BUY a high-class baking powder only. Others are wasteful. A dollar's worth of Royal will make more food than a dollar's worth of any other kind, however low the price. Royal makes perfect food; always light, sweet and wholesome. Other powders lose their strength when opened and will not always leaven alike, sometimes actually spoiling the cake and wasting expensive flour, eggs and butter.

Vacation Days in Nova Scotia

In its 1907 edition of "Vacation Days in Nova Scotia," the Dominion Atlantic Railway Company has produced one of the most beautiful and artistic guide-books ever issued by a transportation line.

The text is by Thomas F. Anderson, of Boston, the well known journalist and lecturer, himself a native of the Land of Evangeline and one of its most enthusiastic boomers. Mr. Anderson's well written description of the summer charms and natural characteristics of Nova Scotia leaves little to be desired. The atmosphere and beauty of Annapolis, the Minas Basin region, Halifax, the South shore, and other sections treated of are illustrated by reproductions and the most picturesque scenery and the most satisfactory and vivid than the beautiful nature photographs illustrating the accompanying text. The tang of the sea air, the wonderful changes of atmosphere, and the quaint and picturesque of romance and mythology that enter into the marvelous Nova Scotia composite are all unconsciously sensed by the reader, and the best part of it is that the descriptions are not overdrawn.

On the front cover of the book appears a bunch of Nova Scotia apple blossoms, in their natural colors, with the title across it in gut. On the back cover is a representation of two large Gravenstein apples, in their rich warm, natural markings, looking tempting enough to eat, and breathing the very essence of the Annapolis Valley in September. It is one of the finest examples of color work ever turned out from a press.

On the inside title page appears a striking picture of "The Old Acadian Homestead," and immediately following this is a full page view, in colors, of "A View of Beautiful Bear River, Looking Toward Annapolis Basin." This picture shows a group of typical Bear River cherry trees, with the ripe red fruit upon them, in the foreground the river winding away in the distance toward Digby. The photograph is by Hardy, of Kentville, and is a thoroughly characteristic bit of Nova Scotia scenery.

Scattered throughout the book are many exceedingly interesting illustrations by Notman, Harby, Fisher, Yates and other noted Nova Scotia photographers, and some splendid snapshots by Miss Edith S. Watson, the well known American artist, whose water colors of Nova Scotia scenery and characteristics have attracted much favorable attention.

There is an interesting chapter devoted to St. John and New Brunswick, and another describing the principal hunting and fishing points in Nova Scotia, with appropriate illustrations of life in the wilderness. A list of hotels and boarding houses is included.

Altogether, "Vacation Days in Nova Scotia" is a book which does both as a Company and the Province full justice.

School Board Elects Teachers

A special meeting of the School Board was held in the Clerk's office on Monday afternoon to consider the applications for the vacancies caused by the resignations of Miss Brinton and Miss Smith.

A number of applications were read by the chairman, Dr. Jost, and considered by the Board, upon which the application of Miss Una Cameron was accepted to succeed Miss Smith in the intermediate department and the application of Miss Whitman, teacher in the school at Iqeuille to succeed Miss Brinton in the preparatory department.

A Suggestion for Bridgetown

A Lunenburg exchange says:—If the town owned a horse the big item of expense of operating a sprinkling cart would be overcome. Bridgewater furnishes us with an object lesson. The town owns a horse which is used for trucking and in operating the street sprinkler. Last season the horse was employed 116 days on the street. The cost of keeping the animal, including all incidentals, was $107. Last winter the horse was hired out and earned the town something over $50. We believe it would be an act of economy for Lunenburg to purchase a horse, for street work and sprinkling purposes. The business men and citizens alike are clamoring for a street sprinkler to lay the clouds of dust. Council can ill afford to evade the issue. We trust that means will be provided to purchase and have in operation a street sprinkler this season.

Hair Caught in Separator Wheel Torn Out by Roots

Rothsay, June 3.—Elsie Prince, a young daughter of the late Robert Prince, of Jubilee station, met with a serious accident a few days ago at the home of her uncle, Lorne Prince, where she is staying. Her uncle had just finished separating the cream from the little fat run forward to stop the separator. Her hair caught in the cogs of the wheel, and in an instant her head was stripped, every hair seeming to be drawn from the scalp. It was a wonder the scalp was not torn from the little one's head, but a little fringe of hair was left in front. Dr. King, of Kingston, was summoned at once and attended the little girl, who is a great favorite with her relatives with whom she is stopping in the absence of her mother who is in Boston. It is stated a day or two later that the little girl was getting along nicely.

Paradise Agricultural Society Endorses Middleton's Claims.

Wants Experimental Fruit Farm Established There in Behalf of the Large Fruit Growing Interests of This Section

At a recent meeting of the Paradise Agricultural Society the following resolution was moved by H. A. Longley, seconded by F. W. Bishop and passed unanimously:

That, whereas, we learn that it is the intention of the N. S. government to establish in the near future an experimental fruit farm at some point in the Valley not further east than Wolfville or west than Middleton;

And, whereas, it is in the western counties of our province, from Lunenburg to Annapolis inclusive, that the greatest development of the fruit industry must be expected and the battle waged against the pests both animate and inanimate with which it is constantly menaced, the name whereof is legion;

And, whereas, the town of Middleton owing to its position as a railway centre is especially fitted to be the seat of such an institution, e. g., from the east as far as Kingsport and Windsor, south to Caledonia and Lunenburg and west to Annapolis Royal, parties can visit Middleton, remain several hours in town giving ample time to visit the McDonald Consolidated School also, if desired, and return the same day. Passengers waiting for trains, who daily appear several cars in the station, could enjoy the benefit or the diversion of such an institution practically without any expense either of time or money.

And, whereas, there are already two experimental farms located in the eastern part of the province which cater principally to stock raising and those branches of agriculture which are the specialties of the eastern counties and from which we of the west can derive but little benefit it would seem to be eminently in accord with "the eternal fitness of things" that the proposed experimental fruit farm should be established where it can best minister to the interests of the western counties in which fruit growing is constantly becoming more and more the specialty of agricultural industry.

And, whereas, the enterprise could doubtless be equipped and maintained more economically at Middleton than at any place further east, real estate being cheaper, and co-operation along certain lines with the Consolidated School perhaps not impracticable.

