CROWN ATTORNEY CURRY ACTS UNDER THE VERDICT

Has Drawn Up Informations Charging Those Alleged to be Responsible for the Death of Mrs. Rogers With Manslaughter.

That Battle Alice Rogers met her death on Saturday, Dec. 16, at the corner of Church and Wellesley-streets, while driving across Church-street, by being run down and killed by car No. 628 of the Toronto Railway Company.

The Crown Attorney says he believes Mr. Keating is responsible, because the car was not provided with more effective fenders. The City Engineer is alleged to be liable because he did not regulate the speed of the cars.

Mr. Ooms is also held responsible for the death of Mrs. Rogers, because he forced the motorman to run at a high rate of speed. The above-named parties will not be called into court before the beginning of next week.

HER HEART STOPPED.

Mrs. Margaret McInerney of Toronto Junction Died Suddenly Last Night.

Mrs. Margaret McInerney dropped dead at her residence, 63 Amhurst-street, Toronto Junction, last night.

Question: "How is it your wines are from two to three dollars per doz. better value than I buy elsewhere?" Answer: "They are bought in the primary market at least two thousand dollars less than many. Who pays expenses? Harry B. Hodgins, cor. Queen and John Sts."

TARTE IS SWINGING ROUND

La Patrie Has an Article Acknowledging That This Country is British.

Montreal, Dec. 27.—(Special.)—The French press is pulling itself together in first-rate style, and it is evident that the pro-Boer editors who appeared to have supreme courage a week or two since have been given a back seat, and a true British-Canadian sentiment now prevails.

The Crown Attorney says he believes Mr. Keating is responsible, because the car was not provided with more effective fenders.

Mr. Ooms is also held responsible for the death of Mrs. Rogers, because he forced the motorman to run at a high rate of speed.

PARLIAMENT WILL RUN OUT ITS TERM

No Dominion Elections Will Take Place in the Year 1900.

SO LAURIER'S ORGAN SAYS.

The Present Parliamentary Term Does Not Expire Until 19 Months Hence.

NO PUBLIC OR PARTY REASON

Why an Appeal Should Be Made to the People Now, Writes Mr. Picaud.

Montreal, Dec. 27.—(Special.)—All electoral agitation should cease and not be resumed before the spring of 1900.

This is the way Sir Wilfrid Laurier tells the faithful readers of his Quebec organ that no appeal to the people will be made at present.

"We have every reason to believe," the article continues, "that the Federal Government has no intention of bringing on the general election just now."

"Spartan Mothers." Latest Poem on the War by Alfred Austin, the Poet Laureate of England.

New York, Dec. 27.—In this week's edition of The Independent, Boston to-morrow, will appear a late poem of four stanzas, by Alfred Austin, the poet laureate of England, about the war in the Transvaal, entitled "Spartan Mothers."

The sister's sigh, the maiden's tear, The wife's, the widow's stifled wail, These never the hand, these brace the spear, And speed them over void and vale.

KID M'COY OR PETER MAHER?

Betting on the New Year's Day Heavyweight Battle is Now at Even Money.

New York, Dec. 27.—There had been little betting to date has been at even money yesterday, but folks have begun to "sweep up" and several large wagers were laid last night. One bet of $2000 was made at even money.

As present there is more McCoey than Maher money in sight, and while nearly all the betting to date has been at even money it would not be surprising if McCoey developed into the choice by a small margin. McCoey is the general favorite at a few days ago that Peter would be a favorite at about 10 to 7, but reports of the Kid's fine condition have brought about the change. Anybody who is picking Maher on the strength of McCoey's poor health or condition is liable to make a mistake. Peter can win, but if he does, it will be because he is the better man.

Up to yesterday McCoey was in as good a condition as he ever was in his life. He will go into the ring, according to his own personal statement, pounds heavier than in any of his previous contests. Lack of weight has always been McCoey's only handicap when pitted against the best large fellows, and the additional advantage of Billy Minto has not only increased his self-confidence but has also enhanced his chances of winning.

Flanagan the Coming Champion.

Jack McConick, the Philadelphia heavyweight boxer, who has been meeting with only fair success in his recent battles, was only at his home in Philadelphia for Christmas, bringing with him the first black eye he ever received in a boxing contest. McConick says that Jack Flanagan of Pittsburg, who was given the decision over him after 18 rounds of fighting at Utica, N.Y., last Saturday night, is the best man he ever fought and that Jack says he is the champion in a year or two.

