Presentation to a Popular Citizen

About thirty representative citizens spent a pleasant hour in the Armory Progress Club rooms on Friday evening last, the object of the gathering being a presentational presentation from the citizens of Watford to Mr. J. Walker McLaren, who on Wednesday last deserted the ranks of bachelorhood and took unto himself a wife, in the person of Miss A. L. Kelly, of Sarnia. The proceedings were very informal. Lieut. Col. Kelly presided, and in a few well-chosen words presented Mr. McLaren with a four-piece silver tea service and silver-mounted mahogany tray. The gift was a complete surprise to Mr. McLaren, but in a short reply he feelingly thanked the donors for the handsome gift and their kindness and good wishes. Short congratulatory speeches were made by D. and T. Roche, Rev. S. P. Irwin, J. McKeercher, E. D. Swift, E. A. Brown, W. S. Fuller, Dr. Brandon, F. K. Matthews, W. Harper, P. J. Dodds, T. G. Mitchell, R. C. McLean, R. E. Prentiss, R. Stapleford and several others who were present, all expressing the highest regard and esteem for Mr. McLaren as a citizen and wishing him and his bride much happiness and prosperity in their new sphere of life.

McLaren—Kelly

A quiet and pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kelly, Sarnia, on Wednesday, June 17th, at high noon, when their only daughter, Adeline Louise, was united in marriage to Mr. James Walker McLaren, of Watford. The house was beautifully decorated with quantities of margarites and roses. The Rev. Canon Davis performed the ceremony and Miss Edna Chase played the wedding march. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a lovely gown of ivory charmisse with rose colored tulle and Spanish lace, and bodice and tunic of Spanish lace, and rhinestone trimmings and large hat with orange blossoms and reached to the end of a long train. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Edna Ingram, wore a gown of ivory charmisse with lace and rhinestone trimmings and large hat with rose facings. She carried an armful of pink roses. Mr. J. H. Mitchell acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served, and later Mr. and Mrs. McLaren left on the 2.10 train for New York and Atlantic City, the bride travelling in a suit of rush green.

The Guide-Advocate joins with their host of friends in wishing the newly wedded couple much happiness.

Among the 34 divorces granted at the session of parliament just closed was that of John Robinson, of Broke, from Mabel Robinson.
Mr. Dan McVicar, 12th line, has recently disposed of a handsome saddle horse to Mr. Nichol, of Detroit, Mich., for a good figure.
Mr. Herbert Holbrook is a delegate from Court Pearl, No. 206, C.O.F., to the High Court meeting which is being held this week in Quebec city.

Christ Church garden party this (Friday) evening on the lawn of Mrs. J. H. Lucas, Sutorville. Good program, lots of strawberries and other good things.

Mr. C. Coristine and Miss Ada McGuigan, Walnut, contributed to the program at the lawn social held in connection with Guthrie Presbyterian Church, Alvinston, which was held at the home of Mr. McNell, 7th con., Broke, on Friday evening last.

Mrs. Robert Coristine, Walnut, received the other day from her grand-daughter, Alexandria Coristine, of Deep Creek, B. C., a bunch of Wild Mountain Roses, which for beauty and fragrance were equal, if not superior, to anything grown here, and were much admired by all who saw them.

The summer meeting of the Broke Women's Institute will be held on Monday afternoon, June 22nd, at half past two o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Peter McGregor, tenth line east. Mrs. F. D. Saunders, Rockford, Mich., will be present and give an address. Mrs. Saunders has taught for a number of years in rural schools. She has had considerable experience and has addressed public gatherings with great acceptance. The program will be interspersed by musical selections, and a lunch served afterward. All ladies are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

A strawberry social and entertainment under the auspices of St. Andrew's Church, Broke, on the church grounds, 10th line, Broke, on Tuesday evening, June 23rd, 1914. Brown and Dawson, of Inwood; Mayor Strirret, Petrolia; J. E. Armstrong, M.P. and others. Rev. N. A. Campbell, chairman. Admission, 25 and 15 cents.

Thomas Kennedy, another of the old pioneers of the district, passed away in the Sarnia hospital on Sunday, aged 87 years. Mr. Kennedy had been suffering from a cancer on the head for a long time but was able to be around most of the time and was in Watford doing business about three weeks ago. On Tuesday of last week he was taken to the hospital at Sarnia and died on Sunday. Deceased leaves a wife from whom he was separated many years ago, and two sons, George of Cleveland, and Alexander, who lived with him on the farm, lot 13, con. 13, Broke. The remains were brought to Watford and the funeral took place from the residence of his niece, Miss Coke, Front street, on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. S. V. R. Pentland taking the service. Interment took place at Mt. Carmel cemetery. Mr. Kennedy had many friends among his old neighbors. He was a staunch Liberal in politics and freely expressed his opinion on all matters in which he was interested.

The first garden party of the season to be held in this vicinity was the one under the auspices of West Broke Debating Society on the lawn of Mr. James Coke, on Tuesday evening of last week. The debates which were held during the winter by these debates were very interesting. It is customary for this society to close their meetings each year with a social function, and this year chose a garden party for which they need not be sorry. A splendid lunch was served by the ladies of the neighborhood and the booth was well patronized. The program was much appreciated, each number adding more to the enjoyment. J. Davis, Sutorville, acted as chairman in a very capable manner. The program consisted of solos by Miss Holbrook, Sutorville; D. D. Livingstone, Alvinston, and Cameron Coristine, Walnut; reading by Miss Roberta Griffith and Lulu Watson. Mrs. Taylor rendered some splendid piano solos, and another important item was an address by the present of the Society, Cameron Coristine. The successful entertainment was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

The Broke branch of the Women's Institute held their June meeting at the home of the Hon. President, Mrs. M. Campbell. A fair attendance of members and several visitors were present. The meeting opened with the singing of the Maple Leaf, after which the president gave a report of the convention held in Watford, giving some ideas of what some of the other branches are doing. The next part of the program was a short business meeting, after which roll-call, which was a "question drawer," was then responded to by some very helpful questions and answers. Mrs. W. McIlwain gave a very instructive paper on "Canning of early fruits," which contained many helpful hints for the canning season. Miss Jennie McIlwain then gave an instrumental solo, which was well rendered and very much enjoyed. Miss Hand, of the Alvinston branch, was present and gave an excellent paper on the "Food value of milk." The ladies were very grateful to Miss Hand for coming over and delivering such a fine paper. The meeting was then closed, after which the hostess served a very dainty lunch.