Therefore, resolved, that in the opinion of this society, the location of the proposed experimental fruit farm at Middleton would be par excellence, the just, expedient and proper thing, and greatly to be desired in behalf of our fruit growing industry. Furthermore we desire to emphasize the possibility; and, we would vainly hope the probability of the scope of the institution in question being enlarged, in the process of time so as to cover other branches of agriculture and thus, eventually, to supply all the requirements of the western portion of the province along these lines.

'THERE IS NO PLACE LIKE NOVA SCOTIA.'

An Englishman in Granville. Strongly Recommends This Province as a Field for Settlers Who are Willing to Work.

The London Canadian Gazette prints the following letter from an Englishman in Nova Scotia in reply to a prospective settler:

"Mountain Farm, Granville, N. S. "Dear Sir,—Your letter dated March 11 to hand, and I will try my best to answer it, and as an Englishman I think I understand you a little better than a Nova Scotian, having been in the same box myself fifteen years ago, when we came out here from a town close to your own. "I can only speak of Nova Scotia, as I don't know anything of Upper Canada. I found the first thing was to get used to the country and the people, and the people get used to you, and if a man will work there is plenty of work to do. I don't say a man can make a big pile of money in a few years, but he can make a good living, and more besides. If the young people that go from here to the States and North-West would only work as hard here as they have to there they would do well here. "When we came out, with four small children and hardly any money, the first year or so was quite hard. We had no one to show us and had never done any farming—that's what made it hard—but when the people got to know us there has been no trouble to get a good living. You ask about the small towns and markets that are there, but I may say these small towns get through a large quantity of stuff—then we have larger markets, as St. John, N. B., Halifax, N. S., Yarmouth, N. S., and others, and the most of getting your produce to these places is not great, as a barrel of apples (three bushels) would cost 10d.; but close to these towns living is much lighter and the farms likewise, in fact out of the reach of us poor Englishmen. I may tell you here that the Nova Scotians think a lot of an Englishman, and think that, coming from England, he must have lots of money, and the first thing they do is to try and get it out of him—if not one way, some other, but, take them all round, they are very nice people to

The Town Council Enacts New By-Law

A meeting of the town council of the town of Bridgetown was held in the Council Chamber, June 3rd, 1907, at 8 p. m., with Mayor Lockett in the chair and councillors present as follows: Longmire, Freeman and DeWitt.

Ordered that the following bills be paid: M. K. Piper, $15.25; William Hudson, $9.44; George Robinson, $1.88; Charles Berry, $1.38; William H. Balfour, $0.53; E. A. Craig, (commission on collecting $100.00) $5.00; Alden G. Walker, for 50 tons of gravel, $20.00; Robert Burns, $2.15.

An application for water to be supplied to the premises of W. A. Marshall was read and the consideration of it was postponed.

The following by-law was passed:—Be it enacted by the town council of the town of Bridgetown and it is hereby enacted subject to the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council as follows:—

The Town of Bridgetown shall have the right to refuse to supply water to any premises occupied by a tenant, to be used by such tenant, if such tenant is indebted to the town of Bridgetown for water previously supplied unless and until such tenant pays and discharges such previous indebtedness.

Ordered that the Clerk hand to Mr. E. A. Crowe a list of persons indebted to the town for water showing the amount of indebtedness of every person named in such list and that the Clerk instruct Mr. Crowe to shut off the town water from the premises occupied by each person named on such list.

Minutes read and approved. Council adjourned.

Infant Perished In Fire

Elmsvale, Musquodoboit, June 2.—A little boy, a year old, son of William Cooper, met death here this afternoon in a burning house. The house was owned by Thomas Cooper, and occupied by himself, his son, William, and family, and Mrs. Sarah Glenn, a sister of the late Mrs. Thomas Cooper, and well known in Halifax. The house was somewhat isolated and the fire caught about five o'clock at which time only Miss Glenn and two boys were at home, the other residents being some distance away looking after cattle, etc. Miss Glenn and the second boy had a narrow escape, and the lady was badly burned. She was assisted out by people who happened to be passing by as the house was soon enveloped in flames and it was impossible to rescue the year old boy. The house was totally destroyed with all its contents.

The Ideal Laxative for Children

Mothers cannot be too careful in what they give children to move the bowels. Calomel, pills, castor oil, and purging mineral waters irritate the bowels—upset the stomach—and eventually lead up to chronic non-action of the bowels—Constipation.

Fruit-a-lives

(OR FRUIT LIVER TABLETS) are the finest medicine in the world for children.

It is just like giving the little ones apples, oranges, prunes—because "Fruit-a-lives" ARE the juices of these fruits—but so combined that the medicinal action is increased many times. Fruit-a-lives are perfectly safe for the children. Keep a box always in the house. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50. Sent on receipt of price, if your druggist does not handle them. A newspaper is in no sense a child of charity. It earns twice over every dollar it receives, and it is second to no enterprise in contributing to the up-building of a community. Its patrons reap far more benefits from its pages than its publishers, and in calling for the support of the community in which it is published it asks for no more than in all fairness belongs to it, though generally it receives less. Patronize, and help your paper as you would any other enterprise because it helps you, and not as an act of charity.

Nova Scotia Bear Story

"Hannah," said Mr. Embry, setting down the pail of milk with a jar that sent their brimming contents over the kitchen table. "There's a bear prowling round these premises and I mean to have his skin before another morning. Where's Sally?" "Coming, Daddy," called a fresh young voice from the chamber above. "You've scented bears before now, Ezra," said Aunt Hannah, sententiously, "but I've never seen their pelt. Where did you find the tracks this time?"

"There aren't any tracks, but signs are as good as tracks to them who know." "Hump!" ejaculated Aunt Hannah. "Two straws on a stone don't make a duck's nest." "But straws tell which way the wind blows, don't they, Daddy?" called the fresh young voice again, and Sally came skipping down the stairs, jumping out on the right the last three steps.

"You'd better stay up and finish your spinning," said Aunt Hannah, reaching out an accusing hand for the tattered gray rolls clinging to the girl's shoulders and skirt. "I need the yarn to set up my piece on Monday, and you've only just begun your seat." "But I can't stay up spinning," said Aunt Hannah. "Girls have no call to hunt bears," said the worthy aunt. "It's time you put on woman's ways."

"O, she's prim enough in company, Sister," put in Mr. Embry, not without reason, "but her favorite daughter should have no undervalued, especially at this juncture when he needed her help. 'Settle as a basket of chips, eh, Sally?'" "Well, I don't know what her mother would have made of her if she'd have lived," sighed Aunt Hannah. "I give her up for an idle girl, tramping the fields and teaming the horses to mill, and you encourage her to it, Ezra."