Flanagan is a 160-pound 6-footer, said McConick, 24 years old and a natural fighter. He has had little experience, but has never yet been whipped, although he has met some pretty good ones. I was unfortunate in my fight with Flanagan, and yet at that time I was ahead on a number of points scored, and I felt hopeful of winning out. I was nearly blind, having had my left eye cut by a collision of heads early in the fight, while Flanagan had started the blood from my right by a single punch just under the eye. I was so blinded by blood that I no longer could judge distance well, though otherwise I felt as strong as ever.

Gossip of the Turf.

J. Meagher has disposed of the well-known mare, Barble, to Henry Falls, the boot-maker, who is running him at New Orleans. Carriers & Shields' Alenna, by Teary Alice, was the 2nd favorite race at seven furlongs at Oakland yesterday from a fair field.

Philip J. Dwyer has purchased from Jas. B. Clay of Lexington, Ky., the chestnut colt, named by Spokan—Flanchette. The colt is a weanling, but is one of the handsomest, best formed, evenly balanced colts in Kentucky.

Mrs. Lily Langtry, known in racing circles as "The Queen of the Turf," is a writer in The Chicago Chronicle, one will find her name in the racing news of the band, Hugo Gerad de Bathe, who does not think it is a woman's province to own race-horses.

The Messrs. F. and T. Hitchcock have a good stable of jumpers next season. The string will include Tauris, b.g.s. 5, by Sir Mordred—Sister to Jim Douglas; Rheingard, b.g. 8, by Spokan—Flanchette; Tauris, b.g. 4, by Tauris—Orlando; Gloria, b.g. 5, by Spokan—Flanchette; and Diablot, b.g. 4, by The Bard—Lulu. The horses are wintering at Alton, S.C.

HILDA BLAKE WAS HANGED

Walked to the Scaffold Coolly and Was Quickly Launched Into Eternity.

HANGMAN RADCLIFFE OFFICIATED.

Only a Few Officials Were Present—Her Last Night Spent in Prayer and Song.

Brandon, Dec. 27.—(Special.)—Emily Hilda Blake, the murderer of Mrs. Robert Lane, paid the penalty of the crime on the scaffold here this morning. Her execution during the ordeal was no less wonderful than her remarkable fortitude since the death sentence was passed upon her. She spent the portion of the night in prayer, trying to beat death off after midnight. She seemed quite composed and soon after the strain of the last few days had been having told upon her physically. She rose about 6 o'clock and at 7 had breakfast, eating quite heartily.

Conversion and Prayer.

Rev. C. C. McLaughlin, her spiritual adviser, was with her early, and they spent the time until the execution in conversation and prayer.

Flashing Touches to Scaffold.

In the meantime flashing touches were being put to the scaffold trap-door and the hood only arrived at 10 o'clock. The last evening and were put in place during the night.

Radcliffe on Hand.

Radcliffe arrived on 8 o'clock and his first order was to send a policeman to drive all the spectators of whom there were quite a number, from the jail fence. He then examined the trap-door and the scaffold and pronounced them all right. There were about 25 people present.

WARD ONE FOR MACDONALD

Enthusiastic Reception Given to the People's Candidate at Dingham's Hall Last Night.

AN OPPONENT OF CORPORATIONS.

The "Favorite" and Other Speakers Discuss Live Municipal Questions Amid Cheers.

It was clearly demonstrated by the enthusiastic reception which greeted E. A. Macdonald in Dingham's Hall last night that he is the popular majority candidate in Ward 1.

Schemes Hatched. Mr. East stated that many schemes had been hatched during Mayor Clarke's term of office, and that the latest was the city of office, and that the latest was the city of office.

When Mr. Macdonald appeared he was given a rousing reception. He came first to Ward 1, as it was his home, and to get inspiration for his second meeting.

E. A. MACDONALD MAKES A VERY SERIOUS CHARGE.

Produces an Affidavit from a Juror in the Rogers Case in Which It is Claimed That the Verdict Was "Doctored"—Big Meeting in St. Andrew's Hall.

The big policeman who stood at the door of St. Andrew's Hall last night had little to do, for the large crowd took care of anyone who showed a disposition to loiter.

The candidate created a sensation by announcing that he had an affidavit from a juror in the Rogers case in which it is claimed that the verdict was "doctored."

The Petroleum Idea!

No Guesswork!

We're not guessing at what Petroleum will do—we don't ask you to. For 20 years it has been with us a constant study, growing in interest right along and presenting new possibilities at every turn.

Isn't a mere happen so. The trend of medical opinion is more and more in its favor, and hundreds of letters from well-known physicians endorse it as the ideal remedy for throat and lung troubles.

Consumption. I appreciate your thoughtful-ness, but state that your Emulsion needs no introduction with me, having used it for some months.

Incipient Consumption. From a two years' use of your Emulsion, I have been able to get on my feet, and I feel that I have been able to get on my feet.