WOMAN IN TERRIBLE STATE

Finds Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cape Wolfe, Canada.—"Last March I was a complete wreck. I had given up all hope of getting better or living any length of time, as I was such a sufferer from female troubles. But I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am in good health and have a pair of twin boys two months old and growing finely. I surprised doctors and neighbors for they all know what a wreck I was.

"Now I am healthy, happy and hearty, and owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies. You may publish this letter if you like. I think if more women used your remedies they would have better health."—Mrs. J. T. COOK, Lot No. 7, Cape Wolfe, P. E. I., Canada.

Because your case is a difficult one, and doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has remedied many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and it may be exactly what you need.

The Pinkham remedy is a proud and peerless one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ills of women—ills that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

Books

Few finer tributes to books have ever been paid than this of Henry Ward Beecher: "When, one by one, a loving student has gathered from all departments of human learning a multitude of books, they are not alabaster vases filled with the sweetest perfume of the human soul, they are living creatures; they are companions; they have received the homage of our best hours. We have hung our hearts upon them, and as they sprang from the noblest parts of their authors, they are clothed with the noblest associations of our lives." Nothing gives more serenity to old age and so fortifies against inward and outward woes as a collection of good books. The young couple who are wasting their income in a mad effort to pace with all that shifting fashions demand in clothes could insure far greater happiness for the future by investing in a modest library as they go along.

Some High Ocean Waves

Regarding the greatest height of waves reported by different observers, Lieutenant Raffi, of the "Jules Verne," recently noticed waves of 66 feet in the Atlantic. But this does not appear to be the highest on record. In 1863 Admiral Fitz-Roy affirmed in his "Weather Book" to have seen waves of 80 feet. Captain Kiddle, of the "Celtic," observed 70 feet height, and the same figure is also reported by the commanding officer of the "Narung" in the region of the English Channel during the tempest of last winter which prevailed on the Channel and the North-Sea. It is not stated how the observers estimated the height of the waves, so that some latitude must be given on this account.

Expense vs. Savings

Dominion Department of Agriculture Dairy Division

Here and there one finds a dairyman who hesitates about taking up cow testing because of the initial expense of about three dollars for the necessary outfit of scales and bottles. This would seem to be an extreme case of "Penny wise and pound foolish." So many examples are constantly cropping up of distinct savings through the small expenditure that they should be noted for the encouragement of those who still hesitate.

Cows had been bought at auction time after time, discarded by owners who were evidently absolutely ignorant of their high value as good producers. After one or two months' test the new owners have often refused $50 and $100 on their bargains. That is a pretty quick return on the cow testing outfit expenditure. In fact amongst such discards at auction were picked up one or two world's champions, worth thousands of dollars. This vital fact should not be overlooked: Hundreds of poor cows are being kept today at huge expense of whose low value the owners are also probably ignorant. Yet a three dollar outfit would help discover them, soon turning the present loss into distinct savings.

Then, thanks to that small expense, many dairymen are now making an additional income of three hundred dollars from twenty cows, because the poorest have been discarded. It will abundantly pay every dairymen to keep dairy records.

MILK PER ACRE

Dominion Department of Agriculture Dairy Commissioner's Branch, Ottawa.

If it may be assumed that the farm of the average factory patron is fairly well adapted to dairying, that the patron himself is inclined towards dairying, rather than, let us say, fruit growing, and that his cows are fairly good, then it will be of interest to note how the farm is made to respond to this dairy inclination. There are frequently noticed yields as low as 250 pounds of milk per acre cultivated including pasture, but some good patrons obtain 750 and 800 pounds per acre. Even this is little enough, for there are plenty of authentic records of 1,100 and 2,100 pounds of milk per acre. It should not be extremely difficult to obtain more than this, even 2,500 or 3,000 pounds.

This latter figure is a long, long way ahead of the yields already mentioned of only 250 pounds which may be found on many a so-called dairy farm in Canada, and is indicative of the possibilities in reach of the factory patron who is really anxious to attain first rank. It is questionable if the average yield per acre in Ontario is much more than 600 pounds of milk. If loyal, whole-hearted support is given to the local factory and to our national industry of dairying, the farm and the dairy herd will be made far more productive. Great help will be derived by keeping individual records of each cow, because the old-established, complacent "average" cow has no intention whatever of assisting the average patron to get 3,000 pounds of milk from the average acre. The first necessary step is to know for certain that each cow is a good producer, then one may aim with more hope at $30 or $40 per acre.

BIG GRAIN COMPETITION

New Features of List of Canadian National Exhibition

A Grain and Sheaf Competition open to world is an added feature of this year's Prize List of the Canadian National Exhibition, which is now being distributed. The prizes in this competition are $100 and Medal each for Spring wheat, Fall wheat, barley, oats, Flint corn, Dent corn, beans and peas. All exhibits must be the product of the crop of 1913 or 1914 and be sent through the Minister of Agriculture, Commissioner or Secretary of the Province or State, or Officer in charge of an Agricultural Department. The exhibit shall consist of two bushels of grain in sack, accompanied by one sheaf of the same grain. Sheaves are not required for entries of beans and peas.

The other departments of the Prize List have been carefully revised, and the total amount to be awarded for Live Stock and other products of the farm and home is $55,000. The List has been specially framed to protect the interests of the small exhibitor.

The Grenadier Guards' Band from England will feature the music, while two concert bands will also be given by Creator's Band, the most famous concert band on the American Continent. The spectacle, "Babylon," is on a more magnificent scale than ever before, and the other special attractions promise to show marked improvement.

