secretary; Joseph Peters, Treasurer. Other business being transacted the Board adjourned to meet at 4 p.m. to-day.

Two young men were ordained to the full work of the ministry at the Ordination Service held in the Conference Church last night. President Fenwick conducted the service. The candidates, Benjamin Mallalen and Thomas J. Pitt, related their experience and call to the ministry. Both are Englishmen and men of excellent promise.

Rev. Dr. Bond delivered an excellent charge. His text, "And he gave some Apostles," was the basis of sound and practical admonition. Reminiscently he referred to the years 1886 and 1889 when he had also given the charge to the candidates for ordination. The man and the message was the gift of the sermon, and fundamental and essential truths were emphasized in the development of the message.

DIAMOND DUST

Nothing But the Truth—Without Fear or Favour.

The cockiness of the Red Lions has aroused deep resentment in the breasts of the B.I.S. players, and when they meet at 7 o'clock to-night there's sure going to be something doing.
Both umpire Chesman and umpire
Duff are putting on their heaviest armour plate, and it is feared that a couple of tanks will have to be requisitioned from "Pom's" to suppress the ardour of the players.

The lineup will likely be:—
RED LIONS—Cahill, Robertson p.
Hiltz 1b, Billy Callahan 2b, Munn ss,
Walter Callahan 3b, with Ellis, Quick and Kielly in the outer gardens, and Keefe and Jenkins spares.

B.I.S.—Mike Power c, O'Leary p.
Wallace 1b, Delaney 2b, French ss,
O'Donnell 3b, and Walsh, Power, and
Phelan in the sun garden.

Eddie Phelan, who plays hockey with the St. Bon's, and football with the B.I.S., will make his initial appearance on the diamond to-night, and it is likely will go in the box at some period for the Channing aggregation. If used, his pitching will surely be a revelation to the fans, and his wicked breast-high inshoot is likely to cause trouble to some one. Eddie is certainly a comer!

The Old Wallop.
I like to see pitching that's clever.
I dote on a fast double play. A neat delayed steal has a zestful appeal that adds to the joy of the fray. A strikeout with bases all loaded can cheer any rooter, I wot. But the game's greatest thrill is to lean on the pill and slam the ball out the 'lot. The squeeze play that works is a pleasure.
The old hit-and-run's a delight. The sacrifice try always bring forth a cry,
and a guy stealing home is a sight.
A circus catch sets me a cheering. A bunting attack makes me beam. But me for the bloke with the extra base poke, who can slam the old ball on the seam.

Aye! trot out the lad with the wallop; the baby who swings from his toes. The larripping wight from the village of Smite, who cracks the baseball on the nose. I like to see fielding that sparkles; I like heady pitching; it's grand. But the sight for my eye is the pill-busting guy who can flatten the ball in the stand. I'll cheer for the hit robbing fielder who gathers the shots that are hot, but here's to the bunch with the fence-cracking punch,
the Larripping Legion of Swat.

I like to see pitching that's clever.
I'll cheer for a base-stealing King. But me for the skate who'll step up to the plate, and get a good toe-hold and SWING.

Ads in the "Telegram" certainly pay. Last week the youngsters asked us to put in a "Lost, Stolen or Strayed" paragraph about the newly formed Junior League. And lo! and behold!
this morning Chairman Harriet and Secretary French both ring us up to say that in response to our notice
they have pleasure in stating that up to the present three teams have entered, viz:—the Mount Cashel team,
the Boy Scouts, and the Shamrocks.
The first game of the series will be played on Thursday morning as a five inning preliminary to the regular League C.E.I.-Cubs clash.

Secretary French also asks us to state in this column that other entrants will be received up to Saturday then the lists close. The Senior League is putting up a nice silver cup and medals to the winners, and the age limit of players is under 17.

Harvey, Harvey, quite contrary
How does your ball club go?
"Now you've got me," says our Harvey.
"I'm doggoned if I know."

The Mount Cashel series will surely be interesting this year. The prize at stake is the beautiful silver trophy presented by Mr. H. D. Reid. The conditions are that that the cup is to be won three years—not necessarily in succession. The Wanderers, Cubs, and Lions have each two years on it,

and the successful club this year owns it outright. The B.I.S. never had an option on it, but their supporters are hopeful Manager Channing and his crew will step in this year and spike one or the other three from becoming its proud successors. And don't forget, kind reader that Harvey would like to have his finger in the pie as well.