But neither father nor daughter heard the words. "I hear there's a bear about here," said Sally, "and I do help you often," said Sally. "And I'm ready now for anything you are. Where did you track the bear?"

"There were no tracks, I tell you, but I'm sure a bear was in the woods last night. The sheep were huddled in a close heap in the pen this morning, and not one would budge for his salt. Old Rose and Brindle were that scared and nervous. I could hardly get down their milk. We must have a trap," said the girl. "Let's hunt him instead. I think I could shoot a bear."

"You're not likely to have much of a hand in the hunting," said her father indignantly. "But you can help me with the trap. We'll build a dead fall. Get your bonnet and bring along the fowling piece, in case we sight him while we work." "I don't think I'd go in," said Sally. "Aunt Hannah will only scold and I might not get out again."

"That's so," assented her father. "Sometimes I don't know myself whether I'm afoot or horseback when she gets one of her spells of setting all us in order—but she means us all right. I'll get the gun and you find the axe and some rope."

"Come along," he called a few minutes later from a field behind the house. "Why have you got all that meat?" she asked, joining him with axe and rope. "Aunt Hannah is planning on that mutton for dinner to-morrow."

"I know, but I sneaked it off. We've got to have bait. If we don't catch this creature now there'll be no sheep left to eat. I'm certain he's taken it already. Give me the axe. I want to cut a likely log for the trap if I see one as we go along."

"I don't see why it needs the whole quarter of lamb," said Sally, reluctant to miss the savory dinner. "You can't bait a bear with old bones or soap grease," answered her father. "Nothing ventures, nothing have. I've made up my mind to kill the thieving critter, he's likely to carry off our pigs if he gets the run of the farm. It's mighty funny, too, the way a bear will get a pig. I've known one to walk right up to a pen, lift out a pig and trot off, walking on his hind legs and hugging the pig close in his fore paws, squealing like mad all the time. "Now I think of it, that little shanty we had for sugaring off will answer for our deadfall. The end is open and we can easy rig a pole to hang the meat, but we've got to have a heavy log for the drop. We won't have as much work as I expected. A deadfall is a long job to build out right, if you were a boy we wouldn't bother with a trap, but track him down. He's around this thicket some where, I'll be bound."

"I don't mind trying it. I'm not afraid," said Sally energetically. "You'd sing another tune at close quarters," remarked Mr. Embry. "We will make our trap. You go on with the meat and the gun; there is a pile of stone back here and I can bring up a few to weigh the pole. But he had not reached the stone heap when Sally's voice rang out: 'Father! The bear! Quick!'"

Pushing through the clearing to the sound of her cry he came upon the scene. In front of the little hut, which had evidently been used as a shelter, was an enormous she-bear with two cubs. Between Mrs. Brain and the girl was only a windfall of two old hemlock logs. The bear's grizzly head reached across the trees and she could easily tear away the brush beneath.

The man stood horror struck. "Give me the axe," cried Sally. "I'll pound on the logs while you shoot. Quick!" She passed over the firearm in exchange, and brought down the heavy axe with such force that the great black creature retreated for an instant.

"Why don't you fire?" she cried. "The old blunderbuss won't go off." "I'll sing another tune at close quarters," remarked Mr. Embry. "We will make our trap. You go on with the meat and the gun; there is a pile of stone back here and I can bring up a few to weigh the pole. But he had not reached the stone heap when Sally's voice rang out: 'Father! The bear! Quick!'"

Prominent Resident of Bear River Dies in Boston.

(B. R. Telephone.)

A telegram on Wednesday afternoon brought the sad intelligence of the death of Alpheus Marshall, a highly respected, honored and prominent citizen of this town, which occurred at about three o'clock on that day, at the City Hospital, Boston, after a few days illness. Mr. Marshall left here two weeks ago in good health and spirits, accompanied by Doctor and Mrs. J. J. Lovett, he to have an operation for the removal of a growth from his face. The operation was successfully performed and he was expecting to leave for home Thursday, but the latter part of last week he in some way contracted a severe cold which developed into erysipelas and pneumonia, which proved fatal. On Monday his son, A. B. Marshall, received a telegram stating his illness, and Mrs. W. G. Clarke, and Mr. Charles, left for Boston. When they arrived Mr. Marshall was rapidly sinking and unconscious.

He was born at Marshalltown, Digby County, on December 25th, 1823, and for a few years clerked for his brother in Digby. Fifty-seven years ago he came to Bear River and engaged in the mercantile business and ship-building, which he successfully carried on for a number of years, retiring from active business some ten years ago. In 1854, he married a daughter of the late Alexander Hardwick, who still survives him. He was an active member of the Methodist Church, which he joined soon after settling here, having held the office of steward for many years. He was also an honored member of Keith Lodge A. F. and A. M., of which society he had been treasurer for several years. He was looked up to as an honest upright christian gentleman and, being of a benevolent nature, he was foremost in all things that pertained to the advancement of the kingdom here upon earth, and the welfare of the community. Being of a cheerful disposition he was loved and respected by all who knew him, and will be greatly missed. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. Dr. D. H. Wilson, of Barrington, Mrs. W. G. Clarke and Mrs. Dr. L. J. Lovett, of this place, and one son, Alpheus E., doing business here, who mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father.

Ezra, she remarked, "you generally know a good many things that aren't so, but you certainly hit it right this time."

"Yes'm," said Ezra, generously accepting the proffered praise and peace. "I'm not dead yet, nor buried, and I reckon I know a bear when I see one and bring 's down too."

"No, girl, not without me," put Sally modestly.

"No, girl, not without you," and he told the story of her bravery and skillful manoeuvres with the axe. "For sheer pluck and daring," she boasts all the bears I ever saw," he concluded. "Every cent of the bounty money shall be hers, and the skin, too. The meat and grease will bring in a snug sum besides."

Sally bore her honors with becoming grace and good sense, content to let her father sound the deed abroad. The story was told all through the county. Aunt Hannah was wont to remark, in her own recounting of the tale, that it was all due to the fact that she hadn't moved the girl up in the house as many women did, but let her have her freedom and get used to the birds of the air and beasts of the field, whereat Sally would smile quickly.

With help of the neighbors the huge beast, weighing over three hundred pounds, was brought to the house, and skinned. The hams, cured and smoked, were taken in winter time to Halifax, where they were purchased for fabulous prices by the officers of the regiment, and Miss Sally's health gallantly drunk at the feasting, for in some wise the tale of the girl's share in the capture had come to the boys' ears. The fat of the huge carcass, carefully prepared after one of Aunt Hannah's famous receipts, (was converted into an unguent ointment rare to get, and every bean in the countryside was presented with a cake of the pomade.)