A Cure for Fever and Ague.—Disturbance of the stomach and liver always precede attacks of fever and ague, showing derangement of the digestive organs and deterioration in the quality of the blood. In these ailments Parnee's Vegetable Pills have been found most effective, abating the fever and subduing the ague in a few days. There are many who are subject to these distressing disturbances and to these there is no better preparation procurable as a means of relief.

Rural Ontario

Anyone who sees the magnificence of the country this season will find his natural pessimism cured. Rural Ontario is a land of promise. All the crops look wonderfully well, and as there is little danger of frost now, it is reasonable to believe that the agricultural yield for the year 1914 will be greater than ever.

It is not generally known that the field crops of Ontario greatly exceed in value the total yield of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Further improved methods of farming, due to the experimental and demonstration work of the Ontario Agricultural College, are increasing the yield annually. While the peach crop may be considerably below the average, there is reason to hope that other fruits, grains and roots will be better than ever.

The effect of a good crop, not only in the west, but in Ontario, will be an easing in the money market and a quickening of business conditions. The prairie is a treasure-house, but the good soil of this province, which nourishes the forest as well as the garden, is not yet doing its whole duty or returning to us all the wealth with which it is endowed.

Corns are cured by the pressure of tight boots, but no one need be troubled with them long when so simple a remedy as Holloway's Corn Cure is available.

A good way to kill June bugs is to hang a lantern over a pail of water with a little coal oil in it. The June bugs will fly against the lantern in their endeavor to reach the light and will fall into the pail below. The coal oil poisons them and they soon die. In this way sometimes a quart or so can be caught in one night. If every person would do this it would do away with a lot of June bugs.

COD LIVER OIL AND IRON

Two Most World-Famed Tonics Combined in Vinol!

Cod Liver Oil and Iron have proved to be the two most successful tonics the world has ever known—iron for the blood and the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil as a strength and tissue builder for body and nerves, and for the successful treatment of throat and lung troubles.

Two eminent French chemists discovered a method of separating the curative medicinal elements of the cod's livers from the oil or grease which is thrown away, but to these medicinal elements tonic iron is now added, thus combining in Vinol the two most world famed tonics.

As a body-builder and strength creator for weak, run-down people, for feeble old people, delicate children, to restore strength after sickness; and for chronic troubles we ask you to try Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

Lightning Rod Efficiency

LIGHTNING ROD EFFICIENCY

The Farmer's Mutual Lightning Protected Insurance Company of Michigan, as its name implies, insures only rodDED buildings, and that only after the Company's inspectors have carefully examined the rodding and approved of it. During 1909-1912, inclusive, in a business which for the four years totalled $55,172,075 risk this Company paid only $32.00 for damage to buildings by lightning, in three small claims, all traceable to defects in rodding which were overlooked by the Company's inspector.

The Patrons' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, which also does business all over the State of Michigan, insures both rodDED and unrodDED buildings. In the same four years, 1909-1912, this Company, on a total risk of $59,567,272, paid lightning damage on buildings to the extent of $32,268.78, which is 1008 times as much as the Protected Company paid. Of this loss the damage to rodDED buildings consisted of three small claims only—and 20 per cent. of their buildings are rodDED. Deducing these rodDED risks, we see that the $32,268.78 damage occurred on unrodDED risks amounting to $47,753,818. At this rate the loss on the $55,172,175 of unrodDED risks, the same as the Protected Company, would be $37,283, which is 1168 times as great as the loss on the same amount of properly rodDED buildings. Thus, when the damage to properly rodDED buildings amounts to $1.00 the damage to unrodDED ones amounts to $1168.00; or, in other words, rods have saved $1167 out of an expected loss of $1168, indicating an efficiency of 99.91 per cent., or $999 out of $1000.

His Wife's Reckless Gift to a Tramp of
One of His Battered Castoff Gar-

course on the Vice of Extravagance.
"A poor man came to the door this afternoon and asked if I had any old clothes I could spare," said Mrs. James-worthy. "I gave him those gray trousers of yours, as they were too badly worn out for you to use them again.
They were all faded and full of holes."
"The next time you undertake to distribute my raiment among the proletariat, Mrs. Jamesworthy," returned her grouchy husband, "you might at least consult me. You are assuming altogether too much when you take it for granted that I am done with a pair of trousers. As things are going now in the business world I find it expedient to wear such garments so long as there is any way to fasten my suspenders to them.
"Times are growing worse and worse, and the financial stringency is breaking all records, and the man who strives to support his family has troubles enough of his own coming to find the... of his bosom has given his... fine linen to somebody's...
"I had... to get two seasons' wear out... trousers, and I had a sentimental fondness for them, as I wore those trousers on that red letter day when, three years ago, I stood in the White House and proudly shook hands with the illustrious president of this great and glorious republic. I hoped to hand them down to my children's children, so that when I am cold in my grave they might contemplate those historic trousers with streaming eyes and recall the glorious occasion I have referred to. Now I no longer have a souvenir of my meeting with the president, and posterity is robbed of a great privilege by reason of your heedless course.
"I'd never think of giving away anything of yours without your approval, Mrs. Jamesworthy. Time and again I have been tempted to call in some poor but respectable widow with a large family to support and give her your false hair, which has become an eyesore to me, as I find it lying around wherever I go, but I felt it would be doing you an injustice and refrained.
Yet when an unknown hobo comes to our door asking for refreshments you hand him my cherished trousers, which are more to me than pride of ancestry or pomp of power.
"Your action is a fair sample of the extravagance which keeps men forever walking in the shadow of the poorhouse. I have no doubt that my sainted mother would roll over in her grave if she could know of such doings.
Under her wise and skillful management my father had a chance to accumulate a few pinsters for his old age. He wore his trousers until they were full of holes; then my mother took them and half sold them and made them as good as new, and he wore them for another term of years until it was impossible to tell what their original color might have been.
"When they were too far gone for further use mother made them over so the older son could wear them, and when he had used them five or six years there still was enough sound material in them to make a pair for the youngest son. I was that youngest son, and all through my boyhood and even in early manhood I was wearing expurgated editions of my father's trousers.
"You may make as many faces as you please, Mrs. Jamesworthy, and point the finger of scorn until the cows come home, but that doesn't change
the fact that it was economy of this sort that kept our parents in ignorance of such things as the bankruptcy court and the associated charities. When I had worn those historic trousers for a few summers and winters, until they would answer the purpose no longer, my mother cut them up into strips and made rag carpets of them, and those rag carpets were more sensible and more serviceable than the tailor made affairs you have strewn over these floors.
"After this, please, you will call me into executive session before giving away any of my habiliments, Mrs.
Jamesworthy."—Walt Mason in Chicago News.