Finance Minister Presents Budget.

Slight Amendment in Tariff--Certain Wares Returned to Free List--Reduction in Salt Bulk Fish Export Duty.

(From the Daily News.)

Yesterday, at the House, Minister of Finance Browning introduced the Budget and reviewed the three years, 1918-1919, 1919-1920 and 1920-1921. The total revenue for the year 1918-1919 was $9,535,725.16 and expenditure $6,766,430.51, showing a surplus of $2,769,294.65. For the current year ending to-morrow, the total revenue is expected to exceed the Estimates submitted last year. For the 9 months for which returns are available, or to the end of March, the total revenue was $6,881,555.89 and for the remaining 3 months is estimated to be $4,500,000.00. This will bring the figures up to roughly $11,400,000.00. The expenditure for the current year will be $10,800,000.00, leaving a surplus of $600,000.00. For the fiscal year which ends on June 30th, 1921, the expenditure is at present estimated to be $11,000,000.00. To meet this it is proposed to re-enact last year's Revenue Bill with some amendments as referred to further on. The revenue for next year is estimated at $11,021,000. "This Estimate," Mr. Browning said, "is not over sanguine as the resources which have been so prolific of late years are anticipated to maintain their productivity without serious abatement. Nor have I overlooked the fact that the large revenues of the immediate past were mainly derived from exorbitant prices of imports brought about by the war. All these things considered and, despite trade, commerce and industries all over the world being unsettled and that it is not improbable that reduction in prices of commodities which form the basis of Customs Revenue may diminish our receipts somewhat during the coming year, I still anticipate sufficient revenue from all sources to meet ordinary expenditures of civil government, as outlined in the Estimates. Under the circumstances I feel justified in removing from the Tariff the undermentioned articles and legalising certain modifications made in the Tariff by the late Government. These alterations are, to change the duty on rough undressed leather when imported by tanners for further dressing from 3 cents per pound to 20 per cent. ad valorem. To specify "Bologna Sausages" per lb. ic., to include under the head of nails, iron or steel fasteners to be used by box makers per lb. 1/2 cent; to return to the free list, agricultural implements, animals imported by Agricultural Societies, tanning extract, books, manures and fertilizers, plants, trees, printing paper, sand, fire clay, wheat (whole). To legalise the change made in duty on Indian corn, and cattle feed and in Item 200 by substituting 10c. per 100 lbs. for 10 p.c. ad valorem. To place on free list apparatus imported for use in drying fish (not to include ordinary tools), also receptacles for putting up jams and jellies when imported by manufacturers for use in factories. To alter Schedule E. of the Revenue Act, passed 1918, by altering the duty on fresh fish and fish exported from salt bulk without being spread or dried, from 20c. to 10c. per cwt. and to strike out from the schedule, the item "split herring."

At the end of the current year June 30th, 1920, the gross public debt will be $43,033,035.60, including the 1 million loan raised by the present Government since taking office last Fall. The debt in late years was incurred largely on war account. The total expenditure under that head from the date the Regiment was organized to the end of the fiscal year 1919 was $11,486,753.60. For the current year expenses of the Militia Department including Civil Re-Establishment Committee, aggregate $2,400,000.00. For the same period the payments on account of disabilities, pensions of soldiers and sailors will be $645,000.00. The Militia Department's estimate of requirements for 1920-1921 is $250,000 and the Board of Pensions Commissioners' Estimate for the same period, $500,000.00. The London Pay and Record Office has been closed at the end of 1920. The whole Dominion's war expenditure is met by borrowings, and charged to Capital Account. The value of imports from Great Britain in 1919 was $179,761 less than in 1918 and the exports in the same period show a falling off of $2,081,960. This is due to war conditions in the Old Land. The increase in imports from Canada and the states are due chiefly to the increase in prices and not to volume of goods handled. The imports from Canada increased nearly 8 millions and the exports less than half a million between 1914 and 1919. Similarly with the U.S. trade, where exports increased about 4 1/2 millions, while imports increased 10 1/2 millions. The total value of our fishery products was:

1918 $25,547,334
1919 $32,792,271
The Budget then deals with the potential wealth of the timber, fishery, agricultural, coal and paper industries and states the development of the same would mean considerable access of revenue to the Exchequer. It also quotes authorities to the effect that there may be reduction in the cost of necessities after another harvest, which will be followed by a reduction in wages. The whole process will be gradual and a rapid decline does not seem probable. The consensus of opinion is that there will be no downward tendency in the price of necessities in the immediate future and it is well for the people to look forward to a continuance of present cost of necessities of life for at least the remaining months of this year and probably the great part of next. For this reason it should be our aim and policy to augment our financial strength by multiplying our productive exertions.