The retreating cub must have told the news to beardom, and if he lived to fight another day, ventured not again on the old hunting ground. For though Sally and her father made many plans and laid many a deadfall, never afterward was a bear seen about the Salem farm, and never a skin beside the one shaggy hide adorned the side of the Congregationalist and Christian World.

A Blended Flour

(of Ontario and Manitoba Wheat)

Makes the WHITEST BREAD
" " " LIGHTEST BISCUITS
" " " TASTIEST PASTRY
" " " DAINTIEST CAKES

BLENDED FLOURS are TWO flours in one. The famous Bread and Pastry making qualities of Ontario fall wheat—are combined with Manitoba spring wheat, which adds strength and nutriment.

BLENDED FLOURS are not only the best for all home baking—they are also the MOST ECONOMICAL. They yield MORE bread, cake and pastry to the pound than any other. Try it, and you will use no other.

"Made in Ontario"

This is the sign of a Blended Flour

Look for it whenever you buy.

"PAGE FENCES" WEAR BEST

Made of High Carbon Wire—will prove it to you. COILED—not crimped. This makes it still stronger in service. It stays painted white over heavy galvanizing—rust proof. Recommended dealers to erect it. Leads all in sales and in quality. Get illustrated booklet and 1000 prices before buying.

(E. B. Parker, surveyor, went to Tupperville, on two weeks work for Messrs. Dickie & McGrath.
Charlton Mullen and daughter,
Edith, of Digby, spent Sunday here
the guests of his brother, James Mullen.
Miss Bellie Purdy arrived from Boston Wednesday to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Josiah Purdy, Lansdowne.
Miss Hattie Harris and friend, Miss Latterson, of St. John, spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. R. D.
Harris, the past week.
Miss Ida M. Newcombe, returned missionary, will speak under the auspices of the Mission Band in the Baptist Church on Sunday evening. All are cordially invited.
Among those who left this week to attend the closing exercises at Acadia were Rev. I. A. and Mrs. Corbett, Mrs. J. J. Dunn, Mrs. Chipman Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clarke and Mrs. W. E. Miller.
A mistake of ten points was made in the summary of scores, Bear River vs. Round Hill, on the 21th, an account of which appears in another column. Round Hill won by 36 instead of 16 points.
The remains of Thomas Anthony, who died at the Boston City Hospital March 21st, aged 67 years, arrived here on Wednesday of last week and were interred in Mt. Hope Cemtery. They were accompanied by his wife and daughter, Mrs. Lavinia, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Burgess Rice.
A match game of base ball was played on the Oakdale grounds on the 21th between a nine from the Young Men's Social Club and a picked nine of the young men of the town, in which the latter came off victorious, the score being well up in double figures. J. Arthur Rice umpired the game very satisfactorily.
Early yesterday (Thursday) morning Dr. L. J. Lovett was summoned to Lake Jolly to attend Kenneth Leitch, who met with a bad accident in the mill there. He was working at the edging table when the saw threw a board back, striking him near the groin and it was feared breaking both legs. At present a writing was could not get full particulars as the doctor had not returned.

"Pop," he began, "you know that Wilkins case you've been trying for the last two years?"
The Congressman nodded.
"Will," said the young man, "I've settled it!"
"Settled it?" ejaculated his father.
"Settled it? Why, my boy, I gave you that case as an annuity!"

Miss Mildred Small is spending the week at Bear River.
Mrs. Everett Morgan and son, of Gardner, Mass., are visiting at Jesse Porter's.
Miss May Porter, of Gardner, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Jesse Porter.
Miss Filly Berry is visiting at Glenmontport.
Robert Berry is recovering from his illness.
A number of our young people attended services in Bear River Sunday evening.
Mrs. Jeleg Dufts, who has been quite ill, is recovering.
Rev. I. A. Corbett has organized a Mission Band in the place.
Archie Trevoxy spent Sunday with his parents at Brighton.

SMITH'S COVE.
Daniel H. Spragg died at his home here on Tuesday night last. He was seventy-five years old and is survived by a widow, who is a sister of William Hunt, keeper of the light-house.
The funeral took place Thursday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Carter. The late Mr.
Spragg removed here from St. John about two years ago for the benefit of his health, he having suffered from a stroke of paralysis. Prior to his affliction he ran a grocery business
St. John, and continued in the same business here on a small scale. The immediate cause of death was heart disease, and the end was very sudden.
Deceased was highly respected in the community, and much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Spragg in her bereavement.
Miss Lillian Winchester is visiting her brother, Lovitt Winchester, at South Maitland.
Quite a number of nests of the brown-tail moth have been found here. A lively war is being waged against them.
Charles L. Merritt, operator at Windsor Junction, spent a day or two at home recently.
Squire Potter has purchased the Gillitt property, three hundred dollars being the price paid. Mr. Potter bought for Mr. Buchner, manager of the Standard Oil Company's Boston office. Mr. Buchner will fit the house up for a summer residence.
Mrs. J. H. Dowley has resumed house-keeping at her old home, "The Hillside."
An agricultural meeting was held in the Hall here last Saturday night.
There was a large attendance and the addresses were very instructive.
Several car loads of turnips have been shipped to the Boston market lately. A good price was realized on all the shipments.
Stanley Weir is going into the raising of strawberries on a large scale. He has prepared two acres of ground for the setting out of plants, and will push the business with all possible vigor. His friends feel that Stanley will be successful.
A. H. Weir has put his gasoline launch in commission for the summer, and is prepared to run excursions
and do some towing.

THE SECRET OF CRISP PASTRY.
Keep these things in view, if you want unvarying success with your pastry—cold water, good shortening, and Blended Flour.
Ice water and butter are preferable, but 7 may be more convenient to use cold water and some other good shortening. But stick to the Blended Flour. It will never fail to give a light, flaky crust—so tender it will break with a breath, and as easy to digest as it is delicious.
The wholesomeness of the crust depends on the lightness of the flour—that is, the crispy flakiness that you look for in pie crust must be made of flour having a large percentage of starch. Ontario fall wheat contains all the requisites for light pastry, cake and biscuits, while Manitoba wheat has the heavier properties required in a strictly bread flour.
Combine the two, and you will get a perfect flour, that has the full rich flavor and delicious of Ontario fall wheat, and the strength of Manitoba spring wheat—an ideal combination.
With ordinary care in mixing and rolling the dough, Blended Flour will give you the most delicious pastry you ever ate. Many millers are now blending these two grades of flour scientifically, so do not attempt to do the blending yourself—it is no easy thing to get just the right proportions. 22

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5, 1907.