CANDY RECIPES.
Old and New Ways of Making Sweets
For Children and Grownups.
No matter how much candy one is able to buy, there is a pleasure in making certain varieties of sweets at home.
Besides, the home manufactured product is much cheaper and purer than the kinds purchased in the shops for small sums of money.
When making candy granulated sugar is preferable. Candy should not be stirred while boiling, and cream of tartar should not be added until the sirup begins to boil. Butter should be put in when the candy is almost done.
Flavorings are more delicate when not boiled in candy, but added afterward.
Cocoanut cream candy is delicious made by this recipe: One cocoanut, one and one-half pounds of granulated sugar. Put sugar and milk of cocoanut together, heat slowly until the sugar is melted, then boil five minutes; add cocoanut (grated finely), boil ten minutes longer and stir constantly to prevent burning. Pour on buttered plates and cut in squares. The candy will take about two hours to harden. When cold cut into small squares.
Candied Popcorn.—Put into an iron kettle one tablespoonful of butter,
three tablespoonfuls of water, one teaspoonful of white pulverized sugar, then throw in three quarts of nicely popped corn. Stir briskly until the candy is evenly distributed over the corn. Take the kettle from the fire and stir until it is cooled a little and each grain is crystallized with the sugar and separate. Be careful not to burn the corn.
Cream Candy.—One pound of granulated sugar, three tablespoonfuls of vinegar, one teaspoonful of extract of
lemon, one teaspoonful of cream of tartar. Add a little water to moisten the sugar and boil until brittle. Put in the extract and turn out quickly on buttered plates. When cool pull until
white and cut into squares.
Ice Cream Candy.—Three cupfuls of
sugar, crushed or cut loaf; a little less than one-half cupful of vinegar, one
and one-half cupfuls of cold water,
piece of butter the size of a walnut.
Flavor with extract of vanilla. Boil
until it hardens, then pull until white.

Good Dishwashing Machine.
Dishwashing is still the bugaboo of
many women, so any device that can assist this part of the work deserves
to be used and used extensively. A new washer is just on the market
which has been tested with good results. The makers claim that it washes
the dishes from the average family
meal in three minutes. It washes the
silver and glass as well as the dishes,
and, as it uses boiling water, the dishes
need not be dried. It is impossible to break a dish with this washer, which
in itself is a wonderful recommendation.
It occupies the same space as a
kitchen chair and, as it is on rollers,
can be moved easily from place to place.

Cream Candy.—One pound of granu-
lated sugar, three tablespoonfuls of
vinegar, one teaspoonful of extract of
lemon, one teaspoonful of cream of tartar. Add a little water to moisten the
sugar and boil until brittle. Put in the
extract and turn out quickly on buttered plates. When cool pull until
white and cut into squares.
Ice Cream Candy.—Three cupfuls of
sugar, crushed or cut loaf; a little less
than one-half cupful of vinegar, one
and one-half cupfuls of cold water,
piece of butter the size of a walnut.
Flavor with extract of vanilla. Boil
until it hardens, then pull until white.

Good Dishwashing Machine.
Dishwashing is still the bugaboo of
many women, so any device that can
assist this part of the work deserves
to be used and used extensively. A
new washer is just on the market
which has been tested with good results. The makers claim that it washes
the dishes from the average family
meal in three minutes. It washes the
silver and glass as well as the dishes,
and, as it uses boiling water, the dishes
need not be dried. It is impossible to break a dish with this washer, which
in itself is a wonderful recommendation.
It occupies the same space as a
kitchen chair and, as it is on rollers,
can be moved easily from place to
place.

Miss McKenzie gave a two minute talk on the unusually large Institute which is doing splendid work in "Ralph Connor's" birth place. Arrangements were made for the delegate's meeting which will be held in Forester's Hall on the afternoon of June 25th at 2.30. The meeting will be addressed by Mrs. F. D. Saunders of Rockford, Mich., who has always lived on a farm and is much interested in rural life. Sudden Death of Enniskillen Farmer
Petrolia, June 16.—Mr. Thomas Tennant, one of the best-known farmers of Enniskillen, dropped dead to day at his home on con. 8. Although he had been bothered with heart trouble for several months, he was able to go to Bridgen yesterday. While sitting on a sofa this afternoon about 4 o'clock he fell over dead.
Mr. Tennant was 63 years old, and had been in the district about 35 years. His business was putting up frames for barns and houses, but some years ago he settled on the farm where he died. He came originally from near Guelph. Besides his wife he is survived by Oliver, at home, and a daughter, Mrs. A. Wills, of Enniskillen.

Robert G. King, notice of whose untimely death was recorded in last week's paper, was a son of Mr. James King, of Front Street, Watford. About eight years ago he married Miss Isabel Jane Moffatt, of the second line south, who survives him with their twin children Merton and Audrey, six years old. He is also survived by his father, three brothers and four sisters—Roland J. King, 6th line; Arthur J. and Albert E., of Regina; Mrs. J. J. Hastings, Watford; Mrs. A. W. McGregor, Regina; Miss Margaret King, Watford; and Miss Mary, of Regina. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon from the family residence, lot 5, con. 6, to the Watford cemetery, a very large concourse of people, attending to show respect for the deceased and his family. The service was conducted by Rev. S. V. R. Pentland, the pallbearers being three brothers and three brothers-in-law. After the church service the members of Court Pearl, 306, C. O. F., of which deceased was a valued member, assembled around the grave and conducted the last rites due a departed brother. There was a very large attendance of the members of the order. Much sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing wife and children who have lost a kind and loving husband and father so unexpectedly.