Forty-One Yers in the Public Service--The Evening Telegram

Third Report

of the Director of Graves Registration and Enquiries Nfld. Contingent, To the Prime Minister of Nfld.
Sir—In accordance with your telegram of May 25th, I herewith submit the following report on the Newfoundland Plot, Wandsworth Cemetery.

Recapitulation.

The Newfoundland Plot at Wandsworth was purchased by the Newfoundland War Contingent Association in October, 1916. In this plot were buried the men who died in Wandsworth Military Hospital. Contrary to military orders they were buried four in a grave. The N.W.C.A. enclosed this plot with a Portland stone border, and in the centre erected a Portland cross, on which was painted an inscription.

Some time last year they had the plot reconstructed, having the bodies exhumed and re-interred in separate graves, shortly after which I took over the duties of looking after our soldiers' graves.

I tried to get in touch with the N.W.C.A. and asked to attend their committee meeting, and try to work in unison with them, but I did not succeed, their idea being that this plot was theirs and they could carry out their own ideas irrespective of the Imperial War Graves' Commission or any other military organization, if they got the permission of the then Colonial Secretary.

Their intention was to erect a memorial in the centre costing about £400, the memorial taking the form of a cenotaph. In the final report of the N.W.C.A. they say that—

"The Government of Newfoundland will deliver the necessary block of granite free, and it is presumed that that includes freight in England."

Lord Morris, to whom the question was put, as to whether marble was obtainable in the Colony for this purpose, has offered to arrange for the necessary blocks to be delivered at the site, also free of cost, and it is now suggested that the cenotaph itself should be marble, while the column supporting it should be of granite, and that the Association should accept the generous offer of Lord Morris to supply the former."

This idea was all very fine if we had all our men buried in this cemetery; but where our men are scattered over fifteen different cemeteries, it cannot be expected of the Government to spend £400 on each; and it was entirely against the spirit of the Regiment and the principle of the Imperial War Graves' Commission that graves should be treated differently, our one idea being that officers and men, no matter in what part of the world they lie, should be treated in the same manner. I therefore ordered the Superintendent of Wandsworth Cemetery to forbid any work on the plot until the dispute was settled.

This was done at the conference between you, the Chief Staff Officer and myself last December, but I was not handed over the title to the plot or the permission of the N.W.C.A. who held the property until the 22nd April, 1920.

Transfer of Control.

I immediately visited the cemetery and made arrangements to have it put in first class condition. The work was in progress when the article appeared in the "Daily Mail." I have purchased the extra plots at the cost of £25. The Portland stone border, began by the N.W.C.A. is again in the hands of the monumental masons who are completing it, the plot is being sown instead of turted, and the London Command is erecting the individual crosses.

ALL EYES RIGHT ON Windsor Table Salt

Malle & Son, to whom the contract was given for cutting a central memorial, have the first cross almost completed, and I hope to have the cemetery in proper order by the 1st of July, on which date I propose to have the graves decorated.

Correspondence.

From the following correspondence you will see that the responsibility for the conditions spoken of in the "Daily Mail" does not rest either with your Government or myself.

I.

The Secretary, N.W.C.A.
Dear Miss Knox—I have been sent over by the Newfoundland Government to take over all graves of Newfoundland sailors and soldiers on this side of the Atlantic. I visited Wandsworth Cemetery and found that the N.W.C.A. have very kindly taken an interest in the graves there. I should be very pleased to know what the Association had proposed to do, and if anything has already been done so that we might work in unity.

Correspondence.

Yours sincerely,
T. NANGLE, Major,
O. C. Graves' Registration, Nfld. Regt.,
September 3rd, 1919.

Seven days later, receiving no reply, I called on Miss Knox; the following letter resulted:

II.

Dear Major Nangle.—In reply to your letter of the 3rd instant, and reviewing our interview of this morning with regard to the burial ground at Wandsworth, the question of dealing with this grave plot has been raised between this Association and the Government of Newfoundland on more than one occasion.