The action of the Bridgetown Branch of the S. P. C. A. this week as reported elsewhere, will meet the approval of all good citizens. This is only the second action taken by this association and in each case conviction has resulted. Cruelty to animals is a form of inhumanity which is becoming intolerable among civilized people and incalculable good is being accomplished by the society with the long name. It would be a creditable thing to follow up this action by putting an end to the existence of some miserable specimens of horse-flesh daily seen on our streets.

We are requested to advise our readers that no more bounty will be paid on Brown-tail Moths after June 1st. In a personal letter to the editor or Principal Cumming, of the Truro Agricultural College, says: "I am pleased to inform you that a large number of nests have been destroyed by this means and am thoroughly pleased with the publicity which you have given to this matter. Your assistance has meant a great deal to the fruit growers of the Valley."

A MATTER OF VULGARITY.

(From the Toronto Globe.) National vulgarity will linger with many long after personal vulgarity has been refuted away. It is quite as vulgar to boast of one's flag as to boast of any other treasured possession or quality. It is as vulgar to flaunt one's flag as to flaunt one's wealth—as vulgar to dress in a guest or stranger on account of his flag as on account of his dress or personal appearance. The aggressive display of a flag or any other national emblem in a foreign country shows a decided lack of good taste. But all who encounter such vulgarity should reflect with Marcus Aurelius, that it cannot injure them unless they injure themselves by descending to retaliation or antagonism. It requires time and favorable influences to eradicate certain undesirable qualities, and the people who can become courteous and gentlemanly in personal matters can develop the same qualities in regard to international affairs. In Winnipeg there was not even the poor excuse of an affront by the extravagant display of a foreign emblem. Our guest has been insulted within our borders, and it remains for us to express our deep and sincere regret.

The Flour of the Family

Spring wheat makes strong flour suitable for bread only—lacks the delicacy and flavour of Fall Wheat.

BEAVER FLOUR

a blend of both, combines the best qualities of Manitoba Spring Wheat, Ontario Fall Wheat—the best family flour. Makes light nutritious bread; delicious pastry.

A WARNING TO SPITTING LOAFERS.

(Truro News) A prominent citizen gives fair warning through this paragraph in the News, that he personally will prosecute the gang of young men, who loaf at the doors or vestibules of business houses, from Snook's corner to the E. A. Smith & Co.'s corner on Sundays, especially in the afternoons, and cover the asphalt pavement with their dirty, disease-breeding expectorations.

The Halifax Herald says:—The expectorator has better beware. The Halifax Board of Health is about to get after him. Acting upon the suggestion of Ald. Powell, who has just returned from the West, the Board decided to make a regulation against expectorating on the sidewalks, and they will have signs prepared with the words "Don't spit on the sidewalk." These signs will be nailed on electric light or other poles at street corners. Dr. Hawkins said that in Ottawa they had a good system. They had the signs, but each policeman was furnished with cards with the regulations printed thereon. When the officer saw the man expectorate he would walk up to him and hand him one of the cards. If still persisted he would apprehend him.

The preliminary trial in the Emmerson-Crockett libel case was closed on Monday morning when the defendant Crockett was sent up for trial before the Supreme Court.

Kenneth Leitch, of Greywood, sawyer in Clarke's mill at Lake Jolly, died Monday night as result of injuries received in the mill last Thursday. He was struck by a flying board, which broke both legs at the hips, doubled him up like a jack knife and threw him twenty feet. He leaves a wife and three children.

NOTICE.

I beg to announce to those who have been my generous patrons during the years I have been doing business in Moncton, Amherst and Sydney, that, as I desire to devote more time to my publishing business than is possible with so many schools on my hands, I have sold my Colleges of Business and Shorthand in those places, as well as the right to use Mack's Rational Shorthand, to Mr. O. L. Horne, Proprietor of the Empire Business College at Truro, who will conduct them under the name of the Empire Business College and along the lines that have proven so successful in his work in Truro. Having known Mr. Horne for nearly ten years, and knowing that he is deserving of public confidence, I hereby speak for my successor a continuance of the many favors I myself have received.

(Sgd.) J. B. MACK.

Take Notice.

The old celebrated building mover, W. A. Chute, is again in the field prepared to move and raise all classes of buildings floating stranded vessels hoisting boilers or engines out of steamers. I will guarantee satisfaction and will meet all competition.

What Our Patrons Say.

At the Experimental Farm, Nappan, N. S., in W. S. Blair's (Horticulturist) report for 1905, we notice that of the different varieties of strawberries under test that Senator Dunlap leads the list, yielding at the rate of 11657 quarts per acre (over 300 bushels).

Plants are doing finely. FRED R. FAY, Bridgetown.

Plants arrived in good condition, and are doing well. ARTHUR WISWALL, Sr., Farmington.

Please find enclosed cheque for $2.50 to cover amount of bill for strawberries. I think every one will live. L. D. SHAFNER, Bridgetown.

Plants arrived, and are like the others, most satisfactory. Accept my thanks for your generous counting. Had I known of you before ordering from Vanderburg, Ont., I would have saved my money as well as a lot of useless work. I shall take great pleasure in speaking to my friends of your plants when I find any of them needing them. T. R. PATTILLO, Bridgewater.

The resolution of the Town Council to shut off the water where the parties are in arrears applies to all cases where the water is not paid for up to next November as the charge for water is payable in advance and any person not squared up to next November is "in arrears."

The Centreville section now has a mail of its own twice a week, but in order to get this concession from the postal department it has been obliged to change its name and hereafter will be known as "Centreville." The mail days are Wednesday and Saturday, mail leaving by carrier, Edward Messenger, after arrival of afternoon train.
An Orchardist's convention is to be held at Annapolis on Friday, June 7th, for the purpose of discussing the best means of exterminating the Brown-tail Moth. The convention will be addressed by Dr. Fletcher, dominion entomologist of Ottawa, Prof. Sears, Prof. Smith, Mr. G. H. Vroom and others. The D. A. R. will grant a single railway fare to all people attending the convention. Everyone interested in combatting this pest is invited to present.