Pulmonary Disease. I wish to state that I have re-ceived the same good results with your Petroleum Emulsion as men- tioned by Dr. of Santa Barbara.

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion is a most efficient substitute for cod liver oil, pleasant to the taste and agreeing with the most sensitive stomach.

CLAIM AN ENGLISH ESTATE.

Alleged Heirs to an Earldom Have Turned up in the United States.

New York, Dec. 27.—The estate of the late Earl of Pembroke, in England, is held by a large number of alleged heirs in Delaware, Pennsylvania and Maryland, who are in the process of being traced. The estate amounts up into the millions and back of the claims and heirs is the romantic story, which runs thus: A sea captain named Strirling early in the present century married the daughter of the Earl. He died, and she and several children were born, father and mother died. Before the earl was located his daughter, but failed. Now Mrs. Anna Strirling of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Louise Lightward of Baltimore, the granddaughters of Strirling, have taken up the matter, and will endeavor to get the estate.

BISMARCK'S MEMOIRS.

The Dead Statesman's Sons Have Stopped Their Publication.

New York, Dec. 27.—The sons of the late Otto von Bismarck have stopped the publication of the third volume of "Bismarck's Thoughts and Memoirs," because it contains Bismarck's own statement of his disavowal of the Kaiser's role. This is in conflict with the Kaiser's version of the incident, and the publisher, who paid a large sum for the copyright, has started suit against the estate.

Victor Lodging House.

The Victor Lodging House, which has been in existence nine years, has just closed up its business. The building which it occupied at the corner of Jarvis and Queen-sts. is now required on account of the increase of the work entered into by the Victor Mission, and new work about to be commenced by Mr. Trotter. The lodging house was one of the best-equipped on the continent, and was started when low dives abounded in the city. Many that went into it are now respectable citizens. The executor to which it was sold by the number of beds occupied during the time it was open, which amounted to 200,000, while thousands obtained employment through its labor bureau. Every one of the beds was paid for by the number of dollars was asked or received from the public, and yet every cent of liability has been paid. The board which has had charge of the following equipment: President, Rev. H. C. Dixon; Vice-President, B. E. Bull; Secretary, George H. Parker; Treasurer, J. M. Teeble; Directors, W. E. H. Mather, W. H. Pearson, Dr. J. B. Williams, C. H. Orr. There are still a few tickets outstanding, but if they are presented at the Toronto Lodging House they will be honored, or if they are sent to the president or treasurer money will be returned in exchange.

Gray-Louises.

In St. Thomas' Church yesterday morning Miss Ada Hamilton, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Louises, was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick Howard Gray. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. F. G. Plummer. The bride wore a traveling gown and was supported by her sister, Miss Florence Louises. Mr. William Cowart stood up with the groom. After the wedding the newly-married couple were tendered a reception at the house of the bride's parents, 16 Madison-avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Gray will take up residence in Chicago.

Travel Continues Heavy.

Heavy travel, together with the snow, delayed several of the trains yesterday. The Grand Trunk express from the east was about an hour late, while the North Bay train was an hour and a half behind time. On the northern division the snow to several feet deep. Another rush in traffic is expected tomorrow when the New Year excursions commence.

A Christmas Presentation.

Mr. William Phillips, head waiter at the Rossin House, has been made the recipient of a valuable mahogany parlor chair from the dining room staff, with whom he is popular. Mr. Harrison made the presentation on behalf of the staff and Mr. Phillips made a feeling reply.

LITTLE TOTS GAZED CURIOUSLY

At the Queen's Christmas Gifts.

New York, Dec. 27.—London cables describe at length the joyous time had at Windsor Castle when Queen Victoria gave the Christmas tree entertainment to the wives and children of the Guardsmen now in South Africa. While waiting for the Queen to appear, the children romped and played round games and rolled on the rich, soft carpets of their holiday content.

They Roped and Played at Windsor Castle.

The Queen received her guests in St. George's Hall, sitting in a wheeled chair. She was dressed in black, with a black lace shawl over her shoulders and a black beaded widow's cap. She wore a gold framed miniature on her breast.

THE QUEEN'S CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

She smiled when a hush fell on the throng as they reached her presence, and the little children gazed curiously at her, but she became radiantly smiling as each child stepped forward her children. An appropriate gift was taken from the tree by the attendants and passed to the Queen. She handed it in a charming, motherly way to the little recipients.

After the Tots Were Given a Chance to Make the Room Ring With the Noise of their Trumpets and Guns, all the guests sat down to a high tea, being waited on by Princess Christian, Princess Beatrice, the Duke of Connaught and Lord Lorne.

The Queen was most graciously entertained by the attendants and passed to the Queen. She handed it in a charming, motherly way to the little recipients.