BABY'S HEALTH DURING HOT WEATHER
During the hot spell the health of baby must be carefully guarded. Diarrhoea, cholera infantum and dysentery carry off thousands of precious little lives every summer. Baby's Own Tablets are especially adapted to keep the little ones well during the summer. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach, and an occasional dose will prevent the dreaded summer complaints, or if they do come on suddenly the prompt use of the Tablets will set baby right again. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CHOP STUFF.
Look over the machinery and see that it is all ready for the field.
Oliver Dew is the new policeman for Forest. His salary is $450 a year.
Two thousand people attended the Glencoe horse show and celebration on the King's birthday.
Mrs. John McCort and daughter, Petrolia, have gone to Trinidad, where Mr. McCort has been for over a year.
The new G. T. R. depot at Thedford, now in course of construction, will be of the same design as the Watford station.
There will be a beekeepers' field day on the premises of Mr. R. C. Fretz, Forest, on Thursday, June 25th, at 1.30 p.m.
A peach orchard, the property of J. M. Henry, a lake front fruit grower at Leamington, containing about 2,500 trees, was found to be winter killed, and all will have to be dug up and replanted. The trees were three years old, consequently the loss is heavy.
The county council made a grant of $200 towards improving the townline of Plympton and Warwick, from Forest to the London road. This grant will be augmented by $200 each from Plympton and Warwick, and probably $100 from Forest.
A pretty June wedding was solemnized on June 3rd, at the Manse, Inwood, by the Rev. N. A. Campbell, when Miss Lillie V. Strangway, daughter of Mr. Thos. Strangway, of Enniskillen, became the bride of Mr. David Clark, of Enniskillen.

What Does It Mean?

All This Talk About Regina?

R. J. McCORMICK'S COLUMN

To the Electors of the East Riding of Lambton.

GENTLEMEN:— I am before you as a candidate to represent the East Riding of Lambton in the Ontario Legislature. I take this opportunity of soliciting your support at the coming election on June 29th. Owing to the shortness of the campaign it will be impossible for me to see you all personally, but will be grateful to all my friends who can mark their ballot for me on June 29th.

All my interests are centered in East Lambton, and should you instruct me with your confidence to represent you in the halls of the Legislature nothing in my power will be left undone to merit the trust reposed in me.

As a resident of the riding for many years my record is well known to many of you, and is, I trust, a guarantee that I will use my utmost endeavor to further the best interests of the country as a whole and East Lambton in particular. If returned as your representative the agricultural interests of the country will receive my best attention.

My record as a life long temperance man is known to many of you. I am a firm believer in the good old British maxim, "The Majority Rules," and will support any legislation for the repeal of the three-fifths clause now governing the vote on local option.

In regard to educational matters I consider the people are the best judges of their requirements, and am unalterably opposed to dictating to them what course they must pursue. "Trust the People," they seldom make a mistake.

The railways and by-corporations are not bearing their just share of taxation and any legislation tending to equalize this inequality will receive my hearty support. The farmers of Ontario have too long borne the heavy end of the yoke and it is time for a readjustment of the burden.

During the six years I have represented you in the Legislature I have, to the best of my ability, served your best interests. I have urged, and not without some success, the restoration of the Model Schools, and will continue to do so until there will be at least one Model School in each County.

I am highly pleased with the selection of Mr. N. W. Rowell, K. C., as leader of the Liberal party in Ontario, and I heartily endorse the platform he has submitted to the electors. The time has come where there should be a more energetic policy in regard to temperance, agriculture, colonization, taxation and moral reform, and under the leadership of Mr. Rowell such a policy will be pursued.

Any legislation emanating from either the Government or Opposition sides of the house, which, in my judgment I consider for the general welfare of the Province, will find in me an earnest advocate.

Trusting to receive your approval on election day,

I am, your obedient servant,
R. J. McCORMICK.
Watford, June 15th, 1914.

MR. McCORMICK'S SPEECHES.

ON THE BUDGET OF 1912
Speaking in the Legislature on Feb. 16th, 1912, Mr. McCormick said:

Mr. R. J. McCormick (East Lambton) was also severe on the education policy of the Government. He censured the Minister of Education for closing the Model Schools, and declared that children were being sent out for education every day with incompetent teachers to instruct them. He objected to the encroachment of the Legislature on the functions of the municipalities. "We do not leave enough to the Municipal Councils," he said. "They know their own business better than we do." He urged that the townships be divided into wards, and Councillors elected by that system. "The Liberals have a platform." Mr. McCormick went on, "but the gentlemen opposite adopt our planks as we bring them out," he said amid laughter.

ON THE BUDGET OF 1914

Mr. McCormick, M. P. P., for East Lambton in the debate in reply to the speech from the Throne in March, 1914, said he had the honor of presenting from his constituency the largest petition ever presented in the Legislature in favor of Tax Reform. Speaking of the necessity of this reform he instanced the old shacks in the best part of the city of Toronto, which were a disgrace to a progressive city like Toronto. The only way to remedy this condition of affairs was to apply the single tax principle to a large city like Toronto which would compel the owners of these shacks to pull them down and erect decent buildings or sell the property to some one who would erect buildings that would draw large rents. The present assessment system was opposed to the progress of any growing city.

In regard to assessment of farm lands he advocated a change in the Assessment Act whereby lands would be assessed at their full value and improvements at say 50 or 60 per cent. of their value which would be an encouragement to the progressive farmers, whereas the present system imposes a fine on him for being progressive by having up-to-date buildings.

Mr. McCormick also put up a strong plea for the Model Schools which were the poor man's school. The present system tended to handicap the poor man in preparing any of his family for the teaching profession.

The member for East Lambton has introduced in the Legislature a Bill along these lines, in regard to assessment reform by leaving it to the ratepayers of any municipality to settle by their votes how they shall assess lands and improvements.

At a meeting of the Enniskillen Council on Saturday Dr. F. W. Mulligan was appointed Medical Health Officer of the township.