The death of Mr. David Hatt, who has been residing during the past two years with O. S. Milne, occurred on Monday afternoon, after an illness from pneumonia, followed by general collapse. Mr. Hatt who was a former resident of Bloomington leaves a widow and one son, William E. Hatt, of Lawrencetown. The funeral will take place at one o'clock today at the home of Mr. Milne, after which the remains will be conveyed to Netaux for interment.
An S. P. C. A. case came up for trial before the Magistrate, Elias Messenger, on Monday, continuing Tuesday morning, at the instance of John Irvin, president of the Bridgetown branch of the Association, who was also the prosecuting attorney, when two Belleisle farmers, were summoned to answer the charge of cruelty to their horses. The horses had been harnessed together to a heavy load and when unable to haul the load had been lashed, kicked and prodded with a pitchfork according to the statement of the witnesses who also stated that such treatment of the animals had been habitual on the part of the owners. The Justice upon hearing the evidence promptly fined the defendants $5.00 each, with costs, amounting to $14.00, payable between them. Mr. Palmer accepted his fine, but Mr. Bruce will appeal to the County Court which meet at Annapolis in July.

LOCAL AND SPECIAL
It's not so cold but that New Yorkers are having it colder. On Sunday the 2nd, they had a snow storm accompanied by a stiff gale which did considerable damage. Our nights are quite frosty, but we have so far escaped a June snow storm.
Each summer for several years has seen a goodly number of new houses built in Bridgetown, and this year will be no exception. At present under construction are the houses of J. Harry Hicks and A. D. Brown, Granville street east, the Baptist Parsonage, Granville street west, and the house of Henry B. Hicks in the same locality, preparations for laying the foundation of which are now being made; also the cottage on Washington street being built by J. H. Hicks and Sons. Each of these houses named will be a notable addition to the architecture of the town.
The Bridgetown Foundry has started a branch of industry which promises to become an important feature of their business. They have built four new mills this season and are building the fifth for E. S. Piggott. Of the others one was built for Newcombe Bros., two others were shipped, one to Hants County and one to Lunenburg County, and Shafner and Amberson are using the fourth for their business in the South woods. The mill which is now running at North Lake with one of the Company's Patent Gang Edgers, is said by experienced mill men to be one of the best in the County.

A Pleasant Trip

(B. R. Telephone.)
The Boat River Civilian's Rifle Association having been challenged to compete with the Round Hill C. R. A. it was accepted and a team of eight sharp shooters and otherwise, boarded the crack gasoline yacht, June Bug, commanded by Captain A. H. Weir, at 7:30 on the beautiful morning of May 24th, accompanied by the envious wishes and doubtful compliments of the people who had collected to see us off. The trip down the river was a beautiful and uneventful one until we got to Pinkney's Point, and then there began to be something doing. One sharp shooter proposed to shoot a crow on the beach but that crow is still alive if the laughter that accompanied the shot did not kill it. The next man had better luck. He shot a duck at 200 yards. Then we stopped at Deep Brook to take in two more crackjacks, which made ten strong. Here another fellow said that he would shoot a gull off Fompeii Rock. He hit the rock, however. Thinking that it was time for me to show my skill with the national arm I proposed to shoot Goat Island. They said it was turkey but, it be- mark for me, that I had better try the North Mountain. That was too much. I ain't shown them yet how I can shoot. Egon there to Round Hill, the Pilot kept us guessing what would come next. He pushed that boat through weirs, slid her over rocks, ploughed her through sand-bars and mustered us because we ate so much that it bothered us to lay down to shoot and we did not shoot as well as when we get our dinner at home. Following is a summary of the scores:

We returned to our supper well satisfied with the afternoon's shoot and with the fair and square manner in which everything was carried through. Having challenged the Round Hill team to meet us on our own ground the first of July, we boarded the June Bug feeling that our day had been well spent.

Puzzle Corner

Dear Editor—I enclose a few original puzzles for your column.
E. M. FAIRN.

I. GEOGRAPHICAL.
A maiden's name. (Manufacturing town of France.)
The material of her dress. (Valley in Asia.)
The color of her eyes. (Mountains in Ontario.)
The leather of her purse. (Town in Africa.)
The kind of hat she wore. (Town of Italy.)
The kind of perfume she used. (Town of Germany.)
The breed of her dog. (A northern country.)
What he shielded her from. (Point of Australia.)
The wine she bought for her sick mother. (Island belonging to Portugal.)
What was sealed into the bottle. (Town of Ireland.)
E. M. FAIRN.

II. ANAGRAM POEMS.
Hark all!—"L-O-O!"—Roore.
They take half dole.—Scott.
Green vine. E.—Longfellow.
Cora B. held bid.—Byron.
Say, T., does that cat run right.—Burns.
E. M. FAIRN.

III. CHARADES.
1. My first is a covering for the head;
My second may be full or empty, as the second may be.
My whole is to enclose my first.
2. My first on royalty may gaze;
My second is the foremost of its race.
My third appears in many designs, some are to wear and others lie upon the toilet table.
Complete, I am a cave where martyrs rest.
3. My first is the center of light;
My second is an organic way;
My whole is cultivated in India and from its fibres are made small ropes and twines.
E. M. FAIRN's puzzles are a trifle more difficult than you have had late- ly, but will be interesting for all of you who are studying geography and who are interested in poems. Each sentence of the "anagram poems" contains the title of a poem with the name of its author. Let us hear from a lot of you older girls and boys this week.

Answers were received last week from Susie Troop, Bessie Young and Shannon Tanch.

A slandering tongue is more to be dreaded than the most loathsome reptile that crawls upon the face of the earth for he will give warning before he strikes you—but a slanderer, never. Let a man or woman start on the downward road to ruin and we are all prone to step aside and cry out, "slide on, slide on to destruction," instead of stretching out the hand of brotherly love and staying their progress, we stand by and let them slide. He who can stoop down and lift up his fallen brother from the mire and place him on his feet and whisper sweet counsel in his ear and bid him go and lead a better life is truly a benefactor to the race.

The Halifax "Morning Chronicle" moved into its handsome new quarters on the corner of Granville and Prince streets last week. In its issue of May 29th, a large space is devoted to the history and growth of the Chronicle. Nova Scotian and Echo, from the days of Joe Howe to the present time. This makes very interesting reading and is well worthy of being carefully preserved for future reference. Some of Canada's ablest and most brilliant men such as, Joe Howe, William and Thomas Garvie, Judge McCully, Jared Troop and Hon. W. S. Fielding, have occupied the editorial chair of this progressive journal, in quoting its own words, "Howe made the "Chronicle" great, holding maintained its greatness, and in doing so laid the foundations of the brilliant and successful public paper which is the pride of its community."