After the burials of our men at Wandsworth ceased, the Association decided to wall in the graves which they had purchased, and later to erect a permanent memorial.

Letters were addressed to the Colony, pointing out what had been done, and what was proposed, and saying that this Association would be glad to carry out any wishes the Government might have in the matter. No reply was received on the subject, and Mr. E. R. Morris was commissioned by the Executive Committee to ascertain the wishes of the Colony when he visited Newfoundland in May-July of this year.

On his return, Mr. Morris reported that he had received the authority of the Government that the erection of a permanent memorial, completing the grave plot at Wandsworth, should be left in the hands of this Association, and in accordance with this authority, the designs, estimates, etc., are being proceeded with.

All correspondence on the subject is at this office, and I shall be very pleased to go into it with you at any convenient opportunity.

III.

Dear Mr. Morris.—With reference to conversation to-day, I wish you would put before the N.W.C.A. my position as regards Wandsworth Cemetery.

(1) All men in the plot were members of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, and therefore should be treated in the same way as their comrades.

It would be invidious to single out a plot of 15 for special attention, even by the N.W.C.A., whose kindnesses extended to all members of the Regiment.

(2) The administration of all graves comes under Directorate of Graves' Registration and Enquiries, and the Imperial War Graves Commission no matter who bought the plot, unless there is written instructions from the Next-of-Kin of each man.

(3) It will be impossible for me to allow a £400 memorial at Wandsworth, while in other cemeteries graves are set up for paid for and unmarked.

Please make the Association understand that I do not wish to give trouble or annoyance, but I am the one responsible to the military authorities in this Country and to the Dominion Government. I do not wish to be placed in a false position, or allow the Government to get into one.

I shall be back from France about the end of September, and shall like to meet the Committee concerning Wandsworth.

The suggestions I should like to put to the Association would be; that it should confine itself to the erecting of Central Memorials in the four large cemeteries in United Kingdom namely:—Wandsworth, Brookwood, Ayr, Winchester.

While the erecting of the headstones and the arrangement and care of the plot should be left to me as representative of the Army Organization in charge of such matters.

I am sure that you will do your best for me, so that the Association will not think that I am trying to run them or cast any slur on the excellent work they have done for us during the past five years.

Yours sincerely,
T. NANGLE, Major,
O.C. Graves & Memorials, Nfld. Cont.
September 11, 1919.

The only answer the Association gave to this was their final report quoted by me above.

An 21st April, 1920, the Superintendent of Wandsworth Cemetery wrote Miss Knox, Secretary of the N.W.C.A. as follows; this letter was received by the High Commissioner on April 26 and handed to me.

IV.

Miss Knox.
Dear Madam—I shall be glad to know if you can let me know if anything is being done to replace the kerbing round these graves. I cannot do anything to keep the graves tidy until this has been done. They are not looking at all nice at present.

Correspondence.

Yours faithfully,
G. W. SNOW,
Wandsworth Cemetery,
London, S.W., 13.

21st April, 1920.
On April 22nd the High Commissioner wrote me the following, which I received April 26th on a visit to other graves in the U.K.

V.

Major Thos. Nangle, C.F.
Dear Sir—I would enclose herewith grant of Grave space purchased by the Newfoundland War Contingent Association, at Wandsworth Cemetery, the administration of which ground is now transferred to your Department.

As you have already been advised verbally, it is the wish of the Prime Minister in Newfoundland that the Memorial to be erected at Wandsworth Cemetery should be similar to those erected in other Cemeteries in the United Kingdom, and therefore the matter will be left to you to make arrangements for the erection of a Memorial of a similar Memorial to those chosen for the other Graveyards in this country.

The intention first of all was that the War Contingent Association would provide a Memorial at Wandsworth out of its funds. This, however, has been over-ruled, and presumably, the Government will choose and provide the Memorial desired at Wandsworth.

Correspondence.

Yours faithfully,
EDGAR R. BOWRING,
High Commissioner for Nfld.
22nd April, 1920.

VI.

The High Commissioner for Nfld.
Dear Sir—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 22nd inst., giving me permission to take up the completion of the Newfoundland plot in Wandsworth. I also acknowledge receipt of title deeds for same.

I am enclosing for your information (and return, please) the title deed of the Newfoundland plot at Kirkdale Cemetery, which I have had corrected by the Town Clerk of Liverpool.