ON THE SAHARA DESERT

A Story of Travel

By DONALD CHAMBERLIN

When I first became a globe trotter Africa claimed my especial attention, not that Africa occupied by negroes, but northern Africa, which fifteen or twenty centuries ago was a Roman possession and a part of the then civilized world. I resolved to travel through Morocco into the heart of the great Sahara desert.

When I first set up for a traveler and crossed the British channel I found on the other side of that narrow strip of water a different people, speaking a different language.

But the change there was nothing to that in crossing from Gibraltar to Tangier. On the northern coast I left a British fortress; on the southern I found an Arab city. In the one was the pompous military uniform of soldiers; in the other, the long, sweeping barracans of the native.

The centuries have passed lightly over these people, changing instead of destroying. This barracans reminds me of the toga of the Romans who in the golden age of the Eternal City subjected and occupied the African coast, and it has doubtless been handed down from the conquerors; only the toga was made of fine texture, while the barracans is of coarse cotton cloth. As to religion, there is not much choice between the ancient mythology and the superstitions of these swartly people.

At Tangier I obtained an outfit for my journey into the desert. To travel in such a country is a very different matter from journeying in a Pullman car or an ocean liner. I needed a number of camels, a considerable quantity of provisions, to say nothing of water, and a lot of servants and guards. The camels were to carry the provisions and water and camp equipment, consisting of tents, cots, bedding and table kit. The guards were for protection against bandits, who infest the desert.

When one considers that the Sahara desert alone is an area about equal to that of the United States, that it is a selves strong enough to attack us they would so so.

But in my case they found little encouragement. At least the game was not worth the candle. For the camels was the lives of a number of them. They have a wholesome dread of a European, and since my force was not only led by me—a white man—but well armed, they dared not attack us unless by stratagem. They could take us unaware or reduce our force. A plan to effect the latter object was put in operation while we were camping nights and traveling days.

One evening a band of Arabs came into our camp while we were getting ready for bed to ask for a little water. It was evident that they had called for the purpose of observation. There were as many of them as we were, and I was not sure but that they would attack us during the night. Just before morning, when the camp was wrapped in slumber and the sentinel would likely be drowsy, I heard the crack of a rifle. I arose at once, went out and found the sentry lying on the sand. I aroused the camp and sent men in different directions, while I examined the fallen man. He had been shot dead.

Those whom I had sent out returned, reporting that they had not seen a human being. One of them had seen a wolf, but that was all. Of course an enemy was near, but an Arab covered with his white barracans could not readily be distinguished from the sand unless he stands against the sky line. This he is sure to do if he desires concealment. He will lie down on the sand and pull his barracans over his dark body.

In the morning, having buried the dead sentry, we proceeded on our journey, re-establishing our camp in the evening. I was at a loss to know why the sentry had been shot, and during the night, being awake, I was thinking about what might have been his murderer's purpose when I was startled by another crack. I arose to find that another sentry had been killed. Again I deployed my men to hunt for the assassin, but not a living creature was to be found. He or they had excellent hiding ground among the sand billows, and the night was dark.

It was now plain to me that the Arabs who had visited us had done so to discover the number of our force. They had decided to reduce it by picking off a man every night until they had killed so many of us that they would feel warranted in attacking us. If they could appropriate an outfit it would be a fine property for them.

I confess I was staggered by their device. However, I set myself to meet stratagem by stratagem. The next night, after dark, I put a stake in the sand and on it fixed a dummy sentry by tying some of the fodder we carried for our camels about it and wrapping the whole with a barracans. Then I dug a hole, and after warning my men to sleep with their arms beside them and turn out on hearing shots I got into the hole with my rifle, intending to do the watching of a sentry myself.

Fortunately for my purpose there was a moon, though over it were thin clouds. It enabled me to see any moving object within a reasonable distance from my camp. I had been three hours or more in my hole and was getting cramped when I saw on the sky line of a sand billow some distance from me a black spot. It moved slowly down the side of the billow toward vast stretch of sand billows, that its storms are the movement of immense sand clouds, it is not remarkable that few Europeans venture upon it. The spirit of loneliness rests on the face of the ocean of sand. The only inspiring part of the time is the night. I would look up at the starry heavens, and surrounded as I was by a waste of sand billows, could the better realize the silent immensity of the universe.

The days being very hot, we usually traveled at night, resting under our tents by day. But during periods when the temperature admitted we would reverse the process. Night or day when resting I posted a sentry for the purpose of keeping out thieves. They would come to us on various pretenses—to ask for water, for information, indeed for anything that would afford an excuse for a visit. While with us they would purloin anything they could get their hands on. Their eyes were continually darting hither and thither for plunder, and if we were too vigilant for them they would observe our strength, our weakness, our vulnerable points; then they would go away, and if they considered them-and, getting into comparatively level ground, wandered about apparently without any definite purpose.

I was not long in discovering that it was some animal of the desert in search of food. It would scratch in one place, then in another, occasionally digging a hole. In its wandering it was constantly drawing nearer my camp. When it got within a couple of hundred yards facing the camp. At that moment the clouds on the moon thickened, and I could not see the brute. When the sky lightened again it had disappeared.

I was thinking that it had gone away when I heard a crack and my dummy sentry, the support of which had been fixed in the loose sand, toppled over at an angle of about forty degrees. I was about to jump out of my hole and run forward when it occurred to me that the animal I had seen was a man covered by the skin of a wolf; that when the moon was darkened he had got into a hole and shot my dummy. Had not I better wait a few moments to see if he would leave his hiding place? I did so, and fortunately my men slept so soundly that they did not interfere.

I had only to wait a few minutes when I saw the animal walking leisurely away. Springing from my hole, I ran after the beast, and when I had got pretty near to him I stopped, took careful aim and fired. I knew that I had hit him, for I saw him roll over. At the same moment one of my men came running toward me, and he was shortly followed by the rest. We found an Arab in a wolf's skin, dead.

With my whole force I scoured the desert in a circuit of half a mile, but found not a human or a brute being. Doubtless confederates of the man I had shot were not far away, but probably had scooped out the sand, got in the depression and covered themselves, leaving only their faces exposed.