B. Jarvis is home after spending a few weeks at Weymouth.

B. Leonard, of Kingston, spent Saturday and Sunday here, the guest of his son, Avard Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Whitman spent Sunday at Bridgetown.

Mrs. J. W. Banks, who has been on the sick list for a few days, is able to be out again.

Mrs. G. Drew, of Falkland Ridge, recently visited friends in this place.

Aylsford

Miss Lillian Graves and Miss Edith Prince spent the 24th in Hantsport.

Mrs. Avard Woodworth has returned from Vancouver, where she and her daughter, Mrs. Marguerite Page, visited Lawyer C. M. Woodworth.

William J. Kelly, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has been the guest of L. K. Fair during the past week.

Charles Beal returned from Mass. on Saturday. He reports our pastor, L. F. Wallace, improving as rapidly as could be reasonably expected.

Mrs. G. Foster, of Bridgetown, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Clara Patterson.

The legendary stork has left a little daughter at the home of L. C. Woodworth, and also one at the home of Lambert Parker.

Mrs. Martha West has returned from Mass.

Mrs. E. C. Mills, with her little son Allan, has been visiting her father, W. W. Parker.

Miss Georgie Whitman, trained nurse, arrived home on Saturday from Boston.

Mrs. Minnie Kelley and Miss Emma West were here from Windsor on the 24th of May.

Rupert L. Patterson is visiting friends in Bridgetown and West Paradise.

Mrs. F. E. Harris attended the convention of the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England held at Halifax during the past week.

Warden A. E. MacMahon and F. H. Lowe attended the meeting of the Western Nova Scotia Lumbermen's Association held at Yarmouth last week.

Mrs. Caldwell J. West and Mrs. Margaret West are attending the anniversary at Wolfville.

West Dalhousie

Miss Mary Todd has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. John Merry, Albany.

Miss Rota Medcraff has been spending a few days the guest of her friend, Miss Amy Barbeau.

Robert Isles, of Bear River, has been spending a few days with friends here.

A very pleasant time was enjoyed by the young folks at the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Avard Gillis on the 24th. Quite a large number were present from Bridgetown and other places, and all enjoyed the occasion until the wee small hours, when the party dispersed.

J. C. Grimm, who has recently been the guest of George Hannam, narrowly escaped a bad injury after he had retired for the night through some person, either by accident or malice, throwing a stone through the window, breaking the pane and tearing the blind, the stone landing on the bed. Fortunately Mr. Grimm was not hurt but escaped with only a bad fright.

Miss Annie McIowan and sister, Grace, of Bridgetown, have been visiting friends here for a few days.

Clementsvale

The early part of last week looked like May days or other years. Picnic parties, pleasure lovers for rural regions could be seen on all sides, and for all such a genuine good time is the testimony.

Empire Day was duly observed by the schools. A programme was rendered consisting of patriotic readings, recitations, drills, music, uniting the annual public school examination of the advanced department under the management of Miss Martell. A large number of parents and others were present, and many expressions of appreciation were heard. Probably no words appended with greater interest than those of Mr. Huttley, followed by a treat of sweets for the schools.

Fishing was the order of the day, Victoria Day.

Miss Ida M. Newcombe, returned missionary from India, was the guest of Rev. C. H. and Mrs. Martell a few days recently.

Miss Newcombe addressed a meeting at Prinevale Friday evening, Saturday p. m. she talked to the children and women in the Baptist church here. Her Sunday appointments were here in the forenoon, at Centreville in the afternoon and at Centrevale in the evening. At all these meetings the large attentive audiences were delighted with this gifted and most earnest speaker. Such earnestness is eloquence. The great work of the mission to the Tongus was so clearly and forcibly brought before the people, no one could fail to be interested and feel the joy of responding to such appeals. Miss Newcombe's words will long be remembered in all these places, and she will receive a most cordial welcome when she again visits us.

Obadiah Floyd, while at work in Ramey and Beeler's mill Tuesday, received quite a serious injury by a knot of wood from the machine he was working striking him in the left eye. It is not yet known how serious the hurt is. Dr. Archibald is in attendance and it is hoped Mr. Floyd will not lose the sight of his eye.

The young men of Mr. Fynes' S. S. class and the young women of Mrs. Martell's S. S. class intend having an ice cream social Wednesday evening June 12th. If the day is warm the function will be on the church grounds. If cool, they go to Dalhousie Hall. The proceeds are for the Parsonage Fund. A good time is expected.

The year 1907 bids fair to be a year without a summer. At least it has been mighty cool so far. Heavy white frosts are frequent.

Henry Chute has shipped and gone to sea in an American schooner.

John Taylor and wife, of Arlington, were visiting their daughter, Mrs. William Foster, on Sunday last.

The Rev. S. Langille and bride were here on Sunday evening last. The reverend gentleman preached an excellent sermon.

Improvements are the order of the day here. Albert Mitchell has built a nice piazza on his house, Captain J. Mitchell has lately completed a large window in the roof of his house, and Mr. Curry is making improvements about his residence.

Albert Tolan has gone away seeking employment.

John Templeman has sold his home to Dr. Goodspeed.

Belleisle

William Eaton and sister, Jeanie, of Bridgetown, spent Sunday last with friends here.

William Blackadar, of San Francisco, Cal., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Herat J. Parker.

Miss Bessie Parker, matron of the Hospital at Amherst, is stopping a few days at her old home here.

Mrs. George Goodwin and little daughter, of Pottsville, Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Churchill L. Goodwin.

J. Robie Parker, who has been taking a course in civil engineering at Sackville, is at home.

Miss Grace Woodward, one of our popular teachers, teaching at Kingstons, was at home on a few days vacation last week. She was accompanied by Mrs. H. D. Woodbury, of Kingston.

Allred Koop, of Annapolis Royal, was the guest to a few days recently of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hunt.

William R. Bastin and two little sons made a short visit to his old home here last week.

Edgar Hunt, another of our popular young teachers, who is teaching at Centreville, Digby Co., spent his Victoria Day vacation at his old home here.

Joseph Withers and Miss Agnes Baust, of Granville Ferry, were guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick W. Hart.

Miss Ethel Hazelwood, of Berwick, is visiting her relatives here.