Unless I hear from you to the contrary, I shall have the title to the plot at Wandsworth treated in the same manner.

At present there is another hitch with regard to completing our plot at Brookwood, as you will see from the enclosed letter from the London Necropolis Company.

I have also received a letter enclosing Admiral Fox's notes on the removal of bodies from enemy countries. My suggestion would be, as far as we are concerned, to have our bodies concentrated in a cemetery at Beaumont Hamel. I understand there are 32 bodies so affected.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,

Major Thomas Nangle, C.F.
Dear Sir—I am enclosing herewith an original letter dated 21st April, 1920, received from the Superintendent of the Metropolitan Borough of Wandsworth relative to the Graves of Newfoundland Soldiers in Wandsworth Cemetery.

It will be observed that the kerbing around the Graves is in need of attention, and I would be glad if you would take the matter up with the authority concerned so that the Graves at Wandsworth may not be neglected.

Yours faithfully,
V. GORDON,
Secretary for High Commissioner for Newfoundland,
26th April, 1920.

VIII.
Lieut.-Col. Durham,
Imperial War Graves Commission.
Dear Colonel Durham—I visited the Wandsworth plot this afternoon and found that none of the graves had been temporarily marked. I do not know whose department this comes under, but if not yours would you kindly forward this letter to the people concerned, as I leave for France to-morrow morning.

Enclosed is a complete list of the particulars for the crosses.

I might add that this plot was purchased by the Newfoundland War Contingent Association, and was only handed over to me this week. I am having the plot completed, Portland kerbed and turted. As soon as I have received all the final Verification forms from Newfoundland I shall send them on to you. When the headstones have been erected I will then be able to hand you over the plot complete.

I am, yours sincerely,
T. NANGLE,
D.G.R. & E., Nfld. Contingent,

Mr. George Snow,
Supt. Wandsworth Cemetery.
Dear Sir.—In confirmation of our conversation this afternoon and of an interview with the Town Clerk, Wandsworth, I send you the following information concerning the Newfoundland plot. Mr. Nicholl has agreed to convey to you and to Mr. Buchanan the boundaries of our plot. As soon as you receive it please make arrangements with Mr. Buchanan for the kerbing.

I am going to France to-morrow morning, but any information you require, kindly get in touch with my office. I am also making arrangements with the Imperial War Graves Commission to have the temporary crosses erected as soon as possible. Knowing you will do your best for me to get this plot in good condition,

I am, yours faithfully,

Dear Sir.—One of my helpers in connection with the Anzac Day Pilgrimage to the graves of the Australian and New Zealand Soldiers buried in the United Kingdom, has with regard to the Wandsworth Cemetery, written as follows:

"I was wondering whether we could possibly do something towards bringing the Newfoundland Government Representative to attend the graves of their soldiers. These graves are in an awful condition and one would easily pass them by without having the faintest idea as to their whereabouts. The only sign is a memorial stone in honor of the Newfoundland lads, but other than that, as I have already stated, no one would ever know that somewhere there lies the boys who have given their lives in

You are Welcome To this way to white teeth

All statements approved by high dental authorities

You see white teeth wherever you look today, for millions of people use a new teeth cleaning method. Leading dentists everywhere advise it. You are welcome to a ten-day test, and you owe it to yourself.

The method has now been found. Convincing clinical tests have amply proved its efficiency. And now the way is embodied, for daily use, in a dentifrice called Pepsodent.

Three unique results

Pepsodent is based on pepsin, the digestant of albumin. The film is albuminous matter. The object of Pepsodent is to dissolve it, then to day by day combat it.

Pepsin long seemed impossible. It must be activated, and the usual agent is an acid harmful to the teeth. But now a harmless activating method permits its constant use.

Two other new-day requisites are also found in Pepsodent. So this tooth paste in three ways brings whiter, safer teeth.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.

Results are clear and quick, and our book explains them. Make this test and judge them for yourself. Cut out the coupon now.

Film dims the teeth

The teeth's great enemy is film. It clouds their beauty and it destroys the teeth. Most tooth troubles are now traced to it.

Film is the viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. Very few people escape the effects of it.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhoea, which attacks 95 in 100.

The ordinary tooth paste does not dissolve film, so old methods fail to end it. Dental science has for years sought the right way to combat it, for tooth troubles have been constantly increasing.