The next night we dug holes surrounding our tents, and I put a man in each hole, getting into one myself. I knew, the Arabs' stratagem having been interfered with, they would not be likely to continue it, but I feared that, having reduced our force by two men, they might think it feasible to adopt some other ruse to get near us without our being aware of their approach and rush us. But we passed the night without seeing anything except the sand and the starlit heavens, the latter, in contrast with the former, of double splendor. Our enemies had either given up their intention or were attempting to pull us into a false security. Every night during the rest of our journey to the next oasis I posted guards in holes, but we were not disturbed.

After moving southward to the twenty-sixth degree north of the equator I turned my camels' heads to the eastward to 'Lidikee' and thence back to the Mediterranean sea through Tunis.

It may be asked, What was the journey for? Simply to gratify my desire to experience one of the many different parts of the globe and study the peculiar peoples to be found there.

An Oil of Merit.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is not a jumble of medicinal substances thrown together and pushed by advertising, but the result of the careful investigation of the curative qualities of certain oils as applied to the human body. It is a rare combination and it won and kept public favor from the first. A trial of it will carry conviction to any who doubt its power to repair and heal.

To hasten the mending of badly fractured bones an English surgeon has invented a system of screws to pass the pieces of bone and nuts to press them into position.

A clip to hold a lead pencil upon a finger so a writer will not have to lay it down when he wishes to use his hand for some other purpose has been invented by a Missourian.

Foolish Saving

A penny saved is not always a penny earned. Sometimes it is two pennies lost. The merchant who spends nothing on advertising loses much more than he saves.

The money spent for plate glass windows is not looked upon as lost; nor is the money spent on better interior lighting.

Anything that increases favor, that adds to sales, that multiplies customers is very properly regarded as a good investment.

Advertising is a good investment—just as plate glass windows are. Advertising sells more goods to more persons than shop-windows do.

A Great Curse

One of the greatest curses of this intellectual age is the great lack of a proper education of our girls in the practical affairs of every day life. They all want to be "school mams," governesses or the wives of rich men. House-work which should form the basic principal of our economic life, is shunned by them as something degrading. A young woman will stand behind a dry goods counter nine hours a day for a mere pittance, lose her health, become anemic and unfitted for the performance of her natural duties, rather than accept a position as a domestic where she would have a comfortable home, good health, and become properly fitted for the duties of a wife and mother.

The spiritual advance made by man is seen chiefly in this, that so much of the money he earns goes to the ministry of refinement, education, embellishment, to the wife and children he loves. But the woman sees no money for her toil. Her sufficient, her ample reward is in a husband, content, happy, growing in grace; in children bounding to gracious maturity.

There is just as much reason that a man should work within the house as there is that a woman should work outside the house. He is just as well qualified to work indoors as she is to work outdoors. It is just as much his duty to do the one as it is her duty to do the other. But it seldom or never occurs to his wife to ask him to do it, or to think that he ought to do it.

Death Not So Bad

The brimstone-preaching minister had been called upon to preach before a congregation known for their liberal views, and consequently careless of living. Sounding a warning which he thought would strike home the minister said:

"Hell, my friends, is lined with poker players, men and women who drink to excess, painted daughters of Jezebel, women in décolleté gowns and divorcees and the like." At that point a little red faced man with a high pitched piccolo voice, arose in the rear of the room and piped out:

"Oh, death, where is thy sting?"

HAVE YOU A BAD SORE?

If so, remember these facts—Zam-Buk is by far the most widely used balm in Canada! Why has it become so popular? Because it heals sores, cures skin diseases, and does what is claimed for it. Why not let it heal your sore?

Remember that Zam-Buk is altogether different to the ordinary ointments. Most of these consist of animal fats. Zam-Buk contains no trace of any animal fat, or any mineral matter. It is absolutely herbal.

Remember that Zam-Buk is at the same time healing, soothing, and antiseptic. Kills poison instantly, and all harmful germs. It is suitable alike for recent injuries and diseases, and for chronic sores, ulcers, etc. Test how different and superior Zam-Buk really is. All druggists and stores at 50c. box. Use also Zam-Buk Soap. Relieves sunburn and prevents freckles. Best for baby's bath. 25c. tablet.

Big Gusher Capped

OIL SPRINGS, June 11.—The immense gusher of the Oil Springs Oil and Gas Company, after allowing 50,000 worth of natural gas to escape into the air, is at last capped. Gangs of men working for several days continually were unable to plug the mouth of the well, with the pressure such as to cause a flow of 30 million cubic feet of gas a day.

Several "packers" were used up in the process, and twice the packer exploded. Finally a special device was ordered from a Pennsylvania gas firm and with it, under the direction of W. H. Aikens, of Brantford, part owner of the well, the operation of capping was successfully carried out.

There has been no diminution of the pressure, and the well, now that it is harnessed, is worth an immense sum. Casings of various sizes, filled with water in between, hold the fluid in leasb, and it only remains to install pipe lines and tap the inexhaustible supply.

The use of Miller's Worm Powders insures healthy children so far as the ailments attributable to worms are concerned. A high mortality among children is traceable to worms. These sap the strength of infants so that they are unable to maintain the battle for life and succumb to weakness. This preparation gives promise of health and keeps it. m

Lessening Fatigue

It is well known that it becomes fatiguing to carry a heavy weight in the hand, such as a valise, for any considerable distance, especially because it hinders the movement of the lower limbs. A Frenchman has found a way to prevent this inconvenience, which is as simple as it is practical, and all that is needed is to put under the arm a bulky packet, which is made up of a dozen newspapers folded together. In this way the handbag is far enough removed from the legs so as not to hinder walking with ease. He says that the fatigue is much less and the weight appears to be lighter.