Tupperville

The Rev. Mr. Langille preached here as usual at 3 o'clock p. m. Philip Inglis was appointed Superintendent of the Sunday School and Miss Mary Bent, sr., was appointed secretary and treasurer.

Fred Bent has loaded a car load of wood and sold to C. L. Piggott, of Bridgetown.

Port Wade

Mrs. Mary Hamish, of Lequille, has been visiting the past week with Mrs. John Ait and other friends here.

A fire set by some careless person destroyed quite a lot of wood and timber on the face of the mountain last week.

A paper is being circulated to guarantee a cut of 300 M. feet of lumber, the amount required to have a steam saw mill come here next fall. The success of the undertaking is assured.

Mrs. Andrew Kenna went to Lynn last week for a visit among friends there.

Warren Haynes goes to Boston this week, where he expects to learn the plumbers trade.

The writer while at Netaux last week saw a lamb on the farm of Silas Hoffman that weighed 21 pounds before it was 24 hours old. Farmers of Annapolis need have no fear about the profit of sheep raising while such splendid specimens can be shown.

The little boys are catching some nice fish off our wharf here.

The fishermen report fish a little more plentiful but very little weather fit to catch them.

Grass and grain look fairly promising in this district, though somewhat late.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Dr. J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Obituary

FREEMAN M. MARSHALL.
Freeman M. Marshall, son of Milbidge C. Marshall, of Central Clarence, died of pneumonia on May 5th, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Allen S. Graham, 408 Walnut street, Lynn, Mass. He was 36 years of age, unmarried, and had lived in Lynn about eighteen years. The remains were brought home and interred at Paradise on the 11th, Pastor Saunders preaching a funeral service on Sunday. Upon the casket lay a beautiful floral pillow, the gift of the sisters and brother of Lynn. The news of his sudden death was received with many expressions of sympathy for the sorrowing friends. He leaves one sister and one brother in the United States, and a father and mother and one brother at home to mourn his early death.

MRS. JOHN STEVENS.
At Centreville, on the 20th of May, after a protracted and severe illness, Mary A. Beale, beloved wife of John Stevens, aged 72 years. The deceased was an amiable Christian lady, greatly respected throughout the entire community. She leaves a large circle of relatives who deeply feel the loss of one whose affection for them all and whose continued interest in their welfare were so clearly manifest in her daily life. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church, and a warm friend of all Christian enterprises.—COO.

EDWARD ARMSTRONG.

The death occurred at North Kingston, on Thursday, May 30th, of Edward Armstrong, a highly respected and well known farmer in this section of the Valley. Mr. Armstrong had enjoyed wonderfully robust health throughout his long life of 83 years, and only the past few weeks had complained. On Thursday last he was stricken with paralysis from which he died twenty-four hours later. For over half a century the deceased was actively connected with the Methodist Church, and also with the temperance organizations. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Armstrong, who resided with him at the old home, and four sons, E. H. Armstrong, M. P. P., of Yarmouth; Dr. M. F. Armstrong, of Bridgetown; Rev. R. O. Armstrong, of Manitoba, and A. O. Armstrong, of Cambridge, Mass. The death of another son, W. R. Armstrong, who lived on the homestead and died but a few months ago, was a great sorrow to the aged parent and doubtless hastened the death of the deceased. Mr. Armstrong's death leaves one of the largest and most valuable farms in the Valley vacant. The funeral services were held at the Methodist Church on Sunday and were very largely attended.

Timber Lands in Nova Scotia Sold.

Several Important Deals Have Been Put Through Lately.

Halifax, June 1.—Some big timber limit deals have recently transpired in this province.

The Berlin, New Hampshire Pulp and Paper Co., one of the largest concerns of its kind in the United States, and which operates extensively in Quebec province, has purchased a very large tract of timber land near Sable River on the line of the Halifax and South Western Railway. The timber thereon is small and only suited for pulp wood, for which it will be used. It will not be converted into pulp on the spot, but shipped direct to New Hampshire mills by schooners from the nearest shipping points. The price paid for the property has not been stated, but the figure is said to be a good one. The most important deal, however, is the sale of the Owen-Kaulbach pine timber limits, on Sable River, to H. W. Anderson, representing an Essex, N. H. concern. The property embraces twenty-seven thousand acres of splendid pine lands, and the construction of the Southwestern railway has rendered the timber a mercantile commodity. Mr. Anderson was in Halifax yesterday, and it is said, expressed himself as well pleased with the purchase using everything in sight. Small stuff and prospects. The company intend will be converted into box shooks, laths, etc. The price is reported to be twenty-two thousand dollars.

HAY FAMINE IN SYDNEY.

North Sydney, June 2.—There is a hay famine in North Sydney just now and the prospects are that there will not be any relief for some time. On Saturday there was not a bundle of hay to be had here or in Sydney, and one teamster whose supply had run low, was obliged to go to the country districts to get sufficient to tide him over a few days.

My Hair Ran Away

Don't have a falling out with your hair. It might leave you! Then what? That would mean thin, scraggly, uneven, rough hair. Keep your hair at home! Fasten it tightly to your scalp! You can easily do it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is something more than a simple hair dressing. It is a hair medicine, a hair tonic, a hair food.

The best kind of a testimonial— "Sold for over sixty years."

The Grand Imported
Percheron Stallion
"CRITON" 88450

RECENTLY PURCHASED BY THE PERCHERON STALLION SYNDICATE.

Will make the season's route as follows:—

GOING WEST.

Will stand at Bridgetown, "Grand Central," Monday evening May 20th.

Round Hill, Isaac Whitman's, Tuesday evening, May 21st.

Annapolis, Edward's Stable, Wednesday evening, May 22nd.

Lavencetown, Stadhart Stable, Saturday evening, May 25th.

GOING EAST.

Middleton, Shaffer Stable, Monday evening, May 27th.

Aylesford, Brunen Stable, Tuesday evening, May 28th.

Torbrook, John Barbeau's, Thursday evening, May 30th.

"Criton," 88450, will sire horses that the farmer wants and can drive to market or work on their farms, and will sell for the highest price of any draft breed, and keep on one half of the feed and always be fat and their feet and legs will always be right.

Farmers wishing to breed should inspect this grand young stallion before breeding, and the farmers of Annapolis County should be proud to think that they have men with the enterprise to buy a high priced horse and bring him for them to breed to. For as the saying goes "There is none too good." It is hoped that he will be well patronized.

Terms: $10.00 for the season. For particulars as to pedigree, etc., see large posters.
