The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Library of the Public
Archives of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

La bibliothèque des Archives
publiques du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH CONGREGATION.

A MEETING of the Congregation will be held in this Church To-morrow EVENING (Monday, 13th inst.), at HALF-PAST SEVEN o'clock, to take into consideration the present position of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, as regards its connection with the Churches in Scotland.

It is earnestly requested that every individual connected with the Church will make a point of attending.

The following RESOLUTIONS will then be submitted to the congregation for consideration:—

1. That this congregation has watched with deep interest the progress of the struggle, for several years past, agitated in the Church of Scotland, in which were involved principles essential to the spiritual independence of all Christian Churches, and to the maintenance of that religious liberty which is the birthright of every British subject.
2. That when the decisions of the Courts of Law, and the refusal of redress by Parliament had left no resource to those who maintained the freedom of the Church but secession, this Congregation rejoices that grace and strength were bestowed on so many Members of the Established Church of Scotland, to withdraw from her communion, and particularly that so many able and faithful Ministers gave up all their means of support for the sake of a good conscience.
3. That in the Free Church of Scotland this congregation recognizes the Church of their Fathers, and their cause as that of divine truth, and that it has a right to the warmest sympathy and support of all evangelicæ bodies in Christendom, and more particularly of all Presbyterian Churches.
4. That this congregation is fully satisfied that the Free Church has nobly maintained the great truth that Christ is the sole Head of his Church, and that the present Established Church of Scotland, in submitting to the decisions of Courts of Law and to Acts of Parliament in relation to spiritual matters, has departed from that fundamental doctrine, which is clearly revealed in the word of God and embodied in the standards of the Church.
5. That the Presbyterian Church of Canada has from her first formation considered herself in close connexion with the Church of Scotland, from a vast host of her Ministers and Members having been originally in her communion, and from both Churches holding the same standards. But doubts have arisen as to the legal effect of this connexion, especially since the General Assembly in 1831 refused to receive the Synod into direct union; that for the foregoing and other reasons this Congregation is of opinion that there is now come for putting an end to that connexion what its nature may be, and that the Synod should drop the word "in connexion with the Church of Scotland" and retain the title of the Presbyterian Church of Canada.
6. That by the declaration of her entire independence, the Canadian Presbyterian Church will renounce none of the doctrines and none of the spirit which animated the Church of Scotland in her best days; on the contrary such a course can alone be dictated by an anxious desire to adhere more closely to them, and to maintain the great Presbyterian principle of spiritual independence, which has been in practice renounced by the Established part of the Church of Scotland.
7. That this Congregation considers that whatever the value of the pecuniary assistance hitherto received from the Public funds by the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and of the increase expected from the Clergy Reserves, the change now recommended ought not to affect the claims of the Church to retain that assistance, and all other property belonging to her. But such matters should not be suffered to influence the Synod in determining a question of such vital importance as that which is soon to be submitted to them.
8. That if the Synod adopts the course now recommended, this congregation has no doubt that such regulations will be adopted as will prevent any Ministers or Probationers from being received into her communion as do not hold the principle of the independence of every branch of the Church of Christ in all spiritual matters.
9. That this congregation takes the present opportunity of repeating its protest against the Temporalities Bill, which they view as an indirect attempt to connect the Synod with the Established part of the Church of Scotland, against the well-known wishes of the great majority of the Presbyterian Body in Canada, whose earnest desire is to preserve its entire independence.

TORONTO. 11th May, 1844.