A PROUD RECORD

The record of the Whitney Government is one to be proud of. It took power at a time when, according to Sir George Ross, the income averaged a million less per annum than the expenditure. It has wiped out the deficit. It has increased the grants to agriculture by $477,000 a year. It has increased the grants to education by $1,000,000 a year. It has given $180,000 more to hospitals and charities a year. It has increased the amount in aid of good roads approximately $186,840.00 a year. And, although paying the interest upon the loans made in order to carry through the Temiskaming Railway and the Hydro-Electric project, it has given us a surplus of the total amount for the nine years reaching no less than $1,463,029.

A MILLION MORE FOR EDUCATION

For education, including the grants to the schools, the outlays have been thus increased:— 1906.....$ 949,808
1910.....1,700,797
1913.....1,968,291
The increased grants for education, exclusive of the University aid, amounted in 1913 to $1,019,485 more than they were in 1904 under the former government. The larger sum is used in the improvement of the schools and in the securing for the people of a better and more useful education for their children.

MORE FOR AGRICULTURE

For agriculture, including the expenditures upon Colonization roads, the outlays have grown thus:— 1904 Agriculture.....$436,481
Colonization roads 176,820
Total.....$613,301
1913 Agriculture.....$695,391
Colonization roads 406,034
Total.....$1,101,425

PROMISES

The present Government, on assuming office, was pledged to carry out education.

al reform with the following objects in view:—

- (a) To secure the efficiency of the public schools, wherein 80 per cent. of the children get all their education. Some years ago about 95 per cent. were in the public schools. Since then the percentage has been reduced owing largely to the growth of the Continuation and High Schools under the present administration.
(b) To break up the school-book monopoly which had exacted high prices for inferior books.
(c) To place the Provincial University on a prosperous basis.
(d) To secure to the teachers higher salaries and better training, and a right to be heard on educational subjects.

HOW KEPT

Every one of these promises has been kept. The courses of study in both the High and the Public Schools have been brought up to date and carefully adapted to the necessities of the different parts of the province. The schools, both High and Public, have been greatly improved in efficiency and in accommodation and equipment. The school-book monopoly has been broken up and better books at much lower prices provided. The Provincial University is prosperous in the highest degree. Teachers are better paid and better trained and are directly represented in an advisory council. Liberal aid to both the primary and secondary schools has re-invigorated the whole school system.

TOTAL SAVINGS OF OVER ONE MILLION DOLLARS

Without including the total savings on the drawing books, which will exceed $20,000, the savings on public school text books during the term of the present contracts will exceed $845,500, and the savings on High School books will exceed $303,000. The total savings on all authorized text-books during the terms of the contracts will exceed $1,148,500. Deducting from this total the cost to the province in the form of payments to authors, printers and electrotypers, there will remain a net saving of at least $1,150,000. (Quoted from an official report presented to the Legislature, April 1914.)

WIDE APPROVAL OF TEXT-BOOK POLICY

Ontario's school-book policy has attracted wide attention and favorable comment not only in Canada but in the United States and Great Britain. In subject-matter and mechanical production the books rank with the best; in price they are the lowest on the continent. Ontario Readers have been adopted in two provinces. Exclusive of the Readers, twenty of the Ontario text-books have been adopted in one or more of the Canadian provinces and not infrequently at higher prices.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC RADIALS

The Legislature, at its last Session, amended the Act respecting Railways and approved of a standing agreement to be entered into, which forms part of the Act. The district known as the Markham-Uxbridge-Toronto system has been reported upon, and agreements are now being prepared preparatory to being submitted to the different municipalities for a vote at an early date. In addition to this, there are between 150 and 200 resolutions and petitions filed through the Attorney-General with this Commission, asking for service and estimates for Railway purposes covering the whole of the western part of the province, and a considerable portion of the east, respecting which an Order-in-Council has been granted authorizing the Commission to investigate. They will be taken up in due course, and already a number of survey parties are in the field in connection with this matter.

PERFECT HEALTH DUE TO THE BLOOD

No Girl or Woman Need be Constantly Ailing and Unhappy

Nature intended every girl and every woman to be happy, attractive, active and healthy. Yet too many of them find their lives saddened by suffering—nearly always because their blood is to blame. All those unhappy girls and women with colorless cheeks, dull skins and sunken, lustreless eyes, are in this condition because they have not enough good red blood in their veins to keep them well and in the charm of health. They suffer from depressing weariness and periodical headaches. Dark lines form under their eyes, their heart palpitates violently after the slightest exertion, and they are often attacked with fainting spells. These are only a few of the miseries of bloodlessness. Nothing can rescue girls and women from the inevitable decline that follows anaemia except a generous supply of new, rich, red blood, and nothing has ever proved so successful in creating red, good blood as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Thousands and thousands of girls and women owe their good health and charming complexion to the use of this medicine. Here is one example of its power to cure. Mrs. Rose Ralli, Toronto, Ont., says: "For a long time I suffered with anaemia, nervousness and general debility. In fact I was beginning to feel a positive wreck. I tried several medicines and emulsions. For a time I would feel better for taking them and then the effect would wear off, leaving me worse than before. The continued drain on my health altered my appearance, my friends telling me I had a haggard and worn appearance. This naturally did not help to improve me, as you know no woman likes to be told she looks "worn out." Finally Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were suggested and my husband got me a supply. I used them and found the result good—not only good, but the benefit lasting, and I am now enjoying perfect health, have a good color and have regained my natural buoyancy. I trust my letter of gratitude may be the means of helping others who are suffering as I was."

New health, new strength, new vitality, follow the fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can get them from your medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Waterworth-Smith

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the rectory, by the Rev. W. M. Shore, Warwick Village, on June 10th, the contracting parties being Annie May, youngest daughter of Joseph Smith, and Cleveland C. Waterworth, of Glencoe. The bride looked charming in a dress of white satin with trimmings of shadow lace. The bridesmaid, Miss Etta Hiscox, of Glencoe, wore pink silk. Jas. Brush acted as best man. After the ceremony the bride and groom presided at a light lunch served at the home of Mrs. Thos. Brush, Warwick Village, then left on the afternoon train for Blain and other eastern points. The bride's travelling suit was King's blue with hat to match. The large number of beautiful presents testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends. After their return they will take up their residence at Glencoe.
